THE STROKES

Is This It (RCA)

It's only their debut full-length, but the Strokes have already been hailed, ad nauseam, as the second coming of rock 'n' roll. While this really should be one of the first reviews you're reading on the New York band of hipsters, the hype surrounding the group is so thick that it's more likely the 50th. But with a title like Is This It, it's clear the Strokes themselves don't take any of the attention too seriously. That said, frontman Julian Casablancas has, indeed, plagiarized a trick or two from Velvet Underground's sexy, drugged-up songbook, but not mawkishly so. And, for all its unveiled media whoring, the band's sound is decidedly unaffected. Sure, the guitars are right up in your face, but, as on "Soma," Casablancas' vocals often snarl from somewhere far, far away, as if he's singing them via a late-night, long-distance phone call to a spurned lover. "When It Started," the tight and playful understudy for the furloughed "New York City Cops" single (taken off in light of the Sept. 11 tragedy), offers a hint as to how the messianic Strokes plan to guide their new congregation. Apart from the downbeat, slow burn of the title track, the album is just one big rock 'n' roll orgy. Is This It? We should only be so lucky. — Courtney Reimer

DILATED PEOPLES

Expansion Team (Capitol)

Although Expansion Team is officially Dilated Peoples' second release since they signed to Capitol in 1999, the L.A.-based group's members have said they feel that is their true debut. They have come together as a unit over the past two years (due in part to constant touring) and have put forth an album that evokes a collective mentality. There's a lot more tag-teaming from Rakaa (a.k.a. Iriscience) and Evidence on this go-around (though solo cuts still abound), and DJ Babu flexes his production muscle while continuing to show off his turntable skills. Armed with a little help from some friends (guest vocals by Tha Liks and Black Thought, production by the Alchemist, DJ Premier and the Beatnuts' Juju), the trio has brought its post-modern, neo-old skool vibe to the next level. Expansion Team retains the group's classic, stripped-down style accented by nifty sound effects, while up front the boys riff on smooth rhymes about the media ("Proper Propaganda"), the industry and its hunger for the bottom line ("Trade Money"), and boast about their acclaimed live performances. Although they're not quite the trailblazers they were back in the day, Dilated Peoples have remained true to their music in spite of their rapid advance from the world of underground hip-hop to the big leagues. — Lisa Hageman

FOUR TET

Pause (Domino)

Though he's still in his early twenties, Kieran Hebden's discography already spills off the page. As a wee teen, he and some mates started Fridge and began issuing full-lengths and singles; at 21, his solo aside Four Tet had also clocked in with an album, Dialogue. Both projects have followed a stingy minimalist ethic, but one that yields to tantalizing starbursts of sound. On his second disc as Four Tet, Hebden transforms what at first glance looks to be a bedroom recording into one of the year's sleeper albums. It's a brilliantly subdued collection of spare beats, chiming bells and hidden melodies. Too wise to settle for collage and yet too restless to construct mere songs, Hebden twists rhythms and rolls in acoustic guitar riffs to instill each track with a refined whimsy. In "No More Mosquitoes," a looped selection of beats and sonic blips contrasts against the innocent-sounding refrain of the song title. For "Parks," Hebden splices scratchy vinyl, children's voices and Eno-esque somber keyboards into an enrapturing soundscape, then introduces a jarring array of Eastern instrumentation and backwards masking. Not every piece fits perfectly — samples of typing and ocean waves lack the originality that Four Tet insists on elsewhere. But such complaints fade away amid the album's meticulous flow. — Richard A. Martin

LE TIGRE

Feminist Sweepstakes (Mr. Lady)

On Feminist Sweepstakes's first entry, loud and proud Kathleen Hanna wastes no time making her pro-womyn declaration: "For the ladies and the fags / Yeah, we're the band with the rollerskate jams." The album, Le Tigre's third recording overall, has that same pep squad, soda jerk energy we've come to expect from the undaunted Hanna and her cohorts. Of course, Feminist Sweepstakes is also a statement of Hanna's desire to be a political artist without relying on stereotypical punk rock rage and deafening guitars, instead using digital sampling and assorted technology to hammer her points home. There's even a boy in the band in the form of J.D. Samson, the founding member of an underground dance troupe whose choreography doubles as social action and communication. The playful Feminist Sweepstakes has a with-us-or-against-us, tampon-waving rhetoric that's encased in glittery, confectionary, almost cutie-pie pop songs. Looped Casio beats give songs like "Shred A" their electronic, raver-punk edge, while bang-bang noise piles up on "Much Finer." But the fun doesn't stop there. Soulful funk becomes Le Tigre's M.O. on "Fake French," while "Dyke March 2001" sounds like something you'd shake yer thang to after popping a hit of E. Le Tigre successfully incites a revolution not only in content but also in form, making this a Sweepstakes anyone can win. — Amy Sciarretto

PUBLISHERS CONTINUE TO WIN BIG IN COURT

On Sept. 24, New York federal judge John S. Martin found that Universal Music Group-owned Farmclub.com had been streaming songs without obtaining the proper mechanical licenses from music publishers. The ruling came just one day after Napster settled its own lawsuit against the songwriters and publishers for $26 million (plus an additional $10 million as an advance toward future royalties on downloads).

Universal had previously requested the case be dismissed on the grounds that its online service was covered by Universal-owned licenses, which allegedly allow the company to record songs already for sale on its albums. No such luck.

The court's ruling found that the record company was holding out on licensing payments for songs offered through the Farmclub website, and that Universal's recording license did not cover such online practices. The record company said it plans to appeal the court's decision.

In other Universal news, the company has announced plans to copy-protect its music to prevent would-be "thieves" (and music-sharing service users) from copying CDs onto their hard drives.

Although Universal is mum about what technology it will be using (no doubt to thwart technology-savvy music lovers), the label hopes to begin implementing it on some of its October releases.

NUMEROUS TOURS CANCELLED IN WAKE OF SEPT. 11 EVENTS

The repercussions of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on New York and Washington, D.C. (i.e. longer waits at airports, airlines cutting back flights, safety concerns, etc.) have caused many artists to cancel or postpone upcoming tours.

Among the acts are Kings Of Convenience, who nixed their entire upcoming tour. There are currently no plans to reschedule in the near future.

In addition, the first ever U.S.-based edition of the U.K.'s All Tomorrow's Parties festival, to be held Oct. 19–21 on UCLA's campus has been postponed until early 2002.

Weezer cancelled all its U.K. dates in late October with no plans to reschedule. Even Janet Jackson has scrapped her European tour, citing fears of subjecting her entourage to travel during these unstable times.

SPITFIRE TOUR: COMING SOON TO A CAMPUS NEAR YOU

Currently in its fourth year, the non-profit, grassroots Spitfire tour is getting ready to hit college campuses with its unusual blend of free thought, art and activism. The event kicks off Oct. 31 at Vanderbilt University in Nashville.

Created in part by ex-Rage Against The Machine front-man Zach De La Rocha, the tour was founded to provoke thought and instigate action through film, speeches, musical performances and discussion. Speakers at this year's event will include musicians like Jello Biafra, Krist Novoselic and Jill Sobule, as well as activists like Julia "Butterfly" Hill, John Trudell and Tom Ballanco. More information on the event can be found at the Spitfire website at www.spitfiretour.com.

Zach De La Rocha

JUST A BITE...

Master P's label, No Limit Records, has severed its ties with Priority Records and signed a new distribution deal with Universal Records. Mia X's Soul Sista (out February 2002) will be the first album to be released under the new deal.

Wondering what ex-Metallica bassist Jason Newsted has been doing with all his free time? In addition to playing and producing the upcoming Voivoid album and working on a new project, EchoBrain, he recently signed onto produce the upcoming Speedealer album, tentatively titled Second Sight, due out Spring 2002 on Palm.

BE GOOD TANYAS

Blue Horse (Nettwerk America)
The three siren-voiced members of the Be Good Tanyas may have recorded their nostalgia-rich debut in a wooden shack outside Vancouver, British Columbia, but it sounds like they could have just as well been bunkered down in a ritzy Austin studio owned by

Lucinda Williams. Blue Horse sparkles with sleepy dedications to New Orleans (“Lakes Of Pontchartrain” could be the little sister of Lucinda’s “Lake Charles”) as told by a punk-at-heart country girl, and it’s certainly got enough buttery, poignant strums and banjo plucks (“Don’t You Fall,” “Only In The Past”) to recall Williams’s crunchiest deep South twang. Apple pie-fresh three-part harmonies and giddy mandolin tweak the Tanyas’ originals, molding them into euphoric countrypolitan tunes that are heavy with the fruit of Appalachian soul: “Broken Telephone” glows with the trio’s delicate vocals, while even a crusty standard like “Oh Susanna” inflicts goosebumps, given such a sigh-worthy outlet in the Tanyas’ rosey harmonies. Honest, rustic and talented, the Tanyas are one of the year’s best surprises. — Kristy Martin

BOBBY CONN

The Golden Age
(Thrill Jockey)

Imagine if Prince traded in his infatuation with P-funk for Bowie’s glammy ’70s rock, and you’ll get a sense of Bobby Conn’s style. Lyrically, Conn holds on to Prince’s obsession with sex, but instills it with a draconian yen for entropy.

