Whatever Happened To The Eight Track Tape?

Technology is getting a little nuts. It is getting to the point where even knowledgeable industry "experts" are hard pressed to keep up with the improvements, advances, improvements on advances and new technological breakthroughs.

We started with the video disc, then came CD's and now there are all forms of combined and interactive capability CD's. You've got your CD, CDV, CD ROM, CD I and, reports of an erasable, re-useable CD format that will be available in a few short years. In addition to the CD format the general public is taking to in overwhelming numbers, there is already a floppy, re-useable CD available, very expensive at the moment but, as we have seen, high prices have shown a great ability to decline as consumer demand grows.

Lets not forget DAT, and, in the home video realm, 8 mm. Rumors are also spreading about an even newer generation of super fidelity audio format, software the size and shape of credit cards, capable of being encoded with up to ten standard length lp's. The fact that all of these developments require close study by every phase of the home entertainment industry for self protection against copyright infringement, pirate, bootleg and home taping and any and all other sources of lost revenue is obvious and self evident. Safeguards are not the purpose of this editorial. Individual manufacturers and licensing organizations have been addressing these problems in conjunction with industry organizations for some time. We only wished to point out the obvious. The ever escalating technological advances (I call your DAT and raise you one CD ROM), the call for some sort of organizational sanity for making the hardware available to the public and giving software suppliers and manufacturers and the general public an opportunity to examine the available formats and make rational decisions based on individual need, and finally to wistfully wonder what ever did happen to the simple days of eight track tapes and quadrophonic sound?

Rock 'n' Roll On Trial: Jello Biafra Goes To Court

By Paul Iorio

NEW YORK — The first major rock censorship trial of the 1980s begins August 11 in Division 57 of Los Angeles Municipal Court. Stage left is defendant Jello Biafra of the rock group The Dead Kennedys, charged with including a controversial poster with his band's "Frankenchrist" (Alternative Tentacles) album. Stage right is L.A. deputy city attorney Michael Guarino, who is prosecuting Biafra for "distributing harmful matter to minors." And center stage is the first amendment — and a jury of twelve that will decide whether or not the Constitution still protects freedom of artistic expression.

Guarino claims Biafra and four others violated California penal code 313.1, an obscenity statute prohibiting dissemination of pornography to minors, a law that has been on the books since the mid-seventies but never used until now. At issue is not Biafra's music but a poster/painting titled Penis Landscape, by noted Swiss artist H.R. Giger, inserted in the "Frankenchrist" jacket.

Giger, however, has not been charged, nor has the Wherehouse, the retailer in the case. Aside from Biafra, the defendants are a sub-distributor, an ex-manager of Biafra's defunct Alternative Tentacles label, the manufacturer who pressed "Frankenchrist," and a distributor at Greenworld, which recently filed for bankruptcy because of costs incurred by the case.

All the defendants face up to one year in prison and a $2,000 fine, though Biafra and others see larger issues at stake. "The jail sentence does not worry me as much as the possible precedent and how it would be used against other artists and journalists, especially by the other Michael Guarinos and Jesse Helms of the world. Why else would we be raising up to $70,000 total to fight a $2,000 fine?"

He contends that this is just another case of the government beating up on the little guy, picking on people who don't have money to defend themselves. "It's squashing the little guy like a roach and then use the precedent as stronger ammunition to go after people such as Prince and Motley Crue."

Frank Zappa, commenting in the L.A. Weekly, agreed with Biafra. "Of course they didn't prosecute Prince for the same reason they're not prosecuting the Wherehouse — because they can hire a good lawyer. And that's what's making the difference here. They figure (Biafra) doesn't have any money to fight the case. It's really a cowardly system, performing a cowardly act."

Guarino explains himself this way: "We're going after him because the poster that was included in the Dead Kennedy's 'Frankenchrist' album is probably one of the very few things I've ever seen that actually violates penal code section 313.1, (which is) a state code that disallows material that appeals to the prurient interest substantially beyond the customary limits of candor."

On April 15, 1986, Guarino sent several plainclothes policemen with a search warrant to enter Biafra's San Francisco apartment, where they confiscated, among other things, Biafra's personal property and the business records of Alternative Tentacles. The search was in response to a complaint by Mary Sierra of Sylmar, California, whose fourteen-year-old daughter gave her eleven-year-old brother "Frankenchrist" as a gift.

LOS ANGELES — More changes took place last week at Capitol Records. Long-time president Don Zimmermann was transferred to London to head the international marketing and promotion divisions of EMI Records (U.K.) and Capitol/EMI America/Manhattan, while his position as Capitol Records president will be taken by former Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc. president David Berman. Both appointments will become effective August 3.

In addition to these appointments, Joe Smith will become president and chief executive of Capitol Industries-EMI, Inc. The changes, announced by Bhaskar Menon, chairman and chief executive officer of EMI Music Worldwide, are the latest in a series of high-level executive shufflings at the label. It comes on the heels of the dramatic merger last month of Capitol's Manhattan and EMI America labels.

Zimmermann's move to London is an attempt to reorganize EMI Worldwide's international structure by allowing the heads of the two labels overseas, Roger Le Comber (director, international, EMI Records, U.K.) and Kick Van Hengel (vice president, international, Capitol/EMI America/Manhattan) to report directly to Zimmermann. "We had two international departments reporting to two different places, one to the U.K. and one to the U.S.," confided Sue Satriano, vice president, public relations and communications for EMI Music. "Now, we will still have those two departments, but they will report to Zimmermann. He will coordinate their efforts worldwide. He's very excited about it."

In his new position as head of the Capitol label, Berman will report directly to Smith, and he will enjoy more hands-on experience working with artists on the Capitol roster. "David Berman wanted to be president of the label, he wanted to work directly with the artists," said Satriano.

Commenting on the appointments of Berman and Zimmermann, Menon said "Don Zimmermann combines exceptional knowledge and experience of both the North American and International music markets and brings to his new assignment a deep understanding of the people, cultures, and systems of Capitol and EMI Music. David Berman brings outstanding personal and professional qualities to his role as leader of the company's flagship American label."

Spokesperson Satriano put to rest any rumours of further reshuffling among the top levels of EMI Music, saying firmly "this is the team."

Arista Forms 6 West Video Division; Grateful Dead Tapes Up First

NEW YORK—Arista Records has formed 6 West Home Video to distribute home video programs developed or acquired by Arista, with the initial full-length release, a Grateful Dead film, So Far, slated for October.

So Far is a one-hour tape directed by Len Dellamico and Jerry Garcia that traces the career of the band from "Uncle John's Band" to "In the Dark," incorporating live studio and stage performances. The film will have a list price of $29.95.

6 West will be distributed by the RCA/A&M/Arista system, with the marketing handled by the Arista Records field staff in conjunction with the sales staff or RCA/A&M/Arista Distribution.

"When I saw So Far I realized that this film-and-music event is so special that we would want to distribute it ourselves," said Arista president Clive Davis. "It's a unique and evocative document of one of America's foremost bands. The formation of 6 West is a direct outgrowth of our enthusiasm for So Far, and all releases will be held to the same high standard."

Prior to So Far, Arista will release a short Grateful Dead video program, called The Making of "Touch of Grey" and More, incorporating the "Touch of Grey" video and behind-the-scenes footage of the production of the video. Set for an early September release, it will retail for $12.95.

A RUN FOR THEIR MONEY — Run-D.M.C. has pledged to help the NAACP increase its membership among the country's youth. The trio met with NAACP pres Dr. Benjamin Hooks in New York recently to discuss plans. Here, Joseph "Run" Simmons gives Dr. Hooks a check for $5,000.

Atlantic's Sal Uterano Dies

NEW YORK—Sal Uterano, vice president of sales for the Atlantic Record Corp., died July 16 in Manhasset Hills, New York at the age of 60.

Uterano joined Atlantic Records in 1968 as a field salesman covering over 20 markets in the east and midwest. In 1969 he was named assistant sales manager, and the following year became national album sales manager. Uterano served as director of national sales from 1972-78, when he was named vice president of sales.

He is survived by his wife Mary, five children and two grandchildren.

Donations in his name may be made at St. Francis Hospital, Heart Center, Port Washington Blvd., Roslyn, NY 11576.

Sheldon Vogel, Atlantic's vice chairman, call Uterano "an unmistakable presence in the halls of Atlantic. His tough-guy demeanor made him a colorful, unique character. But more importantly, underneath that seemingly hard exterior, there was a man of genuine caring and compassion—a side which he revealed generously to those who knew him best and to those who needed him most."

JEM Group Reorganizes, Pacts With PolyGram

NEW YORK — In a significant reorganization, the JEM Group has separated its distribution and recording label operations, JEM Group president Marty Scott announced. In addition, Passport Records, one of the labels under the JEM umbrella, has struck a distribution deal with PolyGram Records for a new joint venture called Paradox Records. The first Paradox release will be an album by Eastern Bloc.

JEM Distribution will be headed by executive vice president Bill Shaler, who will be responsible for sales distribution at all branches in New Jersey and California.

Scott and the members of the New Jersey staff have moved into new headquarters at 3619 Kennedy Road, South Plainfield, NJ.

KEEPING BUSY—Passport Records/Editions E'G recording artist Bill Bruford recently completed his successful Earthworks tour in America and is now preparing for a possible return to the States with David Torn's band in the fall. SINGLE RELEASES

OUT OF THE BOX

HEART (Capitol B-44040)
Who Will You Run To (3:45) (Real Songs/ASCAP) (D. Warren) (Producer: R. Nevison)

The Wilson sister's second offering from the smash "Bad Animals" LP. This powerful melodic rocker has been playing on AOR for a while now, and is a shoe-in for Top 40 radio acceptance. Progressive Adult Contemporary outlets may benefit from this as well.

OUT OF THE BOX

PETER GABRIEL (Geffen 7-28247)
Red Rain (4:02) (Clio Fine Ltd./BMI) (P. Gabriel) (Producers: D. Lanois-P. Gabriel)

Yet another forceful, strung with emotion rocker from wunderkind Gabriel - AOR radio will undoubtedly take advantage immediately, with other outlets following suit. Previous singles have established Gabriel in nearly every format, likely Top 40 hit in time ...

OUT OF THE BOX

MR. MISTER (RCA 5273-7-RAA)
Something Real (Inside Me/Inside You) (4:19) (Warner-Tamerlane Pub. - Entente Music/BMI) (Page-George-Land) (Producers: Mr. Mister-K. Killen)

Top 40 and AOR should immediately respond favorably to this tune, a teaser from the forthcoming "Go On" LP. Following up the hit LP "Welcome To The Real World" isn't easy, but if this single is any indication, the boys are off to a strong start.

NEW AND DEVELOPING

"all of me"
The
MAIN

THE MAIN (Satellite S-7001)
All Of Me (3:59) (Pac Int'l/ASCAP) (H. Green) (Producers: C. Cooper-H. Green)

Soulful R&B ballad featuring former members of the Main Ingredient and Switch. Strong song is aided by lush arrangement and memorable vocals. B/C and A/C attention will come immediately, watch for possible Top 40 movement. Contact: 1-818-884-5288.

FEATURE PICKS

CARLY SIMON (Arista AS1-9619)
The Stuff That Dreams Are Made Of (3:58) (C'est Music/ASCAP) (C. Simon) (Producer: J. Boylan)

Adult Contemporary radio has once again fallen for the inimitable Ms. Simon. This is the latest off her recent Arista debut LP, full of songs reminiscent of Carly's best work. May cross Top 40 ...

JON BUTCHER (Capitol P-B-44046)
Wishes (3:59) (The Grand Pasha/BMI) (J. Butcher) (Producers: S. Proffer-J. Butcher)

Sophisticated pop/rock at it's finest! The mid-tempo acoustic intro sets the pace for this powerful tune - this one may firmly establish Butcher with the mainstream market.

PETE WYLIE (Virgin 7-99460)
Sinful (3:56) (Call This Music/ASCAP) (P. Wylie) (Producers: I. Ritchie-P. Wylie)

Strong hook should propel yet another stateside Virgin release into the Top 40. Possible influences from Ms. Joan Armatrading ...

