REG E. GAINES

The art of spoken word has dug itself a little niche in today's mass culture. Through an MTV-sponsored spoken word tour, a few appearances on the network and, of course, his debut release Please Don't Take My Air Jordans (Mercury), the thirty-something Reg E. Gaines proclaims his messages of anger and frustration in a way that is both highly articulate and loaded with striking realism. Getting signed to a major label was not always a personal ambition for Reg; after spending many years of his life playing tennis and coaching the sport to young rich kids, he came to realize his passion for writing while listening to the din of bombs exploding outside his hotel room in Tel Aviv, Israel, where he was teaching tennis. Reg's talents developed through his journal, the writings of which became the subversive, socio-political cold shower called Please Don't Take My Air Jordans, which was recorded in his brother's house before he was signed. Reg would set up a microphone in the bathroom to take advantage of the ambient acoustics. His control over his work and evident disdain for the music business makes Reg appear to be the Spike Lee of spoken word; "I didn't have to kiss anyone's butt to get it done," he recalls about the album. Aside from being an accomplished poet, Reg travels around New York City schools, teaching inner-city youths basic listening and communication skills, and reaching students in ways that even their own teachers find astonishing. Sounding off against traditional American symbols and customs, Reg's clear, concise political and social observations are perceptive enough to send shock waves through much of white America. There's nothing disguising his convictions, none of rap's posing or grandstanding, and his lyrics are unpretentiously powerful. Whether he's talking about the condition of the educational system for black children in America or explaining the reasons behind Yannick Noah's weak backhand, Reg E. Gaines is a voice that demands your attention. —Glen Sansone

Reg uses the following poem, about police harassment, at school poetry workshops to show children how their feelings and ideas can be voiced through poetry.

Essential New Music

SONIC YOUTH Experimental Jet Set, Trash And No Star (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—

Sonic Youth's greatest strength—the thing that makes its albums so durable over time—is its subtlety. Now that so many other bands are rocking as densely as SY used to, grunge's godparents are embracing sparseness to better highlight their attention to detail and their masterful, graceful play with dissonance and noise. From the stark, airy single "Bull In The Heather" to further-out tracks like "Tokyo Eye," Experimental... is filled with a confidence that doesn't need to be backed up by volume. Not that the album doesn't rock out in places—"Screaming Skull" and the opening of "Bone" are plenty headbanging—but its quiet, spacious passages are what make it superb. Kim Gordon and Thurston Moore (no Lee Ranaldo songs this time) still have the same lyrical fascinations as always: the underground culture at whose center they're positioned (there are allusions to the Frogs, X-Girl and Boredoms, among others), the transforming power of sex ("We kissed under a tree/I felt so salty free/I felt nothing like me"), and offhanded silliness (the on-a-roll babble of "In The Mind Of The Bourgeois Reader"). Special kudos go to Steve Shelley, whose fluid, inventive drumming has never been better. Also experiment with: "Starfield Road," "Skink," "Waist" and "Sweet Shine." —Douglas Volk

G. LOVE AND SPECIAL SAUCE G. Love And Special Sauce (OKeh, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—

This Boston trio redefines both blues and rap on its debut release, which can't really be called either; the album was also created by early 20-somethings who, by their own definition, have not lived the life usually required for the pain depicted in both genres. While not laying aside traditional structure, the band adds a loose feel which recalls the earliest musical emergencies of both, before form and structure tightened to fit definition. The music—floppy drums, simply plucked bass and almost loungy guitar—echoes G. Love's lax rap style, at times recalling Anthony Kiedis or Michael Ivey (Basehead), and at others sounding like a drunk guy singing in the subway. In reforming the blues and rap construct, the band has not neglected the lyrical angle, from the innuendo-ridden lines of "Baby's Got Sauce" to the alcohol-laden "Cold Beverage." In its overall feel and aesthetic, G.

Love fits into the niche newly shaped by Beck, its rap leaning towards Basehead or De La Soul and its blues sprung from Josh White or Leadbelly. A truly cool record. —Megan McLaughlin

GEGGY TAH Grand Opening (Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—

Being diverse is easy; interesting and listenable are different stories.

Geggy Tah's debut happens to encompass all of those things. Grand Opening is an imaginative, uninhibited blessing of a record, one best described in hyperbole, incongruous metaphors and knee-jerk critical outs such as "sounds like a jam session with Zappa's ghost, Ween and Prince." Geggy Tah is comprised of L.A. musicheads Greg Kurstin and Tommy Jordan (say Gregggy and Tom like their baby sisters did and you get "Geggy Tah"), who thrive on bending, breaking and ignoring accepted musical rules. Like fashion models who can look great in a straitjacket, a scuba mask and hiking boots, Kurstin and Jordan are able to pick up melodicas, steel drums, glass bottles, bass, piano and guitars to make up an overwhelmingly enticing package.

Grand Opening is at once infantile and brilliant. The silliness comes through in tracks like "Bomb Fishing," about catching fish the easy way (with explosives), and the genius comes through in tracks like "Last Word," where the fear of commitment comes through in an ironic juxtaposition of a wedding march cross cut with a funeral dirge. Open wide: "L.A. Lujah," "Crack Of Dawn," "Tucked In" and "P. Stuff," which sounds like a jam session between Prince and... —Steve Ciabattini

SUNNY DAY REAL ESTATE Diary (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98101/206-441-8441)—

It's hard to be optimistic in an era of little opportunity—tough to face the day with a smile when all that lies ahead are feelings of emptiness and boredom. Given such a situation, it's easy to become moody, trapped in a tug-o-war between misery and rage. And in the '90s, fears and frustrations aren't simply periodic ailments, they're chronic conditions that can only be treated, not cured. For Seattle's Sunny Day Real Estate, chronicling grief, hurt and confusion through stirring torrents of sound can be therapeutic. That's where Diary comes in. Like a book disclosing the intimacies of a troubled life, Sunny Day Real Estate's first album is poignant and painfully revealing, filled with dynamic textures and atmospheres ranging from hushed piano lines to screaming guitar riffs and hyperactive drum volleys. Nearly every song starts quietly and builds to a climactic roar. But unlike many outfits that alter tempo and volume for artistic effect, Sunny Day Real Estate does it to communicate its emotional instability. Crack open the Diary and turn to "Seven," "In Circles," "Round," "Pheurton-Skeurto" and "Shadows." —Jon Wiederhorn

INDIGO GIRLS Swamp Ophelia (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—The Georgia-based duo of Amy Ray and Emily Saliers has been locking compelling harmonies and spinning emotional, earthy melodies for the better part of a decade now. While their fifth album, Swamp Ophelia, contains the shimmering folksy-pop songs we've come to expect from the Indigo Girls, it also reveals their forage into fuller, more ensemble-based arrangements, a platform set into motion with the release of 1990's Nomads, Indians, Saints. The album opener, "Fugitive," roars mightily forward with majestic orchestral flourishes (forceful cellos, confrontational violins) from the school of late '70s Elton John recordings. "Touch Me Fall" is as heavy as anything off previous albums, with electric guitars providing a fluid, scratchy wash behind staggeringly leaden drum tracks. Swamp Ophelia not only reveals a marked musical songwriting maturity, but a lyrical coming-of-age as well: gone are the intermittent, near-kitschy emotional lyrical panderings found on earlier albums. Witness "Fare Thee Well," an earnest and delicately haunting acoustic guitar and vocal piece penned in memory of someone who was lost too soon. With a dynamic balance of guitar/voice-only songs and fully arranged works, Swamp Ophelia is sure to broaden the Girls' appeal, as well as delight fans of their earlier albums. Don't miss: all mentioned above, plus "Mystery" and "Least Complicated." —Aaron Clow

CAETANO VELOSO E GILBERTO GIL Tropicália (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Caetano Veloso and Gilberto Gil, two giants of Brazilian music, have united to pay tribute to 25 years of that country's music. In one sense, it's no less awesome an occasion than if James Brown and Sly Stone created an album to mark the birth of funk, or if Kim Gordon teamed up with PJ Harvey to commemorate the lineage of women in rock. The results display the whole musical and emotional panoply of Brazilian music—from breezy, sunbeam-soaked acoustic strums to simmering funk, and from poignant love poetry to wicked wit and playful satire. Veloso's honey-tenor voice is particularly warm and graceful, and both titans of tropicalismo benefit from the power of two great and playful minds at work

instead of one. Even as they unite to pay tribute to the music, they're still pushing it forward, stretching the limits, expanding the boundaries even further. These are men who truly follow to the letter the doctrine of pushing the envelope, of creating music that is not only new, fresh and vibrant in the here and now, but remains interesting and intriguing every time you listen to it. —James Lien

STRAPPING FIELDHANDS Discus (Omphalos, 608 S. 5th St., Philadelphia, PA 19147)—While legions of flannel-wearing young American men have trampled the paths pioneered by R.E.M., Hüsker Dü and Nirvana, achieving two months of college radio "fame," it is those who clear their own uncharted passage through the indie-rock jungle who will be remembered two years from now. Rock music never emerges from a vacuum, devoid of influences, but the homogeneity of indie-rock references renders countless bands forgettable. The occasional departures from the usual are refreshing. The Strapping Field Hands' '60s British folk/psych tendencies are quite apparent (it's a safe bet that they own records by Syd Barrett and pre-glam Marc Bolan), but they're certainly not revivalists (their distorted guitars and sloppy vocals would segue equally well with Pavement as with John's Children). Their lack of polish is not due to amateur talent but rather achieved via the consumption of large quantities of beer and ale. They sound like drunken sailors on "Lonnie Donegan's Mum's Sea Chest," the best chantey heard since Butthole Surfers' "Sea Ferring." The skiffle-like "Boo Hoo Hoo" is bouncy, catchy and lyrically absurd, while the band almost manages to sound elegant on the tuneful, folksy "Mysterious Girl." For those of you who insist that your indie-rock rocks, we recommend: "Battle Down The 1/4 Mile" and "Luminous Bodies." —David Newgarden

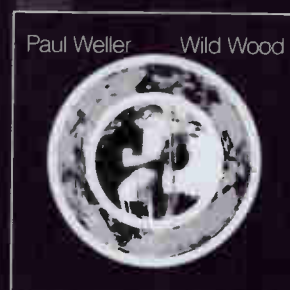

GUIDED BY VOICES Fast Japanese Spin Cycle (EP) (Engine, P.O. Box 1575, Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY 10009/212-505-6929)—Since their music made its way out of Dayton, OH, last year with the attention-grabbing Vampire On Titus, Guided By Voices have quickly proven themselves to be one of the underground's most jaw-droppingly prolific and talented bands. Amidst a flurry of recent singles comes Fast

Japanese Spin Cycle, whose eight songs are neatly packed into 10 and a half minutes encompassing a wealth of personality in their short span. Robert Pollard's sincere, almost Brit-sounding vocals, cryptically poetic lyrics and ragged-edged hooks define his band's simultaneously brainy and visceral sound, which flowers on "Marchers In Orange" and "Dusted" (different versions of which appear on Vampire) and "My Impression Now." The songs and the EP are both brief and full of possibility—a perfect precursor to the release of GBV's imminent new LP for Scat, Bee Thousand.—Lydia Anderson

DOWN SOUTH Lost In Brooklyn (Big Beat, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805)—Represent, kid. That's the name of the game. Even though Rakim once uttered, "It ain't where you're from, it's where you're at," no rap record is complete without some sort of battle cry to friends from the block, 'hood or city to give it regional flavor. The Virginia natives in Down South are well aware of this territorial prejudice, so the trio of Shawn J-Period, Soda Pop and Myorr The DJ picked up and moved to the hip-hop nucleus, Brooklyn. Lost In Brooklyn is about that transition, and proves that these three "hicks" can trade lyrical blows with any New York crew. Without pandering or pimping its lyrical barrages, Down South blows holes in southern misconceptions on "Down South," and playfully gives street credibility to stereotypical southern culture on "Southern Comfort" and "Tractors, Rakes And Hoes." On the second half of the record, the group tells tales of survival in Brooklyn, contrasting its old surroundings with its new ones ("Lost In Brooklyn"). Eventually, the jazz-sampled, rubbery grooves (which feature production assistance from the Beatnuts) become more visible, while the guys trade freestyle verses about hanging out on "Just Sitting Here," reminiscing about riding Big Wheels in their youth, or building the confidence to borrow Doug E. Fresh's catch phrase ("Aaaay yo, Hght") on the feel-good funk of "The Carbonated One." Drop the guns, crack a 40 oz., and nod ya head to this. Also ride with: "Jimi Crack Korn," "Spin Da Boddle" and "Open Sesame."

—Glen Sansone

BHEKI MSELEKU Timelessness (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Timelessness, the domestic debut from Bheki Mseleku (say "Bekky M-sell-eh-coo"), is jazz at its most expressive and spiritual. Mseleku, an exiled

South African living in London, plays piano and sax as movingly as they can be played, with a tremendous sense of melody and swing on the keys and a heady, cathartic tone with the horn. Despite no formal musical training and the lack of the tops of two fingers on his right hand, Mseleku's been known to play sax and piano at the same time. Along with his strong rhythm section of Michael Bowie and Marvin Smith, Mseleku is joined on select tracks by sax giants Pharooh Sanders and Joe Henderson, drummer Elvin Jones and singer extraordinaire Abbey Lincoln. It's clear from the deep vibe on the recording that those guests were not brought in merely to attract attention, but that they were truly drawn to Mseleku's spirited playing. Abbey Lincoln even cut short her vacation to do "Through The Years," so the story goes. Pieces like "Vukani (Wake Up)" recall John Coltrane's passionate recordings of the '60s (also with Sanders), which spoke not only of "jazz," but implied the blues, gospel and soul within their very essence. Timelessness releases (not captures) a sound that not only urges one to nod along to the agreeable swing, but also places a lump in the throat.

