When It's The Real Thing, You Know It.

Jermaine Jackson.
"I Think It's Love."

Think back to Jermaine's international platinum Arista debut, and its series of top 5 singles.

Think about the energy and magnetism that has made Jermaine a worldwide superstar. Think about Jermaine returning with a record that he co-wrote with Stevie Wonder and producer Michael Omartian.

When you consider all this, you'll know why we think Jermaine Jackson's got one of the biggest hits of his career on the way.

"I Think It's Love."

The first hit from the forthcoming Jermaine Jackson album, Precious Moments.

INSIDE TOP 40 WITH DAVE SHOLIN

When one record company has three consecutive number one records in The Gavin Report, it's an accomplishment deserving mention. Arista has achieved this miraculous feat with DIONNE & FRIENDS, BILLY OCEAN, and now WHITNEY HOUSTON, all number one in successive weeks.. Congratulations Clive, Don, Rick, and crew. So far, it's the strongest top ten of the year, with seven underlined sides in the group.

ELTON JOHN having his hottest week, with several programmers noting that the UK edit is generating more response. This longer version includes several key elements...an instrumental bridge and George Michaels' vocals at the close. ATLANTIC STARR showing phenomenal gains, including WZZU 28-16, B-97 12-7, KIIK 25-14, Y107 22-14, KIIS/FM 24-14, KIXS 27-19, etc. HOOTERS picking another 10 percentage points in Hit Factor debuting number 20 at KHOP/FM, #23 WKNE, #26 KHBQ, #27 KOLL, etc...sure to top 200 reports next week. INXS well on the way to their first major U.S. hit, added at WKTI, WNCI, KPKE, KWNZ, KYNO, etc.

Newer items of interest are SAM HARRIS, debuting top 30 at KMEL, KO93, KHOP/FM, moving 23-17 at WBGN and added at PRO/FM, WBEN, KMJK, KREO, KMGX, and 17 more.

CHARLIE SEXTON up to a Hit Factor of 12% with the biggest jump at KITS-San Francisco 24-16. Unusual entry FALCO earns the Most Added award. New on KNBQ, KSLY, KYVA, KBEQ, WZUU, I-95, Q105, WBCY, KZZU, etc.

Bruce Stevens WBBQ-Augusta was first to alert me to this week's Record To Watch by JENNIFER RUSH. Bruce moves it 10-6, while in the West, Bob Harlow at The Kat in Los Gatos/San Jose screams "Hit", taking it 7-3...also gains 25-13 for John Raymond at KIXY-San Angelo...15 new believers and more confirmations expected.

Only two weeks until our 1st Seminar For Media Professionals. I'm happy to see multiple registrations from a number of stations as the sessions are targeted at increasing the success quotient of the entire station. Our Top 40 format breakfast is guaranteed to be a no-holds barred discussion, moderated by industry leaders. Can't wait for this one. Dave RF: Did Berry discover you or did you discover Berry?

SR: I happened to be in the right place at the right time. On that particular day I was at the wrong place at the right time. The Miracles and I had gone to audition for Jackie Wilson. When we went to audition, Berry was there. He happened to hear some of the songs that we sang. I guess this impressed him because he met us outside and asked where we got the material that we sang. I explained to him that I had written it. He told me he was Berry Gordy, which I didn't believe because he looked about fifteen years old and I had all of Jackie Wilson's records and I knew who Berry Gordy was.

RF: Was one of the songs "My Mama Done Told Me"?

SR: Yes, that was the one song that caught his attention.

RF: Actually the first recordings you did were not on the Motown label, it was End Records. Did that include the Ron and Bill record?

SR: No, the Ron and Bill record was never a national release. The Ron and Bill record was done by Ronnie White, who was in The Miracles, and myself. It was only released on the Motown label locally. The record that really started the ball rolling for us. Our first two records on End label out of New York were "Gotta A Job" backed with "My Mama Done Told Me." "Gotta A Job" was of course an answer to Miracles were originally called The Matadores in which my wife's brother was a member. Claudette and her cousin, Bob Roger's sister and two other girls had a group called the Matadorettes. We were like brother/sister groups, we were allowed in talent shows in Detroit, appeared in contests and when we got to be about sixteen years old, Sonny, who was Claudette's brother wanted to go into the Army. So he asked his mother to sign for him to go into the Army and she did. Shortly after that we found out that Jackie Wilson's people were going to be in town auditioning talent. We needed a fifth voice because we had been used to singing with a fifth voice. In the interim the Matadores and Matadorettes rehearsed together a lot. So Claudette was familiar with our songs. So we asked her if she would go to this audition with us. She said yes, so we went down with her for the audition. When we got there we were four guys and a girl. The guy who we went to actually audition for said we should have been more like The Platters or Mickey & Sylvia. He didn't like our group at all. But even ask to serve us. Some of them would try to refuse to serve us but we would just stay there. Eventually, they would throw the food at us or serve us the wrong order. Trying to stay at hotels was also impossible. I think that with the advent of the fact that it started to get so strong in the sixties with Martin Luther King.

RF: Could it have been easier for a celebrity black maybe accelerating the pace? Was it easier for the professional athlete or the prominent black performer?

SR: In fact, I think it was just the opposite more so than the black celebrity being the ground breaker. It was not until the common black person became involved in this through Martin Luther King. Ask guys like Sammy Davis Jr., who used to perform in Vegas but could not even stay in the hotel he played in.

RF: How can you describe the Motown Sound?

SR: First of all I think the Motown Sound is spiritual. Many people never quite understand what I'm saying at first. They think I mean Gospel, but I don't, I mean

"People were coming from Nigeria to Detroit to record because they thought they were going to get the Motown Sound."

the Silhouettes' "Get A Job." That record and records called "I Need Some Money" and "I Cry" were on the End label. Shortly after Berry decided that he was going to start Motown because we were not really being paid properly by any of the companies. He had only two or three artists at that time. But nobody was really paying him properly. He just said, "Hey, I'm going to start my own company," which he did and "Bad Girl" was the very first record that ever made any real noise for us nationwide. Berry sold the national distribution rights to Chess Records in Chicago and that was how we became national as a group.

