An International Common Market — A Reality Through Music

Commencing September 8, the second annual Musexpo international convention will convene at the Fairmount Hotel in New Orleans. Long before he ever dreamed there would one day be a second such gathering, Roddy Shashoua, founder of Musexpo, asked a simple question. Since America is the largest consumer and exporter of music — in all forms — why should an international convention be held anyplace else? The governments of England, Australia and Canada must also believe in his basic premise, for they are subsidizing large percentages of the cost of participation by their citizens who are involved in the music industry. To round out his basic concept, Shashoua has chosen as this year's site, New Orleans — the birthplace of jazz and the blues.

The international concept to merchandising is still relatively new to most. We are all so busy trying to keep pace with our own market that we tend to lose sight of our role in the world market. A better dialogue between music men of all nations represents a definite need. Cash Box feels Musexpo can help answer this need.

Cash Box looks forward to seeing all American-based manufacturers, whether large or small, at Musexpo. Only through a forum such as this can we begin to understand the problems and needs of our counterparts in the vast international market and vice-versa. To go to a convention like this for the sole purpose of dealing would be a mistake. We must go to learn and to build long-lasting relationships. Besides looking for music to release domestically, we must gain a knowledge of what type of product we should package to satisfy the international consumer.

We should feel proud that our country has been selected as the site for such a gathering. All around the world people are reaching to America; it is time to reach out in return. We feel we speak for the industry when we say America is honored to play host to the rest of the world. Let us make every effort to keep a forum of this magnitude alive in our nation. Musexpo could well be the vehicle by which all countries may develop an international common market. Cash Box has been working toward these goals for the past nineteen years.

COLUMBIA, EPIC AND, NOW, PORTRAIT: CBS RECORDS.

Name Of New CBS Coast Label Is Portrait

NEW YORK — Portrait Records will be the name of the new west coast-based CBS Records label, CBS has announced. Portrait is the first new label introduced by CBS Records since 1953, when Epic Records was established as the second CBS-owned label. As previously announced, Larry Harris has been named vice president and general manager of the label by Ron Alexenburg, senior vice president, Epic and associated labels.

One Goody Coin Promo Dropped

by Gary Cohen

NEW YORK — Sam Goody Inc. has, for the past two weeks in New York newspapers, and for one week in Philadelphia, placed ads offering to exchange certain older American coins for credit slips of varying amounts, to be used for the purchase of records and tapes at Sam Goody stores. The promotion, however, has not worked out as successfully as Goody had planned and will be discontinued in the next few weeks, according to the chain's founder, Sam Goody.

The program is a takeoff on a program instituted more than two years ago, where Goody offered a $1.50 credit slip for $1 in pennies at the height of the then penny shortage. The idea was highly successful, and at the time Goody outlined three goals that were achieved at the same time: 1) it provided pennies for the Goody stores to use in change when none were available from banks; 2) Goody was able to sell the pennies to other banks for $1.09 for every 100; 3) but most important, the promotion created plus business as stored away pennies were turned into record buying dollars. No refunds of cash were offered.

Silver Promotion

Two weeks after the introduction of the penny program, Goody offered $3 for $1 worth of silver quarters, dimes or halves. And now, two years later, Goody has offered

Soundtracks, Denver And Manilow Albums Dominate Weekly Record Advertisements

by Julian Shapiro

prehensive advertising program to support it.

"We've already utilized radio spots, print ads in Korvettes and Goody, and in-store displays, which we feel will draw a lot of attention. That's because the movie is very visually appealing." In addition, a half-million book markers have been given to book stores with the inscription "If you've seen the movie and read the book, you'll love the soundtrack."

Weiner declined to detail sales figures for the album, offering only that "it hasn't sold 100,000 units." However, as the custom label's second offering, it has surpassed Becky Hobbs' "From The Heartland," the label's debut release, in sales.

'Obsession'

Ad offering the soundtrack to "Obsession" appeared in nine markets: Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and San Francisco. All were tied directly to the film. According to Gary Willet, who works in the sales department of London Records, the album has not been available to retailers long enough to gauge any sales pattern, having been shipped during the week of August 16, but he is highly optimistic as to the album's sales future. "We'll probably put out 20-25,000 copies initially, which is fairly incredible for a London Phase-4 recording; the anticipation is tremendous." These comments are based on what Willet calls "fantastic orders" in New York, Los Angeles and Chicago, which are major markets.

In addition, ads highlighting three additional motion picture soundtracks appeared in two markets: "The Return Of The Pink Panther" in St. Louis, tied to a movie ad; and soundtracks to "Logans Run" and "That's Entertainment, Part 2" at Sam Goody stores in New York.

Denver Campaign

John Denver's newest release, "Spirit," launched a major print advertising campaign, though not as extensive as RCA had initially outlined. Ads appeared in eight markets, with full-page ads everywhere but Baltimore. The release was offered there at Record and Tape Collector for $3.94/$5.24 tape, at Lechmere in Boston for $3.64 per LP, at 28 record stores and 10 discount merchandise chains in Denver with no prices listed, at Musicland stores in Minneapolis with no price listed (the first time in the past four months that the chain had an

Frampton Catalog Sales Increase Due To Impact Of #1 Bestseller

NEW YORK — "Frampton Comes Alive" is the #1 album on the Cash Box chart for the fourth consecutive week, and many of the nation's largest retailers and rack jobbers readily agree that one month at the top can have a bearing on catalog sales.

The 2-LP set is the best selling unit at JL Marsh/Hellicher Bros. (the nation's largest rackjobbing operation that also operates 185 Musicland stores), the sixty-plus unit Record Bar chain, ABC Records and Tapes (the nation's third largest rackjobbing operation), the 30-store Disc Records chain, and the 30 Korvettes stores in the New York metropolitan area. In all, it is #1 at 26 of the key retail and wholesale accounts that Cash Box monitors on a weekly basis. According to figures released by A&M Records, the package has sold 3,307,067 units as of August 24.

These sales have continued through most of the weeks since January of this year. But recently there have been indications that the additional four albums in Frampton's catalog may be reaping the benefits of the exposure the newest release is enjoying. "Frampton," released in March, 1975, and the artist's last studio release has already re-charted and is currently at #179 after three weeks. The remaining three albums may follow shortly.

Columbia, Monument End Distribution Pact

NASHVILLE — Columbia Records and Monument Records have jointly agreed to an amicable termination of their domestic distribution pact. This agreement is effective September 9, 1976. Monument/CBS International and Monument/Columbia House (Record Club) agreements remain in full force and effect.

Fred Foster, president/owner, Monument Records stated: "Columbia will retain distribution rights domestically to the product of Billy Swan and Kris Kristofferson. Both artists remain signed to Monument and Monument is responsible for the production of their product. All other Monument artists, in addition to Monument's subsidiary label Sound Stage Seven, will be handled by independent distribution, effective September 9, 1976."

Both Columbia and Monument officials concurred that an earlier story that CBS was instigating the dissolution was in error. Announcements are forthcoming as to Monument's restructuring and new directions.

Magna Jazz Division

LOS ANGELES — Magna Artists Corp. has launched a jazz division which includes The Crusaders, John Handy, Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Band, Ronnie Laws, Jean-Luc Ponty, Clark Terry, The Phil Woods Quartet and the N.Y. Jazz Quartet featuring Sir Roland Hanna.

International Month

LOS ANGELES — Aside from next week's Musexpo in New Orleans (see editorial) and the recent GRT-Canada convention (separate story), WEA International holds its first worldwide conference in Montreux Sept. 6. RCA has scheduled a European marketing meet for the same date in Rome, and both CBS-Disques (France) and CBS-U.K. have just wrapped up and begun their own respective confabs. GRT Corporation: Intellect, Diversity And High Hurdles Kick Off Seventh Maple Year

TORONTO — GRT-Canada held its sixth (and largest) annual sales meeting here (18-21) bringing together representatives from the corporation's regional sales offices and U.S. affiliates and allowing a peek inside.

In 1970 the Canadian firm issued its first catalog, composed of a dozen labels comprising 150 LPs. In comparison, the fall 1976 list includes 37 labels making up 900 albums. In fact, the company now has so much product to move that there is, according to president Ross Reynolds, the "danger of falling into the same trap that some other majors have fallen into — merely looking at product from the standpoint of a distributor."

Fortunately for GRT-Canada, that particular trap doesn't appear at this time to pose a very great threat. This brief meet revealed enough diversification between corporate intellect, far-sightedness, bright product and high hurdles to keep the entire concern on its feet for some time to come.

Diverse Roots

Springing out of its best-ever first quarter, GRT-Canada is indeed rated high among the top distributors north of the border. But the Canadian situation is perhaps more fully understood in light of the activities of the parent GRT, located in Sunnyvale, California. Whereas the Toronto branch handles current releases, Sunnyvale has built its house with catalog and the tools of tape and television. White Sonner, corporate vice president and president of GRT-music tapes division, elaborated on the nature of the American marketing efforts.

Mail Order

During the past three years, the U.S. interest has sought after the 35-40 year old record buyer through direct mailing lists. This market has been fanned with a variety of offers ranging from a reading of the Bible by Laurence Olivier to a $19.95 offering, "Songs That Made America Great" — a shuffle of patriotic songs, sea chanteys and marches (which could be conceived of as a bicentennial release, albeit a smooth entry, under cover of artwork from the archives of the Saturday Evening Post, of which GRT is the record and tape arm).

"Great Movie Music," "Best Of Tin Pan Alley," Liberace, and an organ package also play a part in the GRT direct mail operation which stands to gross an estimated one-half million dollars this year in the United States.

TV Advertising

GRT is also aware of the U.S. broadcast industry and views it from a broader perspective than one focused solely on playlists. Television has worked for Sunnyvale, providing a sales vehicle for various booty: truck driver songs called "Hiballin' Hits," pop albums from the Everly Brothers and the Mystic Moods and . . . more organ music.

An in-house agency — VPI — secures TV time for GRT and other companies. Ranwood Records, for instance, buys television spots around the Lawrence Welk hour through VPI in a similar manner, Arista is also said to have used VPI as a RIAA To Take Up Bar Coding Issue?

NEW YORK — At press time, Cash Box learned that the RIAA had recently sponsored a meeting in New York to discuss bar coding, and that a questionnaire soliciting comments on bar coding had been distributed to RIAA member manufacturers. 7 New Winners!

Aquarian Dream is a new eight member group discovered and produced by Norman Connors. Connors says Aquarian Dream's music is a cross between Rufus and Earth Wind and Fire. Buddah says that they are soulful and innovative and they're one of the best new groups to come along in a long time.

Remember that Connors is famous for his ability to discover and nurture important new talent. Nearly every one who has played and recorded with him has gone on to sign their own recording contract. Connors sure knows talent when he hears it.

'I Don't Care' creates a music within the rock 'n' roll idiom in which perfection is a prime consideration and in which all musical forms are allowed to mingle.

From "Radio & Records" Powerhouse Rock and Roll band polishing the edges with tasteful Jazz arrangements. Sensational guitar work by Frank Pellino sparks an energetic debut collection for a group that many people will soon "care" about. A purist's delight. Jimmy Jackson is an explosive soul singer with a four and a half octave range. He can rattle your chest with his low notes and send you soaring on his high notes, which are, amazingly, not a falsetto but a real, 'natural' high.

With a vocal range like that, he can handle almost any song going. And this LP ranges from the high-steppin' and head-spinning to the mellow and soulful. The LP includes "Romeo & Juliet"—a romantic ballad in the tradition of "Mandy" and "All By Myself". Jimmy Jackson—Rollin' Dice—it's sure to come up a winner. BDS 5671

You just can't put a label on Michael Henderson. Michael likes and plays all kinds of music. After all, he's played with everyone from the Rolling Stones to Aretha Franklin to Stevie Wonder to Dr. John to the Jackson Five. And if that's not enough, he's spent the last five years as the bass player with Miles Davis. Michael's new LP contains something for everyone—from jazz to R&B to pop. All the tunes are originals and he's even included his own version of "Valentine Love"—a tune he composed for a Norman Connors LP. The success of "Valentine Love" was only the start. Also with Connors, Michael again scored on the charts with "We Both Need Each Other", and "You Are My Starship". Just one listen to his album, will convince you that there are plenty more hits to come from Michael Henderson. BDS 5662

God Has Blessed Our Hands in a musical tribute to the Black people's struggle for equality. Music has been an integral part of that struggle—from the chants on the slave ships to singing in the cotton fields to the marches for integration—right up to today's all-encompassing category called R&B.

The music that has traditionally been the Black man's way of expressing his emotions—jazz, soul, blues, gospel and spirituals—are all represented on this superb album by Michael Wynn.

What better time for this tribute than the Bicentennial year! !

BDS 5663

Calender is a seven member vocal and instrumental group with a real get-down funky sound. Their first single "Hypertension" established the group in the marketplace.

The group's first LP IT'S A MONSTER displays the group's versatility. It's a smokin' soulful boogieing sound that will keep you jumpin', but it also leans toward a smooth Latin beat. The LP is also accented with some funky vocals that give it a unique style of its own.

Calender—seven monster musicians! A monster LP! PKS 4001

Diana Marcovitz is a unique talent whose brand of comic-sad songs have won her fans across the country. With her exuberant piano playing, she sings brilliant satirical songs with a penetrating sense of humor.

But don't take our word for it. As the Village Voice put it—"There's a bit of the musical comedy performer, the barrelhouse blues singer, the ragtime pianist and a host of other things in her style, all of which combine to suggest one of the brightest new faces in recent months.

Diana Marcovitz—Joie De Vivre—a lady and an album that you're going to hear a lot more about! ! !

Rollers Leads Aug. Arista LP Release

NEW YORK — The new album by the Bay City Rollers, "Dedication," leads a four-album Arista release for the month of August. In addition, the debut album by Silver, whose "Wham Bam" single is 23 with a bullet on the Cash Box singles chart, will be released, as well as the debut album by the Funky Kings and "Blind Dog At St. Dunstons" by Caravan.

FRONT COVER

The O'Jays have been singing together for eighteen years, and it shows. The trio has achieved a depth of professionalism and quality that has been matched by few groups in music history.

Starting out in Canton, Ohio working in a high school band that they called the Mascots, the O'Jays next came to work under the watchful eye of Eddie O'Jay, a Cleveland disk jockey.

The O'Jays have gone through some troubled times (who hasn't in eighteen years?), but have clearly come out sitting on top. Their association with producers Gamble and Huff has been legendary; it seems the hits just flow like water.

In live performance the group is positively electric. It has been said in more than a few music circles, in fact, that the O'Jays give the best live show of any act. Each member demonstrates a complete involvement in each tune, and they create a fine rapport with their audiences.

Recently, the O'Jays formed their own label, Shaker Records, so that new talent could be exposed. Their own talent is visible on Epic Records; and the R&B and pop charts feel it whenever the O'Jays send out something new.

Polydor Inc. Reports Best 6 Months Ever

NEW YORK — Polydor Incorporated has reported the highest net sales and profits in the company's history for the first half year of 1976. Polydor family artists currently have 8 albums, four with bullets, on the Cash Box album chart, three bulleting R&B albums, the fourth highest album on the jazz chart, and among other singles, the number one single in the country with the Bee Gees on Polydor-distributed RSO Records.

Commenting on the success, Irwin Steinberg, president of Polydor Inc. and the Polygram Record Group, noted that "this has been an exciting experience for us. The industry now knows Polydor Inc. is a respected, major contestant in the marketplace." And Lou Simon, Polydor executive vice president and general manager, commented "in conjunction with a new outlook on A&R and a view to dealing with unique product, we went about the business of a no-nonsense and precise marketing philosophy. It is paying off, as our sales figures indicate."

Polydor's current product lines include Polydor, MGM, Verve, DG, Polydor/Kolob, RSO, Oyster, ECM and Spring.

CAP-FM LP Prepared

LOS ANGELES — Capitol Records, Inc. has prepared a new special promotional album following an AOR (album oriented rock) radio format to increase in-store and AOR radio airplay.

The album, titled "What's In-store For You, CAP-FM," contains 11 tunes, both singles and album cuts, by the Steve Miller Band, Bob Seger, Little River Band, Tom Snow, The Pousette-Dart Band, Starz, Triumvirat and HUB.

The Managers:

Bob Seger/Punch Andrews — Perseverance Pays Off

by Nick Nichols

"This is the first interview I've ever done in my life!" exclaimed Ed "Punch" Andrews, but before he could continue, his sole client, Bob Seger, chimed in, "Not true! At the press conference at Pontiac you were answering all kinds of questions." Adopting an expression of pseudo-disgust, Punch retorted, "Yeah, but I was sitting at the back of the room — and it was only three questions, not all kinds of questions!"

To the casual observer the two seem to be kid brothers, playfully tussling each other about, but to Capitol Records they're a highly successful professional artist/manager team. "It's taken thirteen long years to get to this point," reflected Punch, "and nine of those were spent trying to convince Bob to put down his guitar and be a lead singer."

At this point in the conversation, Seger resumed his "big brother" stance, declaring, "I'd like to say something in defense of Ed, who has sometimes been maligned by certain members of the rock press for his alleged 'poor management.' Sure, it's taken a long time for us to come this far, but that isn't his fault," Seger emphasized, pointing at Punch. "I was the problem. For the first nine years of my career, I was probably the most idealistic rock 'n' roller ever conceived. I never wanted to do anything that wasn't totally artistic — I never really involved the audience in my show. Another thing that ruined about eight or nine years was that I wanted to be a lead guitar player more than anything else in the world."

Commenting on his desire to become a competent guitarist, Seger continued, "I guess I got caught up in the fever that grabbed hundreds of thousands of young guitarists — when Hendrix and Beck and Clapton came on the scene, I decided that that's what I wanted to do. So for about nine

National Newspaper Survey Notes Marginal Record Company Ads

by Julian Shapiro

NEW YORK — Advertising Age issued a special 60-page section as part of its August 16 issue, detailing newspaper advertising expenditures for "20 top markets: 1975 vs. 1974." Record company advertising, as reflected in the survey, is conspicuous only in its relative absence.

Only Columbia, Atlantic and RCA are represented, and only the first appears in more than three markets, registering in 11 of the 20. The reason for this obvious inadequacy is that the report concerns itself with brand spending, according to Fred Danzig, executive editor of Advertising Age. In lay parlance, that translates to national advertising, which is not the standard procedure record companies follow when scheduling print advertising expenditures.

The practice of cooperative spending between retailers and manufacturers governs most record company print advertising, and, though this is common knowledge throughout the advertising industry, Media Records, Inc., which was commissioned by Advertising Age to develop and compile the figures for the survey, did not respond to this fact.

Retail Ads Not Measured

"We picked up no retail store advertising," commented Frank MacCallum, sales manager for Media Records, which functions as a measuring and certification service that audits and compiles reports of individual newspapers' advertising performance. "We serviced Advertising Age with general, not retail, advertising information."

MacCallum explained that cooperative advertising is monitored as retail advertising, which is available to daily newspapers separately. "Our basic customer is the newspaper, and they don't want it (cooperative advertising) picked up that way as a general advertising. They want to know the primary customer; that's where they get their ads." Under cooperative advertising practices, a record company makes available a certain dollar amount to retailers for advertising the company's product, based on the store's amount of purchases from the company. The store then schedules the ad, and the record company pays for that portion of the ad that features the company's product.

