GAVIN

Here's the deal: There never was a San Francisco sound. There was more an attitude than a cohesive musical trademark, and that attitude isn't so different from what drives other musical communities today. It's an openness to musical adventure; an interest in art forms beyond song; a sense of community with fellow musicians; a desire for independence while, at the same time, keeping an eye out for a chance at commercial success. As musicians gather for our SF01, we visit three bands that, each in their own way, typify what the Bay Area scene is all about. Huey and the News represent the children of the '60s scene; a band that hit the top in the '80s and, after a hiatus is back at it again, rocking through a time machine to Four Chords and Several Years Ago. Counting Crows are the hottest new band in town, an A&R fable come true, and great writers and musicians to boot.

And, representing the next edge, we have Tarnation, who've put out discs of their own and, along with the Crows, will be performing during SF01. In News, big changes are afoot at two high-profile stations: A3 pioneer KBCO-Boulder, where consultant Dennis Constantine (Top), is helping fill one of several suddenly-empty slots, and KOME-San Jose, where KROQ's Kevin Weatherly (above, right) has entered the scene. On the GO Charts, we find Sheryl Crow, Primal Scream (above), and Pink Floyd on the go.

DJs Meet Press, Get Dismissed

BY BEVERLY MIRE

Be careful what you say to the press.

WBBM/FM morning drive personalities Joe Bohannon and Ed Volkman learned that the hard way. The two popular disc jockeys were fired last week after telling a Chicago Sun Times reporter that the station reached a settlement in the defamation of character suit lodged against them by local TV anchor Joan Esposito. WBBM/FM vice president and general manager Tom Matheson says that no settlement has been reached.

On a March, 1993 show, Bohannon and Volkman commented on the death of Esposito's husband and repeated a false rumor about the paternity of her then-unborn child. Esposito slapped the personalities and WBBM with a lawsuit claiming defamation of character, invasion of privacy and emotional distress. Two weeks ago Bohannon and Volkman told the Sun Times' Bill Zwecker the case had been settled. On May 10 they were "relieved of their responsibilities."

The WBBM case is being watched because lawyers say the DJs went too far in repeating a false rumor, but TV news anchors are considered public figures, so it may be difficult to prove libel. "It's a high burden (of proof), but it is and can often be met," said Chicago attorney Paul Levy.

Ness, Chong Close To OKs for FCC

With the Senate Commerce Committee having approved their appointments, attorneys Susan Ness and Rachele Chong are a Senate vote away from joining the FCC.

Ness, a Democrat, and Chong, a Republican, breezed through a confirmation hearing May 10 before the Communications Subcommittee, whose chair, Sen. Daniel Inouye (D-HI), endorsed the nominees.

However, when Chong referred to broadcasters' responsibilities to serve the public interest, Sen. John Danforth (R-MO) lit into the industry. "They don't, do they?" he said, interrupting the San Francisco attorney and rolling into an attack on TV. "The main fare we are being served up is sleaze. Sex and violence, violence and sex—whatever it takes to make a buck."

A full Senate vote on Ness, who is based in Washington, D.C. and Chong is expected imminently, if not sooner.

KROQ-Los Angeles program director Kevin Weatherly came north for a brief stay last week to orchestrate the changeover of former album station and Infinity sister KOME-San Jose, Calif. Weatherly says he will oversee the station's programming, but that Ron Nenni and Jay Taylor will be in charge of the station's day-

Exodus at KBCO; A<sup>3</sup> Battle Looms

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

PD Doug Clifton has resigned, and he was followed by programming assistant Sue Hempstead, senior sales executive Deb Fox and local sales manager Sue Duffy.

The repercussions set A<sup>3</sup>'s rumor mill into overdrive. The departing crew, it's being whispered, will resurface at a new 100,000 watt station (the same power as KBCO) in nearby Evergreen, Colorado. However, sources at SBR, who will consult the new station, have denied Doug Clifton's hiring or that a format has even been assigned to the new signal.

What we know is this: Consultant Dennis Constantine will be serving in some sort of interim PD capacity while KBCO searches for a replacement.

A new, locally-owned station will debut in mid-June or July on 96.5, not far from KBCO's position at 97.3. Sources say that the new signal might actually be more Denver-friendly than Boulder-bound. No call letters have been assigned. The General Manager will definately be Ray Skibitsky, formerly of KBCO and currently a part of the SBR Radio Company, the A<sup>3</sup> consulting firm that also includes partners John Bradley and Dave Rahn.

Dennis Constantine

"I'm remaining with SBR, although obviously during the next year my role there will change," Skibitsky told GAVIN. "My background is in progressive radio, but above that, I'm responsible to Evergreen Communications (no relation to Evergreen Media Corporation), so whatever format we adopt will be a business decision."

"I don't know why we need to have all this cloak-and-dagger stuff," KBCO GM Dino Ianni told the Denver Post this week. "It amazes me he's being so coy. Given the background of all the people involved, it's more than apparent they will develop a station that will go right up against us."

"I have hired sales people from KBCO," says Skibitsky, "but I haven't hired Doug Clifton. I'm not sure someone like Doug Clifton will come aboard should we decide to take this thing Country. We're still exploring our options."

SBR's Rahn denies any potential rivalry. "We see this as a great opportunity for SBR to be involved [in a new station] and for Ray to be involved on a local level."

Rahn was also adamant about not naming a format. Dennis Constantine says, "Best format guess: AAA or Alternative."

Rahn confirms that Skibitsky will remain on board with SBR even though his absence has already been filled by Dave Benson (ex-WLUP) who was recently hired at SBR due to an ever-increasing demand to "fill things out on the programming side."

"Ray's name stays on the letterhead," Rahn emphasized, "And the team is still very much together."

Weather's Fine in San Jose

to-day operations. According to Weatherly, the station's new focus is current rock. They'll play Pearl Jam and Candlebox, but won't be afraid to throw in Aerosmith and Tom Petty.

"We watched the ratings slide over the last year," Weatherly told GAVIN. "We decided that it needs to return to what it was 20 years ago, a cutting-edge rock station."

Nenni, Taylor and Weatherly are counting on morning personality Howard Stern to establish himself as a dominant force in the market. The station is operating on automatic pilot, but Weatherly says there'll be live jocks on the scene in the near future.

While he wouldn't name a direct competitor, market insiders say that LIVE 105-San Francisco, whose "Rock of the '90s" penetrates the San Jose market, and crosstown KSJO, a long-time Album Rocker, are KOME's likely targets. Weatherly profiles the station's listener as 18-30 males and females.

The Not-So-Big Six-Ten

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

At interviews for my book, I get asked: What do you think about radio?

The short answer, I say, is that it sucks. (On book tours, you gotta think soundbites.) A longer answer is that a listener can still find good radio, but he or she has to look for it. With the fragmentation of music and formats, a fan of a specific music is likely to find a station serving it up in generous portions, but those with more eclectic tastes, or who happen to like music of both today and yesterday, have a more daunting task.

But the short answer sticks with me. It's not as glib as it is curt, and I was wondering why it came so quickly to me when I began to think about local radio.

San Francisco has had a rich radio heritage, and I'm lucky to have come along in time to enjoy it at its best. The early Top 40s: KOBV, KYA (with Bill Drake a morning jock and, later, Tom Donahue in the lineup); KEWB (with Gary Owens and Casey Kasem), and, in the mid-'60s, the Drake era of KFRC, "The Big Six-Ten." There was KSFO, "The World's Greatest Radio Station" with Don Sherwood, Al "Jazzbeaux" Collins and company. There was KSAN and KDIA dispensing R&B, owning much of the young audience until KSOL came along, its DJs including the so-slick Sly Stone. Then came FM, a revolution Donahue was quick to exploit, on KMPX and a whole new KSAN, with longhair jocks including fellow Top 40 emigres Tony Pigg, Ed Mitchell, Bob McClay, and Bobby Dale.

What times.

And now? Thanks to the Reagan administration and its FCC, the radio landscape is entirely changed. Today, duopoly has got listeners reeling, and new owners combine old rivals and pull call-letter switches with abandon. KYA, a classic set of call letters, is no more; KSOL, once a Dance Top 40 force, is now a hot Urbanized A/C. KSFO, which went Oldies, is now a talker, but may soon be bought by the News-Talk champ, KGO.

And then there's KFRC, which has evolved into an Oldies outlet.

For a whole generation of Top 40 people and fans, KFRC was a legendary set of call letters, a gold-star entry in any DJ's resume, a credit to radio.

Today, it's the station that's had to apologize to its local gay and lesbian communities for a remark made by its morning DJ, and then, a couple days later, had to issue another apology to Asians for a comment by the other half of the morning team. Because the station issued its apologies in press conferences, people are additionally suspecting that the inflammatory remarks and the mea culpas are publicity plays.

Hard to believe that KFRC, whose station manager is David Bramnick, a progressive-thinking man whose dossier includes sales stints at KFOG and the free-form KSAN, would want media attention of the sort it's received.

But it's also hard to understand why he's put together the morning show he has. Its anchor is Gary Bryan, a polished pro who's run stations as well as shows in New York, the Northwest, and San Francisco. But Bryan, a low-key sort, is overwhelmed by a gaseous newscaster-turned-commentator, J. Paul Emerson. Early in their coupling, there was a woman traffic-sidekick who was part of the team, but Bryan and Emerson were so overbearing that she got blown out and into another shift, where she's doing fine, thank you. So it's down to Bryan and Butt-Head (a name Emerson freely pins on others).