Domination, 3575 Cahuenga Blvd. W., Ste. 450, Los Angeles, CA 90068/213-850-0254—Dave Allen—the bass-playing pillar that held up the low end of Gang Of Four, Shriekback, King Swamp and Low Pop Suicide—has finally more or less gone solo. Elastic Purejoy represents the first time Allen's singing has been featured on a record, and, in fact, singing is almost all he does here (most of the music is played by a pick-up ensemble of World Domination label regulars). The album is a kind of audio journal, reflecting Allen's recent interests. What we find out is that he's a literate guy ("Suburban Yoke" namedrops John Cheever, and another track takes off from Samuel Beckett's Dream Of Fair To Middling Women), he's not afraid to show off how smart he is ("Caxton Vs. The Fourth Estate" is a backward-guitar-laced power ballad inspired by the history of moveable type), and he keeps up on current music (there's a crisp, breathy cover of "Stiff," from Brian Eno's Vocals box set). We also find out that Allen likes to kick back and hit one- or two-chord grooves sprinkled with a little guitar and synth noodling, as he does most successfully on "Monkey Bone-Walker." This is a personal and personable document from a long-time alternative-rock standby. —Douglas Wolk

ORANGUTANG Dead Sailor Acid Blues (Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Boston-based Orangutang's music is filled with heavy, thick rhythms and psychedelic imagery. Produced by Sean Slade and Paul Q. Kolderie (Juliana Hatfield, Radiohead, Hole), the songs on Dead Sailor Acid Blues are driving, powerful and just plain old fun. "Bigger Chunk" shouts "All great leaders they conspire," while a trouncing rhythm slaps your ears. The abrupt silences make the song riveting. Mixing fat syncopation with a crunchy beat, "Sweet Lemon Maureen" should be great background music to any rowdy gala. "Pontchartrain" strums one note of guitar continuously as weird forest noises blanket the background, before immediately crashing into a vocal melody with electric guitar followed by a thrashing, drum-pounding, hectic scream. Pleasantly melodic, "Shiny Like Gold" urges you to sing along with its vocal hook: "You could be the one/You could see the sun." Live, the band boasts raw energy, as the bandmembers fling their bodies all around the stage while managing to remain solid musically. Check out the above, along with "They All Write Her Songs," "Sea Of Glass" and "Daddy Raw." —Lana Michalko

SAMMY Sammy (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—No matter how much the band (or critics) attempts to sidestep the comparison, Sammy's sound will inevitably be measured against Pavement's. Not that Sammy is anything less than a crafty student of the Pavement school of sly rock understatement. The trio formed in New York City sometime last year and recorded its first 7" single for Steve Shelley's Smells Like Records, before being lured back to the eight-track to assemble songs for its self-titled debut. With a wide-eyed glow and effortless charm, Sammy doesn't necessarily skirt the "scene that criticizes itself" element that is typically associated with indie rock of this creed, but instead establishes its own middle ground of legitimacy between flattering imitation and casual pop ingenuity. The sparkle of these songs lies not only in the coddling harmony in the two voices or the occasional nod to playful characterizations, but in the more straightforward exploration of lazy songcraft and the inherent appeal of slacker-rock's smirking subtleties. Perfect sounds forever: "Rudy," "Hi Fi Killers," "Babe Come Down" and "TZ Queen." —Colin Helms

BARNABYS Augustus Loop (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—Last year's Delightful Browns EP brought us the first sampling of the Barnabys' jangly, nervously energetic and intricate songwriting. Now, Augustus Loop offers a complete 18-track meal of pure, crisp tunes, carved from ideals based in acoustic realism and delicately mixed for easy digestion. Containing everything from the simplistic, lighthearted sing-along jumpiness of "Yeah Whatever" to the warm security of the violin-interlaced "Kool-Aid," Augustus Loop lets everything hang out, revealing a band bent on diversity and sincerity. Lead singer Joey Sweeney's unaffected, natural delivery (reminiscent of The Clean's David Kilgour) is strangely appealing and compelling, even when he occasionally, and sometimes predictably, misses the melodic mark. That same sense of authenticity pervades the entire project, attributed partially to the Kramer-like starkness of the album's production and partially to the light and carefree execution of the album's songs. Especially peculiar are the two brief snippets of Jerky Boys-like phone dialogue exchanges; on "Room 17," an unidentified party calls a hotel and requests a room that doesn't exist. Good places to get caught in the Loop: "Theme From Barnabys," "Arts & Sciences" and "Dhee."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Dixie Flatline (Radioactive Rat, 238 S. Cherry St., Richmond, VA 23220/804-648-6113)—Fifteen bands contribute 20 songs to the 37 tracks on Dixie Flatline, a Richmond, VA, scene compilation. (The other 17 are bits of found noise, segues, brief anonymous instrumentals, and the like—many of them enjoyable in their own right.) The only well-known names here are Labradford and Buzzoven, but an impressively high proportion of the rest contribute really nifty things. Scene comps often fall flat when they reach outside their main genre, but

Dixie Flatline's techno (Somatron's "South Rising Sun," which has a banjo playing along with its computers) and hip-hop (Spot Me 20's weird, low-key "Rolly Roll") tracks are both first-rate experimental pieces. King Sour's "6 Pack Of Heroin" is a pounding Don Caballero-ish instrumental; Flailo's two tracks are goofy death-metal delivered with impressive ferocity (especially "Faces Of Death"); a couple of pieces by Radioactive Rat's house band Pelt show its tone-warping guitar-rock to be gaining maturity and confidence amazingly quickly; and Art Monks do a nerve-harrying tape-loop piece, "Mourning Wallace." Thoughtfully sequenced and filled with unexpected sonic surprises, this is a terrific introduction to a little-known but fertile scene.

—Douglas Wolk

THE FARM Hullabaloo (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—For bands coming out of Liverpool, England, the shoes of pop history are a mighty large piece of footwear to fill, and The Farm has been strongly avoiding them over the sextet's nearly decade-long existence. The Farm broke through in 1991 with its debut LP Spartacus, which revealed the band's profound politics mixed with tuneful and relentless musical energy. While 1992's Love See No Colour saw the band doodling with electronics, Hullabaloo finds The Farm returning to its guitar-based roots, which made Spartacus' "Groovy Train" and "All Together Now" such infectious hits. Songs like "Hateful," "Messiah" and "All American World" simmer with searing lyrics, as the combination of crunching power chords and the band's signature noodling hooks add a fiery fury that gives these tracks their trenchant, riotous enthusiasm. Peter Hooton's unrestrained vocals attack hypocrites, bureaucrats and the like without blinking an eye, passionately providing the rich melody to the above tracks and the slower-tempoed "The Man Who Cried" and "Comfort."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT "Ease My Mind" (5") (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—1992's success story returns with a new mellow jam which reflects on success and its ensuing pressure. As is customary, the second release after a tremendously popular debut is filled with laments about how hard it is to be popular, but "Ease My Mind" takes AD's familiar laid-back approach and Speech manages to remain relatively untainted by his time in the spotlight. The track is slow and smooth, the standard AD touches of several different voices and interludes working to an overall cohesive effect. —Megan McLaughlin

WINGTIP SLOAT Return Of The Night Of The Ardent Straggler (7" EP) (Sweet Portable You, c/o VHF, P.O. Box 7365, Fairfax Station, VA 22039/703-978-4064)—Wingtip Sloat's third single is as musically broadminded as its earlier outings, but this time the sprawl seems less random and more deliberate. The three original songs undermine their pop strategies with self-inflicted attacks of sticky, arrhythmic abrasion. "Left Leaning Forward," with its fuzzy-headed intensity, sounds like a desperate call for help from the end of a wind tunnel; "The Bed Pot" is slow, soft and—almost despite itself—pretty. The band's most pop moment to date comes with a cover of Tall Dwarfs' "Beauty," complete with affected Kiwi accents. As usual, this sounds like the work of four different bands, all of whom are onto something good. —Douglas Wolk

MANTIS "Grits, Dummy" (7") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-455-1015)—A little bit of lo-fi recording, a little bit of chaos and only a tune to distinguish Mantis from many other products of the home-recorded 7" revolution. The A-side's "Grits, Dummy" is a danceable indie-rock tune with a strong beat and a few prominent groovy guitar chords. "You In America Now" implements much of the same, but with a darker aura produced by a dash of angst. A single can be hailed for its ear-appealing sound, if not for its ingenious novelty. —Dawn Sutter

SOUL-JUNK "Stripes We Are Healed" (7") (Holy Kiss Rex, 1723 1/2 Drescher St., San Diego, CA 92111)—The A-side of this single sounds like several people got together in one room, put on headphones and began to play instruments, without any clue of what anyone else was doing... and yet, somehow, it works; naturally it is a little dissonant and chaotic, but it carries well that 'I'm playing punk rock and can do whatever I want' aesthetic. The B-side has two songs that sound as if the guys had listened to the Shaggs a bit too many times, but couldn't quite attain the level of incoherence that those girls did. —Dawn Sutter CORNDOLLY "Afterschool Special With The Difference" (7") (Dalmatian, One Meade Way, Bronxville, NY 10708)—With only its third single, Urbana, IL, quartet Corndolly has sadly decided to call it quits, ending a short-lived, but

afterschool special with the difference

nonetheless smart, pop presence. These two tracks mark the band's demise with infectious authority, "Afterschool Special" featuring some thoroughly snappy drumming that belies the song's melancholic underbelly and emotional suggestion. A bit more barbed than the A-side, "The Difference" uses vocalist Amy's mean-spirited growl and twisting guitar lines along with a chugging-train rhythm to a forceful end. —Colin Helms

BAGPIPE OPERATION Mt. Lavaty (7" EP) (Harriet, P.O. Box 649, Cambridge, MA 02238/671-666-4007)—Bagpipe Operation's songs are tiny, handcrafted affairs (there are five on this record, all under three minutes), manufactured with a four-track, some knitting needles and a keen appreciation of Saturday morning cartoon music. The band's guitars buzz like voices heard through soup cans connected with wire, and its keyboards, drums and (occasional) vocals do the same—it's amazing how much treble fits onto one little record. "67 Melody Lane" opens the disc with a volley of peppy chords overlaid with an atonal organ bit that veers about like a drunken bee. "My Face" is the closest thing here to a conventional pop song, but "Pinky" and the instrumental "Habanera" put Bagpipe Operation's mesa-flat production to best use. —Douglas Wolk

POEM ROCKET Poem Rocket (51 Judge St. #2, Brooklyn, NY 11211/718-599-7669)—This New York quartet has been playing around for quite a while, but this is its first demo tape, and judging by the results, it was probably a good idea to wait this long. Although the band's still working out some of its ideas, it's got a fully developed aesthetic, and the kind of interactive dynamic that comes only with time, patience and practice. The band knows how to build up tension/resolution structures, and it gives them time to work themselves out. As a result, these four songs run almost half an hour between them, but there's always something aurally interesting going on, so the tape never drags. Poem Rocket lets its songs develop over time, usually by augmentation and development rather than by repeating a riff into the ground (although the band does that very effectively on the two-part closer, "Blue Chevy Impala," which eventually devolves into a brief passage of inner-groove noise). Some of the vocals are done by Sandra Gardner, who has a chalky, unsettling voice that goes well with the band's gravelly guitar work; otherwise, the credits don't identify who does what, but somebody's got a nimbly swooping tenor voice, and somebody's got a distinctive guitar style full of dead-on single-note guitar obbligatoros. The gnarled, percussive chording of "Carbon Black" owes a thing or two to the Grifters, but it ends with a fascinating, wraith-like solo hovering in the background. Other than that, Poem Rocket seems to be mostly finding its own way, which is a very good sign. —Douglas Wolk

FYI

The band's name, along with hand-scrawled lettering and a grinning doll on the color-xeroxed booklet of a demo cassette by New York's BABY STEPS (c/o Joe McGuinty, 421 E. 9th St., New York, NY 10009/212-477-8617), evoked fears of yet another cloying, childlike love-rock band. But to our surprise, the music is a much more mature mix of rock and '60s easy-listening (particularly evident on the unabashedly campy bossa-nova "Eurotrash"). Singer/songwriter/pianist Joe McGuinty (who previously played keyboard in the Psychedelic Furs) is also the mastermind behind "The Loser's Lounge," a humorous performance series of easy-listening karaoke by Lower East Side scum-rock stars. On the more serious side, "Whiskey And Passion" and "Air On A G String" recall John Cale's Paris 1919. The fine piano- and string-centered tunes (the guitar-less group includes violin and cello) and a shared fondness for Lee Hazlewood and Burt Bacharach might draw comparisons to Tindersticks or a less-depressed Magnetic Fields, but the singing, the band's weakest point, is not as strong as either of these groups. But the accomplished arrangements, pleasant melodies and sharp production by Kurt Ralske (Ultra Vivid Scene) are quite notable. —D.I.Y.

CHART FOCUS

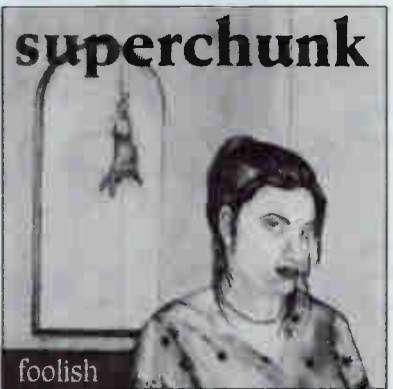

Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds

Nick Cave's music has always had a very literary aesthetic, his vivid imagery emphasizing the dramatic characters in his stories. With Let Love In, Cave turns the focus inward, imbuing his poetic confessions with as much ache as hope and joy. Cave's stark, emotional presence, along with the Bad Seeds' robust backing (including former Birthday Party cohort Rowland S. Howard on backing vocals), makes Let Love In one of the most spellbinding records you're bound to hear this year. In its second week on the chart, the album jumps 67-29 (led by the South at #19 and the West at #20), reported on 81 of the 474 top 35 playlists this week. KALX (#1), KCSU, KNWD, KSUA (#1), KUCB, KUCR, WCBN, WCNI (#1), WEVL, WFCS, WMSC, WNYU, WOBC, WPUR, WRAS, WRUW, WSMU (#1), WUSB and WXDU lead the pack, letting Love in to their top 10.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

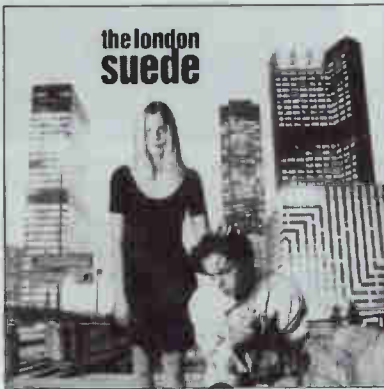

ON THE CHART

As Hole's major-label debut for DGC (1-1) and the Rollins Band's new one on Imago (2-2) hold fort at the top of the chart, Live's sophomore LP on Radioactive makes a grand entry at #3, sweeping up top Breakthrough honors and sliding in at #7 In-store. Merge's Superchunk (6-5) and DGC's Counting Crows (8-7) each gain one notch, and MCA's new Jimi Hendrix release, Blues, makes a top-10 debut at #9.

Johnny Cash's American Recordings, recorded on a four-track in Rick Rubin's living room, makes a first stab at #21 (and takes top In-store honors), followed closely by Drive Like Jehu's first major-label release on Interscope at #25 and the Smitherens punchy new LP for RCA at #31. Rounding out the new entry list this week are the new EP on Nude-Columbia from Suede, recently renamed the London Suede (#51, see Retail Focus); Mammoth's Rare On Air Live Performances (#53), culled from KCRW's Morning Becomes Eclectic radio show; Tsunami's new 7" on Simple Machines (#71), the precursor to the band's upcoming second LP; and Blur's new import album on Food (UK) (#75).

As Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins (17-11), Bong Load-DGC's Beck (14-12), Mammoth-Atlantic's Frente! (52-23), Elektra's Luna (58-39) and 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Rodan (55-47) all make gains, several re-entries fill the chart's bottom half: Virgin's Cracker (#55), Combustible Edison (#62) and Nirvana's Bleach (#63) on Sub Pop, Seed-Atlantic's Madder Rose (#65), Mute-Elektra's Erasure 5" (#66), Epic's Deep Forest (#68) and Island-PLG's cranberries (#72). RETAIL FOCUS

LONDON SUEDE

Suede's debut album was released domestically after a downpour of hyper-enthusiastic British press flooded our shores, almost overshadowing the band's potential. Returning with five new songs and a new name, the London Suede, the band shines with the anthemic, radio-friendly "Stay Together." Rounding out the EP are four moody cuts, from the spare, acoustic "The Living Dead" to the amphetamine-driven "High Rising," making use of brass and string sections.

DOPE!

M.O.P. To The Death (Select, 16 W. 22nd St., New York, NY 10010/212-691-1200)—While the West Coast soaks up all of the hardcore spotlight, there is a Brownsville, Brooklyn, duo which can give any canine-named or medical-monikered hardcore heavyweight a run for their money. Comprised of Lil Fame (who first appeared on Island's The Hill That's Real compilation) and Billy Danzenie, M.O.P. (Mash Out Posse) is as real as it gets, if you're looking for snarling gangster rhymes from a group that comes from a line of convicted or dead gangsters. While the tales of others run off the map with pedantic hot air, M.O.P. (which represents die-hard descendants of Brooklyn's Tomahawk gang) raps about what's real on the street while reviewing a hardcore resumé that appears genuine enough to make To The Death an early retail demon. With the arresting nature of groups like Wu-Tang Clan and DFC, leader Lil Fame leaves deep footprints through "Rugged Neva Smoove" and "Blue Steel," along with a host of rousing street-chants and lyrical torments that should cause anyone to fire off six into the ceiling. M.O.P.'s being so deeply rooted in the East makes a cut like the title track sound curiously out of place with its synth-heavy western groove. Still, with production from Daryl D and Silver D, and a special Funkmaster Flex remix of "How About Some Hardcore?" the M.O.P. should have some new-found followers. Shoot your gats to: "CrimeTime 1-178," "Top Of The Line" and "F.A.G. (Fake Ass Gangsta)."

FUNKY ALTERNATIVES

Groups like Basehead and, more recently, the disjointed slacker funk of Beck's "Loser" ushered in a difficult-to-define new breed of musicians who consistently offer something brow-raising, whether it's trashy funk, trippy pop, slurred raps or a creative non-hip-hop use of the sampler—a device almost exclusively associated with rap. The latest in this expanding mini-genre is the self-titled debut by G. LOVE AND SPECIAL SAUCE (OKeh, c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211). Recording for the legendary blues label OKeh, G. Love is about as hip-hop as, say, the Red Hot Chili Peppers, but even through the group's mostly acoustic clatter and weighted rhythms, its rap influence makes itself heard, especially on "Baby's Got Sauce" and "This Ain't Living." For those who appreciated the cross-cultural feel of De La Soul's 3 Feet High And Rising, or the Beastie Boys' innovative Paul's Boutique and Check Your Head, the unrefined coolness and swampy funk of G. Love And Special Sauce will be a rare treat...The fusion of hip-hop and jazz has been utilized to creative ends on many levels. The acid jazz scene has successfully blurred the lines dividing the two genres by promoting the unity, musicianship and freedom, which are properties of

ON THE CHART

NAS IS NAS-TY: Despite taking three weeks, Columbia's favorite son Nas has finally captured top honors (2-1), dethroning Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (1-2), who fall after seven week's at #1. Illmatic was reported by 55 of 130 stations, including an amazing 23 #1 reports. Other notable movements within the top 10 include Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim soundtrack (7-5) (with heavy reporting on "Regulate"), and the second single from Dirty Rotten Scoundrel Jeru The Damaja, moving up 11-7. While Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (13-11), Virgin's Shyheim (14-12) and Jive's R. Kelly (16-13) all move closer to the top 10, we welcome the debut by Outkast, titled Southernplayalisticadillacmuzik (whew!), at #15. There's plenty more debuts to report: Giant-WB's Ahmad lands "Back In The Day" at #26, Blacklist's King Just beats in at #27, Reprise's Groove Collective comes in at #29, Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts get props at #30, Epic Street's Freddie Foxxx comes in at #34, Mercury's Ill Featuring Al Skratch lands at #38 and the debut album by Immortal-RCA's Volume 10 takes hold at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Arrested Development; 2) Crooklyn Dodgers; 3) Shyheim; 4) Artifacts; 5) Above The Rim; 6) Nice & Smooth; 7) Anotna Level; 8) Beatnuts; 9) K.M.D.; 10) Smif-N-Wessun. both. Rap groups like Gang Starr and Stetsasonic were pioneers in realizing the similarities of both jazz and hip-hop as musical cultures, marrying the two in songs like "Jazz Music" and "Talkin' All That Jazz." Lately, as evidenced in releases by Ronny Jordan and Greg Osby, as well as the upcoming album from Buckshot Le Fonke (a k a Branford Marsalis), jazz musicians have embraced the rhythms of the street, discovering a new avenue to make jazz more universally appealing without sacrificing its basic principles. The group URBANATOR, which is made up of accomplished jazz players Michael Urbaniak (violin), drummer Lenny White (who played on Miles Davis' Bitches Brew), bassist Al McDowell and keyboardist Jon Dryden, has just released its self-titled debut [Hip Bop, c/o Silva Screen, 1600 Broadway, Ste. 910,

New York, NY 10019/212-757-1616]. With a host of guest musicians ranging from Herbie Hancock on the blistering remake of "Chameleon" and new rappers Muckhead and Solid, this is primarily a jazz band that revels in improvisation while exploring the rhythmic textures and seldomly explored territories of R&B and electro-funk. While at times Urbanator sounds no more adventurous than a bunch of contemporary, jazz-lite pacifists ("Hopscotch"), the cut "Hot Jazz Biscuits" is an ashen, light-bop gem that fulfills any craving for deep-rooted raps and hissy, swingin' jazz. Just when you thought jazz had lost its edge at being the predominantly "cool" music, it flips its cap to the back and strikes with a stern and mighty blow. Take the A Train: "Cats," "Watermelon Man," "Here I Go Again" and "Square Park Sunday."

DEF 12

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT "Ease My Mind" [100 BPM] (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104)—With "Ease My Mind," from the forthcoming Zingalamaduni, Speech and family return with the grounded sort of rationality and aching passion for cultural and spiritual upliftment that thrust the groups' debut release into the spotlight two years ago. But as Speech shaded his eyes from the limelight, his messages found followers of all persuasions. On "Ease My Mind" he doesn't let his supporters down as his supple funk beds match anything from 3 Years..., and his words support his determination to continue to influence change: "I'll move in poverty, in wealth, but I'll surely move!"

HERE COME THE DRUMS

Put the NBA playoffs on hold for these few hardcore nuggets. With the success of Wu-Tang Clan, the doors guarding the wealth of rap talent in the New York City borough of Staten Island have been blasted open with the force of a battering ram. Describing his sound as the "Shaolin Style," the gruff KING JUST flips some fast wordplay on "Warrior's Drum" [104 BPM] (Black Fist, c/o Pretty Special, 200 W. 72nd St., Ste. 64, New York, NY 10023-2824/212-873-1379), which should win the respect of Wu-Tang heads and lovers of the hypnotical funk. Atop a burrowing bassline and a heavy, head-nodding groove that leaves the edges plenty rough, Just's tribal chorus of "Hay-Ya, Hay-Ya, Hay-Ya" could very well be the latest catch phrase to raise the first to...MR. FREEZE AND THE HOMEWRECKERS' "We're Compatible" [108 BPM] (Radical, 306 E. 15th St., 2nd Fl., New York, NY 10003/212-475-1111) is further proof that the "old-school" style of hip-hop (based around party rhymes and funk/disco beats) is coming back. "We're Compatible" is the antithesis of much of the violent and misogynist lyrics recently marring rap's image. His first record was released in 1981 ("Jazzy Sensation") with hip-hop pioneer Afrika Bambaataa, and his return (backed by the lively and energetic Homewreckers) comes in the form of this danceable, party-styled track, which displays Mr. Freeze's storytelling proficiency and the group's happy funk foundation...Also making noise is the debut single by the young ruffians of QUO, entitled "Huh What?" [96 BPM] (MJ Music, c/o Epic Street, address above). Backed by Michael Jackson's MJ Music, these hard-scowling kids are afforded production and guest rapping from Redman to help set off this predictable, yet lively, jam. Stinky shouts to: Carmelita (Delicious Vinyl), Pierre Diaz (Arista), Rick (Scotti Bros.), Chris "Fox And The Hound" LaSalle (Hollywood BASIC) and Bryan Adams (Tommy Boy). Word out.

WORD IS...

In unofficial news, word is that PolyGram Label Group (PLG) has purchased Rush Associated Labels (RAL) and its entire catalog from Sony Music. We hear that the first two releases from PolyGram under the new structure will be from DOMINO and NICE & SMOOTH, returning with its long-anticipated album...Priority Records has inked a deal with Infrared Music Group, a label headed by producers E-A-SKI and CMT (Spice 1). The first release under the new deal will be Ski and CMT's The Infrared and Tighter Than A Virgin from the Oakland-based RALLY RAL...NASHVILLE ISN'T ALL COUNTRY: After creating a buzz on WQQK in Nashville (which plays almost no rap), rapper PISTOL will make his debut on Street Flavor/Ruthless-Relativity on May 24 with the release of Hittin' Like A Bullet, preceded by the single "Rolling In My '64"...Stepsun Music will be releasing the debut single by missjones entitled "Don't Front"...HIP-

ON THE CHART

Just like his performance on the radio chart, Columbia's Nas is the clear favorite at retail for the second straight week, while Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim soundtrack sits closely behind. Things remain almost unchanged except for the small moves by Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (6-5) and Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (9-8). Following the successful single "Player's Ball," LaFace-Arista's Outkast debuts its first album at #10. Select's

M.O.P. (16-12) continues to climb, while Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (21-16) and Qwest-WB's Tevin Campbell (20-18) make moves just ahead of the debut by Immortal-RCA's Volume 10, which enters Hip-Hopera at #19. Also earning a debut on this week's chart is Ruthless-Relativity's Kokane, who sits Funk Upon A Rhyme at #25. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HOP HITS THE HARD ROCK: First Priority-Atlantic's MC LYTE was recently inducted into the memorabilia collection of New York's Hard Rock Cafe when she donated the gold single for "Ruffneck" and the leather jacket she wore in her "Paper Thin" video...HEY, I CAN RAP TOO: The latest sports figure-turned-hip-hop figure is Atlanta Brave/Atlanta Falcon DEION SANDERS. BLOWN' UP above) Radio Chart Position: #27—There are a few similarities between the gruff-rhyming King Just and the Wu-Tang Clan: both are from Staten Island, NY, both are champions of the "Shaolin" style, and both artists created a buzz within the discerning hip-hop underground with an independently-released single. For Wu-Tang, it was "Protect Ya Neck" that landed the group at RCA, and the hell-raising "Warrior's Drum" may be Just's ticket to a major-label album deal, too. In just its first week, the drums can be heard at eight out of 130 reporting stations—good enough for a debut at #27. With a bright future ahead of him, King Just rules the top 10 at these stations: KCMU, WBAU, WBMB, WCWP, WHLC (#1), WMWM (#1), WRAS and WXCI in Danbury, CT.

NEW WORLD MUSIC

Chart compiled by James Lien/
Column by Cliff Funnald

"SOME SONGS I LIKE...."

Some songs I don't like. It's been a most frustrating week here at the New Haven field office. My desk is piled, nay, littered with CDs. Some I really like. Some I really wanted to like but just couldn't. Some others...? So today, take out your bluebooks and "compare and contrast."

I wouldn't normally lead off with a reissue, but since a recording like Thiaphatholy (Stern's Music, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648) exemplifies all that's right with good music, and points towards all that can go wrong, here we start. ETOILE DE DAKAR was one of the most important bands in western Africa, forgoing a new, more popular identity for African music by hanging onto the local roots while delving into the mysteries of Euro-American pop and Cuban rhythm. By the late '70s the group had acquired a young, dynamic singer named Youssou N'Dour, who over the next decade almost single-handedly (for better or worse) changed the course of African musical history. The band's music, called mbalax ("rhythm") by the young N'Dour, mixed in traditional Senegalese grooves with the Latin dance music that was sweeping the continent, plus a heavy dose of soul via recordings by Americans like James Brown. Thiaphatholy is the second of this infamous band's recordings, made in 1980 as Etoile De Dakar was coming out of the shadow of its earlier Cuban sound and developing into a real national musical force that made its music distinctly Senegalese. Up front are two major forces: the traditional tama drumming of Assane Thiam (who moved on with N'Dour to international pop fame in the '90s) and the frontline voices of N'Dour, Alla Seck, El Hadji Faye and Eric M'Backe N'Doye. Adding the idiosyncratic bass lines, fuzzy guitar and a burning horn section, Super Etoile made music that is still dynamic today. Contrast this to the upcoming Youssou N'Dour album, and you see not only the importance of roots, but the power of creativity for its own sake, free of international marketing appeal.

I've said it a million times: Drum machines are the bane of my musical existence. They have poisoned some of the potentially greatest records made, even though they have occasionally been used as a creative tool. SAM MANGWANA's newest (and much awaited) new album Rumba Music (Stern's Music, address above) skirts the center turf, with a warm and wonderful mix of Afro-Cuban soaked soukous that gets occasionally buried in silicon buffalo chips. Fortunately, he is such a great singer, and the songs are just so damn good that it not only survives but shines. Three of the tracks pay special homage to the Cuban roots of West African popular music in a New York session with the Fania All-Stars. Just listen to the shimmer of "Senegal" or "Jamais Kolonga" and you'll see the light. Lose the "drummer in a box," Sam.

Proof of the silicon theory is SHADES OF BLACK. The backup singers for Antillian pop band KASSAV' have produced an album far from Wonderful (TriStar, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211), so rife with computer trivia and pop gloss as to render their otherwise wonderful voices unlistenable. Kassav' fares only slightly better in a live set recorded at Zenith titled Se Nou Memn' (TriStar, address above). I was hoping that, free of 24 tracks and a bank of machine-driven noises, the group might finally cut loose and make an album as funky as it has the potential to be. It's not the case, however, as Kassav' drones through the same old same old, trying its damndest to sound like a cross between Miami Sound Machine and Madonna. Sure, it's well played, competent, well produced, but under all the hype there is just no real meat. It'll be popular, which is really all it strives to be.