Columbia Markets Delineated

As a result, the only record company advertising monitored by Media Records for the Advertising Age supplement would be that with no store tie-ins. For Columbia, such advertising appeared in the following markets: Baltimore ($76,949 in 1975, up from $47,068 in 1974); Boston ($108,692 up from $52,694); Chicago, which includes advertising for the tape club ($264,715 up from $119,040); Cleveland ($35,745 up from $3,447); Dallas ($52,830 up from $42,911); Denver ($52,149 up from $19,504). Also, Detroit ($151,528 up from $97,613); Houston ($73,245 up from $38,451); Pittsburgh ($112,246 up from $86,926); San Diego ($49,167 up from $22,950); and Washington ($216,405 up from $77,588). In Philadelphia such expenditures were phased out from a 1974 total of $32,776.

RCA Records appeared in three markets. They were: Chicago ($12,862 up from nothing in 1974); Los Angeles ($5,733 down from $31,289); and New York ($30,662 down from $49,188). Atlantic Records, similarly, appeared in Los Angeles and New York. Figures for

by John Mankiewicz

LOS ANGELES — The singles market has received a big boost this week with the publication of Record Rack's "45 RPM Handbook of Oldies." It would seem that this book will be an invaluable tool to all record merchandisers and radio personnel, in that it lists every hit single that is still available.

The 224-page soft-bound publication is divided into two sections of alphabetical listings: the first lists all the hits by artists, the second by song titles. Catalog numbers are always included, and the flip sides are listed as well. The book is up to date, and has listings from Jolson up to the current Walter Murphy single.

Life-Long Dream

According to Sid Talmadge, president of Record Rack, the handbook represents a life-long dream. A portion of his forward to the book reveals his intent: "There have been numerous changes in the record business during which time we have seen the advent of rock and roll, the twist, acid rock, and the Beatles. Soul and country music blended into the mainstream of pop

Polygram Corp. Issues First Annual Report

HAMBURG — Polygram has printed and distributed, for the first time in their history, an annual report on their operations. Worldwide, their 1975 sales jumped 13% to over 1.6 billion marks. Polygram includes the Phonogram International and Polydor International operations, in addition to the Chappell and Intersong publishing operations. The company is also involved in TV, film and video. Group headquarters of Polygram are in Baarn, the Netherlands, and Hamburg, West Germany, and Polygram operates in 31 countries.

Their annual report indicates that the worldwide music market grew by 6 percent in 1975, and that over the last 10 years, worldwide growth of the music market has been approximately 9%.

No separate breakdowns on sales of their U.S. operations were included, although Polydor Inc. of USA reported a record six-month period (see separate story).

CBS Garners 2nd Platinum 45 Award; Rawls, Cherry Gold

NEW YORK — "Kiss And Say Goodbye" by the Manhattans has been certified as a platinum selling single by the RIAA, signifying sales in excess of two million units. The award is the second by the RIAA since platinum selling singles were recognized this year; the previous award also went to Columbia for Johnnie Taylor's "Disco Lady."

Epic Records, meanwhile, gathered two gold records this week, one for the Wild Cherry single "Play That Funky Music," and the other for Lou Rawls and his Philadelphia International album "All Things In Time."

Klemmer Leads ABC LP Release

LOS ANGELES — John Klemmer's "Barefoot Ballet" leads ABC Records' August album release. Additional LPs are Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis, Jr.'s "I Hope We Get To Love In Time," Dalton and Dubarri's "Success and Failure," Hank Thompson's "Back In The Swing Of Things" (Dct), Tommy Overstreet's "Turn On To Tommy Overstreet" (Dot), Johnny Carver's "Afternoon Delight" (Dot), J.J. Cale's "Troubadour" (Shelter), Wade Marcus's "Metamorphosis" (Impulse), the Biblical Gospel Singers' "Pray For The Good Of The Land" (Songbird), Fireballet's "Two, Too . . ." Letter To The Editor

Appel On Springsteen Hassle

To The Editor:

Your publication and others have published stories recently concerning the litigation now going on between Bruce Springsteen and myself. Your article was based largely on the unsupported allegations contained in a complaint filed on Mr. Springsteen's behalf, and of course drafted by his attorneys. I am writing to inform you of some of the background of my relationship with Mr. Springsteen and some of the events which have taken place in the litigation since Mr. Springsteen's complaint was filed. These facts will give you the other side of the picture and will demonstrate that Mr. Springsteen's wild allegations are unfounded.

First, and perhaps more important, I instituted an action against Mr. Springsteen, CBS Records and Jon Landau to enjoin them from making any records in violation of the exclusive recording agreements between me and Springsteen and me and CBS. On August 19, 1976, Mr. Justice Arnold Fein granted a preliminary injunction "restraining Springsteen, CBS and Landau from recording or producing any record, record album, tape or other reproduction in which Springsteen is the artist and Landau is the producer."

In the course of his eleven page opinion (a copy of which is enclosed), Judge Fein reviewed Springsteen's federal court complaint and stated: "There is no showing that the contracts (between me and Springsteen) were obtained by fraud or duress or are unconscionable."

Judge Fein also held that Jon Landau has no rights to produce Springsteen's albums either under my agreement with Springsteen or my agreement with CBS. Judge Fein said: "Landau has no rights under either of the agreements. He has plainly acted in the face of their provisions."

In addition, Springsteen has given sworn testimony in the course of the federal court proceedings which directly contradicts his allegations in the complaint against me. (Copies of certain pages of that testimony are enclosed).

Contrary to the complaint, Springsteen did not testify that he was induced to sign contracts by undue pressure, manipulation or false representations by me. Instead, he testified that he was given copies of the contracts he signed only after he and I had established a relationship for six months; he took the contracts home with him for approximately one week, and read them through. Only then did he determine to sign the contracts. When he was asked what happened at the meeting when he signed the contracts, Springsteen did not even hint that there had been any unfair dealing. (See pages 143 to 146 of Springsteen's deposition testimony).

Springsteen's complaint seeks to give the impression that my commissions as his manager were 50% of all his earnings. In his sworn deposition testimony Springsteen admitted that my commissions as manager were never more than 20%, that I rendered statements to him only at the 20% rate and that I never used any rate in excess of 20% in computing commissions. As you know, a 20% manager's commission is standard in the industry. (See pages 148 to 152 of Springsteen's deposition).

Incidentally, the fact is that I didn't take any manager's commissions during the first 3½ years I acted as Springsteen's manager. My management fees, recording royalties and publishing royalties were all used to pay Springsteen's expenses and advance his career. I even contributed additional funds of my own.

The allegations in Springsteen's federal court complaint that Jon Landau was entirely responsible for his success are also completely unjustified. Springsteen's success is due to my single-minded promotion of his career for more than four years, combined with his own talent and substantial promotional spending by CBS. As Judge Fein said: "Success has many fathers. Only failure is an orphan." Springsteen himself testified that I obtained his CBS recording contract for him, that I devoted my full time to him and his career during most of the past 4½ years, and that I obtained William Morris as his booking agent when no one else would have him. (See pages 162 to 164 of Springsteen's deposition).

I am sure that any further stories that you write concerning the litigation between Springsteen and me will not be based solely on the wild and unsubstantiated allegations in Springsteen's complaint. I hope that you will play fair, publish this letter and give equal coverage to my side of the story, including Judge Fein's opinion, Springsteen's own sworn testimony, and the other facts I have set forth.

Chrysalis' First Single Spins An Odd Web

by John Mankiewicz

LOS ANGELES — Chrysalis Records has released its first single as an independent label. "Roxy Roller," by Nick Gilder, has an interesting background, and looks to have an explosive future.

Nick Gilder used to be in a Canadian band called Sweeney Todd, and Sweeney Todd had a #1 single in Canada on London Records called "Roxy Roller." Then Terry Ellis, president of Chrysalis Records, bought out Gilder's and Jimmy McCulloch's (the guitar player in Sweeney Todd) contracts from Top Hot International Music Inc. (a Canadian production company); he got world-wide rights to "Roxy Roller" with the exception of Canada, which Martin Shaer of Top Hat still owned. Shaer then sold the original song to London Records in the United States, and, because it turned out to be a very similar version to the one Chrysalis owned, London withdrew it from the market last week. (93 with no bullet on the CB charts.)

Reached in his Vancouver office, Shaer did not wish to discuss the legal entanglements of the withdrawn record, but revealed that he had shipped a completely new version of "Roxy Roller." This was, he said, the third time he had produced the song. (The first version was with Nick Gilder, the second had Clark Terry doing the lead vocals, and the latest has the voice of 16-year-old Bryan Guy Adams.

Chrysalis president Ellis was not disturbed by this new development. "I have no idea when the record is shipping," Ellis said, talking about the second London version. "I don't know how many radio stations have heard it. One station — CKLW in Windsor — has heard it, and I understand that they will not play it because it sounds completely different from the original hit. We have the proven hit record, and, to my knowledge, all other radio stations are going to play our record. Our record is a hit, and that's what radio stations like to play."

Tapestry Video Productions

HOLLYWOOD — Tapestry Video Productions, Inc., has been formed in Hollywood and will utilize video tape as a creative medium for commercials, specials, documentaries and full length production.

The company will be headed by director Michael Mannes and executive producer Herb Wood. LRB

LITTLE RIVER BAND

The Album:

The Single:

The Story:

Capitol Records releases the debut album by LRB and the response is tremendous! An AOR edit of the album’s best track becomes the single that radio demands!

The Reviews:

RECORD WORLD August 21, 1976

“Australian group with a CSN&Y harmony influence has received much AOR play, but it’s only the beginning. The group has the poise and the talent to hit big on these shores.”

CASHBOX August 14, 1976

“A haunting string introduction gives way to some funky rock and roll in this fully realized single from the Little River Band...The harmonies are deep and rich.”

BILLBOARD August 14, 1976

“There’s a Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young feel as it shifts from a symphonic, airy opening to guitar-dominated mid-rock base. Carefully honed folk rock vocals throughout.”

BILL GAVIN’S PERSONAL PICKS August 6, 1976

“Import from Australia opens with an ear-catching baroque styled intro, followed by a gutbucket guitar and a highly professional performance by the singers.”

The Reaction:

LRB debuted on the front page of Bill Gavin’s report in just two weeks! Immediate secondary market acceptance from radio is happening now. Prediction: LRB is destined to be one of the year’s most talked-about new groups!

sonnel working on the album.

AGTI president Norman White indicates that a second blanket contract, covering a stage show to be derived from the album, will soon be signed. "In this way union representation will carry over from studio to stage," White explains.

The Artists and Technicians Guild, International was formed in 1975 to represent artistic and technical personnel in all entertainment media.

Seeger: Perseverance Pays Off

I was trying to find something new — I tried a sort of soul band, which culminated in the release of the 'Back In '72' LP. Then I worked with Teagarten and Van Winkle for about a year — we added a guitar player and put out the 'Smokin' OPs' album. Nothing quite stayed together and I just couldn't find a band that I could get along with. Finally, in 1973, I called Punch and told him that I was tired of fooling around and I wanted to get another rock 'n roll band together like The System. That's how The Silver Bullets Band came about, four years ago.

From Label To Label . . . And Back Again

Walter Lee, national sales manager for Capitol Records, commented on Capitol's signing of Seeger's Silver Bullets Band. "Up until a couple of months ago, I was the sales manager for the Detroit area — I've really grown up with Bob Seeger and I remember the old days all too well. At that time, the national management of Capitol left something to be desired — they just didn't see Bob Seeger as a number one priority. So the company bailed and lost him to Warner Brothers. Now the band is providing us with good product and they are a top priority — we have an excellent working relationship with the Seeger organization."

Amplifying on Lee's comments, Punch Andrews added, "After we left Capitol, I fell into a syndrome of thinking that the best way to motivate a record company was to do it myself — give them the product on our own label. So Bob and I started Palladium Records and put out the 'Smokin' OPs' album on the label. That's when we began to run into trouble. The record got so big so fast that we just couldn't get a hold of adequate production facilities. We literally had a hit single and a hit album, so all of these companies began making us fantastic money offers to work the album. People were coming out of the woodwork saying, 'don't try to do it yourself, you can't cope with it,' it was incredible! We didn't take the fabulous money deals — we took Warner Brothers. I just figured that they were the biggest and the best, but it never occurred to me that the biggest and best would say, 'this album is great, but we've got bigger and better.'

"The deal was a disaster," Andrews recalled, "it took Warners six weeks just to transfer the master tapes over, consequently the album fell right off the charts — after all, it'd been six weeks and not one market had been serviced with product. Well, they finally picked up the ball and tried to run with it, but then they just said, 'we got on this one too late, so let's go to the next one.' When that determination came down, I sat down with Bob and said, 'I've made a mistake, a bad mistake.'

Creating A Monster

Andrews explained how the success of the first album for Palladium/Warner Brothers could have changed his future. "If they'd really worked the 'Smokin' OPs' ad with no prices listed). Also, at Sam Goody in New York for $3.99/$5.49 tape, at Sam Goody in Philadelphia for $3.79/$5.49 tape, at Viscount and Discount Records in St. Louis for $3.99/$4.99 tape, and at Treasury stores in San Francisco for $3.99/$4.99. According to plans made by Jack Kiernan, division vice president of marketing for RCA, ads were also supposed to appear simultaneously in the Los Angeles Times, Chicago Tribune, Washington Post, and the Atlanta Journal and Constitution. The ads, however, did not appear in any of these papers.

Arista Records continued its major market campaign for the third week in support of the newest Barry Manilow release, "This One's For You." Ads appeared in nine markets surveyed, including five major markets embraced by Korvettes. The chain advertised the album in Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, and Washington for $3.69. In addition, Thomas & Hart in Dallas offered it for $3.88/$4.98 tape, Sam Goody in New York for $3.99/$5.49 tape, National Record Mart in Pittsburgh for $3.99/$5.99 tape, and Montgomery Ward in San Francisco for $3.99/$4.99 tape.

... And In New York

Meanwhile, in New York, where the "price war" among record retailers continued its low profile, jockeying for optimal position remained the week's most important concern. Korvettes retained at least a share of the front running spot with its list of "super specials," at $2.99 each, expanded to seven in the Sunday edition of the New York Times. The albums offered were "Ten Percent" by Double Exposure, "Wild Cherry," "Silk Degrees" by Boz Scaggs, "Good King Bad" by George Benson, "Juicy Fruit" by Isaac Hayes, "You Are My Starship" by Norman Connors, and "Love, Life & Feelings" by Shirley Bassey. In addition, newest albums by the Andrea True Connection, Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis, Jr., Grand Funk Railroad, and Walter Murphy were available for $3.54 each. Four days later, the 30-store area chain added "War's Greatest Hits," to its list of $2.99 specials, as well as four 2-LP sets from Buddah Records (The Best Of... Sha Na Na, Lovin' Spoonful, Monty Python, and The Essential Paul Anka). The War offering is significant because this is the album's first week of general release to retailers.

'Hottest Top 10'

Alexander's temporarily abandoned its policy of $3.64 for sale-priced albums offering the "hottest top 10" for $2.99 each. The albums involved were latest releases by the Ritchie Family, Beach Boys, Helen Reddy, Jefferson Starship, Barry Manilow, Diana Ross, Lou Rawls, David Bowie, and, interestingly enough "War's Greatest Hits." Quantities were limited to 100 of each title per store, and one of each per customer. Jimmy's, recently expanded to 10 stores, advertised 10 "new releases and best sellers" for $3.49/$4.99 tape.

Bob Seger Perseveres ^{fr16} album, Palladium might have become a new Capricorn. But when a record company starts a project like that, it's really creating its own little monster.

"After all," insisted Andrews, "how much money can they really afford to dump into Palladium Records knowing that in three or four years I'm going to say to them, 'I want a million dollars if you want me to stay.' Keeping this in mind, it's only natural that Warner Brothers product is going to get worked and if it happens at Palladium, great. If you can wield enough economic power, like a Capricorn or an Asylum has now, you can demand that your product is worked. But at the time we were in no position to be making demands, besides it's just not realistic to expect them to dump tons of money and time into something when they know that they're just creating a monster. When I apprised them of the situation, they told me, 'give us one more album and if we can't bring that record together we'll write you a release.' And that's exactly what they did — the album didn't come together and they wrote us the release."

According to Andrews, that's when the label shopping began. "We had decided to leave Palladium with Warner Brothers because I wanted my artist to be one of the number one acts at a label again so he would receive the attention that he deserves. Without our own label to worry about, we knew that a company would see that if they'd build us, they would stand to make some money on us, rather than just creating somebody to bitch at."

Management — A Tough Game Gets Tougher

"The manager's job is getting tougher and tougher," related Andrews, "fortunately for us, all the guys we had known when we were with Capitol way back in the beginning had become influential executives, so we didn't have to prove anything to anybody. They knew what kind of people we were — that we were hard workers."

Seger interrupted Andrews with a smile. "We're just not the type of band that's in a big hurry to get home and sit around and do nothing — our living is on the road." He then summarized: "Working the road is your key to the top. It's definitely the hardest, but it's also the best."

Prefacing his statement with a broad grin, Punch Andrews resumed: "Like I was saying, it's really getting tough for a manager to break a new act. For example, even FM airplay is getting tough to get — no, I shouldn't say that it's getting tough, cause it's always been tough — now it's brutal. And agents — sure a lot of them will sign you, but they won't do anything for you. They've got a lot of acts to book, so they're not likely to take a new act with nothing going for it in the way of sales and throw it on a Z.Z. Top or Kiss, or Rolling Stones tour — they're just not going to do it," he emphasized. "Unless you've got credentials, meaning sales, you're really up a tree."

Bringing all of these elements together in one definitive statement, Seger concluded, "If you're a new act without any product, the only things a record company has to look at are your live performance and management. There is absolutely no doubt that the two are equally important. You can have the best band in the world but if the record company thinks your management is flaky and they're going to have trouble with them, you might as well forget it."

Cale Sets Tour

LOS ANGELES — Shelter recording artist J.J. Cale is set for his first major concert tour of the United States in three years. The tour will take Cale throughout the Western U.S., as well as into Canada, beginning Sept. 1-2 at Ebbets Field, Denver.

The Cale tour will coincide with the release of his fourth album for Shelter, "Troubadour," produced by Audie Ashworth.

20 Markets Surveyed

The 20 markets surveyed by Media Records were selected from Standard Rate and Data's rankings of metropolitan area household markets. In order of largest to smallest, they were: New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, San Francisco, Washington, D.C., Boston, Dallas, Pittsburgh, Long Island, Houston, Baltimore, Cleveland, Atlanta, St. Petersburg-Tampa, San Diego, Miami, Denver and Cincinnati. However, these are not the nation's 20 largest markets, according to Standard Rate and Data.

