FUGAZI Red Medicine

Dischord, 3819 Beecher St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20007 703.243.2454
Opening with the distorted and urgent racket of a rehearsal jam, Red Medicine quickly coalesces into Fugazi's trademark punk-rock precision, and then gradually builds up to an intense climax, culminating in the album-closer "Long Distance Runner," which we'll take out of context as a fitting metaphor for Fugazi's eight-year career. Putting "one foot...in front of the other," selling hundreds of thousands of records one-at-a-time (still $8 post paid) out of Ian MacKaye's living-room record company, Fugazi will no doubt outlast today's "young millionaire" punk stars ("Target") as the band creates one of the most vital and consistently compelling bodies of work of "generation fuck you" ("By You"; apologies to the authors). Fugazi songs are ticking time bombs which sometimes explode, sometimes implode, and sometimes just leave you hanging tensely; and they're not significant just for the dynamic energy and catchy punch, but also for the intelligent bite of MacKaye and Guy Picciotto's social/political/cultural oratory—not didactic diatribes but personal and emotional reactions and observations setting fires under listeners. This is another bottle of Fugazi medicine both powerful (we prescribe "Target," "Back To Base," "Downed City" and "Bed For The Scraping") and subtle ("Fell, Destroyed" and "Forensic Scene"). DAVID NEWGARDEN

FEMI KUTI Femi Kuti

Tabu, c/o Motown, 5750 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036
Femi Kuti is the Nigerian-born son of notorious superstar Fela Anikulapo Kuti. The young saxophonist's debut as a band leader is an invigorating blast of Afrobeat that possesses many similarities to his father's musical stylings. His use of a large band with numerous drummers, horns galore and female singers echoing his lyrics recalls Fela's work, as do his lyrics of social commentary. Also like his father, Femi writes songs that are often long, bass-driven polyrhythmic jams, but the difference between the two is the youthful vigor that Femi brings to the fore of each tune. "Survival" is a wondrous mixture of propelling horn riffs and Femi's boyishly aggressive vocals, while the other side of the coin is explored on the cool and mellow "Frustrations" with its jazzy undercurrents. The album's centerpiece, however, is "Plenty Nonsense," which features Femi's effervescent sax, a wondrous groove and a seeming whirlwind of sound created by the band. While not totally out of his father's shadow, Femi Kuti shows he's got plenty of new ideas for the future of Afrobeat, and his debut is an unqualified delight. JIM CALIGIURI

N. RAVIKIRAN/TAJ MAHAL/V.M. BHATT

Mumtaz Mahal
Water Lily Acoustics, P.O. Box 91448, Santa Barbara, CA 93190 805.968.8188
V.M. Bhatt's last collaboration was with Ry Cooder; that record reached beyond each of the individual's styles to create something entirely folksy and organic, but born of no particular tradition. Like that record, Mumtaz Mahal surpasses its elements. The songs here—half of which are covers of American blues/folk songs—are minimal and plaintive, allowing the musicianship to shine. Taj Mahal's voice is gruff and earnest, his wailing coasting on top of his acoustic guitar, Ravikiran's traditional chitra vina, and Bhatt's mohan vina, a vinal slide guitar hybrid of his own invention. All of the songs have a slow bluesy cadence, suited to the stringed instruments. The cover of the traditional "Mary Don't You Weep" removes the gospel sway and replaces it with an almost funereal pace, Mahal's voice soft and cajoling. "Come On In My Kitchen," written by Robert Johnson, also replaces the rolling rhythm with something slower and more studied, removing most of the song's inferred suggestiveness. While each of the three instruments follows the basic form of the melody, each offers variation, making the results sound less like a unified whole and more like the three parts are loosely bound together. To capture the feel of the collaboration even further, listen to "Curry And Quartertones," a conversation the three have about the music they're playing. Mumtaz Mahal is a folk album, regardless of what folk you're speaking about. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

BIG SUGAR 500 Pounds

Silvertone, 137-139 W. 25th, New York, NY 10001 212.727.0016
Call Big Sugar "retro" if you must—the band certainly makes no bones about its influences; hell, it even covers a Traffic tune—but don't tag the outfit as anything less than one blistering, reverently-inspiring, blues-rock powerhouse. Taking cues from the likes of Cream, the Stones, Ten Years After and early ZZ Top, Big Sugar grafts the smoldering intensity of some time-honored blues guitar onto a heavy-as-lead instrumental bottom, translating quintessential rock themes into a muscular '90s framework. Frontman Gordy Johnson is a skilled renaissance man, to say the least: not only does he maneuver a considerable number of varied guitar paths, from rip-roaring head-on rockers to dark, slide-guitar laments to bits of funk, reggae and soul, but his singing explores almost every fold of the tortured blues that a white boy could hope for. Songs like the opener "Ride Like Hell" serve as a playground for Johnson's crackling axework; "Wild Ox Moan" is a haunting, back-room blues song, his vocals swinging from a low baritone to a lilting falsetto; "Deliver Me" snakes around funk and soul; "Sugar In My Coffee" is an authentic bit of smoky slide guitar rock. 500 Pounds indeed. COLIN HELMS

On The Cover:
BIG SUGAR sweetens up The Last Word.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

THE VERVE

A Northern Soul Vernon Yard

Radio Chart Position: #39 debut
This week's Radio Breakthrough is also last week's cover star. The Verve's second full-length album, A Northern Soul, doesn't reveal the band's love for soul as much as huge rock psychedelia, which makes it sound powerful and rich, a welcome contrast for light summer listening. The Verve is one of an increasing number of British bands to hit upon a sound that doesn't sound trendy or dated. Stations feeling soulful in their top fives include: KLA (#1), KWSC, WCKS, WMCO, WQAQ, WYMH, WVUD, WVUR (#1) and WXPL.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. ▲: greatest upward chart movement. ♡: most requested

Once again it's Interscope's Primus at #1. Matador's Yo La Tengo also stays the same, 2-2, although Elektra-EEG's Bjork (37-3) moves way up. Mercury's Catherine Wheel (7-4) also advances. Hollywood's Gwen Mars cracks into the top 10, 13-7, and Reprise's Boredoms (14-10) just barely slide into the top 10 as well. Touch And Go's Seams (102-14) makes an amazing leap. Bar/None's Esquivel! (31-15) and Merge's Superchunk compilation (58-16) also make gains. Drag City's Red Krayola (43-22) climbs further towards the top and Vernon Yard's Low (49-25) also starts to rise. Merge's Portastatic (66-28), Reprise's Chris Isaak (50-34) and, to no-one's surprise, the Batman Forever soundtrack jumps 52-35. This week's Radio Breakthrough comes from Vernon Yard's The Verve, which debuts at #39. Elektra-EEG's Natalie Merchant plants her lilies 77-40 and Columbia's summer sensation Soul Asylum (71-44) shines a little brighter. Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion re-emerges with Experimental Remixes on Orange, debuting at #49. Right behind is labelmate Baitter Space, which moves 101-50. Lookout's Queers (91-51) also move up after being a Radio Breakthrough a few weeks back. It looks as if the summer volatility is in full swing.

RETAIL

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

FUGAZI

Red Medicine Dischord

Retail Position: #1

Seminal is the first word that comes to mind when Fugazi is mentioned. The band has had a lasting effect on punk rock with its D.I.Y. ethics and uncompromising sound. Fugazi has not lost any of its momentum on Red Medicine, the popularity of which proves that the band's influence has not diminished one bit; Red Medicine enters the radio chart at #77 and tops the Retail chart. Honorably, the group has stuck to its principles through the years—not signing to a major label, still charging under $7 for live shows and keeping down the cost of its own records. And to top it all off, Fugazi still makes good music.

ON THE CHART

The top two sellers this week are both debuts! Dischord's Fugazi (#1) and Elektra-EEG's Bjork (#2) go straight for the top their first week out; only time will test their staying power. There are several new releases charting this week, including: Epitaph's Pennywise (#11), A&M's Police Live! (#13), Maverick-Reprise's Alanis Morissette (#21) and Krunky's Labradford (#35). Dischord's Slant 6 (rumored to have disbanded) jumps up the chart (33-24). Also making upward bounds are Victory's Earth Crisis (62-31) and Grand Royal-Capitol's Hurricane (56-36). Astralwerks-Caroline's domestic issue of Future Sound Of London's ISDN enters at #37. After just two weeks on the chart, Texas Hotel's Vic Chesnutt (70-38) and Shrimper's Sentridoh (54-44) continue to sell well. Popular in-store listening that doesn't appear on the chart includes Caroline's Chris Knox and Too Pure-American's Mouse On Mars. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

ANI DIFRANCO I Am Not A Pretty Girl

Righteous Babe, P.O. Box 95, Ellicott Sta., Buffalo, NY 14205 716.852.8020

Ani (pronounced AHH-nee) DiFranco straddles the barrier between punk and folk music like a Colossus: Her songs are both ferocious and twangy. Unplugged and uncompromising, the 24-year-old singer/songwriter is a steadfast independent, the non-conformity that characterizes her songwriting style spilling over into her career decisions. Since her 1990 debut, DiFranco has been courted by indie and major labels alike. But despite the considerable financial burden, she instead started her own record company and has since released seven albums. I Am Not A Pretty Girl is far from a seventh-inning stretch for DiFranco, however; she remains as dynamic and original as ever. The 14 songs here are frenetic alterna-folk. On "Light Of Some Kind" DiFranco plays her guitar like a weapon, fret-hopping and wildly strumming, while on "Hour Follows Hour" DiFranco croons gently and seductively as her guitar lines float delicately in the background. The common thread in all of her songs remains her point-blank lyrics; her confessional style affords us an unusual (if at times uncomfortable) closeness to the artist. Pretty great: "Worthy," "Not A Pretty Girl," "Sorry I Am." JENNY ELISCU

DEVIL DOGS ...Stereodrive!

1+2 c/o Get Hip, P.O. Box 666, Canonsburg, PA 15317 412.231.4766

CMJ is sad to report that this Devil Dogs release is posthumous (the majority of the band has gone on to form Los Primos), but the last material the trio recorded, is proof that these NYC slaves to rock 'n' roll retired the Devil Dogs name in top form, cranking out five top-notch originals and some choice covers (the Raspberries' "I Don't Know What I Want," Sonny & Cher/Mott The Hoople's "Laugh At Me" and Gary Glitter's "Shakey Sue") in 20 minutes of American rock glory. "Get Up (For Rock 'N' Roll)" and "Coolsville" are the highlights of the originals, showing off the band's impeccable lyrical sensibilities ("I'm gonna shake/Into Coolsville, baby/Baby, don't let me down!") and the way the band could pump out pure, unadulterated three-chord rock 'n' roll as though it were an act of redemption itself. Nothing the Devil Dogs touched escaped their indelible stamp; the Raspberries cover, for example, is sharpened to a razor's edge, laying the poppy angle of the song to rest and giving it the punch that it seems, in retrospect, to demand. While we lament the loss of the Devil Dogs, ...Stereodrive! stands as a swan song as glorious as any for this unforgettable band. CHERYL BOTCHICK

Afro-Peruvian Classics: The Soul Of Black Peru

Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Black Peruvian music isn't the most common Latin American pop form, but it's a neat and thriving tradition of African rhythm-based dance music played with guitar and percussion instruments (especially the cajón, or wooden box), with forms that have come up from centuries of nearly clandestine tradition into the Peruvian mainstream. The Soul Of Black Peru contains 14 notable landó, ingá, alcataz, fiestejo and zapateo recordings from the past 20 years or so, compiled by David Byrne and Yale Evelev; Byrne also contributes a cover of "Maria Lando" (the understated groove of Susana Baca's original version opens the album). Under the broad roof of Afro-Peruvian music, pop singers and ethnomusicologists groove side by side—Abelardo Vásquez, a professor of black folklore, does the very risqué "Prendeme la Vela" ("Come on, black boy, light my candle!"), a song to accompany a dance involving a candle and a piece of paper attached to a dance partner's backside. And old-timers are welcome to join the fun: Some of the best songs on the compilation are by Chabuca Granda, a septuagenarian whose lyrics fit nicely within the Latin American school of "leaping poetry." Also check out Manuel Donayre's identity-politics hip-shaker "Yo No Soy Jaqui," Lucila Campos' version of the standard "Toro Mata," and scene godfathers Peru Negro's traditional "Landó." ## FOR CARNATION Fight Songs (EP)

Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012 212.995.5882

For a while there's been an ongoing rumor that a Slint reunion is in the works; well, the For Carnation may be the closest thing Slint fans will ever get, as it heralds the monumental return of the S-band's guitarist Brian McMahan and bassist Dave Pajo. In Chicago last summer, McMahan gathered a group of musicians, including Doug McCombs (Tortoise, Eleventh Dream Day) and John Herndon (Tortoise, Sstyle), and recorded together for the first time ever, the result of which is this EP. Here is the opportunity to witness, ▣ again, the gracefulness of McMahan's guitar playing, which adds a distinctive signature. The songs are surprisingly light, as on the jaunty, almost-party-song, "How I Beat Down The Devil, which brings the house down. Now fans just have to wait in anticipation for the full-length record. DAWN SUTTER

M. GIRA Drainland/JARBOE Sacrificial Cake
Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 419092, San Francisco, CA
94141-9092 415.282.9783

Gira and Jarboe are the leaders of the Swans, a band which lives on in legend as much as in reality. The powerhouse noise that the Swans made remains some of the most overblown, bombastic music ever made. With their solo projects, Gira and Jarboe have retained the serious nature of their music but removed the noisier elements, making a sort of "industrial light." It comes as no surprise that Gira, lead and original member of the Swans, has made a record with the same elements, most obviously his incredibly deep, sonorous voice. Although the musical force has been replaced by some acoustic touches, its plodding deathly dirge and the lyrics remain essentially dark. Jarboe's record focuses much more on the instrumentation, which is pretty and other-worldly, mixing acoustic guitars with sweeping synthesizers. Her flat, plain vocals add a jarring tone to the music. Although both Gira and Jarboe play on each other's record, the two releases are quite distinct from one another. While a new Swans record may be a long time coming, if ever, their essence (if a bit quieted) is present in the two releases from the Swans' guiding lights. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

WCKR SPGT A Tea Party Of Love

Car In Car Disco Product, 112 N. Harvard Ave. #19, Claremont, CA 91711 909.399.9090

After 13 years of cassettes, singles, compilation tracks and live performances, A Tea Party Of Love is the first CD by Inland Empire legend Wckr Spgt. As expected, it's weird as hell—the liner notes explain that it's a religious allegory/rock opera about

"Howard Cosell, his red-haired sister, and their ugly child," and the (intentionally) ridiculous lyrics reveal obsessions or mock-obsessions with Jesus, tortured children and Stephen Hawking, as well as moral imperatives: "don't use meat for a parachute," "don't hedge your bet/I'll bet a shrub you'll never hedge your bet." The music comes mostly from ultra-cheap atonal synthesizers and ultra-tinny guitars and drum machines, usually barely relevant to the song at hand—imagine the Residents struggling to regain consciousness through a formaldehyde headache. And somehow, nearly all of these 27 songs have some kind of muck-encrusted bit of catchiness that makes them hard to shake. The world-view Wckr Spgt constructs is pretty psychotic, but it's also internally consistent, grimly hilarious, and often a pure delight on its own alien terms. The easiest ways into it: "So This Is What They Call Early Retirement," "Everybody's Dead (Oh No)," the curdled singer-songwriterisms of "e.e.," and the reductio ad absurdum of psychoanalytic theory "Freud Was Right." DOUGLAS WOLK

HERB JEFFRIES The Bronze Buckaroo (Rides Again)

Warner Western, 1815 Division St., Nashville, TN 37203 615.320.7525

The musical odyssey of Herb Jeffries began in the 1930s, singing with jazz pianist Earl "Fatha" Hines, then on to Duke Ellington Orchestra in the '40s, when his rendition of "Flamingo" sold 14 million copies. But with all those accomplishments, Herb Jeffries occupies a unique and even more honored place in African American history, as one of the first black movie stars in the days of the segregated movie industry of the '30s, as the first black actor to play a cowboy, and starring and singing in numerous cowboy movies. And now, some 50-odd years later, at 83 years of age, the Bronze Buckaroo rides again, singing the old cowboy songs that have only been sweetened by the passing years. There's more than a hint of blues in Jeffries' rich bass voice, a soulful twist added to traditional lope-along cowboy tunes like "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" or "Back In The Saddle Again." It's fascinating how lines and lyrics become imbued with subtle meanings: When you hear him sing about "Cow Cow Boogie" being "a little ditty/he learned in the city," it's easy to recognize what Jeffries is talking about—the song itself is in an urban blues form, much different from the shuffles of traditional country. But the most sublime moment on The Bronze Buckaroo would have to be Jeffries' own composition, "The Happy Cowboy," a timeless piece of Americana, a vivid musical portrait of the earnest, idealistic, hard-working persona of the American cowboy. In a lot of ways, the world that Jeffries sings about is a vanishing one (perhaps already gone), gradually being obscured as the old songs fade from memory and are seldom sung anymore. And as it vanishes, it sometimes seems as if a lot of the good in the world's vanishing too, but fortunately we have Jeffries to remind us of our Western past, and of the meaning, history and relevance it holds for people everywhere. JAMES LIEN

HANNAH CRANNA Better Lonely Days

Big Deal, P.O. Box 2072, Peter Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY
10009-9998 212.477.8655

Named for a mysterious New England witch, the band Hannah Cranna isn't nearly as spooky as its namesake, though it's almost as beguiling. The New Haven quartet's music draws on a rich heritage of American rock: power pop and folk-rock, in particular. Songwriters Stephen Bunovsky and Rocco Villavicencio let their influences shine through the plush fabric of their songs, but also give plenty of attention to the detailing in their own songs. Their 11 originals (written independently, as opposed to collaboratively) fit snugly alongside the lone cover of the kinks' "Waterloo Sunset," which the band takes on with loving respect. Bunovsky apparently has the power pop gene firmly embedded in his every chromosome: the humble "Supercal" would sound great alongside Teenage Fanclub, while the crisp guitar lines and billowing melody of "Mystical" pay as devout tribute to Big Star as the Fanclub ever has. Villavicencio, on the other hand, writes grainy roots-rock songs in the Gram Parsons/Uncle Tupelo tradition; the opening cut "In The Sky" and "She Loves Me" are two fine, radio-ready examples of this. Hannah Cranna's biggest asset, which filters through every pore of its debut Better Lonely Days, is how well the songwriters complement one another and how warmly it all comes together. LYDIA ANDERSON

