'Our Song' Is Most Likely A Recording

When rock 'n roll was in its infancy, the romantic notion that youngsters at the time would in the decades ahead refer to certain rock 'n roll songs as "their songs" was the butt of a number of gags.

Well, the joke is on the jokesters, for the songs of the time are striking emotional chords for those whose romances blossomed into marriage. Also, songs of the 50's or later are vehicles for "instant recall" of other noteworthy, sentimental responses. This was quite evident at recent New Year celebrations when phonos or radio were feeding oldies-but-goodies in abundant supply.

That rock 'n roll hits of the past qualify as "our song" to couples or individuals in their mid-30's is but one glowing aspect of its hold on this age group. The other interesting aspect of it all is that the past is being envisioned by the past itself. By this we mean that it is not merely "the song" that is the vehicle for such emotional responses, but the original recordings as well. It should be recalled that "our song" tradition before rock 'n roll was simply a matter of hearing "our song" from any source, not necessarily the original hit recording. An orchestra at a night club might start to play an old sentimental favorite, and couples would be content—as the over 40 crowd might be today—to express personal fondness for the tune.

For younger people today, however, listening to "our song" is not merely the tune but the entire package of nostalgia, as represented in the original recording. This process, no doubt, has been greatly assisted by the wave of nostalgia for rock favorites, stimulating a constant flow of re-issue albums available through retail or mail-order marketing methods.

Yet, we have always felt that most of what was termed rock 'n roll and, later on, simply rock is a unique manifestation of a recording, and cannot be adequately duplicated by an orchestra or, for that matter, subsequent recordings. The proper emotional feeling engendered by an old Top 40 hit, it would seem, requires the original recording interpretation. Only to a lesser degree does this magic work for, let us say, a swing-era recording by one of the favorites of the day.

We believe that the need to express an "our song" fondness among today's under 40 age group through recordings themselves has placed an even greater value on the impact of recordings on a social level. For today, when millions of people are listening to "their song" it's represented—as only it can be—by the recording that started it all.

There was a talent hunt in Brighton, England, which ended the moment Leo Sayer walked in to audition for agent-to-be David Courtney. He was so impressed that he never did become an agent, but formed a songwriting partnership with the singer instead.

They wrote and they made some demonstration tapes for Adam Faith, once a British music popstar, more recently a popular British television actor. Excited by what he heard, Faith decided to manage and produce the blazing talent of Leo Sayer.

The closest good studio, a few miles along the Sussex coast, belonged to Who vocalist Roger Daltry, who overheard parts of the ensuing sessions and asked Leo Sayer and David Courtney to write all the songs for his solo album debut. The result, Daltry, was a critical smash which generated a hit single, "Giving It All Away."

After this fortunate interruption, Leo Sayer returned to work on his own album while anticipation mounted through the British music world. It's finished at last, titled Silverbird, and has just been released by Warner Bros. Records.

If you're ready for a change, seek out this album by an artist Leo Sayer, whose beginnings have so changed the people around him.

Herb Goldfarb:

New, Established Acts Gave London A Big Year Of Success

NEW YORK — "London Records is beginning 1974 following one of the company's most successful years in its history," reports Herb Goldfarb, vice president of sales and marketing for the label. He attributed this mainly to the company's interest in new artist development, citing Bloodstone, Z. Z. Top, Ann Peebles and 10cc as key examples.

In less than a year, Bloodstone, the self-contained rock 'n' soul group skyrocketed to the top of the charts with their million selling debut single "Natural High" from their debut best-selling album of the same name. The group toured extensively throughout the U.S. and Europe during the year in addition to making numerous appearances on national and local television. They were given special awards from the Mayors of Los Angeles and Kansas City for their contribution to the underprivileged in those cities. Their second London lp, Unreal has just been released.

Z. Z. Top, that "little ole band from Texas" made a major impact during the year as they played across the States in a series of concert appearances which included special guest billing on the Alice Cooper Tour and a Return-By Popular-Demand engagement at NYC's Academy of Music. Tres Hombres, the group's third London album reached the top 30's on the charts.

Perhaps the most interesting successful new act on London this past year, Goldfarb noted, is UK Record's group 10cc. With plans being made for their first U.S. tour early this year, 10cc already received acceptance at both progressive and top 40 radio stations across the country.

From Hi Records, London's Memphis-based soul label, comes such bright new stars as Ann Peebles and Syl Johnson. Her current cross-over smash single "I Can't Stand The Rain" will be on her next album of the same title, slated for release this month. Syl Johnson's first Hi album, Back For A Taste Of Your Love, was recently released following the success of the title single. "With his current tour, Syl will be clearly established as one of 1974's top soul singers," Goldfarb said.

Besides London's newcomers, 1973 (Cont'd on p. 16)

FRONT COVER:

Columbia Records' Johnny Mathis, lately into a more contemporary music style, joins another very contemporary member of the 1974 music scene, Rock-Ola's new model 454 phonograph at its recent introduction to the music operating industry. The glamorous 454 is a completely new design in a music box, blending stunning, elegant colors with a striking cabinet silhouette, to command instant attention at locations here and abroad.

Mathis' latest single, "Life Is A Song Worth Singing," as well as his LP, "I'm Coming Home" are both commanding world-wide attention too, and both are chart items moving up towards the top. But success is nothing new to Johnny. Ever since the days of his million sellers, "Chances Are," "Twelfth of Never," and "Maria," to name but three, he has been accustomed to popularity all over the globe. But Johnny is not resting on his laurels. With producer Thom Bell, he is moving towards a modern pop sound with an interesting result—he's reaching a whole new audience. It seems the best just keep getting better.

Ahmet Ertegun Terms Atlantic's 25th Anny Year An 'Historic One'

Sales Increases, 17 Gold Awards

NEW YORK — 1973, Atlantic Records' 25th anniversary year, was termed one of the most historic periods in the firm's history by Ahmet Ertegun, president. He cited 1973 as the year in which sales of both recordings and tapes continued to increase, with gold recordings totalling 17 for the company.

Ertegun, in his annual report on the company's activities said, "At the conclusion of our 25th anniversary year I am pleased to report that our position as the leading record company is more secure than ever. Our established artists have continued to move to greater heights and many of our newer artists are making giant strides towards success. The outstanding artists who record for Atlantic, Atco, Rolling Stone, RSO, Manticore, Virgin, Charisma and our other custom labels, and the unique talents of the producers who work with us are the main reason for the growth we have accomplished this year. We look forward now to another 25 years of growth and achievement."

Atlantic's 25th anniversary year was marked by a number of major events including a sales convention in Paris in which all of the firm's distributors participated, a 30-minute film called "A History of Atlantic Records" and a written history of the firm with pictures of the company's major artists throughout its 25 years. Two record albums were also issued to commemorate the silver anniversary.

There were many other noteworthy events during the year. Among them were distribution arrangements made with three key English labels. Manticore, Virgin and Charisma Records. Manticore, headed by Stuart Young and Mario Medious, has on its roster the major rock group Emerson, Lake and Palmer.

During 1973 Manticore introduced recordings featuring Pete Sinfield, Premiata, Forneria, Marconi (an Italian rock group), Hanson and Stray Dog. The Famous Charisma label's first release to be handled by Atlantic (Cont'd on p. 10)

Dylan Diskings Appear Under Elektra/Asylum

NEW YORK — A separate label for Bob Dylan through Elektra/Asylum has been dropped in favor of Dylan's appearance through the Elektra/Asylum logo.

When Dylan's signing with Elektra/Asylum was reported several months ago, it was announced that he would appear under the Ashes & Sound label.

Dylan's first LP is due later this month, from which a single, as yet undecided, will be culled.

January will be a big artist release month from the label. In addition to Dylan, who began his U.S. tour in Chicago last week (3), LP's are due from Carly Simon ("Hot Cakes") and Joni Mitchell ("Court & Spark"). The Simon LP has already shipped gold, making it her fourth gold disk award.

MGM Hotel Inks Helen Reddy In $1 Million Deal

HOLLYWOOD — Helen Reddy, Capitol recording artist, has been signed by MGM's Grand Hotel, to a one million dollar contract covering a period of two years and calling for the songstress to headline her own show for 6-week engagements each year, it has been announced by Bernie Rothkopf, exec vice president of the new Las Vegas hotel.

Ms. Reddy's first engagement at the hotel will begin next May 23-June 5.

Ms. Reddy was voted top selling female artist in Cash Box for 1973, and was voted the #1 selling artist by the Music Operators of America (MOA).

In 1973, Helen Reddy earned three gold singles, "I Am Woman", "Delta Dawn", and "Leave Me Alone (Ruby Red Dress)" from her million selling LPs "I Am Woman" and "Long Hard Climb."

The songstress also hosted the NBC summer replacement series for the Flip Wilson show.

U.S. Disk, Pub Ties Set By Larry Paige, George Lee

NEW YORK — Larry Page, whose London-based group of companies include a hot indie label and successful publishing firm, and George Lee, key vet U.S. music man, have joined forces in a major joint venture in the U.S. market.

The association will put Lee in direct charge of all U.S. activity for Penny Farthing Records, which achieved world-wide hit status with "Beautiful Sunday" by Daniel Boone and "Dreams Are Ten A Penny" by Kincaide. In addition to placing 10 singles on the German charts in the last twelve months, Penny Farthing has had the "Record Of The Year" in Germany for the past two years and was 1973 "Record Company Of The Year" in Spain. NEW YORK — The consumer of sophisticated audio equipment is expected to have a field day at Music World Expo '74, the music industry's first trade exposition for the consumer which is slated for March 1, 2, 3 at Madison Square Garden Center in New York City. Pickwick Rush On LP 'Americans'

NEW YORK—Adding to the excitement generated by "Americans", the biggest spoken-word record in years and one of the all-time fastest-selling hits, Pickwick Records is rushing an economy priced album featuring "Americans" and other related material.

Based on an editorial by Canadian Gordon Sinclair, the recording of "Americans" has been hailed in Newsweek magazine as "the hottest patriotic single since 'The Battle Hymn of Lt. Calley'." Already #1 on many radio stations, "Americans" is a much-needed positive statement about our country and an answer to some of the criticism we've been receiving.

The reading of "Americans" by CKLW news director Byron Mac Gregor entered the charts its first week at 65 with a bullet and has sold nearly two million copies. A version by Sinclair is also racing up the charts. Now, "Americans" has become one of the handful of new works to be especially recorded for the Pickwick label.

Based on their previous success with such timely albums as "Jesus Christ Superstar" and "Tommy", Pickwick anticipates a favorable response to their "Americans" LP.

NARAS 'Fame' Nominations Of Pre-Grammy Historic Recordings

HOLLYWOOD — Nominations are in for the NARAS Hall of Fame, honoring outstanding performances from the advent of recordings almost a century ago up to the inception in 1958 of the annual Grammy Awards.

Prominent among the 30 selections picked by a panel representing the recording and music fields are recordings from jazz and the swing era, with Duke Ellington cited four times, Count Basie three times, and Tommy Dorsey, Woody Herman and Billie Holiday twice each. The classical music field is represented by Arturo Toscanini and harpsichordist Wanda Landowska, while recordings by Nat King Cole, Bing Crosby, Ella Fitzgerald, Miss Holiday, Bessie Smith and Hank Williams have been nominated as outstanding among singers.

This week, lists of the nomination, along with ballots, will be mailed to the 90-man NARAS Hall of Fame Elections Committee, composed of Record Academy members and musicologists, critics and music historians from outside the Academy. Their votes, to be tabulated by the independent accounting firm of Haskins and Sells, will determine the first five entries into the NARAS Hall of Fame, to be announced during the Academy's annual television special, "The Grammy Awards Show," on March 2nd over the entire CBS-TV network.

The complete list of NARAS Hall of Fame nominations follows:

Atlantic: 'Historic Year'

spotlighted the fast-rising English group Genesis. Virgin Records' first for Atlantic in the USA presented Mike Oldfield's "Tubular Bells".

Major Tours

During 1973 three major Atlantic artists made extensive tours of the United States. Led Zeppelin's first U.S. concert in almost two years turned into the most exciting event of the year. In two cities the group broke attendance records set previously by the Beatles: Atlanta, where they drew over 49,000 fans and Tampa, Florida, where they pulled the largest USA concert attendance in history, over 56,000 fans. In New York City the demand for Zeppelin tickets was so overwhelming that all tickets to their Madison Square Garden concerts had to be sold by mail order only. Their fifth Atlantic album, "Houses of the Holy," became a gold album the day it was released and turned into one of the group's all time best sellers.

1973 was the year of Bette Midler. Her first major U.S. tour started in California in Sept. and ended up in late Dec. at New York's Palace Theatre. The tour and the release of her second album raised her to the status of super-stardom. The announcement of her appearance at the Palace Theatre in New York was so enthusiastically received that the engagement had to be extended from two weeks to three and all seats were sold out before it opened. She broke the Broadway box office record for ticket sales, formerly held by Judy Garland. During her engagement at the Palace Theatre, Midler was the subject of a Newsweek Magazine cover story. She was named "Best New Artist of 1973" by trade magazines and also received the Ruby Award from After Dark. Both of her albums, "The Divine Miss M" and "Bette Midler," earned gold records during 1973.

Aretha Re-signed

In Dec. of 1973, Aretha Franklin, signed a new exclusive longterm contract with Atlantic. It was concluded by Atlantic exec vice president Jerry Wexler, who has been responsible for the artist's career on Atlantic since she first joined the company in 1967. Wexler has produced her Atlantic recordings, working with both Tom Dowd and Arif Mardin. During the six years the artist has been with Atlantic, she has earned more gold records than any other female artist in the world. She has also won more Grammy Awards than any other female singer.

Little David Records contributed to the laughter throughout the United States with their release of comedy records in 1973 featuring George Carlin, The Committee and Burns and Schreiber. George Carlin's "Class Clown," issued earlier this year, won a gold record when it was certified by the RIAA for sales of over $1,000,000.