"We wanted to get the 20 top markets," explained an official of Media Records, "but we found out that certain ones weren't subscribers to our service, either last year or this year." Consequently the firm had to extend itself to 26 cities to arrive at its list of 20 top markets. The six cities not included in the survey, and their relative positions on the Standard Rate and Data list, were St. Louis (13), Newark (15), Minneapolis/St. Paul (16), Anaheim (19), Seattle (24), and Milwaukee (25).

picks of the week

BAY CITY ROLLERS (Arista AS 0205)

! Only Want To Be With You (3:27) (Chappell — ASCAP) (M. Hawker, I. Raymond)

From the upcoming "Dedication" LP, this is quite a different sound for the Rollers. It's hard-driving rock 'n' roll, with respectful Beatle overtones and a powerhouse arrangement. This will hit the top of the pop charts with no big trouble. Credit must be given to Jimmy Lenner, who did a great production job. Originally recorded by Dusty Springfield, this is a hit all over again.

ABBA (Atlantic 45-3346)

Fernando (4:11) (Artwork — ASCAP) (B. Andersson, S. Anderson, B. Ulvaeus)

A symphonic beginning gives this tune a touch of class. Then the music breaks into some vaguely Spanish rhythms and the vocal comes through strong and clear. The music keeps building and there's a terrific crescendo that embodies a few good hooks. A little long for AM airplay, this should get some spins in MOR circles.

STARBUCK (Private Stock PS 45,104)

I Got To Know (3:08) (Brother Bill's — ASCAP) (B. Blackman)

Lyrical rock 'n' roll from Starbuck, the song really flows. The backing is fairly spare and gives the vocals some room to get the song across properly. A hot mix gives the tune a lot of presence. A definite add for any FM progressive programmer.

B.T. EXPRESS (Columbia 3-10399)

Energy To Burn (3:25) (Triple "O," Jeffmar, B.T. Express — BMI) (S. Taylor, T. Howard)

The title is apt: this is an energized cut with a great deal of power. However, nothing is wasted, the whole track is put together with good taste. The horns are used for punctuation, and with dynamic effect. A serious must add for all R&B programmers. The Express keeps on going.

JOURNEY (Columbia 3-10370)

She Makes Me Feel (Alright) (3:11) (Weed High Nightmare — BMI) (N. Schon, G. Rolie, A. Cash)

The first couple of bars sound like a locomotive gone wild, and from there it just gets more exciting. The power guitar riffs are in full force — this is raw rock 'n' roll with immediate emotional appeal. The cut is arranged well, the vocals are substantial, and this should get a ton of FM progressive play.

FARAGHER BROTHERS (ABC 12210)

Never Get Your Love Behind Me (3:27) (Braintree/Far-flap — BMI) (J. Faragher, T. Faragher)

This is a beautiful ballad and it sounds like a hit. The Brothers, like Hall & Oates, are not limited to any genre, and here they strike deep in the soul market. This one might break R&B, but should eventually make fast points across the board.

FREDDY FENDER (ABC/Dot DOA 17652)

Living It Down (2:30) (Ben Peters/Crazy Cajun — BMI) (B. Peters)

The melody of this one is strictly country, but Freddy has invited crossover possibilities by putting on some slick harmony work. A love song, this will break country and if pop programmers are smart they'll give it a listen. The Spanish verse is a good hook.

NICK GILDER (Chrysalis 2115)

Roxy Roller (2:50) (Robbins/Beachwood — BMI) (N. Gilder, McCulloch)

This might be about the Roxy Theatre in Hollywood, but it doesn't really matter. It's a good song with controlled vocal phrasing that gives a new touch of life to rock 'n' roll. A certain add on all FM progressive stations.

THE MOVIES (Arista 0202)

Dancin' On Ice (3:25) (Mind Bee — ASCAP) (M. Morgan)

From "The Movies" LP, this is a refreshing and interesting cut that will doubtless get some deserved FM progressive play. It's got a forties sound to it, probably due to the fast chording on piano, and a tremendously attractive chorus. Could cross to AM with proper push.

SHIRLEY BASSEY (UA XW 854Y)

If I Never Sing Another Song (3:39) (Dick James — BMI) (B. Black, U. Jurgens)

From the "Love, Life And Feelings" LP, this is a sensitively voiced ballad that should score some fast points in MOR. Bassey's voice still has a lot of kick and she hits a lot of the notes you want to hear. Good lyrics, better arrangement, will both contribute to quick pop charting.

DON COVAY (Philly Int'l./CBS ZS8 3602)

Travelin' In Heavy Traffic (3:05) (Mighty Three/Rag Mop — BMI) (D. Covay, D. Wansel)

This record starts out with a terrific unison riff between voice and guitar. From there it just gets better. Covay sings the tune with flair, and plays well off the funky arrangement. Sure pick for R&B and disco lists.

JERRY BUTLER (Motown 1403F)

The Devil In Mrs. Jones (3:10) (Kizzie — ASCAP) (M. Smith)

Certainly a catchy title; what's more, a catchy tune. Butler sings with a convincing style. This one's about a wicked woman — "If this love Jones is a curse, then I'm ready for the worst." The lyric line is attractively staccato and the music is right in the groove. Should pick up R&B play in short order.

TOMMY JAMES (Fantasy F776-A-M)

Tighter, Tighter (3:47) (Big Seven — BMI) (James, King)

It looks like Tommy James is going to be a big star all over again if you can judge from this single. It's got tremendous top 40 possibilities; the chorus makes you want to sing along and the arrangement is the kind that's perfect for radio — succinct, to the point, but with a couple of real catchy riffs.

TOM SNOW (Capitol P4330)

Rock & Roll Widow (3:28) (Beechwood/Snow — BMI) (T. Snow)

This is a great song that has some obvious autobiographical roots. Some terrific lines about a woman all alone at home while her man is on the road. She "gets her news from the Rolling Stone." Already picking up some FM progressive adds, this one could be a real sleeper.

JAMES VINCENT (Caribou/CBS ZS 8-9016)

Drifting Into Love (3:10) (Big Elk — ASCAP) (J. Vincent, D. Wolinski)

From the recent "Space Traveler" LP, this is an intelligent disco-rocker. The vocals are nicely paced with good call and response from both male and female voices. It's got a good musical break with excellent keyboard work. Nice guitar playing too. Should get more than a few spins on FM progressive outlets.

C.B. VICTORIA (Janus J-264)

I Don't Believe In Miracles (3:24) (Mainspring — ASCAP) (R. Ballard)

English rocker Russ Ballard penned this song, and C.B. Victoria makes it his own. It's an uptempo ballad with a catchy melody line. Most noteworthy, aside from Victoria's intelligent and subtle phrasing, is the playing, which really drives the song. A smart add for FM progressives and might pick up considerable MOR action.

DAVID MOHR (Farr FR 010)

Good Time Sally (2:51) (Westroad — ASCAP) (D. Mohr)

"Good Time Sally" kicks off with some good-time piano licks. Mohr carries the tune well, and injects the proper amount of humor into his phrasing. A slick arrangement lends a good flavor to the cut, and this should get some AM pop play in many markets.

NEIL DIAMOND (Columbia 3-10405)

Don't Think . . . Feel (2:57) (Stonebridge — ASCAP) (N. Diamond)

The second single from the chart-busting "Beautiful Noise" LP, this has a deft pop feel to it and should hit the higher regions of the single chart. Diamond sings the lyric with an exotic flavor, almost reggae, and the chorus is a dynamite hook. Produced with obvious care by Robbie Robertson.

JOHN DENVER (RCA JH 10774)

Like A Sad Song (3:41) (Cherry Lane — ASCAP) (J. Denver)

From the just-released "Smile" LP, this is actually the second single. "It Makes Me Giggle" was the first, and this is much better. Denver handles the ballad on acoustic guitar with sensitive string backing and this should be a fast riser on the pop charts. Will get immediate FM play as well as MOR. A very pretty song.

CARLY SIMON (Elektra E-45341-A)

Half A Chance (2:49) (C'est/Maya — ASCAP) (C. Simon, J. Brackman)

Simon is back with co-writer Jacob Brackman on this one, and it's a good choice for a single. The chorus is authoritative, filled with confidence, and, as usual, her words are striking. This might very well be another "You're So Vain." Another classy production by Ted Templeman. Check out the fine horn fill.

SPINNERS (Atlantic 45-3355)

The Rubberband Man (3:30) (Mighty Three — BMI) (L. Creed, T. Bell)

A funky bass line provides the thrust for this hit-bound effort. The horn charts are dynamic and the legendary vocals are in full force. A must for R&B and pop play, this will get immediate adds in both areas. Much better than "Wake Up Susan," the group's last effort. The lead vocal has a lot of energy when it's laid over that pounding bass.

THE SONS OF CHAMPLIN (Ariola America P-7633)

Imagination's Sake (2:41) (Intersong — ASCAP) (B. Champlin, R. Moitoza)

This is one of the best things we've heard in a long time from The Sons. It's slick, extremely smooth and favorably reminiscent of some of Boz Scaggs' best work. This is a tune that's instantly recognizable, and instantly charming. If you're not on this record already, check it out. It's a killer.

SNEAKERS & LACE (PIP P6525)

Skateboardin' (2:59) (Cheep Skate — ASCAP) (N. Levenson, P. Margo)

They say imitation is the highest form of flattery, so the Beach Boys should be very happy. This draws its influence primarily from "Surfin' U.S.A." and it's a good record. What with the skateboard craze running wild throughout the land, this has a chance to hit big. Well-crafted production.

WHEELS (Atco 45-7062)

Skateboard U.S.A. (2:45) (Tomeja — ASCAP) (D. Oriolo)

The title of this one should give it away; it's in the same vein as the other skateboard record this week. The arrangement is fairly contemporary and the vocal has a semi-original flavor to it. Should break big in many AM markets. There's a nice key modulation that gives the song an extra punch.

THE PUPPIES (Quality/Private Stock QA 507)

Sea Of Love (2:10) (Kamar — BMI) (Choury, Battiste)

A tasteful blues number that's already picking up a lot of play in the northeast. The guitar work is exciting, yet never overbearing. The vocals are an interesting harmonic blend, very smooth in contrast to the rawness of some of the instrumental fills. Pop PDs should give this a listen.

DUNN & RUBINI (Prodigal/Motown P0630F)

Diggin' It (2:25) (Jobete — ASCAP) (D. Dunn, G. Sopuch)

New artists Dunn & Rubini have come up with an auspicious first single. The arrangement really swings and they work well providing counterpoint for the swinging arrangement. A certain pop add. It's got a good lyric and the melody is definitely memorable.

WHITE WING (ASI 1006)

Hansa (3:14) (Tektra — BMI) (M. Coates)

A haunting ballad, this would be a unique addition to any FM progressive playlist. The tune is done up with great musical style; the harmonies and arrangements are outstanding. It sounds like a full chorus has been laid on top of an excellent string and synthesizer arrangement. Watch for this to get swift play.

ENERGY CRISIS (Circus CR-1)

Disco Chicken (2:55) (Sukha-Duhka Music) (B. Barthol, L. Dunlop, P. Marsh, P. Milio)

What with all the noise being made about "Disco Duck," this one could hit big. The lyrics are quite funny and the music is terrific. The Energy Crisis is an excellent band, the nucleus of which is often seen with Country Joe McDonald, and we think this song will go far. A smart add for any pop programmer, and it's a strong danceclub offering. Driving bass from Bruce Barthol.

ESTHER WILLIAMS (Friends & Co. F-129)

Last Night Changed It All (3:38) (Damit — BMI) (J. Wheeler)

A complicated harmony kicks this hopping disco number off to a fine start. There's an almost hypnotic riff that provides the thrust of the backing on the verses, and the strings are used well on the chorus. Williams' voice is in fine form. This should get disco and R&B play.

The Original "Roxy Roller"

by the Original

Nick Gilder

Accept no imitations.

Nick Gilder (formerly of Sweeney Todd) wrote the original. Nick Gilder sings the original. And now, the number one hit from Canada is going to roll up the charts here. In fact, "Roxy Roller" is already number 7 at CKLW in Detroit. And number 2 at WGCL in Cleveland. It's bound to roll into your city soon. Just remember one thing. Don't accept an imitation. When you can get the real thing.

ALBUM REVIEWS

GREATEST HITS — Abba — Atlantic SD 18189 — Producers: Benny Andersson, Bjorn Ulvaeus — List: 6.98

When it comes to pop music, many European groups have always displayed an uncanny understanding of this essential musical form and Abba is certainly one of them. This LP will prove to be an excellent marketing tool as it includes 14 of the group's very best cuts, like their monster hits "S.O.S." and "Waterloo." Abba is the perfect example of what European pop music is all about — the vocals are clean and instantly dominant, the melodies catchy and generously spiced with good pop hooks. Retailers take notice: this is one record that's going to sell very well in the racks.

CHAMELEON — Labelle — Epic PE 34189 — Producer: David Rubinson — List: 6.98

These three dynamic ladies have made waves throughout the music industry with their imaginative approach to their music. This effort is a continuation of this creative stance. Labelle is well known for vocal excellence and this LP is an impressive showcase of that aspect of their performing capabilities, particularly on the many ballad numbers included herein. Certain instrumental touches, like the subtle use of the harp, lend an air of fantasy to the songs, all of which will appeal to the R&B market and a majority of which will also find their way onto various pop and progressive playlists — our favorite is "Going Down Makes Me Shiver."

BLOWIN' — The Noel Redding Band — RCA APL 1-1863 — Producers: Noel Redding, Stanley Schnier — List: 6.98

Having established a name for himself as a leading rocker during his tenure with the Jimi Hendrix Experience, Noel Redding has branched out, adding many a notch to his increasing list of credentials. On this outing Redding demonstrates his varied talents as musician, producer, arranger and writer. The tone of the LP spans a wide range of emotional levels from the uptempo rockers like "Back On The Road Again" to the acoustic-ballad stance of "You Make Me Feel So Good." A natural for the FM progressive market, several tunes from this LP will no doubt find comfortable spots on AM playlists.

TOWER OF POWER

Ain't Nothin' Stoppin' Us Now

AIN'T NOTHIN' STOPPIN' US NOW — Tower Of Power — Columbia PC34302 — Producers: Emilio Castillo, Tower Of Power — List: 6.98

Having earned a reputation for being one of the hottest brass-oriented groups around, Tower Of Power proceeds to strengthen and broaden that reputation on this outing. Flawlessly produced by the group itself and Emilio Castillo, the LP is a fine collection of movin' numbers that cast the spotlight on the interplay between the horns and the vocals on such uplifting tunes as "Make Someone Happy" and the title track. A sure add for R&B stations, some pop and progressive programmers will also want to get in on this one.

COMING OUT — The Manhattan Transfer — Atlantic SD 18183 — Producer: Richard Perry — List: 6.98

The Manhattan Transfer is a group that's known for its versatility — this effort is, indeed, a study in versatility. It ranges in musical theme and emotional intensity from the searing and sensual vocal licks of "Don't Let Go" to the mid-sixties soul sound of the Holland-Dozier-Holland tune, "Helpless" and finally the mellow cocktail lounge strains of "Scotch And Soda." All in all, a very fine LP from a very professional group. Much potential exists here for AM/pop and FM progressive play.

RON WOOD & RONNIE LANE MAHONEY'S LAST STAND

MAHONEY'S LAST STAND — Ron Wood & Ronnie Lane — Atco SD 36-126 — Producer: Glyn Johns — List: 6.98

This original soundtrack LP is both a refreshing change of pace and at the same time a sort of throw-back to some of the early Small Faces sounds. Wood and Lane, both ex-Faces, seem to be right at home on this rather rustic outing, whose overall sound is the result of a cast of musicians that includes all of the Faces, Pete Townshend, Rick Grech and Micky Waller plus top studio players like Bobby Keys and Jim Price. An incredibly pleasant LP that's sure to provide the pop and FM progressive airwaves with some fine cuts like "Car Radio."

STREET CORNER STUFF — Peddler — United Artists CH-LA 665G — Producer: Gary Schatzlein — List: 6.98

Funk combines with some tasty rock licks and a moving ballad or two to create "Street Corner Stuff," a fine premiere outing by Peddler. Of special note are the vocals, both lead and harmony, and the extremely pleasing way in which they blend with the funk and rock inflections of the melodies themselves. This LP is going to be very popular in the R&B market, with much attention from both AM and FM programmers soon to follow. Give a listen to "Now That You're Mine" and "Masquerade Charade."

BOSTON — Epic PE 34188 — Producers: John Boylan, Tom Scholz — List: 6.98

Not many hard rock bands show even a smidgeon of the concern for pleasing melody lines and supporting harmonics that are the hallmarks of the Boston sound. An extremely impressive debut effort, "Boston" demonstrates all the essential ingredients for first rate rock 'n' roll — glass-shattering vocals, molten guitar lines and just enough use of keyboards to make the whole package interesting. Don't be surprised if you hear a majority of the cuts from this LP on the FM progressive airwaves. In fact, tunes like the autobiographical "Rock & Roll Band" will also be warmly received by the pop programmers. Boston is a very promising group.

AUTOMATIC MAN — Automatic Man — Island ILPS 9397 — Producers: Automatic Man, Lou Casablanca — List: 6.98

This LP is a unique progressive effort which combines several different musical forms to produce a delightful musical whole. The instrumentation and vocals which make up the tunes on this LP are at times funky, at times heavy rock and always quite progressive in nature. A very strong offering aimed directly at the FM progressive market, "Automatic Man" is sure to be accepted with energetic anticipation by all who are fortunate enough to come in contact with it. "Newspapers" and "Right Back Down" strike us as being two impressive cuts.

DIGGIN' IT — Dunn & Rubini — Prodigal/Motown P6-10013S1 — Producer: Michel Rubini — List: 6.98

Smooth and ingratiating are terms that can be easily and aptly applied to this offering by Dunn & Rubini. The feel is one of instrumental and vocal expertise that is reflected in the clean professionalism displayed on cuts like "Love Is Blind" and "Just Keep Laughin'." Accompanied by many notable sidemen, Dunn & Rubini demonstrate a high degree of versatility (witness their cover of Nilsson's "Turn On The Radio") that will make this effort a welcome addition to many pop and progressive playlists.

A LEGENDARY PERFORMER — Perry Como — RCA CPL 1-1752 — Producers: Varlous — List: 7.98

"Relaxed and warm and tender," that's what the liner notes say and we're inclined to agree. Perry Como is recognized far and wide as the master of the mellow, a very highly respected tune-weaver. This tastefully packaged collection demonstrates much attention to marketing, as it includes an illustrated booklet which tells the "Perry Como Story" along with a four-color portrait of the man himself that's suitable for framing. Included on this LP are such Como notables as "It's Impossible" and "My Favorite Things."

STREET PEOPLE — Street People — Vigor VI-7001 — Producer: Ray Dahrouge — List: 6.98

A very nice soul offering that features strong vocal lines which are well integrated into the rhythm tracks. Backing vocals are smooth and pure, while the dynamite string and horn arrangements of Bert deCoteaux provide the perfect vehicle for the vocal power of Street People, making this an LP that will wind up on many playlists in both the R&B and pop markets. "Never Get Enough Of Your Love" and "Gotta Get Back With You" display the energetic approach that's sure to make "Street People" a radio-active LP.