DIE KRUPPS Rings Of Steel

Cleopatra, 8726 S. Sepulveda Blvd., Ste. D-82, Los Angeles, CA

If one band is responsible for pioneering the industrial-metal hybrid that's the bread and butter of bands like Ministry, the

Revolting Cocks, Front 242 and, most notably, Nine Inch Nails, it's grandfathers of industrial, Die Krupps, who've been nose-to-the-grind in the genre since 1981. Rings Of Steel isn't exactly new material—these 17 songs include remixes from the band's 1992 and 1993 albums and a few additional B-sides—but the quality and ingenuity of the original versions of the songs coupled with the star-studded roster of artists enlisted to remix them make for an engaging, who's-who survey of the genre. If you cover up the credits on the back of the disc, you can almost guess whose hands are on the board for each tune: Charlie Clouser of Nine Inch Nails spices up "Language Of Reality" with jumpy stops and starts of keyboard/guitar assault surrounding quiet, pensive moments with vocals accompanied by nothing but a plodding mechanical rhythm; the remix by F.M. Einheit of Einstürzende Neubauten retains some semblance of a song, while filling it with the spare, rhythmic sounds of industry's mechanical sputters; two members of Biohazard reinvent the band's earlier collaboration with Die Krupps ("Bloodsuckers"), stripping it to its riff-mongering bare minimum, and washing the vocals with a demonic rasp. Also notable: remixes by Jeff Walker of Carcass, Luc Van Acker of Revolting Cocks and Sascha of KMFDM. CHERYL BOTCHICK

RUN ON On/Off (EP)

Matador, address above

The evolution that this NYC quartet (featuring ex-members of Fish & Roses and Love Child) has undergone since its debut 7" last year is remarkable. The five dense but pliable songs filling On/Off's scant 16 minutes sprawl across a broad sonic landscape, from the throbbing pulse of the effervescent opener "Into The Attic," buoyed in no small part by Sue Garner's plaintive, strong-willed vocals, to the spacious, spooky drones of "Beat Out," peppered with hand-held percussion. In between, the band noodles with an eclectic toolbox of sounds—nubby organ beds; steel wool-like clumps of guitars; rubbery, adhesive bass lines; country-informed vocalese; and nervy, guitar-born textures—which the band assembles effortlessly into coherent song structures. These strange sounds and many more are sure to turn up on the band's debut album, which should be out early next year. LYDIA ANDERSON

SHALLOW 3-D Stereo Trouble

Zero Hour, 1600 Broadway, Ste. 701, New York, NY 10019 212.957.1277

Although the first song on 3-D Stereo Trouble starts off with a colorful bit of feedback-informed guitar whir and two of Shallow's members claim Shields as their last name, the band's ties to a certain highly-influential late-'80s shoegazer band are no stronger than any other guitar-pop band kicking around these days. Shallow's most immediate signature is its singer Julie Shields, whose unfettered little-girl vocals give the band its melodic foundation. Like that of Velocity

Girl's Sarah Shannon, Shields' voice provides a kind of innocent purity to the band's sound, allowing the undercurrents of guitar, bass and drums to shift their textures and rhythms to match the mood of each song's melody. As the album progresses through its 17 tracks, the band begins to toy with the simplicity of its indie-pop blueprint: Shields' voice is accompanied by the equally wistful tones of a flute; guitar and vocal tracks are doubled; the more traditional pop structures begin to loosen up and wander into darker, or at least more thoughtful, areas of sonic expression. No need to adjust your set, er, hi-fi: "Low Again," "I Wonder," "Solar Spoon," "Just For Today" or "Til Tomorrow." COLIN HELMS

PEACH II

Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

Despite being labeled with a rather unimaginative title, the sophomore work from Peach finds the band stretching well away from last year's more dramatic and calculated Siesta. This time around, the emphasis is on letting the guitars and overall musical energy flow unrestricted rather than attempting to shape or contour it. There are still a couple of epic tracks here that weigh in at over five minutes, but rather than being overblown works of majesty, they are marvelous exercises in subtlety not unlike some of the softer tracks off Alice In Chains' Jar Of Flies. "Heaven, Coming Into View," in particular, is remarkably as rich as it is sparsely arranged, almost recalling Pink Floyd with its blend of cleanly shimmering, tremolo-laced guitars and distorted, atmospheric solos. The nervous and funky shuffle-rocker "Smell Of Cinnamon" reveals not only Peach's handle on melody, but also its ability to make a number of musical styles its own. Also juicy: "Proof," "Jumpsuits And Seconal" and "Clear." AARON CLOW

PUSSY CRUSH Tormenting The Emotionally Frail

La-Di-Da America, P.O. Box 202, Peter Stuyvesant Sta., New York, NY 10009-9998 212.673.8418

As if you couldn't tell from the band name, Pussy Crush has a bit of an attitude. This British co-ed foursome rips out the good-time rock 'n' roll à la the Muffs or Fastbacks, occasionally putting a harsh spin on it, L7 style (e.g. "Witch Bitch" or "I Wanna Kill You"). There is no fancy footwork involved in the band's style; it's simply a hardcore, steady beat suitable for dancing, propelled by relentless hooking guitar lines and catchy lyrics. Pussy Crush does have a British take on rock 'n' roll, setting it apart from its American counterparts. After much success in England, the band presents

Tormenting The Emotionally Frail a debut that starts off on a harsh, raucous note, but draws the listener in and settles down to the softer ballad, "Come Back." The album never loses its momentum, presenting the perfect balance of slow, subtle songs and upbeat pogo-rock. No wonder the band has been causing a stir in its native land. Not for the ...Emotionally Frail: "She Ain't The One," "The Loop," "That Girl" and "Beat Your Heart Out." DAWN SLUTTER

VITREOUS HUMOR Vitreous Humor (EP)

Crank!, 1223 Wilshire Blvd. #173, Santa Monica, CA 90403 310.917.9162

Four-piece white-boy angst-rock bands come and go, but few stand out from the pack. Vitreous Humor, one such band from Lawrence, Kansas, makes its formal debut with this action-packed EP, though the group had released a few singles beforehand. While the seven songs, captured by studio vet Bob Weston in a Kansas basement, have the requisite punch—nervy guitar lines steadily needing a churning, air-tight rhythm section—they're also bolstered by the intensity of vocalist Danny's gruff, spine-tingling wails. Like the Poster Children, Vitreous Humor funnels its energy into its song structures with a deft hand, utilizing stop/start constructions and lots of wiry guitars. Despite their workhorse muscle, "She Eats Her Esses," "Applaud Water" and "385 Ft Wide" have enough melody chiseled into their brawny core to make Vitreous Humor one of the stand-outs. LYDIA ANDERSON

MOUSETRAP The Dead Air Sound System

Grass, P.O. Box 738, Syosset, NY 11791 516.677.6000

Mousetrap's third album is a tortured trip through the wreckage of vocalist/guitarist Patrick Buchanon's broken heart. The album's nine songs amount to a catharsis for the pain caused by Buchanon's recent break-up. Mousetrap is adept at exposing this raw nerve and deserves credit for delivering a sensitive and sincere exploration of a familiar subject. Thankfully, the Omaha trio takes an unusual approach, and the album's emotional intensity rests on frenetic guitar lines and crazed vocal melodies, rather than dreary songs that wallow in sadness. Buchanon's voice climbs from muted, apathetic lows to manic, raspy yelps. All the while, the lyrics communicate a sense of anguish so real that you may begin to think it's your own. This despair is not wrapped in predictable, "you-broke-my-heart" lyrics, but is delivered slyly and intelligently with lyrics like: "His last name was misspelled on her departing letter" ("The Last Dance"). Similarly, Mousetrap doesn't rely on catchy hook-work to capture your attention; instead its songs squeal and lurch in unexpected ways (think Drive Like Jehu). This is not a love song: "The Coathanger Kid," "Floor Plans: The Happy Home" and "The Last Dance." JENNY ELISCU

VARIOUS ARTISTS Red Hot + Bothered: The Indie Rock Guide To Dating 1 (10")

Red Hot/Kinetic-Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

The Red Hot Organization has been responsible for its fair share of great compilations and tribute records since its inception (notables include Red Hot + Blue and the more recent Stolen Moments: Red Hot + Cool). After its ventures into jazz, country and popular music, the group enters the far more finicky world of indie rock to some success on this cleverly compiled, star-studded 10"

EP. Although the text of the 34-page "fanzine"/guide enclosed is dripping with the sort of Reality Bites/Generation X hokey that wears out its welcome by the end of the table of contents ("Losers Quiz," "Dump Yr Boyfriend" and "Couples Suck" are featured pieces), the music and artwork in the booklet are the reasons to pick up this EP. Freedom Cruise, the other project of Guided By Voices' Robert Pollard, turns in "Sensational Gravity Boy," which has a hook as good as we've come to expect from Pollard, the Grifters donate an uncharacteristically keyboard-spiced (!) song, and both the Liquorice and Noise Addict tunes hold their own, flaunting each band's own take on indie pop. Watch for a second volume in this series by the end of July, with tracks by Built To Spill, Lisa Germano and the Verlaines, among others. CHERYL BOTCHICK

MAKE-UP "Blue Is Beautiful" (7")MAKE-UP/META-MATICS "Trans-Pleasant Express"/"Absence Of Rhythm" (7")

Black Gemini, c/o Make-up, 1708 Euclid St. N.W., Washington, DC 20009

Former Nation Of Ulysses frontman Ian Svenonius' latest project is an extraordinary cross-breed of funk and punk. Svenonius' inimitable howl is as delicious as James Brown's "Hep me" and his piercing screech is as funky as Prince's. The band includes fellow ex-Nation-mates James Canty and Steve Gamboa and new bassist Michelle Mae. Truly, Make-up must be seen to be appreciated: Svenonius' crazed antics are guaranteed to leave crowds slack-jawed as he hangs from the ceiling and climbs out into the smoke-filled room. Even without the visual aid, however, these songs are hypnotic. "Blue Is Beautiful" is Svenonius' drug anthem ("Too many pills") and the B-side's "Type U Blood" is an organ-pounding love song. Meanwhile, on "Trans-Pleasant Express," Mae's walking bass lines and Gamboa's tight guitar strumming are metronomic, a perfect compliment to Svenonius' wild unpredictability. The flipside of this record is a noisy introduction to Washington, DC's Meta-matics. "Absence Of Rhythm" is a free-form punk song with muted vocals and noodly guitars. The unnerving repeated chorus, "We should be holding hands," is the song's unexpected high-point. Look for a new Make-up single on K in the fall. JENNY ELISCU

MARBLES "Go Marilee" (7")

Bus Stop, c/o Elephant 6, P.O. Box 9935, Denver, CO 80209 303.722.9314

Marbles is the solo project of Robert from the Apples In Stereo, with some help from members of fellow Elephant 6 bands Olivia Tremor Control and Secret Square. "Go Marilee" is a nifty pop tune, so perfectly '60s that it practically makes you see go-go checks. It's got hand claps to set the mood, messy fuzz guitar to give it oomph, and strange bells and other sounds to keep it from being too straightforward. The flip's "Grant Me The Day" is a surf ballad in the mold of the Beach Boys' Today, with homey production tricks and appropriately unpredictable harmonies. DOUGLAS WOLK

UPPER CRUST Upper Crust

Upper Crust, P.O. Box 1234, Allston, MA 02134 617.787.0888

Befrocked in wild velvet trousers, ruffled collars, ascots, dickeys and even powdered wigs, the Upper Crust leers down and unleashes its raunchy, vengeful rock 'n' roll upon the great poor and unwashed hordes that are unfortunate enough to have to earn a living. Not since the Dukes Of Stratosphere have any rockers been clad in such outrageous regalia, but psychedelic patsies or prima donnas the Upper Crust ain't: actually, this band is about blistering kick-ass rock 'n' roll, and if these guys didn't have a box at the opera and spend their summers at Elba, you'd probably find them out sharing a gig in a seedy dive with some band on Crypt Records. In truth, the Upper Crust's basic premise is so simple and pure it has the mark of genius about it: if you have a shtick and dress in outrageous period hosiery, fewer people will harp on the absurdly obvious (and authentically rendered) AC/DC and Aerosmith influences that are the bedrock of your band's sound. This Bostonian group of gentlemen (line-up: Lord Bendover, Lord Rockingham, Duke d'Istortion, the Marquis de Roque and drummer Jackie Kickassis) has developed a certain popularity with both the ruffians and the refined in the colonies, and parlayed it into jaunts to New York and even an appearance on TV for Conan O'Brien. One of the Upper Crust's Lord Bendover bears an uncanny family resemblance to Nat from the Flies and Titanics, proving that whatever his lineage and family background, his pedigree in seedy rock 'n' roll is unparalleled. Think Urge Overkill covering something off of Highway To Hell, Aerosmith in the 18th century or Paul Revere & The Raiders mixed with the Devil Dogs, and that's the Upper Crust. When the Duke d'Istortion wails on his guitar like a madman, one can only imagine the waves of silent dread that pass through the ranks of his servants whenever he calls for his Les Paul. Mark you, these gentlemen mean to rock, the people be damned. Proposed album title: Let Them Eat Rock. Upper cuts: "R.S.V.P.," "Old Money," "Luncheon" and "Badminton." JAMES LIEN

HUFFY Sunny Drive Time

Sudden Shame, c/o Huff, 69 Grant St., Burlington, VT 05401

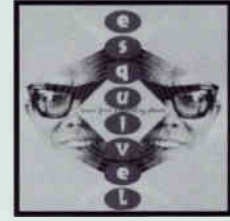

Though many bands have come out of Burlington, Vermont, over the past couple of years, few have been as promising as Huff. The trio has only been together for a year, but its first recording is not a typical demo tape. Huff excels where many young bands fail; its songs are well-written, skillfully delivered and well-produced. The six songs are catchy without being predictable, and while memorable hooks abound, the band doesn't use them as a crutch. Huff's tasty brand of crunchy, guitar-heavy pop-punk sounds like a Dinosaur Jr./Hüsker Dü hybrid. Bassist/singer Jeff Brown's voice is unmistakably similar to Bob Mould's and the energy that carries his raspy-howl is infectious. Another of the band's strengths is that it doesn't fall into the trap of crafting all of its songs around the same structure. While most of the songs here are upbeat, "Won't Come Around" is like a tranquil serenade, with Brown's twangy lilt carrying the piece (think Idaho). Overall, Sunny Drive Time is an impressive first effort, and since the six songs here are bound to leave you wanting more, look for Huff on a Sudden Shame sampler later this summer. JENNY ELISCU

ESQUIVEL! Music From A Sparkling Planet

Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030 201.795.9424

It's rare for an artist to have a resurgence of popularity some 35 years after the fact, but it happens, at least in the case of Juan Garcia Esquivel. The Latin orchestra leader/arranger, who recorded the majority of his work in the late '50s and early '60s, made a splash with today's audience when Bar/None released a compilation, Space Age Bachelor Pad Music, last year. For the new audience and those not lucky enough to own the earlier out-of-print albums, Music From A Sparkling Planet is a second volume of work culled from Esquivel's classic releases. The king of "easy listening," whose music is just as obligatory to a cocktail party as olives and swizzle sticks, mutated and manipulated familiar tunes, enabling listeners to revel in his wild arrangements. This second collection contains more of Esquivel's work with vocalists—he is known for his "wordless" adaptations of songs, incorporating lyrics such as "zu-zu-zu-zu" and "pow-pow," used in his version of "All Of Me." Using ping-pong stereo techniques and intricate hi-fi recording, Esquivel's tunes were part of the launch of the stereophonic sound, and marketed as music of the future. Amazingly enough, despite the years that have passed, Esquivel's songs still feel as if they belong to some far-off crazy futuristic era. DAWN SUTTER

POLICE Live!

A&amp;M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028

Sting used to be in a band? Yeah—and it was a band that made its reputation through constant touring and astonishing ensemble musicianship. All three Police-men were musicians before they came to rock; what they played together sounded like a sped-up, toughened-up collision of reggae and ambient sound experiments. In fact, it was prog-schooled drummer Stewart Copeland's idea that it'd be a giggle to start a punk band. From the evidence here, it seems like that was how he figured he'd get the most opportunities to play fast—even the simplest beats are embellished all over the place, and given half a chance, he starts playing as many simultaneous polyrhythms as he can get away with. Live! combines two 15-song concerts that are the most frequently bootlegged Police shows: a 1979 Boston set broadcast on WBCN, and a 1983 show from Atlanta, originally released as a videotape that year. The '79 show finds the Cops young and hungry, but starting to mature: punk sprints like "Fall Out" and "Landlord," reprised from early singles, are almost too easy for them. Where they really shine is on the songs that let them stretch out instrumentally, especially "The Bed's Too Big Without You," which turns into a long, awesome piece of live dub—the band becomes its own mixing board. By the later show, the Police have gotten big (there are backing vocalists and sequencers), and the King Of Pain's head is getting there, but the playing is still often super-hot. Listen to the way Andy Summers whiplashes from tone to tone on "Synchronicity I," and how he almost always plays around the contours of a song, suggesting chords rather than articulating them. Also rediscover the first show's headlong "Truth Hits Everybody" and "Bring On The Night," and the second one's deft medley of "O My God" and "De Do Do Do, De Da Da Da." DOUGLAS WOLK

DAVELL CRAWFORD Let Them Talk

Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700
To hear the buzz out of New Orleans, Davell Crawford has been hailed by many as avatar of a new piano legacy, following in the wake of James Booker and Professor Longhair. At the very least, he fulfills that bill if only because he's an original stylist rather than a copier; unlike so many who've followed in the wake of those giants and attempted to cop their styles, Davell is pretty much his own man at the keyboard. Sure, there are elements of Fess and Booker in his playing, but they are only ingredients in what is already a singular and innovative style. Davell intersperses gospel material along with songs like "She's Got A Wobble" or "Lovey Dovey." Only time will tell whether young Davell will become the heir to the Crescent City piano legacy, but Let Them Talk is a fine debut album from a promising star. Maybe we're just impossibly diehard New Orleans piano fans, but we're most partial to Davell's solo piano pieces, without the obtrusive extra session players of the full band—that's where Davell's true talents and the real spirit of New Orleans piano comes through the clearest, not when all those other cats crowd into the picture. Try "Gumbo Piano," "Keep It Rollin!" and the title track. And whatever you do, don't miss Davell's wonderful Bookerish improvisation during his medley, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee/Amazing Grace."

