Tom Petty

There's a big call for Tyrone Davis!

The signal that Tyrone really had a hold on people came over his last album, which featured the Top-10 song "In the Mood."

Tyrone is going to maintain that Top-10 status with his new ballad "Be With Me." Countless stations have accepted its gracious invitation. And it's already #64 in Billboard, #62 in Cashbox, and #61 in Record World.

But "Be With Me" is only one of the hit tunes on the just-shipped "Can't You Tell It's Me" album.

This record has a number of great person-to-person songs as well as music that'll burn up the party line.

"Can't You Tell It's Me" JC 36230
Definitely the new Tyrone Davis album.

EDITORIAL The Politics Of Extremism

The record business is based on extremism — from newly-created superlatives to the nadir of negativism. In simple terms, everything is either the best it has ever been or the worst, and that includes album quality, executive abilities as well as the overall financial picture.

But the realities of business in general — selling records as well as chlorine — is that the truth is somewhere in between stupendous and "in the garbage can."

Because of this black and white attitude by the industry, the consumer press perpetuates the particular momentum that is happening. Examples of this in practice are the years 1978 and 1979. In the former, the record industry could do no wrong and members of aboriginal tribes in Australia were coming to town to buy "Saturday Night Fever." Conversely in 1979, it has been continually reported that even the parents of recording artists were avoiding retail stores.

Admittedly the record industry has been growing at a fantastic rate over recent years, but it has been a consistently "fantastic" rise. We believe that for the financial community to take the record industry seriously, we must represent ourselves in a more realistic fashion.

While we are dealing with an emotional product that generates an avalanche of adverbs and adjectives, we are also working with bottom lines and figures that depend on consistency and credibility.

EMI Agrees To New Merger Proposal By Thorn Electrical

by Richard Imamura

LOS ANGELES — Accepting an upgraded offer totalling approximately $360 million, the Board of Directors of EMI Ltd. of the UK has agreed to a merger proposal from Thorn Electrical Industries Ltd., one of Britain's largest manufacturers of consumer electronic products.

Under the terms of the offer, which also includes a name change to Thorn EMI Ltd. for the merged companies, Thorn will exchange 28 of its common shares, plus $120.30 of 7% convertible preference shares, for every 100 EMI shares outstanding. Based upon Thorn's revised calculation of $3.25 as the value of an EMI share, the company will issue 31.1 million common shares and $133.8 million worth of convertible preference shares.

In addition, Thorn has indicated that its financial advisor, the Hambros Bank, will offer to buy back for $6.85 in cash each Thorn share to which EMI's British shareholders "who accept the offer by Thorn become entitled."

During October, Thorn's first merger proposal with EMI was rejected on the grounds that the offer was too low (Cash Box, Oct. 27). At that time, Thorn pegged the value of an EMI share at $3.09, resulting in a total proposal of somewhere between $311-343 million.

Pending approval of the merger by EMI shareholders, Thorn has also announced its intention to invite Sir John Read, EMI chairman; Lord Delfont, EMI chief executive officer; and V. Bhaskar Menon, EMI chief executive in charge of music operations, to join the Board of Directors of the merged companies. In addition, Sir John will assume the post of deputy chairman.

EMI's international music operations, which include the Capitol, EMI America and United Artists labels in the USA, will continue to operate in the Thorn EMI structure, forming a separate subsidiary with other

Int'l Music People Mingle At MUSEXPO

by Ken Terry

MIAMI BEACH, FL. — MUSEXPO, which last week concluded its fifth annual convention here, has become an important meeting spot for certain segments of the international music community. Music publishers and small record companies can often make or start deals here, or at least expand their contacts around the world.

According to Roddy Shashoua, president of MUSEXPO, 2700 people from 42 countries attended this year's convention which was held Nov. 4-8 at the Konover Hotel. In comparison, he said, 2300 people from 39 countries came to MUSEXPO last year.

Like the 1978 MUSEXPO, this convention was attended by only a handful of top executives from major labels, but a number of U.S. record companies were represented, including Warner Bros., MCA, CBS, RCA, Millennium, RFC, Stiff and Bearsville.

Once again, music publishers formed the largest single group of conventioners. Yet, among the 140 exhibitors at MUSEXPO, there were also production companies, record labels, public relations and advertising firms, video companies, recording studios, music publications, radio syndicators, performing rights organizations, and even the Australian Trade Commission.

Business And Ideas

The diversity of the convention, which also attracted substantial contingents from Nashville and Hollywood, promoted a constant interchange of ideas and news. And, just as important, a lot of those who came here this year were able to do business.

"I think we will come next year," said Peter Steyrer, president of Discovertrieb

Polygram Holds Return Ceiling Until March; RSO Is Exception

NEW YORK — Polygram Distribution has decided to push back across-the-board implementation of its recently announced return ceiling from Jan. 1 to March 1, 1980. The Polygram policy will, however, be implemented with RSO product as of Jan. 1.

Jon Peisinger, vice president of marketing development for Polygram, said the decision was made in response to "concern expressed by our accounts that their own internal systems could not be adjusted fast enough" to meet the original Jan. 1 deadline.

Peisinger stated that Polygram still "feels very strongly about the program. We feel it's ultimately going to be for the mutual benefit of us and our accounts, and we want to give it every opportunity to work. In effect, we're giving the accounts a two-month break-in period."

Peter Steyrer, a West German company encompassing a label, a production firm and a record distributor. Steyrer, who was at MUSEXPO for the first time, had sold the U.S., Canadian and Polish rights to a cover of "Flip, Flop and Fly" by Chuck Hermann & Honky Tonk. He had also bought the West German rights to a single by American country singer Bobbi Robinson, as well as the rights in his own country to a Polish disco record.

Henry Hadaway, managing director of the U.K.-based Satril Records, was also pleased by his visit to MUSEXPO. For four years, he said, he had been trying to interest a certain U.S. label executive in the American distribution deal for Satril. During that period, a Satril recording group, Godigo, had several hits in Japan. Although

Dept Named New President Of PIR

NEW YORK — Larry Dept has been named the new president of Philadelphia International Records.

Dept, who was formerly vice president of finance for the firm, will report to Kenneth Gamble. Gamble, who had held the positions of president and chairman of the board for PIR, will now function only in the latter capacity.

In an exclusive interview, Gamble told Cash Box, "this has been a long-awaited moment at Philadelphia International. I think that Larry is extremely qualified for the position, and it will give myself and Leon (Huff) more time to create.

"Most of my attention will be given to the production of a broader range of artists in the studio," said Gamble. "We're working with some new, exciting writing talent. On another level, we'll be investigating the areas in which Philadelphia International can diversify, both related and non-related to the music business."

Dept told Cash Box: "My goal is to continue the success that we've been having. One of Philadelphia International's greatest strengths has always been its strong creative base any my priority will be to beef up our promotion, marketing, merchandising and advertising so that the results of our creative efforts are followed through to the maximum."

Dept outlined some additional goals. "We will continue to develop new artists, which are considered the lifeblood of the business. We will also sustain the success of those artists with whom we've already achieved success. Finally, we are interested in artists who have already achieved a measure of success outside our organization so that we can take their careers to even higher plateaus."

Satril has U.S. rights to only one Godigo album, the American executive was impressed when he heard a tape of that LP at MUSEXPO. And he has invited Hadaway to visit him on the west coast. Now it appears that Hadaway may be able to close a deal with this label within a couple of weeks.

Several attendees said they had come to MUSEXPO to scout out deals which might be completed at a later date. For example, Eddie Miller of Lollipop Music was looking for subpublishers outside the U.S. "An important part of my thinking is to start situations here and finish them in New York," he said.

'Audio-Visual Event'

Naturally, MUSEXPO was not equally valuable for everyone who attended it. Lou Steinberg, vice president of operations for Trans American Video, the video arm of Merv Griffin Productions, felt that the Europeans weren't interested in an L.A.-based facility, and that MUSEXPO should be "more of an audio-visual event." He also suggested that Miami was a relative

Odyssey Records Files Chapter XI For Debt Relief

SAN FRANCISCO — The 40-store Odyssey Records retail chain has petitioned for reorganization of debt under Chapter XI of the bankruptcy laws in a brief filed Nov. 6 with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California here.

Indie AVI Bows 23% Return; Other Labels Holding Firm

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES — AVI Records' announcement last week of a 23% returns policy comes at a time when branch and independent labels alike are taking a hard look at a situation estimated to have cost the record and tape industry $200 million over the past year.

AVI, an independent based here with 22 distributors around the country, becomes the first indie to adopt a ceiling on returns. However, the move does not appear to signal a trend among indies, following the lead set in recent weeks by CBS, Polygram and RCA and A&M and Associated Labels.

Effective Nov. 1, AVI distributors will accrue a 22% returns allowance — plus 1% for defective records — for all LP and tape purchases. Distributors will receive return figures, expressed in percentages and dollar amounts, as part of regular monthly statements.

Distributors will return product three times annually according to the following schedule:

- For sales July 1 through Dec. '31, return requests must be made by Feb. 25 for shipment by March 30.

- For sales Jan. 1 through March 30, requests by May 25 for shipment by June 30.

- For sales April 1 through June 30, requests by Aug. 25 for shipment by Sept. 30.

Any accrued return allowances not processed according to schedule will be cancelled. All returns must be in standard box lots: i.e., 45s, 25s or 100s; LPs, 25s, and tapes, 30s. Defectives will be processed by a special receiving depot.

All 7-inch singles and Christmas product are exempted from the 23% ceiling and are 100% returnable. Returns will be calculated on a last in, first out basis taking into account the original purchase price.

ACLU Opposes Radio Deregulation

by Joanne Ostrow

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A salvo was fired in the war over radio deregulation as a broad coalition of non-profit organizations filed a motion with the FCC last week. The groups, collectively through the American Civil Liberties Union, asked the commission to hold up its proposed rulemaking on deregulation of the radio industry for further research and to clarify its intentions in the matter.

Filing the motion for procedural relief with the ACLU were Black Citizens for Fair Media, Consumer Federation of America, ECUMEDIA, National Citizens Committee for Broadcasting, National Citizens Communications Lobby, Media Reform Committee of the National Organization for Women, Public Media Center, and the WNCN Listeners' Guild.

While these citizens, labor and religious groups are philosophically opposed to Few artists living or dead have ever put as much wild boy abandon and rock 'n' roll vigor into their music as Backstreet/MCA artist Tom Petty. Infusing his music with a touch of Byrds, a dash of Stones and a lot of his own 4/4 rhythmic ingenuity, Petty stands as a rockin' original.

At the crux of Petty's lyrical and vocal stance is the snarling, avenging lover who cries out "That's right you hurt me, baby" in "Hurt" and "I didn't know I was no number two" in "Fooled Again." While a lesser performer would shuffle the lines off in a cheap emotional fashion, Petty acts as though he means it. Only Costello's angry urbanite and Springsteen's boardwalk leathered poet can match Petty's frustrated 'Wild One' persona on today's rock 'n' roll scene.

The emotion in his voice is complemented beautifully by his cresting rock 'n' roll rhythms and the hard driving Heartbreakers — guitarist Mike Campbell, drummer Stan Lynch, pianist Benmont Tench and bassist Ron Blair. The group was formed three years ago in Los Angeles, but all the musicians had met in Gainesville, Fla., and had moved to L.A. over a period of years.

The Floridian roots are probably one of the reasons for the band's summertime-happy songs that are wide-eyed looks at teen frustration and celebration. A case in point is the steamy island rhythm of "Breakdown," still an AOR staple, or "Too Much Ain't Enough" which is right out of the James Dean live fast, die young, leave-a-good-looking-corpse school.

After two successful LPs, "Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers" and "You're Gonna Get It" on ABC, and a long hiatus Petty and The Heartbreakers have returned with a fine new MCA LP, "Damn The Torpedoes." The comfortable rhythms of the first two LPs are again present in songs like "Refugee," "Louisiana Rain" and "Here Comes My Girl," and should seem like old friends to Petty fans.

"Damn The Torpedoes" has jumped to the #36 bullet on the Cash Box Top 200 LP chart after only two weeks.

Imposing Deadlines For Deleted Goods Causes Widespread Industry Controversy

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Should record companies impose deadlines for the recall of product they delete from their catalog? Some labels, such as CBS, MCA, and RCA, allow dealers to return their goods at any time. They contend that this approach promotes the eventual sell-off of the merchandise. Other vendors, such as Polygram, Capitol, and WEA, require accounts to return product they are deleting within three to nine months if the dealers want to receive full credit for the goods.

A cross-section of distributors surveyed by Cash Box illuminated a number of conflicts that develop when they are forced to adhere to deadline situations. For example, several one-stop operators complained that they are often forced to absorb product returned to them by their accounts when they cannot return the goods fast enough to a specific branch or independent distributor.

A byproduct of this situation is the friction that usually develops between the one-stop and the accounts it services in the event the one-stop has to reject product submitted for return by the retailer because the cutout deadline has passed. The conflict points to the debate over whether or not it is the responsibility of the one-stop to apprise his customers (many of whom are not always exclusive) when a cutout list is introduced by a manufacturer.

Reasons Why

Addressing the reasons why MCA does not adhere to a deadline for the return of its cutouts, Sam Passamano Sr., vice president of administration for MCA Distributing, said, "If you make deadlines, the tendency is for the account to return the product immediately. Without them, the account is more likely to hold onto the product, hoping it will sell off. If not, he can always return it."

Passamano explained that MCA adopted this policy in the spring of 1978 so that the returns situation would be "equal and equitable for everyone." He said, "It seemed as if our larger accounts were always asking for an extension on the recall deadline. It did not matter how much time we gave them, they never seemed to finish collecting the returns. The policy had to be changed for this purpose."

At CBS, Ron McCarrell, vice president of marketing for Epic/Portrait/Associated Labels, said CBS rarely finds itself in the situation of accepting LPs that have been cut out. "If an album has been cut out, it's because it wasn't selling, and generally those albums will have already been returned to us."

No Deadline

Echoing McCarrell's comment, Jon Peisinger, vice president of marketing development for Polygram, said, "In virtually every case where product has been deleted from our catalog, it has been deleted without a deadline limitation. There have been exceptions to this situation, but not in the majority of cases, because we feel a cutout is a very negative step. It stimulates the immediate return of product, whereas a gradual deletion system keeps the goods available, encourages their ultimate sell-off, and reassures the retailer that he can always return the merchandise if he has to."

'Get Out The Salt And Pepper'

For Jay Lasky, executive vice president for Danjay Music, the Denver-based one-stop, missing a recall deadline is like "getting out the salt and pepper — we've just eaten the product." Lasky contended that while "the majors usually give you plenty of time and titles with which to work, the independent labels never seem to give their distributors enough time to properly execute a recall. I call usually get the bulk of my goods out in time, but I'm always left with piecemeal product that I have to sell far

RCA's Free Flight To Be 'Phased Out'

NASHVILLE — Free Flight Records, launched in January of this year as a pop label from RCA's Nashville division, is being "phased out," according to label sources.

Jerry Bradley, vice president of RCA's Nashville office, stated, "In view of the current economic situation in the industry, it is simply not feasible to continue operating Free Flight at this time."

There are five acts on Free Flight, according to Bradley, and decisions will be made in the future as to which acts will be absorbed on the RCA parent label and which will be dropped. Acts include FCC, Bama, Mac MacAnally, David Britton and Peter Foldy.

Bradley stated that some records had been sold on Free Flight acts and some chart success had been gained but declined further comment on why the label would fold after less than ten months of operation.

The status of Tony Brown, manager of west coast A&R for Free Flight in Los Angeles, and the regional field staffs in Dallas, Atlanta, Chicago and Cleveland has not yet been determined, according to a label spokesman.

The Sports

Perhaps more than most current rock singer/songwriters, Steve Cummings owes a great debt to the radio, and the rock and roll music that medium brought him.

It's appropriate, then, that "Who Listens To The Radio" should be the first single to crack the American pop charts for the 26 year old Cummings and his band, The Sports.

Cummings credits long hours of listening to the radio while working in his parents grocery store in Melbourne, Australia with spurring his interest in rock and roll. He then became an avid record collector, and developed a special interest in American rockabilly. But his taste also included the great British rock groups of the 60's, especially the Kinks and the Beatles.

Although he started composing songs when he was 15, Cummings never played in a rock band while in high school. "I was too scared," he recalls, "and besides, I didn't know anyone else who played any instruments."

But while Cummings was in Swineburn art school in Melbourne the Sports began to form, first casually, and then more seriously. Eventually, the group settled on six members: Cummings, bassist Rob Glover, guitarist Andrew Pendlebury, who co-writes most of the Sports material; drummer Paul Hitchins; keyboard player Jim Niven; and guitarist Martin Armiger.

The Sports built up a following in Melbourne, Cummings says, by playing "obscure classics like "Red Hot" and our own material of short, sharp little pop songs that no one else was doing at the time." From Melbourne, the group branched out to Sydney, and, in 1977, Cummings recalls, "two guys who followed the group came up and offered to pay the recording costs for us to cut an EP."

The offer was accepted, and the result was "Fair Game," which received lavish (and unexpected) praise in the English music trade journal, New Musical Express. Rock entrepreneur Dave Robinson was among those who heard the disc, and he subsequently asked the group to open for Graham Parker and the Rumour when that group toured in Australia.

The pairing was so successful that The Sports returned to England with Parker and toured with him there, and then came back to Australia, where they signed a label deal with Mushroom Records. Their debut album, "Reckless" did so well in Australia that the King of Pops Awards named The Sports Australia's best new group of 1978.

The Sports had also teamed up with producer Pete Soley, and by the end of 1978, they came up with "Who Listens To the Radio," which garnered the group widespread air play and sales in England and Australia.

In 1979, The Sports signed deals with Sire Records in England, and Arista Records and Home Run Management in the United States. The whole process, according to Cummings, "has taken us a bit by surprise." Surprise or no, The Sports upward spiral of success has continued, as their Arista debut album "Don't Throw Stones," which features a compilation of material from their first two Australian albums, recently entered the Cash Box Album Chart at #171 with a bullet.

Pages

For some groups, the whole of the music is far greater than the sum of the parts. Such is the case with the music of Epic recording act Pages, whose second and current LP for the label, "Future Street," displays an adept fusion of rock, pop, R&B and jazz elements while establishing a unique yet palatable musical foundation.

The commercial viability of Pages' music is proven by the fact that both the LP and rock-edged single, "I Do Believe In You," have both entered the Cash Box charts.

"As a band we have the ability to play and sing almost anything," said lead singer, composer and keyboardist Richard Page. "Although my own roots are in pop music, myself and the other members of the band come from a background where we played a number of different styles of music in many other groups."

Although the composing core of the band, which includes songwriter, vocalist and keyboard man Steve George and lyricist John Lang, in addition to Page, is now based in Los Angeles, they hail from Phoenix, Ariz., where they sharpened their "chops" playing on the small but active club circuit.