WSPT's Martin — 'Ideal Station In An Ideal Market'

by J.B. Carmicle

LOS ANGELES — Stevens Point, Wisconsin is an ideal market for testing top 40 music, according to WSPT PD Pat Martin. WSPT is a 50,000 watt FM and simulcast 1000 watt daytime AM operation which covers almost one-third of the state of Wisconsin from a central location. The station has been programmed with a top 40 contemporary format for at least 15 years. "We're serving an isolated geographic region without any signals from Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Madison, and an extremely weak signal from Chicago," said Martin. "We also do intense station research and measure specific demographic response by phone requests." A key secondary reporting station to Cash Box, WSPT's purpose, according to Martin, is to achieve "overall mass appeal" not only with music but news and promotion as well.

Demographic Coding

The number of records WSPT plays varies from 32 to 37, depending on the amount and quality of product available, Martin said. "We tighten up the station sound by playing fewer records if we don't have good music from which to choose. Our goal is to reach every listener 12 years and older, but I'd say the basic station appeal would be to the 12-49 age group. We have a system of demographically coding the records we play that not only provides balance of the station's sound, but reinforces the fact that we're a 'mass appeal' station."

Across The Board

Martin explained that demographic coding does not simply indicate that each record has only one daypart it may be played in. "Most records we play can be programmed right across the board, with only a few records restricted to certain dayparts. We wouldn't air Wild Cherry's 'Play That Funky Music' until after 10 a.m., because it would be a pretty heavy song to wake up to. We wouldn't play 'Stairway To Heaven' by Led Zeppelin that early in the day either," he continued.

"Being creative is paramount," declared Martin. "I believe in offering our listeners something different on WSPT, something no other station is doing. You can do it with your music, your promotions, and your jocks.

"I'm given the creative leverage with music because I'm never questioned on records added at the station," he noted. Explaining that record decisions come from three sources, the program director said that his objective is to have new product on the station at all times. "I'll either add a record after making the decision myself or I'll ask the jocks their opinions individually. We'll ask someone other than a staff member sometimes, just to get an outside opinion."

'Informative Stages'

Martin told of having what he called a 90 percent success rate in taking a new record, following it through the "informative stages," and determining whether it would be a hit or not. Clarifying "informative stages" as request and sales feedback, Martin said, "Stevens Point is an ideal market because there's no outside influence from other stations. We can measure record feedback with requests and in-store research. Both of those help to reflect a record's popularity to a great degree."

WSPT research procedures involve request lines that log each request throughout the broadcast day with a demographic breakdown of each caller and the time the call was made. Unusual requests are noted and considered for airplay at the end of the week, said Martin.

Store Research

"Presently we are calling and visiting five stores in the area," Martin related. "But one of the paramount problems of store research is that store rack merchandising is not coordinated with our airplay." He went on to explain that only one store of the five researched was stocking WSPT's playlist in its entirety. "That store can report sales to us very quickly because they have what we are playing," Martin reflected, "but the other stores do not stock records sometimes until they are being played on major market stations like KDWB in Minneapolis or WOKY in Milwaukee." Noting that all the stores are "musts" for measur-

Derringer

He's the hottest thing this summer — but it's only the start of something hotter. A smash tour, a big album, a brand-new single: Rick Derringer has built his house on solid rock.

And all the houses have been full ones: He's been blowing the roof off every place he's played, winning encore after encore, capturing audiences from Milwaukee to the Big Apple itself — and pulling reviews like these:

"Things didn't begin really popping until Derringer took to the stage. Guitarist Rick Derringer has a hot group and it was just right for Comiskey Park's rabid rockers."

—Chicago Daily News

"It took Rick Derringer to bring the audience to their feet. His hard-driving vocals on "Let Me In" and "Rock & Roll Hoochie Koo," and his hot guitar-rock band, had the audience bring him back for two encores."

—Toronto Star

"Derringer charged onstage with some of the best power rock and roll heard at the Civic Center in a long time. Boasting two fine guitarists, Rick Derringer and Danny Johnson, the band's performance was a tough act to follow. Group leader Rick Derringer is known for his work with Johnny and Edgar Winter, but never has he sounded better than with his own group."

—Springfield Daily News

"Solid, straight-ahead rock tunes with verve and energy... all jelled into a nicely coherent whole, proving that Derringer has, and has long had, a clear idea about where he's going with his music. The show moved from one punchy number to the next without lapses... the pacing was flawless."

SUPERPOP CONTINUES

The band of whom the San Francisco Chronicle said: "‘I’m On Fire’ is the best debut single by an American rock band ever."...

The band of whom Rolling Stone said: "The best rock debut album of the year."...

The band of whom Circus Magazine said: "This album is my runaway favorite debut of the year."...

Now gives you...

And we say it's a smash

From their long awaited album "Sincerely"

Jefferson Starship/Jeff Beck with Jan Hammer

NASSAU COLISEUM, LONG ISLAND — Jefferson Starship has continued to suffer from an uneasy, split personality throughout its oftentimes stormy recording career. Spawned by Paul Kantner's desire to explore more freeform, loosely defined musical directions, the band reached a nearly fatal level of acceptance, until resurrected by Marty Balin several years (and three albums) ago with a succession of love songs. "Caroline," "Miracles," and the presently charted "With Your Love" (#18, bullet), all written by Balin, have vaulted the Starship to a level of popularity unprecedented for the members since Kantner, Balin, and vocalist Grace Slick flew on the more down-to-earth Airplane. The Starship may be the current vehicle, but judging from a recent performance before an overtly enthusiastic, demonstrably young crowd, the ride is less than easy.

Just as the Starship has faced recurring identity problems in the recording studio, so do they generate obvious comparisons with their former incarnation on stage; and these problems are more serious. Initially, after only several songs, one is struck by the sound of two really distinct bands. Without Balin's lyric input, the Starship tends to revert to the overindulgent musicianship that characterized earlier efforts; however, with the joining of Balin's voice to Slick's and Kantner's, the vocal symmetry and resultant harmonic textures that made this grouping so unique become apparent.

This need for a continuous, more highly organized and developed stage persona becomes more urgent with the musical additions of ex-Quicksilver Messenger Service member David Freiberg on bass and assorted keyboards, and rock 'n' roll stylists John Barbata on percussion and Craig Chaquico on guitar. The performing skills are certainly there, but tend to compete with each other rather than integrating to create any semblance of the dynamic interplay that was a trademark of the Jefferson Airplane.

Occasionally the parts meshed, and when they did, the results were varying degrees of exciting. Grace Slick's reading of a slow blues accompanied solely by Peter Sears's excellent acoustic piano was particularly well-received. "Cruisin'," from the successful "Spitfire" album, was a similarly effective vocal showcase, this time for Balin, and could prove to be a potent follow-up to their current single. An extended version of "St. Charles" featured some lively guitar playing, but it was "Have You Seen The Saucers?" that proved to be the instrumental tour-de-force for the evening, highlighted by a multi-chorded bass solo by the versatile Sears.

Jeff Beck, with the aid of the Jan Hammer Group, opened the show. While Beck's guitar work was, at times, outstanding, the bulk of the performance tended to be aimless.

Felix Pappalardi/Joan Armatrading

ROXY, LA — Felix Pappalardi and Creation, a Japanese rock 'n' roll band Pappalardi encountered at a rock festival in Japan in 1975, brought their music to the Roxy recently. The group opened the set with "Preacher's Daughter," a powerful tune from their latest album. The melodic guitar riffs provided by Kazuo Takeda highlighted the show, as Takeda transformed his lead guitar into a blues instrument B.B. King would envy. Pappalardi's vocals were well done, but on some tunes the lyrics were inaudible, with the group's instruments at what must have been full volume. Percussive shading, including two drummers who went crashing through "Secret Power" to a crescendo ending, received the best response of the night. Flash, Daybreak, Sugar, and Thunder, as the Creation members are dubbed, are fulfilling their desire to make U.S. audiences aware of them by putting together with Pappalardi, veteran of Cream, Youngblood and Mountain, one of the best rock and roll shows for any venue, large or small. Music, whether influenced by the East or West, is the universal language, and Felix Pappalardi and Creation provide a much clearer meaning for that language through their music.

Although Joan Armatrading squandered a chance to rap with her audience, her brand of modest rock was well performed before newcomers to the Armatrading name. The paucity of female guitarists notwithstanding, Ms. Armatrading's R&B overtones on "Love And Affection," and her acoustic accompaniment on "Tall In The Saddle," a powerful love lament, showcased a vocal talent reminiscent of Phoebe Snow only stronger. Joan Armatrading's name will be heard again.

Ian Matthews/Graham Parker

BOTTOM LINE, NYC — With a voice impeccable in range and clarity, and a solid band of session men behind him, Ian Matthews has emerged as a song-oriented solo artist who expands the dimensions of his presentation with careful attention to instrumental elements. Matthews blends musical styles with a reference to his former affiliations with Fairport Convention and his own Southern Comfort, combining folk, pop, jazz and blues influences. While the cultists were relentless in their demand for old material, Matthews kept the set in an orbit close to his latest album on Columbia, "Go For Broke," while delving into the past and future as well. The current single, Van Morrison's "Brown Eyed Girl," was characterized by the delicately arranged lead and harmony vocals that pervaded the set, while a yet unrecorded selection, tentatively titled "The Shuffle," was more than "lyrically bizarre," as Matthews put it. Adding a harmonic twist to a simple blues beat, the band's expertise wrought a simple form into something unusual and arresting. All the solos were short, to-the-point statements, yet each piece reached a crescendo all its own. Matthews obliged the bottle-thumpers with one request, "Simple Tigers Will Survive." While he no doubt has written many songs that cultists will always demand, there is no reason why he shouldn't be able to combine his compositional ideas with the rich combination of colors and textures afforded by good arrangements and excellent musicians, to create more varied but equally memorable moments.

It wasn't Graham Parker, but guitarist Martin Belmont of his band the Rumour who offered a "quieter number," "Gypsy Blood," to the members of the audience who were tired of dancing. While few among the staid opening night gathering actually were dancing, Parker's brand of British R&B never stops dancing within itself. "Back To School Days" is a non-stop uplift through each chorus, while "Lady Doctor" is almost a cool-blues shuffle until it explodes with Parker's shouting vocal delivery. Another dance form he experiments with is reggae, turning out an authentic product with "Just Something You're Going Through," and using the rhythms in a blues fusion for "Don't Ask Me Questions," which ends his Mercury album, "Howlin' Wind," with a wailing, haunting chorus. While Parker will inevitably be compared to Springsteen and other figures of the Asbury Park scene, he has much of his own style to offer, especially English blues-oriented musicianship.

EAST COASTINGS — Power to the Pyramid — Those of you who have been trying to convince your friends of the mystical power of the pyramid structure and who have had to put up with a lot of snide comments because of it, take heart. It seems that the Record Plant, primo New York recording studio, has just built a new 24 track mixing room which features a pyramid-shaped chamber which rises high over the glass ceiling of the room. Several books have been published lately extolling the age-old mysterious powers of the pyramid, which is supposed to collect cosmic rays in a manner which gives it amazing preservative powers. Small pyramids are sold and used to keep razor blades sharp for months and to preserve food. Record Plant engineers claim that the pyramid room has unusual acoustical properties which they are unable to explain. Coastings suggests they leave a pizza in the room for a few months and see what happens.

RHODES RETURNS — During his recent stint on Scott Muni's WNEW-FM radio show here, during which he blasted New York Times critic John Rockwell, Elton John played an old Emitt Rhodes cut and asked the audience if anyone knew of his whereabouts. He got his answer from a listener that the former ABC recording artist has surfaced as an a&r man for Elektra-Asylum Records in Los Angeles. Rhodes will also act as a staff producer, and one of his key projects is the utilization of the ill-fated Countryside studio in the San Fernando Valley. That studio was once a key E/A project under the aegis of former Monkee Mike Nesmith. . . Queen will play a free concert in London's Hyde park, scene of the 1969 Rolling Stones free concert. Other shows have been held in the area of the park since then, but none as big as the Stones show. This concert is scheduled to have five acts, and the organizers are trying obtain the use of the same area used by the Stones, the Cockpit by the Serpentine. Sounds like an appropriate place for a show by either group. . . Several members of Bonnie Raitt's road crew were arrested on the Jersey Turnpike for possession of one or another controlled substance on the day of the recent concert in Central Park. Ms. Raitt was reportedly following the equipment truck when it was stopped, and then followed her boys to the police station to help out. The equipment was held for a time, her boys for longer, and she and what was left of her crew arrived at the park not much more than an hour before showtime. Those attending were treated to an appearance by Elton John, resplendent in baseball cap. He sang "I'm Blowin' Away" with Bonnie, and played piano on another number. Also joining the hoot was David Bromberg, members of opening acts Muddy Waters's band, and Martin Mull, who repeated his "Let's give her a warm hand on her opening" intro from a Raitt show of a year or so ago. . . At Bruce Springsteen's recent Red Bank concerts, he referred to saxman Clarence Clemmons as "Mr. Hollywood." This was a reference to Clemmons' featured role in Martin ("Taxi Driver") Scorsese's upcoming movie musical "New York, New York." Clemmons is co-starring with Liza Minnelli and Robert DeNiro, and portrays a sax player. . . Franki Valli added to Elton John's collection of glasses the last night of his Madison Square Garden concert series by presenting him with a pair which featured a season in the corner of each lens. . . Robbie Krieger, former guitarist with the Doors, is recording an instrumental album for Blue Note Records. Krieger is producing the album, which features top L.A. studio musicians. "Light My Fire," the Doors biggest hit single, was authored by Krieger. . . The b-side of Steve Miller's new single, "Rock 'N' Me," is the old Miller song "Living In The USA." After the initial pressing of 200,000, a more recent cut will be substituted. . . Jimmy Carter was pictured flying to L.A. with John Denver in last Monday's Daily News.

Tony Orlando garnered himself some neat publicity during the recent Republican convention in Kansas City. Nancy Reagan had just made her entrance into the hall, thus prompting a vociferous Reagan demonstration. The band then for some reason struck up "Tie A Yellow Ribbon 'Round The Old Oak Tree," and Orlando, who had been sitting in the Ford box, began to trip the light fantastic with former Martha Graham student Betty Ford, thus drawing the TV cameras and much of the attention away from Mrs. Reagan. Jack "Backstage" Ford was later photographed on stage in Kansas City with Orlando, wearing an old leather flying helmet. Does Jack know more than he's telling about various methods of flying? . . . Three-fourths of the original Monkees re-united onstage recently at, of all places, Disneyland. The touring and recording group of Dolenz, Jones, Boyce and Hart (two ex-Monkees and their producer/songwriters) were joined by ex-Monkee Peter Tork. Tork is now teaching under his real name, Thorkelson. Dave Clark, leader of the Dave Clark Five, was in the audience.

Another L.A. reunion occurred recently when Spirit was joined onstage at Santa Monica Civic by original members Jay Ferguson and Mark Andes. The one-time reunion was "just for the hell of it" according to Randy California, who organized it. . . Dave Edmunds, called the "world's finest producer" by Phil Spector, who should know, is officially pacted with Swan Song Records. . . Tavares have challenged the Harlem Globetrotters to a basketball game. . . Randy Edelman's deal with Arista includes the U.S. and Canada only, not everywhere but England as reported in Cash Box last week. . . Michael Henderson has been signed to Buddah Records. . . Joey George and Lewis McGehee have been pacted to Lifesong Records. . . Carole Sager and Marvin Hamlisch recently co-produced an Aretha Franklin session during which she recorded their song "Break It To Me Gently."

Members of the Dwight Twilley Band stopped by the CB office last week while in town promoting their ABC/Shelter LP "Sincerely," and the upcoming single "Could Be Love." The band will rehearse at Shelter headquarters in Tulsa in preparation for a tour in September. Reaction in Tulsa, which is also Twilley's hometown, was that the cuts on the album were too short. The nucleus of the group has been together for seven years and they produced their LP under the collective name of Oister. . . Look for a live album of Bob Dylan's Rolling Thunder Review, to be released in mid-September by CBS to coincide with the Rolling Thunder TV special. . . Appearing on Don Kirshner's Rock Concert on September 4 will be Gladys Knight and the Pips, Doug Kershaw, The Crusaders, and Murray the K with film footage of The Beatles, The Doors, Otis Redding and Aretha Franklin. On September 18, CBS will present the second annual "Rock Music Awards," produced by Kirshner and featuring Diana Ross and Alice Cooper as co-hosts. "Rock Concert" will follow NBC's "Saturday Night" in New York and Los Angeles and Kirshner's new Saturday morning kids show "Kids From C.A.P.E.R." will debut on NBC. . . An evening of juke box films from the '30s and 40s featuring Duke Ellington was presented at the Jazz Record Mart Stores in Chicago on August 18 by Delmark Records. . . Chappell Music has released five "words and pictures" biographies of rock performers and bands, the first five title are Carole King, Elton John, The Allman Brothers Band, The Beach Boys and Rod Stewart. The books will be distributed by Barnes and Noble.

POINTS WEST — Joan Baez joins Bob Dylan for two previously unrecorded tunes in his upcoming NBC special, "Hard Rain," on September 14 at 10 p.m. The two harmonize on Woody Guthrie's "Deportees" and the traditional "Railroad Boy." Dylan is currently in a New York studio working on the final mix of the "Hard Rain" LP which, reportedly, contains some of the songs that will be on TV and some that will not. The show was produced by TVT in association with Dylan's own television production company, Streaming Eagle Productions. The taping took place at a Rolling Thunder concert in Fort Collins, Colorado on May 23. . . THIS IS A RECORDING — If you wrote or published (or know who did) a of marketing.

Hofberg Exits London Records — Leo Hofberg, a 22-year veteran of London Records, has been terminated by the company due to a reorganization within the company which merged the imports division into the classical division. Hofberg had been general manager of Argo Sight & Sound division of London, which handled the Argo, L'Oiseau Lyre and Telefunken labels, and was involved with the Video-Disc Progress. Hofberg was also closely aligned with the classical department of London handling product development, repertoire, marketing and sales in the classical area. It was also understood that Phil Wesen and Godfrey Dickey had left London after long associations.

Alvino Exits UA — Dan Alvino has announced his resignation as national sales manager, United Artists Records. He had been with UA since 1966, and takes over as general manager of M.S. Distributing of Colorado.

Horton Joins Levinson — Debbie Horton has joined Peter Levinson Communications as an associate. Horton is a former public relations associate of the Morton Wax group of companies.

Bunkelman Named Co-District Mgr. — Fred Bunkelman has been appointed as Buena Vista's midwestern co-district manager; the company is a subsidiary of the Disney organization. Bunkelman had previously served as B.V.'s Chicago and Detroit branch manager. In his new position as co-district manager for B.V.'s expanded midwestern district, Bunkelman will supervise the Minneapolis, Omaha-Des Moines, Kansas City and St. Louis territories.

Television Integral To GRT Corp.

fr 7

channel for test-marketing.

Dealing through television was a break-even proposition for GRT last year; the concept is expected to gross anywhere between one and two million dollars this fiscal calendar.