RF: What were the record companies on a national level that were distributing and/or promoting black product? Was it Atlantic and Chess basically?

SR: Oh no. There were a lot of labels at that time. End Records was very big with black artists. I don't remember them having any white artists. They had The Chantels, Frankie Lymon and The Teenagers, Little Anthony and The Imperials, The Cleftones, people like that. But Atlantic and Chess were the powerhouse black labels at that time, no question about it.

RF: When did The Miracles get a female vocalist?

SR: What happened is the guys in The like I said, with the grace of God Berry was there and that's what happened.

RF: Has your wife, Claudette ever been the intended subject of your songs?

SR: Consciously I've only written one song in my life for Claudette and that was "More Love." Before my son Berry was born she had like seven miscarriages. Claudette was in the hospital and everytime I would go to see her after she had a miscarriage she would always feel as though she had let me down. I would always try to explain to her, "Hey, I didn't know the baby. I wanted the baby but I didn't know the baby. So I'm not going to miss the baby. If something happened to you then I would really be messed up. You're here, and that is all I care about." I was then inspired to write "More Love" for her.

RF: In the early days, being a successful black act, it wasn't easy touring. Do you think there was any threshold you passed where the attitude of people changed?

SR: That is really hard to say. I recall, now that you've mentioned this, going through all the sit-ins and touring in the South when they first started to break the restaurant segregation. Martin Luther King first started talking about "we're going to integrate everything." We started to go into the restaurants in the South and we would sit for hours before they would spiritual. Berry said that we were going to make music that had a great beat with great stories. We were not just gonna make music with a great beat and saying la-di-di-da. So his idea of making music was double profoundness. The Motown Sound is the product of all of the people who have made it happen throughout the years. When we first became really popular, shortly after "Shop Around" and "Please Mr. Postman" people were coming from Nigeria to Detroit to record because they thought they were going to get the Motown Sound. They were coming from New York, Chicago, Dallas. I mean, they were coming from all over the world to Detroit because they thought the Motown Sound was in the Detroit air. They even booked the same studios we booked in Detroit because they thought they could get the Motown Sound.

RF: Could they have gotten that sound if they had hired the Motown people?

SR: Maybe.

RF: Who were those great behind-the-scene musicians that were distinguished?

SR: I think that the people who made the sound are the spiritual aspects of Motown. What others didn't realize was that at the same time our acts would be touring, we were recording our people in New York, Dallas, Nashville, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, and we always got the Motown Sound. Our basic musicians were right there in Detroit like James Jamesson, Earl Van Dyke and Benny Benjamin. But when we came to Los Angeles to record those guys weren't there and we got the Motown Sound.

RF: Tell us about the first appearance The Miracles made at the Apollo Theatre and that experience with Ray Charles.

SR: Every Thursday morning they would have for the new show coming in a band rehearsal so the orchestra could become familiar with the artists' tunes before the show actually started. So here we are, we come from Detroit and we've never done a professional show like this. We come in and we had onion skins. Onion skins to a musician is like a chord sheet and it's what we use in the studio to record the records. We did head arrangements back in those days. We didn't have elaborate arrangements. Basically your songs were done with rhythm and a saxophone. We had these onion skins with the chords on them but there were no notes on them for the guys to play so, of course, when we signed with Motown Records as an artist you got your school schedule along with your contract. At that time we took our Motown Revues on the road and the reason they were so popular was because they were professional. When people went to see them they didn't see a bunch of amateur kids up there singing hit records. They saw a show. We took entertainment seriously. We had people to show our artists choreography, harmony, speaking, whatever it was. It was probably the most beneficial entertainment school there has ever been. That's why I think Motown artists last. Really, I look back at people who started at the same time and there are more Motown people still performing than any other company.

RF: Why was it that almost all of them left at one time? You invested in the artists and they become successful and they turn on you. How did the artists see it and how did Motown see it?

SR: Fortunately for me, I've seen it from both sides of the fence. Because I'm an artist and I am an officer of the company.

Detroit. Berry left Detroit. He was going back and forth between Detroit and Los Angeles in the late 60's and early 70's.

RF: After Motown had moved to Los Angeles you went into semi-retirement and became a Vice President of Motown. What prompted leaving The Miracles? What were you doing in the early days as a Vice President of Motown?

SR: I'm glad you asked me that because a lot of people think I left The Miracles and became a Vice President. But that's not true. I have been a Vice President since 1963. All the artists that signed in the 60's signed in through my office because that's what I did. I was the coordinator. I'm Vice President of Artist Relations. I coordinate artists with producers, writers and school schedules.

RF: Would this include the Jackson 5?

SR: This would not include the Jacksons. The Jacksons were signed out here in Los Angeles.

RF: You have published 1500 songs in twenty-three years in the business. Is that a fair estimation of published songs?

“ I look back at the people who started at the same time and there are more Motown people still performing than any other company.”

got to the Apollo Theatre they were used to all the professional stuff. Notes written out, charts and all that. We didn't have that. So they were totally angry with us. Then Ray came in. It was Ray Charles' show. We were going to be on his show. He said, "What's the confusion here?" We explained to him that we came from Detroit and didn't have any charts. So Ray said, "Does anybody in the group know the song?" I said: "Yeah, I know the song," because I had written the song. So he said can you play it on the piano and I said "Yeah" and played it a little bit. Ray said "Move over." He sat down at the piano and started to play the song. "Bad Girl" and while he played I sang along. To the trombone players he said, "I want to you to play ba-ba-ba" and they wrote that down. He did an arrangement for us right there on both our songs that morning at our rehearsal. I will always love Ray Charles.

RF: Motown was famous for taking kids off the streets and putting them on the map. And that included the Motown School. What was it about the Motown School back in the 60's, and how would it be different in the 80's?

