HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations playing a record which also have it Top 20.
ie: 100 stations playing the record — 60 stations have it in their Top 20 — Hit Factor = 60%.

ROBBIE NEVIL

WOT'S
IT TO YA

Wasn't it you
I begged to stay
Wasn't it you
Who just laughed in my face
Maybe it's true
I'm not your kind
The kind you leave behind
And wasn't it you
All dressed in red
Clutchin' your suitcase
Never mind what you said
Suddenly you
Comin' round again
And you want to know how I've been

Chorus:
Wot's it to you
Wot's it to you
You don't care for me
Or do you forget
Wot's it to ya
I see through ya
You only want something
That you can't get
Didn't I try
All day long
Didn't I try
When all hope was gone
Didn't I try
Didn't I walk the floor
No cry, no more
Didn't I wait
All concerned
Wishin' and prayin'
Your love would return
Now isn't it her
Who I can't resist
And now you're wonderin'
Who she is

INSIDE TOP 40 with DAVE SHOLIN

Music complements our many moods, which are in turn influenced in great measure by our environment. That's why many successful stations do some fine tuning and adjusting to compliment seasonal changes. With summertime rapidly approaching several programmers mentioned they're ready to install new hot clocks and add several carefully selected titles from the summer gold vault. But with the volume of new product available, we're heating up for what expects to be a period that emphasizes currents.

One of those we'll be hearing a lot of in the next month will be ATLANTIC STARR. Especially strong with females, their HIT FACTOR zooms from 56% to 85%. Locks up number one at Y106 Orlando, WCIL Carbondale, WTNZ Knoxville, WBBQ Augusta, KATD Los Gatos/San Jose, KKSS Santa Fe/Albuquerque, KWXX Hilo, WKXX Birmingham, WQBZ Ft. Valley/Macon, etc.

When an artist more than doubles in HIT FACTOR as they climb the chart, it's a safe bet they'll go Top Ten. That's what's happening to HERB ALPERT and company, who take percentage increase of 26% to 58%!! Moves of seven places or more at KDWZ 26-18, WPHR 29-21, WLLI 24-15, KKIS 25-17, KZZK 30-23, JLK/FM 29-21, WNVZ 29-21, Z95.5 28-17, etc.

Massive airplay has quickly turned into astounding chart activity for WHITNEY HOUSTON. KATD's Bob Harlow reports "Top Five Sales and Top Three Requests" and that's pretty much the same picture in every market. Jim Richards and Lori Campbell debut her at #19, in addition to other strong first-week numbers at Q105 Tampa #20, WYAV Myrtle Beach #17, B97 New Orleans #20, 92X Columbus #23, KBEQ Kansas City #22, KOZE Lewiston #16, Y108

Denver #21, KKXX Bakersfield #20, KUBE Seattle #21, KZZU Spokane #22, etc.

Growing to nearly 200 reports, PARTLAND BROTHERS get their first U.S. release on the Top 40 in short order. Moves ahead for Harry Nelson at Z94 Boston 33-27 and Jack Lundy Y94 Fargo/Moorhead 21-15. New on WXXQ Freeport, KPKE and Y108 Denver, KIXY San Angelo, KKRQ Iowa City/Cedar Rapids, Z93 Atlanta, WPST Trenton, etc.

Early acceptance of BILLY IDOL converts into a 6% HIT FACTOR, as he leaps ahead at FM102 28-16, KFMV 28-19, Y95 Dallas debut#26, KRRG 22-17, KDVV 28-22, KYYY 33-27, WZY 30-18, WWFX 21-17, WLYQ debut#26, WZOK 30-23, KTXY 23-16, etc.

Lost in the shuffle the first time around, BRUCE HORNSBY & THE RANGE get something few bands do--a second chance to take a song up the chart. Debuts in the Top Thirty for Jim Walsh 3WD, Ric Sanders HIT105, Jonathan Little and Matt Hudson Z104. Rick Alan KKEG, Gerry DeMaroney FM104, Charlie Fox KYA, etc.

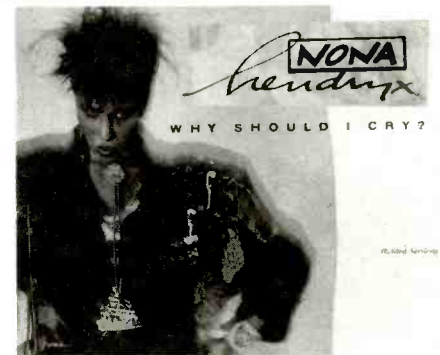

Expect to see our RECORD TO WATCH of two weeks ago, NYLONS, to make a CHARTBOUND appearance next week. They've got the attention of a whole bunch o' folks, with new believers including KCPX Salt Lake City, KWES Odessa/Midland, KSYZ Grand Island, WPST Stevens Point, KOKZ Waterloo/Cedar Rapids, WKNE Keene, B97 New Orleans, 94Q Atlanta, WTNZ Knoxville, WDBR Springfield, KMOK Lewiston, etc.

It's been a struggle all the way for GINO VANNELLI but with a 26% HIT FACTOR, he's built a case that can't be ignored. Gains include 15-9 WXL, 23-20 Z93, 4-2 WPFM, 24-21 Q99, 33-17 WBEN, 5-2 KSND, 22-17 KUAD, 12-10 KIMN, 3-1 KTXY, 9-6 Y94, 5-1 KCLD, 18-14 KDWB, debut #22 WCIL, etc. Hmmm...

New airplay combined with those who went early on PSEUDO ECHO give them nearly 100 reports at this early stage. Added at 106X, Z103, PWR99.7, WYDD, KZZU, KYNO, KFIV, KS103, KSTN, KIIS, KHVT, KITY, KDWB, WHYT, WDJX, KBIU, K104, KC101, WRCK, WROQ, WBBQ, WWHB, WBTS, etc.

DAN HILL goes Top 15 on this week's A/C chart and is picking up some more than respectable Top 40 play. New believers include Tom Cuddy PRO/FM, Sandi Stevens WQID, John Ford KWYR, Gary Russell and Rick Shannon LG73, Lou Simon and Evan Lake KCPX, Doug Koehn KNEN, etc.

Impressive debuts from those who're playing NONA HENDRYX...#24 WXKS Boston, #20 KKSS Santa Fe/Albuquerque, #25 KMEL San Francisco, #27 FM102 Sacramento, etc. Adds include KREO, KMGX, KYNO, KEYP, CKOI, WKQB, 92X, WTIC, etc.

What a difference a week makes! SURFACE, last week's RECORD TO WATCH explodes onto UP & COMING with adds at KWSS, KATD, KS103, KKIS, KZZP, KIXY, WBBQ, etc. Chris Collins at FM102 Sacramento takes it an astounding 37-18!! Calls are heavy at KMEL where it debuts at #29...other key gains at KKSS 19-8, KYOS 13-10, KIIS 33-29, KITY 34-25 etc.

Dance/Club sensation DEBBIE GIBSON is showing her mass appeal stuff now with a 9% HIT FACTOR. Jumps 17-7 at Y100 Miami and goes Top 15 at Z100 New York. Debuts #30 at KGGI with 20 adds including KZZP, WKXX, WTIC, WNYZ, WRCK, KS103, KSTN, KHIT, WCIL, WHYT, WOAY, KAKS, Q99, WWHB, FM102, KBLQ, KACI, etc. Expect even more growth next week.

WHITNEY "I Wanna Dance With Somebody (Who Loves Me)"

On April 30th (or thereabouts), America started dancing to a new tune and they haven't stopped yet! "I Wanna Dance With Somebody (Who Loves Me)" is on its way to becoming Whitney's fifth consecutive #1 smash. The chart debuts and the adds confirm our belief. Whitney, her second album, arrives in-store June 2nd.

KENNY G "Songbird"

They said it couldn't be done, they were wrong. "Songbird," the hit single from Kenny G, continues to fly up the Pop, R&B and A/C charts. The album Duotones is now GOLD. It's been eight years since an instrumental, not from a film or a TV show, has gone top 10, THIS IS THE ONE THAT WILL!

ALBUM EXPLODING!

EXPOSÉ "Point Of No Return"

Let's get straight to the point. EXPOSÉ is hot! "Point Of No Return," the follow-up to their top 5 smash "Come Go With Me," and the single radio demanded, is exploding out-of-the-box. The album exposure is over 450,000, and we're only at the start of the second single! Here are the facts:

THIS WEEK'S NEW MAJORS:
 WBLI WCAU PRO/FM Z95
 KWOD KTKS Z100 KCPW

CARLY SIMON "Give Me All Night"

In only three weeks, Coming Around Again, Carly's debut Arista album, has become her biggest selling LP in eight years. Already well over 300,000 and selling like hotcakes. "Give Me All Night," the new single, will bring Carly her first gold album in years. You can bank on it!

COUNTRY RETURNING TO NEW YORK CITY

While Emmis Broadcasting's WHN is scheduled to become all-sports WFAN next month, New York City won't be without a Country outlet for long. The format will find a new home July 1 on WYNY. The NBC O&O, currently A/C, has been unable to dent the healthy numbers posted by WLTW and WNSR. NBC Radio President Randy Bongarten is confident Country will thrive on the Big Apple's FM dial. "It's a marriage made in heaven," he says.