Tape Outsells Records

It is an interesting possibility and odd premise that GRT can sell more tape than records over the long (American) run. White Sonner, corporate vice president and president of GRT-music tapes division, claims it to be true, however, due to a fast turnaround, high-quality service reputation.

Sonner spoke of the custom products division. Based on the premise that when the charts are cold, catalog still sells, the GRT music tape division has showed profit every month but one over the last five years and has only missed its monthly forecast twice during that same period.

Moreover, GRT doesn't overlook much in the way of customer persuasion. One notable packaging promotion earlier this year involved a premium of tape recorder head cleaner with particular tape purchases. Another, scheduled for the upcoming holidays, will mate the Vienna Boys Choir with a half-dozen Christmas cards.

All of which should serve to illustrate the character of a mature parent company. GRT has recognized and developed its strongest areas of expertise. In doing so it has set an example and lent a hand to the Canadian offspring which, according to the laws of nature, has developed an ear for rock and roll.

By reason of this general corporate experience, it is easy to visualize potential direction for the Canadian wing. The GRT push, on either side of the artistic divide, has reached sophisticated levels.

COUNTRY ARTIST OF THE WEEK

Johnny Carver

Johnny Carver was born, raised and schooled in Jackson, Mississippi, and his career has paralleled that of many other artists. At five he was performing with his family as a gospel group; at 13 he started playing the guitar and had his own band a year later.

After touring the country with his band for several years he became a regular at the Palomino in Los Angeles for a year, and then moved to Nashville.

Johnny's recording career has been most active and successful on Imperial, Epic and now ABC/Dot Records, with his current hit single being "Afternoon Delight," produced by Ron Chancey.

Johnny combines his talent as a singer with that as a songwriter, he travels extensively on concert tours, and he has made just about every possible country TV syndicated show with many out-of-country appearances.

A consistent charter, Johnny's singles have included "Yellow Ribbon," which reached the #1 slot, "Country Lullabye," "Start All Over Again," "Snap, Crackle and Pop" and "Tonight Someone's Falling In Love."

Johnny's just-released LP is titled "Afternoon Delight," and joins others such as "Tie A Yellow Ribbon 'Round The Old Oak Tree."

Exclusive booking is by Top Billing, Inc.

Nomination forms will be sent out to all the association's members at the end of August, and the names of the award winners will be announced at the CMA (GB) dinner in November. For further information, please contact: Ann Dex, la Montagu Mews North, London W1H 1AJ (tel: 01-935 0413).

CMA Sets Talent Buyers Seminar For October 7-11

NASHVILLE — The Country Music Association will host the Fifth Annual CMA Talent Buyers Seminar October 7-11 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Nashville. Fair managers, amusement park owners, show promoters, booking agents, music executives and country artists from all over the United States and Canada will gather for a full program of panel discussions, workshops, informal rap sessions, agency open houses and talent showcases.

Seminar Activities

Seminar activities begin with registration on Thursday, October 7. Set for Friday, October 8, in the morning, are registration, a welcoming address by MCA recording artist Bill Anderson, a seminar, "Needs Of A Fair," moderated by George Meagher, manager, Kentucky State Fair, and a seminar, "Needs of Parks and Special Attractions," moderated by Bill Hollingshead, celebrity talent manager, Knott's Berry Farm, Buena Park, California. The afternoon will include a rap session moderated by Jimmy Jay of United Talent, Inc., with an evening visit to the Grand Ole Opry. Seminars planned for Saturday, October 9, are: "Needs Of An Artist," moderated by Charley Pride, RCA recording artist; "Contracts and Riders," moderated by Tandy Rice, president, Top Billing, Inc.; "Promotion and Advertising of Shows," moderated by Ray Pilszak, Amusement Business magazine; and "Presentation of Artist" (staging, lighting, sound), moderated by Don Keirns, president of Chardon, Inc. Another rap session, moderated by Jimmy Jay, and the NATD cocktail party are also scheduled on Saturday. Seminars for Sunday October 10 are "Buying Direct from Responsible Agent," moderated by Bob Neal, manager, William Morris Agency, and "Buying from Promoters, Fair Producers, Etc.," moderated by Don Romeo, Don Romeo Agency. An amusement business cocktail party and showcase will be held Sunday evening at Faron Young's Jailhouse Club. Activities for Monday October 11 include an open house at agencies, suites, etc., the CMA Awards Show and a post-awards party.

Registration Fee

Registration fee for the seminar (includes one post-award party ticket) is $60 per person. Additional post-awards party tickets are $15 each.

Drifting Cowboys Reunite For Syndicated Radio Shows

NASHVILLE — The original Drifting Cowboys, organized by Hank Williams when he came to Nashville and the Grand Ole Opry in 1949, have reunited to produce a series of weekly radio shows, recorded live in Nashville and hosted by veteran WSM and Grand Ole Opry personality, Grant Turner. The thirty minute shows are being syndicated nationally by Music Marketing, Inc., and are in the same style and format as early radio shows transcribed by Hank Williams and The Drifting Cowboys. The Drifting Cowboys, consisting of Don Helms, Jerry Rivers, Hillous Butrum and Bob McNett, comprise the original band cast of programs recorded in 1949-50. Hank Williams monologs and songs from the early shows will be inserted into each program. The show also features weekly visits by The Duke of Paducah.

The Drifting Cowboys stated that one reason for their interest in doing the show is the continual growth of interest in the Hank Williams legacy, particularly the involvement of young people, many of whom were not born when Hank passed away. Also, very little live country music is being done nationally today for radio. And yet, most of Hank Williams' and country music's early talent exposure was through the traditional live radio programs.

Offices for Dee Cee Productions have been established at 44 Music Square East, Nashville, Tennessee 37203. A brochure and a showcase disc of The Drifting Cowboys radio show is available to any interested radio station from Music Marketing, Inc., 107 Music City Circle, Nashville, Tenn. 37214.

The series will be available in stereo for quality FM broadcasting, and future plans call for some remote live show recording at locations designated by participating stations.

COUNTRY ROUNDUP

Roy Head has been set for the Jerry Lewis Telethon and the Tommy Banks Celebrity Hour from Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 8 . . . Well-known music city personality Cathy Gregory, widow of Bobby Gregory, recently became Mrs. Jack Bowers. Cathy and Jack will shortly announce plans for a concerted drive into developing a total music concept . . . Columbia recording artist Katy Moffatt appeared on a special country music television program on CFNC-TV from Calgary, Alberta, Canada on Aug. 25 . . . Kustom Electronics head of sales and promotions Charlie Roy and Wayne McMurtry, president of the Chanute, Kansas-based firm, were honored recently at a cocktail party given by ASCAP for their outstanding contribution in helping to promote country music through the media of sound. Mayor Richard Fulton, with the Chamber of Commerce and Sheriff Fate Thomas, made them honorary citizens of music city.

Red Sovine has been set to tape Dinah! Sept. 7. Red's Starday recording of "Teddy Bear" is one of the top CB singles of the year, with his just released single being "Little Joe" . . . Mickey Gilley has been set to tape "Music Hall America" at Opryland in Nashville . . . MCA recording artist Mel Tillis has established an annual music scholarship for outstanding graduates from his alma mater, Pahokee High School in Pahokee, Fla. . . . Don Williams is gearing up for his upcoming British concert tour. Don, a top favorite of the British fans, has just finished recording his seventh LP which will be released within the next six weeks.

Someone has been impersonating Cal Smith in the northwest area of the country. According to reports from Oregon, there is an imposter who actually has been booked into clubs posing as the MCA recording artist. "I want people to be aware of this," Cal said. "This guy is a phoney." It just happened that some friends of Cal's went to Gussie's Club in Coos Bay, Oregon expecting to hear their friend. Instead they heard a rather cheap imitation. Numerous other entertainers in the country music business have been plagued with imposters during their careers . . . A benefit was recently held at Faron Young's Jailhouse in Nashville, Tenn. for Chuck Rogers, a well-known songwriter who died of a heart attack on July 22, 1976. According to Billy Arr, chairman of the Chuck Rogers benefit, $4,150 has been collected to date to help cover expenses incurred during Chuck's hospitalization and death.

Loretta Lynn was recently seen on the television version of People Magazine, Aug. 28, over the NBC network. Portions of the program were shot during Nashville's Fan Fair, on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry, at her ranch in Hurricane Mills, and in "Butcher Holler," Ky., where life began for Loretta. "Coal Miner's Daughter," her autobiography, is now in its fourth week on the New York Times best seller list. A new single on MCA Records by Loretta is scheduled for a late August release . . . Dottie West will be a colorful subject in an upcoming issue of Photoplay magazine when it features the Grand Ole Opry star dressed in custom designed fashions made especially for her by Simplicity Patterns Co. in New York. Lynn Dorsey, spokesman for Photoplay, said Miss West was selected because she exemplifies the best country girl qualities in a unique style that is all her own. The color photography will be shot at Opryland Park by Nashville photographer Bill LaFavor the last week of this month.

Apparently there's no stopping the storm Diana Williams has touched off with her single "Teddy Bear's Last Ride" on Capitol. The record, a response to Red Sovine's "Teddy Bear," was written by the Cedarwood songwriting team of Dale Royal and Billy Joe Burnett that wrote "Teddy Bear" . . . For the fourth consecutive year a sold-out solid sign has been placed on Jerry Clower's personal appearances, according to Tandy Rice, personal manager. At mid-year, the Grand Ole Opry comedian is proving his staying power as one of the most sought-after story tellers of this generation and negotiations have already begun for Jerry's bookings in 1977.

Dotsy was hostess to 20 songwriters from seven foreign countries at the Second International Travel Writers Conference in San Antonio this month. The RCA recording artist greeted the visitors from West Germany and Mexico in their native languages, while the guests from Denmark, Japan, Argentina, England and Canada received a cheerful greeting in the king's English. Dotsy entertained the writers at Happy Shahan's Alamo Village in Brackettville. The writers were in San Antonio for the Texas Folklife Festival. This was the second conference of its type to be held, with the first conducted in May of this year . . . MCA Records in England is releasing a special edition 16-track LP on Jeanne Pruett to coincide with her 12-day tour of that country with Don Williams in September . . . Vici Ballard has recently joined Nashville's Woodland Studios as public relations chief.

Elektra's Sammi Smith is currently hospitalized with a back problem, which was brought on by lifting a saddle out of her trunk. According to Sammi, she plans to get a "plastic saddle" instead of the heavy leather . . . The Nashville chapter of NARAS is the third largest chapter. Los Angeles is first and New York is the second . . . Bob Cummings has been retained by Hotel Publishing and Kuan Yin Publishing to screen material, pitch songs and work with their Nashville writers. The home offices for both companies are located in Springfield, Mo. . . . Country recording artist Lynda Peace has denied the rumor that she is joining the rock group War as previously reported.

R.W. Blackwood, who recently underwent four serious eye operations, is recovering, but has one more operation to undergo in September. Blackwood's problem is a detached retina due to an eye injury received a number of years ago . . . Johnny Tillotson is back in action on the recording scene with a new label, producer and record release. "Summer-time Lovin'," a Lang Martine, Jr. tune, will be released on Tillotson's new label, United Artists, with Jerry Crutchfield producing.

Betty Gibson, alias Mother Hype, national promotion and sales manager, Nashville Nationwide Sound Distributors, was injured in a traffic accident recently. After being hit by a Brinks armored truck on the driver's side, which totaled out her car and left quite a few bumps and bruises from head to toe, she was heard saying, "The doctors x-rayed my head and could find nothing there, which is par for the course of promo persons" . . . KTOW and KGOW-FM, Tulsa area proud country stations, brought out a crowd of more than 16,000 for an all-day CB and aerial exhibition recently at Eagles Nest Airport near Tulsa.

Houston-based Country Kingdom Records has signed a long-term distribution agreement with NSD. Announcement came from label president Dottie Austln and Joe Gibson of Nationwide Sound Distributors. Currently signed to the label are Pat Dalsy and Luke Austin . . . Mike Carter at WVOJ, Jacksonville, would like to exchange ideas with any air personalities in country radio. All air checks are invited. Contact Mike Carter, WVOJ radio, Jacksonville, Fla., (904) 388-0766.

COUNTRY SINGLES REVIEWS / ALBUM REVIEWS

LORETTA LYNN (MCA 40607)

Somebody Somewhere (Don't Know What He's Missin' Tonight) (3:00) (Coal Miners — BMI) (Lola Jean Dillon)

A slow ballad of heartache, tears and loneliness makes for the sound of top charting. Produced by Owen Bradley.

JOHN DENVER (RCA JH 10774)

Like A Sad Song (3:41) (Cherry Lane Music — ASCAP) (John Denver)

A love ballad pulled from the "Spirit" LP, given the special Denver touch of complete awareness. Produced by Milton Okun.

FREDDY FENDER (ABC/Dot DOA 17652)

Living It Down (2:30) (Ben Peters/Crazy Cajun — BMI) (B. Peters)

It's lonely days and lonely nights in both Spanish and English ballad style. Produced by Huey Meaux, the piano dominates the instrumental track.

BILLY SWAN (Monument ZS8-8706)

You're The One (2:10) (Peer International — BMI) (Buddy Holly, Waylon Jennings, Slim Corbin)

From the LP "Billy Swan" comes a bouncy mixture of country and rhythm and blues, closely resembling the "rockabilly" sound first introduced to the music scene in the mid-fifties.

DAVE & SUGAR (RCA JH 10768)

I'm Gonna Love You (2:52) (Dunbar/Westgate — BMI) (Baker Knight)

A promise of love (and top charting) given progressive bright spirited treatment by RCA's top trio. Produced by Charley Pride and Jerry Bradley.

RED STEAGALL (ABC/Dot DOA 17653)

Rosie (Do You Wanna Talk It Over) (3:10) (Alrhond — BMI) (S. Throckmorton)

Red tells in outlaw style the personal price of fame and fortune. Produced by Glen Sutton.

DOTTSY (RCA JH 10766)

Love Is A Two Way Street (3:28) (Tree Pub. Co. — BMI) (Sterling Whipple)

A tale of "south of the border" style given a bright driving vocal. Produced by Roy Dea with accompaniment by the Lea Jane Singers.

RED SOVINE (Starday SD 144)

Little Joe (4:31) (Power Play — BMI) (J. Coleman, M. Lytle, T. Hill)

An updated recitation of Red's 1960's release. This version has incorporated "Teddy Bear" and the CB'ers. Produced by Tommy Hill.

MARSHALL TUCKER BAND (Capricorn CPS 0258)

Long Hard Ride (2:49) (No Exit — BMI) (Toy Caldwell)

Title song of the LP, this instrumental carries a strong bluegrass flavor. Hard driving and fast moving with production by Paul Hornsby.

SKEETER DAVIS (Mercury 73818)

I Love Us (3:06) (Window — BMI) (J. Tweel)

A tender tribute to love — ballad style — from Skeeter on her first Mercury release. Produced by Pete Drake and Ronny Light.

SHYLO (Columbia 3-10398)

Ol' Man River (I've Come To Talk Again) (3:34) (Partner/Julep — BMI) (R. Scaife, D. Hogan)

Geared down from their usual fast pace, Shylo delivers a slow moving folk tribute to a river. A sleeper.

TWIGGY (Mercury 73832)

Here I Go Again (3:31) (McDonald's Music — BMI) (McDonald)

Known 'round the world, England's Twigg reaches into the MOR bag and makes her debut with a country McDonald song produced by Tony Evers.

MEL McDANIELS (Capitol P 4324)

I Thank God She Isn't Mine (2:46) (Music City — ASCAP) (B. Morrison, J. MacRae)

Pure country music, pure country lyric produced by Johnny MacRae. Good bet for box and chart action.

ACE CANNON (Hi 5N-2313)

Blue Eyes Crying In The Rain (2:38) (Milene — ASCAP) (F. Rose)

A melancholy sax mourns throughout this ever-popular Fred Rose tune. An instrumental set for mood listening produced by Lewis Willis.

BENNY BARNES (Playboy P 6084)

Little Brown Paper Bag Blues (2:59) (Chappell & Co. — BMI) (Gene Dobbins, Roury Bourke, Johnny Wilson)

A case of the good old fashioned blues wrapped in MOR country. Produced by Eddie Kilroy.

FREE BEER (RCA JH 10763)

Walking The Floor (3:24) (Unichappell/Lorber/Scheer — BMI) (Joel Scott Leis)

A sound of the new generation, good for FM plays. From the LP "Highway Robbery," the title sets the stage.

TERRI CORKER (Door Knob DK 6-008)

I Believe You (2:18) (Chip 'N' Dale — ASCAP) (Jim Taylor)

Good country lyric tells where everybody has been at one time or another. Produced by Gene Kennedy.

RAYBURN ANTHONY (Polydor PD 14346)

Crazy Again (2:38) (Hall-Clement — BMI) (Bob McDill)

An upbeat track produced by Bobby Bare predicted for top box action. The tale is about the killing ways of too much of a good time.

LUCKY CLARK (Polydor PD 14343)

Lonely Hearts Woman (3:14) (United Artists/Unart — ASCAP)

Country style, with a not-too-sophisticated lyric about help thru the night. Produced by Milton Blackford. Lucky might get lucky.

PETE RAY (Scorpion SC 051)

Ode To The Geogla Farmer (Eatin' Goober Peas) (2:57) (Brim — SESAC) (K.E. and Julia Marsh)

Strictly a novelty (down to earth) and no bets taken on a campaign story. Produced by Jack Adams.

SPIRIT — John Denver — RCA APL 1-1694

Projecting his customary awareness of spirit, with the freshness of the eyes of a child, Denver delivers his "message" lyrics in his own distinctive style. Breaking from the ballad or semi-ballad is "Hitchhiker," which comes on with a fast, uptempo beat. Other selections include "Come And Let Me Look In Your Eyes," "Eli's Song," "Wrangle Mountain Song," "In The Grand Way," "Polka Dots And Moonbeans," "It Makes Me Giggle," "Baby, You Look Good To Me Tonight," "Like A Sad Song," "San Antonio Rose," "Pegasus" and "The Wings That Fly Us Home".

HASTEN DOWN THE WIND — Linda Ronstadt — Asylum 7E-1072

Country rocker Linda only "soars" on the ever familiar "That'll Be The Day," breaking into a simple country flavor on "Lo Siento Mi Vida," "Hasten Down The Wind" and the Willie Nelson-penned tune "Crazy." Much emphasis is placed throughout on a polished instrumental track and prominent background vocals. Other selections that fit more into the progressive bag include "Love Again," "That Tattler," "If He's Ever Near," "Rivers Of Babylon," "Give One Heart," "Try Me Again," "Down So Low" and "Someone To Lay Down Beside Me."

TURN ON TO TOMMY OVERSTREET — Tommy Overstreet — ABC/Dot DOSD 2056

T.O. emerges with a new sound with his new producer Ron Chancey. "Girl" songs done in MOR style are his best bag and this is no exception, but the sound is smoother with more FM flavor. Beginning with his current single "Here Comes That Girl Again," other selections include "90 Proof Lies," "Young Girl," "Love Let Me Down," "One Woman Man," "Shoulder To Shoulder," "In Between The Shadows," "Summertime Lovin'," "See You On Sunday," "Tell My Woman I Miss Her" and "I'll Give Up." It's a "turn on" to good listening.