SR: The Motown School was called Artist Development. Our artists learned everything from hygiene to doing interviews. It was mandatory. When you

Most of the artists have always felt very, very comfortable in confiding in me in whatever they felt or did. Motown was like a college. We groomed the people. Other companies on the outside with perhaps more money than we could offer were sitting there waiting for them to graduate. Then they would say, "Hey, we can triple the money." Which they could in a lot of cases. The artists being human would go for that. The artists had paid their dues. They had advanced. A great many of them found that it wasn't so. At Motown the fine print is what counts. At Motown the fine print was "You're at home and no matter how down you get or how long it takes for you to get a hit record you can still record." Motown was family oriented. But we don't have the same type of family atmosphere around here now that we had in those days because we now have over 200 employees. Some of which I don't even know.

RF: Is it fair to say that the school doesn't exist now?

SR: School doesn't exist at all these days.

RF: Artist Development is done through Artist Management now?

SR: Yes.

RF: When did the school break up? Can you think of a time when it wasn't practical?

SR: It probably broke up after we left

SR: Yes, that is a fair estimation. The reason I can say that it is a fair estimation is that because before I had left The Miracles, which was in 1972, I had gotten from Jobete that I had over 500 at the time. Most of the stuff you heard in the early days by Mary Wells, Temptations, The Marvelettes, The Miracles and Marvin Gaye. Those were my songs.

RF: Lyric content. On the new album you got the song "Be Kind To The Growing Mind." You even use the phrase "terrible to waste a growing mind." We haven't heard a lot of artists stand up and say the lyric has to be cleaned up on some product.

SR: I have felt bad about the lyric content and the appearance of some of the artists for a long time. What are their album covers like? What are their videos like? What are they saying? It has been troubling me for a long time . . . years. But about a year and a half ago, I was at some friend's home and they have a little boy. At that time he was four years old and one of these questionable songs was on the radio. That's the straw that broke the camel's back as far as I was concerned.

RF: I wonder if there is a reason for radio to play "Be Kind To The Growing Mind." It seems to be a message that you're giving to other musicians . . . an inside story. It's not like an open letter to the world.

SR: It is. I think there is a need for radio to play it. I want my peers to hear it and I do want them to understand it. Not everybody feels like the guys who are writing garbage and then go and defend themselves in front of the committee. I want them to know there are artists who do have a moral concept of what we should be saying because we are idols to a certain degree and we should use that in a positive way and not take advantage of young people. I know there are a lot of artists who feel like I do. Probably the great majority of artists feel like that but are probably afraid to step on the toes of the offenders. I want the common person in the street who buys all the records to know that some artists are sensitive.

RF: Is there some sort of understanding that Motown has with their artists? Would there be reason to assume that we're not gonna have this kind of a problem with Motown artists?

SR: I hope not, but I can't say that. I think

SR: "Cruisin'" was a song that began with Marv Taupin's music. Marv is my guitarist. He has been with me since 1960, with The Miracles and since. He has written music for many artists. He does the music and I do the words. I love writing with him, he's one of my favorite writing people in the world. After I left The Miracles and I was still in Detroit he came over to my house and put three or four songs down musically on a tape for me because we had just signed a new girls group from England. I was gonna do some songs for them. I had written a song called "Easy Rider" for these girls. It was about this guy who came into town, had a big car, but the deal fell through on the girls. So I eventually moved out to Los Angeles and I had this tape which I would constantly listen to. I could never come up with any lyrics for it.

One night I was in bed and I had it playing. The part that says "We're gonna fly away, glad you're going my way." I love it but I could never get anything. Two weeks later "I love it when we're cruising together" and still never recorded it. But talking about "Cruisin'." Chicago radio started that record. It was the most gratifying record I had in years.

RF: Is it tougher being a recording artist who has spanned many musical generations? Is it tougher with each album to stay current?

SR: No. I personally, production-wise, may have been slightly off because you do get that way. But my new album is produced by Steve Barry and Tony Peluso. It is a wonderful album. I'm so happy with it. I had already done an album and I let Barry and Suzanne DePasse and Jay Lasker hear it and they hated it. They said this is garbage. Berry Gordy would tell me that in a minute. Jay Lasker told me I'm gonna have Steve Barry cut an album with you. If you don't like it we don't have to use it. I'm so happy that they did that. I started the original album in October '84 and then mid-'85 we scrapped it all. We started on this album and I was so wiped out doing the TV show, doing this album, doing gigs at that time. This album became very easy

"Don't we also have an obligation to the young people coming up behind us?"

"I want the common person in the street who buys all the records to know that some artists are sensitive."

we've had Motown artists that are offenders. All I can say is if it's so, I'll tell them the same as I'd tell anybody else.

RF: Did you have skeletons in your closet? Any songs you might not have done now that you did then? Could songs like "Virgin Man" or "Cruisin'" bother you now?

SR: No. It's not the same thing. You have never heard, by me, a song that was blatant. All my songs leave you food for thought but I would never come out and blatantly say, "Hey, baby, let's ----" and that's what these guys are saying now. I'm not ashamed of "Virgin Man." I've seen guys defending themselves, at the Congressional committee about their lyrics which I think was ridiculous. Don't we have an obligation to the young people coming up behind us? What about our moral issue? These things don't count anymore? "Virgin Man", that song merely depicts the fact that nobody ever looks at a guy as a virgin. In fact, if a guy gets to be a certain age, eighteen or nineteen, and he's a virgin, guys laugh at him. He won't even admit his virginity. That's what that song is saying. It's not pornographic or even graphic. "Cruisin'" is a song like that. "Cruisin'" is whatever you want it to be.