KIPPER MCGEE & MOMMY

Milwaukee's WHBT applied a new twist to an old holiday this Mother's Day. Listeners were invited to guess the identity of a celebrity "Mystery Mom," based on clues provided by the anonymous matriarch about her household. The winner, who correctly guessed "Mother DeBarge" got to take his own mom on a station-sponsored $501 shopping spree. PD Kipper McGee, who came up with the idea, says special thanks go to Mark Carney at Radio Artist Development.

LATTER-DAY MODERN MUSIC

Six months after its Alternative sounds disappeared from Salt Lake City's airwaves, KCGL is reappearing, sort of. Former GM Richard Rees and many of his staffers have formed Modern Music, Inc., and bought weekend air time on Oldies outlet KRPN. The project is slated to begin May 30th. "We have an option on weeknights as well," says Rees. "Depending on advertiser response, we may exercise that option before we even go on the air." Joining Rees is former KCGL Music Director Mike Summers and staffers Lara Jones, Biff Raffe, Bob Bedlove and others. "It will be the same cutting edge music and the same crazy promotions," says Rees, who is continuing his search to buy a station and provide a permanent home for the format.

POWER96 RULES

Congratulations to PD Bill Tanner and staff at WPOW-Miami for dancing their way to #1 in the March/April Birch rankings. The rhythm-flavored Top 40 pulled a 9.0 overall, with a 41.6 teen share and excellent adult reach, coming in tops among women 18-34. Assistant PD Mark Shand's comment: "Outrageous!" We'll take a closer look at POWER96 and its hybrid cousins in an upcoming Gavin.

THE SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS

New programmer Jim Morrison hit the ground running at Gannett A/C outlet KSD-St. Louis. The former WQXI-Atlanta PD's first week on the job saw the return of morning man J.C. Corcoran after a stormy departure from Album rocker KSHE late last year. "He has an interesting reputation," Morrison concedes, "but the negative side is unfounded. He has had a shock value on the air, but he understands he's dealing with an adult audience, and that he's more like Johnny Carson than an uncensored HBO special. He wants to win and he's totally respectful of what needs to be done." Morrison says the trick to handling morning personalities is "to respect their universe and give them the support they need. You can't guide them by telling them what not to do." As for fine-tuning the music, Morrison promises "a little bit of an update. Just like 94Q, it'll be the best from A/C and the best from Top 40. You won't be able to pigeonhole us."

IRON CITY A/C GOES TALK

After more than two decades as an A/C station, WTAE-Pittsburgh is expanding its evening talk shows to all dayparts. Along with new PD Tom Clendenning from sister WBAL-Baltimore, the Hearst outlet is bringing in Pittsburgh Press staffer Phil Musick to handle afternoons and longtime local talk talent Doug Hoerth for middays. Current PD Bob Conrad will remain on board to handle, among other things, Steelers football broadcasts. Afternoon driver Larry Richert will also remain in an off-air production job. "It's the end of a long tradition," says Conrad, noting that the format switch makes some excellent air talent available, including Jim Harrington, Susie Barbour and Sara Lockard.

RECORD ROTATIONS

Quantum Media head Bob Pittman has named Mayo Stuntz Executive VP and President of Quantum's television division. Like Pittman, Stuntz comes from MTV, where he helped set up the VH1 and Nick At Night cable nets...Barry Korkin has left A&M Records after many years as staffer, most recently as "Classics" CD Coordinator. He's available for new opportunities at (818) 980-0430. A&M insiders say Vernon Slaughter is "a very likely candidate" to replace Step Johnson as VP/Promotion for Black Music. At Slaughter's old home, Columbia Records, Jim Del Balzo returns to the label as National Director of Album Promotion...CBS Records Director of A&R/Black Music Erik Nuri moves to VP/A&R for RCA Records... Former promo-guy Andy Janis wants all his buddies to know he's alive, well and working at Bearsville Records studio in New York. His phone # is (914) 679-8900.

RADI-O-RAMA

After just a few months on the job, Mike Kelly has left the PD spot at KATZ/FM-St. Louis. MD Cheryl Winston now has the title of Director, Broadcast Operations for the Inter Urban outlet...With Jim Morrison now programming KS94-St. Louis (see above), the 1-5 p.m. airshift at 94Q-Atlanta goes to longtime part-timer Bill Murray.

Shannon Swearingen moves up to MD at KWWC-Columbia, MO...Early next month, Michael Donovan will take over as GM at Pyramid Broadcasting's newly acquired WTKS-Chicago. Donovan comes crosstown from NBC O&O Q101...Longtime KNX/FM-Los Angeles personality Neale Blase is now on KFOG-San Francisco Afternoon driver Thane Phelan moves up to MD at KZHR-Yakima, WA...MD Chris Conway exits KSWB-Seaside, OR, to take airshift at WICC-Bridgeport, CT...Bill Slayter wins promotion to Promotions Director at KFIV-Modesto... Mike Thomas moves from News Director to PD/MD at WMDK-Peterborough, NH, as Jim Leonard departs the Album/Alternative station.

Down in Gawgia, WBLU-Hinesville PD Stanton Jay departs to WWUF-Waycross and MD Dave Miller arrives from WQZY-Dublin...And finally, a couple of corrections: Kevin McDonald's new home is 795 Springwood, Newbury Park, CA 91320 and Peter Masse moves to KTRS-Casper, WY.

JOB INSECURITY

According to a Radio-Television News Directors Association study, the typical major-market radio station dropped one news staffer last year, leaving an average of two full-timers and two part-timers. Small-market news staffs remained at roughly one full-time person and one part-timer. In 1986, the average radio news director's job tenure was only a year and eight months, down a full month from '85.

THE CD REVOLUTION

A MarkeTrends survey of consumer attitudes is predicting a dramatic dropoff in consumer spending for the rest of the year--the one exception being compact disc players. The poll found nearly one out of 10 households is planning to buy a CD player, a 15 percent jump in three months, and a 112 percent leap from last summer.

RADIO DAZE

The hot sitcom theme on television this fall will be...television. ABC has given the green light to a comedy series with real-life TV talkshow host Oprah Winfrey starring as a fictional TV talkshow host. CBS has commissioned two different half-hour pilots about the backstage antics on TV puppet shows, one of them featuring Muppeteer Jim Henson. ABC has also pencilled in a drama series about overseas TV news correspondents. Radio gets some recognition in "Morning Maggie," a proposed CBS show about the antics in a family-owned radio station in the late forties. According to a survey of upcoming pilots by DFS-Dorland, the show's characters include Maggie, the motherly morning host, her newscaster husband Mack, their teenaged daughter who scripts soap operas, 70-year-old Aunt Esther, the station music director, and George, a black announcer.

HIP TO BE B.A.D.

Los Angeles-based Broadcasters Against Drugs has announced an all-star lineup of artists who have agreed to take part in a public service campaign against drug abuse. Among the musicians producing B.A.D. PSAs are Duran Duran's John Taylor and Simon Le Bon, Gloria Estefan of Miami Sound Machine, Wang Chung, Exposé and Robbie Neville. A total of 20 spots were produced by KIIS-Los Angeles morning host Rick Dees. Ranging from five to 16 seconds, they will be available through B.A.D. and the National Association of Broadcasters. For more information, contact Dan Acree at Rick Dees Weekly Top 40 in Hollywood: (213) 466-8381.

NO ACCIDENT

While we're on the substance abuse front, we'll pass along a reminder from MADD to be careful about using the word "accident" in referring to DWI incidents. Says MADD President Norma Phillips, "Drunk driving is not an accident. It is the result of an individual's choice to drink, followed by a choice to drive a vehicle." MADD prefers the term "drunk driving crash."

LEADERS OF THE PLAQUE

The National Association of Broadcasters has announced a new series of awards to the radio industry. The "Crystals" will be handed out at this September's Radio '87 Convention in Anaheim to "ten stations of all sizes and formats which best represent similar stations within the industry"...Force MDs cop top Vocal Group honors at New York Music Awards. The Tommy Boy Records act was also nominated for Best R&B Group and Best Independent Album...Illinois honors ABC Radio rapmaster Paul Harvey with "Order of Lincoln" award...WXRT-Chicago is cited for "Best Newscasts" by Illinois UPI. Chinwag congrats to News Director Neil Parker, anchor Charlie Meyerson and reporter Michelle Damico...A tip of the hat also to Gene Slaymaker and his WTLC-Indianapolis news team for winning no less than a dozen statewide UPI and SPJ/SDX journalism prizes, plus 10 second-places. In the last 10 years, the Urban outlet has picked up more than 120 national, regional, state and local news awards...NBC correspondents Fred Kennedy and Phil Till, and producer Kim Frewer add a Peabody Award to their laurels for live coverage of the 1986 U.S. bombing of Tripoli...The Bee Gees pick up an Ivor Novello Award for writing the UK's Most Performed Work of 1986. The Gibbs' "Chain Reaction," recorded by Diana Ross, topped the British charts for three weeks.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THOSE WHO BELIEVE THAT OUR BUSINESS NEEDS NEW AND REAL TALENT; AND TO THOSE WHO REFUSE TO ACCEPT THE NEGATIVITY THAT IS PERMEATING NOT ONLY
RADIO, BUT ALSO RECORD COMPANIES (THOSE WHO FEEL THAT WHATEVER IS...IS).

We have just finished recording a wonderful talent, who not only is gifted with a unique voice, but with a great writing talent.

Her name is Kim O'Leary, a redhead from Australia.