ON THE CHART

Not too many surprises here, as Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder remains our #1 album—remember, even though Ali's on the road in the States right now, it's almost 100% definite that these two consummate blues-inspired musicians will be touring the country together later this summer. Those folks who saw their two performances together at the Jazz & Heritage Festival in New Orleans (including some of us) know why the tour together is such special news for fans of their Hannibal-Rykodisc collaboration. Elsewhere,

Yothu Yindi on Hollywood inches into the top five (7-4), while Mutabaruka's latest Shanachie effort bounces back into the top 10 (11-7). Far and away the chart's strongest comeback in recent memory has to be Delicious Vinyl's Born Jamericans, which bounces back onto the chart at #13 after the single had already dipped off the charts completely. Look for even stronger action when the full album arrives at radio later in the month. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

If you want music as it is really meant to be—raw, simple, with a side of hot sauce—check out Crescent City Gold (High Street, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647). No tricks, no trade-offs, just pure unfiltered goodness from Mac Rebennack, Earl Palmer, Lee Allen, Allen Toussaint, Alvin Tyler and Edward Frank. They mix together all that makes New Orleans great, and prove why these six musicians are often held up as exemplars of their art.

Two of South Africa's divas have new recordings out that offer another chance at comparison, both in approach and outcome. BUSI MHLONGOA and her band TWASA offer up Babhemu (Stern's Music, address above), and the queen of South African pop, MIRIAM MAKEBA, returns with her first album recorded in her homeland in decades, Sing Me A Song (DRG, 130 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019/212-582-3040). The latter was an exciting prospect, as I was hoping to hear Makeba in a return to her roots with a band of locals and songs inspired by her homecoming. Instead, we are treated to a trivial album of mediocre pop songs played in uninspired fashion and given short shrift by the vocalist. The album's only roots-inspired moments are the 30-second segues between some of the tracks. Busi Mhlongo and company, on the other hand, take their marabi and mbaqanga roots and treat them to a smooth pop production that lends itself well to her voice, which soars through most of the nine songs on the album. Here is a tight band with great licks and fine backing vocals. Even some trivial synth keyboards can't mar a recording of grace and energy.

I'm a simple guy, so sometimes it is the simplest music that gets to me the best. For all the power of various southern African popular styles, I still find the easy charm of kwela endearing. DONALD KACHAMBA'S KWELA BAND OF MALAWI is revitalizing the scratch band sound of its country (and many others in the region) by just playing the music. The heart of kwela is the pennywhistle, the tin flute common to both south African and Irish music. In Africa, though, swing is the element that stands out of the mix of flute, banjo, wash tub bass and guitar. Much of it has a sound much like that of 1930's Memphis, a sort of Tennessee township tone that is absolutely right. Concert Kwela (Le Chante Du Monde, c/o Harmonia Mundi, 2037 Granville Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025-6103) is a live wire, ▶ unplugged without pretension.

Irish flutist and fiddler FRANKIE GAVIN explains the importance of interaction between audience and artist in the introduction to his Radio France concert with guitarist ARTY McGLYNN and accordion squeezer AIDEN COFFEY, compacted onto disc on Irelande (Ocora, c/o Harmonia Mundi, address above). They roar through a set of original and traditional jigs, reels and a few slow airs for romantic measure, again using the very lack of adornment to their performance as their most powerful production tool; straight to the point and straight to the heart. While you're visiting across the puddle, you might segue into something from Man In The Moon (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury CT 06810/203-730-0333) by Scots singer, guitarist and sometimes songwriter ANDY M. STEWART. It includes some great traditional ballads and a few bits of his own contemporary commentary.

VARIED AMBIANCE

No genre can possibly hold the music of composer TANIA LEÓN. Born in Havana, her lineage is Chinese, French, Spanish, African and Caribbean. Her musical background reflects the traditions of these cultures, but also the adventurous modernism of contemporary classical music. She was the music director of the ground-breaking Dance Theater Of Harlem for a decade. By the '80s she was composing with a vengeance, bringing all of her training and family history to the fore. Indignena (C.R.I., 73 Spring St., Ste. 506, New York, NY 10012-5800/212-941-9673) features five of her late-'80s and early-'90s compositions. Perhaps the most revealing is "A La Par," a 12-minute work for piano and various percussion instruments. The dynamic tension between the folk music of Cuba and the formalism of 20th century composition is shocking, beautiful and disconcerting... Silent Records (540 Alabama, Ste. 315, San Francisco, CA 94110/415-252-5764) has another interesting bit of electronic soundscaping on Earth To Infinity that proves that computers, drum machine and samples can work, if manipulated by the right hands and creative minds...Coming soon to a CD player near you: SHEILA CHANDRA's The Zen Kiss (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929); Brains, (PWOA, 1163 E. Ogden Ave., Naperville, IL 60563) audiophile computer music by CHRISTOPHER K. KONIGSBERG; and Todo Tango (Milan, 1540 Broadway, 29th Fl. Ste. D, New York, NY 10035/212-782-1086), a collection of earthy dance tunes from Argentina that includes Piazzolla, Roberto Goyenche and Nestor Marconi...If you are cruising the information highway, drop into the Usenet group alt.music.world and say howdy. There seems to be a growing crew of interesting musicians, fans and industry types virtually hanging around.

Peace.

CRUCIAL!

BURNING SPEAR Hail H.I.M. (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—On the heels of two incomparable volumes of Living Dub, Heartbeat Records continues to expand and explore the catalog of Burning Spear, a k a Winston Rodney, and has now released one of the finest, most rewarding reissues we've heard so far this year. Hail H.I.M.

was originally released only in Europe, and so is domestically available for the first time, and the first time on CD. Spear is one of the great visionaries of reggae, the kind of artist who makes plowing through the stacks and stacks of CDs worthwhile. While much of the reggae music made around this time was becoming a little more commercial-sounding and a little watered down and thin, this album is as deep as it gets, full of heavy bottom end and spacious reverb, tricky roots-flavored percussion and emotive, heartfelt vocals. Though CD reissues of '70s albums often reveal the limitations of the original recordings (and in fact may not even sound as good as the original vinyl), the quality and depth of presence here are astounding—the music just jumps off the CD like it was just laid down in Kingston yesterday. Among the great moments here are "Columbus," "Follow Marcus Garvey" and "Cry Blood Africans," each of which is equal to any of Spear's greatest. Heartbeat is nothing if not committed when it comes to Burning Spear, and this record proves him worthy of attention as one of reggae's greatest speakers and all-time visionaries.

AH-SO-ME CHAT

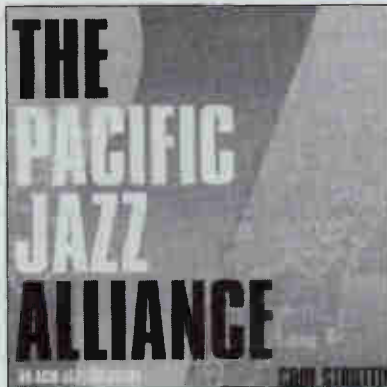

This year Reggae Sunsplash USA will be commemorating its 10th anniversary of coming to America. What began in 1985 with DENNIS BROWN, GREGORY ISAACS, THIRD WORLD and LLOYD PARKS & WE THE PEOPLE BAND, has turned into one of the biggest and best organized reggae tours in the country. This year's line-up includes MAXI PRIEST, STEEL PULSE, MARCIA GRIFFITHS, BERES HAMMOND, RED FOX, TERROR FABULOUS, JUNIOR TUCKERS, the A-TEAM and MC TOMMY COWAN. It begins in Hawaii on May 22 and concludes in Miami on July 17...BURNING SPEAR spent most of April at Grove Recording Studios in Jamaica working on a new album. From the studio to the road, Spear gathered his troupes and now they're currently on a mini-tour of the West Coast...Grammy Award winner INNER CIRCLE has been busy touring such exotic lands as Thailand, Indonesia, New Zealand, Fiji, Australia and Malaysia. Come summertime the group will be part of Reggae On The River in northern California, as well as Reggae On The Rocks in Colorado...In March, SNOW won best reggae recording at Canada's Juno Awards, which are comparable to America's Grammy Awards... On March 26, WAVS radio and Hi Class Promotions presented the first annual South Florida Reggae Soca Awards. Amongst some of the winners were Marcia Griffiths for best female singer, as well as for a special living legend award; Beres Hammond for best male singer; BUJU BANTON for best dancehall album (Voice Of Jamaica), and Reggae Report for best magazine. Congratulations to the organizers on a job well-done...West Coast reggae band BIG MOUNTAIN has been tearing up the Billboard singles chart with its cover of Peter Frampton's 1976 hit "Baby I Love Your Way." It's found on the Reality Bites soundtrack...Not only does MUTABARUKA have a new album out (Melanin Man on Shanachie), but he's also made his acting debut. Muta's featured in the film Sankofa, a story about the slavery of and the struggle for freedom by millions of Africans, made by Ethiopian independent film maker Halie Gerima. Sankofa is an Akan word that means "one must return to the past in order to move to the future." Filmed in both Ghana and Jamaica, it's distributed independently by Mypheduh Films. Call (212) 505-1770 for more information and details on how to bring it to your neighborhood...And speaking of movies, Walt Disney's film about the Jamaican bobsled team, Cool Runnings, is now available at video rental stores...Just out is a 25-minute, 26-artist project single called "Cyaan Stop De Dance," aimed at supporting the proliferation of Jamaican dancehalls. Produced by Maureen Sheridan, Handel Tucker and Sly Dunbar, it includes artists such as JUNIOR REID, PAPA SAN, Buju Banton, Snow, BUNNY RUGS, TONY REBEL, CARLENE DAVIS, IBO and GENERAL DEGREE. The record is being distributed by Sheridan's One World record establishment in Ocho Rios...And finally, saving the best news for last, Junior Reid has finally cleared up his long-time visa problems and is free to travel and perform in the U.S. We look forward to his arrival!...As always, thanks for checking in.

GROUP GROOVES

The acid-jazz movement, to which I am a recent (somewhat reluctant) convert, is gaining steam as new groups get started and existing ones reach maturity. In recent weeks I've extolled such combines as Groove Collective and the United Future Organization. Two other groups with something substantive to offer the genre are THE BRAND NEW HEAVIES and THE PACIFIC JAZZ ALLIANCE. Brother Sister, the second entry from the Heavies on Delicious Vinyl (6607 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028), presents the four-person posse and guests in various slammin' situations—some instrumental, some vocal—that blend hip hop and jazz with personality and punch. To these ears, "Ten Ton Take," a densely percussive, grabbin' dance groove sporting Fender Rhodes keys and nifty sax, trumpet and trombone solos over a medium-up feel, is especially recommended for airplay. The Pacific Jazz Alliance, calling itself an acid-jazz collective (listing 15 individuals), is a lively troupe with considerable promise. I'm troubled, though, by the packaging, which appropriates the ethos and legacy of Pacific Jazz Records, the standard-bearing cool-jazz label of the '50s, a tad too much for this taste. Even the title, Cool Struttin', is a trifle too reminiscent of the late pianist Sonny Clark's decades-old Blue Note album of the same name. Be that as it may, the Pacific Jazz Alliance does dish out some funky sh-t, instrumental and vocal, achieving a particularly effective you-are-there-live feel on tracks five and six. Contact Planet Earth Recordings (6634 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028) and check it out for yourself. Both of these groups can stir things up.

ODDS & ENDS

Trumpeter WALLACE RONEY's debut for Warner Bros., slated for release June 28, has all the advance earmarks of a crossover success. The oft-times diffident trumpeter, who can also be heard on Warners' A Tribute To Miles Davis (with ex-Davis quintet players Wayne Shorter, Herbie Hancock, Ron Carter and Tony Williams) and Davis' live-at-Montreux swan song, is featured in quartet and quintet settings on the forthcoming disk. Pianist Geri Allen is the linchpin of both groups; the quintet material features the brassman's brother, saxist Antoine. Roney's core band is augmented on several tracks (the repertoire is said to focus on contemporary-style fare from the likes of Pat Metheny and Milton Nascimento) by a woodwind-and-string section arranged by Gil Goldstein. No electronic instrumentation is involved, according to a source close to the project. Trumpeter Roney is scheduled to take part in two concerts on July 1 (afternoon and evening) as part of the JVC Jazz Festival in New York City. More details on his WB debut as they come to light... Tenor/soprano saxist Antoine Roney, incidentally, plays with strength and assurance on Telepathy, the latest issue by drummer/leader CINDY BLACKMAN, from Muse (160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023/212-873-2020). Blackman, whose percussive concept encompasses the tenets of both Art Blakey and Tony Williams, penned most of

ON THE CHART

The oft mis-reported A Tribute To Miles, performed by Herbie Hancock, Wayne Shorter, Ron Carter, Wallace Roney and Tony Williams (because they're performing as a band, rather than as various artists, please report it as such to cut down on confusion), reigns supreme for the third consecutive week, still comfortably ahead of Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West (3-2) behind the strength of #1 reports from CJSP, KBCC, KBUT, KCHU, KEPC, KVRX, WCUR, WMPG, WSJU and WYSO. 38 out of our 111 reporters have the album in their top 10, that's 34% for you statisticians. Elsewhere, Columbia's Ellis Marsalis bounds into the top 10 (18-5), after meandering towards the bottom of the chart during his first five weeks. Labelmate and son Wynton Marsalis also edges into the top 10 (12-8), just ahead of the fast-charging Keith Jarrett on ECM (23-10). Our only new entry comes from Columbia's Bobby Watson (#20), with Verve-PG's Bheki Mseleku and Gramavision's Ray Anderson falling just short of the chart this week. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) the material for a group comprising Roney, pianist Jacky Terrasson and bassist Clarence Seay. Blackman's direction is neobop, with plenty of striking angles and edges. The same group, by the way, this time under the leadership of pianist JACKY TERRASSON (winner of the 10-grand first prize at the most recent Thelonious Monk International Piano Competition, which paved the way for his signing with Blue Note), can be heard on the delightful What's New on the French Jazz Aux Remparts label. What's New won't be easy to find (better specialty shops are most likely to carry it), but it's worth the search... Speaking of pianists, that sardonic master of black humor and lithe swing, MOSE ALLISON, is coming out with a new Blue Note issue, The Earth Wants You, in June. Allison, author of the bluesy standard "Parchman Farm" and the hilarious "Your Mind Is On Vacation (But Your Mouth Is Working Overtime)," was asked during his recent weekend gig at Trumpets nightclub in Montclair, New Jersey, whether the title was meant to be dark, or inviting, or darkly inviting? In typical fashion, he replied, "Yes." Ol' Mossback Mose, whose Southern-fried Faulknerisms on the piano (bop, stride, boogie-woogie, blues) are the perfect foil for his wry worldview, sings the praises of saxist Joe Lovano, who appears on the album. Allison's stature is sure to rise, deservedly, in the near future when a slew of labels (including Rhino, which is preparing a multi-disk career retrospective) begin reissuing a number of his albums spanning several decades. We'll keep you posted... Matthias Winkelmann's German Enja label (distributed in the U.S. by Koch) is excitedly preparing for release the invigorating debut by alto saxist ABRAHAM BURTON, Closest To The Sun. Burton, who just turned 23, turned many heads a few years back with his playing in Arthur Taylor's Wailers. Joined by his longtime friend, drummer Eric McPherson, a member of Jackie McLean's working band, Burton teams up with two fellow Wailers (pianist Marc Cary and bassist Billy Johnson) for a hard-hitting quartet album whose sheer intensity is likely to cause considerable commotion. Burton and McPherson both studied under the respected drummer Michael Carvin, who, in turn, got them scholarships to study with his buddy McLean at the Hartt School of Music in Hartford, Connecticut. Burton, whose personal conception filters the influence of altomen Charlie Parker and McLean through the searing, searching, over-the-top, mid-'60s blowing of the late tenor titan John Coltrane, purveys a deep, rich, full-bodied tone at times more reminiscent of tenor than alto. He does a beautiful rendition of the ballad "Laura," then tears up the joint with screaming spiritual abandon on pianist Cary's exquisite composition "So Gracefully." We'll keep you up to speed as the release date of Closest To The Sun approaches.

