TOM PETERS STARS AT GAVIN SEMINAR

Tom Peters, the man who has redefined excellence in modern management, will be the star of the keynote event at the Gavin Seminar for Media Professionals to be held February 16, 17 and 18, 1989.

One of the most sought-after speakers in America, Peters is THE major revolutionary innovator of management style, and as we barrel toward the 90's he's become the foremost authority on how we as managers and innovators must change in the face of stiffer global competition, increasing economic uncertainty and the volatility of both the job and stock markets.

The Gavin Seminar will be the first time the music industry will be exposed personally to Peters' presence and ideas. In a dramatic departure from past breakfast talks with media luminaries Charles Osgood, Larry King and Linda Ellerbee, Peters will give us what promises to be an electric afternoon presentation that will show us how to better "Thrive on Chaos," and deal with being in the eye of the storm.

Peters is the co-author of In Search of Excellence (with Bob Waterman) and A Passion for Excellence (with Nancy Austin). Both books are the only management books ever to rank #1 on The New York Times national bestseller list. His latest book Thriving on Chaos: Handbook for a Management Revolution has been near the top of the national best seller lists since its 1987 release. Tom also writes a syndicated newspaper column and has excited TV audiences on his PBS appearances.

As Peters says, "If you're a fanatic about excellence, here's a shot in the arm that can help your organization achieve it—and sustain it!"

B-100FM HELPS SAVE CARA-NET

When the YMCA/Cara-Net, a San Diego project that helps children of all ages by promoting child safety and assisting parents when children are missing, was in danger of running out of funds granted by the government,

B-100 FM became involved and put together an album of The Rich Brothers "Funny Song Friday" novelty tunes. The Rich Brothers are PD Bobby Rich and his B Morning Zoo cohorts Scott Kenyon, Frank Anthony and Pat Gaffey. The album includes songs written and performed by the Rich Brothers themselves.

MAYBE SOLD, MAYBE NOT

KNBR TO CENTURY?

In San Francisco the has it or hasn't it been sold story of NBC/GE's KNBR-AM is almost crowding the the general election out of our minds.

Articles in both the San Francisco Chronicle (by Ben Fong-Torres) and The Oakland Tribune (by Bill Mann) say that Century Broadcasting of Chicago (which already owns SF's KMEL/FM) has bought KNBR, which by the way comes with a very lucrative contract from the San Francisco Giants baseball team.

Efforts to confirm the reported sale have, up to now, been unsuccessful. On Tuesday, after having been quoted in newspapers as saying the deal was finalized, KMEL GM Paulette Williams gave the Gavin Report a "no comment" to our inquiries; brokers at Kidder Peabody referred us to NBC Radio President Randy Bongarten who said "I just got placed in front of me the article that was in the Oakland Tribune and there was one in the Chronicle. I will tell you on the record that there's no deal with anybody, and I have no comment on who we're negotiating with;" efforts to reach Century officials proved unsuccessful and, finally, management at KNBR itself isn't commenting, however there was a story about the sale reported during Tuesday's morning drive news, but the information was given as it was reported in Fong-Torres' article in the Chronicle.

So—KNBR may or may not be sold for anywhere from an incredible $27 to a piddling $21 million dollars to someone that might or might not be Century Broadcasting.

The only thing that's for sure is that wherever KNBR goes, the Giants go.

WHITE LION

OUR PRIDE IS SHOWING!

What does it take for a debut album to go Double Platinum these days? For PRIDE, the brilliant debut from WHITE LION, it takes a lot of hard work.

It takes 15 months of virtual non-stop touring with the likes of AC/DC, Aerosmith, Ace Frehley, Kiss and Stryper as well as a headlining stint of their own in Europe and a sold-out run through Japan!

It takes a single like "Wait," fueled by the longest played video on MTV, to go Top 10 on Top 40 radio. In fact, their videos for "Wait" and "Tell Me" were both Top 10 most requested. And their latest, "When the Children Cry," shot into the Top 10 within three days of its world premiere!

It takes a guaranteed winner like "When The Children Cry" to continue the excitement!

Westwood One has reached an agreement to purchase KIQQ-FM Radio in Los Angeles from Outlet Communications, Inc. for an estimated $56 million in cash. KIQQ is currently a soft-rock outlet that utilizes Transtar's Format 41 programming.

The sales agreement is pending approval from the FCC and Westwood One's Board of Directors.

CSNY REUNITE FOR UNICEF

Thirty- and forty-somethings rejoice! Look for Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young to stage a reunion on November 12. It's CSNY's first-ever live radio broadcast, and will be a radio-thon to benefit the U.S. Committee for UNICEF and the late Harry Chapin's World Hunger Year.

The performance comes just ahead of the release of the first CSNY album in 14 years, American Dream.

Graham Nash will host the radio-thon from the Palace Theatre in Los Angeles, and is teaming with WNEU/FM's Pete Fornatale and World Hunger Year's Bill Ayers who will be the hosts at the U.N. in New York City. Nash has also enlisted artist Peter Max who has created artwork for "Children of the America's" t-shirts and posters, which will go to those who donate $50 or more.

So far more than 125 stations are expected to participate in what will be a very exciting event.

SCOTT UPPED TO Y95 ASST. PD

Y95-Dallas Program Director Buzz Bennett has named John Scott his Assistant Program Director. John will give up his 10PM-2AM air shift to concentrate on his programming position.

Y95 Promotion Director Bill Pasha, who until Scott's promotion was Interim Assistant Program Director has been appointed Music Director and will continue as Promotion Director.

Bennett is in the process of filling the 10PM-2AM air slot. It's a great opportunity for a hot talent. Send your tapes and resumes to Buzz Bennett, 545 East John Carpenter Freeway Suite 1560, Irving, TX 75062.

A TOP 40 KIND OF GUY CAREY EDWARDS TO KSXY

In the wake of KFIV-Modesto, CA's flip from Top 40 to A/C, PD Carey Edwards is moving on to KSXY/FM in Reno, which he'll change from A/C to Top 40. KSXY is currently a Transtar 29 outlet.

"We're switching the station to straight up Top 40," said Edwards.

At KSXY a new air staff is in the works, but there'll be no call letter change. According to Edwards, everything will be in place within three to four weeks.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

During the next few days we'll all be subjected to those inevitable "public service" messages urging everyone to vote. The absurdity of these get-out-the-vote campaigns was first pointed out to me by Bob Kieve, Owner and General Manager of KLIV and KARA in San Jose. Over the years Bob has run editorials informing listeners that there is nothing inherently honorable about simply stepping inside a polling booth and voting. He asks those who haven't studied the candidates and the issues to do their fellow citizens a favor and stay home. The privilege of voting should be reserved for those who value our freedom of choice, and are concerned enough to let their voice be heard. Not everyone contacted during a ratings survey responds. Hopefully the majority of those who do are interested enough to give a knowledgeable answer regarding their listening habits. Asking those who are uninformed to vote is like polling a thousand people who rarely listen to radio and asking them to rate their favorite stations. There is absolutely nothing wrong with reminding your audience about election day and the importance of casting a ballot, but maybe your reminder can be tagged with a disclaimer advising those who don't know enough about the candidates and ballot measures to think twice before voting.

EDDIE MONEY'S only a few steps away from going top ten and that shouldn't be any problem for a record that soared in HIT FACTOR from 51% to 73%. Converts into top twenty territory for KEGL 27-16, KZZT 25-18, KJLS 23-17, KNEN 22-15, WIZM 25-20, KNIN 30-19, KPKY 24-20, KSIF 23-20, KSIQ 22-16, KOWL 22-15, KGOT 25-13, KACI 25-15, WRCK 27-18, WNYZ 29-17, WSBG 28-19, WKLQ 26-17, WLBC 22-17, KCLD 25-20, KGRS 27-19 BAM99 22-18.

"It took off immediately" is what Gary Franklin at KXXR Kansas City says about POISON as it moves 21-14. That's pretty much the consensus of most everyone who's on it. Based on early response, this track stands a good chance of being the group's biggest of the four singles they've released. Moves seven places or more at POWER 105 Albuquerque 23-15, KWES Odessa/Midland 22-12, WHDQ Claremont 30-21, KKEZ Ft. Dodge 28-18, KGGG Rapid City 16-8, KLYV Dubuque 32-19, KUAD Windsor 25-15, KLYK Longview 31-21 etc.