Now he’s back with The Golden Age, his third album overall and his first for Thrill Jockey. The shtick is still the same, but thankfully, it hasn’t gotten old. “You’ve Come A Long Way” is an eight-minute rock epic that cribs the pomp of Bowie and the raw riffage of Thin Lizzy. Other tracks like “Winners” and “No Revolution” sound as if they were lifted from the early ’80s, complete with squiggly synthesizers and new wave production values. Even more perplexing, Conn put this together with help from a coterie of Chicago post-rockers and jazz players, a roster that adds an unexpectedly sophisticated element to such tracks as “A Taste Of Luxury” and “Angels.” Think Beck’s Midnite Vultures is an inspired twist of revisionism? The Golden Age is infinitely more peculiar. — Tad Hendrickson

CURVE

Gift (Hip-O-Universal)

In the course of a decade, U.K. duo Toni Halliday and Dean Garcia have established a cult following for their group’s brand of post-grunge electronic-rock — exemplified in sparse recordings that have always left fans begging for more. Prolific in its early years, which were driven by an innovative sound, the duo has released just one other full-length since 1993 (not counting its web-only self-released album, Open Day At The Hate Fest). An obvious influence on Garbage, Curve hasn’t been able to capitalize commercially on its brooding sexiness the way its progeny has. Gift’s vaguely familiar modernist pop allure should (re-)open some ears, though; Garcia’s ominous guitar riffage cutting jagged edges into posh-electronica rhythmic assaults provide the hooks for Halliday’s sultry vocals to hang on to. One part dance club vibe, one part noisy rock, Gift — which is co-produced by Ben Grosse (B-52’s, Filter, Ben Folds) — elegantly balances sophistication with street sleaze for a nicely wrapped package. — Enrique Lavin

DJ KRUSH

Zen (Red Ink)

Abstract hip-hop can come off as ear candy — stuff that’s a cool collection of sounds but doesn’t really stick with you once the record is over. Although there are few producer/turntablists as innovative as Japan’s DJ Krush, he’s someone who also knows how to build a memorable track complete with a hook. Krush once again plays host to a heavy-duty set of collaborators on Zen, his 10th release, this time working with vocalists Marie Daulne of Zap Mama, N’Dea Davenport, Black Thought and Company Flow as well as Roots drummer ?uestlove and fellow aural sculptor PhonosyncographDISK. It all adds up to a slammin’ mix: it’s not a DJ set that culls highlights from other people’s music, but rather a killer set of hip-hop originals built from the beats on up with such touchstones as spooky textures, strange grooves and odd samples. Another fine entrant in the Krush canon, Zen should continue to cement Krush’s appeal and acclaim, leaving the rest of us to just shake our heads in wonder. — Tad Hendrickson

JAY FARRAR

Sebastopol

(Fellow Guard—Artemis)
Finding comfort in Sebastopol (named for a cozy city in northern California's wine region), Jay Farrar has finally left the support system of a band behind. Not that the Uncle Tupelo and Son Volt vet is exactly on his own here (likeminded pals Kelly Joe Phelps and Gillian Welch drop by to lend a hand), but you can hear Farrar discovering his own voice on select moments of Sebastopol, which welcomes bits of synth, piano and sitar-like guitar that were somewhat alien to past efforts. "Don't wanna be fenced in," he warbles on "Voodoo Candle," subtly, if subconsciously, driving the point home that he's on a new path. Longtime fans needn't worry, however; Farrar never strays far from the sturdy Americana of his roots. Up-tempo tunes like "Voodoo Candle" and "Clear Day Thunder" flourish under the songwriter's expanded approach, while the more somber songs fit nicely in the dusty trails blazed by Farrar's past efforts.

FUTURE PILOT AKA

Tiny Waves, Mighty Sea

(Geographic)
The former bassist for Scottish pop sensations the Soup Dragons and cult faves BMX Bandits, Sushil Dade ducked underground in the mid-'90s, where he jumped into the experimental techno fray under the alias Future Pilot AKA. In 1999 he released a superb double-disc, Vs. A Galaxy Of Sounds, containing 20 songs he constructed with a horde of avant-garde, indie rock, electronica and Asian underground artists. Returning to the wistful primitivism of Glaswegian indie pop and meshing it with an Indian spiritual sound, Dade and his crew of artists pilot Tiny Waves, Mighty Sea through an exercise in timeless harmony. Dade's plaintive vocals lead the epic meditative song — and the album's centerpiece — "Om Namah Shivaya" as it spirals heavenward, lifted by distant horns, violins and harp. Tiny Waves effortlessly harnesses the beauty of contained chaos as twinkling lullabies ("Ananda Is The Ocean"), autumnal folk rock ("Withci Tai To") and trippy Indian pop ("Darshan Returns") dive deep into sonic serenity. — Enrique Lavin

JAMES MATHUS AND HIS KNOCKDOWN SOCIETY

National Antiseptic

(Mammoth)
Squirrel Nut Zippers frontman James "Jimbo" Mathus cranks up his amps a bit more for the second installment from his Knockdown Society, which now features Luther and Cody Dickinson of the North Mississippi Allstars. Where 1997's Songs For Rosetta favored an acoustic, Prohibition-era vibe, National Antiseptic kicks up a bit more dust and moves a few decades ahead into a post-war swamp of roadhouse blues and rollin' and tumblin' rock 'n' roll. The set even throws in a bit of garage, as "Call Your Dawgs Off" mimics the stabbing organ riff of "96 Tears." National Antiseptic has a live-wire, raw-nerve blues spine throughout; perhaps backing up Buddy Guy on his recent Sweet Tea that gave Jimbo that extra juke-joint jolt. Regardless, he might want to think about bringing more of this bold, boogie vibe into the next wave of Zippers discs — National Antiseptic could be just the tonic to keep their hot music boiling.

HOPE SANDOVAL AND THE WARM INVENTIONS

Bavarian Fruit Bread

(Rough Trade–Sanctuary)

Henry Rollins once said that while he can respect Whitney Houston's pipes and the shattering octaves she hits, her voice just doesn't "move" him an inch.

While Hope Sandoval's voice certainly doesn't aspire to scale the same lofty, overblown peaks as pop divas like Whitney or Mariah do, we'd bet the farm that her lusciously laconic voice would be Hank's choice for bedtime lullabies. Sandoval's lulled whisper warmly embraces you like a piping hot mug of chamomile tea, but the former Mazzy Star singer has a ghostly set of lungs that command the acoustic and string-filled compositions of Bavarian Fruit Bread, an album that shies away from the psychedelia of her former vehicle. This record must be some sort of comfort food, because its overall effect is one that's sleepy and warm. But that's not to suggest that Bavarian Fruit Bread is idle: while "Suzanne" and "Charlotte" float lazily by, you still feel like Miss Sandoval is letting you catch a glimpse of what's going on in her confused little heart. Don't forget to put the kettle on before popping this fuzzy mix in the stereo. — Amy Sciarretto

SCHATZI

Death Of The Alphabet EP (Mammoth)

No matter how many times the bartender fills up the bowl, those peanuts aren't going to cut it if you're really hungry. For fans of pop-rockers Schatzi, its teaser EP, Death Of The Alphabet, is about as appetite-sating as a handful of nuts. The four songs leading off Death Of The Alphabet were culled from the recording sessions of Schatzi's forthcoming full-length debut, 50 Reasons To Explode. Bonus (bonus, indeed!) tracks include "By The Silvery Moon" (appended from the version on 1998's self-released Joanie Loves Schatzi), the harmonious, punk-pop ditty "Nadine" and softer tale "The Fall Of Canaryville." Schatzi singer/guitarists Monte Williams and Chris Kyle hold their own against fast and furious guitar work, walls of power chords, thundering drums and crashing cymbals (à la Led Zeppelin's John Bonham) without having to yell at the top of their lungs, adding a melodious touch to the dense wall of sound. Give us more, guys; we're still hungry.

SOLEX

Low Kick And Hard Bop

(Matador)

On the one hand, Low Kick And Hard Bop, the third Solex album, finds one-woman cut-creator Elisabeth Esselink continuing her cut 'n' pasty pop ways, again swiping the good bits of trash-heap records and refashioning them into sampledelic lucky charms. On the other hand, her approach to this exercise continues to evolve — now, away from experimental pop fetish towards something resembling a smart swamp-roots grind. Distorted harmonicas, steely and twangy guitars, strolling pianos and bumpin' acoustic bass line Low Kick like street lights along Lonely Avenue, illuminating a post-modern rockabilly and swing ride. But, of course, this ain't no revivalist thang, and if nothing else, Esselink's off-kilter vocal delivery reminds you of this. Of course, every once in a while these elements are reassembled into a barrage that sounds like NRQB with a sampler and a Euro vocalist, covering Sun Ra. Which, come to think of it, wouldn't be a terrible idea — and one Solex is bound to be down with. — Raspberry Jones

STARS OF THE LID

The Tired Sounds Of...

(Kranky)

When people hear the term "minimalism" they're inclined to think "simplistic," but that reaction does a disservice to the complex, fragile art of creating a universe from only a few basic elements. The latest work by the subtle sonic-shaping duo Stars Of The Lid stretches languid, atmospheric pieces over two discs, offering titles ("The Lonely People (Are Getting Lonelier)") that set an equally somber, pensive mood. The whimpers of a sorrowful dog amid the blurred humming of strings on "Requiem For Dying Mothers" is simultaneously comforting, chilling and cosmic. The overall orchestration of shifting tones and pulses suggests that Tired Sounds is every bit as much an evolutionary classical album as it is a present-day electronic offering. Moreover, the sly self-deprecation of the album title undercuts criticism that SOTL's sound is, well, boring and stuck in a rut. Just remember, the stars and planets in their galaxy don't spin as fast as ours, so chill. Hear the grass grow.

THEY MIGHT BE GIANTS

Mink Car (Restless)

On Mink Car, They Might Be Giants' first proper album in five years, the veteran sarcasm-mongers seem more intent than ever on thumbing their noses at those who dare to stuff them into a pigeonhole. "Man, It's So Loud In Here" is either a well-done spoof of or a heartfelt homage to the Casio-driven dancefloor epics of the '80s, but either way, it works. Mink Car gives a lesson in genre-bending with the Mancini-esque "Yeh Yeh," the geek-with-guitar love song "Another First Kiss" and "Mr. Xcitement" (which could easily be a Soul Coughing song — and not just because M. Doughty's monotone utterings are looped throughout). At the risk of abandoning their thousands-strong geek army, the two Johns (Flansburgh and Linnell) have made a likely candidate for this year's frat-party song of choice in "Drink!" Diehard fans may lament the lack of any true-blue quirk anthems, but TMBG's newer recruits will rejoice at a whole album of goodies from "those guys who made that Malcolm In The Middle song."

TREMBLING BLUE STARS

Alive To Every Smile

(Sub Pop)

On Alive To Every Smile, the fourth full-length from Britain's Trembling Blue Stars, frontman Bob Wratten languishes in familiar territory, trapped in a beautifully sad dream underneath several blankets of warm synths, gentle acoustic guitars and hushed melodies, refusing to get out of bed. As Wratten somberly revisits age-old themes of love and loss over familiar pop progressions, the effect is deeply soothing — if not altogether memorable. With the exception of a few tracks, such as the Placebo-like groove of "Under Lock And Key" and the excited, electric tones of "The Ghost Of An Unkissed Kiss," its low-key arrangements flow directly into the bloodstream like a local anesthetic, lingering until the songs themselves fade into the background. But when Wratten manages to reach through his own ether and connect with lines like "How can you argue with what happens when our eyes meet?" ("Little Gunshots"), you'll likely hit the snooze button to have a few more minutes to wallow in the cocoon of Alive.