THE MONKEES (Rhino 74408)
Heart And Soul (3:37) (SBK Songs/BMI) (Howell-Byrne) (Producer: R. Behrman)

The Monkee's (sans Michael Nesmith) first new recording for the Rhino label. Likable pop tune should cash in on the still strong revival of the other fab four.

CHARLIE DANIELS BAND (Epic 34-7280)
Bogged Down In Love With You (4:32) (Hot Band Music/BMI) (C. Daniels-T. Crain-J. Gavin-C. Hayward-T. DiGregorio) (Producer: J. Boylan)

Raucous Rhythm & Blues/Country/Rock-n-Roll at its best. Daniels and Co. return with this fine tune, likely to generate band's first crossover hit in years.

MARIA VIDAL (A&M AM-2959)
House Of Love (4:23) (M.M.A. Music Int'l - Colgems-EMI/ASCAP) (S. Stewart) (Producer: J. Iovine)

Producer Iovine has recorded a slickly-polished pop ballad from up-and-comer Vidal. Strong songwriting in top form from Sandy Stewart ...

SIMPLY RED (Elektra 7-69448)
Maybe Someday... (4:20) (April Music Inc./ASCAP - So What Ltd./PRS) (Hucknall) (Producer: A. Sadkin)

Mick Hucknall and the boys return with this powerhouse ballad reminiscent of band's breakthrough smash "Holding Back The Years." Watch for A/C and Top 40 with possible "Quiet Storm" outlets responding.

CUTTING CREW (Virgin 7-99425)
I've Been In Love Before (3:55) (Virgin-Nymph Music Inc./BMI) (N. Eede) (Producers: S. Thompson-M. Barbiero)

A/C will immediately benefit from this one ... Top 40 play assured with probable upper-demo response ahead.

LA LA (Arista AS1-9620)
My Love Is On The Money (3:58) (Forceful Music - Willesden Music/BMI) (Full Force) (Producers: Full Force)

Powerful vocalist with aid from Full Force turns in this enjoyable offering. Sure to obtain B/C action fast, with presumed crossover attention ahead. This one is on the money ...

CHRIS REA (Motown 1900MF)
Let's Dance (3:51) (Magnet Music Ltd.) (C. Rea) (Producers: C. Rea-S. Eales)

Powerful musical track and strong vocals make for an enjoyable pop outing from Rea. Top 40 and some Adult Contemporary will undoubtedly profit from Rea's Motown debut. LP "Dancing With Strangers" to follow shortly.

ALBUM RELEASES

OUT OF THE BOX

DIONNE WARWICK - Reservations For Two - Arista AL-8446 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Whitney's aunt is showcased here in a slick, A/C leaning collection. Five of the ten songs are duets, with singing contributions from Smokey Robinson, Jeffrey Osbourne, Howard Hewett, Kashif, and June Pointer. Bacharach/Sager write three of the numbers here, and the Osbourne duet "Love Power" is the first single.

OUT OF THE BOX

COCK ROBIN - After Here Through Midland - Columbia BFC 40375 - Producer: Don Gehman - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Dramatic, expansive, open sounds rule here, thanks to Gehman's (Mellancamp, R.E.M.) lush but focused production. Peter Kingsbery's songs are synth-oriented pop sagas with sharp splashes of guitar coloring. Both his and Anna LaCazio's vocals deliver the message convincingly, with hers echoing a little of Aimee Mann and Martha Davis.

NEW AND DEVELOPING

JOHN ADAMS - Strong - A&M SP 5164 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Attractive blue-eyed soul from Britisher Adams. His deep, fluid voice pays obvious homage to Paul Young and Bryan Ferry, while his all-black band recalls the soulful sonics of Simply Red. Recorded half in New York and half in L.A., the LP reveals Adams' fascination with the American soul idiom.

NEW AND DEVELOPING

Debbie Gibson

DEBBIE GIBSON - Out Of The Blue - Atlantic 81780-1 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

A fond remembrance of pop idols of times past - this 16-year old Long Island native has leaped into the pop/dance arena with wide eyes and a penchant for writing flowing ballads and sizzling dance grooves. The first single "Only In My Dreams," has cracked the Top 20 on the Cash Box singles chart and is still moving.

FEATURE PICKS

THE dB'S - The Sound Of Music - I.R.S. 42055 - Producer: Greg Edward - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Much-awaited, the dBs first for I.R.S. is a well-deserved shot at commercial success. Peter Holsapple writes clever, quirky pop tunes a la Robyn Hitchcock, and the band backs it up with their forceful, enthusiastic chops.

MARIA VIDAL - A&M SP 6-5160 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Intriguing debut collection - Vidal's sultry voice simmers through the patchwork of styles, from the introspective "I Am A Girl In Spain" to the danceable grooves of "The Real Feel" to the first single, Sandy Stewart's "House Of Love."

GLEN BURTNICK - Heroes and Zeroes - A&M SP 5106 - Producer: Burtneck/Prater - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

New Jersey rocker with a appealing, youthful air plants both feet squarely on rock-solid soil and scores big with this open, driving set.

BRIAN McDONALD GROUP - Desperate Business - Columbia BFC 40582 - Producer: Beau Hill - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded Impressive hard-rock debut from band formerly known as Dillinger. Crackling yet melodic with a Midwestern spin, McDonald should follow closely behind Bon Jovi in the hard rock sweepstakes.

PETER TOSH - No Nuclear War - EMI America ELT-46700 - Producer: P. Tosh - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Perhaps reggae's greatest living spokesman, Tosh keeps the word of Jah alive with this topical set of percolating rhythms. Subjects vilified include nuclear war, marijuana persecution and apartheid.

GREGG ROLIE - Gringo - Columbia BFC 40789 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Former keyboardist/vocalist for Journey and Santana proves he can more than handle the spotlight on his own. His voice is fairly limited in range, but expressive and tough when not stretched.

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Tenth Anniversary Anthology Vol. 1 - Live From Antone's - Antone's ANT 0004 - Producer: Angela Strehli

UB40 CCCP - Live In Moscow - A&M SP 5168 - Producers: UB40 - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

A 13-song collection of greatest hits recorded live behind the Iron Curtain. The first single is "Cherry Oh Baby."

JOHNNY AVALANCHE - Hit And Run - Green Heart GH-5000 - Producer: Bruce Johnson

Engaging blend of rock and jazz elements from low key Avalanche. Features a unique version of Otis Redding's "Hard To Handle."

SLADE - You Boyz Make Big Noize - CBS Associated BFZ 40908 - Producers: Baker/Punter/Lea - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

These Brits have been bangin' heads since way before it was fashionable. 21 years later they're still at it, and their latest pulls no punches with Noddy Holder belting out the melodic stompers.

SPLIT ENZ - History Never Repeats - Greatest Hits - A&M SP 3289 - Producers: Various - List: $8.98 - Bar Coded

Hot on the heels of the mega-hitting Crowded House comes this retrospective package of toe-tapping pop nuggets like "I Got You" and "Message To My Girl." .38 SPECIAL - Flashback - Greatest Hits Plus - A&M SP 3910 - Producers: Various - Bar Coded Rough-edged Southern harmonies and hook-laden guitar anthems are the ticket here in a reprise of the Jacksonville band's greatest hits, plus a special bonus live EP.

ARISING STAR - Over on Hollywood's famed Melrose Ave. lies a full-on, 48-track production facility not to be missed. Fathered by the multi-talented John Barnes, S-N-S Recording is equipped with a Synclavier and a Fairlight. This place is a "very serious computer oriented production facility," according to Barnes.

Barnes, whose has written and arranged with Michael Jackson, Lionel Richie, and Quincy Jones, sets his place apart because of the atmosphere, the staff, the experience... You name it. "It's a fun place to be, very down to Earth. We'll participate in a person's project and charge them less, so that they'll get the opportunity to work with the type of gear they want and not have to pay exorbitant hourly rates."

Barnes' righteous digs are currently inhabited by Eddie Murphy, and David Lee Roth will be in soon.

Barnes recently finished working with Michael J. on "Bad," a collaboration that goes back to the Victory tour. The two specialize in pre-production work, setting Jackson's flowing musical ideas in concrete form before Quincy applies the final seal.

The S-N-S Studios can be found at 8425 Melrose Ave. in Hollywood, and their number is (213) 651-4736.

FLYIN' HIGH - Young Kim Petty looks a little apprehensive here, riding shotgun on Dumbo with Wayfarer-clad Dad Tom. What a little heartbreaker.

HOW THE WOLF SURVIVES - Sat next to David Hidalgo's sister-in-law at the Los Lobos show at the Greek Theater last weekend. Let me tell you, that woman can talk... And since inquiring minds want to know this stuff, here's the scoop on the lead Lobo's family life: he's been married for 14 happy years and has three children named David, Denice, and Vincent. David, who's eleven, plays drums, and should be hot stuff on the skins in no time, with a benevolent taskmaster like Daddy helping every day. Not very shocking stuff, but very comforting in these days of split families, etc...

The show itself, though marred by early sound problems, was a hometown celebration of the communal spirit. Many norteno acoustic numbers, Mexican sing-alongs, rollickin' rave-ups like "Shakin' Shakin' Shakes" and "Don't Worry Baby," all performed with heartfelt smiles and good-natured kicks under the stars at the Greek. It was a true homecoming for the band, who played in front of many friends and family members, paying tribute by dedicating nearly every song to those close to them. It was hard not to leave with a warmed heart...

GOT THEM ANTONE-TYPE BLUES - Legendary blues club Antone's in San Antonio was the hot scene to see and be seen recently at their 12th anniversary celebration, a week-long party featuring some of the greatest names in blues. Jammin' at the world famous club were such legends as Jimmy Rogers, Pinetop Perkins, Snooky Pryor, Matt "Guitar" Murphy, Buddy Guy, David "Fathead" Newman, and many more with nicknames just as sweet... TV hipster Bruce Willis showed up, harmonica in hand, for a little impromptu jam one evening, just as he had when Albert Collins played L.A. at The Music Machine a few months back. Say what you will about overexposure, but Bruno can blow some harp...

BACKSTAGE BRUNO - Legendary blues god Bruno Radolini showed up to pay tribute to his idols at Antone's 12th anniversary party. Shown backstage coolin' down are (l-r): Jimmy Rogers, Bruno, and Pinetop Perkins.

STILL MORE BLUES - Two ass-kicking blues festivals are coming up next month, so make plans early. Here's some data: The first is the oldest ongoing blues festival in the U.S., the 15th Annual San Francisco Blues Festival. It takes place September 12 and 13 from noon to 6pm at the Great Meadow Fort Mason. Playing Saturday will be Johnny Winter, Lonnie Brooks, James Harmon Band, Roy Rogers & The Delta Rhythm Kings, and more. Sunday's finale features Roomful Of Blues, Albert Collins, Memphis Slim, Little Charlie & The Nightcats, Angela Strehli Band, and more, more, more... Info on the San Francisco festival can be gleaned by dialing (415) 826-6837.

Next up is the Long Beach Blues Festival, on September 19 and 20. Although this gala extravaganza is somewhat newer than its Bay Area counterpart, the lineup is no less impressive. It kicks off Saturday the 19th with Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown, Johnny Otis Band with Harmonica Fats and Guitar Shorty, Memphis Slim and others, plus headliners The Robert Cray Band. Sunday keeps the pace hot with Etta James, Snooks Eaglin with the Henry Butler Trio, John Cephas and Harmonica Phil Wiggins and more, with second day's main man, the master of the electric blues axe, B.B. King. Not a bad line-up, eh? Phone # for Long Beach Festival tix info is (213) 498-5566. Watch this space for future developments.

DeBarge: Four "Bad Boys" Feelin' Very Good

By Troy Croom

You might think DeBarge would be less than optimistic about their future since the two stellar talents Bunny and El DeBarge left the group to pursue solo careers a year ago - and this at the height of DeBarge's career, just after the release of the smash LP "Rhythm of the Night."

But you couldn't be farther from the truth. In fact, the Bunny and El departure actually set the wheels of change turning for the good of all concerned.

If DeBarge has lost two siblings, they've since gained yet another, Bobby DeBarge - formerly with the the Motown group Switch - plus a new label, and a new producer. Now on the verge of releasing "Bad Boys," their fifth album, DeBarge counts all these changes as motions toward a new-found freedom: room to grow creatively with their new label, Striped Horse, and a new democracy within the band.