Moves 30-27 for Mark St. John and Brian Bridgman at WAVA Washington D.C plus big moves in New York at HOT 97 25-12 and Z100 22-19. Number one at KMEL, KKFR, KSTN and Z93. She more than doubles her airplay with 73 adds including 93Q, KBEQ, WLOL, KCPX, K100, KWSS, KKXX, KGOT, KLBQ, 92X, Z95.5, B97, 94Q, POWER99, EAGLE106, WSPK, WMME, CKOI, WBBQ, WDJX, POWER 104, KUBE, KDON, KUUB, KEYP, KHOK, WBNQ, KDWZ, WVAQ, WBPM, WJLK/K94, and KOKZ.

THE ANTHEM OF THE AMERICAN CONSUMER

When the Rolling Stones sang "I Can't Get No Satisfaction," were they singing about the typical frustrations of the American consumer?

Earlier this year the New York Times ran a story about Mark Manton, a graduate student who had purchased bookshelves from a retail outlet in Manhattan. Here are his comments:

"The first time, when the bookshelves weren't delivered, I didn't get too upset. I know mistakes can happen. Then they missed the second delivery. On the third delivery, the piece was broken. They missed the fourth and fifth delivery dates, and on the sixth and seventh deliveries, they brought the wrong color.

"Nobody returns calls. The store says it's the warehouse's fault, the warehouse says it's the store's fault, and I have never been able to get customer service on the phone."

Mr. Manton's final comments: "I'll never purchase from them again."

How unusual is this story, and what are the implications for your business? Let's review a few sobering statistics which I have summarized from a variety of sources, including the U.S. Office for Consumer Affairs, the Technical Assistance Research Programs Institute, the Forum Corporation, the Harris Poll and a few business periodicals.

First of all, Mr. Manton is not an anomaly. Most Americans believe that the service they receive from businesses is worse today than it was 10 years ago. Most of us have become accustomed to companies' regularly treating us with what management expert Tom Peters calls "TDC," or "Thinly Disguised Contempt." One nationwide study showed that for every four purchases, one results in a problem. Another nationwide survey showed that 1/3 of all American households have experienced one or more significant problems as consumers during the preceding year. For 60% of them, this problem involved at least a $142 loss and 15% time lost from work as they attempted to resolve it.

Mr. Manton's final reaction is not atypical. One study asked nearly 6,000 respondents why they as customers have switched to the competition. Of these respondents, 40% cited poor service; only 8.3% cited "too expensive" as a reason, and only 8.3% cited "inferior product." The study concluded that "customers are five times more likely to switch vendors because of perceived service problems than for price concerns or product quality issues."

If service is so important, then what determines high-quality service in the mind of the customer? Research indicates that companies often define service quality in terms of "tangibles," e.g. physical facilities, equipment and technology, appearance of personnel and products, and so on. Yet in one major study, customers rated these tangible factors as the least important elements in forming their perceptions of service quality. Factors such as reliability (delivering what is promised), responsiveness (before, during and after purchase, including responsiveness to complaints), and empathy (caring, concern, listening) were fully two to four times as important in forming customers' perceptions of service. Significantly, customers said that most companies were much better in dealing with the tangibles than with the non-tangibles. That's not surprising, because companies generally emphasize and reward performance in the tangible factors much more than in the so-called "soft" non-tangibles. The study concluded: "There is nearly an inverse relationship between the elements of service quality that matter most to customers and those elements that companies perform best."

Another study confirmed these trends. The researchers found that "human interaction problems" (like a failure to return phone calls) resulted in four times the market damage as a "product problem" (like excessive machine downtime). Similarly, these researchers found that significant market damage was caused by factors such as unclear bills and erroneous invoices—factors which were defined by customers as important elements of service quality.

If I were managing that furniture store described earlier, I'd be very concerned about Mr. Manton's decision never to purchase from that store again. Here's why.

First of all, the store is going to lose forever the potential sales to him—sales a competitor is going to pick up. Secondly, Mr. Manton is not alone. Seventy percent of dissatisfied customers do not bother to complain because they don't know who or how to call, they don't think it's worth the effort, or they don't think the company will respond. Another study found even grimmer numbers. The authors concluded that the average business does not hear from 95% of dissatisfied customers; in other words, every complaining customer represents 26 dissatisfied but non-complaining customers. This means that there are probably lots of Mr. Mantons who have had problems with that furniture store, but have not voiced their complaints. And here's the kicker: Of the dissatisfied but non-complaining customers who have purchased $1-5 worth of goods or services, 63% will switch vendors in the future. Of the dissatisfied but non-complaining customers who have purchased over $100 worth of goods or services, up to 91% will never buy from the vendor again. What's even worse, customers tell twice as many people about bad experiences as good ones. Each customer with a bad experience tells an average of 9-10 people about the experience, and of those 9-10 people, 13% tell 20 or more people. In short, if the Mr. Mantons don't kill you, the word-of-mouth marketing will.

Unfortunately, "I can't get no satisfaction" is the anthem of many a customer. And that's why so many businesses are floundering, despite the megabucks they throw at corporate staffs, restructuring and advertising. In contrast, those firms who really obsess on providing superior pre- and post-purchase customer service (as defined by the customer)—firms like American Express, Scandinavian Airlines System, Walt Disney, Johnson & Johnson, and a myriad of small businesses—are showing the financial returns which more than justify their obsessions.

Granted, "obsession" is a strong word, but if we look at the statistics, will any lesser word do? ●

Diane,
George and Eyebrows

One of the things we like about this bizniz is that it keeps a person young. Long after they really qualify for that adjective a lot of people in records and radio seem youthful. That may be because a lot of 58-year-old CEO's have something to do with determining which track should be the single on the Eddie & The Placemats LP. It's not exactly term insurance or tax returns or stuff to do with escrow.

We thought of that this morning when we spoke to Gavin big shot—Gavin LONG TIME big shot Diane Rufer, who does a lot of important things at the San Francisco headquarters and whose "Birthdays" column we regularly make fun of. ▶

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

A week or so ago we noticed that Diane, obviously campaigning for gifts, included her OWN name on the list. We figured Diane to check in at about 18 until we realized that we met her when she began at Gavin some 15 (!) years ago. Awright--she looked like a kid then at the old offices on Sansome street--maybe she was three, but whatever she is today (and we were far too much a gentleman to ask), she remains younger than her contemporaries in tax law and computer sciences. It's got to be the exposure to The Feelies, Camouflage and Mission of Burma that does it.

Now we don't want Diane to get paranoid, but the term "computer sciences" made us think about all the things we take so much for granted NOW, but didn't EXIST when Ms. Rufer began her Gavin career. When she asked us to Fax up our column we depressed her by noting that there was no such thing at a Fax when she began. There was no Federal Express either--there was something called "the mail."

VCRs didn't exist 15 years ago--hadn't been invented--so we actually had to hear records--we couldn't see them. We put Diane further in the doldrums by reminding her that a mere fifteen years ago there was no Tiffany--well there was barely a Tiffany (she was about a year old). When we heard the word Tiffany in 1973 we thought of a Fifth Avenue jewelry store.

The typewriter used by Diane when she signed on with Bill in '73 had no screen, so Diane couldn't see what her finished product would look like. It also had no correct button so she had to use White Out. What it DID have was something called a "ribbon" and for copies it used something called "carbon paper."

Should Diane read our column FOR ONCE, all of the above shouldn't put her in a funk because, as we said earlier, the business keeps us young. I should know! When the 18-year-old teller at my bank looks directly at me and says "Thank you, Mr. Richland," I look around to see if my father is standing behind me.

About half of you tell us you've never read this stuff--thanks a lot!! May a diseased water buffalo think impure thoughts about your sister!

