GRAYS On The Move

For two guys who swore they'd never be in a band again, Jason Falkner and Jon Brion sure looked like they were having a great time being in the Grays at CBGB's earlier this month. "This place is great," said Falkner, taking in the club's "ambience" as he entered the dank space. The raw setting was a welcome change for Falkner, whose last band Jellyfish never set one platformed shoe in the infamous NYC hole-in-the-wall when he was the band's guitarist for the first album and tour. Falkner was glad to leave Jellyfish for numerous reasons, but mostly because he didn't care much for the band's Brady Bunch vibe, the costumes and the fact that the band didn't do any of his songs. Asked if he felt a little like George Harrison he replied, "Yeah...but I didn't even get my one or two songs per album."

Brion, who had been doing well as an ace studio musician (and ironically played guitar on Jellyfish's second LP) and as a producer (Aimee Mann) seemed to have little impetus for spending time in a band, recording an album and then lugging amps to clubs around the country. Falkner summed up their sentiments: "We were dead set on never being in a band again, but this sort of crept up on us." The two songwriters met when Brion was sitting in a cafe and heard a mix tape Falkner made for his girlfriend who worked there. "[The tape mixed] some Kinks Village Green Preservation Society, Odyssey And Oracle by the Zombies, [Elvis Costello's] Imperial Bedroom, stuff like that, but it didn't have the obvious tracks from those records," said Falkner. "So, Jon runs up to the front and says 'Who made this tape?' and then he came back and made her a tape for me with Emmit Rhodes and some other stuff, and when I listened to that, I said 'I have to meet this guy.'"

The two started jamming together, along with the band's third songwriter Buddy Judge and drummer Dan McCarroll. The result is Ro Sham Bo (Epic), a record full of glorious, melodic tracks that owe as much to gritty new wave as to post-Beatles sugar pop. More than one critical review has used the word "Beatle-esque" to describe the Grays' sound, but Falkner explained that that's typical. "Every band I've been in has been cited a Beatle-esque band," he said, half-joking. "Maybe because we had more than four chord changes in our songs...the national attitude about pop music is like, 'Oh God!' I think most people are afraid of it now."

Despite all three writers' penchant for "Beatle-esque" pop, Falkner noted the Grays' don't have the desire to be nearly as elaborate as his last band. "Jellyfish was a little over the top for me," he says. "Some sort of restraint is very good to have...I could make a progressive [sounding] record, but for me, the song is key." His statement holds up, as there's no song on Ro Sham Bo that couldn't be banged out efficiently by the four members on stage. Playing CBGB's was the band's choice, and the group easily drove home the point that just because it's "pop" doesn't mean there's no edge to it. Like their closest contemporary relative the Posies, the Grays play expertly constructed pop songs with the zeal of a derelict punk band. Falkner, who has been trying to explain the clashing ethics making up the Grays' sound, reveals, "I have this theory I've been working on for a while. It's a cross between sophistication and shit." While not long on eloquence, the statement brings the band's nervy attitude to the fore. —Steve Ciabattone

ON THE COVER JACKPOT!

Essential New Music

3DS The Venus Trail (Flying Nun, c/o Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—New Zealand's 3Ds have never fit neatly into any of the pigeon holes dug out to describe their tiny country's numerous influential artists. Since its emergence in 1991, the band has fashioned an impressive amalgam of nervy experimentalism and joyful melodicism, held together by the crunchy guitar grind of Davids Mitchell and Saunders—like Pavement's six-string innovations, the 3Ds' unstoppable flow of guitar-derived licks, bits and sounds is both immediate and consistently imaginative. On their second proper album

(their first CD compiled their first two EPs), the 3Ds' familiar, over-the-top lurch jumps out, claws and shiny teeth exposed—on the first track, "Hey Seuss," Mitchell's scratchy vocals compress beneath an exuberant melody and a bubbling, garagey rhythm. While this strain continues throughout The Venus Trail ("Philadelphia Rising," "Summer Stone"), the band places increasing emphasis on its equally powerful quieter songs. The sprightly, sensitive "The Golden Grove" and "Beautiful Things," with lead vocals from bassist Denise Roughan, have the same knock-the-wind-out-fast sonic force of the 3Ds' upbeat tunes, while the album's Celtic-sounding closer "Spooky" is just that: a haunting duet between Roughan and Mitchell in an acoustic setting. —Lydia Anderson

DRIVE LIKE JEHU Yank Crime (Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—It's been two and a half years since the first Drive Like Jehu album, time enough for the San Diego busybodies to pen a major-label deal, and for member John Reis to finish recording and touring with his other band, Rocket From The Crypt. The wait is finally over, and the result, Yank Crime, is even better for the time it simmered. With the release of this second album, after DJ's hometown of

San Diego has been pegged the "new scene," these new-found "scensters" are gathering velocity, plowing ahead full-speed with blinders on, holding close their punk rock ethics ('we want to play small venues and all ages shows'). The band's ethics aren't the only aspect that remain true to punk rock ideologies; its music jabs at the listener's ears with repetitive rhythms and angst-ridden wails.

Yank Crime takes a slight turn from the eponymous first album, losing a bit of melody, but gaining a lot of efficacious force, along with a more calculated and directed attitude. On "Luu," the strength the band has garnered from time and its own moral fortitude is in full flower, the band building upon a single, reiterated rhythm and transforming the song into artful punk. —Dawn Sutter

PAUL WELLER Wild Wood (GoldDiscs/London, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Since disbanding The Jam in 1982, and folding the jazzy Style Council in '88, Paul Weller has been a bit of a soul man, turning up on significant new R&B recordings like the Young Disciples' Road To Freedom and Giant Steps Vol. 1. Wild Wood, Weller's second LP as a solo artist, presents a more varied song selection and a less overt interpretation of American soul (Gaye, Wonder and Cooke) than 1992's Paul Weller. Don't be misled, Wild Wood is not so much a "soul" or a "white soul" record as it is an infinitely "soulful" record, radiating good vibes via acoustic folk ("Foot Of The Mountain") and "Country", and pure rock ("Shadow Of The Sun") and hard-edged soul cuts ("5th Season"). As a lyricist, Weller has unclenched his fist a bit, opting for oddly spiritual and pastoral text which finds welcome companions in Wild Wood's warm and lively grooves and the peaceful country estate where the album was recorded. Some may still favor The Jam's mod pop, but those willing to hear how Weller has improved as a singer and band-leader will be rewarded with one of the best records of his career. We're just Wild about: "Sunflower," "Moon On Your Pajamas," "All The Pictures On The Wall," the title cut and those noted above. —Steve Ciabattoni

FRENTE! Marvin The Album (Mammoth, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Frente! has been making tidal-sized waves in its Australian homeland over the past year, both with the release of its six-song debut EP Labour Of Love and more recently with its entertaining, diverse full-length Marvin The Album, which finally materializes stateside this month. Whether the band is drawing infectiously poppy, Edie Brickell-type portraits with songs like "Accidentally Kelly Street" or wandering along southern American musical coasts on "Lonely," it's obvious that Frente! takes pride in the purity of rich, acoustic sounds and friendly arrangements. While the organic, crystalline quality of the band's sound may be the focus of its idealism, this does not restrict the band from taking creative liberties with a couple of more experimental, programmed tracks, such as the airy "Most Beautiful," with its lyrically jagged phrasings. "See/Believe" strays even farther from pop boundaries, kicking off with a fluid, jazz-drenched intro, then effortlessly dissolving into a quick-paced melodic drive. Lead singer Angie Hart's sweetly oxygenated vocals convey innocence, even when they take on a deeply political hue on tracks like "Cuscatlan" ("And fatherland raped/Motherhood/And told her it was for the/Global good"). Marvin The Album is an adventure with a surprise at every turn, and proves that there's still much unexplored territory in pop music. Other friendly tracks: "Labour Of Love," "Dangerous" and "Pretty Friend." —Aaron Clow

IRIS DeMENT My Life (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Iris DeMent became an instant national treasure with the release of her striking debut, Infamous Angel, originally released by Philo in 1992 and reissued by Warner Bros. last year. Tours with Nanci Griffith, John Prine and Mary-Chapin Carpenter put a national spotlight on DeMent, while her concise, straight-to-the-heart lyrics, delicate songmanship, respect for American roots music and soaring soprano captured hearts and minds. My Life, DeMent's second album, assumes a forthright, reflective tone, her eight originals covering heart-breaks, family troubles and memories, and purpose-of-life issues with sincerity and grace. Dedicated to her father, the collection, including a warm tribute in her tender interpretation of Lefly Frizell's "Mom & Dad's Waltz," glows with the warmth of honest expression, her acumen as a singer/songwriter infused with a respect for country and gospel traditions. The album's lovely musical adornments—piano, fiddle, dobro, upright bass—never overwhelm her voice or soul, both of which shine like bright beacons in a confusing world. Some of the brightest: "Sweet Is The Melody," "No Time To Cry," "Easy's Gettin' Harder Every Day" and the title cut. —Lydia Anderson

NEVILLE BROTHERS Live On Planet Earth (A&M, 1416 N. La Brea Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—As great as the shows might have been, the Neville Brothers' three live albums to date haven't always captured the fire and passion that the four Brothers and their band bring to the stage hundreds of nights a year. Well, worry no more. While earlier "live" albums might have ended up sounding more canned than their studio counterparts (blame the lame recording technology of the mid-'80s for that rather than the band itself), this is finally the Nevilles' live recording that captures the lighting in a jar. Add together the flavors of the various brothers themselves—Art's soulful organ fills, Aaron's soaring gentle falsetto, Charles' jazz conceptions and Cyril's inspired songwriting and conga-power—with a full band, and you've got a hell of an awesome live show. In a way, this album could be viewed as the third part in a triptych that included their landmark albums Yellow Moon and Brother's Keeper; the mood is earthy, rootsy, incredibly funky and soulful-sounding, like no other group on earth. Viewed as part of that triptych, as more than just another live LP, Live On Planet Earth is an inspiring set, full of new material never before featured on record, including their inspiring raveup of Stephen Stills' "Love The One You're With" (a tune Art and Cyril have been playing since their days in the legendary Meters). Also check out perennial crowd-pleasing Neville favorites like "Yellow Moon" and Cyril's showcase "Sister Rosa." —James Lien

NUSRAT FATEH ALI KHAN & PARTY The Last Prophet (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St, New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—Qawwali giant Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan has recorded interesting "crossover" collaborations with Peter Gabriel and the dance group Massive Attack, but you don't have to be a Sufi mystic to dig his more traditional music. His live performances are unforgettable, with frenzied audience dancing that rivals the spectacle of hardcore punk mosh-pits. After releasing dozens of albums in Pakistan, and now five on RealWorld, the vocal fervor and hyp-notic rhythm of Qawwali is beginning to reach a substantial non-Islamic audience. On The Last Prophet, Nusrat's passionate voice soars over rhythmic layers of tabla, vibrant harmonium and hand clapping. The "party's" singing answers the master's exultations, recalling gospel call-and-response between a singing preacher and the congregation. The lyrical content of Qawwali music is generally religious, but in recent years secular themes have occasionally crept in. After songs about prophets, Sufi-saints and attaining inner truth, Nusrat finishes the album with "Sochan Dongian," which tells the sad tale of a girl who's got the blues because she's been ditched by her boyfriend. Whether the lyrics are spiritual or not, Nusrat's music is capable of moving listeners into rapturous trances. —David Newgarden & Party

MESSIAH 21st Century Jesus (WHITE LBLs, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Messiah's form of techno is poppy, well-crafted and hypnotic. Unlike his more ambient counterparts, Messiah's songs always have a beat and a pretty substantial hook, blending the enthusiasm of hiNRG, such as in ▶

"I Feel Love" (which samples Donna Summer's classic) and "Peace And Tranquility" (whose vocal owes a lot to classic disco as well), with the frenetic energy of classic techno, as in "Creator" and the first single "Thunderdome." "Temple Of Dreams," with its Cocteau Twins sample, is included here, but it is only one of several hooky songs; "You're Going Insane" and "Beyond Good And Evil" are equally mesmerizing. In its depth and song continuity, 21st Century Jesus is the '90s answer to the party record, making listeners groove and think, and still remember the songs after they're gone. While techno has been co-opted by those who sense a quick trend, it's artists such as Messiah and Aphex Twin who remain kings of the genre, expanding and developing the initial ideas so that it will continue to grow.

PALADINS Ticket Home (Sector II, c/o Futurist, 6 Greene St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—When the Paladins' Dave Gonzales sings about "15 days under the hood," he's not talking about hanging out under Snoop Dogg's block. He's talking about cars, old ones, and the passion and dedication it takes to make them run fast. The same passion and dedication applies to Gonzales' music. The Paladins, SoCal roots rock stalwarts from the early '80s, once tuned their sound for authenticity (their eponymous first LP was recorded in a vintage 1956 three-track studio), but the band's been slowly turning its interests away from restoration and toward performance—that is, power. Ticket Home rocks remarkably hard. Gonzales' voice is as warm as it is coarse, and every song (save for the gritty acoustic ballad "Comfort You") is barbed with his stinging guitar leads. The rhythm section of Tom Yearlsy and Dwight Yoakam session drummer Jeff Donovan, whose drum-solo on "Re'Jive'inated" is downright religious, is as tight as a New York parking space. In these days of computerized cars and computer-generated music, there's still nothing that sounds better than the low-end rumble of a four-barrel V-8, or the bluesy roadhouse rock of the Paladins. Big tickets: "15 Days," "Ruby Lee" and the jazzy "Re'Jive'inated."

—Scott Frampton

VARIOUS ARTISTS Rare On Air: Live Performances Vol. One (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—In the past three years, an impressive and diverse array of musical talent has made its way to the basement studios of public radio station KCRW in Santa Monica, CA, to perform on its nationally acclaimed program, Morning Becomes Eclectic. The intimacy of this setting, coupled with the spontaneity of a live broadcast, has resulted in an intriguing collection of performances, selectively gathered here for the first time by KCRW and Mammoth Records. While the presence of such current hitmakers as Tori Amos, Evan Dando with Juliana Hatfield, and Beck (who steers his way through a memorable pre-signing performance of "Mexico") provides Rare On Air with the necessary list of notables for the CD's cover sticker, it's an impressive assembly of singer/songwriters that makes up the real backbone of this collection. Aside from the typical inclusion of artists like John Cale, Peter Dinklage and Michael Penn, standouts include Nick Cave and The Bad Seeds' staggering, yet inspired, charge through "God's Hotel," Brendan Perry's (of Dead Can Dance) shaping of "The Captive Heart" and Lindsey Buckingham's admirable rendering of Fleetwood Mac's "Never Going Back Again."