Herbie Mann signed a new contract with Atlantic in 1973, under the personal supervision of Atlantic President Ahmet Ertegun. His album "Turtle Bay" continued his string of hit albums and for 1974, Herbie was readying an album recorded in London with rock luminaries such as Mick Taylor and Albert Lee.

In 1973 Atlantic entered the quad era with releases by most of its major artists on quad disks and tapes. These releases spotlighted Herbie Mann, Bette Midler, The Spinners, Aretha Franklin, Black Oak Arkansas and Donny Hathaway.

TV Advertising

Atlantic also entered the field of TV advertising with specially made TV commercials for many of its major artists. By year's end the firm had made (or was making) TV ads for King Crimson, The Rolling Stones, Roberta Flack, Black Oak Arkansas, Emerson, Lake and Palmer, Aretha Franklin, Bette Midler, Herbie Mann, Donny Hathaway, Nikki Giovanni and ELP/Stray Dog. A video-tape of the Rolling Stones performing three songs from their "Goats Head Soup" album was shown on Don Kirshner's "In Concert" TV show. It was the highest-rated late night rock show of the year and helped push sales of the "Goats Head Soup" album to an all-time Rolling Stones high. "Goats Head Soup" received a gold record for sales of over $1 million, and a single from the album, "Angie," went gold with sales over one million.

The first year of Atlantic's handling RSO Records, the Robert Stigwood label, was a bright one both for the label and its artists. Albums by Eric Clapton's group, Derek and the Dominoes, earned a gold record, and albums by the Bee Gees and a new group, Blue, racked up healthy sales.

Roberta Flack, after a tremendous year in 1972, topped herself with one of the biggest hit single of the last five years, "Killing Me Softly With His Song." That record sold over two million copies and the album of the same name became one of the top sellers of the year. The single and the album both earned gold records for Roberta Flack.

The Spinners, Atlantic's red-hot pop/RB group, garnered three gold records during 1973. Two were for the singles "Could It Be I'm Falling In Love" and "One Of A Kind Love Affair." The third was for their album "Spinners" for sales of more than one million dollars.

The British group, Yes, was a double award winner in 1973. The combo earned gold records for their triple LP release, "Yessongs," a live album recorded on their last American tour, and one of their earlier releases, "The Yes Album."

A double album featuring the early recordings of the Allman Brothers Band, "Beginnings," became a gold record in Oct.

Bobby Short, whose albums of the music of Cole Porter and Noel Coward became best-sellers, had a new best-seller in 1973, "Bobby Short Is K-Ra-Zy For Gershwin." The Cafe Carlyle in New York where Short performs most of the year, held a special Gershwin night to celebrate the release of the album.

Poll Winners

Many Atlantic artists won magazine polls during 1973. In the 1973 Playboy All-Stars Poll, Roberta Flack was named Best Female Vocalist; Rahsaan Roland Kirk was named Best Musician on Miscellaneous Instruments; and named to the Playboy All-Star Band where Mick Jagger, Keith Emerson and Eric Clapton. Clapton was also named to the Playboy Hall of Fame. Downbeat magazine named Roberta Flack Top Female Singer of the Year; Hubert Laws won in the Flute Category and Rahsaan Roland Kirk won in Miscellaneous Instruments. New artist Billy Cobham was voted number one drummer. Bette Midler swept the Cash Box, Billboard, & Record World Year-End Polls as Best New Female Vocalist.

At the annual Grammy Awards in March, 1973, Atlantic artists gathered five Grammys. Roberta Flack and producer Joel Dorn won Record of the Year with "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face"; Roberta Flack and Don-Soyars, assistant dean for music said the course, A Survey of the Recorded Music Industry (MUH 500), is the forerunner of a proposed program leading to baccalaureate and higher degrees, and perhaps to an institute of recorded music established with industry support. John Krance, director of the University Orchestra and associate professor of music, is coordinating the program.

Performers and songwriters with whom Krance is negotiating include Seals and Croft, Carole King, Burt Bacharach, the Carpenters, Mitch Miller, J. Geils, Doc Severinsen and Black Oak Arkansas.

Among those who have agreed to lecture are Joe Smith, president of Warner Bros. Records; Clive Davis, former president of CBS Records; Stanley Gortikov, president of Recording Industry of America; Seymour Leslie, chairman of Pickwick International and a member of Syracuse University's corporate advisory council; Peter Goldmark of Goldmark Laboratories, inventor and developer of the LP record; Thomas Mowrey, classical producer, Deutsche Grammophon/Polydor Inc., and R. RCA's 3 Mos. Drive On Denver

NEW YORK — Over the first three months of 1974, RCA Records will be giving John Denver's entire catalog and his single, "Sunshine On My Shoulders," massive advertising, promotion and publicity support leading up to presentation of The John Denver Special Mar. 11 on ABC-TV.

"Sunshine On My Shoulders" originally appeared in the now platinum album, "Poems, Prayers and Promises," which also contained "Take Me Home, Country Roads," Denver's first gold single. It later was contained in "John Denver's Greatest Hits," which became a gold album less than a month after its release late in 1973. The song, "Sunshine On My Shoulders," has been heard on the TV special, "Sunshine," and was forced from the album as a single. The new hit single is spurring heavy sales of both albums, the label reports.

Kerner-Wise Record Solo La Croix LP

NEW YORK — Paul Hoffman, manager of the singer/songwriter Jerry La Croix, reports that the artist has begun work on his first solo album for Mercury/Phonogram. The album, set for an early Feb. release, is being produced by Kenny Kerner & Richie Wise.

La Croix is the former lead singer with Edgar Winter's White Trash.

RCA's campaign will be designed to further push sales of the Denver catalog as well as build the potential audience for his March TV special. During the three months, Denver will offer support to the campaign with a multi-city tour. He also will host the Johnny Carson Show on Feb. 25 and stars in a sequence of McCloud on Feb. 24.

Advertising will involve all trade publications, full-page consumer advertising, and there also will be major market radio and tv spot saturation.

Bloodrock LP Due Via Capitol

HOLLYWOOD — Whirlwind Tongues, the seventh album by rock group Bloodrock, has been added to Capitol's Jan. release, announces Brown Meggs, exec vice president of Capitol Records. This brings the total Jan. release to 10.

Odyssey Sets Jan. Albums

NEW YORK — Odyssey Records, Columbia Masterworks' budget classical label, will offer six releases in Jan., including the complete Handel Flute Sonatas with Jean-Pierre Rampal and Robert Veyron-LaCroix and Emil Gilels' performance of Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 1 in E Minor.

Other Jan. Odyssey releases will be the Metropolitan Opera performances of Mozart's Così Fan Tutti and Johann Strauss' Die Fledermaus; Bruno Walter conducting the Columbia Symphony Orchestra in Brahms' Symphony No. 4; and Leopold Stokowski conducting the Philadelphia Orchestra in works of Wagner and Falla.

The Handel Flute Sonatas come soon after the success enjoyed by Rampal and Veyron-LaCroix with their best-selling recording of the complete Bach Flute Sonatas, released by Odyssey last year.

The Gilels recording documents the historical performance of the Chopin Concerto given with Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra in 1964.

Both of Odyssey's January opera releases are sung in English. Die Fledermaus features Ljuba Welitsch, Lily Pons and Richard Tucker, with Eugene Ormandy conducting; Eleanor Steber, Richard Tucker, Roberta Peters and Blanche Thebom head an all-star cast for the Così Fan Tutte recording. The Odyssey recording, incidentally, will be the only English language version available on records, with lyrics by Howard Dietz.

The appearance of Brahms' Fourth Symphony on Odyssey completes the reissue of the original Columbia stereo recordings conducted by Bruno Walter. Stokowski's contribution to the January release will be legendary recordings of Love Music from Acts II and III of Tristan and Isolde; and El Amor Brujo by Falla. Shirley Verrett joins Stokowski on the recording.

Final LP From Family

HOLLYWOOD — The farewell LP from the British rock group Family, has been set for a Jan. 21, release by United Artists Records. The collection, entitled "It's Only A Movie," was recorded in mid-1973, just prior to the disbanding of the band.

Family began in 1966 in Leicester in England. They have toured America on three occasions, have had singles and albums on the U.K. charts, and are known internationally.

Family's personnel at the time of the breakup in mid-1973 consisted of Roger Chapman, Rob Townsend, Jim Cregan, John Whitney and John "Poli" Palmer.

Motown Plans Puzzle Promo

HOLLYWOOD — Motown Records is planning a heavy advertising, public relations and tour support campaign for the group Puzzle, according to an announcement from Phil Jones, director of sales. The campaign will be keyed to the group's second album release, due in mid-Jan. and titled "Puzzle: The Second Album" and an 11-city tour, scheduled to begin shortly after the album's release.

Herb Wood, Motown's advertising director, has scheduled print buys for trade and consumer media, including Rolling Stone, National Lampoon and The Village Voice. Ads, radio spots, billboards and in-store displays will be produced by Dave Swaney's Company, under Wood's direction. Mike Lushka, Motown's album sales manager, will coordinate the efforts of the label's sales personnel in each tour city and Stan Lewerke, Motown's national album coordinator, will set up local television appearances.

Bob Cullen, personal manager for Puzzle, has placed the group with Beacon Artists, Chicago for personal appearances. Motown has retained publicists Francis X. Feighan, Liza Williams and Billy James to conduct a public relations campaign on behalf of the group. They will direct their efforts to securing press coverage of the group's tour, as well as preparing a press kit and direct mail campaign.

Graphics for the campaign will be designed by Norman Seeff and Rod Dyer, Inc.

'Yellow Brick' Goes Platinum

HOLLYWOOD — Elton John's new double-record package, "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road," has been awarded a platinum album signifying sales in excess of one million units. The album, and the single of the same name, were released simultaneously and shipped gold on October 7th. "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road" is Elton's first double record set for MCA Records.

The artist will be returning to the U.S. this month to begin work on his next album, the first time he has recorded in the U.S.

Three Releases For Phonogram

CHICAGO — Phonogram, Inc. has released three new albums for late December including the second LP's by Bachman Turner Overdrive and Atlantis, plus the debut LP by the "new" Crickets.

The new LP by BTO is entitled "Bachman Turner Overdrive II" and features all new material. To coincide with the new album a nation wide tour will begin shortly. The group's first album, was released in May and is still on the national charts, with a single currently being selected from the new LP to follow BTO's "Blue Collar." The LP, 8-track and music-cassette are on the Mercury label.

The Vertigo album for Atlantis, "It's Getting Better" features European vocalist, Inga Rumpf. For more than a year Atlantis has been a prominent group on the continent and completed a tour of England. Plans are currently in the works for the group's debut American tour sometime after the first of the year.

The "new" Crickets album, also on Vertigo, is entitled "Remnants." The LP features guest appearances (both instrumentally and vocally) by Rick Grech, formerly of Blind Faith and Traffic, and Albert Lee, formerly of Head, Hands and Feet. The core of the Crickets is composed of Jerry Allison (an original member from the 1950's) Sonny Curtis (composer of "I Fought the Law," "Walk Right Back," "A Fool Never Learns," and others,) Nick van Maarth and Steve Krikorian.

20th Century Plans Promo For White, Love Unlimited

HOLLYWOOD — Tom Rodden, 20th Century Records v.p. director of operations, has instituted a January White Sale.

Four albums will be spotlighted—Barry White's "I've Got So Much To Give," "Stone Gon'" and "Under The Influence of Love Unlimited" by Love Unlimited. Additionally, the Love Unlimited Orchestra will be included in the "White Sale" presentation via a new LP, "Rhapsody in White," produced, conducted and co-arranged by Barry White. The package contains a cameo appearance by the artist as well as his recent composition, "Love's Theme."

White's "I've Got So Much To Give" received RIAA certification.

The January White Sale program will be backed by an array of merchandising aids, radio spots and consumer/trade advertising.

BULLDOGGING THEIR WAY TO THE TOP—Bulldog, the American rock quintet founded by Gene Cornish and Dino Danelli, formerly with The Rascals, has signed an exclusive contract with The Buddah Group, it was announced by Art Kass, Buddah's president. The group's first LP on the Buddah label is scheduled for release this month. Seen here in Buddah's New York offices for the signing are (left to right): Lewis Merenstein, Buddah's vice president and general manager, Gene Cornish, Sid Bernstein, manager of Bulldog, Art Kass, president of The Buddah Group, and fellow Bulldog members: Bill Hoehner, Dino Danelli, John Turi, and Eric Thorngren.

Bird To Buddah As Nat. Promo Dir.

NEW YORK—Art Kass, president of the Buddah Group, announced the appointment of Bruce Bird to the post of national promotion director.

Stated Kass, "Bird will be responsible for all pop promotion, both singles and albums. Although his major area of concentration will be AM singles—where he will direct Buddah's regional promotion force and local promotion men working for our distributors—our album promotion men will also report to him.

Bird joined The Buddah Group in Jan. 1973, as a local promotion man for the Cleveland-Pittsburgh-Columbus-Cincinnati market. In March of last year he was named Buddah's mid-west regional promotion director.

Born in Cleveland in 1947, where he attended school, Bird entered the recording industry at the age of 20, in 1968, as a salesman for Liberty/UA in Cleveland. He was named to the promotion department and moved to the company's offices in Cincinnati. The following year he joined RCA, to do mid-west regional promotion, returning to Cleveland in the same capacity with UA. Prior to joining the promotional staff of The Buddah Group, Bird had his own independent promotion firm in the Cleveland-Pittsburgh-Columbus area.

"This association is the result of a long relationship with George Lee and the tremendous growth we have enjoyed this past year in all areas of the business," stated Page. "There is no doubt that with George Lee's vast knowledge and experience in all worldwide phases of the business, he will bring us the American penetration we're seeking."