Blues Hangover: Excella Blues Rarities

Excello, c/o AVI, 10390 Santa Monica Blvd., Ste. 210, Los Angeles, CA 90025 310.556.7744

In a recent review of Dark Clouds Rollin': Excella Swamp Blues Classics, we complained about the lack of rarities and obscure sides, considering how many must be out there. Little did we realize that there was a master plan at work, and that barely four months later we'd receive this awe-inspiring two-CD compilation of rare tracks from the Excella vaults, many having languished unreissued since they originally came out as 45s. But the real find is a previously unreleased home-recorded 1966 "audition tape" from an enigmatic bluesman named Early Drane, which Drane apparently mailed to the label from his hometown of Eupora, Mississippi. Drane, a total mystery man, was probably the same "Earl Draines" who played with Willie Mabon and Big Boy Spires, and had a hand in the immortal strangeness of the Blues Rockers' "Calling All Cows" (found on The Best Of Excella Records). In front of a crude tape recorder, Drane opens up and sings his heart out—you can hear what sounds like his kids or wife talking in the background, while a TV is audible in the background on "Late In The Evening." Drane just seems to get everything wrong—"I'm Leaving This Morning" appears to be about how happy he is to be leaving the North and going back to sharecropping for the "Boss Man" on the farm, while his loose interpretation of Slim Harpo turns "I'm Gonna Scratch Your Back" into a deranged series of threats, all while Drane's out-of-tune guitar limps along behind him. It's really almost enough to make you cry. The treasures from the "Drane tapes" include a version of the hymn "Were You There (When They Crucified My Lord)" that sounds like Drane doesn't know anything but the title and basic melody line, like he's just making the rest up off the top of his head, including a bunch of quasi-narrative verses that aren't anywhere in the original and seem only tenuously related to the Bible. Some of Drane's audition tape sounds eerily like it's straight out of the '20s or '30s—heartfelt, powerful stuff. In a way, this tape is every bit as significant as the rediscoveries of Sleepy John Estes, Mississippi John Hurt or Bukka White. It's drop-dead stunning.

EARTHLING Radar

Cooltempo, 131-33 Holland Park Ave., London W11 4UT U.K. 0171.605.7000

The first words on Earthling's debut album declare, "I know who I am/I'm not who you think I am," like a declaration of independence from the group's surrounding peers. "I'm rock, I'm roll, I'm Nat King Cole/I'm Shostakovich, turning in a fishbowl/Earthling is something you can never get a hold of." Clinical schizophrenia, or a healthy ingestion of the post-punk changes—reggae, ska, new romantic pop, house, hip-hop and techno—has tainted the best of today's black music culture, especially in the field known as trip-hop. Formed by T. Saul (music/production) and Mau (rapping), Earthling is from Bristol too, with links to the Portishead camp (Geoff Barrow contributes 'cuts' to "Echo On My Mind" and "I Could Just Die"), but while sharing aspects of Massive Attack's cinematic aura, Portishead's hip-hop noir and Tricky's toned menace, Radar buzzes with a stronger funk/rap base and freaky humor, closer to a Definition Of Sound. It's a gorgeous record, full of twists and turns, some familiar (the Portishead-style "Ananda's Theme," "Nefisa" and "I Still Love Albert Einstein") and others Earthling-conscious ("Accident At Injured Strings," "Echo On MY Mind," "Infinite M.," "Planet Of The Apes" and "Freak, Freak"). By the sound of it, Planet Earthling is a great place to hang out.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO SKUNK ANANSIE'S

second single "I Can Dream" is as powerful as "Selling Jesus" with greater commercial zest—this is a sucker-punch chorus with windows-down momentum yet backed up by every atom of the band's metal-funk urgency and singer Skin's soul-deep quake. Its EP-mates are just as strong: "Anesthetic Anarchist" is a punkish outburst with shrieking triple harmonies; "Black Skin Sexuality" hits the racial/queer issue on the head with slower, more funk-emoting backdrop; the emphatic psycho-drama "Little Baby Swastikkka" highlights the fact that the offending graffiti artist "wasn't very high, couldna been more than four years old." Skunk Anasie is a sheer heart attack (One Little Indian, 250 York Road, London SW11 U.K. 0171.924.1661)...Suzi Quatro Lives in Chelmsford. Indeed she does, though this similarly christened three-band 7" has nothing to do with the ex-glam queen except a probable love of leather. "Three thumping spurts of slunchcore" says the sleeve too—well, it ain't hardcore, grindcore, popcore or any other 'core' style war—LIGAMENT, JOEY FAT and SCARFO may share a rock tradition descended from the Dischord/Touch And Go/Matador model but that's it. Ligament offers the scorched "His Giz"; Kent's Joey Fat (heard on Abstract's recent Jackpot-winning Amplified compilation) is more dynamically fractured and word-conscious on "Big Dumb Ape"; South London's Scarfo, making its world debut with "Eyesore," echoes Gang Of Four's nervous, itchy tension, with a scurry of drums 'n' bass and scattershot guitars strapped to a Luna Park ride. All aboard the British underground, or the "non-scene that refuses to celebrate itself," as the label copy says (Fierce Panda/Love Train, P.O. Box 7337, London N1 9NS U.K.)...Joey Fat also has its own 7" single in "Little Big Man" and the two-part "A Cherub/An Arm" (the opening line is "This is going to hurt!") where the quintet further explores the jerky, dynamic world of agitated thrash-palpitation (Love Train, 4 Aberdeen House, 22 Highbury Grove, London N5 U.K. 0181.704.2990)

FURTHER OUT

Column coordinated by David Newgarden

The popular conception of evil takes many forms, but throughout his career as the big cheese and spokesmodel for the Church Of Satan, ANTON SZANDOR LAVEY has perpetuated the idea of evil as manifested in the fire-and-brimstone, leather-winged prince of darkness. What you get on Satan Takes A Holiday (Amarillo, P.O. Box 24433, San Francisco, CA 94124), however, is not the sort of evil that spun Linda Blair's head around, but something more insidious: mediocrity. If this is His Satanic Majesty's request, than Lucifer can perhaps also be blamed for all those shopping mall Wurlitzer demonstrations. While LaVey's organ talents often successfully carry chestnuts like the title track (you'll recognize it instantly as the song played at every haunted house and spook show right after Toccata And Fugue In E Minor), his singing—everything from Tin Pan Alley ditties like "If You Were The Only Girl In The World" to the '50s German love song "Answer Me" to "Honolulu Baby"—is the disc's true horror. This is not the muse of the seductive serpent than taught Eve what an apple a day will really keep away, it's the droning of a sloshed lampshade wearer refusing to take his finger off the "samba" key at the end of the party, and a lot scarier than all the death metal bands in Florida. This is the music not of Milton or Dante's Hell, but ours. SCOTT FRAMPTON

We casually dismissed initial pre-release announcements of Coconut Hotel, the great "lost" RED KRAYOLA album from 1967, thinking it was merely a joke from those nutty pranksters at Drag City (P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, Illinois 60647 312.455.1015), but lo and behold, here is an unheard curio from the Mayo Thompson archives. Bearing little relation to either the freak-out psychedelia of Parable Of Arable Land (1967) or the wonderfully oddball songs of God Bless The Red Crayola And All Who Sail With Her (1968), Coconut Hotel is not a great revelation but a rather interesting oddity: Thompson and Krayola cohorts Rick Barthelme and Steve Cunningham play spare improvisations with a pile of different instruments—occasional plucks, miscellaneous horn bleats, piano tinkling, wandering drones, the sound of pouring water, etc. The highlight is several dozen "One Second Pieces" for trumpet/piano/percussion...The ambitious, but tortoise-paced Table Of The Elements label (P.O. Box 5524, Atlanta, GA 30307 404.524.8377) is showing signs of life again, delivering the first in a series of specially-priced CD EPs (EPs have the same fixed manufacturing costs as full-length CDs, so unfortunately, the prices aren't all that "special"). The inaugural release is The Harp Factory On Lake Street by GASTR DEL SOL, a very interesting development for the Chicago group, which is augmented here by a small chamber ensemble. This 17-minute David Grubbs/Jim O'Rourke composition features some very familiar and pleasant piano/voice and acoustic guitar sounds from Grubbs, nicely contrasted with an extremely dense brass/bass clarinet fog and the resonance of shimmering vibraphone...ÉTAGE 34 is (was?) half of the French rock combo Soixante Étages, discarding the vocals and looping in favor of explorative free-form guitar/bass/drums improvisations within a rough rock framework (the drums generally anchor the band in improvised but straightforward rhythms). Exorde (33 REVERMI (France), c/o Dutch East India, 150 W. 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001) is a glorious and tense electric din comparable to Funhouse/Sonny Sharrock/Jean-Francois Pauvros/Sonic Youth, and is highly recommended if you like any of the above.

Guitar Songs Of Southern Mozambique 1955-1957

Original Music, 418 Lasher Road, Tivoli, NY 12583 914.756.2767

If you put this music on the deck and gave your listeners no warning, they might suspect you had found some immigrant culture in Nashville, playing an urbane but rootsy blend of country blues. Only the foreign language would give the music's origins away, as these guitarists/singers rolled through what surely must be a blend of folk, rockabilly, blues and rock.

The fact is, these 21 tracks come from Mozambique's urban and mining milieu of the 1950s which merged the folk and popular music of South Africa and other southern African nations into a sharp, edgy urban blues with a distinctly African rhythm. I may be overstating the obvious, but the cross-roots of African folk and American blues is at the heart of this music, blurring the distinctions between folk and pop, urban and country. Two notable tracks pull it all together for me: the frenetic call-and-response of Makiwani Makhuvele and the Shangaan chorus that accompanies him on one track, and the wild closing tune, a trio of guitar, mandolin and kazoo that takes you on a rhythmic roller-coaster ride that seems to find common ground in rockabilly and beguine. It's all strange and wonderful.

FEMI KUTI Femi Kuti

I dread this scenario. The offspring of a famous star gets his or her chance to rise, takes the same band, the same groove and runs off to a major label for fame and fortune. The results are going to be horrifying every time, right? Well, Fela has always been a case unto himself, and his son Femi Kuti seems to be his own case as well. On his debut CD, the son of the godfather of African pop has taken all the elements that made his father a legend and made them

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

The ever-well-dressed Papa Wemba stays at #1 this week—he's currently in the midst of a highly successful U.S. tour, so he should be the center of attention for quite some time. Our two highest debuts this week are both interesting and important records: the first, Green Linnet's Altan, comes on board at #10, while the second, the Zoo Records debut from reggae perennials the Wailing Souls, comes on at #14. One sure sign of summer slowdown is that older records often make strong reappearances in chartland: witness Mad Professor coming back on at #25, or Gamelan Pacifica coming back on at #20. And please, please remember: there are currently two albums out by Sheila Chandra, whose Roots And Wings, drops from 2-3, while the more recent Noda Brahma is bubbling under the chart—make sure you specify which one you're playing, and don't just lump them together in your report. Thanks! (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) his own. Politics, soul, funk and groove ooze from every track, and if you loved or hated Fela Kuti for his "Afro-pop" music, you'll have the same reaction to Kuti the younger. Femi Kuti's choice of going worldwide on his debut makes sense. His is a message of international power, unity and politics fused to a timeless sense of rhythm and a contemporary sense of pop. This is music that will access the mainstream without acquiescing to it. Jazz, rap and rock fans will all feel at home here, while still experiencing something of the regional sound and message of the music. I can already see the VH-1 hype that will surely follow, and I hope that the news in the music survives it. Femi Kuti deserves his spotlight as a musician, and his soapbox as the budding political heir to the Kuti kingdom.

PABLO MOSES Mission

RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015 301.588.9641

I usually leave the reggae to Reggae columnist James Lien, but once in a while there are recordings that grab me securely by the ear. Pablo Moses has one of the most unique sounds in reggae, and an aural palette that uses all the clichés in fresh new ways. Mission is an exemplar of this ability to make it all new again. Add his sharp eye for news, for message that rises above medium, and you have a CD full of sharp sensibilities and conscious perspectives. Track to "He Was Bad"—it has it all.

INCREDIBLE ISTANBUL GIPSY BAND

Feuer und Eis, Fuldastrasse 40m, D-47443 Moers 1, Germany 2841.50.30.35 fax: 2841.54.7.54

While the output from this German label has been small, it has had a major impact on the world music scene. Bossman Birger Gesthuisen released four of the earliest internationally available compilations of Malagasy music, and was a guiding force in the Kaiser/Lindley project that has given a big push to the music of that island. But there's another, more eastern side to this label. It has had a major interest in the Gypsy and Jewish music of Turkey, and here, on the label's third foray into Istanbul, it presents a full measure of one great band. The Incredible Istanbul Gypsy Band is no revivalist outfit cranking out the old tunes for the old audience; these folks are energetic seekers of new sounds from old roots, and they incorporate jazz, a little funky, bluesy mood here and there, even a weird turn on Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake" theme. Save for a little distorted electric guitar, this is an acoustic ensemble to be reckoned with. Oud, kanun, kaval, zurna, davul, strings and reeds are pulled into interesting combinations, giving rise to an international Gypsy sound that's fresh and innovative but never trite or cheesy. They have an effervescence that's funny, soulful and wild.

Moon Records strikes another motherlode of skaicity, this time heading south to dig up some 100% Latin Ska (Moon, P.O. 1412, Cooper Sta., NY, NY 10276). The set opens with a brilliant "Perfidia" gone ska by Laurel Aitkens and never lets up. Highlights: Venezuela's mambo skasters King Chango, the brilliantly straight-ahead Dr. Calypso from Barcelona, and the one-off NY Ska Jazz Ensemble (with members of the Toasters, the Skatalites and the Scofflaws).

ET AL...

If the folk scene has produced an heir to Woody Guthrie, it has to be LARRY LONG. This Midwestern troubadour has the simplicity, humor and commitment that made his mentor infamous. Living In A Rich Man's World (Atomic Theory, c/o Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614 312.528.5455) is a testament to the continuing power of political and social songwriting in America.

HADLEY J. CASTILLE is also an heir of sorts, to the throne of Cajun fiddler Harry Choate, and his distinctive Cajun swamp and swing style has been across my turntables many times. This time out he features a Third Generation (Swallow, P.O. Drawer 10, Ville Platte, LA 70586 318.363.2184) of the family with guitarist Blake Castille. Its mix of classic Cajun and bluesy new songs make this a good introduction or a great addition to the collection.

If your tastes lie really far south, you can head to the Crescent City for a taste of the PFISTER SISTERS. Although they started as a sort of tribute to the Boswell Sisters, they developed a sound of their own that is soaked in soul and imbued with that unique and indescribable mix that is purely New Orleans (Great Southern, P.O. Box 13977, New Orleans, LA 70185 504.482.4211). This album from the mid-'80s is divided between classic Boswell tunes and the Pfisters' own contemporary takes.

DREAMLAND is as far out of any genre as you can get. It's a rock band in the Boiled In Lead school, but the group opens God's Fools (Dreamland, 860 Ashbury Ave., El Carat, CA 95430) with an old song about tuna fishing sung in a vaguely Russian choral style, slams into a Macedonian rocker, and then continues with tales about Scarlett O'Hara, a spy named Harriet, a jazzy ode to homelessness and cigarettes (which seems to be equal parts Tom Waits and Kate Bush?) and any number of strangely Balkan sounding folk-rock songs. An interesting first outing for a band that seems boundless.

Peace. Cliff Fumald, Box 1285, New Haven, CT 06511

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

The jinx continues for Verve's Joe Henderson (1-2), whose new album, Double Rainbow, has charted #1 for four separate weeks, but hasn't been able to retain the top spot for two weeks running. Henderson was very narrowly edged out by Delmark's Kahil El'Zabar's Ritual Trio (4-1); the veteran Chicago percussionist is joined on his new album by the Art Ensemble Of Chicago's Malachi Favors and special guest Billy Bang. There were two very impressive chart debuts from brand new albums: Verve's Abbey Lincoln at #3 and Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet at #4. Two other members of the Art Ensemble climbed into the top 10: Delmark's Roscoe Mitchell (18-5) and In + Out's Lester Bowie's Brass Fantasy (13-8). Also making chart debuts were Talkin' Verve (#12), a compilation of Verve label classics from the '60s, and Blue Note vocalist Kurt Elling (#24). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) neobop vein, but nonetheless interesting and swingful. Heard previously on record with trombonist Delfeayo Marsalis and pianist/labelmate Jonny King (In From The Cold), Turner purveys a rich, essentially legato tone and a conception owing to Lennie Tristano and Miles Davis circa mid-'60s. Turner, who penned six of the nine selections on this 70-plus-minute disc, employs a piano/bass/drums rhythm section (the pianist being the resourceful Brad Mehldau, who has signed with Warner Bros.) supplemented by guitar, often employed as an ersatz horn. The piano and guitar, as heard on the CD-opening "Tune Number One," cohere without colliding, and the leader's original "Zurich," a contemplative piece, pits the twin tenors of guests Seamus Blake and Terence Dean alongside Turner's. A cerebral quality, evident in Turner's writing and soloing, emerges on Yam Yam, and though the music is often expansive, rarely does it meander aimlessly. Experienced ears will find much to enjoy here... Turner shows up again, as a new band member, with TANAREID, the hard-working quintet headed by drummer Akira Tana and bassist Rufus Reid. Following an association with Concord, TanaReid has moved to Evidence (1100 E. Hector St., #392, Conshohocken, PA 19428 610.832.0844) for Looking Forward. The core group of Tana, Reid, alto saxist/flutist Craig Bailey, Turner and pianist John Stetch (the latter two are now full-time members) is supplemented on four pieces by the brass alacrity of guest Tom Harrell. Reid (Director of Jazz Studies at William Paterson College) and Tana (who teaches at three New York-metro area colleges) are prominent educators. By recording and gigging consistently and tastefully for the past few years, these adventurous bop-on-out players are teaching the best way possible—by example...

