PRIMUS Tales From The Punch Bowl

Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., # 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024

Primus has always been like a circus clown car: It comes barreling in with an assortment of amusing, hyper-real sounds that will either make you smile or give you the chills. The Bay Area trio has earned acclaim for its originality and wit, garnering a massive following since its inception in 1989. While Pork Soda helped to break Primus into the mainstream, Tales From The Punch Bowl may be the band's most fully realized effort to date. The songs still incorporate the band's trademark slap-bass and mosh-able rhythms, but there is a great deal more diversity. Relying less on over-amped bass, Primus is now integrating its rubbery bass sound further into the overall mix, showcasing guitarist Larry Lalonde's playing to a greater degree. In addition, singer/bassist Les Claypool's vocals are less "in-your-face," all of which shows a better balance between the three players. Thankfully, the band's maturity has not been at the expense of its enthusiasm: these punk-clowns are more promising than ever. Roll with the punches: "Wynona's Big Brown Beaver," "Glass Sandwich" and "Southbound Pachyderm." JENNY ELISCU

HECTOR ZAZOU Songs From The Cold Seas

Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Hector Zazou's new release does not reveal his musical talent as much as his talent for creating musical frames for his guest portraits. Songs From The Cold Seas is an accurate description of its contents: The songs themselves all reference bodies of water, filling up their allotted space as the water does, leaving no room for anything else. Zazou's music is rhythmic and tribal, yet also clean and cold, the contrast of which creates an oddly comfortable whole. His guest vocalists, including Värttinä, Björk, Siouxsie Sioux and Suzanne Vega, to name but a few, mesh perfectly with the songs Zazou paints around them; it's obvious that once Zazou collected his guests, he sat down to create music specifically for their voices, rather than writing the songs and trying the shoehorn the vocalists into them. The helpful liner notes interpret the songs (half are not in English), which makes the themes of water and loss more clear: this is a marvelously executed concept album. As might be expected, Björk's song, "Visur Vatnsenda-rosu," is the most successful because her voice is so daringly brilliant; Lena Willemark's "Havet Stomar" is another gorgeous moment. Zazou has constructed an entire mood with his new record, and proves himself to be a consummate creator, pulling together voices and music in a thematic whole. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

CHRIS KNOX Songs Of You & Me

Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

The first time we listened to Songs Of You & Me, New Zealand legend Chris Knox's fifth solo album (he's also made records with Toy Love and Tall Dwarfs), we found ourselves immediately singing along with nearly every song. Were these re-recordings of old songs? No, they're all new, but we'd seen Knox play them live once, a year ago, and hadn't been able to forget any of them. "Hey hey, internal decay," he sings on "Vol Au Vent," and that's him all over—he plays the role of the grizzled but cheerful old guy who's been weathered by the world, which he basically is. His songs can face down the worst things the world has to offer, from clueless, priapic teenagers ("A Song To Welcome The Onset Of Maturity") to incapacitating disfigurement ("Sympathy For The Cripple") and come out setting it to a jaunty and hopelessly memorable melody, some homemade percussion loops, a few fuzz-guitar chords and maybe some rudimentary Omnichord plonks. (The best things in life—love, mostly, as far as Knox is concerned—get the same treatment.) ...You & Me is divided, as its title suggests, into 11 songs about other people and 10 about himself, and nobody gets spared the bite of Knox's lyrics, least of all himself: He can take it. Try all the above, plus "Instant Mashed Potato," N.Z. single "One Fell Swoop," "Shrapnel," and the delightful "Lament Of The Gastropod." DOUGLAS WOLK

BOREDOMS Chocolate Synthesizer

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Anyone who thinks all Boredoms records sound alike isn't listening carefully enough. Listen through the screaming anarchy on the surface of Chocolate Synthesizer, and you'll hear the most complicated, unified and virtuosic record the World's Weirdest Rock 'N' Roll Band has made to date—the Boredoms are finally using their unmatched gift for fragmentation for something other than its own sake. The title, for starters, is probably an (anal-by-anal) goof on the Chocolate Grinder from Marcel Duchamp's La Mariée, another great piece of High-Modernist art that appears completely random until you investigate its internal systems. There's a 17-note theme that keeps turning up in one drastically mangled form or another all over the album, until the closing "Nowdom Go Synthesizer Way (WHY?)" pounds the notes out of it and melts what's left down into hardcore. Most of the mutant grooves the band develops here are allowed to live a natural lifespan; they build and metastasize into each other, and recur within songs and from song to song. And the band's voices are a perpetual wonder, doubling instrumental lines, imitating absent instruments, shrieking, babbling and making lots of noises previously alien to recorded larynxes—see, for instance, Yamatsuka Eye's reveille-call on "Tomato Synthesizer" or the thing that sounds like an underwater army chorus on "Anarchy In The Ukk." DOUGLAS WOLK

Fun Trick Noisemaker
spinART

Radio Chart Position: #68

Fun Trick Noisemaker is Apples In Stereo's first full-length with an equally full-length budget. The innovative trio has taken its lo-fi sound to a higher plane, showcasing its distinctive pop sound to full advantage. Harmonies only add to the fun. Stations polishing the Apples in their top fives include: KCSU, KRUA, KUCR, KXLU, WBOR, WMHC, WMUC, WМУH, WNUR and WRSU.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. ▲: greatest upward chart movement. ▼: most requested

This week's Top 150 reflects the fact that the school year is starting to come to a close: A new #1 has arrived. Zoo's Matthew Sweet (2-1) takes the top spot from Island's PJ Harvey, who drops to #6 from #1. Interscope's All (5-2) and Matador's Pavement (9-3) round out the top three. Rykodisc's Morphine (3-4) and Mammoth-Atlantic's Juliana Hatfield (4-5) both drop a place, while Tim Kerr-Capitol's Everclear (14-7), Reprise's Muffs (12-8) and Matador's Yo La Tengo (25-9) make big moves into the top 10. Alias' Archers Of Loaf (15-12) swoop up again, and Metal Blade-WB's Goo Goo Dolls (16-14) and Sire-Reprise's Wilco (19-16) both make similar gains. Sire-EEG's Aphex Twin (57-25) moves up impressively, while Reprise's Filter (59-34), Geffen's White Zombie (45-35), Hollywood's Gwen Mars (91-37), Maverick-WB's Bad Brains (92-38) and Cog Sinister-Permanent (UK)'s The Fall all make substantial moves up the chart. Ska is happening on the chart, in the form of Radical's Oil/Skimpation compilation (55-40), and Island's Tricky (61-41) and Restless's Aminiature (103-44) are both taking advantage of the chart's volatility. DGC's Thurston Moore (125-54), Virgin's King Crimson (105-62) and DGC's Pell Mell (123-75) are also big gainers. This week's Radio Breakthrough is spinART's Apples In Stereo, which snags the top debut at #68.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

YO LA TENGO

Electr-O-Pura
Matador

Retail Chart Position: #7

The #1 Breakthrough honor goes to Matador's Yo La Tengo this week. The Hoboken, New Jersey-based group is far from new to the scene, as Electr-O-Pura is the group's eighth album. With each album the band has re-invented itself, adding dimensions to its sound and people to its fan base. The early poll results indicate that this may be Yo La Tengo's most successful album yet. Electr-O-Pura is the top seller at 3rd Street, Garage D'Or and Record Collector.

ON THE CHART

This week Geffen's White Zombie (1-1) and Matador's Pavement (2-2) hold tight onto the top positions. Matador's Guided By Voices (10-3) and Yo La Tengo (65-7) and Columbia's Bob Dylan (44-4) cruise into the top 10. With very few debuts, the movement on the chart comes from those who've been around, including: Trauma-Interscope's Bush (26-18), Kill Rock Stars' Unwound (35-19), Teen Beat's Versus (58-22), Sire-Reprise's Wilco (34-25), Epic's Oasis (47-32), Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (63-33), Shangri-La's Grifters (60-36) and Beggars Banquet-Atlantic's Peter Murphy (55-38). DGC's Thurston Moore (#29) tops the few debuts this week and is receiving in-store play. Labelmate Pell Mell is also spinning in stores' players, though it has yet to show up on the sales chart.

THE VIBRATION WHICH EXISTS IN ALL MATTER

Terence Trent D'Arby

TERENCE TRENT D'ARBY. IS HE WHITE OR BLACK? Rock or Soul? Fish or Flesh? Symphony or Damn? Tension or Sweetness? On his fourth album, "Terence Trent D'Arby's Vibrator," he proves he's all that and more. The multi-talented singer/songwriter/musician/performer can croon like Sam Cooke, bear witness like Otis Redding and dance like James Brown, not to mention play an assortment of instruments in a dazzling one-man display of virtuosity.

"Terence Trent D'Arby's Vibrator" continues D'Arby's struggle with the sacred vs. the profane and the body vs. the spirit. The album's double entendre title, according to Terence, refers to the "vibrations which exists within all matter." The title track quickly fuses sensuality and spirituality with fuzz-toned, wah-wah guitars cranking out some finger-lickin' good southern-fried funkadelia.

On "Terence Trent D'Arby's Vibrator," D'Arby's amazingly textured voice shines. Whether it's his gospel-tinged testifying on Holding On To You, the lascivious falsetto on C.Y.E.M.L.A.Y?, the "Super Fly" seduction of Read My Lips (I Dig Your Scene) or the stark croon of If You Go Before Me, D'Arby's vocal range is at its most versatile.

Recorded in D'Arby's own LA-based home studio, Monasteryo, "Terence Trent D'Arby's Vibrator" offers a garden of earthly musical delights. The African chants and ethereal harmonies of Read My Lips suggest the sky above, while the driving guitars and gnarled rhythm are firmly planted in the libido below. Adversely, C.Y.E.M.L.A.Y? employs industrial strength power chords to emulate the old in-out/in-out.

"Terence Trent D'Arby's Vibrator," is a return to albums which offered bold statements along with a musical head trip to places you'd never imagined existed. In its variety of settings and moods, the record's like an old-fashioned wide-screen movie, "Around the World in 60 Minutes."

Terence Trent D'Arby has succeeded in tapping the musical power and metaphysical glory of rock 'n' roll's illustrious past without taking his eye off its multi-racial, universal future.

PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The Presidents Of The United States Of America

PopLlama, P.O. Box 95364, Seattle, WA 98145-2364 206.527.8816

Is there room for guilelessness in rock? For the sake of the Presidents Of The U.S.A., let's hope so, because a record this far removed from indie rock's by-rote cynicism and generational angst could be lazily dismissed as too goofy to be hip. But the Prezzes are hip, and if you put any stock in originality and finding smart ways of doing your own thing being integral to punk (and its kid sister, alternative), they're the essence of it. Listening to these songs, it's impossible to miss the enthusiasm and joy, the creative rush that sweeps through the music. It's a sense of abandon that is thoroughly refreshing. You can't write songs about stray kitties and fascinations with peaches, for example, if you worry about what someone else might think about you're doing. The music itself is as idiosyncratic as the subject matter; the band shares but five strings between its three members (two-string "basitar" and three-string "guitbass," with Love Battery and Skin Yard drummer Jason Finn credited with "no-string drums"), and the odd combination furthers the original sound of the band's stupendous melodies. Don't be surprised if a day or two after hearing either "Feather Pluckn," "Peaches," "Body" or "Naked And Famous," the song sets up a permanent residence in your head, or if in a year, this band is one of the biggest things in rock. SCOTT FRAMPTON

THE FALL Cerebral Caustic

Cog Sinister/Permanent (UK), c/o Triage, P.O. Box 448, New York, NY 10014 212.989.4545

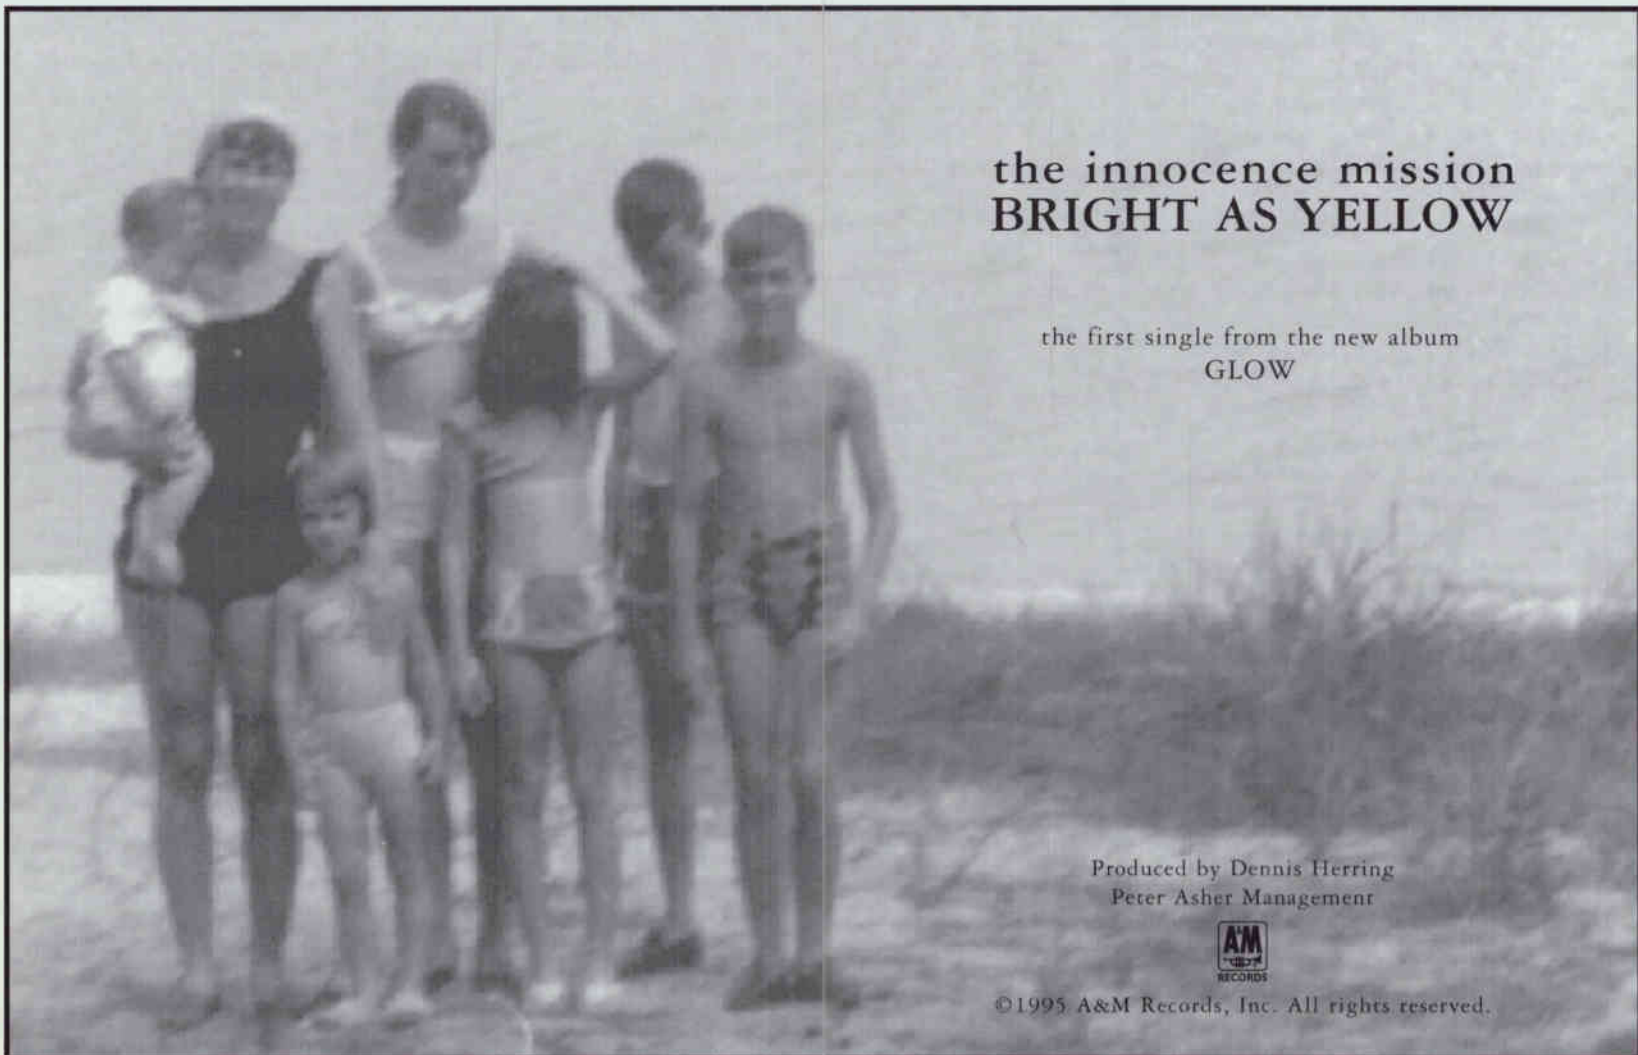

The 29th album in 17 years by The Fall, both the most iconoclastic and the most workmanlike band of its kind, is a turning point for the group. The first big change is that guitarist Brix Smith, ex-wife of lead language poet/enunciator/wild card Mark E. Smith, is back in The Fall after five years away, and it's a shot in the arm for the group. Brix is all over the excellent Cerebral Caustic, writing the music for a third of the songs, chirping along on "Feeling Numb" (a whopping swipe at Prozac), screaming the nail-raking chorus of "Don't Call Me Darling" and taking a crack at the bubbly "Life Just Bounces," re-recorded from a 1990 B-side. The band's longstanding Scanlon/Hanley/Wolstoncraft instrumental axis, here supplemented by another returned prodigal, drummer/keyboardist Karl Burns, is now so powerful and smooth it's almost mechanical. So to keep things interesting, there's big change #2: a newfound fascination with layered samples from non-musical sources. For the most part, the samples provide subtle texture and flavor, only peeking out on their own at the beginning and end of songs, though they take over the bizarre "Bonkers In Phoenix." Smart and acid: all the above, plus the Frank Zappa cover "I'm Not Satisfied," "The Aphid" (a nature documentary turned into a new dance...), "The Joke" ("five years in a P.C. camp-uh!") and the half-played, half-collaged memorial "Pine Leaves." DOUGLAS WOLK