Robert Casper, legal counsel for the Page group of companies in the United States, revealed the Page-Lee association was formalized after months of negotiations during Page's recent brief visit to New York.

London Year

proved another triumphant year for Al Green who added three more gold singles to his collection. His current album, Livin' For You, is destined to be the biggest yet, Goldfarb predicted. M.A.M. artist Tom Jones and Engelbert Humperdinck maintained S.R.O. appearances across the country. Tom Jones' Greatest Hits, just released, contains 10 top songs from his rise to an entertainment phenomena. Meanwhile, Gilbert O'Sullivan remained one of the top singles artists during the year with "Clair," "Get Down," and "Ooh Baby."

The Moody Blues, while not releasing any new product this year, have had big success by maintaining three albums on the national best seller charts. Having completed a sold out east coast tour in 1973, the group will be duplicating their record during a west coast tour this year. Savoy Brown, meanwhile, returns to the U.S. for a major concert tour including Madison Square Garden in March, a fitting follow-up to their well received tour last fall. New product for both groups is scheduled for early 1974. Meanwhile, Goldfarb stated, Phase 4 Stereo has enjoyed "great success" with The Incomparable Montovani Plays The All Time Greatest Hits, Every Night Is New Year's Eve With Guy Lombardo, The Glory That Was Gershwin by Frank Chacksfield, and a new recording of Ethel Merman Sings Songs from Annie Get Your Gun.

Milkowski VP/Treasurer At Teletronics

NEW YORK—Joseph Milkowski has been named vice president/treasurer of Teletronics International, Inc., George Gould, president of the firm has announced.

He will be responsible for the overall management and control of Teletronics' accounting operations and the preparation of all financial reports and statements for the firm. He will also serve as treasurer of two of Teletronics' subsides: MGS Services, the leading distributor of film and tape commercials, and Video City in Miami, the large video tape production complex in the East. In May, 1971, he joined the organization as Controller and was appointed Treasurer in May, 1973.

Prior to joining Teletronics, Milkowski was controller of Diversified Data Services & Sciences Inc. (which later merged with Nytronics) and was on the Controller's staff of The Singers Co.

Atlantic: 'Historic Year'

ny Hathaway won Best Performance by a Duo with "Where Is The Love"; Aretha Franklin won two Grammys, one for Best R&B Female Vocal Performance with "Young, Gifted and Black" and the other for Best Gospel Performance with "Amazing Grace." Gary Burton won the Best Jazz Performance by a Soloist with "Alone At Last." George Carlin's album on Little David Records, "FM&AM," won a Grammy for Best Comedy Recording.

Two albums issued in honor of Atlantic's 25th anniversary were selective retrospectives of some of the outstanding recordings issued by the firm since 1948. One album entitled "The Soul Years," a double LP set, contained liner notes by Jerry Wexler. The other, called "The Jazz Years," and also a double LP set, contained liner notes by Atlantic vice president Nesuhi Ertegun.

A special series of jazz releases called "The Art Of..." was begun in 1973. By the end of the year, this series included albums by the Modern Jazz Quartet, Charles Mingus, Rahsaan Roland Kirk, Ornette Coleman, John Coltrane, Hank Crawford, Eddie Harris, Yusef Lateef, Charles Lloyd and Bobby Short.

Another important jazz series that flourished in 1973 was called "The Commodore Years." This series featured recordings from the famous Commodore label, a major force in Jazz in the 1930's and 1940's.

New Offers

In August, Atlantic Records moved its offices to a new home in the Warned Communications Building at Rockefeller Center in New York. The new offices provided the space and comfortable surroundings sorely needed by Atlantic during the past few years. Atlantic's studio remains at the old location and is now undergoing facility expansions.

New Stars

Many of Atlantic's newer artists made a powerful impression on the music scene in 1973. The J. Geils Band, popularly known as "Those Bad Boys from Boston," hit gold with their album, "Bloodshot," and became one of the strongest acts on the concert circuit. They headlined at Madison Square Garden in New York for the first time in November.

Black Oak Arkansas, as the year ended, had come up with a hit album, "High on the Hog," and a single hit, "Jim Dandy," (both produced by Tom Dowd). Always a big act in the West and the South, in 1973 Black Oak Arkansas started to break through solidly in the east. The group headlined at the Academy of Music in New York and sold out the house two shows in a row.

John Prine continued his climb to the top with his new album, "Sweet Revenge." In addition, his reputation as a songwriter continued to increase as artists like Bette Midler, Kris Kristofferson and scores of others continued to record and perform his songs.

The hot English act on the Famous Charisma label, Genesis, took off in the U.S. with their new album, "Selling England by the Pound." Not only did the album turn into a best-seller but the group did well in personal appearances. Many predicted that Genesis and lead singer Peter Gabriel will be the next super-group.

The first release on Virgin Records, Mike Oldfield's "Tubular Bells" promised to be as popular in this country as it had been in England where it resided for many weeks on top of the charts. By year's end, plans were being made to bring Mike Oldfield and a troupe of musicians to the United States to perform the epic work.

Billy Cobham, percussionist with the famed Mahavishnu Orchestra, signed with Atlantic in the spring of 1973. By the end of the year, performing his own produced and written compositions, he had a king-sized hit album, "Spectrum," which went to the number-one spot on all the jazz charts, while climbing the Pop charts as well.

Clean Records' second album by Delbert and Glen attracted much attention when issued late in the year.

Manu Dibango's recording of "Soul Makossa," both in album and single, were good sellers.

Atlantic's successful product in 1973 was due to the talents of many of the country's top independent producers. These include Thom Bell, Jesse Lewis, Peter Casperson, Hank Medress, Dave Appel, Monte Kaye, Jack Lewis, Bill Szymczyk, Allen Toussaint and Quincy Jones. Many English producers and artist/producers also contributed to Atlantic's hit product, including Robert Stigwood, Maurice, Robin and Barry Gibb, Jimmy Page, Robert Fripp, Greg Lake, Eric Clapton, Eddie Offord, Glyn Johns and transplanted-Yank, Jimmy Miller.

Atlantic's own A&R staff, including president Ertegun, Jerry Wexler and Nesuhi Ertegun, vice presidents Tom Dowd, Arif Mardin and Joel Dorn, Geoff Haslam, LeBaron Taylor, Jimmy Douglass, Phil Hurtt, Lew Hahn, Mark Meyerson, and Jim Delehant, produced albums by Aretha Franklin, Roberta Flack, Donny Hathaway, Barnaby Bye, Gary Farr, Margie Joseph, Doug Sahm and Bette Midler.

Tours For Artists

Tours and concerts by Atlantic artists helped increase record sales. In addition to tours by Led Zeppelin, Bette Midler and Emerson, Lake & Palmer, other important artists including Stephen Stills and Manassas, Roberta Flack, Graham Nash & David Crosby, Aretha Franklin, George Carlin and many others appeared in clubs, concert halls, auditoriums and arenas during the year.

Atlantic Records, under the aegis of Jerry Wexler, presented "A Night In New Orleans" in Paris, Montreux and London, in June and July. Stars of the show were Dr. John, The meters, Allen Toussaint and Professor Longhair. In July, Atlantic Records presented an evening at the Newport Jazz Festival. The evening, arranged by Nesuhi Ertegun, consisted of two performances, with Donny Hathaway, Mose Allison, Margie Joseph, David Newman and Black Heat.

New Signings & Additions

Many important acts and many talented new artists were signed to Atlantic in 1973. Some of them had made a strong impact on the pop scene by the end of the year. Artists joining Atlantic included: The James Gang, Canned Heat, Barry Goldberg (with his first album co-produced by Jerry Wexler and Bob Dylan), Manu Dibango, Jan Akkerman, Horslips, Oscar Toney, Jr., Vivian Reed, Barnaby Bye, Cross Country, Marti Brown, David Rogers, Sister Sledge, Don Adams, Billy Cobham, Terry Stafford, Andy Bey, Gary Farr and Fats Domino. The poet, Nikki Giovanni, made a distribution arrangement with Atlantic Records to handle her Niktom label. Her first album on Niktom, "Like A Ripple In A Pond," was released in the summer.

Tex Ritter saw things as they ought to be.

Genesis

ROXY L.A. — A slide projector cast the multi-colored image of a pair of eyeballs on the rear wall as black-lights illuminated the entire stage. It was a scene from the psychedelic sixties and in the midst of it all was a vaguely human form, outlandishly garbed in Vincent Price-Roger Corman drag. The band sent some opening chords from out of the shadows and the humanoid in the center began to sing; Genesis launched into Rock n Roll's most audacious audio-visual presentation.

The ground they were treading was shaky, and lesser talents might have allowed the whole show to sink into a campy supernatural exhibition. But Peter Gabriel's performance, with his costume changes, Rod Sterling intros to each song, and exercises in mime was more droll than it was shrill, and served to augment, rather than detract from the excellent music that the band played beside him. Keyboard man Tony Banks made perhaps the best use of electronic effects to be found in rock, and his work on the Mellotron provided a textured quality that added a tremendous depth to the group's music.

As a whole, the group's performance is as musical as it is theatrical, blending the two elements together into a dazzling show. Genesis records on Charisma Records; their LP, "Selling England By the Pound" was the source of much of the material they performed at the Roxy.

Dave Mason Livingston Taylor James Montgomery Band

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, NYC—Dave Mason has come a long way since his days with Traffic, probably further than most people suspect, but the Columbia recording artist is now in his prime, both as a writer and a performer, and his recent Academy performance fulfilled all the promise he has been building towards for several years.

Throughout the show Dave maintained control allowing the music from his latest LP, "It's Like You Never Left" to penetrate. With Bob Fletcher and Rick Jaeger on bass and drums, respectively, the rhythm section became an innovative force, often spurring keyboard player Mike Finnigan to flashy riffs. Particularly well received were Dave's new single, "Baby . . . Please", "Headkeeper", and "Misty Morning Stranger".

Capricorn artist Liv Taylor showed no signs of being overwhelmed by older brother James as he charmed his way through to the crowd. His set was very well received, especially on "Loving Be My New Horizon", "I Can Dream of You", and his recent single, a version of the classic, "Over The Rainbow". At this stage it seems that Liv's prospects are endless, especially when you consider that he is entering the most prolific writing and performing periods of his career.

An unexpected delight on the bill was another Capricorn group, the exciting James Montgomery Band, who turned the audience on with a rousing set. With Montgomery supplying vocals and sharp harp riffs, the group tore the house apart in the short time allotted to them. "Train", an incredible piece of funky rock from their recent album, "First Time Out", was a showstopper as was "Don't Do That". The entire band paid careful attention to dynamics and this resulted in a clean, yet powerful sound. It looks to me like this band is going all the way. d.b.

The Average White Band

WHISKY L.A. — The whimsy of their name can be misleading because the Average White Band doesn't sound much like one. On the contrary, their music is straight-ahead R&B, jazz-tinged and highly danceable. The set they delivered was marked by a feverish pace, a driving rhythm that went on and on, and the audience at the Whisky loved every minute of it.

A sextet, the Average White Band features two guitars, bass, keyboards, drums and a brilliant saxophonist, Molly Duncan who at times sounded like an entire brass section. Guitarist Onnie McIntyre proved to be an excellent vocalist and manipulated sounds from his guitar that resembled, alternately, the styles of Steve Cropper and Wes Montgomery. Pieces like "Show Your Hand" and "TLC" were made highly effective by the groups extraordinary tightness and consistently inventive treatments. The Average White Band is from Scotland. They record on MCA and much of their recent material was drawn from their recent LP, "Show Your Hand."

Opening the show, The Richard Greene Group presented some original, very ambitious material. Greene, formerly featured violinist with Seatrain, composed most of the group's songs and liberally sprinkled them with literary references to the likes of Kafka and Freud. It was an interesting set, but distinctly lacking the polish and professionalism needed to pull it off. Given time, work and perhaps a recording contract, the group might develop into something worth watching. e.s.

Glen Campbell

THEATER-GO-ROUND - NANUET, NY—An evening with Glen Campbell proved to be a totally delightful experience, as the smooth voiced troubadour spun out his songs from the Nanuet Theater-Go-Round's revolving stage.

Beginning the show with "I Believe In Music," the uptempo song set the fast paced entertainment which lie ahead for all. The easy listening sounds of Glen were finely displayed on such songs as "I Knew Jesus," a considerably softer re-arrangement than the original, Helen Reddy's smash "Delta Dawn," and the Charlie Rich classic "Behind Closed Doors". All the selections hit beautifully, and Glen's transitions were well timed.

Building the excitement, Glen went into a spoof of "Proud Mary" which was followed by a great impression of Elvis, complete with "Teddy Bear", gyrations, and opened shirt.

Glen then settled into "Mansion On The Hill", a moving ballad from his most recent Capitol album "I Remember Hank Williams". You wouldn't believe that the same emotion Hank used to have could be heard right down in Glen's throat.

Another change and Glen brought the talents of Carl Jackson on banjo for an electric trip of blue grass smokers. Kicking it off was "Foggy Mt. Breakdown," with a blue grass version of "Proud Mary" and the now-classic "Dueling Banjos" following close at hand. The answering sequences and the rhythms were executed with technical brilliance.

A medley followed which displayed Campbell's versatility and segues par excellence. "By The Time I Get To Phoenix" blended into "Try A Little Kindness" which blossomed into "Wichita Lineman". "Galveston" meshed into "Gentle On My Mind". Dennis McCarthy, Glen's conductor, aptly led a tight group of accompanying musicians.

An auditory and visual gem was ours to behold as Glen picked the "Lone Ranger" theme while old film clips of the Lone Ranger were projected onto the floor of the stage.

The last trio of songs included a forceful rendition of Nilsson's "Without You", a moving adaptation of "The Impossible Dream", and concluding the show was "Amazing Grace", where Glen's diversity had him playing the bagpipes. This evening with Glen Campbell was truly a most entertaining one. m.d.