JACKPOT!

DJ 1 Ghetto Trax (EP) and ERIC MARTIN AND TRAXMEN Chaos (EP) (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60621/312-521-6300)—Wobetide those of you who've not yet heard the sound of Chicago's new dance-floor futurists. Over the past year, the young underground house track makers who come of age during the birth of house and acid have been dropping letter bomb singles with the compressed energy and fury of Public Enemy's early days. Stylistically, the young DJ Funk from the city's westside and Eric Martin grew up under the influence of Robert Armani, whose stark, elliptical '89 singles "Ambulance" and "Circus Bells" remain playable to this day. Armani's less-is-more aesthetic evolved from the burrowed-out, hammering, spacey textures of dubs from early efforts by house pioneers Steve "Silk" Hurley, Ron Hardy and Farley "Jackmaster" Funk. Armani's tracks sound deceptively simple, even repetitive, yet they defy the simple linear song structure of so much vocal dance music. This is echoed on the six tracks on DJ Funk's latest EP, which reveals creative energies only hinted at on the recent Street Trax EP. Funk can construct a damaging groove from the most minute, yet persistent synth sounds accompanied by 909 percussion patterns with the force of a slingshot. This is music made in the basement for the basement party, and best heard at unreasonable volumes. Eric Martin and the Traxmen (the collective of producers from Robert Armani's studio) had considerable underground commercial success with last year's "Fire Alarm" and this second EP rolls like the Metroliner without brakes. With the percussion and synth wound so tight, there isn't an inch of breathing room, yet these tracks seem voluminous and expansive, with a momentous groove. The Chicago minimalist movement, despite having been well-known to Mid-westerners (and those overseas) for nearly seven years, is as exciting as the first wave of house music from Chicago in the mid-'80s, which exercised a profound influence on every dance record released today.

ELECTRONIC DISCIPLES

Ask any of techno's inventors, or faithful devotees of Larry Levan's Paradise Garage, which German electronic record remains in their all-time top tens (along with Kraftwerk), and they'll probably tell you "E2:E4" by Manuel Gottsching, which was released in 1975. This oft-bootlegged, sought-after electronic behemoth has an other-worldly groove which seems to run off into deep space. It comes as no surprise that one of techno's original explorers, Carl Craig, has seen fit to remake "E2:E4" to allow many who've never heard the original access to the joy of its textures. Craig has adopted his PAPERCLIP PEOPLE pseudonym once again for this ambitious project, and he expands upon the piece, lending it an extraordinary melancholy and rhythmic drive over both sides of the single. I'd still recommend you hear Gottsching's original, but Craig has given "E2:E4" a spirit which will ensure its stature for a long time to come (Planet E, P.O. Box 27218, Detroit, MI 48227/313-567-0916)... Maurizio and Carl Craig's recent "Dominia" single is still enjoying massive critical success and along

ON THE CHART

Mr. James once again occupies the top spot on the chart, but the debut domestic full-length by Messiah on WHITE LBLS-American jumps five places (7-2), hot in pursuit. Too Pure/Astralwerks-Caroline's Seefeel domestic album leaps eight spots (11-3), so the top three is actually changing slightly. One of the first deep house records to break the top 25 is Mount Rushmore's "I Got The Music"

(12"), which appears at #19, while KK-Restless' Zen Paradox debuts at #23 this week. If one German label has made a significant impact since the RPM chart's inception, it would have to be Sven Vath's Harthouse, which has turned up stateside through a number of licensing deals. Thus, debuting at #25 is Resistance D's Human EP, released here through Planet Earth. (RPM comes another single from Maurizio's Basic Channel label to keep everyone on his toes. For those of you trying to get in touch with these folks, suffice to say that although the tracks are often recorded and pressed in Detroit, Moritz Von Oswald and Mark Ernestus (of Hard Wax) both live in Berlin nine months of the year, which means they are not running a large promo department. Nonetheless, this latest "Quadrant" 12" is another shattering exploration through the outer rings of the electronic dance solar system. The Basic Channel sound is wholly unique; the music seems to be stretched like a canvas across a vast, alien landscape and yet it retains a sort of distant warmth. There are few labels willing to release dance music that defies easy classification; Basic Channel is one of those few (Basic Channel, c/o Submerge, 2030 Grand River, Ste. 303, Detroit, MI 48220/313-965-0025).

RETURN OF THE GLOWORM

GLOWORM's "I Lift My Cup" from '93 was a spirited U.K. house romp which saw Rollo of the Hooj Choons stable in fine form. After a hiatus, Gloworm has returned with a brilliant single for the U.K. Go-Beat label. "Carry Me Home" immediately sets itself apart from the rafts of tepid British house tracks with its gorgeous male gospel vocal. The name of the vocalist is not provided here, but it will with an official release. The a cappella opening, with only a clanging breakbeat in the far distance, reaches a crescendo before the warm, bubbling sequencer bassline rolls in under the door, carrying with it an immense minor-key synth hook. On the breakdown, the drums and synth disappear, revealing the unadorned vocal before the two elements are joined in the final moments. This is the sort of underground track that will probably move into the commercial echelons within a year, in much the same way as Robin S's "Show Me Love." This is a pure delight (Go-Beat/ffrr, U.K.).

MINNEAPOLIS TRAX

Minneapolis' WOODY McBRIDE (a k a 4-D and In-Sync) is an acid freak whose recorded output over the last six months has been nothing short of exhausting. His own Drop Bass Network organization has been keeping up a hectic release schedule and now McBride's latest outing is the ferocious "Rattlesnake" 12" on Dave Clarke's Magnetic North label. So often hard acid practitioners manage to evoke little more than directionless aggression, but McBride throws you in and out of a sauna and a cold shower every 15 seconds. Sure, this stuff will be eaten up by the noisecore rave diehards, but McBride's music has the sort of energy and imagination that shouldn't be overlooked (Magnetic North, Ducie House, Ducie St., Manchester M1 2JW, U.K./061-237-9499).

JACKPOT!

SHIVA AFFECT

SHIVA AFFECT Yahweh (Frog, c/o Stone Immaculate PR, Studio 2, 8 Nursery Road, London SW9 8BP, U.K./071-737-6359)—

Like Bark Psychosis, this East London quartet's closest brothers-in-arms, Shiva Affect is enraptured by the progressive-rock aesthetic—delving into textured music-as-painting, with watercolors and thick oils alike, forging music borne of the id rather than the ego. "Rage Is Easy" is proof enough that Shiva Affect is a product of the '90s, with its dizzying temperature and cluster-waves of coruscating guitar, but mostly the quartet has a penchant for reflective/introspective environs, the closest rock gets without subsiding into ambience. Most of the six tracks unfold over long stretches, with vocals murmured, muffled or restrained, all adding to the sacrosanct atmosphere: Yahweh is the phonetic pronunciation of the cryptic, four-letter Hebrew symbol for God, which hints at the musical triumph of suggestion over the specific, the indefinable over the definable. The result is an enormously free-flowing ark of instrumental prowess, with West-meets-East chord patterns and raw-but-restful guitar ripples and refractions in the same style as several Nate Starkman label releases of old, most notably Drowning Pool but also White Glove Test. "Caught In Amber" is the shortened exception to the free-flowing affect rule; "The Bridge" is the closest to the Bark Psychosis/Talk Talk caught-in-amber, slo-loping effect; "Cloud My Way" is the most 'spiritual,' ebbing and weaving its way toward comedown, with a flute for guidance. Yahweh is another set of anthems for the quietly alienated, the Zen Buddhist bedroom dweller, the '70s retro-fan, the slacker who wishes for political asylum, for intimacy and solitude over join-our-club abandon. In other words, a daydream nation.

HIGH LLAMAS Gideon Gaye (Target, P.O. Box 656, Brighton, Sussex BN1 4SH, U.K./0273-723-796)—

Since the disbanding of Microdisney, guitarist Sean O'Hagan has taken the softly-softly route, plying his trade rather than peddling a career. Which is probably why you haven't heard much about his part-time involvement in Stereolab, or the fact that his band concern, the High Llamas, has already reached its second album. O'Hagan already located his germ of inspiration when he called the Llamas' debut album Santa Barbara, and the most inescapable angle to Gideon Gaye is its deference to Old Glories, specifically the sunlit, hazy halcyon days/daze of the Beach Boys, circa Surf's Up, with giddy strings, cloudbank harmonies, delayed piano, woozy instrumental bridges and softly hued pop-psychedellic dalliances that chug along breezily with a Farfisa organ at the core. Despite his Irishness, O'Hagan's take sounds particularly English, with sharp echoes of the Beatles/Electric Light Orchestra in his melodic constructs (hear the title track), but '70s California too in the shape of Steely Dan and the Eagles ("Checking In And Checking Out"). Favorite moments: "The Goat Strings" is perfect late-'60s/early-'70s film soundtrack material, with minimal development, weeping guitar, seeping strings and that two-note organ ride, prolonged for maximum bliss-out, and "Up In The Hills," a first cousin to "Don't Go Near The Water." As 'inspiration-in-dedication' concepts go, Gideon Gaye is one of the best—dutiful, but masterful, and let's face it, all the aforementioned bands have tough, hi-melodic blueprints to follow.

PULP His'n'Hers (Island, 22 St. Peters Sq., London W6, U.K./081-741-1511)—Pulp's long-awaited album will get an American release at some future date [June 21 on Island-PLG—Ed.] but a nation needs notifying. After a decade of cult worship, odd albums (the mini-LP It, the much-delayed Separations, the recent singles collection Intro), personnel changes and hapless business mismanagement, a portion of the world has finally caught up with the Sheffield band. A lot has to do with a wider appreciation of the cheesier side of pop, of cod-disco and pop kitsch, of an acceptance of fusing '80s pop electronica and '60s-into-'70s balladeering (as in Scott Walker and David Bowie), of an acceptance of English as opposed to American sensibilities, but also of Pulp's self-actualization, tightening but never watering down its vital strengths. Suede producer Ed Buller provides the surface glint, Candida Doyle's keyboards (rather than Russell Senior's lead guitar) the centrifugal force, and singer Jarvis Cocker the warbling tonsils, the gallery of wayward chancers and interlopers and the Truth About Sex. Choruses tumble out one after the other, peaks are climbed, tears are mopped up, jokes are made, ironies polished and eccentricities confirmed, in a manner that might suggest a pop version of filmmaker Mike Leigh (in lighter moments). "Do You Remember The First Time?" "She's a Lady," "Babies," "Have You Seen Her Lately?" and the lengthy closing drama "David's Last Summer" are all engrossing evidence of Pulp's genuine pop dazzle.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

On the deck this week: MAIN's Motion Pool (Beggars Banquet), the DIVINE COMEDY's Promenade (Setanta), Danish trio 18TH DYE's Done (Cloudland), TRIBUTE TO NOTHING's "24 Hours" single (Kingslake), SONIC YOUTH's Experimental Jet Set, Trash And No Star (DGC), LAY QUIET AWHILE's Delicate Wire (Daemon) and the two GAME THEORY CD reissues The Big Shot Chronicles and Real Nighttime (Alias)...After the High Llamas, this is turning out to be a week of 'descendants.' As happened after Suede, are we (already?) about to witness the Elastica influence on U.K. alternativism? Brighton gang BLUBBER is not Elastica incarnate but the similarities are myriad—scratchy guitar, crunchy bass, ramalama action, na-na-na non-chalance, stubbed-toe short-sharp structuralism, with more Siouxsie Sioux input to the vox. Aha—late press information says guitarist Andy was an Elastica member for about a week. On

"Pornobaby," the bite-sized "Glug" and "Nervous," think of the Banshees dabbled with early Blondie in a know-all pop-lexicon of effervescence. "Crystal Kid" is pure punk amphetamine, but its frayed state lends a more gripping delirium—all wound up with somewhere to go. The good thing, they sound like they'll find an individual voice (XMP, c/o Savage & Best PR, 172 Arlington Road, London NW1, U.K./071-284-1922)...London-based LAND OF BARBARA is equally in thrall to the new wave retro-aesthetic, this time the helter-skelter art-school momentum of garageland through to Teardrop Explodes, with paisley-patched guitar/organ motor-drive. "Kid Whiskey" (out on 7" only) is mid-paced but furiously climactic, with its talk of lustful teenage kicks, while "Limited" is more of a consistent white-knuckle surge. Consciously epic, coolly compelling and true to the band's particular school of fashion, Land Of Barbara can at least stand proud (Rapture, Unit G, 44 St. Paul's Crescent, London NW1 9TN/071-267-6222)...Swoon...songs written out of necessity. London-based BURN has no discernable trend or sell-by date attached—the Little Life EP provides three beautifully direct, unadorned pop songs full of tiny peaks, edgy yearning and a thrilling, but understated, romanticism. The title track vaguely recalls Bowie, the early-'70s Hunky Dory model before the glam-rock package, but the retro-accusation doesn't wash here. "Stuck On A Wire" is denser and grittier while "Don't Love Anymore" is a bruised, floating ballad with flamenco-style acoustic and wiry electric guitar. In other words, this week's gem, and clear evidence of a higher destiny (Psychic, P.O. Box 107, London SW5/phone N.E.W.S. PR: 071-437-4497)..."Camomile" is the debut 7" single from East Anglian quartet FUR, a slow, mournful, sparse loper with even sparser cello over the bare-bones band sound. The press release sounds about right—"a kind of music that blends Red House Painters-ish subtleties and emotions with the space and atmosphere of early Bark Psychosis." While "Camomile" is restrained and introvert, "Kill Me" is a much more fractious synopsis-cracker, so there isn't one well to drain dry (Che, 16B Hermon Hill, London E11, U.K./081-530-8381)...The Rough Trade singles club continues to plumb for new, unusual bands. February is Sheffield quartet BLAMELESS: "The Signs Were All There" is gorgeous, blue-eyed soul aching, with Jared Daley's vocals echoing a young Rod Stewart. "Encore" harks back to mid-'70s U.K. pub-rock, with its weighty r'n'b kilter and Daley's throaty rasp, the most 'trad' track to emerge on an old-style indie for, well, probably ever, discounting Primal Scream on Creation. March is the turn of Dublin trio PUPPY LOVE BOMB, and the return of this week's retro corner. "Too Busy Thinking" and "Liar" are trebly Merseybeatcore with skybomb guitars and nagging, lean choruses, all in the manner of the Grant Hart half of Hüsker Dü and the Steve Diggle half of the Buzzcocks, but this is one neat-neat-neat single. April is GOD IS MY CO-PILOT, with no surprises in the jazzcore grrrl cut-up mannerisms, although "Thank You, Just Thank You" and "Childhood Dreams Of Abduction" are two (out of four provided) of the band's choicest cuts (Rough Trade, 66 Golborne Road, London W10, U.K./081-960-9888).