Without attempting to characterize the recording as "better than..." or "sounds like..." we would like you to listen to Kim O'Leary, form your own opinion, and ask yourself: If we're right about Kim, why won't you put the record on the air today? Naivete on our part? Perhaps, but if this record is what I say it is, who is really being naive?

I've taken this unusual way of calling your attention to Kim O'Leary strictly as a promotional vehicle. And that's not naive -- that's saying it like it is -- because:

First, we already know what we have in the grooves, and, assuming I'm right,

Second, we can almost predict your reaction.

You all should now have her single,
"Put the Pieces Back."

The album, produced by Nick Jameson, is two to three weeks from delivery.
I'm sure you'll find it delightful.

Sincerely,

JAY LASKER
President

Carly Simon

By Ron Fell
Special Assistance by Cyndi Hoelzle

Born into the Simon family of publishing's Simon & Schuster, Carly grew up in a privileged environment of literary and creative giants. A shy third-oldest sister, Carly could not have guessed that she would become one of popular music's most celebrated recording artists in the past sixteen years.

Carly's consistent commitment to excellence could easily have been distracted by the demands of motherhood and her romantic relationships with the likes of James Taylor and, more recently, Keith Hernandez of the New York Mets.

We chose to focus on her music and that she's Coming Around Again...

RF: Do you remember the first time you heard a song of yours on the radio?

CS: I was at Jones Beach on Long Island. I heard "That's The Way I've Always Heard It Should Be" on a transistor. I had the impulse to stop and tell the sunbather that it was me on the radio, but I thought that I would be carted off to some lunatic asylum. But that was the impulse, just to say "Good god, that's me!"

RF: Kind of like "Hey mister, that's me up on the jukebox"?

CS: Over the years, I've succumbed to the temptation to tell various cab drivers that it's me on the radio. Just recently I was in a taxi coming from East Side to the West Side and the cab driver was Hispanic, and didn't speak English. He probably had never heard of me, but "Anticipation" was playing on the radio, and at a red light I said, "Oh, by the way, that's me on the radio." He pulled over to the curb and said, "Get out!" He thought I was nuts. He thought I was absolutely crazy and he didn't want me in his cab.

RF: You came from an unusual background for a pop music star--a rather privileged, reasonably wealthy family...

CS: But more important, a very musical family.

RF: Do you find that coming from a noticeably wealthy family was a help or a hindrance? Was it hard establishing your credibility within pop music?

CS: The most important thing was not the money. It didn't feel like I came from that much wealth--it wasn't the Rockefellers or anything. It was more of a literary environment than a money environment, more of an artistic and a bohemian kind of a lifestyle. True, we had a large house and there always were lots of people in it, but we always had African exchange students and out-of-work actors and pianists living up in the attic.

RF: Who were some famous visitors to the family home you remember growing up with?

CS: It always sounds so obnoxious when I start saying who my parents knew. I remember mainly the musicians, because that was what influenced me more than anything. Benny Goodman was a very good friend of our family. He used to play bridge and poker every Friday night over at the house. Oscar Hammerstein and Richard Rodgers.. George Gershwin, although he died before I was born. (Vladimir) Horowitz, the pianist. Then there were the philosophers, Bertrand Russell, Albert Einstein. It was a creative society. And then, of course, just a lot of writers, like James Thurber, S. J. Perelman and George Kaufmann.

Coming Around Again

RF: Do you regret now you were too young to really appreciate the moments?

CS: Well, my gosh, I could start regretting a lot of things. I'm just so thankful that they were around, and that somehow by osmosis, I got a lot of the atmosphere of their work.

RF: A lot of your songs appear to be at least semi-autobiographical. There's a song on one of your earlier albums called "Older Sister." You are the youngest of three sisters?

CS: Yes, and I have a younger brother.

RF: All of you have dabbled in music at various times in your careers.

CS: Lucy, my middle sister, is writing the music for a Broadway play based on "Little House On The Prairie." My eldest sister Joanna is an opera singer and a correspondent for the MacNeil-Lehrer show.

RF: Your father was a great pianist?

CS: Yes, he was. He was extraordinary. And my mother was a singer, and all of my uncles were involved in some way in the world of music. My uncle Alfie is the Program Director for WQXR in New York, which is a classical music station. My uncle Henry was a classical music expert, and a Shakespearean scholar. And my uncle Peter is a jazz singer, who started out by managing Peggy Lee. He began Downbeat, the jazz magazine, with another uncle of mine, George Simon. He's a famous jazz critic and also a drummer. So there were just so many influences in my family.

RF: Was there any doubt you were going to get into the music business?

CS: I never really wanted to. It was so prevalent. I just wanted to lead an existence out of the spotlight, I didn't want to be in the limelight. I went through a series of different fantasies about what my lifestyle would be, ranging from a spy to a nurse, to a scientist. But eventually I just wanted to marry a professor (laughs). I don't know why, I think I wanted a quiet life.

RF: You haven't even come close to that. All your relationships appear to be with people in entertainment.

CS: Well, all the ones you hear about.

RF: It's evident from your lyric that you have a powerful pen. At some point in the mid-60s there was some talk that Albert Grossman was grooming you as a female Bob Dylan.

CS: Well, they weren't gonna let me write any songs. Dylan was gonna write songs for me, and I was gonna sing Dylan's songs. Albert Grossman, Dylan's manager, was my manager for about five minutes. During that time he introduced me to Dylan, and Dylan re-wrote a song of his for me, and I recorded it, and then it was shelved. It never turned out right, but it was going to be produced by Bob Johnston, who also produced Dylan.

RF: Didn't you also do some recording, which never surfaced, with The Band?

CS: Yes, that was the same stint. I recorded "Baby Let Me Follow You Down" with The Band and with Paul Butterfield. That, and another song called "Goodbye Loving Man," written by Bob Johnston and Wes Farrell.

RF: What happens to tapes like that? Do you have them?

CS: I actually do, and another song we cut called, "He Thinks I Still Care." This was all kind of in a slight Country vein, but they didn't perceive me as a writer. I don't even think I'd ever shown any of my songs to them.

RF: So when they said, a female Bob Dylan, they meant a female performing Bob Dylan songs, like Judy Collins.

CS: Well, they had this idea to start an act called Carly and The Deacon. I've never told this to anybody--it seems so ludicrous. I never quite understood what their intent was, but The Deacon was gonna be another person that I was gonna be doing duets with.

Cat Stevens was probably the most influential at the point that I really started getting down to writing. In fact, my second album was dedicated to him. There was a lot on it that was for him, about him and influenced by him.

It's really bizarre. Albert Grossman is dead, so I can never ask him. I just remember this, The Deacon was going to be much much shorter than I. I was this tall, Daisy Mae-like character, and they were going to dress me up in a short skirt, almost looking like a cartoon character. And then have this fellow called The Deacon, who I guess was this strange religious oddity. I don't know if they ever cast The Deacon, because at that point I could no longer get anyone on the telephone. I was totally dropped.

RF: If I'm not mistaken, you made a cameo appearance in a movie called Taking Off with Buck Henry. And you sang a song called "Long Term Physical Effects." Was this before you started your Elektra recording career?

CS: Yes, that was probably 1967-68. I was still practically a teenager. I saw that recently. I was so fat. I don't even look like myself.

RF: Maybe we've inspired a few people to rent the movie, just to see early Carly Simon.

CS: Please don't do it!
RF: You signed with Elektra at the point when it was probably the hippest label in the business-- nothing but artists' artists. Your debut album won you a Grammy. What was the feeling of doing that first album, as opposed to doing your fourteenth album?

CS: There's a big difference in radio. In 1971, the format was not nearly so tight as it is now. I mean deejays could even program their own favorite cuts.

Therefore, artists could be much more flexible in recording what they wanted to. You didn't have to record for a market. Almost anything had a chance to be played. It's become much more restricted now--it's in some kind of a repressive state. It's terrible, and I think that something's gonna happen. Some smart guy is going to start a chain of radio stations where you go back to that format again. Because being so tight it doesn't give people the chance to expand their creativity.

RF: Stations that are trying this can't seem to develop the consistency, and there doesn't seem to be enough musically intensive listeners to make it commercially viable.

Unfortunately, the bottom line of radio stations is to make money. I would love to get back into radio and program exactly what you're talking about.

CS: Well, it wouldn't catch on right away.

RF: You seemed to come out at a time when Carole King and Joni Mitchell were getting a lot of credibility and notoriety as singer/songwriters. Were you making any kind of association with them?

CS: No, I didn't know either one. I certainly listened to their records a lot, and was very influenced by them, just as much as I was by the male singers, by Cat Stevens, James Taylor and Neil Young. But it wasn't until after a while that I got to meet some of these people. Cat Stevens was probably the most influential at the point that I really started getting down to writing.

In fact, my second album was dedicated to him. There was a lot on it that was for him, about him and influenced by him.

RF: Do you get a sense of coming full circle, now that you're working with Paul Samwell-Smith, who was involved with some of the best Cat Stevens music?

CS: There was a closer relationship than that. Because of Cat Stevens I sought out Paul Samwell-Smith, and Paul produced my second album, "Anticipation."

RF: Another of your collaborators was Jacob Brockman, who wasn't known for writing songs when you first hooked up with him. Here was a male who seemed to have a tremendous sensitivity to the female perspective.

How was he able to pull that off?

CS: Jacob is just more intelligent than anyone else.

RF: Is that what the female perspective is all about?