RHYTHM REVENGE

Bassists and especially drummers—usually consigned to the back of the stage, their names at the bottom of the marquee, often dismissed as mere timekeepers—can be excused somewhat if, on their own albums, they tend to overplay and overrely on their own solos. The great ones, of course, never play too much; the great ones make others sound better than they actually are, elevating themselves in the process. Like the best bassists, BUELL NEIDLINGER is capable of keeping flawless time. But this master is a seer, never a subordinate—a virtuoso whose inventive solos are the match of any horn player's (as witnessed by his playing over the years with the likes of Archie Shepp, Cecil Taylor and Frank Zappa). The bearded bassist not only keeps time, he keeps his word, and with Blue Chopsticks: A Portrait Of Herbie Nichols (K2B2, 1748 Roosevelt Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90006-5219 213.732.1602), he makes good on a promise he made some 30 years ago. The titular Nichols, the late pianist/composer whom Neidlinger calls "the greatest jazz melodist after Ellington," recorded a few trio albums as a leader, but was largely overlooked during his lifetime, and even after his death, until Mosaic released a boxed set of his recordings. Nichols and Neidlinger gigged together in the early '50s, and frequently woodshedded, performing the former's craggy, rhythmically ingenious tunes and wondering what they would sound like with strings and horns. During their last conversation, before Nichols' death in 1963, the bassist promised that someday he would record the pianist's music as discussed. He makes good on Blue Chopsticks, which features 11 Nichols compositions as performed by a quintet with Neidlinger (cello), Richard Greene (violin), Jimbo Ross (viola), Marty Krystall (reeds) and Hugh Shick (brass). It is a testimonial to Nichols' compositional genius, to say nothing of Neidlinger's interpretive savvy, that the tunes Nichols recorded with piano, bass, and drums are redone—beautifully, swingfully, sincerely—with none of the original instrumentation. Outstanding. Five stars. For a cool double play, cue up one of these numbers (try "2300 Skidoo") followed by a Nichols track from Blue Note's The Art Of Herbie Nichols compilation... Drummer JERRY GRANELLI's astonishing stickwork is no secret to longtime observers of the jazz scene. Granelli, who studied with Joe Morello, made vital contributions to the music of Vince Guaraldi and Mose Allison over the years, but only recently have his composing and bandleading skills risen to the fore. Following his brilliant 1992 album A Song I Thought I Heard Buddy Sing, which featured the twin guitars of Bill Frisell and Robben Ford, Granelli has come out with the captivating Another Place (Intuition, 636 Broadway, #1218, New York, NY 10012 212.473.6044). Steering without dominating, Granelli's adroit trapwork forms the axis around which revolve the improvisational flights of trombonist Julian Priester, soprano saxist Jane Ira Bloom, bassist Anthony Cox and vibist David Friedman. This is open-ended, nonchord-based New Jazz, challenging and unpredictable but inviting to astute ears. Try the haunting "Hello Nellie."

HORNS APLENTY

On his second outing for Concord (P.O. Box 845, Concord, CA 94522 510.682.6770), Point of View, trombonist ROBERT TROWERS shares the spotlight with elder 'bone-brethren Al Grey, Slide Hampton and Fred Wesley. On all 11 tracks the leader, whose credits include stints with the Illinois Jacquet Big Band, Lionel Hampton and the Count Basie Orchestra, gets tight-knit support from a rhythm section comprising pianist Richard Wyands, contrabassist Marcus McLaurine and drummer Gene Jackson. Trowers, enamored (as are most trombonists) of the J.J. Johnson/Kai Winding configuration of the '50s and '60s, pairs off with each of his guests on one track apiece. Suitable though these tracks are for airplay, the one track featuring all four 'bonemen, "End Of A Love Affair" (7:05), is the hourlong CD's tour de force... Up, Over & Out (Delmark, 4121 N. Rockwell, Chicago, IL 60618), the third album as a leader and second for Delmark from ERIC ALEXANDER, finds the deep-toned tenorist in an assured, hardy frame of mind. Raised in Chicago, where tenormen without a large sound can be found on the unemployment line, Alexander, now 27, attended New Jersey's prestigious William Paterson College, and in 1991 finished second (to Joshua Redman) in the Thelonious Monk Institute's saxophone competition. Here in a quartet on his second date for Chicago's Delmark, Alexander is the lone hornman, but with pianist Harold "Big Hands" Mabern on board again, the youngster is never at a loss for ideas as he blows with sinewy strength at a variety of tempos. Hank Mobley's medium-up title track, Mabern's "Blues For Mabe" and the ballads "The Nearness Of You" and "I Remember Clifford" are the especially airplay-inviting tracks on this energized, 73-minute bop-down-the-middle date... Gerry Teekens has carved out a niche for his Dutch Criss Cross label (c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140) by allowing young, would-be leaders on the cusp between mainstream jazz and bebop to record under their own names. The most recent is tenorman MARK TURNER, whose inaugural, Yam Yam, is left of center, in the

SPACE PIMP

Space Pimp (EP)

Clear, P.O. Box 4793, London SE5
7LX U.K. 0171.708.1330

I'm no Nostradamus, but I can't help thinking that if dance music's fans and critics better understood its cyclical nature, perhaps they'd be less surprised to find the lo-tech, low rider, bass mechanics of Roger Troutman and Bootsy come home to roost in 1995 on this spine-bending set of tracks by Space Pimp. The juddering, winding bass lines of such influential electro-funk tracks as George Clinton's "Atomic Dog" and Zapp's "More Bounce To The Ounce" have provided a full fifteen years of dancefloor mayhem, sounding equally powerful in house, techno, and hip-hop settings. Space Pimp is well aware of that fact, and its snaking "K-9 Law" track here is clearly an homage to the pilot of the mothership himself. Wound tightly around a core of hip-jerking bass, this seven minute journey inaugurates beginners into the school of "intergalactic funkship," to use Clinton's vivid phrase. The EP's title track is a thickly indulgent staccato-ed vocoder number with a mid-'80s Miami influence, while "The Pimp (The Lino-Cut)" is an absurdly fragmented percussive number that sounds almost out of place here. This EP represents dance music at the edge of the underground, and yet its antecedents can be heard on a dozen different dancefloors any night of the week.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Novamute's latest Tresor compilation takes a gigantic leap upward of nine spots, straight to #1. Moonshine's Positive Energy compilation jumps 13 places (17-4) into the top five. Astralwerks-Caroline's Freaky Chakra full-length is the highest re-entry this week (#14). The Cop label's Chaos compilation is the highest debut at #17. Newcomer Kama Sutra on the Blue Duck label arrives at #22, while Deep Forest's latest single on 550-Epic debuts at #23. Furnace-Silent's Abstinence is yet another re-entry at #25. The German Eye Q label and its various imprints occupy three spots in the top 10 this week. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

VICTIM OF CIRCUMTRANCE

The music called "trance" is at state of flux at the moment. Its more disappointing moments resemble the corniest early '80s Hi-NRG with sustained synth chords, while its more ecstatic, melodic peaks can still prove intoxicating. HANI's first EP Victim Of Circumtrance is an example of the more inspiring pockets of trance production. Smooth yet danceable acid trance is a rarity these days, so it is a delight to feel the rounded edges of "I," "Tie," and "Stomp" on the record's first side. The production quality here is outstanding, with the depth between the track's elements made very clear. Up and coming New York DJ Hani put together this fine EP for the highly regarded Deep Dish imprint in Maryland, and we can only hope it will not be his last (Yoshitoshi, c/o Deep Dish, 20043 Placid Lake Terrace, Germantown, MD 20874 703.212.0878)...The Berry brothers from London run the most respected British trance label around, Platipus. Their acute sense of melody and melodrama turns Platipus records into peerless exercises in electronic grandeur. The label's latest outing is the There Will Be No Armageddon EP by UNION JACK. Prefaced by a sweeping minor-key synth sequence, this track is gorgeously assembled, constructing vast lunar landscapes in its wake (Platipus, London, U.K. fax: 0181.539.2140 email: Platipus@dusk.demon.co.uk).

THE NEW ELECTRONICA

With the exception of Sister 2 Sister magazine, the work of black women in contemporary dance music is rarely given the attention it deserves. The growing number of black women DJs and producers in Britain and the U.S. is important because one hears black women vocalists on virtually every dance record in creation, yet their roles are often circumscribed by the diva image. Thus, the new Black Widow EP by Chicago's AKILAH BRYANT is significant given the male domination of the dance community. Bryant's second EP is a heavily kick-drummed acid stormer. The standout, "Sy-Ren" is a flattening 303 and 909 track, with unreasonable amounts of energy, while "Eve Trip" and "Break Down" are pulsing minimalist drum exercises of considerable potency (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands 040.115547).

BACK TO DRUM AND BASS-ICS

Like the Jamaican dancehall scene, the U.K. jungle world continues to spin off a good two dozen tunes per week.

Sorting the good from the bad can be a daunting task. Two of the most impressive singles of the week are "Borderline Mobster" by BOUNTY KILLER and BEENIE MAN and "Regulators" by DJ GUNSHOT. The former arrives by way of the long established U.K. reggae label, Greensleeves, whose jungle imprint has made quite an impression in the last six months. With dancehall toaster Bounty Killer's vocals brought to the surface of the mix, this is a furious track, shot through with sinking bass lines and speedy percussion loops (Greensleeves, Unit 14, Metro Centre, St. John's Road, Iselworth, Middlesex TW7 6NJ U.K. 081.758.0564)...DJ Gunshot's latest record for the excellent IQ label is a twisting and turning drum-and-bass kicker with slowed, time-stretched vocal samples and snippets of roots dub music. The B-sides "Check One" is another racing affair, with bass, drums and samples packed in so close, it's a wonder they can maneuver at all (IQ, c/o Jumpstart, Unit 6-8, Millmeade Business Centre, Millmeade Rd., Tottenham Hale, London N17 9QU U.K. 0181.375.0303)...Pioneering U.S. indie dance label Instinct has recently released a stirring two CD set of jungle tracks licensed from the exemplary Kickin' label in London. King of The Jungle presents us with 20 tracks, including contributions by DJ Massive, Tom & Jerry with DJ Stretch, Bizzy B & Cool Hand Flex, as well as DJ Monk and Engineers Without Fears. As jungle's popularity in the U.S. grows, we can expect to see more compilations of the high quality of King of The Jungle (Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360 email: 72170.1753@compuserve.com).

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST

Disco-sampled hard house tracks are a dime a dozen these days, which is why the Level One EP by B.T. EXPRESS stands in the same league with recent EPs by DJ Sneak. Producer Brian Middleton borrows his moniker from the influential '70s funk band (of "Do It 'Til You're Satisfied" fame) of the same name and his adoration of mid '70s dance music is quite clear. The standout here is "Hijackin'" which not surprisingly, borrows generous portions of Herbie Mann's "Hijack." "Tripin'" is further proof of the rhythmic talents of B.T. Express, with its wistful Salsoul synth chords and rattling percussion (Madhouse, P.O. Box 118, Monee, IL 60449 708.534.5621).

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

The big news this week is the ascent of Reprise's Chris Isaak to #1 (2-1), over taking Oh Boy's John Prine, who slips into the second slot (1-2). Elsewhere in the top 10, Elektra's Natalie Merchant makes an impressive move (6-4), as does Columbia's Soul Asylum (13-7), both in only their second week on the chart. Meanwhile relative veterans like Zoo's Little Feat (10-6), Atlantic's Billy Pilgrim (11-8) Capricorn's Sonia Dada (18-11), EastWest's Rembrandts (15-12) and RCA's Dave Matthews Band (32-13) make good advances. Top debuts this week include Polydor-A&M's Van Morrison at #14, Elektra's Bjork at #17, A&M's Innocence Mission at #34 and Go!Discs-London's Paul Weller at #40. Top Adds: 1) Paul Weller; 2) Alanis Morissette; 3) Van Morrison; 4) Neil Young; 5) Ian Moore.

ANI DI FRANCO Not A Pretty Girl

Righteous Babe, P. O. Box 95, Ellicott Sta., Buffalo, NY 14205 716.852.8020

Not A Pretty Girl may not be the breakthrough record that brings Ani DiFranco into the consciousness of music fans worldwide, but it's sure to satisfy her many supporters, which now number more than 200,000, if total album sales of her Righteous Babe label are any indication. Like her six previous collections, it's a self-produced affair with startling and poignant lyrics as well as DiFranco's trademark extraordinary guitar playing. Her brand of folk music brings contemporary principles to an aging art form. Some songs have dangerously pointed edges, others explore the possibilities with a muted tone, yet they all contain thought-provoking ideas and intriguing undercurrents. From the sly funk groove of "Worthy" to the dark rage of "The Million You Never Made" to the introspective gracefulness of "Hour Follows Hour" to the deep yearning of "Asking Too Much," DiFranco allows us to re-enter her world and once again the results are fascinating. This album proves she's not like anyone else calling themselves a singer/songwriter in the 1990s.

APARTMENTS A Life Full Of Farewells

Hot, c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028-6420 213.957.4357

This is the kind of record that the Triple AAA format was made for: one that might fall through the cracks at all the other radio formats, yet deserves to be heard by virtue of its understated beauty. The Apartments hail from Brisbane, Australia, and they've been around since 1979, yet A Life Full Of Farewells is their first U.S. release. Led by Peter Milton Walsh, whose songs have been covered by the Chills, Everything But The Girl and This Mortal Coil, the Apartments are essentially a trio joined by the occasional trumpet or pedal steel guitar player. Walsh's tunes are morose yet elegant with quirky bits that are never overdone. His voice and lyrics recall Robyn Hitchcock or Paul Kelly at times, yet the entire proceedings have a luminescence that is rare in pop music. Check out "Things You'll Keep," "End Of Some Fear" and "Thank You For Making Me Beg" for a taste of a record that's too good to be ignored.

SHORT SHOTS

While he'll always be known as the first (and best) lead singer of the Pogues, SHANE MACGOWAN has returned with a new group, THE POPES, and a convincing debut, The Snake (ZZT, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510). The music here is stylistically similar to his former band, with pipes and guitars dominating. MacGowan's croak of a voice and his mates' intense interplay are equally engaging on tracks like "Nancy Whiskey," "A Mexican Funeral In Paris" and "Haunted." Some of the tunes here may be a little too noisy and ragged for some programmers, to which we would only respond: "Turn it up!"...With the recent success of the Jayhawks and Wilco, the time seems ripe for a group like DEAD HOT WORKSHOP. 1001 (TAG, 14 E. 60th St., New York, NY 10022 212.508.5400) is chock full of the band's guitar-heavy, country-inflected rock. With a devoted following in and around its Arizona home base, Dead Hot is ready to move beyond the Southwest with songs that boast a wide range of emotions, such as the high-energy "Slice Of Life," the breezy twang of "117" and the jangle pop of "Burger Christ"...Having toned down some of the overblown excess of his first recordings, MARK GERMINO seems more of a folk singer than ever on his latest, Rank & File (Winter Harvest, P.O. Box 60884, Nashville, TN 37206 615.227.7770). Always at his best when telling a story, Germino presents some memorable characters like the renegade disc jockey "Rex Bob Lowenstein" and the gun-running "Felix Tucker," along with other unaffected yet sparkling glimpses of life in today's America. Highlights include the ringing mandolin and killer hook of "Very Lucky Man" and the political commentary of the anthem "Fields Of Man's New Order."

B.U.M.S.

Brothas Unda Madness
Lyfe 'N' Tyme
Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd.,
Hollywood, CA 90028
213.467.0151

If tired old regional and coastal arguments are ever going to go away, it's going to take more groups like the B.U.M.S. to help shatter people's expectations. It's not that D-Wyze and E-Vocalist have re-routed the course of hip-hop, but they confidently let their rhyme skills become their most tangible characteristic, instead of a making a mark with a familiar loop or sound. Hailing from the Bay Area (which gave birth to groups like Souls Of Mischief and Del The Funkyhomosapien), the duo got its start as a part of KMEL's Wake Up Show and benefits from butter-smooth production by Joe Quixx, Baka Boys and King Tee that has clear East Coast flavors, but doesn't make a point to hang too much on that quality. The duo offers a variety of different lyrical moods and attitudes; they shift from less-aggressive tracks like "Non-Stoppin' The Groove" to traditional cockiness on "6 Figures And Up." Instead of leaning on overused P-Funk-sampled beats, Brothas Unda Madness is seasoned with more soulful R&B (they sample Smokey Robinson on "Let The Music Take Your Mind"), sparse jazz and obscure experimentation ("West Coast Smack" has a 1920's jazz flair) to help round out the album. The duo sounds most passionate on "Elevation (Free My Mind)" on which they speak about the shady side of the record business as if they've been negatively affected by it. Also, the spoken word "Who Gives You The Right" is fired with the force of an M-16 as it speaks about racism, oppression and the struggle of the black people. Kick it live: "Wreck Your Ears (Can Do)" and the beat-savvy "Can You Do Without?"

