That's maestro Benny Goodman congratulating click chirp Peggy Lee, one of the hottest fem vocalists in the nation, on her recent sensational success with "Golden Earrings", "I'll Dance At Your Wedding", "All Dressed Up With A Broken Heart" and last, but certainly not least, her rendition of "Manana". These recordings put the national spotlight on the gal after an absence of seven years. Peggy was Benny's thrush during the famed maestro's "King of Swing" days, and first blossomed out with her rendition of "Why Don't You Do Right". Benny's recent "Beyond The Sea" and "For Every Man There's A Woman" started the storm breaking again for the maestro. The latter side also teamed the thrush and tootler, much to every music lover's delight. Benny is currently prepping a personal appearance spot at the famed Click Club, Philadelphia, this coming May 24, with his sextet. Peggy recently closed a very successful series at Ciro in Hollywood and is soon to start work on a forthcoming MGM motion picture. She also plans an extensive road tour which will take her into New York's Paramount Theatre this summer. Peg and Ben are exclusive Capitol recording artists.

THE CASH BOXRecord Reviews

"I've Had My Moments" (2:42)
"Train Blues" (2:23)

ROY MILTON
(Specialty 524)

● Roy Milton and his crew come through for ops in a big way here with a duo dab of wax for ops with race spots. Sparkling the top deck with hush-hush treatment, Roy sets pipes to spin off an alluring touch to "I've Had My Moments". Disk appears to be extremely attractive, and should come in for a load of coin once it gets around. Background music by the group blends adequately to boom this deck all the more. Roy pulls a switch on the flip to go off to the other end with a ton of hot and holler. Stuff is tailor made for the fast set that love to jump. Keep in mind Milton's sensational popularity and then run out and get next to this bit.

"Far Into The Night" (2:58)
"La Ola Marina" (2:56)

IRVING FIELDS
(Victor 26-9026)

● Light piano fashions by the capable ivory tinkler Irving Fields spill here and show as wax to which ops with wired music locations can latch onto. It's the top deck, titled "Far Into The Night" that seems attractive, with the haunting melody and refrain offered beckoning coin play. Light background patterns flavor the cookie all the way. Flip is the widely known and popular "La Ola Marina", with maestro Irving at the '88' once again. Stuff is suited to the crowd that goes for light rhumba rhythms. Both sides deserve your listening time.

"Laroo, Laroo, Lilli Bolero" (2:46)
"The Story of Sorrento" (3:00)

BING CROSBY
(Decca 24404)

● Kicking up a storm in phonos throughout the nation, this nostalgic bit by Bing Crosby serves as another rendition that should draw buffalo hide into the jukes. It's the fond "Laroo, Laroo, Lilli Bolero" with Bing ably assisted by the effective Ken Darby Choir. Crosby's tonsils pitch equally as well for the flip favorite, "The Story of Sorrento". Wax makes for delightful listening pleasure and should suit the many Crosby fans to a "T." Top deck is the one that grabs and holds the spotlight. Ops that haven't already latched on to this tune should take a look-see here.

"Bride & Groom Polka" (2:43)
"Evelyn" (3:00)

KAY KYSER ORCH.
(Columbia 38169)

● More mellow music from the Kay Kyser domain with a pair of attractive coin cullers in the offering. It's the bright set-up of "Bride and Groom Polka" that seems so appealing here. Piper Harry Babbitt teams with the Campus Kids to render the nostalgic wordage, beating a path around the title. Waxing is light and leaves plenty of room for the dance crowd to move about in. On the backing with a fond, romantic ditty titled "Evelyn", Harry gives out with loads of sweet wordage about his favorite gal. Stuff is smoothly finished and shows as an enticing performance. "Bride and Groom Polka" will draw coin-play.

DISK O'THE WEEK

"A Little Imagination" (3:03)
"What Do I Have To Do?" (3:06)

VAUGHN MONROE ORCH.
(Victor 20-2811)

VAUGHN MONROE

● Pair of sides that should create a mild storm in disk circles are these done up in top manner by Vaughn Monroe. Both tunes, heavily plugged via the Universal-International flicker "Are You With It" show as extremely attractive sides to which music ops throughout the nation can latch onto. Top deck, featuring maestro Vaughn, Madelyn Russell and the Moon Maids makes for splendid moments of musical charm and pleasure. Vaughn's deep tonsils flavor the wax throughout with chirp Madelyn and the vocal combo blending also. Wax is light and as offered shows the band in wonderful manner. Flip is another piece that will mean phono play for music ops. Maestro Vaughn on deck again for the setting of "What Do I Have To Do?" Wordage spills around the title throughout the entire waxing, with Vaughn in the vocal spotlight for the light, velvet wordage. The many Monroe fans, and others too, should climb on the bandwagon for this piece. Both sides for some heavy play in the boxes.

"Misery Is A Thing Called Moe" (2:50)
"This Is A Fine Time" (2:56)

ETTA JONES
(Victor 20-2782)

● The pipes on this kid should boom this hunk of wax way over the top. Seldom mentioned as a flack figure in phono circles, chirp Etta Jones sets her wonderful pipes on a pair that should drag down a ton of coin. Top deck is the one we go for—it's titled "Misery is a Thing Called Moe". Wax weaves in very slow metro with Etta's tonsil tricks offering a galaxy of phono incentive. Stuff is very nostalgic and draws the listener back again for another earful. Flip is picked up a bit, with a heavy beat spilling in the background. Orchestral backing by Luther Henderson spikes the cookie all the way. Grab the top deck!

"I've Got The Situation Well In Hand" (3:00)

"Pray For The Lights To Go Out" (2:57)

DEEK WATSON & THE BROWN DOTS
(Majestic 1244)

● Pair of sides which music ops may use as filler material are these rendered by Deek Watson and The Brown Dots. Titled, "I've Got The Situation Well In Hand" and "Pray For The Lights To Go Out", Deek steps outside for the vocal chorus. Both sides may meet with fair approval on the part of ops who have race locations. Nothing very exciting is offered on the pair, although they do make for pleasant listening. Top deck parrots the title throughout, with Deek wailing the adequate wordage. Flip is a stock race item which shows the group in fair light. Ops that have room in their machines should take note.

"Everybody Eats When They Come To My House" (2:45)
"Ghost Of A Chance" (2:58)

CAB CALLOWAY ORCH.
(Columbia 38171)

● Long missing from the phonos as a name attraction, maestro Cab Calloway, the King of Hi-De-Ho steps out with a pair that might be timely enough to come in for a slew of coin. Top deck, titled "Everybody Eats When They Come To My House" has Cab driving in full voice to this mellow piece. Wordage spills around the title, with the instrumental background provided showing as effective. Natch its the Cab himself who sets the pace on this deck. Flip is a reissue of an all-time great, "Ghost Of A Chance" featuring the immortal Chu Berry on tenor sax. Phono fans that appreciate finer jazz will run wild with this one—that is the extent of its greatness. Take a look-see here.

"A Little Imagination" (3:03)
"What Do I Have To Do?" (3:06)

DICK HAYMES
(Decca 24427)

● More light playful rhythm from the forthcoming Universal-International flicker "Are You With It", with this pair of plug tunes served up by balladeer Dick Haymes. Both sides are offered in mellow manner, with Dick's gilded pipes swinging and singing along delightfully. Top deck is the one that shines—the cute lyrics provided, ably make for adequate listening pleasure. Flip, titled "What Do I Have To Do?" has Dick asking that perennial query found in a romance story. Balance provided by the Vic Shoen ork is fashionable and rounds out the side favorably. Both tunes are due for heavy flack and plugging. Dick's many fans are sure to ask for the pair.

"You Don't Love Me" (2:50)
"X-Temperate Boogie" (2:45)

CAMILLE HOWARD
(Specialty 307)

● Another hot and heavy platter for this diskery with ivory-thrush Camille Howard on top for the spotlight. The gal's pipes spill in flavored tones on this top deck, "You Don't Love Me" with the metro weaving in slow mellow timing to blend to perfection. Slight quiver and catch in her tonsils makes you wanna listen all the more. Stuff is aimed at ops with race spots, with this deck beckoning coin play galore. Flip has Camille offering some pleasant boogie that rolls along in top notch metro bound to suit the likes of the jump set. Phono fans that go for some good piano rhythms surely won't be disappointed with this piece. Both sides will fill your phono with coin.

THE GREATEST NAME  IN ENTERTAINMENT

ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

by Byrde Gore

The "modern Al Jolson," none other than Frankie Laine, had a field day this past week, as he opened before a packed house at Nat Harris' Harem in New York. Frankie had the huge crowd, howling and yowling for more continuously. As a matter of fact, he occupied the solo spot at one stage of the show for close to an hour. The crowd literally "ate up" his rendition of "That's My Desire," "That Ain't Right," "Shine" and "I May Be Wrong." Co-featured on the bill with Frankie was the grand Beatrice Kay, who likewise thrilled the house with her renditions of "Songs of the 90's" and "Mention My Name In Sheboygan." It's a first rate show—and one that is not to be missed.