LATIMER LP Title

World Domination, 3575 Cahuenga Blvd. W., Ste. 450, Los Angeles, CA 90068 213.850.0254

Exactly in the middle of LP Title lies the strangest of intermissions: packed into the only cleft in a record teeming with crackling energy boiling over into each successive track is "Cold Front Killer," a muffled heartbeat pulsating through two minutes of odd samples and effects. For an album which overflows with its own chaotic momentum, the intermission acts as a revelation, tearing away the fury of the other 11 songs to uncover the their soul, an alarmingly stark contrast that makes the clenched-fist delivery of the rest of the tracks all the more effective. With the equally ferocious World's Portable EP already under Latimer's belt, the burden of proof of its stamina rested squarely on the band's shoulders, and LP Title easily shows any skeptics the door. The hyper drumming and flurried bass lines force these songs out of any possibility for a mundane delivery, but it's the band's caustic guitar style that drives them over the edge. Riffs encircle themselves, chasing rising chord progressions until the frenzy drops the line back to its base to begin the chase all over again. LP Title is, in its own delightful way, an exhausting listen, but get your adrenaline pumping with "Kiss 120," "Dirgesque," "Poseur" and "Carolida." SEASON TO RISK In A Perfect World
Red Decibel, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave.,
New York, NY 10022-3211

Whether or not you occupy your time trying to figure out where the line is drawn between metal and alternative is really of no consequence to Season To Risk. The Kansas City, Missouri, band eats hearty portions of both genre distinctions for breakfast every morning—and then ferociously spits them back up by day's end. The resultant aggregation is one thick, teeming mass of noise, rhythm and aggression, rarely paralleled in its power or focus. Since its debut album two years ago, the band has found new things to be pissed off about and more effective ways to take it out on its instruments. Put Season To Risk to the test and the band can run with the best of 'em—Helmet, Jesus Lizard, Fugazi—while biting off enough of its own denture-rattling grooves and hyper-coagulated screams (thanks to singer Steve Tulipana) to assure that its peers are exactly that and no more—its peers. In A Perfect World won't change metal or punk in its current forms, but cue it up alongside any of its 10-ton brethren and you'll find Season To Risk an admirable opponent, if not an innovative monster. Essential components of the Perfect World: "Jack Frost," "Blood Jgly," "Invisible Me" and "Sleepwalker." COLIN HELMS

JOHN DAVIS Leave Home
Communion, 290-C Napoleon St.,
San Francisco, CA 94124 415.647.5667

John Davis's music has already reached public consciousness through his solo material on the Shrimper label, along with his recordings with the Folk Implosion, a duo comprised of Davis and Lou Barlow that's known for its sculpted, emotionally-packed lo-fi gems. Davis jumps head-first into lo-fidelity with Leave Home, a loose collection of songs, spoken poems and musical noodling. The irony built into this album's title underscores the tension inherent in this sort of project: while the disc proudly proclaims that it was "made at home," the album's title fights against it, exposing the conflict in playing deeply personal music for a public audience. That said, Leave Home works both as a key-hole peek into a very interesting, oftentimes musical mind, and as a record worthy of a careful listen in a quiet room. Songs such as "Always All Time Disco," "Wipeout Tonight" and "Tug Of War" are marked by memorable melodic hooks, Davis' whispered vocals floating atop a hand-tapped and -strummed musical backdrop, while on "Everyone Go" his voice sounds positively pried out of himself, like a stubborn hangnail refusing to abandon its post. And the earnest expression of "Home Sweet Home," among others, is positively heart-pitching. LYDIA ANDERSON

ELVIS COSTELLO Kojak Variety
Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Elvis Costello's latest record arrives without the usual fanfare because what he's done this time is a record of covers, some of his own favorites, but definitely not widely known songs. Costello's most endearing quality is his reverence toward these songs, which he approaches not as if they're sacrosanct, but as if they deserve some extra treatment because they are forgotten gems. The first indication of this is the liner notes, which give in-depth detail about how the songs were selected and then ultimately produced. The second clue that he knows and loves this material is his ability to stamp his own voice and style onto the songs without transforming them into Elvis Costello songs. Costello has several peers, but no-one surpasses his ability to convey emotion through his vocals. The third point is that Costello's taste is wide-ranging and particular, so that he chooses to cover songs by Willie Dixon, Mose Allison and Randy Newman. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

DUMP International Airport (10")
Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030
I Can Hear Music
Brinkman (The Netherlands), c/o Revolver,
290-C Napoleon St., San Francisco, CA 94124
You And I Plus 3 (7"EP)

18 Wheeler, P.O. Box 4256, Dunellen, NJ 08812
With a new 7" EP, a 10" EP, and a CD (available also with a bonus second CD), Dump is flooding the market before

Newt Gingrich introduces his proposed indie-rock tax to Congress... Although ultra lo-fi (Dump wears its over-modulation proudly, starting the CD with its worst-recorded track), very few of these 37 four-track home recordings (following a 19-track debut album a year ago) could be considered filler or sub-par. Dump—a k a James McNew, who handles all the instruments and also moonlights as bassist in Yo La Tengo—shares his YLT bandmates' penchant for digging up obscure (and great) songs from a record collection spanning several decades (covers range from Versus to Mancini to Jandek). Alongside plums originally recorded by the Fugs, the Kinks, Johnny Cash, Fish & Roses and others are original McNew songs that are so remarkably hummable we mistakenly assumed they were covers before we looked at the liner credits ("Hope, Joe," "Slow Down," "Liberty Spikes," "Into Fall" and plenty more). The 7" consists of four cover tunes, the bonus CD includes guest performances by Joost Visser, Barbara Manning and Tall Dwarfs, and the EP features "International Airport," an enthralling 12-minute excursion blanketed by the warm drone of a '60s Acetone organ, the only overt reminder of Yo La Tengo throughout these inspired and original recordings. DAVID NEWGARDEN

THE(E) SPEAKING CANARIES
Songs For The Terrestrially Challenged
Scat, 4349 Westminster Pl.,
St. Louis, MO 63108 901.452.3939

Two years ago Thee Speaking Canaries, fronted by Don Caballero drummer Damon Che, released their debut album, The Joy Of Wine, a moody, much more casual album than this follow-up. On Songs For The Terrestrially Challenged, Che's guitar lines leap out of the previously even-tempered and foggy mix to assume full floodlight status. In fact, all 13 cuts here revel in the electric glory of a plugged-in guitar worked by knowing hands, and that's what guides the songs to their ultimate conclusion, rather than a simple melodic hook or hummable chorus. This makes the 75-minute album a dense listen, but it also promises more after repeated listens than the chunks of sounds that initially grab the ears. Songs such as the eight-minute "Terrestrial/Famous No Space" might be quite a commitment in air-time, but once you immerse yourself in the viscous threads of Che's guitar lines, studded with nubby, Van Halen-esque chops, you may not want to climb out of the muck and mire. For a shorter (though not necessarily lighter) dose, try "Houses And Houses Of Perfectness," the angry "Super Hit" or "El Rancho" (and Van Halen aficionados might want to check out the Canaries' take on "Secrets"). LYDIA ANDERSON

MOONPOOLS & CATERPILLARS Lucky Dumpling
Elektra, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019
Although Moonpools & Caterpillars have been kicking around the Los Angeles area since the late '80s, Lucky Dumpling is the first sampling we've had of the band's polished, yet energetic garage-pop.

The time spent rehearsing and playing out is evident both in the band's writing and its performances; songs like "Soon" marvelously demonstrate the exceptional sonic texturing and arranging abilities Moonpools & Caterpillars have cultivated over the years. Lead singer Kimi Ward Encarnacion's vocals fall somewhere between the quick vibrato of Belinda Carlisle and the laid-back effortlessness of Natalie Merchant, which reinforces Lucky Dumpling's refreshing, breezy feeling and sometimes belies the periodically-surfacing lyrical angst found on tracks like "Sundays" ("I've lost once before/I'm older now/But sometimes I forget my age"). The band's got a quirkier side too—"The Buick" takes a moralistic, nostalgic jab at the slicked-hair guys in their souped-up muscle cars. Also shimmering: "Heaven," "Colossal Youth" and "Hear." AARON CLOW

TRUCK STOP LOVE
How I Spent My Summer Vacation

Backyard, c/o Scotti Bros., 2114 Pico Blvd., Santa Monica,
CA 90405 310.396.0088

How I Spent My Summer Vacation might make you question whether you are listening to one band or a compilation disc featuring a musical mish-mash of several genres.

Diverse? Yes. All from the same band? You bet. But does it work? Most definitely. Summer Vacation throws you head first into the fury of "You Owe," hooks you with "Other Stars," gets back to basic rock 'n' roll on "Bitter Boy," and then does a complete 180 with a nod to John-Boy and the rest of the clan on "Walton's Mountain," a perky country stomp. Legendary Big Star alum Jody Stephens takes half the production credit, and also helps out vocally on the hidden acoustic track (#13). Truck Stop Love's hometown of Manhattan, Kansas, is a rural college town, and it's easy to connect the band's youthfully fresh approach with its environment: this album is chock full of anticipated accomplishments and reflects the band's guts to develop them beyond the rudiments. Truck Stop Love hints at a fertile music scene brewing in the Midwest, so get ready for an exploration of various modes of musical expression. DONNA RODGER

NEW BAD THINGS iFreewheel!
Candy-Ass, P.O. Box 42382, Portland, OR 97242
503.238.9708

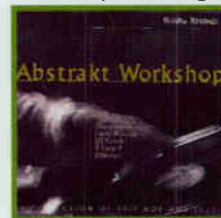

There is a glut of indie-rock bands making full-length records before they are developed as musicians and as a band—and even more of them making 7" before their time—so when a group such as the New Bad Things makes an album it stands out as an exception amongst the bushels of undeveloped groups. New Bad Things don't come across as studied musicians, but it is apparent that the members have a talent, the ability to sculpt an incredible pop song out of found musical capabilities. iFreewheel! is low-key and lo-fi, using stereotypical instruments and stylistic approaches, yet it exudes an unsurmountable energy. This 18-song album is full of heavyweight pop songs with strong hooks; there's not one song on the album that isn't of sing-along, or at least hum-along, status. iFreewheel!'s raw, unassuming pop beauty comes as a pleasant surprise. New great things: "Let's Everyone Do It," "Ephedrine," "Mexico Siren" and "Concrete." DAWN SUTTER

VARIOUS ARTISTS Abstrakt Workshop
Shadow, c/o Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502,
New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360

First there was the innocuous term "acid jazz," which could not be accurately defined by the styles it fused, but rather by the feelings and attitudes it encompassed. As this music reached new places on the map (Japan, America, France, Brazil, Italy), it picked up new influences, new rules and new methods like flypaper. Along comes yet another label: trip hop. It would be incorrect to confine trip hop music to a single definition, but it embraces all of the sounds joined under the acid jazz umbrella—hip-hop, jazz and various other urban sounds—along with occasional dub-oriented vibes and loose, un-anchored song structures. Trip hop could very well be a reaction to acid jazz's global appeal; in many ways, it marks an evolutionary stage that will only be expanded. The opening to Ute's "Give It" creates a dark, jazz-haunted landscape for the rhythm and trumpet improv to wander, while the ragga-funk of Diferenz's "Mind Movement" is driven by fat, stand-up bass and muted trumpet work in the spirit of Miles. While the cuts featured on Abstrakt Workshop don't have much of a "live" feel (and there's no singing), they utilize a structured, intricately layered feel to achieve their results. Mighty Bop's "Obscure" is a fine piece of work, while one of the finest aural architects, DJ Krush, creates a wondrous display on "Edge Of Blue." GLEN SANSONE

CLUTCH Clutch
EastWest, c/o EEG, address above

Ever since it collided with funk in some sort of Reese's simulation, metal has not been the same. Clutch's latest release takes the repetitive monster riffs of the heaviest metal and funks it up with a rhythmic stutter, fronting it all with shouted vocals that sound equal parts metal and rap. The lyrics are surprisingly clear as well, which trains the aural focus on both aspects of the songs rather than favoring one over the other. Whichever style Clutch chooses to emphasize, the band does it well. The changes that Clutch has made since its debut are all for the better: the band sounds more competent, assured and focused. The stylistic touches the band members toss into the fray are also carefully chosen: the strong psychedelic sound of "Tight Like That" and the '70s rock of "Tim Sult Vs. The Greys" add to their primary mix without detracting from it. Clutch has surfaced from its somewhat schizophrenic debut and made a surprisingly assured second record that will earn fans with alternative as well as metal crowds. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN □

FRIENDS OF DEAN MARTIN "Polena" (7")

Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102 206.441.8441

The Friends Of Dean Martin could be easily tossed off as a Giant Sand side project—that of Joey Burns and John Convertino of Giant Sand—if it weren't for the fluidity of their debut single and their noted and numerous live gigs.

Both "Polena" and "Seashells" on the flipside are the perfect synthesis of lounge cool (tinkling vibes) and sandy outback cool (smooth slide guitar), perfect for sipping that rattlesnake martini in the Arizona desert. Look for the group's desert-hot debut album in late August. LYDIA ANDERSON

HAZEL "Blank Florida" (7")

Candy-Ass, P.O. Box 42382, Portland, OR 97242 503.238.9708

"Blank Florida" has all the trappings of big Northwestern rock—an asymmetrical monster-riff, a melody that's essentially one line, cryptic words, even a guitar solo—but they're treated with a warmth and congeniality that makes them go down smoothly. The secret is in Pete and Jody's harmony vocals, which radiate camaraderie. "Motor Sport Daredevils," on the B-side, applies the same quick, casual production and singing to a lament about co-opted musical culture and odd chords that hint at Mission Of Burma. Watch out: The labels are on the wrong sides. DOUGLAS WOLK

CRAWLSPACE/MOOSEHEART FAITH

Crawlspace/Mooseheart Faith (7")

Jam Tongue/Behemoth, c/o Crawlspace, Box 7034, Van Nuys, CA 91409-7304

Way back in '76, Eddie Flowers was a DIY/fanzine/indie-rock pioneer (his Gizmos put out their own 7" before Spiral Scratch), and even as a senior citizen his psych/fuzz/punk/jazzass singles with Crawlspace still top most of what the youngsters are doing today. "Lunar Fuckin' Eclipse" is another fine Flowers opus, but this time, his B-side buddies steal the show. With a crazed twinkle in their eyes, Mooseheart Faith prove that bell bottoms and scat singing are not completely incongruous, and throw in a bonus spoken word/tape/baritone horn composite for all you artistic types. DAVID NEWGARDEN

RAYMOND BRAKE "New Wave Dream" (7")

Simple Machines, P.O. Box 10290, Arlington, VA 22210-1290 703.276.0680

The Raymond Brake has chosen its name somewhat appropriately: The A-side of this single sticks in your head by virtue of a jerky, stop/start rhythmic sleight-of-hand that repeatedly slams the brakes on the melody with teasing aplomb. Without wasting a moment's space, the flipside's "Secret" easily complements the title song with more fluid, looping guitar lines and steadily driving beat, making for an infectious package of clever songwriting and quickly-familiar hooks. CHERYL BOTCHICK

SECRET STARS "Wait" (7")

Simple Machines, address above

Boston's Secret Stars consider their project an "experiment in writing songs." The two songs on its debut single were recorded on a four-track as part of a 10-song tape that the duo recorded while housesitting in 1993. "Wait" is a dulcet love song written by Geoff (formerly of Karate) and is solely built on delicate vocals and guitars. On the B-side, "Riot Kill" is an amusing pop song that mocks Juliana Hatfield: "Some sister/Some sister/You are," Jodi sings on this funny, catchy pop song. Look for the band's cassette on Shrimper later this year. JENNY ELUSCU

HANGDOGS Same Old Story

Crazyhead, 124 W. 25th St. Apt. 2R, New York, NY 10001 212.727.2838

The New York City "Rig Rock"/country rock scene had seemingly broken into small pieces until the recent emergence of the Hangdogs. As their debut,