DAVID S. WARE QUARTET

Corridors And Parallels

(AUM Fidelity)

Corridors And Parallels starts out as a notable new jazz disc before the wrapper even comes off; it features pianist Matthew Shipp's first foray into the synthesizer. Just the thought of hearing Shipp's long fingers dance across an electrified keyboard prompts thoughts of musical revelation, especially when David S. Ware and the rest of the quartet — longtime bassist William Parker and newish drummer Guillermo E. Brown — are considered as well. The veteran ensemble mostly delivers on disc No. 13: Afro rhythms cascade behind Ware's adventurous tenor lines ("Superimposed"), Parker's deep bowed bass provides a mesmerizing backdrop to mournful sax bleating ("Mother May You Rest in Bliss") and Shipp's rollicking synth work darts in and out of an avant framework ("Straight Track"). The foursome dips into Sun Ra-style spaceouts on a couple of tracks, muddying the otherwise earthy proceedings. Ware fortunately is content exploring this world

Sanctuary Records has signed Pitchshifter. A new album is planned for spring of next year. Speaking of the industrial metal band — which is neither pure industrial nor pure metal and whose frontman JS Clayden has got to be one of the hottest men in rock — Peaceville has re-released 1991's Industrial. For those of you unfamiliar with this album, it's quite different than the Pitchshifter that graced the Ozzfest side stage in 2000. It's definitely tinnier, and much more true industrial than any of the band's recent efforts. • Nothingface has cancelled its fall trek, deemed "The Darkest Hour" tour, in favor of writing new material. The band cites promoters' fears of countrywide low attendance in the wake of the World Trade Center and Pentagon disasters as part of the reason, as well as label pressure to write new material for a second effort instead of continuing to tour for Violence. I guess it's best to let the band go write another masterpiece. •

Prosthetic Records has signed Blessing The Hogs. I don't know anything about this band, but if it's on Prosthetic, home to Lamb Of God and Spite, you know it's gotta be quality stuff. • Guitarist Anders Bjorler has left The Haunted for personal reasons. Basically, the axeman doesn't want to tour and apparently would like to go back to school. While his ex-bandmates wish him the very best (kinda like a Hallmark greeting card), the worldwide search for a new axe slinger rages on. Applicants who feel up to the almighty metal task are encouraged to contact the band via www.the-haunted.com. • Skinlab was apparently displeased with the original mixes of The Revolting Room and decided to enlist the services of über-producer Andy Sneap to remix the effort. (Sneap is also producing the new Killswitch Engage album). • IDJMG and Insane Clown Posse have parted ways. The juggalos are currently looking for another major label to distribute their Faygo-lovin' rap rock.

LOUD ROCK AT THE CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

There will still be a healthy representation of Loud Rock and metal at the CMJ Music Marathon this year. I hope to see you there! The originally planned marathon was full of so much steel that I expected Manowar to pop out of a cake somewhere.

WEDNESDAY

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

CBGB (8 p.m.)

Post-core fans might wanna head over to CBGB and check out Small Brown Bike and Victory's newest punk rock sensation, Student Rick.

Continental (Time TBA)

Or you can just walk on over to the Continental and rock your ass off to the funky fun of one of my faves, Step Kings, along with the refreshing rock of the whacked-out Dog Fashion Disco and This Year's Model (Strong Island post-hardcore.)

THURSDAY

DAYTIME EVENTS

Panel: 300 Percent Density: Marketing Your Way To Loud Rock Success (Gramercy A, 2:30-3:45 p.m.)

If you are interested in a step-by-step guide to how to break an upcoming Loud Rock band from the grassroots level on up, the way bands like Disturbed and System Of A Down have, then this is the panel you dare not miss. Moderated by The Syndicate's Dave Ciancio, who manages the likes of Shadows Fall, God Forbid and Thursday, the panel will provide an insight into each promotional step. A&R, radio promotion and product management are all represented on the panel and a publicist will be placed on the panel by the day of. Come get your Loud Rock education here.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Now Or Never Records and GIG Records Present: (Downtime, 9 p.m.)

Progressive metalcore fans will flock to Downtime, which is located right near Madison Square Garden, by 9 p.m. to catch Diecast, All Else Failed and Dillinger Escape Plan, as this unholy triumvirate will incite moshpits that they'll be talking about for years to come. The DEP is currently without a permanent replacement for the departed Dimitri Minakakis. Well, for this show, they've got a surprise for y'all and have recruited Coalesce's own Sean. Bring your moshin' shoes.

FRIDAY

DAYTIME EVENTS

Party: Annual Indie-Sponsored Metal Listening Party (Korova Milk Bar, Time 4-6 p.m.)

Every year, metalloids convene at the Korova Milk Bar to hear some advance tunes and toss back a few. Everyone who dare call him/herself metal, show your face here. It's always packed tighter than a porn star's latex pants, and is always a blast.

Concrete Marketing Showcase (Don Hill's, 6 p.m.)

Early birds, come hang with Concrete's Eric Cole and Suzanna Paradise, as their company sponsors a showcase featuring Canadian rap-rockers Headstrong, along with the screaming metalcore of Nora and the death metal crash of Scar Culture.

Drive Thru Records, Victory Records and Maverick Records Present: (The World, 5 p.m.)

It's a busy night Friday, with plenty of bands and lots of fun to be had. Be prepared to run back and forth and make sure you check this punk/emo show. Thursday will hit the stage at 8:30 p.m. and will be followed by Movielife. Don't miss it.

Golden Seal Records Showcase (CBGB, 10 p.m.)

Come on down to New York City's home of rock 'n' roll once again for Golden Seal, an up and coming new label, which is showcasing its roster of acts. Adharma (ex-Quicksand and Handsome) and Reach (ex-Sick Of It All) will be there, along with Interscope's Dragpipe.

SATURDAY

DAYTIME EVENTS

Panel: God Says No, Loud Rock Says Yes (Bryant, 11 a.m.-12:15 p.m.)

Wake your hungover ass up early and check out this "general" metal panel, headed up by Mike Schnapp, who is currently working 40 Below Summer to radio. The panel will probe general issues facing the metal genre as we speak. Be sure to check it out, as Metal Maniacs scribe Vinnie Cecolini, the ever-quotable Munsey Ricci (whose Skateboard Marketing promotion company is celebrating its 10th anniversary) and WVVS's Ed Pitts.

Panel: Enemy Of The Music Business: We Bitch, You Moan (Bryant, 12:30-1:45 p.m.)

Don't go anywhere after the "God Says No" panel. Stick around for this year's "cranky" panel, which is moderated by yours truly. We're going to discuss the daily frustrations of the day in and day out of working in the music industry and the metal community. I'm joined by Roadrunner's publicist Marian Gonzales, WSOU's business manager Jen Kajzer, along with WNYU's Loud Rock director Gabe Moyvesian and KTXT's metal chick Nina Wilson. There's a breakout session immediately after, so I'll see you there and will be signing autographs.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Equal Vision Records Showcase (CBGB, 12 a.m.)

Talk about ending the convention with a deafening roar. EVR brings its new signings Coheed And Cambria and Liars Academy, along with its favorites American Nightmare and Hope Conspiracy. The festering bloody noise of Converge will close out the night. Earplugs are strongly recommended.

INDUSTRY NEWS

MANAGEMENT FIRMS LINK UP

Andy Gould Management, which represents the multi-platinum likes of Rob Zombie, Powerman 5000 and Linkin Park, along with rising stars Stereo Mud, The Start and Ill Nino, has merged with The Firm, which manages the lava-hot careers of Korn, Limp Bizkit, Staind and the Backstreet Boys. These two powerhouses are indeed the new metal/hard rock management monopoly.

HEVY DEVY RECORDS NEARS U.S. DISTRIBUTION DEAL WITH CMR

Strapping Young Lad frontman Devin Townsend, who has allegedly battled some form of mental instability throughout his life, has his own record label called Hevy Devy Records, which releases his own material. While his mental faculties may be shot to hell, his music is damn near brilliant. FAB Distribution will now handle all of Townsend's material in Canada, while Hevy Devy is currently working on a U.S. licensing deal with Century Media Records, a move that makes impressive Townsend material like Physicist and Ocean Machine more readily available. It's about time.

VICTORY STARTS CHARITY AUCTION

Starting Sept. 24, Victory Records launched a charity auction on its website that will provide relief to the victims of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks, Victory has reached into its vault of rare and hard-to-find material and pulled out some of the most sought-after items in its back catalog, including a Bad Brains test pressing. A good portion of hardcore kids are obsessive collectors of impossible-to-locate items, so this is sure to generate plenty of interest. The fundraiser is a one-time only event that closes at 10:30 a.m. (CST) on Oct. 11. All of the proceeds from the auction will be donated directly to the Red Cross Sept. 11th Relief Fund. For more information, visit www.victoryrecords.com/auction.html and start bidding.

CRUCIAL SPINS UPDATE

WMMS/Cleveland, OH is moving its hallowed halls to new digs. Please update your databases and make sure Matt Wardlaw keeps getting all your shit to spin at: WMMS FM Attn: Matthew Wardlaw, 1267 Donald Avenue, 3rd Floor, Lakewood, OH 44107. Rock on • The college radio station that I grew up listening to, WKDU/ Philadelphia, PA, has Crucial Spins reporting status, effective immediately. • KFMX/Lubbock, TX is no longer on the Crucial Spins panel. I've heard that Psycho Cyd's show has been pulled by the station, and I haven't seen a report in several weeks.

GRADE NOT BREAKING UP

Word on the street is spreading like wildfire that mighty Canadian hard-core-emo act Grade went kaput. I talked to singer Kyle Bishop for a few moments, and he effectively put to rest any smack about the demise of Grade. "God, no, there's no way we're breaking up," he says. "We'll never break up. I'll be out front, the only one left, like Cradle Of Filth. I'll be like Dani Filth, dragging everyone into my own hell. Shawn, our guitarist for eight years, left because he wanted to lead a normal life and being in a band was too crazy for him. We found a new guitar player in a couple days. Because of immigration and the tours we had booked, along with the new album to promote, we wanted to have tryouts and pick the right person. But we had no option but to scramble and pick someone right away. It made our lives a living hell trying to replace [Shawn]." Look for Grade on tour this month with Murder City Devils and later, Zao. As for traversing the States in the wake of the recent terrorist attacks, Bishop is confident about coming here. "We have no qualms about touring U.S. soil. We fear the border guards; they're a pain in the ass."