If Bunny and El required perhaps more than an equal share of the spotlight, manager Joe Tanous explains that "the difference between DeBarge now and before is we've really strived for equality this time. There is no star in DeBarge. DeBarge is the star in DeBarge. Everybody writes in this band. Everybody sings lead and plays lead."

And Tanous says the new label situation couldn't be better for DeBarge. On the move to Striped Horse, Tanous emphasizes the band's growing need to "spread our wings." Working in the studio with label owner and "Bad Boys" co-producer Carlo Nasi was "a rare pleasure," says Tanous. "Everyone wanted more creative control. And, with Nasi, that's what they got. At Motown DeBarge wrote about 50-60% of the material they recorded, versus about 80%, which they've written for 'Bad Boys'."

DeBarge and manager Tanous are especially excited about joining Striped Horse Records because of "Nasi's excellent connections in Europe" for PR, promotion, marketing and product distribution, according to Tanous.

Already "Dance All Night" looks like a real potential hit in the U.S., placing #42 on the Black singles chart after only four weeks; indies listings place it near the top ten. Like "Rhythm of the Night," the hit single before it, "Dance All Night" is good, solid party music, spiced liberally with Salsa exuberance. DeBarge anticipates attracting a broader audience with "Bad Boys" than with the LP before it, especially the 30-40 year old group. "In addition to the pop, dance and urban markets," says manager Tanous, "we're ready to stretch out in Adult Contemporary."

Asked about the potential downside of marketing a band without a single, spot-lighted talent, Tanous holds that, "In the case of a band like DeBarge, it makes no difference at all. Everyone already knows Mark, James and Randy from years of following DeBarge. And they know Bobby, our newest recruit, from his years with Switch."

"We've really strived for equality this time... There is no star in DeBarge. DeBarge is the star in DeBarge."

Plans for touring to push "Bad Boys" include a promotional tour in key markets with "heavy radio (station) contact in key markets: Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Houston, Dallas, San Francisco, L.A. and New York," says manager Joe Tanous. "Then we'll swing right into our regular world tour."

DeBarge has already finished the video for the single "Dance All Night" and another, as yet unspecified cut will be chosen for a second video in the near future.

TALENT ON STAGE

Smokey Robinson

THE UNIVERSAL AM-PITHEATRE, LOS ANGELES - So you think it's easy to write a review of SMOKEY ROBINSON. Yeah, well, what can you say about a guy who's been making hits and performing live since 1959? He sings great, who doesn't know that? Besides, "great" doesn't even begin to cover it. Magic, wonderful, hypnotic, maybe those words can get you started but where do you go from there? O.K. so we can't describe just how terrific his voice is, how about stage presence? The guy's been winning audiences for almost thirty years...THIRTY, count em, THIRTY YEARS. He doesn't even have to sing to win an audience all he's gotta do is show up and smile. Maybe, just maybe, there's one or two other guys that can get an audience going the way SMOKEY does, which goes to prove, once again, practise makes perfect. What's interesting about audience watching is the guys, not the girls. You know the ladies are going to go bonkers, but the guys are real interesting, they just smile and go with it, no jealousy at all, they get center stage later.

I'm not even sure what to call him. Star? He was that in 1959. Superstar, nah, he was that before that word even existed. Legend? Closer but Smokey passed that a decade ago. Let's leave that part blank till someone invents a word that pays proper tribute to this hero of American musical culture.

Roger Daltrey Is Back On Track

by Rob Yardumian

LOS ANGELES - For more than fifteen years, the English rock quartet The Who reigned as one of a handful of supremely influential, innovative, and important rock and roll bands in the world. Along with The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, The Kinks and a few others, The Who were constantly redefining the concept of rock as social commentary - the true spirit of a young, ambitious, and ideological generation.

Since their much-publicized breakup in 1982, the members of The Who have gone their separate ways, with songwriter/guitarist Pete Townshend continuing to produce critically acclaimed solo albums and books with seemingly effortless style and creativity.

Lead singer Roger Daltrey, however, has found the going somewhat harder without the cushion of a strong, focused band behind him. His solo work has been spotty, and seems to be stuck in the same, late 70's album rock style that has defined his career to date.

With his latest solo LP however, his sixth, Daltrey is attempting to break free of that mold and attack more varied territory. Entitled "Can't Wait To See The Movie," the record is a bracing, invigorating, accessible collection of mature and often surprising rock songs guaranteed to please Daltrey fans of old and perhaps gain some new converts.

Holed up in a ritzy Beverly Hills hotel a few weeks back, Daltrey discussed with Cash Box his new album, his work with The Who, and his burgeoning career as an actor.

The title of the album is indicative of the attention Daltrey has received over the last couple of years to do soundtrack work. "It suddenly struck me as quite a funny scenario because most people think that when you do a song for a soundtrack that you've seen the film, but in actual fact, I've never seen any of the pictures," he confided. "So I thought, there's an interesting idea - I'll make a soundtrack album for a film that nobody else has seen because it's all in my mind."

The most arresting cut on the new record is "Take Me Home," a song that Daltrey first heard in Belgium in 1983 and immediately knew he had to have. It is a quirky, engaging tune, absent of the usual AOR bombast and fired by Daltrey's trademark growl. "For a long time, I've been bored with songs that go verse, chorus, verse, middle eight... It's always been my goal to get a song that never repeats itself. This is not quite it, but it's close. This song, in a funny way, does fulfill a little bit of that frustration." Not able to write music himself, Daltrey has always had to rely on others to translate his ideas into concrete statements.

"Take Me Home" was released as a seven inch teaser, but the true first single from "Movie" will be "Hearts Of Fire," a blistering rocker that should gain immediate response from AOR and rock-leaning Top 40 stations nationwide. Daltrey is not shy about his hopes for this song: "I need a hit single. There's no good being the darling of FM stations anymore. It's good to be something, but to take it any farther, I need a hit single, and I think 'Hearts Of Fire' is a great single. It's

Look, I give up, let's just say that if you haven't seen Smokey Robinson in concert you've missed one of the very few, you should pardon the expression, "Miracles" of modern American music. After reading this, if you have the opportunity to see Smokey live and don't, I've got no sympathy.

Opening the show was Carrie McDowell, a relatively new Motown project but a lady that has been around and doing important TV shots like The Johnny Carson Show since she was ten years old.

This is a monster voice and I do mean monster! A voice so powerful and full ranged that if the sound system went out I doubt that anyone would have noticed. Blessed, on record, with the production likes of Willie Hutch, Norman Whitfield, Hal Davis, John

West and "Smokey" Bates and blessed with a strong natural stage presence, enhanced by the mighty Motown polishing machine this girl is a sure thing. Already off to a good start with her debut Motown lp, titled, oddly enough, Carrie McDowell, and a hit single "Uh Uh, No No Casual Sex". We look for real big things from this young lady. Her act is loaded with classic Motown songs and choreography but two performances stood out - her first single and a powerful duet with Rick Riso, "It's The Power Of Your Love (Growing On Me)". Both songs are from her first lp and hopefully the duet will be her next single.

RAPPIN' TOGETHER - Run-D.M.C. and The Beastie Boys play a homecoming gig at New York's Madison Square Garden August 17, as part of their 'Together Forever' tour. They play Philadelphia's Spectrum on the 16th.

DAVID BOWIE'S extravagant Glass Spider tour came to New Jersey's Giants Stadium August 2 and 3, and the shows turned into a triple bill when Lisa Lisa and Cult Jam joined Squeeze as an opening act. The tour's N.Y.-area swing was such an event that turnpike signs leading to the stadium, which usually say 'Concert' when a show is underway, this time flashed the word 'Bowie.' (See next week's Cash Box for a Glass Spider tour review.)

NEW YORKERS had a real alternative to standard rock 'n' roll radio when a group of airwave outlaws set-up a station on a boat five miles off the Long Island coast and started broadcasting. They said their action was a protest against the stagnation of rock radio, and they played songs by such artists as Bruce Cockburn and John Lennon over AM, FM, shortwave, and longwave frequencies that could be heard throughout the N.Y.-area and as far away as Alegen, Michigan.

Officials from the FCC boarded the ship to put a stop to it, charging them with broadcasting without a license. But Randi Steele of the sea station said they couldn't be touched by the FCC because they were outside the three mile territorial limit. Nonetheless, the ship was forced to depart for other ports. Steele was quoted in the New York Times as saying: "We're doing this as a flare, a warning signal that New York City radio that is directed at youth is very stale and stagnant."

BRIEFINGS - The Leaving Trains, whose "Kill Tunes" was one of last year's most inventive albums, now have a new record out with a title and marketing strategy as controversial as they come. The record is called "Fuck" (SST) and the advertising slogan is "Fuck." Ask for it by name." Let's hope the PMRC raises a fuss and gives this worthy band some much needed publicity....The CD version of Warren Zevon's "Lawyers, Guns, and Money," on his "Best Of" collection (Asylum) cuts out thirty-three seconds of the song, including the verse: "Now I'm hiding in Honduras/I'm a desperate man/ Send lawyers, guns, and money/The shit has hit the fan"....Relativity puts out the Brandos' debut album, "Honor Among Thieves," August 19, following the release of a promo cassette for the band's "Gettysburg" and "In My Dreams"....Crazy About the Movies: Elvis '56, a documentary about Presley's rise to stardom, debuts August 16 on Cinemax....John Mellencamp's new album is called "Lonesome Jubilee" and will be released by Riva/PolyGram later this month....The Bangles have been added as performers at the '1987 Video Music Awards," set for cablecast September 11. Other performers include Run-DMC, Crowded House, and Whitney Houston....Al Green plays Radio City Music Hall August 15 with gospel musicians Tramaine and the New Jersey Mass Choir....Chris Hillman and The Desert Rose Band will be playing the Bottom Line August 13....The Waxing Poetics, a Norfolk foursome on Emergo Records, play NY August 20 at the Bottom Line....The Neighborhoods play the Lighthouse August 26....Johnny Cash will be embarking on a two week European tour with June Carter Cash and the Carter Family August 19....The Smithereens tour with headliners Los Lobos hits New York August 22 with a show at Pier 84, and Boston August 25 at Great Woods. The Smithereens' have released a fifth radio single, "Strangers When We Meet," from their "Especially For You" (Enigma) album....When an Alabama hotel employee went upstairs to check out a complaint of indecent exposure recently, he found a six-foot-four nude Englishman shivering on a balcony. The "flasher" turned out to be The Outfield's John Spinks who got locked out of his hotel shower and was stuck on a balcony dripping wet for more than an hour. Apparently, he had stepped from the shower to check out a thunderstorm that had erupted and found the door had self-locked. Though Spinks yelled for help, even to a roadie below, it took a complaint from a passerby to finally get him rescued.

THE BEAT

IS REAL RADIO DEAD?-As Americans once again eye the basics, conservative thought in action increases, baby boomers return to ballroom dancing and Fred Astaire Studios start booming, look for a new phenomenon: Black Adult Contemporary Radio. Experienced program directors and music directors 35 years and older will be very much in demand. Look for Urban Radio to reach for expanded demographics to include 25 plus, with the addition of Blues, Jazz and hard core Rhythm and Blues added to playlist in major markets. We will research, report and stay out front on this new happening.

OVER 40 AND OUT??-Perhaps they are the viable talent from which new things can be learned!! They are out of the business, because nobody wants them, they are too old. I ask you the reader to think of as many black disc jockeys over 40 currently employed in a top ten market. The black disc jockey who came up in this country 10-20 years ago are gone or working in small market radio. After all of the years of working to perfect their craft they are virtually booted out of the business. What are the reasons: too old, too much of a threat or too much knowledge? Research is a great and necessary tool, but what ever happened to gut instinct, simply being in tune with the listening habits of the market place, listening to music and determining whether or not the record has hit potential. Imagine the combination of good sound research gut feelings. Some programmers are doing precisely that and are winning big.