Same Old Story, accurately illustrates, these dogs aren't afraid of getting some mud on their paws. They've captured a large portion of their electric stage presence, featuring the fearless strut and flashy twang of guitarist Automatic Slim and the sweaty, hillbilly moans of Matthew "Banger" Grimm. The Hangdogs have an obvious appreciation of the Mavericks' brand of '90s honky tonk and Jason And The Scorchers-style nitro-fueled country. The Hangdogs' music boasts a familiarity, even if you've never heard them before, which is not to say that it's clichéd; it comes from a spot so deep inside them that it bursts out with a refreshing enthusiasm. As is often the case with country songs, a sense of humor is a tremendous asset, as is a convincing and slightly twisted way with words. Both are evident on the stomping lament "The TV Too," the rockabilly-flavored "We Gon Rock" and the EP's driving title track. This is not the Same Old Story; the Hangdogs are breathing new life into the country underground, drawing increasingly large crowds where ever they play and proving each time out that they're one of NYC's most powerful new bands. ## BARBARA BROUSAL

200 Sterling Pl. #2D, Brooklyn, NY 11238 718.789.4404

In the tradition of legends Joni Mitchell and Joan Baez and contemporaries Lois and Mary Lou Lord, Barbara Brousal stands out as an impressive songwriter and solo acoustic performer. She began playing in clubs in the Boston area over two years ago and, now relocated to New York City, fits comfortably into Manhattan's acoustic café subculture. Brousal's songs are appealing not only for their successful conveyance, but also for the strength of her musical ability. Her three-song cassette was recorded by (among others) Kramer and showcases her well-honed songwriting ability and her striking talent as a vocalist and guitarist. On "Vigilante Of Love," Brousal is accompanied by a band and the song's driving rhythm is overwhelming when combined with Brousal's strong, soulful vocals. "Soap & Water" and "Breathing Down Your Neck" are no less powerful in the absence of a rhythm section; the former is a low-key break-up song, while the latter effectively displays Brousal's ability to complement delicate guitar strumming with angry, intense vocals. ## FRANK ZAPPA/THE MOTHERS OF INVENTION We're Only In It For The Money

Rykodisc, Shetland Park, 27 Congress St., Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678

1968's We're Only In It For The Money was Frank Zappa's first great record; few albums are both so venomous and so compassionate. It's primarily a ferocious attack on apple-pated hippie culture (especially Sgt. Pepper's), but it also lays into reactionary cops, uncaring parents and America's hawkish, repressive government. Peace and love are great, the Mothers were saying, but you have to work for them; you won't make them happen if you go to San Francisco, "stay a week and get the crabs and take the bus back home." Zappa was foremost a non-conformist, and he had no patience for people who were into utopia because it was trendy. The original Ryko reissue from about 10 years ago had re-recorded rhythm tracks in several sections, and also contained Money's musique concrete companion album Lumpy Gravy; this one doesn't. The sound in parts (particularly "Concentration Moon") is fairly muddy, but much less jarring than the super-bright sound on the twofer. Also, the scrambled verse of "Harry, You're A Beast" is scrambled again—but it's clear enough what the words are anyway. Money's sound-collages and pitch-adjusted silly voices, daring at the time, haven't aged well, but its highlights are still hysterical, especially "Absolutely Free" ("The first word of this song is 'disincorporate.' It means to leave your body") and "Flower Punk," which savages "Hey Joe." DOUGLAS WOLK

THE BAND Live At Watkins Glen

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Although historically overshadowed by other festivals like Woodstock and Monterey Pop, Watkins Glen was the biggest rock event ever in terms of attendance, which was estimated at nearly 600,000. Held at the Grand Prix racing grounds in upstate New York in July of 1973, it was a one-day event that featured an at-the-time dream combination of the Grateful Dead, the Allman Brothers Band and The Band. This disc is taken from the most complete available tape of The Band's set that day, which featured lively performances of tunes from other songwriters besides the standard Robbie Robertson and Bob Dylan songs the group had become known for. At the time The Band was recording Moondog Matinee, its album of cover tunes, so versions of Chuck Berry's "Back To Memphis" and Stevie Wonder's "Loving You Is Sweeter Than Ever" made it into the set. It's also notable for a poignant take of "I Shall Be Released" with Richard Manuel on vocals and an especially funky version of "Up On Cripple Creek." It's curious that Live At Watkins Glen is seeing the light of day 22 years after the fact, but it's worthwhile not only as a document of a landmark event, but because it provides a telling snapshot of one of the most important groups of an era. ## VARIOUS ARTISTS Hillbilly Fever! Vols. 1-5

Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900
This series is right in line with what Rhino Records is best at doing: putting together entertaining overviews of particular genres of 20th century music with informative liner notes, rare photos and nearly complete recording information. The five volumes of Hillbilly Fever! are a bountiful history lesson in country music, certainly unmatched in scope by any recent set with similar intentions. With only a couple of exceptions, these would be a good starting point to building a country music library. Volume 1, subtitled Legends Of Western Swing, aptly pays tribute to Bob Wills, Milton Brown and all those they influenced, including Spade Cooley, Cliff Brunner, Curly Williams and Leon McAuliffe, on cuts recorded during swing's heyday from 1932 into the late '50s. Volume 2, Legends Of Honky Tonk, could have, and probably should have, been a two-disc set. The inclusion of certified classics from Ernest Tubbs, Hank Williams, Lefty Frizzell and George Jones makes the set hard to find fault with, but honky tonk is the core of country; a few prime latter day artists (only two tracks from the '60s are included) are unfortunately squeezed out. Legends Of Nashville, Volume 3, is a surprisingly varied affair that hits all the high spots from Red Foley, Kitty Wells and the Louvin Brothers to Ray Price and Patsy Cline and a bunch more, including Little Jimmy Dickens, whose 1950 hit gives the series its title. Volume 4, Legends Of The West Coast, stakes out an impressive breadth, covering the music of cowboy stars like Gene Autry and the Sons Of The Pioneers to the hill-billy sounds of the Maddox Brothers & Rose and Tennessee Ernie Ford to the source of the Bakersfield sound, Buck Owens and Merle Haggard. The last volume, Legends Of Country Rock, pays obvious tribute to Gram Parsons, who makes an appearance on tracks by the International Submarine Band, the Byrds and the Flying Burrito Brothers. The inclusion of the Marshall Tucker Band and Seatrain (with Peter Rowan and Richard Greene) seems curious when the Eagles, who remain an undeniable influence on the Nashville sound of the '90s, are excluded. JIM CALUGIURI

LIGHTNIN' HOPKINS Po' Lightnin'

Arhoolie, 10341 San Pablo Ave., El Cerrito, CA 94530 510.525.7471

Arhoolie seems dedicated to releasing the contents of every tape box with Lightnin' Hopkins' name on it. While not all of Po' Lightnin' is top shelf, portions of it remind us why Lightnin' Hopkins was one of the most loved and revered bluesmen of all time. Some of the tunes devolve into shambolic shuffles that do little to enlarge his myth, but on other tracks (particularly the warm and intimate recordings made in either Hopkins' apartment or Chris Strachwitz's house), his inimitable charisma and personality shine through. For instance, there's "Wine Drinking Woman," where Lightnin' talks about "carrying my baby to the doctor this morning," for drinking too much wine. Then a line or two later, he comments, "I don't want her to take up my habits," while at that very moment, he tosses off a flashy lick on his guitar. Elsewhere, Lightnin' delivers more of his inimitable, personal blues, with the distinctiveness of the titles generally corresponding to the quality of the songs: "Selling Wine In Arizona," "Up On Telegraph Avenue," and the topical "Please Settle In Vietnam" and "Hurricanes Carla & Esther" are pure undiluted Lightnin'. JAMES LIEN

SHINY GNOMES MC Creatix

Rough Trade (Germany), c/o Big Brother Press, P.O. Box 1288, Gerrards Cross, Bucks SL9 9YE U.K. 0753.890635

Once fuzz-toned garage-rockers, German trio Shiny Gnomes has traced the signs of the times to arrive at MC Creatix, a self-described "pagan techno dub folk" venture. In other words, the Germans mix golden-age and new-age psychedelic bliss-out by skillfully overlapping dub, acid/space wobble-rock (of Pink Floyd poppy-'n'-proggy hues), trippy-hop (not quite Bristolian, then), ambient house and Cure-influenced goth-rock ("Healing Sounds Asleep" for the latter), rarely overstressing the extremities of each genre but genty blurring edges. Like the similarly dateless acid-isms of Porcupine Tree, Shiny Gnomes' flying-teapot hippy-dippiness will be too arch for some tastes—this is, after all, an "aural prayer to the female principle MC Creatix" (Mother Earth to you and me) and there are daft Orb-ish titles like "Thinking At The Edge Of The Unthinkable"—but the trio maintains a palpable streetwise tension. Dream on to "Birthday Om," "In Nadreena's Garden," "Dyade" and "Feelpool."

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Wiiija's latest one-sided cheapie 7" is CORNER-SHOP's "6am Jullander Shere." If the Anglo-Asian quartet's debut album Hold On It Hurts was a mass of fractured, 'hold on, it's coming' potential, this is a startling arrival. This mantra-sway is sung in Punjabi and based on the 6 a.m. prayer in Hindu temples (Jullander Shere is a village in North India), and it's as instrumentally rich as the proverbial Persian carpet (or Indian restaurant flockpaper). Cornershop's guitar/sitar weave is near indivisible, enriched by the new percussion section, the sound heading off for startlingly newer pastures than Cornershop's punk-shambling aesthetic of old (Wiiija, 130 Talbot Road, London W11 1JA U.K. 0171.229.8541)...If you diligently sought out WEIRD'S WAR's debut single "Screwed Over"/"Me And Judy Garland," then you'll be wanting "Beat It Off"/"Perry Farrell." The Birmingham trio's second limited-edition 7" (1000 copies) is a much better produced version of its funkpunkadelic jamboree bop, recorded on a spiritual plane where Prince meets T. Rex. "Beat It Off" is a crunching, strutting neo-'70s rock-out driven home by a fat, cheesy synth, while "Perry Farrell" is a stark, vampy piano ballad. Soul is in abundance on both, as is a joyous pop-summit temperament just itching to embrace the big time. Maybe if Perry hears this 'tribute', he'll stick them on the next Lollapalooza (La La Land, P.O. Box 3161, London NW1 9TG U.K. 0171.792.4741)...ANGEL CAGE is another super-charged female-fronted 'grunk' band, but with a more thrashy determination. That said, the majority of the group's debut EP, Boxtrimmer, is underpinned by a hard rock/mainstream undercarriage that could both disappoint the indie purists and widen its audience (ORG, Unit 206, The Old Gramophone Works, 326 Kensal Road, London W10 5BZ U.K. 0181.964.3066)...The brainchild of DJ Craig Mineard, Clean Up Records has mined the trip-hopular vein since 1993. As the genre becomes bona fide, the label has signed a deal with One Little Indian, the first release being a self-titled EP from Welsh duo CONTROL FREAKS. All four tracks are loping and spliffy at heart; "The Coup Is This" is a funk/'70s rare-groove trip, "Urban Waveforms" adopts a smoky, Bristol-style base; "Very Serious Smokin" and "On The Attack" are more minimal trippiness. Expect more Clean Up vibes from now on (Clean Up, c/o One Little Indian, 250 York Road, London SW11 U.K. 0171.924.1661).

PASCAL COMELADE El Cabaret Galactic

Les Disques du Soleil et de l'Acier (France), c/o Dutch East India, 150 W. 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001

The song titles ("The Lolobridgida Fox Trot," "Dali's Mustache With Gitano's Chaussure," "Clair De Lune A Pampelune," "Your Eyes Like Juan Gris Cubist Guitars") offer clues to the slightly romantic, slightly oddball appeal of these playful and witty curios from French pianist Pascal Comelade. These instrumentals mingle his trademark jingle of toy piano and xylophone alongside elegant adult instruments in short vignettes shaped by tango, jazz, flamenco, cabaret, Weill, Satie, '20s Europe, etc. Comelade's delightful arrangements are simple and uncluttered, but there are lots of attractive quirks to his slightly askew, but always graceful tunes. The charm, thankfully, generally doesn't get too cutesy or wacky; Comelade has a taste for subtle effects like the juxtaposition of twangy electric guitars colliding with stately chamber bassoon and flute in "On Se L'Hegel En Enfer." It's a splendid album to be enjoyed with glass of wine or, better yet, several.

ZELWER Les Dieux Sort Fâchés

Made To Measure/Crammed (Belgium), c/o Dutch East India, address above

Several years ago, we fell in love with (Jean-Marc) Zelwer's La Fiancée Aux Yeux De Bois, a lyrical and lively album of ballet and film music deliciously flavored by Eastern European musical traditions. This follow-up, another album of dance scores, has some similarities in mood and instrumentation (crisp pizzicato strings along with clarinet and accordion played by the composer), but it's a much more complex work. Les Dieux Sont Fâchés (The Gods Are Angry) is shaped by a strong religious/sacrilegious character stemming from ornately operatic singing (there's also plenty of muttering and yelling) and the Baroque hugeness of a basilical pipe organ. But this is certainly not intimidating listening—there are pieces that recall Nino Rota's circus-like Fellini scores and carousel music, and in "Vendo Speranza," for instance, the massive organ dances a humorous tango.

ZAHAVA SEEWALD & PSAMIN Ashkenaz Songs

Sub Rosa (Belgium), c/o Dutch East India, address above

Obscure 19th century Yiddish songs may not be what you'd normally expect to see extolled in this magazine, but these wonderful melodies will assuredly linger in any listener's head. And Yiddish might not be high on most people's lists of mellifluous languages, but Ashkenaz Songs will induce appreciation of the exquisite beauty of this disappearing tongue. A colorful accordion/viola/violin trio backs Zeewald's robust and sparkling voice, her expressive and emotional singing imbuing these songs with tremendous verve and spirit.

MUSIQUES TRADITIONNELLES D'UKRAINE 2ÈME PARTIE

Silex (France), c/o Harmonia Mundi, 2037 Granville Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025-6103

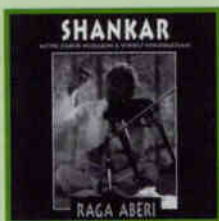

All over Eastern Europe, and not just in Bulgaria, there are rich heritages of polyphonic vocal harmonizing, and it's a crime that more of it (particularly male singing) is not available on domestic releases. Silex, an excellent French label specializing in European folk music, both traditional-style and modern variations, has released a second volume of traditional Ukrainian music, featuring both female and male voices, along with merry fiddling, bitter-sweet bandura plucking and the glorious drones of the cranked hurdy-gurdy.

JACKPOT!

SHANKAR WITH ZAKIR HUSSAIN & VIKKU VINAYAKRAM

Raga Aberi

Music Of The World, P.O. 3620,
Chapel Hill, NC 27515-3620

919.932.9600

Many years ago there began a small revolution in what was to be called "world music." It came when a remarkable musician discovered that in an East-meets-West musical collusion, East need not be sublimated to the 4/4 beat. In the case of violinist Shankar—who wired up a unique double-necked violin and joined forces with John McLaughlin in Mahavishnu and Shakti, then moved on to even more radical music with Caroline and the Epidemics—sublimation was never the issue. This master of south Indian classical music understood the richness of his tradition, and realized that the same improvisation and creative drive that inspires it could reinvent Western jazz and rock.

It's all the more remarkable when he reaches into the strict cycles and structures of Indian music and produces a work like Raga Aberi. Here is a work that is mostly improvisation, and yet stays strictly within the bounds of tradition. The complex interplay between Shankar and the two percussionists, Zakir Hussain (tabla) and Vikku Vinayakram (ghatam: clay pot), brings a life and energy that a contemporary audience rarely associates with a highly-structured framework. Then there is the instrument itself, a double-barrelled electric violin that brings with it both outrageousness and nuance. It is perhaps this (coupled with an overwhelming virtuosity) that brings this piece to life, giving it new dynamics, strange low-end rumbles and vibrant electronic highs.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Notorious sartorial stylist Papa Wemba holds on to the #1 spot again this week, as his RealWorld-Caroline album continues to rack impressive amounts of airplay, paving the way for his U.S. tour this summer. Where can he go from here? Right behind him, is reggae veteran Israel Vibration, whose RAS album remains at #2, now in its third month on the chart. That's the kind of performance that will insure the band will end up on our year-end charts when December rolls around. Then again, the Heartbeat album from perennial world/reggae chart stalwarts Marley Family has been on the charts for almost four months, and shows no signs of slowing down, as it moves 15-12 this week. And as always, we leave you with a friendly reminder to always have artist, title and label information handy, especially if you give your list to someone else at your station to phone or fax in. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

The most amazing thing is how quickly your awareness of these things fades into the music, as it weaves its own energy and magic. If you stop listening you'll feel mysticism, romance, funk and fury in these instruments, and a deeper voice of pure music in the raga.

Music Of The World has added a number of edited tracks for the radio release of this Raga Aberi, but you will honestly deprive your listeners of its true magnificence if you don't take the time just once to play the entire work (48 minutes).