Ask Bramnick why he's done what he's done, and you get a quick lesson in radio thinking, circa 1994.

"It's a little against the grain," he begins. The challenge, he says, is the music. Oldies. "What do you do with the music?" he asks rhetorically. "It'll just turn into the 'Music of Your Life,' and our demos will turn to 55-plus."

The idea, then, is to give the audience more than the usual '50s-'60s mix. The idea is personality. "Kind of like KSFO," he said, referring to the KSFO of the Sherwood era.

Aside from the fact that, with this morning show, Bramnick is going after 18-34 ears while programming 35-54 music, he's nowhere near his model.

KSFO was inventive, creative, funny; a reflection of San Francisco in all its diversity of that time: Cosmopolitan, Bohemian, liberal, fun-loving. It ruffled feathers, certainly, but it worked clean.

The new KFRC, airing air-headed venom in a time already riddled with hate crimes, sexual violence, and the horrifying return of Nazi fascism, shrugging off initial listener complaints; letting Bryan and Emerson go without discipline, is none of that. It stands exposed as a desperate station.

KFRC's case may seem singular, but it's not alone. Around the country, radio stations, whether in a comfortable, niche format or doing battle in Album, A/C, Country or Urban jungles, are resorting to whatever they think it takes to win. Going to extremes is nothing new, of course; what's new is how high the stakes have gotten, and how low some will stoop to come out on top.

To those who win, at the expense of honor, goodwill, and the legacy of their stations and all those who worked under their call letters, the question is: Is it worth it?

Really?

Roses for Rosen: She Heads RIAA

Hilary Rosen has been named President/COO of the Recording Industry Association of America, becoming the first woman to preside over the RIAA.

Rosen fills the vacancy created when Jay Berman was upped to chairman/CEO last December, and her appointment paves the way for Berman to focus on the international marketplace.

"Jay has gotten more involved in recent years in the international programs as so much of the growth of the companies we represent will be based on international sales," says Rosen.

Rosen has been with the RIAA for seven years. "(She) has demonstrated an uncanny ability to navigate her way through both the halls of Congress and our industry," says Berman. "She has often taken the lead in building important coalitions within the music community that have served it well."

Nashville Tips: 'It Has to be a Hit'

BY CYNDI HOELZLE

The third annual Music Row Industry Summit in Nashville last week attracted 434 registrants, many of whom were Nashvillians interested in learning more about the music industry.

At Friday's all-day radio forum, RCA's Mike Wilson detailed all the factors that go into promoting a record, and Mercury's Anne Weaver talked about the pre-promotion that went into the John & Audrey Wiggins project, saying, "It has to be a hit record, or no matter how much showcasing you do, it's not going to work."

Responding to the oft-heard complaint that consultants shouldn't play God, BP Programming's Jay Albright responded, "Hopefully we got to be consultants because we're smart enough to know that there is no one right answer."

Nancy Shapiro received the 1994 Founder's Award for her work with NARAS, and several members of the music community were honored at the Awards Banquet. Song of the Year went to Mary-Chapin Carpenter and Don Schiltz's "He Thinks He'll Keep Her," Pam Tillis' "Cleopatra, Queen Of Denial" won Video of the Year, Martina McBride earned Breakthrough Artist Video honors for "My Baby Loves Me," Lee Roy Parnell received the Breakthrough Songwriter award, Wynonna's "Girl With Guitars" won Album Cut Of The Year, and Alison Krauss earned the award for Independent Artist Of The Year.

Top TAN Lists, Dude!

To celebrate David Letterman's visit to its city, the Los Angeles Times sponsored a contest to elicit the "Top 10 Reasons Why David Letterman Should Move The Late Show to L.A.—Permanently."

Among winning entries from readers was this line, from Jay Fukuzawa of Monterey Park, which landed in the Number Three slot:

"Hello, my name is Howard Stern, governor of New York."

Crenshaw Writes the Book on Rock 'n' Reels

BY DAVID BERAN

Rock and roll and movies have shared a fabled, sometimes tempestuous relationship, and musician/writer Marshall Crenshaw has written a guide to 1,200 such marriages. Hollywood Rock (HarperPerennial, $15) hopes to be the definitive tome on films that have rock and roll as an "essential, indispensable element," and it features everything from narrative films with artist performances to concert documentaries.

Crenshaw's music and acting background make him the perfect candidate to pen this book. Best known for his 1982 near-hit "Someday, Someway," he also appeared in the stage production of Beatlemania, portrayed Buddy Holly in La Bamba, produced a Thieves album and has written music articles and liner notes.

Crenshaw acknowledges that "any project of this scope necessarily involves the efforts of many people," and there is an impressive and diverse list of reviewers including Rolling Stone contributing editor Michael Goldberg and wrestling manager Johnny Legend. The text alphabetically lists movies like American Graffiti and Yellow Submarine and rates them in the areas of music, attitude (reviewer's appraisals) and fun (overall entertainment value). The book compiles specific scenes, cameos, lines and songs performed in the films as well as Rock Actors Filmography, Concert Films & Rockumentaries and Performer Index sections.

Initial work on the book began about a year ago, and although it was finished in November, 1993 there was fine-tuning right up until the end. "My favorite response is that people think it's funny," Crenshaw told GAVIN. "Another thing I learned is that there are a lot of people out there who are totally obsessed with movies."

Crenshaw espouses a special fondness for certain discoveries. The documentary Dean Reed: An American Rebel traces the story of musician Reed who, after a flailing career in the States, moved to the Eastern bloc and found mega-stardom as a socialist singer. "It's nearly impossible to see that film, but I managed to," said Crenshaw. The Roger Ebert-written, Russ Meyer-directed camp classic Beyond The Valley Of The Dolls holds a special fascination for Crenshaw. "I never knew that Ebert was this twisted genius," he says.

Crenshaw admits that there are some shortcomings and mistakes and would love to see the book go to a second printing. He's talking to the cable channel TNT about hosting a weekly movie that would be related to Hollywood Rocks. Crenshaw is plugging away at his music career, compiling songs for a live album and writing material for a new release.

Radio Spot Sales Soar

Radio enjoyed a 13 percent increase in combined local and national advertising revenue over last year, according to the Radio Advertising Bureau (RAB).

The growth, said the RAB, took place in every region of the country that the bureau tracks.

Local revenue between January and March was ahead of last year's first quarter by 12 percent. The Southwest, which in recent surveys has posted the highest gains, had the biggest increase: 16 percent. The West, Midwest and East had 11 percent gains.

National spot revenue increased 16 percent in the same period, eclipsing the RAB's previous report of a 10 percent increase in January. The Southwest led with a 27 percent gain, and Midwest revenues were up 18 percent. The West scored a 13 percent increase; the East, 12.

CAMPAIGN OF THE WEEK

TRAVIS TRITT
Ten Feet Tall and Bulletproof

Travis Tritt has a triple-header going: an album, a book, a tour. Warner Bros. Nashville has tied the three together into an energetic campaign for the popular country star's latest record.

LABEL: Warner Bros. Nashville

RADIO: Cassettes sent to DJs as well as to programmers. Appeared on Unistar's special Acoustic Country show.

VIDEO: Tritt has already appeared on TNN's American Music Shop and Country Music Video, and on the Academy Of Country Music Awards. He is hosting The VH-1 Country Countdown through 1994.

PRINT: Features in Entertainment Weekly, TV Guide and Life magazine.

MERCHANDISING: Flats (2 sided 1 X 1) with album graphics; full-size poster; two-sided tent cards, ad minis, :30 TV spots. Ads in various magazines, including Sports Illustrated.

TOUR: Headlining tour with Lee Roy Parnell and Joe Diffie through the end of this year.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST: Tritt's autobiography, Ten Feet Tall And Bulletproof, is in bookstores; he'll make a cameo appearance in the movie The Cowboy Way this summer. Held a 20-city satellite press conference beamed to major markets on Monday (May 16).

WHO AM I?

My first hit song, "I Sold My Heart To The Junkman," featured my vocals, and I sang back-up for Laura Nyro on a 1970 collection of oldies. In the early '70s my group took to wearing silver lame space suits onstage, and our big hit included the line, "Voulez-vous couchez avec moi ce soir?" I earned rave reviews for a Broadway performance co-starring with Al Green, and appeared in the film A Soldier's Story. Who am I? See page 11 for the answer.

He joined the label two years ago as a consultant to both A&R and marketing...●

Obviously Kevin Weatherly, Ron Nenni, Jay Taylor and Infinity aren't superstitious about flipping formats on Friday the 13th. After nearly 25 years of Album Rock, KOME-San Jose went Alternative last Friday at 3 p.m. The sound of a heartbeat was interrupted every few minutes by a sweeper stating: "Attention. The rock revolution begins at three this afternoon," signaling the change was coming. At the appointed moment, a bit of Boston's '70s classic, "More Than A Feeling" played, followed by an ID that proclaimed the birth of The New 98.5, KOME and the first tune, Nirvana's "Smells Like Teen Spirit." Longtime PD Ron Nenni remains on board, joined by former KEDG-Las Vegas PD Jay Taylor, who takes on APD/MD duties. Don't be surprised to see KROQ PD Kevin Weatherly helping out his sister station as much as possible. Best sweeper? "Happy music for a happy tomorrow."