On the other hand, the OTHER HALF of you graciously tell us that we're the FIRST THING you turn to every manic Monday. We thank that half of you, and you're the ones we're addressing right now: Hey kids, tomorrow's (November 8) election day. You have a RIGHT to remain silent but an OBLIGATION to do no such thing. We realize that times have changed and so have the reasons for voting--i.e.: you guys MUST hate one of these two turkeys just a bit more than you hate the other. Well, if you want a say in wha happens, will you please get out there and vote against the jamoke you hate the most? Sure it's TOP 40 day and it ain't gonna be easy getting Quartararo and Minor out of the office--there's always a seemingly valid excuse. But look at it this way: If you really can't stomach Bush, think about having to see that pointy chin, hearing those convoluted faux pas and listening to that weirdo stuff about the thousand points of light on Rather every night. That should get you out to pull the lever for the little Duke.

And if the thought of listening to the dreary rhetoric, cliched buzz words, being addressed as "my friends" and being told "that's what America is all about" for four years gives you cramps, get on down and pull George Bush's thing.

Whatever you decide--get off your duff and vote. No one'll miss you and you ain't getting any adds anyway!●

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

CABLE RADIO

Almost as long as there's been cable TV, FM radio stations have been carried on cable systems--as soundtracks to "public service" channel displays or as an FM band service for connection to FM tuners in the home.

In the last decade or so, various attempts have been made to profitably operate unlicensed FM stations on cable only--with a studio connected directly to the cable service. Some of these have proven modestly successful; others have failed. There has been at least one instance of a company offering multiple audio music services, in stereo, by satellite, to cable companies to distribute without commercials on their FM band. The FM band on cable TV has also been widely used to distribute stereo TV audio, an FM stereo signal from a local AM station (and provide nighttime service by a daytime station), and college radio stations which are not otherwise licensed to broadcast.

Now, the Northwest media advertising magazine Monthly reports in its September issue that the first real challenge by cable to commercial FM is coming from a company called Digital Radio Laboratories, Inc., located in the Los Angeles suburb of Carson. Collaborating in the effort are two New York companies: International Cablecasting Technologies, Inc., and General Instrument Corporation.

I've mentioned more than once in the past that radio is at an increasing technical disadvantage with commercial recordings, since CD's and Digital Audio Tape (DAT) are capable of recording sound with an enormously larger dynamic range (ratio of loudest to softest sound in the same recording) than either AM or FM radio is capable of, and with less noise and distortion than either. The broadcasting of the future will eventually have to find a way to digitalize itself, or FM ultimately may gain the same poor-audio-quality image that AM (rather undeservedly) has now.

The problem till now has been bandwidth. Both AM and FM would require more bandwidth than is legally permissible to transmit a high-speed, high fidelity digital stereo signal. Engineers have proven extremely ingenious in finding ways of compressing digital information into spaces previously thought to be too small, and I don't expect this to be a permanent problem. (Some form of phase modulation might work on FM, while maintaining the analog main channel, although it might interfere with the new FMX stereo transmission standard.)

However, Digital Radio Laboratories tested digital cable radio last month in the Los Angeles area--no word yet on the outcome--and apparently plans to start distributing the service nationally by satellite early in 1989. The plan is to offer sixteen channels of music, all digital. The cable subscriber would have to buy a $150 decoder box, and then pay several dollars a month premium fee, to receive it. There are certainly questions about how the channels will be programmed. However, this is the first time that cable would be able to call a proprietary radio service "obviously superior" to anything FM offers (at least in audio quality).

In "positioning" terms, all-digital radio is a real "position" which the consumer can understand and appreciate.

So radio has something new to watch and worry about, although for the present this sort of competitive situation would be limited to the in-home stereo receiver. Radio should remain dominant in automobiles, and in portable use, indefinitely--but fixed-location listening is where FM historically has had the greatest edge over AM radio, so FM would seem to have more to lose than AM from this new "digital radio" concept.●

PROMOTIONS

by Lisa Smith & Betty Hollars

SPOTLIGHT OF THE WEEK

NOT SO CHEAP TRICK ◀

Thousands of people in downtown Albany showed up at a promotion staged by WGFM to announce their new morning personality. The promotion began with ads being placed on billboards bearing one of three messages: "Meet Me At Center City Wednesday at noon - I'll Make It Worth Your While" and the ad ran again on Thursday and Friday. Each advertised day, a "mystery man" showed up in a white stretch limo and started giving away $2 bills. The third day, the streets were so flooded with people that by the time the limo showed up, the "mystery man" couldn't open the doors to hand out the money. Rumors about the "mystery man's" identity ranged from a crazed rich man to a political candidate, but a press conference the following Monday revealed it was WGFM's new deejay - Marc Mitchell.

DJ SURVIVES 48 HOUR BURIAL ▼

KKZR-Houston's Stan Scam survived a burial at a local Toyota dealership to benefit Muscular Dystrophy. Stan was placed in a hypnotic trance that allowed him to remain five feet underground in a custom-made coffin without food or water for 48 hours. A camera and telephone were placed inside the coffin to monitor the Scam-man's progress. The Toyota dealership donated $25 to the Muscular Dystrophy Association for each car sold during Stan's burial.

SUMMER JAM CHECKS ▲ PRESENTED

The fruits of their labor! The staff at KMEL-San Francisco recently distributed checks to some local charities from the monies raised at their "Summer Jam '88." The anti-crack concert, which drew a sold-out crowd of 20,000 and featured such artists as Pebbles, Brenda K. Starr and Vanessa

SUMMER PROMOTION ENDS IN PORSCHE GIVEAWAY ►

WHAS-Louisville personality Terry Meiners gets a crowd of over 500 people revved up at the start of the station's "Red Hot Porsche Giveaway." This was the grand finale of a summer long promotion, and the car was to be given to whichever of the 92 finalists held the key that started the Porsche, valued at over $32,000. The 73rd contestant was the winner, and the first thing he did was use the car phone to call his mother.

INSIDE URBAN

ALWAYS AT THE BIG APPLE

SHEENA EASTON seemed like an unlikely candidate for our Hot headline except that once again L.A. and Babyface used their midas touch and will promote her to heights she'll probably hit--the top of our chart. She's already this week's highest debut and I'd list the stations but there are 59 of them that have taken her to a 49% Hit Factor!! Another single getting major raves is LEVERT's "Pull Over": Rick Thomas, WCKX -Columbus, describes it as "different but bad (in the good sense) and getting all demos." Tony Wright, WJIZ-Albany, put it this way: "This hot record with tones of 'Cassanova' should do well on Urban radio." Kevin Morrison, WDKX-Rochester, called it "Another urban and dance smash from the Levert trio." Mike Archie, WHUR-Washington, says, "STETSASONIC is moving very well for us and I attribute its success to their change-of-pace style - it's great." Rocky Valentine, WHYZ-Greenville, likes the TONY! TONI! TONE! as much as we do,

KARYN WHITE - Superwoman

D.J. JAZZY JEFF & FRESH PRINCE -

KEITH SWEAT - Right & Wrong Way

ANITA BAKER - Priceless
Just Because

KIARA - Strawberry Letter 23

saying "A triple-threat Teddy Riley killer - I like it a lot and so do our listeners."

Tony Lype, WZFX -Fayetteville, agrees, and says "Baby Doll is right on line with Teddy Riley's previous efforts, which have been right on the money!" Andy Henderson, WQKI-St.Matthews, is one of many who is glad to have CHAKA KHAN back in the ranks: "It's been a long time and she should do well with this one."

Michael Burgess, WLIT-Conway, agrees with our choice of Record To Watch calling the NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK the "new kids headed for the top." Cedric Hollywood, WJHM-Orlando, likes the Z'LOOKE, and repeats "I expect it to go all the way to #1 in no time."

B.K.Kirkland, WIKS-New Bern, can't get enough of the D.J.JAZZY JEFF & FRESH PRINCE: "Teens are going wild for it--my phones are off the hook." And K.J. Holiday, WJDY-Salisbury, can't get enough of SAMANTHA FOX: "Great tune!" GEORGIO gets our Top Tip, with adds this week coming in from WFKX-Jackson, WTLZ-Saginaw, WVOI-Toledo, KJLH-Los Angeles, and it's already on WGSW-Greenwood, WYLD-New Orleans, KSOL-San Francisco, and KMEL-S.F. Thanks for the calls, especially for the valiant effort you're all making to get your lists done by Mondays, making less of a jam up on our Tuesday phone lines. We appreciate it. Ciao for now, Betty

EARTH WIND & FIRE - Turn On
(The Beat Box) (Columbia)

Turn on the biggest hits of Earth, Wind & Fire and this new single slips right in the folds of their hits of old. Good mix and great re-mix by Chris Lord Alge!