EMPEROR
Prometheus: The Discipline Of Fire And Demise (Candlelight)

It's ironic that the Emperor is closing the book on a storied, genre-defining career while at the same time opening a new chapter of unparalleled brilliance in extreme metal. Emperor wrought pure Nordic havoc in its Scandinavian homeland by torching churches and stringing together lordly, dignified black metal anthems. Prometheus: The Discipline Of Fire And Demise is reportedly the "last Emperor." Talk about bowing out gracefully; Prometheus is a progressive album, so much so that it can hardly be limited by the term "black metal." It moves like a death metal and rock 'n' roll symphony, with moods of love, hate and anger represented by the leaps and dips of each meticulously arranged song. It's not weighed down by black metal's overuse of creepy keyboards and hydro-fast guitars. Band leader Ishahn's dominant voice is central to the majestic riffs blasted by Zamoth. He still favors a King Diamond-like shriek, but when he sings melodically — almost operatically and gothically — he sounds like he spent a few hours in the hands of an expert vocal coach who exacted the most versatile range from his student. Black and death metal bands have a new standard to meet with Prometheus. "Depraved," "Empty" and "Thorns On My Grave" are a fitting epitaph. Farewell.

WILL HAVEN
Carpe Diem (Revelation)

Sacramento's Will Haven is still slavin'. Carpe Diem, the quartet's third full-length, obviously illustrates why Deftones, Limp Bizkit and Soulfly are fans who have carted the band around on tour with them. Carpe Diem finds the boys, who have spent much of their career trafficking in chafing, excoriating dissonance, instead dipping their toes into a new pool of dynamics. While songs like "Saga," "Miguel," "Dressed In Night Clothes" and "Dolph Lundgren" are drenched in the time-honored Will Haven tradition of nihilistic noise and cloudy, grainy silences that will transform you into a quivering, arthritic mess, Carpe Diem stuffs a variety of chunky, stop-and-start riff patterns into the hypodermic needle, making the mix all the more lethal. Carpe Diem runs as smoothly and precisely as a Swiss watch.

SCAR CULTURE

Inscribe (Century Media)

Scar Culture is one of those underdog bands, a pleasant surprise that metallurgists may discover on one of the side stages at that annual summer classic, the Milwaukee Metal Fest. Uncompromisingly heavy, Scar Culture was originally known as Scrape, but the New York City band scrapped that name for a more definitive moniker. Inscribe is as sonically painful and unrelenting as getting a full body tattoo and piercing your genitals in one sitting. The album comes on like frothing boar, fusing groove-heavy mosh with death metal's disgust. Frontman Feroze Karai is definitely the kind of hulking man you don't want to meet in a back alley, while guitarist John Conley lays down blood-soaked riffs undoubtedly weaned on hardcore and grindcore with a healthy appreciation for metal. "Vision," "Servant" and "Reform" are all on track to make your eyeballs burst on impact.

AGNOSTIC FRONT

Dead Yuppies (Epitaph)

Since its reunion back in 1998, NYHC architect Agnostic Front has been pretty prolific, dropping albums and playing shows with great frequency. Roger Miret, Vinnie Stigma and company operate on a bottomless well of energy that would make the pink Energizer bunny jealous. The vigorous Dead Yuppies is rebellious, methamphetamine-spiked punk and blue-collar hardcore with a lyrical focus on freedom of speech and expression: brothers-in-arms singalongs and 100 percent moshable breakdowns are the album's backbones. Link arms with your peers and join in on "Liberty," "I Wanna Know," "Critic" and "Politician."

KING'S X

Manic Moonlight (Metal Blade)

In the entire Metal Blade catalog, King's X is closer to the Goo Goo Dolls than it is to Six Feet Under or Cannibal Corpse, thanks to the band's commitment to harmonic, melodic, groove-centered rock 'n' roll. Because it's too "rock" to fit snugly in the alternative category, and too mainstream for headbangers, King's X always finds itself in a "special" place that is as enviable as it is frustrating. Manic Moonlight isn't metal, but funky rock that sounds like quality bar music. Now, step off — that's not meant to be disrespectful to Ty Tabor and the rest of the King's X crew. But songs like "Believe," "Jenna" and the title track are certainly pleasant accompaniment for tossing back a few brews whether in the local watering hole or on the couch with a pizza.

HIP-HOP AT THE CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

The world of hip-hop will be well represented at this year's marathon with performances by some of the acts that are keeping the music exciting and new. Those looking for Summer Jam redux, however, will have to look elsewhere. We'll also be taking a close look at the world of hip-hop on the college radio level; talking to independent label execs and artists who have chose to remain out of the spotlight but continue to draw fans in with their passion for the music.

WEDNESDAY

NIGHTTIME EVENT

Agency Group Showcase (B.B. King, 10 p.m.)

Be sure to check out the line-up at The Agency Group's hip-hop showcase featuring DJ JS-One, Deep In Da Circle, Afu-Ra, Smut Peddlers, Rock Steady Crew, X-ecutioners, Rahzel and the Beatnuts. This night's entertainment has a little bit of every style, so be sure to come early and set up for the night.

THURSDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

PANEL: Hip-Hop, You Still Don't Stop: Hip-Hop Now (Thursday, Oct. 11 in Murray Hill B, 2:30 p.m.)

Who would've thought that hip-hop would be entering its adulthood (and then some) so gracefully? With 20-some odd years under its belt the music, once relegated to uptown house parties, just keeps getting better and more widely accepted (yet still manages to piss off the FCC every now and then). KBOO's Deena Barnwell will explain her personal run-in with the powers that be while Da Beatminerz DJ Evil Dee and Guru give their view of where the music has been and where it's going. Other panelists include DJ Zeph, Lady Luck and Goodvibe's John?Doe. A 20-minute potential schmooze fest will follow this panel to allow for further discussion, meeting-and-greeting or just hanging out and saying hi to everyone.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Definitely make an appearance at some point in the evening for (all or part of) the show at S.O.B.'s on Thursday, to be hosted by D-Stroy of the Arsonists. Performers include CMJ buddies L.A. Symphony, C Rayz Walz, Maspyke, Danny Hoch (reading excerpts from "Jails, Hospitals and Hip Hop"), El Gant, Asheru, Smash Task and Tribeca. A smaller event at the Thompson Center on the NYU campus kicks off at 9 p.m., and features Trifogod, Second 2 Last and MF Doom.

FRIDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

L.A. Symphony will perform at 4:30 p.m. (not too bright and early) in the Ballroom so if you missed them at S.O.B.'s be sure to show up for this one.

SATURDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

PANEL: Scars For Freedom: Hip-Hop Makes Its Mark (Saturday, Oct. 13 in Murray Hill B, 11 a.m.)

This panel's main objective is to take a look at the world of independent hip-hop and how the smaller labels compete (or not) with the majors. They may not have the funds behind them, but there sure is a lot of talent coming out of these places. Moderating the panel will be Wes Jackson of Seven Heads Entertainment.

K-OTIX

Universal (Bronx Science-BUDS)

When most people think of Houston, Texas, they don't think of intelligent, earnest, top-notch underground hip-hop. Maybe they should, 'cause K-Otix is just that. Consisting of MCs Mic and Damien and DJ Premier-worshipping producer Russel, this trio of up-and-comers makes a very strong impression on its debut full-length with 15 rock-solid tracks that give confident rhymes just the right platform to shine. The members' lyrical range doesn't stray far from typical "we're great, other MCs aren't" brags, but their steadfastness is most certainly a blessing rather than a curse, forcing you to think back about the days before "bling bling" and the rise of mediocre lyrical talents like DMX and Ja Rule who get by on sheer attitude and videos, rather than revealing any real lyrical finesse. Pick a song at random and you won't be disappointed: head nod-inducing, mid-tempo rollers like "C.P.R.," and "Take A Breather" (on which they claim "I go through hell/ Just to show that I'm heaven-sent"), alongside the DITC-influenced "Untitled" and the guitar-tickled "World Renown." Underground ethos with overground talent.

BLACKALICIOUS WITH RAAKA IRISCIENCE AND DJ BABU

Passion (12") (MCA)

The Bay Area's Blackalicious hit us with a taste of their upcoming Blazing Arrow full-length — slated for a February 2002 release on MCA — and it's a curious one. A plodding, guitar-drenched manifesto that mixes concrete strivings with vocalist Gift of Gab's trademark stream-of-consciousness abstractions with basic, booming, dusty drums. Gab and guest MC Rakaa Iriscience (from Dilated Peoples) trade verses that range from run-of-the-mill to way-out, sounding great but never really nailing a central theme. No matter — fans love Blackalicious for its heart, honesty and unique style, and it's all here, all good.

WILL.I.AM

Lost Change (k7-BBE)

BBE Music's "Beat Generation" series continues along — after showings by Pete Rock and Jay Dee — with the Black Eyed Peas' MC/producer Will.I.Am. The series lets artists stretch out and air some ideas that never made it onto an album and, as such, Lost Change is a collection of live-band instrumentals and vocal tracks (featuring exclusively underground/unknown talent) that range from doodling to dope. On the latter side, peep the Planet Asia-featured bouncy party cut "Ev Rebahdee" and the raggamuffin-freaked "Em Ay Double Dee" (with toaster Madd Dogg).

RPM AT THE CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

WEDNESDAY

Spend your late afternoon at Brooklyn's Halcyon, where Sleaze Factor Productions is sponsoring DJ sets by Peter Anthony, Mocean Worker, Adam Freeland. Afterwards, head on over to Centro-Fly where Richie Hawtin will be spraying techno all over the main room, while S.P.E.C.T.R.E. hosts with an all-star bash starring Karsh Kale, Ursula 1000 and Thunderball, among others. Downtime will be reeling out Music Syndicate's Fund For Heroes benefit (minimum $5 donation at the door) and will feature sets from Liquid Todd, Detroit Grand Pubahs and Mocean Worker. Direct Drive and Rawkus' party at S.O.B.'s is headlined by hometown heroes Ming & FS, and also starring Alex Gordon, CMJ's own Grassy Knoll and the Burner Brothers.

THURSDAY

DAYTIME EVENTS

PANEL: Nature of the Beats: Electronic Music In The 21st Century (Thursday, Oct. 11 in Regent Parlor, 11 a.m.)

I will be moderating a discussion on the current state of electronic music, starring Errol Kolosine of Astralwerks, superstar DJ Scott Hardkiss, Spin reporter David J. Prince and publicist Peter Wohelski of Green Galactic.

PANEL: Innovations In Sound: DJs' Clinic (Thursday, Oct. 11 in Ballroom, 2 p.m.)