The influx of bootlegged records on the West Coast certainly seems to have raised a storm of protest in the music industry. The situation certainly is one that is smeared by the foul taste of a group of individuals who are greedy and uncouth enough to pull this stunt. The thieves are undoubtedly familiar with the workings of the disk business. What they seem to have forgotten, is that Uncle Sam enforces a little matter tagged excise tax, and another item labeled income tax. Latest to be hit is Capitol Records, who are reported to have lost quite a number of sales on their click disking of Julia Lee's "King Size Papa." It took an occasion such as this to bring the major diskeries and the independents together.

Alan Dale and Connie Haines clicking like sixty at the Andre Club, Syracuse, New York. Connie and Alan are all thrilled to pieces as their Signature cookies ride in featured spots in juke boxes throughout the land . . . Dick Contino, the non-stop Cinderella boy of the Horace Heidt show, tells us that he has signed a recording contract with Decca Records, and will wax just as soon as the ban is lifted. First side is to be his "Lady Of Spain." . . . George Dalin, professional manager of Feist Music, Inc., in the hospital for a minor operation received a horseshoe of flowers with black crepe thrown around it, from his many pluggers pals. Dalin almost had a relapse and had his nurse toss it out. The boys came back with hot corned beef sandwiches a bit later and really went to town. . . . Disk jockey Dave Miller is really sold on Vaughn Horton's arrangement of "Toolie Oolie Doolie." In a recent broadcast, he mentioned that another version, by a well known combo on a major label, should have its master smashed.

Harry Rosen, Philly distrib for Manor Records burning up the phone for more of Savannah Churchills' "Time Out For Tears." Indications are that this disk will be another big one for Savannah and Manor—possibly bigger than her "I Want To Be Loved." . . . Amigo Music prexy, Dixie Shayer, in a "Rhumba Jubilee" mood having heard that her brother, Sam Shayer, will soon operate his own radio station in Homestead, Pa. The station will feature record and news shows. . . . Contrary to all reports, Charlie Spivak and RCA-Victor have not split ties. Spivak as a matter of fact, figures very prominently in the diskery's forthcoming plans. In the meantime, Spivak's releases continue to flourish as they undoubtedly will for some time to come.

Record Reviews

"Xochimilco" (2:59)
 "Jinguli, Jongolo" (2:51)
 ENRIC MADRIGUERA ORCH.
 (Decca 24407)

● More Latin rhythms for the hep swivelers are these sides by the capable Enric Madriguera ork. With chirp Patricia Gilmore on top for the light melody of the top deck, the wax takes on an attractive air. "Xochimilco," (try and pronounce it) is a light live piece built around this quaint Mexican city. Wordage flows free and clear around it, with Enric and the boys blending smoothly behind it. Flip is a lullaby, with a host of tonsilors purring the cute lyrics. Both sides are fair tunes and can be used as such. Folks that follow Madriguera should find no fault with this pair.

"Heartbreaker" (2:56)
 "Sabre Dance" (2:59)
 THE ANDREWS SISTERS
 (Decca 24427)

● Pair of sides on tunes that are already on the market and are currently kicking up a storm are these offered here in effective fashion by the Andrews Sisters. It's "Heartbreaker" and "Sabre Dance," both heavy coin cullers at the present time. The trio's rendition on the pair shapes up as favorable throughout, and altho it lacks polish, it should draw some play. Harmonica crew back the gals on both sides, with this group displaying their wares in more brilliant style on the flip. Top deck is a string-band craze item with the gals' vocal spot round. Wordage misses on the flip because of the fast pace the wax sets. Stuff can be used as filler material if ops have the spots.

"Just Because" (2:40)
 "Traffic Jam Polka" (2:57)
 FRANK ZAJC POLKATEERS
 (Continental 1228)

● Ditty kicking up a storm throughout the nation is offered here in mellow polka rhythm by Frank Zajc and his Polkateers. Labeled "Just Because," the wax spills in gay, carefree tones that satisfy to offer ops a piece of wax to take note of. Ditty is extremely catchy and as such boosts its phono potential. Flip, "Traffic Jam Polka" parrots the title as a slew of traffic sounds seep thru the polka melody. We like "Just Because"—your many phono customers will also.

"We Just Couldn't Say Goodbye" (2:50)
 "What Do I Have To Do?" (2:53)
 SHEP FIELDS ORCH.
 (Musicraft 521)

● Brilliant fashioned music by maestro Shep Fields and another potential coin winner for music ops with this cookie titled "We Just Couldn't Say Goodbye" and "What Do I Have To Do?" Top deck couples Toni Arden and Bob Johnstone in the vocal spotlight, with the cute, light wordage spilling in fragrant tones. Stuff makes for a load of listening pleasure and is suited to both listeners and dancers. Flip, from the forthcoming Universal-International flicker "Are You With It" is another light, airy affair with chirp Toni Arden on deck in the vocal department. Wax is well fashioned, with Toni's pipes cooing and purring the delicate lyrics in smooth style. Shep's many fans should go for the pair in a big way.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"Blue Shadows On The Trail" (3:07)

"Melody Time" (3:15)

BUDDY CLARK
 (Columbia 38170)

BUDDY CLARK

● Tender tones of piper Buddy Clark grab this featured spot this week. With a pair of brand new tunes from the forthcoming Disney flicker "Melody Time," Buddy steps out to offer "Blue Shadows On the Trail" and the film headliner "Melody Time." The balladeers enchanting and rich display of vocal talent offer the incentive on this wax. Top deck, fashioned in western setting is extremely soft and relaxing, with Buddy's silvery pipes echoing fondly. Beautiful orchestral backing enhances the disks performance all the more. Flip is offered in light manner with a touch of romance thrown in. Once again Buddy's fine voice makes this piece extremely attractive. The wax is due for a heavy amount of publicity once the film breaks, which should add to its coin-winning potential. Get next to this blue ribbon winner for a boost in phono play.

"Tear Drop Blues" (2:49)
 "Cadillac Boogie" (2:51)

JIMMY LIGGINS ORCH.
 (Specialty 521)

● Pair of sides sure to clinch a spot with ops that use this brand are offered in top notch styling by the rapidly rising favorite Jimmy Liggins. Jimmy's smooth pipes spill in fine caliber as he offers a sure winner in "Tear Drop Blues." Wax spins in slow mood, with a solid haunting refrain winding in the background. Backing picks up in metro, with Jimmy on deck again for "Cadillac Boogie." Stuff here is for the jump crowd, with a fine rasping boogie offering the incentive. Take the maestro's wide following into account when you step up to the counter. The wax means buffalo—latch on.

"My Fair Lady" (3:04)
 "Cincinnati" (2:56)
 KAY KYSER ORCH.
 (Columbia 38157)

● Stylish musical setting by maestro Kay Kyser coupled with the enchanting vocal tones of piper Harry Babbitt sets this cookie up as a potential coin culler. Harry's soft, soothing voice spills in mellow volume to the offering of this nostalgic ballad, "My Fair Lady." Stuff is tailor made for the swoon set—add the huge throng of Kyser's fans to the porridge and you've got something that can work for you. Flip shows as another Chamber of Commerce ditty, this time the spiel wags around Cincinnati. Thrush Gloria Wood and the Campus Kids offer the lyrical setting, with the wax earing light and rhythmic throughout. Top deck is the one we like—we're sure you will too.

"Jack-Pot" (2:41)
 "Charlie Comes On" (2:36)

CHARLIE VENTURA
 (Savoy 663)

● Charlie Ventura Quintette and a pair of sides aimed at the hep jazzophile set that appreciate this brand. It's Charlie and his tenor sax that hog the spotlight throughout the pair, with both sides flourishing with loads of mellow reed rhythms throughout. Stuff is hot jazz, and as such might grab a spot on your machine. Rhythm backing behind Charlie shows as favorable. "Jack-Pot" grabs the glory, with the mellow rhythm spilling in top notch tones that satisfy. Ops that have the spots should take a look-see.

"Two-Gun Harry From Tucumcari" (2:49)
 "The Sample Song" (3:00)

DOROTHY SHAY
 (Columbia 38140)

● Cute novelty ditty by thrush Dorothy Shay spills here with both sides holding loads of phono possibilities. Top deck, titled "Two-Gun Harry From Tucumcari" shows the gal in fine voice wailing this pleasant piece wrapped up in the title. Wax is light and breezy throughout and makes for easy listening pleasure. Flip shows just as well as the top deck, with Dorothy chirping about her trials and tribulations regarding her sampling everything under the sun. Ork backing by Mitchell Ayres shows the gal up in high light. Ops that have calls for this brand should find favorable reception to this pairing.