Box 419092, San Francisco, CA 94141/415-431-5697—After springing from the seedy Lower East side of Manhattan back in 1987 and winning the hearts of thousands of frustrated and repressed folks, Alice Donut hasn't forgotten its roots. The band couldn't have picked a better place to record its live LP, in front of a heaving, sweaty mass of screaming and adoring hometown fans. Alice rips through tune after tune with unflagging passion and intensity. Dry Humping The Cash Cow surges with post-punk pop-core grooves and grinds, riding relentlessly amidst the sneering warblings of vocalist Tomas Antona. Alice Donut casts a net of twisted, rebellious energy that sucks in droves of spry fans searching for an outlet to release their pent-up aggressions and escape the myriad of hindrances that society hurls at them. Because this is a live recording, you not only get to experience the raw musical magic of Alice Donut, but you also get to enjoy the sick little anecdotes that Tomas tells the audience in between tunes. One of the highlights is the freaky trombone instrumental version of "Helter Skelter." Also check out "The Son Of A Disgruntled X-Postal Worker Reflects On His Life While Getting Stoned In The Parking Lot Of A Winn Dixie Listening To Metallica," and the brand new, radical ramblings of "Hose."

AFRO-PLANE Afro-Plane (RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—At a time when gangster rap posing and all of its gloom, sex and dissonance appears trapped on a dead-end street, the brain trust in hip-hop responsible for providing some form of moral righteousness—whether it be political, spiritual or reactionary—is becoming frighteningly small. The hypnotic funk and soul stylings of Afro-Plane are created by four guys (Moon, Nous, Blues and Soggi) who poetically and persuasively take an activist's approach to examining afrocentricity and social non-fiction, similar to Sly & The Family Stone (circa There's A Riot Goin' On) and the Last Poets ("Caesarian Born Solution"), complete with staggering '60s funk intuition. With occasional pop affection on "Shine" and the militant high-stepping on "Tin Soldiers," Afro-Plane fulfills its wish to combine aesthetically appealing musical faces with cunning lyrical energy. From the satirical replay of a television beer commercial (which states: "Ghetto Blast Malt liquor, the shit that's killing niggers by the ounce/Get yours today wherever fucked-up malt liquors are sold") to the brazen, spoken word "Trouble (Thought It Was Love)," in which Malcolm X is called a "legendary MTV Buzz Clip," Afro-Plane represents the thoughtful musical activism that's becoming unfortunately less urgent in rap. The revolution is televised on: "Daisy's Mission," "Flower Child" and "Afro-Desiac."

—Glen Sansone

PETER CASE Sings Like Hell (Vanguard, 1299 Ocean Ave., Ste. 800, Santa Monica, CA 90401/310-451-5727)—What does one make of the recent glut of stripped-down, acoustic-based, folky/bluesy/rootsy records? Are they noble attempts to touch base with the basic honest values that should inform an artist's work, or cynical acts of desperation by aging musicians facing a drought of new ideas? Whatever your gut reaction to this question, there's no denying the impressive performances on Peter Case's latest, Sings Like Hell. Case's fourth solo record (and first for Vanguard) is a collection of well-chosen covers from the likes of Arthur "Big Boy" Crudup, Blind Lemon Jefferson and Jesse Winchester, six traditionals and one Case original fleshing out the record. Usually accompanied only by his acoustic guitar, Case gives these 13 songs an intimate live-to-two-track treatment that recalls the warmth and immediacy of the acetates Hank Williams recorded in the comfort of his living room four decades ago. From the swagger of "Well Runs Dry" and Roy Orbison's "Down The Line" (a.k.a. "Go! Go! Go!") to the tender "Waltz Of The Angels" and "Rovin' Gambler," Case moves comfortably around each song like he's known it his entire life, while still keeping each performance fresh, as though these tunes continue to offer surprises after all these years.

remake of "Down About It" appears here. Manilow, Smudge's first proper album (a singles collection appeared last year), reveals Morgan to be an unstoppable fount of hummable pop petits fours, and the band to be in rather a hurry: it sprints through most of these 21 songs in two and a half minutes or less (two of them are under 10 seconds long). For all its instrumental force and velocity, though, Smudge maintains a strummy, personable casualness, underscored by the lyrics' sentiment and charm ("You can crash out on my divan," goes one hook). Morgan's also maintained his love for other great pop songs, whatever their source: "Scary Cassettes" is a quick, goofy paean to Lou Barlow, and the two unlabeled bonus tracks are straight-faced power-pop covers of the theme song to Charles In Charge and the "Kelly Kelly Kelly Kelly" song from Cheers. Can't smile without: "Pulp," "Ingrown," "Divan," "Superhero" and the amphetamine rush of the recent single "Impractical Joke."

VARIOUS ARTISTS From A To Z (Starkland, P.O. Box 2190, Boulder, CO 80306/303-449-6510)—"Musique concrete," pioneered in the early 1950s by Pierre Schaefer and Pierre Henry, is the organizing of musical and "non-musical" sounds into new contexts. Its primitive electronic effects and tedious tape-splicing techniques were a precursor to a variety of contemporary artists: industrial groups such as Nurse With Wound, media-manipulators Negativland, and even hip-hop scratchers like Terminator X. Modern composers descended from musique concrete are generally classified in the "electro-acoustic" genre, which has seen lots of fresh activity since the advent of digital sampling. From A To Z, an introduction to the new Starkland label, presents seven diverse electro-acoustic composers with pieces ranging from atmospheric and otherworldly (Paul Dresher's "Underground") to raucous and turbulent (Tod Dockstader's "Apocalypse") to goofy and nostalgic ("Garland Hirschi's Cows" by Philip Kent Bimstein). Composer (and long-time KPFA-radio music director) Charles Amirkhanian's track "Vers Les Anges," a tribute to iconoclastic writer/conductor/composer Nicholas Slonimsky, is a playful audio-collage of sounds associated with the subject (a German music box, cuckoo clock, cat sounds). Bimstein's "Garland Hirschi's Cows" is a humorous left-field "hit" consisting of bovine sampling, stirring music and touching monologue by farmer Hirschi, who answers the musical question "Why do cows moo?"

—David Newgarden

THINKING FELLERS UNION LOCAL 282 The Funeral Pudding (EP) (Ajax, P.O. Box 805293, Chicago, IL 60680-4114/312-772-4783)—As time goes by, the Thinking Fellers are moving ever closer to being a nearly-all-instrumental band. Of the nine tracks on The Funeral Pudding, only three have lyrics (and the ones to "23 Kings Crossing" are pretty incidental). That's fine, because even the five improvisational rehearsal-space jams included here show off the band's phenomenal natural musicianship and command of sonic texture and variation, especially the fever-dream soundscape "Give Me Back My Golden Arm." And when the Fellers play music they've written in advance, watch out—especially on the two songs featuring vocals by the band's secret weapon, bassist Anne Eickelberg. "Waited Too Long" is a trebly, singsong plink-and-clink gem, so ungainly and off-kilter that it would threaten to collapse into a pile of metal coils and empty bottles if it weren't played with the absolute grace and control the band gives

it. "Heavy Head" is a more conventional song, a sweet, sad piece whose lyrics never quite say what they're hinting at, but let the arrangement's banjo and violin speak for them instead. —Douglas Wolk

CRESCENT CITY GOLD The Ultimate Session (High Street, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647)—What do you get when you put some of the most famous New Orleans musicians of two generations together in a room and tell 'em to cut it like they did in the old days? You get The Ultimate Session, and the hometown supergroup known as Crescent City Gold. It's a fun-filled romp through New Orleans R&B and soul, an all-star congregation that features pianist Alvin Toussaint and Dr. John (heard here on guitar), as well as legendary studio drummer Earl Palmer, pianist Edward Frank, and venerated hornmen Alvin Tyler and Lee Allen, who backed Little Richard, Fats Domino, Lloyd Price and a host of others back in the day. In a very real and very fun way, Crescent City Gold hearkens back to such legendary conceptual collaborations as Dr. John And His New Orleans Congregation; for piano man and producer Alvin Toussaint, it's an album whose roots stretch even further, back to the instrumental dance sides he cut for his album Tousan back in the late '50s. If "Slick Is" or the steamy funk of "Mid City Bop" sound uncannily like vintage '70s Toussaint-penned and -produced sides like "Yes We Can" or "All The Way Down," it's only because it's the genuine article, backed by many of the key players who pioneered New Orleans funk and soul. Now if only folks like the Meters and Clarence "Frogman" Henry could be enticed to join the party for Volume II...

impeccable musicians. Walking the same many-splintered path as the recordings of Frank Zappa or John McLaughlin's Mahavishnu Orchestra, Lunar Crush sounds like a record that almost shouldn't be happening in a day where progressive rock/jazz is looked down upon. The sheer exuberance and drive of the organ and the album's inspired guitar histrionics jump out immediately, quelling any fears that Lunar Crush is merely a calculated display of technique. The album's vocals, supplied by Michelle Johnson and Gloria Tropp, are oddly melodic, despite their shrill and piercing nature, which somehow match the guitar. Medeski's keyboards are intense to say the least, riffing and cutting deep into the record with the ferocity and speed of a guitarist with twice the amplification and distortion—one part Booker T. and one part Sun Ra. Play loud: "Vog," "Gloria Ascending," "Pineapple" and "Slow Blues For Fuzy's Mother." —Steve Ciabattini

PLASTIKMAN Recycled Plastik (EP) (NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011/212-255-7670)—Elastic beat-programmer Plastikman (a.k.a. Richie Hawtin) seems to be in a race with Aphex Twin Richard James for the title of most prolific techno whiz. The six song, 43-minute EP, released just months after Plastikman's album Sheet One, is a delirious foray into trancey minimalism. The opening cut "Krakpot" is built around a synthesized bass drum that strikes with the monochromatic simplicity of a metronome, complimented by soothing electronic waves bubbling underneath. From there, the album builds slowly in intensity: Track two, "Electrostatik," features the same beat atop slightly more involved keyboard work, while the third song "Spaz" adds cymbals, a counterbeat and a snare. "Gak Remix" highlights a repeating keyboard hiccup and a far more complex beat, sounding like something from the Aphex Twin's Selected Ambient Works 85-92. The final track, "Spastik," is composed strictly of frantic percussive volleys, more like a futuristic arena rock drum solo played by a cybernetic Neil Peart (Rush). Plastik fantastik! —Jon Wiederhorn

SPOKE All We Need Of Hell (Allied, P.O. Box 460683, San Francisco, CA 94146/415-431-5698)—Spoke spoke and was heard—at least by a few. This Florida post-punk band floated in obscurity for awhile, released a few singles and then gathered up enough interest and songs to record a full-length album. But as fate would have it, its first would be its last. The liner notes to All We Need Of Hell read, "Spoke was Chuck Horne, Scot Huegel and Jonathan Resch. These are our last songs." All We Need Is Hell is a fast-paced, emotional record that quivers with uncontained energy. The songs strain through turbulent waves of distortion, churning and flailing their way to completion. Most are under three minutes long, but they're all long enough, complete with verses, choruses and tons of noisy squall. Covers of songs by Wire ("Ahead") and Minor Threat ("Salad Days") give a pretty good indication of where the band came from, but there's also a hint of Athens jangle and more than a bit of heavy metal riffing on the record. When Spoke spoke it spoke of sexual politics, mental turmoil and dysfunctional family life, and when it rocked, it rocked hard enough to topple skyscrapers. Hear the final words of Spoke on "Ruptured Seam," "Retain/Dissolve," "Sugar," "Letter To Hope" and "Spank Your Inner Child." —Jon Wiederhorn

DITCH WITCH Everywhere Nowhere (Grass, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—If you listened to bands like Uncle Tupelo, Tripmaster Monkey and now Ditch Witch, you'd swear the Midwest is so full of heartache and deceit that everyone just sits around drinking until he falls off his barstool. It's not only in Ditch Witch's lyrics, although lines like, "It's been a long time since I walked a straight line" ("Straight Line") and "All liquored up with no place to go" ("Drag") are fairly revealing, it's more in the band's music, which strains and scrambles with melodic intensity one moment like a drunk, jilted lover slamming his fist through a car window, then lapses into a mournful state of depression the next. Playing emotive folk rock fed through amps at full-tilt, Missouri's Ditch Witch simultaneously makes you want to scream with elation and holler in pain. With chord structures reminiscent of Buffalo Tom and volume levels and tempos that bear a wink and a nod to Hüsker Dü, Ditch Witch's first album Everywhere, Nowhere is a powerfully revealing episode of youthful frustration. "Parade Ground" starts with a dark, acoustic jangle before ripping into a full-fisted rhythm, "Fault Of Me" tosses and turns like a restless sleeper dreaming of past failures, "Explode" sounds like Sugar crossed with R.E.M. and "If I Lose" races through a visceral melody, pausing just long enough for the catchy refrain. On Everywhere, Nowhere Ditch Witch casts a potent and powerful spell. —Jon Wiederhorn

VICTIM'S FAMILY Headache Remedy (Alternative Tentacles, address above)—The Bay Area has been a shelter for diverse and eclectic musical movements, and Victim's Family fits right into its hometown's predilections. Based in punk and thrash roots and motivated by politics, Victim's Family tackles everything from David Koresh ("Nopalitos") to Barbara Walters ("August 6th") to greed, power, suicide, television and drugs, while trading off screaming guitar lines, metal riffing and rhythmic pounding with clever, concerned and sometimes purposely silly lyrics (the line "I'm hiding in the stretchmarks on Rush Limbaugh's butt" from "Me Vs. Everything" is one of our favorites). Headache Remedy, the band's second full-length for Alternative Tentacles after three LPs on Mordam, continues in the path of 1992's The Germ, varying its barrage with funky, almost jazzy free form turns that fall somewhere between Primus and Frank Zappa. This dexterity, springing from the band's punk roots, helps the irony of the lyrics tease us even more, provoking more than just passive listening. Take two and call us in the morning: "Zoo," "Product," "Powertrip," "Maybe If I..." and "Me Vs. Everything." —Andy Skibins

VARIOUS ARTISTS Dope-Guns-N-Fucking In The Streets Volume Eight (7" EP) (Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—The Dope-Guns 7" compilation series returns after a lengthy hiatus with a superstar explosion—Jawbox, godheadsilo, Guzzard and Superchunk. Superchunk starts the A-side just right, easing into the world of relentless rock with its peppy, vim 'n' vigor sensibilities. Guzzard jolts the system with "Bite," a piece more powerful than the majority of songs on its album, while Jawbox, unsurprisingly, also plays a bit rougher than on its recent major-label debut. Lofi, feedback monster godheadsilo takes the cake, though, shoving it in our faces and ending the celebration with a bang. —Dawn Sutter

DUB NARCOTIC SOUND SYSTEM "Dub Narcotic" (7") (K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia WA 98507/206-786-1594)—Dub Narcotic is a nebulous, free-floating sideshoot of Calvin from Beat Happening and his cohorts, as they explore an intriguing and seldom-seen side of his musical persona, namely dub reggae. Dub Narcotic's take on that genre (actually, it sounds like a scratchy old rock steady record they're sampling) is full of weirdness: found snippets wander in and out of the mix, garbled phrases appear ("Hey narcotic/Yeah narcotic/Go narcotic," "Our microphone is on eleven/Moanin' low and mood is revvin'"), and delightfully homespun echo effects meander in and out of phase with the song's quirky rhythm. And like its Jamaican counterpart, Dub Narcotic reveals more in its very nebulosity than most more straightforward, up-front music: what you call it and who's making it are less important than how the music affects you or what you get out of it. —James Lien