RF: How did "Cruisin'" come about? That wasn't an "A" side originally.

we went into the studio about a year after that and recorded the song. I was not pleased with the lyrics that I had nor was I totally pleased with the track. "Cruisin'" took five to six years to do. On the actual recording of "Cruisin'" I hated my voice on that. I was so hoarse that day, that whole week, but I had to get that album done. I couldn't wait for my voice to get better 'cause they were waiting. Finally I had everything intact and I had the final vocal that there is now. Something else was bugging me. I wasn't totally pleased with the sound of the track so I'm in my car and "Just My Imagination" by The Temptations was on. I'm listening to the sound of the track ... timpani drums. "That's it! That's what I gotta do to "Cruisin'". When I got home I called the studio and added timpani drums. Motown was excited because I had done a re-cut of "Get Ready." My people and I were saying, listen to this, listen to "Cruisin'." But Motown released "Get Ready" and jocks didn't want to play it. I was going to Chicago to do a show for WVON. A jock from WVON called me and said, "Hey man, when you come here to do the show, forget about "Get Ready." Chicago don't want to hear that. Chicago is "Cruisin'." So you better learn that." Before I got off the phone with him they were calling me from all over the country because all I had to do was go to the studio and sing, and if something was happening with the tracks or with the vocals all I had to say was "Hey man, I don't like that" and we would work on it. I think they did a marvelous, wonderful job. If it doesn't sell a copy I still love it.

RF: How did you hook up with Stevie Wonder? This isn't the first time you've written with Stevie.

SR: This time he did a little more than usual, because when we get together, he just does the music. This time he did the music and the melody, and I did the lyrics.

RF: You recently completed a six week run on NBC-TV as the host of The Motown Review, the only recent attempt at variety-type television. Was it a tough job?

SR: I was surrounded by the best people. Suzanne DePasse is a top notch TV person. With her at the head of it, I knew it was going to be good. She and George Slaughter and Steve Bender did a wonderful job with that show, I was not worried about the quality of it.

RF: What are the chances of the show being renewed?

SR: Well, I'll tell you, Ron, if they pick it up I'm for it, because now I've had a chance to get a little rest. If they did that I would do it if it would be all that I did. Other than working on my next album. ■

A/C ANALYSIS

Some pretty exciting records in the top five. Competition is so tough that you need 93% or better just to crack the top ten. ELTON JOHN's moves continue to impress all concerned. Sixty-seven new HIGH ROTATION reports this week and number one most listed record with A/C's STARSHIP shows a similar profile (nearly 80% of all stations reporting the record have it in HIGH ROTATION).

From the middle of the chart, but hardly mid-chart records, are: JAMES TAYLOR, MIKE & THE MECHANICS, ANNE MURRAY and DAN SEALS. Expect all to be top five by early next month.

This week's CERTIFIED's look strong. ATLANTIC STARR is smokin' in three formats. Their A/C profile includes 124 stations, of which 42 just added it and a HIT FACTOR of 45%. ARETHA pulls in a 58% HIT FACTOR from 111 stations.

The underlines on FREDDIE JACKSON (19 to 20) and MR. MISTER (21 to 23) are not typos. Blame the five records which have now been on the chart for only two weeks. Underlined sides show the greatest potential for continued growth.

RECOMMENDED FOR A/C RADIO

JERMAINE JACKSON - "I Think It's Love" (Arista) Written with

Stevie Wonder and producer Michael Omartian, this is one of those songs which hooks you on one listen. Arranged in such a way as to lock up three formats. STEVIE WONDER - "Overjoyed" (Tamla/Motown) Written by Stevie Wonder, this one isn't shared with Jermaine, Smokey or Dionne. It's pure melody and the album's definitive love song. POINTER SISTERS - "Twist My Arm" (RCA) Their last single FREEDOM was a thought piece.... contemplative, libertarian and slow. The new one is rhythmic, simplistically direct and up. A contact high is likely.

by Tony Richland

LETTER FROM A

by Tony Richland

The Gavin Hollywood Bureau received another missive from Danny T. Holliday, P.D. of KGOY (TOP 40) in Foonman, Ohio.

Sometimes Danny sends letters ... sometimes missives. This week's was a missive. Since we didn't know what to write about this week, we thought we'd share Danny's missive with you:

Dear Gavin Report

It's been awhile since I last communicated with you, but something has occurred which prompts this missive. Several weeks ago, I rolled into my house one morning after having relieved my flu-ridden all-night guy. My wife was waiting with a hot breakfast of Egg Beaters and imitation bacon bits. It seemed like as good a time as any to let her know that it would be wise for me to attend the upcoming Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals.

"What are these seminars all about?" she queried.

"Good question. You see, they're sort of symposiums in which record and radio people get together for the mutual sharing of ideas. Inspirational talks are delivered by proven pros and the whole assemblage benefits by the altruistic exchanges of pertinent input."

"In other words, you and a bunch of other ninthindary schleps get away from your wives and loved ones to drink and carouse for a few days?"

"What a sardonic and uncalled-for viewpoint," I responded. "Most of us would love to have our spouses and loved ones with us. It's just that we hardly think you'd be interested in subjects such as FCC deregulation statutes and signal transmission debates. Furthermore, Gavin publisher Ron Fell would never countenance anything but the most orderly and dignified conference."

"Oh yeah? Then what's with these hospitality suites? My guess is that plenty of ladies-of-the-evening will be around to share THEIR pertinent input! I don't think I want you to go."

"Look, the only ladies of the evening walking around will be all-night girls and morning news ladies who crack jokes on every station in America with every funny morning man ... look at the Gavin itinerary: it says that on the 21st there'll be a Women In Music industry meeting. Give me a break."

"And what's this awards luncheon? How can they tell, for instance, who the Music Industry high achievers are? It's all too subjective."

"That's where you're wrong, and I should know. When those local guys from Cleveland come down here to buy me lunch ... well, there's lunch and there's LUNCH! The local guy from Handshake drags me to Burger King where I can't even get a martini, whereas the Infinity dude knows all about places that serve pureed sushi quiche terrine with mousse of escargot gravy. Which one would YOU call the achiever?"

"I don't know," she persisted. "I'm still nebulous ... I mean, you're practically right out of Don Martin ... what's this Drake Chennault fellow or some big executive like Charlie Minor have in common with the likes of you?"

"That's just it ... they're all there to pass on the executive know-how and methodology which have made them corporate leaders. They WANT to let me and similar schmiels in on the little tricks that put them where they are, so that the next generation of record and radio personnel can continue in those high traditions. They WANT their legacy to pass on."