ROUGH ENOUGH

Although they haven't recorded as a group since its debut album Enter The Wu-Tang (36 Chambers), the members of the Staten Island, New York crew the Wu-Tang Clan have remained busy with an onslaught of solo projects. While Method Man and Ol' Dirty Bastard have taken much of the spotlight, RAEKWON THE CHEF is preparing to do damage when he releases his solo album, Only Built 4 Cuban Linx... on August 1. In the meantime, Loud-RCA has released Latest & Greatest Hits (Loud, c/o RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036), a seven-song cassette featuring four cuts (a k a the Greatest) recorded with the Wu-Tang Clan ("Can It All Be So Simple (Remix)," "Eye For An Eye," "C.R.E.A.M." and "Heaven & Hell"), while Raekwon serves up three new cuts from his upcoming record. Aside from "Glaciers Of Ice," "Freestyle" is a blazing mic check in his murky, raw style which has its own idiosyncratic charisma ("My clan done run from Japan to Atlanta with stanima"), while "Criminology" features fellow Wu-Tangers, and has that unmistakable Wu-Tang sound: a haunting loop, dusty old sample and bone-crushing beat...While the future of Poor Righteous Teachers remains an enigma, Wise Intelligent is the featured rapper on NITTY GRITTY FEATURING WISE INTELLIGENT'S

"Good Morning Teacher" (Profile, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003 212.529.2600). Nitty Gritty is a reggae/dancehall artist who was tragically shot in 1990 by another well-known reggae artist, and was also featured on Profile's compilation Dancehall Days, released earlier this year. As a tribute to Nitty Gritty, "Good Morning Teacher" has a more pronounced hip-hop flavor for Wise Intelligent to rap over (it even samples a bit of Poor Righteous Teachers), and the catchy outcome is as flattering a tribute as they come...The debut single by BLAQUE SPURM entitled "Dayz & Dayz" (Ill, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505) is programmed to provide a cool, laid-back soundtrack for the summer. Spurm's delivery lies somewhere between Snoop Doggy Dogg and Coolio, as the mellow cut simmers under a hot summer groove. Word out.

GURU REPRESENTS

Through his work with Gang Starr and as the director of such musical endeavors as Jazzmatazz, Guru (a k a Keith Elam) has proven himself to be one of hip-hop's most treasured representatives. He is an artist who has never succumbed to trends, and has always been at the vanguard of new musical concepts in hip-hop. Guru's influence stretches around the world, and he stopped in our part of the world to speak to us about his career. Here are some of his thoughts...

Guru looks back...When Gang Starr started, it was at a time in rap when everybody was using the James Brown breaks. And that was when the East Coast...was really...I mean, it was different! Now [hip-hop is] so regional, you can even be from L.A. and go to Texas and get bood—it depends now. The way it was then was New York had it goin' on. It was at a time when it was all about diggin' in the crates and finding those old jazz records and hookin' 'em up with a break beat and—boom—you got some atmospheric type of tracks. You could take it back to Stetsasonic's "Talkin' All That Jazz," you could take it to the beats [Mark] The 45 King was doing. 'Cause he was the first producer I linked up with. I was producing stuff on my own and then I started doing stuff with him before I even met Premier. There was people like Eric B. & Rakim who was coming through with a message, but still had that mellow, jazzy flavor. Then there's people like Fresh Prince and Jazzy Jeff! And when they were out that wasn't no commercial type, they were dope!

Guru on "gangsta"...I'm not too keen on labels. I don't know what "gangsta rap" is. Music either has to be dope or whack to me. I don't listen to a track and say, 'Oh, man, that's gangsta!' because I'm not really impressed by all these war stories that these guys are coming off with. I've been around all that, that street element is one hundred percent part of my life. So, to me, so what, I lived past the average age of a black man in this country and I feel like I gotta give something back. I'm not gonna tell somebody to do something stupid and get locked up. I'm not gonna tell somebody to kill the next man because he was looking at him funny—that's not what I'm about. It doesn't really matter, half those guys couldn't survive in the places I've walked, the places where I get love...in this city [New York]. In this city anything can happen...in daytime. It's a whole other mentality out here, and I represent that. It's past that gang stuff. Rap started when gangs ended in New York. There was the Nines crew, the Casanovas in the Bronx, it was the Outlaws in Brooklyn. Man, that was a time that they don't even know about. Not to disrespect the media because the media is necessary, but some people in the media when they don't understand something and they're looking from the outside, they want to label it. But, see, what they did was they made a lot of people's lives difficult. I love Snoop [Doggy Dogg]; I think he's dope. But I think what makes him dope is that when you meet him, you feel it. It's not like he's just created an image. That's what it's all about. When you hear these kids talking about 'Keep it real,' 'Represent'...that's what it's all about. And that's even getting trendy, that whole expression, just like it used to be those Malcolm X caps. 2Pac for instance, now he's a street-wise guy, he's cool and all that. But, c'mon man, Gangster Rapper 2Pac?! He's seeing himself on TV and is like, 'Damn, maybe I am.' So then, when somebody looks at him he's gotta say, 'What the fuck are you lookin' at?!' It makes your life worse. He fell into a trap and I feel bad for him because he's really a genius. All of these young black kids are geniuses, and it depends on where the energy is channeled...and who's teaching and who's trying to help. I place a lot of the responsibility on record labels. That's the reason why I've been pretty much frustrated as far as being underrated and underground. I mean I get noticed everywhere! So why don't I have a million copies sold? But, see, that's why I love Premier because he's always the calm one that says like, 'Look, man, don't worry about that. As long as we're doing our music correct and the people whose stuff we like, they're complimenting us and respect us, then we're doing it all right. The rest of that is gonna come in time.' I have learned patience and it makes me more intense with my lyrics. It makes me more up on what's going on, too. We're like fans of making music, so I'm listening to every new record.

Guru and his position as a role model...The kids are important to me. If you looked at the jobs I've had: I was a case worker for Foster Care, I was working as a case worker in a maximum detention juvenile home, and so forth. So my perspective, lyrically, is always gonna be not preaching, but definitely teaching and reaching. But, there's a message there, and the message has to be disguised in a way 'cause you can't just come out and say, 'Ahh, let's just stop the killing. C'mon you guys, what are you doing?'—it ain't going down like that. So, there's a method to my instruction—it's stylized—it has to be. You got a case load of 20 kids, and you got all this paper work and red tape and you're only able to get through to only two or three of them. And the salary is like, eeh, and so who is really teaching our kids? A guy who plays on the bench on the Knicks (sorry ass Knicks), is gonna make four times the salary as someone who might teach your kid in the urban environment—what is this?! So, the teachers aren't really motivated to teach these kids. And these kids got energy, man. There's genius quality, but it has to be channeled in the right way. So, if you're tellin' this kid, 'Oh, he's hyper, get him out of the classroom.' Keep sending him to the principal, where's he gonna go? He's gonna quit school, and then he's gonna go on the block. Then he's gonna see another kid with a nice BMX bike and nice little sweat suit and chain and shit, and he's gonna be like, 'Where'd you get that?' and the kid will say, 'You wanna work for me? I'll take you to see the man.' See, then he may use his genius in another way, he may become a drug kingpin in the projects. This is where it's going down, and it all starts with the kids in the schools. The educational system is failing our kids. I'm trying to do something. I'm not gonna do everything, but I definitely feel like I'm helping more kids than I was when I was a case worker—now the numbers multiply.

Look out for Guru when he releases Jazzmatazz Volume 2: The New Reality (Chrysalis-EMI) on July 18.

24-7 SPYZ Temporarily Disconnected

Enemy, 234 Sixth Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11215 718.636.1100

Six years ago, 24-7 Spyz introduced a refreshing new breed of NYHC (New York hardcore) to the masses by carefully weaving

BRUISER PICK

an energized web of hardcore, funk, ska, jazz and R&B styles around a tight core of thick grooves, driving melodies and soulful harmonies; it's a style that is just as fresh and exciting today as it was then. After garnering fans across the world, embarking on numerous tours and releasing two very successful albums, the Spyz amicably split with lead vocalist Peter Fluid (who has since changed his name to Forrest) and drummer Anthony Johnson due to creative and musical differences. Although a blow like this probably would have ended the careers of most other bands, guitarist extraordinaire Jimi Hazel and bassist Rick Skatore forged on, releasing one EP and an album with their new line-up, until eventually calling it quits in 1993. Now, two years later, all four original Spyz are back together once again—bigger, badder and better than ever—with the appropriately titled Temporarily Disconnected (originally serviced earlier this year as an import to college alternative radio only). Spanning a vast and colorful spectrum of styles, Temporarily Disconnected explodes with full-on, aggressive, grinding power ("Dogs Come Out," "Outta Mind, Outta Time"), saunters through smooth, jazzy jams ("Why," "Choose Me") and even delves into the swirling world of psychedelia with the trippy "Stoner." Loud Rock crowds will also dig the fast-groovin' bass thwack of "Body Thief" and the gritty stomp of "Boots."

COLLISION Coarse

550, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Queens, New York-based power trio Collision just about dropped off the face of the earth after completing an extensive U.S. tour in support of its 1992 debut release...or so we thought. Guitarist/vocalist Nik Chinboukas, drummer Alex Kyriazis and bassist Gus Vituriera have persevered over the past two years, despite some tough times laden with personal hardship and despair, and have brought us their long-awaited sophomore effort, Coarse. Opting for the proverbial "When life gives you lemons, make lemonade" way of thinking, Collision concocted the perfect recipe for Coarse by squeezing every ounce of emotional turmoil out of its system and into its music, squashing and mashing all of its spiritual demons in a musical blender full of thick, chunky grooves, hard-hitting rhythms, funky grinds and passionate vocals. Beginning with the heavy, vibrating, rap-laden stomp of "The Wheel," Coarse rumbles through one aggressive rocker after another, making only one pit stop along the way to catch its breath with the mesmerizing melodies and beautiful harmonies of "Here Now." Check out the forceful punch of "No Pain," the hard-'n'-funky, guitar-driven wail of "Body Check," the defiant roar of "Get Up Or Get Hurt," the pounding, rhythmic grind of "Beyond What's Said" and the aggro blast of "No One."

CIRCLE JERKS Oddities, Abnormalities And Curiosities

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Raw, stripped-down chords, gritty rhythms, sweaty energy, aggressive attitude and simple, infectious melodies: the stuff real punk is made from. Godfathers of the original SoCal punk rock movement, the Circle Jerks know more about pounding out real, straight-forward punk rock than new parents know about scooping up baby shit. Remaining at the top of the punk rock heap since their inception well over a decade ago, the Circle Jerks have released a string of successful albums, inspired numerous ensuing punk rock bands and swooped up hordes of new fans with their wild and crazy live shows. Bursting with one pure punk rock gem after another, Oddities,

Abnormalities And Curiosities (the band's major-label debut) reunites original Jerks Greg Hetson (currently in Bad Religion), Keith Clark, Keith Morris and Zander Schloss (a member of the Sweet 'n' Low Orchestra, who also appears on Mike Watt's widely acclaimed Ball-Hog Or Tugboat? album and with Stone Temple Pilots' Scott Weiland on a cut from the Tank Girl soundtrack) and introduces (believe it or not) the princess of pop herself, Debbie Gibson, who steers clear away from her former squeaky clean, virginal image by contributing some completely unexpected, abrasive back-up vocals on the catchy, kinetic explosion of "I Wanna Destroy You" (a Soft Boys cover). Also check out the fervid scream of "Teenage Electric," the riotous clash of "Sinking Ship," the rugged grind of "Brick," the frenzied blast of "Fable" and rowdy sneer of "Exhaust Breath."

A Tribute To Black Sabbath: Eternal Masters

Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028

You can never have too many Black Sabbath tribute albums. Although A Tribute To Black Sabbath: Eternal Masters can't boast the same super-huge names as last year's massively successful Nativity In Black: A Tribute To Black Sabbath, it makes up for its lack of "star power" by hitting hard with a genuinely creative bunch of bands which pay homage to the almighty Black Sabbath with just as much passion and intensity as those on the earlier set. Known to cite Black Sabbath as its biggest influence, power-thrasher Sacred Reich performs a rousing rendition of "War Pigs," the tribute's opening tune and the same Sabbath song that the band had the foresight to record seven years ago for its Surf Nicaragua EP. Other tunes include Cadaver's intoxicating, growling death metal version of "Sweet Leaf," Cannibal Corpe's bloodied, crushing execution of "Zero The Hero," the Clay People's industrial, techno-grinding interpretation of "Paranoid," Exhorder's pummeling, thrash rendition of "Into The Void," and OLD's bizarre, sonically-induced, otherworldly version of "Who Are You." Don't let this great, one-of-a-kind album slip you by.

NEWS

Unfortunately, the much-anticipated Noizefest tour, featuring Testament, Pro-Pain, Overdose and Crowbar, has been canceled due to various problems. Crowbar and Pro-Pain are currently planning a tour (rumor has it that they may even hit the road together), while Overdose has chosen to remain in Brazil, where the band will continue recording songs for its next album. Apparently, nine songs have already been completed and the new release should hit the streets by the end of this year. At press time there was no word on Testament's future plans. Stay tuned for more details...Futurist Records is looking for a Loud Rock radio intern. Interested parties can contact Chainsaw at 212.226.7272...Riverside, CA-based Mind Over Four will release its new album, Empty Hands on Fierce Recordings sometime this fall. Recorded in Brea, CA, this is the first new album from Mind Over Four in nearly three years. Vocalist Spike Xavier recently completed a Hawaiian tour with his other band, the Humble Gods (featuring ex-members of Dag Nasty, Descendents and Doggy Style), opening for Bad Religion. Xavier can also be heard on Doug Carrion's solo project, Ultrahead (Shiro). Fierce Recordings will also release two albums by Yorkshire, England-based gothic/doom band My Dying Bride this year, starting with Trinity (a special collection of all three of the band's EPs). The band's third full-length album, The Angel And The Dark River, will be released in the fall. My Dying Bride will tour the U.S. for the first time ever this year and will also perform at this year's Dynamo Festival...Congratulations to Heidi from KUPS in Tacoma, WA, for winning Overdose's "Personal Decadence" contest. Heidi won a personally designed tattoo created by Overdose lead vocalist B.Z., which she now proudly displays on her left calf. Heidi received the tattoo from Marcii at 21st Century Studio Of Tattoo in Portland, OR...Into Another has released a three-song EP on Revelation Records. 100% of the profits from the sales of the EP (which includes the tracks "Poison Fingers," "To Be Free" and "Herbivore") will be donated to PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals)...Relapse/Nuclear Blast America news: Human Remains will release Using Sickness As A Hero this September. Originally scheduled for a much earlier release, the production of Using... was delayed because of a recent accident that left drummer Dave Witte with a broken foot. Sinister is gearing up for the release of its third full-length CD entitled Hate. Therion recently completed a video for the song "The Beauty In Black" from its latest CD, Lepacca Kliffoth. Amorphis will be entering the studio shortly to record the follow-up to last year's Tales From The Thousand Lakes. This will mark the first release with second vocalist Ville Tuomi as a full-fledged permanent member. Ex-Divine Eve band mates, Michael Sleavin and Matt Killen recently joined together to form the band Crimson Relic. Legendary Californian gothgrinder Mindrot have signed with Relapse. The band's first EP, Forlorn, will be out in late July, with the full-length Dawning following some time this fall. Benediction will be releasing The Dreams You Dream in August, marking the band's first release with new 17-year-old drummer Neil Hutton...Legendary hitmaker Giorgio Moroder has stripped down and rebuilt KMFDM's hit single, "Juke-Joint Jezebel," a remix that recently debuted at #41 on Billboard's club chart. "When the label asked me about remixes, I joked and said, 'Only if it's Giorgio Moroder,'" says KMFDM's Sascha Konietzko. "I never thought he'd actually do it, but when he accepted...well, wouldn't you want him to remix one of your songs just for kicks? I've done remixes for a lot of bands, including White Zombie, Front 242, Megadeth, Thrill Kill Kult, Living Colour and recently the Young Gods, and I like remixing because it's sonic architecture: rebuilding something out of the same parts into something new. Some of our fans may be really surprised by the Moroder remixes, but KMFDM will always shock and surprise." In the late '70s and early '80s, Moroder meshed pop, rock and disco to create a string of worldwide hits for Donna Summer, Miami Sound Machine, Blondie, David Bowie, Janet Jackson, Barbra Streisand and Irene Cara, as well as composing scores and/or songs for Midnight Express, Top Gun, American Gigolo, Scarface, Flashdance and Cat People. "I always said we were 'ultra-heavy beat' rather than an industrial band, so now when they call us 'dark disco' we can just laugh," says Konietzko. "You can't get any more disco than Giorgio Moroder."...Sister Machine Gun's third album, Bum (Wax Trax!/TVT), was produced by John Fryer (Love & Rockets, Nine Inch Nails, Stabbing Westward) and is due out in September. The band plans to tour with Die Warzau in late summer...Nicole Blackman's 7" of "Indictment"/"I Believe" is out now on the Cleveland singles label Carcrashh. Blackman is also on the spoken word Relationships From Hell compilation on Big Deal-Caroline, a live recording compilation from Eureka Joe's in NYC due out later this year and a Poem Fone compilation due this fall, which features Soul Coughing's Doughty and King Missile's John S. Hall. Her "Cassandra" track on Myths (out in November from Dove Audio) was produced by Bill Laswell and the album features Iggy Pop, George Clinton, Suzanne Vega, Motorhead's Lemmy Kilmeister, Bootsy Collins, Deee-Lite's Lady Kier and the Last Poets, among others...Unbelievably, Metal Blade Records did not receive ONE entry for its Fates Warning "Monument" video contest. Reaching the conclusion that maybe they made the contest "too hard for the viewers," Metal Blade is re-running the contest with easier guidelines. Any video programmers who are interested in participating should ask their viewers to send in their name, address, phone number and the name of the video show they saw it on. The prizes remain the same: 1) Fates Warning catalog on CD and cassette; 2) limited-edition Fates Warning picture disc of the No Exit album; 3) limited-edition Fates Warning Inside Out T-shirt; 4) Fates Warning "Monument" video; 5) signed Fates Warning poster; 6) $100 to the video show with the chosen entry. All entries should be sent to: Metal Blade Records, Attn: Monument Contest, 2345 Erringer Road #108, Simi Valley, CA 93065. Metal Blade is also currently running a Grip Inc. "Power Of Inner Strength" contest to promote the band's new video for "Ostracized." Again, to make things easier for the viewers, all they need to do is follow the same rules listed above with all entries being sent to the same address. The winner will receive a copy of Grip Inc.'s new CD, Power Of Inner Strength, along with a pair of signed drum sticks from ex-Slayer skin-basher and Grip Inc. founder Dave Lombardo. All entries for both contests must be post marked by August 31, 1995...New York City's Star 69 and Kate Gaffin Management recently announced that they will not back down on the battle for the trademark rights for the name "Star 69," which the band has performed under since January 1994. The band, set to release its self-titled debut album on A Buzzing Thing (distributed through Feedback Distribution), filed for the rights to the name over a year ago. Roddy Bottum of Faith No More had announced previously that his side project would carry the moniker, but then announced on a recent episode of MTV's Superrock that he was going to change the name due to copyright and trademark infringement. "Over the last year, I had several conversations with Faith No More's management regarding this conflict," said Kate Gaffin, Star 69's manager. "In the end, it all came down to who was the first to use the name and it was unmistakably the NYC-based Star 69."...Austin, TX's Sector 2 Records will release L.A. punk band Fear's next album this August. Sector 2 president Ron Goudie states, "I've been involved with Lee [Ving] and Fear for a little over 10 years now. He's a great songwriter, an incredible presence in the music world and he knows exactly what he wants. I cut a demo with him in '93 just before coming to Sector 2 and came to the realization that this guy's still got it! It's time to let the purveyors of the so-called 'punk resurgence' know exactly what time it is and I think Lee's one of the few that can truly make it happen". Sector 2 will also release the Beat Farmers' newest 15-track collection entitled Manifold this September...Earache Records recently announced the signing of Swedish underground legend At The Gates to a new worldwide recording contract. The band is currently in the studio with producer Fredrik Nordstrom working on its upcoming Earache debut, tentatively titled Slaughter Of The Soul, slated for a September release. Prior to signing with Earache, At The Gates released three albums on Peaceville/Music For Nations, including its the highly acclaimed Terminal Spirit Disease...Keep an eye out for new Cathedral and Napalm