CS: He's able to expand his perception. He can write anything. I mean he could write ugly off an ape. If you met him you'd know what I mean. He just can twist and turn himself into any character. He wrote for the New Yorker, he wrote for Newsweek, he became the film critic for Esquire. He's written a few movies, too. He wrote The King Of Marvin Gardens. He's a very interesting man. He's still my best friend. We still work together. We're writing some things right now for a Marlo Thomas album, another children's album.

RF: One other trivia question: Is "That's The Way I've Always Heard It Should Be" about Lake Erie?

CS: Lake Erie? No... Oh!! "Who Killed Lake Erie?" That's right. That's amazing that you know that. I'd written the melody for a documentary called "Who Killed Lake Erie?" but they didn't use it. So I tried to put words to it. I was having trouble, and went to Jake and said, "Can you just try to put some words to this?" It was the first time we had ever done anything together.

RF: "Anticipation"...in this last decade I think more people think of it as a Heinz catsup commercial than as a hit record. How did that come about?

CS: Well, the offer came after I had just given birth to my first child, Sally. I thought between nursing her and changing diapers and getting up eight times in the night, that I'd never have a career again. It was always important to me to be financially independent from James (Taylor) and so I decided that since I'd probably never work again, I'd sell the song.

RF: An artist sells a song for a commercial, rather than receiving royalties?

CS: Right. You make an outright deal.

RF: You've recently had a similar situation with "Haven't Got Time For The Pain" on the new Mediprin commercials.

CS: That's right. The singer receives royalties every time the commercial is played, but the writer just receives a lump sum. It's not something that I'm overly eager to do, but sometimes you need money.

RF: "You're So Vain" included a contribution from Mick Jagger. Is it true that it started with a request for an interview?

CS: Yes, it did. I called him in the South of France. I wasn't that interested in being an interviewer. I was just asked by the New York Times if I would do it. So I asked Mick if I could interview him for the Times. By that time he'd seen a picture of me and decided he liked the way I looked, or looked enough like him, or something. We never did do the interview, but we did meet shortly thereafter and got to know each other. It was about four or five months later that I recorded "You're So Vain." He asked me out to dinner on the day I was doing the backgrounds in the studio with Harry Nilsson. It wasn't working out with Harry--it just didn't have the right "vibe." So when Mick called, I said, "Please, come down to the studio I really need you for something." He did, and the three of us sang on it--Harry, Mick and I. It was clear Mick and I had the right blend for the song, so Harry, in a very decent way, just said, "Why don't you two carry on?" That's how it happened.

RF: You attempted a series of torch songs long before Linda Ronstadt's Nelson Riddle project. You obviously have a fondness for some of the classic songs from an earlier era. What were your thoughts when you heard Linda's?

CS: There's a similarity in that we both did songs from a different era. I think hers were much more commercially accessible, because she used Nelson Riddle. It was smarter, commercially, than the way I did it, because in some cases I did much more contemporary versions of old songs. Warner Brothers was not behind my doing the project in the first place. It was my passion for it. I insisted that I do it, even though everybody was very much against my doing it. After it was finished, they were going to shelve it. And then when they did release it, they were not behind it. I think now, they regret that they weren't, I don't really know how they feel. But it's probably the album of mine that people come up to me on the street and talk about more than any other. They say, "I love Torch. When are you going to do another album like that?"

RF: It was an absorbing album--the kind you can listen to from start to finish. The arrangements were lush, and you can't help but be involved in an album like that. But the practical reality was that radio wasn't there to acknowledge it. Sometimes you make albums for people to play from beginning to end, and sometimes you make them to be dissected, and to have tracks lifted.

CS: That's true, but I probably will do another one. It's one of the things that I want to do because that was coming from my roots. It was very close to my background. In a sense I think it was more natural for me to make that record than it was for Linda, because that wasn't her roots. The thing that's great about Linda is that she takes so many risks and she really branches out.

RF: Was it a risk to do the Casablanca song, "As Time Goes By," on your new album? Is that the kind of song you might have ended up doing in this future project?

CS: Yes, I love that song. It's a song that I've always wanted to record. I don't see it as being a risk. I see it as being the kind of song that I sing (laughs).

RF: I'm a little confused about the sequence of events that led to actually getting this new album out.

CS: Well, (director) Mike Nichols asked me if I would do the music for Heartburn--not only the songs but the instrumental music as well. That was the first movie score that I'd ever done from start to finish, and working on that movie was the most exciting thing in my career. I spent a lot of time with it. I felt so close to the project and so involved with it. I loved the fact that Mike trusted me so much and gave me as much freedom as he did. I started out with "The Itsy Bitsy Spider," because that's how the movie ends. I wanted to take off from where Meryl (Streep) finishes singing and start with a contemporary version of "The Itsy Bitsy Spider." Mike liked the theme I wrote as the musical background so much that he wanted to use it all through the movie. Then we needed to have a song in the middle of the picture, but we thought we would keep that musical background. So I wrote "Coming Around Again" to that song, and then I wanted to merge them in the end of the movie, have "Itsy Bitsy Spider" and "Coming Around Again" as the same song, which of course they are.

RF: And this led to Arista having the soundtrack?

CS: Well, Arista didn't want the soundtrack. They didn't want to release it. There isn't a soundtrack album.

RF: How did it feel about the treatment of your music as being an almost incidental element to the movie?

CS: I knew that going into it, that the music was supposed to support it, and I think it did that very well.

RF: How did Arista get the single?

CS: I thought it should be put out as a single. They didn't think so. Clive (Davis) didn't hear it at first. He was right--it wasn't a single, at that point. He said, "Go back into the studio and finish it off as a record, and then I'll see." I went back into the studio with Paul Samwell-Smith. I had worked on the soundtrack with Russ Kunkel, George Massenberg and Billy Payne-- they had produced the movie soundtrack. And I went back in with Paul and we finished the record basically. We added live drums, more background voices, and a tag at the end of the song. We kept the lead vocal. And Clive kept on saying "I don't hear it yet! I don't hear it yet!" and sending us back. After the third time I went back, he said, "Okay, I hear it" and agreed that if the movie was a hit, he'd put it out. The movie wasn't a hit, so I said, "Come on Clive, just do it for me, please." And he finally did.

RF: Had you cut a single-only deal at this point?

CS: No, I had an album deal, and Clive always agreed that it would go on the album.

RF: What caused the delay?

CS: It was endless trying to get everybody's schedules together, and Clive is really a perfectionist, he's not a president of a record company who just sends an artist into the studio. He hears everything you do, and he bends it, shapes it and molds it until he is completely satisfied with every note. There were a lot of people to please. It was very frustrating-- it was the most difficult album I've ever had to work on.

RF: More so than your associations with Richard Perry?

CS: Believe it or not. There really wasn't one producer at the helm, so I ended up being the producer much more than I wanted to be, along with Frank Filipetti, the engineer. Other than that, there were a lot of disparate elements which had to be tied up by somebody. It took a long time, but I have to say that Clive is really brilliant. He really knows how to get the product he thinks he can sell, which is after all what being a smart record company president is about.

RF: You are famous for not doing many live performances over the last decade. Was there ever a time in your career when you did perform frequently?

CS: Well, for about three years I toured. I toured after my first album, and with the Anticipation album, and then I stopped, except for the Boys In The Trees album.

RF: Are the rumors of an HBO special true?

CS: Yes, they're active and happy and I will be performing. I'll be doing a concert, probably in the beginning of June, that'll be taped.

RF: In front of a live audience?

CS: Well, I was hoping maybe some of them would be dead (laughs).

I asked Mick if I could interview him for the New York Times. By that time he'd seen a picture of me and decided he liked the way I looked, or looked enough like him, or something. We never did do the interview, but we did meet shortly thereafter and got to know each other.

RF: What can we expect from you over the next year?

CS: I'm gonna make a Christmas album.

RF: Traditional Christmas songs or new ones?

CS: Traditional, with maybe a couple of new ones thrown in. That's mainly what I have planned, and then I'm going to be writing a book.

RF: Is that at the suggestion of Jackie Onassis?

CS: Yes, she was the one who brought me out of the closet (laughs).

RF: Will it be autobiographical?

CS: It will be, in that it will be nonfiction. But it won't be the hair-raising behind-the-scenes.

RF: It won't be the dirt.

CS: No, we'll stay away from the dirt. There is no dirt, after all--not in my life. ●

A/C ANALYSIS

This week's top ten is real tight. Without underlining the #1 record there are eight records converging toward number one. Something has to give next week. I offer no obvious predictions. Check out HIT FACTOR for respective profiles.

Dan Hill's duet with Vonda Sheppard is steadily progressing up the chart. An additional 13 adds helps increase their HIT FACTOR to 83% as predicted last week.

The Nylons, in just five weeks have a 75% HIT FACTOR picking up new adds from WGOL/FM, KROC, KWEB, WIHN, KEZR, KFMB and KVEC.

No surprise department. Whitney will be dancin' her way up the chart. Debuting at #24 and MOST ADDED for the second week, she has already received 158 total reports with a 45% HIT FACTOR.