RIPE "Something Fierce" (7") (Shock, c/o Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—This Australian band has already made waves in its native land, although "Something Fierce," along with the band's imminent domestic debut LP, The Plastic Hassle (due out in May on Beggars Banquet), offer many a first glimpse at this powerful band. A driven rocker, "Something Fierce" holds firmly onto its tuneful base, warm waves of snarled guitar fuzz crashing all around its edges. "The Eggplant Family" flashes the band's love for a good organ workout, which soon succumbs to a goofy pastiche of mock-soulful vocals. —Lydia Anderson

BABY TOOTH "Jet Lag" (7") (Remora, 272 E. Third St. #1, New York, NY 10009/212-420-1405)—This New York trio's second single (the first was under the name Fluffy) is a showcase for the group's mastery of dynamics and texture. Although the A-side is based on a few simple riffs, its constant harmonic and dynamic variation (thanks in part to some unusual, cleverly thought-out drumming) give it intricacy and force, and it works toward some sublimely dissonant chord structures. The B-side, "The Explosive Crescent Man," isn't quite as successful—its reach (multiple tempo changes, a flute part) exceeds its grasp—but, like "Jet Lag," it has a distinctive, personable vocal. —Douglas Wolk

REV. HORTON HEAT/SUPERSUCKERS "Caliente"/"400 Bucks" (7") (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—The concept of bands covering each others' songs on a single is far from novel, but can be interesting if the bands are different enough and add their own flavor to the song. Unfortunately, the song styles of the Supersuckers and the Rev. Horton Heat are not entirely different. As for adding individual flair, the Rev. Horton Heat does a marvelous rockabilly version of "Caliente," while the Supersuckers do a damn good Rev. Horton Heat imitation on "400 Bucks." —Dawn Sutter

SPITBOY Mi Cuerpo Es Mio (7" EP) (Allied Recordings, P.O. Box 460683, San Francisco, CA 94146/415-431-5698)—Farewell records are a funny thing. The last bow by this furiously intense female hardcore quartet is bitter and defiant, a parting shot rather than, for example, the older-and-wiser look back that was Minor Threat's "Salad Days." The band's three singers trade off on the howled lyrics of the self-explanatory "Word Problem"; "Removal" is a betrayed-friend rant in the best HC tradition, and "Touch" appears to be a pro-masturbation, anti-sex screed ("An escape into ourselves, without over-indulging selfishly/In the flesh of another"). This EP is also about as musically accomplished as hardcore gets—its music is complex and forceful, far beyond barre-chord clichés. —Douglas Wolk

MARY JANES "Telescope" (7") (Delmore, P.O. Box 477458, Chicago, IL 60647/312-227-5306)—The Mary Janes are actually a side project for two members of Indianapolis band the Vulgar Boatmen. With Janas Hoyt on guitar and vocals and Kathy Kolata on acoustic and electric violas, the duo recalls the more country and folk-inspired presence found in Mazzy Star. Its first single, "Telescope," is built around Hoyt's wispy vocals and the gentle texturing of acoustic and electric guitar melody. Dipping into a more southern flavor, "Baby Honey" uses only a sparse acoustic strum and a rippling viola whine to accompany Hoyt's plaintive tones. —Colin Helms

FUTURES

JACKPOT!

SILICA-GEL 50) Noisy Children Party (Wifflefist, c/o Seven Fat Cows, P.O. Box 33561, Raleigh, NC 27636)—50) Noisy Children Party is a pretty descriptive title for the terrific self-released debut CD from North Carolina's Silica Gel. Bits of kids' records, TV sound-bites and other unidentifiable sources collide in musical collages, some of which almost qualify as "party" music with techno-like beats. The booklet doesn't identify the instrumentation utilized by this duo, but from listening we'd imagine an apartment littered with drum machines, samplers, TV sets, VCRs, piles of tapes and lots of 50-cent thrift store records. On the opening track "Mom Happy," a flexi-disc is the probable source of guest vocals by an almost forgotten '70s teen idol: "Hello, Leif Garrett here, and I want to take this opportunity to personally welcome you to my fan club..." Heavy drum beats and sarcastic sound effects accompany Leif's moronic out-of-context quotes. Negativland is an obvious reference and probable inspiration, but in comparison, Silica Gel's humor is much subtler and the band places more emphasis on its music and rhythms. The slow-motion musical samples of "Master Of The Game" turn a TV news bulletin describing the tattoos of an unknown hit-and-run victim into an eerie eulogy with the creepiness of David Lynch's best scenes. With musicianly use of sample repetition and ironic juxtapositions, Silica Gel has constructed an intriguing album and great radio material. —David Newgarden

FYI

It's always a good idea to make your demo tape's packaging distinctive somehow, but you have to be careful not to go overboard. VERONICA BLACK MORPHEUS NIPPLE's tape Molest Your Friends (c/o Varicose Brand, 90 Foster St., Brighton, MA 02135) arrived with a lock of human hair tucked into its case, and nearly got thrown out instantly. Fortunately, we gave it a listen. Despite the name, it's sweet and mostly benign, with a few really pleasant musical textures (especially "Cricket," whose whispery groove calls to mind late Love And Rockets). VBMN works best when it's garnishing live instrumentation (heavy on the flanger pedals) with a handful of samples and drum-machine interjections (on "Snog (Song)" and "Astray"); less well when, as on "Fix Of Religion," it depends more heavily on mechanical beats and tones. The quartet sometimes packs its songs too full of words, but when it takes a break and just plays, it's got plenty of good ideas, and a laid-back, pastoral attitude that's a nice surprise in combination with its lyrical and conceptual quirkiness. —D.I.Y.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

Dambuilders

Boston's Dambuilders rank amongst the most prolific of bands, and their often-stated goal of releasing a song named for each of America's 50 states shows the band's high ambitions. The Dambuilders' full-length domestic debut, Encendedor, is also the band's major-label debut, melodically buzzing with quirky, indie-pop smarts. The Dambuilders carve their niche with Joan Wasser's violin playing, which is used not as an arty afterthought, but as a voice of counterpoint heightening the harmony-laden charm of each track. Some programmers may still be searching their dictionaries for the meaning of Encendedor. 72 of the 499 who reported this week are just enjoying what they hear, helping the album move up 95-43 in its second week on the chart. KAGU, KBOO, KWUR (#1), WASU, WBRS (#1), WCFM, WDFH, WFHB, WFNM, WGMU, WGSU, WMBR (#1), WMCR (IL), WODU, WPLT, WQHS, WTCC, WTPS, WUVT, WXJM (#1) and WZBC all call in top 10 reports.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The first week of May has DGC's Hole (2-1), sweeping the first place spot (both in sales and In-Store play) from Imago's Rollins Band (1-2). Columbia's Pink Floyd and A&M's Soundgarden maintain their positions at #3 and #4, respectively. Reprise's Green Day inches upward (8-5), while Merge's Superchunk leaps and bounds (41-6), marking the first indie reaching the top 10 in quite some time. Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds' new LP on Mute-Elektra (55-9) moves into the top 10 this week.

Others standing out amongst the May flowers: Angel-ERG's Benedictine Monks Of Santo Domingo De Silos (22-13), Epitaph's Offspring (32-26), London-PLG's Meat Puppets (35-27), Arista's Ace Of Base (42-33), Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (50-37), Epic Soundtrax's Philadelphia soundtrack (69-40), Zoo's Tool (57-47), and Sympathy For The Record Industry's '68 Comeback (67-54).

There are plenty of new releases to add to this summer's soundtrack. Columbia's Nas makes quite a ripple with its #23 debut (#1 Breakthrough; see Retail Focus), while Ride's import EP on Creation begins its flight at #29. The sounds of the Midwest reside at #34 and #35, with Drag City's Gastr Del Sol from Chicago and Touch And Go's Arcwelder from Minneapolis. Seefeel appears twice on the chart this week—at #42 with a new import EP on Warp (UK) and at #63 with the domestic release of Quique on Too Pure/Astralwerks-Caroline. 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Bad Livers pop in for some banjo picking at #64. ## RETAIL FOCUS

NAS

The latest buzz word coming from the world of hip-hop has only three letters and rhymes with snoz. Nas' debut Illmatic (Columbia) steps in at #23 on the chart this week and tops the Breakthrough chart. The 20-year-old hip-hop master hails from NYC's Queensbridge Community project and has caused quite a stir. When Nas showed up to do a signing for his album at Nobody Beats The Wiz in lower Manhattan, the crowd was so vast that the store could not control it, and the signing never happened. It's Illmatic's brutal honesty and real life tales that make it a classic hip-hop album. Nas' two previous singles from compilations provided enough to spark folks' interest, and with producers like Q-Tip, Pete Rock and Gang Starr's DJ Premier, it's no wonder that there is such a rumble around the release.

SWING, THE THING

It don't mean a thing... You've heard the expression a million times. ...If it ain't got that swing. And of course Duke Ellington, whose song immortalized this credo, was absolutely right. Swing—that ineffable rhythmic component, often syncopated, tough to define but uncatchable to the feet—means different things to different players and listeners, but without it, jazz just ain't jazz. Granted, tenorist Joe Lovano's conception of swing, '90s-style, differs from Pharoah Sanders' of the '60s, which differed from Coleman Hawkins' of the '30s. Swing—be it hard or soft, fast or slow, declared or implied—isn't the exclusive province of any one generation or geographic region or genre of jazz. Tension-and-release, interpersonal give-and-take among players—this combination of spontaneity and surprise makes jazz, well, jazz. Swing, especially in combination with the blues and the element of improvisation, makes jazz the most exciting, perplexing, challenging and confounding form of music on the planet. Just as one Supreme Court justice who couldn't define pornography but "knew it when he saw it," discerning jazzheads can hear (and, just as important, feel) swing even if they can't measure bar lines, beat by beat. That said, let's turn to a variety of new releases from musicians who not only know how to swing, but swing two ways, if not more. A buzz has been building around the young saxist DAVID (pronounced Da-veed) SANCHEZ for quite a while, and with the release of his premiere as a leader, The Departure (Columbia), and his appearance on several of his friends' sides, it's clear that this kid has arrived. Sanchez, 25, who rose to prominence as a member of the late Dizzy Gillespie's United Nation Orchestra in 1991, is a double-threat swinger: On tenor or soprano, this Puerto Rican-cum-New Yorker blows straight-ahead bop and Afro-Caribbean with equal fervor and imagination, sometimes combining both on the same tune ("You Got It, Diz!" and the title track). In pianist Danilo Perez (another Gillespian, whose own second Novus CD, The Journey, is just out), bassist Peter Washington or Andy Gonzalez, drummer Leon Parker and percussionist Milton Cardona, the leader has accompanists whose keen listening chops enable them to explode outward, or implode inward, as the passage warrants. Tom Harrell's gleaming, long-lined trumpet parts serve as an excellent foil for Sanchez's sometimes acidic, always rhythm-charged bursts on sax. Dance grooves (bomba, montuno) and hip head stuff combines seamlessly and unexpectedly on The Departure. It's no wonder that Sanchez's coming-out week at the Village Vanguard in Gotham, May 31-June 5, is one of the most anticipated live events of the season... Sanchez fits snugly and naturally into Pana-maniacs, the new effort from bassist/composer SANTI DEBRIANO on the French Freelance label (c/o Qualiton Imports Ltd., 24-02 40th Ave., Long Island City, NY 11101/718-937-8515). The Panamanian-born Debriano, one of the most visible and time-tested contabassist on the Manhattan scene, laces his Latin grooves with high-quality modern jazz, thus achieving an irresistible

For the second consecutive week, Qwest-Reprise's A Tribute To Miles led by Herbie Hancock tops the jazz chart (#1 at CJSF, KAZU, KBUT, KTUH, KVRX, WARC, WCUR, WMPG, WSJU and WVRU), gaining a bit of a lead over Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet (3-2), which has been in the top five for almost two months now. Prawn Song-Mammoth's Charlie Hunter Trio reaches a new peak in its 12th week on the chart (7-4), as Elektra Nonesuch's Bill

Frisell (14-8) and Columbia's Terence Blanchard (#9 re-entry) join the top 10. Elsewhere, Blue Note-Capitol's pairing of John Scofield and Pat Metheny (24-13) and Henry Threadgill on Italy's Black Saint (21-15) enjoy good weeks. Three new entries round out the bottom of the chart: Milestone's Lou Donaldson (#22), ECM's Keith Jarrett (#23) and Novus-RCA's Danilo Perez (#25). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) body/mind unity with help from pianist David Kikoski, drummer Tommy Campbell and percussionist Mino Cinelu. As on The Departure, Pana-maniacs boasts the sizzle of salsa and the heady effervescence of bop in such a delightfully engaging manner that even stodgy, sedentary slackers like yours truly feel like dancing. If you're in the big city from May 19-21, check out the Panamaniacs group at the new, much-talked-about jazzspot, Iridium... Pianist and master stylistic mixologist HILTON RUIZ scores big on his new Heroes disk for Telarc (23307 Commerce Park Rd., Cleveland, OH 44122-5804/216-464-2313). A dedication to a number of Ruiz's idols (Gillespie, "Con Alma"; Herbie Hancock, "Maiden Voyage"; Miles Davis, "Tune Up"; Sonny Rollins, "Sonny's Mood"; Max Roach, "For Max"), Heroes centers on the leader's aggressive, ringing, unstoppable piano, surrounded by a battery of the world's best percussionists and several far-seeing hornmen. Ignacio Berroa (the best clavé trap drummer in the business), timbalero Steve Berrios, bongo man Joe Gonzalez and bassist Andy Gonzalez (an unsurpassed anchor) lock into Ruiz's rampaging runs. Tenorman Sanchez ("Sonny's Mood"), trumpeter Charlie Sepulveda ("Con Alma") and trombonist Steve Turre ("Lover Man") make their presence felt convincingly, as do soloists Tito Puerto (vibraphone, on which he is wonderfully expressive but too-seldom heard), Giovanni Hidalgo and Carlos "Patato" Valdés (congas). For sounds, sonics (DDD) and style, Heroes rates high marks. Somebody, though, must take the fall for listing congero Valdés as Valés not once but four times—on the front and back covers of the CD, on the inside and on the label's poop-sheet for the press... The venerable Valdés, one of the most beloved characters and showstoppers in Latin jazz, can be heard, thankfully, his name spelled correctly, on Masterpiece from the German Messidor label (available from Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700). Recorded in 1984 and co-produced by the now-deceased pianist Jorge Dalto (who plays on the CD), Masterpiece brings some deserved visibility to a feisty, master skin-slapper, now 67, in a heavy percussive framework... The second effort on Sony/Tropi Jazz from TITO PUENTE'S GOLDEN LATIN JAZZ ALL STARS is a studio date, In Session, that bristles with intensity. The aforesaid Ruiz, Hidalgo, Sepulveda, Berroa and Andy Gonzalez perform with their customary verve and virtuosity; flutist Dave Valentin, reedman Mario Rivera (long overdue for an album of his own), tenorist James Moody (one cut) and conga legend Mongo Santamaria confer additional élan. As on earlier albums, Puente breathes new life, via Latin fire, into an undervalued bop vehicle (Duke Jordan's "Flight To Jordan"). "Obsession," beginning as an atmospheric bolero featuring Valentin's flute (he also serves capably as the musical director for the group), kicks into high gear and sports several sterling solos. All of the CDs mentioned here, in combinations I'll leave to you, are worthy of heavy rotation.