Woody Herman

SHELLEY'S MANNE-HOLE-L.A. — There was a lot of nostalgia in the air but Woody Herman's latest herd was playing a lot more than just memories. The legendary bandleader, whose various ensembles through the years have served as a proving ground for many jazz greats, showed that even now he is capable of putting together a dynamic group of musicians.

The repertoire ranged from old Herman standards to more contemporary compositions such as Coltrane's "Giant Steps," also the title of Herman's newest Fantasy LP. Other outstanding numbers included a Herman version of "Blues in the Night" and Chick Corea's "La Fiesta."

Playing with Herman's current group was an outstanding young saxophonist, Gregory Herbert, whose numerous solos, especially on "Summer of 42" were marked by a smoothness and dexterity that may place him alongside some of the other illustrious sax players that have graced the Herds of earlier times.

But the most dazzling part of the show was the versatility displayed by Herman himself, a flexible quality that enables him to maintain his own musical character while absorbing the twists and turns of the contemporary scene. e.s.

THE RUSH IS ON THE LID IS OFF! THE DIE IS CAST!

NOW, during door-busting dollar days,

SIX GUYS FROM Burbank

(a leisure incarnation of Warner/Reprise records & tapes) is working over-time to bring you amazing values!

CREDIBILITY

A Great Gift Idea/
The Credibility Gap (MS 2154)
A comedy album without Watergate jokes? Funny stuff about Rod McKuen? Would we lie?
Anyway, parody begins at home.

VALUES LIKE:

TOGETHERNESS

Graham Central Station (BS 2763)
A group that unites personnel from Sly and the Family Stone, Billy Preston, Little Sister and the Doodletown Pipers, proving again that world peace and stone funk are both possible.

SENSITIVITY

Sundown/Gordon Lightfoot
(MS 2177)
The powerfully perceptive Canadian at his best to date, adding steel guitar here and there to his masterful writing and singing.

FOLKNICITY

Strong in the Sun/
Tir-Na-Nog (CHR 1047)
The acoustic duo dips into electricity but still succeeds in sounding like no one else, which may be why so many people like them.

VERSATILITY

Silverbird/Leo Sayer (BS 2738)
Not only did he write all the lyrics on Roger Daltrey's first solo album, but he's got a uniquely beautiful voice and buddies from Argent to back it up.

EXPERTISE

Inside Out/Eddie Henderson
(CP 0122)
Through the new jazz and beyond, with a man who's been playing with people like Herbie Hancock and John Handy long enough to be a contemporary legend.

PIANISSIMO

You and Me/Chick Churchill
(CHR 1051)
A famed keyboarder strikes out on his own with original material and friends from Ten Years After,
Jethro Tull, Bedlam, and Wild Turkey.

PLAIN OLD

WEIRDNESS

Chunky, Novi, & Ernie (MS 2146)
Frank Zappa affectionately calls this patently abnormal classical-rock trio "little cretins on stage."
Can you afford to take his word for it?

TWANGINESS

Grievous Angel/Gram Parsons
(MS 2171)
New country-rock and then some,
from the late ex-Bird and ex-Burrito whose previous solo album was GP.

THAT OLD BLACK MAGICK

Sabbath, Bloody Sabbath/
Black Sabbath (BS 2695)
Heavy metal that rivets you to the spot, in a fifth installment by England's four young wizards of rock.

TURBOCHARGE

Energized/Foghat (BR 6950)
High-powered blues-influenced rock & roll fronted by zinging vocals and unexcelled guitar work from one of England's most rapidly-rising sensations.

An ideal product for taking out of the jacket, putting on the phonograph and listening to!

R & B INGREDIENTS—"That's The Sound That Lonely Makes" is the new single from the Tavares LP on Capitol. But, for an LP cut that is really sayin' something, check out, "Hello Little Girl" . . . Also, the correct title of the Kool & The Gang LP cut that is getting lotsa play action is, "Hollywood Swinging" . . . Concerning Kool & The Gang, Henry Nash at Queens Booking Corp. says that the Gang, Millie Jackson and RCA's New Birth are getting priority attention for '74. Nash says these three acts are heading in new directions as far as bookings, etc. . . . Now that the Holiday season is over, and many among us are slowly recovering from being a little tore up, it's again time to get down to the business at hand. 'Tis true that '73 was one heluva year. Despite all the '73 problems, black artists continued to make headway in many areas, including album and single sales. And, proper credit has to be given to those dedicated cats male and female in black radio who have struggled and survived thus far in serving blacks in their respective communities. Planting the seed that serves the need is what black radio is about. It is the dedication of such people as: E. Rodney Jones, Jerry Bolding, Al Gee and Johnny Jones, to mention a few, who have, through the years, kept many talented black artists alive. They have also laid the groundwork for the future Frankie Crockers. Unfortunately, many blacks who are qualified are often not given the opportunities to succeed (or fail) nevertheless, qualified blacks (and this goes for any qualified individual) should be entitled to prove that they can indeed serve the needs of the community. After all, isn't it the aware disc jockey who knows the street who works the record hops and does his thing at the discos—isn't this the guy or gal who knows what is happening. There are many who really care. Those who are for real really care. Would it make sense to have Golda Meir running for Mayor of Cairo? . . . Sparkie Martin (Avco promo) held a swinging New Years Eve party. The party apartment was a total sea of grovin' dancers because Sparkie kept the music in the groove. Main Ingredient dropped in after their Apollo stint. G. Fitz-Bartley and Rod Bristow dropped in. The affair broke up at dawn. As usual, it was a Sparkie (Sparkling Event) . . . The NATRA convention will be held at the Century Plaza in Los Angeles the third weekend in August. Start making your plans now. This convention should be one of the most significant of all. It takes your support. You now have sufficient time to make plans and to eliminate objections (if you're from the East Coast) about the length of the trip. Details will be forthcoming . . . Comments have come to me regarding the Miracles and their new (one year) lead singer, William Griffin, sounding too much like Smokey R. Actually, William Griffin was selected and practically handpicked by Smokey because the Miracles wanted to retain their original sound. William Griffin is not Smokey and William you will discover is doing his thing in the Miracle concept of things. don drossell

ALL THAT'S JAZZ

ECM/Polydor Announces Six LP's;

(Chick Corea, Gary Burton, Robin Kenyatta, Keith Jarrett/Jack De Johnette, Holland & Rypdal)

NEW YORK CITY — The first six albums to be released under the new ECM/Polydor logo include award-winning performances by Chick Corea, Gary Burton, Robin Kenyatta, Keith Jarrett and Jack De Johnette, David Holland, and Terje Rypdal. Originally produced by Manfred Eicher for the West German ECM label, these lp's have already received rave reviews in the European and American press.

Chick Corea's "Piano Improvisations Volume One" (ECM/Polydor 1014) consists of "fragile, mesmerizing, utterly beautiful" solo piano performances according to England's Melody Maker. MM went on to call Piano Improvisations "one of the most sensitive, delicate, inventive solo piano albums ever made." Down Beat gave the album five stars, its highest rating. Record World named "Piano Improvisations" "the best jazz record of 1971" despite the fact that it was then unavailable in this country. Even the grand piano, furnished by ECM for the recording, received a rave: Canada's Coda magazine said, "the quality of the instrument impresses with the release of every note, imbues each chord with caloric richness, responds to the slightest suggestion of movement."

Vibraphonist Gary Burton has been a trend-setter, a poll-winner, and a best-selling recording artist since his memorable first quartet introduced guitarist Larry Coryell and triggered the jazz/rock fusion movement of the sixties. Burton's "The New Quartet" (ECM/Polydor 1030) is an astounding tour-de-force by four incomparable young musicians. Abraham Laboriel breaks new ground on the electric bass; Melody Maker emphasizes that "Laboriel sounds like a major artist in the making—throughout the album there's almost a wall-of-sound rhythm section with astonishing bass work dominating the pace and, indeed, the energy of the music." Guitarist Michael Goodrick is subtly melodic and inventive, and drummer Harry Blazer bridges the gap between rock and jazz rhythms with ease. Original compositions by Chick Corea, Keith Jarrett, and Carla Bley also contribute to the importance of this exceptional lp. As Melody Maker said, it's "the best Gary Burton album in a long while."

Robin Kenyatta's "Girl From Martinique" (ECM/Polydor 1008) features "a superb and unique reedman" (Down Beat) performing a program of bright, lively originals, supported by a gifted Euro-American rhythm section. Kenyatta's recent jazz/reggae "crossover" and his popular version of "Last Tango in Paris" have won him many new fans, who will be delighted with his lyrical, personally-inflected alto and flute improvisations on "Girl From Martinique." The title tune combines singing flute solos with Wolfgang Dauner's futuristic electric keyboards; "Thank You Jesus" is a stirring, unaccompanied alto solo in a spiritual vein. American drummer Fred Braceful and Norwegian bass virtuoso Arild Andersen complete the rhythm section.

"Ruta and Daitya" (ECM/Polydor 1021) is an album of duets by pianist Keith Jarrett and percussionist Jack DeJohnette, who first played together in Charles Lloyd's original quartet and were later reunited in the Miles Davis group featured on "Bitches Brew" and "Live at the Fillmore." With Jarrett, described in Rolling Stone as "the most important new keyboard stylist in jazz since McCoy Turner and Bill Evans," doubling on electric piano, organ, and flute, and DeJohnette—"the master of poly-rhythmic funk"—playing percussion instruments from around the world, "Ruta and Daitya" achieves an im-

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Nat'l Tribute

(Major Events Taking Place)

ATLANTA — The largest and most significant celebrations ever of the Birthday Anniversary of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. are being planned across the nation for January 15.

It will be the sixth consecutive year in which millions of persons from all walks of life will observe "Martin Luther King Day" in tribute to the life and work of the slain human rights leader.

In his home city of Atlanta, gala Benefit Concert for The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Social Change will be followed by an Ecumenical Service, a Celebration March and mass Community Rally. In Los Angeles, another star-studded benefit will be held, while a special observance can be seen nationwide on CBS television's broadcast of the National Basketball Association All-Star game from Seattle. Community groups in Washington, D.C., will be pressing Congress to make Dr. King's birthday an official national holiday. In New York City, the Council of Churches and the King Center will sponsor activities in support of local human rights organizations. And so it goes across America.

While the national holiday legislation is pending in Congress, masses of people everywhere already personally declare the date to be their own to honor one of history's greatest leaders.

The result has been, in each year since Dr. King's assassination, April 4, 1968, an increasingly massive outpouring of activities and observances—all dedicated to the continuation and strengthening of his nonviolent movement and teachings.

"This is the marvelous way in which people say they will keep alive my husband's work and legacy," says his widow, Mrs. Coretta Scott King. "By participating in this nonviolent movement for racial equality and peace, all persons of goodwill on January 15 are celebrating a birthday, a holiday, and a movement day."

Mrs. Coretta King is President of The Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Social Change, the Atlanta-based organization which once again is coordinating the nationwide January 15 Observances.

A Nation In Tribute

Across the nation on January 15, people and their communities will observe the Birthday Anniversary in many ways.

The Los Angeles dinner/show, "Salute to a King," is co-chaired by Mayor Tom Bradley and Congresswoman Yvonne Brathwaite Burke. Stars indicating they will perform or attend this Benefit for the King Center include Isaac Hayes, Redd Foxx, Billy Dee Williams, Lili Tomlin, Raymond St. Jacques, Paula Kelly, Richard Pryor, The Four Tops, and Roscoe Lee Brown.

During the nationwide celebrations, additional states, cities, and towns will join those which have already made January 15 an official holiday.

Thousands of school systems, businesses and labor unions recognize Martin Luther King Day by closing; thousands more pause for observances. Churches hold commemorative services, and many community and human rights organizations engage in social action in the tradition of Dr. King, such as voter registration, economic development programs, and nonviolent campaigns against poverty and discrimination.

The news media contribute to the holiday with editorials and special articles about Dr. King, and with radio announcements encouraging people to drive with their car lights turned on during the day. Special features and documentary presentations on the Movement are printed and broadcast.

One of the most popular and important activities during the January 15 Birthday period is the showing of the Center-sponsored documentary, "King: A Filmed Record . . . Montgomery to Memphis." Hundreds of schools, community groups, churches and television stations have shown this authentic account of Dr. King's life and the Movement he led.

Harold Melvin & Blue Notes Strike Gold With 'The Love I Lost'

PHILADELPHIA — Philadelphia International recording group Harold Melvin & The Blue Notes have gone Gold with their latest single, "The Love I Lost." The song from the group's latest album, "Black & Blue," has been certified Gold by the R.I.A.A., signifying sales in excess of one million copies. Philadelphia International Records is a Columbia Records Custom Label.

"The Love I Lost" represents the second Gold single award for Melvin & The Blue Notes, the previous one being for "If You Don't Know Me By Now," which was released in 1972 as a single from the group's first album, "I Miss You." All of the material recorded by Harold Melvin & The Blue Notes is produced for Philadelphia International by Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff.

ALL THAT'S JAZZ (Cont'd)

pressive variety. The communication between these two major artists merits Melody Maker's observation that "this duo album works conspicuously well."

English bassist David Holland, whose prominence in this country dates from his work alongside Jarrett and DeJohnette in the Miles Davis band, assembled an all-star quartet for his "Conference of the Birds" (ECM/Polydor 1027). Reedmen Sam Rivers and Anthony Braxton are virtuosos on their various instruments; Braxton was a member, with Holland and Chick Corea, of the legendary new music group Circle, and Rivers has been called "the most accomplished of the post-Coltrane tenors" (Rolling Stone). Drummer Barry Altschul, another Circle alumnus, completes the quartet. Holland's original compositions are memorably melodic, and each player contributes brilliant solo performances.