U2 picked up another seventeen adds this week with a HIT FACTOR of 70%. Among the avid believers are WYZB/FM, KHYL/FM, WEBC, WHTX, WTRX and KYLT. Good to see A/C radio fueling the U2 phenomenon.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, David Sanborn's Chicago Song has picked up nineteen new adds with WALG, WGAD, KHOZ, WDND, KTBC, KTIM/FM, KWUN, KKRB and KCSY among others. WCHV and WSKY already have it in HEAVY ROTATION.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Telling Me Lies by The Trio doubles their total reports with 20 new new adds this week. Reinforcing this trend are WHYN, WCHV, WQHQ/FM, WJON, WMT/AM, KLOV, KSL, KWAV and KFQD. Diane

RECOMMENDED FOR A/C RADIO

DANNY WILSON

Mary's Prayer (Virgin)

Danny Wilson is a group name comprised of no Danny's or Wilson's. What they've got, though, are some great lines like: "I used to be so careless, as if I couldn't care less."

BRUCE WILLIS

Under The Boardwalk (Motown)

With hearty support from The Temptations, Bruce gives a solid performance on this classic Drifters song. The entire production is respectful of the original but the treatment is still contemporary. The record can be played at Urban and even soft hits stations and between them, Top 40 and A/C radio should eat this one up.

GLORIA ESTEFAN AND MIAMI SOUND MACHINE

Rhythm Is Gonna Get You (Epic)

It's gonna get you and more sooner than later. Gloria takes a stronger role as the centerpiece (not a hood ornament) in this internationally acclaimed band. The song, which is a fusion of "Conga" and "Bad Boy," can't miss anywhere.

STEVE WINWOOD

Back In The High Life Again (Island/Warner Bros.)

When he was recording this track nearly two years ago even Steve couldn't have imagined he would be back in the high life again to the degree he has. This song leans on an Irish folk arrangement more so than on his customary soul side.

JOE COCKER

Love Lives On (MCA)

This theme from the upcoming movie "Harry And The Hendersons" is the kind of song which puts Joe Cocker up where he belongs, singing solid ballads.

HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation. ie: 100 stations playing the record - 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation - Hit Factor = 60%

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL

MADONNA

Her next film, "Who's That Girl," features songs from Club Nouveau and Scritti Politti as well as four new ones from Madonna.

PRINCE

His 65,000-square foot, $10-million Paisley Park recording and film complex in Chanhassen, MN, will open in July.

MARIE OSMOND

She'll host this year's Children's Miracle Network Telethon to be broadcast May 30th-31st from Disneyland.

OAK RIDGE BOYS

A new book titled "The Oak Ridge Boys: Our Story" traces the forty-year history of the gospel-turned-Country group.

ISLEY BROTHERS

They were reduced to a duo as a result of the unfortunate death of brother O'Kelly Isley in March of last year. They first recorded as a trio in 1958.

RUBEN BLADES

He sings one song on the new Little Steven album in English and is working with Paul Simon, Sting and Elvis Costello on his first full English-language album. Blades is also currently filming "Fatal Beauty" with Whoopi Goldberg.

T. GRAHAM BROWN

He can be heard singing on commercials for Molson Ale, McDonalds, Coca-Cola and Kraft Foods.

STEVE WARINER

He got his start at age seventeen, when Dottie West offered him a chance to play bass in her band and sing background vocals.

BOBBY BROWN

He has been at work producing an album for Malcolm Jamal-Warner of The Cosby Show.

MOODY BLUES

Justin Hayward has signed a solo deal with Voyager Records and will release an album this summer with a tour to follow.

U2

They often did cover versions of Bay City Rollers' songs when they first started performing in the pubs of Dublin.

JULIAN COPE

He's the former leader of Teardrop Explodes. His first solo album was "World Shut Your Mouth," released in 1984.

JON BUTCHER

Though his new single, "Holy War," mentions Jim Bakker and Jerry Falwell, it was written months before either was front-page news.

PHIL SAATCHI

In 1976, he played guitar in a band called Absolutely Elsewhere, which released an album on Warner Bros. UK.

BRYAN ADAMS

As a teenager, he was writing songs for other rock 'n' rollers, including fellow Canadians, Loverboy.

DUANE EDDY

His recent performance with Art Of Noise led to a new recording contract and album for Capitol Records. Performances from George Harrison, Bob Dylan, Dave Edmunds, Ry Cooder and Brian Setzer will be included.

T'PAU

The five-piece band is from Shrewsbury, England. Lead singer is Carol Decker.

THE OTHER ONES

The band was formed in Berlin, though three of the six members are natives of Australia.

Patty Smyth

"Downtown Train"

"The voice that roared Goodbye To You in 1983 and The Warrior in 1984 for the band Scandal still is one of the premier female voices in rock music on her solo album Never Enough. Smyth displays more versatility here than she did with Scandal."

i suffer

i didn't want you to find out this way
i was just waiting for the right time to say something about what is really wrong with me and the difficult details of my malady

i don't want to frighten you but it's really serious
just look at me
i'm nearly delirious

i suffer
from affection
stay away for your own protection
one touch could be the fatal connection
because baby,
i suffer
from affection

i know i look fine
from the outside
i do
but something goes wrong
when i get close to you
it steams and it burns and it's painfully sharp and i think that it might have to do with my heart

this feeling came too fast for me to develop my immunity but of one thing i'm fairly sure your kisses are the only cure

REPLACEMENTS

REM

Exit O-Steve Earle & The Dukers (MCA)

As the first chords of "Nowhere Road" ring out, it's clear that Steve Earle aimed to maintain the same groove and tone of his previous groundbreaker. Even if Exit O isn't quite as immediately catchy as Guitar Town, Earle's talents as a songwriter and lyricist have broadened. Like You Know Who, Earle has a sympathetic grasp of middle-income, working class America. The instrumentation tends to beautify the landscape his characters spring from, romanticizing the feel of drag racing the highways, reminiscing over high school football days or leave town in ambitious disgust and disappointment. It's what the songs hint at that cuts to the bone. We all feel frustration and growing pains. It's nice to have those feelings symbolized. Guitar Town was, for me, a tough act to follow. At first, I wasn't sure Exit O could hold its jock strap. However, a few thoughtful listenings later, I came to appreciate its depth, possibly the most important advantage Exit O has over its predecessor. Trax: "Nowhere Road," "No. 29," "San Antonio Girl," "Angry Young Man," "I Ain't Never Satisfied" and "The Rain Came Down."

"Girls Girls Girls"-Mottley Crue (Elektra)

Whether or not radio lifts a finger of support on this one, these guys are a bona fide phenomenon. Having foresaken the effects of alcohol, the Crue intensify their attention towards the hordes of consenting females. That makes them the envy of many a politician and/or holy man.

"I Suffer"-In Vitro (Manhattan)

And now for the female side of the story. "I Suffer," sung by a cryptic goddess named Shandra, is a steamer. This woman is "delirious" with desire. Now flip the disc and notice the etched artwork on side two. Rather than risk nuking your cartridge and needle, play side one on the air. The band's name is In Vitro. Somebody pass the saltpeper.

Beverly Hills Cop 2 (MCA)

Something more to do the "Neutron Dance" to. As it well should, Album Radio is going positively ga-ga over Bob Seger's contribution. But like all vital soundtracks, all roads and all formats meet. If movie trailers are any indication, this movie will be Numero Uno boffo this summer. As for radio, check out "In Deep" by Charlie Sexton. It's true car-chase music. You won't recognize the lad. The Pointers' "Be There" sounds like a megasmash. The heat is on again.

Letters Home-Wendy Waldman (Cypress)

In the same passing lane as Steve Earle is Wendy Waldman. I'll bet she's frequently mistaken as just another sensitive songstress. Wrongo, boyo. Letters Home has a severe bite to it. From the opening Fairport Conventionish guitars of "Living In Hard Times," this album maintains a sharp edge. Miraculously, Waldman finds a viable way to re-chronicle broken hearts, cold shoulders and wild times. I would have liked to have heard her re-cut a kill version of "Heartbeat," but I guess after such a long absence, there were too many songs to choose from, too much to be said. Trax like "This Wall," "Hard Times," "The Easy Way Out" and "Destined To Be Wild" rock steady to me. The lady means biz. I find her determination quite sexy.

"She Don't Look Back"-Dan Fogelberg (Full Moon/Epic)

Dan Fogelberg fans are gonna have to ID their man via the vocal track. Fogelberg has taken a few turns toward a contemporary Album Radio sound in the past, but this is his most radical concession. That's Dan rippin' those leads. After a quick preview listen to his new LP, the single sounds more like the rule than the exception. Also included are the custom ballads Fogelberg is known for. Full report soon.

Warren Zevon Sentimental Hygiene

"Sentimental Hygiene"-Warren Zevon (Virgin)

Quite a spectacular bounceback for Warren Zevon. Enlisting Neil Young on lead guitars AND an unrecognizable REM as back-up band, "Sentimental Hygiene" is big news and big sound. Who could resist back announcing this baby? Anything shy of out-of-the-box constitutes asleep-at-the-wheel syndrome. Ride this one 'til it hurts.

Gypsy Blood-Mason Ruffner (CBS)

Mason Ruffner plays rough on his sophomore breakthrough album. "Gypsy Blood" is well fortified with a whole slew of fiery trax. I'm particularly enamored with the guitar and orchestra experiments (namely "Courage" and "Dancin' On Top Of The World"). "Fightin' Back" and "Under Your Spell" are two sleepers, conjuring up fond images of New Orleans, where Ruffner waited tables and rock n rolled the Bourbon Street. Dave Edmunds and band along with Mason and Cleveland keyboardist Mark Avsec pull off an extremely successful collaboration, putting another "roots" notch on Dave Edmunds' pistol. The deck is stacked heavily in favor of side one, but do spill over to side two for the full taste. "Red Hot Lover" rocks.