DOPE!

DOWN SOUTH Lost In Brooklyn (Big Beat, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805)—Lost In Brooklyn

describes the plight of a group [originally from Richmond, VA] which is transplanted from the rural, easy-living of the South to the caustic, hip-hop hotbed of Brooklyn, NY. Not to be confused with eloquent southern rappers like Arrested Development, Down South (made up of Shawn J-Period, Soda Pop and Myorr The DJ) presents a wry, B-Boy style, unconcerned with earthy messages. Only referring to its southern homeland when it's punching holes in old myths, or trying to give it a sloppy helping of street credibility ("Down South"), the group makes a migration that's littered with confusion and the struggle to survive in the hip-hop underground. Lost In Brooklyn, which was partially produced by the Beatnuts, is split into two parts: the South Side and North Side. The South sees the group operating from its back porch. By default, thumping, jazz-happy tracks like "Southern Comfort" and "Tractor, Rakes And Hoes" allow the group to appear assured and insolent, mixing up southern culture with hostile hip-hop attitude, which is most often lively and sociable. The North Side cut "Lost In Brooklyn," while still sprightly, describes the strenuous transition. Though slightly disoriented, Down South quickly assimilates with the fast-paced underground and finds itself amongst friends on "Just Chillin'," rapping about childhood toys on "Big Wheels" and experiencing a full-on New York house party on "Open Sesame." Conceptually clever and lyrically hyped, Down South should leave a lasting mark. Fuck the CDs—get the special white vinyl and pump: the round-table raps on "Spin Da Boddle," featuring guesting by Funkaholic and industry good-guy Bobbito, "Jimi Crack Korn" and "Around The Clock."

RAW FUSION Hoochiefied Funk (Hollywood BASIC, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521/818-560-7235)—It's to be expected that the two-man Digital Underground spinoff operation known as Raw Fusion would make up a crazy story to dismiss the lackluster success of 1991's Live From The Styletron by claiming the CIA confiscated the group's Styletron and patented it for themselves. It's not easy to force people to forget their fruitless labor in hip-hop. Oakland's Money-B and DJ Fuze offer the equivalent of a Mickey Rourke film with the steamy, oversexed Hoochiefied Funk. Coming from a group as uninhibited as Digital Underground, the duo's sexual slant quickly becomes predictable, but not without flashes of production smarts ("The New Jazz (Intro)"), and rugged dancehall snares courtesy of Rank & Scroo ("To Hell With It") and the Underprivileged Courtney Skankkin' on "Bumpin' 'Em." While much of the evidently sexist raps are presumptuous, fit only for an NC-17 rating, they're presented with colorful storytelling ability, making them listenable, but often lacking in substance. With Money-B fueling the comical "Dirty Drawls," it's "Yo Daddy Yo" (a silver lining in a

LEADING BY A NOSE: The race for the top spot is so close this week, you could barely fit a slab of vinyl between Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (1-1) and Columbia's Nas (2-2). And more exciting than an NBA playoff game are the upward moves by Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (7-5) and the impressive climb by Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Brand New Heavies, who groove 12-6 for their highest position to date. Flying out of the shadows this week is Jive's Casual, who jumps 25-9 for his highest-ever chart position. Other artists bringing the noise include Outburst/RAL-Chaos'

Domino (15-13), Tommy Boy's Coolio (23-17), Motown's Queen Latifah (27-21) and Priority's Anotha Level (29-25). This week we shake hands with debuts from Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun, who land "Bucktown USA" at #18, MCA's Crooklyn Dodgers' "Crooklyn" at #31, and TVT's Gil Scott-Heron at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Nas; 2) Crooklyn; 3) K.M.D.; 4) Outkast; 5) Shyheim; 6) Volume 10; 7) Da Bush Babees; 8) Above The Rim; 9) Wascals; 10) Mad Flava. sea of sexploitation) which can be distinguished as the album's most positive statement, as Money-B waxes poetic about his father and gives props to fathers all around the world. Funk it up: "I Got Flavor" and "Doo Doo MC's."

DEF 12 CROOKLYN DODGERS "Crooklyn" [100 BPM] (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Brooklyn. Quite possibly the single most celebrated borough in hip-hop (rivaling the Bronx). With artists like Gang Starr paying its respects with cuts like "The Place Where We Dwell" and, most recently, "The Planet," Spike Lee exposes America to life in Brooklyn, U.S.A., in his new film Crooklyn. The Crooklyn Dodgers are Special Ed, Buckshot (Black Moon) and Masta Ace, who collectively contribute to this first single, which meets the standards of the aforementioned cuts as a defining anthem for Brooklyn. It's mix of freestyle similes, harrowing lifestyle and potent one-liners ("Black man with the permanent tan/I come from the 'ville that never ran") make for a fist-raising result.

It's ironic, and a bit disturbing, to see that after the parties have dispersed following the massive success of stadium-rockers like "Whoomp! There It Is" and "Dazzy Duks" (two cuts that pushed me to the brink of suicide), there is yet another artist to carry the torch for this brand of pre-packaged, just-add-water flavor of (dare I say) hip-hop. 12 Gauge's "Dunkie Butt"—a song as simple and eye-opening as a child's fingerpainting—is proving to be the next cut blasted at beaches, clubs and from jeeps this summer. I don't want to discredit an artist's ability to appeal to record buyers, but this trend in rap music, which makes its profit by exploiting some of the very same stereotypes (i.e. sexism) which many hip-hop dignitaries have been fighting against, does nothing that could be even remotely considered artistically credible in my book. While you could also say that gangster rap is becoming formulaic and increasingly dependent on an overused guidebook, its impostors are also too easy to detect and should be grouped with other

ON THE CHART

WE'RE GETTING ILLMATIC: Call me the all-knowing master of time, space and dimension if you like, but we didn't need a rocket scientist to predict that Columbia's Nas (5-1) was going to take over the coveted top position from Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim soundtrack. Only in his second week, Nas has taken home 13 #1 retail reports, good enough to bump Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-3) and Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop

Doggy Dogg (3-4) down one position. Released on the same day, Virgin's Shyheim (6-5) moves up one, while Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (12-9) and Jive's multi-platinum R. Kelly (13-10) both re-enter this week's top 10. This week we welcome in debuts from Select's M.O.P. at #16 and Easylee/WRAP-Ichiban's Treacherous 3 at #19. X-rated, fly-by-night artists of little substance. Programmers need to be responsible. Understand what it is you're playing and the messages you're presenting to your audience. There's too much music out there, and there's too many clever marketing people attempting to make the weakest records appear inviting. The bottom line is that when hip-hop (or anything) becomes so profitable, there is going to be a certain percentage of artists looking not to develop and experiment, but to seek the shortest route to the bank. 'Nuff said.

BLOWIN' UP

CROOKLYN DODGERS "Crooklyn" (12") (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) Radio Chart Position: #31—Although the Crooklyn Dodgers may have made a modest debut on this week's chart, coming in 13 spots behind the debut single from Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun (#18), there's something about a release from a Spike Lee film that deserves special attention. Noted for selecting some of the finest black artists, from the cry of Public Enemy's "Fight The Power" to Terence Blanchard's soothing sax on Malcolm X, the upcoming Crooklyn promises to be as strong as any Spike Lee joint from the past, and is likely to rival the continuing success of Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim. Kicking off the release is "Crooklyn," which features Special Ed, Buckshot (Black Moon) and Masta Ace, who swing hard lyrical punches over this A Tribe Called Quest-produced single. In its first week, "Crooklyn" steals the #2 Adventure Pick, while appearing on 9 of 140 radio reports which include: KGRG, KSPC, KTRU, KTUH, WBMB, WECS, WKNH, WMUC and Julie Chadwick at WMWM in Salem, MA.

NEW WORLD MUSIC

Chart compiled by James Lien/
Column by Cliff Fernald

FARTHER AFIELD...

In Tibet: Lyrichord (141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014/212-929-8234) has re-issued one of the most comprehensive sets of Tibetan music available in a four-CD set, Tibetan Buddhist Rites From The Monasteries Of Bhutan. Recorded by John Levy in 1971, the discs offer an in-depth look at the world-renowned harmonic singing of the Tibetan monks, as well as the long horns, percussion and other folk instruments of both religious and secular life. Particularly revealing are the tracks on Volume 4, Tibetan and Bhutanese Instrumental And Folk Music, which includes folk singers, lute and fiddle ensembles, and a portion of a yak herdsman's play.

In Finland: The folk music department at The Sibelius Academy in Helsinki is a model for both national musical pride and bold innovation. Under the leadership of Heikki Laitinen from 1974 to 1984, and with his continued participation as a lecturer to this day, Sibelius includes as staff and alumni some of Finland's most creative musicians. In honor of his 50th birthday, his students and comrades in music at the academy and the Finnish Folk Music Institute have put together a birthday tribute called Tulikulkku (Folk Music Institute, SF-69600 Kausinen, Finland/fax: 358-68-612352). Here is the perfect introduction to what can really happen when folk music is turned loose as a living, growing force. Traditional a cappella singing takes on new forms, Lappish joiking meets electronics and guitars, and traditional instruments are taken into the world of free-improvisation and new world art. If you have any doubt how powerful a force folk music can be in the modern world, take a listen to the live "Mikonkatu," an absolutely stunning fusion of pre-historic sounds and contemporary force. Then get into tracks from Hedningarna, Niekku (with Arto Järvala and Maria Kalanemi) and the primitive Primo (is there a Finnish band in which Arto doesn't play?).

In Columbia: The sounds of many Caribbean nations are fused together on Voces Caribes, a wonderful, if sometimes over-ripe, album by FRANCISCO ZUMAQUE AND SUPER MACUMBIA (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763). In addition to the unavoidable groove of Columbia's cumbia, Zumaque includes bolero, salsa, merengue and many lesser known forms, adding their rhythms to his popular mix. The most irresistible track has to be "Baila Caribe," with the earthy vocal chords of Orlando Blanco fronting a groove-heavy, horn-soaked, merengue-plus arrangement.

In France: Innovative guitarist DAN AR BRAS has cycled through folk rock, new age and acoustic soloing on his many albums, and it all falls together on Theme For The Green Lands, one of the best recordings he has made in many years (Keltia Musique, 1 Place au Berre, 29000 Quimper, France/ fax: 33-98-95-73-19). It features Patrick Molard on Scottish and Irish pipes, and includes Brits Gerry Conway (drums) and Martin Allcock (guitars and keyboards). Alternating between lush beauty and frenetic power, this suite of original songs for pipes and acoustic and electric guitars takes the traditional feel of Brittany and makes it new, yet again.

In Hawai'i: The slack key guitar of Hawai'i has to be one of the most sublime acoustic styles in the world, and, with its mixture of rhythm and lilting melody, an almost perfect metaphor for the Pacific. RAY KANE'S Punahale (Dancing Cat, c/o Windham Hill, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647) captures his talent and charm in a simple solo setting, just Kane on voice and guitar. He's recorded some of the classic

At the top of the chart for a second week is Hannibal-Rykodisc's Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder (1-1), holding a commanding lead (reported #1 on 14 stations) as Toure begins a U.S. tour (see dates in Tour Focus on page 65). Also currently visiting America (from Mali) is Mango-Island's Salif Keita (8-5), whose career retrospective album knocks Yothu Yindi (4-7) from the top 5. Last week's top debut, Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan on RealWorld-Caroline, continues his climb

(14-8), while the quickest ascent is by EarthBeat!-WB's Reggae On The River Part 1 collection (24-13). World Circuit-Rounder's second compilation of '50s and '60s Columbian cumbias, Cumbia Cumbia 2: La Epoca Oora, is this week's top debut at #21. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) island songs like "I Will Never Forget You" and the charming "Kealoha," as well as Raymond's own beautiful instrumental tunes.

In NYC, via Mali: I have never hid my admiration for the work of SALIF KEITA. His work defies all my usual prejudices against electro-noodling in the studio, and his live concert at Irving Plaza on April 20 proved his formidable talents and his power over an audience, a nearly 50-50 mix of adoring west Africans and fascinated New Yorkers. Only a few minutes into the show, he had the entire crowd shouting and dancing to the Ambassadors' classic "Mandjou," complete with slithery Cuban rhythms, a medium cool, Miles-esque trumpet solo and Keita's surreal voice in a punchy exchange of improvisations with the guitar.

Where was my brain? Two weeks ago I reviewed an amazing recording of new classical music by TAN DUN on the CRI label. My apologies to all for referring to him as a "Japanese composer," which was purely a slip of the keyboard. Tan Dun was born in Hunan province in China in 1957. The music is no less remarkable, even in light of my inattention to editorial detail!

JACKPOT!

DAVE CLARKE

DAVE CLARKE PRESENTS: RED 2 "Wisdom To The Wise"/"Gonk" (12") (Bush, Ducie House, Ducie St., Manchester M1 2JW, U.K./061-237-9499)—When Dave Clarke wrote his introduction to the new techno section in Britain's MixMag update, he embraced the present re-birth of techno which is shedding its excessive BPMs and rock influences to return to simple electronic grooves of enormous power. He cited Carl Craig, Maurizio and the current Dance Mania roster, and in his modesty, he neglected to mention his own stellar work, which is among the most exciting in the techno world. At this point, anything with Clarke's name on it is worthy of immediate attention. This EP is the second in his series for Manchester's Bush label, and it simply sounds like nothing else around. "Wisdom To The Wise" has the sort of gigantic, resonant kick drum which woke everyone up on the Aphrohead remix of last fall. Around this propulsive drumming, Clarke wraps synth sounds tight as a trampoline, imbuing the mix with the kind of breathtaking suspense and release that always characterizes the best dance music. The flip's "Gonk" has chunkier drum effects, with Clarke's seamless, sudden edits bouncing between the kick. It is precisely records like the Red 2 EP that make this job so rewarding.