"Sally, Won't You Come Back" (2:53)
 "Cirribin" (2:34)

TED WEEMS ORCH.
 (Mercury 5113)

● Light melodic music suitable to ops that operate wired music locations are these offered here by the Ted Weems ork. Top deck shows as a pleasant bit, with the vocal refrain rendered in stylish manner. Wax parrots the title throughout, and altho it won't stop traffic, it does make for music that is easy on the ears. Flip is another whistle bit, with Elmo Tanner in the spotlight. Ditty should be familiar to most ops, since it has been a standard throughout the years. You take it from here.

Capitol Records To Reopen N.Y. Branch—Name Crowell Manager

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—H. H. Crowell, Jr., formerly manager of Capitol Records' Pittsburgh branch, is assuming management and preliminary work connected with setting up a branch in New York City. This appointment was announced this past week by Floyd A. Bittaker, Vice President and General Sales Manager for the plattery.

Capitol's New York branch was closed by fire at the end of 1947 and has been inoperative since. Dealers usually serviced by that branch have received service from Brooklyn and other branches meanwhile.

John Coveney, who had been manager of the New York City branch at the time of the fire, was assigned new duties in the firm's International Division and will continue in that position.

John Trifero, formerly a salesman in Capitol's Boston branch, has been assigned as new manager for the Pittsburgh branch.

The New York City branch will be opened early in May at 109 East 116th St., the plattery disclosed.

Coast Records Take Over Lamplighter Masters

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—Charles Washburn, president of Coast Records, announced the acquisition of all masters cut under the Lamp Lighter label.

Ted Yerka, head of Lamp Lighter, completed a deal whereby Coast will release all of the former plattery's disks under the Coast label, bearing a special series to be known as the "Lamplighter Series."

The exact number of masters involved has not been determined in the transaction, altho 200 sides are estimated to have figured in the deal. To date only a small portion of these sides were ever released.

Among these masters are sides done with Charlie Ventura, Bob Zurke, Count Basie, Kay Starr and other jazz musicians of note.

First sides to be released under this new Coast series will be two by Kay Starr, "Frying Pan" and "I Cried For You". Musical background used on these sides consist of small combos of top musicians. Coast had been concentrating in the Latin field and recently released several pop and race records. The Coast plattery recently inked Dorothy Lamour to a long term recording contract.

Eli Oberstein, RCA-Victor Artist Chief, Guest Speaker at Philly Music Ops Ass'n Meeting

Discusses Problems of Phono Operation and Disk Biz with Association Members; Ops Laud Talk

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Eli Oberstein, artist and repertoire chief at RCA-Victor Records, appeared as guest speaker at a meeting of the Philadelphia Phonograph Operators Association this past week.

The meeting of the association, a weekly event, was regarded by many operators to be one of the most beneficial ever conducted. Operators unanimously applauded Mr. Oberstein's discourse on the recording business.

Oberstein discussed with the operators, in "down to earth language" the problems confronting both the music operator and the manufacturer.

Music operators have long believed that what the entire industry needed was a common ground on which music operators, as the purchaser of recordings, could meet the record manufacturers and discuss their mutual problems. It is fairly evident, that when both these factions meet, any decisions or progress made, would be most beneficial to the operators and the record manufacturer.

A letter received from Charles F. Hanum, business manager for the trade group voiced the sentiments of the many operators who attended.

"Eli Oberstein was here at our meeting and talked to the operators, explaining very thoroughly and in the most interesting manner, the demands of the record business. Eli went into a discourse on records that was second to none. I honestly believe that if all operators had a better understanding of problems confronting the record companies and the manufacture of records, they (the operators) would be better equipped in buying records, and know definitely when they were getting their money's worth. We cannot speak too highly of him, and we feel that we need more men of his type in our industry."

Other music associations, upon hearing of Mr. Oberstein's guest appearance at the Philadelphia meeting were learned to be contemplating inviting representatives of recording companies to their weekly meetings. The music ops association also announced that their next Click Tune Party, sponsored by the association in conjunction with the Philadelphia Daily News and Frank Palumbo's Click Cafe, will be held on April 24.

"Nature Boy" Has Many Diskers Rushing To Cut

NEW YORK—The storm of approval that has greeted the release of the novel and unique dinking of "Nature Boy," by King Cole on Capitol has diskers running helter-skelter, trying to cut.

Joining the ranks of disks released on the click song are records released late this past week by Frank Sinatra on Columbia, and Sarah Vaughn on Musicraft. Both are reported to have utilized a choir to supplement for the lack of orchestral support. Meanwhile, distributors of all three are reported loaded with orders. Musicraft reportedly has a backlog of over 40,000 orders, with the disk only released Thursday, April 15.

Atlantic Rec. to Release Boyd Raeburn Wax

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records, new indie diskery that entered the disk biz early this year, announced last week that they had joined with modern jazz maestro Boyd Raeburn and agent Willard Alexander in an agreement that will involve, among other things, the pressing and releasing of ten masters made by Raeburn prior to the recording ban.

Featuring vocalist Ginnie Powell (Mrs. Raeburn) the first sides, "Trouble Is A Man" and "How High The Moon" will be released this week and Atlantic will follow through with one Raeburn release per month. Talks are now going on between the company and Raeburn for a recording contract to go into effect when the maestro's new ork is organized.

DeLuxe In Heavy Flack Campaign With Plug Tune

NEW YORK—Convinced by initial trade reaction that they have a novelty hit in Nancy Donovan's first recording, "Makin' Love Mountain Style," De Luxe Records, Linden, N. J., launched an all-out promotion campaign in the New York-New Jersey area this past week. The firm utilized a one-day, around the clock disk jockey campaign, a scanty-clad "Daisy Mae" model delivery platter to the trade, display space in newspapers and juke box stickers pointing attention to the disk.

David Braun, prexy of the plattery, declared the novelty recording had the hit potential of "Tim-Tayshun" and stated that the firm would shortly launch a national promotion campaign to push the disk.

"John's Other Wife"
"Oklahoma Waltz"

JOHNNY BOND
(Columbia 38160)

● Here are two sides that are sure-fire to catch on and go like sixty. With Johnny Bond on deck to offer the incentive, the wax takes on a more alluring air. Top deck is a sensational novelty that makes for merriment galore. Fond group vocal and excellent instrumental work spike the cookie all the way. On the flip with "Oklahoma Waltz," Johnny offers more reason for his sensational popularity. Wax is above the average romantic waltz, with Johnny's fond vocal strains sweeping down in top manner. There are no A or B sides to this bit—they both should draw raves a million and buffalo hide by the ton.

"Closed For Repairs"
"American Patrol"

BILL BOYD
(Victor 20-2833)

● Cick tune filling phonos to the top in many spots is this piece, now offered by Bill Boyd and His Cowboy Ramblers. Wax weaves in moderate tempo throughout, backed by a fair Western beat. Spot of fashioned piano work flavors the wax all the more adding to its potentialities. Flip is the standard "American Patrol" made famous several years back by the Glen Miller ork. Here is this piece offered in excellent manner in country style. The pair show as fair items for your machines.

"Sweetheart You Done Me Wrong"
"My Rose Of Old Kentucky"

BILL MONROE
(Columbia 38172)

● Pair of sides that appear to be attractive phono items are these offered by Bill Monroe & His Blue Grass Boys. Top deck is on a familiar kick, and doesn't hold attention too much. Cute mandolin spot adds to Bill's sincere vocalizing. Flip is a typical Southern ballad, with the title giving off the wax story here. Both sides might come in for a slew of play. Take into account Bill's wide following.

"I Hate To See You Go"
"Time After Time"

ERNEST TUBB
(Decca 46091)

● Egging coin play in a big way is this bit by the very popular Ernest Tubb. Titled "I Hate To See You Go" and "Time After Time," Ernest displays his able talent in top manner throughout both sides of the wax. Top deck is the one they'll go for, as Tubb's tonsils caress this weary piece. Fancy guitar work offered makes for extremely pleasant listening. Flip has Tubb in grade A fashion again for the message of this deck. Both sides beckon coin play—latch on.

Gene Autry's Melody Ranch, this past Sunday, April 11, played host to cheering throngs. On hand for the festivities were the Cass County Boys, Carl Cotner, The Pinafores and comic Johnny Bond. Johnny's new Columbia release is "Oklahoma Waltz" coupled with "John's Other Wife" . . . Jimmy Davis has two toe-tappers in "You Are My Sweetheart" and "Golden Curls" via Decca . . . T. Texas Tyler will bring down the house when he invades New York's staid Carnegie Hall this coming April 25. Tyler's "Deck Of Cards" has hit the entire nation—and hit it solid. Tex's 4-Star platters are sure to continue to boom.

Tremendous influx of folk and western stars in the eastern area seems to prove that the day of reckoning has arrived. Folk and western stars have proved their popularity beyond the shadow of a doubt. We remember the day when cowboys and hillbilly's wouldn't even think of coming near New York; let alone do a series of p.a.'s here. The barriers are down. Ernest Tubb's troupe really tore the house down when he invaded New York last summer. We're sure the bevy of folk and western stars coming to the East will boost this brand of music even higher.