GARRY SHIDER - Beautiful (MCA)

If you received this and wondered if it was an urban artist, check the label out. It's written by Bootsy Collins/Mico Wave/Linda Shider, and produced by George Clinton. If that doesn't convince you, how about "from the LP 'George Clinton Presents Our Gang Funky?'" That Bootsy and Clinton sound dominates!

KIARA duet with SHANICE WILSON - This Time (Arista)

Not only does the instrumental track draw attention to these two young men's talents, the song "This Time," written by ex-Cameo's Charlie Singleton, lends even more credibility to their vocal talent. When the lovely voice belonging to Shanice Wilson is added, the result is marvelous to the ear.

RAPS TO CHECK OUT

K-9 POSSE - Ain't Nothin' To It (Arista)
TONE LOC - Loc'ed After Dark (Delicious Vinyl/Island)
TOO NICE - Two Can Play The Game (Arista)

MELBA MOORE - Love And Kisses (Capitol)

Melba has secured her position as one of the top female balladeers in Urban radio today. The past duet with Kashif went top 10 on our chart. This solo contains the right ingredients to make it another chart topper for Melba.

KENNY

A conversation in G Major

BY RON FELL WITH EDITORIAL ASSISTANCE FROM CYNDI HOELZLE

Kenny Gorelick was born and raised in a multi-cultural neighborhood of Seattle. Inspired by an unknown sax player on an Ed Sullivan TV show, Kenny became an accomplished saxophonist while still a teenager. By the time he began studying for a degree in accounting at the University of Washington he was picking up a lot more than spare change performing in bands with headliners such as Sammy Davis Jr., Liberace, Johnny Mathis and even in the pit band of Ringling Bros, Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Graduating from the U of W magna cum laude, Kenny spent nearly four years on sax in the progressive band Jeff Lorber Fusion. Kenny's unique and colorful playing led to a recording contract at Arista, with Lorber producing Kenny's first LP in 1982.

Three albums later, Kenny was working with producer Preston Glass. Their collaboration, Duotones, and its bounty of singles that includes the multi-format hit Songbird, brought Kenny G the critical and popular acclaim he now enjoys.

RF: The single "Songbird" really turned your career...

KG: Yes, we went from selling 400,000 to a million nine, just because of "Songbird."

RF: What are the Duotone album sales figures now?

KG: Worldwide over 3 million.

RF: Although you signed with Arista back in '82, it took five years to have a hit single. When you signed, were you expected to deliver hit singles or were they looking at you as an album artist?

KG: I don't think they expected any hit singles from me at first. I was coming off of a band that was already signed to Arista, Jeff Lorber Fusion, and Jeff Lorber hadn't really had any hit singles either. I was an offshoot of that band. In fact, the deal started out with Jeff Lorber being the producer and me being the artist — a production deal. They didn't expect me to sell tons and tons of records. I think that they just liked my sax playing, and thought that it was something that could develop into what we have now. I guess it was a good move.

RF: Was "Songbird" the first instrumental single released by the label?

KG: I don't know about that. I don't remember any other instrumental being released. I know Jeff Lorber's singles were all vocal stuff. And mine were vocals before "Songbird."

RF: You worked with Lenny Williams, Smokey Robinson--Is the inclusion of vocalists a concession to the demands of pop radio? How do you feel having vocalists on your product, in a sense competing with you?

KG: I think it depends on the type of song, and how it fits with the rest of the album. I enjoy vocal songs as long as they complement the instrumentals. On Duotones I think we finally got a good balance. It's a hard thing to do. Like you say, a vocal is automatically more accessible than an instrumental. If it fits with the context of the sound that you're going for in an instrumental album then it's fine. If it sticks out like a sore thumb then it's not. On Duotones we managed to get that blend. I like vocals on my albums when the blend is right because it breaks up my sax playing. The next time a song comes on with just the sax, it's appreciated more than it would be if it was just continuous instrumentals. I feel good about it now. I think it helps all the way around. I can tell that the live audience enjoys the show more when we put a vocal in now and then to break up the instrumentals. They like it better and I do too.

RF: Who does the vocals in your live show?

KG: Andre Montague, and he's one of the vocalists featured on the new album, along with Smokey Robinson.

RF: Was the saxophone you're first instrument?

KG: I started on piano. I took lessons when I was 6 years old and quit when I was eight, so I didn't really learn very much. I didn't like it. The next time I picked up an instrument it was the sax.

RF: I've read about ten different press releases that mention the story of you watching a sax player on the Ed Sullivan show. What's the story there?

KG: I don't know who the player was, but I do remember a guy standing up in a big band and taking a solo. It just looked like the guy was really having a good time. It was the first time I'd ever seen anybody really enjoy playing a musical instrument. I thought that was the ultimate, and I immediately turned to my mom and told her I wanted to play that instrument. And that's how I started. It was just an overwhelming natural attraction to the saxophone.

RF: The saxophone is a very lyrical, sexy instrument. When I interviewed Peter Cetera a few weeks ago, he said that he started on accordion as a way to pick up women. Do you find any magneticism coming from the saxophone?

KG: I think that the attraction women have to a saxophone is based on how it's played, and who's playing it. You can't just say that people are going to be attracted to whoever plays a saxophone. If it's played very emotionally and sensitively then it cuts through them. If it gets into their hearts. If it's played abrasively and insensitively then of course it doesn't. I didn't choose the saxophone so that I could get girls, that wasn't part of my thought process.

RF: How old is the saxophone?

KG: It's fairly modern, less than a hundred years old. My saxophones are about forty years old.

RF: Evidenced by the fact that your record is doing well on three Gavin charts--Jazz, A/A and A/C--means you're not typecast into one category.

KG: Well, as soon as I see anything that's typecast, I ignore it. I couldn't really tell you if I am typecast or not, because I ignore labels on my music. I think that's the best way to be. I don't enjoy labels, because certain people think they don't like certain music. It's like not liking a vegetable without ever tasting it. You think that there is no way you could eat a piece of sushi. But if you eat it and like the taste of it, then you can't say that you don't like sushi anymore. I don't want to be put into any one category, although I know that's really hard to do these days because everything is in categories. With instrumental music there are advantages and disadvantages. The disadvantages are that it is not as accessible, so you won't get as much commercial airplay.

RF: Although you certainly have gotten airplay.

KG: I have, yes. There are exceptions to this generalization. I am fortunate enough to be the exception these days. But in general that is the disadvantage.

The advantage of doing instrumentals is that they supersede every category, because it can be in a jazz, R&B, or pop format. "Songbird" is a perfect example of something that's done that. When an instrumental hits, you're glad that you have an instrumental. When it doesn't hit it's a little tougher.

RF: "Songbird" is one of two instrumentals that have been a hit in this decade that wasn't from a soundtrack of a movie, or TV show. Yet it certainly could have been written for a movie. What was the inspiration for "Songbird"?

KG: I met a girl about three years ago, and I was trying to figure out a way to tell her how I felt about her—to express myself. My letters were a poor second to my music, so I wrote the song in order to tell her what I was feeling about her. I lived in Seattle, she lived in L.A., and I wrote the song and sent it to her on a cassette, saying this is going to be my letter to you. She's my girlfriend now—she has been for the last three years. The title describes her.

INSIDE A/C

BREATHE locks up a number one with a 99% HIT FACTOR - two reports short of a perfect profile.

GEORGE MICHAEL leads in total stations with nine more than any other record. It's an amazing performance for a six week old single.

ELTON JOHN is between a rock and a hard place at number three as ANITA BAKER threatens to bump EJ in its quest for higher ground. ANITA gained 28 HEAVY rotation reports this week while CHICAGO climbs to a 99% HIT FACTOR. The squeeze in on.

BOY MEETS GIRL (a.k.a. George & Shannon) have a top ten for themselves after writing number ones for WHITNEY. Their HEAVY rotation profile increases by 33 A/C stations.

JOHNNY HATES JAZZ has climbed twenty ranking rungs the past two weeks and their HIT FACTOR has grown from 35% to 76% in that time.