RETURN OF THE BASEMENT BOYS

Washington, DC's Basement Boys have been making arresting underground house since the mid '80s, with tracks for labels such as NuGroove and many others. They rose to national acclaim with the mammoth "Gypsy Woman" by CRYSTAL WATERS before she and the Basement Boys dropped out of sight. After too long a hiatus, the team is back with a grand, incendiary single for Mercury, "100% Pure Love." Waters' compassionate, strong voice works perfectly with the Basement Boys' simmering, elastic basslines and percussive play. The density of this track is stunning, and it's a testament to the production talents involved here that the mix is so busy, yet never cluttered. Every element here makes sense, and the rousing chorus is magnificent. Like the recent Ten City single, this is a commercial dance record that doesn't ignore its underground house roots (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019).

NO REST FOR THE MIDWEST

Once again, the cities of Chicago and Detroit provide an oasis during week after week of dance mediocrity. The insistence upon invention and energy in the Midwest underground is inspiring. The duo of DAVID GNUOY and Detroit DJ CLAUDE YOUNG (of WHY?) released a couple of fine singles last year on its own Dow label. The two have returned with the exceptional Collective EP,

ON THE CHART

No moves are good moves for Sire-WB, with Aphex Twin atop the chart once again, and what could conceivably displace this ambitious project in the near future? This week's highest new entry comes in the form of Messiah's debut full-length on WHITE LBLs-American at #7. Formerly signed with Kickin' in the U.K., Ralph Ruppert and co.'s tech tracks will be here for a long spell. A little further down the list, Holland's Swains enter at #23 with their domestic full-length effort on KK-Restless.

Sven Vath's Accident In Paradise (6-5) is the chart's longest resident at the moment, having enjoyed 22 weeks on the top 25. Bubbling under this week: Strange Fruit-Dutch East India's Meat Beat Manifesto Peel Sessions, NovaMute's new Plastikman EP, Mercury's Crystal Waters and Ore Music (UK)'s Mount Rushmore. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) four tracks of groove-infused minimalism with a bite. The A-side's brilliant "Free Fall" has a menacing analog synth sequence that winds its way through a forest of percussion. The track has the spirit of the current Chicago minimalists with a harder Detroit edge, while the graceful "Story Teller" (produced by Terence Dixon) has similarly stark drum programs punctured by warm, staccato synth chords. This is a label to watch closely (Utensil, c/o Dow, 18292 Washburn, Detroit, MI 48221/313-345-8673)...MIKE BANKS from Underground Resistance is able to create acid tracks that seem to enter the bloodstream directly. His latest effort is the third in the "Acid Rain" series, entitled "Meteor Shower," a double-12" of growling, biting acid intensity for the hardheaded only. No matter where you drop the needle, you'll find acid that penetrates the body like a hypodermic (UR, c/o Submerge, 2030 Grand River, Ste. 303, Detroit, MI 48226/313-963-1025)... Two or more electrifying EPs from the Chicago trax underground appeared this week, showing that the movement is only getting stronger. Acid warehouse veteran Armando offers the Nothing's Stopping EP by the TRAXXMEN, which contains the perfect "P.M.S." by the M.D. CONNECTION. This is Mike Dunn, whose "Dance You Mutha" from '87 remains a house classic. Stripped to the starkest elements, this carries a groove you cannot ignore, constructed of nothing more than a warbling, sinuous synth pattern and fluttering drums. Highly captivating stuff from producers who are really looking at the future of electronic dance (Muzique, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60623/Muzique fax: 312-779-6767)...The mysterious DREW SKY just released his Skyman I EP, and it's another stormer from the peerless Dance Mania label. "Focus" has a percolating, 909 rhythm track with jazz bass drop-ins, while "Peace of Mind" has a sinking, thick drum track. The flip's "Skoba Dee" comes in two versions, both of which are wildly inventive instrumental excursions. Dance Mania is a label you can absolutely rely on for incomparable underground house trax (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, address above).

JACKPOT!

BIG SANDY AND HIS FLY-RITE BOYS "Jumping From 6 To 6" (Hightone, 220 Fourth St. #101, Oakland, CA 94607/510-763-8500)—It may not seem possible at this late date in the 20th century, but Big Sandy And His Fly-Rite Boys have fused hopped-up Western swing with some rockabilly swagger and made it seem fresh all over again. While their sound is definitely a throw-back to a time when rock 'n' roll was still in its infancy and drawing influences from hillbilly music, gospel, R&B, etc., Big Sandy and friends perform with such unbridled enthusiasm that "Jumping From 6 To 6" leaps from the speakers, inciting a decidedly gleeful response from any listener. The ensemble playing behind Big Sandy's honeyed vocals is top notch, and the stylized interplay between Lee Jeffries on pedal steel and Ashley Kingman on hollow body electric guitar raises the proceedings to another level. Jumping non-stop: "Hi-Billy Music," "Honky Tonk Queen," "Juiced," the title track and a nearly sacred take of Hank Williams, Sr.'s, "Weary Blue From Waitin'."

IRIS DeMENT My Life (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Iris DeMent's first record, Infamous Angel, was an unheralded winner. One of the best folk albums of the past 10 years, it was originally released by Philo/Rounder Records to nearly unanimous acclaim. Then, in an unusual move almost a year after initially hitting the streets, it was re-released by Warner Bros. when DeMent decided to make the jump to the majors. Happily, there's no "sophomore slump" to report here. My Life is an equally charming effort filled with DeMent's stories of life in Smalltown, U.S.A., a place, you get the feeling, with which she's very familiar. Admittedly, some people can't get past her vocals—a high-pitched warble that fits in perfectly with her traditional country-folk—no matter how warm and appealing her songs. Yet there are very few singer/songwriters around today with DeMent's subtle touch and knowing eye for detail. Songs like "Sweet Is The Melody," "No Time To Cry" and the title track contain the essence of old-time folk music. Simple in her melody and instrumentation, DeMent succeeds in simmering real life emotions down to their most basic elements and she does so with stark honesty and an astonishing amount of heart.

BAD LIVERS Horses In The Mines (1/4 Stick, c/o Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—The idea of an old time country-favoring bluegrass band putting out a record on an independent label is not unusual; the idea of putting it out on a label primarily known for its punk-rock roster is. The Bad Livers are iconoclastic in nearly every way, as Horses In The Mines, their third for 1/4 Stick, so brazenly displays. By recording live on an eight-track analog tape deck, they've concocted a "live" record full of what others might call blemishes, but what in reality are just part of the band's appeal. How many of today's standard bluegrass bands could include a track called "New Bad Liver Singer," which is basically a dog howling along to some idle harmonica rambling, and keep you listening? On the serious side, there's the raw harmonies and furious pace of "Old Folks Shuffle," the accordion-inflected lament "Time And Time Again," and the Gram Parsons-inspired sound of "He Didn't Say A Word." Of all the innovative groups on today's thriving bluegrass scene, none possess the talent of the Bad Livers, who take the music to places it's never been.

DEEP IN THE BLUES

The recent slew of blues releases has suffered in quality from the seemingly endless trend of re-cutting old tunes from the masters and a shortage of any new and interesting material. Although he's in his 70s, harmonica player and Chicago blues veteran SNOOKY PRYOR continues to write and perform his own originals with a verve lacking in performers half his age. On In This Mess Up To My Chest, his second for Antone's (500 San Marcos, Austin TX 78702/512-322-0617), Pryor's harp playing is sensational, and he gets help from Derek O'Brien, Pinetop Perkins, Duke Robillard and others in laying down greasy slabs of funky blues and sweat-stained ballads. Among the standout tracks are two captured live at Antone's club in Austin, as well as "Hello Little Baby," "Stick Way Out Behind" and "Bury You In A Paper Sack." Without a doubt, In This Mess Up To My Chest is one of the best blues releases of the year...Marking his return to an American label after 14 years in Europe, LUTHER ALLISON'S Soul Fixin' Man (Alligator, P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, 60660/312-973-7736) is a Memphis-style R&B stew featuring his incendiary guitar playing and gritty, yet striking vocals, along with a solid backup band that includes the Memphis Horns. Allison was a major attraction on the national blues circuit until his move to France in the early '80s, and his re-emergence on this side of the Atlantic, especially with the strength of this record, is big news. Check out the gospel-tinged "The Things I Used To Do," the wailing shuffle "Nobody But You," the explosive guitar runs of "Bad Love" and the down and dirty funk of "Middle Of The Road."

SHORT SHOTS

Although more recently identified with the Austin singer/songwriter scene, JIMMY LaFAVE is originally from Oklahoma. The wide spaces and open roads of his home state pervade his music and his latest, Highway Trance (Bohemia Beat, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700) is an amalgam of ballads, blues and country filled with his engaging spirit. A kindred soul to Joe Ely and Kevin Welch (check out LaFave's tender version of Welch's "Early Summer Rain"), his strong point is in expressing common feelings and situations with exceptional clarity and striking melodies. "Prayer For You," "Austin After Midnight" and "The Open Road" stand out on a record packed with one good song after another... The recent trend, probably started by no other than Bob Dylan, of modern day artists recording entire albums of traditional folk and blues songs from earlier in this century with a minimum accompaniment continues with Sings Like Hell, the new release from PETER CASE (Vanguard, 1299 Ocean Ave., Ste. 800, Santa Monica, CA 90401/310-451-5727). Case has long had a fondness for the music of Lightnin' Hopkins, Mance Lipscomb and their contemporaries; he began as a busker on the streets of San Francisco in the '70s, before his association with the punk band, the Nerves. He amply displays this love with touching versions of "Lakes Of Ponchartrain," "Rovin' Gambler" and "Waltz Of The Angels," as well as stripped-down, yet lively takes of Blind Lemon Jefferson's "Matchbox Blues" and Roy Orbison's "Down The Line."...A variation on the above is presented by DAVE ALVIN on his third record for Hightone (address above), King Of California. He mostly performs bare bones versions of his own tunes, including some of his best-known ("Fourth Of July," "Border Radio"), a couple of more obscure ones from the Blasters catalog ("Bus Station," "Barn Burning") and a couple from his favorite writers, such as Tom Russell ("Blue Wing") and George Jones ("What Am I Worth") for seasoning. Both a brief wrap-up of his career and a snapshot of where Alvin is as an artist and performer today, it's sure to please those who favor him for his contemplative, moody lyrics, which are laid out with a stark beauty... Hoboken, NJ, keeps giving the world new and interesting music. The latest comes from MARGO HENNEBACH, whose self-titled debut (1-800-Prime-CD, 111 E. 14th St., Ste. 300, New York, NY 10003/800-774-6323) is an engaging collection of folk infused with pop smarts. Alternately accompanying her bright, attractive vocals with guitar and keyboards, Hennebach creates simple, effective backdrops for her heartfelt yet never trite lyrics. While Hennebach's been compared to a young Joni Mitchell more times than seems fair, her songs possess a contemporary feel that should earn her a wide audience. Give a listen to "Have You Ever Seen An Angel," "Fool's Gold Paradise" and "Witness" for a taste of a new talent with vast potential...If you're as tired as I am of the seemingly endless parade of young, pretty boys from Nashville who have released so-called "country" records lately, you're sure to appreciate Strange Things Happening from SLEEPY LaBEEF (Rounder, address above). LaBeef has been around since the '50s, when he was a part of the rockabilly scene, so he's not exactly young. Yet he's a master at melding various styles of American music into a highly listenable whole, which is usually the part that Nashville doesn't get. LaBeef sounds like he's having the time of his life here as he easily slides from the rowdy blues of "Young Fashioned Ways" to the revved-up boogie woogie of "You're My Baby" to the hardcore honky tonk of the title track. If you've only recently discovered Billy Joe Shaver and/or Gary Stewart, be sure to check out the delights of Sleepy LaBeef.

PUNGENT STENCH

Club "Mondo Bizarre"—For Members Only (Nuclear Blast, P.O. Box 251, Millersville, PA 17551/717-397-9221)—If you have a fetish for feces, genital mutilation, masochistic sex, torture or just plain killing and dismemberment, then this is your ideal smorgasbord of gore. Pungent Stench delves into the dark and twisted world of pain for sexual pleasure with its putrid fourth U.S. released LP, Club Mondo Bizarre—For Members Only. Instead of trudging along the beaten path of death metal, the band has opted to explore different musical styles. Blending industrial rhythms and heavy driving guitar crunch, with a touch of funky basslines, Pungent Stench has left its former "death metal" sound to decay into a pile of writhing maggots, keeping only the gruff growlings of vocalist Martin Schirenc, who is known as "El Cochino" on this album. Titles like "Choked Just For A Joke," "Fuck Bizzare" and "In Search Of The Perfect Torture," not to mention the utterly foul artwork on the inside of the CD, pretty much sum up what you should expect from this album. "Klyster Boogie" has an immediately catchy groove stemming from the slamming rhythm section of "Highjack" (Jacek Perkowski-bass) and "Sex Slave" (Alex Wank-drums), complete with a repulsive sample of someone blowing chunks at the end of the song. Not recommended for the weak of stomach. "I'm A Family Man" really highlights the vocal diversification of Schirenc—gritty growls take a backseat to strong, sharp (almost melodious?!) utterings during the first half of the song. Also check out the industrial-tinged "Treatments Of Pain" and the hideously succulent "Fuck Bizarre." —Jenni Glenn

HOLE

Live Through This

(DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—This time around the musical merry-go-round, Hole has swapped its raw, discordant ramblings for a tighter, more accessible sound. Courtney Love's voice still rings out with shrill intensity, but also swoons with deep, sweltering passion and rhythm. Live Through This, the band's debut album for DGC, melds heavy, scorching rhythms, with light, bluesy melodies, creating a hefty package of surefire hits. Hole should be a name frequently crossing the lips of alternative and metal fans alike, now that the band has opened up a new door in its musical stylings. Poppy beats collide with crashing walls of drums and searing guitar riffs on tunes like

"Violet" and "Gutless," while a softer, more melodic texture surrounds songs like "Miss World," "Asking For It" and "Doll Parts." If distortion and crushing wails of fury are more your cup of tea, try "She Walks On Me." Recently, the spotlight has been on Courtney Love because of the tragic suicide of husband, Kurt Cobain. Hopefully soon it will shift to highlight the positive and not the negative. Hole deserves to be recognized for its impassioned, compelling music. Open your ears and minds and take some time to Live Through This.