JUSTINE Langages Fantastiques

Ambiances Magnétiques, CP 263, Succursale E., Montréal, Canada H2T 3A7 514.842.7479
While the creative listener might find some world roots to the work of this Montréal quartet, it's fleeting and purely coincidental, a fabrication of a determined mind. Formerly known as Wondeur Brass, Joane Héту (sax/voice), Danielle Parlady Roger (drums/electronics/voice), Diane Labrosse (electronics/voice) and Marie Trudeau (bass/voice) create sounds that are pure elements of their own imaginations, swirling through rhythmic barrages of drums and bass and burning up agitated ambiances of fractured vocals and jagged, sharp horns. To call this rock or jazz is to miss the point. This is music unattached, distracted by reality but never really captured by the myth of it. This newest record is their most challenging yet and, strangely, it is also their most cohesive. They have found a way to bring their message forward as a tight unit with very independent parts, and the fantastic musical language they speak runs right past the brain and into that place just below where the wild emotions grow.

ARSENALS Stomp

Moon, P.O. 1412 Cooper Sta., New York, NY 10276

Few folks I know share my small but strong fascination with contemporary ska. They say it all sounds alike; it's formulated; it's too concerned with late nights and beer. OK, it's all true (gee, smells like Seattle), but the best of these bands do it with such unabashed spirit and humor that I find it to be the only rock-based music I can think of that really lives its own life these days, whether it's the dark lack of inhibitions of Mephiskapheles or the upbeat conscious beat of Arsenals. This band in particular has captured my attention because of the solid Jamaican dub/Detroit soul connection it's made. Arsenals can stroll into a slow funky groove or jump up and rock, horns blazing à la James Brown, and always have a unique personality. While they may know the formula by heart, they are tossing in their own ingredients and the taste is elusive yet familiar. Eat it!

STRANGE ROOTS

BU-BACA-DIOP plays a familiar strain of African pop music, the mbalax sound made famous by N'Dour and brilliant by Maal. But while they took their sound to Paris for refinement, Diop has taken its Paris sound and transplanted it to Australia, where it has thrived, adding a little more jazz, a bit more rock and...a didgeridoo? Yeah, let's get it over with. The ubiquitous Alan Dargin adds some nice ambience with his hollow tube of full of drones. The rest of Stand (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012) though, is a horn swallowed Afro-pop fest, smoother than usual but sweet, with soul and savvy.

THE CREAKY WHEEL

Radio this week: KIWR, a 100K watt NPR affiliate in Iowa, has an interesting approach to world music in the person of Mimi Schneider, musician, newscaster and program producer. Her twice-weekly CrossCurrents show, in her own words, "regularly includes music ranging from reggae to Americana to ambient in a mix of contemporary music with traditional roots." Her loose style has even resulted in a special one-hour musical documentary titled "The Roots Of Lounge," a journey into the dark days in the '50s, when "exotica," those "jungle rhythm" and "Caribbean moods" recordings, were all the rage. Find them at 89.7 FM, or write to KIWR, 1700 College Road, Council Bluffs, IA 51503.

WNUR has developed a major presence on the World Wide Web, with a great site for the station, and a marvelous sub-site by Joe Germuska (jgermuska@nwu.edu) called Continental Drift (also his radio show). It's full of information and links to other sites dealing with that loose but descriptive genre, "roots music."

While you're surfing you might also check into The Global Music Centre in Helsinki, Finland. It is the home to Helsinki WOMAD and other great international music events and artists: <http://www.eunet.fi/gmc/>

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

As Sire-EEG's Aphex Twin holds its place at #1, Island's Orb moves back toward the top (3-2) and Waveform's Two A.D. comp makes its highest appearance yet (6-3). Although he's not numero uno this week, Elektra-EEG's Moby hangs tough at #4 with 10 weeks on the chart under his belt. Also in top form this week are EastWest-EEG's Black Dog (13-7), Instinct's Prototype 909 (10-8) and Elektra-EEG's Towa Tei (12-9), all of which reach their highest positions yet. The only debuts this week come from one compilation, NovaMute-Mute's Tresor 3 at #17, and one full-length, Epic's Transglobal Underground, sneaking in at #25. M-Plant, c/o 7th City Distribution,

1301 W. Lafayette, Ste. 217, Detroit, MI 48226 313.963.4737

Aforementioned techno visionary Robert Hood has just released his latest record on his own M-Plant label, and it's clear that his mind is still racing. We've heard little from Hood over the past seven months, but with this engrossing record, his considerable cadre of fans will not be disappointed. One of Hood's chief skills is his ability to build mountains of feeling and energy from very little. Like the music of Basic Channel and Domina, the tracks here seem to circle the edge of consciousness, nearly outside the range of human hearing, but possessed of a centrifugal force which draws the listener closer and closer to the music's surreal, often distant, textures. The Memory Foundation represents the true compositional possibilities of techno in the hands of one of its most able practitioners.

VARIOUS ARTISTS *Transmissions From The Planet Dog

Planet Dog, c/o Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl.,

Carrboro, NC 27510 919.932.1882

The U.K.'s renegade "technorganic" organization Megadog, run by Michael Dog, has an impressive history of outlaw, fringe parties in which everything goes, from Mantronix and 13th Floor Elevators to Lee Perry and  $\mu$ -Ziq. Reacting against the narrow politics of the now highly commodified rave scene in Britain, the organization sought to return the "rave" movement to its more spontaneous origins. With the establishment of the Planet Dog label in 1993, the ethos of the Megadog parties has been captured on wax. Previous Planet Dog releases, from two former Ozric Tentacles members, now known as Eat Static, as well as proclaimed ambient doodlers Banco De Gaia and the mysterious Timeshard, appeared on U.S. shores in obscure and expensive import shops. Now, North Carolina indie rock outpost Mammoth has seen fit to license a batch of Planet Dog tracks for this nifty compilation. The groups listed above are featured here, each with four or five previously unreleased efforts. In a sense, the release of this collection on Mammoth comes as no surprise; as ambient music and more experimental, less dancefloor-driven techno reaches a U.S. college radio audience previously largely uninterested in dance music, I think we will witness licensing arrangements such as this one a lot more often.

REMARC "R.I.P." (12")

Suburban Base, 3 Old Mill Parade, Victoria Road, Romford,

Essex RM1 2HU U.K. 01708.727029

From the electrifying imagination of Remarc comes the best jungle single of the past month. With a cover reminiscent of mid-'80s graffiti art, this track erupts like Mt. St. Helens on a bad day. Licensed from jungle micro-indie Dollar Records, "R.I.P." demonstrates how manic jungle has become over the last four years. The flailing bass lines consistently skid to a halt, then reverse themselves with ridiculous speed, before an avalanche of percussion covers the mix. The speed of the action here is difficult to follow with the human eye, but not the ear. All I can say is, if you don't like jungle done right, avoid this at all costs.

TERRANCE DIXON *Live in Detroit: Vol. 2

Utensil, c/o Dow, 18272 Washburn, Detroit, MI 48226 313.963.4737

Claude Young and Terrance Dixon are perhaps Detroit's two most overlooked young producers. Young's been DJing Europe for the last couple of months, which gave Dixon time to work on this splendid eight-track album. Dixon's penchant for lo-tech, grimy electronics is evident in all his work. Here, he sets the acid controls to full flange and doesn't let up any slack on the percussion either. This is as naked and cerebral as you're gonna get in the Motor City right now. Dixon isn't afraid to let the squelching dynamic sounds of the Roland 303 get completely out of control, while the distorted kick drum moves at a hypnotic pace. If you like your techno hygienically produced and clean, this isn't the record for you. Brilliant.

In Global Techno

NovaMute, 140 W. 22nd St.,
10th Fl., New York, NY 10011
212.255.7670

It's been a while since NovaMute released a compilation licensed from premier Berlin techno label, Tresor. This superb collection is worth the wait. Culling tracks from not only Berlin's most progressive producers but also the most imaginative minds in Detroit, this collection is a true state-of-the-art manifesto. The album opens with the sprawling, distant epic, "Domina" by Domina (a.k.a. Maurizio and Carl Craig), one of the most hauntingly original techno records of 1994. This long out-of-print gem is worth the record's price alone. Subsequently, the listener is plunged into the analog maelstrom of Jeff Mills' apocalyptic "Solid Sleep" and Joey Beltram's "Ten Four," two raging Roland 909 upsetters. One of Detroit's most creative minds at the moment is Robert Hood, whose domestic EPs for his own M-Plant imprint have gained him international recognition (the latest is reviewed below). Hood contributes two elliptical, translucent pieces here, "The Rhythm Of Vision" and "The Protector," the latter recorded under his Vision pseudonym. Hood's incandescent, whispering synth lines move across the bass line with the grace and menace of a sidewinder in the desert. Other, and by no means insignificant, tracks included here are DJ Hell's raw "Allerseelen," remixed by Jeff Mills, and highly regarded Motor City engineer Daniel Bell (a.k.a. DB-X), whose "Science Fiction" is a chilling, stark piece of techno.

DOPE!

MOBB DEEP
The Infamous

Loud, c/o RCA, 1540 Broadway,
Times Sq., New York, NY 10036

Following an unexceptional debut album, Juvenile Hell, a few years back, New York's Mobb Deep (Havoc and Prodigy) have literally grown up to become the preferred hip-hop group since dropping the single, "Shook Ones Pt. II." The standards by which a group or artist earns its hardcore badge of legitimacy has changed quite a bit in recent years. It used to be artists would talk about how many bodybags they've filled, or how much they don't give a fuck. But as Mobb Deep demonstrates, realness is expressing a condition or mind or lifestyle without relying on artificial imagery or wailing voices as the selling point. The dramatic "Temperature's Rising" goes deeper than any anti-cop track we've heard in years, and even challenges the morality of its listeners: "From windows I see lights flashing and maybe/Someone's takin' pictures/ You know who that be/Police lovers and neighborhood snitches." The crew is as creatively deadpan as Nas, while their ability to communicate despite the slang, and be so absorbing despite being so pedantic is a tribute to the richness of their rhymes, which never go anywhere they haven't been to in real life. "Eye For An Eye" (Your Beef is Mines) features Wu-Tang Clan's Raekwon and Nas on the mic, but the track tends to spin its wheels and offer little support. Conversely, "Drink Away The Pain (Situations)" opts for an alcohol escape (I think the whole world's going insane/I fill my mind up with liquor and drink away the pain") from life's struggles with metaphorical cleverness and also benefits from guest vocals from Q-Tip. Although there are better records, The Infamous will be famous for its candor and its ability to be appealing without necessarily trying to appeal. Get lifted: "Survival Of The Fittest," "Q.U.-Hectic" and "Cradle To The Grave."

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

KEEPIN' IT DIRTY: Elektra-EEG's Ol' Dirty Bastard (1-1) is challenged this week by the emergence of Delicious Vinyl-Capitol's Masta Ace Incorporated, which has rocketed to #2 in only three weeks on the chart. Expect things to get even more confusing in the next few weeks, as Loud-RCA's Mobb Deep may be the next group to take over the #1 position. The New York-based duo has already stormed to the top of this week's Retail Chart (3-1) after only two weeks on the shelves. Relativity's Common Sense (who has since changed his name to Common) moves Resurrection from 8-4, while the bottom half of the top 10 loses steam. With tracks by KRS-One, Jeru The Damaja and Grand Puba propelling it, Pump Ya Fist: Hip-Hop Inspired By The Black Panthers (38-14) shoots up the chart (see Blowin' Up), while we see new life in Big Beat's Artifacts (33-20), Priority's B.U.M.S (36-24) and Tommy Boy's Naughty By Nature (34-25). Debuting this week: Tommy Boy's New Jersey Drive Vol. 2 (#30) and the debut solo single by Loud-RCA's Raekwon, entitled "Glaciers Of Ice," at #33. Interscope's 2Pac (4-2) is forced to ride in Mobb Deep's wake on the Retail chart, while we welcome in debuts for Mercury's Panther soundtrack (#9) and Uptown-MCA's Lost Boyz at #21. This week's Top Adds: 1) Grand Puba; 2) Artifacts; 3) Funkdoobiest; 4) Channel Live; 5) Masta Ace Incorporated; 6) Ol' Dirty Bastard; 7) Hurricane; 8) Spearhead; 9) Tales From The Hood; 10) Roots. ## A SINGLE BEAT

The BOOGIEMONSTERS' debut album, Riders Of The Storm: The Underwater Album, may go down with Jeru The Damaja's debut as one of the most overlooked records in recent memory. The crew, which passes the mic as well as the Pharcyde and Souls Of Mischief, has hammered out some remixes for "Honeydips In Gotham" (Pendulum, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104) that make it easy for programmers to find some room in rotation for it. The "Monster Remix" is mellowed by Isley Brothers samples that make this as much a smooth soul cut as it is a hip-hop throwdown, while the "Monster Hip Hop Mix" features jangling sleigh bells and sparser production...Beastie Boys DJ HURRICANE puts his best rhyme forward on "Comin' Off" (Grand Royal, P.O. Box 26689, Los Angeles, CA 90026 213.663.6000). Although he remains soft-spoken and unpretentious, Hurra speaks loudly on his second single from the upcoming album, The Hurra. The longtime DJ (Hurra was also a member of the now-defunct Afros) is clearly not making a solo album to appeal to the pseudo-gangsters or superficial sex fiends; Hurra's beats and rhymes punch with old-school gusto on "Comin' Off," as he proves himself to be one of the most multi-talented artists out there...The hardcore military style of the NOW BORN CLICK's single "Now Born Soldiers" (Stepsun, 14 E. Fourth St. #300, New York, NY 10012 212.353.2900) rips with reckless abandon like the Wu-Tang Clan, while the musical arsenal of booming bass, snare cracks and various dramatic sound effects (one of which sounds like something off Public Enemy's debut album) is wrapped in barbed wire and smashed over your head...If the hip-hop/funk/soul of SPEARHEAD's debut confused or challenged your hip-hop prejudices too much for you to spin it, then consider the remix of "Hole In The Bucket" (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028) a gift. Michael Franti pens new rhymes for the deep, penetrating "Slave Ship Mix" that bellow over steady hip-hop beats and light reggae. The "Sensimi Street Mix" may be the remix that best suits the original mix. The background vocals are still offered, and the rhythm rides over cool, bass-heavy funk...KRS-One prodigies CHANNEL LIVE enlisted the services of Easy Moe Bee to remix its single "Reprogram" (Capitol, address above). Easy creates a smoky, cavernous atmosphere on the remix which suits the duo's mental gymnastics perfectly. The catchy, almost Naughty By Nature-sounding bass line is replaced by creeping bass tones, while the incessant and assertive scratching becomes the third voice. Word out.

WORD IS...

EAZY REMEMBERED: Uptown Entertainment founder Andre Harrell is organizing Urban Aid, a benefit concert designed to heighten AIDS awareness among inner-city youths and fans of hip-hop. The concert is planned for late summer/early fall, and is expected to attract about 20 top urban artists. Proceeds from the event will go to various inner-city AIDS charities...WHAT'S IN A NAME? PART TWO: It seems artists are becoming more concerned with their names. Showbiz & AG have trimmed their name to Show & AG, Common Sense has snipped off Sense from his name, leaving him known simply as Common, and, just when you thought you'd heard it all, along comes Geto Boy Bushwick Bill (a k a Richard Shaw) with his own name alteration. No longer Bushwick Bill, Bill has given us a name that rolls off his tongue: Dr. Wolfgang Von Bushwickin The Barbarian Mother Funky Stay High Dollar Billstir. While it may seem like the name was conceived following massive hemp intake, Bill actually breaks it down for us: Dr. because it represents someone who must be precise when they execute a job; Wolfgang because he's into classical music, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart is his favorite classical artist; Bushwickin has to do with him being a father and producing his own next of kin; Barbarian is to show that he still has the mind of a lunatic (no argument here); Mother Funky Stay High is a manifestation of the aftermath of chronic-izm (what?); and Dollar Bill, well, that's easy enough. Finally the "stir" suffix represents Bill's ability to always stir something up—this one takes the cake. By the way, Dr. Wolfgang will be releasing his new album, Phantom Of The Rapra on July 4...Following an appearance on Nas' "Life's A Bitch," rapper AZ will be releasing a solo album (Doe Or Die) on EMI Records, due to hit the stores June 20. The first single, "Sugar Hill," features Miss Jones, and the B-side, "I'm Rather Unique," features production by Pete Rock...Reggae star and friend of the gay community Buju Banton has returned with a new album on Loose Cannon-Island entitled Til Shiloh (release date: July 18). Loose Cannon is also releasing more comedy albums by Redd Foxx and Richard Pryor. Pryor's Supernigger (1980), The Wizard Of Comedy (1978) and Are You Serious??? (1976), along with Foxx's Uncensored (1980) will be out May 23...Lords Of The Underground, L.L. Cool J and Da Youngstas will pay tribute to producer Marley Marl at the IAAAAM Conference Diamond Awards Gala on June 3 in Philadelphia...Warren G is introducing the hip-hop world to two new artists from his hometown of Long Beach, CA: The Twinz and Dove Shack. Each artist performed on Warren's Regulate: The G Funk Era, and both will debut new singles on June 13. The Twinz will debut with "Round & Round," followed by the album Conversation, while Dove Shack will debut with "Summertime In The LBC," with the album This Is The Shack to follow in August. MOST OVERUSED RAP CLICHE OF THE '90s: Any reference to taking one's music, style or sound to the proverbial "next level."