JERRY REED/BOTH BARRELS — RCA APL 1-1861

Jerry aims and shoots both barrels — both vocal and instrumental — in this LP featuring the title song from his recent movie "Gator." Some are oldies such as "Kentucky," "Miller's Cave," "Alabama Jubilee"; some are novelties like "Rooster Jones," and some are straight Jerry Reed. The instrumental track is strong. The LP was produced by Chet Atkins and Jerry.

AFTERNOON DELIGHT — Johnny Carver — ABC/Dot DOSD 2042

Opening with the title song, which is his current single, Johnny moves comfortably into a bag giving delightful cross-over listening. Selections included in this package produced by Ron Chancey are "Love Is Only Love When Shared By Two," "My Eyes Adored You," "It Don't Hurt To Be A Dreamer," "Just A Dream," "Beg, Steal Or Borrow," "Woman Stealer," "Every Fool Has A Rainbow," "Sweet City Woman" and "Snap Crackle Pop."

HER WAY — Sammi Smith — Zodiac ZLP 5004

You've heard some of these before, like Roger Miller's "Walking In The Sunshine," "I Love A Rodeo," "You Don't Want My Love" and Hoyt Axton's "Never Been To Spain." All are done with Sammi's own special sultry emotional quality. Produced by Fred Carter, Jr. and Jim Malloy, other selections are "Just You And Me," "Which Way Do You Wanna Go," "I Can't Stand The Rain," "My Window Faces South," "Rings For Sale," "Go Easy On My Heart."

ON JAZZ

Get well greetings are extended to LA saxophonist Teddy Edwards, who is recovering from stomach surgery. Benefits for Teddy were recently conducted at several LA area clubs including Jimmy Smith's.

Singer Patti Austin, who has provided many a background vocal on CTI, makes her debut on the label in an LP titled "End Of A Rainbow." Ms. Austin wrote eight of the nine songs and CTI regular Dave Matthews did the arrangements.

New from Monmouth Evergreen: Duke Ellington's "Black, Brown and Beige" by Alan Cohen's band. The LP was recorded in England and features a big band of English musicians.

Jack Kleinsinger's "Highlights of Jazz" shows continue in New York. Next up is a COUNT 72 — Program director Barney Lane of jazz radio WRVR-FM, New York, holds the microphone during an interview with Count Basie. Interview highlighted an all-day programming tribute to the famous musician on the occasion of his 72nd birthday. The day also featured a solid four-hour block of the Count's music, hosted by jazz historian Ed Beach.

program titled "Jelly Roll, Joplin, James P and Others" with Dick Hyman, Vic Dickenson and Pee Wee Erwin in the cast. The show will be at Loeb Student Center of New York University, September 22.

Miroslav Vitous, former Weather Report bassist, is working on his first Arista LP at Secret Sound Studios. Vitous is producing as well as featuring his own electric and acoustic bass. In addition he'll be playing guitar and a variety of keyboards.

Bill Evans and Tony Bennett will be recording together again. The album will be for Bennett's label, Improv, and Helen Keane will produce. Recording begins in San Francisco in late September.

Jazz returns for a second season at the Santa Barbara Jazz Festival October 1, 2 and 3. Artists set at this point include Dizzy Gillespie, Supersax, Stanley Turrentine, John Klemmer, Joe Williams and the Don Rader sextet.

Tony Williams Lifetime's long awaited LP "Million Dollar Legs" has appeared. Recorded in Colorado, the band features Allan Holdsworth, guitar; Tony Newton, bass and vocals; Alan Pasque, keyboards, and Williams on drums.

Talk about George Benson power! His late 1960's A&M session "The Other Side Of Abbey Road" appears on our jazz chart. Who said you had to repackage in order to sell catalogue?

Reedman Pee Wee Ellis, to Savoy. Ellis who came up in the James Brown organization and has lately served as conductor for Esther Phillips, will begin work on his first LP shortly.

Houston Person's "Pure Pleasure" is his first for Mercury. Jimmy Roach arranged the LP and it was Roach who was responsible for Person's "Disco Sax" hit of last year.

In the biggest leap on the CB jazz chart of recent weeks, Roy Ayers "Everybody Loves The Sunshine" cracked a top ten that has changed little in the past few weeks.

Ran into Cotillion's Willis Jackson on the street recently. The veteran tenorman has a new LP due any moment.

An interesting (and X rated) profile of veteran jazz and blues producer Ralph Bass appeared in a recent edition of Blues Unlimited. Bass, at sixty-five, has managed to survive the likes of Herman Lubinsky, Syd Nathan and Leonard Chess, all of whom he served in fine fashion. Bass, located in Chicago, is now working with T.K. Productions.

One of the most interesting vocal LPs of recent times is "Quire" on RCA. Quire is a choir under the direction of Christiane Legrand, formerly of the Double Six of Paris, and The Swingle Singers. The LP contains no instrumental accompaniment and the material ranges from Meade Lux Lewis, Erroll Garner, Duke Ellington, into Bill Evans and Dave Brubeck. This one has to be heard to be believed!

With the arrival of the imported Japanese Riversides by Fantasy, could it be possible that Blue Note would release those golden oldies pressed for France and Japan to the US market?

Jazz Album Picks

YELLOW AND GREEN — Ron Carter — CTI 6064 — Producer: Creed Taylor — List: 6.98

Bassist Ron Carter's music on CTI has included an incredibly wide range of material. There have been orchestrated disco tracks, all-star blowing dates and then there are his own small band performances. Billy Cobham, Kenny Barron and Hugh McCracken assist the leader in able fashion during the course of four Carter tunes and two additional titles. Carter's artistry shines through every moment of this disk and the result is one continuous display of the creative gifts of this fine musician.

HOT TRACKS — Herb Ellis-Ray Brown — Concord Jazz CJ 121 Producer: Carl Jefferson — List: 6.98

Concord has managed to present some excellent mainstream jazz over the past couple of years. Most of the artists are involved in studio work so the chance to step into a full blown jazz date generally brings out the best in those present. Ellis and Brown should need little introduction by this time, as both were members of the best Oscar Peterson trio. Plas Johnson and Sweets Edison form a most effective front line and there are originals from all four men. Quality jazz timeless in nature.

JAKE HANNA — Kansas City Express — Concord Jazz CJ 22 — Producer: Carl Jefferson — List: 6.98

This is an especially pleasant visit to small band Basieana circa 1930-1947. Hanna is an excellent drummer for this groove and with the likes of Richie Kamuca, Bill Berry and Nat Pierce for the soloists the set could hardly go wrong. But the big surprise is the return to disk of Mary Ann McCall, one of the era's finest vocalists. Very nice cover art and excellent sound are a part of the Concord tradition. For the band, try "Robbins' Nest"; for Mary Ann try "Wrap Your Troubles In Dreams."

BAREFOOT BALLET — John Klemmer — ABC 950 — Producers: Stephan Goldman and John Klemmer — List: 6.98

This artist has a considerable following amongst rock and pop fans (in case you wonder why he appears on ABC instead Impulse), but make no mistake, he can play! Of the nine titles Klemmer also wrote eight (Janis Ian's "At 17" is the other). The acoustic performances are likely the best of Klemmer's career and it is good to hear him relying less on effect. For those partial to the other side of John Klemmer, "Whisper To The Wind" will appeal. Should be a strong seller.

WEA Finds More Black Retailers Buy Direct

by Cookie Amerson

LOS ANGELES — More black retailers are buying directly from the manufacturer than ever before. Where previously the black retailer was almost overlooked by the manufacturer, he is now a more viable force in the industry. The survival rate of the black retail store is unquestionably reaching new heights. They're moving more product, making larger profits, and handling credit better than in the past.

Taking Its Place

Henry Allen, president of Cotillion Records, told CB "the black retail store is definitely taking its place in the industry." Stores are now more frequently being included in the company advertising and getting more display materials, because the manufacturer realizes the black retailer is becoming a more integral part of the record business. Allen also stated that by purchasing directly from the manufacturer the black retail store has a larger profit margin, is able to increase its volume and handle finances more effectively. Allen also maintained that several of the smaller mom & pop stores are banding together, forming co-ops so that they too will have the buying

Reflections 'N Black

Skip Miller has been appointed national director of R&B promotion at Motown Records, replacing Bunky Sheppard, who recently left the company to form his own label.

Within the next two weeks, WMOT Records will be releasing a new Blue Magic LP entitled "Mystic Dragon."

Jermaine Jackson's plan to buy out Madison Square Garden and give a free promotional concert has been nixed by the New York City police department. The tickets would have been handled on a first-come first-serve basis, which the police department felt would create problems they would be unable to handle.

Savory Records will soon be shipping its largest gospel release of the year. The release will include a new LP by James Cleveland which should be his biggest yet.

Radio:

Lyn Tolliver will be taking over as PD at WJMO in Cleveland, replacing J.J. Jefferles who is now PD at KSOL in San Francisco.

Watson Set For Special

LOS ANGELES — Recording artist Johnny Guitar Watson has been set to star in his own one-hour television special, "Ain't That A Bitch," according to Dick James Music.

Special, which is set for European distribution, will focus on Johnny Guitar in concert where he will be performing songs from his latest album "Ain't That A Bitch."

Lady Flash Debut LP Released By RSO

LOS ANGELES — RSO Records has released the debut album by Lady Flash, "Beauties In The Night." Lady Flash, comprising Reparata, Debra Byrd and Monica Burruss, is the trio featured with Barry Manilow on his current 98-city concert tour.

Black Retailers Buy Direct

power to purchase directly from the manufacturer.

Henry Droz, executive vice president of WEA records, said, "WEA is definitely doing more direct selling to the black retailer." Droz also stated that with the increase of direct retail buying, there has also been an increase in the amount of black product purchased by one-stops and racks and an increase of black product being sold to white accounts. Droz told CB that WEA has been doing more to encourage success and growth of the black retail account. WEA recently added new sales personnel around the country, to assure proper service to its black retail accounts.

Stronger Businessmen

Dave Glew, vice president of sales and marketing for Atlantic Records, feels that the new managers of black retail stores are better businessmen, and have more sophisticated business practices. Glew says, "the here-today gone-tomorrow trend has left the black retail store, so the manufacturer knows they will be around for awhile and deals with the account on a different level."

The trend of direct buying is looked upon positively at WEA Records and is certainly something small businessmen are exploring. It is not a situation that is meant to cut out the profits of another level of business but to increase profit margins and make business survival a bit easier. It is the general attitude that in the long run, because of the increased business, profits will even themselves out to the point that everybody is making money.

Rock-Ola Intro's The New '463' 100-Selection Phono

CHICAGO — Rock-Ola's new model 463 100-selection phonograph compresses visual excitement, player enticement, stereophonic sound and trouble-free reliability into less than three feet of space, according to executive vice president Edward G. Doris.

"Rock-Ola is now able to meet the demand of location owners who wanted the excitement and appeal of the model 464 but simply didn't have room for a 160 selection phonograph," the executive vice president reported.

"Due to the high visual impact created by the brilliant color patterns and bold cabinet design, many viewers are surprised that the new model 463 measures less than three feet in width," Doris explained.

The brilliantly colored neon-inspired lighting which makes the model 464 a spectacular success is among the features of the

The speaker complement of the new 100-selection phonograph includes two 12" full range speakers with giant 20-ounce magnets for a deep, rich bass response. Two closed-back 6" mid and high range speakers are located at opposite ends of the upper panel for maximum stereophonic effect.

In the event of an overload in the speaker system, a protective device blocks the signal to the output transistor stages, protecting the amplifier from burn-out.

Model 463 also features Rock-Ola's famed Revolving Record magazine. Over the years, this mechanism has developed a world-wide reputation for long, trouble-free operation.

Accessories

"A complete line of accessories and kits are available for the new model 463," according to Rock-Ola sales manager Les new 463, as Doris indicated. Neon tube patterns of red, blue and white combine with the soft-tinted glow and flashing lights of the record selection area to attract player attention and induce play.

By reducing the number of selections to one hundred, Rock-Ola engineers were able to reduce the cabinet width by 22 percent; however, practically everything else within the cabinet remains the same. The solid state amplifier delivers 100 watts of musical power, has snap-in printed circuit boards and plug-in relays. Sensing circuits shut off the amplifier at the first hint of trouble.

Heat generated by the amplifier is conducted outside the cabinet by die-cast aluminum vanes nestled in the back of the phonograph. Since no air flow is required to cool the model 463, it is effectively sealed against dirt, dust, grease and grime.

Rieck.

"Thanks to readily accessible terminal blocks and plug-in installation, most accessories can be installed in minutes without soldering."

Included among the list of accessories for the new model are microphone paging kits, Tri-Vue wallboxes, motorized and manual remote volume controls, record changer intermixers and the new money counter and printer that simplifies and verifies play collection.

A complete selection of wall, ceiling and corner speakers are available along with Rock-Ola's quadphonic sound system that provides location customers with a "circle of sound."

Complete information about Rock-Ola's full line of phonographs may be obtained by contacting the company at 800 North Kedzie Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60651.

Rowe Will Debut New Product At Sept. 16-17 Annual Mtg.

WHIPPANY — Rowe International, Inc. will host its annual Distributor Meeting and new product showing during the period of September 16 and 17, at the new Marriott Lincolnshire Resort, which is located just north of the Chicago city limits. The meeting site, noted for its beautiful surroundings and country club setting, is about a 20 minute drive from O'Hare airport and just over a half hour's distance from downtown Chicago.

The program will commence with a meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday (16) and run through the day, climaxed by cocktails, dinner and a floor show that evening. Session will resume on Friday (17) at 8:30 a.m. with adjournment by noon.

The meeting will mark Rowe's introduction of its new line of phonographs and vending equipment.

Dynamo Soccer
KIT

GRAND PRAIRIE, TX. — Dynamo Corporation, manufacturers of coin-operated pool tables and soccer tables, has prepared a comprehensive Tournament Kit containing the various procedures and strategies for planning, publicizing and operating a tournament, as a guide for operators and locations in arranging futsal tournaments.

The package includes a fully illustrated manual with step by step instructions on tournament planning, related publicity and advertising procedures, as well as information on prizes and specifics on rules. Also, five tournament charts, fully outlined and illustrated to include bracketing (double elimination or single elimination), and a registration sheet applicable for 64 teams are also included.

As indicated in the manual's introductory text, locations housing two or more tables are ideally suited for the most swiftly and smoothly run tournaments where contenders have a minimum of waiting time.

Properly run, well planned and well publicized tournaments on a regularly scheduled basis can be profitable, according to Dynamo, and with this in mind the firm gathered all of the information necessary for arranging and holding a tournament and incorporated it into its tournament package.

A special text page, positioned opposite the inside cover of the manual, is devoted to futsal maintenance and service on a daily and twice weekly basis.

In addition to very significant instructional coverage, Dynamo has also prepared a wide assortment of promotional pieces, bearing the familiar Dynamo logo, to go along with the kits. Such items as buttons, patches, posters, ad mats, bumper (and window) stickers and t-shirts may be obtained as publicity aids. Depending upon the size of the tournament, Dynamo will arrange to provide copy for utilization in radio advertising, for the large or special tournament.

Further information on the entire package may be obtained by contacting Dynamo Corp., 1805 So. Great Southwest Parkway, Grand Prairie, Texas 75050.

Atari Buys TV Network Time To Advertise Home Video Models

SUNNYVALE, CA. — Atari, Inc. announced the purchase of CBS network time in National Football League/NFC telecasts during November and December. The buy includes regular season games and features the first round of the league playoffs on December 19.

Mike Shea, Atari's director of marketing, Consumer Division, said of the buy, "We estimate that we'll reach a total audience of 65 million people during these broadcasts. This exposure during the last critical weeks before Christmas will really give our retailers the extra support they need." He added that, "To our knowledge, Atari is the first firm in the video game field to buy network NFL telecasts."

Thirty-second commercials for the Sunnyvale firm's Pong and Super Pong games for home TV will be aired during the contests between Minnesota/Green Bay, Los Angeles/San Francisco, Washington/New York, Chicago/Detroit and Dallas/Atlanta, among others. The spots will be only part of a heavy television, radio and print effort for Atari's Pong, as Shea indicated. During the months before Christmas, advertising for Atari will appear in every major U.S. market.

"Atari has the distinction of being the only maker of electronic video games to test every one of its units both on computers and in actual play situations," Shea noted. "Our people actually hook up every one of those units to a TV set and test it under tougher conditions than you'll find in an actual home."

Atari Produces 500,000th Unit

It was also announced that on August 11, Atari marked the production of its half millionth unit at the firm's 125,000 sq. ft. production facility in Sunnyvale.

Malcolm Kuhn, director of sales for Atari's Consumer Division, reports that the firm has stepped up production of games in anticipation of a big Christmas buying season. "We anticipate a strong Christmas buying season for video games and we expect Atari to emerge as the industry sales leader."

Kuhn expects inventory to lead orders until the beginning of October, but "after that we can't be sure," he cautioned. "It would be wise for retailers to order their Super Pong units now."

Kuhn attributes Atari's success in the consumer market to the quality of its product and the firm's rigorous testing program. "We test every single unit under actual playing conditions," he said, "and Atari is the only firm using integrated circuits designed especially for its games. Most firms use standard supplied components. This means that no matter whose name goes on the cabinet, the inside of the game is exactly the same. Atari, on the other hand, uses special chips designed by our own group of design engineers. That really makes a big difference in the quality and excitement of Pong."

Atari, Inc.'s consumer products division is located at 1195 Borregas Drive, Sunnyvale, California.

Airport Game Room Successfully Operated By New Orleans Novelty

NEW ORLEANS, LA. — One of the most notable and highly publicized airport game rooms in the country is located at New Orleans International Airport and operated by New Orleans Novelty Co.

The room measures a mere 29' x 15' but the skillful arrangement of the equipment allows it to house nine flippers and an assortment of seven arcade pieces and video games. Although some of the models are prototypes, the majority of the games, with one or two exceptions, are usually brand new releases. New game installations are made on an average of about one every ten days, according to J.C. Lawrence, manager and chief mechanic of the room.

Despite the handicap of having only one arm, J.C. Lawrence is reputedly one of the most capable coin machine mechanics in the industry. He is largely responsible for keeping the game room's equipment clean, neat and playable twenty-four hours a day, a condition which has earned the room an international reputation.

Lawrence noted that Ned Berkemer, executive assistant to New Orleans Novelty Co's head engineer Joe Isaacson, makes a daily inspection of the room to take care of the acute mechanical defects, while one of the novelty company's top cleaners also makes a daily visit to clean the games and fill the coin changer. "You can bet that the game room is also frequently inspected by all the bosses at New Orleans Co.," Lawrence said, "and if you don't think they are particular about this operation you don't know the half of it!"

It has been estimated that this particular game room has created more sales of games for distributors and manufacturers throughout the country than any similar operation, Lawrence indicated. The airport is a focal point for both U.S. and international travel, as he explained, and thus has unlimited exposure potential, em-

NAMA Bicentennial Conv. In Philly To Feature 'Revolutionary' Program

CHICAGO — Some "revolutionary" ideas in programming and timing will be applied to the 1976 Bicentennial Convention and Exhibit of the National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA) which opens on October 7 at the Civic Center in Philadelphia, said Howard Michaels and Jerry Engle, general and program chairmen of the four-day event.