Final details are still being worked out, but look for an announcement any minute about what will be called either Island Label Group, Island Entertainment or possibly Island Records. The new configuration will replace what was formerly PLG and will encompass Island, London and new family members, Def Jam. Assuming the presidency of the label will be PLG's executive VP, Johnny Barbis.

New York Arbitrends place Z100 (WHTZ) in a tie for third place, while in suburban Nassau-Suffolk counties, they're tied for number two. were Melissa Etheridge, Urge Overkill, Lisa Loeb, Cracker and The Knack. Was that APD/MD Frankie Blue blushing with pride when Etheridge sang an unplugged version of "Maggie May" and dedicated it to Blue, who asked her to sing it before the show? The station raised well over $10 grand, which goes to the Environmental Defense Fund working to, among other projects, clean up New York Harbors and Newark Bays.

Greg Lawley says goodbye to the Windy City and hello to one almost as windy—especially in the summer: San Francisco. In a move that stunned many in the music biz, Lawley split from his VP post at Jeff McClusky & Associates last Friday (May 13) and assumed the presidency of Ralph Tashjian's Modern Music and Power Span Marketing firms effective Monday May 16. Lawley will also be in charge of marketing and A&R for the companies' affiliate label, Riot Records.

Can there be a more environmentally correct way to package a CD than this brilliant concept devised by MCA's Fred Tenenbaum and Barney Gorlick to deliver the B.C.-52's? What will people think if they find this artifact 2000 years from now?

Only Tracy Johnson and Tom Gjerdrum know what lies in store for B100, and they're not talking. Meanwhile, San Diego's Great Radio Experiment continues with '70s/Disco, Hot Country and All Elvis among the formats of the day served up so far. Two best bets? Some slant on Top 40 orr—Country, going up against market leader KSON. Listener response has been phenomenal, according to PD Gjerdrum. Even the original Rich Brothers, led by brother Bobby, were reunited last Friday morning May 13.

Will Mike Joseph unveil a brand new format in early 1995 that is destined to shake things up from coast to coast?

Are those on again-off again talks between Evergreen and Shamrock on again?

David Martin and Gary Swartz roll out an impressive list of clients including Larry Bruce, Jerry Clifton, Dennis Constantine, Jack FitzGerald, Bob Henabery, Don Kelly, Lorna Ozmon, Terry Patrick, Bill Richards and Rusty Walker. The firm TRC (The Radio Consultants) acts as a rep firm for consultants. Several others may be named soon.

Over $7 million was raised during last month's T.J. Martell Humanitarian Award benefit. Obviously pleased by the turnout are left to right: Tony Martell, Rosie O'Donnell, Eric Clapton, Cindy Crawford and Martell honoree Tom Freston, MTV Networks' chairman and CEO.

Y100 (WHYI)-Miami PD Rob Roberts is the latest to join the Nationwide programming team. Roberts replaces Pat McMahon at KDMX (MIX 102.9)-Dallas. Will Roberts turn up the heat at the soft A/C?

A little more than a month after joining KSAN-San Francisco, Kelli D'Angelo, one half of the morning team, is gone. Her partner Bill Taylor stays on, teamed on an interim basis with PD Lee Logan.

Be forewarned—Woodstock is coming to your market! Media America will grant syndication rights to affiliates, making them "official stations," running part or all of the show and all the events leading up to it. Pay-Per-View airs August 13 and 14.

Rob Woolman, APD/MD at A/C KBSY-Ft. Smith, Ark., leaves to program Top 40 station KRAI/FM-Craig, Colorado.

Stone Temple Pilots' new Atlantic Records record release Purple is due in the stores June 7. Atlantic has already released a limited quantity of vinyl copies of the album. The first single is entitled "Vaseline." The band begins a nationwide tour June 28 headlining large theaters and sheds, with shows continuing through September. The band has arranged to keep ticket prices down. The Meat Puppets have been confirmed as an opening act for this tour, with others to be announced soon...

Bits & Pieces: Great White released their Zoo Entertainment debut, Sail Away, on May 10 and have touring dates scheduled through summer... Expect Jody Watley to sign with a new label, following a mutual parting of the ways with MCA Records.

Watley's current album, Intimacy, has spawned two top ten R&B hits, "Your Love Keeps Working On Me" and "When A Man Loves A Woman"...Sandra Bernhard's Sony 550 Music debut album officially titled Excuses For Bad Behavior, Part One is slated to arrive in stores August 16...Originally recorded as part of the CBGB 10th anniversary celebration album, The Jesus Lizard were so hot that Collison Arts snapped up Show, their entire live performance which will be released on June 14 on Giant Records...ZZ Top has already sold out three of the dates on the first leg of their Antenna World Tour—Shreveport, Tulsa and Worcester. They plan to play over 100 major arena dates between April 30 and November 12. During the month of July they'll play outdoor festivals in Europe...Green Day has been added to the main stage lineup for Lollapalooza '94. The Berkeley band will be traveling to all their dates in their famous book-mobile...

The Lovemongers, the acoustic side project of Ann and Nancy Wilson of Heart, with longtime collaborators Sue Ennis and Frank Cox, recently performed at a benefit party following the world premier screening of Even Cowgirls Get The Blues at the King Theater in their hometown Seattle. Tom Robbins, the book's author, Pearl Jam's Jeff Ament and Kim Thayil of Soundgarden were on hand at the post premiere party, which took place at the Crocodile Lounge. Cowgirls director Gus Van Sant offered the proceeds from the premiere and party to Artists For A Hate Free America, (AHFA) a national organization created to fight intolerance, censorship and discrimination...

Cry Of Love released their fourth single, "Carnival," from their Columbia Records album, Brother. They are now heading for a string of European festival and headline dates across the continent, including stops in Britain, Denmark, Germany, Holland and France. The first port of call was Germany's Rock Am Ring Festival. This year for the first time ever, Britain's Monsters of Rock Castle/Donnington Festival on June 4, headlined by Aerosmith with Extreme, Sepultura, Pantera, Therapy? and Pride and Glory, will feature a second stage which will be inaugurated by Biohazard, the Wild Hearts, Terrorvision, Cry Of Love, Skin and Headswim...

The Orange County punk group the Offspring have released their second album on Epitaph Records, the indie-punk outfit owned by Bad Religion guitarist Brett Gurewitz. The album was What radio stations did you listen to growing up?

Usually WMBR and WZBC (in Boston), although WBCN wasn't bad for a giant AOR outlet.

Favorite DJ - past or present? Why?

A bunch: Ed Sloia, WERS, great sense of humor; Albert O., WMER, rock encyclopedia; Jim McKay, WZBC, would never have heard Eyeless in Giza or Nick Drake without him; Jim and Tom Gilroy's shows; Dadavision gang from WMUA; The Hound, WFMU, a goddamn riot and always dead on musically, in spite of Grand-Canyon-sized ego. But my current favorite DJ is me, since I don't listen to the radio anymore.

First and last records ever bought?

I seriously cannot remember the first. I'd like to say "Back When My Hair Was Short," but I'm afraid it would be a lie. Last record bought is a CD actually, Gate's The Dew Line.

First band ever signed: The Flies

First concert attended:

Ramsey Lewis, Boston City Hall Plaza, 1975. It was incredibly boring and I swore off live music (except for opera) for two years.

produced by Thom Wilson (TSOL) and the video for the first single, "Come Out And Play (Keep 'Em Separated)" was directed by Darren Lavett (Beastie Boys). Offspring starts their tour in Los Angeles at The Whisky on May 26...

The Smithereens hit the road on April 30 in support of their great debut RCA album, A Date With The Smithereens. Only east coast dates have been scheduled so far, but the touring will continue through much of '94...The New York-based trio 700 Miles will have their second RCA release, dirtbomb, hitting the streets in late June. Matt Hyde (Porno For Pyros) produced the album and Lonnie Jordan of WAR played Hammond organ on two tracks, "Greedy" and "Storm"...

Joan Jett and the Blackhearts Warner Bros. debut album, Pure And Simple is scheduled for release on June 4. My favorite cut so far is "Spinster." There is something for everyone on this one, simply the best in years from this rock icon...

Bands interested in entering this year's Ticketmaster Music Showcase have until June 6 to submit a tape with two of their songs. Entry blanks are available at Ticketmaster outlets and in the May issue of Musician magazine. A caravan of music industry professionals will visit 36 cities beginning July 27. Each band selected to showcase will get a 20 minute set and be paid $200 for their appearance. A minimum of $1000 will be awarded to the participants at three regional showcases. The five bands invited to play at the national event will receive a minimum of $2500 and one of them will receive a one-week recording session at Heart's Bad Animals Studio in Seattle. ●

BARBRA STREISAND

It was 30 years ago this month that Barbra Streisand had her first #1 single, "People." Streisand's version of Jule Styne and Robert Merrill's song was nominated for a Grammy, but it lost out to "Hello Dolly" in the Song Of The Year category.

DON HENLEY

In his ongoing attempt to raise funds to save Walden Woods, Don Henley can be seen endorsing Ebel watches in a series of four-color magazine ads. All of Henley's appearance fees are being paid directly to the Walden Woods Project.

THE EAGLES

The anxiously awaited Eagles concert tour is set to begin May 27 in Southern California. It's going to be called the "Hell Freezes Over" tour.