Seven years ago, Page hooked up with George soon after he had left college and decided to make a full-time commitment to gigging.

"Steve was in a band named 'Andy Hardy' at the time and I heard that they needed a singer," Page recalls. "We became good friends, as well as co-writers, and our eventual migration west was a natural one."

Together with Pages' bassist and composer Jerry Manfredi, the two travelled to California, where they began backing various established artists, or, as in Manfredi's case, became members of other groups, such as Chase. However, their personal and musical friendship remained hard and fast.

In 1976, the three re-grouped, along with Lang and two since-departed Phoenix musicians, to play original music. To pay the bills, though, the band was sidetracked briefly when they auditioned, and quickly won a spot, as backing band for Andy Gibb on the singer's national tour in 1977.

"We made some demos after the tour which ended up on the desk of Bobby Colomby (then vice president of west coast A&R for Epic)," stated Page. "He was very strong on our group and ended up signing us to the label and producing our first album."

Pages' self-titled debut LP was released in 1978, and shortly thereafter guitarist Charles "Icarus" Johnson and drummer George Lawrence joined the band, lending their compact, aggressive, and in Johnson's case, jazz-tinged styles to "Future Street." The second LP was again produced by Colomby.

"The difference on this LP was that Colomby had a more effective grip on the direction of the record," said Page.

Page added that, at this point, he and George remain as the "surviving members" of the group as far as business and writing goes, at least until the band goes on tour. But by February, they plan to go into the studio once again with Colomby behind the boards.

RECORD PROFILE

'Rapper's Delight' Climbs To Top Of Cash Box B/C Chart

by Charles Paikert & Cookie Amerson

NEW YORK — In an age when corporate-owned record companies spend many weeks and many thousands of dollars on elaborate publicity and promotional campaigns for new record releases, "The Rapper's Delight," a virtually unpublicized and unpromoted 12" disc by an unknown group on a small, obscure New Jersey-based record label, has become the number one song on the Cash Box Top 100 Black Contemporary chart.

"The Rapper's Delight," by the Sugar Hill Gang, which lists at $4.98, is a "rap" record, where three DJs, Guy O'Brien, Michael Wright, and Henry Jackson, talk over a repetitive disco music track. The record was produced by Sylvia Robinson for her Sugar Hill Records label and is being distributed through Roulette Records. Robinson, a veteran R&B writer and producer, has scored hits "Shame, Shame, Shame" by Shirley & Co., "Pillow Talk," recorded by herself, and "Love On A Two Way Street" by The Moments.

Robinson claims the record has sold over one million copies, which would make "The Rapper's Delight" the largest selling 12" disc in the history of the record business. However, Sugar Hill's sales figures have not been certified by the RIAA.

Sugar Hill plans to release an album by the Sugar Hill Gang before Thanksgiving, Robinson said, and, she added, The Sugar Hill Gang have been signed to go on tour as an opening act for George Clinton's Parliament/Funkadelic troupe.

There was virtually no promotion or publicity budget for "The Rapper's Delight," Robinson stated, "We had some

Joel 'Sampler' Bows

LOS ANGELES — A "Professional Sampler" of tunes composed by Billy Joel has just been released by April-Blackwood. The sampler contains a boxed, five-record set of albums Joel has recorded for Columbia in addition to a folio of his lyrics.

The set is currently being delivered to artists, producers, A&R executives and managers. Bert Haber and Al Kugler of April-Blackwood coordinated the sampler along with Jeff Schock of Joel's management organization.

help," she said, "but it was a record that didn't need any real promotion. We mailed copies out, and once stations put it on the air, the phones lit up. We also had phenomenal reaction from the discos. In fact, we sold over 50,000 copies before a major radio station went on it."

WESL in St. Louis was the first station in the country to put the record in regular rotation, and according to station PD Jim Gates, "It went to number one in four days, and it got to the point where we were playing it once an hour. It was requested that much."

Cross-Over In N.Y.

WKTU-FM in New York was another early supporter of "The Rapper's Delight."

Bee Gees Deny Magazine Story Claiming Breakup

LOS ANGELES — In a collective statement, Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb of the Bee Gees firmly denied a story appearing in the Nov. 27 issue of US magazine that claimed that the international music group would be disbanding. "It's nothing more than headlines to sell magazines," the Bee Gees stated. "It's sensationalized journalism at its best. The story is not true."

Continuing, the Bee Gees disclosed that they are currently working on a variety of projects, in addition to working on a new studio album. Barry will produce Barbra Streisand's next album; Robin will be producing Jimmy Ruffin, and Maurice will write some of the music for the RSO film The Fan, as well as pursue an acting career.

As a group, the Brothers Gibb have also scheduled a tour of Europe and Japan for September and October of 1980.

LOS ANGELES — The National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS) and Pierre Cossette Productions have announced that United Artists recording artist Kenny Rogers has been selected to host the 22nd annual Grammy Awards, Feb. 27, 1980, on CBS-TV. The awards program will be held at Los Angeles' Shrine Auditorium.

FANTASY GARAGE, LOCATION UNKNOWN — It's being billed as the largest disco in L.A. (5,000 sq. ft.) and the owners and publicists will only say that it's located somewhere in Hollywood. Scheduled for a Dec. 20 opening, Fantasy Garage will be an after hours, private disco and it won't serve alcohol! Spokespersons for the mystery club, which is owned by the Trocadero West Corp., insist that the lack of liquor won't affect the Garage's popularity and point to the success of similar "dry" discos such as 12 West in NYC and San Francisco's Trocadero Transfer (no relation to Trocadero West.) In addition to a huge dance floor, the club will also house a record shop, jewelry boutique and a store that sells "fantasy toys and games." Other novelties include plans for redecorating on a regular basis, a play which has helped Studio One hold on to its popularity for years. An electronic signboard will announce the song the DJ is spinning at the time. Why the mystery surrounding the disco's locale? Spokespersons insist it's not a publicity ploy, but simply a means to prevent curiosity seekers from descending on the club which is still under construction.

NOEL

NEW WAVE ROCKER GOES DISCO — Virgin/Atlantic recording artist Noel dropped by the L.A. offices of Cash Box recently to discuss her new 12" single, "Dancing Is Dangerous." In the course of the interview, Noel revealed a rather unusual background for a heavy disco artist. Only a few months ago, she was discovered while playing keyboards in a new wave band at Madame Wong's, L.A. premier showcase club for punk rockers. Virgin producers Ron and Russell Mael caught her act, and with a little production wizardry, transformed her style and sound into disco. Shortly thereafter, Noel found her new self touring England and Scotland. L.A.-based, Noel will soon be off to NYC and Boston discos and radio stations. An LP featuring "Dancing Is Dangerous" is expected soon. Strikingly attractive with a Deborah Harry color and cut hairdo, the personable singer is also a high fashion model.

DONNA WINS BIG AT POOL AWARDS — Donna Summer was a quadruple winner at the Phoenix-based Southwest Record Pool's annual awards banquet, held last weekend at the Pointe Resort. "Enough was not enough" apparently as Summer was named top female artist, with her single, "Bad Girls/Hot Stuff," and LP "Bad Girls" collecting top 12" and album awards respectively. She also shared the top composer prize with Giorgio Moroder and Harold Faltermeyer. Sylvester was honored as top male artist, and Chic walked off with the top group laurels. Most promising new female artist honors went to France Joli, while Patrick Hernandez won in the male category. Other award winners included MK Dance and Tom Hayden (a tie for top independent promotion), Jack Witherby and Ros Chase (top in-house promotion), Giorgio Moroder (a second kudo as top producer), Rusty Garner (top disco mix consultant) and Kat Mandu's "The Break" (top instrumental/production concept). Those in attendance for the weekend event included Patrick Hernandez, Tom Hayden, Jean Shy, Arnie Smith, Marc Paul Simon, Bob McGilpin, Sister Power, Rusty Garner, Howard Holben and Wes Bradley. Winners were chosen by Southwest Record Pool members. Nominees were selected on the basis of chart performance.

PARTY TIME — KIIS-FM in L.A. will celebrate its first anniversary since adopting an all-disco format with a series of live broadcasts Nov. 15 from area discotheques. Some of the clubs which the KIIS jocks will hit are Circus Disco in Hollywood, Discovery in Glendale, Calif. and Crescendo in Anaheim, Calif. "Party with KIIS is our new slogan," a spokesperson at the station says, "and we'd like to have these parties on a regular basis." . . . Another disco-formatted radio station, KXTC 92-FM in Phoenix, celebrated its first anniversary "Halloween Eve at the Pointe Resort . . . On Nov. 8, Electric Circus DJ, John Benitez, was feted at a birthday party with Richie Kaczor guest-spinning . . . Phoenix jock Bobby Lombardi is leaving the Limelight to spin at the club's sister disco in Atlanta. A farewell celebration for Bobby was held at his club Nov. 6.

SPLASHES IN THE POOLS — The San Diego-based Southern California Black & Brown DJs Assn. has made the following announcement: "Effective Nov. 9, the association will distribute, rate and air only music of an R&B nature. Anything in our opinion not pertaining to the above category will be mailed back to the record company. This procedure will save the record companies money and also direct this product to disco pools which use non-R&B product." . . . Prelude president Stan Hoffman will be the keynote speaker at the National Record Pool Conference being sponsored by the Florida Record Pool at the Eden Rock Hotel, Miami Beach, Nov. 25-28. According to Bo Crane of the Florida pool, "The purpose of the conference is to unify pools across the country. We held a similar conference last year and a lot of good will and understanding was generated." Tentatively scheduled to perform are Sister Power and Cindy & Roy. On Nov. 27, the pool will

STARGARD — Wear It Out — Warner Bros. DWBS 8891 — 12"

Generous electric guitar, hand clapping and sassy ensemble vocals highlight this maxi-BPM dance tune. Trumpet break showcases soloist's talent. Only four weeks on the disco chart, "Wear It Out" is headed straight for the Top Ten. Time: 6:23

JANIS IAN — Fly Too High — Columbia XSS 166717 — 12"

The mistress of the tearjerker ballad crosses over into MOR disco on this one. Taken from the film, The Foxes, this Ian-Giorgio Moroder penned tune has the lush arrangements which often typify a movie soundtrack. Drum and muffled horn duet on break shows jazz influences, as does Ian's modified scat-singing style on the rest of the song. Medium beat and mellow melody call for early evening play in the disco. Time: 6:50

DAN HARTMAN — Relight My Fire — Blue Sky AS 682 — 12"

Clashing symbols open this single, followed by heavy instrumentals. Hartman sounds like a cross between Michael Jackson and Freddie James, young but knowledgeable. Up-tempo and uninhibited, "Relight My Fire," as evidenced by its speedy ascent up the disco chart, already has them stampeding the dance floor. Climaxes with an orgasmic combination of Hartman, female chorus and heavy metal. Time: 9:44

JANICE MCCLAIN — Smack Dab In The Middle — Warner/RFC — DRCS 8893 — 12"

Another up-tempo dance crowd pleaser, this big-band, R&B flavored tune allows Janice to exhibit her sensuous vocals. Falsetto choral work a subtle homage to the sound of the Four Tops. Mix by the Paradise Garage's Larry Levan. Time: 6:48

RECORD SALES DO NOT THE STAR MAKE . . . ALL OF THE TIME — Angela Bofill gets audiences screaming at the Bottom Line doing things she would not dare do on records. Dave Valentín on the same bill stretches out with some superb percussion accompaniment. Sonny Rollin's energized saxophone induces encores that send him back to the stage for three encores after having performed two shows a night at the same fevered pitch. Chick Corea and Gary Burton use two simple speakers on a Carnegie Hall Stage filled with a nine foot grand piano and a set of vibes which seemed to be nailed together just prior to the performance and bring down a near sell out audience. The point of all of this is that jazz does not have to be charted to sell out halls and clubs. It's all in the who and the how.

PAPP PLUGS JAZZ — Joseph Papp's Public Theatre complex and his New Music programs enlighten us all, and some artists who appear there even have record contracts. Would you believe Andy Plessner produces the weekend, often late-night concerts and opens the place to avant-garde artists and experimental offerings which are viable in every aspect of jazz. For example, on a recent weekend Lester Bowie, trumpeter and a member of the Art Ensemble of Chicago, guested with a group co-led by reedman Frank Lowe and percussionist Phillip Wilson. The concluding number was a New Orleans funeral march causing one member of the audience to dub the trumpeter player "Buddy Bolden Bowie," after that legendary New Orleans barber who was reputed to play his horn with such clarity he could be heard across the Mississippi. All record company execs take note: what could be more accessible than music from New Orleans with a 20th century beat? The other group, Abdullah, featured a cello, french horn, a dancer and a poet whose works sounded for all the world like another Papp production, "For Colored Girls . . ." The place was packed with enthusiastic folks who even took flash photos with instamatic cameras, tourist-like. Moral: this stuff can be sold without any loss of integrity to artist or record company.

AND IT'S LIVE — Speaking of the Public Theatre and NPR, the latter broadcast a Jazz Alive! show from the former's cabaret featuring Billy Taylor with all star big band, trio and ensemble featuring Dexter Gordon and Johnny Hartman. Check local listings for a rebroadcast soon, we hope . . .

FROM THE BIRTHPLACE — The New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival has announced its 1980 dates and artists. The Festival will be larger this year and will run from April 15-27. Concert locations will be the Theatre of the Performing Arts, S.S. President and Municipal Auditorium. Artists scheduled to appear include Count Basie, Dave Brubeck, Lionel Hampton, and the World's Greatest Jazz Band featuring Yank Lawson and Bob Haggart. More will be announced later. The Louisiana Heritage Fair will feature 10 stages of simultaneous music including jazz, R&B, gospel, Cajun, blues, folk, Latin, country & western and bluegrass. There will also be booths selling indigenous Louisiana food and crafts.

ALL THAT IMPROVISES IS NOT JAZZ — Interplay, a totally improvisational action troupe, has been making the rounds of some boites in the Apple. They recently appeared at Boltax, a fairly new establishment in SoHo which features jazz from 6 p.m. and cabaret later in the evenings, mostly jazz. It is also a fine restaurant. Interplay swings, is completely improvisational and, like jazz, never sounds the same on any two occasions. The only difference is that in place of musicians, there are actors. Pianist Herde Danko is musical director.

DISK BITS — Atlantic recording group, Manhattan Transfer, in its latest album "Extensions" sings a set of lyrics to Josef Zawinul's "Birdland" penned by Jon Hendricks. The entire album is dedicated to the late Eddie Jefferson and is reputed to contain much in the direction of bebop . . . Alto saxophonist Art Pepper is currently on a five-week tour in support of his new Galaxy album and Macmillan/Schirmer book called "Straight Life."

THE LATIN-JAZZ CONNECTION — Author John Storm Roberts, in his book, "The Latin Tinge" (Oxford), makes much of the connection between Latin music and jazz with text and photos of the progenitors of the musical amalgam. The title, by the way, stems from a Jelly Roll Morton description of the music he claimed to have written in the early part of the century. Jazz "with a Spanish tinge," he called it.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

STREET BEAT — Tom Scott — Columbia JC36137 — Producers: Tom Scott & Hank Cicalo — List: 7.98

Sax virtuoso Scott catches the rhythms of the city on this diverse, perceptive mainstream jazz offering. Disco artist Dennis Tufano crosses over with a sassy scat-singing solo on "Greed." Punny "Car Wars" track features Russell Ferrante's complex keyboard work playing off mellow bass.

LARRY CORYELL — Return — Vanguard VSD 79426 — Producer: Danny Weiss — List: 7.98

With Darius, Chris and Dan Brubeck and percussionist Ray Mantilla, as sidemen, Coryell seems more subdued than usual. Three tunes by Larry, two by Darius and one by guitarist Al Dimeola form as complete a collection for the leader as there has been in some time. There are lovely melodies and much virtuosity throughout as on "Rue Gregoire du Tour," and "Mediterranean Sundance/Entre dos Aguas." Nice rhythmic items too, such as "Three Mile Island" and the title track.

MORGANA KING — Everything Must Change — Muse MR 5190 — Producer: Mitch Farber — List: 7.98

The program is unusually diversified even for this unusually talented singer of things unusual. Included are the ever-popular "Just The Way You Are," "This Masquerade," and the title track, all would-be "covers" for their originators and many reshapers. But King imbues each with nuances, that makes everything she does her very own. Terrific accompaniment rounds out this set which includes standards old and new.

AMERICAN GARAGE — Pat Metheny Group — ECM-1-1155 — Producer: Pat Metheny — List: 8.98

On this dazzling fusion effort, Metheny's six and twelve-string guitar stylings are superb throughout, with an able assist from autoharp and piano. A mystical flavor enhances the "Heartland" track, while the up-tempo energy of "Airstream" provides a nice contrast to the understated power of compositions by Metheny and Lyle Mays.

SUMMER OF '79 — Johnny Mince — Monmouth Evergreen MES 7090 — Producer: Bill Borden — List: 7.98

This marks the debut of swing clarinetist Mince as a leader. Why the premiere should have waited this long remains a mystery, for this is among the happiest recordings of recent vintage. The nine tunes aren't merely standards, they are warmed chestnuts played with a lilt that conjures up images of Mince's exuberance — his trademark — as he plays.

MY KIND OF MUSIC — Rickey Kelly — Los Angeles Phonograph LAPR-1006 — Producer: Rickey Kelly — List: 7.98

Debut album by Kelly suggests it won't be the last. Bluesy melodies combine with wild improv of Kelly's vibraphone. Several cuts pay homage to Masai and Danakil warrior tribes of Africa, and the forceful thrust of the music reflects this ethos. Tony Dumas' "blitz" bass a real standout here.

Bootleg Springsteen LPs Seized In Jersey

NEWARK — Federal authorities here have been ordered to seize bootleg record albums from a Union County record distributor in connection with a suit filed last week in Federal Court by Bruce Springsteen and CBS Records.

The suit, which seeks $500,000 in damages, charges that a man identified as Brian Rogers of Union distributed illegally recorded records and tapes to bootleg record shops in New Jersey. Under an order signed by U.S. District Court Judge Vincent P. Biunno, U.S. marshalls were authorized to seize material involved in the case from Rogers' home. The suit charges Rogers with copyright violations and seeks a full accounting of the proceeds from the sale of the bootleg product. In addition, Springsteen is seeking a further court order permitting the destruction of the product.

Feminist Boycott Of Warner Group Ends

NEW YORK — Women Against Violence Against Women (WAVAW) and the National Organization for Women (NOW) have officially ended their 35-month old boycott of the record subsidiaries of Warner Communications Inc. (WCI) regarding the companies' use of violent images in record advertising.