BLOWIN UP

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Pump Ya Fist: Hip-Hop Inspired By The Black Panthers
Avatar, c/o Polygram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019
Radio Chart Position: #14

Anytime a record shows up with new tracks by artists like KRS-One, Grand Puba, Rakim, Jeru The Damaja, Speech, Chuck D. and 2Pac, you know it's going to be one heavily spun record. Pump Ya Fist... came just before the hoopla surrounding the new Mario and Melvin Van Peebles film, Panther. The collection's concept was to show the connections between the message and mind set of the Black Panther Party and those behind hip-hop. Now that the Black Panther Party is no longer active, hip-hop artists are among the few public figures conveying the feelings of the inner city and helping to inspire people to fight for equal rights. If the Panther Party still existed, we'd expect to hear tracks like Chuck D.'s "Pride," Jeru The Damaja's "Frustrated Nigga" and 2Pac's "Throw Ya Hands Up" to be ringing from its headquarters, while artists like Kam and KRS-One might be its strongest supporters. While the only thing missing may be a cut from Paris, reporters have helped Pump Ya Fist gather momentum, as it marches from #38 to #14 after a couple mediocre weeks on the chart. While it sits at #8 on the Retail chart, Pump Ya Fist takes home 14 out of 106 reports, including top five reports at: CHSR, CJSF, KGRG, WCVF (#1), WDNA (#1), WFSE, WMUA, WSMU and WUSB in Stony Brook, NY.

MARVIN GAYE The Master 1961-1984 (box set)

Motown, 5750 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036
His voice trumpeted with heartwarming passion, it cried with pain and sent a numbing chill up your spine when his butter-smooth tenor caressed melodies like nobody else. Underneath such love and talent, Marvin was victimized by demons within himself and his only way to combat them was through song—that's what made Marvin's music so beautiful, so connected, and so full of fiery spirit. Perhaps Smokey Robinson said it best in the liner notes to this four-CD collection: "I think the driving force behind Marvin Gaye's immense talent was his pain. I think Marvin was a soul that was basically in pain." This "pain" has been documented on 27 albums during his lifetime, and countless posthumous releases and retrospectives. Somehow, fans of his music can never get enough. Last year, Motown serviced The Classics Collection, a boxed set containing Trouble Man, Let's Get It On, I Want You and a CD of unreleased material called Love Starved Heart. The Master is more for the Gaye completist, as it traces Marvin's unending string of hits, duets and most meaningful work. Packaged similarly to Motown's recent Smokey Robinson and Temptations collections, The Master 1961-1984 is made even more desirable by the high quality digital remastering, and the inclusion of 21 rare and unreleased recordings. As far back as 1962 ("What Do You Want With Him") tracks are rediscovered, while there's even a duet with Kim Weston pulled from the vaults entitled "I Couldn't Help Falling For You." In the post-What's Going On years, as Marvin's social and political senses were heightened, his music reflected its own changes. Disc three contains standards like "What's Going On," "Mercy, Mercy Me" and "Inner City Blues (Makes Me Wanna Hollar)," as well as some dusky gems from that era. The gospel sweetness of "Piece Of Clay" is great, but the politically-active "You're The Man - Pts. I & II" (which sounds like it was written with Richard Nixon in mind) is as close to perfect as anything in this collection with its silky, intricate funk patterns and Marvin's effortless soul stylings. You'll never hear a line like "Don't give us yo' peace sign/Turn around, rob the people blind" sung with such soul from a voice so rare.

BONUS BEATS

England's JAMIROQUAI has recently released his first single from Return Of The Space Cowboy, entitled "Space Cowboy" (WORK, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211). His soul-funk is the kind made out of organic materials, and the jazzy pop of "Space Cowboy" illustrates this approach very well. The only disconcerting point is that the stateside remix by David Morales (who is a fine dance remixer) shows the disparity between club scenes here and in the U.K., and also America's tendency to fit in and conform instead of lead in this genre. The "Classic Radio Remix" is pumped full of sterilizing agents found in less adventurous and highly disposable dance-pop groups, while the "Classic Club Remix" is more soul-less remixing that tears the heart out of the original, leaving it suitable only for a suburban, all-ages disco.

ON THE CHART Oh Boy's John Prine stays at the top of the chart for a second week over American's Jayhawks (2-2), who remain surprisingly strong while running second. There are lots of hefty moves this week from the likes of Sire-Reprise's Wilco (4-3), Capricorn's Sonia Dada (7-4), Paladin-Giant's Steve Forbert (14-8), Asylum-EEG's Guy Clark (18-13), A&M's Del Amitri (23-17), Virgin's King Crimson (32-18) and Zoo's Little Feat (40-25). The only two debuts this week were Columbia's Bob Dylan Unplugged at #30 and Mercury's Robert Cray at #36. Top Adds: 1) Elvis Costello; 2) Chris Isaak; 3) King Crimson; 4) John Prine; 5) For The Love Of Harry: Everybody Sings Nilsson.

BILLY PILGRIM Bloom

Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

While distinctly American in nature, Billy Pilgrim's sophomore effort, Bloom, is not specifically a roots or Southern rock record, and that's a large part of its appeal. Andrew Hyra and Kristian Bush, who comprise Billy Pilgrim, harmonize like no other group around today, and their pop songwriting sensibilities are augmented this time with an all-star backing band, including the E-Street Band's bassist Gary Tallent, Nashville's top guitar slinger Richard Bennett and Sonny Landreth on slide, with the Heartbreakers' Mike Campbell adding his guitar on a few tunes. Melodic hooks fill nearly every song, from the burning lead track "Sweet Louisiana Sound" to the tense ebb and flow of "Watching" to the breezy "Falling Apart." Bloom is an apt title for this one; Billy Pilgrim is in full flower, thriving and ready to burst all over the radio.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

For The Love Of Harry: Everybody Sings Nilsson

MusicMasters, 1710 Highway 35, Ocean, NJ 07712-2910 908.531.3375

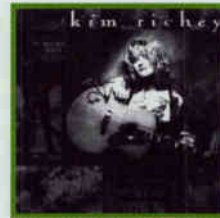

Before you start screaming about another tribute album, it's worth your while to check out For The Love Of Harry: Everybody Sings Nilsson for lots of reasons. First, because of the 23 songs, most of which are familiar pop hits from Nilsson's enormous and influential songbook. Each one is given admirable, at times innovative, treatment by a really diverse group of artists, including Randy Newman, Joe Ely, Ringo Starr, Stevie Nicks, Brian Wilson, Aimee Mann, Al Kooper, Steve Forbert, Victoria Williams, Lavern Baker, Marshall Crenshaw, Adrian Belew, the Roches, Marc Cohn and Jimmy Webb. The strength of the songs and performances, along with the fact that all of the artists donated their royalties, time and recording expenses, and the label will contribute 100% of its net profits to Nilsson's pet charity, the Coalition To Stop Gun Violence, makes For The Love Of Harry a worthwhile cause and a thoroughly charming set of memorable music.

KIM RICHEY Kim Richey

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Like Mary-Chapin Carpenter or Matraca Berg, Kim Richey is part of the Nashville scene, but she's not just another country singer who can sing an interesting lyric and catchy melody. A protégée of Bill Lloyd and Radney Foster, she writes songs with a folk-rock edge similar to that great duo at its best. Richey's voice forcefully expresses the deep emotions in her songs with a keen wail or a startling whisper, as the tune requires. When she proclaims, "That's exactly what I mean" you believe her, but she can also play the slinky, vulnerable type, as she does on "Can't Find The Words." Other highlights include the ringing guitars and killer hook of "Here I Go Again" and the smoldering "That's A Lie." With the help of some of Nashville's top session players, Kim Richey has produced a cagey mix of traditional and contemporary suburban-style country music that stands as one of the best records to come out of the Music City machine in quite awhile. □

SHORT SHOTS

Although a major force on the New Orleans R&B scene since the 1950s, vocalist TOMMY RIDGLEY is not as well known as some of his contemporaries, such as Professor Longhair or Earl King. His new collection Since The Blues Began (Blacktop, P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156 504.895.7239) places some of his newer songs alongside new takes on some of his past hits, recorded with New Orleans' finest session men providing the backing. Although 70 years old, Ridgley's voice is still a superb instrument, silky and bursting with soul. Some purists may scream that the covers here do not match up with the original recordings, but if a new generation of ears gets to hear the heartrending soul of Ridgley's music through these new recordings, he may finally get the recognition he warrants...HEATHER NOVA's second live release, Live From The Milky Way (Big Cat, c/o WORK, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211), is remarkable because it doesn't sound as if it were recorded live at all; her vocals are on-key, the music is produced to perfection and the only time you hear the audience is at the end of the songs. Her voice is clear and strong and her songs are the same. Although she most likely writes her songs in classic singer/songwriter mode, the addition of the band makes them less folksy and more vital. JIM CALIGIURI & MEGAN MCLAUGHLIN □

Ranee Lee

I Thought About You

Justin Time, 5455 Rue Paré, #101, Montreal, Quebec, Canada
H4P 1P7 514.738.9533

Ranee Lee, a startlingly expressive jazz singer from Montreal, Canada, by way of Brooklyn, New York, leaps nearly to the top of the female-vocal ranks by virtue of what she does and does not do with her voice on this outstanding recording. Backed by a top-flight Canadian nonet, Lee employs her warm, darkish voice with assurance, clarity and instrumental brilliance (in tandem with the two brass, three woodwinds and the majestic pianistry of Oliver Jones). What she doesn't do is resort to fake drama and grandstanding melismatics. It's obvious that Lee has absorbed, indeed lived with, the Great American Songbook. Her fidelity to such chestnuts as "Polka Dots And Moonbeams" (rendered as a jazz waltz), "One Note Samba" (featuring her lively scatting), "You Don't Know What Love Is" (a guitar/vocal duet) and "Midnight Sun" doesn't prevent her from investing them with her original phrasing and rhythmic substitutions. Each of the 12 numbers on this splendid 63-minute session (including the medley of "A Child Is Born/Alice In Wonderland/Secret Love") is a winner. Seldom in recent years has a jazz singer been featured to such fine avail, in tandem with a big or semi-big band and with such irresistible swing. Try the above tunes, the title track and "No More Blues."

AMERICANS OVERSEAS

For a small nation, Denmark boasts a big and long-standing appreciation for jazz. In addition to serving as a hospitable residence for many American jazzmen over the years (Dexter Gordon, Ben Webster, Ed Thigpen and Ernie Wilkins, among them), this Scandinavian country has produced such world-class players as bassist Niels-Henning Orsted Pedersen and pianist Niels Lan Doky. Denmark is renowned for its blue-eyed blondes, its smorgasbord and its sociopolitical tolerance, and among jazz aficionados, Denmark's Jazzpar Prize is recognized as a highly prestigious and lucrative award. Previous winners of the award—which carries a $30,000 check and a trip to Copenhagen for a grand concert with a Danish group, sometimes the Danish Radio Big Band—include pianist Muhal Richard Abrams (1990), tenor saxist Dave Murray (1991) and alto saxist Lee Konitz (1992). Denmark's own Storyville Records has released CDs by all of the above, and now come newly issued titles from 1993's winner, pianist Tommy Flanagan, and 1994's, drummer Roy Haynes. (Both are available stateside c/o Dr. Jazz Operations, 242700 Eastwood, Oak Park, MI 48237 800.955.4375.) Flanagan's Shenanigans, recorded live on April 2, 1993, for Danish radio, is a 70-minute showcase for the Detroit native's mastery of and majesty on the piano. Five tracks, among them "Let's" (composed by the late Thad Jones, another Motown native, who spent many years in Denmark), document Flanagan in his best-known setting, the trio; he's joined by Lewis Nash, his regular working drummer in the U.S., and Jesper Lundgaard, one of Denmark's foremost contrabassist. One track, Quincy Jones' "For Lena And Lennie," augments the trio with Danish tenorman Jesper Thilo, and three others unite the trio with the six-piece Windtet from Denmark. Master stickman Haynes has been lauded in this space of late for his Te-Youl recording for the French Dreyfus label (c/o Koch International, 2 Tri-Harbor Court, Port Washington, NY 11050-4617 516.484.1000), a lively quintet date with Pat Metheny (guitar) and Donald Harrison (alto) on the front line. Haynes is now 70 years old, but his recent output reveals no diminution in the drive and intelligence he has demonstrated over the decades with the likes of Charlie Parker, Sarah Vaughan and Thelonious Monk. His My Shining Hour title for Storyville, recorded live last year over three days in three Danish sites, teams him with pianist Thomas Clausen's jazzparticipants, a trio consisting of the pianist, bassist bulwark Pedersen and the big-toned Swedish tenorman Tomas Franck. The quartet is captured in fine, limber form on John Coltrane's "Bessie's Blues," Hoagy Carmichael's estimable ballad "Skylark" and Monk's "Rhythm-A-Ning," all of which are highly airplay-ready... Like Storyville's jazzpar titles, France's Dreyfus label (address above) has also distinguished itself with releases by American jazz masters. Benny Golson, the tenor saxist and one of jazz's most illustrious songwriters, heads a foursome on Live, a straight, bop-down-the-middle date cut in Italy in 1989. Golson's hearty tenor is centered in the mix and buoyed by a stalwart American rhythm section comprising pianist Mulgrew Miller, bassist Peter Washington and drummer Tony Reedus. Two of Golson's best-known tunes, "Along Came Betty" and "I Remember Clifford," are given robust workouts, but equally palatable (though on the long side, at 10-minutes-plus) are the evergreen "Sweet And Lovely" and Tom McIntosh's "The Cup Bearers." The other new Dreyfus offering, Gitane (meaning Gypsy), by the duo of bassist Charlie Haden and acoustic guitarist Christian Escoudé should be of especial interest. The bassist's two Quartet West albums, along with the older The Montreal Tapes (all Verve), scaled the CMJ charts last year. Gitane, though stripped-down and more mainstream/traditional by comparison, should find favor by dint of its sincerity and unself-conscious swing. A studio recording from Paris in 1978, Gitane is a high-definition (deep lows, pristine highs) tribute to Django Reinhardt, the Belgian-born Gypsy guitar legend who formed the Quintet of the Hot Club of France in 1934 with violinist Stephane Grappelli. Reinhardt, who died at 43 in 1953, is remembered on his well-known compositions "Bolero," "Nuages" and the Bach-derived "Improvisation." Pianist John Lewis' "Django" and Haden's "Gitane" (Escoudé is also a Gypsy) are reverential treatments and not at all out of place on this engaging session.

PIANO X2

No pianist on the New York scene, or throughout the world for that matter, is more sought-after than Kenny Barron. Though virtually every nonpianist/leader seeks Barron as a sideman for recording or gigging purposes, Barron manages nonetheless to record on his own as a leader at least once a year. His latest Gitanes/Verve platter (c/o PolyGram, 825 8th Ave., New York, NY 10019 212.333.8000), Wanton Spirit, aligns him with two old hands at rhythm who also happen to be world-class improvisors: contrabassist Haden and drummer Haynes. A studio outing cut last winter in Brooklyn, Wanton Spirit documents Barron's sparkling fingerwork on a Steinway concert grand. Equal, three-way conversation is the order of business on the Tom Harrell ballad "Sail Away," Dizzy Gillespie's "Be-Bop," two Duke Ellington numbers and such pianist-written tunes as Billy Strayhorn's "Passion Flower," Herbie Hancock's "One Finger Snap" and Richie Beirach's "Nightlake." Invigorating...Pianist Harold Mabern has devised a soulful stew of a style that is highly conducive to horn players. For his new Legendary Pioneers of Jazz effort for Columbia/DIW (550 Madison Ave., 26th Floor, New York, NY 10022-3211), The Leading Man, the Memphis native and New York City resident forms a close-knit pocket with drummer Jack DeJohnette and bassist Christian McBride or Ron Carter. Mabern's trio, which unto itself is a moving listening experience, is supplemented on various tracks by alto saxist Bill Easley, trumpeter Bill Mobley or guitarist Kevin Eubanks. To this taste, the Eubanks track, a remake of guitar master Wes Montgomery's "Full House," is especially recommended for airplay.

FEAR FACTORY Demanufacture

Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012 212.219.0077

Emerging from the harsh urban streets of Los Angeles, the members of Fear Factory banded together in 1990 to form a safe haven from the terrors of existence in a world filled with hate. Through their band, the members are able to vent their pent-up fear and anxiety, channeling it into an invincible wall of sound. Instead of cowering to the combined forces of society and government, Fear Factory has turned its trepidation into aggression with its second release, Demanufacture, an inspiring musical saga which leads an unnamed, enigmatic hero on a rousing journey through 11 songs wrought with piercing determination, heavier-than-hell rhythms and intricate lyrics. Although Fear Factory pounds out a crushing, brutally scarring hailstorm of sound, it is not without originality, imagination and diversity. Demanufacture devastates the senses with a bold amalgamation of abrasive electronic sequencing, blazing guitar riffs, spitfire percussion, relentlessly pounding rhythms, thick grooves and agitated vocal howls mixed carefully with progressive, powerful harmonies. This is an album that MUST be listened to in its entirety, but stand-out tracks include the cold, fiery blast of "Demanufacture," the infernal scream of "Zero Signal," the haunting, hate-filled scenario of "Replica," the blinding explosion of "Flashpoint," the frenzied churn of "H-K (Hunter-Killer)" and the eerie, mesmerizing, gothic groove of "Therapy For Pain."