"Would it spoil your breakfast if I threw up at these comments?" she said. "However, I'm going to bend and allow you to go, with one stipulation ... if I hear that you've been anywhere near that ladies-of-the-evening meeting ..."

"That's WOMEN IN MUSIC!"

"Whatever. But if I learn that you've even been in the vicinity, I want to hear from a neutral observer that the ladies all had blue hair! Otherwise, your tuchas is grass, Mr. ARB cellar-dweller!"

So it looks as though I'm coming after all, Gavin people ... and I'm looking forward to what I expect to be the big moment at the Awards Luncheon when Tony Richland triumphantly accepts his award for Indie Promo Guy of The Century. I voted for him. He bought me some poached crayfish dim sum pate for lunch on his last trip! ■

NEW TECH-CHECK

I've received a submission from Kenny Kiskis of WKSX in Urbana, Ohio, with a useful suggestion about a novel way of evaluating your show, using equipment that may already be in your home for a different purpose altogether!

"I'm sitting on my very comfortable couch, in my very comfortable living room, listening to my most recent aircheck. 'Boy, that was a nice seg, I'd like to hear that again!' I pick up my remote control, push rewind for a second or two, then listen again. 'Yeah! That was nice and smooth.'

"I listen closely to every word I say at my first stopset. 'Boy, I didn't mean it to come out that way.' I jot down a note and listen on. 'I probably shouldn't have come out of that jingle so quickly--better listen again.' Once again I grab the remote and hit rewind. 'I wonder what time it was when that last stopset ended?' I look up and observe a perfectly synchronized time display and write the time in my notebook.

"I see in my notes (made at the time of the show) that I started eating peanuts and drinking a softdrink at 4:30. I pick up the remote and push fast forward while watching the minutes quickly pass on the time display. I stop at 4:30. 'Let's see if it affected my voice.' My notes also indicated that at 5:12 I tried a little different approach at a Chicago-to-Faltermeyer segue. Fast forward to 5:12! 'That worked out quite nicely'

"Sounds real cool doesn't it! Yeah! But who records every segue, jingle, legal ID, etc., when they're doing an aircheck! And what's with this high tech equipment on a disc jockey's salary?? It's very simple--video tape! We finally have a way of airchecking ourselves up to 5 hours (Beta) or 8 hour (VHS) if necessary! No more turning a tape recorder on and off, feeling like you're talking to a recording unit rather than an audience! Your VCR is home, out of your sight, and it records everything automatically. You even set a timer so it comes on when your shift starts, and off when it's over. Most cable TV companies broadcast a channel that has constant time display, so by recording this along with your station's radio signal, you'll have a constant display of time on your aircheck! While you're doing your shift you can take notes that will refer to certain times. Then you simply go home, wind to that time on the TV screen as you fast-forward your videocassette, and listen to whatever it was that you noted. . . You'll never know how you really sound, unless you listen to yourself--often!"

This is an interesting and very practical suggestion. If you have one of the new "hi fi"-capable VCR's (Beta's better), how to hook up a radio to the sound while taping a separate picture at the same time is simple and clear. But this method will work with a conventional VCR too; the fidelity will be only fair, but otherwise it will work the same way. Most VCR's have jacks for separate input of picture and/or sound, and if the directions that came with your unit don't make it clear how to do it, check with a video specialist for directions.

I know some morning DJ's have had VCR's for a long time to tape hot evening shows they normally can't stay up to see, so that they can talk about them on the morning show, and write the machine off their taxes as a business expense, and thus tax deductible. If you haven't gotten a VCR yet, perhaps now you have enough justification to go out and buy one!

A standard audio cassette recorder can be used in a way to accelerate improvement in your voice and delivery, and I'll tell you about it next week. ■

BIO FEEDBACK

A late March release date is possible for the next Journey LP, produced by lead vocalist Steve Perry. Perry is reportedly mixing tracks with Bob Clearmountain right now.

THE TEMPTATIONS

Fifteen years ago they released their most famous and successful song, "Just My Imagination."

GTR

GTR (presumably an abbreviation for "guitar") is the name of a new band formed by two remarkable lead guitarists, Steve Howe (Yes/Asia) and Steve Hackett (Genesis).

ROLLING STONES

Looks like the first single from the upcoming Stones debut LP for Columbia will be a remake of "Harlem Shuffle."

ANNE MURRAY

Her real name was, and may still be, Morna Anne Murray. She was born in Springhill, Nova Scotia.

PETE TOWNSHEND

In an interview with The Gavin Report, Pete Townshend admitted that The Who, as a financial unit, never showed a profit until the "Tommy Movie."

MIDGE URE

Ultravox has been together for nearly five years and had recorded three albums for Island Records before Midge joined up. The band soon signed with Chrysalis and recorded the classic Vienna LP.

DIONNE WARWICK

PROMOTIONS

by Lisa Smith & Betty Hollars

Y107 Cash Vault winner.

ANOTHER MINUTE IN ANOTHER VAULT ▲

Y107 in Nashville recently gave away 107 seconds in a Nashville City Bank Vault that contained $1,000,000. The lucky winner managed to grab $26,601 in that amount of time. He's pictured here with the Y-Team. Standing (l to r) are P.D. Michael St. John and M.D. Tom Peace. Kneeling (l to r) are Air Talent Coyote McCloud, Air Talent Marc Chase, and Air Talent Rhett Walker. The grand prize winner is seated among the cash.

BEARS RAMPANT IN THE HAWKEYE STATE

Picking up on the excitement of the Chicago Bears appearance in Superbowl 20 KOKZ in Waterloo, Iowa, offered an added incentive to become a Bears fan, according to Jeff Christenson, P.D. of the station. Each time the Bears scored a touchdown, the radio station's 20th caller received a 19" Magnavox color TV and for every field goal caller 20 picked up a 12" Magnavox black & white set. The promotion was capped off with the offer of a 13-cubic foot Frigidare refrigerator going to the same numbered caller if William "The Refrigerator" Perry scored a touchdown. Proving that bear fever was rampant in the hawkeye state with a bit of help from Iowa's OK 105.7!