In a policy statement, David Horowitz, office of the president for WCI, stated, "The WCI record group opposes the depiction of violence, against women or men, on album covers and in related promotional material. This policy expresses the WCI record group's opposition to the exploitation of violence, sexual or otherwise, in any form. Although this policy is subject to prior contractual restriction where applicable, the WCI record group has chosen to strongly discourage the use of images of physical and sexual violence against women in these cases as well."

A spokeswoman for WAVAW, Joan Howarth, said the organization "commends the WCI record group for formally announcing this advertising policy. We anticipate that it will have an important impact on advertising policy throughout the record industry, as well as in other industries, and on the media industry as a whole."

Howarth added, "By publicizing this policy, WCI is acknowledging that the commercial use of visual and other images that trivialize women victims is irresponsible in light of the epidemic proportions of real-life violence against women, most particularly rape and domestic battering. Of course, WAVAW's pressure on the record industry will continue, because this is an industry-wide problem. We do look forward to increased receptivity from other companies as a result of the step taken by the WCI record group."

LATIN PICKS

CARA DE GITANA — Enrique Lynch Orchestra — Al Records - 3011 — No Producer

Again the orchestra of Enrique Lynch stands out on this album. Veteran bandleader Lynch has numerous albums to his credit, but here he outdoes himself with this magnificent orchestra in mambo, sambas, soul, cha cha and Latin disco. The music in this album has commercial appeal and very tasty arrangements for a big band. The vocals are excellent. The best cuts are "Cara De Gitana," "Kukucha-Ku-Cha," "Flip," "Estas Luquidado" and "San Juan."

ELADIO JIMINEZ — Nuestra 103 — Producer: Harry Maidonado

Multi-talented vocalist Eladio Jimenez debuts with this beautiful album of love songs and rhythmic tunes. Great backing by the orchestra is demonstrated on all cuts. Among the best selections are: "Humo Extranero," "Duenia De Me Amore," "No Puedo Estar Contigo," "Preocupacion," "Porque Te Empeñas" and "Mirala Donde Va." Without a doubt this album should go high on the charts in Puerto Rico.

NATI MISTRAL

NATI MISTRAL — AL - ABS - 6042 — No Producers

Sexy songstress Nati Mistral is superb on this album of beautiful love songs. Her voice is intact throughout the album, which features outstanding string section orchestrations. Recording was done well in Spain. The best selections are "Tierra De Mi Tierra," "Cuanto Te Debo," "La Mentira Se Te Olvida," "Yo Vi Llorar A Dios" and "El Despertar."

LATIN BEAT

In an unprecedented move, the CasaBlanca Discotheque (a major Latin entertainment nightspot) has installed a weapons detector device at its doors in an effort to dispell fears of insecurity surrounding major New York nightclubs.

On a parallel with the system used at the airports, this weapons detector has been placed in the inner doors of the nightclub with extra security (bouncers) placed at the street entrance of the club.

Although the club in its three year existence has never faced an incident of violence within its doors, empresario Hector Maisonave felt that his clientele would feel more at ease in spending their leisure time in a place that makes an obvious effort for the safety of its patrons.

Maisonave stated, "In light of the recent outbursts of violence occurring in other well known New York City clubs, the CasaBlanca felt that the added cost of this protection would be well worth it in terms of increased clientele. Our feeling has been correct."

Since the month long installation of the CasaBlanca's security system, its clientele has increased two-fold. Clients within have expressed a sense of security not felt before. People who were wary of going to nightclubs, Latin or otherwise, have been attending the CasaBlanca.

Maisonave adds, "Even if police wanted to come into the club for any reason they would have to leave their weapons outside with the bouncers. The most violent incident which could occur would be a fist fight and with all the bouncers we have surrounding the club, this would be stopped almost immediately."

In addition to the weapons detector, bouncers are stationed on the street entrance of the club to keep away any type of drug traffic or other riff-raff that usually cling to the skirts of nightclubs. This is done not only for the protection of clients but also to maintain the club's reputation for fine, quality Latin music entertainment in a prestigious area. The CasaBlanca Discotheque is situated in the old Birdland.

This is the only discotheque (Latin or American) in New York to extend such a service to its patrons.

Ray Barreto will play his first major concert in several years, outside of New York, on Nov. 10. The concert will take place at the Jailai Fronton in Miami, and is being promoted by the area's #1 radio station, "Super-Q." This will be Ray's fifth appearance in Miami, where few Latin bands have done as well.

On the album front, Ray is putting the finishing touches on his next production, to be titled "Rican-struction." The album has charts by Eddie Martinez and Oscar Hernandez. He has re-recorded his tune, "Tumbao Africano," originally recorded in his "Eye Of The Beholder" album. Adelberto Santiago does some outstanding vocals. The album will be on Fania Records.

Ray Barreto, Tito Puente, Charlie Palmieri and Sal Quevas taped the second in this season's "Skyline with Beverly Sills" series, which aired Oct. 24 on WNET-TV (Channel 13). This particular PBS program is devoted to New York's Latin music scene and is called "Salsa."

Yambu, the group that smashed the charts with their hit, "Sunny," is back with a new LP, soon to be released by Discolando Records and Tapes, Inc. Yambu was founded in 1972 by Felipe Brana and Ramon Rodriguez and gained popularity on the Latin nightclub circuit. Alex Giglio, a member of the Yambu group, took second place in the piano category of the LNY Music Poll 1978 for the "African Queen" LP. Yambu is one of the few bands to play both Salsa and disco music.

Director Luis Soto and producer Angela Fleming inform us of a Puerto Rican Cultural Project coming to PBS, Channel 13 TV. The 26-minute drama is a television pilot on the history of the Puerto Rican migration. A proposal was submitted to the New York State Department of Education for the purpose of showing not only the real identity of the Puerto Ricans, but the cultural aspects, struggles and/or fighting for survival.

'Golden Oldies Merit Their Own Special Rack Job Position

by Frank Sanello

LOS ANGELES — While the rest of the industry seems to capitalize on the power of artists' greatest hits only during the gift-giving holiday season, one rack jobber has made a year-round practice of promoting its catalog of old and "not so old" classics.

Called "Golden Oldies" by the Minneapolis-based Lieberman Enterprises, these hits of yesteryear are prominently displayed with backing cards at all the accounts which Lieberman services. They deserve this kind of prominence since this single program accounts for more than one per cent of Lieberman's entire nation-wide sales.

Like the rest of Lieberman's inventory, the Golden Oldies are run on a computer ticket program which allows for easy replacement and reordering.

Flexibility

The decision on what to place in the Golden Oldies racks is based on a number of factors, according to David Gohl, Lieberman's national Golden Oldie buyer for the past year.

"We use sales figures for 45 singles from the Lieberman chain. When we purchase a single from a label, our purchase is based on both national sales and regional sales. We're flexible. If a record is doing well in, say, New Jersey, but not particularly well anywhere else, we will include that record in our Golden Oldie New Jersey racks."

The Golden Oldie program also solves some practical problems, especially those involving distribution. Lieberman cuts down on reorders at busy racks by transferring surplus product from slower racks to the faster sellers.

Explains Gohl, "If stock is available through another Lieberman branch, we will bring that stock in and use it in our Golden Oldie rack to cut down on reorders at the original rack. This helps the supplier as well as the rack."

Chart Reader

Besides taking sales figures into account, Gohl confesses to be an avid reader of the trade charts. In fact, the current top Golden Oldie sellers on the Lieberman roster are such recent pop chart toppers as "Macho Man," "YMCA" and "Copacabana."

"There is some irony," he said, "in the fact that such a new musical form as disco should be in the forefront of Golden Oldie buying, but we just follow sales and the charts."

Elvis

While those disco hits are the present best sellers, one artist who predates the disco era remains the all time golden oldie sales champ, Elvis Presley.

"The longtime best sellers are all by Elvis. And 'Jailhouse Rock' is the biggest of those," says Gohl.

Armatrading EP Bows

LOS ANGELES — Prior to the album release, A&M has come out with an EP featuring four songs by Joan Armatrading. Entitled "How Cruel," the 12" 33 1/3 rpm disc has a list of $4.98. The four tracks on the record are "Rosie," the title track, "He Wants Her" and "I Really Must Be Going."

CHANGES AT MCA — As a result of the recent corporate meetings at MCA, three members of the label's artist development staff — department vice president Russ Shaw, Ruth Carson and Larry White — and product managers Jan Shepherd and Cory Richards were let go for financial reasons. It is most probable that the artist development staff will be merged with publicity as it was once before at the company.

FREEDOM AT POINT ZERO — The new Jefferson Starship album represents a Phoenix-like rising from the ashes for the Jefferson Starship. It seems that the incident at the Lorely Festival in Germany in June of 1978 (a riot in which more than a million dollars in equipment was destroyed), the subsequent exiting of Grace Slick and Marty Ballin and the critical injury of John Barbata in a car accident, represented an all-time low for the San Francisco rock institution — point zero. However, 1979 saw the enlistment of drummer Ainsley Dunbar, vocalist Mickey Thomas and top flight producer Ron Nevison, developments which Paul Kantner termed freedom. The result of this resurrection is the latest Record Plant offering from the Starship, "Freedom At Point Zero."

MUSIC FOR ERA — At press time ERA members were gearing up for a Nov. 12 luncheon at the Bonaventure Hotel. The event which was held in support of ratifying the ERA, was to be highlighted by a series of musical variety vignettes illustrating the history of the amendment and the need for its immediate passage. Some of the music industry's finest talent including Carol Bayer Sager (performing an original song written for the ERA), Michelle Phillips, Melissa Manchester and Peter Allen were scheduled to appear.

ON THE TUBE — A new music-oriented television show, "Callback," will begin airing Nov. 17 on KNXT-TV/Los Angeles. The program has a talent showcase format and features comedy and variety as well as music. The show will be broadcast every Saturday (for twelve weeks) at 5:30 p.m. A panel of judges will select the top acts at each show, and winners will be invited back to participate in other showcases.

EXCELLENCE AWARDS — The Film Advisory Board recently honored composers Carol Connors and Robert O. Ragland for their score and songs in the new "Mountain Family Robinson" movie. The board is an international organization which promotes better motion pictures and TV programming. Shown in the center, with Connors and Ragland is Elayne Blythe, board president.

The well-dressed crowd responded enthusiastically to the handsome heart-throb's exotic mixture of rock and reggae stylings. Cash Box staffer Mike Glynn followed Palmer to his gig at the considerably smaller Crescendo in Anaheim and chatted with the intense, soft-spoken artist backstage. Confirming that he has been moving towards a harder rock sound, following the success of "Secrets" LP and Top Ten single "Bad Case Of Lovin' You (Doctor, Doctor)," Palmer added that he is cutting a new single culled from his current stage show, entitled "Maybe It's You." Palmer has also been covering Gary Numan's "Me I Disconnect From You" and The Pretender's "Kid," stressing his affection for the popular British music scene. "I really believe that the music which Gary Numan is making will be the music of the future," said Palmer, with typically English conviction.

STUDIO TRACKS — According to London's "Record Mirror" magazine it looks as though John Lennon, who is tired of raising the protein quota by farming beef in upstate New York, will do the rock once more. He is apparently gearing up to do an album with pianist Nicky Hopkins, his first in seven years. The Publication also reported that Lennon will most probably distribute the album himself rather than sign with a major label. . . . Bob Seger is in at Capitol's Studio A for final mixing and vocal overdubs on his new LP. . . . Jack Nitzsche is also in at the Tower's Studio A and mixing the soundtrack for the upcoming film about Beat poets Neal Cassady and Jack Kerouac, "Heartbeat." . . . Journey is in at the Record Plant in San Francisco and recording tracks for the band's next studio LP, "Departure." . . . The winners of the KMEL radio "New Oasis" contest were in Heider Recording studios collecting their prizes of free studio time and tape, with Six O'Clock News receiving 24 hours and Indiscreet garnering 18 hours.

UPCOMING RELEASES — CBS Records has a blockbuster release schedule set for the last week in November as new albums by Pink Floyd and Boz Scaggs, and the soundtrack to the "Star Trek" film are on tap. . . . Journey buffs should be pleasantly surprised when Columbia releases a remastered, resequenced double LP anthology by the band in late January. The album will contain the best material from Journey's first three LPs ("Journey," "Look Into The Future" and "Next") which will no longer be available in the record stores. The anthology will be entitled "In The Beginning" and the graphics will feature the winged logo of the "Infinity" and "Evolution" records.

ON THE ROAD — The Boss (Bruce Springsteen) has confirmed a Jan. 6 concert date with a Houston promoter, so fans can look for a tour announcement within the next few weeks. . . . Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers will damn the torpedoes and storm the Northwest with shows in Vancouver on Dec. 27, Seattle on Dec. 28 and Portland on Dec. 29. . . . Steve Forbert (Ol' Jackrabbit Slim himself) will kick off a west coast tour on Dec. 1 at the Rainbow in Denver, and show California audiences that "You Cannot Win If You Do Not Play" by the Fox/Warfield in San Francisco on Dec. 14 and UCLA's Royce Hall on Dec. 19. . . . Bonnie Raitt will perform at the Fox Warfield in the Bay City on Nov. 29 and at Sacramento Memorial Auditorium on Dec. 1. . . . Guitar wizard Rory Gallagher is set to play The Stardust Ballroom in L.A. on Dec. 20.

ODDS & ENDS — Heart lead guitarist Roger Fisher has left the band to pursue a solo career. However, Heart will keep pumpin' as a five piece. . . . Flutist Herbie Mann is celebrating his 20th year on Atlantic Records, and his latest LP "Yellow Fever" marks the release of his 50th album. . . . The main maestro of spoken soul, Barry White, was awarded an honorary doctorate degree at Paul Quinn College in Waco, Texas on Nov. 1. . . . Congratulations to Chris Hillman and artist manager Connie Papas who were wed on Oct. 27 at Yamashiro's restaurant in Hollywood on Oct. 27. . . . Kenny Rogers will host the 22nd annual Grammy Awards, which will air Feb. 27, 1980 on CBS-TV and originate from Los Angeles' Shrine Auditorium. . . . Is it true that Columbia's Rob Wunderlich is considering a pro hockey contract which would take him from the record industry?

FREEDOM AT POINT ZERO — Jefferson Starship — Grunt BZL1-3452 — Producer: Ron Nevison — List: 8.98

The new Starship are a well oiled rock 'n' roll machine that should turn a few heads with this album. Mickey Thomas' vocals bring a Journey-like sound to the band at times, but he is still able to fill Slick's shoes during the Kantner songs. Dunbar and Chaquico make the Ship's motor really run on "Jane," "Things To Come" and "Rock Music." There is still a lot of the Airplane in this sound, but it's been streamlined and updated. A fine comeback LP for the Bay Area band.

DEGUELLO — ZZ Top — Warner Bros. HS-3361 — Producer: Bill Ham — List: 8.98

"Deguello," for the more historically minded individual, is the song that General Santa Ana's troops sang before their last and final storming of the Alamo. ZZ Top may have the same thing in mind with their first Warner Bros. release, after a nearly three year hiatus, as they gather outside rock's Alamo ready to massacre pop music's versions of Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie. The wait for new ZZ Top product appears to have been well worth it.

RELIGHT MY FIRE — Dan Hartman — Blue Sky JZ 36302 — Producer: Dan Hartman — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Hartman has found the formula for great dancin' sounds and this album further explores the ground he mined with "Instant Replay." Disco goes will find it hard to stay off the dance floor as this is quality R&B/disco music. John Luongo helps out with the percussion filled mix and Hartman's exuberant vocals are thoroughly engaging. "Hands Down," "Vertigo/Relight My Fire" and a superb remake of Edgar Winter's "Free Ride" are the highlights here. This LP is a must for the dancing crowd.

WITCH DOCTOR — Instant Funk — Salsoul SA 8529 — Producer: Bunny Sigler — List: 7.98

This LP is an example of funk/disco at its most primal level. "Witch Doctor" is wild and rocky, and "Scream And Shout" is pure Bacchanalian disco. The band's vocal chants, interesting synthesizer embellishments and sudden horn outbursts make them a unique dance entity and one of the most cohesive funk units around. The most inventive arrangement of the LP is "Bodyshine," and R&B and dancing lists will find the song and the album to be good adds.

4 ON THE FLOOR — Casablanca NBLP 7180 — Producer: Al Kooper — List: 7.98

While the storm warnings for disco's demise hover ever darker, top flight studio musicians continue to cut strong dancin' albums. The latest case in point is Al Kooper's new concept group, 4 On The Floor. Most fans of the people in this band will want to arrest these guys for selling out at first, but the LP proves to be one of the most joyous disco romps of the year. Baxter's guitar work and Kooper's ingenious keyboard arrangements are sheer delights.

WE DON'T TALK ANYMORE — Cliff Richard — EMI America SW-17018 — Producers: Cliff Richard, Terry Britten & Bruce Welch — List: 7.98

"We Don't Talk Anymore" (overseas title: "Rock 'n' Roll Juvenile") would have to be considered one of the best crafted pop-rock albums released this year. This album (more so than his previous Rocket releases) uniformly and unequivocally cooks, and might take a few of the uninitiated by complete surprise for the same reason. No lightweight MOR oriented crooning here; this is Richard doing what he's done best since 1962.

EXTENSIONS — Manhattan Transfer — Atlantic SD 19258 — Producer: Jay Graydon — List: 7.98

This fine vocal/theatrical group still performs the music of the 30s, 40s and 50s with style, but with the aid of the Toto gang and producer Jay Graydon they move forward into a kind of space-bop groove. "Whacky Dust" and "Coo Coo U" are fabulous martian like vocal exercises, and the groups version of "Birdland" could easily become a pop hit. "Twilight Zone" is also a joyous romp for this eccentric foursome. For a variety of lists.

LOVE LITE — Shadow — Elektra 6E-233 — Producers: Williams, Beck, Willis and Mizell — List: 7.98

There are lots of interesting changes in texture, rhythm and tempo throughout this fine debut album. The group leans toward smooth R&B/funk songs but there are tinges of jazz all over this record. The threesome (Williams, Beck & Willis) are superb vocalists and their voices shine on the title track, "I Need Love" and "Say It Again," a silky ballad.

IT'S A MAN'S WORLD — Nan Mancini & JDB — Windsong BXL1-3498 — Producer: Denny Diante — List: 7.98

Formerly known as Johnny's Dance Band, this Philadelphia group serves up hard a driving pop/rock affair under its new title. Mancini possesses a dramatic and versatile voice and bends her chords every which way to stay with the Chris Darways synthesizer rhythms and the hot licks of guitarist Bobby Buntin. The top tracks here are the title cut, "Talk Of The Town," "Unkind Boy" and "People Say." For pop and AOR.

THE OTHER ONE — Bob Welch — Capitol SW-12017 — Producer: Carter — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Bob Welch is a musical paraphrasing of the proverbial George Gobel joke about being "a pair of brown shoes in a tuxedo world." Welch and his music, well into his third release now, showcases the man as a "tuxedo in a brown shoe world." "The Other One" embodies a near mannered smoothness of image and sound that's often avoided by lesser rockers in favor of cliched audience pandering. Bob Welch, on the other hand, simply doesn't mind wearing good clothes on both his clothes horse body and on his personable musical product.