PHIL COLLINS

Phil Collins' single, "We Wait And We Wonder" from his album Both Sides, was written by Phil out of a personal frustration he feels towards the physical and ideological battle between the Irish Republican Army and the British government.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

"Streets Of Philadelphia" is Bruce Springsteen's first single to be certified gold in more than ten years. The last was "Dancin' In The Dark"

CRASH TEST DUMMIES

The new Crash Test Dummies album, God Shuffled His Feet, was produced by the Dummies and Jerry Harrison of the old Talking Heads.

JON SECADA

Jon Secada won his first Grammy in 1993 for Otra Dia Mas Sin Verte, the Spanish language version of his debut album, Just Another Day.

DEPECHE MODE

Though it's being reported that Andrew Fletcher of Depeche Mode has left the band, he has only been the band's business manager in recent years and hasn't performed in years.

TRAVIS TRITT

The title of Travis Tritt's new album, Ten Feet Tall and Bulletproof, is also the title of his new autobiography and summer/fall concert tour with Joe Diffie and Lee Roy Parnell.

Inside Top 40

Just about the time conventional minds start believing that everything has been done, along comes an idea that is truly a first. This idea came together in a brainstorming session during, what else, lunch. In between bites and sips of what we hear was only soda. WNCI-Columbus PD Dave Robbins and his morning drive team, Matt Harris and Dave Calin discussed various ways to do a skit about radio consultants.

The idea the three hit upon? Asking two veteran consultants to critique their morning show. The only rule was that they had to voice their feelings on the air, live. Robbins called McVay Media's Harv Blaine and Randy Kabrich of Kabrich Consulting on Monday, May 6, and both agreed to listen the next day, and after about an hour or so call in their opinions. Robbins says the two were chosen partly because they represent "opposite ends of the spectrum."

Blaine says he was intrigued by what he considered "a unique radio stunt that sounded so goofy" he couldn't pass it up. And although Harris and Calin encouraged him to trash what he heard, Blaine says, "They're doing a lot of things right so it was hard to really lambaste them."

While Blaine may have attempted to play the part of the diplomat, at times both he and Kabrich were brutally honest. Of course, they knew they'd have to endure the barbs that Harris and Calin might often nuzzle to themselves while Robbins went over the aircheck, but that they didn't verbalize out loud.

Blaine reminded the personalities about the importance of basics and complimented them on time checks, weather, localization and entertainment value, but kept asking why there were so many spots. Kabrich took them to task for not running news and other daily bits on time, commenting, "People look for benchmarks like set times to schedule their day around." Naturally that comment sparked a flurry of retorts including Harris arguing that the show should, "be like life—spontaneous." After calling them "bozos and lame-o's who can't get work in radio," Harris and Calin took calls and their listeners offered views of what they heard, most of whom sided with their hometown heroes.

Blaine said the experience was fun, but both he and Kabrich advise other programmers to think twice before trying something like this since it can only work in the rarest of situations. Robbins, however, was elated by how well the whole bit came off. He emphasized that the audience was constantly being updated on what was taking place.

Claiming that the public is fairly familiar with TV consultants, he notes, "We had to make it clear to them the role that Harv and Randy play in radio around the country and continually explain the scenario so they wouldn't be in the dark about what was going on. It became a soap opera for our listeners."

The pros and cons of putting consultants on the air can be debated among other programmers and consultants who no doubt could think up a million reasons not to do it. But by breaking the rules, stepping outside the box and being adventurous, WNCI made a statement to their audience about the station. Dave Robbins explains it this way: "We opened the hood and let 'em look at the engine that powers the machine. My experience is that when you offer that 'inside look,' they're pretty interested."

Oh, and by the way, neither Kabrich or Blaine consult the station, and both promise not to send off a bill for services rendered.

Airplay Analysis

Lisa Loeb & Nine Stories' "Stay (I Missed You)" is Number One most played at B97-New Orleans with 56 spins. Thirty spins moves it into the Top 20 for V100-St. Peters, Mo. with PD Sheila Sand reporting Top Five requests from women with most response coming during mornings and middays. Twenty ADDs including: WZYQ/FM, BOSS 97, WNCI, WZJM, WTBX, KMCK/MCI, KDWB, KUBE, KYEE and B94.

Airplay increases for Huey Lewis & The News are reflected by a strong HIT FACTOR growth, 9% to 22%. Thirty-three plays takes "(She's) Some Kind Of Wonderful" Top 20 at 107 WIRX-St. Joseph, Mich., with 26 spins good for a debut at #22 on Q99FM-Cape Girardeau, Mo. Top 15 already at WBBQ, WNNJ, WQPW, WYNU92FM, WOLV, KBKB, WHZR, 98.9 KISS, KVHT, etc. By way of clarification, while some are calling this a Grand Funk remake, Grand Funk also covered it. The original came out in 1967 by Soul Brothers VI.

Fifteen spins for the B.C.-52's at KTMT-Medford, Ore. where PD R. Charles Snyder reports tremendous response and says, "Some of our listeners thought it was a morning show parody and not the B-52's." "(Meet) The Flintstones" is Top 20 at Q102, BOSS 97 (35 spins), WKSS, KJ103 and Q106.

The impressive list of new believers for the Meat Puppets' "Backwater" includes Z100-New York, WPST-Trenton, WCIL-Carbondale, KIMN-Ft. Collins, WZJM-Cleveland, KDUK-Eugene, Ore., KTRS-Casper, Wyo., KISS 108-Boston, WBBQ-Augusta, Ga., WRCK-Utica, N.Y., KQKY-Kearney-Neb., WRKY-Stuebenville, Ohio and ZFUN-Moscow, Idaho.

Go Chart Most Added

PINK FLOYD (69)

ELTON JOHN (38)

B.C.-52'S (35)

Aaliyah's "Back & Forth" continues to be Number One most played at WHYT-Detroit with 84 spins. Michael Jack Kirby, PD at KFFM-Yakima, Wash. confirms this will "be huge." It's already his third most-requested song behind All-4-One's "I Swear" and Warren G's "Regulate," moving 35-16 up from 12 spins to 26. Dan Watson at Q96-Imperial Valley, Calif. ADDs it at #12 and notes it was selling "before we began playing it." Top Ten requests 12-34, pulling 36 spins. New on: WINK 104, WRCK, WFLY, KLYV, KISF, WYKS, KUBE, KPSI, KS104, and WNDU.

After a Number One run at KROQ-Los Angeles, Green Day's "Longview" holds steady in the Top Three. In fact, on the Alternative chart, it fell out of the Top Ten and this week, jumps back into number three. Twenty-three spins is good for number ten at THE END-Cleveland, while it's number seven at 99X-Atlanta. ADDED at: B97-New Orleans, K106-Beaumont, Texas and KKFR-Phoenix. It appears ready to explode.

Early requests on Counting Crows' "Round Here," at WPUP-Athens, Ga. where it jumps 31-20 with 21 spins. ADDED at: WWKF, KLAZ, KDOG, WAVT, WLKY and WKPQ.

For Real's "You Don't Wanna Miss" is the most played song at KDON-Monterey/Salinas, Calif. KWLN-Stockton's Bob Lewis and Ken Carr chart it at number nine with 50 plays, and report requests and Top Ten retail action. ADDs include: POWER PIG, KMXZ, KLBQ, HOT 97, Z102, FM102, KAGO/FM, WKPQ and XT93.

Bob Hart at KLYK-Longview, Wash. and Jim Koski at Q107 (WMQT/FM)-Marquette, Mich. confirm XL93-Grand Forks, N.D.'s experience with Bonnie Tyler's "Total Eclipse Of The Heart." Like Rick Acker, Bob began playing it on his All Request Lunch show and he theorizes a Jim Steinman connection because calls coincided with Meat Loaf's comeback. As for Q107, "Total Eclipse..." caused the "wow" reaction off a feature called The Friday Music Flashback. Jim says, "I have a feeling that if I stuck it into a current rotation, it'd be Number One within a month." He also credits the "Jim Steinman magic."

Early buzzes on Crash Test Dummies' "Afternoons & Coffee Spoons" and Whale's "Humpin' Hobo Slobo Babe" is spelling major summer smash-ola.

SMIF N' WESSUN Bucktown U.S.A. b/w Let's Git It On (Nervous/Wreck)

More of that buckshot-laden, Brooklyn flavor. "Bucktown is quintessential laidback hardcore; it's like some ole ruffneck-bebop-induced-summertime lounge music, perfect for a slo-mo beatdown. Smif N' Wessun come with the vibe-a-licious beats as horns and hollow organ swells surround thir smooove, lyrical gruffness. The B-side serves up another platter of tasty, groove-laden vittles. "Let's Git It On" is a bass-drenched mid-tempo jammy with a slight hallucinatory aura: eerie keyboard riffs drone underneath the tight snare-n-tom workout, while the low end puts you on the nod. I'd say buttah, but it's bettah than that. Contact Dru @ Nervous/Wreck (212) 730-7160

NONCE "Keep It On" b/w "Mix Tapes" (Wild West)

Nonce scores with a deliciously smooth double A-side. "Keep It On" boasts a thick bass roll peppered with the crackle of vinyl and the sound of airwave frequency winding between spirited rhymes and get-hype cheers. In the jeepafied west coast tradition, "Mix Tapes" hums along to some icy DJ cuts, a floating flute, and tight lyrics on sellin' and rockin' the mix tape underground style: "Hit the rewind and move and turn the black plate/Get you a tape/watch the crew wreck and spin the vinyl to tha mouth then get a phat new cassette." Both jams are in the pocket for summer spinning. Contact Ray Tamarra at Wild West (213) 651-9384.