BLACK TRAIN JACK

You're Not Alone

(Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Even though death, doom and gloom are still very much a part of the Roadrunner roster, the label has broadened its horizons to embrace a variety of musical stylings. You won't find any severed heads, bloodied bodies or mounds of fecal matter here...just a pure-rockin' punk-poppin' fun time. Last year, Black Train Jack launched onto the scene full-steam ahead with its debut, No Reward. With You're Not Alone, the band retains all the same catchy, instantly hummable riffs that garnered everyone's attention the first time around. Ernie (guitar/vocals) explains, "Whatever people liked on No Reward, I wanted them to like again." The album has just the right measure of mainstream pop appeal mixed with heavy crunch to keep the straight-laced suits smiling right along next to all the metal loving headbangers. The band emanates an aura of happiness and optimism stemming from the fact that they are all completely drug and alcohol free. The guys are able to incorporate their strong belief in a clean, happy, healthy lifestyle into their lyrics and music without turning it into a "Just Say No" preach-fest. Rob (vocals), Ernie, Brian (bass) and Nick (drums) have been friends for years and it shows in the tightness of the band's sound. The music is simple, yet dynamic, and very melodic. "What's The Deal" fuses heavy, chugging guitar riffs and funky bass chords with Rob's crisp, powerful vocals (he has a classically trained four-octave voice and can even sing opera!) Also check out "Hand Outs," "Not Alone" and "Alright Then"...and remember, never underestimate the power of positive thinking. —Jenni Glenn

SISTER MACHINE GUN

The Torture Technique

(Wax Trax!, c/o TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—Lay down, close your eyes, crank up The Torture Technique and prepare to be transported to an all-night smoke-filled rave of techno-industrial madness, amidst flashing lights, chest vibrating drum beats and eerie, ominous samples. Sister Machine Gun drops you into a pit of frenzied, explosive noise, showing no mercy for the weak. Although heavily drawing from its influences, such as Nine Inch Nails, Ministry and KMFDM, Sister Machine Gun is able to retain a strong sense of originality and biting intensity. Produced and re-mixed by Van Christie and Jim Marcus of Die Warzau, The Torture Technique zig-zags through a maze of unrelenting, crashing percussion and pulsating rhythm. The lyrics were composed on-the-spot in the recording studio, creating a raw, cutting edge sensibility. Hyped up dance beats collide with splitting guitar riffs, intricate programming and the hoarse, vocal shoutings of Chris Randall. On songs like "Cocaine Jesus," the boisterous bellowings of Randall are swapped for sensual, whispered utterings that echo within a dense chamber of desire and serenity. For a dose of something a little more potent, try the reverberating punch of "Krackhead," the slamming thrust of "Wired," the reeling crunch of "Nothing" or the title track. —Jenni Glenn and singularity...no, it's not Luciano Pavarotti armed with M80s. Imagine the Scorpions, King's X and Soundgarden getting together to jam on a huge, open mountainside. By enmeshing such a vast array of styles, the bond is able to appeal to just about anyone who loves hard-hitting, crunchy music with a melodic overlay. For Madmen Only is a menagerie of heavy, grinding rock and funky overtones rising and crashing all in a mist of well-structured melody and rhythm. The four-part vocal harmonies of the band create a multi-layered depth that continuously rides over wave after wave of thick, flowing instrumentation. Each member of the band comes from a different background, has different musical influences and a different way of looking at music, but they blend together effortlessly, creating a voluminous, interesting, original sound. "Joyride," "Justice" and "I Know Better" rock along a harder edge, while tunes like "Achilles Heel" and "December" smolder with a slower, more deliberate groove. Also check out "All Fall Down" and "War Drum." —Jenni Glenn

Integrity (Red Light, 880 Lee St., Ste. 208, Des Plaines, IL 60016/708-297-6538)—Don't even think you'll have time to rest your palpitating heart during a listen to Sarkoma's first full-length hard-core album, Integrity. It screeches, pounds and pulsates your ears and body with every moshable track. Coming off a two year wait from its first release (an EP entitled Completely Different), this "brotherhood of musicians" has been together since early high school days. Lyricist/guitarist Stuart Johnson pens songs from the "not necessarily typical," which includes anything from an abused housewife to evolution vs. creation. Vocalist Brian Carter does an arresting job intimidating with his gut-wrenching screams and outraged attitude. In "Blue Horizon" he yells, "...it's not your face that I'm despising/ it's the lingering fragrance of your cheap cologne that SICKENS ME!" On a more serious tone, "Mortamer" tells the frustrated tale of a man paralyzed who receives a standing ovation for graduating: "My life will always stand out/ I don't want your sympathy/ I also want you to be able to hate me!" Filled with hard grooves and explicit lyrics that spit, Integrity is the perfect album to blare when you're pissed-off at the world.

BIOHAZARD

"Tales From The Hard Side" (7") (Warner Bras., address above)—Those bad-ass slammin' Brooklyn boys have returned once again to crush our feeble little worlds. Biohazard is back and in-your-face with more rockin' hardcore 'tude than ever! After the chart-topping 1992 release of Urban Discipline (on Roadrunner Records) and the massive success of the singles the band recorded with gangsta rappers Onyx, Biohazard soared on the popularity meters. Now, with the upcoming release of State Of The World Address (the debut on Warner Brothers), the band is primed to break through all barriers. This is going to be HUGE! The first single, "Tales From The Hard Side," is a harsh lesson in reality. If you don't wake up to the evils of society, you or someone you love could be the next victim. Biohazard use their blend of metal, rap, hip-hop and hardcore to hammer the point home...hard. Instead of wallowing in despair and misery, Biohazard fight back with everything they have inside of them...and they're pissed off! Filled with heavy, sharp guitar chords, sounds of sirens and distressed screams and potent, rapped vocals, "Tales From The Hard Side" reflects the horrors of life as seen through the eyes of four men who speak from experience. This isn't only amazing music, so listen up...you just may learn something. —Jenni Glenn

MOTHERLAND

"Rumour" (7") (550, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—If you're experiencing an overwhelming sensation of deja vu and could swear that you've heard this band somewhere before...you're right! Motherland, formerly known as Bonham, has changed its name and revamped its sound with the addition of new lead vocalist and rhythm guitarist, Marty Frederickson (also co-producer and co-writer of Brother Cane's self-titled debut album on Virgin Records). Marty contributes a fresh, energized edge to the already hard rocking, powerful outfit that previously nabbed gold status with its 1989 debut, The Disregard Of Timekeeping. The band's first single for metal radio is "Rumour," from its forthcoming Peace 4 Me album. Deep, blues-inflected vocals coalesce with a steady pounding groove and electrifying guitar riffage to form a tasty little package of purebred rock 'n' roll. Motherland is sure to stir up a motherload of anticipation for the full LP coming later this month. —Jenni Glenn

DIALOGUE

Jill and Jeannie, Red Light Records Death Squad, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU

First, my CMJ friends, Dennis Miller for President! You have to check out his show Friday nights on HBO. Second, SKATENIGS rule and you know it! Also, SARKOMA—great reviews, great numbers, #5 Adventure Pick, 26 adds WOOHOO! They're kickin' butt and taking names! And, of course, GUTTED, blowing your ears off the sides of your rotting skull, OPPRESSOR making your blood race so fast your eyes are bulging from their sockets and COVEN! Coven, Coven, Coven... What witty little phrase can I create which will truly encompass the Coven phenomenon? Huumm. Let me throw some coals on the barbie while I think about it. A final note, a public apology—the GM at WMSS sent me back the tray card from the Coven release with a note about how bad it sucks and how I should donate the postage to a victims rights organization, but he didn't send back the CD (must be a closet Coven fan!) Sorry to have offended you, sir, at least I know I'm doing my job! Barbeque anyone?

Brian McEvoy, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-8458

First week in and am I psyched! The line-up of metal bands here at Mercury is awesome. Up first for me is the in your face aggressive band Downset. Raised in the L.A. gang scene, this is a band whose first song, "Anger," is going to establish them as a top 10 metal band. They have already secured the opening slot for the Biohazard European tour. Can you say "HUGE!" Everybody is waiting for the KISS tribute record. The ultimate collection that covers everybody's musical flavor from Lenny Kravitz with Stevie Wonder to Garth Brooks. On the metal front, check out Anthrax doing "She," but please listen to the Mighty Mighty Bosstones doing a rocking cover of "Detroit Rock City." WOW!! Wait till you here the new BRUCE DICKINSON record. Bruce has made the ultimate '90s metal record. Hearing is believing. Ask the guys at Concrete—when they heard this record they were in a trance for two days after experiencing it. KERBDOG! Kerbdog! Kerbdog! Coming in late summer. This young Irish band is currently reigniting the English metal scene for the first time since the '80s. Kerbdog will be the new young guns from England that will re-establish the English metal scene. Next week-I will tell you about the new full length from Shootyz Groove and the new Cinderella record, which is hard, incredible and smoking! What a line-up. Stay tuned. Call me and let's talk music.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

I would have never known, but because the young man was standing next to me the entire evening, I could not help but notice. It happened at the RUSH show at the Meadowlands arena the other night. I stood about a dozen rows in front of the sound-board, with a dynamite view of the light show. Geddy and Co. had the crowd delirious as soon as they hit the first note of "Dreamline." The craziest thing happened next. As Alex segued into the opening riff to "Spirit Of Radio," the man next to me began to weep. Not a "yes, I'm so awestruck that I have to cry" type of weep, but more like a "my life is now fulfilled and I have nothing left to live for" type of weep. I was truly touched as the young man wept through one hell of a Rush set featuring

"Xanadu," "The Trees," "Limelight," "Roll The Bones," "Animate," "Cold Fire," "Double Agent," etc., etc., etc. At the end of the show, the man slumped down in his seat and embraced his girlfriend in the most emotional way. In my 24 years on this earth, I've been bludgeoned, awed, kicked around and knocked into the stratosphere by some amazing music, but I've never been moved to the point of this man's manic show of emotion. The point—no matter how much a certain type of song or style of music hits us, it will always affect someone else more. The power of music never ceases to amaze me!!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

For months now, you have heard us ranting and raving about the merits of ELEVEN. You have heard numerous interviews with critically acclaimed acts praising the band's music. You have witnessed a slow, yet steady build with high profile touring, many stations championing the band to the masses, a wonderful press story all leading up to...a tour with Soundgarden!!! For those of you who recognized this on the verge of exploding band early, I commend you. For those of you who are still wondering what all the hoopla is about, check your vision and your hearing immediately. "Let Down" on the metal side and "Reach Out" on the mainstream side should be receiving much attention. Now let's discuss our newest, SEAWEED. They are ripping across the country on tour and their shows are metal-fortified for your nutritional value, so be early on this one. Call us for tickets, interviews, music and look for a Hollywood debut from The Weed next year.

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season is exploding everywhere at radio and press. "Chemical Dreams" is the lead track, but every track on the CD showcases the band's intense sophistication. The band just finished a week of interviews and if we missed you, give us or Munsey a call and we will set you up for the next round. Definitely one of the top debut releases of '94. JOE STUMP is about to head into the studio to record his follow-up to last year's Guitar Dominance. The tentative title for his new release is Night Of The Living Shred. More intense guitar work with a heavier groove!

Chainsaw, WZMB, Greenville, NC (919) 757-4751

This is it. By the time you read this, I will no longer be a WZMB employee (sob), but while I'm on my way to the Big Apple to seek fame and fortune, Todd Robert will be the new metal director. Give him a call and say, "Hi!" I just wanted to thank everyone involved in making my last couple years here the very best, and let you know you'll be seeing me soon. Thanks to Psycho, Maria, Joanne, Paula, Beth, Marni, Jill, Jay, Rittberg, Cheryl, Matt...my god, the list goes on forever! Any of you I didn't mention immediately, you know who you are!