Death albums on Earache, both slated for release this September...Sheer Terror's first single, "Not Waving, Drowning," from the band's upcoming Love Songs For The Unloved album on MCA, will be going for metal radio adds on July 11/12. The full album will not hit the streets until the first week of August...Product is now available for on-air promotions, airplay, review and in-store play for the Platinum Rock compilation. Distributed by K-tel International, the compilation features classic rock 'n' roll hits by bands including Electric Light Orchestra, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Bad Company and more. Any promotional requests should be directed to Bill Hallquist at 612.559.6826 (phone), 612.559.6803 (fax) or write to K-tel International (USA) Inc., 2605 Fernbrook Lane North, Minneapolis, MN 55447...Last, but certainly not least (or so I've heard), Type O Negative bassist/vocalist Peter Steele makes an appearance in the August issue of Playgirl's 1995 "Rock-Stravaganza," which features the "10 Sexiest Men In Rock And Roll." Not only did he make the coveted top 10 line-up, but he also graces the cover and centerfold of the magazine. In addition, an intimate Playgirl interview in which Pete reveals his own favorite sexual turn-ons and fantasies is also included along with an entire set of sizzling, completely nude photos. "I never thought of myself as attractive, and that this is a cruel joke, and I'm waiting for the punch line," states Steele. "At first I was nervous, but they treated me well, very professionally. They made me feel as comfortable as I could possibly be. It was an embarrassing honor." Type O Negative are currently on the second leg of their U.S. tour with Queensryche, supporting their latest album, Bloody Kisses, which has sold over 425,000 units to date.

VIDEO REVIEWS

ALANIS MORISSETTE

"You Oughta Know"

Maverick-Reprise

Director: Nick Egan

"You Oughta Know" is one hell of an introduction to 20-year-old Canadian singer/songwriter Alanis Morissette. Not only is the song irresistibly catchy and lyrically potent, but it features the likes of Flea and Dave Navarro on its heady musical track. The video itself features Morissette and co. performing in Death Valley, California, a fairly apropos place when you consider the vivid tongue lashing she is giving an ex-lover in the song itself. Smart, sexy and dangerous. Hmmm, smells like a hit. CH

CAKE LIKE

"Suck" Avant-Sony

Director: Yaron

The New York trio Cake Like writes songs that make a virtue out of its second-lesson instrumental skills. The video for "Suck"—sharp, professional, intricately witty, and as blunt as a kiss-off message lipsticked onto a mirror—turns the band's near-atastic bashing and screaming into impressive force. The group is seen playing and not playing, lip-synching and failing to lip-synch, surrounded by sudden gushes of water that hint at pornography and fear. Intercut are moody, disturbing images—oozing cloth, twitching legs—and things that are almost visual complements to the lyrics, but not quite. DOUGLAS WOLK

VIC CHESNUTT

"Onion Soup" Texas Hotel

Director: Katherine Dieckmann

It's rare that a singer/songwriter as revered, yet reclusive as Vic Chesnutt steps in front of a camera to make a music video. Although Chesnutt's confinement to a wheel chair defines his visual presence, his striking voice, sparse acoustic guitar playing and poignant wordscapes transcend any physical limitations. 2

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

This week's top dog is Columbia's Soul Asylum, which climbs three places into the #1 slot. The sure-to-be-gigantic teaming of MJJ-Epic's Michael & Janet Jackson debuts at #3, while Bad Boy-Arista's Notorious B.I.G. reaches his highest position yet with "One More Chance" (9-5). Interscope's Primus takes a big leap in its second week on the chart (32-8), as does Elektra-EEG's Rembrandts-rendered theme from the TV sitcom Friends (63-9). Paralleling his success on this week's Triple AAA chart, Reprise's Chris Isaak gains eight places to make his latest clip #13. Eptaph's Ten Foot Pole is this week's second highest debut at #23, followed by Relativity's Our Lady Peace at #31, Island's second To Bring You My Love clip from PJ Harvey at #54, Arista's Sleeper at #69 and Maverick-Reprise's Alanis Morissette at #72. NOTE: As of next week, VMJ will be reduced to one page. This redesign will include the Alternative/Rock 40 chart, as well as a short column and a list of reporting outlets contributing to the chart. Any questions concerning these changes should be directed to Colin Helms at 516.466.6000 ext. 28.

VIDEO REVIEWS

he faces. Consequently his latest and only video to date relies upon the rich imagery of heartland American to parallel the lonely, often tortured themes of his music. The clip's centerpiece is Chesnutt's living room performance with some friends, which ties his melancholy approach to the rest of the video's thoughtful simplicity. CH

PRICK

"Animal" Nothing-Interscope

Director: Erick Ifergen

While this video gives more than a nod or two to Nine Inch Nails' "Closer" clip (both visually and lyrically, if not musically), it nonetheless makes for an intriguing watch. The entire piece takes place within a high-walled animal cage, and seems as if most of the beasts from the local zoo find their way in at one point or another. The clip's focal point is Prick's singer Kevin McMahon, who sits perched atop a giant swinging bird-rest in the center of the cage like some disenfranchised parakeet. Via the miracle of editing, band members and a few assorted weirdoes make brief appearances amidst the host of birds, mammals, reptiles and insects populating the cage's floor. CH

SKEE-LO

"I Wish" Sunshine-Scotti Bros.

Director: Marty Thomas

How often do you hear a rapper complaining of not being about to get a date? Enter 20-year-old California-native Skee-Lo, whose self-deprecating style makes him one of the few in the annals of hip-hop to admit to his shortcomings with such humorous aplomb. This fun summer clip follows the unassuming rapper as he details his "wish-list," portraying his experiences on the basketball court, where he wishes he were a little taller, or times spent with his old yellow sedan, which he wishes were a little newer and hipper. CH

Violeta Alvarez, Justice Records, Houston, TX

713.520.6669 First, Leon Moody would like to take this time to thank those who have been supporting Justice Records, like: Doug at KTRU, congrats and good luck to you in the future; WUTZ in Tampa (Mike, you rock); KNDS in San Francisco (Scott, thanks for the extra push on Clover and Hellhole); Phillip at KCHU in Valdez, AK (next time, come visit Houston and check out what's brewing down here). I would like to thank some of the retailers who have really helped us out with Hellhole and Horace Pinker's Power Tools (you know who you are). Thanks for the push, guys!...Keep an eye out for some of the Hellhole bands out on the road this summer like Blueprint and Badger (touring together) and the Jinkies. One of the Pegboy kids has joined Horace Pinker, who will be on the road in the states this summer with Doc Hopper (afterward, they take off for Europe). Time of the Preacher, a tribute to Willie Nelson, is due in the early fall of '95, and tracks have been cut from the Supersuckers, Gas Huffer, Best Kissers in the World and the Reverend Horton Heat. Willie Nelson also has a new album coming out on July 4, called Just One Love. Hello to Danny Bland and the Supersuckers...I also want to say Hello to Cat at the Justice NYC office and Garden Variety...Call us if you need anything, like tour dates. Ty (radio): 713.520.6669; Violeta (sales): 800.533.5878. We would love to hear from ya!

Michelle, Cleopatra Records, Hollywood, CA

213.465.8357 Thanks to everyone who's been supporting Die Krupps. Full CDs are on their way to you now! Rings of Steel can be played in almost any format, including Loud Rock and alternative. The full release features mixes by members of KMFDM, NIN, Revolting Cocks, Biohazard, Carcass, Sisters Of Mercy and more! If you're playing KMFDM, Filter and/or White Zombie, you owe it to your listeners to check this out. See Die Krupps live, starting mid-July, with the Young Gods. Coming soon: A Soucerful of Pink, a Pink Floyd tribute.

Roze With Thorns, Mute Records, New York, NY

212.255.7670 ext. 223 roze@mute.com So I've come to the conclusion that you can calculate boys' ages similarly to dogs', but in the reverse (ie. you divide by seven instead of multiplying). So, Robbie, Eric, Scott and Anthony, that would make you about a total of 18 (that's if you round up). And although I'm sure you don't include women in your reindeer games (respecting us as I can tell you do), I'm letting you know that I can take you all down, together or separately. "The bigger they are, the harder they fall." I suppose that leaves you out Eric, but then, I'm talking egos here. So, Eric, when you're done taking Jello's laundry in, and you make it out here—watch your back. Robbie and Anthony, if you'd clean some of that crap out of your hair, maybe I'd consider knocking you out, but the idea of touching that (ick)—I guess I'll just stick to wits. Scott, having worked in this format since the dawn of time, one would think you'd be over these little antics...Well, I've wasted too much energy on silly egos—on to the mu(te)sic. Toenut are releasing their album finally, and there's a contest involved: Listen to the song "Mouthful Of Pennies" and tell me the lyrics. Whomever comes the closest or furthest away wins a trip to Atlanta for the weekend of their release party (and gets to see how tough I really am). Don't forget Rosa Mota and Thirty Ought Six (how could you?).

Tommy Verve, Virgin Crash Line, New York, NY

212.586.7700 Well, The Verve have a brand new album. Many of you are already at this point flipping out (minus a few exceptions...people, what are you thinkin?). A Northern Soul is everything The Verve needed to do on their second full-length release. You must absorb new sounds like "A New Decade," "History," "A Northern Soul" and "So it Goes." If anyone needs giveaways, call me pronto, and be prepared for the first two weeks of The Verve live, beginning in mid-July. Isaac Hayes, the granddaddy of Hot Buttered Soul, has returned with two new records that deserve more airtime than [insert band here]. Branded and Raw And Refined. Pay attention. New records from Whale, the Geraldine Fibbers, Ben Harper and Boy George are all lying in wait. Adds for the Pay for Me EP from Whale are June 26 and 27. The EP features four non-album tracks, including "Darling Nikki" from the artist formerly known as Prince. You can also begin playing the new live 10" from Royal Trux then, too. Live versions of "Granny Grunt" and "The Spectre" highlight this piece made especially for you by the Trux. If you do not receive one, and feel you are a TRUE Trux fan, call me and I'll send you one. The Fibbers and Mr. Harper will have their records ready for adds on July 17 and 18. Look for a special 7" on the Fibbers for "Dragon Lady." And after you swallow all this great music, realize that our tribute to Joy mute and cmj invite you to join toenut at their record release party, the weekend of July 28, in Atlanta, GA! all you have to do is:

- listen carefully to the song
- attempt to decipher what Katie is saying
- send your version (or close approximation) of her lyrics to mute @ 140 West 22 Street, #10a, by July 14
- in case there is no precise winner, mute/toenut and cmj will then choose the funniest set of lyrics to
- enjoy your flight to Atlanta

DIALOGUE

Division is right around the corner. I just heard it. It might be the coolest tribute record ever.

Kevin Forsythe & Kacey Baby, A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Company, Pittsburgh, PA 412.241.0704 Just a quick note, 'cause I'm on my way to see Braveheart for the seventh time. ("Go back and tell Time-Warner that SCOTLAND IS FREE!" Yeah, Mel!) A.T.S. will be releasing its new album September 1. It should arrive at your stations shortly before that date. Title: Axe of Free Will (And Other Victimless Crimes). This is our second album on Shimmy Disc. It's produced by Kramer, and it sounds bone-crushing fantastic (except for the sensitive, melodic love songs). It's got 20 songs (we're trying to discipline ourselves: our first release, Sepco, had 50), including the smash hit single "Chop Song," the title track, "Free Will" and "God," the band's redoubtable foray into matters metaphysical. (A.T.S. once stood for Agnostic Theology Students; critics still contend it means Assholes Trying to Sing.) Thanks for past airplay. Please play the new stuff in September. In the meantime, enjoy the summer!

Kerry Murphy, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA 213.937.4660 I haven't written in a while, because I've been hooked on Phonics and I'm feeling a bit more confident about my writing skills. The searing wit we've all been privy to in the last couple of weeks' Dialogues has made me pee-shy about Dialogue-ing. Everyone's so damn hilarious in their Dialogues, how could I ever compare? Mike from Steel Pole Bath Tub has asked me to make the band's e-mail address public. You can write to them at SPBT@aol.com. Be sure to ask about the spectacle in Louisville, KY. Michelle (marketing director) just noted Dale's (retail) boner. Nice package. We here at Slash are all about professionalism and grace. Thanks to whomever at Caroline sent me the Tanner CD. All you MDs should be begging lovely Errol for your very own copy. Steel Pole (not Steel Pulse...) have been doing really well, and I love each and every one of you who have been playing Scars from Falling Down. Really, I love you.

Rich!, Disco Bitch, Suburban Dance Music, West Creek, NJ 609.294.2527 All you fellow RPM bastards should have my first release by now: It's the Desire EP from My Psychotic Motor. If you don't have it, that means either I couldn't get a hold of you to get your address, or it got lost in the mail and will arrive the last week in November. If you did get it, then all the more power to ya. If you don't know anything about Suburban Dance Music, let me fill you in. We are a SMALL (and I mean SMALL) independent record label from New Jersey, focusing on hardcore torture-techno and dancey industrial crap. Right now, following the current agenda, we plan to put out a release every six weeks. The next one will be from the United States Information Agency, and will be called Freedom. Release date: August 1. A compilation is in the works, so submit demos now. Other projects you should hear from soon on the label include Cult .45 and Total Brutality. If you're not an RPM reporter, but have a show that might be interested in our stuff, don't hesitate to call. Or, if you spin at a club, we'll service you. Be careful, though—the beat can be intimidating. Produce it with caution.

Chris Elles and Jason Kriese, Elektra Entertainment Group, Washington, DC 703.502.8618 C: Say, yo, my main man J, you been playin dat phat nu elpee from my boyz Baby Chaos? J: Why yes, I been done playin' that thar record when I's milkin Bessie this marnin'... Fine piece o' work! C: Den I knowz you iz on top o' dat Kyuss ceedee my funky home boy... J: Well that right nice o' you t'be tellin be bout dem. [Keep an eye out for the latest edition of E<sup>2</sup> Zine clogging your mailbox now—e-mail/call us for extra issues or general information about the latest and greatest from EEG. Note: Accents are not representative of the two bozos who wrote this.]

Lisa Parker, Windswept Pacific Records, Beverly Hills, CA 310.550.1500 Oh, hi! Peter Scherer's (ex-Ambitious Lovers) first solo release, Very Neon Pet (Metro Blue/Capitol), featuring Nana Vasconcelos, Laurie Anderson, and Arto Lindsay, is out NOW! Play it, play it, play it! I hope y'all managed to catch Sky Cries Mary at the Edge Fest in Phoenix and Flipp at the Edge Fest in Minneapolis. If you missed Flipp at the fest, maybe you were lucky enough to see a clip of them on MTV's The Week in Rock. If you saw either the live show or the MTV clip, you will most certainly blush every time you see Brynn (lead singer of Flipp). Also, thanks for all the support at the most recent Flood shows. More dates to be announced soon. If you want a demo from Flood or Flipp, please contact John Anderson.

Jonathan Doberman & "Screemin" Gage Freeman, Eptaph, Hollyweird, CA 213.413.4621 Watch out. It's coming. Pennywise's new release About Time. ☐

DIALOGUE

DFL (Dead Fucking Last) Proud to Be. Pennywise, Joykiller and DFL are gonna trek across the states throughout July, and pound your eardrums senseless. If you ain't never been in a tornado, go to a Pennywise show and stand in front—you'll know what it's all about. Red Aunts are out terrorizing the country with their in-er-face tunes. Check their video, "Freak A Thon," on MTV's 120 Minutes, and in the boys' department at a Sears store near you (and you think I'm joking). Total Chaos are on tour throughout June; keep your children inside and hide your beer. SNFU are gearing up for their tour (July through September). Metal folks, keep your eyes peeled for their second single, "Eric's Had a Bad Day," in a couple of weeks. Gas Huffer just finished their second video, "More of Everything," and let me tell you, it is awesome. For those of you who are a little reluctant to play our music, be forewarned and mind your noggin: Gage and I are starting up the Gas Card and Bat Promo Tour (sponsored by Louisville Slugger and Rotten Robbie Gas Inc). Everyone needs a little persuasion now and then, eh? Just kiddin'. Hey, a belated thanks to the McGathy clan for their stupendous party. Needless to say, I bit the Big Apple...or should I say, the Apple bit me!