BRUISER PICK

SEASON TO RISK In A Perfect World

Red Decibel, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Season To Risk pushes its punk-driven hardcore noise to the extreme on its second full-length album, In A Perfect World, defined by a fast-and-furious chaotic mix of grating distortion and feedback, razor-throated yowls, sharp chord breaks and pummeling rhythms. Although seemingly entrenched in a brain-bashing state of intense turmoil, Season To Risk pounds out one raw, cohesive and hard-hitting tune after another. Just when you think the amps are about to explode from the pressure and the last inkling of melody has careened straight into hell, the band skillfully yanks everything back together in a swirl of hardcore noise that leaves you in a dizzy haze wondering what the fuck just happened. Sounding like a diseased, bastard child spawned from a one-night slam between Jesus Lizard and Pantera, Season To Risk lets loose with intense, unbridled fury on this perfect follow-up to the band's 1993 debut, self-titled album. Leaving no room for skeptical confrontation, this Kansas City quartet slams a fistful of crushing noise down your throat with the riotous blast of "Invisible Me," the heavy churn of "The Vertical Drive," the blustery grind of "Jack Frost," the moshing crunch of "Blood Ugly" and the frantic impact of "Remembered." Surrender now or be taken by force...Season To Risk is here for the long haul.

DOKKEN Dysfunctional

Columbia, address above

Dokken has returned after a hiatus which seems to have mended the disagreements between bandmembers. With a new label and a new album, Dysfunctional, Dokken generates many different sounds, while still keeping its historic sonic marriage intact. Propelled by the virtuoso rhythm section of Brown and Pilson, Lynch's clearly evident guitar skills and Don Dokken's confident delivery, this album is by no means a lackadaisical attempt to grab a piece of the past and milk it for all it's worth. On the contrary, it's a collection of fierce rockers and lovingly constructed legatos. "Too High To Fly," the first single, shines with a Jim Morrison influence but the clear-eyed vision is 100% Dokken. Some songs are dark, but where previously the darkness led you down a road with no return, now there's hope and a realization that if you don't grab a chance at your destiny when it's staring you in the face, it could very well be gone ("Inside Looking Out" and "Long Way Home"). The good news is that Dokken's been-there-done-that attitude about being trendy or cruisin' in the "fad band wagon" prevents it from worrying about re-establishing acceptance. The great news is the music ensures the band has nothing to worry about. DONNA RODGER

SUFFOCATION Pierced From Within

Roadrunner, address above

Oozing back onto the death metal scene after a two-year recording hiatus with new drummer Doug "Bones" Bohn (ex-Social Disease) in tow, Long Island's Suffocation offers up its third blood-soaked body of work, Pierced From Within. Musically translating a series of hate-filled, demented emotions into thick layers of violently aggressive, extreme sound, Pierced From Within reeks with an overpowering stench of malevolence, murder and mayhem. The twin axe-attack of guitarists Terrance Hobbs and Doug Cerrito, combined with the grinding precision blast of bassist Chris Richards, rips and gouges with a vengeance through the icy-cold growls of vocalist Frank Mullen. While Suffocation's overall sound remains as brutal as ever, there is a noticeable decline from the band's former relentless noise grind with the addition of scorching, well-placed guitar solos, decipherable (for the most part) vocal howls, rapidly fluctuating tempos and even a few hints of groove-laden melody. Dig into the torturous, thundering grind of "Pierced From Within," the uncompromising wrath of "Thrones Of Blood," the murky, noxious cloud of "Depths Of Depravity" and the dark churn of "Torn Into Entrallment."

PHUNK JUNKEEZ Injected

Trauma, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024

Okay, so the Phunk Junkeez aren't what you would call a straightforward loud rock/metal band, but who cares. No matter what genre these Phoenix jammers happen to fall into, there's no denying that the Phunk Junkeez are a hip, rockin' band determined to make a mark in today's vast musical world. The first single from Injected, a funk-ed-up-rapped-out version of the Kiss classic "I Love It Loud," has already been making quite an impact on radio and retail, mostly due to its inclusion in the soundtrack from the comedy flick Tommy Boy, starring the hysterical Chris Farley and David Spade of Saturday Night Live. Unfortunately, this is the only song that people seem to recognize and many don't even realize that Injected exists. Chock full of raging rap beats, funky turntable scratches, blazing pure-rock riffs, hardcore grind and punk-inflected 'tude, Injected should have no problem fitting into most loud rock, rap or alternative radio shows. Heavier leaning crowds will love the upbeat, hardcore slam of "B-Boy Hard," the fast-groovin', pissed-off shout of "People," the raunchy, punk snarl of "Snapped," the vulgar grind of "Chuck" and the lightening-fast burn of "Liquid Aggression."

POTHOLE. Novus Ordo Seclorum (EP)

Brain Soap, c/o Pothole., 8281 Melrose Ave. #208, Los Angeles, CA 90046 213.653.9405

A few of the consistent, devout and very thorough readers of the CMJ Loud Rock section may remember a demo review I included on this band in last year's convention issue (#396). If not, listen up. Since last fall, this L.A.-based fierce foursome has hooked up with Warner Chappell Music, shot a music video for the song "Medicine," performed all over the West Coast with huge acts such as Biohazard, Motley Crue, Billy Idol and Ice-T, amassed a devoted local fanbase, and released this latest hard-edged, blistering EP, Novus Ordo Seclorum...and the buzz is just beginning. Pothole. (yes, the period is supposed to be there) melds thick, aggressive churns with psychedelia-tinged, groove-laden rhythms, hard-edged, swirling melodies and smooth, yet extremely powerful emotional vocals. Check out the heavy crunch of "Last Stop Loaded," the spiralling grinds of "Information Highway," the tight, rhythmic wail of "Medicine" and the bass-driven thump of "My Cousin Wade." □

VIDEO REVIEWS

(All addresses listed in New Video Releases, Page 34)

BJORK
"Army Of Me"
Elektra-EEG

Director: Michel Gondry

Although Bjork's newest song is from the Tank Girl soundtrack, the video refuses to give into the temptation to use promotional footage from the film as filler material. "Army Of Me" benefits from the same bizarre artistic vision as Bjork's brilliant "Human Behavior" video, also directed by Michel Gondry, whose unique directing style lends a sort of 1984/post-modern feel to the cardboard and papier-mâché sets as well as a nightmarish, stream-of-consciousness storyline. Dressed in black karate garb, the pixie-ish Bjork looks downright at home here as she wanders through the clip's magical world. Look for this one to be at the top of the critics' "Best Of" video lists for the year. AARON CLOW

SOCIETY OF SOUL

"Pushin'"

LaFace-Arista

Director: Max Dania

The hit-seeking geniuses at LaFace have pushed the envelope again by signing Atlanta's Society Of Soul, a group which takes "old school" even further back. With the sound off, the video for "Pushin'" looks like standard gangsta: snazzily dressed guys (and one gal) cruising in their vintage automobiles in slow motion. Add the music, however, and you've got a whole other ball game; the song is a throwback to the slow grooves of Sly & The Family Stone and Curtis Mayfield, with the only possible modern touch the soft rap towards the end of the song, and the look of the video itself. The two lead vocalists—one male, one female—are soulful and groovy and able to carry off the tough style they're attempting. Another risk for LaFace, and it sounds as if the label's done it again. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

This week finds the top two chart positions remaining the same while PMP/RAL-Island's Montell Jordan finally leaps in with the big boys, moving from #7 to #3 in his 13th week on. Def Jam/RAL-Island's Method Man Feat. Mary J. Blige clip reaches its highest position yet (14-6), as does So So Def-WORK's Da Brat (15-7). Relativity's Our Lady Peace takes a huge, 60-spot leap and lands at #9, while Epic's Shudder To Think takes its second clip from Pony Express Record up to #10, as well as the lead position on the Alternative/Rock chart. Rowdy-Arista's Monica Arnold is this week's leading newcomer, debuting at #28 and reaching #11 on the Urban chart.

YO LA TENGO

"Tom Courtenay" Matador
Director: Phil Morrison

You say music videos are too abstract and pointless these days? No good story line or characters? With "Tom Courtenay," Yo La Tengo gives the likes of Michael Jackson a run for their money with a clip so clever and self-admittedly cute that it all but usurps the viewer's attention from the actual song. The basic premise of the video involves the band opening for the reunited Beatles, a plot which allows for some hilarious cameos from the likes of Marshall Crenshaw, video director David Kleiler and a host of NYC indie-rock scenesters. A flawless use of captions and split-screen effects makes the clip all the more genius. CH

TOWA TEI

"Technova" Elektra-EEG
Director: Hiroyuki Nakano

Spinning records on Deee-Lite's first two albums didn't quite make Towa Tei a household name, but his musical mastery behind those records as well as his debut solo release, Future Listening, cannot be denied by anyone with a rhythmic bone in his or her body. Appropriating the breathtakingly colorful blend of genres and styles found in Tei's music, the video for "Technova" is a myriad of synchronized images and animation sequences: multiple computer renderings of Tei walking a dog in cyberspace (in step with the song's beat of course), cartoonish scribbles of Tei tinkling the keys, and loads of colors, faces and shapes courtesy of digital graphic wizardry. CH

CATHERINE WHEEL

"Waydown" Mercury
Director: Mark Pellington

The latest song and video from Catherine Wheel takes an almost startling turn from the band's previous releases, turning up the band's guitars while director Mark Pellington (Pearl Jam's "Jeremy") lets loose some of his trademark visual intensity. He intersperses shots of airplane passengers about to take their last flight in between dramatic footage of the band barreling through its song. As the music builds in sonic intensity, the plane begins to hurtle toward earth, transposing images of the terror-stricken passengers with swirling, rapid-fire edits of the band. Placed within such a pointed visual framework, the word's to "Waydown"'s chorus begin to take on an entirely new meaning. CH

DIALOGUE

is a forum for communication about all facets of the music industry. All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comments for publication to: Dialogue, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck NY 11021-2301; or via fax to 516.466.7159. Dialogues will only be accepted every other week from any individual subscriber. All submissions must be typed and include name, title, company/station, city, state and phone number. Submissions exceeding 250 words will not be accepted. All Dialogue comments represent the opinions of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the CMJ staff, the editors or the general readership. Dialogues are due each Monday (unless otherwise noted) by fax or mail at 6 p.m. EST, and will appear in an issue dated exactly three weeks from that Monday deadline.

RECORD CO

Robbie Hanjobbie, Shitdick, Alias Relickords, Los Angeles, CA 818.566.1034 Granted, Eric Rose, at least you have the balls to write your own Dialogue, unlike some mamby-pamby reps, like, say, Kris Gillespie, whose boss does all the Dialogues for him. I guess that's what a lifetime of Kansas corn-feeding does to your brain. But hey, my beef isn't with Mr. Shit-Eating-Grin at Matador; it's with a fuckin' groundhog. Did you decide to come out of your hole and cast a shadow this year, asswipe? I remember CMJ '93 and let's set the record straight, I wasn't slapped, I slipped and fell. Have you forgotten the '94 Gavin walloping? Did that quick haymaker that knocked you down to Tattoo size ("Look boss, da pain, da pain!") also loosen up the few remaining nuggets in your head. Perhaps when I come up to Candyass City next week, yet another stomping will remind you. After I pull my fist out of your wrinkled ass and shove it up your nostrils, you'll see what shit sniffing is all about. More pertinently, you should have Knapsack's Silver Sweepstakes and Edsel Auctioneer's The Good Time Music Of... in your grubby little hands by now. Knapsack's an early Seaweed/Superchunk hybrid (read: raw, gutsy power-pop), while Edsel will remind you of Teenage Fanclub mixed with Dino Jr.'s You're Living All Over Me. We have vinyl for both bands and some other fun poop, call us for the goods. You should also be hearing from our new college guy, Greg Tomlinson. He used to manage the Grifters before they went to Geffen.

Harvey, Capricorn Records, New York, NY 800.865.4939 It's 8:16 a.m. Time to write a Dialogue about new 311 T-Ray (12") remixes...

Hal/Howard, Sidestage Lollapalooza Attractions, Touch & Go Records, Chicago 312.463.8316 Hi! We just came back from vacations out West...Howard sat in a van for 3 weeks and I went to a ranch in Wyoming and then to Utah and San Francisco. Anyway, Howard learned a few things about taking it off for cash, and I don't have any more money (but I learned a few things about Mormons). So here's a contest for our beloved colleagues in the promotions arena: send us good free records and we'll help work key phrases into the American consciousness! Demonstration? Please recall the commercial for popular dog snacks, Snausages. When I walk down the street and a dog sticks its head out of a trash can or manhole, I think "Snausages!" whether the dog actually says "snausages" out loud or not. Imagine if all these CMJ readers said "Astro-Creep 2000!" to themselves every time they saw a dog pop out of somewhere! Let's go with the free CDs, ball-hogs! See? Our new staff...The Rachel's Handwriting record is Jason Noble's (ex-Fodan) labor of love. Classical transmogrification ambient unique explorer sound. Ed Hall's La-La Land, and Sixteen Deluxe's great pedal-hopping debut, Backfeedmagnetbabe on Trance! Gawd, Gawk's debut on Invisible! My Dad Is Dead, For Richer, For Poorer on Emperor Jones! CD reissues of three Thrill Jockey titles! Howard may have store promos, my radio ones are gone. Contributions to the Spott legal defense fund go directly to Merge.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA 404.463.1009 Munsey at Skateboard is still lining up interviews for the guys in Full Circle. If you haven't lined up yours yet, give him a call. We are very happy to see that the initial response has been so positive on the band's debut CD Negative. It has been one of the most-added two weeks in a row and is starting to debut on the charts. Definitely a band to push!

Teri Losaw, Revolution Promotion Management, Athens, GA 706.548.6007 Don't worry, kids, I'm getting this in before the deadline! Last time I wasn't so lucky. Apologies go out to Dennis Burke who missed a mention in the last Dialogue! If you like quirky, tight pop, head for Presidents Of The United States Of America. Cue it right up against the be-bop Squirrel Nut Zippers! Now making local clubs sweaty is Skirt. Ethereal, spacy rock. Their CD, Crave, is waiting for you. Vegans beware!! Scary Chicken is a rockin' on their CD, That Your Beer? You're welcome for the coasters. Don't worry about exams, 'cause there is always summer school. Aghhh!!

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY 800.627.4782 ext. 2144 I'm tired. I always say that I'm a kvetch. Deal with it. I've recently visited a bunch of you with Spiritualized. I hate name dropping, but...thanks to WZBC, WNYU, KCRW, KXLU, WRAS, and anyone I forgot for interviewing Jason Pierce. Thanks also to those that did sound-check interviews. You should have one of the 3 U.K. "Let it Flow" CD-single/EPs with live tracks from a Spiritualized Glastonbury performance. Give it a spin in addition to Pure Phase. (Which has received wonderful reviews in Rolling Stone and People. I guess they occasionally have a clue.) Their tour with Siouxsie just finished and the plan is to have Spiritualized back for a proper tour this July—longer shows and more intense lights! Hopefully, you had a chance to see one of the shows—truly mesmerizing. Mark from KORD will attest to that. (Oops! Name dropping again.) Sleeper are one of the nicest bunches of people I've met in a long time. They breezed through the U.S. for about ten days, playing to packed houses on both coasts. They're touring Europe with the Boo Radleys in May and will be back here in June, before returning to play Glastonbury. An EP of Sleeper B-sides will be on its way to you shortly. The album is Smart and you better have at least a 3.0 and play it to prove it! Please let me know if you're a new MD, office hours and if you're going off the air. Thanks. Seeyalaterbye.

Pete Burness, Fat Wreck Chords, San Francisco, CA 415.284.1790 It's Tuesday. Last night I drank some beer, fell down and changed a tire. Please play my records (No Use For A Name, Good Riddance, Guns 'N' Wankers, Tilt). Tilt is new, so play it a whole bunch. Thanks.

Sheri Kaplan, College Rep, Moonshine Music, Beverly Hills, CA 310.652.8145 Hey, hi, ho...it's been too long since I've said, "Hello!!!"...A special "hello" to Matt at WXPL, Andre at AIM Marketing, Tommy and Meewa at Capitol, Eric at KANZ, Tim at WKNH, Mike at KWLC, Eitaro at KTUH and Scott at WHUS...Congrats to all those who are graduating (ha ha, welcome to hell!!)...I would love it if everyone would get off their butts and play the Broun Fellinis first full-length release, Aphro Kubist Improvisations Vol 9. Special thanks goes to KGWC, KLA, KSFS, KSMC, KTEK, KUSF, KWLC, WFCS, WFNR, WMHC, WMSE for already showing big support for this San Francisco acid-jazz trio. Trip Hop Test Part 1 is still getting tons o' support! We at Moonshine really appreciate it...Check out our Web Site: <http://www.moonshine.com>. Does anyone else have spring fever?