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

Okay, I'll do it alphabetically: ATOMIC OPERA-Justice. You are on it NOW, right? BIOHAZARD-"Tales From The Hard Side." The first single from

State Of The World Address. In your hands May 5th. Ready for adds 5/10 & 11. Watch Headbanger's Ball the next four Saturdays to catch some of the making of the album! CANDLEBOX-touring their asses off, still DIO-touring (I swear). Kicking off May 20 up north. More details to follow. Until then, keep it up on "Jesus, Mary & The Holy Ghost" and any of the killer tracks on Strange Highways. If you're lucky enough to be in Austin, check out KUTZ's Dio show this Sunday. Just a little warm up! E F G H I JOAN JETT-"Spinster," "Go Home" & "Hostility" (L7 assisted). The vinyl 7". Did you spin it yet? Let us know what you think! More Joan info on the way! K L M N O P Q R S TAD-YEAH! Scored the Soundgarden tour! More to follow. I assure you, I know the rest of the alphabet, however, this is getting really stupid. Oh yeah, good luck Cindy! And congrats Fitz! W X Y Z

Sheri Sinclair, Energy Records, New York, NY (212) 695-5584

Hil Hil Hil I'm so happy! Thanks to all who are supporting LARVA. For those who aren't, all you need to do is listen to it. I don't ask for much now, do I? Tracks metal radio are hopping on "Sister" and "Kia." Take your pick now. In other Energy news, PRO-PAIN continue to record the much anticipated sophomore effort, The Truth Hurts, slated for release July 12th. Aren't you excited?! I am! Let me tell you. Also looking ahead, Energy's newest signing, BILE, are currently in the studio. Look for this late summer and a killer tour sooner. One year! Can you believe it? Thanx-Jo, Linnea, Stanley and Mark. XOXO

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516-825-5549

The SKATENIGS ruled the airwaves this week. #1 most added, and you know you love this record. The DIO tour starts in the Midwest on May 20th. "Jesus, Mary & The Holy Ghost" are ruling in your CD player. Dio's single will kick your ass, so do it. BLACK SABBATH has the balls. Dig on "The Hand That Rocks The Cradle," and "I Witness" also has the goods. LOVE/HATE once again kicks your ass. 49-25 bullet this week. #2 most added second week out. IMPERIUM is in your face big time. The band just finished up the first set of radio interviews. We will be doing more in a few weeks, so give it up for these guys for calling in from Holland. SARKOMA is in your face as well. The full length will be on your desk in a week or so. Remember these records rule, and you know you love that. Till next week, I'm outta here. Cya.

Therese Mahler, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

So, PITCH SHIFTER finished off their tour with Stabbing Westward this week. Call and ask Dan Mitchell if he had a good time in Chicago. Better yet, ask him if he ever left New Jersey (and be sure to ask about the truckers' strike. But he's really sensitive about his boils. It's best not to mention them). Your store should be stocking DISGUST's Brutality Of War. Posters and play copies are on the way, so don't you fret none. And as an extra added bonus, you'll also get our first ever Earache New Release Sampler!! Remember, on May 24th, we will be reissuing cool old stuff from NAPALM DEATH, MORBID ANGEL, GODFLESH and ENTOMBED. And cool new stuff from A.C.!! Keep sending photos, they make us happy.

REVIEWS SONIC

SONIC YOUTH "Bull In The Heather" (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Sonic Youth has always incorporated as much information into its album jackets, live shows and videos as into the music itself. While the clip for "Bull In The Heather," the first single from the band's third major-label album, Experimental Jet Set, Trash And No Star, largely features the band playing the tune in a studio setting, the star of the show is #1 riot grrrl and Bikini Kill vocalist Kathleen Hanna in a non-speaking part. Her goofy, pig-tailed, hip-swingin' dancing brings out the song's maraca-shaking beat and accentuates the video's playful handling of girlish and teenage concerns, which are also spotlighted by shots of a young couple running through fields, boys banging guitars around with reckless abandon and Kim Gordon posing as a teenage girl in a messy room. —Lydia Anderson

FRENTE! "Bizarre Love Triangle" (Mammoth, c/o Atlantic 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Why the exclamation point you may ask. Because this is a great band we may reply. For a band to make such a splash with a song and video so simply delivered is a triumph. "Bizarre Love Triangle" features other members of Frente! strolling around singer Angie Hart and little else, but her charming voice and presence are all that's needed to ensure the hype on Frente will need two exclamation points. (SC)

GANG STARR "Code Of The Streets" (Chrysalis, c/o ERG, 1290 Ave. Of The Americas, New York, NY 10036)—One of the things that makes Gang Starr a cut above most hip-hop groups is that Guru is able to take a singular experience and transform that into a tough, eloquent statement on urban life. The video for "Code Of The Streets" follows the same m.o., here using the fact that cab drivers often refuse to pick up young black men in New York City (especially if the fare asks to be taken to Brooklyn), as a metaphor for how people and races interact in the city. Featuring cameo appearances from New York's three English-speaking cab drivers, the clip intercuts shots of Guru and DJ Premier with

RECORD COMPANY

Tommy Daley, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842

Welcome back Kotter! The Capitol tower is livin' large and in charge this month. Ill Communication is complete and ready to be devoured. Shit is phhhatt! Ain't no stoppin' the BEASTIE BOYS. The record of the year will be in the streets on May 31. Spread the word. Did anyone see a white label 12" lately? Let us know if you did. The first cut you should get is a song called "Sabotage." Shit is milk! It slices, it dices, it can even cut through an aluminum can, and as an added bonus, for all of you hardcore leaning folks, we will send you absolutely free the Pretzel Nugget EP. Yes, absolutely free. So get it together and call now. (800) 342-8842. The cage is on fire. Later.

Al Crisafulli, Dromedary Records, Lodi, NJ (201) 614-1190

Lots of stuff going on here lately. First off, we're moving, effective May 1. Please take note of our new mailing address: P.O. Box 17, Boonton, NJ 07005. Write it down in your little thing. Second, FOOTSTONE is off and rolling. "Wobbles From Side To Side" is out there, please play it. If you want Footstone to come play on your campus, please give me a call. Third, we need a summer intern. Please call if you're interested. Fourth, we've got a new record from TOAST on deck—you know them from their two 7"s on Raffish Records. Keep on the lookout, it should be out in June sometime. Fifth, we've got new records coming up this summer from GAPE-SEED and the MOMMYHEADS. Be happy, they should be fun. Sixth, MELTING HOPEFULS' "Pulling An Allnighter On Myself" is out there—you should all have it shortly, if you don't have it already. Seventh, good luck to our buddies in Godshead. We love them.

Jon Clark, Ringing Ear Records, Newmarket, NH (603) 659-7516

The new SINKHOLE three-song 7" went out this week to approximately 150 select stations, so it should have reached its many destinations by now. "Donkey" is the A-side, and it's a hooky pop-punk rocker, much like the kind of stuff found on their Groping For Trout CD. The B-side features "Alterna-Hunka-Shit," a 30-second ode to the band's favorite Boston crack-smoking, sold out, spoiled little rich boy media darling Evan D. Also on the B-side is a souped-up cover of Eddie Money's "I Think I'm In Love." Play it, don't spray it. DOC HOPPER is on the road, touring the U.S. until early July, and the new BUGJUICE full-length is "in the can," as they say. Keep an eye on those Red Sox, they look tough this year.

Lulu Cohen/Bruce Rones, Pipeline Records, Hicksville, NY (516) 681-2125

The UPTOWN HORNS. Check it out. It's authentic blues at its best! The record features (the late) Albert Collins, Peter Wolf and Keith Richards, Bernard Fowler, Ben Houston and more. Check out the Albert tune, "Sugar Melts When It's Wet," and the Keith and Peter cut, "Trust Me." Soul great Ben Houston is a heavier Robert Cray. Check out the tune "Odds Are Good That The Goods Are Odd." The record will be serviced to PAR in early May. The Uptown Horns are featured on the new Buster Poindexter record. The Uptown Horns also appear in his video and on his VH1 special beginning this May! Take care!

Paul Ellis, Alternative Marketing Mogul, and Carmelita "Crum," Delicious Vinyl Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 465-2700

Kick out the jams mutha fuckers! It's the BRAND NEW HEAVIES time! A big high-five to all of you for your support on the new Heavies album Brother Sister. Lets push that puppy to the top of the charts. The gang will be touching down on these blessed shores for live dates as you read this. If you miss 'em this time 'round, they'll be back real soon, so get in on the party! For more info, promos, stuffed elephants or frozen fish sticks, call me...What up fam? On your turntables you should be rocking the WASCALS "Class Clown." Peep the video. The Wascals are produced by J-Swift, so you know the track's gonna be double-buta sandwiches. BORN JAMERICANS' next single, "Cease & Seckle," will have all heads nodding. If you still aren't open to ACE's "B-side," you better ask somebody. Send me your show tapes. Big up to Wildman Steve, DJ Toast, Silva-Sir-Fa and the rest of my peeps that keep diggin' in the crates.

Marvin Gleicher, President, Smash/Island Records, Chicago, IL (312) 751-0020

What distinguishes a great alternative programmer? It is their ability to program the unexpected, deviate from the norm, and still maintain the core. SHEEP ON DRUGS is such an act, and will increase audience awareness of your station's "hipness" and generate excitement in what could be called homogenous programming. "From A To H And Back Again" is the current single and video. Other tracks also garnering airplay are "Drug Music" and, of course, "Motorbike." S.O.D. are visually the greatest live band on tour today. Your chance to see them will come in September upon the release of their new album. In the meantime, enjoy "From A To H And Back Again."

Patrick Flynn, November Records, New York, NY (800) 343-8921

Many of you have delved further into the Epicure LP and found great tunes besides the lead track "Shame" (mostly for commercial reporters anyway). Several comments back from you and your staffs are indicating other tunes are getting airplay, like "Belly Town" (which a live version can be found on the Glastonbury '93 compilation), "Tranquilizer" (much like "Mr. & Mrs. Smack" from Sell Me A God), "Fist" (an ode to doing it yourself), "Fecund" (Max [EAT], Lenny [Fiction], and my favorite), and our next commercial track "Bleed Me White" featuring Mike Edwards of Jesus Jones and Miles Hunt of the Wonder Stuff on guest vocals. Eat hit the road a few weeks ago on their first-ever U.S. tour kickin' it in D.C. at the 9:30 Club. All interested in doing the tour promo thing: fix, interviews, giveaways, sex with the band, etc...as they roll through or near your area give me a shout and I'll hook ya up. "November in May" brings the new HOLLOW MEN release Twisted. Many of you or your stations' staff probably played the Hollow Men's (T-10 CMJ) album Cresta back when they (and I) were with Arista...So, I remember who the big fans (and air conditioners) were...ironic that the Hollow Men's single last time was "November Comes" and this time it's the Hollow Men that comes (out on)

November...just a dumb thought. I'm gonna break out, if you need some'in jus' 800 me. Later.

Jack Frank, Boss Of Ed, Widely Distributed Records, Chicago, IL (312) 465-2558

Ed has been too busy to write, so I thought I would give it a try. Big thanks to WUMD and their love of the ORCHIDS. Also WTPS (a pirate station?) in or about Milwaukee. More Orchids to you. As you read this, you're reviewing and playing (top 10 for sure) the new ALGEBRA SUICIDE CD—Tongue Wrestling. Got any loose change? The future: in a few more days as a matter of fact, THE WAKE (U.K.'s Tidal Wave Of Hype from our friends at Sarah Records U.K. will be in the mail to you. Then, pausing only for a breath of Chicago air, we bring you VINYL DEVOTION's six-song CD (real devotion there!), If They Know You're Trying—produced by Scott Miller of the Loud Family and Game Theory fame. They are from San Francisco and are fronted by the pop side of the family, Shalini Chatterjee. Sarah fans will jump for joy to hear that late-May will bring BLUEBOY's debut LP Unisex (with all the tracks from the EP River included as bonus tracks) to you via Widely—our fourth joint release with Sarah...That will bring summer for sure. Congrats to WNUR on their successful fund-raiser. Glad we could help. Now get back to work!

Keith Moran, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423

SISTER PSYCHIC is on the road in the Midwest during the month of May. Posters and junk will fly towards your desk space soon. The new CD is called Surrender You Freak! I give you full permission to annoy your PolyGram rep by playing their version of "Kim The Waitress." Also check out "Part Of Love" and "Velvet Dog." At the RPM/techno/trance side of things we have the new CD Eternal Brainwave from ZEN PARADOX. If you don't report to RPM odds are that you didn't get serviced with this release. However if you play techno/trance and would like a copy of Zen Paradox please call and I will send one out. If you are enjoying the new live Husker Du release please keep in mind that Grant Hart's band NOVA MOB will have a new release out in late May/early June. This long overdue record will please all loyal Husker Du fans.

Chuck P. and John Perrone, Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

This week everyone should have a record from our new band from Seattle, PEACH. Siesta is the name of the record and this is one that you should not pass over. Look for Peach on the road out West and in Texas. Also, the second release from Richmond, VA, sweethearts FUDGE should be in your little paws. Southside Speedway will get your fingers snapin' and your toes tappin'. Just ask anyone who has ever seen this band live...ADRIAN BELEW comes out of the gate like wildfire. His new record Here is making his fans real happy and also picking up some new ones along the way. Check out "I See You" and "Never Enough." If you're not familiar with this man, where ya been? He has played with everyone including Nine Inch Nails, David Bowie, Crash Test Dummies and Talking Heads...Definitely laid back is what describes BARK PSYCHOSIS' record Hex. Take a listen to the band which Melody Maker calls "alternative medicine." The doctor is in and listening to "A Street Scene" and "Eyes & Smiles." If you dig Moon Seven Times or Verve, don't miss out on Bark Psychosis...SEEFEEEL Quique should be making all of you lovely music director and RPM reporters smile. Listen to their first U.S. release and get ready for a tour in the coming months. Remember, this is not merely a dance record! It's a bridge between the wall of guitars soundscapes of My Bloody Valentine and the popular subdued world of ambient-trance music.

Michelle Krupkin, Promotion Sweetie, Vanguard Records, Santa Monica, CA (310) 451-5727

This is my first Dialogue for y'all, so be gentle, my loves, with me. It drizzles rain as I type from wacky weather L.A. (Santa Monica, to be precise). The 10 Freeway rebuilt, but I hear it's like the wooden rollercoaster at Magic Mountain. Clack, clack, clunk. Be brave, commuters, there are no guardrails as of yet. On more musical notes, by now all of you should have the new PETER CASE Sings Like Hell, not to mention be playing the hell out of it. This is Case's first much-awaited release since his Geffen days. It's a bare-bones, raw folk-blues rock kind of a thang that goes down easy. Peter is starting a national tour and just might be near your station, so call me for details. Early believers KCMU, KUNI, WRPI and WRSE with many mighty more coming. If you don't have this release, you know the number.

Chris Ashley, Office Grunt, Rainforest Records, Portland, OR (503) 682-3944

Somewhere out there is an MD who is playing PLEASURE CENTER's full-lengther Ergo, I just have to find you. You know, Pleasure Center, the experimental group from Houston who put out those crazy Manifestation compilations. Now, we're just a small indie trying to make it in a corporate world; we don't have a full publicity/radio department whose entire jobs consist of calling you and leaving endless messages. It's just the two of us, and we try to do it all. The most we can do is try and get a hold of you every other week or so to say "Hi!" and see what's up, because we care about you. On the other hand, we're not too proud to beg. If you don't play this groovy, scary, industrial-ish CD, I'll cry like a little kid. If this sounds like a CD you'd like to have and play and play and play and you haven't received one yet, give me a call and we'll chat. Hugs and kisses to all those out there who are giving this CD a chance. You know who you are.