LIVE FROM NEW YORK — Gilda Radner — Warner Bros. HS 3320 — Producers: Various — List: 8.98

Saturday Night Live fans will revel in this solo album from the primest of the Not Ready For Prime Time Players. Radner proves that she is one of the most gifted comedienne to come down the pike in years, as she moves facility through renowned character portrayals of Lisa Loopner, Emily Litella and Roseanne Roseannadanna. Her "Let's Talk Dirty To The Animals" is an instant comic classic, and friend Paul Shaffer's Don Kirshner impersonation should be saved for the time capsule.

IN CONCERT — Emerson Lake & Palmer — Atlantic SD 19255 — Producer: Emerson Lake & Palmer — List: 7.98

While many people believe that ELP became a pompous, keyboard encumbered dinosaur in its waning years, the band was always a superb live act. This farewell live album is proof as these three musicians extraordinaire serve up old classics like "Knife Edge" and "Pictures At An Exhibition" with style and grace. With elegant production and a 60-piece orchestra helping out on several cuts, the LP re-establishes why the group was known as one of the pioneers of Symphonic rock. "Peter Gunn" and "Piano Concerto No. 1" are the classics for AOR here.

THINK PINK — Fabulous Poodles — Epic JE 36256 — Producer: Muff Winwood — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

The group with the keen sense of black humor is back with its second album. "Think Pink" picks up where last year's foot-in-the-FM-door release "Mirror Stars" leaves off. Cuts like "Man With Money," "(Hollywood) Dagnet," "Cossack Cowboy" and "Vampire Rock" best exemplify its up-dated giddy fifties riffs with that wry lyricism that totally perforates the near mundane plights of the common man. Fun music with an undercurrent of bull's eye hit seriousness in its intent.

SAME GOES FOR YOU — Lelf Garrett — Scotti Bros. SB 16008 — Producer: Michael Lloyd — List: 7.98

This teen idol breaks out of his Tigerbeat clothing and really bares his rock 'n' roll teeth on "Same Goes For You." He also takes time out for a lilting sax ballad "When I Think Of You" and a rock/disco version of "Singin' In The Rain." However, the title track "Hungry For Your Love," "Guilty" and a good remake of the Raiders' "Kicks" rock with abandon.

RATHER BE ROCKIN' — Tantrum — Ovation 1747 — Producer: John Ryan — List: 7.98

Tantrum . . . three girls, four guys: the possibilities are endless. Their first release last year was put out with a noteworthy promise and caused enough sales reports for them to crack the infamous LP charts. "Rather Be Rockin'" is destined to jell the initial buzz and launch these deserving people on their way to across the board success. The hooks and heaviness displayed here cut through the haze like a laser and the distinctive fem vocalizing adds a refreshing edge to the proceedings.

JOLIS & SIMONE — Columbia JC 36249 — Producer: Ron Dante — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

After doing a superb job with the latest Barry Manilow album, producer Ron Dante is back with his most recent find, Jolis & Simone. The duo serve up some relaxed adult oriented R&B ala Chicago and the Doobie Bros. Dante's production is exceptional on "At The Paradise" which features some beautiful vocal overlays. Other fine tracks on the LP are: "I Love Making Love To You," "Midnight Lady" and "Cold Night In Calais." For a variety of lists.

THE FISH THAT SAVED PITTSBURGH — Various Artists — Lorimar SZ 36303 — Producer: Thom Bell — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

This is a surprisingly good soundtrack album, and it's no wonder. Thom Bell is the mastermind of the LP as he wrote, produced, arranged and conducted all the songs on the album. The Sylvers turn in a fine performance with "Mighty Mighty Pisces," as do The Four Tops with "Chance Of A Lifetime." The real pleasers on the album, however, are The Spinners' "(Do It, Do It) No One Does It Better" and Bell and James' treatment of the title tune.

CLOSE ENOUGH FOR LOVE — Peggy Lee — DRG Records SL 5190 — Producer: Hugh Fordin — List: 7.98

For more than 25 years Lee has been one of the most revered singers in pop music. Her lazy, sultry voice is, once again, in peak form on "Close Enough For Love." A fine jazz band led by arranger and conductor Richard Hazard provides the laid back cocktail jazz, and Lee handles such old classics as Cole Porter's "Just One Of Those Things" and Arthur Hamilton's "Rain Sometimes" as well as the current material by Manchester, Hamlisch and Michael Franks with her usual aplomb.

VIDEO CLIPS — Arista Records appears to be making a solid commitment to the development of software for the home video market. Following the production of a Kinks program for Time-Life Video, the label now plans to produce a feature length video on artist Dionne Warwick, including live performances, which will be available on cassette and distributed to retail outlets via Creative Image Productions. According to Michael Freidman, executive assistant to Arista president Clive Davis and head of the company's video operations, Arista is currently one of the few labels taking a fairly aggressive stab at cracking the home video market. "It hasn't been very economical in the past for the record labels to become involved in video," said Freidman. "But I think at this point the labels are convinced of the sales potential of the home video market." . . . Jon Roseman Productions is presently shooting a video of Paul McCartney's "Wonderful Christmastime," a new song for the holiday season, in London. AUDIOPHILE LP REVIEWS

CARLO CURLEY GOES DIGITAL — Chalfont-SDG 303 — Producer: Brian B. Culverhouse — Dist.: Discwasher Group — List: 15.00

This digital recording of the Allen Digital Computer Organ is a challenge for both audio equipment and your neighbors if you live in an apartment building. Compositions by Mozart, Charles-Marie Widor and Gabriel Pierné are included, but it is the Bach classic "Tocatta and Fugue in D Minor" that fully reveals the awesome majesty and dynamic range of the digital organ on this disc. Recorded in a massive, acoustically superb hall, the extremely low noise level of the digital process can really be appreciated as notes reverberate and decay for almost seven seconds.

THE GOOD LIFE — Discwasher-DR-004-D — Producer: Jefery Weber — Distributor: Discwasher Group — List: 15.00

On this Soundstream digitally recorded disc, four talented jazz musicians create an ebullient listening experience. Paul Smith on piano, Frank Capp on drums, Barney Kessel on guitar and Monty Budwig on bass sound as though they have played together for a long time, but this recording captures them jamming beautifully together for the first time. From a spirited up-tempo arrangement of "Someday My Prince Will Come" to the beautiful solo piano performance of Marvin Hamlisch's "What I Did For Love," this disc can be enjoyed for both technical and musical quality.

New Ass'n. For Retailers Formed By Webb In Philly

by Aaron Fuchs

PHILADELPHIA — Bruce Webb, owner of Webb's Department Store, has formed a new organization for record retailers, the Independent Record Retailers Protective Association (IRRPA).

In a nationally circulated letter to retailers, Webb wrote that "the IRRPA is organized in Philadelphia as a watchdog organization to right the wrongs that affect the livelihood of the independent record retailers and to see that all are treated fairly by the industry. Never before have the record retailers organized themselves as a lobby."

"IRRPA," the letter continues, "is about changing the unfair and discriminatory practices that are prevalent nationwide in the industry. We are asking all record retailers in the United States to join hands."

According to Webb, IRRPA will address itself to the issue of unfair pricing practices. "How is it possible," asked Webb, "for some stores to be able to sell records cheaper than we are able to buy them for?"

Fluctuating returns policies, and the withholding of deletion lists from small retailers, were other issues the new organization would address, Webb said.

"I want it to be clear," he stated, "that we are not like NARM or the BMA who have not been able to represent the retailers to the manufacturers on the bottom line dollars and cents issues."

"IRRPA will select people from its chapters in various cities," Webb continued, "to present issues to the manufacturers, to lobby where discriminatory laws are in effect, and to boycott records and/or manufacturers when and where necessary."

WHAT'S IN-STORE

MUSIC JUNGLE — The last six months has seen the opening of three new outlets in the Knoxville, Tenn. area comprising the new Music Jungle chain of retail record stores. The main store, located at Kingston Pike, encompasses over 8600 square feet and is decorated in a wildlife motif. Pictures of animals, plantlife and live birds are prominently displayed, with other novel features also in evidence. The counter, for example, is elevated some 2 feet off the floor providing customers with an unobstructed view of the store. There is also a large 8' X 10' pyramid in the front part of the outlet used to display hot material, as well as a 750 square foot glass-enclosed classical music area. Since opening the superstore in April, there have been monthly promotions and several major in-stores. These have included the awarding of a jukebox filled with Polygram product and 10 satin Bee Gees jackets at the grand opening, the raffling off of ten Van Morrison jackets, and a current contest in which 5 sets of headphones will be given away in conjunction with the new Headboys LP. One of the most interesting contests was held with Arista Records, and WBIR-104 FM, where a large gas pump was installed in front of the store to represent the cut, "A Gallon of Gas," from the latest Kinks album. A drawing was then held and 104 gallons of gas awarded to the winning entrant. There have also been several major in-stores including a Charlie Daniels Band appearance in late August which drew over 500 people, and one on Nov. 11 featuring Kool and the Gang and the Bar-kays.

LOW RIDER PROMO — The 31-store Peaches chain, working with CBS Records, Harley-Davidson and Arnakata Artist Management Co., has launched a Judas Priest "Low Rider" promotion timed to coincide with the group's current national tour. During most of November, a Harley bike will be on display in each outlet as part of a Judas Priest display window. For their part, Harley stores will be advertising the "Unleashed in the East" contest and will be providing the grand prizes — a Harley-Judas Priest jacket for each store. The winners will be selected on Nov. 26.

PEACHES, CINCINNATI — A number of unusual contests taking place at the Peaches, Cincinnati store . . . A "Memories of Elvis" contest, in conjunction with WLWS radio in which participants must submit their memories of Elvis in 25 words or less. The promotion was launched during a radio concert on the station Nov. 9 and will culminate in a judging on Nov. 15. First prize will be a complete Elvis catalog with the first 200 entrants also receiving free Elvis Posters . . . A "Taste of Passion" competition, with the raffling off of a $350 Jean-Luc Ponty violin later this month . . . A Kool and the Gang promotion supported by De-Lite Records and the Palm Room to be held at the disco on "Ladies' Night," Nov. 14. The first 200 women through the door will receive free Kool and the Gang singles with 500 coupons also to be distributed enabling the bearer to purchase the LP at a special sale price. In addition, passes good for $1.00 off admission price to the Palms will be given out at the store with each purchase of the "Ladies' Night" LP.

MORE CONTESTS — Lots of other activity this week . . . Cream Records will be holding its third "Snail Crawl" Nov. 13 at Tower, San Francisco. The promotion involves a drawing with the winner given two minutes to see how many records he or she can carry off while crawling on their knees. A similar competition tied in with an in-store by Snail was recently held at Tower, Campbell and drew over 300 people . . . 1812 Overture, Milwaukee conducting a Tom Petty contest featuring a torpedo filled with "petty cash." Customers must guess how much money is loaded into the weapon . . . Peaches, Indianapolis, along with RCA, is holding a drawing for a Dolly Parton pinball machine. The winner will also receive a 6 X 6 album art board representing the "Great Balls of Fire" album cover . . . Gary's, Virginia raffling off five complete Styx catalogs along with two grand prizes enabling each winner to be placed on the A & M mailing list for one year . . . Another catalog give-away at Cutler's, New Haven, this time for the Crusaders' albums along with a special Crusaders' watch . . . Peaches, Cleveland and Atlantic Records are planning a free trip to the upcoming world-wide Foreigner concert, for the winner of a drawing to be held at the outlet. The concert will be held in Atlanta and the lucky pair will spend a free night at the Omni Hotel.

CUSTOMER QUOTE OF THE WEEK — "I know you don't want to look up these five albums for me, but I am calling long distance."

IN-STORE — The Scorpions at Sound Warehouse, San Antonio, Nov. 8 . . . Funkadelic and Parliament at Peaches, Memphis, Nov. 6 . . . Patrick Hernandez at World Records, Phoenix, Nov. 3 . . . Tower, Campbell reporting in-stores by Rainbow, Nov. 6 and Storm, Nov. 2 . . . The Halloween-day Molly Hatchet in-store at 1812 Overture, Milwaukee was successful with several hundred patrons attending . . . Another gigantic Shaun Cassidy appearance reported at Grapevine Records and Tapes, Akron, Ohio, drawing over 2000 people.

REGIONAL BREAKOUTS — Latest Phyllis Hyman album breaking out of the east coast while the new Pablo Cruise and Toto are very strong in the west . . . New Waylon and Head East albums deriving most of their sales in the midwest with new Atlanta Rhythm Section LP doing extremely well in the South.

TOP SINGLE BREAKOUT OF THE WEEK

SEND ONE YOUR LOVE — STEVIE WONDER — TAMLA/MOTOWN

TOP ALBUM BREAKOUT OF THE WEEK

BEE GEES GREATEST — THE BEE GEES — RSO

FEATURE PICKS

TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS (Backstreet/MCA MCA-41138)
Don't Do Me Like That (2:40) (Skyhill Publishing Co., Inc. — BMI) (T. Petty)

The first single off of Petty's new hot-selling album bounces along to a rock steady, engaging beat, bopping hook, staccato guitar chords with lively production. Making a heavy chart debut this week, this track should establish Petty and crew as a solid pop singles group. Retailers, this comes in a picture sleeve with a great unreleased B-side.

TERI DeSARIO (Casablanca NB 2227)
Yes, I'm Ready (3:05) (Dandelion Music Co. — BMI) (B. Mason)

From the "Moonlight Madness" LP, this soft, lilting duet between the sweet-voiced DeSario and friend, producer K.C. of the Sunshine Band is quickly becoming a radio favorite. Muted electric piano combines with clicking guitar, percussion and synthesized string effects to create a placid, pleasant winner for A/C and pop lists.

KENNY ROGERS (United Artists UA-X1327-Y)
Coward Of The County (4:18) (Roger Bowling Music — BMI/Sleepy Hollow Music — ASCAP) (R. Bowling, B.E. Wheeler)

This sentimental story-song from the "Kenny" LP promises to be the C&W smash of the year, with its sense of pathos and western melodrama. Already receiving heavy pop adds and entering the charts this week with the highest debut, it will also be a big crossover record and a heavy sales item.

TOWER OF POWER (Columbia 1-11157)
In Due Time (3:17) (Michael Jeffries' Music — ASCAP) (M. Jeffries, G. Crockett)

The second single off of TOP's "Back On The Streets" LP is a lushly produced, melodic number from this Bay Area powerhouse band. Lead singer, writer Michael Jeffries receives exceptional vocal assistance from Cheryl Lynn on a vocal duet and harmonies. Strings and horns mesh perfectly for an outstanding B/C, pop crossover effort.

SANTANA (Columbia 1-11144)
You Know That I Love You (3:28) (Light Music — BMI/Urmila Music — ASCAP) (C. Solberg, D.C. Santana, A. Ligertwood, A. Pasqua)

A wailing electric guitar opening sets the scene for this highly commercial, pop-rock effort from Santana's new "Marathon" LP, as the hard, solid rhythm section propels the cut behind the bluesy rock vocals of lead singer Alex Ligertwood, formerly with David Sancious. Another shift for Santana, but most appealing for Top 40.

SPYRO GYRA (Infinity 50,041)
Jubilee (3:55) (Harlem Music/Crosseyed Beary Music — BMI) (J. Wall)

Spyro Gyra turns in a funky followup to its gold "Morning Dance" single, as hard, popping bass work seizes neatly into another of Jay Beckenstein's organically melodic horn figures. Slightly more eclectic than "Morning Dance," this will still garner good pop and plenty of jazz interest.

IAN GOMM (Stiff/Epic 9-50802)
Hooked On Love (2:09) (Albion Music) (I. Gomm)

This highly accessible Stiff artist follows up his Top 25 "Hold On" single with this jumping pop-rockabilly tune from the "Gomm With The Wind" LP. A bright, snappy horn section punches up the rumbling, building beat while Gomm cranks out the vocals with pure pop flair. A choice number for AOR and pop lists.

MOLLY HATCHET (Epic 9-50809)
It's All Over Now (3:25) (Kags Music Corp. — BMI) (B. Womack, S. Womack)

Molly Hatchet pumps out some heavy-duty axe work on this rock 'n' soul classic by Bobby Womack, which has been covered previously by a number of rock singers, most notably Rod Stewart in his "Gasoline Alley" days. This hard drivin', Southern-fried rocker should garner heavy AOR, pop interest.

SINGLES TO WATCH

MAUREEN McGOVERN (Warner/Curb WBS 49129)
Can't Take My Eyes Off You (3:38) (Saturday Music, Inc./Seasons Four Music Corp. — BMI) (B. Gaudio, B. Crewe)

McGovern follows up her "Different Worlds" single with this disco-flavored re-working of the Four Seasons hit, with an ever-present horn section blasting its way through a mixture of strings and congas. McGovern's dramatic coloratura makes this ideal for A/C, pop and disco play.

MILLIE JACKSON & ISAAC HAYES (Spring/Polydor PD 2036)
Do You Wanna Make Love (3:55) (MCA Music, a div. of MCA, Inc. — ASCAP) (P. McCann)

This Jackson and Hayes duet from "The Royal Rapin's" LP is a smokey cover of the Peter McCann hit, with soft instrumental backing leaving the focus on the oft humorous tradeoffs between two black artists who are among the most outspoken and top-selling on or off B/C radio.

MIREILLE MATHIEU (Ariola 7775)
A Man And A Woman (a lover, a friend) (3:26) (Paul Anne Music Inc. — BMI) (P. Anka)

Mathieu, a top-selling international recording artist, applies her high, quivering vocals to this Paul Anka number, which he also produced, and the results are a stunning ballad that is only slightly marred by her faint accent. She delivers the chorus with the power of a Streisand. For A/C, pop lists.

ONNIE TYLER (RCA PB-11763)
I Believe In Your Sweet Love (3:04) (Scott-Wolfe Songs/Prince of Wales Music Publishing, Inc. — ASCAP) (R. Scott, S. Wolfe)

Welsh Ms. Tyler's vocal style has often been compared to Rod Stewart's and not without justification. Here, her raw warblings are applied to a melody that is uncannily similar to some of Stewart's early work. AOR and pop should check into this one.

BLUE STEEL (Infinity 50,044)
Shark (2:20) (Tarka Music Co. — ASCAP) (D. Twilley)
 Blue Steel adds a hard Southern rock edge to this cover of this Dwight Twilley Oklahoma rockabilly number, with a battery of electric guitars kicking off this tailor-made tune for AOR. From the "No More Lonely Nights" LP.