Dumb Poet-Immaculate Fools (A&M)

A low key but nonetheless arresting effort. Like labelmates Thrashing Doves and David + David, the Fools operate by combining poetic images & twanging chords. Though they probably don't gyrate and wear cod-pieces, guitars are an important ingredient for the music. Portions of this LP were produced by Ross Cullum, of Wang Chung fame. The title track recalls the antics of troubadors like Peter Hammil and Syd Barrett. In fact, the entire boxed package beautifully represents a sincere artistic sensitivity. Graphically and musically, the Fools weave a certain spell. Highlights include "Tragic Comedy" and "So Much Here." KZ

My 2 cents

Once again, this week's chart represents a diverse musical overview as a lot of interesting trends collide inside one chart. Inside the Top Five, Tom Petty finally strays from the pack, aggressively moving to the #3 slot. Petty's place inside the Album Radio Top Ten has always been assured, but seeing him in the company of Crowded House, David Bowie, Gregg Allman, Rock & Hyde, The Truth, not to mention U2, conjures up images of potential excitement on the Album Radio airwaves. That's quite an impressive blend of different personalities. REM makes a strong bid for next week's Top Ten by moving 28-16-11. Suzanne Vega makes her presence strongly felt by gliding 37-20-13. Though her album does have its quieter moments, the majority of the material is quite upbeat and heavily instrumentated. As the chart movement suggests, quite a few of our reporters are having good luck with the texture Suzanne Vega has to offer Album Radio, especially those chasing upper demos. As The Cult see America from Billy Idol's stage, their profile increases. They are going over great guns with Idol's crowd, who represent an active faction of Album Radio's listeners. As expected, Heart is wasting no time staking their claim on the airwaves. "Alone" is a multi-format hit. Hoodoo Gurus has racked up impressive airplay numbers, with over 65% of our reporters in medium or better. They could very easily break into the Top 15 next week. Another new band brewing up momentum is Little America. Alongside Mondo Rock, both enter the Top Twenty on the strength of single trax. On the subject of single trax, as the Mason Ruffner album begins to make its rounds, more trax should surface. Lots of airplay located on both sides of the vinyl. Ruffner's album should be a priority listen. It is truly one of our format's treasure releases. Big response this week to the Richard Marx song, "Don't Mean Nothing." Edging out Dan Fogelberg as #2 Most Added and debuting this week at #39, it's starting to mean something. Speaking of Fogelberg, expect to see a strong debut out of him. Ordinarily he appeals heavily to Album Radio, especially those who may be looking to increase their female listenership. This new album shows him adapting technologically. "She Don't Look Back" should fit in well with Album Radio's airsound and diverse blend. A host of new entries inside Chartbound includes Ronnie Montrose, returning after half a decade on the bench. Strong out-of-the-box reaction to the Prince's Trust, particularly to the Strait's live version of "Money For Nothing." Quite a few stations are already getting bugged by Motley Crue's active core of fans. John Hiatt, whose album has been assigned a June release, has already made its first marks, debuting this week. Ditto Alison Moyet and Y&T. Chartbound is heavy with metal bands including Ozzy, Ace Frehley, the Motleys, TNT, Y&T and Autograph. All they are saying is "give hard rock n roll a chance." KZ

ALTERNATIVE ACTION

The large number of releases over the past month has set up a ferocious battle in the top ten, with only three records moving down from last week. Their momentum of the past few weeks carries the Hoodoo Gurus to number one, while The Replacements and R.E.M. salivate over the top slot for next week. The results will no doubt be very close. Somewhat overshadowed, but not underplayed, is Suzanne Vega's new LP. Support is strong from both college and commercial stations with Maximum airplay checking in from WXXP, WNCS, WMDK, WMRV, KUSF, WHFS, WKXE, WBCN, WOXY, KABL, KVRE, KTCZ, KBCO, WUNH, WUSC, WDCR, WUSB, WCDB, WXYC, etc. Wire is also making large strides behind a pack of commercial radio airplay from WFNX, KROQ, CFNY, KABL, WHFS, WXXP, WLIR, KEYX, 91X, KJET, etc. joining a solid college radio base. Scuffy The Cat is Certified as our highest debut with a large portion of their Record To Watch is the Young Fresh Fellows who picked up adds at WOXY, WBNY, WCDB, KBVR, KFJC, KBSU, KDVS, etc.

SPOTLIGHT LP

Peter and The Test Tube Babies-PETER AND THE TEST TUBE BABIES(Profile)

Although the line-up of this hard-working and hard-playing British band has remained intact its conception in 1978, the group has come a long way. They've now brewed a winning recipe of distilled production and matured songwriting without losing their early passion. The single "Louise Wouldn't Like It" is a flat-out Alternative hit with its adventurous vocal hooks interspersed with guitar chords. Their vocal harmonies are a common asset elsewhere on "Key To The City," "He's On The Whisky" and "Everytime I See Her." The cut "Boozanza" is a tongue -in-cheek mutation of the Cartwrights' theme song.

Outlands-SPEAR OF DESTINY(Virgin)

After releasing a series of import records that produced some gems but lacked in overall consistency the Spear of Destiny has hit paydirt on Outlands. Gothic Rock overtures with high-tech drums and dense synthesized keyboards share the mike with sparse guitars. On songs like "Land of Shame," "Was That You" and "Tonight" the tightly leashed rhythm section keeps their music from roaming too far. The single "Strangers In Our Town" will keep the feet moving on the dance floors and fingers snappin' to the radio. Lead singer Kirk Brandon (formerly with Theatre of Hate and Burning Rome) sings with a thick British accent resembling an odd cross between ABC's Martin Fry and the Fall's Mark E. Smith.

SELLING WITH THE NEW ARBITRON RATINGS

Two weeks ago, we broke the story about how the new 21-34 demo will affect wine and beer advertisers. Early returns show there is more to this story than drinking and driving.

While 21-34 is clearly a logical demo for beer and wine advertisers because of the drinking age question, it seems the 21-49 demo will have more impact on general advertising expenditures. A review of U.S. Census Bureau data shows the 21-49 age group already exceeds the 25-54 population. Over the next five years, this 21-49 cell will continue to grow at a rapid pace, with two 21-year-olds entering the demo for every 49-year-old that leaves. This means the 21-49 demo will replace the 25-54s as the major consumer buying segment.

At a seminar I conducted in Richmond earlier this month, the issue was raised of why under-21-year-olds aren't desirable. Ask yourself or your clients these questions, and you'll reach the same conclusions as the Richmond media professionals:

Installment loans--how old were you when you no longer needed a co-signer for a car or furniture?

Mortgages--sold any real estate recently to a high school grad working at an entry-level hourly wage?

Credit cards--don't you have to be steadily employed for a few years to get one? And don't most retailers rely on credit card purchases for the bulk of their sales?

But what about the concept of instilling brand awareness in the under-21 group? With so many ways of influencing consumers so quickly through all forms of media, the question of who's in the market to buy right now is more important. Reaching young consumers before they are ready to buy may have worked to some degree in the past, but thanks to the electronic media, not any more.

Take the Ford Taurus/Mercury Sable as an example. Although the product is less than 18 months old, it is outselling everything in the country. Did it matter that General Motors had called the shots for so long in the car market? No! Ford introduced a product that GM couldn't defend itself against with a comparable model. With sheer advertising weight, Ford stole the market segments that up until 1986 were heavily into Chevrolet, Oldmobile and Pontiac--as well as Yuppie Volvo and Audi buyers.

The next burning question addressed by our Richmond media professionals was the "graying of America." One person asked specifically, "What about all this information I've been receiving about how the persons over 50 have more spendable income than any other group?" We quickly determined that, while this may be true on a per capita basis, by 1991, the 21-49-year-olds will exceed 50 percent of the entire population, giving them the clear edge in overall spendable income.

After the "over/under-21" segmentation, it seems logical that the future big demos in the consumer marketplace will be, in order of importance, 21-49, 12-24 and 35-54. Interestingly enough, before the meeting started, we surveyed the room, and 15 out of the 27 media buyers present designated 25-54 as their #1 demo. That age group didn't even make the final poll of future demos when the meeting ended.

While the logic behind 21-49 is devastating, there will, of course, be exceptions to the rule. Many advertisers may not change their target demos. The same variation on demos that we see today will exist in the future. And, in my opinion, within five years, ratings companies will make available exact demos like 21-42, 33-41, etc., for use by highly sophisticated niche marketers. The computer technology is here now. It's only a matter of time before demand makes these data "products" a reality.

While we don't have room to print side-by-side comparisons, suffice it to say that the 21-49 demo results in a different market ranking. If a client drops the demo from 25-54 to 21-49, powerhouse AMs with big morning drive ratings among the 50+ will be reduced, as will Easy Listening FMs and some of the older-skewing A/Cs. If a client raises the demo from 18-49 to 21-49, the biggest losers will be teen-oriented and Top 40 stations.

HOW TO COPE IF THE DEMO HELPS YOU

Use your instincts and introduce the new demo information where it suits the long-term relationship. The inevitable population shift means any advertiser who buys 25-54 over the next five years and is getting media that is heavily skewed toward older audiences may begin to see losses in audience share. It's to your advantage to educate retailers about 21-49 and position yourself closer to their best interests. Advertisers who concede the younger 21-35 group to their competition may be putting their longterm survival at risk.