Reflecting for a few moments, there are a number of incredibly talented professional black radio announcers who should be in major markets. Enoch Gregory, (he is reportedly happy doing what he does, but this man along with hundreds of other veteran professionals) E. Rodney Jones, (Mr. Chicago, who until Monday August 3, 1987 was employed at KOKY in Little Rock. He reportedly was terminated for economic reasons) George "Boogaloo" Frazier, (met with the same fate as Rodney at KOKY) Mike Payne, (who once owned the Cleveland and Pittsburgh markets) Jesse Fax, (who put Washington radio listeners in a different sphere) and of course the list goes on and on. Compare if you would the number of black radio veterans in major markets over 40 with any other format and you will quickly realize the great numerical difference. It seems that most businesses take full advantage of the wealth of knowledge and experience of their veterans. Most of you are aware and familiar with S.C.O.R.E. (Service Corp Of Retired Executives) Why not establish a similar organization, (wherein the vast knowledge of these veteran programmers could be utilized) with expansion into other areas of the entertainment business.

A thought on being over 40 which has been said time and time again, most of these professionals have children therefore they could certainly relate to the younger listeners while capturing the older demographics. Perhaps they are the viable talent from which new things can be learned??

#1 FOR 8 YEARS-During a recent conversation with Joe Bullard, program director of WANM Tallahassee, Florida, he told me of a remarkable feat. Joe's 1000 Watt daytime AM'er has been #1 for eight straight years. When you hold a title that long you are king. Therefore Joe and his fine staff deserve all the praise in the world for a job well done.

What is Joe's secret for garnering a 25 share of the market? He plays what he calls full circle music which encompasses Blues, (as rare as the dinosaur on radio) Jazz, Currents and Oldies. Joe is apparently doing what we spoke about earlier, Black Adult Contemporary Radio. His numbers would certainly indicate he has dispelled the theories about there is no market for blues. Look at the number of blues oriented commercials. There is a market for blues!

Joe went on to tell us about the massive giveaways and the special personality teams his 1000 Watt Daytime AM'er continues to defeat.

When you see the evolution of Black Adult Contemporary charts, remember you read it in Cash Box. We will be checking and reporting on markets who program and are getting great ratings by playing the blues. I will keep an eye on the Chicago market where Sonny Joe White and Frankie Crocker are applying their special brand of radio, including Blues.

BLUEBIRDS OF HAPPINESS—Another nail has been driven into the coffins of the turntables of jazz collectors. RCA has 16 spanking-new Bluebird reissues on the market and, yes, they are available only on CD.

As usual with the RCA jazz program, the reissues are an odd assortment and represent a number of different approaches to the concept of reissuing albums.

Two of the reissues stand out: because they have been unavailable for many years, because they are excellent and important albums, and because they both include alternate takes. They are Duke Ellington's "And His Mother Called Him Bill," and The Sextet of Orchestra U.S.A.'s "Theatre Music of Kurt Weill." The former is an Ellington masterpiece, pure and simple. Recorded in 1967 as a memorial to composer Billy Strayhorn, the album drips with brilliance, and this reissue includes an unreleased version of "Lotus Blossom" and alternate takes of "Smada" and "My Little Brown Book." The latter is one of the hardest-to-find albums featuring Eric Dolphy. Arranged and conducted by Mike Zwerin, Dolphy is featured on three numbers—"Alabama Song," "Havana Song," and "As You Make Your Bed"—but the disc also includes fine work from Thad Jones, Jerome Richardson, John Lewis and others. There are three alternates here but, alas, none from the numbers with Dolphy.

The other discs just released are Art Blakey's "The Theory of Art" (the 1957 LP "A Night in Tunisia" plus two unusual previously-unissued septet numbers); "A Song After Sundown," Stan Getz and his excellent mid-'60s group (Jim Hall, Gary Burton, Steve Swallow, Roy Haynes) with Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops; "Just a Mood," Red Norvo; "Say When," J.J. Johnson; "Time Was," Bud Powell; "Swingin' Till the Girls Come Home," Lambert Hendricks and Bavan (culled from three albums); "Artist's Choice," Gary Burton (a Burton-picked compilation disc); "Clap Hands Here Comes Charlie," Charlie Barnet (compilation); "Begin the Beguine," Artie Shaw (compilation); "Major Glenn Miller & The Army Air Force Band 1943-44;" a sampler; and three Benny Goodman discs: "After You've Gone—The Original Benny Goodman Trio and Quartet Sessions Vol. 1," "Sing, Sing, Sing" (an B.G. Orchestra compilation), and "Together Again!," a 1963 reunion of the original quartet (Teddy Wilson, Lionel Hampton, Gene Krupa, of course). The sound on the ones I've listened to is just fine, particularly on the post 78-Era sides. And the discs are, for the most part, generous, with at least half of them clocking in at over an hour.

PolyGram, which has been one of the labels spearheading the CD-only trend, has just put out four jazz CD reissues from the Verve catalogue, three with extra tracks. They are Stan Getz's "Big Band Bossa Nova" (the one without alternate takes), Lester Young's "The President Plays" (with five extra tracks, including a Lester Young vocal!—on "It Takes Two to Tango"), Wes Montgomery's "Tequila" (four extra tracks), and Getz and Lionel Hampton's aptly-titled "Hamp and Getz" (with two unreleased sides).

MASTER OF THE 88's - Billy Taylor recently fell by the studios of Newark's WBGO where he schmoozed with Anna Kosof, the station's new general manager.

BOPPING AROUND—August 15th is a good day to be jazz-hungry in New York without any money. On that Saturday, Summerpier, held downtown at the South Street Seaport, will present Branford Marsalis in a salute to John Coltrane (who died 20 years ago this summer), and Lincoln Center Out-Of-Doors will present the Modern Jazz Quartet at Damrosch Park in a salute to themselves (they are celebrating their 35th anniversary, believe it or not...Doug Dobell, founder of the oldest jazz record shop in London, died suddenly while he was attending the Nice Jazz Festival last month.

JAZZ FEATURE PICKS

THE GADD GANG - Steve Gadd - Columbia FC 40864 - Producers: Steve Gadd, Kiyoshi Itoh

The core of the Steve Gadd Gang is Gadd, Cornell Dupree, Eddie Gomez and Richard Tee and that should say it all: liekey-split, r&b-laced jazz fusion sparked by a snappy horn section. The blues are always close at hand.

NOW YOU KNOW - Makoko Ozone - Columbia FC 40676 - Producer: Gary Burton

The lyrical, romantic pianist in a mostly lyrical, romantic album with such lyrical, romantic sideman as Steve Kujala, Marc Johnson, Peter Erskine and John Abercrombie.

LIVE AT THE ROYAL FESTIVAL HALL - Jaki Byard/Howard Riley - Leo LR 133 - Producer: Leo Feigin

A worthwhile album featuring Byard, the eclectic American pianist, and Riley, the bombastic English pianist, in solo and duet performances.

SYNTHESIS - The Reggie Workman Ensemble - Leo LR 131 - Producer: Leo Feigin

A intelligent, frequently sublime quartet made up of four exceptionally resourceful inside/outside players: Workman, Oliver Lake, Marilyn Crispell and Andrew Cyrille.

ZERO GRAVITY - Steve Bach - Cafe 736

An effervescent jazz fusion date from a talented keyboardist/composer and his energetic colleagues.

IN THE SWING OF THINGS - Ross Tompkins - Famous Door III 153 - Producer: Harry Lim

Four of the West Coast's swiftest mainstream veterans (pianist Tompkins, bassist John Heard, drummer Jake Hanna and tenor saxist Bob Cooper) in a well-titled, well-played standards date.

JULIUS LA ROSA - Project 3 PRO 5116 - Producer: Joe Castellon

One of the very best of the Sinatra-influenced crooners in an easy-listening CD of standards and appropriate contemporary material.

Thomas Dolby

THE ROXY THEATRE, L.A. — It has been five years since Thomas Dolby burst onto the pop scene via his hit LP "The Golden Age Of Wireless," and it's unlikely smash single "She Blinded Me With Science." With the release of "The Flat Earth" a couple of years back, Dolby began his experimentations with R&B, resulting in the club/video hit "Hyperactive." Since, Dolby has remained conspicuously out of the spotlight (his score for the film "Howard The Duck" notwithstanding). Recently, he surfaced in Los Angeles, complete with a newly formed band, to debut new material from his as-yet-unrecorded third LP.

Dolby proved that he had not let himself drown in the sea of obscurity that has been responsible for the artistic demise of many an early eighties artist. He demonstrated by all aspects during his stint at the Roxy that he has not lost his spark, rather he has matured and grown as an artist and composer. His sound has evolved - incorporating jazz, pop, rock and strengthening his earlier interests in R&B to near perfection, (this was evident in such numbers as "Hot Sauce," penned by funk-master George Clinton.)

(Dolby) demonstrated by all aspects during his stint at the Roxy that he has not lost his spark, rather he has matured and grown as an artist and composer.

Dolby unveiled his new band, dubbed "The Toy People," a tight, talented group of musicians who appear to be incredibly comfortable on stage supporting him. Especially impressive was backing vocalist Laura Creamer, a talented singer who shared center stage with Dolby throughout the evening. Her vocals accompanied brilliantly, especially on "My Brain Is Like A Sieve" and her fiery work on the aforementioned "Hot Sauce."

Dolby got the ball rolling immediately, opening the set with a magnificent jazz-flavored cut entitled "The Key To Her Ferrari." He continued to treat the audience to such new material as the driving "Pop Culture" and the lightly sarcastic "There Goes The Neighborhood." He performed each number humbly, appearing both eager and nervous to the reaction they would evoke from the audience.

Not forsaking his past material, Dolby captivated old fans by ripping through crowd-pleasing renditions of "Europa And The Pirate Twins," "She Blinded Me With Science" and a feverishly intense interpretation of "Hyperactive." It should be noted that the overly-enthusiastic crowd seemed to pleasantly welcome the new material with amazing acceptance, noting the bitingly humorous "Air-head" as a prime example.

Immediately following his stand at the Roxy (and a benefit performance at the Variety Arts Center a few nights later), Dolby planned to head into the studio to begin work on his new LP. Certainly, if nothing else, Dolby proved that he has not been shipwrecked in the sea of musical mediocrity so often evident in the industry..

JVC Grande Parade du Jazz

CIMIEZ GARDENS, NICE, FRANCE—In the hurricane that is the European summer jazz festival circuit, Nice's Grande Parade du Jazz is the calm eye of the storm. George Wein—whose office is Festival Central for practically all the touring bands and musicians criss-crossing the Continent—lives near Nice, and he makes sure that when musicians get a couple of nights off, it's on the French Riviera, in a hotel with an inviting pool and abundant room service.

Adding to this sense of relaxation is the fact that the festival takes place on three stages from 5:00 p.m.-midnight over 11 days. So there is abundant time for the musicians to play—really play—during the week. Most acts show up at the Cimiez Gardens with two full sets to play—there is none of that "play 45 minutes and split for Geneva" feeling that permeates most festivals. The musicians are generally housed comfortably for four or five days, during which they have to show up and play, say, four or six sets over two or three evenings. The Nice Festival, then, has a unique ambience, something that George Wein is well aware of.

The Nice Festival is really two or three festivals at once. The heart of the affair is a celebration of the jazz mainstream and the elder statesmen of that jazz mainstream. Such septa- and octagenarians as Stephane Grappelli, Wild Bill Davison, Doc Cheatham, Buddy Tate, George Kelly and others are les rois du Nice, and such younger traditionalists as Scott Hamilton, Ruby Braff and Howard Alden are festival- and George Wein-favorites. Of those, Braff and Grappelli were outstanding—playing the way they've played for years, playing beautifully at every turn.

The other side of the Nice Festival is the touring stars of jazz (Herbie Hancock, Wynton Marsalis) and not-quite-jazz (Chuck Berry, George Benson, Carmel). They attract an audience that doesn't necessarily know, or care, who Ruby Braff is. There is enough room for the two audiences to move comfortably in and around each other.

Well now that I've blathered on about all of that, what did I hear worth two spits and a shoeshine? Well, Grappelli and Braff, as I've said. And Stan Getz, who is leading one of his finest bands (Kenny Barron, Rufus Reid, and Victor Lewis) and playing at the absolute top of his form; the Dirty Dozen Brass Band, rousing as always; Katie Webster, New Orleans's Swamp Boogie Queen playing that good bayou gumbo (as New Orleans' master chef Buster Holmes whipped up good chicken gumbo a few yards away); Hank Crawford, tearing it up as a guest of Richie Cole's band; the Denon mob (individually, though—they didn't quite gel as a band); Albert Collins and the Icebreakers—scorching; and various guest spots by saxophonists Eddie Harris, Franz Jackson and Red Holloway.