Combining the Bicentennial theme and location with the 40th anniversary of NAMA, the convention will feature outstanding national personalities such as Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, popular previous NAMA convention keynoter, economist Leo Cherne and leaders of the U.S. Congress and of the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

Completely changed will be the programming and timing of the Sunday program on October 10, Michaels said. On "Super Sunday," exhibit hours are being changed to open at 10 a.m. and conclude at 2 p.m. Three concurrent program sessions are set for Sunday morning from 9 to 10 a.m.

The changed Sunday schedule will allow convention visitors to take part in Philadelphia's traditional "Super Sunday" events which happen to fall on Columbus Day. This includes the city's biggest annual parade and the country's largest "block party" along Franklin Parkway.

A Columbus Day Ladies' brunch at the Hilton Hotel near the Civic Center is another of the "Super Sunday" highlights.

The annual banquet on Saturday night also will carry out the Bicentennial theme with a "Revolutionary Era" menu and Yankee Doodle pre-banquet entertainment furnished by the host city's Boys' Choir and Mummer.

Exhibit hours are scheduled from noon to 6 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, from noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen will be the keynote speaker at the opening meeting on Thursday, which also includes the NAMA annual meeting and an address by NAMA Chairman of the Board Charles E. Bertsch.

Friday's meeting schedule highlights cigarette vending with a feature address by H.R. Kornegay, president of the Tobacco Institute, Washington, D.C.; the results of a two-year long study by Philip Morris on cigarette merchandising; concurrent sessions on office coffee-cooperative service vending equipment with Robert E. Sertell, instructor at Delsea Regional High School, Franklinville, N.J.; and a financial planning workshop titled, "Accounting For Inflation In Your ROI And P&L."

The general session on Friday will open with an audiovisual historical presentation, followed by a panel discussion by leaders of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and others on the subject of coinage, moderated by NAMA President G. Richard Schreiber. Participants will be Congressman Henry Reuss, (Wis.), chairman of the House Banking, Currency and Housing Committee; Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint; Stephen Gardner, vice chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; and David Stuart of the Research Triangle Institute, Durham, N.C. Topic of the discussion will be trends in coinage and the development of a dollar coin. Congressman Reuss will conclude the morning session with an "open forum" on the Washington scene.

Concurrent sessions, opening the Saturday morning program, will feature a repeat of Friday's cigarette vending session, a presentation on the coffee business by a panel of coffee suppliers, and a second workshop on financial planning dealing with financing and borrowing programs. Chemical Bank, New York City, and Price Waterhouse & Co. experts will conduct the session.

The general meeting on Saturday will deal with trends and consumer attitudes on vending and manual food service, featuring consumer attitude research about vending services conducted by specialists of Purdue University in two geographic areas.

Leo Cherne, executive director of the Research Institute of America, New York City, will be keynote speaker, dealing with forecasts on the economy. He has been a warmly received keynoter at previous NAMA conventions.

The Sunday business program will feature a presentation on the benefits of research in achieving higher profits and return on investment by the Philip Morris Company and concurrent sessions on equipment maintenance and financial planning.

Comedian George Kirby is the headliner for the NAMA Banquet and an extensive program is also planned for the ladies. This includes a presentation on the famous Edward Marshall Boehm, Inc. porcelains sponsored by the Vendo Company, a bus tour of historic Philadelphia sponsored by National Vendors, a luncheon and fashion show at the new Riverfront Restaurant with the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company as sponsor and a Rock-Ola Manufacturing Company-sponsored brunch at the Top of the Philadelphia Hilton on "Super Sunday."

Schreiber said NAMA expects a record number of exhibitors and predicted that exhibit space will be sold out before the convention opens.

The NAMA Convention-Exhibit was last held in Philadelphia in 1968. Requests for information should be sent to NAMA at 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60603.

New Juke Box Royalty Fee fr 47

musical works. (See Cash Box, Aug. 7, 1976).

Kastenmeier, chairman of the Judiciary Subcommittee that held some 17 days of hearings and 22 days of markup on S.22, urged full committee members to accept the long and arduous work of the subcommittee. "We have pored over this for eleven years," said the subcommittee chairman, referring to the length of time the bill has bounced back and forth between the House and Senate. "It's time the Congress acted."

Jukebox Owner Resistance

Earlier Rep. Robert Kastenmeier (D.-Wis) noted that it was "impossible to draft a copyright bill that resolves all the conflicts." Nevertheless, he felt jukebox owner resistance to the new royalty had been somewhat mitigated through "equitable handling."

Cable companies' opposition to new royalties continues to be a problem, however. Rep. Eilberg (D.-Penn.) thought "small cable systems are very unhappy" with the bill.

Congressman Drinan (D.-Mass.), a member of the copyright subcommittee, defended the bill's cable provisions. "Smaller cable companies would oppose any form of copyright liability," he observed. "The coverage they have is minimal."

The Senate rejected a 1967 House-passed copyright bill because of the cable controversy. In 1974, and again last February, the Senate did adopt a copyright bill. The current Senate bill exempts the smallest cable companies from compulsory license. It's likely the cable issue may be dragged onto the floor of the House.

See the new Rock-Ola 463, 100-selection phonograph currently on display in Rock-Ola distributor showrooms across the country. Firm's sales manager Les Rieck noted that volume shipments were scheduled to commence immediately following the completion of sample deliveries to distributors. He also was quick to mention that the model is every bit as spectacular in design as its big brother the 464, only reduced in dimensions to fit perfectly into the space-conscious location. The 463, he further noted, will serve to enhance the outstanding Rock-Ola lineup of phonographs which contains a model to fit every type of location!

BALLY MFG. CORP.'S field representative Bernie Powers conducted a highly successful service school hosted by Northwest Sales Co. in Seattle on Aug. 30. He has a session coming up on Sept. 2 in Northwest's Anchorage, Alaska headquarters.

A RECENT VISITOR in the midwest was Exidy's Paul Jacobs who was in Chicago to attend the Empire-Robert Jones Int'l.-Advance Automatic Sales meeting in the Marriott, following which he made a quick visit to his hometown of Milwaukee. Paul told us he's mapping out a traveling itinerary which will keep him on the road for a couple of weeks or so, calling on Exidy distributors. He also said that "Death Race" is in its fourth production run, with no letup in sight, and Exidy is just about wrapping up sample shipments of the newly released "Old Time Basketball" electro mechanical game. Come MOA time, the Exidy equipment display will be housed in double the amount of space utilized last year!

SINCE RESUMING POST-VACATION production, Williams Electronics Inc. has been maintaining considerably stepped up schedules at the plant to meet the tremendous demand for the "Emerald" shuffle. Bill DeSelm said shuffle sales have been positively fantastic! Firm is also concentrating at present on flipper game exports.

WATCH FOR THE NEW "Tornado Baseball" cocktail table from Midway Mfg. Co. Larry Berke describes it as a "sensational" piece which will certainly enrich the cocktail table market! As for uprights, there's "Sea Wolf," which they just can't produce fast enough; "Gun Fight" and "Tornado Baseball"! When you're hot, you're hot!

THE GOOD WORD FROM World Wide Dist. is that business is excellent and this applies to summer business, a seasonal period when some in the industry report a slight softness. Not so at World Wide, however. Fred Skor was as occupied on the telephones as he normally is, taking orders, of course. Chatted a little with Howie Freer and heard all sorts of praise for the Gremlin wallgames, with emphasis on the "Trapshoot" and "Play Ball" models. Earnings reports have been outstanding, Howie said, and operators are forever raving about their trouble-free maintenance — "and we have yet to receive our first trade-in in more than three years," quote!

DATELINE DEADWOOD, S. DAKOTA — where John Trucano of Black Hills Novelty Co. reports that he's been experiencing the greatest season in the operation's 42-year history! Collections have been phenomenal, as is common during the normal heavy tourist season out there, but this year the nation's bicentennial contributed to a vastly increased tourist traffic. John said locations in the Interstate 90 vicinity were especially affected (and beautifully so) by the upsurge. Incidentally, to qualify the comment about Black Hills Novelty's 42-year history — John, himself, has not been in the business that long. His father founded the operation and, although John started out in the business as a youngster, he didn't go in full time until 1957.

STATE ASSOCIATION NEWS: Received word from Leoma Ballard, secretary-treasurer of the West Virginia Music & Vending Assn., about some highlights of the state group's upcoming annual convention Oct. 14-16 at the Sheraton Inn (Clarksburg, W. Va.). She said an excellent entertainment program has been arranged for the Saturday night banquet, featuring such performers as Tommy Wills (Country Int'l. Rec.), Leonora Ross (RCA) — and a few "surprises." In addition, a lineup of interesting and timely topics, including "how to know and approach your representative," will be on the Friday seminar agenda.

ON THE SINGLES SCENE: This week's report comes from One Stop Record Shop in New Orleans, La., courtesy of Lloyd Legendre, who categorically lists the following as very active with area ops: (R&B) "Give It Up" by Tyrone Davis (Columbia), "Play That Funky Music" by Wild Cherry (Epic), which is also getting pop programming, "Get The Funk Out Of My Face" by Brothers Johnson (A&M); (pop) "A Fifth Of Beethoven" by Walter Murphy (Private Stock), "I'd Really Love To See You Tonight" by England Dan & John Ford Coley (Big Tree); (country) "If You've Got The Money" by Willie Nelson (Columbia), "Can't You See" by Waylon Jennings (RCA) and "Let's Put It Back Together Again" by Jerry Lee Lewis (Mercury).

EASTERN FLASHES

Ron Gold of Cleveland Coin is planning an elaborate social event in September as a combination new product showing of the Seeburg phonograph and open house to celebrate the firm's first anniversary in the spacious new Cleveland headquarters. Understand the new building is noted not only for its abundant space but outstanding decor as well. Also scheduled for September is an Atari service seminar at both the Cleveland and Columbus sites. Ron mentioned a couple of new personnel appointments; namely, Bob Grifflth as vice president of sales, to be based at the Cleveland corporate headquarters, and Ed Beckman as corporate controller . . . Betson's Jerry Gordon is very enthusiastic about a couple of newly arrived sample machines; specifically, Midway's "Tornado Baseball" and Fun Games' "Race." In addition, Jerry mentioned the new Gottlieb 2-player pingame, appropriately called "New York." On Sept. 17, Midway Mfg. Co.'s Andy Ducay will be at the Betson premises to conduct a service school — with the assistance of the distrib's service staff personnel . . . ON THE SINGLES SCENE: Among the hottest jukebox singles in the area, according to Ralph LaRosa of Syracuse One Stop, are: (pop) "That'll Be The Day" by Linda Ronstadt (Asylum), "Wham Bam Shang-A-Lang" by Silver (Arista), "Sunrise" by Eric Carmen (Arista); (country) "Come On In" by Sonny James (Columbia), "Road Song" by Charlie Rich (Epic), "Teddy Bear's Last Ride" by Diana Williams (Capitol); (R&B) "Message In Our Music" by the O'Jays (Phila. Int'l.), "Harvest For The World" by the Isley Bros. (T-Neck) and "Star Child" by Parliament (Casablanca).

A company-wide foosball tournament was held at Atari headquarters on Friday, Aug. 13. Winners were Atarians Don Lang and Chris Ault. They will be Atari's official representatives in the $125,000 Tournament Soccer World Championships to be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Sept. 3-6 . . . Fun Games of Oakland, CA., has decided to go exotic, instead of the more standard thanks to their high sales distributors, the company is sponsoring a sales contest which has the goal of sending as many as qualify on a week-long Mexican cruise. Ken Anderson of Fun Games, Inc. noted that qualifications for the trip are minimal in terms of sales, and he expects the turnouts to be considerable. "I know we're going to be ready for a vacation by the time October rolls around, and we're expecting to have a lot of company on that ship" . . . Congratulations to David F. Jacobs, recently added to the Rowe Int'l. sales force. Jacobs came to Rowe from ARA Services where he was their regional sales manager. We also understand that Rowe is nearly sold out of the Playmatic "Fiesta" pin game . . . Nice speaking with Fred McCord, Atari field service engineer, who was quite pleased with the enthusiasm generated at the recent service seminar held at Atari's headquarters. About 30 people in all turned out from points as far as Miami, Boston, Texas and Seattle. Instructions keyed on microprocessing with the highlight being a dissection and explanation of each part in their own "Flyball" . . . Lila Zinter on her way to North Carolina for the state show. Spoke with Ted Olson from Time Zone Game Center, who is located in the Bay Area. He stated that Sea Wolf, Breakout and the Cobra Gun Ship are doing extremely well. We always love good news, Ted.

Airport Game Room fr 48

bellished by the fact that the room is located in a prominent spot, completely enclosed in glass and fully visible to everyone in the airport lobby.

"If any operator, distributor or potential customer asks questions about any of the games," Lawrence said, "they are courteously referred to the sales staff at New Orleans Novelty Co. Out of town operators or potential customers in other territories of the country are referred to distributors in their specific territories."

The airport game room has been operating successfully for many years according to Lawrence, and has served as a model for similar rooms located in various other airports across the country.

ing the area's record sales, he stressed that the station puts together as fair a sales figure as possible considering the rack-airplay problem.

Marketing Analyst

The station retains Gary Bond who according to Martin, is a marketing analyst from Madison and an expert on ARB information and call-out research. "Bond supplies the station with objective information on the popularity of current, re-current, and oldies weekly," Martin added.

Remarking that he had scanned stations in seven states on a trip recently, the station PD noted, "... there seems to be a lack of programming creativity right now. There's a big lack of community service and community happenings on local radio stations, and this is one thing that can help distinguish markets and stations within those markets apart from each other. Those station people should be talking to record promotion people, to each other, and to community leaders who can help them become more aware of what's happening in their communities so they can provide a more localized sound on their stations."

Friend On The Air

Martin cited public service announcements as a way to localize radio in the community. "We let local officials voice our public service announcements, so that in effect the WSPT listeners are hearing a friend on the air. The believability factor is heightened with the local approach," concluded Martin.

Emphasizing that radio stations are only as good as the goals of the owners and managers, Martin said, "If the management is not solid, if the station employees are not paid well, and if program directors, like myself, are not given the latitude to make decisions, the station will not sound good, much less succeed.

"And you can't win without a strong news department," he continued. "Our news people are self-motivators who cover the area in-depth. That coverage only enhances what we're doing on the air."

music. The rock hits of yesterday have become the standards of today. Al Jolson and Glen Miller stand next to Elvis, Elton and the Rolling Stones."

The volume also contains a forward from famous oldies connoisseur Art Laboe. Other than that, and some record company advertisements (virtually every outfit is represented), the rest of the book is pure listings.

Computer Listings

Sid Talmadge wanted to do this book for a long time, and when he met up with people from Infomax Data Systems (who happened to have these listings stored in their computer banks), he decided that the time was right. "It took seven months to get everything together," Talmadge told Cash Box. "We had to organize all the lists, and make sure that we didn't include anything that had been cut out of any catalog."

Talmadge explained his affinity for these records, and why he made the making of this book a priority project. "I've been in this business thirty years," he reflected. "My career is based on all these records. Even the ones that we call oldies today, they were hits when I was selling them."

Record Rack plans a large promotional push for the handbook. "We're going to sell this all over," explained Jerry Talmadge, who handles the advertising for the company. "We'll sell to radio stations, book stores, and music stores."

Talmadge reported favorable early reaction from record companies who have seen the book.

ferred to trade various types of older American coins for records. As examples, half cents were worth $3.50 in trade, indian cents $.25, old silver dollars (up to 1935) for $3.50, and fourteen other coins with varying values.

The program will be withdrawn soon due to lack of response: that problem did not affect the penny promotion, which to date has drawn in between $150,000 and $200,000 in pennies, according to Sam Goody.

don of Motown. "It's as good as any Schwann catalog, and it's compact enough to be used and kept. I was really impressed with the handbook."

However, Bob Belanoy, manager of the Tower Records outlet in Anaheim, had some doubts as to the availability of the listed singles, and estimated that "only sixty percent of the records are ones that you can still get from the manufacturer."

Indeed, a phone call to Capitol Records revealed that many of their listings in the handbook were numbers that had been cut from the catalog.

Not From Manufacturer

"Sure, there are inaccuracies," said Gary Stong, singles buyer for Record Rack. "Some of the records have been cut out, but that does not mean that they aren't still available. There are other sources besides the manufacturer," Strong explained.

Jerry Talmadge emphasized that fact. "We (Record Rack) have every one of these singles. Some we only have a couple units of, some we have more. You can get these singles."

So, according to Record Rack, the singles, with the exception of a few understandable inaccuracies (the book has over 14,000 listings), are correct and available.

Frampton's #1 Bestseller Sees Increase In Catalog Sales fr 7 and Lieberman Enterprises, a major rackjobbing operation servicing the central and midwestern U.S., with additional branches covering the northwest corner of the country and as far south as Dallas and Houston.

"Frampton" jumped from #104 last week to #70 on Heilicher's list of top selling LPs, which is based exclusively on sales monitored within the various corporate branches. Sales increased from 400 to 495. Similarly, the album has registered impressive upward movement on the computer read-out that Lieberman monitors bi-weekly. From a position of #128 on July 28, the album leapt to #58 (at the branch operation which covers Nebraska, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, and parts of Wisconsin and Iowa) on August 11, where it currently stands. Sales more than doubled from approximately 40 units a month ago to nearly 100 during each of the last two reporting periods.

Frampton's First Solo Album

"Wind Of Change," Frampton's initial solo recording, which was released on June 14, 1972, has shown similar increased strength at the retail level. It is presently #341 on the Heilicher list, up from #413 a week ago, with sales of 131 as compared to 115. At Lieberman, the album took a spectacular 200 point jump to #397; four weeks ago it was #866. Sales have been steadily encouraging, from five units a month ago to 20 and now 31 for the current period. Jim Grady, buyer for the Heilicher division examined this progression. "Initially, we bought lightly, but sales have been increasing steadily. We've bought 20,000 to date, but 5,000 since July."

"Frampton's Camel," released in May, 1973 and "Somethin's Happening," released in February, 1974, scored impressive gains at Heilicher. The former is currently #374 from #533, with sales escalating from 93 to 121; the latter is two places behind at #376 from #508, with sales increasing from 97 to 120. According to Grady, "Frampton's Camel" is "surging right now." However, its impact, as well as that of "Somethin's Happening," has not been felt at Lieberman, and there's a very good reason.

Lieberman's Buyer Explains

"They're out in the stores pretty lightly," explained Sylvester Vanyo, national buyer for Lieberman Enterprises. "We sold about 700 copies of 'Frampton Comes Alive' during the last period, which is up from approximately 600 the period before. And we're getting pretty good tickets on 'Frampton' (after each sale at a store that Lieberman racks, a ticket is returned to the company to accurately tabulate sales). But not the others."

This should change soon. Based on information he had recently received, Vanyo indicated that he would reallocate copies of the three remaining albums to his stores within the next week. "When an artist has a catalog, and has a smash, the catalog jumps," he declared.