New Releases

SHANICE
"Somewhere"
(Motown)

After she struck gold with her Motown debut album Inner Child in 1992, Shanice found herself in demand and contributing her vocals on soundtracks for TV (Beverly Hills 90210) and movies (Boomerang, Meteor Man). After extensive touring overseas Shanice releases a new single, "Somewhere," from her forthcoming album 21 Ways...To Grow. It's a funky, driving groove that finds a young woman searching for the perfect relationship.

ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT
"Ease My Mind"
(Chrysalis/ERG)

After receiving a multi-platinum success with their debut album, 3 years, 5 months & 2 days in the life..., Speech and his groove collective are back with a new installment of life music.

SHAI
"The Place Where You Belong"
(MCA)

This quartet made plenty of noise for themselves in 1993 with their a cappella smash, "If I Ever Fall In Love." Shai's harmonies shine again on "The Place Where You Belong," which is on the soundtrack to the upcoming film, Beverly Hills Cop III. The group produced the track, which they co-wrote with Mariah Carey's buddy and hitmaker Trey Lorenz.

KISSES AND BLACK GIRLS

NANCY WILSON
"Love Won't Let Me Wait"
(Columbia)

I dare you not to play this record! It'll be pretty hard to resist Nancy Wilson's sensual vocals on her cover of Major Harris' 1975 #1 classic re-made by Luther Vandross in '88. Nancy delivers a soft and warm version that will easily find a place on Quiet Storm stations, but don't expect it to stop there.

LALAH HATHAWAY
"Let Me Love You"
(Virgin)

With her second album due out at the end of this month, Lalah Hathaway gives us a taste with the first single, "Let Me Love You." The long-overdue release is a mid-tempo track with a touch of funk compliments of producer Brian Alexander Morgan (SWV).

JAMIE FOXX
"Infatuation"
(Fox)

As noted on this page back last fall, one of In Living Color's crack-ups has recorded a musical album and the single, "Infatuation," is being released with surprising results. Funny man Jamie Foxx will have you reaching for the Q-Tips cause your ears won't believe what you're hearing. Foxx's "Infatuation" is a slow jam that isn't covered up by slick production—he really can sing, and it's no joke.

Inside A/C

While Madonna takes over as queen of the hill at the top of the chart, the battle to be her successor is in full swing. Toni Braxton has nearly three fourths of all her play in HEAVY rotation and the fresh Huey Lewis & The News grabs a 92% HIT FACTOR, fastest than any record we can recall.

A little further down the chart is this week's HOTTEST single, Phil Collins' "Can't Turn Back The Years." It's already at #17 after just two chart weeks. More than half the format is on board including KOSI, WCSO, KRNO, WDEF, WMT/FM, WQTU, WAHR, KMGH, K99 and KELO.

Top debut by a huge margin is Elton John's "Can You Feel The Love Tonight," which enters at #21 with a two-week airplay base of 167 A/Cs and 52 of last week's 80 ADDs already report quality rotations.

Nine months after their first exposure on A/C radio, ("What Might Have Been"), Little Texas is making up for a little lost time with their new A/C offering, "My Love." In its first three weeks it has gathered 106 ADDs and is already charted at #24 with a 57% HIT FACTOR. Players include KMCQ, KXYQ, KLSY, KOSI, WCKQ, KFQD, WTR, WHAI, WSTU, KFOR and JOY 99.

A solid debut for Mariah Carey's "Anytime You Need A Friend." It comes to the chart with a #28 debut and a 30% opening HIT FACTOR. As the format's second MOST ADDED again, it registers 137 players in its first two weeks. But then we've come to expect Mariah to win over the format in short order. Players already include WALK, K103,

Records which receive the greatest increase in Hit Factor

KWAV, WKWK, WLDR, KESZ, WLEV, WFAS, WQLR, K99 and KBLQ.

"I Swear," the fabulous new single from All-4-One, is blasting up the chart as it numbers at 29 with 94 stations and a better than half HIT FACTOR. Sworn to play are WBMX, KLSY, WQLH, KOSO, WTPI, WQLR, Q93, WALK, KXYQ, WFQD, KLSS, WFRO, WHAI, KEYW, WTSX, and KVIC.

Though the volume of stations playing Art Garfunkel's (below) Dire Straits cover "Why Worry" is modest (61 stations), its HIT FAC-TOR of 60% is enough to get it on the chart where more stations will see it, if not hear it. It's in play at KMGH, KDEC, WAHR, WTTR, KGLE, KJLS, KFOR, KSXY, KMGW, WBLG and WEIM.

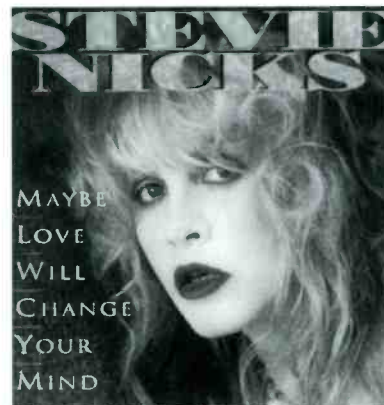

We're pleased to note that the format has not yet gone belly-up. The fear of adding new records hasn't infected the format. This week we can count 26 different singles that received at least 10 ADDs each. Even with Elton and Mariah hogging the top of the MOST ADDED box, another 24 can still get double-digit recognition.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Booker T & The MGs' "Cruisin'" scores 19 of the aforementioned ADDs. The roster of new cruisers includes KSXY, K99, KGLE, KMAS, KGY, WLET, KBMG and WHFX.

This issue's RECORD TO WATCH is Janet Jackson's "Any Time, Any Place," which begins in Up & Coming with a base of 34 players like WMT/FM, WBMX, WCKQ, WHAI, WFPS, WGMT and KEYW.

Comeback band of the spring is America with their American Gramophone debut "Young Moon" landing a solo spot in this issue's CHARTBOUND. The list of players includes WLDR, KESZ, KRNO, WSPL, WCSO, WSUL, KATW and KELL.

New Releases

STEVIE NICKS "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind" (Modern/Atlantic)

This is right down A/C's alley and we'd bet the farm this one will take the format by storm. Stevie returns to the radio with her first solo single in five years, and perhaps one of the best of her career.

MITCH MALLOY "How 'bout Us?" (RCA)

Who'd have thunk a guy like Mitch Malloy could take a 13-year old Champaign song and make it sound almost like a Chi-Lites classic? He does it with one of the year's most effective covers. Credit producer/arranger Christopher Neil (Mike + The Mechanics, Sheena Easton etc.) with a first-rate presentation.

ROB WASSERMAN with BRUCE HORNSBY and BRANFORD MARSALIS "White-Wheeled Limousine" (GRP/MCA)

Marsalis and Hornsby's contribution to Wasserman's recent album Trios is an intriguing lyrical vignette about a marriage that apparently wasn't meant to be. We've been trying to figure it out all day, and have discovered that its ambiguity is part of its charm.

If you are reading this somewhere other than in San Francisco, then you've missed it...

"It" being SFO1, the biggest concentration of Bay Area music talent (and all those who nurture it) ever assembled. We know it's the biggest because it's the first. That in itself seems amazing for a place with such a rich musical heritage. Coming from the UK a couple of years ago I was obviously aware of Haight-Ashbury, the summer of love and all that, but I was also struck by the lack of any real focus on the many positive and vibrant things happening here. This is a great music city NOW! and yet other places in America have been stealing too much of the limelight.

At the same time, Kent and Keith Zimmerman, two of the energetic forces behind the GAVIN Seminar in February, were feeling frustrated that the seminar was confined to radio and record promotion and did not address many other important aspects of the music process. We were aware that many people in the music business locally, regionally and nationally actually felt excluded from the GAVIN Seminar. Well, this is the seminar, this is the event for all of you.

SFO1 really began to crystallize when Kent Zimmerman bumped into Bonnie Simmons and Queenie Taylor at the bar in Slim's and realized that the idea instantly struck a resonant chord. Matching the vitality and enthusiasm of Kent and Keith with the experience, expertise and contacts of Queenie and Bonnie (two veterans of the club scene and the radio/A&R beat, respectively), provided for me a perfect team to get a venture like this off the ground, though it hasn't been easy.

There were a number of early believers, many of whom attended an advisory meeting in the very Press Club building where the daytime events are taking place.

Sincere thanks to all those who have helped in giving support and advice along the way. Thank you to all the club owners and bookers. Thank you to the speakers, organizers, panelists and participants for giving their valuable time and energy. Thank you to the wonderful staff at GAVIN for all their support. To Chip Conley of Miss Pearl's Jam House, where the Killer Cocktail Party (another San Francisco first) takes place. Thank you to the Press Club, the support crew and volunteers, local and national media and music business friends who have spurred us on, and our sponsors: Tower Records, BMI, Sony Signatures, ASCAP, Redhook Brewery, and BAM. We'll remember all of you when SFO2 rolls around...and it's sooner than you think!

Perhaps the greatest kudos should go to the artists (including those who sent in tapes and weren't included this time around). That brings us back to what SFO1 is all about: talent. And, as our cover story demonstrates over the next few pages, there has been plenty to come out of the Bay Area, with Huey Lewis making news again, Counting Crows creating new headlines and Tarnation among those whose time will come.