—Jenni Glenn

SUGARTOOTH

Sugartooth

(DGC, address above)—When Sugartooth (an alleged dental affliction caused by eating too many sweets—right, grandma?) performs live, it uses only one colored light: red. The band wants the crowd to focus on the music, and only the music. We can see why—it's debut, produced by Randy Stern and the band, is undeniably polished and proves that patience pays off. Recorded live and filled with dark, groove-orientated melodies, Sugartooth packs a bite that loud rock fans will love to gnaw on. The band shuns happy melodies, which might make you think these guys were the enraged depressed type. How wrong you are! They may take their anger and frustrations out in their music, but they are your average, typical, down-to-earth dudes. Check out the various states of mind that singer/lyricist/guitarist Marc Hunter uses as inspiration for writing: "I started writing these lyrics on a Monday night during a hallucination...I was sitting, stoned, in my bean bag chair...The song is the drug version of that trip." Bet he needs a stiff cup of coffee in the morning. Slap on your boots, open your windows and push the meters into the red with "Sold My Fortune," "In Need" and "Black Queen." —Lana Michalko

PRIDE & GLORY

Pride & Glory (EP)

(Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—The long-awaited debut from Zakk Wylde (guitarist extraordinaire for Ozzy Osbourne) has finally arrived, although this is only a four-song sampler, specifically for the metal crowd (the full album ships May 31). Pride & Glory is the name, and slammin' countrified, southern rock is the game. "Horse Called War," "Shine On" and "Toe'n The Line" stomp with swaggering, bluesy, good ol' boy grooves, mixed with Zakk's hard-edged vocals and wailing guitar grinds. Joining Zakk are James LoMenzo (formerly of White Lion) on bass and Brian Tichy pounding skins—all the ingredients needed for a fun, foot-stompin' good time. The band's sound is very reminiscent of Lynyrd Skynyrd, but has an added heavy, Sabbath-esque crunch to it. Even though Zakk is from Jersey City, NJ, he'll give any mean, red-neck native of the South a run for his money. The album was produced by Rick Parashar (Pearl Jam, Blind Melon, Temple Of The Dog), but sounds absolutely nothing like the Seattle grunge one might expect. Pride & Glory wails with pure, hard rockin' blues pump n' grind. Zakk trades in his Les

Paul for, yes, a banjo (!) on "Hate Your Guts." This is a twangy, extremely catchy, hilarious country ditty that you'll find yourself humming hours later. Check out the fiery, hand-clappin' rock 'n' rollin' power of Pride & Glory. You'll be hearing a lot more from these boys in the future...guaranteed. —Jenni Glenn

COLLAPSING LUNGS

Colorblind (EP)

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It all started when Aerosmith recorded "Walk This Way" with Run-D.M.C. In the years that followed, the demand for rap/metal fusion increased twofold (just take a look at the major success of the Judgment Night soundtrack). On Colorblind, Collapsing Lungs mixes together huge doses of metal, hip-hop, hardcore punk and industrial, spliced with bizarre samples and unusual noises. The band also uses something called the "Crime Unit"—it's a home-made percussion instrument made of motorcycle and car parts, mufflers, saw blades and chains. The band's seven members meld together perfectly, providing a huge, vibrating wall of sound. Whether it be keyboards, guitars, drums (there's even congas and bongos!) or the piercing, rapped vocals of Brian Tutunick, each one is able to be heard crisply and clearly through the barrage of sound. "Bang!" asks the question, "What ever happened to the good ol' days when you just beat someone up if they pissed you off?" while addressing the problem of gun related deaths in this country. The band gives off an aura of positive aggression through its music by incorporating insightful lyrics amidst a backdrop of fierce, driving instrumentation. Also check out "Crackerjack," "Let's Play A Game," "Too Blind To See" and "Down For The Count." —Jenni Glenn

NAPALM DEATH

"Hung" (5")

(Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Grrrrrrr-aaaaaahhhh! Back the fuck up and make way for the bludgeoning, grindcore-speed-thrash of "Hung," or prepare to be unmercifully stomped into a quivering mass of bloodied flesh. This is just a sickening sample of what to expect from the band's soon-to-come full release, Fear, Emptiness, Despair. Napalm Death has been kicking around for years, feeding the masses hearty helpings of its homegrown recipe for thick, guttural grind. Growls from the bowels of hell slash through spurts of hyper-pounding drum blasts and raging guitar eruptions to form a hailstorm of spit-fire intensity. "Hung" revels in erratic tempo changes and brutally loud clashing of instrumentation that hits you harder than a triple shot of grain alcohol on an empty stomach. The so-called "radio edit" that follows the album version of "Hung" is just an excuse to mess with the minds of all those too wimpy to play full album versions of songs. It starts out like the original, but then caterwauls into a mess of horrible, distorted screaming and feedback. Yes, even the darkest of minds can still have a sense of humor. This should hold everyone over until the long-awaited unleashing of Fear, Emptiness, Despair later this month. Enjoy! —Jenni Glenn

DIALOGUE

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Do you love thick, heavy, dirty, punk-laden, violent music?!? I know I'm not the only one who is noticing the immense reaction to the band known as GODSPEED! Have no fear, your full Godspeed CD, Ride, will arrive this week. If you think "Houston Street" and "Stubborn Ass" are the goods, there are nine more intense bludgeoning tracks like "Hate," "Christ," "Mind Blaster" and "Ride" coming! "Fool You" from KING'S X will dominate rock radio in summer 1994. How much of a stir is The Crow soundtrack causing?!? STP, HELMET, PANTERA, ROLLINS, NIN! Killer new music out NOW: STUTTERING JOHN, RUST, SURGERY, JAWBOX, COLLECTIVE SOUL, UNSAINE and RUSH (animate). Great summer music: STP, TED NUGENT, COLLAPSING LUNGS, OVERKILL, TESTAMENT, SAVATAGE (with Alex Skolnick), VIOLET'S DEMISE and SKID ROW. Wow!

I'm back! And ready to ROCK! I've got three words for you: MUTHA'S DAY OUT! You should all have the very red CD-pro of "We All Bleed Red" with plenty of mixes and the non-LP song, "Through Mine." Mutha's Day Out just wrapped up a few weeks with King's X. Mutha's Day Out are on tour in Europe 'til mid-May. "We All Bleed Red" will keep Mutha's Day Out spinnin' and Schnappy grinnin' 'til they're back in May for more tourin' fun! Also, look for D-GENERATION to rock live at the McGathy bash. Remember, E.R.G...The Place To Be!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

By now, you all got a taste of the new LOVE/HATE. You love this record. The full length should be in your hands by now. Do it. We have DIO tour dates, too. Yes, Ron will be hitting the states in the middle of May. The new single, "Jesus, Mary And The Holy Ghost," is on your desk, dude. So, what's up with that. Do it heavy. BLACK SABBATH's "I Witness" is growing on most of you. There is no CD-pro, so do it off the record. You know you'll love it. IMPERIUM will be doing more phoners to the United States. I'll have a date this week for that. Dig on the record, it's way cool. SARKOMA will tear your walls down. We can see by how many of you added it this week. The full length will be on your desk this week, as well as the SKATENIGS. Add it this week. The new Nigs is heavy. MOTORHEAD is coming to town—need tix, call us. Earth calling L.A...Dave, you'll be hanging in my hood soon. Avenue A for beers, ya know what I'm saying. No, Mike, you were not the 100th call on Tuesday, but you're a dude though. Till next week, c-ya.

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4225

Y'know, I really, really, really love the Green Day track "Longview," but is it me or do they blatantly rip off a KISS riff? Hm...Arsenio is see ya! So is Tom Arnold. It's about time Roseanne got the picture and got rid of that coattail-riding, no-talent bum, but come on! Why is she always the victim? After two games in the Rangers-Islanders series, you have to wonder if Mike Richter is thinking about bringing out a LaZBoy for the rest of the games. (Sorry, Michael.) Although the initial outing of the Pens wasn't much better. They sucked. Oh well, play VARGA and COURSE OF EMPIRE. Thank you.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Are you starting to get that summer itch? Are you longing for some musical excitement to rock your world with unbridled fury? We at Hollywood Records have the answers to your musical prayers! Go check out our newest signing, SEAWEED, while they are on the road and while you're at it, you can check out some tunes from their Sub Pop release that are a fine fit for metal: "Losing Skin," "Turnout" and "Metal Gazer," which moves nicely into "Your Privilege." Call us for tickets, music and interviews. Next up is ELEVEN with none other than Soundgarden, so get that record rotating like a bat out of hell, because tickets will be going fast, fast, fast! The Eleven record is long lasting and tastes great! "Let Down" and "Reach Out" are enough to cleanse any palate and your listeners will eat it up!

Marni/Wayne/Psycho, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

BLACK TRAIN JACK's new release, You're Not Alone, will be going for adds on May 9th and 10th. When you get this, concentrate on "What's The Deal," "Handouts" and "Not Alone." DOG EAT DOG's follow-up release to their Warrant EP is called All Boro Kings, which will be going for adds on May 16th and 17th. Keep playing the NAILBOMB. It's heavy, and they are doing interviews! Oh my, TYPE O NEGATIVE opening up for Nine Inch Nails on the West Coast. LIFE OF AGONY are touring the East Coast, then in May they will head over to Europe with Prong and the Obsessed. SEPULTURA, Pantera and BIOHAZARD tour coming in June! Sepultura playing Donnington! How fucking HUGE!?! BUZZOV-EN, MADBALL, MACHINE HEAD, OBITUARY...

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season had a very impressive first week. One of the most-added on everyone's charts. If you haven't jumped on this CD, do it! Definitely one of the best debuts in '94. Heavy progressive metal is the best term to describe this onslaught. Imagine Megadeth's and Fates Warning's bastard child. The guys are calling in for phoners, so give us a call if Munsey hasn't lined you up. SIMPLE AGGRESSION continues to tour the Midwest. Be on the lookout when they hit your town. Check out the new issue of Guitar Shop magazine and see the great article on DAVID T. CHASTAIN and his new release Next Planet Please—music for the 22nd century.

Max Burgos, Grand Royal Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 663-5983

Be gentle with me, o' long-haired rockers. I come to you bearing hessian gifts. DFL is an L.A.-based band that plays roots punk written especially for the mosher in all of us. They feature Adrock from the Beastie Boys on bass. Our other new arrival is MOISTBOYZ, metal-punk at its most deranged. Ted Nugent meets the DK's meets the Sex Pistols. Check this shit out if you have it, call me if you don't.

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet/Dope, Los Angeles, CA (310) 396-0094

Check it out!! MUCKY PUP is a great fucking record, so let's stop all the bullshit and get on the shit. East Coast, this is your homeboys, so do the right thing. The band has produced a very heavy record, so listen. Don't go by name alone. SAMAEL is getting nice response. The keyboards are a nice touch for a death record. These guys are going a few steps beyond, so why don't you and get on the record. UNLEASHED, BROKEN HOPE and DEMENTED TED are on tour now. Call for tickets and interviews. Keep up airplay for the tour, there are no excuses. EYEHATEGOD is everywhere. Lemmy was wearing the shirt last night at the show. Do you have an Eyehategod shirt? Phil from Pantera does. Have you seen the video? WARGASM needs to move up. The record hit 15, the tour will be very soon, so please hold this record tight. PSYCHOSIS is cranking and should tour soon. GRAVE—what's up? The full length is coming in a couple of months, so expose the EP. DEAD FLY BOY. Where are my fucking numbers? Dead Orchestra is intelligent and creative. This record will fucking rock. Keep your ears open. The wretched tape is in, and get fucking ready for some Venice hard core. A special secret cool "dope" project is going down. So busy here in my world. Peace out!

METAL METAMORPHOSIS

Just a note to let everyone know about some recent changes in the metal personnel departments. Congratulations are in order for Joanne Grand, who joins the AIM Marketing team from Round The Globe Music (go on girlfriend!), Brian McEvoy (the man that made it happen for Grand Slam Records), who is the new metal guru at Mercury Records, Rob Tarantino who is making a move to Interscope Records from Energy Records, Maria Abril who has made the trek from Relativity Records to Metal Blade, Cheryl Valentine who is now rockin' over at Epic records (former Mercury Metal Goddess), Mike Rittberg who joins A&M from Metal Blade, and last, but not least, Schnapper dude who is now at ERG. Way to go, guys.

Also, for future issues, I am planning to run a Metal News column and would like to ask everyone for their help. Please send me any tour dates, band news or any information you would like printed in the weekly Argh!!! news section. Fax everything to (516) 466-7159, attention Jenni Glenn/Metal Editor. Thanks!

In an effort to keep more in touch with the underworld of metal, Argh!!! would like to encourage unsigned bands to send in their demos or self-financed albums for possible review. Please send all materials including group bio to:

COMBUSTIBLE EDISON "Millionaire's Holiday" (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—The Cocktail Nation's Millionaire (aka Michael Cudahy) has his moment in the happy hour spotlight with the video to his theme song. The group uses a shortened, almost entirely instrumental version of the song for this video. It begins with a story: the millionaire dies and leaves his fortune to a stranger who immediately goes on holiday with the cash. In a series of over-acted and highly animated scenes, we see the new "millionaire" in exotic places (created by cardboard chroma-key backdrops). That story dissolves to a live scene of Combustible Edison, complete with synchronized dancers and the spotlight on the enchanting chanteuse, Miss Lily Banquette. The clip continues with sepia-toned shots of beaked-monsters. Perhaps there was too much gin in the director's tonic, but this cocktail hour video is most entertaining, even if a tad nonsensical. RED RED MEAT "Smokey Mountain DBL Dip" (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Yeeehaw! No, it's not a debauched, last episode of Hee Haw, it's just Red Red Meat indulging in a bit of toothless fun, hillbilly style. Set in a barnyard complete with heaps of straw and pigslop, "Smokey Mountain DBL Dip" features a joyously filthy cast of characters ranging from a jug-player, to a old man jiggling with a pig-tailed Daisy Dukes to a stuffed muskrat. Red Red Meat isn't a country band in any sense of the word, but the song's grinning slide guitar dravil lends itself to this wacked out, backwoods, inbred romp. (CH)

MESSIAH "Thunderdome" (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave. #1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—We don't need to tell you the difference between the X-rated and clean version of this clip, we're sure you'll waste no time in finding out for yourself. That said, "Thunderdome" is a towering techno extravaganza, a five-minute blast of pulsating beats that launch the viewer into the cold yet strangely alluring world of cybersex. With bloodshot-inducing intensity the realm of virtual reality and technological overkill blurs into a

reviews continued

flashing montage of TV screens, Japanese animation, and computer-generated graphics juxtaposed with handheld camera footage to startling effect. (CH)

MORPHINE "Thursday" (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678)—It would be almost too easy to make a cliché ridden video for Morphine, especially for "Thursday" what with its storyline about a pool hall tryst and a jealous husband. Fortunately, this helter skelter clip steers clear of any visual clichés (swinging lightbulbs, smoke curls, women in fishnet stockings playing pool, etc.) in favor of grainy footage of Morphine out on a country farm in the middle of winter. The use of blurred color overlays and shifts from positive to negative images supplies the shadow, mystery and atmosphere that is implied in the band's sound. While arguably one of the more unique rock combos of the '90s, Morphine is understandably less engaging on video, so your best bet is still to drive out of your way to see them live, even on a school night, and to play this cool video for those who can't make it to the show. (SC)

CROOKLYN DODGERS "Hit 'em Where It Hurts" (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA)—Masta Ace, Buckshot from Black Moon and Special Ed are the Crooklyn Doggers as featured on the soundtrack for the new Spike Lee joint Crooklyn. This great track and video shows that the real flavor of New York City is supplied by the big, bad borough of Brooklyn (The Planet, as Guru calls it). The clip opens with Mikes Tyson and Jordan claiming native Brooklyn status, vintage Brooklyn Doggers and Jackie Robinson footage spilling into the video. A great video if only for the return of Special Ed. Say, where can a guy get one of those Crooklyn baseball jackets? (SC)

VALENTINE SMITH "Katie's A No-Show" (Another Round, P.O. Box 3872, Jersey City, NJ 07303/212-714-7178)—"Katie's A No-Show" is a great song from one of Hoboken's best bands. The video stays out of the way for the most part, showing Valentine Smith delivering this pop/folk gem. Yes, it's a fairly standard video, but one that reminds you that a video's highest purpose is to let you see how good a band is, and this bright track would have cut through the busiest video. (SC)

GUEST DIALOGUE

Dave Hepler of Inch, Seed Recording Artist

Going on tour lends itself to making up stupid games. The most important rule is to lie about everything. If anyone asks you if you'll be playing in a particular town, always say "yes, at the (random) Bar & Grill!" For example, "Hey, are you guys gonna be playing in Bend?" Answer: "Yes we are, at the Bend Bar & Grill, I believe." Also, always lie about the tour itself. As in: "How was the Sacramento show last Sunday?" Reply: "Man, the place was packed. The fire marshall came by and cut the power after four songs." Lying is cheap entertainment: cheap and senseless. In a casino in Lake Tahoe, some security guy asked us if we were 21, and Mike lied and said he was only 19 (even though he is 23) just so he could get kicked out.