CHICAGO—Loads of excitement hit Chicago this past weekend as the Mercury Records caravan took the Windy City by storm. Literally tearing down the Opera House, the show, headed by "the modern Al Jolson"—Frankie Laine played to capacity audiences. Frankie Laine, Jan August, Helen Humes and Dick Two-Ton Baker kept the huge crowd happy throughout the entire performance. Dick, who had recently been bedded down with pneumonia climbed on the Caravan in Chi and thrilled the crowd with his smash rendition of the very popular "I'm A Lonely Little Petunia". . . . Maestro Carl Fischer's ork backed the entire roster of artists throughout in fine manner and received a tremendous ovation at the close of the show.

SENATE COPYRIGHT BILL GOES TO JUDICIARY COMMITTEE—FIGHT LOOMS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The measure recently introduced in the Senate, S. 2164, a bill designed to amend the existing 1909 Copyright Act and exact tribute from music machine operators, was reported into the Senate Judiciary Committee this past week.

This piece of legislation, a companion bill to the ASCAP sponsored H. R. 1269 is in effect, an exact duplicate of the latter measure.

There is no doubt in the minds of those in the automatic music industry that music operators throughout the nation are faced with a most serious problem. Members of ASCAP and other organizations supporting passage of both bills are known to be in Washington, constantly supervising to their utmost, the sponsorship of these bills. Spokesmen for these organizations have stated that should the proposed legislation become law, they would (ASCAP) "make equitable demands upon juke box operators."

What the above statement means in "everyday" language is that the ops overhead will be increased one-hundred fold. In addition to paying the royalty, music operators will have to staff additional bookkeeping facilities, in order to maintain "true and accurate records."

Music ops are urged to write, wire and notify their representative in Congress—presenting them with the true facts and a picture of the music industry.

Syracuse, N. Y. Jockey Airs "The Cash Box" Music Charts

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Latest disk jockey to employ the music charts printed exclusively by The Cash Box is Al Bergmann, popular platter spinner of the "Midnight In Syracuse" air show, WNDR, Mutual, this city.

Bergmann, whose show is considered by many the most widely-heard in this area, literally "lives" by the lists and calls The Cash Box "the juke-box's gift to the disk jockey."

"After all," he continues, "we are dealing with the same medium. The Cash Box offers us cohesion and the sort of mutual assistance that brings the public what it wants to hear."

Music operators in this area have long applauded Bergmann's show and his efforts for closer cooperation between the automatic music industry and the disk jockey.

Decca-Majestic Deal Reported In Legal Stage

NEW YORK—Conferences involving legal entanglements were known to have been entered into between Majestic Records officials and representatives of Decca Records this past week.

Majestic, currently undergoing the throes of their Chapter XI (Chandler Act) petition, were reported agreeable to an arrangement with Decca, whereby the latter would take over some of the firm's assets.

Known to be a troublesome situation, is the exact position of the Eddy Howard contract. The famed bandleader, one of the nation's leading recording names, is reported to have severed his contract relations with Majestic when his pact with the plattery expired late last year. Majestic holds some thirty masters of Howard, and these masters are allegedly causing legal eagles to scan a bit deeper. Should Decca take over the Howard masters, the question of Howard's contract with Majestic, which the latter asserts still is in effect, becomes quite a problem. Howard, in the meantime, has been made several recording offers. It is easily seen that Howard could obtain a new recording contract with any number of diskeries. Should this become fact, he would be left without any records on the market, unless his new possible plattery took title to the masters in the Majestic firm.

Meanwhile, Howard and his manager, Biggie Levin refuse to negotiate with any platteries until the present situation is cleared up.

JUKE BOX OPERATORS!

HOW MANY PLAYS MUST YOU GET FROM A RECORD TO MAKE IT PROFITABLE IN YOUR EQUIPMENT?

NOTICE... for years automatic music operators have complained about records not giving them "enough play". The time has arrived when The Cash Box, in cooperation with the entire automatic music industry, believes that a "standard" should be set up so that all will realize exactly the minimum number of plays required from each record to make it profitable to operate in automatic music equipment. Remember . . . the weight of the tone arm in your juke box mechanism has much to do with the wearing qualities of any record, four ounce tone arms on old machines eat up records in a hurry, whereas the new machines featuring one ounce tone arms give much longer play. The same applies to needles. Operators who change their needles often get better wear from records. Those who neglect to make changes as often as they should find needles "eating away" the records. Clean records play longer. Most record firms supply buffers for polishing records so that they will wear longer and play clearer. The average operator who neglects to clean his records during each servicing is simply adding on more overhead to his business. But, with all these things taken into consideration the operator should be able to arrive at a "standard" which will acquaint all the record manufacturers with what he believes is THE MINIMUM NUMBER OF PLAYS A RECORD SHOULD GIVE TO BE PROFITABLE FOR AUTOMATIC MUSIC OPERATION.

HELP TO SET A "MINIMUM RECORD PLAY STANDARD" FOR THE JUKE BOX INDUSTRY. IT MEANS MORE PROFITS FOR YOU! TEAR OFF AND MAIL COUPON BELOW TODAY

New York 16, N. Y.

Okay! Here's the minimum number of plays I believe should become the "standard" for all juke box records:

- () 25 PLAYS () 50 PLAYS () 75 PLAYS
- () 100 PLAYS () 150 PLAYS () 200 PLAYS

Alfred Sales, Inc.
Appointed Distrib
For Wurlitzer

ALFRED BERGMAN

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Ed R. Wurgler, General Sales Manager of The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, North Tonawanda, N. Y., announced the appointment of Alfred Sales, Inc., as authorized distributors of Wurlitzer commercial phonographs and auxiliary equipment for Western New York and Northern Pennsylvania.

Al Bergman, president of Alfred Sales, Inc., has a distinguished record in the coin machine business. During his fifteen years of activity in the field, Al has been both an operator and distributor of automatic music machines, and has acquired numerous friends in his territory. As a distributor these past years, he has established an enviable reputation for service and cooperation with music machine operators in the area.

Alfred Sales, Inc., will maintain offices, showrooms and completely stocked parts and service departments for Wurlitzer music merchants at the established offices at 881 Main Street, this city.

Wurgler, in announcing the appointment, urged Wurlitzer operators to make full use of the Wurlitzer sales-service facilities available to them at Alfred Sales. "We urge all the Wurlitzer music merchants to call on the experienced Alfred Sales organization" stated Wurgler "for advice and assistance in achieving profitable operation."

Parts For Mills
Bells Available

CHICAGO—Bell-O-Matic Corporation, exclusive national distributor for Mills Bell products, this city, report that they are gradually building up a reserve of all the most urgently required parts for Mills Bells, and are able to supply all repairs which operators had considerable difficulty in obtaining during the past several years.

"If the operators will write us" informed Vince Shay, we will send them a Parts Manual to assist in placing repair part orders. Most parts are in stock now and can be shipped immediately. Anything which is not, as yet, ready will be back-ordered and forwarded just as soon as parts now under construction in our factory are completed.

"Because we realize that all operators have been seriously handicapped by a lack of genuine Mills parts during the past several years" continued Shay "we are now making every effort to replenish our stock of parts just as promptly as possible. Altho the material situation is still very critical, genuine Mills parts, built from the same tools and materials used in manufacturing the original Bells, are now becoming available again."

Glittering Array Of Stars To Appear At 4-State Conv. Banquet

Large Attendance To Be At Radisson Hotel

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. — Complete arrangements of the 4-State Convention have been completed, and operators from all over the country are expected to be on hand on April 26 and 27 at the Radisson Hotel, this city.

Ken Ferguson, chairman of publicity, reports that not only have the operators of Minnesota, Wisconsin, North Dakota and South Dakota indicated that they will be at the convention in great numbers, but all the exhibit space has been sold out.

In addition to viewing the equipment on exhibit, the operators will attend the various meetings scheduled thru Monday and Tuesday. The banquet will take place on Tuesday night.

"We have been fortunate in securing Senator Homer E. Capehart of Indiana as guest speaker" states Ferguson. "We are also very proud of the exceptionally great list of national known entertainers who will appear on our show. Personal appearances by Stan Kenton, June Christy, The King Cole Trio, plus the three orchestras of Lawrence Duchow, Fezz Fritsche, and Spike Haskell, all intermixed with a sparkling array of acts and radio stars, assures a successful windup to the two-day convention. There is a possibility that many additional recording artists other than those above, will appear at the banquet."

Ferguson states that they will do everything possible to take care of requests for banquet tickets for members of the industry if they write to the Minnesota Amusement Games Association, 713 Pioneer Building, St. Paul, Minn.

"There has been more interest shown in this our fourteenth meeting than ever before" reports Tom Crosby, one of the convention officials and well known mid-west coinman. "Registration will start on Monday, and the exhibit hours are from 10:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M., and from 5:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. Program includes luncheon and open meetings. Tuesday, the exhibit floor is open from 10:00 A.M. to 6:30 P.M. Banquet, addresses and awarding of prizes will take place in the Main and Junior Ballrooms from 7:30 P.M. to far into the night."