Check out world-renowned deck-masters Rob Swift, Ming & FS and Navdeep, hosted by the master of jazzmatazz, Guru.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Get blown over by the noisy, abstract beats of Richard Devine, Phoecia and members of the Schematic posse at the label's showcase at Limelight (11 p.m.), or by the soulful sounds house music don Ron Trent spins at the weekly Giant Step party at Shine (10 p.m.).

FRIDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

PANEL: Rapid Popular Movement: RPM, Radio Play And Swimming The Mainstream (Friday, Oct. 12 in Murray Hill A, 3:30 p.m.)

Moderated by Lift Promotions' Eric Giambertone, this panel will discuss where dance music's future lies; panelists include Kinetic Records promo goddess Sheneza Mohammed, S.P.E.C.T.R.E.'s promo diva Jessica Weber and A Guy Called Gerald.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Brooklyn's Lunarium is host to an evening of hip-hop-influenced beats from Dalek, DJ Spooky, Detroit Grand Pubah Andy Toth and ghetto-tech deity DJ Assault; while the heads will be well-served by the Carpark/Leaf/Orthlorng showcase at Tonic, featuring Miss Dinky, Marumari, 310, So Takashi and the Polar Bear Club.

SATURDAY

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

No better way to end the festival than being swept up by the reigning godfathers of English techno, Orbital, headlining a massive show at Roseland (8:30 p.m.). Come early, though: a limited number of badges will be served.

Check the Marathon guide for last minute additions.

ARMAND VAN HELDEN

Gandhi Khan (Armed Records)

Armand Van Helden is not a master of understatement; the term "superstar DJ" may as well have been coined for his platinum production/remix touch and for his loud proclamations as hip-house's last remaining champion. Puffy egocentricities aside, Van Helden's records have always made it clear that his self-esteem is well earned. And Gandhi Khan is more of the same, a surround-sound blockbuster that, for all its interludes and Arabic textures, is always ready to rumble with naysayers, while making the poppers pop and the breakers break. Inside tracks like the club-minded rhyme boasts of the pumping title track, the guitar arpeggio loops and spurned lover laments of the first single, "Why Can't You Free Some Time For Me," and the hard Germanic cyber-sex beat-down, "Robots Are Cumming," Khan's the sound of a global rhythm traveler searching for destined greatness.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Gomma Audio No. 1: Music from the Gomma Label

(Gomma-Shadow)

Munich, Germany's Gomma Records has spent the last couple of years releasing 12-inch singles that define an adventurous, beat-wise head-space for people tired of lazy, stereotypical grooves. Like Aphex Twin's Rephlex imprint, its bloodstream is spiked with healthy doses of hip-hop, electro, dub and IDM, and what it might lack in that label's aggro-noise weirdness, it makes up for in plain-old spacey oddity. Gomma Audio No. 1 is a 12-track, loosely detailed map of this corner of the electronic universe. The Gomma roster regulars (Protein, Headman, Leroy Hanghofer) are hardly household names — though there are Funkstorung and Les Rhythmes Digitales remixes for brand-name seekers — but their left-field beats are consistently unique, pushing hip-hop and electronica closer together.

RON TRENT

Giant Step Sessions, Vol.1 (Giant Step)

A one-time Chicago house progeny, Ron Trent has spent the last few years as the resident at New York's mega-successful Giant Step weekly, throwing down soulful house music amidst a cornucopia of Latin flavors, progressive beats and rare grooves. Thus, it makes all the sense in the world that Trent kicks off the Giant Step label's DJ mix series with a set that takes into account all these vibes, then swirls them into a distinct Body & Soul-like flavor. If there's one word to describe it all, it'd be "smooove": from the flute-riding batucada of Richard Worth's "Rise," to the robotic rhythm 'n' soul of Jody Watley's "Saturday Night Experience," to Nickodemus And Osiris' Afro-funky jive "Free Souls," it's the sound of an upscale, Big Apple house party.

Ñ ALTERNATIVE AT CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

THURSDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

PANEL: Barrier To Entry: Defining Latin Alternative Music's Market (Thursday, Oct. 11 at Murray Hill A, 3:45-4:30 p.m.)

Is there such a thing as a Latin alternative El Dorado? I'll moderate a panel that, like last year, includes some of the bigger players in our industry.

On board this year: Jose Bonilla, marketing manager for Virgin Associated Labels (Luaka Bop, Narada, Real World, Virgin); Andres Levin, a Grammy-nominated producer (Tina Turner, David Byrne, Aterciopelados) and band leader of Afro-Cuban fusion band Yerba Buena; Brian Long, a senior director of A&R at MCA (the label that signed Puya); Josh Norek, the co-founder of the LAMC, a crossover publicist and executive producer of Escena Alterlatina: The Future Sound En Español on Ark 21; José Luis Pardo, guitarist/songwriter for Los Amigos Invisibles; Elena Rodrigo, national marketing manager for Universal Latino; and Chelina Vargas, marketing director for Cookman International, and executive producer for MTV-S show The Red Zone and the Latin Alternative Music Conference.

Immediately following the panel, there will be an informal 20-minute meet-and-greet.

FRIDAY

Zurdok

DAYTIME EVENTS

College Day Showcase (Friday, Oct. 12, Grand Ballroom)

Zurdok (4:40 p.m.)

Zurdok was the cover story of this year's Ñ Alternative special issue, and will make its New York debut at the festival. The Monterrey, Mexico quartet's space-rock epic U.S. debut, Hombre Sintetizador, landed on the NMR's Top 30 albums of 2000. Its follow-up, Maquillaje, pulled back on the psychedelic reins a little for a Beatlesque indie rock album.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

SGAE Presents Rock En Ñ Showcase (Friday, Oct. 12 at Town Hall)

Elefantes (9 p.m.)

An indie pop band with an Iberian slant, Barcelona-based Elefantes was taken under the wing of mega-rock star Enrique Bunbury for its 2000 effort Azul (EMI Spain/Hispanvox), which remains unreleased Stateside.

Jumbo (10 p.m.)

Hailing from the Latin rock hotbed of Monterrey, Mexico, this quintet's recipe for American-style power pop stirred up two consecutive winners: 1999's Restaurant and this year's D.D. Y Ponle Play ("D.D. And Press Play"), both on BMG U.S. Latin. Jumbo makes its New York debut at CMJ.

Enrique Bunbury (11 p.m.)

With his 2000 masterpiece Pequeño Cabaret Ambulante ("Small Traveling Cabaret") on EMI Latin, velvety-voiced Spanish rock hero Bunbury frames self-reflective lyrics with a soulful blend of traditional Mediterranean music and experimental rock with odd instrumentation à la Tom Waits. The former frontman of Spain's super rock band Heroes Del Silencio, Bunbury traded the arena for cabarets, inspiring comparisons with some of Iberia's greatest singer/songwriting male divas. Don't miss this show!

Karl Denson (Friday, Oct. 12 at B.B. King) Los Amigos Invisibles (8 p.m.)

After moving from Caracas to Brooklyn not long after its titillating, disco-funk/acid-jazz sophomore album, last year's Arepa 3000 (Luaka Bop), LAI have slowly carved themselves a tidy niche in New York City's nightlife, and have a reputation for throwing one of the best dance parties in town.

M-16 (Friday, Oct. 14 at Original Sessions Lounge, 9:45 p.m.)

This Dominican Republic aggro-rock trio recently released its debut album Canciones Escritas En El Exilio ("Songs Written In Exhile") through DLN distribution. Compared to Puya, Sepultura and Ill Niño, M-16 is likely to make your ears bleed with its monster guitar riffage and sky-is-falling drumming. You've been warned.

NEW WORLD AT THE CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

PANEL: News Of The World: New World's Wisdom About Itself And Its Fans (Thursday, Oct. 11 in Gramercy B, 11 a.m.)

"New World" music is, by definition, both new and world-wide, and therefore impossible to define. What do new world musicians and industry folks think of current trends in music, marketing tactics and world recognition? A New World breakout session directly follows this panel.

Panel moderator Bill Bragin's résumé features work in both traditional and modern music through his tenure with Central Park Summerstage, Joe's Pub and Symphony Space as well as various club nights.

Also on hand will be Putumayo's Jacob Edgar, Abril Pro Rock's Paulo Andre M. Pires, Buddha-Bar's DJ Ravin, Elemental Media President Veronica Gonzalez and Palm artist Gigi.

Expect this crew to adeptly navigate the ever-shifting waters of world music, with insights coming from global perspective.

For a long time it looked as if the downturn in the retail music business wasn't going to hit world music. Sadly, however, times have caught up. Three labels, Alula, Lyrichord and Music Of The World, have ceased to exist, and there's been downsizing at Shanachie — which closed its New York office — Mondo Melodia and Harmonia Mundi, one of the main distributors of smaller labels.

Surprisingly, the outlook in the online world, which has tended to ignore world music, is brightening. XenoMusic.com (www.xenomusic.com) has more than 7,000 tracks from Eastern Europe available for download. About 700 are free, and others cost $1 each.

During October, the site is also hosting an online Friday concert series: Oct. 19 is Unreleased Classical Concerts with clarinetist Gabor Varga, and Oct. 26 is the Thracian dance music of Turk Hamit Hanay, a master of the oboe-like zurna.

DERVISH

Midsummer's Night (Compass)

There's nothing like sprightly Celtic music to brighten the spirits during the damp nights of fall. Dervish will certainly put a smile on one's face with its fifth album, which kicks off with a rollicking title cut. The band has matured into one of Ireland's best traditional groups, as fiddle player Tom Morrow and accordionist Shane Mitchell match each other note for note even on the trickiest passages. But it's not all jigs and reels: thanks to singer Cathy Jordan, Dervish is more than capable of laying down gorgeous songs, such as "There Was A Maid In Her Father's Garden." There seems to be nothing this crew can't do superbly, and it continues to raise the bar for Irish musicianship.

AFRICAN BROTHERS

Want Some Freedom (Easy Star)

The African Brothers were one of the best Jamaican vocal trios of the '70s, bridging the sweet sound of the Heptones and the stark rawness of the Congos. Check out songs like the title cut, "Torturing" and "Hold Tight": the harmonies of Lincoln "Sugar" Minott (who now enjoys a stellar solo career), Winston "Tony Tuff" Morris, and Derrick "Bubbles" Howard float like a reggae-tinged cloud of Jamaican gospel. Backing them are heavy hitters like the Skatalites, Sly And Robbie and the Barrett Brothers. Whether they're being conscious on "Practice What You Preach" or simply having fun on "Just Can't Please," this (and the accompanying dubs) is simply some of the most vital roots reggae of the period. 'Nuff said.