Right on. Read on.

HUEY LEWIS: Good News
COUNTING CROWS: Hot News
TARNATION: The Latest News

SFO1 is a chance for more than 200 bands, many of them up-and-coming, to get going. They'll pick up musical and business tips at daytime panels. They'll strut their stuff on 20 stages at night. And they'll get a sense of what's made San Francisco such a vibrant music community for three decades. Here are three bands that, each in its own way, typify the rich and ever-growing Bay Area music scene.

THE BAND OF THE '80S IS BACK... AND THEY DON'T CARE

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

Huey Lewis & the News were children of the '50s, when R&B led the way to rock and roll; they were young men in the '60s, when the Beatles helped rock to mature, and San Francisco was called "the Liverpool of the West," and Huey soaked up the blues, listening to the Grateful Dead's Pigpen sing "Good Morning Sunshine" at the old Fillmore. And they were in two bands in the '70s, hoping to be the next Journey or Starship. They played clubs like there was no closing time; they opened for the Doobies and other stars; they dreamt and scuffled.

On the eve of the '80s, various members of those two bands hooked up and became Huey Lewis and the American Express. Later, after a three-song demo and a slight name change, they signed with Chrysalis and became one of the quintessential bands of the '80s, selling nine million copies of their '83 album, Sports, and following with more hits through Fore! and the soundtrack of Back to the Future.

And then, at least on the surface, they took a hit. After the 1988 platinum album, SmallWorld, their long-gestating followup, Hard at Play, disappointed, selling only 750,000 in 1991. Then, last year, their contribution to a Curtis Mayfield tribute album, "It's All Right," put them back on the charts. And now they're out, on a new label (Elektra) with Four Chords and Several Years Ago, a collection of jumping, jiving remakes of both classic and unknown R&B and blues tunes. The first single, "(She's) Some Kind of Wonderful," quickly jumped onto the A/C charts and is tapping at Top 40.

So, with their club roots and their up and down and up history, are Huey and the News symbolic of San Francisco?

"The way we began? Definitely," says Huey, sitting at Mothers, a recording studio co-owned by News keyboardist Sean Hopper. "We were children of the '60s, and in those days, you found the five nearest musicians and started to play... We're a real San Francisco band in that we were all friends before we were bandmates. We got to know each other from playing the same clubs and checking out each other's bands, and by the time we put a band together, we were really tight. But I don't think we sounded like a San Francisco band. We sounded more like a band from Austin or New Orleans."

Although Lewis and company (Hopper: sax player and arranger Johnny Colla; bassist Mario Cipollina; guitarist Chris Hayes, and drummer Bill Gibson) contained their tendencies—they'd variously played country-rock and jazz—to go the post-punk power-pop route, they've returned to their roots. And they did it for the best reasons: It was fun, and they're on some kind of a mission.

"As a lifestyle and attitude, I think rock and roll is alive, but as a musical style it's all but invisible," says Lewis. "As I watch video channels and listen to radio, there just isn't any rock and roll. Somebody had to make this record. I think it's important that people realize where this stuff came from and it just suited us like a glove. That was the inspiration."

Actually, as Lewis and the News split from EMI (which had purchased their original label, Chrysalis), the band expected EMI to issue a hits collection, and planned to add a couple of new tracks. "We worked up a couple of old things, and it was so much fun that we just kept on going."

"We had an in-house A&R staff of friends," Lewis continues, "but we knew a lot of these

The 50/50 Morning Show Check-Up Check-List: Part II

By John Lund

For most stations, the morning show is the programming and audience anchor that starts the broadcast day. Ideally, the strong morning show provides the station with cume that's horizontally recycled to other dayparts. Consider this check list of 50 questions, many of which may apply to talents in other dayparts.

RELATABILITY

24. Do promos sound local and involved with the community with relatable statements?
25. Does the talent utilize local reliable public service events in his talk sets?
26. Does he relate to the seasonal weather change, as though he, too, experiences it?
27. Does the morning talent thoroughly relate to special station promotions?
28. Are PSAs presented as important elements of community information, and not treated as discards and announcements?
29. Does the morning talent share with listeners a thought, statement, or reference about the community approximately every 15 minutes?

MUSIC

30. Is there a minimum number of songs that should be played each hour?

31. With fewer minutes for music in morning drive, are the songs that are played the absolute best researched for the target demographic?
32. Is there an adequate blend of up-tempo songs played each hour on the morning show?
33. Has the music rotation clock for morning drive been updated for a fresher sound?
34. Do the talents always play approved music in the precise schedule order?

INFORMATION

35. Are frequent weather mentions or full forecasts available to listeners in every break?
36. Is talk between the meteorologist and talent prepared, relatable, meaningful, succinct?
37. Are in-format contributors (weather, sports, traffic, news) introduced with call letters?
38. Are chats with those information specialists prepared, time-efficient, meaningful, topical?
39. Do newscasts begin exactly on schedule?
40. Does the morning talent always sound interested when talking to the newscaster?

41. Is there a natural rapport between the morning talent and the information specialists?
42. Does the morning meteorologist localize weather with relatables for the metro area?
43. Is the newscaster a personality within and around newscasts?

44. Does the morning talent promote information with a specific story and do these benefit-oriented teasers provide listeners with real reasons to stay tuned for morning news?
45. Do traffic reports offer listeners alternate routes?
46. Is sports information succinct, locally-oriented and in "people" terms?
47. Are there references to a specific game broadcast on the station the previous day or upcoming that evening?

IN SUMMARY...

48. Are there numerous redeeming benefits for listeners to come to and stay with your station in morning drive; and the show sounds terrific?
49. Does the program provide a daily environment of memorable and talk-creating routines that build time spent listening as well as cume audience?
50. Does the show sound consistent and fun, and does it make listeners feel good about themselves and the station?

songs ourselves. We grew up in that time—here in the Bay Area, the station we listened to was KDIA. We've always done R&B things. We sang it backstage to warm up our voices." Even on their second album, in 1982 (Picture This), they included the Hollywood Flames' 1957 R&B hit, "Buzz-Buzz-Buzz," and, on stage, doo-wop harmonies are a consistent highlight.

But, after the relative failure of Hard At Play, Lewis and company had an additional impetus to avoid yet another intense try at recapturing whatever formula it was that gave them such hits as "Heart and Soul," "I Want a New Drug," "The Heart of Rock and Roll," "If This is It," "The Power of Love," "Stuck With You," "Hip to be Square," and "Jacob's Ladder."

"I found out after the last album," says Lewis, "that I'm better off when I don't care about the commercial or marketing aspects of things. I never cared in the beginning; I was just getting better. Last time out, I got into trouble listening to promotion departments and really caring about where we're gonna fit in, or where are the trends, or am I going to keep up with them or go against them. And I'm better off playing what I feel. That's why we signed with Elektra—they may be concerned with the bottom line, but they respect your artistic instincts—and that's why I was so keen to do this project. Bob Brown (the band's manager, who encouraged the R&B concept and came up with the album title) felt like this record could have commercial implications, but I just thought it was going to be a lot of fun."

Huey points to "It's All Right" as another argument for serendipity. After Curtis Mayfield suffered his freak accident, leaving him partially paralyzed, producer Jon Tivens organized a benefit record on a small label, Shanachie, and, familiar with their on-stage, a capella version of the Mayfield song, invited Lewis and the News to participate. "We just thought it'd be part of a record, and we were pleasantly surprised when radio picked it up. We had no clue it was going to be a hit." Lewis' face lit up as a memory came to him—of a buddy who happens to be a star quarterback.

"The guy who called it," he says, "was Joe Montana. Every time I saw him, he'd say, 'That's a smash.'"

By that time, Lewis was immersed in a solo project, one that remains incomplete. "There were five, six things I was really proud of, but I was all over the place stylistically. I didn't have the completed vision yet—but I hope to finish it."

Another detour was acting, as Lewis got a role in Robert Altman's Short Cuts, playing one of a group of friends who go fishing and discover a dead woman's body in a lake. Lewis' big scene had him urinating into the lake. ("I had a prop," he said, laughing.)

In a way, his big-screen work helped with the Four Chords... album. "When you're remaking some of these classics, you need to be faithful to the original, but at the same time infuse it with a new spirit. It was a job. I had to imagine the character and find that character within myself. So it's similar to acting."

But, as the News rocked through territory both familiar ("Blue Monday," "Mother-in-Law," "Stagger Lee," "Shake, Rattle & Roll") and obscure (Otis Redding's "You Left the Water Running," Shorty Long's "Function at the Junction," Roscoe Gordon's "Surely I Love You") with twin engines of fun and authority, it was clearly a band effort.

As Lewis notes: "The idea is great on paper, but you've got to do it right. There's a million ways to miss it, and only one way to get it right, and you really have to cop it. That was up to the band, and they did a fabulous job, to a man." ●

Records A&R exec who signed the Crows to the label, "if we sold 200,000 copies, we hit a big home run."

Already the biggest new band of the year, the Crows appear poised for multi-platinum success with their gorgeous debut album. It's a fairy tale of how dreams come true.

It started with the demo, a tape so magic, it stopped jaded professionals cold in their tracks. It was the work of two musicians, songwriter Duritz and guitarist Dave Bryson, who owns a local recording studio.