STAY AT HOME SUPERBOWL

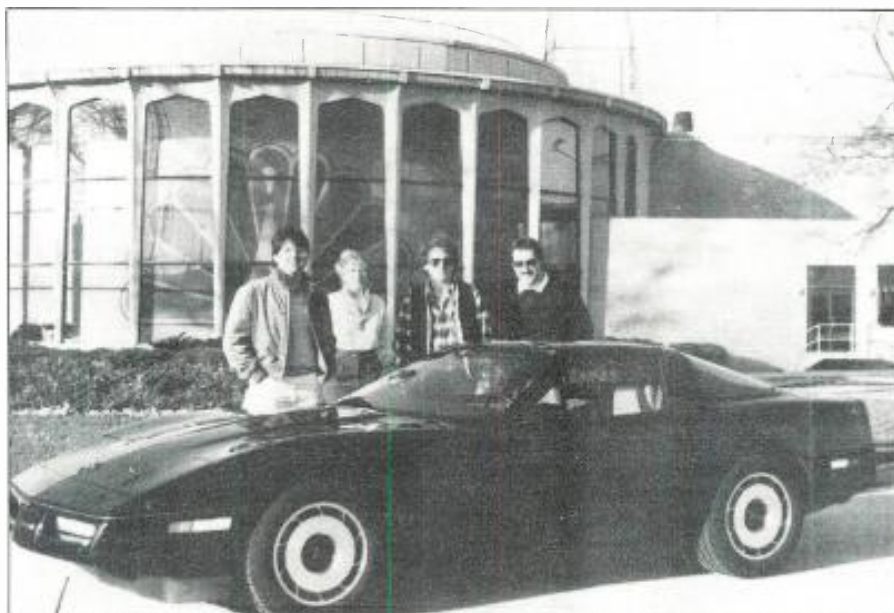

One of the best things to do to keep drunk driving under control is to give people a reason to stay home. WDKX-Rochester and Miller Beer sponsored a "DKX Superbowl Sunday Survival Kit" promotion and gave some of the 80 million people who watched the Superbowl a great time at home. They gave a designated signal (which was a referee's whistle) and the listeners called in to win one of 24 survival kits, which consisted of Miller Beer, Pepsi, industrial-size bags of popcorn and potato chips, and super-size pizzas! They also threw in 12" singles of the Fatboys' "Chillin' With The Refrigerator," and special customized headbands (McMahon style) that were personalized to say whatever they wanted. "Stay at home and celebrate" was their slogan, according to Renie Hale, promotion director at WDKX.

CELEBRITY BITES

KHYL-Sacramento's listeners discovered recently that good things really do come in small packages by playing the KHYL/LeMenu Celebrity Bites Contest. By identifying the celebrity sound-alikes, listeners qualified to win a trip for two to Paris. And just for qualifying, they automatically won a microwave oven, crystal toasting glasses, and coupons for LeMenu entrees. One name from the qualifiers was drawn during the Diane Cartwright show for the trip.

FANTASY DREAMSTAKES ▼

WKTI in Milwaukee just concluded their biggest promotion ever, the "WKTI Fantasy Dreamstakes." The promotion ran for eight weeks and during that time they gave away a variety of prizes, from an $8,000 J.C. Penny shopping spree to an '85 Corvette. Pictured is the lucky winner of the Corvette with his new car.

FINE YOUNG

LLOYD COLE

"Kiss" by PRINCE and HIS REVOLUTION is a magic piece of work. It's a throwback to his early tight funk work, spare and homemade sounding, but catching and number one bound. There's one thing that surely fights off over exposure and that's a record like this. A shoe-in to be one of the biggest records of 1986. Here we go.

Album—PIL (Elektra)

One wonders how long JOHNNY ROTTEN has been walking around with this LP inside him. More than anyone else, he was due to explode. The anonymous cast on this ALBUM provides an amazing backdrop of diversity and hard rock. The guitar playing is outstanding, innovative, and metallic to the forefront. The generic packaging strips away any superfluous expectations that packaging and personnel can generate. All there is is music, leaving little else to interfere with your judgement. Favorite trax include "Rise", "FFF" (Farewell Fairweather Friend), and "Fishing"—the LP's one-two-three punch. PIL's album is already one of the most powerful LPs we've heard in the last six months. It's a turnaround for JOHN LYDON as an artist and a kick up the ass for the airwaves. Move this one to the top of the stack and turn it up.

Macalla—Clannad (RCA)

CLANNAD (pronounced around here as Clan as in "plan", ad as in "want ad") is not really all that new of a band. As a traditional Irish folk group, they released quite a few LPs on the Shanachie label out of Jersey. Since recording with RCA-Europe, they've added modern instrumentation and production. U2's EDGE was the first to turn us on to this group when U2 used "Harry's Game" (which was a movie theme about the IRA) to close their shows. Following that was ROBIN HOOD soundtrack for British TV. MARCALL is their third RCA LP and contains the same magic as its predecessors. This LP was produced by STEVE NYE, whose work with JAPAN and DAVID SYLVIAN is highly respected. An import CD is also making rounds.

"Places That Are Gone"—Tommy Keene (Geffen)

This song was a bunker fave a couple years back on the Dolphin label out of the Southeast. After working with DON DIXON and T. BONE BURNETT, KEENE's first major label debut was produced by the great GEOFF EMERICK. Present on this advance pro are some of the same ideas EMERICK tried out on BADFINGER. Beautiful mix!