Two things, in particular, stood out. One was the trio of pianist Joachim Kuhn, drummer Daniel Humair and bassist J.F. Jenny-Clark—partly because I rarely have the opportunity to hear these fine European players live, mainly because they played energetic, sweeping, intuitive piano trio music that lived somewhere between Bill Evans and Cecil Taylor. The other was Chuck Berry, at the second of three festival appearances.

Backed by a tight band (just piano, drums and bass, just like on all those Chess hits), Berry leaned in and cooked, playing wild and woolly blues guitar, enjoying the work of the band. The band made it happen. New Orleanians Herman Jackson (drums) and George French (bass) turned on the right amount of blues/rock and roll gas and pianist Johnny Johnson—the same Johnny Johnson who played piano on almost all of Berry's hits—played delightful blues/jazz piano, causing Berry to admonish him with, "He's putting Ahmad Jamal into my 'Johnny B. Goode.'" It was good, quite good. And Berry's daughter Ingrid did a couple of blues numbers that weren't half bad at all (does that make her the daughter of rock and roll?).

Two things I didn't like: the English band Carmel (a little like Sade—bland, boring jazzish rock) and Claude Bolling's Big Band (vin ordinaire) with vocalist/movie star Guy Marchand (who must be more popular as a movie star than as a singer). But why complain?

Suzanne Vega

WILTERN THEATER, L.A. — Suzanne Vega's sold out performance at the Wiltern Theater in Los Angeles on Saturday (8/1) was simply stunning, an overwhelmingly brilliant display of darkly introspective storytelling that blew away the cobwebs of mystery and doubt that have surrounded her since her self-titled debut album was released.

Her new LP, "Solitude Standing," is more fully realized than the mostly acoustic debut, with full backing from a crack band that adds depth and focus to her quietly piercing material. The songs on Saturday were evenly distributed between the two albums, with the band adding subtle flesh to the bare bones arrangements.

From the opening song, an a cappella rendition of "Tom's Diner," it was apparent that Vega is a supple vocalist of breathtaking beauty, capable of sweeping ranges of moods and emotions. Her stirring, sensuous voice breathed life into the characters that inhabit the streets of her songs, their triumphs and tragedies painted with small, intimate strokes that reveal innermost fears and hopes on a deeply personal level.

While nearly every song came across as its own mini-masterpiece of characters confined within themselves, there were a few exceptional highlights, and Vega's between-song chatter revealed to a rapt audience the warm, charming, and funny side of her Manhattan personality.

"Ironbound/Fancy Poultry" uncovered a raw slice of East Coast city life, with its dual anecdotal portrayal—first of a children's school bound by train tracks that seem to trap the child inside a prison, then the sudden switch to the poignant tale of body parts for sale, both female and fowl. When Vega sings "wings are nearly free," one can sense the inner-city dwellers' longing to fly away free.

Later came the haunting "The Queen and the Soldier," from the first LP. Suddenly the backdrop changed, and pregnant, dark storm clouds were flowing behind the stage. This song seemed to change the focus, from an introspective, individualistic center to more of an everyman fable. This cut works on two levels, both as a gorgeous acoustic story, and as political allegory of the corruption of power at its ultimate peak. Afterwards, Vega broke the somber mood with a story about a young man who had followed her backstage after a recent show wanting to know "why the queen had killed the soldier when it was obvious that she wanted to date him?" Vega promised that she would think about writing up an alternate ending with a happy conclusion.

"Solitude Standing" came across sharp and cold as an icicle, the perfect vehicle for Vega and her band. During the fascinating "Language," the crowd sat in hushed "silence, more eloquent than any words could ever be." Once again, her voice was the core, with the music flowing and swirling around it like heat waves off the scorched Manhattan concrete and glass.

With performances like this one so early in her career, it becomes instantly apparent that Suzanne Vega is a most welcome star on the rise, an artist with the personality, talent, and most importantly, the intelligence to produce a meaningful body of work to entertain and provoke listeners for years to come.

MTV Europe Debuts ... - At midnight on August 1, 1987, MTV Europe made its debut, hitting the airwaves overseas. The network is filmed live via-satellite from Amsterdam to cable systems throughout Europe. Elton John had the honors of throwing the switch to turn on MTV Europe, the launch marked the latest and most ambitious of MTV Network's international ventures, which include licensing agreements in Japan and Australia. Headquartered in London, MTV Europe is said to reflect the musical tastes, lifestyles and culture of the European Audience. The network will feature seven on-air VJ's (video jockeys) from all over the world and a variety of programming that will differ slightly from MTV's established stateside outlet, featuring what appears to be a meld of both the American MTV and its counterpart VH-1. Among the innovative programming presented on MTV Europe will be: "New Visions," a program devoted to New Age and contemporary jazz; "Reverb," a half hour talk show, reviewing everything from films, records, books and videos; and "The MTV Gig Guide," a regular feature that will focus on who's currently on the road in Europe.

MTV Network Entertainment President Tom Freston stated in a press release "This venture is key to MTV's vision to be the world's premiere outlet and driving force in youth oriented music and culture." He continued "It is our hope that MTV's expertise in communicating with the 12-34 year-old audience will help provide Europe with a rock music network that not only serves its audience, but provides the kind of benefits and opportunities for the music industry, the cable television industry, and the advertising community that have occurred in the United States." MTV Europe is a joint venture among the affiliated corporations of Mirror Group Newspapers Limited, Viacom International Inc., and British Telecom plc.

Explore China For Under $30.00- Paramount Home Video is association with Windham Hill are planning a September 16 release for "China." "China" is Windham Hill's latest video outing, showcasing spectacular footage from the country with a backdrop of music performed by many Windham Hill artists. Produced by Dan Moss, the film explores regions of a land just opened to Western visitors and, thus offers a look at a China we've never seen before. Among those artists contributing their musical talents are William Ackerman, Phillip Aaberg, Shadowfax and Tim Story. The tape will hold a suggested $29.95 retail tag, available in both VHS and Beta HiFi.

SCREEN SIREN SUSANNA Bangle Susanna Hoff's is featured in her motion picture debut in The Allnighter, a comedy about a young girl's quest for true love on the last night before graduating college. Available October 8 from MCA Home Video.

The Return of Kolchak ... - Coming in early October, MCA Home Video will release "The Night Stalker: Two Tales Of Terror." Culled from the popular early 70's television series "The Night Stalker," which featured Darren McGavin as investigative reporter Carl Kolchak. As you may remember, Kolchak seemed to have a knack for winding up in the midst of some of the scariest modern-day supernatural activities. Featured episodes on the forthcoming tape are "The Ripper" and "The Vampire." Watch for this one to achieve cult status fast. Available in VHS and Beta.

Aussie Breakthrough ... - Paramount Pictures' "Crocodile Dundee," the highest grossing foreign film ever released in the United States ($174 million/box office), has just broken another world record. Initial orders for "Crocodile Dundee" videocassettes represent almost $54 million at retail, Stated Tim Clott, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Paramount Home Video, "This is a huge pre-order considering that our consumer media campaign has just begun, and will continue for three weeks."

SHOP TALK

ALL EARS FOR MICHAEL - Several retail buyer sources across the country have reported good parties and interesting music at Arista Records-sponsored "listening parties" for the soon-to-be-released Michael Jackson album "Bad." Mary Ann Levitt, president of The Record Shop chain, which stretches over several Western states, noted that Arista is offering no "out-of-the-box" price-breaks on "Bad." Nonetheless, like most retail people nationally, she is excited about the album and is confident sales should drive clear through Christmas.

NEARLY NINETEEN YEARS AGO TODAY - MCA Home Video recently premiered vintage live Doors footage at a party for the release of "The Doors: Live at the Hollywood Bowl." The gala event, held at the Hollywood Bowl Restaurant, was spangled with celebrities, including celebrities John McVie of Fleetwood Mac, Paul Stanley of KISS, actors Anthony Michael Hall, William Mooney, and Erika Anderson; and Gold Medalist Steven Lundquist. The concert vid features the group in July, 1967, and carries a suggested retail price of $24.95. After a month at retail, sales are said to be "very encouraging."

THE TIMES, ARE THEY A-CHANGIN'? Who would have thought consumers would be demanding such unusual chart-climbers as the Grateful Dead, Suzanne Vega and Los Lobos? Hard though it may be to fathom, some retailers are actually running low on the Dead's "In the Dark," Vega's "Solitude Standing," and the soundtrack to the movie "La Bamba," featuring Los Lobos and friends. Uptown New York City

Tower Records and Music People, the Oakland, CA one-stop are among several outlets reporting consumers and retailers, respectively, "knocking down the door for 'La Bamba.'" The soundtrack LP is soaring in England's Top 5 and the American Top 10.

NEW NARM HEADS - Russ Solomon, president of the National Assn. of Recording Merchandisers (NARM) and chief of Tower Records has chosen five new members for the retail advisory committee.

New to the retail committee are Bob Higgins, president of the 213-store Trans World Music Corporation; Frank Fischer, president of 75-store National Record Mart; Walter McNeer, vice president of retail for Western Merchandisers' 125 stores; John Quinn, director of retail operations for Sound Warehouse's 102 stores; and Barry Bordin, general manager for The Wiz, the 20-store, metro New York hardware/software chain. The rest of the committee, including chairman Ira Heilicher, president of Great American Music, are returnees from last year's committee.

Richard Greenwald, of the Interstate Group, was named the new NARM rack advisory committee chairman. Aside from Greenwald, the rack committee remains unchanged from last year.

GIMME A (PRICE) BREAK! - RCA/A&M/Arista recently announced its conversion to a two-tier, box-lot pricing system, and some adjustments in cost prices to its customers. As of Aug. 3, the distribution are will decrease the cost of most CDs by 2% and increase the cost of most vinyl and tape products. However the box-lot pricing will not effect classical and Latin repertoires, record and cassette singles. Lower CD manufacturing costs were cited as the main contributor to the decrease in CD prices. At the same time, "external inflationary pressures," said a press release, led to the increase in vinyl and tape product costs.

In a separate price break, A&M has mid-lined 43 compact disc titles, including Bryan Adams, Joe Jackson, Oingo Boingo, Supertramp and others. The cassette and LP configurations of the same albums have already been available at the mid-line suggested price of $6.49.

"SILLY" VID FOR SALE - Ernest P. Worrell is about to be unleashed on the video retail world yet again. This new video is "Hey, Vern! Win $10,000." The 60-minute tape is a collection of the latest Ernest commercials, a reportedly crazy section of "super bloppers," plus a behind-the-scenes look at Ernest on the set. Of special interest to consumers is a contest to count the number of times they see or hear the words "Vern" or "KNOWUTIMEAN" to enter a drawing and win $10,000 cash prize.

TEST RECORDS

(CONSENSUS BY REGION)

NORTHEAST

1. SWING OUT SISTER—Breakout—Mercury/PG
2. CROWDED HOUSE—World Where You Live—Capitol
3. PEPSI & SHIRLEY—Heartache—Polydor/PG

WXKS in Boston adding a tune that debuted at #1 in England. WQQQ in Easton is playing the third single from the Crowded House LP. WBLI on Long Island is playing the hot new single by the ex-Wham duo..

SOUTHEAST

1. AUTOGRAPH—She Never Looked That Good—RCA
2. GO WEST—Don't Look Now(The Sequel)—Chrysalis
3. NOEL—Silent Morning—4th & B'Way/Island

WROQ in Charlotte playing single from band featuring guitar-whiz Steve Lynch. WBCY has added a tune from these sensitive songwriters. Y100 in Miami is making some noise with this single.

SOUTHWEST

1. FORCE M.D.'S—Love Is a House—Tommy Boy/WB
2. EXPOSE—Let Me Be The One—Arista
3. COMPANY B—Full Circle—Atlantic

San Antonio's KIT5 is seducing the airwaves with this slick new tune. Tune into B97 in New Orleans for this revealing number. KIT5 in San Antonio has them spinning to the pulse of this tempting trio.