Duritz, an English major from U.C. Berkeley, was thinking about quitting music when his roommate convinced him to answer a classified ad. Duritz became vocalist with a band called the Himalayans. In between gigs at local clubs, he played in an acoustic duo with Bryson that formed the nucleus of Counting Crows. With help from musician friends, the pair began making tapes.

By winter 1991, the Crows had accumulated an impressive, but long demo tape—some versions had more than a dozen songs—crafted into a gleaming shine by Bryson and bristling with Duritz's passionate, literate and hooky songs. The tape ultimately found its way to an attorney in Los Angeles.

"It was the single best demo I've heard in my life," said music business attorney Allen Lenard, who agreed to represent the group.

Meanwhile, Gersh, the man who signed Nirvana to Geffen, heard about the tape. He tracked down Lenard and asked for a copy. He took it with him on a Utah ski vacation over the Christmas holidays, popped it into his rented Jeep as he pulled out of the airport parking lot, and never took it out for the rest of the weekend.

"I was nervous," says Gersh, now president of Capitol. "I rarely fall in love with something that much."

He flew to San Francisco, where he caught one of the band's first live performances at a tiny nitery, the Paradise Lounge. Unimpressed with the show, Gersh nevertheless met with band members the following morning and asked if they had the songs from the demo in acoustic versions. "The tape was too clean for my taste," he said.

Two weeks later, he and some associates were back in town for the GAVIN Seminar, where the Crows were appearing in a showcase at the I-Beam in the Haight-Ashbury. The Crows had greatly improved. By this time, the band had found managers.

Martin Kirkup and Steve Jenson of Direct Management had laughed when they got the band's demo from Lenard. It was about four times as long as most demo tapes. But once they

SAN FRANCISCO'S LATEST PHENOMS ARE AT 1.5 MILLION—AND COUNTING

BY JOEL SELVIN

"I'm in shock," says Adam Duritz, the 29-year-old lead vocalist of Counting Crows. On a rare break from the road, he's sitting in his home in Berkeley. "I thought we would make a nice, small record and tour. I don't understand how this happened."

"This" is the success of the Crows, which put out its debut album, August and Everything

After, last September. Early this year, a combination of MTV, Saturday Night Live, and three formats of radio catapulted the Crows into the friendly skies of commercial success, with the album selling more than 1.5 million copies to date.

"I told Adam when we were mastering the record," says Gary Gersh, the former Geffen heard it, they stopped laughing.

Kirkup, who ran the artist development division of A&M in the late '70s, joined forces with onetime booking agent Jensen in 1984 to open a firm that directed such bands as Orchestral Manoeuvres in the Dark and Echo and the Bunnymen. They decided that they wanted the Crows.

The day after the I-Beam showcase in February, 1992, Jensen and Kirkup field calls from nine labels interested in the band. It narrowed down to three, each of which was investigated by band members. Money was never the issue; creative control was. Geffen, who offered to let band management participate fully in marketing and promotion plans, won the day.

Another convert of the demo tape was Bonnie Simmons, a Bay Area radio legend who became one of the band's biggest boosters and aired the demo tape on her weekly KPFA radio show. She sent a copy of the tape to producer T Bone Burnett.

While the band held some experimental sessions with other well-known producers, they quickly settled on Burnett, who has worked with the likes of Bob Dylan, Elvis Costello and U2's Bono as a guitarist and writer, but whose credits have tended toward the more esoteric, like Leo Kottke, Los Lobos and Bruce Cockburn.

The demo versions of the songs loomed over the project. From the moment he heard the tape, Gersh wanted to make a different kind of record. "I wanted to take a bunch of demos that sounded like a record and turn it into a record that sounded like a bunch of demos."

"All Adam wants to do," adds Burnett, "is find real moments."

When the time came to deliver the album to radio, the band insisted on no single—just the album. Bonnie Simmons, who had friends at GAVIN, and would later connect with the magazine to produce the SFO1 seminar, put in a word for the Crows and set the stage for the band to appear a few weeks before the album's release at GAVIN'S gathering of A3 program directors in Boulder, Colorado.

"They just blew everybody away," says Bill Bennett, vice president of promotion for Geffen Records.

When the Crows album arrived at their desks, the programmers began playing different tracks in different markets. Simmons, once a radio promotion executive at Warner Bros., worked August... as an independent, and within two weeks, virtually every A3 station was on the record.

Geffen then went after Alternative radio, and within two months, airplay spread rapidly. In November, the Crows finally released a video, and "Mr. Jones" swung into rotation on MTV. Album radio was next to fall.

By the time the Counting Crows juggernaut hit hyperdrive in January, the band was touring as an opening act and drawing crowds with as much interest in them as the headliners.

With the second video, "Round Here," ready to roll, the momentum is still building.

And Duritz is reeling. "I love my songs," he says. "They mean everything to me. That they move other people makes sense to me; they mean so much to me." ●

The pioneers of new California country (or Western Beat), early '80s outfits like the Long Ryders and Green On Red, were largely based in, as the compilations called it, A Town South Of Bakersfield.

But in this decade, the re-emerging "new alternative country" scene has moved north, to the musically fertile Bay Area. This region has long boasted a small-but-thriving contingent of rockabilly fans, but the Northern California presence of "new country" artists has recently swelled; kingpins like (ex-Green On Red guitarist) Chuck Prophet and Steve Yerkey have been joined by the likes of The Doubters, the Buckets, Sweet Virginia, Dieselhed and Tarnation. Several of these bands are scheduled to play an SFO1 showcase at the Great American Music Hall Saturday,

May 21.

Like so many of the groups in San Francisco's burgeoning new country scene, the members of Tarnation have played in many different types of bands before following the country muse.

Bassist/vocalist Paula Frazer worked with an early version of Frightwig and was a member of the short-lived double-bass ensemble Cloiter; guitarist Lincoln Allen and drummer Michelle Cernuto count Barbara Manning's SF Seals among their many credits, and pedal steel player Wendell Sullivan did a stint with the Wannabe Texans. But Frazer, who was born in South Carolina, has maintained a series of country-based projects in addition to those other, more rock-oriented outings. She explains, "I grew up on country, and I'd written a lot of songs in the past that were country. As long as I did the Frightwig thing and the Cloiter thing—all that stuff—I've also played by myself, and it's always pretty much been a country thing. Like about five years back I was playing with Desmond Shea and we opened for the Cowboy Junkies at the Fillmore. I've always been doing this as well as the rock thing."

Tarnation's recorded output amounts to one track on a recently-released double 7", Ain't This Bliss With You And This, and a (vinyl-only) album, I'll Give You Something To Cry About! At their most country-fied moments (as on I'll Give You's "Big O Motel"), Frazer's awesome voice (think Patsy Cline with the range of Kate Bush) intermingles with a ghostly pedal steel, but Tarnation can also do punchier pop (Ain't's "His Middle Name") and moody, disturbing ballads.

And, although they've been included here with the new country movement and are billed with three similarly-influenced groups during SFO1, the band is quick to point out that they're in no way limited by genre. "We tend to get shows with all kinds of bands," says Frazer. "We played with the Thinking Fellers and we're going to play with Caroliner Rainbow in about three weeks. Then we're going to be doing shows with Ovarian Trolley and Star Pimp. It's really nice that we haven't had to only play with other country bands. I mean, we like playing with country bands, but the option to do a lot of different shows is really great." Wendell elaborates, "There's so much within country music and the kind of country people play in San Francisco—it's different. It's got a lot of things going on in it, so we can play with a bunch of bands. I think a lot of San Francisco music is that way."

Tarnation notes that San Francisco provides a unique environment in which a band can develop; unlike a lot of music scenes (Los Angeles' comes to mind), the atmosphere in the Bay Area is nurturing. According to Frazer, "Yeah, people from other bands seem very supportive and into working together and playing together. There doesn't seem to be the kind of competition and....meanness I've seen elsewhere. Sometimes, even, bands from out of town will come here and they'll play longer than they should or they're really rude." Cernuto adds, "As far as The City goes, it's definitely got a nice community spirit."

The SFO1 convention will give Tarnation a chance to be seen by out-of-towners and label folks who haven't heard the band's superb record. However, it's rumored that they've already grabbed the attention of at least two major imprints and a development deal may be in the works. But guitarist Allen is cautious when considering the future and his goals are modest. "I'm focusing on keeping the original spirit we had when we first got together. Not losing that and not losing track of our sound, those are the only things that are really important to me." ●

New Releases

TANYA TUCKER
"Hangin' In" (Liberty)

Tanya's still got it and she proves it with this shuffle. Check out the video for an added twist.

FAITH HILL
"But I Will" (Warner Bros.)

Faith Hill's amazing success story has thus far included two songs, both uptempo, both hits. Now with "But I Will," she shows us that her sweet voice can tear into a ballad with the best of them.

GIBSON MILLER BAND
"Mamas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up To Be Cowboys" (Epic)

Dave Gibson and Blue Miller are naturals to cover Waylon & Willie's 1978 classic. From the soundtrack to the upcoming Kiefer Sutherland and Woody Harrelson film The Cowboy Way.

BILLY RAY CYRUS
"Talk Some" (Mercury)

Billy Ray goes back to the winning formula with a Don Von "Achy Breaky" Tress song that fits perfectly with Billy Ray's own style.