If, on the other hand, the advertiser has been using the 18-and-up demos as a way to reach 21+ demos, you should be more direct. Continue to provide the media analysis based on the original 18 demos, but always include an identical analysis using the demo beginning with 21. I also recommend showing a 6A-12M side-by-side comparison of the 18 demo versus the 21 demo. It won't take long for 18 to disappear.

Before the meeting started, we surveyed the room, and 15 out of the 27 media buyers present designated 25-54 as their #1 demo. That age group didn't even make the final poll of future demos when the meeting ended.

HOW TO COPE IF THE NEW DEMO IS BAD NEWS

If a client wants to slash your budget because of the young or old skew of your audience, it is most likely because of a change in the real demo from 18-low or 54-top to one based on 21-49s. No doubt new AID runs released by your competitors have put you in a very deep hole. CRAWL OUT SLOWLY. If you stick your head up too fast, you will probably lose it!

Sit down with your clients and carefully review their needs and objectives. Identify and reinforce the NON-RATINGS reasons they have bought your station in the past. Appeal to their common sense by arguing that, if the buy worked in the past, it will work again. Point out the risks of buying a station with an admitted old or young skew versus those of buying an altogether new radio vehicle. Ask the clients if they think it is worthwhile to ignore the customers they've been reaching in the past on your station. ●

COUNTRY SUMMARY

There's no question about this week's number one - Randy Travis is number one on all counts. His closest challenger is Dwight Yoakam, who's still building up steam at #5. The Sweethearts Of The Rodeo and Earl Thomas Conley are coming up close behind Dwight, but look for George Strait to be in the thick of next week's race to the top. John Schneider, with a 94% HIT FACTOR, continues to climb the chart at a fast pace. Tanya Tucker adds another 8% to her HIT FACTOR, now at 89%. The biggest chart move of the week goes to The Judds, who also had the biggest HIT

FACTOR increase, from 49% to 77%. Holly Dunn gains in both chart points and airplay strength. She's already getting HEAVY rotations @ WMBC/FM, KQUS, WORC, KATK/FM, KVAS, KORD, KWYO and WWSJ/AM. This week's two highest debuts - thereby receiving CERTIFIED status - are Lee Greenwood and the Larry Gatlin/Janie Fricke duet. John Wesley Ryles bypasses CHARTBOUND altogether and debuts @ 40. All four of this week's CHARTBOUND records made the cut in only their second week out, and all of them have a good shot at debuting on next week's chart. Ronnie Milsap' "Snap Your Fingers" (for those of you who thought it sounded familiar, this was a hit for Joe Henderson back in 1962) is already pulling in mega-requests for Al Parker at WGUD-Pascagoula, MS, and Frank Smith at WFSR-Harlan, KY. Highway 101 chalked up 38 more adds and an 11% HIT FACTOR, and Don Davis at KLYQ-Hamilton, MT, is reporting a lot of requests, especially from his female listeners. Ray Stevens' novelty song is, of course, pulling in requests wherever it's played. It's still getting adds, with seven more this week including WOWW107, KMPS, WHON, WYGC, WAOV, WRNS/FM and WFMX. Asleep At The Wheel's "House Of Blue Lights" was a hit twice in 1946 - once for Ella Mae Morse with the Freddie Slack Orchestra, and again for the Andrew Sisters. More than 40 years later, it still sounds great.

Talk to you next week. Lisa & Elma

THE NEW AM PRE-EMPHASIS CURVE

A few weeks ago, this column featured a discussion of high fidelity on AM, and the need for manufacturers to improve the fidelity of AM receivers. The manufacturers were in on the planning of the new NRSC pre-emphasis curve for AM transmission, which the NAB has adopted as a voluntary standard for AM, and they say they will build the radios if the broadcasters will use the curve.

As the writer of a letter printed in that column pointed out, this standard would have broadcasters voluntarily reduce the fidelity of their transmission. Currently, AM can be transmitted legally with full modulation all the way up to 15 kHz, which is thought of as the upper limit of hearing of most adults. FM cannot cleanly transmit highs that far up because of the overmodulation that would result from their own FCC-standard pre-emphasis curve.

The proposed AM curve apparently is the same as the FM curve, with the high-frequency boost starting below 2 kHz, rising to some "18 db up" at 15 kHz. The NRSC committee pointed out that in recent years, many AM stations have added considerable "treble boost" to the signal in transmission, to try to overcome the terrible reproduction of highs on AM receivers, and the new 75-microsecond pre-emphasis curve would replace that with a high-frequency boost quite similar to what many stations are doing already.

In this way, existing lo-fi AM receivers would still be catered to by the high-frequency boost, but, through the use of a standard pre-emphasis curve, manufacturers would be able to devise AM receivers with a complementary rolloff, yielding flat frequency responses to 9.5 kHz or so--a vast improvement over what is offered now.

Receivers would have a notch filter, or would complete their rolloff, at 10 kHz, to eliminate the "10-kHz whistle" caused by adjacent-channel carrier waves, especially at night. Stations would be asked to roll off the highs at about 10 kHz, which will make AM modulation easier to maximize than FM modulation, since their extreme highs will not be there to broadcast. The rolloff would also minimize splatter effects which slop over onto nearby frequencies--which is the other reason manufacturers are willing to make receivers to this wideband standard. They protest, with considerable accuracy, that the high-frequency boosting that is now being done by stations is causing many "splatter" products to go way out of the assigned bandwidth of the station, but since it is not done by overmodulation, the FCC can do nothing about it. Manufacturers say they have to build narrowband receivers to limit the amount of splatter from other stations that gets on the signal of the station you're listening to.

The whole matter is a circular problem: Stations pre-emphasize their highs to compensate for narrowband radios. The manufacturers design radios with ever-narrower bandwidths to minimize the splatter effects from the stations that are pre-emphasizing.

Since the manufacturers helped devise this proposed NRSC voluntary AM standard, and promise to build the radios if broadcasters transmit the signal accordingly, it's up to the broadcasters to employ it now, and I join the NAB in calling on them to do it. (Some claim AM broadcasters won't do it until they are made to, and have petitioned the FCC to add this curve to the AM transmitting rules. The FCC has not yet responded.)

Now, suppose you want to transmit this standard. How do you do it? All manufacturers promise equipment to accomplish this, but the first one I've seen is the CRL SPF-300, which I understand is being sold for $500. It does several things worth noticing.

The device is intended to be placed between the compressor and the final peak limiter in the audio chain, and provide the necessary pre-emphasis curve. All equalizers in the line would be removed, but multi-band processing would still be possible ahead of it. Sharp filtering of audio above 10 kHz is provided, as is overshoot protection to allow full modulation...and CRL cannily provides a strappable option of rolling off above 11 kHz instead. In theory, this would be the more desirable rolloff, since receivers will already be rolling off at 10 kHz, and placing the transmission rolloff above that point would keep the station's transmitted audio flat until beyond the receiver bandwidth (avoiding double rolloff effects near 10 kHz), while still narrowing the bandwidth enough to minimize "splatter" effects.

The whole matter is a circular problem: Stations pre-emphasize their highs to compensate for narrowband radios. The manufacturers design radios with ever-narrower bandwidths to minimize the splatter effects from the stations that are pre-emphasizing.

This CRL device also contains a circuit which should help older transmitters modulate properly, a "selectable tilt-correction circuit, which can be used to remove low frequency phase shift common in many plate-modulated transmitters," to quote the company's literature. That should help older transmitters sound better and attain peak modulation more consistently.

I expect the corresponding equipment of other manufacturers will contain similar features. If you are interested in getting the flyer from CRL on this device, their WATS line is (800) 535-7648. The number within Arizona is (602) 438-0888. ●

GOING TO BAT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

We got such a strong reaction to our recent column on blacks and other minorities in management that we thought we'd take some time to expand on the issue.

Many theories have been advanced over the past few years to explain the shortage of blacks in the top ranks of major businesses. Some say blacks cannot be effective managers because many whites will balk at taking orders from them. That may be true for an inexperienced manager. People will always take advantage of someone who's unsure of him (or her) self. That's just human nature. But a confident, qualified manager will get respect regardless of race. The problem is acquiring that confidence and those qualifications.

Then, of course, we have Al Campanis, who was Vice President of Player Personnel for the Los Angeles Dodgers until he appeared on ABC's "Nightline" and revealed his true feelings about the explanation for the obvious shortage of blacks in sports management. Poor Al Campanis. We're sure this 70-year-old man did not mean to attribute the shortage of minorities to their inability to be good pitchers, quarterbacks and floaters. But that was the way it came out, and he had to go.

What is ironic about the whole affair is that the show Campanis appeared on was designed to assess how far professional baseball has come since Jackie Robinson broke the major leagues' color line 40 years ago. If Campanis' views are any indication, baseball management has not come very far at all.

It is at least provisionally significant that a lot of folks inside and outside sports feel the way Campanis does. They just haven't been as outspoken--and now many of them will hold their true feelings in, lest their careers be put on the line.

The record and radio industries, while not perfect, are a lot more liberal in their outlook. But if that's the case, why aren't they filling new positions with the minorities they claim to desire? Part of the reason is there are still an awful lot of qualified non-minorities available who are friends and acquaintances of the present owners and managers. And a lot of qualified minorities just don't bother to apply for those positions when they open up.

One creed our industry does have in common with sports is "Winning isn't everything--it's the only thing." And you have to keep the hits coming in order to win. But if you are winning in one city, someone will likely try to get you to do the same thing in another city, because many people in radio believe the way to emulate success is to duplicate a successful formula in kind. A programmer or manager who is winning in A/C radio will be wooed by other A/C outlets. The same is true of urban, Top 40, Country--even News/Talk.