JAZZ AT THE CMJ MUSIC MARATHON 2001

While we're still picking up the pieces at press time, there are a number of jazz artists that will play the convention. And for the first time in memory, we've tapped a musician, Matthew Shipp, to moderate the jazz panel. Also look for the one on one discussion between journalist Mitch Myers and drummer Billy Martin of Medeski Martin And Wood. Read on for more highlights.

WEDNESDAY

Avishai Cohen

NIGHTTIME EVENTS Erik Friedlander's Topaz (Wednesday, Oct. 10 at the Knitting Factory Old Office, 9:30 p.m.)

Cellist Erik Friedlander can often be found lending his skills to a number of important downtown composers. When in the driver's seat, Friedlander's own music is interesting, challenging and cerebral avant-garde jazz that will occasionally incorporate elements of funk and Middle Eastern music.

Avishai Cohen/Andrew Lamb (Wednesday, Oct. 10 at Galapagos, 10 p.m.)

Chick Corea bassist Avishai Cohen has switched to piano to lead this young, globally aware combo. Also on the bill, lyrical avant-garde saxophonist Andrew Lamb is someone who definitely qualifies as a player deserving wider attention.

Eric Mingus (Wednesday, Oct. 10 at North Sixth, 11 p.m.)

The son of Charles Mingus, Eric Mingus also plays bass but he's also a pretty good singer.

THURSDAY

Matthew Shipp

DAYTIME EVENT PANEL: Accepted Eclectic: Jazz Now (Thursday, Oct. 11 in Regent Parlor 2:30- 4:30 p.m.)

Moderator Matthew Shipp is never at a loss of words, and with his background as a musician, A&R guy and producer for Thirsty Ear's Blue Series, he's got something to say on any topic. Joining Shipp will be Ropeadope Records co-founder Andy Hurwitz, thoughtful guitarist Joe Morris, master jazz journalist Howard Mandel, freelance journalist Steve Dollar, and noted jazz booking agent Joel Chriss of Chriss and Co. Ostensibly they'll discuss where jazz is and where it's going (both as music and as a product), but with this crew there is no way to guess where the conversation will end up. A breakout session will follow the panel.

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Thirsty Ear Blue Series Showcase (Thursday, Oct. 11 at the Cutting Room, 9 p.m.)

Pianist Matthew Shipp and bassist William Parker began working together more than a decade ago in a number of different contexts — one of the most beautiful being their duo work together — and have since become one of the most transcendent and inseparable pairs in jazz. Violinist Mat Maneri has been called the future of downtown jazz. Trumpeter Roy Campbell will lead the group that appeared on the stunning new It's Krunch Time. Joe Morris's new trio with bassist from another planet Timo Shanko is absolutely mind blowing. Rarely do four such talented groups appear on the same bill.

FRIDAY

DAYTIME EVENT

One-On-One With Billy Martin

(Friday, Oct. 12, at the West Ballroom, 12:15 p.m.)

Since 1991, drummer Billy Martin has helped Medeski Martin And Wood redefine jazz improvisation and has also added a unique groove to albums by Cibo Matto, Chris Whitley, DJ Logic among others. Don't miss out as journalist Mitch Myers (Downbeat, Wired, Magnet) leads this one-on-one conversation with one of music's most adventuresome timekeepers.

Karl Denson

NIGHTTIME EVENTS

Karl Denson (Friday, Oct. 12 at B.B. King, 9 p.m.)

Saxophonist Karl Denson's down and dirty Dance Lesson #2 funk-ed-up the jazz charts but good earlier this year, and now Denson and his Tiny Universe band will show us why that hot disc still doesn't quite capture the searing energy that the band is capable of on any given night. Get there early — this will sell out.

EZ Pour Spout (Friday, Oct. 12 at CBGB's downstairs, 10 p.m.)

This kooky crew does downtown jazz takes on tunes like the A-Team's theme song, AC/DC and Nirvana. We pity the foo who don't check this out.

Freight Elevator Quartet/ Harriet Tubman (Friday, Oct. 12 at Knitting Factory, 10 p.m.)

Freight Elevator Quartet hangs with DJ Spooky and runs in avant-garde circles. Harriet Tubman is downtown jazz power trio led by guitarist Brandon Ross.

Dave Tronzo/Chris Dahlgren/Matt Wilson/Steven Bernstein (Friday, Oct. 12 and Saturday, Oct. 13 at the Knitting Factory Old Office, 8 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.)

Guitarist Dave Tronzo, bassist Chris Dahlgren, drummer Matt Wilson and slide trumpeter Steven Bernstein come together for a four set stint of improvisations that are influenced by everything from Stockhausen to Babe Ruth to the blues to American popular song. No doubt Bernstein's mouth will be in full effect as well.

CRITIC'S CORNER

JOHN COLTRANE

The Olatunji Concert: The Last Live Recording (Impulse!-Verve)

John Coltrane would have turned 75 years old this year, but was snatched away on July 17, 1967 after losing a battle with cancer. At Coltrane's request, The Olatunji Concert was recorded at Harlem's Olatunji Center

For African Arts just three months before the saxophonist's death, and it's nothing short of a revelation. Coltrane is tireless in his attack: flurries of notes fly forth, leading one to wonder how such vibrant music could be the words of a dying man.

The music is poorly recorded by modern standards (street noise apparently caused engineer Bernard Drayton to turn off some of the mics facing open windows), but the spirit in this recording shines through easily. The band did only two tunes in its hour-long set — the 28-minute "Ogunde," based on the Afro-Brazilian folk song "Ogunde Varere," and a 35-minute version of "My Favorite Things," which would be Trane's final recorded rendition of a song he played more than any other during his 1960s performances.

Pharoah Sanders, true to his form back then, sounds like a very pissed-off goose, creating steely squeals and disturbed wails that are shocking in their intensity, particularly 20 minutes into "Things." Coltrane counters with a more articulate approach, working his way through the material in his typically detailed fashion and exploring every nook and cranny of an idea before moving on. Even amid the overbearing percussion, the horn players are able to rise above the fray. Alice Coltrane and Jimmy Garrison don't fare as well — their quieter instruments get lost during the more uproarious moments. Nevertheless, Garrison does get his share of the spotlight during the solo intro to "My Favorite Things," while Alice steps out when there is room.

On a whole, though, this recording is about Coltrane. As intense and inspiring as Interstellar Space and as panoramic as Live In Japan, The Olatunji Concert is the final vibrant word from the prophet, and it seems now that his message is more emphatic than ever: music is life.

HERBIE NICHOLS PROJECT

Strange City (Palmetto)

There is nothing ill-conceived or misguided about this all-star group working through the compositions of Herbie Nichols, who released a handful of dates for Blue Note and Bethlehem before dying of leukemia in 1963, impoverished and underappreciated. Like a more linear Monk, Nichols's tunes were angular, imaginative and unpredictable bop gems ahead of their time. The Project, led by bassist Ben Allison and pianist Frank Kimbrough, along with regular cohorts like drummer Matt Wilson onboard, works through 10 Nichols compositions with a light touch, bringing out his singular style without digressing into a cover band — for example, Nichols usually worked with a trio, and this is a septet with four lush-sounding horns. With much of the material seeing the light of day for the first time (with the exception of "Shuffle Montgomery" and "Moments Magical"), Strange City comes from unrecorded sheet music, truly qualifying it as buried treasure.

RAY'S MUSIC EXCHANGE

Turanga (Delvian)

Caught in the same strange whirlpool of avant-garde, rock, funk and world music that is the calling card for some of the better jam bands out there, Cincinnati's mercurial Ray's Music Exchange shows a good amount of artistic chutzpah and musicianship on the band's second album, Turanga. The dozen tracks jump genres like low hurdles with the group exhibiting all the attention span and abandon of a hyperactive nine-year-old. This will no doubt be a hit with peeps looking to get their groove on.

FEATURED EVENTS

HILTON NEW YORK 1335 AVENUE OF THE AMERICAS (BETWEEN 53RD AND 54TH ST.)

INNOVATIONS IN SOUND: DJ CLINIC

GRAND BALLROOM |
Thursday, Oct. 11, 2001 2:00PM

DJ's of all stripes and genres take to the decks to show – and explain – the magic they're creating on the wheels of steel. Panelists include Ming & FS, Navdeep Nijher, and Rob Swift and Total Eclipse of the X-ecutioners. Hosted by CMJ's Piotr Orlov and Gang Starr's Guru.

ONE ON ONE WITH BILLY MARTIN

BALLROOM | Friday, Oct. 12, 2001, 12:15PM

As the percussive third of Medeski, Martin and Wood, drummer Billy Martin (aka illy B) has helped to redefine the shape of jazz and expand the boundaries of popular musical taste, bringing the avant garde to mainstream audiences. As a genre-defying scenemaker, he's been a driving force in a variety of forward-looking musical projects, including New York's recent Turntable Sessions performance series. Martin recently broadened his already expansive horizons by releasing Groove, Bang and Jive Around, a collection of distinctive breakbeat and percussion samples that's the first volume in the illy B Eats series, an ongoing collaborative project in which DJs and musicians will use his beats in original compositions and submit the results to Martin for an upcoming compilation album. Groove, Bang and Jive Around is the latest release on Martin's Amulet label, whose mission is to expose innovative percussion and avant-garde music to a wider audience. Respected jazz journalist Mitch Myers will be asking the questions.

THURSDAY, OCT. 11, 2001

AVERAGE PANEL TIME IS 75 MINUTES

10:15AM

CLINTON HOW THE CMJ CHARTS ARE COMPILED:

How are the charts compiled? CMJ New Music Report's Editor-in-Chief Colin Helms divulges the secrets behind the charts in a 20-minute lecture.

11:00AM

GRAND BALLROOM TOWN MEETING:

College Radio Stations And Its Fans Discuss And Debate

An open forum for college radio personnel to let their voices be heard.

NASSAU NEWS OF THE WORLD:

New World's Wisdom About Itself And Its Fans

"New World" music is, by definition, both new and world-wide, and therefore impossible to define. What do new world musicians and industry folks think of current trends in music, marketing tactics and world recognition? (A New World Breakout Session directly follows this panel).

MODERATOR:

• Bill Bragin/The Public Theater, Director, Joe's Pub

PANELISTS:

- Paulo Andre M Pires/Abril Pro Rock, Music Festival

- Veronica Gonzalez/Elemental Media, Inc., President
- Karsh Kale/Six Degrees Records, Artist
- Chris Gray/Quango
- Gigi/Artist

GRAMERCY A FIGHT FOR YOUR RIGHT TO COPY:

Copyright Protection, And You

There's been a lot of legal discussion about what the labels, publishers and web sites can and cannot do with works of art. How do the swirling debates affect you, whether you're a college radio DJ, an artist, an avid fan or the owner of a small label?