Dyess Music Co. Buys Out Griffin Music

Blendow & Meyers To Specialize In Arcade Business

AL BLENDOW

NEW YORK—Al Blendow and Al Meyers, who formed the Blendow & Meyers, Inc. firm a few weeks ago, are moving ahead as if they were organized for years.

Blendow is handling the active duties of the company, as Meyers is busy with his many other coin machine enterprises. One of the best known coinmen in the country, Al has spent more than twenty years among the many phases of the coin machine business. Up until the first of the year, he was sales manager for International Mutoscope Corporation, and before that was connected with some of the cities leading music machine distributors.

"As my experience is more closely associated with the arcade part of the business" states Blendow, "we are specializing in the sale of arcade machines, and entire arcades. We have blueprints to organize arcades scientifically from the smallest size to the biggest. Not only will we lay out the arcade, but fit it out with the best money making equipment."

"While the arcade phase of the business is where we are placing our efforts on at this time" continued Blendow, "we definitely are not limiting ourselves to this entirely. As a matter of fact, I shall make an announcement soon about the distribution of another machine entirely disassociated from the arcade field."

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Ray Daggett, vice president of Rex Coin Machine Distributing Corp., this city, can supply an invigorating and convincing shot in the arm to any and all pessimistic coinmen who drop into his office at 281 S. Salina Street.

Daggett, known as the "Silver Fox" of the coin machine industry, has been in the business for eight years and says that he finds it "fascinating."

"There are no two deals alike, never any repetition—that's what makes it so interesting," he claims.

At the moment his favorite topics are the new Recordio and the flipper feature on pinball games. He considers the latter to be the most revolutionary and exciting innovation since he entered the business.

"Music is location insurance today" he states. "However, it cannot be profitably handled by any other ratio but 60-40. Personally, I prefer wired music."

Daggett had 17 years experience in the candy business as a route man and sales manager before entering the coinbiz. Now he's here to stay.

"A better and cleaner element is moving into the industry," he claims. "The old days of fast returns and ruthless competition is disappearing. The requirement now is for business men."

Like most coinmen thruout the nation, Daggett notes this trend with satisfaction, and attributes a great deal of it to the efforts of The Cash Box.

"We let some of our customers over-extend their purchases of equipment until they reached the point where they could no longer pay," Ray says. "About a year ago I had a client who invested $115,000 in equipment, despite my warnings that he was engaging in dangerous speculation. The fault was as much ours as it was his. We should have called a halt."

Daggett quoted a letter from J. Raymond Bacon, vice president and general manager of O. D. Jennings & Co., to the effect that steel allocations are making it necessary for the manufacturers to get their orders early.

"Wisconsin" is United's New Game

BILLY DeSELM

CHICAGO — Billy DeSelm, United Manufacturing Company, this city, announced that the reception of their new five ball "Wisconsin" by the trade surpasses anything ever turned out by the firm.

"United's reputation for manufacturing hit pin games is a by-word of the industry today" states DeSelm, "but it appears as if 'Wisconsin' is the greatest game we've ever produced. The pile-up of orders on hand, altho we've just announced the game, indicate that it is the greatest United game to date, and assures continued top speed production for many, many weeks.

"'Wisconsin' contains many of the money making features of the United line—plus newly developed innovations designed to give the player fast and interesting action," continued Billy. "Player controlled kickers contribute greatly to the appeal, as does the 'change-of-pace' scoring of the bonus unit. Other player features are center roll-overs, lights 'Wisconsin'; double, double bonus; high scoring; automatic shuffle; and replay button."

Resigns From Ala. Music Ops Assn.

R. E. L. (BOB) CHOATE

MONTGOMERY, ALA. — R. E. L. (Bob) Choate, who has served as executive secretary of the Alabama Music Operators Association since the end of the war, announced that he had resigned in order to devote his time to his insurance business.

Choate, who has been of invaluable assistance to the music operators of the state, submitted his resignation last October, but agreed to serve until the music operators had a decision on their fight with the Alabama Alcoholic Beverage Control. Alabama is now permitted to place juke boxes where alcoholic beverages are sold at the discretion of the local authorities.

Choate stated he would always be happy to assist the operators in any possible manner.

Syracuse Coinmen Form New Games Assn.; Adopt Many Constructive Measures

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—The operators in this city have formed a new association and calls itself "Coin Machine Industry of Syracuse."

Indicative of the interest in the association was the large turnout for the meeting on April 12. Practically every operator in the city, both large and small were on hand.

Officers of the association are: Al Craner, Atlas Equipment Company, president; Tom Cullivan, Cullivan Enterprises, vice-president; Angelo Delaporte, Rex Amusement Company, treasurer; and Ernie Band, N & N Amusement Company, secretary.

"Coin Machine Industry of Syracuse" explains the purposes and aims of its group. It will give the operators a meeting place where they can discuss their problems; improve general operating conditions; adopt more equitable commission arrangements; and create a feeling of good fellowship among the members of the industry in this city.

Regulations have been adopted to eliminate cut-throat competition. A grievance board has been formed to settle disputes among its members. Eventually, they report, it is hoped to use the facilities of the association as a central agency in public relations programs.

As a measure to raise revenue, it was proposed that a sticker marked "CMI" be placed on every machine owned by the members, and the fee would be 25¢ per sticker per month.

Tom Cullivan, well known coinman, and vice president of the organization, is highly enthused over the progress that has been made and would like to see similar organizations in every city. "Such organizations can be of great advantage in unifying the industry against unduly high taxation and adverse publicity" stated Cullivan.

Postel Becomes A Grandpa

MACK POSTEL

CHICAGO—Mack Postel, well known operator and distributor of this city, became a grandpop. His son-in-law, Martin Fryer, music machine operator in this city, announced the big event this past week.

Postel, who has spent over 25 years in the business, will have to wait a while longer for the opportunity to train a grandchild for the business, as this edition is on the feminine side, and Mack objects to having women in the active end of operating machines.

OHIO STATE MUSIC OPS 9th ANNUAL CONVENTION GOES OVER VERY BIG

Morning and Luncheon Biz Meets Bring Out Problems Facing Ops. Harry Lief Urges Ops Change to 10¢ Play. Bill Gersh Speaks on Nat'l Legislation. Atty. Bill Rosenfeld Introduces Speakers. Music Publishers, Songwriters, Artists and Record Firms Present. RCA-Victor Gives Cocktail Party. Meet Climaxed by Big Evening Show Featuring Dorothy Shay, Carmen Cavallaro Ork, Vaughn Horton, Artie Malvin, Jan Murray, "Sugar Chile" Robinson, Frank Connors, Howie Lund, M. C.

CLEVELAND MUSIC OPS MAKE BIGGEST SINGLE CONTRIBUTION TO THE COUNTY'S AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY FUND, PRESENT CHECK FOR $10,000.00 WITH ALL RETURNS FROM TWO DAY SHOW NOT YET REPORTED.

CLEVELAND, O.—One of the most successful conventions ever yet held by the music ops of this state took place this past Wednesday (April 14) with the crowds who attended completely satisfied that this ninth annual convention will never be surpassed.

The convention opened with a business meeting at 10:30 A.M. where reports of the last annual convention business meeting were read and discussions were brought to the fore. Elections took place at this morning meet. Bob Pinn and James Burke were re-elected to the state board of directors from the Cleveland association. R. P. Edwards of Youngstown, O. and H. W. Hoffman of Warren, O. were also re-elected to the state board of directors. This meeting closed at noon with an agreement reached as to what each one of the men would speak about during the luncheon session.

At the big luncheon where publishers, song writers, record firms and artists were invited, a business discussion took place with attorney Bill Rosenfeld in the position of moderator. Harry Lief, one of the older ops here, took the floor first and brought out the many problems which face the operators. He believed that the time had arrived when 10c play should be placed into effect. He was followed by Bill Gersh of The Cash Box who was called on by counsellor Rosenfeld to speak on the national legislation facing the industry in Washington at this time. Ben Selvin of Columbia Records is reported to have greatly encouraged the operators present with his speech regarding the fact that there were plenty of masters awaiting release. Others followed, from the record manufacturers, and spoke along the same line.

A cocktail party was then tendered to the association by RCA-Victor records and this was thoroly enjoyed by all present.

The evening started off with a bang. It proved to be one of the grandest entertainments ever yet arranged by the organization. Headliners were: Carmen Cavallaro and his orchestra, who not only played for all the stars who appeared, but, also played for the dancing after the show. Dorothy Shay clicked tremendously with all present. Artie Malvin, a new face among the vocalists whose "Donna Bella" record for MGM has started to click went over big with the crowd. Jan Murray came up from the Vogue Room of the Hollenden Hotel to get plenty of belly laughs. Frank (Sugar Chile) Robinson took the crowd by storm with his piano playing. Frank Connors from the Theatrical Grill in this city won much applause with his fine balladeering. Howie Lund, noted disc jock here, acted as M.C. for the affair. Howie did a very grand job. Frank Connors introduced a new tune written by Mrs. Jack (Gert) Cohen, entitled, "The Tide Comes In." It met with grand applause from all present.