The chart's most dynamic two-week growth pattern belongs to WILL TO POWER's FRAMPTON/SKYNRYD medley which has gained 136 A/C stations and a top twenty chart ranking since it was A/C RECORD TO WATCH on October 7th with just 22 believers. This week it's our number one MOST ADDED thanks to WAEB, WHTX, WAIV, WLMX, WRVA, WRFC, KOST, KEZR, KBOI, KKHT, KHLT and 30 more.

ROBERTA FLACK's "Oasis" picks up 26 adds and a healthy 22 on the chart to lead all the four-week old records. New this week for WMTR, WAHR, WZNY, WSER, WJTW/FM, KIDX/FM and WTRX etc.

Last week's TOP TIP, THE MOODY BLUES' "No More Lies" is this week's highest chart debut. It's number two in PLUS FACTOR with a 27% increase to 50%, with adds this week at WBLG, WTUN, WWDE, WGOL/FM, KEFM etc.

Our RECORD TO WATCH last week and this week's winner in PLUS FACTOR, RANDY NEWMAN's "It's Money That Matters" is going to benefit from an amazing video of the song and from its 12 adds this week including WDIF, KKOR, WJER, WJEH and serious rotations from WSKY, WMVQ, KYQT, WWMJ, WKCX, WTUN and WKYE.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, TIL TUESDAY's "(Believed You Were) Lucky," is being accepted by many A/C ears in just its second week since its release. With total reports of 43 and 14 new adds from KTID, KMCQ, 3WM, KRXL, WRFC, WNMB and WUVU to list a few, we think this is their luckiest A/C record so far.

AL JARREAU

So Good (Reprise)

Al Jarreau and A/C radio has always been synonymous. Al's smooth vocals and George Duke's sexy production have released a single that is sooo good it can't miss. Sax is definitely the "in" instrument these days.

PHIL COLLINS

Two Hearts (Atlantic)

First we had "Groovy Kind Of Love" (an old song made to sound new). Now we have "Two Hearts," (a new song made to sound old). PC and Lamont Dozier have written a Motownish ditty worthy of airplay. Its only negative is that the listener gets it as part of the Buster soundtrack album.

CROSBY, STILLS, NASH & YOUNG

American Dream (Atlantic)

Their sound was a staple to us in the early 70's and after pursuing individual careers this forsome is back together with a single that fits well into the 80's. Quite a few of you must agree because "American Dream" is third MOST ADDED this week.

STEVE WINWOOD

Holdin' On (Virgin)

This song proved to be one of the highlights of his recent concert tour. Reminiscent of "Freedom Overspill," it's energized and cranked up with audacious rhythm track almost over-souled for a white boy.

GLENN FREY

Soul Searchin' (MCA)

Glenn credits basketball's John Wooden with the lyrical inspiration of the song and it's arranged with a full-tilt gospel choir in a "People Get Ready" mode. Powerful stuff!!

BOBBY McFERRIN

Good Lovin' (EMI)

No, your turntable is not on 78. Bobby is just singing at full speed. If your playlist needs some punch "Good Lovin'" may be the musical Geritol of 1988.

INSIDE COUNTRY

THE ANSWERS WERE: We'd like to thank all the good folks at MJI Broadcasting, especially Laurie Sayres, for sponsoring the Gavin Country Quiz Trivia Contest. First of all, here's the answers to the four questions. Q-Can you name the singer whose home is named after the soft spot on a baby's head? A-Barbara Mandrell. Q-Can you name the singer who blames golf for wrecking his marriage? A-Willie Nelson. Q-Can you name the singer whose voice is so powerful she once nearly blew out electrical circuits during a recording session? A-Reba McEntire. Q-Can you name the singer who used to get his exercise by riding a lawnmower? A-George Jones. Now, the big news. The winner of our Trivia contest is CHRIS OLIVAREZ - KROP/BRAWLEY, CALIFORNIA Congratulations Chris, you are now the proud owner of a Casio Piano Sound AND a true Trivia King!

GAVIN SEMINAR UPDATE. It's not too soon to start planning to attend 1989's Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals. Our keynote speaker this year will be author and much sought-after speaker Tom Peters (In Search Of Excellence and Thriving On Chaos.) We'll be doing some share planning at the Country Session. The Seminar will be held on President's Day Weekend, February 17th and 18th. Keep reading Inside Country for future details.
STATION HAPPENINGS. More and more talk involving "Spelling On The Stone" on LS Records. KSAN-San Francisco's Carl Brown reports phones going wild over this record. They've based a promotion around the song, with morning drive personality Tom Benner contacting stations in other markets in a nationwide "Elvis Search." The station's gone so far as to offer a million dollars to the person who can produce the real, bonafide King at the station for a half hour on-air interview - offer expires November 10th. Kevin Chase at KRLC-Lewiston reports they premiered the record on the station's talk show and the phones "lit up like Christmas trees." Kevin adds, "We don't know how long the excitement will last, but as long as it's hot, we're playing it!"...WTNT-Tallahassee listeners thought they were hearing things, but it really was former Seminole Burt Reynolds who joined the station's Gene Deckerhoff and Vic Prinzi in the broadcast booth to assist in the play-by-play of the Florida State/East Carolina game...KTRW-Spokane's Tom Sherry is riding high after seeing the "Legends" concert with George Jones, Conway Twitty and Loretta Lynn, and highly recommends this concert to everyone...

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

LARRY BOONE - I Just Called To Say Goodbye Again (Mercury)

Larry sure knows how to belt out those heartbreak songs. This time around, he's calling just to hear the sound of her voice one more time. Bring out the handkerchiefs.

RANDY TRAVIS - Deeper Than The Holler (Warner Bros.)

When you team Randy up with a Paul Overstreet/Don Schlitz song, you've got just about as close to a guaranteed Country hit as you can find. This cut's already gotten a lot of play from the album, and should keep Country's reigning King atop his throne.

JIM LAUDERDALE - Stay Out Of My Arms (Epic)

The Bakersfield revival is on! This young buck was featured on the "Town South Of Bakersfield II" compilation, and Pete Anderson stayed on to produce Lauderdale's debut single for Epic.

JO-EL SONNIER - Rainin' In My Heart (RCA)

Jo-El brings his all to this 1960 Slim Harpo song, wailing on the lyrics and the accordion solos. The song builds to an emotional crescendo and then ends cold, leaving you crying for more. With this fourth single off of Come On Joe, Sonnier proves he can play any style of roots music.

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

THE HARPER BROTHERS (VERVE)

As with Terrance Blanchard, Donald Harrison and the traveling Marsalis family, Jazz radio strikes gold with the Harper Brothers' impressive debut recording. Born in the sixties and ranging in age from nineteen to twenty-six, all five members have played with their share of Jazz masters, maintaining an extremely high level of performance and acoustic awareness. An example of their deep respect for the tradition of Jazz exploration: they open their debut with a Lee Morgan composition. Somewhere in Jazz heaven, Morgan is smiling as Philip Harper teases the upper register of his trumpet as playfully as Morgan did in the funky old days. Thankfully the CD is almost an hour long. When it ends you find yourself hoping for more. What a future these players have in the Jazz world!

OUT HERE LIKE THIS...- THE LEADERS (BLACK SAINT/POLYGRAM)

After hearing a group of young lions like the Harper Brothers, it's an equal pleasure hearing a tight group of vets tearing it up. Recorded in a single day in a Paris recording studio, here's the line-up that does the damage: Lester Bowie on trumpet, saxophone assaults by Arthur Blythe and Chico Freeman, Kirk Lightsey on piano with Cecil McBee and Don Moye holding down the rhythm section. Leaders lead with an edge on track like Lester Bowie's Art Ensembling "Zero," Chico Freeman's "Luna" and Kirk Lightsey's "Donkey Dust."

PLAYS THE MUSIC OF CHICK COREA - ANDY LAVERNE (JAZLINE/DELTA)

With Andy LaVerne's Piano Lineage CD on DMP getting attention, more of his keyboard expertise has been revitalized from a session in 1986 where some rare writings of Chick Corea are uncovered. This completely digital recording starts with LaVerne's own tribute titled "Chick Corea," a striding work based on the rhythm of his name. The remaining material is largely unrecorded (except for Return To Forever's "You're Everything"), going from Corea's hand to LaVerne's analysis, then picked up by our personal lasers. Contact Jerry Stine at Delta, 213-479-0667.