MIDWEST

1. WENDY & LISA—Waterfall—Columbia
2. TIFFANY—I Think We're Alone Now—MCA
3. GEORGIO—Tina Cherry—Motown

A small revolution has begun on KDWB in Minneapolis. WYTZ/Chicago is tapping into the talents of this 15 year old.. Detroit's WHYT is having a little French influence on their listeners.

WEST

1. RON CATTI'S FUTURE—Shek-A-Na-Na—Spirit Records
2. PRETENDERS—Where Has Every Body Gone—Warner Bros.
3. AVA CHERRY—Good Intentions—Capitol

The future is now on KCPX in Salt Lake City for this inventive band. KITS San Francisco is playing this cut from the "Living Daylights" soundtrack. KYNO Fresno is getting some spice and sizzle from Bowie's ex back-up singer

FLASH BOX

Back To The Beach—"Beach Party Pals" Frankie Avalon and Annette Funicello stopped by the WMMS Morning Zoo to talk of their reunion on the big screen. They are currently starring in "Back To The Beach," but now they play the parents instead of the "hip" teenagers. The two here are showing off their Cleveland Buzzard Morning Zoo T-Shirts with Zoo members Jeff Kinzbach, "Flash" Ferenc and Ruby Cheeks.

Vince Neil Spreading His Affection—Motley Crue's Vince Neil cuddles up with WMMS/Cleveland personality Maria Farina to keep in touch with the band's LP, "Girls, Girls, Girls". Neil was in town for a soldout show at the Richfield Coliseum.

The Devil Made Them Do it...—It seems Ozzy Osbourne and US Executive Vice President of Programming, Ed Salamon, were more than ecstatic to discuss Ozzy's latest release, "Tribute," on Epic records. On a more serious note, the live album is a dedication to Ozzy's long-time group member, guitarist and friend -- the late Randy Rhodes.

ALBUM ALLEY

The Big Throwdown-Levert-Atlantic With "Cassanova" on a collision course to the top of the B/C single charts, Levert shows that the success of their debut Album was no fluke. Eddie Levert of the O'Jays must indeed be proud of the his sons' success. The Ballads on this album; "Good Stuff", "My Forever Love" ex... are very strong and should see considerable airplay either as future single releases or LP cuts. Uptempo cuts "Sweet Sensation" and "Temptation" round out an Album that shows continued growth on the group's part.

HIGH PRIORITY

A HIGH PRIORITY SALUTE TO RAGAN HENRY PRESIDENT

COMMUNICATIONS MANAGEMENT

A high priority salute to Ragan Henry one of the nation's leading black entrepreneurs in broadcasting. Mr. Henry earned an A.B. (Magna Cum Laude) from Harvard University and J.D. degree from Harvard Law School. He is director of Continental Bank in Philadelphia and a partner in the Law firm of Wolfe, Block, Schorr and Solis-Cohen. He also serves on the Board Of Directors of Syracuse University in New York and at LaSalle. Mr. Henry has been involved in broadcasting since he first acquired WAOK-AM in Atlanta, Georgia in 1973. Since that time his first company, Broadcast Enterprise National Inc grew to operate many radio stations in major markets. Other properties included a Television station in Rochester, New York and the Nation's first black daily newspaper, The National Leader. His most recent acquisition is WWIN-AM/FM in Baltimore, Maryland.

TULSA, OK
KVOO

PROMOTION - BIG COUNTRY PICNIC

Tulsa's KVOO will be holding the 16th Annual "Big Country Picnic" on Sunday, August 16. The free event features performances by Asleep At The Wheel; Lyle Lovett; The Stonehouse Band and KVOO's Billy Parker, one of Tulsa's most well-known radio personalities and recording artists.

"KVOO provides this concert free of charge to the public because we feel like it is the best possible way we can show our appreciation for the support the area fans have shown us throughout the years", says KVOO's general manager, John Hunt.

The event, to be held from noon until 4:00 pm, will take place at the Tulsa Expo Building on the Tulsa Fairgrounds.

ONE-ON-ONE WITH BRUCE SHINDLER OF THE MTM MUSIC GROUP

"A tiny, meowing kitten sits in the middle of the MTM Records logo. However, in the past two years the little kitten has begun to roar."--Wayne Bledsoe, Knoxville News-Sentinel staff writer.

Mr. Bledsoe speaks the truth! During a recent interview with Bruce Shindler, national promotion director for the MTM Music Group, we discussed the phenomenal success and growth of MTM. First, let's qualify

A. to start the music division in Nashville. Tommy West, formerly of Cashman-West, remembered Bruce's abilities, and told him to contact Howard Stark about the national promotion director's job.

"When I arrived at MTM, I broke out in a cold sweat when I found out I would be working with six new acts, who were virtually unheard of at that time," said Shindler. "Country radio seemed to be playing only big-name acts on big labels. Fortunately, things started changing and, when radio heard

ALBUM REVIEWS

KENNY ROGERS-I Prefer The Moonlight-RCA 6484-1-R

The unique vocals of Kenny Rogers thrill us again. Country instrumentation and arrangements have stepped into some virgin territory on some selections from this LP. If you're looking for some excellent listening which spans a range of moods, you have found it here. Rogers makes you want to join in the singing, but you don't dare, because you might miss hearing him on every note. Guest artists appearing on this album include Ronnie Milsap, Kim Carnes, and Chris Eaton.

THE FORESTER SISTERS-You Again-Warner Bros. 1-25571

The Cash Box Group of the Year proves the choice was correct with their effort on this album. No wonder these ladies are so popular with country fans. Just listen to "That's What Your Love Does To Me." It's fine country music. This LP contains a beautiful selection of country songs, and The Forester Sisters do magic to each one. "Wrap Me Up" is an outstanding song, and that's what The Forester Sisters do to you with this product.

OUT OF THE BOX

CHARLIE DANIELS BAND (Epic 34-7280) Bogged Down In Love With You (4:32) (Hat Band-BMI) (C. Daniels, T. Crain, J. Gavin, C. Hayward, T. DiGregorio) (Producer: J. Boylan)

Get ready to "get down" with Charlie and the Band. Classic Charlie Daniels vocal and arrangement. This hard-charging country music is presented at its best. Macho lyrics are set to a strong beat and rhythm. The synthesizer sound is dominate in the arrangement, which builds and

FEATURE PICKS

GEORGE STRAIT (MCA, MCA-53165) Am I Blue (3:04) (Milene-Opryland-affiliate unlisted) (D. Chamberlain) (Producers: J. Bowen, G. Strait) Swing and swing, again! George Strait has taken this David Chamberlain song and done his thing with it. This is a happy melody with blue lyrics. Lately, that combination has proven to be a winner. Chalk up another one for George!

BAILLIE AND THE BOYS (RCA 5227-7-R-A) He's Letting Go (3:49) (Warner-Tamerlane; Heart Wheel-BMI) (P. Rose, P. Bunch, M. A. Kennedy) (Producers: K. Lehning, P. Davis)

If you weren't convinced before, you will be this time around! Baillie and The Boys have something here. "Hurting" song lyrics set to a fascinating musical arrangement. The timing is unique and successful. Fine product by a super-fine new group.

RICKY VAN SHELTON (Columbia 38-07311) Somebody Lied (3:18) (Galeon-ASCAP) (J. Chambers, L. Jenkins) (Producer: S. Buckingham)

This is a ballad, in which Van Shelton mixes his fine singing with some soft-spoken phrases very effectively. Fiddle, piano, and steel play strong roles in the production. Good "my-side-of-the-story" lyrics. This one should, again, take Ricky deep into chart country.

NASHVILLE NOTE-ABLES

A LOVE STORY... I first met her when I was a teenager. I'll admit that I fell in love with her then. I didn't tell my friends because she was quite a bit older, and I knew they would make fun of me. I did tell my Mom and Dad. I was surprised when they didn't object too strongly. They told me that it was probably just an infatuation that would pass with time. It didn't pass. In fact, my love for her grew stronger and stronger as the years passed.

Like all men will do, I began to ask about her. I found that she was the daughter of a mountain woman, from the Southeast, and a drifter from somewhere out West. I was told she had relatives scattered all over the country. Her aunts, uncles, and cousins lived in Memphis, New Orleans, Los Angeles, New York, Atlanta, Birmingham, and throughout the Carolinas and Virginia. A few of them were even scattered in different parts of the world. She was an interracial lady. Her grandmother was a first generation American, who came over from Europe. Her grandfather was a black man, who had taught her the spiritual understanding of the soul.

She was plain and, yet, she was beautiful. Most of all she was wise and experienced. When we finally got to know each other, she was my greatest teacher. She taught me geography when she told me about the mountains and the prairies; the lakes and rivers and oceans; the trails and highways leading to everywhere...North, South, East, and West. She taught me history: about the Civil War, the Alamo, the cowboys and Indians, the world wars, the settlers, the explorers, etc...the past, present and future.

But, most of all, she taught me about life. She explained the emotions that everyone feels: victory and defeat, love and hate, acceptance and rejection, loneliness, happiness, soberness, drunkardness, despair, enjoyment and sadness. We became inseparable. Some of my friends liked her when they came to know her. Others were undecided. They liked her if she said the right things. And, some have never liked her frankness of expression. Some have called her "a hillbilly" or "a hick." Some think she's an angel. Some say she's a hell-raiser. It really doesn't matter to me what my friends think.

I've stuck with her. We've been through it all, together. We've seen it all, and tried it all, and remembered it all. And, through it all, we have survived. Yes, since I was a teenager, I have loved this lovely lady whose name is Country Music! I'm proud to say I have shared my life with her!

our first effort. At that time, it was a real accomplishment for an independent label! Our first #1 record came a year and a half after the company began operations. Judy Rodman took "Until I Met You" to the #1 position in all four trade publications. In 1986, SKO's "Baby's Got A New Baby" went #1, and just last month, Holly Dunn went to #1 with "Love Someone Like Me."

All of our artists are singer/songwriters. They enjoy writing songs for others, too. We feel artists tend to be more creative if they can also write. Any artist who gets signed by our label gets worked a lot in order to give them a fair shot.

We don't want to be a monster machine. We like to stay personal and have fun with what we do. We want to be perceived as a small boutique label with a handfull of good artists. We see Judy Rodman in the Carole King category. With the Girls Next Door, we're trying to give country radio a group as exciting as The Pointer Sisters. Holly Dunn is in the Emmylou Harris vein of music. SKB is our Crosby, Stills, and Nash, and Marty Haggard and Ronnie Rogers are our new country traditionalists. We are trying to show potential country listeners that country is 'cool' and, at the same time, we're trying to show the 'core' audience that country music is very much alive and well!"

Giving credit to the independent promoters, Shindler said, "Those people I have used on our records are largely responsible for the success of this label. These particular people do not deserve the bad press that independent promoters have received recently!"

Bruce Shindler is a smart man working with an equally intelligent team of people. If you have any doubts about their success in the music business, put an MTM product on your turntable and listen to that little kitty roar!

HOLLY DUNN GOES NUMBER ONE! Holly Dunn is proud of her #1 Cash Box Chart plaque, which she received in the Nashville offices of Cash Box. Joining in on the good feelings (l. to r.) are: Joe Henderson, Cash Box's Nashville editor; Barry Coburn, Holly's manager of Ten Ten Management; Holly; "Tony" D'Antonio, director of Nashville operations for Cash Box; and Bruce Shindler, national promotion director for MTM Records. WILL THE REAL T. GRAHAM BROWN PLEASE STEP FORWARD?! His T-ness, T. Graham Brown, stopped at our offices for a Cash Box interview with editor Joe Henderson (r.). Kevin Hughes (l.), Cash Box chart director, and "Tony" D'Antonio (second from left), director of operations, join in on the fun. By process of elimination, that identifies the real T. Graham Brown as being second from right. Cash Box Photo by Andy Fiduccia.

COUNTRY INDIES

INDIE SPOTLIGHT

LANE CAUDELL (16th Avenue PB-70403) Souvainers (2:57) (Ensign-BMI) (L. Caudell, B. Burch) (Producer: N. Larkin)

Here comes one of the next superstars in country music! He co-wrote this outstanding country song, too. Strong production by Nelson Larkin adds to the product total appeal. Lane Caudell is a strong-singing, good-looking young country singer with past exposures in movies and TV, including a soap opera. If women do, indeed, play a leading role in the destiny of country music stars, then, Lane Caudell is a shoe-in!