Most outstanding event of the evening was the appearance of the leading officials of the Cuyahoga County branch of the American Cancer Society. Leading officials here made a very grand speech complimenting Jack Cohen as president as well as the entire association of music merchants for the fact that they had absolutely awakened the entire county to the need of the American Cancer Society. In answer, Jack Cohen presented a check for $10,000.00 to the American Cancer Society, which was the result of the two day showing held, and advised that this was only part payment as all returns weren't yet received.

It can only be said that this 9th annual convention meeting of the Ohio State Automatic Electric Phonograph Owners Assn. at the Hotel Hollenden here on April 14 was, without any doubt, one of the greatest events of all time.

There were visitors from Detroit, Mich. who brought an entire delegation along including Roy Classon, Morris Goldman, Irv Ackerman, Frank Alluvot and others. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Pierce of Brodhead, Wis. were present. Mr. Pierce heads the Wisconsin state phono ops organization. Harold Copeland who is vice-president of the state of Ohio organization came in from Youngstown, O. representing the most important chapter of this association. Copeland's talks before the trade are well known. This time he actually extended himself and won tremendous and grateful applause for the statements he made. There were also many others from out of this city and the result was a crowd which ran far over the 600 mark attending the big evening's dinner.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

Regardless of when I called around this past week . . . just couldn't catch Lyn Durant in at United . . . and, so I gather, Lyn is away on one of his jaunts . . . which, as one noted coin distrib remarked during the past convention, "Means that, wherever he goes, we'll have some unusual and new names for United's games" . . . But, Billy DeSelm and Herb Oettinger around, and Billy advising me that Herb played those Greek records he was reviewing on the record changer they have in the factory and almost bust up the entire day's production schedule . . . seems like some of the Greek boys in the factory just stopped working to listen. . . . Billy also tells me that "the bloodshot eyes are alright, but, I haven't yet developed the drool" . . . so it seems that the Rev. Will Livemore will have to wait until Billy's a bit more "complete" before he goes on that tour with him. . . . Grant Shay was a busy boy this past Monday. . . . both Vince Shay and Midge Ryan left the office. . . . and Grant was taking care of visitors and all else while trying to get his own work out of the way. . . . "Just got out my new 'Spinning Reels', too", Grant informed me. . . . and really a nice lookin' issue, Grant.

That Jack Walsh (looks like you lost a couple of ounces these past few weeks, kid) flyin' between New York and Chicago. . . almost continuously these days. . . and working harder than ever, from what they tell me. . . . The Harry Jacobs, Sr. and Jr., of Milwaukee, Wis. advising us that in the hustle and bustle of moving they almost tangled themselves up in knots. . . . but the boys seem to be very happy with Filben phonos and with those United games they're featuring. . . . and look forward to some sweet business. . . . Announcement from Bill Krieg, prexy of Packard Mfg. Corp., regarding the forthcoming materials scarcity, etc., etc., and which has started to kick prices upward for their new "Manhattan" . . . had lots of the music boys here talkin' this past week. . . . with many of the belief that "this is only the beginning, prices are bound to zoom upwards as materials become scarcer and labor is tougher to obtain" . . . so guide yourself accordingly, fellas. . . . They've got a great game in "Trade Winds" over at Genco. . . . with orders keepin' on comin' in just as if there were no pin games left in the world. . . . and the Genco plant working away full blast to supply the boys just as fast as they possibly can.

Jean Bates, over at Pace Mfg. Co., planning some new ideas which are sure to meet with the approval of the nation's bellmen and, from what we gather, there are more Pace bells leaving the factory than there have been in many moons. . . . so maybe Jean has clicked with a grand idea. . . . ask him. . . . And that reminds me, Jerry Haley continues to be one of the busier guys in our town. . . . what with the way Track Odds are moving and those Criss Cross Belles going, looks like Jerry will just keep right on going without any rest. . . . and maybe without even a vacation this summer. . . . Over at Chicago Coin the boys are all hepped up over the success of their "Trinidad" game. . . . looks like Chicoin has clicked big again with another winner that will go right on and on and on. . . . for the orders, if they're any indication, just don't stop coming in for this machine. . . . and Ed Levin is smilin' and happy about it all.

With the sudden demand in the market for one-balls, Georgie Jenkins over at Bally Mfg. Co., is whizzing about takin' those orders right on the ground where they come from. . . . and George knows how to get around. . . . as well as get the orders. . . . both new one-balls Bally is building. . . . "Gold Cup" FP and "Trophy" PO. . . . have the new features that the boys are askin' for. . . . Georgie tells me. . . . and says, "This is probably the reason for the revival of business the one-balls are seeing these days". . . . Quite a few of the music men up in Cleveland's Hotel Hollenden this past week. . . . with the Ohio state phono ops holding their annual convention. . . . and all enjoying the music of Carmen Cavallaro and his orchestra and the entertainment provided by the Ohio phono ops. . . . lots of credit to Jackie Cohen, Jimmy Ross, Eddie Burke, Sanford Levine and all the others, not forgetting that ever growing youngster, Harry Lief. . . . for the swell affair they put on for all who attended. . . . And the restaurant convention on tap at the same time with Eddie Hanson of Groetchen Tool & Mfg. Co. there showing off their automatic steak broiling machine which made a terrific hit with all the restaurateurs.

George Ponser still away from the factory covering the eastern part of the country and talking "Pro-Score" . . . George has done one helluva swell sales job on this grand rolldown game and reports that orders just keep coming on orders so that the firm is figuring on whether to go into production on a new idea they have or just simply continue manufacturing more and still more "Pro-Score" . . . ain't bad, George, ain't bad . . . and also proves your great sales prowess. . . . Bumped into a bunch of the boys the other dawning in the Singapore munching away on those barbecued ribs and talkin' thisa and thata about music. . . . but all agreein' that a better commish basis. . . . like the graduating scale (featured in this issue) and being used by cig machine and other vending machine ops. . . . would sure do the trick for the music ops. . . . so let's go, beginning June 1, 1948 and make this a very memorable day in the history of the juke box biz by nationally adopting a commish basis which will allow juke box ops to continue on ahead. . . . profitably.

Looks like some of the bigger plants here are turned east. . . . to Washington . . . and you can expect to see those guards returning to the foyers of these factories. . . . as Uncle Sam starts those machines of his rolling once again to produce the products needed in a military way over there. . . . There were quite a few of the Wurlitzer distribs in town and many remained over into this past week. . . . that Wurlitzer ad in "Life" mag featuring Al Jolson, struck the fancy of many a juke box op in this area. . . . Hear that Lou Koren is doin' a grand job with the Aireon Coronet "400" phono and expects that shipments will just go on and on. . . . that low payment plan attracting attention, we're told. . . . Steel, copper, lead, zinc alloys, rubber and other materials soon harder than ever to obtain, leaders tell me. . . . so look for price hikes again. . . . and very soon, too. . . . Operator's boys comin' in to tell what they would like to buy and sell. . . . Plenty of the distribs here in town upping their prices on used equipment as conditions tighten.

Dave Wallach of Marvel, plenty excited over the manner in which their new game "Leap Year" has gone over. Wallach reports that the firm has appointed nine new distribs throughout the country. . . . Among the visitors dropping in to see Billy DeSelm at United were George Prock of General Distributing Company, Dallas, Texas, and Leonard Goldstein of T & L Distributing, Cincinnati. . . . "All I hear" claims Billy "is—get those 'Wisconsin's' to us immediately" . . . John Haddock, AMI prexy, visits with Lindy Force, sales manager, at the Chicago offices. . . . Lindy tells us that the firm will be making a sensational announcement very shortly. . . . Otto Mallegg, foreign representative for AMI is back in the Windy City after a tour of two months, which took him thru South and Central America. In talking of his experiences down yonder, Otto was particularly proud of his hunting prowess—bagging two wild turkeys in the mountains of South America. Getting back to the music machine biz, Mallegg tells of the practice in some of the places he stopped at—where the purchase of a glass of beer, and the insertion of a coin in the music machine, gets a dance with the waitress. Some locations have special dancers for this purpose. "The juke boxes are doing very well" concludes Otto.