Leonard B. Johnson, Fiction Records, New York, NY (212) 930-4910

Howdy! Let me start off by telling everyone about our move down the street. Fiction's new address will be: The Bertlesmann Bldg., 1540 Broadway, 39th Fl., New York, NY 10036. The new telephone will be: (212) 930-4910 and fax (212) 930-4736. Now let's get back to business. EAT has arrived! The band kicked off its U.S. tour in Washington, DC, on April 30. Other dates are as follows: Tuesday, May 3 at the Lighthouse in New York; Wednesday, May 4 at J.C. Dobbs in Philadelphia; Thursday, May 5 at the Fast Lane in Asbury Park, NJ; Friday, May 6 at the Local 186 in Allston, MA; and Saturday, May 7 at Maxwell's in Hoboken, NJ. I'll keep you up to date as the tour travels west...THE CURE's contribution to the soundtrack for The Crow has been causing a stir at radio. The soundtrack is shaping up to be quite an endeavor with tracks by the Rollins Band, Nine Inch Nails, Pantera, Helmet and the Jesus And Mary Chain. This must be added to your collection...BLACK HAPPY will be in the studio soon and will play a double bill with Eat on Thursday, May 26 at the Peacock Tavern in Corvallis, OR, and Friday, May 27 at the Roseland Theatre in Portland, OR...BLEED dates should be announced soon and I'll keep you posted. 'Til next time.

Dorian Cummings, SST, Cruz and New Alliance Records, Lawndale, CA (310) 430-7687

We are going for adds on the TRANSITION album. As we speak key tracks are "Ride My Own Spine," "Salt The Sores" and "But Now That I'm Gone..." Please feel free to choose your own. GONE remixes of "Smoking Gun In Wasco" (that's Wasco not Waco) taken from the Gone album Criminal Mind released earlier this year should be on your desk now. These remixes were done by GREG GINN in his studio Casa Destroy in Long Beach, CA. Thanks to everyone who helped in supporting the recent Greg Ginn and RIG tour through the U.S. and Canada. They are wrapping up the final few West Coast dates ending the tour in Los Angeles. This was a two month city a night tour doing over 50 shows. If you missed the show in your area, don't cry. Greg Ginn is planning to go back out on the road in August with ALL and Transition. Check your mail for the new Chuck Dukowski project. Chuck is joined by ex-45 Grave and Dream Syndicate guitarist Paul Cutler and drummer Bill Stinson to form U.G.M. (United Gang Members). This is something you gotta listen to. Also be on the lookout for the TROTSKY ICEPICK release Hot Pop Hello. This is a compilation of previously released and unreleased material that spans across a 10-year career. Until next time...

Matt Griffin, Promotion Coordinator, Tim/Kerr Records, Portland, OR (503) 236-0013

Busy, busy, busy...Tim/Kerr bands on tour at this very moment: EVERCLEAR and ZOOM. Also scheduled to start a tour soon—the WIPERS! As soon as we get confirmed dates, you will be the first to know. Greg Sage is doing phone interviews—if you'd like to interview the man behind the Wipers, give me a call and I'll set it up. New CDs coming your way: the melancholy pop sounds of Portland's SUGARBOOM, Zoom's Helium Octipede CD, SMEGMA's Ism CD, PETER LAUGHNER & FRIENDS Take The Guitar Player For A Ride CD. Also, keep an eye out for I-5 Killers, Vol. III, the latest installment in this "best of the Northwest" series—featuring songs by GIFT, Everclear, 30.06, NEW BAD THINGS, CAVEMAN SHOESTORE, SUPERSUCKERS, the Wipers, and more! Oh, by the way, that Pantera song that you're playing from The Crow soundtrack was originally performed by the Kings Of Punk, POISON IDEA. Computer geeks (like myself) can e-mail me at simmerdown@aol.com. Peace.

Bob W., Triage International, New York, NY (212) 353-2002

Within the past two months we sent out about 12 different items from Triage which were completely exclusive, meaning that unless we sent it, you probably would have had to buy it to get it. Five other projects were those for which we chose who was to receive the releases. Only one project with which we worked was serviced solely by the label. Of the 12 exclusive items, all were either imports or U.S. indie releases. If you think your service from Triage is lacking, just let us know. There may be a good reason for it, but then again, it may be an oversight. You can tell which are the "cool" stations because they play the "cool" releases. On the other hand, you can tell which are the good stations because they could give fuck-all about what's cool and just play what is good. By the way, LAURELS begin a mini East Coast tour with Poem Rocket and Candy Machine: Baltimore on May 11; DC on May 12 (at Black Cat); Richmond on May 13 (at Twister); New York on May 17 (at Knitting Factory with Drunken Boat); Providence on May 20 (at AS20). The PHILISTINES JR. tour England with Radiohead and the FAMILY CAT in May (in case you happen to be there). "You'll pay for this—no, you will."

Jessica Linsky, Whiner, World Domination Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 850-0254

I know that everyone hates L.A. Since I just moved here from San Francisco, I hate L.A. The thing that I hate the worst is owning a car. I hate parking, parking tickets, parking meters. I hate driving, in traffic, on the freeway, on the street, driving really sucks. You have the choice of breathing stale, stinky a/c air, or slowly suffocating in a moving sauna. And everyone else on the road drives like maniacs. Aaargghh! OK, I feel much better now...Anyways, although I hate it here, I actually really like my new job [wonder of wonders]. Everyone who works here is supercool, and our bands are pretty good, too. The first record from STANFORD PRISON EXPERIMENT hit the stores on April 12. Stanford would fit nicely on a bill with Tool and Rage Against The Machine. They're punk with a little funk and a lot of message. They will be on tour, first up the West Coast, then across the country. They said they want to do an in-store in every city (yes, it's their first tour!). So let me know if your store is available. Also coming in the near future, a new album from SKY CRIES MARY, and the debut of the ELASTIC PUREJOY, project of the month from Dave Allen, formerly of Gang Of Four, Shriekback, Low Pop Suicide, and many others too numerous to mention. Call me for P.O.P., promos, guest lists, anything your heart desires; I live for the sound of your voice.

Gretchen Lindensmith, National Retail Marketing Coordinator, Independent Label Sales, New York, NY (800) 274-7957 ext. 7943/(212) 603-7943

MEICES! Meices! Meices! Tastes Like Chicken. Your album cover of the year. My record of the month. You'll sell tons of this, so have plenty on hand. Also out now is the Deep Six compilation on A&M. Originally released 10 years ago, this early chronicle of the pre-invasion Seattle scene is a must for your kid brothers' record collection. Buy him one. SHEEP ON DRUGS From A To H And Back Again is climbing these CMJ charts. "E" from LaTOUR is breaking out all over, if you sell dance music you should be looking for this one. LaTour is on tour, don't miss him. Call MTV and ask 'em to play the new TRIPPING DAISY video for "Blown Away." Great new animation techniques well worth checking out. And the song's pretty good too. Hope you've all received your TRICKY CD. Reviewed in these here pages, this one's a dandy. Ex-Massive Attack teams up with 18-year-old diva Martina to turn your heartbeat into a dub experience. A new ORBITAL EP Diversions is out now. Re-mixes, Peel Sessions, all you could ever want. Records you should be well familiar with: VAPOURSPACE Themes From Vapourspace, ONE DOVE Morning Dove White, Live Forever, California Dreaming, ORB, SALIF KEITA The Mansa of Mali...A Retrospective, ANGELIQUE KIDJO Aye, KHALED N'ssi N'ssi and WILLIAM BURROUGHS Spare Ass Annie And Other Tales. Enough is enough.

TERRA NOVA... 13 memorable songs, including "Going Down", "The Bad Seed", "When The Mountain Meets The Sea", and "Leaving Town".

TERRA NOVA is somewhere on your desk as you read this. Please give it a listen, expose it to the world, and add it to your CMJ playlist.

Life is going great here in Ohio! Some of you asked whether WONB is going to be on the air this summer, and the answer is yes! We only take Christmas off...A big thank you goes to Carolyn at TVT for setting us up to see the CONNELLS/INDIANS/TWO DOORS DOWN at Miami University, plus the giveaways were a huge success. The concert was a benefit for the American Red Cross. Also thanks to Neil W. (BMG) for setting up our interview and tics to SARAH McLACHLAN in Columbus...Look out for VALENTINE SMITH. I predict they will be a huge success, especially with Amy at Detour M helping them out. Finally, thanks to Howie at W.A.R. for the extra HATTERS memorabilia. The Hatters are great.

Pete Kernast, Folk/World Music Director, WTSR, Trenton, NJ (609) 771-3200

I may not agree with his politics or his attempts at revisionist history, but I admire the man for his black pride. MUTABARUKA has probably made one of his most powerful recordings ever with Melanin Man, now out on Shanachie. The music is incredible and the conviction in the message is relentless. Sure to invoke strong emotions to anyone experiencing it...On another tangent, and evoking strong emotion in yours truly, is music from small independent record labels. It's a make or break existence and could not be done without true appreciation and love for the music. Try Catch My Hat by the MAMOU PRAIRIE BAND on Swallow Records, or the release by ALDUS RODGERS on La Louisianne. Music from the bayou with a rich sense of history and so highly unappreciated...What? You thought folk music is just protest music? Tune in next time to see how wrong you are. Later.

Philip D. Wakeman, Music Director, WDJX, Louisville, KY (502) 589-4800

Just for starters, let me tell you that most of us in Kentucky do wear shoes, don't wear overalls (at least until the Gap came out with their own brand), and try to avoid marriage within the family if at all possible. But times are tough. There, now that that's out of the way, for those of you who don't know it yet, WDJX in Louisville has started a new station on the AM that calls itself "alternative." Whatever that is. Our hours of operation are 4 p.m. to 2 a.m. Monday through Friday, and 2 p.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. We have two specialty shows at present. Cary B., whom you may have worked with at WFPL, now does his new music show on Sundays from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., so send all your outrageous and truly cutting edge stuff his way and he'll be sure to give it a listen. On Saturdays from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., we feature techno, tribal, trance type stuff. So bring it on. Just address all stuff c/o WDJX AM, 612 4th Ave., Louisville, KY 40202. I generally take calls on Monday from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Eastern. Things in my ear right now: WHALE, MESSIAH, HOLE, CHARLATANS, MILLA, INFECTIOUS GROOVES. Look forward to hearing from you.

Dan Miller, Reggae/World Music Persona, WWSP, Stevens Point, WI (715) 346-3755

This is my first and last Dialogue. I've been doing the reggae and world music show called Trenchtown Rock for almost nine years now. On May 22 I will graduate with a second degree from this University of higher learning. I've decided that it's also time to move on to other places and do other things, meaning that Trenchtown Rock will cease to exist over the Central Wisconsin airwaves. Have no fear, a new show with new people will take its place, so please continue sending material of the reggae/world music variety. The new person(s) will introduce themselves in this section at a later date or contacting labels by phone or something. I'd like to thank the Mango, Heartbeat, RAS, Shanachie, Earthworks, Columbia, RealWorld labels for the support over the years, plus a bunch of others who I can't mention because of limited space. So thanks! It's hard to give up the show, especially because it's such a blast doing! So with a heavy heart and maybe a tear or two...If anyone needs a hip and innovative computer graphics/graphic designer-type person, degrees in Art and Communication, and a whole lot of background in reggae/world music, give a call, (715) 341-8527. See-ya.

Paul Williams, Production Director, WPTS, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 648-7990

Every once in a while the sun does shine in Pittsburgh and music seems to be so, so sweet and so are the people. Thanks to Kris, Matador gave me an opportunity to interview PAVEMENT and YO LA TENGO, but I had to cancel the latter because of an unsettled term paper (term paper is my favorite word in the world). The sweet singles passing through PTS taste buds: the local tasty KARL HENDRICKS TRIO, some dainty DELIGHTFUL LITTLE NOTHINGS, the heimlich-prone SUPERCHUNK and the palatable CHUG. When we choose a full course entree (we don't need no stinkin' utensils!), we chow down on the A Day In The Park compilation, DC-style EGGS, SENTRIDOH, and some band called Pavement (ever heard of them?). As well as playing music, they're people at PTS with some kind of vague description of responsibility. A state of emergency was declared because of all the new specialty chefs coming in: Rich Puerzer is the new head-lettuce cutter (station manager) and Shawn Brackbill is a new lettuce separator (music director). Also on a parting note, we are changing frequencies, from 98.5 FM to 92.1 FM. Due date is around early May. I geek on the computer sometimes, so catch me on Internet or at my e-mail address: phwst1+@pitt.edu.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

Yo, special shouts to those who make my job easier and fun: Stephanie my baby (Vision Trust), John the boxing junkie—Moorer wins! (Radioactive), Rosie my bowling partner (Hollywood), Hapa girl Ingrid (Meso/Bluemoon), Paul the funkier Brit (Delicious Vinyl), Barney's buddy Tony (ERG), Ann (ex-Breakthru) and all others I forgot to mention. Mahalo for all reps who actually service us in Hawaii, and even a hand clap those who don't even send me shit I kindly ask for! We exist, dammit! 100 watts, but the only college radio (= real radio) station in Hawaii. As far as something completely new and original in music here, there's RAMEN. A single entitled "Kurt's Head" by the two-man group who enjoy yogurt almonds/raisins is quickly becoming the talk of the station. Although the single is a punk song, they refuse to be labeled into a single category—the next track is going to be a 10+ minute psychedelic rock dub! (Remember "Maggot Brain?") Well, adios for now.

Stephen Thompson, Music Director, WLHA, Madison, WI (608) 262-1206

This'll just be a quick note to give a wet, sloppy smooch on the butt to the following nice people I met while in New York for spring break: Seth Gershman and Tod Elmore at Atlantic, Sharon Joffe at Arista, Joe Mattis at Island, Peter Suciú at Milan, Chuck Slomovitz and Stephanie Seymour at Virgin, Sivan Schlechter at TVT, Stephanie Pentzel at Mercury (well, now EMI), Leslie Alfano at Imago, Chris White at Elektra, John DiMaio at Radioactive, Bill Mierzejewski and Beth Krakower at Futurist, Tom Gates and Marni Halpern at Roadrunner, John Perrone at Caroline and Andrew Goldstone at EMI. Good luck with the new VANILLA ICE record, Andrew! Word to your mother.

ISLEY BROTHERS WIN CASE AGAINST MICHAEL BOLTON

A jury in Los Angeles federal court returned a unanimous verdict in favor of the Isley Brothers against Michael Bolton, his co-composer Andrew Goldmark, Warner Tamerlane, Warner Chappell Publishing and Sony Entertainment Corporation. The jury found that Bolton's "Love Is A Wonderful Thing," released in 1991 on his Time, Love And Tenderness album, infringes the Isley Brothers' song of the same name, which was recorded in 1964 and released by United Artists in 1966. The jury must determine the amount of damages to be awarded to the Isley Brothers, an amount which may be in excess of a million dollars.