It's easy to feel most comfortable specializing in the format you know best. But that doesn't mean you can't learn a new format and the peculiarities that go with the territory. For top management, that means learning a new set of people, agencies, contacts and procedures. Perhaps tomorrow's generation of job-seekers, having gone to integrated schools, will have an easier time than the generation they replace in taking on these new challenges.

Another thing our industry has in common with sports is that the path to the major leagues often requires a dues-paying (meaning low-paying) stint in the minors. And, just as not every player wants to coach, many top jocks don't want to be program directors--and many program directors don't want to be managers. But those who do are liable to die of boredom before an opportunity in the majors opens up.

Rather than defending the system, maybe the bosses of baseball--and radio--should be trying to change the "old boy system" into one that encourages, not discourages minorities--and women--from attempting to enter the ranks of top management.

After all, that is what affirmative action is about. It is not supposed to be about quotas, but rather about developing a system of hiring and promoting that encourages the best from all races and genders to compete--not to run away to other industries, or feel constrained to one level or format.

If Campanis really meant that baseball deliberately made little or no effort to encourage minority players to even consider management, no wonder he had to be sacrificed. He gave away one of the industry's dirty little secrets. But what was really wrong was that his dismissal makes it too easy to pretend that his remarks were an aberration--not a prevailing attitude.

Perhaps he should not have been forced out so quickly. Maybe he should have been given a chance at being educated to the racial realities of his industry, and to help teach others. But there are a lot of people like him in both our industries, and perhaps we can learn from him. It's prejudice we've got to get rid of--the kind that squints when it looks and lies when it talks. ●

RECOMMENDED NEW RELEASES

ALEXANDER O'NEAL - Fake (Tabu). Grammy award winners Jimmy Jam & Terry Lewis come through again for Alexander O'Neal, and Alexander deserves a great deal of credit for coming to life with this release. There's nothing "fake" about Mr. O'Neal's enthusiasm in this delivery.

LINDA IMPERIAL - Extra Credit (Columbia). Whoever she is, she gets lots of "credit" for a major label debut that isn't run-of-the-mill. Also "credit" Tony Richards and Ceasar Gooding at WIKS-New Bern, NC, for being the first to report adding it. This week's Record To Check Out!

VAL YOUNG - Private Conversations (Amherst). Even though we haven't had it confirmed, that background voice with Val certainly sounds like this record's producer, writer and arranger, Rick James. This is one of those that catches your attention the first time you hear it - a strong hook with a distinctive voice for your listeners.

URBAN CONTEMPORARY SUMMARY

LISA LISA AND CULT JAM hold their own for two weeks in a row and are looking for a third week! Challengers are HERB ALPERT and SURFACE, but don't be surprised if the "Certified" WHITNEY HOUSTON becomes another contender soon. Of the three, SURFACE is garnering the most requests: Bobby Knight, WQMG-Greensboro, reports calls from 18-35, Greg Beasley, KMJM-St. Louis, has phones from all demos, Cheryl Winston, KATZ/FM-St. Louis, reports their calls are from 25-49, and Kelly Karson, WTLC-Indianapolis, reports it as one of his top requests, as does Mike Archie, WHUR-Washington. Not surprisingly, WHITNEY HOUSTON picks up early requests wherever it's played, which must be everywhere by now because she hit 100 reports this week. Andrew Bailey, WYNN-Florence, reports heavy calls. WHITNEY debuts at one of our highest numbers ever, #20. JONATHAN BUTLER's "Lies" had a tremendous week, jumping to #29 with reports of calls from Stan Tompkins, WTOY-Roanoke, who says, "It will be a chartbuster! It's hot!" JODY WATLEY is a "smoker," according to Andrew Bailey, WYNN-Florence, and Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis, says requests at his station make it a hit there. The BUTLER is also doing well for Phillip David March, WJYL-Louisville, who says, "It's hot here," and he wasn't talking about the weather. LA LA was the "Pick It Or Stick It" for Stan Tompkins, WTOY-Roanoke. The highest debut in Up & Coming was the L.L. COOL J, with a total of 37 reports logging in this week, 21 of them are new adds. Lee McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, reports calls from teens, James Alexander, WJLB-Detroit, reports heavy calls from 12+, Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta, gets calls for it, mostly teens, Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, reports his calls and says, "It's a smoker!" Ron Davis, WQIS-Laurel, reports his calls are from the 18-34 bunch, and it's hot for Jeffrey Charles, WZAK-Cleveland. David Rosas, WWWS/FM-Saginaw, says it's one of his hottest teen requested tunes of the newer product. ISLEY BROTHERS becomes Chartbound with 63 reports checking in. Daryl Moore, KXZZ-Lake Charles, wanted me to quote him: "It's gonna be a big, big record here!" Harold Jackson, WDUR-Durham, says it's one of his top records on the request line. Jay Riley, WNOO-Chatanooga, reports that it's the best of the new product getting requests, Wayne Walker, WHYZ-Greenville, says he's getting calls, strong in the adult sector. Gary Weller, WBLZ-Cincinnati, reports the DEBBIE DEB, which debuts in Up & Coming this week, is the hottest record in the local clubs, and he feels it will be B-I-G T-I-M-E during the summer. Cy Young, WQQK/FM-Nashville, reports "lots of interest" in the LABI SIFFRE from the 18-54 group. Danny Harris, KDKO-Denver, recommends the PRINCE PHILLIP MITCHELL for programmers who are looking for the older demos - his calls are from them and they're coming in strong. Sedric Walker, KHRN-Hearn, reports FAT BOYS and the WHISPERS are going to have to duke it out on the phone lines - they're both hot! Betty

CHANGES

Mike Morgan is the new afternoon drive air talent at WTOY-Roanoke, VA. He comes from WSBV in South Boston.

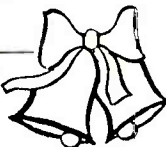

SHIPMATES

Frenche Be, P.D. of WQIM-Montgomery gives us an update of the "Early Morning Shipmates." Frenche, along with the rest of the morning crew, Cheryl Alexander and Le Roy, are bailing out of the station on Fridays to do their show on location. They will be going to the State Capitol Building, billboards on the highways, McDonalds, and high school locations to give away money and prizes on the show. They will be setting sail at 6AM with coffee and donuts at the ready for any listeners who would like to stop by to sign up for the $95 cash giveaway each Friday or just to say "Hi" to the shipmates.

WEDDINGS

Our WEDDING BELLS are ringing on May 16th for KATHY WHEELER, Music Director of KHOZ-Harrison, AZ. and MICHAEL SHASSERE.

...also on May 16th our bells are ringing for SUZANNE NEELY, National A/C Promotion at POLYGRAM RECORDS, and GORDON HOLMES.

ATTENTION: THE GAVIN REPORT WILL BE CLOSED ON MEMORIAL DAY, MONDAY, MAY 25. THE OFFICE WILL RE-OPEN ON TUESDAY, MAY 26.

the GAVIN REPORT

DAVE SHOLIN'S

Personal Picks — SINGLES

GEORGE MICHAEL - I Want Your Sex (Columbia)

Dr. Ruth's favorite subject is sure to generate a lot of talk and subsequent controversy. What more could a programmer ask for? Another absolute winner from Beverly Hills Cop II. Several stations who've tested it report virtually all positive response. Look for an extended 12-inch on the way.

DANNY WILSON - Mary's Prayer (Virgin)

Denise Lauren at WKTJ-Milwaukee and Jay Hall, KBLQ-Logan, said it best when they mentioned, "It sounds perfect on the air and stands out from the rest." I fell in love with this track weeks ago, just waiting to shout its praises.

GLORIA ESTEFAN AND MIAMI SOUND MACHINE - Rhythm Is Gonna Get Ya (Epic)

Get back in that Conga line, here we go again. Gloria Estefan and crew have established themselves as the chief musical ambassadors of Miami. Here's proof the hitmaking machine is unstoppable.

ROBBIE NEVIL - Wor's It To Ya (Manhattan)

Three in a row for any artist is quite a feat, but for a newcomer like Robbie, it's that much sweeter. Wotta a writer and performer!

ALISON MOYET - Is This Love? (Columbia)

Her warm, velvety vocals won a whole bunch of folks over on the last go 'round. She returns with more original material that earns an exceptional rating from yours truly.

Next Week. . .

RON FELL'S

Personal Picks — ALBUMS

"Beverly Hills Cop II Soundtrack" (MCA)

When a dozen acts each contribute one song to a soundtrack set, there is often no rhyme or reason for their association other than the film. But a lack of musical linkage won't hurt this album one bit. Figure six or seven singles could be released simultaneously. Hot tracks include a great Bob Seger, SHAKEDOWN, a rousing Pointer Sisters song, BE THERE, and an explosive George Michael song, I WANT YOUR SEX. The latter is bound to be a huge club record which could lead to pop radio play on the aggressive, dance-oriented stations. Though I haven't yet seen the movie, I expect some songs will benefit more than others from placement and exposure in the film--and it's a cinch the film will benefit from the forthcoming airplay.

A black and white, high-contrast portrait of Sheena Easton. She is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. Her hair is dark and styled in a short, layered cut. She is wearing a dark, possibly black, jacket with a high collar. The lighting is dramatic, with strong shadows on the right side of her face.