Terje Rypdal is a young Norwegian guitarist whose fame has spread throughout Europe, and "What Comes After" (ECM/Polydor 1031) is a stunningly original debut album. When it first appeared in Europe, Melody Maker wondered "Why doesn't (Miles) Davis dump the band he's got now, and hire the whole Norwegian band with which Rypdal works? Terje Rypdal is, without a doubt, just the man for him." Rypdal wields his electric guitar like a sonic paint brush; he blends strong rock rhythms and bluesy original compositions with reed instruments, wordless vocals, and electronic sound washes. MM's review concluded: "Rypdal has the potential to become a figure of world importance. Miss him now at your own risk."

Producer Manfred Eicher's careful attention to the engineering and production of every ECM recording has resulted in incomparable sound quality. The ECM line has been the most talked-about series of recordings in Europe since its inception; it will now be available in the U.S. through ECM/Polydor. Up to fourteen additional ECM/Polydor lp's will be released within the year.

Picks of the Week

FOUR TOPS (Dunhill 4377)

I Just Can't Get You Out Of My Mind (3:42) (ABC/Dunhill/Soldier, BMI—D. Lambert, B. Potter)

The Tops are starting '74 with a disk that none of us will be able to get out of our minds for some time to come. Possessing of that same driving feel as their smash "Keeper Of The Castle" and "Are You Man Enough", this power packed track has that same hit potential and should get the year off on the right foot for the Tops, a top group if there ever was one. Flip: no info. available.

ENGELBERT HUMPERDINCK (Parrot 54829)

Free As The Wind (3:09) (Soultown, BMI—J. Goldsmith, H. Shaper)

The "Love Theme From Papillon" gets a simply gorgeous treatment from Engelbert and is a sure shot for Top 10 standing once the film gets really going. The lyrics perfectly capture the Dustin Hoffman-Steve McQueen starrer, and the soft orchestration is simply mesmerizing. Headed towards status as a movie classic. Flip: No info. available.

THE NEW BIRTH (RCA APBO 0185)

It's Been A Long Time (3:45) (Dunbar-Rutri, BMI—Baker, Wilson)

This group is hotter than ever and this soft ballad will be the vehicle to further enhance those recent successes. Pretty string section coupled with harmonies and powerful lead vocals are certain to make this disk a pop and r&b smash. Flip: no info. available.

BILLY PAUL (Philadelphia International 3538)

Thanks For Saving My Life (2:57) (Mighty Three, BMI—K. Gamble, L. Huff)

Billy speeds up the tempo in this super scat pop rocker certain to succeed on both pop and r&b scenes. Great horn arrangements add depth to Billy's vocals and the female back up singers make it even better. Should be Billy's biggest since "Me And Mrs. Jones". Flip: I Was Married (4:00) (Mighty Three, BMI—K. Gamble, L. Huff, C. Gilbert, J. Arc)

CHARLIE ALLEN AND PACIFIC GAS & ELECTRIC (Dunhill 4374)

Gumbo Jones (3:28) (Moms Best, ASCAP/Pop's Best, BMI—C. Allen, J. Hill, S. Michlin)

This funky little wonder, perfect for discos and both pop and r&b airplay will definitely re-establish P,G & E as a powerful pop entity. Changing tempo and strong vocal performance, backed by a very tight rhythm section marks this one a hit. Flip: no info. available.

CORNELIUS BROTHERS & SISTER ROSE (United Artists XW 377W)

Big Time Lover (3:29) (Unart/Stage Door, BMI—E. Cornelius)

This is a big time smash, to say the least and the best disk this group has delivered in some time. Fantastic string and horn sections make this one go as the brothers and the sister supply the vocals right on target. Definitely love at first sight. Flip: no info. available.

TRAVIS WAMMACK (Fame XW 373-W)

Muscle Shoals, Alabama (3:05) (Rick Hall, ASCAP—T. Wammack)

The city that's the home of the hits is graced by this beauty by Travis. Pop-country flavor is enhanced by high harmonies and background banjo picking, yet that contemporary pop flavor is maintained via a very pretty flute running through the track. Strong track with both pop and country potential. And it's about time folks started hearing about the city that gives 'em all their hits (or at least a good many of them) Flip: no info. available.

SAMI JO (MGM South 7029)

Tell Me A Lie (2:59) (Fame, BMI/Rick Hall, ASCAP—B. Wyrick, M. Buckins)

Pretty records come along every so often and make a person or two smile and feel good, but great records only come once in a very rare while. This is a great record. Country/pop flavored with a stunning vocal by Ms. Jo, this one is one of the more superior records of its genre. Little will hold it back. One spin proves its potential. Flip: Stay Where You Are (3:20) (Lowery, BMI—J. Randall, S. Limbo)

Choice Programming

Choice Programming selections are singles which, in the opinion of our reviewing staff, are deserving of special programmer consideration.

POP PICKS

LET IT RIDE—Chi Coltrane—Columbia KC 32463

Sultry and talented Chi has a brilliant new LP that features a wealth of fine original material and some insight into her consummate ability as a producer and arranger. A very striking live performer, she has put the essence of her soul into these ten compositions and the resulting product is terrific. "Hallelujah" is typical of her "Thunder and Lightning" approach while "Myself to You" is a tender, evocative ballad well worth several listenings, if only for the lyrics. "It's Not Easy", "Short'nin Bread", "Fly-Away Bluebird", and "Feather My Bed" are particularly fine as is the dynamic title track.

BLACK-EYED BLUES—Esther Phillips—Kudo KU-14

BLACK-EYED BLUES—Esther Phillips—Kudo KU-14

Esther has always represented the finest in blues vocal interpretation and her latest Kudo LP is a masterwork, featuring the charming singer at her powerful and persuasive best. "Justified", "Too Many Roads", "You Could Have Had Me, Baby", and "I've Got It Bad And That Ain't Good" are all superbly worked emotional pieces which highlight the amazing range Esther possesses. Alternating as she does from fire to ice, the artist takes the title track and turns it into a haunting spell that captures you from the first bar and doesn't turn you loose till the final phrase is just a memory.

JAZZ PICKS

KEEP YOUR SOUL TOGETHER—Freddie Hubbard—CTI CTI 6036

Freddie has himself a pleasing and powerful collection in this, his new CTI LP which features the dynamic trumpeter playing four expressive tunes that span a huge emotional as well as musical horizon. The title track is the soul and substance of the album, but "Brigitte", "Spirits of Trane", and "Destiny's Children" are equally impressive in their own ways. It's nice to see Freddie receiving some recognition, for he has been a talented journeyman for many years. With him on this LP are George Cables on piano, Kent Brinkley and Ron Carter on acoustic and electric bass, respectively, Ralph Penland on drums, Aurell Ray on guitar and Junior Cook on tenor sax.

M. F. HORN LIVE AT JIMMY'S—Maynard Ferguson—Columbia—KG 32732

Four sides from Maynard is a fantastic treat and this two record LP, recorded live at Jimmy's in July, '73 fulfills the greatest expectations of even his most demanding fans. Always one of the most respected trendsetters in jazz, Maynard and band whip up a storm throughout this entire collection. "Two For Otis", "The Fox Hunt", "Blue Birdland", "I'm Gettin' Sentimental", and "Got The Spirit" are examples of the artist's best live efforts and provide some interesting insight into the making of a solid live LP that doesn't lose its punch. Naturally, producer Teo Macero is responsible also. We love "Teonova".

SOUND TRACK PICKS

ROBIN HOOD—Motion Picture Soundtrack—Narrated by Roger Miller—Disneyland 3810

If you've been searching for that perfect package of holiday fun, the stories and songs (plus an 11 page booklet) from the Disney classic Robin Hood, narrated by Roger Miller, is a must. The story line of course is familiar to children of all ages by now, but listen to this list of stars in the cast: Peter Ustinov as Prince John, Phil Harris as Little John, Brian Bedford as Robin Hood, Terry Thomas as Sir Hiss, Roger Miller as Allan a Dale, Pat Buttram as Sheriff, George Lindsey as Trigger, and Andy Devine as Friar Tuck. A delightful treat anytime, this LP represents the finest in entertainment.

CINDERELLA LIBERTY—Original Motion Picture Soundtrack—Music by John Williams, Lyrics by Paul Williams—20 Century ST-100

From the movie starring James Caan, Marsha Mason, and Eli Wallach, this excellent soundtrack lends credence to the theory that a well thought out movie score can stand on its own merit, as a separate entity from the film it supports and thus achieve its own identity. "Wednesday Special", "New Shooter", "The Ferry Ride", "Boxing Montage", "A Baby Boy Arrives", "Maggie An Baggs", "Maggie Shoots Pool", and "Neptune's Bar" are all outstanding cuts, utilizing the sophisticated, yet earthy Paul Williams' lyrics to great advantage. John Williams' music is fine.

Edgar Winter Tour: Lights/Effects Key

NEW YORK — The new Edgar Winter tour will require a nine man crew, 15,000 pounds of equipment worth $125,000, and a 45-foot semi-truck.

According to the group's tour director Teddy Status, who is vice-president and general manager of Organic Management, Inc., staging and sound are integral parts of a rock group's success. The Edgar Winter Group is currently in the midst of a 25-city American tour following their number one million unit selling album "They Only Come Out At Night," which included the number one million selling single "Frankenstein," the top ten follow-up "Free Ride," and their current hit "Hangin' Around."

It takes five hours for the stage to be set up for the Edgar Winter Group. Status specifies a 44 by 44 foot stage, five feet high. There are a total of 250 separate units which have to be assembled on that space. The nine man travelling crew is divided into three units, three men in charge of the sound and monitoring system, three in charge of lighting, and three men responsible for general staging. In addition, there are normally eight local union men on hand to help with the set-up.

There are three amplifiers servicing Edgar, three lighting hydraulic towers with a total of 48 instruments, nine Ampeg amplifier tops, five Ampeg amplifier bottoms, two acoustic bottoms, two Arp synthesizers, one Univox piano, a dry ice machine, strobe lights, 12 foot mirror panels, eight intercom systems, a white floor, police beacons, a mirrorball, and a Cyclops manually controlled follow-spot. $10,000 has been spent on special effects equipment alone.

Mylar mirrored panels are strategically placed to reflect all four members of the band. The dry ice machine, says Status "is used in one song 'Frankenstein' to fit the mood of the music."

In "Free Ride," the mirrorball effect is used and on "Undercover Man," a police siren and police beacons.

The Edgar Winter Group show lasts approximately an hour and fifteen minutes including the three encores they've been receiving. Phoenix Audio is responsible for the sound, and Concert Guild Lighting for the lights, both designed to Status' specifications. The sound system is worth approximately $75,000 and the lighting system about $40,000.

Edgar Winter's costumes are especially created for him by Bill Whitten. Edgar carries at least eight different costumes with him on the road, and Rick Derringer, the group's lead guitarist, has four different satin jumpsuits.

Status, who was formerly Managing Director of Steve Paul's Scene, began directing rock tours with Johnny Winter four years ago.

HOLLYWOOD: TONY ORLANDO—CHASING PHONIES FROM THE BOOM—BOOM ROOM

Almost 13 years ago, Cash Box described Tony Orlando as "one of the hottest young finds of 1961." Tony's records, "Halfway to Paradise" and "Bless You" were high on the charts, in the company of songs by such superstars as the Jive Five, Chubby Checker and Rick and the Keens. But hit records and superstars tend to be very transient phenomena in an industry that uses the term "ancient history" to denote anything that may have happened more than five years ago.

Tony Orlando remained in the music business, though, not as a performer but in publishing. Eventually, he became a vice president of CBS' Blackwood Music, working with artists like James Taylor, Taj Mahal and Blood Sweat and Tears. It was a good job, and Tony might have remained there if two producer friends, Hank Medress and Dave Appell had not come to him one day with a song titled "Candida." "The whole thing was an accident," said Tony. "They came to me asking what label I thought this track would be good for, never talking to me as the potential singer. I told them, Bell Records, because it was a single, a studio thing. Bell was the best singles-oriented company in the business at that time, and that seemed to be the best label to go to."

Medress took "Candida" to Bell Records' president Larry Uttall, who bought it, but didn't like the lead vocal that had been initially recorded. "So Hank came back to my office and said 'considering that you used to cut with Carole King, and basically all the sounds that you used to cut were Drifters—kind of records—well, this is a very Drifterish-kind of song; would you mind doing a lead voice on it?' I said, "Yes, I would mind," because I was working for Columbia Records and Bell was a competitor. I felt it would be a conflict of interest."

As it turned out, CBS didn't object; Tony was persuaded to record "Candida" Records added backing voices by Telma Hopkins and Joyce Vincent, two singers that had worked extensively with Issac Hayes and many others. The company

NEW YORK—BILLY PRESTON—THE CIRCLE REMAINS UNBROKEN

One of the more remarkable coincidences in the rock business occurred when master composer/keyboard genius, Billy Preston wrote and recorded what was to become his second gold single which asked the musical question "Will It Go Round In Circles?" This in a sense has been prophetic for Billy because success has had him travelling the globe in circles, and the dizzying merry-go-round seems to have no intention of stopping to give him a rest.

"I enjoy working," says Billy languidly lounging on his hotel room sofa, "and I get off on the enthusiasm of the audiences everywhere I play. That's what gave me the idea for my second album title, "Music Is My Life." For me, there's no such thing as spare time or even vacation for that matter. I spend all my time writing or playing. In fact, last time the band and I took a holiday, we started getting edgy after a few days and before we knew it, we were back in the studio layin' down tracks. I'm just not happy unless I'm working."

Knowing this would make it very easy for Billy's personal physician to prescribe a cure for depression. But that condition hardly seems a likely possibility when you take a look at where the artist has been and the company he's been keeping. Starting in Sept., '73, Billy toured Europe with the Stones, opening for them with his own band and then, after a respite of a half-hour, returning to play keyboard with Mick and co. "All the dates were enjoyable," muses Billy, reflecting back on the intensity of the Stones' tour, but I think the gigs in Wembley may have been the best. It's kind of hard to tell in most places because all you can see are the first few rows, and you can usually assume that those people are the real die-hard fans who waited in line for hours to get tickets."