McFADDEN & WHITEHEAD (Phil. Int'l. ZS9 3725)
You're My Someone To Love (3:33) (Mighty Three Music — BMI) (J. Whitehead, G. McFadden, J. Cohen)

A slow, soothing R&B ballad is turned in by McFadden and Whitehead on the third single from their self-titled LP, as a heavy bass figure is placed right out front with the dynamic duo's vocals. All the elements of a B/C hit are here.

THE FLYING LIZARDS (Virgin VA 67003)
Money (2:31) (Jobete Music Co., Inc. — ASCAP) (B. Gordy Jr., J. Bradford)

Virgin's ad copy for this Top 5 U.K. hit boasts that it cost $20 to produce, but this minimalist anti-art tune actually sounds like it could've been done for less. Still, this is a strangely catchy cover of the classic rock 'n' soul tune and was formerly a top-selling import here.

MARK HOLDEN (Scotti Bros. SB 507)
Stay (Saber Tooth Music — BMI/Scott-Tone Music — ASCAP) (M. Holden, G. Sklerov, P. Threlfall)

Holden's a new, young crooner cut firmly in the MOR mold as displayed by this pleasant, rich ballad. The building crescendoes should be familiar to most by now, but his vocal reading is warm and heartfelt. Perfect for A/C formats.

GIBSON BROTHERS (Island IS 49113)
Oooh, What A Life ... (3:41) (Ackee Music, Inc. — ASCAP) (A. Francfort, D. Vangarde)

An edit of the track found on The Gibson Brothers' "Cuba" LP, this song shakes to a reggae-influenced disco beat, with Latin-flavored percussives effectively mixed in. The "Cuba" cut was a big disco hit and this song should follow suit. Also fine for pop play.

U.K. SUBS (RCA PB-11766)
Tomorrow Girls (2:22) (Famous Music — ASCAP) (Harper)

A pummeling bass, guitar and drum beat mark this popular U.K. new wave number from the U.K. Subs. Offbeat electronics are the only variation from the insistent, aggressive tone of the song. Released here as a three-song EP, this is ripe for AOR.

THE FARAGHERS (Polydor PD 2038)
Say When (3:23) (Faraflap Music/Mad Vincent Music — BMI) (J. Faragher, T. Faragher D. Faragher, V. Poncia)

From The Faraghers' self-titled LP, this chugging pop-rock selection represents a successful change of pace for the brothers. Handclaps meld with the rolling drum work, wirey guitars leading to a Knackish hook. Pop programmers, check this out.

THE CHARLIE DANIELS BAND (Epic 9-50806)
Behind Your Eyes (3:53) (Great Eastern Music Co. — BMI) (J. Boylan)

The third single off of the "Million Mile Reflections" LP is an easy, slightly jazzy number, with less of a C&W influence than CDB's last two singles. Clicking guitar runs blend in with full electronic piano shadings for a sure A/C, top pop tune.

SOLOMON BURKE (Infinity 50,046)
Sidewalks, Fences and Walls (3:39) (Jerry Williams Music, Inc./Excellorec — BMI) (J. Williams, Jr.)

The title-song from this veteran R&B hitmaker and producer's upcoming Infinity LP is a beautifully-orchestrated, powerful "soul" ballad with an edge of Chicago blues to it. Recalling Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett and other greats, B/C, A/C programmers should give this a listen.

APRIL WINE (Capitol P-4802)
Say Hello (2:59) (Goody Two-Tunes, Inc. — BMI) (M. Goodwyn)

Co-producer Myles Goodwyn provides Canadian rockers April Wine with a unique, rolling pop tune, which builds to the band's trademark guitar work from an ambling synthesized melody. Layered harmonies make this adaptable to pop formats.

CLONE GLASSCOCK FOR MAYOR — On Oct. 29, Duane Ingalls Glasscock, clone-air personality at WBCN/Boston, announced his write-in candidacy for Mayor of Boston. He also unveiled a fifteen point campaign platform that included the abolishment of capital punishment in favor of tarring and feathering, a year off from school for kids between eighth and ninth grades to see what the real world is like, the reorganization of the New England Telephone system so that all phone numbers would be changed twice monthly, the distribution of supplies to anyone who needs them provided they come to a distribution center with someone from a different race than they, the closing of all discos and nuclear plants and a personal vow to appoint Bill Lee as manager/player of the Boston Red Sox. Locked in a professional life and death struggle with Charles Laquidara of the same station (a recent Boston Globe Reader's Poll showed Laquidara as the favorite local personality and Glasscock a strong #3 in that category), Glasscock held a press conference Nov. 3 which was attended by some 400 fans who braved the rainy elements, but alas, the few write-in votes he received were not enough to get him elected.

BEATLES TOUR JACKETS — Many stations have kept their listeners glued to the dial by airing the Beatles A through Z. WMMR/Philadelphia decided to spice up the already popular feature by tying in Beatles movies and memorabilia giveaways during the weekend of Nov. 3-4. Listeners had the opportunity to see "Help," "A Hard Day's Night," and "Let It Be" for only $1.93 and that Sunday night, they could tune in and talk with Lewis Yager who helped engineer the "Paul is Dead" rumours. Among the items given away were videos of the group's Shea Stadium and Budokan appearances with a cassette unit to watch them on and Beatles Reunion '79 Tour Jackets (I was there. They weren't).

GOLDEN OLDIES — The Music Director Programming Service in Indian Orchard, Mass., has added 500 titles from 1970-1979 to its Basic Golden Oldies library offered to radio stations. Reels are available in mono or stereo. In addition, the firm offers a Christmas package of seasonal songs and traditional Christmas music. Budd Clain, general manager of the company said the library was expanded for those stations with a small record library who wanted to do a decade wrap-up at the end of the year. Clain can be reached at (413) 783-4626.

Saturday night featuring Sinatra's music, reminiscences and guests.

MORE IN PROMOTIONS — WWDC/(DC101)/Washington, in a project co-produced with Epic Records, is offering a three-cut EP featuring Molly Hatchett, Cheap Trick and David Werner for $1.01. 10,000 copies of the EP were pressed using orange vinyl and 100% of the proceeds will go to the Special Olympics. In addition, WWDC will provide matching sums for each EP sold...KMEL/San Francisco recently completed the Sammy Hagar "Street Machine" promotion, a five-week radio campaign that culminated by giving away a red, 1979 Pontiac Trans Am, a duplicate to Hagar's own car... KOFM/Oklahoma City has given away $3,101.11 so far during the station's Cash Stash contest. The winner of the KOFM/Pepsi Mystery House Contest won a trip for four to Disneyworld in Orlando, Fla.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION — Looks like Rupert Holmes may be on the way to his first top 10 single. "Escape (The Pina Colada Song), which moved from 41 to 25 bullet on the Cash Box Top 100 Singles Chart, is the most active radio record this week with strong sales action reported in most regions of the country... Seems everytime KHJ/Los Angeles plays "I Do Believe In You" by Pages, the switchboard lights up with requests from people to hear it again. The group just finished a tour of West Coast stations and the single was added this week at KFI/Los Angeles, KNOW/Austin, and is already on WISM/Madison, KPAM/Portland and KSLY/San Luis Obispo to name a few... The three most added albums on FM this week are "Hydra" by Toto, "The Fine Art of Surfacing" by the Boomtown Rats and ZZ Top's "Dequello." The Pat Metheny Group is proving to be one of the more successful jazz crossover groups with its new ECM LP "American Garage" coming in 11th most added out of the box.

SYNDICATION INDICATIONS — Guest personalities have been set for the remainder of November on "Star Trak," Westwood One's nationally syndicated rock news and interview radio show hosted by Candy Tusken. Scheduled are Lindsey Buckingham of Fleetwood Mac, Tommy Shaw of Styx, Bonnie Raitt, Jimmy Messina, Suzi Quatro, Nicolette Larson, Moon Martin, Boomtown Rats and Chicago... Golden Egg's Future File premieres Jan. 7, 1980. The package of ten three-minute features weekly will spotlight the seers and scientists who will create the world of the future, i.e. Ray Bradbury and a discussion about the politics of future planning and composer Larry Fast talking about music's technological future... Tim Di Noto, president of Tuesday Productions, has formed Network Production Music Library with long time associate Bob Skomer. NPML was founded to give recording studios, ad agencies, TV and radio stations, audio visual departments and cable TV companies a contemporary source of background music for their production efforts... The From Studio B Company is currently releasing the first three features in its new on going syndicated series called "The Station Gang," a radio comedy series. Each feature can stand on its own, however all of the features have a continuing theme; the central character is either a station executive or on-air personnel at the station. 'Rapper's' Tops Cash Box Chart

"It started out as a grass roots phenomenon in the city," stated Paul Zarcone (known to radio listeners as J.D. Holiday), the new program director for the station, "but our sales reports and research shows that the record has crossed over to white teens in the suburbs as well as the city."

Zarcone said he feels the record expresses a street feel "to an extreme," but he added that he viewed "The Rapper's Delight" primarily as a novelty record.

Not Novelty

However, Robinson disputed this viewpoint. "I don't think it's a novelty record," she said. "Rapping has been going on for some time. Kids rap over records all the time, and it's done at discos. I think it's a way for people to escape. You may say its nonsense but its not really."

Joe Fisher, PD at WRBD in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., commented: "It's definitely a grass roots type of song. People in the streets have never gotten away from it. And when somebody put it out commercially, it was a natural to be a hit."

OUR COMPETITORS SWEAR THIS KIND OF DIGITAL QUALITY IS STILL THREE YEARS OFF.

Almost everybody admits digital recording will someday be the ideal way to make records.

With a Sony PCM-1600 system, you can stop waiting for that someday to happen.

And start recording now.

IN THEORY, ALL DIGITAL SOUNDS TERRIFIC.
IN REALITY, SONY ACTUALLY DOES.

If your ears are even in semi-reliable condition, you've no doubt been exposed to incredible amounts of digital audio hype.

"The most dramatic change in audio since flat records," says one prestigious audio publication. "At last...perfect sound reproduction," notes another.

So instead of dwelling on how digital can improve the sound of your recordings, we'd rather dwell on how Sony—and only Sony—has finally made digital performance live up to its promise.

"WE'D LIKE TO DEDICATE
THE NEXT FEW NUMBERS TO THE SONY
ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT."

In order to convert regular audio signals into digital, the Sony PCM-1600 digital recorder uses a pulse code modulation system developed and perfected by Sony engineers.

The same people who have been behind virtually every audio and video breakthrough since the late 1940's.

Consequently, the dynamic range of the two track PCM-1600 is greater than 90dB.

Frequency response is 20 to 20kHz.

The total harmonic distortion of the PCM-1600 is inaudible over the entire audio spectrum.

There is no measurable wow and flutter.

And because the PCM-1600 puts binary code on tape instead of audio signals, it's not susceptible to tape hiss or print-through; there's no need to subject your music to noise reduction equipment or realign your recorder for bias and equalization.

EDITING PROBLEMS HAVE BEEN FADED OUT.

Since the PCM-1600 works in conjunction with two Sony video recorders, a standard Sony video editor, the BVE-500A or the new DEC-1000 will fill your every editing need.

DROP-OUTS HAVE BEEN DROPPED.

Based on a technique used by computers (where the loss of a single bit of information could mean millions), Sony engineers have created an ultra-sophisticated digital correcting code that can actually restore "dropped out" information.

And considering that Sony video recorders are virtually immune to this problem in the first place, the chances of it plaguing your sessions are all but negligible.

DIRECT-TO-DISC QUALITY WITHOUT DIRECT-TO-DISC LIMITATIONS.

Because digital quality doesn't deteriorate from one tape generation to another, the PCM-1600 lets you make generation after generation of lacquers, all with direct-to-disc quality—but without any limitation on the number of lacquers you can press.

And if you use the digital format for distribution to your foreign affiliates, you're guaranteed that your last digital master will be absolutely identical to your first.

SONY INTRODUCES TWO NEW WORDS TO THE DIGITAL VOCABULARY:
AVAILABLE NOW.

Unlike other digital equipment, the PCM-1600 is actually available for delivery today. Not six months from now. Or "when we finally get all the bugs out."

PCM-1600's are currently being used by well-known recording stars, and are already in operation at Polygram, CBS, Spectrum Sound and Digital Recording Services in Los Angeles, and Digital Recording Systems in Philadelphia.

A FEW SONY DIGITAL ADVANTAGES
YOU CAN'T HEAR.

Besides the quality and reliability Sony equipment is legendary for, we've set up a 24-hour digital hot line to service our customers.

We're prepared to provide as much technical expertise and engineering assistance as only Sony possibly can.

And we intend to continue our exhaustive research in digital audio—and share future insights with the growing Sony digital family.

If you'd like more information about any facet of Sony digital equipment, contact Roger Pryor at (415) 467-4900.

You may think you've heard a lot about digital in the past.

But until you've heard Sony, you haven't heard anything yet.

We've never put our name on anything that wasn't the best.

lifting government controls from radio, they chose a procedural route as a more effective way to block deregulation.

Specifically, the motion asks the FCC to hold extensive hearings nationwide, to release several documents on radio deregulation previously requested by citizens groups, to extend the period of time to file comments (four months after a tentative decision is announced), and to rescind the proposed inquiry and rulemaking until certain items are explained.

"Radical Remedy"

By rewriting the FCC's notice, the groups argued, the public will be saved time and money, avoiding tangents and better focusing on the issues. Beyond complicated procedures for public participation, the groups resent what they call the FCC's radical departure from the current regulatory scheme. The FCC's proposal would eliminate any regulation designed to make radio licensees responsive to local community needs, they argue. It would lift the ascertainment and logging requirements from radio broadcasters and delete requirements on the percentage of news/public affairs aired, as well as lifting maximum limits on commercials (Cash Box, Sept. 15, 1979).

This is a "radical remedy, the elimination of rules heretofore thought to be a bedrock of public trusteeship in radio," the ACLU stated. Until now, the motion said, FCC rules "have been designed to foster a marketplace of ideas, not just an economic marketplace." Freeing radio from regulation puts emphasis on economics, it argued.

Worse, the ACLU filing said, the FCC is attempting to "intrude its regulatory hand into the most competitive section of the Communications Act, resulting in the protection of existing licensees against those who would perform better." Challengers won't stand much chance of winning licensees in comparative renewal hearings if programming issues are not addressed, the ACLU noted.

Although the FCC's September proposal said the Fairness Doctrine would not be removed for radio broadcasters, the ACLU fears that the "far-reaching new approach" which the FCC advocates "might also apply to the Fairness Doctrine, to television licensees and perhaps other areas of FCC regulation."

In a parting shot, the ACLU said the FCC is relying on an unreleased staff report for its important proposal: "We are not aware of prior instances where the FCC has relied exclusively on a staff study prior to a notice of proposed rulemaking of such far-reaching nature... An agency with a budget of $65 million can certainly be expected to issue a more comprehensible document."

backwater of the music industry. "If you hold the convention in a major center of the industry, like L.A. or New York, you'll get more decision-makers, people who can make deals," stated Feinberg. However, he added that he had made some contacts at MUSEXPO which might prove useful later on.

Expansion

Carlo Bixio of Italy's Cinevox Records, which specializes in movie soundtracks, but is now expanding into rock and pop, attended MUSEXPO to mingle and meet American record people. He was able to make three or four deals for Italian rights to certain songs, and he was also hoping to sell some of his own material here. However, he was disappointed that there weren't more U.S. label executives at the convention.

Production companies were faced with a similar problem. Artists and small labels were bringing them demos, but there wasn't much of an opportunity for them to meet with A&R people from major labels. Most of the A&R executives who did attend the convention came in just for the last day, when several of them appeared on an A&R and artist development panel.

However, Dr. Tom Stockhem of Soundstream Productions, a digital production company, said he was able to make deals with a couple of labels. He added that he had come to MUSEXPO specifically to meet with representatives of these companies, while spreading his digital gospel to other labels, especially in the pop field.

Stockham noted that digital will soon have a "cash foothold" in pop recording, mainly because artists are going to demand it. A big act like Fleetwood Mac is going to want its record mixed digitally, said Stockham, in order to preserve the richness of the individual tracks. In addition, he noted, the artist doesn't have to worry about the master tape deteriorating either with age or with repeated playings to generate new stampers for millions of records. A new master can always be produced that will sound exactly like the original digital master.

Producers And Publishers

The rather sparsely attended panel discussions at MUSEXPO began on Nov. 4 with the "International Lawyers Licensing and Management Seminars" and ended Nov. 8 with the "Creative Services" workshop/seminar. In between, there were panels on "Record Production," "Radio entertainment and leisure operations. Lord Delfont will serve as chairman for the operation.

EMI Agrees To New Thorn Bid

The EMI board's acceptance of Thorn's proposal marks the apparent end of speculation as to the company's future following the disclosure of significant financial reverses during the 1978-79 fiscal year. In the music division alone, a 22% drop in sales revenues over the final six months of the 78-79 fiscal year led to losses totalling $31.8 million.

In addition, EMI's medical electronics division, whose future is uncertain with Thorn EMI, also suffered significantly, with 78-79 reverses bringing the division's total losses to approximately $56 million during the past two years.

Following the disclosure of the 78-79 setbacks, Paramount Pictures of the USA proposed a merger of music operations for approximately $154 million in July, and Thorn made its initial bid in October. Both offers were rejected by EMI.

However, in a statement issued by Thorn following the EMI board's acceptance of the latest proposal, "Both boards believe that the revised terms for the merger are fair and reasonable for the shareholders of each company."

Peters Int'l To Issue Papal Documentary

NEW YORK — Peters International will release a documentary album in November commemorating the recent trip by Pope John Paul II to Ireland. The album, "Pope John Paul II In Ireland," was produced by the Irish National Broadcasting Service (Radio Telefis Eireann) and chronicles the Pope's journey through Dublin, Killineer, Clonmacnois, Galway, Knock, and Limerick.

Radio Telefis Eireann will donate proceeds of the album's sale to a Catholic charitable organization. The album will list for $7.98.

Attraction Between Country Music And International Scene Growing

by Don Cusic

NASHVILLE — Nashville and country music are becoming a prime attraction for the international market, as evidenced by two individual unrelated announcements made this past week.

First, the Tennessee tourism department has hired a public relations firm, Cochran Communications Ltd. in London, to represent the state in bringing tourists to Tennessee. Gavin Cochran, head of the firm, spent ten days in Tennessee during the first part of October, visiting various cities and locales.

Cochran noted that the country music industry in Nashville and Elvis Presley's home in Memphis were two of the top attractions for Europeans wishing to visit Tennessee. The third top attraction was the Jack Daniels distillery.

Contacts will be made primarily with package tour operators in Europe organizing tours to the United States. Tennessee has become a strong contender for the European traveller since Atlanta has become a 'gateway' city with flights both leaving and arriving directly from Europe.

An announcement was also made last week that a delegation from the People's Republic of China is scheduled to visit Nashville Nov. 9-11 for the purpose of acquainting themselves with the industry.