Another good idea is to lie about whether or not you're awake while driving in the middle of the night. No matter how many miles you've driven with your eyes closed, if someone in the back of the van asks if you need to pull over and let someone else drive, always respond: "I'm doing great. That last Dr. Pepper really got me wired." Has anyone ever noticed the neon horses on I-5 in Oregon? Pippin swears he saw them one night while we were all asleep, but I think he was playing this game at the time.

One stupid story that actually isn't a lie happened in Mesa, AZ, on the first night of a two-week tour. Stimy was so excited to be on tour (instead of at work) that he decided to dislocate his knee during our second song, just to give the audience an extra thrill. After knocking over half of my drum kit and flipping around the stage like a dying guppy, he slid his kneecap four inches back into place and told us that he thought we'd better stop for the night. Pretty clever way of getting out of moving equipment for the rest of the tour, and a really great way to get prescription pain pills.

RECORD COMPANY

Dave Parker, Silent Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 957-1320

By now you should have all received copies of our two latest ambient releases, U.F.A. and

EARTH TO INFINITY. "The Gate" and "Memphis To Mars" on Earth To Infinity blow my mind. Look out for ABSTINENCE May 3. This guitar-based industrial group features ex-Killing Joke and current Prong member John Bechdel. Go see Abstinence with TVT artist Emergency Broadcast Network May 14 at the Fastlane in NJ and at Downtime in NY May 21. John will be performing along with Paul Raven, also of Killing Joke and Prong.

Rich Holtzman, 4AD Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 289-8770

"Shock me, make me feel better, shock me, put on your black leather." RED HOUSE PAINTERS have a new EP...do you like Kiss? LISA GERMANO's Happiness should be on your desk by now. Like Singapore, I was thinking of appropriate punishment for stations playing Pink Floyd, how's 20 lashes with a broken bamboo sound? Congratulations to Todd Heinz on your two year anniversary. Like Siddhartha, you have endured many hardships, however college radio is the most direct path to enlightenment. Good luck.

Julie McKnight, Doctor Dream Records, Orange, CA (714) 997-9387

Okey dokey, Milky Juicy. This is the new CD by NJ's TINY LIGHTS, voted most likely to make your top 10. No need to run down to your local record store, it will be arriving soon to a mailbox near you. Learn it, love it, play it! You should already have Another Month Of Mondays by JOYRIDE (hopefully on your playlist). But wait, there's more. Get set, get ready for a new release and tour from the CADILLAC TRAMPS, from DI, and from TEXAS INSTRUMENTS. And, keep a look out for a slew of 7" singles coming at ya. Enjoy!

Rosie V-Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Have you heard the latest? We've signed SEA-WEED! Yeh! Yeh! We're excited and want you to know that if you would like tickets to catch one of their shows just give us a ring and we'll take care of it. Many thanks to all of you out there who are currently supporting YOTHU YINDI and the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA. If you would like to set up a phone interview with any of our bands, you know what to do. Hope to hear from you! Later.

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Fret not college folks—it's almost over soon for most of you. What better way to end your school year than with BLACK TRAIN JACK at the top of your playlist? You're Not Alone is smoking thanks to you. Rumors of a summer tour with some plaid Boston boys are surfacing and will be confirmed by the time you read this. Catch them solo on 5/13 at CBGB's in New York, 5/15 at The Trocadero in Philly, 5/21 at Babyhead in Providence and 5/28 at the Middle East in Boston (with Into Another, one of my favorites). Black Train Jack! Special kudos to those stations

TERRA NOVA

TERRA NOVA... 13 memorable songs, including "Going Down", "The Bad Seed", "When The Mountain Meets The Sea", and "Leaving Town".

TERRA NOVA is somewhere on your desk as you read this. Please give it a listen, expose it to the world, and add it to your CMJ playlist.

ON YOUR DESK NOW!

who came out for the DIE MONSTER DIE tour and an extra special smooch on the cheek to those who had the band on the air. The MOON SEVEN TIMES have found a special place in the hearts of many MDs—don't overlook this beautiful band. Coming soon are DOG EAT DOG's All Boro Kings, FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY's Millenium and BUZZOVEN's Sore.

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

We're at the start of a massive month. The new PAUL WELLER album, Wild Wood, hits on Tuesday (5/3) and Paul kicks off his national tour on the same day in Boston. The MEAT PUPPETS hit the road with Cracker in May, and will be out with a big, big band in the summer. This record is really blowing up if you haven't noticed. The STAKKA BO project is also off and running—huge action in Seattle, a great first week at alternative radio, kind of a cross between Deee-lite, the STEREO MC'S and Ingmar Bergman, look for an album on 5/17. The FRETBLANKET EP is at college radio—big set up on this English guitar band, album in June. Also in June, PULP. Perfect for all those pale people who die for Morrissey, Pulp is run by Jarvis "way pansier than Brett" Cocker, who will be the next moody limey poster boy. So I'm off to Dallas for no obvious reason, bye. Go see C.C. ADCOCK and WOOL—they're both on tour too (not together).

Scott Perry & Will Simon, Beggars Banquet/Thirsty Ear Recordings, New York, NY (800) 866-2313

Let's see...I'm writing this on April 18, which means this should be in the May 2 issue, so I guess that means most of you are in the midst of finals! Good luck to all, especially those who are supposed to graduate this time around. Most importantly, take time out to catch our bands when they swing through your town! Most of our bands are from overseas, so if you miss them this time around, you won't be able to see them again for a very long time. Onstage: HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. (supporting Medicine), ROLLERSKATE SKINNY (diggin' the "Threshold" single?), the CHARLATANS (with QUEEN SARAH SATURDAY opening) and SMALL BALL PAUL (with Cher U.K.). Needless to say, these shows will be pretty damn amazing (ask anyone about the Beggars showcase at CMJ last year). Call us for concert dates, tickets, giveaways, interview requests or cozy floorspace for Hair & Skin (total gentlemen, I tell ya). Cheers and thanks from the DYLANs to everyone they met on their promotional tour, they'll soon be playing live...BLUE AEROPLANES: new CD Life Model out soon. RIPE: Plastic Hassle out sooner. So when the hell did Van Halen join the Meters? I wish Leo Nocentelli would return...In the meantime, I suppose I'll improve my basketball skills, listen to the new Groove Collective record and hope that The Kids In The Hall live show graces this town soon...

My belated impressions of SXSW: Whoopee! Those who did not disappoint: Syd Straw, the Silos, Lay Quiet Awhile, Swine King, Johnny Cash, Susan Voelz...Those who did: Lisa Loeb, the Fuck Emo's, Honk If Yer Horny...That Raygun magazine calls OPAL FOXX QUARTET, "frank, startling, and mesmerizing." Are you paying attention? This is the most powerful record you're likely to hear in a long, long time...And last but not least, brand new from Long Play is Better Than A Poke In The Eye: A Long Play Sampler. It's a 17-song extravaganza to celebrate the fact that we've been around for two whole years, and well, we're still in business. Bands on it are: BIG FISH ENSEMBLE, CICADA SINGS, Opal Foxx Quartet, MITCH EASTER, ANNE RICHMOND BOSTON, the FLYING SUBS, the WOGGLES, PORN ORCHARD and WIDESPREAD PANIC. Not only that, it contains brand new songs unavailable anywhere else by Big Fish Ensemble and Cicada Sings. At this point we're not planning a giant radio mailing, but if you want one for your station, it's yours for the asking. Call me or Jill Kalish, or write to P.O. Box 55233, Atlanta, GA 30308, or fax us at 404-577-2927.

KMFDM is on tour in May. SISTER MACHINE GUN is opening. You're going. Big shouts to WFSR, KMSU, WHRW, WMWM, KCR, KJHK, WXCI, WFDU, WBNY, WRVU, WCMU, WCDB for their support of the WRENS. Didn't see a CMJ review of Silver? Pick up a copy of the May issue of Magnet for the scoop. Yeah, you like Grass Records, but the cool DJs stole your copies of BRAINIAC, EDSEL, TWITCH and BRIDGET? Get out your copy of Pulled From The Wreckage, a compilation of the best of Grass. CATHERINE's Sleepy EP is coming soon from TVT—watch the pretty silver CD's spin in the machine and shake your head very, very much. Their full-length debut will be out in the fall. Pure pap fans are sweating hard over the ROOKS and

PERMANENT GREEN LIGHT. Angels with attitude, 22 BRIDES are out with their debut on Zero Hour in June. Look for them on their coffee-house tour this spring. Thanks to Jason Pettigrew, Yvonne Garrett, Neil Strauss, Jon Wiederhorn and Amy Welch who spoke at my publicity panel at the IMF. Yer swell. Tip of the month: roll-on lip-gloss in bubblegum, cherry or cola flavors. It's fourth grade all over again. Zine pick: for the brilliant letters and "Dysfunctional Family Circus" reprints, Browbeat, P.O. Box 111124, Oakland, CA 94611-1124...Kurt Cobain and Daniel Fidler, we'll miss you.

Seth Goldman, The Goldman Management Group, New York, NY (718) 377-7905

If you haven't yet seen and heard KENNY YOUNG AND THE EGGPLANTS' new 7" purple vinyl disc (Quixotic Records), you don't know what you're missing! Forget the great cover art and eggplant-colored record, the songs, "There's Something Growing In Eddie's Apartment" and "Randolph Got A Haircut," are among the best from this band described as "surreal," "captivating" and "giving eloquent voice to the multi-faceted neurosis of prolonged adolescence" by the New York Times. Their third trip to Edinburgh and second to Ireland is now being locked in for late-August/early-September. They played on JUNGER AND PARKER's radio show, We Stayed In (among others), in the U.K. last year. Junger And Parker's new CD-EP will be available soon—it's more jazz than acoustic rock and more acoustic rock than jazz. This is my first Dialogue, so I don't know many of you, and you don't know me. Call and let's Dialogue in person...there's much more going on here!

Max Burgos, Radio Fool, Grand Royal Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 663-5983

Hey, long time no see or speak or hear. The last time we came at you was with the original release of LUSCIOUS JACKSON. Many of you played it when I sent it to you, others waited until Capitol re-released it. Either way thanks for the support. Luscious has a new record on the way (which Capitol will be servicing and tracking), same thing with Ill Communication from the BEASTIE BOYS. I have just sent many of you our two newest releases: DFL and MOISTBOYZ. Both are definitely much harder and "rock oriented" than Luscious Jackson. DFL is early '80s punk featuring Adrock from the Beastie Boys on bass. Moistboyz is metal-punk for the deranged featuring the evil

Mad lib time at Cargo. Fill in the blanks, send us back the Dialogue, win a (descriptive adjective) prize. Best mad lib gets a car (noun) plus (Band) and (Band) cassettes from Cargo. You should have received CINDY LEE BERRYHILL's Garage Orchestra. It's a quirky, intelligent and (descriptive adjective) mix of her singer-song-writer skills backed by members of the San Diego Symphony. BIG DRILL CAR is back with No Worse For The Wear, arguably their best effort since Small (body part). If Jim Hensen had a house band for (fruit) Street, it'd have to be HEAVY VEGETABLE. Their debut, The Amazing Undersea Adventures Of Aquakitty And Friends, is all about playful well-written songs with incredible tempo changes, most of which clock under two (time). (Sensory verb) for new PITCHBLENDE and CORAL (adverb) enuf. Now, for the real time to use the mad lib section. "I hate (name of famous indie rockers). Every time I get close to them, they smell like a (time) old piece of (food). Anyway, they sound like a bunch of (plant) hugging hippies with (body odor). Plus, their label, (label, duh?), is as efficient as a (handicap) (pronoun) trying to (verb). Man, one of these days, I'm gonna take a (garden tool) and (violent verb) those fuckers to death." Remember, best mad lib, gets (excretion).

Dialogues are to CMJ as bowel movements are to a fibrous diet. On tour now: KMFDM and SISTER MACHINE GUN (with Chemlab), the CONNELLS and CHRIS CONNELLY & WILLIAM TUCKER. Blessed be the otherwise indie-rock types who've raved 'bout Ethno-techno Sonic Anthropology (Marie Guinto thinks it's rad), we knew you'd come around! On a more pop-cultural note, has anyone else noticed that our indie scene's been sharing the same fashion sensibility as us ravers? Acid Jazzies have tread upon the same thread, while hip-hop MCs have been leading the way all along. Let's not give Kim Gordon all the credit. Welcome back Adidas! Merchandising has presented us with a cultural link, and alternative music as we've been paid to call it has taken on a new meaning. Separatists begone! To what do I attribute this less-than-insightful jabber? An office without a window or fan, perhaps. A more significant mention should be made about GIL SCOTT-HERON's Spirits, which has finally graced your CD players. His last album 12 years ago was on vinyl when CD players were merely a concept. Congratulations to those of you paying homage to his timeless genius! He's got a word or two for those of you who still rhyme "Women Ain't Shit But Hos And Tricks." And the CATHERINE Sleepy EP? Not too bad, huh? Stuff I recommend: Fifth Column, Nefertiti, Solsonics, Brand New Heavies, Helium, Slant 6, Seefeel, Juliet Roberts (she's '94's Disco Dival)...