NOT YET - ART BLAKEY AND THE JAZZ MESSENGERS (SOUL NOTE/POLYGRAM)

One of the finest accessors of young talent in Jazz, Art Blakey is also a major concert draw on the club circuit. I know because I've heard a couple of songs from the parking lot, which was as close as I could get to the club in my town. Not Yet was recorded in one single day in March of this year, which is either a testimony to the Messengers' abilities, Blakey's leadership qualities or the recording budget. If it's all three, the end result is still a superfine output with impressive sonic qualities. That's Harper Brother Philip Harper on trumpet, a fact that Rick Forest of WMOT alerted me to. It seems that Blakey is the common thread that runs through the work of Harrison/Blanchard, the Marsalis legacy and now the Harper Brothers Band. Not Yet proves that Art Blakey is still in the thick of Jazz innovation to the point of still matching the accomplishments of his proteges.

EVERYTHING'S DIFFERENT NOW - 'TIL TUESDAY (EPIC)

If Adult Alternative would look into this new 'Til Tuesday effort, perhaps they would find the performances of Aimee Mann to be quite soothing, contemporary, possibly supplying a hip edge on the competition. It's hard to imagine an intelligent female listener not relating to the stories of the heart that Mann so eloquently sketches. Obviously her fallen romance with songwriter Jules Shear is a center topic of discussion.

Shear even contributes the opening title track while Aimee dedicates the finest track, "J' For Jules" in loving retaliation. Roxy Music producer Rhett Davies prepares a fine audio spread that is strongly suited for adult ears used to high grade, heartfelt source material. "At The Other End (of the Telescope)" is co-written and co-sung by Elvis Costello. AA pioneers should check this one out. This is music that could fit into the AA radio art of being the intelligent alternative.

IN ANGEL CITY - CHARLIE HADEN QUARTET WEST (VERVE/POLYGRAM)

ETUDES - CHARLIE HADEN/PAUL MOTIAN/GERI ALLEN (SOUL NOTE)
I have many fond memories of Charlie Haden's music. The first avant garde Jazz album I ever bought was his Liberation Music Orchestra with Carla Bley. Atlantic's Ornette Coleman reissue CD, Shape Of Jazz To Come, is a stone classic and its rhythm section of Haden and Billy Higgins sounds almost rock-like to me. His Ballad Of The Fallen is a sensitive masterpiece. And so it goes. In Angel City Haden is fronting a foursome and concentrating on straight classic Jazz. But like Fallen, there's an underlying emotional theme. In this case Haden pays homage to Los Angeles in the '40s and '50s. I like "Sunday At The Hillcrest," "Blue In Green," Pat Metheny's "The Red Wind" and "Child's Play." Jazz programmers are also raving about Etudes, featuring drummer Paul Motian and pianist Geri Allen. Allen is a very hot talent indeed. Oddly enough, both CD's feature versions of Ornette's "Lonely Woman" (off the aforementioned Shape sessions), but the Etudes version wins hands down. Also check out "Blues In Motion," "Shuffle Montgomery" and the beautiful "Sandino."

RF: Do you overdub your sax parts, or do you actually play those long continuous lines?

KG: It's not overdubbed. That's me circular breathing, which is a way of breathing in your nose, while you are blowing out of your mouth and making the sax sound. You do both at the same time so you can keep going.

RF: How long can you keep it going?

KG: I've gone up to six minutes without stopping, but that's a big strain on your lips. When I play my shows, I hold a note for about three minutes, on "Silhouette."

RF: Is that on the single?

KG: On the single version you don't hear any circular breathing, but on the album version there are some real fast passages where I'm circular breathing. On the single edit I took off the real fast "jazzy" playing, because I thought that would be more appropriate on the album than on the single.

RF: What role did VH1 have in your career?

KG: We didn't know that VH1 would get so behind the "Songbird" video, because we made the video more or less as an afterthought. We had the instrumental, it looked like it might be getting a little notoriety, but at that point it wasn't thought of as a hit. The record company thought they could make something happen and of course I believed in the song too, but nobody thought it was going to do so well. We made the video and all of a sudden VH1 latched on to it and started to play it all the time. At the same time we were getting more airplay on radio.

RF: Last weekend VH1 had a Kenny G weekend. That must have been something.

KG: Yeah, that's usually saved for the big stars so I felt like I was somebody. It was fun.

RF: You've been making solo records since 1982. In what ways has the success you've gained changed you or the people around you?

KG: Obviously free time is non-existent. Now I'm very conscious of being efficient with my time. I never really thought about that too much before. I really consolidate my time, which I never used to do. Every day would have a little bit of business, a little bit of practice, a little bit of exercise. Now I do business one day, practice one day, exercise one day. That's one thing success has taught me. Fortunately I've taken success and used it positively and learned to appreciate my time. I'm working a lot harder than I used to, but I appreciate the fact that I can work.

RF: Where do you think your growth potential is?

KG: I like producing, but I'm not going to say that I want to give up playing and start producing. I'd like to do some movie soundtracks. I want to play on the Grammys. Those are my two conscious goals. Other than that, I want to keep doing what I'm doing. I'd like to keep playing my gigs. I really enjoy them.

RF: Do you want to get involved in producing other artists?

KG: I'm already producing some songs for Stevie Nicks' new album. That's the first time I've ever been asked to produce someone else's stuff. That's a new twist for me. It's fun, and I'm doing the best I can. I'm not an experienced producer, but I'm a sensitive musician so I think that the job of producer is to bring out the artist--not to push any external ideas on the artist. Being an artist, I know what I like to do in the studio and how I like people to talk to me and get the performance out of me. It doesn't help to say "do this, do that." It's more helpful to set up an environment that's so relaxed that the artist can just be herself or himself and then those good performances just come out. Working with Stevie Nicks I'm really trying to get her to the point where she's so comfortable that the real Stevie Nicks comes out. To me, if I can bring that out of her, that's satisfaction.

RF: Now that you've received such notoriety, are you turning down offers for session work?

KG: I did a lot of session work last year, maybe 14 sessions. It was a lot of fun. But now I don't want to do them because I don't want to saturate the market with my sax playing. I want to keep it for my own music.

RF: Do you learn a lot from working with other producers on session work?

KG: It depends on whether I'm attracted to a certain sound. Every producer works so differently. It's not something you can learn from doing session work in an hour or so. I come in, play a solo and I leave. But maybe I'll hear a certain sound that I like and I'll ask how they got that sound. But really, it's tough to get something out of two hours. You've got to be there for days and watch how a guy produces.

RF: You had an underdog status before "Songbird" came out.

Arista was behind you--I thought they were crazy, I would never have given the record a chance in Top 40. You've broken some ground, not only for yourself but for other instrumentalists. I think they owe a debt...

KG: That's exactly what I try to say when the "traditional jazz" critics give me such a hard time about the kind of music that I do. I get them giving us bad reviews at the jazz festivals that we play. I try to explain to these guys--you may not like the kind of music that I do, and you may not think it's really jazz, but it has opened up doors. A lot of people wouldn't listen to instrumental music before, and if they listen to and like my music, maybe they'll move on to a John Coltrane album. I think that fact is overlooked by the people who do not think my music is legitimate. I'm not going to lie and say I'm not glad it's me that is opening up the doors because I am glad. I've been able to do it with a lot of help. It's flattering when younger sax players tell me they got a record deal because the company wanted another album like mine.

THEY MIGHT BE GIANTS

MINISTRY

STAY AWAKE

"ORANGE CRUSH" - REM (WARNER BROS.)

REM enter a new phase of their careers with a label change while the band's left-of-center maverick approach is safely intact. They seem to be neither pushing soda pop or a Denver Bronco offensive rush. Instead they maintain the practice of obscure lyrical references, symbols and cymbals with a red-hot instrumental bed. Turn up, but be careful. The mix is muy caliente.

"I'M SORRY" - HOTHOUSE FLOWERS (LONDON/POLYDOR)

Aside from including the new single, "I'm Sorry," this Euro CD single contains two acoustic Hothouse numbers including a rendition of "Don't Go." Not surprisingly, the band sounds quite natural inside acoustic surroundings. "I'm Sorry" is also a solid follow-up that should propel their hot debut into the Christmas season.