Alvin Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Company, is now in charge while Nate relaxes under the Miami sun. Alvin claims he should be an octopus in order to handle the phone calls coming in from all over the country for more and more "Cinderellas" . . . Skeet Moore, Williams Manufacturing Co., thrilled over the reception given their new game "Virginia" which he states is entirely different—new cabinets, high score, plus flipper action on both sides. . . . With the arrival of a new heir, and good weather, Art Weinand, Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp., wondering if he'll be able to take in those baseball games and a bit of golf. . . . Ben Coven, Coven Distributing Co., a new papa too. An 8 pound, 8 oz. boy arrived this week. With all the hustle and bustle, Ben still has time to report that his staff is doing wonders with Bally's "Ballerina" . . . Ben Waller, mgr. of Roy Milton, in town visiting with Milt Salstone of M. S. Distributing Co. . . . "Doc" Eaton another visitor seen at Milt's office. . . . Clarence Bayne, United States Vending Corp., traveling extensively thruout the country, acquainting the trade with the firm's new candy vendor. . . . Jimmy Martin off to Miami for a vacation. . . . R. H. (Dick) Hood, H. C. Evans Co., just back from a lengthy vacation, eyes the other Chicagoans who are in a position to run off to Miami. Dick is too busy at this time to get away.

EASTERN FLASHES

Once again, music takes the front runner spot here. Operators are showing a steady weekly increase in collections. Jobbers and distributors state that there has been a decided increase in the sale of both used and new music machines. From now on in, it is expected that this condition will improve continually as the weather gets nicer, and the bars and taverns get a bigger play. The games situation remains status quo, with all concerned patiently waiting for the condition to clear up.

Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt, the transplanted New Yorker, now a dyed-in-the-wool native Floridian, should be paid a fee by the Florida Chamber of Commerce. Or at least, they should pay his expenses for entertaining so many out-of-town coinmen. Not only does he show them the high spots of Miami Beach, but goes all out to sell them on "The Playground of The World"—and exhibits himself as the shining example . . . Lou Hirsch, New York music op, recently dropped off for a stay. With Lou were his Missus and their two kids. The "angels" took too much of the sun on their first day, and were the victims of a severe case of sunburn . . . Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeney of Chicago also vacationing in Miami. Willie writes Jack looked especially fine . . . Archie Kass and his wife, formerly from Newark, N. J., spent considerable time with Blatt, discussing old times. Kass is looking very well . . . Joe Kochansky's brother-in-law, former music machine operator in Brooklyn, now owns a tavern in Miami, and also operates a danceteria (Blatt operates two phonos in this spot) . . . Bill Shayne, Dixie Music Company sold his Broward Company route to Gordon Williams. A big deal, as the route runs to over two hundred juke boxes . . . Blatt comments about the local political situation: "Florida is beginning to feel the pressure of electing a sheriff, a comptroller, a governor, and a complete set of lesser officials—but then the tourist season is just about over and we have a little more time for electioneering right now."

Mike Colland, Young Distributing Company (Wurlitzer distributors) finishing up his honeymoon, and returns to the office this Monday . . . James V. Sisti, of the Young firm, is an uncle to the major league ball player, Sibi Sisti, of the Boston Braves . . . The newly organized export department of Young Distributing Company, under the management of Andres Echevarria, is in full action. Echevarria reports that the firm has already shipped equipment to practically every country where it is possible to send American merchandise. The young fellow speaks and writes more than a half dozen languages . . . Paul Bennett, Bennett Needle Company, Chicago, in town seeing the trade, and reports he filled up an order book of substantial orders . . . Mike Munves, who used to be practically a chain smoker, now is off the stuff completely. And it's quite a problem to him as this is the busiest part of the year, and his customers are always offering him a smoke—then when he stoically refuses, they blow the smoke right into his face.

Ben Becker, Ben Becker Sales Company (Bally regional sales representative) away to Chicago again—must be trying to recoup from his last meeting with the "Gin" expert (?), Art Garvey . . . Joe Munves, Economy Supply Company, preparing a catalogue of his many parts and supplies . . . Teddy (Champ) Seidel, tells us that he's contemplating returning to the squared ring. His advisers tell him that if he dyes his gray hair, he'll be ready. What we want to know is, what's he going to use for legs? . . . Bill Rabkin, International Mutoscope Corporation, sees the boys along coinrow . . . Willie Levey, Supreme Automatics, Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y., claims he made the trip to Tenth Avenue to deliver a cash box for a Williams' game. That's what he said, but we have an idea it was an excuse to visit coinrow, and later the music ops assn. . . Nat Cohn, Modern Music Sales Corporation, away from the office for a few days, seeing the music ops on the Aireon phonos.

Barney (Shugy) Sugerman, Runyon Sales Company, rearranging his offices and showrooms in New York to give him greater leeway to handle the increased demand for the AMI phono and wall box. Shugy is spending all his time these days in the New York office . . . Oreste D'Allesandro, better known to the trade as Ray Alexander, is back at Central Coin Machine Company, Rochester, N. Y., after a year's absence, which he devoted to remodeling the Windsor Hotel, now known as Hotel Alexander, one of the most modernistic and beautiful hotels in Rochester. Now that Ray is back on the job at Central Coin, he reports that he is going to revamp these quarters. The staff was glad to see Alexander back in the office. Mike Del Fave, formerly of the Delfay Coin Machine Co., has returned to the Central sales staff, and joins up with Bill Simone, collector and mechanic, Luther Gene Wass, mechanic, and Annabelle Jean Audino, who has been his secretary for the past five years. Ray tells us that brother Jim Alexander is now honeymooning in Cuba.

Sid Wertheimer, H. Rosenberg Company, studying how to take the right kind of photos with his new Graflex. Sid claims it's more difficult than servicing a pin game . . . Phil Mason and Dave Lowy, Dave Lowy & Company, both hustling, and state that they've been shipping plenty of music machines, many to foreign countries . . . The offices of Alfred Simon, Inc. (Chicago Coin sales representative) almost completed, and when Al returns from Chicago next Monday, they'll be ready to go . . . Al Blendow, Blendow & Meyers, Inc., getting plenty of visitors flocking into his offices to wish him good luck, and as Al states "More important—to place some nice orders for arcade machines." . . . Irving (Kempy) Kempner, demon salesman for Runyon Sales Company, attends the wedding of his young sister together with his bosses, Sugerman and Abe Green. "Kempy" celebrated so much, he had quite a time getting back on the job the following Monday.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

The rolldown situation, we regret to report, doesn't look much better this week . . . Request for injunction against police pickup of the machines was turned down by local court . . . Meanwhile pickups have continued and one op decided to plead guilty rather than face trial . . . The $50 fine maybe wasn't too rough on him but it served as a bad precedent for other cases now pending . . . As things stand, one appeal is due within 30 days or so but, what with the election fever on, there'll be plenty more cases before then . . . Congratulations are due Jack Simon and Jack Ryan of Sicking Distributors on their third anniversary (in business, that is) this week . . . The pair of Jacks were getting a dry toast from Genco's Art Crane and Chi Coin's Phil Robinson when we dropped in . . . By way of celebrating, we tried our hand against Crane's on Genco's new "Trade Winds" and came off, as might be expected, on the short end . . . Art was so hot you could feel the Trade Winds blowing his way . . . Spent a few minutes with Charlie Fulcher at Mills Sales listening to Bull Moose Jackson's "I Wanta Bowlegged Woman" . . . Charlie and this column wondered how double entendre you can get on a record . . . but we loved every line of the smart lyrics.

W. R. Happel Jr. of Badger Sales down to San Diego over weekend, saw boys there and took in a jalai game across the border . . . At General Music both Bud Parr and Fred Gaunt were busy and the only thing new was their secretary's hairdo . . . Had a squint at Minthorne's new Seeburg 200 record unit . . . Mammoth box' price slightly prohibitive for ops and most regular locations but ideal for hospitals, other institutions and industrial use . . . George Warner of Automatic Games reports Vegas action picking up nice, with orders pouring in via the mails . . . Aubrey Stemler was out on the hustle, so chatted with office force . . . Bill Williams had a few kind words for "Tennessee," to be sure, and also expressed surprise at authorities picking up a "Box Score" . . . It's a pure game of skill, and Bill's ready to prove it . . . Lyn Brown, a guy who has rolldowns on his mind as much as anybody, was up to his waistline in shuffleboards when we stopped by . . . the boards, says Lyn, are turning out to be even better than a fill in item . . . Kibitzed with Arnold Micon and his lovely wife at Pacific Coast Distributors while Pop Micon was out checking around . . . The big news from M. S. Wolf is that boss Bill Wolf was in town for a change . . . Chatted with him and Nels Nelsen on amusement game and music box situation throughout California . . . Better in some spots than others, adding up to a fair average . . . At Paul Laymon's the boys were resting up after a nice week of out-of-town business . . . Art Crane caught us playing another machine besides "Trade Winds" in Paul's well represented showroom and straightened us out . . . Phil Weinberg of Bally's Chi plant was a visitor this week to Laymon's and other spots along Coin Row while on his sales tour.

station unit and impressed with its low cost and lack of maintenance . . . F. E. Wilson has a showing scheduled within few weeks, with machines already in production for early delivery . . . The Cash Box joins local distributors and ops in mourning the death of veteran operator Art Daws of San Diego . . . Peterson, Orlie Leeman and George Wheelock . . . Pacoima's Langford Trieste . . . Huntington Park's E. S. Trimble . . . Claremont's John Mallette . . . San Bernardino's William Shorey . . . Pomona's L. S. Griffin . . . Inglewood's Dudley Trojan (on a fishing trip . . . and not after suckers) . . . Coronado's Les Jordan . . . Laguna's Bob Chacon . . . Northridge's A. J. Hanlin.