DARK HORSE CONSENSUS

MICKEY CLARK—You Take The Leavin' Out Of Me—Evergreen EV 1058
A Mickey Clark has a whole bunch of fans in our radio reporters with this release. The votes came rolling in from all over the country, and Mickey receives our Dark Horse Consensus this week for a super single. Some of the stations betting on Mickey Clark were: WXCE, KAYZ, KWKK, WMTZ, WSCP, KINO and WICO.

INDIE LP REVIEW

KEN LOVELACE—Twenty Years Overnight—Elite III

Ken Lovelace is pure country. This album is appropriately titled, since Ken has been a member of Jerry Lee Lewis' band for 20 years. Now, he has released this production of his own. This LP gives Ken Lovelace a stature of his own and recognition as a writer/entertainer. There's a lot of The Killer in Ken, and a lot of good country music in this Indie album.

NEW PLAYERS

INDIE INK... I want to start this column with an apology to Indie recording artist Tony McGill. You see, because of a printing error on June 27 this year, Tony McGill's #1 position on the Cash Box Indie Chart was not listed. The Killer Records artist achieved the #1 position that week with his recording of "Taming My Mind." In fact, it was his second #1 record of the year. Keep 'em coming, Tony!

I had an interesting phone conversation last week with Badger Records artist Bruce Odom. Bruce now lives (believe it or not) in Soddy Daisy, Tennessee, which is just outside Chattanooga. He was born in Georgia, grew up in Florida, and moved to Tennessee about five years ago. When his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Peckinpaugh, heard him sing country music, they told him he needed to move back to Tennessee with them. Bruce has just released his first record on the Badger label. It's a song titled "A Few Good Women." Late this summer, he will be releasing his second, "I'm Gonna Knock Down Your Door" on Badger's label. Y'all be watching for it!

Comstock recording artist Randy Anderson came by our offices when he was in Nashville to appear on "Nashville Now" last week. His new single, "I've Got A Thing For You," had just debuted in the Cash Box Top 100 chart at #81. While in town, Randy also did the "Wrap Around Nashville" TV show and some interviews for WSM Radio. He had to make a quick trip, however, because he has been entertaining in Las Vegas for some ten years now. He appears six nights each week at the Frontier, there.

A troupe of Nashville musicians and dancers have departed for Eastern Europe for a two-week series of concerts in Poland and Hungary. The tour is part of a continuing series of "Country Music Festivals Abroad," sponsored by Pan American World Airways and, for this tour, by Phillip Morris-Eastern Europe Division. The group's featured vocalist is Mountain John, who records on his producer/manager John Denny's Jed Records label.

CARLTON MOODY AND THE MOODY BROTHERS (Lamon LR 10162-45) Start With The Talking (2:37) (Laymond, Puggy-BMI) (C. Moody) (Producers: The Moody Bros.)

These boys are international country stars. This record proves their European popularity is surely justified. Carlton Moody has a super country voice, and his brothers provide excellent back-up vocals. The song should prove appealing to both sexes, and should do well on airplay.

WHITFIELD-WARD (Natural NR-001) Bareback Rider (2:59) (Whitfield Ward-ASCAP) (T. Ward, J. McEuen) (Producer: J. McEuen)

This release was a pleasant surprise to our review panel. It promotes a folk music feel, but it is well-blended into country pickin'. Fine vocal effort, both lead and harmony. Judging by the record number, it is the first release from Natural Records. We look forward to many more with this quality.

P. J. ALLMAN (Kansa KA 635-A) Heart First (2:47) (Tapadero-BMI; DeJames, Stan Corneliuss-ASCAP) (K. Morrison, E. Phelps, L. Wilson) (Producer: unlisted)

P. J. brings us a "falling in love" country song. Mid-tempo traditional country arrangement. P. J. Allman has had some fine releases for Kansa Records, and she's back on track again. If you've ever fallen in love, you're gonna like this one.

GLADYS WHITNEY HAS A GREAT NEW SINGLE
"THIS HEART IS ALREADY TAKEN" PRODUCED BY DANNY DAY
ON SUNDIAL RECORDS
CASH BOX FEATURE PICK:

GLADYS WHITNEY (Sundial SR 131) This Heart Is Already Taken (3:23) (Jims Allisong-BMI, D.C. Radio Active-ASCAP) (J. Allison, D.J. Chauvin) (Producer: D. Day)
Another fine female voice gets our #3 pick this week. Good strong song selection for Gladys Whitney. Mid-tempo number with solid country arrangement. Projection of vocal is well-handled by both singer and producer. Could be chart bound.

ers for Emerson Lake and Palmer Brain Salad Surgery") and Debbie Harry ("Koo Koo"), and is perhaps known for his Academy Award winning set designs for the film Alien, and Penis Landscape in 1973. It is included in several art books including Dudley Smith's Twentieth Century Masterpieces Of Erotic Art, and collections of Giger's work published by Taschen Communications.

Guarino says that the Giger painting is a clear violation of "prevailing community standards" as to what is deemed "harmful" for minors; however, he did concede that some forms of sexually explicit art are acceptable for minors.

When asked about the recent case of Florida police officer who threw away an original Picasso nude, thinking it was pornography, Guarino laughed and responded: "Oh yeah, that would come out right before this trial."

Guarino also engaged in a debate with this reporter on the first amendment issues of this case. In edited form, here is part of that interchange:

CASH BOX: The key word seems to be "prevailing." But what prevails in the community doesn't prevail in the other and, even if it did prevail by majority, you're supposed to be protecting minority expression, minority rights. In Selma, Alabama in the 1960's the prevailing community standards at the time were such that they didn't believe blacks and whites could be together.

GUARINO: To me it's real simple: I think you have to avoid those aspects of the conversation, (and make sure) that this isn't going to be a philosophical inquiry, that it's just going to be applying a test that's already been approved. I mean the rules of the game are already set. They fought the rules, they already lost.

CASH BOX: How about those who would say that Howl, the poem by Allen Ginsberg, was banned when it came out in 1955 and today it's read as a respectable work in colleges and universities?

GUARINO: That is the false alternative because there is no comparison between Ginsberg and this Giger poster.

CASH BOX: But that's your own judgement which you're imposing on — GUARINO: No, it really isn't and that's the whole point of this: that we're not going to just deal in a bunch of conclusions. I'm not saying it's lewd and ugly and dirty — oh piss! Hang on one second. (Leaves conversation briefly). You can get away with all kinds of things in the art world. You can say black is white and wrong is right, whatever. But when it comes to interpreting this poster, which is as singleminded as any poster I've ever seen in what it's attempting to depict, it's easy to read....If you see this with your truest eyes, yes it's prurient.

CASH BOX: How about Michaelangelo's David? That's on public view in a town square.

GUARINO: That's the antithesis of this.

CASH BOX: But there it is, some guy (with) his penis there for everyone to see.

GUARINO: But that's the antithesis of that. Michelangelo (sic) has a face, Michelangelo has a body, Michelangelo is one of the most humanistic pieces of art ever produced. These people in the poster — if you can call them people — have no faces, no identities. It is dehumanized sex. It's meant to be.

CASH BOX: (Giger) is trying for a certain aesthetic effect, he wants you to feel certain things. It's different from a newspaper article, it's different from, say, a political speech. Works of art fall under a different type of judgement because they're trying to do different things.

GUARINO: As a philosophy major in the old days, someone who had one boring aesthetics class after another, I think that theme and imagery and all that stuff, it's possible to deal with any of the subjects that Giger deals with — death, the horror of life without love, alienation, any of the things that he deals with — without appealing to a prurient interest. It's possible to do that.

CASH BOX: Then you're making the artistic judgement.

GUARINO: They're going to have to make some artistic judgements, the jurors are going to have to make artistic judgements. They're going to have to decide whether or not when you deal with the kinds of things he's dealing with and you miss, whether or not you miss big. Giger misses big.

(End of discussion)

Guarino's notion that artists can be, in effect, jailed for their works is certainly cause for alarm in an industry that places a high value on experimentalism and expressive directness. And, as Biafra points out, "Frankenchrist" is being singled out even though it featured a prominent warning sticker that read: "Warning: The fold-out to this album contains a work of art by H.R. Giger that some people may find shocking, repulsive or offensive. Life can sometimes be that way."

"The PMRC claimed that our sticker, since it wasn't their prototype sticker (Explicit Lyrics: Parental Advisory), that there was improper labeling and they were using that to justify the charges," says Biafra. "In other words, since we didn't use their warning sticker that we should go to jail."

Giger's U.S. agent comments: "To be put into this position where we now have to justify that Giger is a painter and not a necrophiliac pornographer into black magic is pretty ridiculous. Basically his view is strange things are happening in America."

Adds Biafra: "The climate in this country is extremely ugly right now, so I have no idea what the outcome of the trial will be."

got great energy, it's happy, and it's a statement that I'm proud to make. It's a celebration of my generation."

The difficulties of maintaining a serious solo career are not lost on Daltrey, who still looks trim and capable of rigorous, demanding work. His body is not in question, but does he still have the spirit to live on the road for weeks at a time? "It's a lot of bloody lonely nights in hotel rooms. When you're on the road, people are thinking 'Wow, they must be having a great time,' when actually 99% of the time you're stuck in some poxy little room in God knows where, looking out the window, and thinking 'what the f am I doing here?'"

Another problem inherent within a solo career is recruiting, rehearsing, and maintaining a stable band, which Daltrey knows is crucial to any success at a solo level. Having survived The Who's legendary excesses, Daltrey is not at all sure he wants to start the whole treadmill again. "It's like being halfway up a mountain that you've climbed before, and I don't know whether I want to get to the top so badly anymore."

The reason for Daltrey's reluctance to attack again the rigors of the road is his fierce, cathartic stage manner, which forces him to the edge of exhaustion every night. His is not a subtle singing style, suitable for Holiday Inn lounges. "The only way I can put it is that I have to give it my whole life force. It's always been a painful experience for me. I could never be a crooner. I'm not Phil Collins, I just can't sit up there relaxed, and it doesn't come easy. That's the problem with much of today's music, though — there's too much image and not enough emotion."

Should the singing vice not pan out, Daltrey now enjoys a second career — that of actor. Anyone who has ever seen his unforgettable performance in the rock opera "Tommy" knows of his photogenic charisma, and that 1975 role whetted his appetite for more on-camera time. Since then, he has played the lead in 1980's "McVicar" and in several critically acclaimed roles on the BBC, including "The Beggar's Opera" and Shakespeare's "A Comedy Of Errors." Unlike most new actors, his previous work has left him financially stable, so he is allowed the luxury of turning down all but the most fitting roles.

Memetron – The Kitmaker; Three Years Old – And Growing

By Camille Compasio

On July 16, Cash Box visited the spankin' new facilities of Memetron, Inc. in Lombard, Illinois, which are a far cry from the firm's previous quarters in Elk Grove Village, Illinois, in terms of space (they have upward of 8,000 sq. ft. here), decor, convenience and accessibility for out of town visitors. The new digs indeed reflect the versatility, growth and accomplishments of this progressive, three-year old company.

Memetron president Larry Siegel and his wife, Lettie, made up the two-person staff that got the company off the ground. "I began Memetron in March of 1984, shortly after I left Stern Electronics," said Siegel, "and when we got started we decided that we would buy and sell anything that we could get our hands on in the coin machine industry; from chips, to used

T'was a sunny day in Lombard so the CB photog was able to take this terrific shot of the exterior of Memetron's building showing the well manicured grounds and surroundings. How about that sign! Around The Route

By Camille Compasio

How do you beat the heat? As a native Chicagoan I'm naturally accustomed to frigid winters and sizzling summers. Summertime, though, has always been my favorite season. However, over the past few weeks, with temperatures consistently in the high, humid, upper 90's (establishing new records for the city), I've been very tempted to do some re-evaluating. Week before last, as I was gathering news for this column, on a hot, (97 degrees) Friday afternoon, I made a call to Terry Moss at Moss Distributing in Des Moines, Iowa. "How ya doin', Terry," I asked, "Hope the weather out there isn't as sufferable as it is in Chicago!" To which he replied, "I'm afraid it is, unless you can top 101 degrees which is the present temperature in Des Moines!" That shut me up, and also put to rest any thoughts of re-evaluating. Heck, when you think about it, 97 – even 101 – is a lot better than 22 below zero, so I think I'll stick with my favorite season after all. Adding one more comment on the subject, let us hope the Mr. and Ms. America residents in the sizzling cities of our country are beating the heat by patronizing their favorite watering holes for something cool to drink and hot to play in the way of coin-op music and games equipment!...Getting away from the first person reference, and getting down to business, most of our conversation with Terry Moss focused on some of his current hits of the season. First off, Taito America's "Double Dragon". Here's his quote, "When you can take a Double Dragon, in 'Farmland U.S.A.', and bring in $500 a week with it, you've got a hit! An operator called me today and said he's been enjoying his best collections ever, with Double Dragon." Sega's "Super Hang-On" and Taito's "Rastan" are also big for him. The distrib is anxiously awaiting delivery of Atari's "APB" and is looking at the new Williams "Fire" pin as "another Pin Bot".