Billy did all the keyboard work for the Stones on the tour and impressed them enough to elicit some interesting responses. "For openers," says Billy, "it was a family kind of tour. Everybody hung out together. In Hamburg, Mick Taylor (guitarist with the Stones) did my whole show with me without making a mistake and kept coming back to play throughout the rest of the tour. During the whole arbitrarily dubbed the group "Dawn" and released it.

Tony Orlando And Dawn

"Three months later," related Tony, "I pick up the Gavin sheet and I see 'Smash of the Week—Candida, by Dawn.' Now you have to understand that I didn't even know what the name of the group was. So when I picked up the sheet, I thought that maybe I had published the song, because the title was familiar. I called my secretary and said 'look through the catalog and see if we have this song.' She didn't find it and I thought that I was mistaken—I mean, I had completely forgotten that I had cut that track. The first time I sang it and the last time I saw it was in the studio, that one time. Later, I got a call from Hank and he says "We got a smash." I said "we do? with what?" and he said "with that record that we cut." Then I put it all together—"Candida," Gavin, Dawn, right, we got a smash."

"But I still wasn't about to quit my job, because I've seen hit records come and go. I wasn't about to get out of a position that I'd worked very hard to get to." Tony did agree, however, to make a follow-up record, "Knock Three Times," for which Telma Hopkins, Joyce Vincent and the name Dawn were again used. "Knock Three Times" sold six million copies world-wide, leaving Bell Records in the unusual position of having two straight number one singles and no artist signed to the label.

With a little more persuasion, Bell signed Tony Orlando, Joyce Vincent and Telma Hopkins, retained the name Dawn, and set out to begin promotional tours, etc. "To my surprise," said Tony, we had a problem. You see, there was a nine month period between the time that "Candida" first made it and I was signed to Bell. In the meantime, a lot of small-time booking agencies had invented bogus Dawns. They knew from reading the trades that I was still with Blackwood Music, that I wasn't on the road performing as Dawn or anything else. They knew that if they booked a group called Dawn into the boom-boom room somewhere, nobody was going to know the difference. Nobody had ever seen a picture of Dawn and we were by no means famous, facially. Now you can't copywrite a name—anybody can appear as Dawn, legally. The only thing that you can stop them from doing is claiming that they had recorded those songs."

"At one point, there were 14 phony Dawns playing gigs around the world and we couldn't work. The booking agencies would say 'why should we want to book the real group at five thousand dollars a night when we can get a phony group for five hundred?' Very, very vicious—and I began to get pissed off. The two most precious things to all of us in this business are our reputation and our signature; and those groups were wrecking my reputation. At that point, I decided to commit myself to Dawn 100 percent, and I worked at a total loss, just trying to build up a good name as a performing act. It was a matter of time we were on the road, both Mick Taylor and Mick Jagger got together with me to jam and we collaborated on a lot of stuff."

Exactly what 'stuff' Billy is referring to will be revealed when he finishes and releases his fourth LP on A&M Records. "It's going to be full of rock and soul cuts and both Taylor and Jagger are going to play on it," says Billy, knowing that this little bit of help will obviously be an enormous plus for the entire project. "There'll be a lot of potential singles off the new album," smiles Billy, "maybe even a song called 'Creature Feature.' All together, I guess we will put out about ten new tunes."

Naturally Billy's not going to walk into the studio cold, having just come off an American tour which took him to places like Chicago, Providence, Pittsburgh, and Detroit. But then again, we told you Billy isn't comfortable being idle. "Actually," he says, "we cut this tour short so we could spend a week in Munich finishing up the Stones' next album. Turn about being fair play, it's only natural that Jagger would offer his services as a rhythm guitarist on Billy's next LP with Taylor spicing up the project with his unique lead guitar work."

One thing is certain, Billy Preston will always be able to count on the world's finest musicians to lend him a helping hand because he has never said no to a friend in need. On his recent A&M LP, for instance, he augmented his expansive sound by utilizing the talents of two other fine keyboard artists, Kenneth Lupper and Manuel Kellough, as well as David T. Walker on drums and Dennis Coates on bass. Billy did his own guitar work for the album entitled, "Everybody Likes Some Kind Of Music."

But perhaps the true essence of Billy Preston is his stage act and his own modest accounts of European reaction to his material gives a good impression of what he's really like. "We started each set with "Daytripper," which was an immediate bridge for them (European audiences), and then did "Will It Go Round In Circles?", "Space Race," "Everybody Likes Some Kind of Music," and closed with "Outta Space." Probably the song that drew the most response in terms of audience participation was "The Bus Is Comin'." On that one, people from about fifty rows back came running up to the stage and started carryin' on like there was no tomorrow."

With all this happening on stage, it's hard to believe Billy has time for the studio, let alone other projects, but within a span of two months he will have appeared on four major TV shows, "American Bandstand," "Midnight Special," "Soul Train," and "New Year's Rockin' Eve '74." In the process are negotiations with Don Kirshner for an appearance on "Rock Concert" and plans for a Spring tour. Billy Preston is definitely a man on the move. Is he going round in circles? You bet, in ever higher spirals that are making his name as popular as his music, and that's saying something. david budge.

Country Music Report

Country Great Tex Ritter Dies At 67

NASHVILLE — Tex Ritter, one of the most viable forces on the country music scene died in Nashville on January 2, from a heart attack. Stricken while he was visiting a friend at the county jail, the police attempted to administer oxygen, and he was rushed to Baptist Hospital where he died.

Ten days short of his 68th birthday, Maurice Woodward Ritter was a singer, songwriter, guitar player, actor and politician. It was just three weeks ago that Tex went to Washington to present a special recording to President Nixon. It was an album composed of speeches by the President and contained narration by Tex Ritter. The only other copy of the album was donated to the Country Music Hall of Fame.

A distinctive actor, the series of Tex Ritter western movies was responsible for his fame. As a matter of fact this is where the "Singing Cowboy" met his wife Dorothy. She also was an actress and they were married shortly after.

A fine songwriter Tex penned such tunes as the title theme to "High Noon," "I've Got Spurs That Jingle Jangle Jingle" recorded on his own label in 1942, "Green Grow The Lilacs," "Jealous Heart," "Boll Weevil" "Rounded Up In Glory," "Blood On The Saddle," and of course "I Dreamed Of A Hillbilly Heaven." All of these titles, and more, have recently been packaged by Capitol Records commemorating over twenty-five years of affiliation with Capitol Records. The LP "Tex Ritter An American Legend" beautifully chronicles the musical life of Tex. His last record, which was just released is his interpretation of the skyrocketing Byron McGregor recording of "The Americans."

One of the originators of the Country Hall of Fame, Ritter was elected as a member in 1964. Also a past president of the Country Music Association Tex also ran on the Republican ticket as a Tennessee representative in the Senate, but was defeated.

A friend of such greats as Minnie Pearl, the late Jim Denny, and Eddie Arnold, Tex had also appeared at The Grand Ole Opry.

A veritable plethora of country talent, Tex will indeed be missed by his loved ones, friends, and his fans. Tex Ritter will be buried in Nederland, Texas. m.d.

Capricorn Inks Kitty Wells

ATLANTA—Phil Walden, president of Capricorn Records, has announced the signing of the Queen of Country Music, Kitty Wells, to a long-term contract. In announcing the signing, Walden stated: "All of us at Capricorn have always been great fans of Ms. Wells, and it is with great pleasure that I welcome her to Capricorn. Needless to say, I am looking forward to many successful years ahead."

Ms. Wells was signed to Decca/MCA Records in 1952, and has accumulated twenty-three number one country records. Her first release, "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels" stayed on the charts for over a year and sold over one million copies. Her recording of "One By One" with Red Foley stayed on the charts for two years. Ms. Wells is the only female to win all trade awards in a single year as the #1 female country artist.

Country music history was made when Kitty signed a lifetime recording contract with Decca. In announcing her move to Capricorn Records, she stated: "When the invitation came to join Capricorn Records. I felt the challenge too exciting and the opportunity too great. I appreciate MCA honoring my request to be released. I value my long association with Decca and MCA, along with my many friends on that label."

Under the release agreement of this unprecedented move by an artist requesting a release from a lifetime exclusive recording contract, Kitty Wells will forever receive royalties from her vast catalog, which will continue to be merchandised by MCA.

Country Artist of the Week:

JIM MUNDY

"Easy As A.B.C." —Born in Muldrow, Oklahoma, Jim Mundy has spent all of his life with music. His entire family was musical. In fact, they had their own band. His mother played bass, one sister played piano while another sister sang, his brother-in-law played lead guitar, and Jim joined in with his guitar. Jim and his family moved to Fort Smith, Arkansas, where he graduated from high school, and the family continued to play for clubs and dances but Jim still only added his guitar to the group and never attempted to step out into the spotlight, but one night, they were playing a club date and the singer didn't show up. The manager refused to pay without the male singer that was part of the contract, so Jim's father stepped in and told him that he'd better get out there and sing, or else. So he sang "Mom and Dad's Waltz" and the crowd loved it so from then on, he sang. He sang in a gospel trio in church and at fourteen, appeared on radio with the "Gospel Three." Jim played and sang with the family band for several years until it broke up, and he and his brother-in-law formed their own "rock-a-billy" and later "country band."

Today, after adding successful songwriting to his accomplishments and moving to Nashville, Jim Mundy has penned such tunes as "Philadelphia Fillies," "Pull My String and Wind Me Up," and "Country Girl With Hot Pants On." He holds the enviable record of appearing nightly at the King Of The Road Motor Inn in Nashville for the past 2½ years. He has just signed a writers contract with Chappel Music, and has a new record just released by ABC/Dunhill titled "The River's Too Wide." He is also busy making commercials for Hungry Jack and GMC, with several others in the works.

Don Gant directs all recording for ABC/Dunhill.

Tillis On Douglas

HOLLYWOOD — Mel Tillis has been signed to join Burt Reynolds as a guest on the Mike Douglas Show special scheduled to tape Wednesday, January 9, at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida.

The appearance reunites the performer-composer with the actor. They were last together on a Reynolds TV special taped earlier this year in Nashville and scheduled to air after New Year's.

"Burt likes me around 'cause it guarantees the ladies will turn on the sets and watch," Tillis quipped.

In addition to the Douglas show, a Tillis stage schedule is taking shape and suggests that 1974 will keep him at the swift pace that means more than 200 performances per annum for the Mel Tillis Show.

The itinerary to date:

January 4—Jackson, Miss.; 11—Charleston, West Va.; 12—Charlotte, N.C.; 16—Orlando, Fla.; 31—Fort Worth, Texas; February 2—Knoxville, Tenn.; 3—Lansing, Mich.; 10—Grand Rapids, Mich.; 14—Tampa, Fla.; 16—Saginaw, Mich.; 17—South Bend, Ind.; 24—Terre Haute, Ind.

Lane Cuts 'The Snake'

NEW YORK — Oscar Brown Jr.'s "The Snake," published by Marks Music, is entering its third incarnation and this time it will reside in Nashville. Originally recorded as an r&b release by Al Wilson for Soul City

Miller Narrates 'Robin Hood' LP

HOLLYWOOD — Roger Miller, currently represented on record with his "Dear Folks, Sorry I Haven't Written Lately" LP for Columbia, has turned up again, narrating a Disneyland Records soundtrack album featuring music and dialogue from the new animated full-length feature "Robin Hood."

It figures, since that's Miller in the Disney film, providing voice and personality to the minstrel rooster, Allan a Dale, who tells the Disney version of the classic story.

Too, the film and the LP present three new songs written by Miller. "Whistle Stop," "Oo-De-Lally" and "Not in Nottingham."

Another version of "Whistle Stop" is in the "Dear Folks" album, which also contains Miller's back-to-back chart singles, "Open Up Your Heart" and "I Believe in the Sunshine."

"Oo-De-Lally" has become the catch-line in advertisements for the Disney film.

Miller, meanwhile, has completed a round of television guest appearances, with Johnny Carson, Merv Griffin and others, prior to his headline engagement at the MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas, January 6-29.

Records, the song subsequently became a Pop hit by Lou Rawls for Capitol. It has now been recorded and released by country & western artist Jerry Lane for ABC Dunhill. The song was produced in Nashville by Ron Chancey.

CashBox/Country Top 75

Picks of the Week

BARBARA FAIRCHILD (Columbia 4-45988)

Baby Doll (3:23) (Duchess, BMI—J. Crutchfield—D. Earl)

An excellent follow up to Barbara's smash "Kid Stuff," her new record is an easy-paced ballad that concerns the pleasure one can gain looking back on childhood's security in fond retrospect. A moving lyric and Barbara's sweet voice will get this record immediate response, and a top ten chart position. Flip: No info. available.