Chai Zemin, the Chinese Ambassador to the United States, will be heading the trip which could result in a tour of China by country music artists during 1980. The trip is being coordinated in Nashville by Frances Preston of BMI, Joe Talbot of Joe Talbot & Associates and Irving Waugh, Tennessee Commissioner of Tourism in conjunction with Jim Free, special assistant to President Carter.

384 Songwriters Reap Cash Prizes At The First Music City Song Festival

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — A grand prize of $10,000 was awarded to a Tennessee man last week in the first Music City Song Festival competition. Byron Gallimore emerged as the victor from a field of thousands of contenders from the United States and other parts of the world.

Winning Song

In addition to the prize money, Gallimore will also have his winning song, "No Ordinary Woman," recorded in Nashville by the Grand Prize winning vocalist, Barbara Johnson. The single will be released in December by Little Giant Records.

Gallimore's song will also be included in a compilation album of Festival winning songs scheduled for release in January, by Little Giant. Mick Lloyd, vice president of A&R for the label will produce the LP and single.

A total of 384 award winners were selected by a panel of 18 judges Oct. 27. Three places in three different categories were awarded, as well as 25 fourth places awards in each of the categories. Categories, winners and prizes are as follows:

Song Competition — Grand Prize, Byron Gallimore, — $10,000; Second Prize, Bobby R. Cox, $3,500; Third Prize, Nancy Clapper $1,500 and Fourth Prize, 25 winners, $200 each.

Also, 100 Honorable Mention winners in each of the categories will receive certificates of achievement, and Grand Prize and Second place winners will be awarded the opportunity to record a winning song and a winning lyric, which will be set to music. The single will be released and distributed by Little Giant.

A panel of 18 judges, including Cash Box Nashville Director Jim Sharp, participated in final judging activities Oct. 27. Numerical votes were tallied by an independent certified public accountant, and the judge's decisions were announced at a banquet that evening.

Donation

At that banquet, an announcement was made that a portion of the monies collected for the festival would be donated to the Nashville Songwriter's Assn., International and to the Federation of International Country Air Personalities (FICAP).

In addition to the 1979 Country Competition for amateurs, the Music City Song Festival has a gospel competition for both professional and amateur songwriters, lyricists and vocalists underway at this time. Because of recent international inquiries into the competition, the gospel competition has been extended to Feb. 18, 1980, to give these people time to return their entries.

The second song festival is scheduled to begin Dec. 1, 1979, and will be expanded to include rock/R&B, easy listening, and country categories for both professional and amateur songwriters, and lyricists, as well as amateur vocalists and piano and guitar players.

PBS Network Showcases Tribute To Bluegrass Music With Special

NASHVILLE — Bluegrass music, which has not enjoyed the fruits of the recent success of country music, will receive a real boost in the arm the first week in December when a 90-minute bluegrass special will be aired over the PBS network.

Viewer Reaction

The Public Broadcasting network decided to film the program and use it as a fund raising program after seeing the viewer reaction to the Grand Ole Opry special, which was broadcast live from the Grand Ole Opry last summer. The Opry telecast proved to be one of PBS' most watched programs ever.

The show was filmed on Nov. 6 at the Grand Ole Opry house in Nashville and was hosted by Tom T. Hall. The show featured Grandpa Jones & Family; Jim & Jesse and the Virginia Boys with Charlie Collins; Raymond Fairchild, Wallace & Wayne Crow; Wilma Lee & Carol Lee Cooper; The Clinch Mountain Clan; Doc & Merle Watson with Michael Coleman and Marty Stewart; Buck White and the Down Home Folks; Mac Wiseman, Janna Jacoby, The Seldom Scene and Bill Monroe and The Bluegrass Boys with James Monroe and his band.

The show is being produced by Bob Boatman with Al Nelson the writer.

REVIEWS

A BELIEVER SINGS THE TRUTH — Johnny Cash — Cachet CL3-9001 — Producer: J. Cash, J. Routh and J. Clement — List: 10.98

This is a double album of gospel songs from a country music legend. Most are self-penned, although there are a number of other noted songs, such as "Gospel Boogie" and "He's Alive." All done in Cash's inimitable style, this collection is a highlight of his career and will be a highlight in any record collection. Best cuts include "What On Earth," "When He Comes," "I'm a New-born Man" and "I'm Just An Old Chunk Of Coal."

JUST MARGO — Margo Smith — Warner Bros. BSK 3388 — Producer: Norro Wilson — List: 7.98

Margo shows herself to be stretching out both musically and in sexy poses on this album. A real treat as it contains 12 songs instead of the usual 10. Best cuts include "The Shuffle Song," "I'd Rather Be Sorry," "Night Flight," and "He's Lyin." This is a versatile album from an artist who has proven herself successful on the country charts.

ON THE LINE — Don Cox — Arc MC 5901 — Producer: Hoyet Henry & Sonny Throckmorton — List: 7.98

This is a solid country album by a relatively unknown artist who seems destined for some attention and success. There's a good selection of songs here with a wide range of material being represented. Best cuts include "(They're Writing Your Name On The Walls Again) Sally," "Roy Rogers" and "Crazy Arms."

KENNY ROGERS (United Artists UA-X1327-Y)

Coward of the County (4:18) (Roger Bowling, BMI/Sleepy Hollow, ASCAP) (R. Bowling — B.E. Wheeler)

A great record that will add to the collection of standards Kenny already has. A story song that delivers the big punch both musically and lyrically. Look for this to be another landmark in Rogers' phenomenal career.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ (Epic 9-50808)

What'll I Tell Virginia (3:10) (Hall-Clement, BMI) (B. McDill)

The combination of the voice of Rodriguez, the songwriting of Bob McDill and the production of Billy Sherrill is nearly impossible to beat and that's the combination on this record. The song and production are great and Johnny delivers this Spanish flavored number in hit fashion.

11th Annual Country Radio Seminar Scheduled For March 14-15 Date

NASHVILLE — "Answers To The Questions of the 80's" will be the theme of the 11th annual Country Radio Seminar, slated for March 14-15 at the Hyatt Regency here.

The two-day meeting, which annually serves as a forum devoted exclusively to country radio, this year will focus its attention on 1980 radio through a host of informative panel programs, with presentations by key speakers in broadcast and related fields.

"It will be a nuts and bolts workshop to examine basic radio problems," notes Don Boyles of WSUN Radio in Tampa, Fla., this year's Radio Seminar chairman.

"As much meaningful material as possible will be covered in both general and concurrent sessions that will relate to all market sizes," continued Boyles. "We'll be addressing ourselves to such questions as: How Do You Talk To Arbitrators?, How Do You Find Out What People Want To Hear?, How Do You Cope With Social Change?, How Will Your Program In The 80's?, How Do You Put Your Face In Your Marketplace?, and How Do You Control Your Career?, among others.

Seminar officials anticipate some 500 country broadcasting attendees from across the country for the event, which last year drew 400-plus.

More information regarding agenda topics, speakers and registration will be forthcoming as plans are finalized.

Proceeds from the seminar annually go toward scholarships for college students in mass communications.

Benson Looks At Gospel Market, Sees Healthy Future For Company

by Don Cusic

NASHVILLE — In a restructuring move at the Benson Company, Bob Benson has resigned as president and John T. Benson III, who held the title of chairman of the board, has taken over the offices and duties of the president.

When asked about his recent move and whether it was permanent or temporary, John Benson noted, "I think I have eight to ten years of a good productive life left here. I'm certainly not ready to retire to the front porch. I am excited about this challenge and want to be more involved with the artists and their careers. I have committed to a lot more travel and am looking forward to making this company move." Benson also stated that he would hire a president again some day but not in the foreseeable future.

Musical Direction

Looking at the Benson Company musically, John Benson has growth and progress in view for the future. "Musically, we will continue to commit ourselves to traditional, MOR and contemporary with the hopes of signing more acts and having the current acts selling more records."

When asked about why the company sold the Gaither catalog, Benson admitted, "I really don't have a good answer for that. It boils down to the fact that another label has them now and the end was in sight for our sales. Also, Gaither had an option in his last contract to buy back his masters so we used that option as a way of concluding the recording relationship."

"I'm trying to put some fiscal responsibility at the head of this company," said

Benson. "The bottom line is an ugly word, but it's got to work." Benson also expressed a conservative approach towards expansion, noting that he will be careful not to overextend the Benson Company financially. "We've never had the capital of the major labels," said Benson, "and that lack of a big cash flow has probably held gospel back."

In discussing the popularity of gospel music, Benson noted, "We often talk about gospel music today being what country music was ten years ago and that gospel music can be as big as country music. But when you challenge people to clean up their act with songs of conviction, the popularity of those will never be as great as 'let your hair down baby behind closed doors.' The New Testament says we are peculiar people and peculiar people aren't ever going to be the mass of people. We may always be ten years behind country music and if we ever catch up it'll be a miracle."

In discussing the recent economic problems, Benson noted that his company has managed to 'keep up with inflation' and hasn't suffered a decline in business like some secular labels.

Benson is committed to his company and the future. Commenting on a family business, he concluded, "Whatever your father was committed to, you're probably not as committed to it. The goals of my grandfather and father were not the same as mine but we are all committed to the Benson Company's growth and representing and encouraging a philosophy and lifestyle."

STEPHANIE — Stephanie Booshada — Chrism R-7815 — Producer: James Barden and Brown Bannister — List: 7.98

Stephanie Booshada is a very talented young lady who records contemporary Christian music. This album shows her versatility as a singer and writer on such cuts as "Let Your Faith Do The Walkin'," "He's Gonna Make Your Dreams Come True" and "Where You Lead Me, I'll Go."

STEPPIN' — Charles Stewart and Good News — Musique de Soleil SM 101 — Producer: Marc Katz — List: 7.98

Stewart and his group open the door for a walk through the black experience in gospel music. This live album features Stewart's stage talking as well as his singing. Best cuts include "God Can Do Anything" and "Steppin'."

BEFORE THE BEGINNING — Eddie Wohlford — Canterbury — Producer: Eddie Wohlford — List: 7.98

A new, young artist from Alabama on a small label, Wohlford shows he has musical talent and good songs — mostly self-penned. An exception is the Beatle's song "I Will," done beautifully. Other cuts include "Ballad Of The Eliza Battle" and "Let Me Be The One."

Indie AVI Bows 23% Return, But Labels Stand Firm

Under the new policy, distributors will have to fill out special inventory forms and forward them to AVI on the 1st and 15th of each month. The reports must be current to be eligible for return authorizations.

When contacted by Cash Box, several independent distributors handling the AVI line said they would have little problem with the 23% ceiling. One distributor, for example, noted that indie labels traditionally have had some form of restricted returns based on the cyclical nature of the business.

Although Motown was unavailable for comment, label executives at other leading independents including Arista, Chrysalis and T.K. expressed differing approaches to the problem of returns.

Sal Licata, senior vice president at Chrysalis, said he did not foresee any change in the label's returns policy in the immediate future.

Similarly, T.K. Records chief Henry Stone said that although returns this year are running ahead of a year ago, the label is "working triple hard internally to see that records are not overshipped."

While noting that setting a ceiling on returns is "a move in the right direction," Elliot Goldman, senior vice president of Arista Records, said the problem is under "constant study" at the label.

"It's certainly in the realm of possibility that we will do something in this area," according to Goldman, "if we feel the move will have some substantive impact of a positive nature on our distributors and ourselves."

He pointed out that an across-the-board returns percentage will have a different impact on a young, independent company than it would have on a major label with a vast catalog of albums.

"My concern in looking at the things that have been done by some of the major companies is that they have enormous catalogs, and to the extent you are talking about an overall label returns percentage, the amount of catalog they move out over the course of the year gives the individual retailer an enormous cushion against which to work the percentage. But on a young label like we are that has mostly new product, I think the institution of a returns percentage might have a greater immediate impact and we have to measure that to make sure that we either do it in a way that phases it in."

Continuing, he said, "Let's say that a major sells 5 million units of that catalog kind of product where the store owner knows he's really not going to return any of it; he's buying what he needs. He knows what his sales pattern is over the last four or five years on that product, and he knows it's going to sell. So if he buys that much every year and he's suddenly on a 20% returns basis, he has a million units that he can use for returning other product.

"But if you move to an Arista, which is a young company and doesn't have an enormous catalog, there isn't that kind of cushion. Suddenly the institution of a returns percentage becomes much more restrictive on an individual basis than it does for a large company that has a catalog.

"So as much as I like the institution of a returns percentage as a concept, I really have to be careful and measure it as to what exactly its impact will be on our sales and posture in the marketplace."

Odyssey Records Files Chapter XI

creditors in meetings prior to the filing.

Listing liabilities totalling $8,522,022 owed to its 10 largest creditors in the brief, Odyssey's total indebtedness is rumored to be in the neighborhood of $11 million, against assets of approximately $3 million.

Named in the brief as Odyssey's 10 largest creditors were Columbia Records (CBS), Polygram Distribution Inc., WEA, RCA Corp., Capitol Records, MCA Distributing Corp., ABC Records-N-Tapes, A&M and Associated Labels, Peter's International of New York and Memorex Corp.

During an Oct. 24 meeting with the major creditors, Odyssey founder-president Rich Bullock stated that for the first nine months of 1979, the chain's revenues totalled $14.5 million, which resulted in losses of about $5 million.

The financially troubled chain is also involved in several suits over allegedly unpaid bills. Pickwick International ($164,000), the GRT Corp. ($250,000) and Record Merchandising of Los Angeles ($56,395) are all in various stages of litigation with Odyssey.

"We Are Family" was the theme song for the Pirates during the past season.

Songwriters Bow In ASCAP Show

the year.

"Helping Songwriters"

"ASCAP was interested in helping its young songwriters, so they hired me to direct a workshop," says Tucker, who ran a private class until Arthur Hamilton brought it to the society's attention.

Besides running the workshop, Tucker, who screens all of the tapes sent in by songwriting workshop hopefuls, selects the students herself. Only 10 percent of the applicants become members. This explains the reason why the symposium's waiting list now numbers more than 300.

Tucker's keen eye for talent has paid off as the workshop has yielded 125 published songs; 50 record releases; two charting records; two writers signing for major publishing deals (after appearing in last year's Supersongs event) and 18 winners in the American Song Festival. In addition, one of the songs written by a participant in the upcoming Supersongs presentation will be used as part of the score in the upcoming Clint Eastwood movie.

Each class is composed of 15 students and calls for each member to bring in one song a week. The songs are either performed on acoustic guitar or piano (in the comfort of Tucker's Hollywood hillside home) or played on cassette. Productive comments are made by Tucker and other apprentice songwriters throughout each session.

"It's almost like therapy," explains Tucker. "A great sense of family comes from the intimate surroundings, and the writers constantly root for one another. I find myself with tears in my eyes after each rewarding 10 week period.

Voting On Best

At the end of each workshop, the class votes on each member's best song, and those tunes are performed for a guest publisher who is invited to voice his professional opinion. Many publishers have found the workshop to be a consistent source of good material.

"We (Tucker and colleague Hamilton) like to feel we are pointing the students in the direction of writing Top 40 songs," says Tucker. "Most of the members come into the class with their own pure style and we try not to interfere with that. However, we do steer them toward the commercial Top 40 format by stressing formula, structure, pay off lines and hooks. We analyze every part of the song."

cameras and a remote 24-track sound facility. The film is for an upcoming documentary... The L.A. Home Video Show, produced by Tepfer Publications, will take place Nov. 17-18 at the Los Angeles Convention Center... Cable TV received a boost from a recent FCC decision lifting all regulations of receive-only satellite earth stations. The action is expected to drop the price of earth terminals drastically, which the cable industry has been anxiously awaiting.

SONY EXHIBITS NEW DIGITAL PRODUCTS — At the recent A.E.S. convention in New York, Sony Corp. exhibited working production models of 5 new pieces of digital equipment, including a second generation digital editor for the PCM 1600 recorder; a digital processor to convert 16 bit professional recording to 14 bit consumer recordings, a major advance in the field of home digital audio; a 24-track, 2 piece recorder utilizing 1/2" tape and featuring 7 switchable sampling rates; a portable 4-track digital recorder, containing full conversion equipment and completely compatible with studio equipment, utilizing 1/4" tape; and a remote-controlled digital reverb unit, featuring 9 reverb modes. All of the digital equipment exhibited will be available towards the middle or end of 1980.

DISNEY DOES IT DIGITALLY — Walt Disney Productions achieves yet another first, this time in the field of audio rather than animation, by issuing the first all-digital soundtrack album from a major motion picture. The soundtrack for the $20 million film production "The Black Hole" will feature a digitally recorded score, written and conducted by Academy Award winning composer John Barry, who will lead a 94-piece orchestra on the LP. The soundtrack will be released nationally on Disney's Buena Vista label prior to Christmas.

dbx NEWS — dbx, Inc., which currently has 21 discs available in its line of dbx-encoded records, recently finished mastering "Saturday Night Fiedler" and, according to Jim Camacho, plans to have over 50 discs in its catalog by the end of 1980. Labels presently represented in the line include Vox, Orion, Desmar, Chalfont, Clavier, Midsong, Realtime, Nautilus, Sine Qua Non, Direct-Disc Labs, Musical Heritage Society and Mushroom.

JACKSONS TOUR IN TROUBLE — Principals of The Black Promoters Survival Council based in Atlanta are organizing a national campaign against Leonard Rowe, present promoter of the Jacksons World Tour. The organization, which is headed-up by Hosea Williams, will be placing trade and consumer advertising explaining what they say were unscrupulous tactics in obtaining the tour. They are also picketing ticket outlets in some cities where the Jacksons plan to appear, putting up posters, giving out leaflets and buying radio spots, and local and national print advertising in several newspapers. Also involved in the dispute is another promoter, Alvin Few, who said he was promised the tour by the Jacksons' management, gave them $20,000 for them to appear in Gary, Indiana and they never showed up or returned the money. PROGRAMMERS PROFILE — Brute Bailey, program director at WIGO in Atlanta says, "My initial goal in life was to be a career military man, but after I was sent to Vietnam for the third time I changed my mind. Though Bailey admits he was always known to be the man with the music, his interest did not swing toward broadcasting until he was stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia. "I remember listening to Paul "Fat Daddy" Johnson as a child in Maryland, and being somewhat influenced simply because I thought he sounded good. I had acquired a great deal of stereo equipment, because I could get it very inexpensively so people always called on me if there was a party or whatever. From doing that, I evolved into doing disco clubs, and with some persuasion I started working at WOKS." After being a part-timer at that station for over a year, Bailey felt that he wasn't really learning about the business of radio because the style of WOKS was very free, so he went to WCLS, which was a general market station in that area. Bailey looks upon his stay at this station to be one of the more valuable radio experiences he had. "Bill Paris, who now programs the UBC chain, was consulting that station when I went there. He hired David Tate, who was very involved in the business side of programming and taught me a great deal." Bailey then returned to WOKS as its program director, and this time stayed with the station for a year and a half. From there he went to WBOP in Pensacola, Florida, which was going through some management and format changes. When that station's Disco/rock format was finally organized, he got a call from the management of WIGO in Atlanta. When asked about future plans for himself, he said, "There seems to be such a need in the industry for good black programmers to program black radio stations that I want my involvement to continue in that area. If it is possible that I can pass on some of the knowledge that I have learned from other PDs, that is the issue that is uppermost in my mind."