Just how much of a smash is "Frampton Comes Alive?" Last week, Heilicher sold 5,317 copies of the package, and that increased to 6,387 for the current week. "Their Greatest Hits" by the Eagles is the merchandising conglomerate's #2 best selling album. It sold over 4,000 copies last week and this week sold 3,750.

WSPT In Ideal Market — Martin fr 51

Although Martin doesn't have to compete with other stations because of WSPT's geographic isolation, he feels he should continue to research, to promote, and to fulfill community needs to make his station a success. European RCA Subsidiaries, Licensees To Rome Sept. 6

NEW YORK — RCA Records will convene a four-day marketing meeting for its European subsidiaries and licensees in Rome Sept. 6.

Representatives from subsidiary companies in France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the United Kingdom, as well as management representatives from licensee companies in Austria, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, Czechoslovakia, Israel, Scandinavia, Portugal and Switzerland will be present, as will a large delegation from New York headed by Robert D. Summer, division vice president, RCA Records International.

The meeting will develop European coordination and planning of future manufacturing, marketing and promotion projects.

Cornish Named Island Director

LONDON — Peter Cornish has been named a director of Island Music Ltd. by Martin Humphrey, managing director of the company.

Cornish assumes his new status nearly two years after joining Island Music as general manager. Prior to that he was copyright and royalty control manager at Pye Records following four years as general manager of Ember Records.

Succeeding Cornish as general manager of Island Music is Billy Lawrie, brother of singing star Lulu. Lawrie will continue functioning as the company's professional manager in his new post.

On-The-Hour Beatle Tunes Spark Radio 1 Programming

PARIS — Europe 1, the French radio station most oriented towards young audiences is launching an operation on the air which consists of plugging, all day long, a Beatles single every hour, throughout the summer. Claude Brunet, program manager of the station wants to bring a new flavor into programs, breaking up the French rules which claim that a certain music is required at a certain time of the day. Brunet's team is now playing any music ranging from easy listening to progressive or standard French songs along with classical music to keep a constant interest to content the listeners. First reaction to this decision is quite enthusiastic.

After their summer tour Yes will come to the south of France (Mougins) for four months to record their forthcoming album for WEA. The group will not use the Rolling Stones' mobile recording studio as planned earlier this month, but their own instead. WEA France has also just rush-released the Jon Anderson LP "Olias Of Sunhillow" by public demand. This album was previously scheduled for the beginning of September; to kick it off, the "Yessongs" film is playing in summer resort cinemas.

Simon Waintrob, chairman of W.I.P. Records, has signed Ricky Shayne who had, some years ago, a number one single in Europe with "Mamy Blue." Ricky is still on top in Europe where he sold over five million copies of his latest single "Quand On Se Retrouve Seul," written by Francis Lai and arranged by Michel Colombier. A heavy promotion campaign is planned for this single in France including important TV appearances. The single is already appearing on radio charts.

There will be presentations of forthcoming U.S., European and Latin American popular product, new Red Seal recordings from the U.S. and Europe, and a presentation of new TK product, which is released throughout Europe by RCA.

The meeting is being planned and organized by Ralph Mace of RCA Records' European marketing office in London.

U.K. Tape Sales: Healthy But Largely Unappreciated

David MacDougald, DJM Product Manager, Airs Views On Role Of Pre-Recorded Tape

by Nigel Hunter

LONDON — With sales of pre-recorded tape now accounting for an estimated 30% of the UK music market turnover, this form of entertainment is assuming major importance in the reckoning and future planning of the record companies. Or at least it should be doing so, but in the view of one expert and experienced tape man, this growth sector of the business is being largely ignored and neglected by too many labels.

David MacDougald, tape product manager at DJM Records since March of this year, came into the music industry 10 years ago on the retail side in Yeovil, Somerset, joined EMI in 1970, and moved on to Precision Tapes, the Pye Records subsidiary, a year later. He rose to the post of A&R manager before quitting just prior to the drastic cut-back and reduction in Precision's scope earlier this year.

Lethargy

"There is an amazing amount of lethargy in the industry in general towards tapes," declared MacDougald. "Very much a couldn't-care-less attitude. Record companies are always interested in breaking new artists, which is right, but they always put the emphasis on the LP, whereas there should be equal attention to the tape side now. The only way the cassette can be made as good a seller as the LP is by extra emphasis on it now."

MacDougald advocates simultaneous releases on LP and tape so that the consumer can choose which format he wishes to buy without waiting for the tape or opting for the LP in case a tape issue is not forthcoming.

"I'd like to see the reissue of deleted LPs in tape form," MacDougald added. "LP buyers have already had their chance to obtain these so why not give the same opportunity to tape buyers? With around eight million tape hardware owners in the UK, there is a sufficiently large potential market to justify such a step."

Packaging And Quality

He stressed the importance of packaging and the quality of the tape sound. In his opinion some manufacturers could take more trouble and achieve better quality on both counts.

"The basic fundamental should be making a cassette look like a cassette and not a reduced-size LP. If liner notes are printed on the LP sleeve, together with personnel and recording details, these should be reproduced on the tape inlay cards. Obviously this will cost a little more, but that would be covered by enhanced sales. Cassettes should be made a separate entity on release lists for the trade, and not put down by the 'also available on tape' phrase."

MacDougald hopes that the broadcasting media, particularly radio, will aid the cause of tape by using cassettes more instead of concentrating almost exclusively on the LP. In most cases he reckons the quality of cassettes to be good enough for broadcasting use, and would like to hear technical assessments of tapes on the air as well as reviews of the music.

Industrial Help

He thinks that software industry committees such as the British Recorded Tape Development Committee can be very helpful, providing all the member companies are fully committed and enthusiastic about the purpose. He regrets that the BRTDC's efforts to initiate joint promotion schemes and campaigns with hardware manufacturers have mostly fallen on stony ground.

MacDougald has been busy at DJM since March supervising the repackaging and reissue of much of that company's tape repertoire as well as planning new product releases for a fall sales campaign. Significantly, of the reissued product only the Elton John repertoire is available in both cassette and cartridge form.

Cassettes Dominant

"Unlike the States, the cassette has become the dominant configuration in the UK market," MacDougald said. "It will never take over completely here, but there is a basis for an ultimate 50-50 parity with the LP. The cartridge has been deserted for one reason — the consumer has been offered a choice between the configurations for the last six years and has opted for the cassette, particularly during the last two years. At one time there was parity in production and sales, but now ten cassettes are sold for every cartridge; it's at the stage where it's no longer viable to manufacture cartridges."

GRT-Canada Computerized fr 35

This convention marked the opening of a new, computerized GRT-Canada accounting office, a thorough-minded and long-range move. Until now, the process of filing was handled on a manual basis, consuming time and labor to an impractical degree. With the computer, orders placed from Toronto to Sunnyvale can be confirmed within 15 minutes and may shortly realize a one-day turnaround from receipt to packing and shipping.

Computerization will serve other useful functions. Once the program is in full swing, each GRT sales office and licensor will be more frequently provided with more detailed periodic updates of sales by label, artist and destination. Weighed against U.S. sales performances, this will help the GRT distribution network determine where to focus more attention.

There are definitely areas within the Canadian market which demand a high concentration of one sort or another.

Bi-Lingual Market

Canada is a bi-lingual country. While the majority of the geography entertains English-speaking peoples, the province of Quebec is a French market in every sense of the word. Deeply immersed in a culture of its own, this territory is so radically different that it is a confusion to most outsiders — which includes even fellow Canadians living only a few hundred miles away in Toronto. Although GRT maintains a sales office in Quebec, it is understood that some kind of veil naturally exists between the two markets. Two guests, then, Tom McLean and Peggy Colston, program directors for CKGM and CHOM-FM respectively, provided one of the sessions highlights.

After delivering some prefatory comments, McLean and Colston fielded questions having to do with Montreal — the city from which their stations broadcast — a city which buys more music than any other Canadian city.

Next week CB will dwell on French Canada in more detail as it defines itself, specifically through a government ruling affecting CHOM-FM and other radio stations within that specific market. For now, suffice to say GRT is looking to develop the market more fully and is even considering some production of Canadian regional material per se. At the same time, GRT wishes to avoid one-shots or French cover versions of American hits, in favor of building long-lasting relationships with artists who can sell LPs. At present, GRT-Canada has no A&R effort functioning in French Canada.

Overall, according to national A&R manager Jeff Burns, GRT-Canada is not consciously looking for "new talent" in order to expand the roster. More in agreement with Ross Reynolds, Burns (who doubles as national promotion manager) would rather first make sure the current load is portable before stacking more straw on the camel's back.

Incentive Program

To this end, an incentive program has been put into effect. An all-expense-paid, two-week Hawaiian vacation for two will dangle before the GRT-Canada promotion staff from now until January 31. Whoever generates the most creative/successful campaign will slip off into the tropics to try on his or her prize with a friend.

Incentive toward the incentive also occupied a substantial portion of the time spent at this meeting. ABC, ABC/Dot, Shelter, Sire, 20th Century, Janus and Creem Records were all on hand, most with samples of pending releases which were presented to the GRT staff which, in turn, modeled new GRT and Axe Records product.

Product Presentations

Leading off the U.S. presentations, Peter Pasternak, international director for 20th Century Records, introduced upcoming material from Ambrosia — a highly energetic album with a special jacket which unfolds into the shape of a pyramid; Love Unlimited Orchestra, Cotton Lloyd & Christian; Nitzinger and the Keane Brothers. Throughout the conference Pasternak bantered with GRT sales reps over the destiny of "Tales Of Mystery And Imagination." In answer to his queries, the Alan Parsons-produced album is enjoying its strongest

GRT-Canada Sales Convention 1r53

Canadian sales in the enigmatic province of Quebec, where it is heading toward gold status.)

Janus Records' general manager, Ed DeJoy, invited his artist Al Stewart to join the meeting and the two nailed the GRT sales force to the floor with several very commercial cuts from Stewart's new album, "Year Of The Cat." Equally impressive was the list of print ads with which Janus intends to support the LP — ads aimed at both trade and consumer publications. Product by C.B. Victoria (whose single is getting action in Ontario and Calgary), John Small, and new group Molkie Cole rounded out the new Janus schedule.

ABC Family

Jim Fogelson jettied away from his presidential duties over the ABC country trust in Nashville long enough to introduce ABC/Dot to a new team.

Fogelson remarked that twelve years ago, when he first stepped on to the scene, there were but 112 full-time country stations in the U.S. — now there are 1200. Although he didn't claim to know the Canadian market, Fogelson did recognize a "vocal country faction out of Canada in terms of letters," and shared the domestic direction of the moment by commenting that ABC/Dot is now engaged in an campaign to educate the stores that are now capitalizing on the 1200 country stations. No doubt GRT will study the ABC/Dot promotional dances in order to follow suit.

Sire, in the person of Elsie Heatherman from New York, showcased music by the Ramones, Renaissance, Climax, the Flaming Groovies, Kraan and Fire Ballet (the latter two being Passport acts).

Bernadette Gorman proffered new Shelter merchandise by the Dwight Twilley Band (very hot), J.J. Cale, Lyons & Clark and Larry Hosford as well as a "Best Of Leon" (Russell) album.

Phil Alexander, assistant to ABC International president Steve Diener, took the stage next with the new Impulse wave, embracing creative artistry from John Handy, Wade Marcus, Bobby Bland, Sonny Criss, Sam Rivers and Brass Fever. Then, turning his attention to some of the R&B acts that make up ABC, Alexander pitched seven strikes through the likes of Rufus, Ruby Andrews, The Four Tops, Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis Jr., Bobby Bland and Carl Carlton.

Finally, ABC International director of artist development Elaine Corlett delivered the lion's share of the current label release. If GRT-Canada ever wanted for a diverse line before they hooked up with ABC, they certainly have one now, from the melodic jazz-oriented passages of John Klemmer, the Mark-Almond Band, John Mayall and the Crusaders, through the country-flavored pop of Delbert McClinton, the Amazing Rhythm Aces and Jimmy Buffett, blue-eyed soul from the Faragher Brothers and the straight-ahead rock of Terry Reid, Joe Walsh, Crosby/Nash and Steely Dan.

In addition to the tape/record presentations, Corlett and Alexander ran film clips of Isaac Hayes and Poco.

Canadian Talent

In return, the Canadian hosts demonstrated some home-grown MOR material from Axe Records as well as some contemporary rock music from Thundermug.

A taste of irony seasoned the GRT portion of the presentation, as it was revealed that there is often quite a bit of difficulty in persuading local stations that Canadian talent can be as strong as it is. Consider the recent Klaatu release which was purposely held up by GRT so that the U.S. licensee (Capitol) could service Canadian radio first. Maple stations added the LP — on the assumption that it was an American act. Besides Klaatu, GRT played for the convention a bit of the jazz virtuoso Moe Koffman; David-Clayton Thomas' reggae-funk, Ishan People; The Soul Brothers Six; Ian Thomas (newly-signed to Chrysalis); Tom Cochrane; Ralph Murphey and Stanley Screamer.

A special moment arrived with a live performance by Juno award-winner Dan Hill, a performer bound for great things, as evidenced by the spell he cast over his label affiliates. Hill's album, "Hold On," probably has one of the strongest shots out of all Canada to break the U.S.

GRT Directions

Over the past year-and-a-half GRT-Canada has been attempting to establish itself as a serious publisher in terms of plugging and seeking covers; an endeavor which will be more fully developed over the next year as well. GRT-Canada recently added the Charisma catalog with two more acquisitions to be announced shortly. (Outside the North American continent, GRT is represented by UA in Australasia, by RCA in German and Mogull in the Benelux countries.)

Other points expressed by the Canadians during the get-together were the recent introduction of a twelve-inch disco pressing at a list price of $2.98, and the pending development of a mid-price line, targeted at next January or February.

Look for GRT-Canada to take the lead of its parent company and begin experimentation with TV promotional packages. In the words of president Ross Reynolds, "We're not out to conquer the world, but we feel our strong Canadian catalog can be exploited this way."

In summation, much lip-service has been paid to the concept behind the speech, "The Day Radio Died," delivered by Stan Cornyn a few NARMS ago. GRT-Canada, through the example and momentum of the Sunnyvale, California offices, seems to be in a well-balanced-enough position and frame of mind to actually make a strong assault on that "after-youth" market. If GRT honestly decides to diversify (and we have it that they will), it could well protect itself from the notion of "merely looking at product from the standpoint of a distributor." It could well become a Canadian giant.

MCPS Updates Licensing To Include Synchronization

LONDON — The Mechanical Copyright Protection Society has introduced its new licensing scheme to collect fees connected with synchronization rights.

The method was officially inaugurated August 9, and is administered by the society's licensing department. It centers mainly on the producers of film, television and all forms of audio-visual productions, and though principally concerned with the synchronization right, also affects mechanical rights involved with the recording of music in radio productions and non-synchronization slide-tape or filmstrip presentation. It has no bearing on BBC-TV or radio usage of music covered by "blanket" license.

Any producer wishing to incorporate music controlled by MCPS members will receive from the society a formal offer of license document, assuming that the musical works involved have been cleared by the copyright controllers concerned. In this respect, MCPS also represents the major recording companies in instances where re-recordings of their records are made for inclusion in films, audio-visual and radio soundtracks and the like.

The actual mechanical copyright license can only be secured by acceptance of the offer, and acceptance entails full payment of the fees required.

MCPS regards the new system as a major step forward on two counts. First of all, it avoids the unsatisfactory situation of furnishing licenses before payment to producers, some of whom never paid but still possessed a license. Secondly, it clarifies the legal position, provides the society with more power to protect members' interests, and should facilitate a faster payment of fees than hitherto. Additionally, the new system stipulates that users of music must obtain a license before incorporating copyright music into their productions.

CBS-U.K. Hosts London Confab

LONDON — Maurice L. Oberstein, managing director of CBS Records/U.K., is hosting a three-day convention here this week beginning Wednesday, Sept. 1. Some delegates, including the company's domestic sales and marketing personnel, as well as CBS and CRI representatives from the U.S., Canada and across Europe, are expected to attend along with another 200 invited guests.

In addition to the day-long seminars and meetings, evenings will be given over to entertainments, the first of which is a disco party, spotlighting such artists as Tina Charles and Biddu. A rock show at the Roundhouse on Thursday evening will feature two newly-signed acts, Moon and the Kursaal Flyers, as well as David Essex and his new five-piece band. Performing artists at Friday's gala dinner will be John Williams, Mike Smith & d'Abo, and the New Seekers.

CBS Disques Tangiers Meet

PARIS — The management and field staff of CBS Disques departed from Paris last week (August 25) for a four-day convention in Tangiers, Morocco, hosted by company president Jacques Souplet. Working sessions included audio-visual presentations of new product and reviews of recent hit product, as well as a daily schedule of sales seminars and market meetings.

Celebrity guests invited to attend were two artists just signed to CBS, Adamo and Alain Chamfort, both of whom will be represented by albums in the upcoming September release.

Taking a leading role in convention activities were Jean Queinnec, assistant general manager of CBS Disques; Christian Deffe, promotion and creative services director; Alain Olivier, managing director of CBS Disques, Belgium; and Jean Desjardins, director of marketing, CBS Disques, Montreal.

Spinning Discs

Pick any package and enjoy endless hours of fun.

Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis, Jr.
I Hope We Get To Love In Time
ABC ABCD 952

They've helped create an already classic sound. Now they're starting fresh.

John Klemmer
Barefoot Ballet
ABC ABCD 950

John Klemmer's back with the soft 'touch' that's made him a front rank instrumentalist.

J.J. Cale
Troubadour
Shelter SRL 52002

The man who gave you "After Midnight" and three highly acclaimed albums has finally done another one.

Fireballet
Two, Too
Passport PPSD 98016

Fireballet move away from their British influences into a full, intricate American style that is distinctly their own.

Wade Marcus
Metamorphosis
Impulse ASD 9318

He's been arranger/conductor for Stevie Wonder, the Temptations, the Miracles, Sylvers, Donald Byrd, and many more. Now here he is on his own.

Dalton & Dubarri
Success & Failure
ABC ABCD 964

These popular pop/country/soul songwriters present a new way to make it.

Tommy Overstreet
Turn Onto Tommy Overstreet
Dot DOSD 2056

People have been turning on to Tommy for years. And the last two times are included here: His latest hit, "Young Girl" and "Here Comes That Girl Again."

Hank Thompson
Back In The Swing Of Things
Dot DOSD 2060

Hank Thompson returns to the beat of the music that brought him the title, "King of Western Swing."

Johnny Carver
Afternoon Delight
ABC-Dot DOSD 2042

Johnny Carver's single, "Afternoon Delight," is a hot summer smash. Now here it is as an album.

Nektar
A Tab In The Ocean
Passport PPSD 98017

One of America's most popular import albums, Nektar's second, is no longer an import album.

Kraan
Let It Out
Passport PPSD 98015

One of Germany's biggest bands lets it all out to make the leap toward U.S. recognition and international fame.

Biblical Gospel Singers
Pray For The Good Of The Land
Songbird SBLP 268