Chris & Jill, Hard Core Marketing, Ridgefield, CT 203.438.7305 ext. 862 Welcome to our own, private Chuckle Patch. Let's open up our story box and see what we find: KMFDM Nihil (Wax Trax!-TVT). Wouldn't you like to be a "Juke Joint Jezebel" too? Our Lady Peace Naveed (Relativity). Check them out opening for Page/Plant this summer, but please don't hold that against them. From the country that brought you Yahoo Serious comes Underground Lovers' Dream It Down (Polydor). For interaction, contact lovers@underground.net. Get your groove thang goin' with the Gap Band Ain't Nothin But A Party! (Raging Bull). The single, "First Lover," has been added to 50 radio stations in the first two weeks. It's their best album in ten years. (Don't believe the rumors about his lascivious affair with Nicole Brown-Simpson.) What can you say about a group that you have shared cold cuts and macaroni salad with? Nothing, except the group does not get giddy around condiments. Oh, they also are kicking butt all over the r&b charts. Did we even mention that the group's name is 2nd Nature and that their debut release, What Comes Natural, is on Intermix-Heads Up? Well, now we did. Words of advice for young people: We had joy, we had fun, we had seasons in the sun.

Alain Bosshart, Promotions, Candlebone Records, Reseda, CA 818.343.1704 Smile, we have brain chocolate for you. For these weird days of terror, we have something special to tickle your mind and soothe your soul: Moris Tepper's debut CD, Big Enough to Disappear, with a street release set for June 7. For those of you not familiar with this strange new high, let us introduce you. Moris has played, recorded and toured with Tom Waits, Frank Black and even Captain Beefheart. Moris married the crazy tubas and banjos in the shadows under the tree with his blues-drenched guitar and the heart and soul of a singer-songwriter. If you believe in art and are hungry for that Tom Waits/Neil Young/Beck type of vibe, you're gonna love this CD. If you want to check out the music, give us a call. ☐

Need a reason? OK. CMJ says...

DIRT MERCHANTS
scarified

"The band's memorable freshman effort is laudable for its ability to weave sounds both dulcet and discordant. Spin with a smile: "Love Apnea," "Trip Trip," "Buttercream" ON TOUR NOW.

KITTYWINDER

scream of the weak
"...fast and catchy as well as thoughtful... song structures veer back and forth from quiet to noisy.. With gruesomely alluring cover art by Dame Darcy, Kittywinder is a package of strong women inside and out." ON TOUR NOW.

THREADWAXING SPACE LIVE
the presidential compilation '93-94

"...an audio snapshot of a particular place and time and culture, for future reference."

Dorian Cummings, T.O.N. Records, Hollywood, CA 213.467.1970 Well I'm back...Some of you remember me from SST records last year. I tried to run away from this music stuff, but some strange force keeps pulling me back into this shit. By now, most of you should have our current releases: The first being Ego Tripp, a T.O.N. Records sampler. This CD features 18 different up-and-coming L.A. bands. The music ranges from thrash, punk, pop, ambient and spoken-word to blues. Featuring the return of the college music darlings Pigmy Love Circus and the blues legend Top Jimmy. Ego Tripp has been getting early support from Kevin and Aaron from KDVS in Davis, CA, and Brandon from KBOO in Portland, OR. Pink Noise Test's "Sink" b/w "Dance" will cure the jones for all of you 7" vinyl junkies. This is a great track from an amazing band. It will fit perfectly into your playlist. For all of you RPM people out there, search your station library for Tunnelmental 7" vinyl titled "Charlie Said" b/w "Kiss Man Kind". If you don't have these releases or would like more info on T.O.N. Records, call me now...

Dietrich, Instinct and Shadow Records, New York, NY 212.727.1360 Some quotes from some of my favorite RPMers: "The bomb," "The acid fix that I had been waiting for!" These are, of course, comments on Prototype 909 Transistor Rhythm. Play it loud, often, and when you wake up in the morning. Shouts to all you jungle-ists charting King Of The Jungle. Trip Hoppers: DJ Krush is still blowing up nationwide!!! With the phattest beats around, you NEED this. Full-length now! Coming soon...Earthrise.ntone.1 a compilation of dub, ambient, triphop and bong rides. Peace.

Adam J. Pollock, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3942 Massive quantities of rocking stuff from Island hitting radio and retail this month: Drugstore rock—excellent, grungy three-piece from the U.K.—it's big at radio already. Hagfish and Tripping Daisy rock, and they're both from Dallas. Jim Carroll rocks, as does Leo DiCaprio; "People Who Died," newly remixed, is on Basketball Diaries. PJ Harvey rocks harder than anyone—the tour (with that trip-hop rocker Tricky) starts in mid-May. Paul Weller is the classic mod-rocker—the new album, Stanley Road, hits June 6. Quicksand's "Thorn In My Side" is rocking it up at radio; look for them to rock it up live by month's end. Foo Fighters rocked NYC last week, Bender rocks Under Acme on May 17. Rock on.

Tommy "I can't wait to spend 8 hours in the sun to see Sonic Youth" Delaney, Virgin Records, New York, NY 212.586.7700 Some of you are lucky enough to possess the advance of the new album from The Verve right now!! The album, titled A Northern Soul, will be in your hands in early June. I would also be on the lookout for the This Is Music EP, which features non-album tracks—that will arrive around May 17-20. Be prepared. I swear this record is sooo good that it will seriously melt your brain. I believe someone has already referred to this record as "audio heroin," if you get my drift. King Crimson. Rock legends with a new record that defies expectations and limitations of contemporary music. This band has more collective talent than anything that's been released in years. Check this one out. Maids Of Gravity are an inspiring young rock trio from California. The fact that Ed and Jim were also a part of Medicine should help you identify. They should not go unnoticed. Royal Trux are finishing up their tour and getting ready for more dates. Be on standby. Thanks to all who made the tour a success. UDS are in Holland now, playing some festivals and working on new material (the last record was recorded over two years ago, lads). On the way: Whale, Isaac Hayes, Tab Two, a Joy Division tribute, Iggy Pop, Neneh Cherry, Auteurs, Lenny Kravitz and new Pumpkins (double record chiefs!!).

Craig Williamson, National Promotion Manager, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA 213.468.4224 Thanks to everyone playing Matthew Sweet's 100% Fun. The support has been fan-fucking-tastic! Number one cut and number three album! It was great partying with all of you whom I saw on the first dates of the tour (Ian from KUNV, Gayle from KASR, Jay from KRCK, Matthew/Dave/Roudy from KTEK). I'll be up to raise hell on Asahi 40s and some Cuervo Gold—your all access pass. I'll bring the putting green. The Mad Love soundtrack will be out at the end of May. The movie stars Drew "Dave, check out my tits" Barrymore and Chris O'Donnell. New songs from Fluorescein and Kirsty MacColl, and previous releases by Magnapop, 7 Year Bitch, Throneberry, Grant Lee Buffalo, Rocket From The Crypt, Head Candy and Madder Rose. All of you stations who program reggae shows, or if you're just into spliff and the reggae scene, Wailing Souls' new release, Live On, will be out early June. Check out the Sunsplash dates near you on the West Coast. Also available from Zoo: VR.5 soundtrack, Ajax, and be ready to slug down a few martinis and kick some nazi, white-trash ass with Love Jones in August.

Kelso, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 OK, if you received my killer-mole fax and did not respond to it, then I hate you...well, maybe I'm just a bit disappointed is all. If you didn't get the killer-mole fax, well that is because I hate you, or your station doesn't have a fax number. Next, I would like to let you all in on how frighteningly convenience-driven the '90s are: this past weekend, while out with my boyfriend in the fine state of Connecticut, we were awed by the sight of a Starbucks Coffee place next to a Boston Chicken restaurant next to a Borders Books and Records shop. Convenient, eh? I mean, what more could a twenty-something child ask for? The faux feeling of family, gotten from a "home-style" chicken meal, caffeine for motivation for their slacker butt, and the look of culture gotten from pursuing the tomes in a bookstore, even if they always come out with only the latest issue of Maximum Rock N Roll. Wow, I love being part of Generation X, yippee! As for true culture, there's Lazy, Wormhole and Karma To Burn. Awwwww, shut up and play them. Oh yeah, and a big hello to Phlegm Anderson.

Andy & Rigger, Most Radical Retail, Radical Records/Distribution, New York, NY 212.475.1111 We proudly announce that Radical's Oil/Skampilation Vol. 1 was most added in CMJ May 1. Many of you retailers are on your second and third reorders and it's flying out of the one-stops. Skank over to the release party nearest you: Boston, MA, at Middle East on May 26; Rhode Island at the Living Room on May 27 and 28. Think volume two, and send us tapes. Thanks to cable's Tweeter TV for the promotional give-aways and a powerful, big "welcome back" to NYC video to the one and only Miss Jayne County. The legendary diva (giving "cross-over appeal" a new meaning) signed to Royalty with Radical Distribution for her greatest hits. LaLumia's guest list rules, and so will yours when we're on it. Royalty's Po' Boy Swing is playing Snookers in Raleigh, NC, on June 2 and the BatCave in NYC on June 10. See you there. Eyeballs like Lichees over Die Krupps. The Radical Gang—Keith, Eric, Bryan, TC, D'Von and Lioness—wish to bid fond farewell to Vickster (Vicki Aubin), Slickster of College Radio Promotion, and the best of luck in all her future endeavors. Vicki's talents, charm and style will be radically missed here but will now be implemented by this very publication. Go, girl.

Brett Clarin, None Of The Above Records, Centereach, NY 516.737.3867 The second industrial revolution is here, and we're up to date—are you? We are a new label dealing mainly with industrial/electronic music. Our first three releases are: Body Clock, featuring Chris Moriarty of Controlled Bleeding and Skin Chamber, 70 minutes of all styles of industrial; Terminal Sect, melodic and textured melodies with natural and synthetic elements and huge beats; Dystopial, not 100% industrial, original sounding keyboard-oriented music with fuzzy bass and fuzzy vocals, twisted carnival music. NOTA is distributed by Caroline, Com4, Metropolis, Silent and Cargo (Canada), as well as the one-stops. Any stores, magazines, radio, etc. interested in promo material, please feel free to call! We have CDs, tapes, and posters. The next release is a CD maxi-single of Terminal Sect's "Gun Worship," with exclusive remixes by En Esch (KMFD), John Bergin (Trust Obey), Prototype 909, Chris Moriarty and others. This CD will be huge, get on our good side now! Tune in next time, same bat time, same bat channel...

Dan Steffes, Associate Music Director In Charge Of Indie Music, KJNB, Minneapolis, MN 612.363.3380 KJNB just had its elections, and hark! I'm the new associate MD. I'm very open to all kinds of independent music, so call us up and we'll do some business. If I haven't talked to you already, I'll hopefully be calling you up very shortly. My motto on indies is this: If it ain't crap, it will get played. Since I've got the MD by the balls, I'm sure that it'll make the playlist, too. Then you can take over the airwaves and rule the world! Burning on the CD player lately have been Swivelhead, Hazel, Pond (thanks for the interview!), and Schleprock. Thanks to Scapegoat at Diesel Records, Space Bike at Zero Budget Records, and Rev. Norb from Boris the Sprinkler for the hot new "(Do You Wanna) Grilled Cheese" 7". Hope to hear from you very soon! Be young, have fun, drink Jolt.

Diana West, Music Goddess, WVJC, Mt. Carmel, IL 618.262.8989 Since I've never written one of these things before and I am about to leave this most prestigious post (GRADUATION!), I thought I'd share with you some of my most innermost thoughts and feelings. First of all, it seems that some of you think that college radio should play only weird music from independent labels (boo-hiss!!). I don't think ALL independent label stuff is weird, but a lot of it is. Some of the big labels (you know who you are, Warner Bros. and Geffen!!) seem to think that because the artists on your label are well-known, that you don't need to service college radio. Where do you think some of your top money-making acts got their start? And now you forget us? Excuse me, but we don't have money budgeted to buy music. And it is really tough sometimes to find someone willing to loan us their CDs to cart up the music that we need to satisfy our listeners. Fortunately, SOME major labels have people who actually do their work (Mike from Atlantic). I just wish we could all get along!! If you know of a music director job open in a small-to-medium market, give me a call. I want to get the hell out of Dodge!!!

Scott Meiggs, One Of Two Music Directors Here, WODU, Norfolk, VA 804.683.3441 Anyway, the school year is almost over and I can't say that I am sad. Here at the station, Tim and I have seen and heard a lot of great music this year. Unfortunately, the amount of just total garbage we received far surpassed the good records. Why is it that a station gets bombarded with so much crap, and to complicate matters, there is always someone calling up to ask if it is getting played and what can be done to get the damn thing played? Well, here is your answer: Why don't you get someone who has a fucking clue about music and sign some good bands. Sorry to go off on a tangent, it is just that I am wondering where I can store about 300 awful bands' discs and it makes me sad, because some moron spent money on pressing those things and he could have invested money in an I.R.A., or something else. Tim will soon be letting go of the metaphorical bull's horns, and I will become the matador of sorts. Since most of the people in the Dialogues talk about how much they like the new Counting Crows record, some records that Tim and I have recently received that we like a lot around here are Shiner, Rex, Crowdsell, Karate, Pussy Crush, etc...(I know, who cares, but at least I'm not telling you a story about how I got to hang out with that guy who sings for Live). Anyway, the station will be running during the summer and we will be here.

Ron "Wearer Of Many Hats" Shayler, Program Director/Music Director/Co-Station Manager, WDWN, Auburn, NY 315.255.1743 ext. 284 Well, this is it—I'm movin' on. I'll still be around the campus though—I'm being moved up to technical assistant in the telecommunications department (less work for me, no more listening to whiny DJs, no more egos). I want to thank all of you personally for the great opportunity in radio, but I'm still a very busy man. So, instead I'll just say thank you to: Jim B., Darren, Cory, Amy, Stephanie, Jason, Jon, Paula, Chris, Skunking, Joe, Scott, Chuck, Gina, John D., Rob, Joby, Tommy, Drew, Russell, Eric, Dave R., Pat R., Brian, Jamie, Izzy, Leon, Craig, Carrie, Lisa, Kelso, Rudy, Allison, Anjenette, Margie, Louis, Misha, Mike, Dave K., Doug, Arvin, Monty, Matt, Jennifer, Dave G., Lindsay, Billy, Mike, Mark, John P. and everyone else. Fuck!! You people made my life a living hell at times, and I love you all for it!! If you happen to run into me at McGathy on June 3, Drambuie will be the order of the day. "The human body is mostly blood and mystery and sadness." Peace.

Brodie Holmen, Music Director, WMCI, Brockton, MA 508.588.9100 ext. 1906 This letter goes out to all the record companies and marketing companies who have been servicing our radio station. I would like to make you aware of the recent call-letter change that we have gone through. Many of you know our station by the call letters WRPS. Well, it has been brought to my attention that we have to (I MEAN HAVE TO!) change our call letters to WMCI. Yes, that's right, you can listen to us for a lot less (haha). I am completely aware of the fact that there are way too many bureaucratic, stupid, idiotic and boring reasons behind this chaotic situation. I also am deeply sorry if this instigates any confusing situations. One other point of interest is that as of June 20, I will no longer be the music director of WMCI. So all of you unfortunate record reps won't be able to listen to my silly anecdotes or my cynical attitude anymore. So I hope my replacement will be sufficient (yeah, right). It's been real, and thanks to all of you have been tolerant enough to deal with me for the past two years (you know who you are). Words to remember me by are simply, "HATE IS REALITY!"

Buddy Wolfard, Music Director, KNWD, Natchitoches, LA 318.357.4180 Well, I'm finally finished with this semester. It's had its high points and its low points (Pantera concert got canceled in Shreveport, and a f@!king riot almost broke out—it was cool!!!). Anyway, I had a great time in New Orleans for Gavin and a kick-ass time up in NYC for the IBS convention (hotel got trashed!!!). To Rob from AIM and all of my beloved promoters in New York, I'm sunburned and peeling already, ha!! To Susan from MCA, and y'all out in Cali: Y'all are 49th in education, but hey, thank God for Louisiana at number 50. So anyway, why wasn't Jesus born in Louisiana? Because they couldn't find three wise men and a virgin. Have a kick ass summer—I'm going to get nicely intoxicated in New Orleans. ☐

LOW ROCK DIALOGUE

REC. CO

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 So, I'm hangin' out at Ted Nugent's pad, firing pistols, bow and arrows, consuming wild bird, riding Ted's 4x4 and hearing the fu#@ing Motor City Madman play in his own backyard! How does one return home to Newark, New Jersey, and explain this weekend of adventure to his friends who also grew up with "Cat Scratch Fever," "Weekend Warriors," "Tooth Fang And Claw," etc.! Well, I tried! A thesaurus doesn't hold the many names I was called describing "LIAR!!" My nine-month old daughter didn't even believe me! There are, however, about 100 people who can back me up here including: Jeff Pescatello, Matt Dylan, Ray Koob, Robert England, Terry Spilde, Paul Fix, Darrin "The Legend" Arriens, Joe Bevilacqua, Valorie Knight, etc., etc., etc. We all shared the Spirit Of The Wild! Next weekend me and the longboard hit the shore! Can it compare? I think NOT!!!