Thanks to KCSS, KALX, KUSF, KUCR, WTUL, WUSC, WMUC, WXAC for helping make our win TH FAITH HEALERS contest a success and providing our interns with a full week's entertainment. In an overwhelming show of copier skills and kickball promotions expertise WVFS and the greater Tallahassee area will be the recipient of a concert from the band very soon. WVFS should be more than proud of their over 7,000 entries, not including the 1,500 showcasing their in-depth grasp of pop culture. Giving a complex, almost scientific, case study of the average college mind-set, represented topics included: legendary music persona, indie-rock super heroes, obscure literary figures, political demons (past and present), sports luminaries, cartoon characters, household appliances, anatomy (mostly genitalia), local eccentrics and celebrities of all media genres (fictional and otherwise). Favorite entries: Robert Manning Strozier, Sheila E, Charles Douglas Franklin, Tim Cook, Buck Owens, Greg Dulli, Link Wray, car phone, Dick Head, Ricardo Montalban, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Jack Off, Rudy Rae Moore, the cast of Gilligan's Island, 90210 and Full House, Jack Palance, Wink Martindale, Capt. Crunch, perennial college legends: Al Coholic, Bud Wisner, Mike Hunt and Your Mama. There is no denying the volumes of enthusiasm represented with each station's entry, but a more-than-honorable-mention goes to KCSS-Turlock, CA, whose entry was "above and beyond." For creative contest presentation and staff motivation lessons call Katie, Miss Zarlino, if your nasty, at (209) 667-3378.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144

SARAH McLACHLAN: Still on the road supporting Fumbling Towards Ecstasy. Songs that make you feel good: "Possession," "Hold On," "Ice Cream," "Fear" and "Good Enough." THE CHURCH will be appearing Sometime Anywhere. Specifically, the end of April with advance music and beginning of May officially. Putting their heads in "2 Places At Once" as the first single. Love it and play it. June 7 is the day the Airheads soundtrack makes its way to you...Friday night, one of my friends asks his friend if he went to the Mudhoney show that Pearl Jam were rumored to be opening for. "No," he says, "I spent 65 bucks and they never showed up!" "65 bucks?!?" a man with his friends that just stepped out of a cab, pipes in. "What a dumb ass! They never showed up and we still got your money!" We turn around to see none other than Mark Arm and the rest of Mudhoney standing there laughing at this guy...I was just in the mailroom and the latest issue of People magazine with Kurt Cobain on the cover is sitting on the desk. I thumb through it and see what must be the most disturbing photo I've ever seen. Someone used the zoomiest of lenses and took a photo through a window of a cop next to Kurt's body. All you see is his right arm and leg, but I'm sorry, that is really rude regardless of who the person is.

David Weigel, Rust Records, Portland, OR (503) 282-8449

"...my life is melting way the f__k too fast..." so goes Kirsten Rian's lyric from "Melt," the title track from IN JUNE's new three-song 7", which seems to be causing a bit o' controversy on commercial radio these days. And while the recurrent appearance of expletives such as this one have been known to result in the sale of a record or two which, by the way, was not the ultimate goal in this case, because this new 7" represents the ascendancy from two previous nation-wide releases for a band which has now truly come into it's own and simply wishes to express a few words on how the world has mutated them. What ever happened to freedom of expression? After all, people freely use the f-word as an expression every day. Yet, it's still kinda funny how folks take exception to everyday words they themselves use to express real feelings with respect to the real world. Thanks college radio for your courage!

Barbara Powers, Hell Gate Productions, Astoria, NY (718) 626-1654

Well, for those of you who have been hearing me say for the past three months now that the next EAST RIVER PIPE 7" single would be out "in about a month"...I'm happy to say that it is finally out. It's called "Ah Dictaphone," and you may have received a copy already. For whatever reason, this stuff always takes longer than you think it's going to, especially with just the two of us here. The littlest things can take forever. We have sent "Ah Dictaphone" out to lots of stations, but not as many as in the past. This time records only went out to stations that have either played us, sent back postcards, written to us, called us or showed an interest in some way or another. So, if you haven't received "Ah Dictaphone" yet and you would like to, just call, write or fax us (we have a fax machine now)...the number is the same as our phone number. We'll be happy to send a copy of the record out to you, we just have to know that you want it so we don't waste everybody's time (and our money). I also want to send a huge thank you to all of you who have played and supported East River Pipe over these past couple of years...you're the ones who have kept us going.

A big warm fuzzy thanks to all who spun the Spin Radio Network this school year. Response was great. Some of the shit I've been receiving looks and sounds like it was written by Jeffrey Dahmer and produced by Charles Manson. Danny Kelleher, Jazz Director, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858

Greetings from Chicago's Southside! As you can see, I'm the jazz director. We have a special show on Thursday's called Da Blues And More. We give you a seven-hour dose of blues, jazz, folk and more. We're getting a lot of cool new jazz releases. Thanks to everyone who's sent music and/or will in the future. Feel free to contact me on Thursday afternoons. Some of our current faves are HOLLY COLE TRIO, the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA, CYRUS CHESTNUT, MICHAEL HAYES, NAKED CITY and RALPH COVERT. Jazz and blues are played throughout the week, not just on Thursdays. On the other side of the musical spectrum, I'm really enjoying the new material from PRAXIS with the amazing BUCKETHEAD, KING'S X, RICHARD THOMPSON, DAVID T. CHASTAIN and Z. I spent my St. Patrick's Day at the Park West with Z. It was quite an experience meeting Ahmet, Dweezil and company. What a show! Hey guys, sorry about the mishap. I'm still bumming about this world's loss of one of the finest musicians to ever grace this planet, FRANK ZAPPA. His music will be remembered. That's all folks! Go White Sox.

Benjamin A. Knight, Music Director, KXLU, Los Angeles, CA (310) 338-2875

Neither Laure Parsons nor Gerard Cosloy like FURTHER. Coincidence or pillow talk? Cosloy sow fit to use a KXLU interview with his band ENVELOPE to launch a full-scale unprovoked attack on peaceful Los Angeles residents Further...no, Envelope didn't tour across the country in a broken van, they flew in an airplane (probably a big one). So, don't feel bad that they drove past your town without stopping in for a show, they flew past (it's harder to stop in an airplane). Writing a Dialogue wasn't as much fun as I was led to believe.

Joel Mowbray, PD, WHFH, Flossmoor, IL (708) 798-9434
Hola! I'm writing you all from out here in radio-land. It was a bummer about Cobain's death, but DGC is going to be raking in big bucks on the whole thing. I'll tell ya, there is no better career move than death. Ironically, the artist of the week here at WHFH on the week of Cobain's death was NIRVANA. Monday through Thursday, we got 10-15 calls for each In Utero cassette and t-shirt we gave away. However, on the Friday that he was announced dead, we logged over 60 calls on the t-shirt we gave away that afternoon. So many Nirvana fans who called in were in a state of disbelief. I really hope that none of Cobain's fans follow his lead, because there is truly nothing sadder than the ending of a young life. Anyway, out here in the trenches, the hot new stuff is from LIVE and FAT TUESDAY. If you are a PD, I urge you to call Columbia and get Fat Tuesday's new one, Everybody's Got One, and play the song "High And Low." Hey, drop me a line sometime to talk music. Also, if any artist is interested, if a group is giving a concert in Chicago and wishing to promote, we have a weekly hour-long music talk show! By the way, I'd like to thank: Jay at Sony, Jeff at Interscope, Billy Cox at PLG 'cause you've all been great!

Hello hello, this is just a quick Dialogue to tell you all to go to hell. Nothing personal, no particular people (can you tell when I'm lying?), just this crazy industry and all its ugly sides. The good side? Good music. Things I love: Why would I tell you? Really? Then how would you distort that information? Honestly, I hate music, sometimes I don't. I hate music, it's got too many notes. I love music, good cheezy music, bubblegum music, abstract music, strange music. My station is incredible. We just had the JIM ROSE SIDESHOW CIRCUS on, way nutty, and SALIF KEITA being interviewed in French. My underground dance music show, Crush Collision, has seen Detroit techno innovators Carl Craig, Rob Hood (nee Noise) and D Wynn guest DJ on my show. Things are good here. I just got a CD by ☺ from Finland from my favorite label Sahko. It is a work of art. Bizarre electronic minimalism and ambient music that is unique and innovative! How often does that happen! Also recent faves are the ABBA cover 7" including TH FAITH HEALERS doing "SOS," the new sassy-esque Ben Is Dead magazine, the FLYING SAUCER ATTACK LP, those nice indie-rock compilations on Now Sounds and Pop Narcotic, and the ever swell new MAGNETIC FIELDS CD.

Hello to all. My name is John Meyers, I've been here since 1985 and I am currently occupying the position of music director with the station. As many of you already know, this has been an extremely difficult year for us. (Did you notice the upward trend on Rolaids, Prozac and RJ Reynolds stock?) Many thanks to those of you who have stuck with us through the worst of it. Things are finally looking up again. Just for the record I should tell you that: 1. We will be reclaiming KCOU for our call letters, pending FCC approval. Would someone stop by KCOU Bar in NYC and drink a beer for me please. 2. Our format has been returned to the open-minded, varied and adventurous system that served all concerned parties well for so many years. (Indies, perk up your ears on that note!) Good noise is good noise. If you've got it, we would love to put it on the air! 3. We'll be hosting the Second annual BIG STAR reunion April 30! Do I have your attention now? OK, we didn't really get them again, but we will be co-sponsoring the first annual Missouri Derby. "No horses...just bands." Featuring: SCARCE, SILKWORM, MERCY RULE, DITCH WITCH, SMALL FACTORY, SMALL 23, STARKWEATHERS and lots of local talent. Anybody wanna do an album? We would love to see you all there! It's free, so how can you pass it up? Call us for more information.

Hello everyone! What's that I smell in the air? Spring! Yes! Finally! After a brutal winter, it sure smells good. First off, I would like to thank everyone that has called the station. It's been rough, but I think I've spoken to just about everyone that has called and left a message! In case you don't know, my office hours are M-W-F from 12-4 p.m. I like to take music calls Mondays from 1-4 p.m.

Oh ya. Before I forget, WOUX is moving to BB.3 FM. We have officially changed our call letters to WXOU. Most of you will be receiving a fact sheet detailing our format soon. To complement this newcoming, Jon Moshier, station manager, and I have concocted a far out recipe for a tantalizing musical melange. Note: To enhance the cooking process pop in some soothing ambient music such as disk 2 off Plug In + Turn On or PLASTIK-MAN. For those of you who bake on a regular basis, try The Essential Fripp And Eno and SONIC YOUTH/YAMATSUKA EYE. Now then. First you chop up all the music from the music library, separating into specified music genres, season with really cool color codes and place inside a skillet. Then add tons of free form; this brings out the natural flavor. Cover and let simmer. Next set the oven at 120 watts and keep mixing it really well, oh, until about August.

Three states. One station. For the Ohio Valley region, only WVBC-FM provides the intelligent listener with the finest and latest in progressive rock. I'm making my first Dialogue a combination beg and brag job, so bear with me. First things first, Tom B. is no longer with our happy family here. The new music director, Ed Gombes, is anxious to fill his large shoes—so please send this fledgling station all the indie stuff you can. Proving there is a music scene beyond the LEMONHEADS, our top 35 includes indie bands PLEASE (MotherWest), the PUTTERS (Empty), LOTION (spinArt) and BLIND MR. JONES (Bizarre). Our opinion is that the "indier," the better. Secondly, we play vinyl, too. So, if you've got a cool record release, we're more than happy to take it off your hands. Third, office hours are: Ed (T, TH 2-4), Frank (M 1-3), Shawn (F 1-2). Give us a call and we'll chat. Fourth, I'm interested in interviewing any act. I had the chance to question Chad Taylor (LIVE) and will be bugging THEY MIGHT BE GIANTS and SARAH McLACHLAN. So, for a small town college radio station, we believe the future only can get brighter. Please help us out in our quest to strengthen our hold on the Ohio Valley alternative market. Thanks.

I know spring has finally arrived in New England when I can go outside on a day like today wearing a sweater instead of a coat. The arrival of spring also means WHRB starts gearing up for Orgy season, a twice-yearly event during which large blocks of programming are dedicated to any one artist, region, record label, or any other unifying factor. From the station that brought you the days-long Music Of Washington D.C. Orgy last spring and the week-long (!) Rough Trade Orgy two years ago comes the Rock Music Of Scotland Orgy, currently scheduled to span four days: from Tuesday, May 19 into Friday, May 22. Also planned in the month of May are Orgies celebrating the music (or "music") of ANGRY SAMOANS, CAROLINER, and GUIDED BY VOICES, among others. The recent spate of new releases by GBV will no doubt aid in filling two nights' worth of air. Oh, and these are only the Rock Department's Orgies...Other changes have been afoot, as well. The WHRB studios will be moving to a new location on Harvard's campus, starting this June. And since they plan on turning this joint into some "eatery" or another, the ensuing construction has caused some slight hardship: an intermittently haywire phone system for the past couple of weeks (always during my office hours, it seems), the sound of hammers banging, and (yikes!) the lack of a bathroom. More information about the move, and how it may affect your ability to reach us will be forthcoming...

WASHINGTON STATE SUPREME COURT DECLARES "EROTIC" MUSIC STATUTE UNCONSTITUTIONAL

On April 14, 1994, the Washington state Supreme Court affirmed a lower court decision declaring a 1992 "erotic" music statute unconstitutional on due process and First Amendment grounds. The law, which was intended to protect minors, had made the sale of unlabeled sound recordings that had been deemed "erotic" a criminal act. On June 23, 1992, the Recording Industry Association of America, in collaboration with the Washington Music Industry Coalition and the American Civil Liberties Union, filed suit seeking a judicial declaration that the state's "erotic" music law was unconstitutional.

RAZOR & TIE SIGNS WITH KOCH

Razor & Tie Music has become part of the Koch network. The label has reissued albums by Arthur Alexander, Graham Parker, Alex Chilton and Tina Turner. The first release after the new distribution deal will be In Their Own Words: Volume 1, a compilation of live recordings from Vin Scelsa's songwriter series at New York's Bottom Line. The album, which also celebrates the club's 20th anniversary, contains previously unreleased performances by 15 artists, including Richard Thompson, Shawn Colvin, Joey Ramone, Lucinda Williams and Ric Ocasek, and will be out in June.

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

HOLE
Live Through This
(DGC)

"[Courtney Love has] grown confident enough to take on more ambitious topics than the sensationalist observations that prevailed on Pretty On The Inside, and with the advantage of a new, tighter rhythm section, the amorphous, noisy grunge of 1991 is ditched in favor of more structured, melodic songs."

JOHNNY CASH
American Recordings
(American)

"It's hard to believe it, but most of the performances on American Recordings are as vital as Cash's Sun singles and the At Folsom Prison recording... Cash is still making important music almost 40 years into his career."

TINDERSTICKS
Tindersticks
(Bar/None)

"The Tindersticks' self-titled debut album is like an ornately scripted 75-minute opera, rife with warm blooded rock music that barely rocks. Instead, the band's delicately paced songs are woven around piano or organ beds, or gracefully sculpted guitar lines."

ROLLINS BAND
Weight
(Imago)

"Just when you think that you've heard it all before, that you've heard all the Rollins you need to hear, the Rollins Band comes up with something bigger, better and stronger than Henry himself."