REACH FOR THE SKY - RATT (ATLANTIC)

More Ratt n Roll from this pop metal band of rodents. If "Way Cool Jr." sounds like an Urban/Contemporary rap song, give it a spin and meet your fate 'cause it just isn't so. The biggest change in Ratt's direction is the inclusion of a horn section on a few prime trax. Besides "Way Cool Jr.," "Don't Bite The Hand That Feeds" and "What's It Gonna Be" rock the old Ratt way, safely away from what Geraldo Rivera might consider inspired by Satan.

"BLUEPRINT" - RAINBIRDS (MERCURY/POLYGRAM)

Rainbirds claim to have gotten their name from a Tom Waits song on Swordfish Trombone (not to be confused with Raindogs). Tom Waits probably had American lawn sprinklers in mind. Whatever, Rainbirds are a terrific band hailing from Germany. They have a marvelous lead singer in Katharina Franck, a 24 year-old self described "junk-vegetarian." The twelve inch alone has two versions of "Blueprint" and four additional trax, some non-LP songs. Jam the longer version of "Blueprint."

ROCK HARD - THE PANDORAS (RESTLESS)

Weren't the Pandoras once flirting with day-glo and paisleys? Well, now it's leather, studs and fishnets. And speaking of studs, just as the Kiss and Ratt boys sing of their conquests, these Pandoras steam things up with some R-rated innuendos of their own. Now who can resist numbers like "Six Times A Day," "He's Coming" and especially "Close Behind," an intimate metal ode to tailgating?

IF MY ANCESTORS COULD SEE ME NOW - IVAN NEVILLE (POLYDOR/POLYGRAM)

It's reassuring to see Ivan Neville's music heartily embraced on the Album Radio level, even by those unaware of his Neville Brother heritage. The son of crooner supreme Aaron Neville, Ivan forges his own type of music that's, fortunately, not easy to pigeon-hole. Far removed from his New Orleans environment, Ivan leaves the nest reinventing a more modern version of Uncle Art's funky-knuckle philosophy. Trax: "Not Just Another Girl" and "Falling Out Of Love" with guest vocalist Bonnie Raitt. KZ

JOE SATRIANI

DREAMING #11 - JOE SATRIANI (RELATIVITY)

In last week's presstime rush, I neglected to mention a hot live track called "Memories." An extended and expressive piece, Joe digs deep, wailing much like a Jazz player, leaving his body and the planet for a rich musical excursion. Check it out.

MY NATION UNDERGROUND

MY NATION UNDERGROUND - JULIAN COPE (ISLAND)

As the inner notes seem to suggest, My Nation Underground is a poetic flashback soundtrack running through one horrid dream. Julian Cope has always been, shall we say, quite psychological in his approach. This time he successfully combines many elements of '60s British pop music with his unique brand of pop psychology. Using a collection of vocal and instrumental moods borrowed freely from many eras and time zones, MNU uses a host of available resources including string arrangements and acoustic bass ("China Doll"), pop/soul jamming ("My Nation Underground" and "The Great White Hoax") and trampoline rocking ("Easter Everywhere"). Take your time with this one. It will take a few listens to appreciate the depth and imagination of the arrangements.

INSIDE ALBUM

AROUND THE HORN. John Aguilar of WFRD asked the magic question, "Why is there so little being said about 'Til Tuesday's new album." Good question, John. There were quite a quality bunch of fans of the last 'Til Tuesday, especially the track "Coming Up Close." Though that album didn't have the retail impact of the "Voices Carry" album, the production by Rhett Davies raised a few eyebrows. This year's Everything's Different Now will please those who found solace in the sonic ambience of 'Til Tuesday's previous work. As for its lack of "AOR" appeal, whoever said that was a complete liability? Give it a listen.

WATERBOYS. When Genia Horton brought me the tape and album cover art of the Waterboys' latest, Fisherman's Blues, I almost forgot that we promised Kevin Sutter we'd wait a week on the lead album review. So look out next week for the new Waterboys album. It's two years in the making. With all this Irish and Scottish music penetrating the airwaves, don't be surprised if the ethnocentricity of this new album lights a few fires. Look out for the track "And A Bang On The Ear." There'll be a review in next week's Gavin, the same one I was dying to run this week...Dave Logan at KFOG checks in to mention that CSNY, added out-of-the-box debuted as their Most Requested. I was particularly interested in #4 Most Requested, Ivan Neville. You see, San Franciscans have been known to have excellent taste, even if Geraldo Rivera, aka Gerald Rivers, may think we're the kook capitol of the world.

THE CARTER-MAN RAVES. Carter over at WBCN wants to put out the word on two regional acts that are breaking towards being national curiosities - Scruffy The Cat and Big Dipper. "These are two fantastic records. You gotta hear 'Ron Klaus Wrecked His House' by Big Dipper." Our Alternative Ace, Peter Standish, adds that Scruffy can be found on Relativity while the Dipper boys are on the Homestead label...After doing well on the Sunday Night alternative show on KJKJ-Grand Forks, Bob Wayne is adding Edie Brickell & The New Bohemians as a full timer to test the legs of "What I Am"...As the pain subsides a little, KATS/FM's Scott Souhrada reminds us all that HE picked the Dodgers to go all the way from the very start. I still say, death to the boys in blue. Oakland will be back and next time we'll bring our bats...Melissa Etheridge's new track is also KBCO's number one Most Requested. Ginger Havlat sites her recent live KBCO broadcast as added listener incentive.

THOUGHTS WHILE SHAVING. Who would have thought it true twenty years ago? On the way home I noticed that Jerry Garcia will be playing the Lake Tahoe California/Nevada gambling circuit ballroom. Now is the gambling community of Lake Tahoe ready for an invasion of Deadheads? Will Elektra's Mark Cohen make the trek? Is Jerry Garcia now in the chips?

THOUGHTS ABOUT TOMMY CONWELL. Tommy Conwell, on his first West Coast trip, took some time to drop in and visit the troops at the Gavin. Astonishingly, Tommy took the office guitar resting and proceeded to bang out a note-for-note version of Charlie Parker's "Ornithology" (or did Dizzy Gillespie write that?). Anyway, the kid sure can play. When asked, "How come we don't know you're such a great guitar player? What are you going to do on your next album?" Conwell replied sheepishly, "Play more guitar." You heard it hear. Stay well. Yer pal, KZ.

OUT-OF-THE-BOX CLUB PART 7 DREAMING #11 - JOE SATRIANI (RELATIVITY)

Joe Satriani knows how to wring out those notes from his Ibanez six string. As KLOL's David Sadof put it, "We go one whole century without a "Crush" song and this week we get two—Joe Satriani and R.E.M." So with nary a minute's hesitation, there goes KLOL along with KLAQ, KPGA, KOME, KBCO, KSJO, WDHA, KXFX, KKTU, KFOG, WSMI, WNEW/FM, WKXL, WFRD, KQWB/FM, KILO and WXRT. Not a bad start, eh?

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

The top five are in a deep freeze this week, but expect a thaw soon with That Petrol Emotion, They Might Be Giants, Ministry and the Stay Awake Disney Music Compilation. They Might Be Giants is moving fast for Greg "Las" Vegas-WXCI ("Big jump to #2"), Brian Davis-WDCR ("Getting bigger and bigger") and Jennifer MacLellan-WRUV. The Stay Awake Compilation is HOT and not allowing any sleep for Chris Crowley-WUSB, Charlie Turner-WKXE and Kakie "Alternative In Your Face" Urch-WRFL. Voice of the Beehive, Richard Thompson and Camouflage are quickly gaining momentum and are clearly Top Ten contenders. The Jack Rubies are gaining new stations each week, including Michael Brousseau-WUSM. Julian Cope was this week's highest debut and third Most Added release. Julian is drawing instant response from Patrick Ferrise-WVU, Helen Urriola-WFIT and Kim Saade-WRAS ("#5 Most requested"). Steve Earle is growing steadily and is poised to make a big move on the chart as more programmers spend time with the album. Keep a star-gazing eye on Big Dipper, who were added by Carter Alan-WBCN and are drawing raves from Josh "Onion Soup" Rosenthal-WCDB ("I pity any college station not playing it") and John Koski-

WRVU. It was no surprise that Alternative staples REM tops the Most Added category, debuting as our Top Tip. Look for them to break into the Top Ten next week.