MODERATOR:

• Kenneth Freundlich/Schleimer & Freundlich LLP, Partner

PANELISTS:

- Paul LiCalsi/RubinBaum, Partner
  - David Fagin/The Rosenbergs
- More to be announced

MURRAY HILL A FOR YOUR EARS ONLY:

Publicity's Concerns Now

If press "doesn't sell records," what does it do? And how?

MODERATOR:

• Richard Martin/CMJ, Deputy Editor

PANELISTS:

- Meryl Wheeler/Virgin Records, Sr. Director Publicity/East Coast
- Versa Manos/Gorgeous PR, President

HILTON NEW YORK 1335 AVENUE OF THE AMERICAS (BETWEEN 53RD AND 54TH ST.)

KARSH KALE

LAURA CANTRELL

WEDNESDAY,
OCT. 10, 2001

1:00
TIFFANY ANDREWS

Anders colors her gentle pop with an overriding sense of longing. Even her more forceful approach is characterized by simple, but sharp indie rock-styled guitar and drum backing – comes off as downcast and urgent, as if Anders's sweet voice was merely a cloak for some darker, more desperate emotion.

2:00
KARSH KALE

One of the most prominent figures in the genre-bending Asian Massive movement, Karsh Kale (pronounced kursh kah-lay) has collaborated with the likes of Sting, Paula Cole, Herbie Hancock, Bill Laswell and DJ Spooky and is a stylistic innovator who fuses traditional Indian instruments with electronic music on his debut album Realize.

3:00
BRYAN VARGAS Y
¡YA ESTA!

Hitting you hard like a hurricane, ¡YA ESTÁ! invoke the spirits with the rumble of drums and the screams of electric guitars. They're the new generation of rumberos, mixing Cuban son, rumba, funk, soul & bebop while giving props to the orishas.

4:00
LAPTOP
*Laptop, aka musician/actor/filmmaker Jesse Hartman, formerly of ill-fated major-label act Sammy, makes wry electro-pop on his one-man-band's debut album Opening Credits.*

THURSDAY,
OCT. 11, 2001

12:00
HEM
*On its self-released debut album Rabbit Songs, this captivating NYC combo plays rootsy, organically, eclectic piano-based folk-rock, incorporating mandolin, strings and woodwinds, and highlighted by Sally Ellyson's lilting vocals.*

1:00
LAURA CANTRELL
*Nashville-bred, Brooklyn-based alt-country queen Laura Cantrell maintains dual careers as a popular local songstress and host of WFMU's Saturday-afternoon Radio Thrift Shop. In her on-air incarnation, Cantrell displays the same sort of loving reverence for trad honky-tonk that she demonstrates on her debut album Not the Tremblin' Kind.*

2:00
MARK AARON JAMES
Voted best local songwriter in a Nashville Scene readers' poll, Mark's hook-laden songs are steeped in American rock and pop traditions and complimented live with a charismatic style and wit.

3:00
JOHN CARLIN
With grit in his teeth and a swagger in his soul, former 700 Miles leader Carlin delivers bluesy, soaring folk-rock.

4:00
BLAKE HAZARD
The singing/songwriting/guitar-playing great-granddaughter of F. Scott Fitzgerald is also a young veteran of the Boston rock scene who's worked with some of Beantown's finest players.

FRIDAY,
OCT. 12, 2001

12:00
URSA MINOR
New York trio fronted by singer/key-boardist Michelle Casillas delivers introspective tunes with dreamy, languid melodies.

1:00
THE BUSY SIGNALS
*On the Busy Signals' current album Pretend Hits, founder and mastermind Howard W. Hamilton III deconstructs the elements of pop, hip-hop, electro and movie soundtracks, and reconstitutes them into a distinctive sound that incorporates impish humor and a homey back-porch vibe.*

2:00
DRUMS & EFFECTS
The NYC duo of Mike Keller and Roger Moore combine solid electro grooves, smart samples and sonic showmanship.

3:00
REVEREND VINCE
ANDERSON
Move over Iggy, The Reverend is the missing link between Screaming Jay Hawkins and Victor Borge. Anderson is a classically trained gospel piano player with intense chops and an equally intense sense of humor. Expect anything and everything including wild testifying and a minor miracle or two.

4:00
THE AFROSHEENS
One-man quirk-pop orchestra Afshin Beheshti launched the Afrosheens in Minneapolis before moving to Tallahassee, Florida, where he continues to make distinctive music under the Afrosheens moniker, both as a solitary studio artist and with an assortment of local musicians.

5:00
SIN ROPAS
Formed from the creative splinters of Red Red Meat, Tim Hurley & Co. juxtapose traditional songwriting ideas and instrumentation (banjo, acoustic and slide guitars and vocal harmonies) with unearthly modern machine music, creating a sound that is simultaneously ancient and futuristic.

SATURDAY,
OCT. 13, 2001

12:00
RESERVOIR
Former Space Needle drummer Jud Ehrbar's combo Reservoir offers wide-ranging flights of fancy that run the sonic gamut from serene simplicity to crunching space-rock crescendos.

1:00
MINK LUNGS
*Williamsburg, Brooklyn's energetic Mink Lungs boasts four distinct singer/writers with four distinct personalities. The quartet's broad range of interests serves it well on its debut album The Better Button, which bounces from fuzzed-out pop to twangy-psychedelia to frantic punk.*

WHAT ABOUT ME: The Rise of the Nihilist Spasm Band Sun. 10/14 4:15

The first feature-length documentary on Canada's infamous experimental noise-group. What about Me traces the 35-year history of the group, from its origins in ultra-conservative London, Ontario, to the tragic death of one of its founding members, artist Greg Curnow, to the band's recent tours of Japan.

THE JOURNEY OPENS FRIDAY 10/26

Directed by Eric Saperston (2001, 90 min) Recent college graduate Eric Saperston drove across the country in a 1971 Volkswagen Bus on a quest to discover the answers to some of life's most pertinent questions. With no connections, he managed to interview an astonishing array of people, including Jerry Garcia, Billy Crystal, Jimmy Carter, Ann Richards and Ken Kesey. Starting off as a personal journey with a still camera and a journal, Eric found others willing to join his search and expanded to a crew of five with a video camera. The film chronicles their progress as they seek knowledge in the experiences of others. Featuring the music of Edwin McCain, Hootie & the Blowfish, Arlo Guthrie, The Indigo Girls, and Sister Hazel.

CITIZEN TOXIE: THE TOXIC AVENGER PART IV OPENS FRIDAY 11/2

Directed by Lloyd Kaufman (2001, 90 min) Legendary independent studio Troma at last fulfills the longings of its loyal fans by bringing its most well-known character back to the screen. The Toxic Avenger, the world's best-loved nuclear-waste accident mutant nerd superhero, is back in action. The citizens of picturesque Tromaville, New Jersey are facing a new danger: Toxie's evil twin from another dimension, Noxie, a foe with all of the strength but none of the Dudley Do-Right instincts of our hero. When a nuclear blast transports the pair into each others' worlds, Toxie must fight his way back to save Tromaville before Noxie destroys it! Featuring Lard-Ass, Ron Jeremy, and Hank the Angry Drunken Dwarf as God.

CROSSOVER DGA THEATER

FC Presents "Crossover," directed by Oscar-nominated filmmaker Steven Cantor (Blood Ties: The Life and Work of Sally Mann and Bounce: Behind the Velvet Rope). This documentary follows the throngs of musicians that have taken the leap into acting and filmmaking, simultaneously filling concert halls and packing movie houses, a not-so-recent phenomenon that has spanned generations, genders, and genres.

Through film clips, archival footage and interviews with Bette Midler (The Rose), IceT (New Jack City), Meatloaf (Fight Club), Dwight Yoakam (Sling Blade), (Sugar Town), Kiss' Gene Simmons (Runaway), Willie Nelson (The Electric Horseman), Naughty by Nature's Treach (Face), Cypress Hill's B-Real (MacArthur Park), The Verve Pipe's Brian Vander Ark (Mergers & Acquisitions), Orgy's Ryan Schuck (The Forsaken) and X's John Doe (Boogie Nights), the documentary tracks the history of the trend and examines what it takes to straddle both worlds.

The screening will be followed by a special Q & A session with Director Steven Cantor and others involved with the film.

DIRECTOR: Steven Cantor
RUNNING TIME: 48:00

The following short film precedes the feature:

I NEVER METAMORPHOSIS
I DIDN'T LIKE

A cockroach wakes under a copy of Franz Kafka's "Metamorphosis" to find himself changed into a full grown man. Abandoned by his parents and alone in the world, he seeks out the resident of the apartment, Sally, a struggling musician. Once initiated into the nefarious world of the music industry, however, it's time for the Cockroach/Man to embrace new ambitions and discover if he's a man or a bug.

HELICOPTER

In the aftermath of Bill Graham's fatal helicopter crash, a young man tries to remember the face of his mother — one of the less famous passengers on board that day. An autobiographical tale of love, rock and roll, and violent loss.

WRITER/DIRECTOR/PRODUCER: Ari Gold
CO-PRODUCER: Sarah Bassine
COMPOSER: Ethan Gold
RUNNING TIME: 21:00

THURSDAY 2:30PM

HEDWIG AND THE ANGRY INCH DGA THEATER

Adapted from the critically acclaimed off-Broadway rock theatre hit, Hedwig and the Angry Inch tells the story of an "internationally ignored" rock singer, Hedwig, and her search for stardom and love. Born a boy named Hansel whose life's dream is to find his other half, he reluctantly submits to a sex change operation in order to marry an American G.I. and get over the Berlin Wall to freedom. The operation is botched, leaving him/her with the aforementioned "angry inch." Finding herself high, dry and divorced in a Kansas trailer park, Hedwig pushes on to form a rock band.

Through a collage of songs, flashbacks and animation, Hedwig tells her life story while on a tour of chain strip-mall seafood restaurants, trying to capitalize on her tabloid celebrity as the supposed ex-lover of a famed rock star who stole her songs. Somewhere between the crab cakes and the cramped motel rooms, between the anguish and the acid-wash, she pursues her dreams and discovers the origin of love.