RADIO ACTIVITY — The National Association of Broadcasters is publishing a book called "Getting What You Bargained For: A Broadcaster's Guide to Contracts and Leases." The publication gives a general discussion of contract law and has sample forms of employment agreements, talent contracts, studio and tower leases, performance releases and advertising contracts. The book is written by Joseph A. Smith and is available through the NAB for $15 to members and $45 to non-members. The FCC has approved the Viacom/Sonderling merger, assigning all Sonderling stations except for two to Viacom International. WOL in Washington will not go with that group because it was recently sold to a minority buyer under the distress sale policy. WBMX/WOPA in Oak Park, Ill. will be retained by the Sonderling organization. Proposals made by the National Telecommunications and Information Administration to increase minority ownership in broadcast facilities are being opposed by the National Black Media Coalition because that organization says they are not good enough. Under the present plan, the FCC plans to waive multiple ownership rules, three year holding rule for applicants showing substantial minority ownership. Pluria Marshall, who heads up the National Black Media Coalition says that the 25% minority ownership that will be accepted by the FCC should be 51%, because blacks want to control, not just participate.

ARTISTS ACTIVITY — The Commodores have been invited to tour China as part of a cultural exchange program which is expected to happen sometime next year. A new album from War, will be released in two weeks, entitled "WAR, The Music Band 2." The first single from the album will be "Don't Take It Away," which is a special long version of two of the group's earlier hits "The World Is A Ghetto" and "Night People." This compilation has been re-mixed into a very interesting version. Tied into a very extensive marketing campaign for the album, look for the slogans, "We Believe In War" and "War To The World" to show-up everywhere. L.A. International Records will release its first product in two weeks: a new group called Giant!, which features a coming together of such well known artists as Carlos Santana, and Lee Oskar, will debuts. That label will also be releasing "Pressure," a band created by Ronnie Laws.

INTERNATIONAL DATELINE

Argentina

BUENOS AIRES — A symposium on the promotion of Argentinian music and the effects of phonographic piracy was held Oct. 31 at the Bauen Hotel. Authors Armando Pointer, Chico Novarro and Francis Smith explained the reasons for the current crisis affecting local music and suggested measures to improve its promotion; while Dr. Miguel Angel Emery, executive secretary of the Latin American Federation of Record Producers (FLAPP) and a member of the FLAPP-CISAC committee against piracy, and Maria del Carmen Hajdenwurcel, secretary of the Chamber of Music Publishers (CAEM) spoke about the damages to authors, composers, artists and phonographic producers caused by piracy. The opening address was delivered by Nelida Lopez French, president of CAEM.

Ariola recording artist Angela Carrasco arrived in Buenos Aires to take part in the shooting of La Playa del Amor, the new movie produced by Microfon and featuring the diskery's pop music cast. The company also arranged a party at the Dover pub to introduce the new LP by Daniel Altamirano to the press and trade.

Phonogram's pop A&R topper Adrian Berwick is travelling to Europe to sign new contracts with some of the labels represented in Argentina by his company. The trip will take a couple of weeks and may also mean additional signings. In the folk field, Phonogram is enjoying strong success with the latest LP by Los Visconti, who recently travelled to Columbia for personal appearances. They also received a gold record for their sales of their previous efforts.

EMI's WEA division has released an album with the greatest hits by Aretha Franklin, and a single and LP by Rod Stewart, who has been very strong on the charts with his "Da Ya Think I'm Sexy?" For tango music fans, there will soon be another album by Ruben Juarez, one of the leaders in this field.

RCA had a party at Michaelangelo celebrating the arrival of Italian star Nicola di Bari, who will tour the interior, as well as perform in Buenos Aires, most likely at the Grand Rex theater.

Canada

TORONTO — With the release of "Survival" and Bob Marley's concert appearances on a cross-country tour here, WEA has assumed the rights to Island. The international deal, which had brought the label to WEA in the USA more than a year ago, had been held up by RCA's Canadian deal with Island here. Island Canada gave the label its first gold record anywhere with the CRIA certification of Marley's "Exodus" disc earlier this year. Robert Palmer's "Secrets" album is well on its way to achieving platinum in this territory, which will be another first for Island. Although she ought not have difficulty in finding work, here's hoping ex-Island director Cathy Hahn stays part of the industry. Her hard work was crucial to the label's successes above the U.S. border.

Let's try not to be cynical dept: Hockey's Guy Lafleur is riding high with the success of his disco-instructional hockey album, "Power Play." Already the best in his sport, Lafleur is already poised for platinum on his debut disc. Reportedly, this disc is moving well in (where else?) Quebec. And heck, he's already surpassed the musical exploits of the Buffalo Sabres' Jim Schoenfeld, who made an abortive attempt at a singing career a few years back. Luckily, the latter stuck to the ice. Lafleur is currently on an 80-date promotional tour with Les Canadiens, his supporting act.

By the time this is in print, let's hope Capitol's head of press/artist relations, Celeste Mulherne, is back on her feet, after a nasty bout with pneumonia... The provincial government is still tabulating the results of the summer Wintario halfback program, which saw old lottery tickets used as half-buck vouchers on domestic product. Early indications are highly encouraging. Is a half-million too high, or a quarter-million too low?

Germany

MUNICH — WEA Germany managing director Sigfried Loch announced the acquisition of the Govi Records retail chain. Comprised of 20 branches throughout Germany, the Govi chain was rescued from bankruptcy by WEA Germany's action. The label will probably continue its import sales, plus promote their catalog through the chain.

MCA Records and Ariola Records are joining forces in Germany. Starting Jan. 1, MCA will switch distributors, moving from Metronome Records to Ariola, and create a new subsidiary, MCA Germany, to handle promotion and marketing. The deal includes distribution of MCA/ABC and various custom labels.

EMI/Electrola Records are on the upswing, according to Dorit Adenaur, EMI Germany pr spokeslady. New releases from Promises, Alan Parsons, Stevie Wonder, Cliff Richard, Pink Floyd, Queen and The Knack are all presently on the charts.

The German Hi-Fi magazine Hi-Fi-Stereophonie is instituting a new award for the music business. Starting at the "Hi Fi Fair" in Dusseldorf in 1980, the magazine will award the "Critic's Prize" in opposition to the "Deutscher Schallplattenpreis," which has caused some confusion. Trouble is, since jury members for the "Deutscher Schallplattenpreis" are selected to a great

Piracy Conviction In Montreal Points Out Weakness Of Laws

by Kirk LaPointe

TORONTO — As evidenced by a recent conviction in Montreal, the Canadian music industry is the victim of "toothless" laws in its efforts to combat tape piracy in this country.

Owing largely to an outdated Copyright Act, which has been in effect since 1924, illegal duplication of recorded product is a highly lucrative field for exploitation. In a judgment passed down this past week, Tina Papanthakos of Montreal was fined the maximum $250 plus court costs for possession of close to 6,000 illegally produced 8-track tapes and cassettes.

"Quite clearly, we're dealing with antiquated laws," says Brian Robertson, president of the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA). "There seems to be little deterrent, if any, to the tape pirate."

The case, tried by the Quebec Court of Sessions, was only the second contested tape piracy case in this country. Not wishing to assume the court costs, most other accused merely plead guilty and take the meager fines. In all cases, the pirated tapes are destroyed. This most recent conviction involved Greek repertoire licensed to Peters International in North America. 3,904 tapes and 2,027 cassettes were ordered destroyed.

The problems, most evidently, stem from the government's halting progress in revising the Copyright Act. CRIA and others in the music industry have made proposal briefs to the federal government on possible revisions, and a Green Paper was issued 18 months ago. But since then, six studies have been commissioned by the government to further study the necessary changes.

"I doubt whether anything shall be done before three or four years," Robertson admits. "Until then, we'll be fighting a losing battle. We don't need toothless laws."

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police (the national police force), usually assisted by CRIA, investigates possible illegal duplication instances. Proof-of-purchase evidence, or lack thereof, usually leads to most arrests. It is estimated some 8-10% of legitimate business is eaten away by tape piracy, bootlegging and home taping.

Most of the pirated tapes come into Canada through Singapore, says Robertson. With consultation with such international organizations as the IFPI (the international anti-piracy federation), there are continually several cases brought before the courts. But Canada is easy pickings for the tape pirate, the CRIA president says. "The counterfeits and bootlegs are often such good copies, they're returned by the stores to the record companies for refunds," Robertson concluded.

Nippon Columbia Net Profits Jump 52.6%

TOKYO — Nippon Columbia Ltd. announced that net profits for the first six months of the 128th term jumped 52.6% to 1.2 billion yen ($5.2 million) over the same time period in the 127th term.

Covering the period from March 21-Sept. 30, 1979, total revenues for the company were 28.9 billion yen ($125.2 million), up 8.5% from the 127th term.

The remarkable profit turnaround was attributed to a surge in musical product sales. Record sales revenues for the period reached 11.8 billion yen ($51.3 million); while tape/audio sales revenues totalled 12.0 billion yen ($52.2 million).

FROM HAVANA TO TOKYO — Celebrating the release of Cuba's Irakere on the Victor label in Tokyo, recorded in Havana by Japanese technicians under the terms of a new cooperative agreement between both nations, various dignitaries gathered at the Cuban Embassy. Also included in the agreement are future releases by Algo Nuevo and Conjunto Caney. Pictured are (l-r): Shoo Kaneko, Victor senior managing director; Ambassador Jose A. Ariola France Opens New HQ Complex In Paris

LOS ANGELES — Ariola France (Eurodisc) recently moved into a new office complex in Paris. Under the direction of general manager Rene Cacheux and Michel Poulain, co-general manager, the Paris offices will be the label's new headquarters in France.

The new offices were established, in part, to handle Ariola's planned upgrading of its French operations, which will include sales and distribution duties once the current distribution contract with WEA International expires in June 1980.

At this time, Ariola France has an internationally oriented roster that includes Amanda Lear, the Peter Jacques Band, J.J. Cale, Sky, Herman Brood, the Three Degrees and Angelo Branduardi; while Ariola/Hansa contributes Viola Willis and Charlie Fawn.

Future Plans

Long-range plans include the development of local French artists to complement the international cast. However, local acts will only be signed gradually until the company can gear up to a higher capacity.

Additional staffers at the new Paris complex include Sophie Clergeat, general secretary, and Jacques Duchaussoy, sales director.

MADRID — Release of the new Eagles album "The Long Run" on the Hispavox label spurred initial orders of over 50,000 copies in Spain... Supertramp, whose LP "Breakfast In America" is still one of the hottest sellers in this market, will tour Spain from Nov. 8-13. Tour stops include Barcelona (Nov. 8-10) and Madrid (Nov. 12-13) and, according to CBS officials, should stimulate sales for the group's entire catalog, which has already reached the million mark.

Also in November, the Guimbarda label will celebrate its first anniversary by offering a series of recitals by important folk artists, including Happy Traum, Alain Giroux, Le Grand Rouge, Boira and Quintin Cabrera. What this Spanish label lacks in heavy sales, it makes up for in support and enthusiasm from its fans who applaud the quality and purity of the productions.

RCA is now distributing 20th Century-Fox in Spain. The promotion of Edwin Starr's "H.A.P.P.Y. Radio" single and album has been imaginative and effective... Record companies here are making more and more use of television for commercial spots, and it's paying off. After the success of Julio Iglesias' "24 Golden Hits" on CBS, Ariola's "Super Doble" various artists package and Epic's "Various Artists, Vol. 2," EMI is advertising its Beatles "20 Golden Hits" in this medium.

Spanish television has announced its representative for the next OTI festival. Ana Maria Lobo, who records for the Zafiro label, has been chosen.

The ECM label will soon be available in Spain. To be distributed by the Catalan label Ediga, ECM product is eagerly anticipated by jazz enthusiasts, who are excited by the prospect of product by such renowned artists as Keith Jarrett, Jan Gar- barek, Egberto Gismonti and Paul Motian.

Finally, CBS celebrated its 10th anniversary in this market with a gala dinner, presenting new product and giving gold records to local artists Victor Manuel and Miguel Bose for their national and international hits.

United Kingdom

LONDON — Swedish Euro-pop group ABBA broke CBS Records UK's all-time sales record when its latest LP, "ABBA's Greatest Hits, Vol. 2," shipped double platinum (600,000 copies) before its scheduled Nov. 2 release date.

Atlantic Records UK is rush-releasing a new album from Emerson, Lake & Palmer. Titled "In Concert," the LP was recorded at Olympic Stadium in Montreal during the now-defunct group's '77 USA/Canadian tour... Meanwhile, Elektra will release a double LP set culled from the recent five night special at New York's Madison Square Garden by Musicians United For Safe Energy (MUSE). Due in December, the LP, titled "No Nukes — The MUSE Concerts For A Non-Nuclear Future — Live From Madison Square Garden Sept. 19-23, 1979," should be a monster worldwide seller, as it features such renowned names as Jackson Browne, Bruce Springsteen, Ry Cooder, The Doobie Bros., Peter Tosh, Graham Nash, Bonnie Raitt, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, James Taylor, Carly Simon, Poco, Gil Scott-Heron, John Prine and Jesse Colin Young.

MCA Records recently announced that it will set up its own independent operation in Germany. Under the terms of the new agreement negotiated by Monti Leuftner, president of Ariola, and MCA International president Roy Featherstone, the new German MCA company will utilize Ariola's pressing, sales and distribution services. The agreement will also bring the MCA label to Ariola under a long-term license, commencing Jan. 1, 1980, in Benelux, France, Spain, Mexico and Brasil... MCA is also mounting a major campaign surrounding the release of a new LP from M, whose definitive Euro-pop single, "Pop Muzik," hit the American charts and is well on its way to 3,000,000 sales worldwide. The new M album is titled "New York, London, Paris, Munich," and is set for release Nov. 30, following a single from the LP titled "Moonlight And Muzak," which was released Nov. 9.

Island Records has gone to independent distributors to handle the new release of Marianne Faithful's new LP, "Broken English." EMI, Island's usual presser and distributor, refused to touch the album, objecting to one track titled "Why D'ya Do It," a sexually explicit poem by Heathcote Williams. Island managing director Tim Clark defended the cut, saying it "has absolute artistic integrity and is thus a vital part of the album." nick underwood below my cost if I want to make any money on it at all."

Deadlines For Deleted Goods Stir Widespread Controversy

Immediate Orders

Lasky said that in most cases, a recall from a manufacturer prompts dealers to stop buying the affected product. But this apparently was not the situation that occurred when Capitol Records announced in June that it was deleting five Paul McCartney albums. "I got immediate orders for all the LPs I had in stock, because most dealers knew that the product would not become available until Columbia re-released it," he said. "It was one of the first times I ever put out a deletion list and had nothing to return to the company."

Sol Zamek, vice president of the Los Angeles-based City One Stop, agreed that deadlines can be a major problem for a large distributor. "On the average, we just don't get enough time to notify our customers, check in their returns, and ship them back out to the distributor. But most vendors will cooperate with us and give us an extension on the deadline, which is good because it cleans up the street. And vendors have an obligation to clean up the street."

Obligation To Circulate Notices?

However, not all distributors feel that they have an obligation to circulate manufacturers' deletion notices. Jerry Richman, general manager of Richman Bros., a Philadelphia-based one-stop, argued, "Why should I be the one to accumulate the returns when they could have been bought from any one of my competitors? I see absolutely no need of going through the hassle of sending out a list. I have an obligation to my regular customers, but that's where my responsibility ends."

When Richman moderated the recent manufacturer's panel at the NARM regional in Philadelphia (Cash Box, Nov. 3, 1979), he urged the labels who employ deletion deadlines to abandon them. "I told the audience that if it's good for CBS, it must be good for everyone else, because CBS doesn't do anybody any favors," he said. Richman said that due to a lack of a unified industry standard on the matter, retailers who don't normally buy direct are marketing deleted LPs unintentionally at both regular and cutout prices. "This problem is creating hard feelings with many, many dealers."

Phil Steinberg of P.B. One Stop in St. Louis concurred with Richman. "The logistics of the situation are just impossible," he noted. "We have 350 accounts, and everytime I send out a list, I'm inviting my customers to return every damn record on that list, whether they bought it from me or not."

'Sgt. Pepper'

Steinberg said an exception to this rule was the notice he received recently from RSO Records concerning the deletion of the "Sgt. Pepper" soundtrack. He explained that because the record's list price is $15.98. "I didn't think it was fair that my accounts get stuck with it."

Nonetheless, there are some distributors that do believe they have an obligation to circulate deletion lists for their own good. "We always back our accounts up — big and small, said Stan Meyers, branch manager for the Skokie-based Sound Unlimited. "We mail each list at great expense because we want to keep our customers. We need them healthy. It's to our benefit for him to keep his inventory clean. Too much excess gets too costly."

Atlantic Discounts LPs By Four 'Superstars'

NEW YORK — Atlantic Records is offering a 5% discount on five of its current LPs as part of a year-end "Superstar" sales and marketing program. The albums include "In Through the Out Door" by Led Zeppelin, "Head Games" by Foreigner, "Risqué" by Chic, "Highway to Hell" by AC/DC, and "The Muppet Movie." The label has made 2x2s, posters, and other merchandising materials available to support the program.

Momentum

"We've already established tremendous momentum on these LPs," noted Sal Uterano, vice president of sales for Atlantic, "and this national impact program will help us carry the momentum through the winter. Coupled with our November and December release schedule, we anticipate a very strong fourth quarter performance."

Robert Palmer

VANDERBILT UNIV., NASHVILLE — Some people can do what they like. Robert Palmer has a recurring habit of proving that he is one of those people. Palmer has been on the brink of mass superstardom for at least two years and some three albums, with critics heralding the release of each album as the "one to do it for him."

So far, these albums have not managed to catapult Palmer into the eons of out and out mass appeal. But they are certainly making him noticed. The never ending concert tour he seems to have been on for the past five or six years is definitely not hurting either. Palmer on vinyl is good, but Palmer in person is heaven. He is charismatic, he's a charmer and he's strikingly handsome. And one more thing. He's a darn good singer.

On this occasion he was in rare form. Palmer is not one to rely too heavily on past hits or the same old tried and true stage show year after year. He is innovative. He does what he wants, and he does what he likes — which works out quite well for the audience. They seem to like what he does.