ODDS AND ENDS...A few records lurking just below Chartbound and Import/Indie include Laibach, who Paul Krieger-KRCK claims as his current favorite. Trip Shakespeare is getting plenty of attention from Beth Hoepner-WUOG and Mark Miller-KABL ("Huge airplay, requests and sales"). What do Ron Fell and Dave Gottlieb-KFJC have in common? They both love the new Cameo album. Crossfire Choir is the WICB stinger of the week for Andrew Moss. Ivar "Good Day Eh?" Hamilton-CFNY has gone off the deep end over the new Waterboys import album (domestic next week). Ivar points out that the first side is primarily contemporary music, while side two takes a traditional Irish folk angle. The band's only two remaining original members are Mike Scott and Anthony Thistlethwaite. Ivar's favorite track? "We Will Not Be Lovers." Don't forget to VOTE on Tuesday!!!

THE LILAC TIME

HERE'S WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

THE GUARDIAN

Itchingly attractive rustic pop.

MELODY MAKER

"Quietly delightful all the way. I know that Duffy was the sort who could saunter along and make all those modern-day song-writers look like the twits they always were. . . . only two songs in and he's persuaded you already. . . . Full marks to the chap."

SOUNDS

Now the Sounds Review: "bloody marvellous"

NME

It's a lesson in true song-writing . . . if Duffy and The Lilac Time can keep producing work of the standard on this debut album they could enjoy enormous success . . . there is still a need for songs which concentrate on the head and the heart rather than the feet and the groin and which acknowledge the rich legacy of acoustic pop. (8 out of 10).

MUSIC WEEK

The simple sparseness of it all allows his lyrical genius to really shine on a classic piece of acoustic pop.

RECORD MIRROR

The songs on their LP are some of the best real songs you'll hear this year.

BLITZ

The album is a beautiful and delicately strange foray into the backwater that is folk rock.

YOU'VE GOT TO LOVE THEM ...IT'S DAFT NOT TO!

The first import single "Return to Yesterday" 3 "B" sides arrives October 31st.

Look for the lp "The Lilac Time" (836 744-1-2-4) in November.

NEW RELEASES

"God's Will" - DARDEN SMITH (EPIC-12")

By opening for bands like the Pogues, Darden Smith has been shaking his strictly "Country Music" label. Darden attempts to fuse two potentially different audiences into one, made up of fans who share an appreciation of exciting new quality music, which really is the true definition of Alternative music. Originally released on Darden's most recent album, "Darden Smith," this live rendition of "God's Will" is a foot-stomping acoustic ballad that Darden sings with conviction. The B-side "Talk To Me" isn't quite as rowdy but is just as good. Both songs are a great way to get re-aquainted with (or introduced to) one of '88's most exciting "new" artists. As Alternative radio looks to expand its musical horizons they should look to stylistic diversification rather than just deeper within the garage-band or European post-punk sound. Rap, reggae and African artists have been knocking away at the Alternative doorway. Lets hope that programmers remain open minded towards quality music whose roots are based in this country, too.

THE LILAC TIME
RETURN TO YESTERDAY

"Return To Yesterday" - THE LILAC TIME
(Fontana/Phonogram UK-EP)

It's ironic to listen to a British band that, at times, sounds more American roots-oriented than many bands in our own back yard. The Lilac Time are very modest and unimposing in comforting acoustic music that lulls you into a peaceful state with a gentle rhythm section and carefully arranged strings. The upbeat "Return To Yesterday" and somber "Reunion Ball" are the best off this four song EP.

PERSONAL I K

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MICHELLE SHOCKED - Anchorage
(Mercury/PolyGram)

It was July 1987 when Michelle appeared on the cover of our new artists issue, before she had signed with an American label. It hasn't taken long for word to spread about this brilliant twenty five year old singer/songwriter from Texas. Top 40 radio proved the commercial viability of Suzanne Vega and Tracy Chapman. Could Michelle Shocked be far behind? It's election time and I'm campaigning for this one.

PHIL COLLINS - Two Hearts (Atlantic)

He never fails to produce those hot intros that radio loves. Here comes the second single from the soundtrack of a movie that has yet to be released in the U.S. On this effort Phil recruits Lamont Dozier of Holland, Dozier, Holland fame to get those hearts beating and feet tapping.

DEF LEPPARD - Armageddon It
(Mercury/PolyGram)

Just when you thought it was safe to file away the "Hysteria" LP among the greats of 1988, here's one more track to carry us through the holiday season. While sales continue to go through the roof, you can count on Santa delivering a lot more copies Christmas morning. Another outstanding chorus.

FAIRGROUND ATTRACTION - Perfect
(RCA)

It was Elton John who first promoted me on this group during an interview in late June. He turned me on to a copy of the import CD and this song won me over right away. The perfect hook to attract the attention of Top 40 and A/C listeners.

MARTIKA - More Than You Know
(Columbia)

Put on your dancin' shoes for this latin flavored entry. It's no doubt inspired by Producer Michael Jay, who's worked with Miami Sound Machine among others, and Martika herself, a young Cuban American who also co-wrote the tune. It's catchy, and after hearing it on KIIS's new music hour recently I can say it sounds super on the radio.

STEVE WINWOOD - Holding On (Virgin)

These days it's impossible to listen to any contemporary music station for very long without running into one of his songs. Even with all that exposure, Winwood's music holds up remarkably well. He knows adults like to rock and once again he gives them a reason to turn up the volume.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

MIKE + THE MECHANICS - Living Years
(Atlantic)

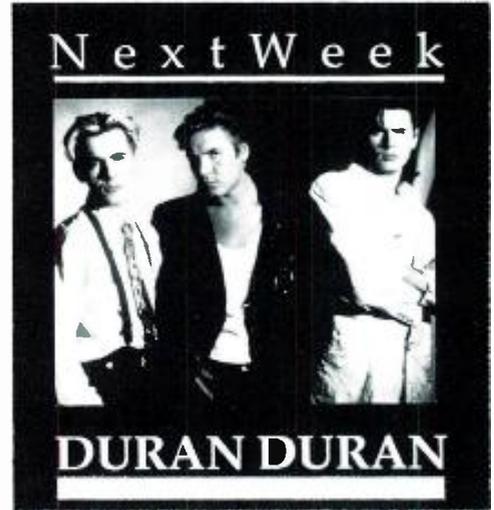

I assume Mike Rutherford has been through some sort of Human Potential program recently, as his lyric is becoming noticeably intra-personally spiritual, moralistic, optimistic and righteous. But thankfully it never strays into the musical forum of folk poetry. Mike's thoughts never get caught up in dire dirges or pompous playettes, yet they hit you between the ears. The group's debut album, released coincidentally enough three years ago this week, was a relatively passive set compared to this more energetic collection. Side one, for those of you who still audition vinyl, is the dominant side. The lead single, NOBODY'S PERFECT, paces the set and visa versa. It's followed by a thoroughly inspirational, full-bodied production piece, THE LIVING YEARS, an outrageous audio/visual song, SEEING IS BELIEVING and a wonderful could-have-been love song, NOBODY KNOWS. Hopefully THE LIVING YEARS and

NOBODY KNOWS will see the light of day as singles after NOBODY'S PERFECT runs its course.

ROBERTA FLACK - Oasis (Atlantic)

I'm such a fan of Roberta's that I was starting to take her long absence from the wacky world of music personally. Roberta never rocks the boat, but her music makes waves none the less. (Something about still waters running deep.) Roberta always seems to take a maternal approach to the songs she chooses to sing and chooses warm, cosey, homey love songs, decorated with subtle production elements of arrangement. Strings and keyboards never collide with heartbeat rhythms. The slow songs on the album drain the emotional bucket dry. The moderately paced ones are practical pop songs with soul seasoning. While the whole album tracks consistently, the singles will come from the first side. OASIS is already happening. SHOCK TO MY SYSTEM can't miss and UH-UH OOH-OOH LOOK OUT HERE IT COMES is also special. If an oasis is an attractive parcel in an otherwise parched landscape, then Roberta's re-debut album and single are aptly titled. Oasis is a verdant, bountiful garden of audio delights.