New arrival. Cash Box felicitations to Atari's Linda Benzler (and hubby, Jeff) their first child, a girl, and they've named her Jessica Lee. Our next announcement will focus on marketing chief Mary Fujihara who's expected to give birth momentarily (due date was August 6).

Here's word from Data East Pinball, advising that Nu Look Products of Hollywood, Florida, will be the official playfield and rubber cleaner of their debut pinball offering, "Laser War". The first 2000 Laser War's shipped in the U.S. and Canada will come with these products, as noted by Jeff Walker, veepee-sales/international for Data East Pinball.

Had a nice chat with good buddy Doug Wilson of Banner in Pittsburg, just prior to his departure for the annual PAMMA state convention in Seven Springs (8/7-9). Center of excitement in the music department out there is the NSM "Galaxy 200" jukebox, which is a big seller – and "the best box on the market right now", to quote Doug. He also had some good comments to make about Exidy's "Rainbow" condom machine. "It's the only machine of this type that is really designed for the professional operator to have on his route," said Doug. "It can vend different products, besides condoms, and respond to the public's needs...and the machine's cosmetics are outstanding."

John Nevill of American Vending Sales tells us he's been booking a lot of advance orders for the new Bally "Xenophobe" video game. Samples are expected to arrive in mid-August with delivery scheduled for early September. Watch for it. Bally Midway's "Heavy Metal Meltedown" pingame is expected to come in any time now and John's enthusiastic about this model, as well. The Rowe c.d./combo jukebox is moving terrifically well, he added. AVS has been offering a special package with this box that features a new type of speaker called the "spatial stereo" that gives a full, stereo sound. And by the way, overall business at AVS is about 30 to 40 percent over last year at this time!

merchandise, to new games that were distressed (i.e. that manufacturers had either over-built or mis-calculated) – anything we could get along those lines. From this point, we progressed for the first year to eighteen months," he continued, "with integrated circuit and parts business being a dominant factor during this formative period. However, when I saw opportunities in the kit business we expanded our staff and started doing kits." Among those first models were Taito's Ten Yard Fight, Shanghai Kid for Data East, Atomic Boy for Ircm and the back to back Matmania and Mania Challenge, both from Taito. Solar Warrior, also from Taito, is the most current kit marketed by Memetron. As we all know, Matmania and Mania Challenge were award winning kits that put memetron on the map, so to speak, in the trade and served to strengthen their position in the marketplace.

Referring to Solar Warrior, which was released in April of this year, Cash Box asked the obvious question – "when will we see your next kit?" Siegel replied by first stressing, "we are very selective about the kits we do. Memetron hasn't put out a kit since April and it's very possible we won't put out another one until Labor Day. The reason for this is based solely on our high standards and while we have tested product, we've found nothing thus far that measures up to our requirements." Kits account for about 60% of Memetron's business. Larry would prefer that it be 80-90% but, as he pointed out, "there is not a reliable stream of high calibre kits to market and, unfortunately, there are the dry spells to contend with."

At present, the company has no interest in upright dedicated games and is "very happy in the kit business." The market climate is good, operators are continuing to buy kits and when the right one comes along, we'll see a follow-up to Solar Warrior.

During the waiting period, however, Memetron has been concentrating on its various other involvements. "We have a lot of other activities around here," said Siegel. "We sell component parts, power supplies, a substantial amount of integrated circuits and we also sell a substantial amount of distressed inventory. I've sold distressed inventory for everyone from Atari to Nintendo." (Cash Box asked him to elaborate a little further on this facet and he mentioned a few examples). "About two years ago I sold some 650 Firefoxes, around 400 Star Wars, along with other products, for Atari; and in the last ninety days about 7000 monitors for Nintendo," he noted. "I've also sold distressed inventory that belonged to Bally and to Taito. I did substantial excess inventory sales for Williams. As a matter of fact, Williams contracted me to work out of their factory for a six month period to liquidate a sizeable portion of merchandise they no longer needed. It was in their way, they wanted to turn it into money and the arrangement worked out well for both our companies."

Indeed, the name Memetron is synonymous with kits, and rightfully so, but when Cash Box visited the facilities and sat down with the company's president we became more aware of their diverse capabilities within the coin-op industry. The company is uncompromising when it comes to their key product, in this case kits, but has the flexibility, experience and know-how to prosper very successfully should a dry spell occur.

Larry Siegel briefly touched on the subject of export during our interview. "I have good contacts overseas, particularly in Europe," he told us, "and good deal of the merchandise we secure is exported. Outside of the kit business, I would estimate that about 70 or 80 percent of our activities are in the areas of importation and exportation."

Are upright dedicated games on the planning board at Memetron? Not for the moment, but the door remains open to future prospects. "Right now my plans are to continue doing kits," Larry told us. "However, there is a new factor to consider and that is the value of the Japanese yen. The yen/dollar differential has altered our position

Boards can cost us in excess of $1000 and by the time we put our art and table and the various other paraphernalia that goes into a kit, we might have to mark the price as high as $1350 or $1400. This is a departure from the time when we could secure boards for $600 or less and set the distributor price at well below $1000. The point is, it's much easier to get an operator to pay $2000 or $2200 for a full game than it is to get $1300 for a kit," he went on to explain. "Actually, the only thing that would drive me to the upright business would be cost, meaning if I felt the market could not bear the kind of money that would have to be charged for kits."

The new Memetron facilities are located at 325 Eisenhower Lane in Lombard, Illinois, which is a suburb of Chicago. Upon entering the building the first thing you notice (before being very pleasantly greeted by office manager Judy Beach at the reception desk) is the Wall of Fame, containing a montage of photos, dating back about a decade, depicting trade highlights involving members of the Memetron team. The executive suite of offices occupied by president Larry Siegel and Vice president of sales Tom Campbell are tastefully decorated with only a few remaining furnishing details to be completed. The building offers a great deal more in the way of space for the firm's departmental structure which includes technical service/board repairs; customer service department; the test station for board repair work; cable assembly; and a good size warehouse, loading dock, et al for preparing kits and other merchandise for shipment. Among the key members of the staff that we met as Tom Campbell took us on a guided tour of the premises were office manager Judy Beach, service manager Dragan Djukic, parts manager Nathan Witters and warehouse manager Joe Puente.

While chatting casually in Larry's office with he and Tom Campbell, the conversation touched on various topics and Larry had some very definite opinions to convey. The subject of FCC compliance relative to the kit business came up. "I believe it was October 1, 1984 when it was determined that all games sold had to meet FCC compliance," Siegel recalled. "This placed kit manufacturers in a very delicate position. If a kit was put in a post-'84 game, chances are it complied with FCC requirements; however, I think it would be virtually impossible to have pre-'84 games comply with the law." (A number of hit pieces from that era came to mind, such as Pac-Man, Scramble, Space Invaders, and many, many more). Memetron addresses the situation by specifying on their kits that they are exclusively for post-'84 product but, as he pointed out, there's no guarantee that operators pay attention to this notification.

Here you see a test station in an area of the customer service department where Dragan Djukic demonstrated just one stage of the procedure for testing and repairing boards.

National, regional, territorial conventions and trade events was another topic of discussion. As a kit producer, it is not economically feasible for Memetron to participate in every single trade event that is held throughout the year. Larry put it this way, "I am sure operators would prefer to buy their kits at a modest rate rather than see our sales personnel in attendance at the numerous shows that are held annually across the country." He told us that Memetron has decided to be a "one show a year company" that will exhibit and concentrate its efforts on the annual AMOA convention. He noted that Memetron has withdrawn its membership in AAMA, primarily because of the financial commitment required, but said he thoroughly supports the association's aims, goals and objectives.

This is a portion of Tom Campbell's office. Golf clubs on the left; a framed portrait of triple crown winner Secretariat. Can you guess what he does in his spare time - away from the phones and the sales charts?

With respect to copy games and parallel imports, Larry had a few comments to make. "I was somewhat disappointed when AMOA issued its statement on parallel boards which didn't really condemn them but acceded to their presence, conveying the attitude that 'as long as they're here we're going to have to live with them'. I realize that it is difficult for an operator to distinguish between a parallel board and a copy board," he told Cash Box, "and we certainly cannot expect them to 'police' the situation. But, as I see it, there is no differentiation between the two. Copy boards is a universal problem in the industry. It effects the pin manufacturers, the pool table manufacturers and the dart manufacturers as well, because copy boards are available at ridiculously low prices, since their's no r&d to amortize, and there are, after all, only so many dollars in the marketplace. I'd say about 50% of my sales on Matmania alone were lost to copies. A knockout of Solar Warriors was on the street even before Memetron began selling it. Even with the enormous commitment of AAMA," he continued, "I really don't see any reconciliation at this point. This is an insidious problem that doesn't seem to be going away."

How about this closing shot of Memetron prexy Larry Siegel behind the wheel of what has to be a prize possession (next to wife, children, business and Matmania) - his bright red (with white side inserts) 1960 Corvette! We took a photo of him in his office but somehow it just didn't measure up to this one!

Siegel made a suggestion he would like both national associations (AMOA and AAMA) to consider and that is to hold one, major trade show a year in either late summer (possibly around Labor Day) or early to middle March. "If the two organizations would get together to organize one good show during either of these periods, I would go anywhere in the country to participate and, what's more, I am convinced that such an event would help the industry to regain the prestige and pre-eminence it once had."

As we concluded our interview and were about to depart the Memetron premises we made one last request of Larry - to take a ride in that gorgeous, bright red, 1960 Corvette we saw parked inside the warehouse entrance!

Heavy Advance Booth Sales For AMOA Expo '87

CHICAGO - More than three-quarters of the 486 booths available for Expo '87, the Amusement & Music Operators Association's 38th annual international exhibition and educational seminar, have been sold a full four months in advance of the show's opening. Expo '87 will be held November 5-7 at the Hyatt Regency Chicago.

As of mid July, 120 companies had purchased 400 booths for the Expo '87 exhibition. Thousands of owners and distributors of coin-operated amusement, music and vending equipment are expected to attend.

"The response from so many leading manufacturers so early indicates that this may be our biggest and best show in years," commented Jim Trucano of Black Hills Novelty Co. in Rapid City, South Dakota, who is chairman of the Expo '87 exhibits subcommittee. For the sake of comparison, the 1986 exposition featured 452 booths and Expo '85 had 433.

The Expo '87 exhibition will showcase a full assortment of products and technologies in all categories including pinball games, CD jukeboxes, pool tables, cranes, video games, electronic darts, pay telephones, cigarette vending and other coin-operated equipment.

The convention's educational seminars will feature recognized industry, government and management experts who will address such topics as: cranes (from a merchandising perspective), cranes (from a technical perspective), cigarette vending, the advantages of computerization, management excellence, copyright and trademark enforcement, leagues (with an emphasis on darts), how the new tax law affects the coin-op industry, and much more.

Headlining this year's AMOA banquet and stage show will be the Four Lads with their vintage collection of 50s and 60s music. Also performing will be Bo Thorpe and his orchestra.

Further information may be obtained by contacting AMOA headquarters at 111 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL 60601 or phoning (312) 644-6610.

Moving right along, we have the technical service department which is where a great deal of the board work is done. You'll recognize Nathan Witters, holding a PC board, and Joe Puente lending a hand - or should we say finger!