Reconciled—The Call (Elektra)

An impressive list of contributors. The opening track has a trio of trained voices featuring MICHAEL BEEN, SIMPLE MIND's JIM KERR, and PETER GABRIEL. Then it's straight into "I Still Believe", the push track. THE CALL, through their first three LPs, have gathered quite a respectable reputation worldwide, especially among European musicians. ROBBIE ROBERTSON makes a rare appearance on "The Morning" as lead guitarist. As a band, THE CALL are very impressive technicians. MICHAEL BEEN has bloomed as a fine interpreter, a stylistic lyricist, and a great bass player on top of it all. RECONCILED is an outstanding, multi-tempered achievement. I STILL BELIEVE/EVERYWHERE I GO/OKLAHOMA. Play loud.

Heyday—The Church (Warner Bros.)

Not a new band, by any stretch of the imagination, but vibrant as any newcomers upstart. This is the CHURCH's fifth album. It's a double D (digitally mixed and mastered) recording and it really hits its stride at the core of side one—"Already Yesterday" into the next track, "Columbus". By the time "Tantalized" rolls around, things are going full force, sudden impact. HEYDAY will have little trouble making it as a viable Top Five Alternative priority. As a four piece rock n roll band, THE CHURCH mean serious business and are quite capable of crossing over to the more adventurous commercial programmers willing to succumb to quality.

Tuff Enuff—Fabulous Thunderbirds (CBS)

As the man says on "I Don't Care", just step outside, I'll tan your hide. The FAB T. BIRDS go from one half of the rockpile (NICK LOWE) to the other (DAVE EDMUNDS). Having heard both, you gotta give DE the nod. He guides the T. BIRDS toward their most cohesively crafted LP since BUTT ROCKIN'. Ironically, STEVIE RAY VAUGHAN paved the way for a broader potential acceptance of great roots rock on mainstream radio. Jump on it. TUFF ENUFF/TELL ME/I DON'T CARE/AMNESIA/WRAP IT UP.

MY 2¢

Dear Readers: Here I am tearing myself away from the new ELVIS COSTELLO just to write you. LINDA KIRISHJIAN kindly sent the bunker two tapes, one is missing and the other one is belching out high decibels. It sounds absolutely joyous. Producer T. BONE BURNETT has done a great job giving the LP a country tonk rocka roll feel. The GAVIN SEMINAR is rolling along great guns. It promises to be one of the happening events of the year. Judging from just the Audio/Vid order we put in, this one's gonna be a multi-media event. People are flying in from all over the country, from small markets to large markets, small labels to giants. Everybody that flies out or up to our event, God bless you all. It's a show of support we'll not forget...I understand HOWARD STERN in NYC was disappointed that he didn't get nominated. Maybe next year, HOWARD. Thanks for the air. A belated but heartfelt congrats goes out to HEAVY LENNY on the birth of a brand new baby girl. "Thanks for the spins" should be her first words...This week was a killer for new tunes. One I didn't have room for was the soundtrack to PRETTY IN PINK, with music assembled by DAVID ANDERLE, the brightest mind when it comes to film and music. I have high hopes for the movie...Last week we welcomed

SUCK ON THIS

“‘Psychocandy’ is a wonderful LP which should bring the Scottish brats the success they’ve missed out on so far. (9½ out of 10)”

WILLIAM SHAW SMASH HITS

“I never expected this...

Let’s get upfront about this. ‘Psychocandy’ is-easily-the-best album released this year, a great citadel of beauty whose wall of noise, once scaled, offers access to endless vistas of melody and emotion. Really, you can’t afford not to enjoy it!”

ANDY GILL NME

“14 sinister songs of adolescent rejection and isolation. We love it!”

THE FACE

“... Among the best rock LPs from England in years: a hauntingly personal and powerful work that speaks with the urgency and heart of musicians who take too much pride in what they do to simply join the cold, commercial calculation of most recent British rock!”

ROBERT HILBURN LOS ANGELES TIMES

“Live with it for a bit and you’ll either declare it a classic or sling it out with the bathwater. I haven’t decided yet!”

ADAM SWEETING MELODY MAKER

“An innocent little sugar cube, just waiting for a tongue!”

ALTERNATIVE ACTION

THE BANGLES hold a healthy advantage over new up and coming LLOYD COLE & COMMOTIONS. THE BANGLES margin of points is over 25%, but LLOYD COLE is gaining strength, hence their underline at #2. Airplay on both these albums is across the board from the most conservative commercial stations to the most extreme college programmers.

Double CERTIFIED albums from JESUS & MARY CHAIN and the VIOLENT FEMMES. J & M.C. is receiving overwhelming play from non-commercial stations, while the 'Femmes' LP is just getting off the ground.

PIL debuts on "CHART" at #30 and is "MOST ADDED" RECORD. Johnny Lydon should cause lots of havoc and be a serious #1 contender.

Some IMPORT/INDIE records worth noting include: MINUTEMEN, PLASTICLAND, FLESH FOR LULU, and BOYS DON'T CRY the #1 requested at WXRT-Chicago and added at Top 40 station WPFM-Panama City, Florida.

SPOTLIGHT LP

Children Of The Revolution/No Killing/Love And Me Make Three/ Faith-VIOLENT FEMMES (Slash/Warner Bros.) There's always been a rebellious aspect of the Violent Femmes that I've appreciated, whether in it's in their music, or lyrics, or image, or (in the case of "The Blind Leading The Naked" their) album cover back photo. Are they going to tour like that? The 'Femmes represent the outlawed "moonshine" aspect of today's cutting edge music, with this album true to that spirit. They're really leading the way for the, now many, new bands going back to acoustic instruments. The single, a cover of Marc Bolan's "Children Of The Revolution", represents a marked progression with the introduction of more electronics and complex arrangement. It also bears the stamp of producer Jerry Harrison (Talking Heads) who assists them in a complementary fashion.

COUNTRY SUMMARY

IMPORTANT NOTE: Due to printer deadline, the Country reporting deadline has been moved up to 12PM PST on Wednesdays. The earlier you call in the week, the better the chance of avoiding busy phone lines. Thanks for your co-operation!!