Larry Munroe, Cargo Records, San Diego, CA 619.483.9292 Robbie Handjobbie at Alias, I'm surprised you have your hands out of Anthony from WTUL's pants long enough to pick up CMJ and read the Dialogues. The word is out and I'm not one to say, but I hear you put an extra vertebrae in your back so you could not only touch and stroke your own dick, but suck it as well. I guess things are tough up there in LA. I can't understand how a Jon Spencer wanna-be and shit-talking promo fuck like yourself can think you're so above everybody else. Take a look at your band roster and realize that you're a retarded squirrel trying to find a nut. With all the time you waste playing with children's promo toys and j-ing it in your office (which I'm sure is full of clowns, balloons, and the smell of urine), spend some to wake up to reality. Hey Robbie, are you still sneaking home for lunch to take a bath with your rubber duckie and Johnson & Johnson's no-tear shampoo? Have you ever heard of soap and water, because your hair looks like an oil slick, and your fellow workers tell me your buttcrack stinks. Handjobbie, it looks like you better keep running, 'cause you're about to get lapped...You should be looking for the Morning Glories, Uncle Joe's Big Ol' Driver and a few split 7"s (Garden Variety/Chune and Lustre and Uncle Joe's). We've got Chune, Pile Up, fluf, Walkabouts and Blink on tour.

Jay Moskowitz, Fifth Column Records, Washington, DC 202.783.0044 That grinding sound you hear is the sound of my brain being ground into cream cheese. First off, I would like to thank our loyal fans: Krista at KDVS, Aaron at KSDT, Leif at WRUV, the Emperor at WRSU, Ashley at WMFO, Mike at WEVL, Mike at WUSM, Cameron at WVIC, CJSF, CFFF, Tommy at KUNM and, of course, Tish at WLFM. Out right now: Luc Van Acker's Taking Snapshots Vol. 1. This is one of the former Revco member's earliest works, dating back to 1985 or so, and gives you a glimpse of his talent at a younger age. Southern Cal's "cyber-punks," Insight 23, have just released their debut record with us, called Obsess. Look for them on tour later this summer. Strap yourself in for "the ride of a lifetime": To Live and Shave in L.A.'s Vedder, Vedder, Bedwetter is in stores now. Check it out if you think you can handle the noise, the screaming, and something completely new. Coming up from FCR this summer: the original score of the film Johnny Mnemonic, by NYC's Black Rain, as well as the long-awaited return of Deddau. This time, their line-up includes Paul Barker of Ministry and Richard Patrick of Nails and now Filter. Pray for us!

Valentina Andreetta, Sansei Records, Beverly Hills, CA 310.274.4050 So...what has been going on at Sansei Records lately? Definitely a lot of exciting things. On May 28, Spiders & Snakes played a show at the Coconut Teazer and let me tell you...those guys can really ROCK! When everyone turned to alternative, grunge or punk, they kept on playing their music, what they like and what they really are and the result is... a lot of fun! So, next time, don't miss their show unless you prefer to stay home and get bored. A big thank you goes also to all the radio stations that keep on playing or just added Oddities: The Glitter Years. We have now serviced to all the stations our other release, Serious, by the Italian artist Marino, but if by any reason you haven't seen it on your desk yet, you just have to give me a call and I will be more than happy to send you another copy because, well...that's what I am here for!!!!

John Perrone, TVT-Wax Trax! Records, New York, NY, 212.979.6410 It's Friday June 9 and here in NYC it's old school punk week. Tonight Social Distortion, Sunday, the Dickies, and next Sunday, Fear with the Meatmen. If you don't know any of these bands and played anything that is being called "punk" these days, you should be ashamed of yourself. This is going to be a great week! All I need now are Descendants and AOD reunions and I'll be a pig in shit. Anyway, lets get to the music: A bunch of new stuff coming from TVT-Wax Trax! in the coming months. Boston band Birdbrain, with their debut release, Bliss. Look out for it in a couple of weeks...Arriving at your station as you read this is Born Slippery, the new EP from Underworld, KMFDM remixes and Die Warzau remixes... Everyone should have the 7" from Fledgling by now. Please check it out. Their debut full-length will be coming out in August. They just finished off a tour with Xanax 25 and will be going back out on the road soon. If by some chance you have not seen the 7", please give me a buzz and I'll hook you up...On the TVT BBQ for the summer: Juster What I See What I Think, Spooky Reuben, Psykosonik Unlearn and EBN Telecommunication Breakdown...Thanks out to the Dynamic Duo, Jeff and Corey at McGathy, for a great night...Is it me, or is Talk Soup the best show on TV? Henson for President!

Robbie, Restitution Is Mine, Alias Records, Burbank, CA 818.566.1034 Mr. Carter, maybe you should keep your head where it belongs, like in the Crow's nest, if you know what I mean. But I forgot: She's over 13 and has pubes, so I imagine that keeps her out of your porn video collection. As for the bridge troll, Errol Kolosine: Do they still allow you to wrestle gators and toss midgets in the Big Apple? Maybe that green card will allow you to continue picking oranges out of your ass and provide food for your Swamp Thing wife-sister? Finally, to Heather Dumbfuck, does anyone care about you or your insipid little world at Upstart? Maybe you should stick to cleaning houses and leave radio promotion to the men. None of you smarmy fucks will know how far back Eric and I actually go. While I might find the occasional thorn in my Rose garden, I could never leave that sweet morning scent behind. I'm so upset with you people, I don't even have the energy to write about my bands.

Heather Dunnuck, Radio Promotions Goblin, Upstart Records, W. Somerville, MA, 713.359.2044

Hello, boys and girls! First off, I'd like to thank Errol from Caroline for saying what we've all been thinking about the testosterone-fest that's been going on in the Dialogue pages lately. You are my guru and those of us who are sick of this I'm-cooler-than-you barbarism appreciate your input. I am now done ranting about the "Macho Man" for the day...Big smooches to everyone who is supporting Los Straitjackets, Dennis Brennan and Tav Falco's Panther Burns! Keep playing them and you will be loved by all! More great Upstart music is coming your way. The Reeves Gabrels/David Tronzo CD, Night In Amnesia, should be gracing your presence by now. Slap that puppy into rotation quick—you will not be sorry. Attention Nick Lowe fans!! We will be releasing a five-song EP by the "Jesus of Cool" himself on July 5 entitled Live! On the Bottlefield. This rockin' EP was recorded during his hugely successful Impossible Bird tour. Also, Nick will be headlining the kick-off show for the WBOS Music Festival for the Earth on July 6. This lovely shindig is free (one of my favorite four-letter words), so all of you who will be in or near Boston on that date should go! It's a great cause and a great artist will be performing, so don't miss it. Feel free to call if you have questions, comments, or pearls of wisdom to bestow upon me! Bye!

Stephanie, Lisa and Scott, Vision Trust Promotions, San Francisco, CA 415.752.2564 The documentary not to miss is Crumb. Can we say dysfunctional? Heard the soundtrack was cool, too. Bjork, in a word, amazing! You should have on your desk the Clouds new three-song EP with two new tracks, check it out. Hung out w/ Baby Chaos and guess who one of their favorite bands is? It's Clutch!! You got to give it up to those Scottish guys, they do it loud. Check local papers for Skiploader live dates or give us a call. Best indie band: Boys Life. Need spiritual uplift? Listen to Diamond Fist Werny. Summertime in a word, Moonpools and Caterpillars. Look for new music soon from the labels Tooth & Nail, IFA and Oblivion. Lisa's favorite band from her MD days: Kyuss, and now she's working it...cool huh?! Kyuss add date is July 10.

Lori O'Brien, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3917 I think it's about high time Tricky replaced Dr. Alex Paterson as the Hash Bash poster child...Hope you caught both the Orb tour and the mesmerizing PJ Harvey/Tricky tour as they passed through your town. If you missed PJ, you have a second chance when she hits the road this August with Live and Veruca Salt. Speaking of Island double-bills, the dynamic Dallas darlings Tripping Daisy are on the road with bottom-feeding neighbors Hagfish. (Ladies, play Hagfish's "Stamp (Eat It While I Work)" for instant male cringe reaction!). Other cool stuff heading your way includes an Axiom funk release, new stuff from Buju Banton, Gavin Friday and the Tindersticks. Paul Weller will tour to support Stanley Road this September and those Quicksand boys will be taking you to summer camp. Pack extra underwear.

Hal/Chad, Alternafunkmetal Devotee/Boring Retail Promotions, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL 312.463.8316 It's a rare Monday that I don't arrive at work full of anger, still groggy and ready to take it out on the nearest former porn star. Even though I had to hear about how stupid I was to miss the Ghost/Magic Hour/ Borbetomagus show Friday, I just can't muster enough hate to take on Eric and Robbie. I can even say that I hope that the length of their tag-team blumpy-fest breaks all previous records. Maybe my blasé attitude stems from the news that Howard isn't our retail promotions guy anymore. He's just turned 18 and he wants to have his sordid past in promotions washed away like...tears in the rain. Or Traci Lords. So all retailers must return all unsold videos of Howard Greynolds cavorting nude in compromising promotional positions. Effective immediately, Chad Nelson, who is tall, is our new promotions guy. He's alright. Give him a call and assure him you had no idea that Howard was only 15 when he started his line of work. Or chat about June of '44 or Seam. Now, all y'all who really like to rock the funky beats, let me hear you say "hell, yeah." Give it up for Girls Against Boys touring on the West Coast. Sixteen Deluxe and Ed Hall east of the Mississippi River. The Jesus Lizard on Lollapalooza. Swans playing in thunderstorms. And Invisible's Route 666 tour to hell.

Andy Leitner, Promotions, Doghouse Records, Toledo, OH 419.536.9112 Split Lip out June 30. They finally got their act together and made the record to put all other Doghouse releases to shame (sorry Metroschifter!). Radio won't get it for a few more weeks, because Doghouse Label Boss Dirk deems it necessary to be out on tour with the band. The tour will start July 13 at Stache's in Columbus, head south to Florida, and back up the East Coast as far as Vermont. Samuel (of Art Monk Construction Records) and Doghouse upstarts Colossus of the Fall will be supporting acts. Colossus is finishing its new full-length with Bob Weston in Chicago, where the Metroschifter just recorded their latest, Fort St. Metroschifter. The new Threadbare should be getting to all those stations which have been faithful to Doghouse over the last year. This is the toughest record of the year. Frighteningly intense. If you were unlucky enough not to get this slab of rock, CALL US! Transcend's new Version 8.5 is coming out too, split release with Stormstrike records from Germany. Tough like Threadbare, but a bit more bleak and cynical.

Craig Williams, Long Play Records, Atlanta, GA 404.681.4915 Big Fish Ensemble. There, I've said it. You know, they're a really interesting band, Big Fish Ensemble. Chock full of wry observations and clever witticisms, their new (and third) album Lucky is part of what makes America great. Bob Dole would love this band...uh oh, wait a minute. This could be a bad move. There's an anti-Bob Dole song on the album? Uh, do they realize what a powerful man Bob Dole is? I mean, what's he going to say when he finds out Big Fish Ensemble is mocking him? Best not to think about it; maybe you should just listen to "Robert" for yourself. But you know, there are other cool songs—try "Disappear," or the Indigo Girls-assisted "City of Sin." It sounds like that in the process of doing 200-plus shows over the last year, they really got to know each other well. If you like innovative music, Atlanta's Big Fish Ensemble can dole it out (sorry) like nobody's business. And they're coming to your town soon! If you happen to live in the Seattle area, you'll also have the chance to see the staged version of Jesus Christ Superstar: A Resurrection, featuring Big Fish Ensemble, Smoke, Indigo Girls, and many other fine Atlanta and Athens musicians. If you don't live in Seattle, ask your favorite major label rep if they'll fly you out for it. Contact us by phone (# above), e-mail: LongPlay22@aol.com or our new web site: <http://monsterbit.com>.

H. Schwartz Perot, Ministry of Propaganda, Capricorn Records, New York, 800.865.4939 Who needs an alarm clock when AT&T calls every morning at 9 a.m. asking if I want to switch carriers. If I can charge dinner on their calling card, I'm in. So I've been developing the AT&T technique for my college calls. I call you guys selling a product, and you want to hang up without a commitment, until I bait you with a dangling piece of meat. This works like a charm until I run out of meat. Guess what? The fridge is now full. The conversation continues, and you appear interested when I say new 311, Cake live EP and Hayride. Full of beautiful insight about the status of new music, I encourage all to listen. Summertime fun, loosen up, national tours, plenty of interviews, we will help to support your Rock N' Roll Lifestyle. So are you willing to switch? Click...

Gary Jay, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ, 908.679.9111 A.I.M.=Airplay, Information, Maintenance, T.A.M.=These Animal Men, F.Y.I.=For Your Information... Come on, college radio, join the High Society! Yummy, yummy, yummy, I've got Urchins in my tummy, on my turntable, in the tape deck of my car...Shamelessly pop, irresistibly hook-laden, from "Grudge," "Tongue" and "The Enabler" to the punk-rock Partridge Family cover, "I Woke Up In Love," all make the Urchins' Yummy your summertime guilty pleasure. Does your summer playlist have that not-so-fresh feeling? Try a little Piss & Vinegar, American Standard's new CD on Another Planet rocks like a mofo. "Think Punk," think integrity, think American Standard. Mad Love: Madder Rose, Kirsty MacColl, 7 Year Bitch, Drew Barrymore, one tremendous CD, one atrocious movie. Hey, you can't have everything (where would you put it?). Everyone who played "Dizzy" from the Basketball Diaries soundtrack, rejoice!! Green Apple Quickstep's new CD, Reloaded, is now in your sweaty palms. Turn your listeners on, this record bleeds cool and rocks like my granny after one too many espressos. Breaking stereotypes, expanding listener's horizons, down with the king: WTUL, KGLT, KIDE, WBKE, WMCO, WLHD, KUGS, thanks for supporting Isaac Hayes! Show some soul, give Branded the props it deserves. Almost as cool as Kelso (almost):

Fledgling ("Red Messiah" 7"), Brutal Juice, Ibiza After Hours (Moonshine compilation), Space Needle, Scratch. Call me, Tracey and Andre for interviews, freebies, and tips on personal hygiene—we've got that down to a science.

Juli Butterfield, Promotions, K Records, Olympia, WA 360.786.1594 Recently, lucky Northwesterners were treated to a backstage show by the world-renowned Halo Benders and Built To Spill. The Halo Benders raged through some new songs from their upcoming LP, due in September on K. James and Dave, Washington's favorite emo sons from Lync, are the rhythm section for Built To Spill these days, in case you hadn't heard. (Sam from Lync is recording solo stuff under the moniker Love As Laughter). Our newest full-length style record is by Eugene, Oregon's finest, the Crabs. It is a co-release with the Know-Yr-Own label. Jonn of the Crabs is related to one of the coolest cats on the K roster...do you know who it is? There will be at least two U.S. tours this summer—Dub Narcotic Sound System and the Softies. I hear the Waydowns are going out, too. Check our new web site for tour dates: <http://www.wln.com/~kpunk>. Email me at Kpromo@aol.com or send general mail to Kempire@aol.com. If you're not hooked up with the Internet, call me and I'll give you the details. Dub Narcotic Sound System: The "Industrial Breakdown" 12"/CD is out, and the Rhythm Record LP will be out in July. Finally, there are full-lengths due in the fall from Halo Benders, the Softies and Fitz of Depression. Hopefully, Karp too. Look for summer 7"s from Belmondo, Wandering Lucky, the Make-Up and Alan Lark.

DJ MRK (Stephen Ruiz), RPM Director, KPNI, Dallas, TX 214.768.5981 What's up you media-eating cyborgs? I got some pure stuff this week you must know about. First, sweet Angie at Logic Records sent me out some great vinyl. Logic Trance 2 hit real hard with some old stuff, as well as new. The Blunt Funkers God's an Astronaut EP could keep a house party jumpin' dawn with a funky 4/4 and a mean bassline, not to mention that trippy sample. Detrich sent (to the wrong address) a really nice double CD set called Earth Rise Ntone 1. It's a real laid back dub, space, trip, ambient thing. Real nice for those 6 a.m. orange juice parties. And Hard Sync Recording has a real hard EP out called Synelanguage. It's a techno/ambient piece that really has incredible range. If you listen to this record with headphones on two or three times you'll hear all kinds of crazy things going on. It's a must-have. (Call Hard Sync at 214.807.6941). Another must-have is Respect by Hardfloor on Eye Q Records. All I can say is listen, this is the stuff. I need to do my shouts before I jet: Angie at Logic, Pawn, Blend, Miles, #9, Pierre, Gabe and Scott at Eye Q and Heidi (you're the best).

Mark Jaffa, World Music Director and College Graduate, WSIA, Staten Island, NY 718.982.3057 Hello, again! It is me Jaffa. Even though I have graduated from the College of Staten Island I am still doing my radio responsibilities for the summer. The "One World" show is now on Sundays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on 88.9 FM...Anyone who was interested in Front Row Radio can now talk to Billy Powell at 718.982.3051...Some global stuff the kids are diggin': Boukman Esperyans, Crossing Cultures, Papa Wemba and David Grier. Label and promo people are always welcome to call me. Keep in mind I will always play your records if you send me gifts!...Much thanks to Pete and Maura Kennedy and Crowsdell for coming down and playing with us...I'll see y'all at CMJ if I don't see you at Africa Fete...peace to all of you, Aibobo, dare 2 love, Jaffa.