Since its recent nationwide release, Hedwig has been hailed as a work of raw genius, incorporating philosophical ruminations, irreverent set design, great cult-ready rock songs, and inspired direction. James Cameron Mitchell, who has played Hedwig since creating the character, also wrote and directed the film. The witty and wig-flipping soundtrack was composed by Stephen Trask.

Composer Stephen Trask and record producer Tim O'Heir will be on hand for an exclusive CMJ Q & A session following the screening.

WRITER/DIRECTOR: John Cameron Mitchell
PRODUCERS: Christine Vachon, Pamela Koffler, Katie Roumel for Killer Films
MUSIC COMPOSED BY: Stephen Trask
RUNNING TIME: 88:00

The following short film precedes the feature:

FLYTRAP

Flytrap is a sexy comedy about Roger, a young Queens native unable to master the language of his beautiful Latina classmate and object of his desire. His sultry Spanish teacher, with a lesson plan all her own, seduces Roger in a series of private sessions that teach him all the wrong moves.

WRITER/DIRECTOR/PRODUCER: Miles Kahn
ORIGINAL MUSIC: Charles Owens
MUSIC PERFORMED BY: the Charles Owens Quartet
RUNNING TIME: 11:00

Top to Bottom: Hedwig And The Angry Inch, Concert For Bangladesh, Helicopter

THURSDAY MIDNIGHT

DJ QBERT'S WAVE TWISTERS: THE MOVIE

PIONEER THEATER

FOLLOWING UP ON THE PARTIAL SNEAK PREVIEW AT CMJ FILMFEST 2000, CMJ PROUDLY PRESENTS THIS ONE-OF-A-KIND FILM IN ITS ENTIRETY.

WTM is an eye-popping, hip-hop-meets-Hanna-Barbera, animated adventure synced scratch for scratch with DJ QBERT's original turntable masterpiece of the same name. Each track of QBERT's album was designed to provide the audio framework for another chapter in this sci-fi/kung-fu epic; every aspect of the story, music, sound effects (even dialogue) has been accounted for and seamlessly integrated into QBERT's original musical compositions.

DIRECTORS: Syd Garon & Eric Henry

PRODUCER: Yoga Frog

MUSIC: DJ QBERT

RUNNING TIME: 50:00

Top to Bottom: DJ QBERT's Wave Twisters, Ultraviolet, It's Hard

The following shorts will precede DJ QBERT's Wave Twisters:

EVERYTHING HITS AT ONCE

It could be Friday night. Or not. It's all the same to X. Hours to fill between work and bed. Maybe he won't dream about her tonight. That they're together again.

DIRECTOR/PRODUCER: Divya Srinivasan

MUSIC: Spoon/Britt Daniel

RUNNING TIME: 4:30

ULTRAVIOLET

Paul Budnitz's debut short is shot in impressionistic splashes of light and color. A lovelorn killer is addicted to a drug supplied by his employers. He falls in love with a girl he follows home only to discover passion has shattered the delicate balance of his life forever.

DIRECTOR: Paul Budnitz

ORIGINAL SCORE: Sean Hiemstra

FRIDAY MIDNIGHT

PLASTER CASTER

PIONEER THEATER

Plaster Caster is an intimate documentary portrait of legendary artist and groupie, Cynthia Plaster Caster – famous for plaster casting the penises of rock stars, including, most notoriously, Jimi Hendrix. The film explores how Cynthia developed her unique pursuit, follows the ups and downs of casting sessions with a shy guitarist and an extroverted glam rocker, and goes along for the ride as Cynthia prepares for her first gallery show in New York City. Featuring candid interviews with "castees," candidates, and commentators- Noel Redding (The Jimi Hendrix Experience), Jello Biafra (Dead Kennedys), Eric Burdon (The Animals), Pete Shelley (The Buzzcocks), Jon Langford (Mekons), Wayne Kramer (MC5), Paul Barker (Ministry), as well as author Camille Paglia and artist Ed Paschke – Plaster Caster goes beyond the mythology and asks the question, "is it really art?"

DIRECTOR: Jessica Villines

EXECUTIVE PRODUCER: Melanie Villines

MUSIC SUPERVISORS: Jessica Villines & Brian Johnson

RUNNING TIME: 103:00

The following short will precede the feature:

IT'S HARD

A teenage private school girl is initiated into the dangerous and exciting world of clandestine feel-copping and after-school bleacher snogging with her first sweetheart. But her idyllic dream is shattered when she encounters his erect penis. In a world where hand jobs are given out like chocolate gelt on Chanukah, what is a penis-petrified girl to do?

DIRECTOR/PRODUCER: Julie Scott Edwards

CO-PRODUCER: Jonny D.Q. Shier

MUSIC SUPERVISOR: Greg Edwards

RUNNING TIME: 13:00

SATURDAY 1:00PM

KARAOKE FEVER
PIONEER THEATER

Karaoke Fever is a funny and heartfelt journey into the world of hard-core Karaoke contests. The filmmakers follow six hopefuls as they compete for one of the coveted spaces in America's largest singing contest Karaoke Fest! Vying for fifteen thousand dollars and a recording contract, these individuals are not only singing for someone else's entertainment, they're singing for their lives. Going beyond the familiar (yet drunken and off-key) karaoke bar experience, Karaoke Fever documents the real lives of real people with dreams that remain just out of reach. Gut wrenching as often as it is laugh-out-loud funny, Karaoke Fever will inspire you to release that Sinatra or Elvis trapped inside every one of us.

DIRECTORS: Steve Danielson & Arthur Borman
EXECUTIVE PRODUCER: Vince DiPersio
PRODUCER: Adam Bardach
RUNNING TIME: 90:00

SATURDAY MIDNIGHT

PUNK ROCK/HEAVY METAL KARAOKE: THE MOVIE
PIONEER THEATER

PRHKM takes karaoke to its logical extreme: in a world where everyone wants to be a rock star, why not give them the opportunity to do so? This documentary follows the Monday night scene at the Lower East Side's Arlene Grocery. Here, a band of well-rehearsed music geeks plays classic covers not available in the karaoke hall, and invites members of the audience to take on the role of frontperson.

With over 18 interviews (including Greg Hetson of Bad Religion) and scores of punk and metal songs belted by both amateur musicians and virgin performers, Punk Rock/Heavy Metal Karaoke testifies to the redemptive powers of the rock experience with wit, glee, and volume.

PRODUCER/DIRECTOR: Sonny JL Aronson
EDITOR: Tory Max Harris
MUSIC: Guns 'N' Roses, Sex Pistols, Kiss, The Ramones, and many more

Voted Rock Radio's favorite trade publication*

The original Top 40 programming guide

"FMQB is the trade I recommend to programmers who want to know where to turn to learn how to run a station. Learn how to aircheck a staff? FMQB. Learn how to handle a tough morning show? FMQB. Find out how to motivate your staff? FMQB. Everybody has charts. FMQB is the trade that will help build a radio station."

ATTENTION: INDIE LABELS!

Think you've got a hit?

Then you can't afford NOT to go to Commercial Radio!

But CAN you afford it?

Music Meeting is the way to deliver music affordably to over 2400 commercial stations covering all formats: Alternative, Active Rock, Pop, Urban, and more!

Music Meeting is an online alliance between Radio & Records (R&R, the industry's leading trade publication) and Liquid Audio. Music Meeting streams and downloads new releases to Program Directors and Music Directors in all formats that R&R represents!

For a FRACTION of what it would cost you to produce and mail CDs, you can get your music to the TOP decision-makers in commercial radio!!! Compete with the Majors on an indie budget!

For more information, contact:(310) 788-1605 or email DRamos@rrmusicmeeting.com!

5 CURRENT FAVORITES

ESTHERO Breath From Another • DEFACTO Megaton Shotblast • CHICKS ON SPEED The Unreleases • RANDY GREIF Alice In Wonderland series • TWILIGHT CIRCUS DUB SOUND SYSTEM Volcanic Dub

How many watts is your station? How many people do you reach?

Our transmitter thing is pretty lame, it blew up on us over New Year's. I think the wattage is only in the 50s. I don't know. I do know the kids love us, though.

What's the station motto/your personal programming philosophy?

Supposedly "The Underground Sound," but personally I dig "The Gagged-And-Bound Sound."

How long have you been and will you be M.D.?

I'm currently in my third year as Mistress Dominatrix. There's no tearing down this castle, unless you have a bottle of my best friend, Mr. Merlot.

What do you do to build your station's audience?

The ever-so-great fundraisers. We promote and put on shows, post charts at rekkid stores, walk around the mall like kings and queens in our station shirts giving away CDs and stickers, and offer chances to win a date with a DJ.

Who are you most proud of bringing by the station?

We have some 8-tracks of some crazy '80s bands that stopped by back in the day, I guess to make station IDs. I should sell them on eBay.

Are you on the air? What kind of show do you do?

I have been for the past three-and-a-half years, and I'm finally about to take a break. Damn, is my bladder full! I participate mostly in the beat-y world, electronix of all kinds, dub, hippity hop, experimental as well as the occasional rock 'n' roll madness.

What's the most fucked-up thing that ever happened to you on the air?

I've had homemade poems read to me on the air and girls bring me cupcakes. I guess that's not really fucked up. Hmm... I've banged my knee a few dozen times, and probably swallowed a few of the pesky gnats.

What's the best promo item you've ever received? The worst?

I love getting toys! The dog chew toys were tasty. The inflatable-in-water whale was a slimy fun time. The garters and edible chocolate undies are being used wisely.

What's the best use for a CD other than storing music?

Attach some string and you've got a shiny new bra! Get enough poop CD's and you can create your own cyber-robotic, space-age pimp outfit.

Every station has that one old dude from the local town that's been doing a show since anyone can remember. Who is it at your station, what kind of show do they do, and what's their deal?

This guy named EO has had the same Friday night "Deckadance" show for like 15 years. Nuts. I think he's been in every managerial position available at one time or another, too. He's one of those interesting types.

Name one CD you're embarrassed to say you own.

The Party. Anyone remember them? "Oooooohhhh OHHHH OHHHH! I found love this time..." The MMC creation band of the early, early '90s.

Why did you go into college radio?

It was actually because my friend thought one of the guys working the KSCU booth was cute, so we tried to research and find out who he was. Then, I eventually started listening, fell in love with it all, showed up at the meetings, and bam! Venus Haight was born. We never did find the cute guy, though.

If you could see anyone live (dead or living), who would it be and why?

I'll take the Beasties any day. Even if I'm on the rag, puking my guts out, losing my left ear and my hair is falling out. I'd be there, front row center. Them and Michael Jackson, hello!