TEX RITTER (Capitol 3814)

The Americans (A Canadian's Opinion) (4:46) (Con—Estoga, BMI—Gordon Sinclair)

Presently one of the biggest selling records in the country, it has already climbed to #14 within the space of three short weeks. Tex lends a special flavor to this poignant recording that may give him an edge over the Byron McGregor rendition. Watch this one skyrocket! Flip: He Who Is Without Sin (Let Him Judge Me) (3:15) (Vidor, BMI—Victor Jaskot)

DOT WATSON (Poppy XW370-W)

New Born King (2:49) (Hill & Range, BMI—P. Roberts—D. Rosmini)

A great ballad by Doc, the story of Jesus is beautiful to listen to during the holiday season or anytime at all. Doc demonstrates some fine vocal techniques on the lushly orchestrated ballad that should get Doc some very definite response. Flip: Peace In The Valley (2:53) (Hill & Range, BMI—T. A. Dorsey)

RON HARRIS (Country Showcase America 147)

Nice To Be With You (Jack, BMI—J. Gold)

Ron does an excellent cover job with this most popular song. A smooth vocal and bouncy instrumentation make this record catch on at once. A very catchy record it should gain a secure spot on the country charts in no time at all. Flip: Susan's Floor (2:50) (Jack, BMI—V. Matthews—S. Silverstein)

STAN DEE (Country Showcase America 142)

Little Evil (2:50) (Cedarwood, BMI—Kent Westberry)

A driving tune Stan has a powerful vocal that is smooth yet forceful. Little Evil makes Stan sound something like Johnny Rivers with a more countrified approach. A very interesting sound this record should have no trouble in getting air play and chart action. Flip: Ring Of Fire (2:40) (Painted Desert, BMI—M. Kilgore—J. Carter)

THE MOMS & DADS (GNP Crescendo 472)

My Happiness (2:30) (Happiness, ASCAP—Bergantine—Peterson)

A most enjoyable easy paced instrumental, this song has a mellow sound with some excellent musicianship displayed. The saxophones are very sweet and the sound is that of a truly western atmosphere that should get immediate response. Flip: Somewhere My Love (2:59) (Robbins, ASCAP—Jarre—Webster)

Best Bets

JIMMY NALL (Monument 8595)

Country LP Review

QUEEN OF COUNTRY—Various Artists—Columbia 32719

A really glorious package that has been put together featuring some of the finest female voices on the country music scene today. This LP is a genuine treasure trove for the country aficionado be they young or old. Tammy Wynette is featured on two inspiring vocals "Bedtime Story" and "My Man (Understands)". Lynn Anderson is also on two songs from this collection "Keep Me In Mind" and a great cover version of the Vicki Lawrence hit "The Night The Lights Went Out In Georgia." Barbara Fairchild from "Teddy Bear Song" and "Kid Stuff" fame does a great job on "Thanks For The Memories." Other artists include Jody Miller, Tanya Tucker, Connie Smith, Sandy Posey, Barbara Mandrell, and Arlene Harden.

Light Represents Billy Joe Shaver

NASHVILLE — The Don Light Agency in Nashville will be representing Monument recording artist Billy Joe Shaver for personal appearances.

For the past several years, Shaver has been acquiring recognition for his songwriting. Artists such as Tom T. Hall, Waylon Jennings, Bobby Rare, and Kris Kristofferson have recorded his material. Bare, in fact, has signed Shaver to his publishing firm, Return Music.

Kristofferson initiated Shaver's recording activity, producing Shaver's sessions and obtaining his Monument Records contract.

Light says his agency's immediate plans for Shaver are to arrange a schedule of appearances at the major listening clubs around the nation. He adds that several of the biggest are already setting dates for the newcomer to Nashville's "new breed" of songwriter-entertainer.

Country Roundup

Johnny Carver says, "Tonight Someone's Falling In Love"—Brian Shaw's first appearance will be on network television on an early segment of the forthcoming "Music Country" TV series. Taping of the show came in the midst of personal appearance activity spurred by the hot rookie's current RCA single, "Good Enough To Be Your Man."

Mike Clark has signed an exclusive writer's contract with Cedarwood Publishing Company, according to an announcement by Cedarwood president J. William Denny.

Two interesting "characters" have been lined up for "Appearances" on the "Music Country" TV series—a 1935 Rolls Royce and a 1954 Rolls Royce, both of which belong to singer-writer Tina Lane. The '54 vehicle has virtually become part of Tina's act.

Charlie Bragg and Larry Lee have been busy with the lawyers, finalizing the papers and related preparations concerning JRC Productions. The new production company is a wing of the House Of Cash.

Effective December 3, 1973, WGIL-FM in Galesburg, Ill. changed its call letters to WAAG. They are continuing their country music format. The change is for the purpose of giving separate identity to the FM station. John Bierman is the program director while Jim Wyman is station manager.

Ray Pardin, formerly of Aurora, Illinois has been appointed general manager of Nashville based Songs Of David, Inc., according to the firms president, Dave Mathes. Pardin will run the day to day operations and will continue the open door policy to all writers and will launch an immediate search for commercial material. He will also work closely with artists and producers in Nashville while Mathes will concentrate on his successful career as a producer/engineer and session guitarist.

Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, back from a European tour with the RCA Show, reported immediately to Harrah's in Lake Tahoe for a three week appearance. Following the Lake Tahoe Shows, Danny reports to Harrah's in Reno where he spent Christmas and New Year's entertaining the folks.

Max D. Barnes has signed a writer's agreement with Roz-Tense music headquartered in Dallas. The publishing company is owned by Rozene Pride (Mrs. Charley) and her sister, Mrs. Hortense Jones. Meanwhile, demos on earlier Barnes material are underway at House Of Cash Studio for House Of Cash Publishing. Barnes has now moved to Nashville to be in the center of where its happening.

Harry Carlson, holder of seven gold records, has his first release since 1967. Title of the tune is "I Want To See You (One More Time)," and was co-written by Roger Bowling who is also the artist on the Fraternity label.

Less than an hour before Tom T. Hall detected the fire that caused $40,000 worth of damage to his home, songwriter Harlan Howard had removed his favorite belt from around his middle and presented it to Hall for inclusion in his momento collection, little realizing that while he was fighting to keep his trousers up on his way home, Hall's house was burning down. The belt was lost in the blaze along with many irreplaceable mementoes, including a pair of boots belonging to Jim Reeves, an autographed album from Stringbean, and a 100-year-old, Sweetheart violin presented to Hall by his wife Dixie, in the early days of their courtship.

Commander Cody and His Lost Planet Airmen have been busy with ten engagements through December and January on the West Coast, including a two-nighter in Vancouver, B.C., according to manager Joe Kerr. A national concert tour will start in February, running through May, with many of the shows co-headlining the New Riders of the Purple Sage.

John Morris, president of Cinnamon Record Group Inc., has announced the signing of Roger Murrah to an exclusive recording contract with the Cinnamon label. Murrah, who is making his recording debut with Cinnamon, is already an established writer with Return Music having penned the current Wynn Stewart release, "It's Raining In Seattle". Murrah's first release on Cinnamon is another tune he wrote titled "Georgia Washington Clay".

Kent Westberry and Harlan Sanders have formed a new music production operation called Crackerbox Productions. The title of the company comes from a song (Crackerbox Mansion) written by the pair and recently recorded by RCA's Josie Brown. Westberry is an eleven-year veteran of the music industry with credits of over 250 songs recorded, including the new Faron Young cut of "Let Me Love The Leavin' (From Your Mind)," and a healthy history as a producer. Sanders has been hailed as one of Johnny Cash's more important discoveries.

Faron Young will be filming the Dean Martin Music Country U.S.A. Show soon for early 1974 viewing.

Jake Hess' hometown, Haleyville, Alabama, has declared January 26, as "Jake Hess Day". The Statesmen and Wendy Bagwell are scheduled to perform at the Gala Festivities with civic dignitaries from Haleyville and surrounding towns gather to honor their "own Jake Hess."

Chuck Chellman invites DJ's to write for DJ samples which he has available. Address is 801 16th Ave. South Nashville Tennessee. He would be glad to send records provided the request is made on station letter head. Some of the samples available at this time are: "Georgia Boy" by Dale Jackson on Paramount, "Heaven, Hell, Or Houston" by Hugh X. Lewis on Fantasy, "I Love" By Tom T. Stanley To RCA Sunbury/Dunbar Post

NASHVILLE — David Stanley has joined the Nashville staff of RCA Records' music publishing subsidiaries, Sunbury Music, Inc., and Dunbar Music, Inc.

Announcement was made by Dan Hoffman, Nashville Manager of Sunbury/Dunbar, who said Stanley's principal activities will be "pitching songs and scouting for fresh writing talent." Stanley also plans to do some songwriting for the firm.

The 18-year-old Stanley, from Memphis, served as an assistant sound man for Elvis Presley's concert appearances, and is Elvis' stepbrother.

U.A. Records Repackages George & Melba LP

George Jones and Melba Montgomery will soon be represented by the collection entitled "Rollin' In My Sweet Baby's Arms," which also will be made available in eight track tape configuration.

Ms. Montgomery is currently on the national C&W charts with her single, "Wrap Your Love Around Me," as is George Jones with his 45 rpm disk of "Once You've Had The Best."

FOR THE RECORD

PASSING REMARKS — With the 10 year anniversary of the Beatles first hitting U.S. charts upon us (Friday, January 11, to be exact), it's time a poll was taken here to find out YOUR Beatles favorites. If you can find the time to participate in this bit of frivolity, please send me, in order, your Top 10 Beatles songs (could be singles, A or B sides, album cuts, or Beatles' tunes cut by other artists), your Top 10 Beatles albums (cannot include solo works since the group split) and your favorite Beatles film. The more response received will make this poll that much more respectable, so how about helping out a bit. It will be fun to see the results anyway. Deadline for response is February 1. Dave Clark Five songs or albums are not acceptable . . .

In a last minute decision, the government of Yugoslavia banned Santana from appearing in that country after originally giving them permission to perform. No official reason was given . . . Yes' concert at Madison Square Garden sold out without any advertising. The promoters have decided to add another show for those folks who were left out. The group's new album, "Tales From Topographic Oceans" will be released next week . . . Capitol to release a collection of vintage Linda Ronstadt tracks, entitled "A Different Drum," this month. The lady currently records from Asylum . . . Motown is rush releasing a Bobby Darin LP composed of tracks recorded back in 1971, both in the studio and "live" in Las Vegas. The singer-actor recently died of complications due to heart trouble . . .

Procol Harum, which had to cancel a few performing dates in Europe due to Gary Brooker's laryngitis, is back in the studio to record material for their new LP, due for release in July or August of this year. No theme has yet been divulged . . . Starship 1, the private plane for the rock stars is the vehicle in use for Bob Dylan and The Band as they wing 'round the country on their 40 city tour. Each and every date is a complete sell out . . . Chris Thomas, producer of Procol Harum's "Grand Hotel," and mixer of Pink Floyd's #1 album of 1973, "Dark Side Of The Moon" is in the process of recording a Japanese rock group named the Sadistic Mika Band, in London . . . Alvin Lee and Mylon LeFevre report that there were enough tunes left over from the recording of their first album to come forth with another. In fact, the duo are back in Jamaica to record even more. But Ten Years After is still alive and kicking, according to Alvin. Chick Churchill, also of TYA is coming forth with his initial solo effort. The keyboardist has lined himself up a ton of talent for the collection. The LP is due, on Chrysalis, sometime this month . . . Anthony Scaduto who penned the "Official" biography of Bob Dylan, is working on another "Official" work, the biography of Mick Jagger, although Mick himself says that he may begin working on an auto-biog . . . Mott The Hoople is in the studios, right now, to record their new one for Columbia. Ariel Bender has written a few of the tunes . . . Also in the studio is Stevie Wonder to begin work on his followup to his classic "Innervisions" collection . . . Paul McCartney, currently hotter than ever with his fantastic "Band On The Run" collection, is in the process of writing more tunes for his next collection, scheduled to be recorded sometime during late September. By the way, how about "Jet" as the follow-up single to "Helen Wheels" when that time comes? The track is one of the best rockers Paul has ever laid down . . . Garland Jeffreys, currently looking ahead to the charts with his great "Wild In The Streets" single, is in the studio recording tracks for his new album, due for release in March. According to Garland, the album will contain a lot more rocking than his first and should raise the eyebrows of a few of his fans . . . Turning the corner into 1974, the following pop personage are celebrating birthdays this second week of the year; Paul Revere (Jan. 7), David Bowie, Elvis Presley, Shirley Bassey, Robbie Krieger (formerly of the Doors) and Little Anthony (of the Imperials) (all Jan. 8), Jimmy Page (Led Zeppelin), Joan Baez, Bill Cowsill and Jerry Yester (formerly of the Lovin' Spoonful), (all January 9), Rod Stewart, Johnny Ray and Shirley Owens (of the Shirelles), (all Jan. 10), and Maggie Bell (Stone The Crows) and Ray Price, (both Jan. 12). January 10 is also the date the late Jim Croce would have celebrated his, was he not killed in the recent tragic plane crash . . . It must be said that Rock On T.V. is not only getting better, it's getting even more entertaining. The recent New Years Rockin' Eve '74 show featured such top names as Linda Ronstadt, Billy Preston, the Pointer Sisters, Tower Of Power and George Carlin as host. Although the show was taped long before the New Year was a glint in the eyes of even the most optimistic, the spirit of New Years Eve definitely prevailed and the revelers on board enjoyed a two time celebration last year, a rare occasion in anyone's life. Here's to more top talent on the tube in '74

"Chicago VII" will feature guest appearances by the Beach Boys and the Pointer Sisters. An unlikely combination, maybe, but we'll see. The disk is scheduled for release in late February or early March . . . Leon Russell recently joined Dave Mason in the studio to re-cut "The Lonely One" as a future single from Dave's album "It's Like You Never Left" . . . The new collection from Donovan, entitled "Essence To Essence" will be released in America next week . . . Boz Scaggs has formed a new band which will feature Les Dudek, the guitarist who traded lead riffs with Dicky Betts on the Allman Brothers' hit "Ramblin' Man." Other group members are Mark Jorden (keyboards), Gene Santini (bass) and Rick Schlosser (drums). A debut LP is being readied . . .

. . . If you've been watching the "Americans" record, both by Byron MacGregor and Gordon Sinclair (how can they possibly be missed anyway?), watch out for yet another cover, this one a country version of the same editorial, as performed by Tex Ritter. Every track looks to be incredibly successful and some time around the end of the year, popping up on everyone's top tracks of the year listings . . . James Griffin, another former member of Bread, has signed a pact with Polydor Records and will be releasing his first solo album in the near future. The disk will include side performances by former Bread members Mike Botts, on drums and Larry Knechtel, on keyboards, as well as Jim Horn and Lee Sklar . . . Expected to tour these United States in the upcoming months are the Sweet and Queen, two high energy British rock organizations with tremendous potential in this country. Both have had disks on the U.S. charts with the Sweet's "Little Willy" soaring to the top mid-way through 1973. Looks to be a rocking and rolling 1974 . . .

time—two years—until I eliminated those groups, but I also eliminated all of my money. I spent two hundred thousand dollars before I made a penny, and that's what I call a total commitment."