Jered A. Slusser, Music Director, WITC, Cazenovia, NY 315.655.8536 So finally, here I am, sitting down writing my first Dialogue after one hell of a spring semester! For those of you who care, WITC is a 130-watt powerhouse of a station with a listening audience of approximately 2,500, give or take a few. I just took over as the MD of the station in late April, and I just have to say, I love this job!! Along with the program director, Sean Paiement, I am trying like hell to make this the best station around our area of cowfields and chicken coops. Really, I'm not trying to sound like a Grammy winner, but there are some people I need to thank for helping me out. Pete, Ben and Mike at Elektra, Carolyn at Atlantic (I didn't do it!), Rob at WB, Andre at AIM, Yigal and X-Man at Interscope, Jay and Jen at PGD, Kerri at Relativity and anyone else I ask stupid questions to. Due to the fact that, except for a few weekends, we are off the air for the summer, my office hours are on a "whenever there's time" basis, but if you want to dive into the endless pit of voice mail, call 315.655.9446 ext. 136, and I'll get back to you ASAP! Well, Catherine Wheel's new CD just arrived, so it's time to make some cows go deaf! Until whenever...C-YA!

Mat Fowler, Music Department, WUMD, Baltimore, MD 410.455.3192 Mars Bars go out to WBRU-AM in Providence for getting the gumption to go FM next fall. If only we were as well-endowed, which brings me to endowment: We are still working on that compilation to benefit all those lawyer fees to get us an FM frequency. If we dig into our collective pockets the correct way this coming month, Craw will record with our little selves while you read this. As I am the professional name-dropper, I will spare you the bands we are in "negotiations with," but if you see a couple of bands with skin grafts on their bottoms, or a certain godlike bathroom-utility-named SanFran band hopping and skipping in Baltimore, don't blame me: I'm just doing my job. I'd like to thank Cargo for acknowledging our keen fashion sense by servicing our station. They are true heroes. Join the WUMD army. Anyone ever see Blue Collar? Goddamn, it's the best movie out there. Shit. And what the hell is CMJ's problem, anyway? Soul Asylum on the cover?! David Pirner Mellencamp has WAY too big an ego already. Reprinted my words "boldface obscenities" as "boldface obscurities," and then didn't even boldface anything? Wow, all this for $295 a year, what a deal. We STILL don't have our new directory.

[The 1996 Directory, as with last year's, will be mailed to CMJ subscribers in September — ed.] □

LOUD ROCK DIALOGUE

REC CO
Smitty, Epic Rock Radio Promotions, New York, NY 212.833.5988 OK, let's get right to it...Fight has been consistently getting top three requests at metal radio. Your listeners want to hear Fight! "I Am Alive" should have been added to your playlist this week (6/20 and 6/21) and should be kicking in right about now. Anyone who has seen this band live knows they kick some serious butt. The tour continues and so should the plays! Speaking of adds, Silverchair's LP, Frogstomp, is going for adds next week (6/26 and 6/27). This band is getting a great response from those with enough balls to play it (just ask Andy G. at WGLS or Jason at WWGC or Morden at WSGR). Check out the first track, "Israel's Son," or if you want something really aggressive, try "Madman." C'mon! Give 'em a shot! Epic NEVER lies about breaking bands (Korn, Rage, Pearl Jam) and this band will be HUGE! Korn is HUGE (selling over 3,500 pieces a week!) They continue on tour throughout the summer and "Shoots And Ladders" with a B-side will be available soon in July. C-ya!

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY 212.833.4989 The facts, just the facts. Foetus tour starts July 6 with Unsane and Halcion in support! Get inside Jim Thirlwell's mind this summer. Season To Risk is tearin' it up with C.O.C. and the Magnet. Track one, "Jack Frost," is picking up momentum. B-side action from C.O.C. is taking hold everywhere. Dokken tourin' all summer. Call me for access. In the studio: Alice and Carcass. More soon.

Jay Huguen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA 213.856.7139 Here's the plan... "Orb" adds this Monday the 19th: Signal the second wave of Monster Magnet. This wave begins exclusively at metal radio! Dig in and let's prove our developmental strength as an aggressive format! Plug in your promotion of the Monster Magnet/Corrosion tour dates and you've got a course of action, so do the right thing. If you do, a tour box from EJ and I will come your way. It'll include everything you need to blow up the tour when it hits your city. Senser continue to impress those who crave a dose of the aggro. "Stacked Up" boasts "Age Of Panic" and "No Comply" for your spiral-eyed pleasure. Now playing: Razzamanazz, Demanufacture, Wings in 5. I can be reached at KLAATU13@AOL.COM.

Joe Guzik, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 This is my first official week at Earache and I love it. Misery Loves Co. is doing great everywhere. We should have a tour for Misery Loves Co. soon, so stay tuned. Please add the new single, "Need Another One," if you haven't done so. We sent it out in CD-5 with an unreleased track called "Honour Code Loyalty" and three remixes of "Kiss Your Boots" by Pitch Shifter, Killing Joke and one by the band in the style of Black Sabbath called "Kiss My Black Sabbath-y Ass." Check out this EP, it's cool. It's only available to radio, so call for giveaways. Extreme Noise Terror is on tour with Grief and some shows will be with Anal Cunt. Bolt Thrower also still doing well at CMJ. Thanks for playin' Earache. Give me a buzz or e-mail me at EaracheRec@aol.com. See ya.

Phil Kong/Steve Krucher, McGathy Promotions, New York, NY 800.448.7625 Hi! Some of you might know by now, but if you don't, I (Phil) have been promoted! This Dialogue is to say goodbye to everyone I have been speaking with over the past two years, especially Ryan, Erin, Dave, Reefer, G-Man, Roger, Szczyk, Dawn, Becky, Karl, Matt, Teri, Carla and everyone else that has been a big help to me. Also, I would like to thank the industry types that have been very supportive of me, including Cheryl, Lauren, Smitty, Zach and Clarissa. Thank you all very much. Not to mention a huge thanks to everyone in the McGathy family. I'll try not to let you down! In my place, we have hired a great guy by the name of Steve Krucher. Treat him well. So long! Yo, what's shakin'!? My name is Steve Krucher and I am the new McGathy metal maniac you all must deal with now. Through intense training, conditioning and massive amounts of alcohol, my mentor "Smitty" has created a metal monster. I am now ready and willing to take on the responsibilities that McGathy has thrown upon me. If I haven't spoken to you yet, I will. If I haven't met you yet, I will. If I met you at the McGathy bash, I probably don't remember (open bar!). Anyway, let me start workin'. You wanna Fight?! I thought so. "I Am Alive," add it June 19. Everyone start spreadin' that Ugly Mustard real thick and please don't forget about my boys Overkill; Wrecking Your Neck - Live full add on 6/13. Kyuss is back with "One Inch Man," going for adds on 6/19. I hope everyone is willing to make a Sacrifice on June 26!! Feel free to give me a buzz. 1.800.448.7625.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 Thank you to all the Malevolent Creation supporters. We hit the most added category as well as already hitting the charts. If you are one of the few that still doesn't realize the potential of this band, as well as their huge following, I don't care, just play the disc. Tour dates are in the works for their headlining tour starting with MetalFest. Well, Crowbar made a huge jump this week and all the fans are all over their new disc, Time Heals Nothing. We will be doing interviews with the band for the next few weeks, so if you are interested, give me a call. Crawl is doing a few weeks of touring this summer with Thought Industry. Dates start the middle of July down South. You know this is an amazingly brutal disc, give your listeners a sample. Call if you need anything.

Steve Woitasek, CherryDisc Records, Boston, MA 617.262.5547 Hello from Boston and CherryDisc where lots is going on. First off, Tree is on tour with the X-Cops and Brutal Juice. I got the chance to check the show out in Boston last night at Mama Kin, which is the new club here in town owned by Aerosmith. It was amazing to watch 400 people totally losing their shit over this great bill. Don't miss out when they come by you. Also on the table from CherryDisc is the debut EP from Tracy Bonham called The Liverpool Sessions. Be sure to check out "I'm Not A Waif" and "Dandelion." Don't forget to be on the lookout for Otis.

Russ Miller, Rockworld Records, New York, NY 212.996.2727 Have you listened to Bad Seed's "Numb" (track #7) yet? Have you felt the pulsing waves of energy engulf your mind and carry you off? Wow, this is some good shit! This track has a serious groove and is the one to take these guys to the next level and into some serious rotation. We're going for adds on it now, so be there! On the tour front, get ready because Bad Seed will be rolling into a joint near you. Their tour kicks off on June 21 with a gig at Coney Island High, NYC and continues through August. Call me for all dates and guest list info.

Paula Kopka, Noise Records, Los Angeles, CA 800.NOISE.22 Get ready everyone, the band that I keep shoving down all your throats along with many of my "infamous stories" is coming to you any day now! And who is that band, dare you ask? Shihad! I definitely feel that it won't take much convincing from me on this band. Just trust your ears on this one. Shihad has been an underground phenomena overseas and now their time has come in America. Let them rip your head off...slowly. The add date for Shihad is June 27. Call me if you need anything or if you want to talk my ear off for a change!

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 ext. 214 Fear Factory's tour with Korn, Flotsam & Jetsam and Megadeth will start July 12 in Providence, RI, but first, Fear Factory will be playing in MA, NJ and DC. If you're in the area, call me and you shall go.

"Replica," "Self Bias Resistor" and other favorable tracks are being spun over and over again. Spins this past week: WSOU-32, KNDI-26, KEYJ-15, WGCC-20 and WKLL-12 (he only has one show/week) and the rest of the hard rock panel. Demanufacture is also top five phones everywhere. Dino and Burt from FF are doing phoners forever. Thanx to those who did them last week. They will also be doing soundcheck interviews as well. I'm just hooking it up everywhere! Death's tour starts this week and I want to thank WSOU, WBAU, KSCR, KSMC, WBGU, WSGR, KUNM and WERS for helping me out on my Death promotion. If anyone wants soundcheck interviews, call me. Suffocation will be heading out soon, so please keep spinning the first three tracks off Pierced From Within. In a few weeks I will be sending you one of RR's new signings, Shank. Their debut release, The Big Payback, will be going for adds mid-July.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, New York, NY 800.666.6382 ext. 1700 Great news! I quit smoking cigarettes (not the good stuff, don't worry!). It has been over two weeks without a butt and I made it—yipee! My teeth might fall out from all the candy and lollipops, but at least I'll be able to breathe, right? Anyway, hope you guys are having a killer summer. Working: Zombie (on tour with Babes In Toyland and Kyuss), Filter (on tour), Gwen Mars (on tour), P.O.L., Babes, Lunachicks, World Bang, Ugly Kid Joe (get your contest entries to McEvoy, ASAP!), Overkill, Doppler Effect, Black Sabbath and Motorhead (on tour together). Who says metal is dead?!?! Last Dialogue I had asked if anyone was going to Milwaukee MetalFest. Well, I decided not to go. So, the question of the week is, "Who will be in Chicago on June 30-July 4?" Who will be at the Vic Theater on June 30 to see Monster Magnet and C.O.C. besides me? Yup, I am flying out just to see that show (I might also get some ink from Guilty and Innocent!). If you are going to be in the area, let me know! E-mail me at lilaur@aol.com.

RADIO
Joey Severance, WELH, Providence, RI 401.274.7378 Howdy folks. Joey Severance here from WELH in lovely Providence, RI, with good news for most and bad news for some. We here at the station have changed our format from alternative to hard rock/commercial alternative/metal! (Those of you with quote-unquote hair bands, take notice, because for the most part we are the only station in this area playing your bands!) Anyway, with this change I will be reporting to Loud Rock with my "specialty show" Top 15 only and all other hard rock charted will be found in the Top 35. This might upset some people, but since the change my "specialty" hours have been cut. On the upside, most of your bands will now receive more air-time. Thank you to Jenni for giving me the chance to keep you informed. I can be reached at the station (401.274.7378) or at home (401.831.2814). Feel free to call anytime! P.S. If you get the machine at home, leave an 800 number, I'm poor!

The Tink, WVUD, Wilmington, DE 302.798.0144 Why, hello there! First and foremost, they say it's hard to keep a good man down or confined to a rolling chair after he has undergone flight lessons from a car. All the best goes out to Brian McEvoy for a speedy return. I have already been contacted via landline therefore I'm aware that the ball bounces hard out of the Mercury side of the net. The McGathy update: WOOOOOOWEEEEEE! Bat bites. It was absolutely fabulous. The ever-so Molten Metal Brunch, Casper and Blinky, the Tea Party and Fez, CBGB and all who played and watched (I'll have just three more longnecks and that's it, I gotta get home), hard rock and Brother (if you arrive late there is no more food), The Yankees and A/C bus rides into the Bronx, the very first King Crimson matinee and last but not even least, Le Bat Bites. Thanks to all and a big hello to all the newfound radio friendlies. Whoa, my typewriter's runnin' outta ink...

BIG SUGAR

driving blues

It's really something you have to see to fully appreciate: a drummer who sits behind a tiny, toy-like drum kit, playing as though he literally lives for his two hours out of the cage each night; a zoot-suited saxophone player who looks like a renegade from a ska band, not a plaid, happy one, but a real, mean rude boy skanker; and the enormous dreadlocked bass player, thumping a solid bottom end. And then there's guitarist/singer Gordy Johnson, smartly dressed in a wicked blue suit that's so dapper he could be auditioning for Urge Overkill. He's the kind of guy who probably puts a shirt back on the rack in a store if it doesn't have French cuffs.

Together they're Big Sugar, and they've just released 500 Pounds (Silvertone), a blues-fueled, unrepentant rock album that's some of the most awesome driving-music of the year. "The album kind of starts off like a car—grrr, chrrr,"—here Gordy makes the universal symbol for turning an ignition key, imitating a starter turning over. And it's true—the opening guitar line of "Ride Like Hell" does sound rather like a big car cranking up.

After Big Sugar's first album, Gordy Johnson stripped the band down to just himself and a drummer, overdubbing all the bass, guitars and vocals himself. Even he admits it was a bold move, a cathartic, do-or-die approach that gives the album its intensity. "That's not a live off-the-floor album. It sounds like it, but it's not. I had been leading a band and doing these tunes for a long time, and telling bass players what to do, I already knew what I had to do. Actually, I did the bass, and then went back a month later to do the guitars. When I went to do the guitars, I just played really instinctively, and said, 'we're going to go, first take.'" Because of the time interval between the sessions, Gordy had forgotten what he'd played, which made the guitar parts sound that much fresher and spontaneous, like he was jamming with himself. "It doesn't matter to me whether it's live or not, I mean, how does it sound?" he asks. "Leaving the mistakes in is a big part of that, too."

The lyrics to many of Big Sugar's songs reveal Johnson's other passion: cars, especially '60s and '70s muscle cars, preferably souped-up ones. Given Big Sugar's raging power-trio format, it's no surprise that Johnson cites as favorites some of the great driving music of the '70s, such as Grand Funk Railroad, Humble Pie, the Faces and Z.Z. Top. And like Cream, Zeppelin, Hendrix, or the Rolling Stones circa '72, he's taking bits and pieces of blues, funk, reggae and soul, and writing new songs that aren't really blues or soul at all, but share the same spirit and aura. "I'm not going to try and sound like Stevie Wonder or Ray Charles or whatever. I mean I love Curtis Mayfield, but when I play electric guitar, I don't play like Curtis. It's going to sound like Big Sugar."

"All my guitar buddies are trying to crack that same nut, like 'how do you sound like B.B. King?' Well, now, hold on. What do those guys listen to? I mean, [Howlin' Wolf's guitarist] Hubert Sumlin didn't practice along with Buddy Guy records...[they listened to] Old Blind Lemon Jefferson records, or half-remembered funky old guitar players they heard somewhere, songs they heard as a kid, T-Bone Walker, stuff like that. I mean, I was into Charlie Patton, Son House, Blind Willie McTell, but I never tried to sit down and copy that. Okay, well now I'll do that stuff on electric guitar," Gordy says rhetorically. "I couldn't play acoustic like Son House, I'll play it on a Les Paul through a Marshall. That seems like a pretty tried and true recipe, doesn't it?"

The conversation turns to another of Gordy's passions: gear and musical equipment. Far from being some geeky adolescent obsessed with technical specifications, his love for guitars, amps, tape machines and mixing boards is the same big-kid, hands-on enthusiasm as one might find in a car or motorcycle enthusiast. Gordy is constantly modifying and altering his equipment, trying out different parts and configurations, like a kid fooling around under the hood. A similar aesthetic finds its way into his lyrics, which are often built out of other older songs and blues themes. "I have friends who are record collectors. I have a friend who started collecting when he was a kid, and as he gets stuff on CD, he gives me the old records, or makes me tapes." One such song on the album is "Wild Ox Moan," which features drenching feedback and a haunting falsetto vocal line. Where did he dig that up? "You would probably know better than I would," he says. "The Library Of Congress," he shrugs. "I mean, it's just on a mix tape somewhere somebody made me that's just some old woman in a nursing home, singing into a tape recorder. And it's such a beautiful song, man."

That lonesome feeling of traveling, of driving by yourself, your elbow out the open window, is at the heart of Big Sugar's music, beginning with "Ride Like Hell"'s opening line: "Sometimes I wonder/Will I ever get back home?" It's a quintessential blues truth—cars are just another symbol, just like the trains and boats of old Delta blues songs blaring on Gordy's mix tapes. "I grew up in Western Canada, where it's 12 hours between cities, seven, eight hours' drive to the next city, or to a city," he recalls in low voice. "So if I wanted to buy bass strings, it was like eight hours to Edmonton. I learned to drive real young. I get on the highway, and I get so into it. I'm definitely into that. Music that plays in the car, is like, for me, it's everything." JAMES LIEN

College Day is an intensive, day-long symposium designed to encourage dialogue about the trials and tribulations of running a successful college radio station. Panelists from radio stations and record companies across the country will take part in candid group discussions tackling a wide variety of hot topics. This year we've done away with worn and familiar programming arguments and staff training issues to approach some of today's newer and more pertinent issues. Topics to be addressed this year include: the role of college radio in breaking records and the ever-changing cause and effect relationship that commercial, alternative and college radio have on one-another; the benefits of technology and the advantages of being on-line; and a case study of how a radio station functions within its community. There will also be a keynote speech and several intimate, acoustic performances. It's going to be more informative and fun than ever. See you there.