Lots of action on our chart this week. JOHN SCHNEIDER continues to look very strong for our reporters. Moves 17-12 for DON LANGFORD at KRAK in Sacramento, 21-11 for R.J.CURTIS at KLAC in Los Angeles, 20-13 for MIKE CARTA at KVET in Austin, 27-14 for WAYNE WATERS at WITL in Lansing, 18-12 for MARK LANGSTON at WIL-St.Louis, etc. Last week's Certified GARY MORRIS made a big ten point move on our chart this week. Already Top Five at KIOV/KXRB-Sioux Falls, and Top Ten at WKKW/FM-Clarksville. SCOTT WINSTON at KVOX in Fargo reports heavy phone action on JOHN DENVER, MERLE HAGGARD is Certified this week, and many of our reporters are of the opinion that it's his best offering in a while. BOB LOUIS at KCLK in Clarkston reports that "I Had A Beautiful Time" is already one of his hottest records. Obviously, 1982 was a good year for RANDY TRAVIS. All reports this week on RANDY were favorable, with J.D.GRAY at WGUD in Pascagoula noting that RANDY's the hottest request item that he's had lately. GEORGE GORDON at WFTP in Ft.Pierce, FL is happy to report that they have submitted a request to the FCC to boost their signal to 5,000 watts. Once they receive the approval, they'll go AM stereo!

CRS XVII - March 6-8 - Nashville
 A commitment from the CMA to the Country Radio Seminar this year will be the addition of the CMA-organized Artist Radio Taping Sessions (ARTS), which will take place Friday, March 7 from 6-10PM. ARTS will allow artists and broadcasters to meet and talk on a one-to-one basis in a controlled environment in order to obtain taped station id's and messages.

GAVIN SEMINAR - February 21-22 - San Francisco

We're looking forward to the Country Workshop during the Format Breakfasts on Saturday morning, Feb. 22nd at 9:30AM. Our workshop will be more like a rap session, with DON LANGFORD and CARSON SCHREIBER moderating the questions and everyone participating. For those not able to attend, we'll try to publish some of the highlights of the workshop at a later date. See you there!!!

URBAN CONTEMPORARY SUMMARY

While I was sitting here doing this chart, I had two phone calls: one from Barry Mayo at WRKS/FM in New York, who says, "Betty, I've got to come out to The Gavin Seminar...all my friends are going to be there...!" What a great endorsement, right? Barry's great and will contribute great things to our event. The other call was from Verna Green, G.M. at WJLB in Detroit, who is already sending James Alexander from the station...it now looks like Verna may be coming herself... a great asset to our women in media. She is a well-respected classy lady who will also add great things to our seminar, as will James Alexander. Heard from Lee Michaels at WGCI in Chicago, and in spite of all the recent commotion he has caused in the Windy City, he'll be out

West the week of the meeting and will be here for sure, and so will Sunny Joe White from WXKS/FM in Boston. Who else is coming? Terri Avery from KKDA-Dallas, Lynn Tolliver of WZAK-Cleveland, Chris Turner from WTMP-Tampa, Kevin Fleming of KGFJ-L.A., Duff Lindsey from XHRM-San Diego, Chaz Saunders from WDPN-Columbia, Carol Cruickshanks from MJI Broadcasting, Alisha Torres from KMEL-San Francisco, Marvin Robinson and Bernie Moody from KSOL/FM-San Francisco, Andre Marcel from WDKX-Rochester, Jim Maddox, KJLH-Los Angeles, and Jerry Boulding and Don Kelly, Consultants. Should be a good turnout in spite of the few months we've had to plan and plug this event...after the announcements of the speakers and workshop subjects, many have decided they can't miss it! That's what we like to hear... thanks, Barry! The rest of you, there are still 10 days to register or come as you are and register at the door...we'll take you! Give me a call for any air fare or hotel information you may still need. We have plenty of hotels that are holding rooms for our usual last-minute folks.

Hottest thing in the music this week has to be MELI'SA MORGAN, who justifiably gets to the number one slot, beating out SADE. The Certified listing on NEW EDITION is no surprise but the one on GAP BAND might be to some of you. It had a great week, really. Most added award of the week goes to the new TEDDY PENDERGRASS, which was added at WAMO, OC104/FM, WQMG, WOKJ, WVKO, WBLZ, WLUM, WBMX/FM, KDLZ/107 and XHRM.

DAVE SHOLIN'S Personal Picks — SINGLES

PRINCE & THE REVOLUTION - Kiss (Paisley/W.B.)
Debut single from his forthcoming album, "Parade". In addition to the music being included in a new Warner Brothers picture "Under The Cherry Moon", it's a welcome change of pace for Prince, who has gone full circle, returning to the funky approach that attracted scores of fans, including yours truly. They just don't cut 'em much better than this.

OMD - If You Leave (Virgin/A&M)
No group since Wham! has impressed me as much as OMD. Their approach is a natural for film soundtracks, so it's no surprise they've been chosen as one of the groups in the new Molly Ringwald flick, "Pretty In Pink". And I didn't let the fact I'm in love with Molly influence my affection for this song.

JERMAINE JACKSON - I Think It's Love (Arista)
Expect heavy out-of-the-box action for this outstanding production. From the first note to the last, Stevie Wonder, Michael Omartian and Jermaine throw everything at us. It only takes one spin to be convinced.

STEVIE WONDER - Overjoyed (Tamla)
Just when you think every angle has been covered in a love song, along comes Stevie with another original approach tagged with a melody line dripping hearts and flowers.

RON FELL'S Personal Picks — ALBUMS

Smokey Robinson "Smoke Signals" (Tamla/Motown)
In the latter part of this week's cover story, Smokey actually lays out the intentions and directions of this LP. Smokey is noted for making cool LP's which have usually been centered around one or two tracks. "Smoke Signals", however, revolves around more tracks and for more reasons than usual. Besides the first single, HOLD ONTO YOUR LOVE, tracks like SOME PEOPLE and PHOTOGRAPH IN MY MIND plead an effective case for follow-up singles. Then there's Smokey's lyrical bullseye, BE KIND TO THE GROWING MIND. Considering the current state of potentially offensive lyric coming from some musicians it takes a little courage to fly in the face of such convention.