Palmer performs a well-rounded set of 20 songs which total about 90 minutes. And after a few years of trying first one musician and then another, Palmer has found the band that suits him — a tight quintet that doesn't just follow Palmer's lead, but aids him in creating a musically perfect unit. That unit is comprised of Leo Nocentelli, Pierre Brock, Allen Mansfield, Jack Waldman and Donny Wynn.

Palmer is a master of subtlety, a practitioner of the understatement. Perhaps that's why his concerts are so good. The eyes are not bombarded with flash pots, disco balls and rolling fog. There is room to take each song as it comes, and savour it. Palmer has a knack for getting the most out of each tune.

Although Palmer's delivery on every number was good, a couple of songs shine just a little brighter, namely the title track of this third album, "Some People Can Do What They Like," and a cut off his current "Secrets" album, "Can We Still Be Friends."

Before he came back out for two encores — where he jumped off the stage and danced in the aisles with the audience — Palmer performed the songs that probably started it all for him, and the songs that gauged the largest audience response. "Sailin' Shoes/Sneaking Sally Through The Alley."

Judy Tzuke

THE VENUE, LONDON — The demure Miss Judy Tzuke made her first London appearance at The Venue recently, and equipped with material from an excellent Rocket Records debut LP, "Welcome To The Cruise," a recent UK Top 20 singles hit "Stay With Me Till Dawn"; a tight musically-groomed backing band; and above all, one of the most poignantly clear and refreshing voices to be heard for many a moon — Tzuke showed that she has slipped onto the stardom Express with a talent that won't let her off too easily.

Twenty-three year old Miss Tzuke, quite simply, could attain the sort of status of an English Joni-Mitchell-for-the-'80s. With a powerful electronic folk ethos and songs (penned by herself along with her guitarist and backing vocalist Mike Paxman) which give poetic insights to truth and honesty concerning urban emotional alienation and contemporary spiritual chaos, Tzuke shows artistic credibility rarely found of late.

At times, through nerves and what appeared to be an irritable throat, Tzuke's stage presentation seemed sloppy and ungraceful in a typically English way but the romantic drive and emotively resonant quality of her voice compensated for any rough edges due to basic stage inexperience.

She delivered beautiful well-structured songs, which included an impassioned rendering of her album title track "Welcome To The Cruise," the exquisitely haunting choral "For You," "New Friends Again," plus of course, the highlight song, "Stay With Me Till Dawn."

Tzuke's backing band, Jeff Rich on drums, Paul Muggleton on percussion and backing vocals, Mike Paxman, Bob Noble on keyboards and John Edward on bass, fired her along with great ease and control. They peaked on overdrive during a rollicking performance of a brand new song, "Sportscar," which raised audience enthusiasm levels and phased any London-cynicism lurking around the Venue crowd. This obvious mass approval seemed to jolt her into gaining some clear-cut confidence, and by the time she walked onstage for her first encore, she exuded a finesse and stage polish lacking during the first half of her set.

Gotham

STUDIO ONE, L.A. — Comedy trio Gotham previewed their first excursion into disco during a recent week-long appearance at Studio One's Backlot cabaret.

Except for the disco single, "AC/DC Man," which will also be featured on their debut Aurum Records' LP in November, the rest of the evening was vintage Gotham for the group which has been playing the small club circuit for the past seven years.

Vintage Gotham, for those unfamiliar with the New York-based team of Gary Herb, Michael Pace and David McDaniel, consists of '40s big band, '50s rock and '60s ballads, sporadically interrupted with some of the raunchiest subculture stage patter this side of Lenny Bruce.

The gags were new; the music reflected the old and new. The mandatory salute to the Andrews Sister was included, along with a full-sounding rendition of Chuck Berry's "Johnny B. Goode" and an interestingly-phrased version of Billy Joel's "New York State of Mind."

The trio's send-up revival meeting sing-alongs represented a perfect synthesis of their comic and musical strengths. A long break had the three young men trading outrageous ethnic one-liners with a precision timing that a Swiss watchmaker might envy.

They encoored with the disco single, performed live over rhythm tracks. The tune's clever lyrics dealing with sexual ambiguity, its multi-BPMs and electrifying synthesizer work just may help Gotham, which up to now has undeservedly enjoyed only a small cult following, enter the mainstream of the performing and recording world.

The group's hyper musical director, Rob Preston, opened the show, accompanying himself on the piano as he sang 20-minutes worth of justifiably obscure, self-penned Tin Pan Alleyesque clonkers. frank sanello

Rowe Unveils Phonograph Line At St. Charles Meeting

CHICAGO — Rowe International, Inc. introduced its new line of phonographs before a full assemblage of factory distributors gathered at Pheasant Run in St. Charles, Ill. Oct. 22-23 for the annual Rowe meeting and new product showing.

Included in the lineup is the 200-selection "Tempo," which is also available in a disco version with optional flashing lights; the "Prelude," which reflects a combination of classic and contemporary styling for placement in just about every type of location and the "Kentwood" console furniture style model.

The Tempo and Prelude models are completely redesigned in interior and exterior features, and are set on a slim base to give a pedestal effect. The frontal area has no horizontal surfaces where drinks can be placed, to help prevent spillage and maintain the appearance of the machine. The speakers and selection area are at the top and, as a further enhancement, Rowe has backlighted the title strip.

The models are equipped with a new, high powered speaker system for high volume levels, better tone quality and outstanding sound. As pointed out by Rowe, the system minimizes distortion, feedback and other problems usually associated with high volume operation. The factory has also redesigned and greatly simplified the pricing procedure to eliminate the necessity for charts, switches and calculations. The new system is a simple plug-in method.

Control Center

The "brain" behind the new Rowe machines is a central microprocessor that controls all functions via five circuit boards. Among the many benefits of this new arrangement is the capacity to play both sides of a record, if desired.

The popular "Memorec" unit has also been enhanced so that it will not only provide a tally of the most or least selected records but also will display total selections since last reset, number of plays on any individual selection and total money intake since the last reset.

To help stimulate play the machines are equipped with a new Most Popular Selection flashing display which advertises a particular location's biggest hit. When this button is activated the machine plays the location's biggest hits (from #1 on down) until credit runs out.

The machines are shipped with Rowe's five-year guarantee.

CHICAGO CHATTER

As we go to press AMOA Expo '79 is in full swing at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. See our post-convention issue for full coverage of this mammoth event. Since many AMOA tradesters will also be participating in the IAAPA show, there'll be very little time in between for unwinding. Expo's closing was Nov. 11 — IAAPA opens in New Orleans' Rivergate on Nov. 17. What's more, there were those who took part in the Oct. 25-28 NAMA convention at McCormick Place here in town and the JAA Tokyo conclave — which makes for a very exciting, though hectic, show period this year. Thank heavens there's a couple of months to go before making ready for the January ATE in London.

BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS to Stern exec Steve Kaufman, who celebrated on Oct. 23. Company president Gary Stern, along with Steve, and Ed Polanek, were in Japan for the JAA convention where "Meteor" was quite a big attraction in the Sega exhibit. Gary, accompanied by Larry Slegel, was also on hand at the coin machine show in Chile following which they visited some other South American countries before returning to home base in time for AMOA. The factory is really thrilled over the success of the "Meteor" pin, which is fast developing into a record seller for them.

EASTERN FLASHES

Ben Chicofsky has started the wheels rolling for the second annual International Coin Machine Trade Show in the New York Statler Hilton. Show dates are Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 18, 19 and 20. The format will be similar to last year's with a few adjustments such as a revised floor plan to improve the flow of traffic to all booths and a new drayage company at reduced rates, as Ben noted. He said the booth rates will be the same and there'll be package plans available.

Industry Tribute To ARA's Fishman Raises $5.5 Million In Bond Sales

CHICAGO — A record outpouring of financial support for Israel's economic development was demonstrated here Oct. 24 at a national dinner which honored Williams S. Fishman, chairman and chief executive officer of ARA Services, Inc., a diversified services management company. The tribute resulted in purchases of $5.5 million in Israel Bonds and other securities.

The dinner was part of a nationwide effort by the Israel Bond Organization to provide Israel with urgently needed investment dollars through a $1 billion Economic Development for Peace Loan. This new issue (Sixth Development State of Israel Bond Issue) was launched last month to help Israel develop the Negev and undertake other projects essential for the implementation of the peace treaty.

Israel's Ambassador Ephraim Evron told the guests assembled at the Hyatt Regency Hotel they should not feel that the current internal political debate in Israel would in any way deter the nation's efforts in search of a lasting peace.

He then presented his country's Prime Minister's Medal to Fishman and commended him and the Bond Organization for the "tremendous contribution" they have made to the future of Israel.

Ambassador Evron also pointed to the government's acceptance of the recent Supreme Court decision on West Bank settlements and to public debate over the resignation of Moshe Dayan as examples of the democratic process in action in Israel.

Meyer Galfand, chairman of the Macke Company and dinner chairman for the testimonial, told the 600 representatives of the automatic merchandising, linen/laundry, periodicals distribution and health services industries who were present that Bond purchases were proof of the wholehearted support of the business community, both Jewish and non-Jewish, for Israel's progress toward peace and economic security.

Howard C. Miller, president of the Canteen Corporation; Marvin Heaps, president of ARA Services and Alvin W. Cohn, president of CFS Continental, also participated in the program.

The $1 billion Economic Development for Peace Loan will help to provide investment dollars for the building of an entire new infrastructure in the Negev. Industries, jobs, roads, communications, transportation and energy, are to be provided at a cost estimated at billions of dollars. Some of the priorities for which Israel Bond dollars are needed include energy, water projects, telecommunications, and transportation.

Programming and the Record Industry," "Music Publishing and Exploitation of Copyrights," "Disco Music: Development, Distribution and Marketing," and "A&R and Artist Development."

Group Differences

The panel discussions revealed some of the differences between various groups attending the convention. For example, several of the producers on the record production panel faulted music publishers for sending them poor material. Jerry Goldstein of LAX Records noted that publishers used to feel the pulse of the music business and that they could frequently offer a producer the kind of material he was looking for. But this is no longer the case, he said, and so the producer may end up writing an artists material.

None of the publishers in the audience replied to this charge; but, in the publishing seminar, panelist George Gluck said that the tendency of some producers to write their own material is a major problem for publishers. Apparently, no one on either side of that issue was listening to the other side.

There was also some mutual incomprehension between American and European publishers. At the publishers seminar, Felix R. Facq, president of the Belgian Music Publishers Association, pointed out that the massive importing of American LPs, mainly cutouts and overruns, by European licensees, was hurting the subscribers of the songs on those records. He also noted that mechanical royalties in Europe are five times higher than they are here. This situation, in his view, has led to "unfair competition" between American and European publishing companies.

Raised Rate?

Lester Sill, president of Screen Gems/EMI Music, replied that there is a "remote possibility" that the U.S. mechanical royalty rate will be raised when the Copyright Tribunal meets next year. As for the bumping of American product overseas, Sills claimed that this was a problem for the record companies themselves to solve with their licensees. Herb Eiseman, president of 20th Century-Fox Music Publishing, added that, while it is not fair to European subpublishers, American publishers cannot do anything about the dumping situation. In fact, said Eiseman, the U.S. publishers are "happy the records are selling," even at cut-rate prices.

Disco Controversy

There was also much discussion, both official and unofficial, about the future of disco. At the producers' seminar, Bob Montgomery pointed out that record companies are no longer interested in cutting disco records, all they want to hear about is new wave rock. Jerry Goldstein and Vince Montana discussed the reasons for the demise of disco; Montana claimed that the labels had destroyed it by imitating the disco "sound" until all their records sounded the same, while Goldstein maintained that disco had been ravaged by amateurs who didn't understand the record business.

The members of the disco panel, naturally were more optimistic about the future of disco. Nevertheless, they emphasized the fact that the labels are expanding their definitions of "disco" to include many kinds of danceable music. "Disco isn't just 'Fly Robin Fly' or the Bee Gees," commented Vince Aletti, vice president of A&R for Warner/RFC Records. "We're dealing with pop music."

The panelists displayed a good deal of resentment toward radio. Tom Silverman of Dance Music News said that many ex-AOR disco programmers don't have a sensitivity for the music, and Tom Hayden, president of Tom Hayden Associates, claimed that radio felt threatened by disco because the clubs provided an alternative avenue of exposure for new records. In Hayden's opinion, radio's fear of disco is the root cause of the backlash. Hayden added that disco has been unfairly blamed for the problems of the record industry. "Sales have gotten very soft lately. The executives are looking for a scapegoat, and disco is it."

'Over-hyped Disco'

The media also came in for their share of criticism from the disco panelists. Silverman blamed the press for creating an "adverse image" of disco. And Tony King, director of disco marketing for RCA Records, felt that disco was "over-hyped as the next big thing in the record industry by the media, who didn't know anything about disco, but just needed a cover story."

What is being missed by those who think disco is declining, said the panelists, is the fact that this kind of music still has a mass appeal. King noted that RCA sold 200,000 copies of a 12-inch single by Machine, although it never crossed pop. And Silverman claimed that "Rapper's Delight" by the Sugar Hill Gang has sold 1.3 million 12-inch units.

Moreover, noted Mike Wilkinson, president of Disconet, discos have proven themselves as valuable testing ground, because they can give labels instant feedback on the reaction to a new record. As a result, he said they have created a higher level of sophistication in record marketing.

Combined Seminars

On the last day of the convention, the A&R and creative services seminars were combined into one session, apparently because some of the scheduled panel members failed to show up. On the panel were Rupert Perry, vice president of A&R for Capitol Records; LeBaron Taylor, vice president of black music marketing for CBS Records; Bobby Ragona, vice president of sales and marketing for Millennium; Alex Grob, vice president of Telstar Video & Film Inc.; John Berg, vice president of packaging for CBS Records; Arnold Levine, vice president of advertising and creative services for CBS Records; and George Osaki, vice president of creative services for MCA Records.

Taylor's remarks concerned the contribution of black music to the bottom line of the record industry. Noting that black music (including jazz/progressive) has not suffered as a result of this year's economic downturn, Taylor stated that black music sales at CBS have actually increased during 1979, rising from 25% to 30% of expected revenues. "We could not survive at CBS, RCA and a lot of other companies without the help of black music," Taylor remarked.

Video Use

Not much else of importance was discussed at the seminar. Grob urged record people to think about using video as an artist image builder; Levine discussed the advantages of having an in-house creative services department at a label; Ragona listed the advantages for a small label of being distributed by a major; and Perry talked about how one should go about shopping for a distribution or production deal with a major record company. In addition, Levine showed video spots for four CBS artists, and Berg displayed slides of his award-winning album covers.

Questioned about the lack of substance in panels such as the A&R and creative services one, Shashoua pointed out that the seminars are really a bonus. "This is a market, an exhibition where people meet and do business," he said. "We're not a trade association."

celebrate its fifth anniversary at Club Manhattan in South Miami . . . In between gigs at the Riviera Hotel's all disco show, France Joli was escorted about Las Vegas by Joel Cammeron, president of the Nevada Disco DJ Assn. France performed "Come To Me" and "Don't Let Go" at the Garage and was interviewed on KLAV Disco Radio 123 along with her producer Tony Green. The pool's promotion of Joli represents its third promotional effort this year. Sister Sledge and Apollo were also squired about town by Cammeron, who spins at T.G.I.-Fridays in Las Vegas . . . the New Jersey's Garden State Record Pool plans a Dec. 10 Christmas party at the Zanzibar disco. Disco artists are tentatively scheduled, but their names have not been announced.

NEW CLUBS — The intriguingly named Cinderella Rockefeller opens Nov. 12-14 with a series of concerts featuring Peaches & Herb, Gary's Gang and Evelyn "Champagne" King and sponsored by WDAL, which will broadcast the festivities. The disco is located in Arlington Park, Ill., a suburb of Chicago . . . The Bond disco, which had been scheduled for an April 15 debut, will now open sometime in January. Richie Kaczor will spin at the NYC club . . . High Roller, a discotheque and roller rink with a capacity of 2,000, opened Nov. 6 with Richard Brezner spinning . . . Although it is not a new club, the Ride N Rock disco's music format is. The Scottsdale, Ariz. club is going DOR, according to its DJ, Scott Tuchman. "Phoenix has an incredible rock following. It has three AOR radio stations in the city. Rock fanciers don't have a place to go and dance to rock 'n' roll," Tuchman explains . . . A new disco, 151, at the former site of Beverly Hills' Club Elysee opens next week, with Jeff Baugh at the turntable. During the day, Baugh promotes records for Jane Brinton & Associates, but sees no conflict of interest in both spinning and promoting. "It would be different if I reported to the trades, but I don't. As it is," Baugh says. "spinning allows me to keep up with the latest product, which in turn helps me as a promoter."

DISH — Michael Del Rey and David Price, recent guests on a "Teen Tycoon" segment of Merv Griffin's talk show, will attempt to duplicate the success of their Teen Night at Osko's by taking over promotion tasks for a new disco which will open at Southern California's Lion Country Safari next month. The teen tycoons (actually Del Rey has reached the ripe old age of 22, but Price is 18) have also been contacted by L.A.'s chichi private roller palace, Flippers, to host a teen roller disco party there on a weekly basis . . . Speaking of the rollerskating craze, it now has its very own trade publication, a monthly called "Roller, Roller," based in Hollywood. Publishers Ron Hodgins and Francis Culbertson say the magazine will focus on the lifestyle surrounding the rollerskating phenomenon, including fashion, music and celebrity skaters . . . An opportunity not to be missed: an American DJ is being sought to work for a year or longer in a disco in Italy. For more information, call Clyde Davis at (516) 643-4776. . . . Daniel Valenzuela will bring his mobile disco sound system into your Southern California living room, den, basement or wherever it fits. Contact him at (213) 388-4798 . . . Jim Hudak of A&M called to say he was puzzled by a recent interview in Disco Breaks of the Don Armando 12", "Deputy Of Love." The review described the hit, currently at the #7 spot on the disco chart, as a slow, heavy beat number. Wrong. While the promotional pressing is a 12", it is also a 45 RPM. This reviewer didn't read the fine print on the record and played the disc at 33 1/3 RPM. Surprise. "Deputy Of Love" is a multi-BPmer and should be played at the height of the evening, not at a slow moment, as suggested in the review . . . NYC promoters Michael Parenteau, David Steel and Steve Stoff, along with visiting Los Angeleno (Angelena?) Jane Brinton hit the nation's capital last weekend, where they dropped by the Clubhouse, Exile and Pier discos. A quick stopover in nearby Baltimore gave them an opportunity to visit Girard's and the Hippo there as well . . . Tee Scott will be Paradise Garage's guest DJ for the month of November . . . Arnie Smith of RSO off to Montego Bay in Jamaica for a nine-day vacation in order to "remember who I am." Smith deserves the respite since he has been taking Jean Shy, whose "Nightdancer" is currently at the #24 slot on the disco chart, all over the country.