Dan "Spit" Fitzgerald, Columbia Hard Rock/Metal Retail, New York, NY 212.833.4289 Yeah, yeah, yeah, so I haven't written lately, sue me. On deck: brand new C.O.C. tour dates with Monster Magnet and Season To Risk. Look for this tour to start on June 13 in the I'il o' South before it heads up to the Midwest. This show is not to be missed. C.O.C. continues to rule at the registers as well as the airwaves, as the last two months have seen solid increases for C.O.C. (actually Deliverance is already C.O.C.'s best-selling album ever). It is also no mystery to retailers that both Blind and Technocracy also have those registers registering! Keep your eyes peeled for special C.O.C./Monster Magnet tour posters. Don'tcha worry, we'll get ya sussed out. All this talk about metal...is metal dead? Blah, blah, blah. Makes me want to puke blood. On that note: Dokken's Dysfunctional in stores May 16!!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 Well, I guess it's that time of year again. Have fun with those final exams, ha! By now you all know about the new Crowbar record. It hits the streets on May 23, but remember the add date is June 5. You'll all have your discs before the big weekend, so you can spend three days moshing in your bedroom and tearing the place apart. And if that's not intense enough for you, just wait till the week after when the new Malevolent Creation hits your hands. Add date June 12. In the meantime, play the crap out of the new Uglystick record. Tour set for this summer. So, what do you think of an industrial/death band. Sound interesting? Well, you'll find out all about it on May 15. That's when you'll get your Crawl CDs. Their debut, Earth, goes for adds on May 22. To all Solitude Aeturnus fans: the band is currently on tour overseas, expect a tour to hit the states later this summer.

Russ Miller, Rockworld Records, New York, NY 212.996.2727 First, much thanks goes out to Julie, Ron, Jeff and the whole gang at WXZR for their awesome hospitality and a groovy hang at their anniversary party this past weekend. Second, HOW CAN ANYONE NOT BE PLAYING BAD SEED!!!! (Charts: CMJ 19*, Hard 21*, Gavin 24*, QB 26, Album Net 30*). This record is smokin' (marijuana pun intended). It is addictive, just ask Rob Fiend, he'd take it intravenously if he could. I personally get my buzz from listening to it, but whatever fills your bong, er, floats your boat. Just play the damn CD and watch it react. You will get phones!! People want to hear this, they need to hear it, they must hear it! Don't deny yourself the pleasure, just give in to the groove!

Louis DeCarolis, Misunderstood Retail Locky Of The One Who Lives Below, Eorache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 So, I see that we all know Anal Cunt is on tour. Look for acoustic sets at any one of their many instores. Thanks to Chris Piccolini of Chaos Records, John Santos of Independent Records and Bliss Blood of The Sound Exchange. Misery Loves Co. are now home in Sweden after their first European tour. Look for Misery Loves Co.'s first U.S. tour

this summer. Did I hear that Extreme Noise Terror is going to be touring for the first time in the U.S.? This is political punk at its best. The Scorn re-mixes are here with a wide range of mixes from jungle to ambient. Next, Fudge Tunnel Peel Sessions. Look for sounds combining a mix of their oldest stuff to the latest full-length. New releases from Massacre, Old, Cathedral and Pitch Shifter in 1995. New split 7" from Entombed/New Bomb Turks. Also other 7"s from Coalesce and Silencer. Look for the reissues from Cathedral, Pitch Shifter, Godflesh, Terrorizer and Napalm Death. Also, first time released in the U.S. on CD, the original Godflesh. Call me.

Zach Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 In my "Only In New York" file: Yesterday, I was in a lousy mood. I'm sitting in a little restaurant eating a gyro and a bloodhound trots by with a little green monkey on his head. So this dog runs around and pees, licks people, whatever, and the whole time this little green monkey is sitting on his head. Then a different dog, not on a chain, runs over and bites that little monkey right in two. Okay, so dinner's ruined. Then I walk home and on the way I see a little black bird actually using a birdbath. I thought those things were just to collect leaves and cigarette butts. I stood and watched that little bird wash himself for at least 20 minutes. So, Souls At Zero is tearing it up, doing well everywhere. Just got them on tour with Skid Row, so keep them grapes peeled for tour dates. Big Hair is making people think twice about how monotonous a playlist can get if you don't add a little bit of spice now and then. Is your show a bowl of rice or a tamale?

Smitty, Epic Rock Radio Promotions, New York, NY 212.833.5988 Fight—tour dates with Monster Voodoo Machine start May 16 in Dallas, working their way east through Florida then north with specialty dates at CBGBs for McGathy and a Sunday night at the Limelight (aching faces on Monday morn!). Then they continue west and south. Check the dates this issue or call for more info or tix (you gotta see the boys!). "Psycho Suicide" is the hidden Fight track (roughly two minutes after the completion of the last track, "In A World Of My Own Making"). It's a really heavy track, so now even you thrashing types have NO REASON not to play Fight now. Korn continues to tour and wow 'em! Dates with 311 through California and northward have been announced. Look for "Shoots And Ladders" as the next track (with an unreleased B-side) and video out soon. Call with questions regarding the Pearl Jam tour and your station's summer airing plans. C-ya!!

Jay Huguen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA 213.856.7139 "Negasonic T-shirt Warhead." Monster Magnet/C.O.C. tour details VERY soon. Keep your focus. I dropped the planets baby. Senser does make an impact with "Age...", "No Comply" and "Stubborn." Improve yourself, explore the left of center. Full stop. NP-Filter, Tent Men Orgasm, Phototropic. Surf the net and find me at KLAATU13 @ AOL.COM.

Maria "Mom" Abril/Melodie Mingo, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 I'll take this opportunity to confirm the rumor that I am moving back to New York. Metal Blade will have an office there and that is where I'll be. Never fear, I'd never leave the Blade. Grip Inc.'s Ostracized CD-pro should be added May 8. "Dragging Me Down" should be faded prior to the 50-second mark to avoid profanity. The tour starts in June, so who wants to meet Dave Lombardo? I can't hear you. Broken Hope start on the road with Deicide soon. If you're not being nice to Marni and ourselves then Joe and Glen will sacrifice you to Satan. "Dilation & Extraction"...spin it! No excuses. The Organization have so graciously offered you Savor The Flavor, now if you value your health, put "The Drought" and "Doomsday Eve" into heavy rotation. The musicianship on Savor The Flavor is superb, so push it, please. That merry band of donut chasers, X-Cops, will be invading your homes in June when they hit the road. Wanna go? Then play them. "Highway Star" is cool (and clean), so go for it. Yes, the members are mutants of Gwar, so beware! Skrew plays May 5 in Houston. Goo Goo Dolls ripping up the charts. Coming: Decoryah, King Diamond, Beats The Hell Out Of Me, Whips-n-kisses, Maria and Melodie.

Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Volley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 So yo, belimick me dude, Clutch is smoking. And yo, the full-length goes for adds this week. That's May 8 & 9. Dripping Goss will be on the road in June. New York hardcore at its best. You know you love that. Full Circle is still doing interviews. If we missed you, call us. Morbid Angel smoked at radio last week. This week the eight stations that did not add it must obey. Orange 9mm has more tracks that kick ass, check out "Glistening." Sugar Ray's got a few of your listeners going nuts. Ya see, they love it, too. Give it up. Universal Stomp is touring their ass off. We have tickets and giveaways. And yo, on a final note, the WRCN dudes say my comments are read to the whole staff. What a unique concept, story time. I got a story for ya, play all these records in Heavy and you know you'll love it. Till next week, c-ya.

NEW LABEL FOUNDED BY ROLLINS UNVEILED This month marks the first releases of 213CD, a new record label founded by Henry Rollins. Drawing from a wide variety of genres, including spoken word, jazz, techno and rock, the label plans over a dozen releases in its first calendar year of existence. The first four releases are Hubert Selby, Jr.'s (author of Last Exit To Brooklyn) spoken-word Live In Europe 1989, Rollins Band guitarist Chris Haskett's Language, the Matthew Shipp Quartet's new studio recording, Critical Mass, and Exene Cervenka's (formerly of X) spoken-word and music release Surface To Air Serpents. Upcoming are spoken word albums from Coyle & Sharpe, Ian Shoales, Don Bajema, Iggy Pop and Rollins himself, as well as new recordings and reissues by Charles Gayle, the Mark Of Cain, Alan Vega/Suicide and the Birthday Party.

KOCH STARTS NEW LABEL Koch, a distributor and label previously best known for its work in the classical and jazz fields, has started a diverse new "pop" label which will be headed by Barry Feldman and newly-hired A&R manager Nick Hill. Hill is also co-proprietor of SOL (Singles Only Label) with Bob Mould. The label's plans include soon-to-be released albums by Michael Hurley, Merle Haggard, eclectic Austrian combo Die Knodel, a tribute to Raymond Scott by the Dutch group the Beau Hunks, and a new solo album Memphis producer/musician/legend Jim Dickinson (who produced Big Star's Third, Ry Cooder, etc.), as well as reissues of his late-'80s Mudboy & The Neutrons records on New Rose.

RECORD NEWS Beggars Banquet is continuing to release a number of its classic releases; late May and June will see the reissues of Scraping Foetus Off The Wheel's Hole and Nail, Bauhaus' Mask and Press The Eject & Give Me The Tape and 458489 B-Sides, The Fall's Hip Priest And Kamerads, Hair & Skin Trading Company's Jo In Nine G Hell, Halber Mensch and Drawings Of Patient O.T. by Einsturzende Neubauten, and Gary Numan's Tubeway Army/Dance and Replicas/The Plan... Get Hip has released the second volume of the Hodge Podge And Barrage From Japan!! trash compilations from Japan's 1+2 Records, including tracks from the 5.6.7.8's, the Makers, Fireworks, Man Or Astroman?, Jack O'Fire and many others...Rhino has released A World Without Gravity: The Best Of The Jim Carroll Band, a single-disc anthology featuring highlights of the Jim Carroll Band's three LPs, as well as three previously unreleased tracks. Carroll has most recently garnered attention as the subject of the biographical film The Basketball Diaries...Rancid's next album for Epitaph is due out on July 25...Friends Of Dean Martin will release their first full-length on Sub Pop in late August. Also in Sub Pop's future is the new Six Finger Satellite album, Severe Exposure, on July 11, and the next Supersuckers record, Sacrilicious, on August 8. Watch for new releases by the Spinanes, Red Red Meat, Combustible Edison, Les Thugs and Sunny Day Real Estate this fall...John Doe, original bassist/singer/songwriter for the legendary band X, has signed with Rhino Records' contemporary artists division Forward, which will release his forthcoming solo record, Kissing Sa Hard, on August 15. Doe also appears in the upcoming film Georgia, directed by Ulu Grosbard and starring Jennifer Jason Leigh...June 15 is the release date for Hot, the new studio album from Half Japanese...Edsel will release its first record for Relativity in the early fall after recording this summer with producer Anjali Dutt (Oasis, My Bloody Valentine, Swervedriver)...Southern Culture On The Skids will release its major-label debut for DGC on July 4...Sooyoung Park of Seam has coordinated a compilation of Asian-American and Asian-Canadian bands called Ear Of The Dragon, released on Fortune 5 Records in conjunction with a tour of the same name. The set features Versus, Cub, Kicking Giant, J Church, aMiniature, Dambuilders, Dolomite and more...Amphetamine Reptile will be releasing the soundtrack to the documentary Porn. The CD and cassette release will be preceded by a series of 7" singles of the album's tracks (there will be no 12" vinyl LP). All tracks are exclusive to the soundtrack, and contributors include Halo Of Kitten (one part Free Kitten and two parts Halo Of Flies), Hammerhead, Boss Hog, Cows, Guv'nor, the Melvins, Mudhoney and Strapping Fieldhands. Also from AmRep comes Born Annoying, a collection of unreleased and out-of-print Helmet tracks named after the band's first 7"...Coming on May 30 from David Byrne's Luaka Bop label will be Afro-Peruvian Classic: The Soul Of Black Peru featuring Peru Negro, Susana Baca and others. In the fall, the label will be releasing the soundtrack to Wayne Wong's Blue In The Face, which includes new material from Byrne, Lou Reed, Zap Mama/Spearhead, and a David Byrne/Selena collaboration...The owners of Rooster Blues Records, a Rounder-distributed blues label, have started Okra-Tone, a new label which will focus on country, rock and alternative rock from the Mississippi Delta area...BMG is reissuing titles from the French jazz label Disques Vogues, whose catalog includes recordings by Thelonious Monk, Coleman Hawkins, Johnny Hodges, Dizzy Gillespie, Max Roach, Gerry Mulligan to name just a few...MusicMasters-BMG will be releasing a new album from rock 'n' roll legend Johnnie Johnson in June.

Freaky Chakra

Journalists too often want to name and define a nascent musical movement before it has fully flourished. Such labeling often results in the confinement of the "scene" before it can reach a natural self-definition. A case in point is the "San Francisco Sound," exemplified in the media by collectives such as the Hardkiss Brothers, Young American Primitive, Single Cell Orchestra, the Zoe Magik, Reflective, Trip 'N Spin and La Casa labels. What often goes undocumented, for example, is the thriving funk/rare groove scene typified by the Luv 'n' Haight/Groove Merchant/Nicky's BBQ nexus (and its satellites) in the Lower Haight. Though often characterized as a monolithic entity, a sort of blissed-out nomadic band of neo-hippies exploring the resonances of Haight-Ashbury 20 years on, the actual dance musical output from the Bay Area is quite a bit more varied than this reductive representation would suggest. One of San Francisco's most idiosyncratic producers is Freaky Chakra (a.k.a. Daum Bentley), a 20-year-old analog prankster whose recent album, Lowdown Motivator, has been enjoying considerable critical (and dancefloor) success. Bentley's first forays into the arcane world of electronics began in 1989, when he "would play with friends, just coming up with sequences," he recalls. By 1991, Bentley had acquired his own synthesizer and sequencers, and within six months had put together a demo. At an informal gathering of San Franciscan dance artists, which included his high school friend Miguel Fierro (a.k.a. Single Cell Orchestra), Bentley explains that "I didn't know any of the people, I just knew they all had records out, and they were playing demos of the stuff they were working on...I put my demo tape into the cassette deck and people thought it had a good sound. Later, this bearded guy approached me about putting out some of my tracks. The guy turned out to be Mike Kandel of ExistDance." ExistDance was one of the most forward-thinking of the early Californian labels. Based in Los Angeles and run by Kandel, the imprint released some of the most mesmerizing American techno in 1991 and 1992, including apocalyptic outings by High Lonesome Sound System. Kandel subsequently released the first Freaky Chakra single, "Transcendental Funk Bump," which appeared on the playlists of such DJs as Keoki, Lionrock's Justin Robertson, Sven Vath and L.A.'s Doc Martin. The influence of the ExistDance label on the formation of the West Coast post-rave dance music is incalculable, as is the effect of the large British expatriate dance community in San Francisco, including members of Nottingham's D-I-Y posse and the Love From San Francisco crew. As Bentley comments, "a lot of the English people who came to the city were playing the trippier acid stuff and that had a large influence on the DJs here as well as the music being made."

I asked Bentley how his ideas germinate during the creation of a track. He describes the process: "I create beats, rhythms and bass lines in my head first and interpret them through the sequencer from there...I then take different elements and run them through multiple effects, re-sample them until I come up with some unique sounds. I then try to build a melody—I'm always trying new angles, trying to do things other than the mid-tempo dance music which I've been doing up until now. I'm working on tracks with sort of stumbling beats, rather than just straight-ahead 4/4 beats." Bentley is eager not so much to distance himself from the San Francisco dance underground as to create a sound that is not quite so parochial. He is heavily influenced by the hybridity in the Bay Area dance world, drawing on the rich drum breaks of '70s funk as well as mid-tempo psychedelic rhythms, which permeate Bentley's work. He reflects that "there is a lot of funk out here, a lot of psychedelic music, and I've definitely been influenced by the scene in the Bay Area. When I first started going to raves here, I was exposed to a lot of the more mid-tempo dance music which is popular."

Lowdown Motivator contains tracks that Bentley has been working on since 1990. The most recent single, "Halucifuge," was actually conceived in 1992, and is a testament to the range of effects that Freaky Chakra can evoke. The sunken, wayward percussive work here represents some of Bentley's most intriguing work to date. Though he's never played live (even in the Bay Area), Bentley explains that "Miguel and I are planning a U.S. tour, probably starting in June." He seems to be actively looking forward to live appearances, and they will undoubtedly increase his visibility in a country where artists such as Freaky Chakra are continuing to supplant indie rock as the drug of choice for post-rave youth cultures. TIM HASLETT