On the more cheerful side of the record ledger comes Aladdin's Leo Mesner, who—fresh back from his cross-country hop—exudes optimism for his firm and any others whose execs are on the ball . . . Leo says, "I learned on this trip that such junkets really pay off in the goodwill built up with distributors, dealers and the buying public" . . . 4-Star's Bill McCall is enroute back from his trip to New York via Pittsburgh, Chi, St. Louis and Denver, also visiting distributors and arranging an Eastern stock terminal for the steady flow of "Deck of Cards" and other 4-Star discs . . . Speaking of "Deck of Cards," despite Jimmy Petrillo and Bill McCall, the sleeper hit is due for a bunch of new platters before the week is up . . . Bill's T. Columbia is expected to come up with an Arthur Godfrey before long and the same grapevine quotes Decca execs as saying they're ready to cut the "Deck" with a "top artist."

Contacted Modern Records and chatted with spokesman Joe Bihari re this and that and bootlegging . . . To the effect that Modern has been long aware of the goings on but hasn't been hurt too bad on it . . . Specialty's Art Rupe, a pleasant and informative fellow, also didn't have much else to say this week . . . other than to admit that the bootleggers have nicked him too . . . At Mercury Les Jaffe talked up the expansion of their race line with Eddie "Cleanhead" Vinson's "Some Women Do" and "Alimony Blues" . . . What with Vic Damone and Frankie Laine carrying the Mercury label these days, you almost forget they're also a solid sending outfit . . . Their new hillbilly tune, the "Jackass Polka," sounds promising for the juke, with the Polka Chips dishing out appropriate sound effects . . . Exclusive Records promise to be coming along with some hot news in the near future, according to Norma Lovret, who is handling the publicity chores since Charlie Craig left.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

MINNEAPOLIS

Andy and Ell Oberg of E. Grand Forks, Minnesota, stopped off in Minneapolis for several days while Ella took advantage of the time to do some shopping. The Obergs have just arrived from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they spent a lovely six weeks of vacation. They plan to leave for E. Grand Forks the latter part of this week. . . . Ernie Kopp of the firm Riebhoff and Kopp, Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, drove into Minneapolis and spent a few days before returning home. Ernie has just returned from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he was taking advantage of the baths to try and cure his rheumatism. Ernie said that the weather there was perfect, and with his car, he took advantage of the beautiful scenery and other surrounding country.

Frank Davidson of Spooner, Wisconsin, in town just for the day, and he reports that the Phonograph stands he is manufacturing has taken hold and he is selling a great quantity of them. . . . Walter Hugeback of New Hampton, Iowa, took advantage of W. H. Pickron's (Moline, Illinois) drive to Minneapolis, and he accompanied him just to spend the day here. Pickron drove to Onamia, Minnesota, where he is looking over the site where he will build a new summer home on the lake so that he and his family can live there during the summer months. Onamia is one of the most beautiful spots in the State of Minnesota, and the lakes are known for their fishing.

Don Hazelwood of Aitkin, Minnesota, one of the biggest "ops" in that territory, has given up his record store and has gone into the Candy and Cigarette business. In connection with his Coin-operations, the Candy and Cigarette route is a natural set-up, and he is doing a terrific business. . . . I. F. La Fleur of Devils Lake, North Dakota, drove into Minneapolis to spend several days visiting his friends, and we understand that he is to be a "Grandpa" sometime during the month of May. . . . Ernie Grest, the 275-pound jovial operator of Little Falls, Minnesota, stopped off in Minneapolis with his wife, and he is 50 lbs. lighter; Doctor's orders, as Ernie suffered a heart attack the early part of this last winter and he has to shed additional weight.

Harry Galep of Menomonie, Wisconsin, took time off to spend the day in Minneapolis calling on the distributors. . . . One of the greatest Nightclubs in the Northwest opened last Thursday evening, April 8th. Patrons were admitted by invitation only. The new showplace is known as the "Carnival," and is located on 14th and Nicollet Avenue South, Minneapolis. The opening band to make the first appearance was Frankie Carle and his Orchestra, and he will spend two weeks there. The policy of the new Carnival is to feature top name bands. Arrangements and bookings have been made for the next three months. The establishment was known as the "Happy Hour" before it burned, a year and a half ago. The cost of remodeling and refurbishing the new Carnival has run close to the $200,000 mark. The new Carnival is one of the most outstanding night-eries in the country. The manager of the establishment is Mr. A. Perkins.

Harry Partridge of Mora, Minnesota, in Minneapolis, Monday, April 12th, calling on several of the distributors. . . . Nels Nelson, operator in Alexandria, Minnesota, has finally found a home in Alex, and has moved in from the lake. . . . Floyd Carlon of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in Minneapolis, sort of a little vacation.

ST. LOUIS

St. Louis operators are awaiting word on Ben Morris, of Morris Novelty Company, who was rushed to a city hospital during the latter part of the week for a prostate gland operation. Ben, who with brothers Joe and Louis has made the name synonymous with good operating practices in the 49th State, is feeling a bit low at latest reports and was suffering considerable pain. "Everybody gets ill but me," states brother Lou, who took off a bit of time from running the Missouri Amusement Machine Association plus his busy distributing office.

Art Weinand of Rock-Ola, who made a lot of friends in St. Louis last month, fathered a brand new baby boy, friend Carl Trippe announced. Congratulations flowed up Chicago way to compliment Art on his third youngster.

Andy McCall, of McCall Novelty, may be hors de combat soon due to a severe cold which has grown worse from day to day. Andy, whose rural proclivities with his produce farm keep him outdoors a lot, is soon to make some "surprise announcements." He bought another string of new phonographs this week, making him about the heaviest juke box purchaser in the city for 1947-48.

Speaking of phonograph buying, E. E. Summey of Rolla, Mo., made a fast trip into St. Louis after hearing that a few Rock-Olas were available, and made off with three.

Collections were down a bit due to continued cold weather and rain which has even the most patriotic St. Louisan snarling with rage. Taverns reported beer sales at the lowest for any spring month in ten years, and the juke boxes were not far behind. However, there was a ray of sunshine in pinball play, apparently pushed up while tavern customers waited for the rain to abate a bit.

Visitors seen around the circuit included Noel Reed of Willow Springs, Mo.; Bob Young from Collinsville, and T. V. McAllister from Cape Girardeau. Bill Hollenbeck renewed a few acquaintances, after a month or two of traveling the South.

NEW ORLEANS

The new showrooms and renovating at the New Orleans Novelty Company has finally been completed, and Louis Boasberg means that construction work is really a headache in these times. . . . Mrs. Henry Fox made the headlines this past week. While helping out in the office, busy showing a customer some records, a thief sneaked in, grabbed her purse, and ran off. The purse contained $135, and her New Orleans friends claim she won't be playing any blackjack this week. . . . Meanwhile, hubby Frank Fox is spending most of his days in the straw, hubby country—and we'll bet he isn't picking berries either.

O. C. Marshall back from a good road trip. He claims the Tic-Tac-Toe is really moving great. . . . Benny Newbauer seen enjoying a good sized luncheon with Joe Cannizzaro of Console Distributing Company. . . . Visitors at New Orleans Coin Machine Exchange were Henry Morel, New Roads, La., and Frank Sansone, Morganza, La. . . . Ed Hollifield and Adrian Martin of Dixie Coin Machine Company have been busy the last two Sundays, exhibiting their skill with the rod and reel near Slidell, La. Their friends are hoping for good weather so that they can enjoy the results of their excursions.

Paul Danove, Dixie Coin Machine Company, displays a wonderful photo of his beautiful daughter, Dianne Marie, on his desk. The baby is the favorite of the entire staff, and all of the coinmen in town. . . . Joe Ben Jones of Dixie Coin played host to an old buddy of his, Murell (Jake) Jones, who plays first base for the Boston Red Sox, when the baseball team played a few exhibition games here. Joe and Murell were school chums and spent considerable time reminiscing about old times. . . . The New York Yankee team followed the Sox into town, and the baseball fans among the coinmen had a Roman holiday for several days.

Al Morgan of the Rex Coin Machine Company riding around in a new Pontiac. . . . Harry Cohen rides around the Lake Front trying to put mileage on his new convertible. . . . Lou Mounger of Southern Coin Machine Company claims he has enough work to keep him busy for two months. . . . Bob Buckley and Sam Tridico, Console Distributing Company, busy handling the demand for Buckley's "Criss-Crosse" Bell, "Track Odds" and "Parlay Long Shot" Consoles. . . . Nick Carbajal, Crown Novelty Company, shipping plenty of used five balls thruout the country.