Since the release of "Candida," Dawn has sold 22 million records world-wide; their newest album, "Dawn's New Ragtime Follies," has been on the top 40 charts for weeks and has also served as the point of departure for a novel stage act. A T.V. special, a summer replacement series, and a show for the B.B.C. have all been scheduled for sometime in 1974. Tony, who is a self-described "R&B freak" has sung "Tie A Yellow Ribbon" in clubs around the world, from Las Vegas to the now-defunct Copacabana. "I'm comfortable working in music—it doesn't matter to me if its pop, m.o.r., or progressive rock. The name of the game is, more than anything else, to be consistent, to stick around. There are a lot of guys who started in 1961 and are now on the lists of oldies albums that you see on late-night t.v. The difference is, that after 13 years, I'm still here, and that's very satisfying."

Williams Introduces Hi-Low Shuffle Feature On Royal Hawaiian S/A

United ROYAL HAWAIIAN

CHICAGO — Williams' new United "Royal Hawaiian" shuffle alley (released to the industry this week) is highlighted by "Hi-Low," a new style to play during which the early frames set the scoring pace.

In addition to Hi-Low, the game offers Strike 90, Flash, Roto and Regulation. Cabinet appearance is the usual excellent United standard.

Firm sales manager Bill DeSelm says the piece offers "appearance and quality, high earnings, easy service, durability and a high trade-in value." DeSelm recommends that the piece be set at straight 25¢ pricing.

It can be inspected at all Williams distributors and is available for immediate delivery to operators everywhere.

Seeburg's Gordon To Bow Quad Unit for Metro NY Ops

NEW YORK — Atlantic New York, Seeburg's regional distribution company headquartered in New York City, will stage a total of sixteen "sessions" next week to introduce its quad-channel sound system to metropolitan area operators. Firm exec Jack Gordon advised that the unit (actually an encoder-decoder device which turns stereo records into four-channel-styled sound) is adaptable to their current Matador and Regency jukeboxes. As such, it can effect a quad-sound by using available stereo singles and little LP's. The product is designed straight quarter play.

Four sessions will be held at four separate stations. Sessions will take place at 11:00 AM, 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 PM beginning Monday January 7th at the Holiday Inn, Elmsford, N.Y. Tuesday the sessions will go to the Fountain Restaurant in Belville, N.J. (Rt. 46); Wed. at the Kings Grant Motel, Plainview, Long Island (exit 46, Long Island Expressway) and finally on Thursday at the New Haven Motor Inn in New Haven, Conn.

Invitations went out to the area's operators last Wednesday. Gordon feels the system is "just the ticket to turn neighborhood locations into the entertainment center so necessary to meet leisure needs during the gas shortage." "Big city and country operators alike are going to have to help their locations spruce up for more business than ever."

Seeburg Launches Carnival 100-Selection Compact Juke; Box offers Extremely Colorful, Newly-Styled Cabinet

CHICAGO — The reaction to the new Seeburg Carnival—100, as reported by Seeburg distributors both in the U.S. and abroad, echoes with excitement and enthusiasm wherever this elegant 100 selection entertainment center is shown.

An unusual combination of dramatic overall graphics, unique physical design and stereo sound system make the Carnival—100 a major contribution to the entire international coin music trade.

The Carnival has been designed specifically for those locations both in this country and overseas which require a smaller, more compact coin phonograph product. It's sized 48 1/2" high, 31 1/2" wide and 23 1/2" deep.

A dramatic array of colorful diamond shaped confetti patterns highlight the overall top portion of the Carnival—100. Backlighted fuschias, reds, blues, greens, magentas and pinks present an appealing visual display of colors to further enhance the music location mood.

Not only does the Seeburg product present an outstanding new design concept, but it also affords a high degree of durability, ruggedness and serviceability. The cabinetry is a unique combination of unbreakable tempered glass, steel and structural plastics to assure maximum longevity at the location level.

Basically, the overall design of the Carnival was created to facilitate all servicing quickly and economically. An example is in the design of the lower portion of the Carnival console. Easy latching assembly permits the removal of the entire front panel section, allowing full access to two 12-inch speakers, the solid state stereo amplifier and solid state control center. Both amplifier and control center are identical and interchangeable with units used in previous 100 selection Seeburg phonograph models, Marauder SX-100 and Golden Jet.

The design of the title display and play panel has been achieved to accomplish ease of customer play as well as to provide maximum serviceability. Both areas are up front and on top of the Carnival console.

The title display "snaps-up" when the phonograph console is open and lifts up to allow full access to the play panel and program holder. The program holder itself will "snap out" allowing complete freedom for servicing in this particular area.

When title display lid is open and in an upright position, accessibility is also given to Seeburg's 100 selection, vertical play Select-O-Matic record mechanism and coin equipment.

Snap-up components offer service ease on new Carnival.

Seeburg CARNIVAL-100

The Carnival also incorporates a wide array of other Seeburg features. For one, the Seeburg 100 selection Select-O-Matic record mechanism. Another . . . the exclusive Seeburg Tor-mat Memory Unit which carries with it a 5 year warranty. Then there is the high compliance, Seeburg designed Pickering magnetic pickup . . . also warranted for 5 years.

Other Carnival features include the specifically designed Equalization Switch created to accommodate different recording characteristics of all record labels, plus built-in provisions for remote volume control and solid state circuitry to assure longer life with maximum trouble-free play.

Seeburg stresses that their equipment is built, not adapted for use anywhere in the world. The specific idiosyncrasies of all countries are taken into consideration whether individual shipments are slated for Germany, Puerto Rico, Belgium or Japan.

Carnival—100 is equipped with "Two Quarters Equal a Half" feature which is standard on all models and includes a four coin rejector.

PROJECTION 1974 — As the jukebox and games industry swings into 1974 it may be good to assess the trends, the problems and the possibilities for additional profit inherited from 1973 that will affect everyone's income during the new year. Again we see fewer operating companies, but they are operating larger routes. We see national routes like ARA and Servomation undiminished in their interest in the wares of this trade. We see more independent distributors now part of the broadening chain of factory-owned machine outlets. We are encouraged by a bright public relations picture, especially by the many stories on coin games in national magazines and newspapers applauding the industry's machinery. But we are discouraged by the gas shortage, which many in the business believe to be concocted by politicians in smoky rooms, but nevertheless must live with and adjust business patterns to meet. Perhaps the shortage will generate a needed boost to neighborhood locations, and ergo, the collections. But operators must assist in that by putting their best machines and service forward. We'll no doubt see still greater success of the video game in 1974. The sky's the limit regarding the various game themes factory people can come up with, and with competition so stiff in that area, we'll doubtless see some really inventive merchandise coming down the line to titillate the location customer's fancy. We'll also see the continued growth in off-street games arcades. After waiting so many years for the family-styled games room to become reality, we're all damned glad to hear of so much activity throughout the country and happy that so much plus-revenue is coming into the industry. We are also still speculating on liberalized gambling in such spots as Atlantic City, the Catskills and, of all places, Newark, N.J. The latter town's council is now in the process of preparing legislation which, with the approval of Trenton, could open up the first legalized casino-styled situation since Nevada. But Governor Berne said he thought Atlantic City would be the most natural spot to try it. As far as the Catskills are concerned, it's no secret that most operators up there see any benefit to them if casino-gambling becomes reality within coming years; on the contrary, they see stiffer competition for stops already on the route which would cater to the expected burgeoning tourists trade if gambling came in. But for the moment, we got ice, snow, little gas, rising cigarette prices, complaining locations in midtown and a new Mayor. Maybe the latter will correct some of the former?

GORDON STRIKES! — Jack Gordon of Atlantic New York has come up with what appears to be a real solid key to additional collections—a four-channel decoder for Seeburg jukes that turns stereo singles and little LP's into quad sound; and—he's recommending straight quarter pricing for the service! Jack and the Seeburg group will introduce the new system right here in Fun City at a total of 16 Sessions to be held (four each) in Elmsford, NY, Belville, N.J., Plainview, Long Island and New Haven, Conn. (see separate story for details). Jack says, rightly, that the neighborhood tavern and restaurant will be the focal point for folks seeking leisure during the year, due to the gas shortage. The quad-box provides just the right "event" to bring them in, he declares. And there are no special records to search for, he says, just available stereo singles and little LP's "which are converted into a four-channel presence by means of the encoder device." After the New York intro, Jack and other Seeburg brass will no doubt venture throughout the country to show the system to the rest of the industry. For now, it's a New York exclusive.

HERE AND THERE — If you were a visitor to the recent MOA Show you undoubtedly saw a lot of people wearing pins which proclaimed, "I Beat The Hooker". And, you may even have seen an especially well-endowed young beauty who actually called herself "The Hooker". Well, before you begin shouting for an X-Rated convention, you should know that the entire promotion was inaugurated on behalf of Arizona Automation's Champion Soccer game, "which attracts new fans so quickly, it has been dubbed "The Hooker," firm president Dick Raymond advised. The shapely young lady, who was flown to the show to represent the Phoenix-based manufacturer, invited all challengers to play a game of soccer. If they won, they were awarded an "I Beat The Hooker" button. Either the girl was a poor player, or everybody else was in the big leagues. For, everywhere you looked, the buttons were in evidence. And, incidentally, what line is Arizona using to promote to non-coin customers? "The Second Greatest Indoor Sport", answered Raymond.

CHICAGO CHATTER

How about starting the New Year with an exciting East African Safari! Sounds great, doesn't it? Well, that is exactly what qualified Rock-Ola distributors from all over the country will be doing this week, as guests of the factory. Departure date is Monday, January 7. The entire group will meet at Kennedy Airport in New York and board an Al'Italia plane for a non-stop flight to Rome—and for the next three weeks will be stopping in such exciting places as Kenya, Ethiopia, etc. etc.! Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. has arranged a very interesting itinerary for the group. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doris and Mr. and Mrs. Les Rieck will be representing the factory as hosts on the trip and will certainly make sure everyone has a good time. Bon voyage! . . . Just before his departure we asked Les Rieck when the new model 453 phonograph would go into production and he told us it would be sometime in early or mid-January. This is the 100-selection companion piece to the factory's current, very big selling, 454 model.

A REMINDER FOR IAAPA MEMBERS: The second annual ride maintenance seminar, sponsored by the American Recreational Equipment Association, will be held January 14 through 18. For further information contact the IAAPA office at 1125 Lake Street Building, Oak Park, Illinois 60301.

WILLIAMS ELECTRONICS INC. wrapped up a banner 1973 and, as Bill DeSelm said, they anticipate matching or bettering their score this year! Much is on the planning board, of course, and, at the present time, production is very high on the "Royal Hawaiian" shuffle, the "Pro Hockey" 4-player video game and the "OXO" 4-player. When you're hot you're hot!

"CIRCUS" AND "BALLY ALLEY" are among the top priority items on the current delivery schedule at Bally Mfg. Corp.! The past year has been an excellent one for Bally, needless to say, and present indications point to an equally sensational 1974!

MANY MANUFACTURERS AND DISTRIBUTORS are getting ready for the upcoming ATE convention in London January 29-31, which annually attracts a growing number of U.S. coin machine people. Chicago Dynamic Industries will exhibit several pieces of equipment and will be represented at the show by Avron Gensburg, Bob Sherwood and the firm's European representative Carl Goetting. RECEIVED A NICE NOTE FROM Evelyn Dalrymple, COIN's new president. She plans a very active, eventful term of office—and knowing Ev, that's exactly what she'll deliver!

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Dave Solish of the Darwin Corp. speculates as to the possibilities of converting Pachenk games to coin-op. use. The success of the games as a home-use item this Christmas suggests that their popularity might carry over to the arcade. Experiments in coin-operating Pachenkos, Dave tells us, are now under way in Japan where the games has long been as popular as flipper games have been on this side of the ocean. Darwin, incidentally, enjoyed its best Christmas season ever, and the biggest selling single item was the Pachenko. Other items that were in great demand were old wood-frame games, wood-frame juke-boxes and anything that had an art-deco look. These should continue in popularity among home-use clientele as long as the current nostalgia craze continues. . . . Ken McMurdie at Circle International is enthusiastic about sales of the Gremlin Playball. "The hottest wall game on the market," Ken reports. . . . Bob Portale of Portale Automatic Sales has been calling on customers throughout the Southern Calif. area. Portale Automatic did a good deal of exporting during the holiday season, shipping used equipment to a variety of locales in South America and the orient.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Hastings Dist. Inc. enjoyed an excellent turnout at its recently held Rock-Ola showing. "We extended our showing to two days," said Jack Hastings, "so that we could combine it with a service school and we were happy to see so many operators and servicemen in attendance." Rock-Ola's field engineer Bill Findlay, and his new assistant, conducted the sessions.

UNIVERSAL MUSIC DISTG. CO., Paul Jacobs' new company, is celebrating its second month of existence! Paul was telling us how well the new firm is doing. "We've had so much success with the Kee Elimination 4-player video game which was such a hit at the MOA convention" he said. The firm is fully staffed, according to Paul, and completely settled in its new quarters in New Berlin—so, right after the first of the year, he will be able to make an extensive road trip through the territory.

AS A FOLLOW-UP TO THEIR recent annual meeting the Wisconsin Music Merchants Association has scheduled a Board of Directors meeting, in Madison, for mid-January. The association intends to continue its campaign against the 4% tax on collections. Board member Wally Bohrer has been urging members to climb aboard the public relations bandwagon in the hopes of enlightening legislators and the public to the true picture of the coin machine industry.