TRISHA YEARWOOD & AARON NEVILLE
"I Fall To Pieces" (MCA)

Trisha has said that she was hesitant to cover a Patsy song, but once the recording was finished, she knew that she and Aaron had done it justice. What an understatement. A beautiful, emotional performance.

TIM MALCHAK
"The Distance" (Conquest/Full House)

Don't overlook this gem. Tim wrote it, and it will grab you with lines like: "there was a time I thought we'd go the distance, but now the distance is the only thing we share."

ARTIST PROFILE

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL

THEY ARE: Ray Benson (guitars and vocals), Tim Alexander (piano, accordion and harmony vocals), Cindy Cashdollar (Hawaiian steel guitar), Mike Francis (saxophone), Ricky Turpin (fiddle, electric guitar, mandolin and vocals), David Earl Miller (bass), Tommy Beavers (drums).

LABEL: Liberty

PROMOTION SR. VP: Bill Catino

CURRENT ALBUM: Tribute To The Music Of Bob Wills and The Texas Playboys, featuring George Strait, Vince Gill, Garth Brooks, Lyle Lovett, Dolly Parton, Suzy Bogguss, Marty Stuart, Merle Haggard, Brooks & Dunn, Willie Nelson, Johnny Rodriguez, Riders In The Sky and various Texas Playboys.

HISTORY: The group first came together in the early '70s when Ray Benson, Leroy Preston and Lucky Oceans began playing bar and lodge gigs in West Virginia.

BIG BREAK: The road manager of Commander Cody and his Lost Planet Airmen suggested that the group move to San Francisco, where they finally connected at the Longbranch Saloon, drawing enough press attention to garner the first of nine different recording contracts.

THEY SAY: "(The album) was a unique, once in a lifetime chance with the result being a historic collection of Western swing music."
—Ray Benson

IT'S SAID: "The first band I saw live at the famous Cains Ballroom in Tulsa was Ray Benson and Asleep At The Wheel. There we were, in the place where Bob Wills put it all together, listening to the best Western swing band I'd ever heard."

Inside Connections

Today's GAVIN Connections chart is a composite of 541 playlists submitted by our Top 40, Urban and A/C stations.

Eight of Top 40's top nine also have numbers on the A/C chart, while seven of A/C's top ten are ranked over at Top 40. From the Top 40 set, only Enigma's "Return To Innocence" doesn't double-up at A/C. From the A/C set, only the Chapman/Carrack, Troccoli, and the Kenny G/Neville don't match up.

Consensus #1 from the two formats is Madonna's "I'll Remember (Theme from With Honors)," which scores at 422 of a possible 467 stations. Proving themselves at both formats with single digit status already are Toni Braxton's current single, "You Mean The World To Me," and Jon Secada's, "If You Go."

All-4-One's "I Swear" is the latest single to become a numbered item in all our Connected formats, as it debuts at #39 in Urban. Check out its #2 at Top 40. Not bad for a song that has already seen itself as a #1 in, of all formats, Country, in its original form by John Michael Montgomery earlier this year. That would make the song itself the first four-way success since the Connections chart was begun 13 months ago.

Already in a "must play" category is the newest from Mariah Carey, "Anytime You Need A Friend," which has debuted at #19 on Top 40 and #28 at A/C.

This week's GAVIN GO chart highlights begin with Joshua Kadison's #6 on the GO, six ranks ahead of the main chart. But not to be overlooked further down the chart is the #31 for Primal Scream's "Rocks." Debuts include John Mellencamp & Me'shell NdegeOcello's "Wild Night" at #32, Pink Floyd's #34 for "Take It Back" and Beth Nielsen Chapman and

Beth Nielsen Chapman

Paul Carrack's #35 for "In the Time It Takes." All four of these tracks have yet to number on the main chart.

—RON FRIE

Let's listen in on a very realistic, yet hypothetical, conversation with a small market station.

Promoter: "Hey Stan, have you heard the new Johnny and the Portables' track?"

P.D.: "Don't have it."

Promoter: "How about the new Choking Puppies track?"

P.D.: "No, don't have that one either."

Etc., etc., etc.

This has been a very common conversation with my small market programmers recently. Why is it so difficult for record companies to keep their mailing lists up-to-date? All the changes in Top 40 reporting stations' status, whether it be additions or deletions, are printed in our various trade magazines. There are lists available that at a minimum will give you the programmer's name, the station call letters and a phone number. You can even service your single through the trade magazines to make sure that everyone has your record. I'm just one person, but it takes me only an average of one hour a month to keep my Top 40 list current with the programmer's name, station address, phone and fax. This way, I'm not wasting money on mis-information.

True, all fault may not lay at the feet of the record companies. To be a Top 40 radio station in the '90s, you must let people know you are out there. Make sure you know who your local reps are and make sure they know who you are. Send out a weekly playlist and let them know if you have some great retail stories. Give them a few examples of successful promotions you have run and tell them you want to feature their artist on a given weekend or during a given week.

What's that you say? Oh, you tried reaching your local? They didn't call you back? You've tried many times to reach them? You've never heard from them?

I hear these comments more times than you'd care to believe. In that case, you have locals that aren't doing their jobs and record company executives who are either not asking, or just don't see servicing you as a priority.

Not getting CD-single service is very frustrating. At this point however, it's a problem that must be dealt with every day. Be persistent—don't quit faxing and calling and faxing and calling. You will eventually be heard.

My advice to record companies? Open your ears and listen. Look for that new avenue. You may find out that when no one else will play your record, small market stations will give you a shot and give you the honest feedback you're looking for.

You don't have to drive to visit these stations every four weeks (though I'm sure they wouldn't mind!), buy them breakfast, remember their wife's birthday or when their dog died. Just give them a call to make sure they have what they need. Let them know you have an important new artist coming out soon and maybe even ask their opinion of the record. They may actually make your job easier and give you a story you can spread throughout your markets.

Record companies need to sell records. They need to find airplay at radio to expose their artists to the public so the audience can decide if it's a hit. These smaller markets, in many cases, will give you that chance. You don't need to give them the world, because right now they'd just settle for receiving regular service.

I welcome your comments and suggestions. Please call me at (312) 280-1212.

Rock Releases

DROWN

Hold On To The Hollow (Elektra)

Abrasive, unpredictable and hard is the best way to describe the throngs of digital rock tunes that Drown (Lauren Boquette, vocals; Joseph Bishara, programming/guitars; Rob Nicholson, bass; Marco Forcone, drums) conjure up on their debut record for Elektra Records, Hold On To The Hollow. You should already be familiar with Drown's rough-edged industrial sound from their single What It Is To Burn, which was sent to rock/metal radio a few weeks ago. The single was embraced by stations like WSGR, WCWP, WKNC, KZRX, WMHB and KDUR, and others who have listeners who demand a regular dose of a gritty industrial music. Dave Oglivie, founding member and producer of Skinny Puppy, (he's also mixed for Nine Inch Nails and Ministry), put his magical mixing skills to work and oversaw production. Unlike recent industrial releases, Drown doesn't emphasize major metallic riffs or traditional hard rock rhythms; instead they wrap their sardonic melodies with layers of dizzying electronic sound effects, undirected jaded guitar chords and Boquette's straining vocals. This is not a pretty album by any means. Rather, it's an angry, angst-riddled mayhem of industrial music that was constructed by turning the band's emotions into songs. Be sure to check out "I Owe You," "Lost" "Pieces Of Man" and "Transparent."

ARTIST PROFILES

NINE INCH NAILS,

PART 2

TRENT REZNOR CONTINUES:

ADRIAN BELEW: "I was aware of his work with Bowie and his own solo stuff. His name popped up at the end of the recording of Spiral. The songs were pretty much finished but Flood and I wondered what it would have been like if we'd had some other musical input. We just had him play and it was an astonishing moment. He triggered something in me that made a real impression. I've been afraid to work with high-calibre people. I'm always been in awe when they're sitting next to me with the idea of creating music together which is pretty intimate. But I've gotten over that fear and I realize that I'm a lot more competent in the studio than I've been before. I'd like to incorporate other people in the future. That moment when things do spark and you realize that someone has contributed something you'd never thought and made you come up with something you'd never have thought of is a pretty valuable moment."

THE LABEL, NOTHING: "We've already signed Marilyn Manson, Pop Will Eat Itself, Prick, Coil and Trust Obey. When the situation at TVT was remedied by getting onto Interscope, Interscope offered us a great deal. They went into the relationship knowing what Nine Inch Nails was about and what we wanted. Essentially what we wanted was just to be left alone to make music. That was the problem with TVT. I could deal with not getting paid, but don't tell me how to write music and how my video should look or who's going to remix my music. That doesn't mean that I'm not open to criticism, but I want that from someone I respect. Now Interscope gives us a chunk of money and we deliver a finished product with art work and an overview of the type of marketing plan that we feel is appropriate and at the level of saturation we want. There's a danger if your record is marketed improperly, there's a danger of getting played too much at MTV and that could shorten the life of the band. If bands come along that I want to work with or just believe in would I be interested in bringing them to Interscope. I want to be able to have the time and attention and resources to spend on good bands. My basic creed is keeping it small and finding new bands like Marilyn Manson, for example, or Prick that I think are bands that know what they want, have something going for them and can benefit from a major label with ample budgets, good distribution and marketing power with tour support and video capability and the promise of total artistic freedom. Also to be made knowledgeable of the mechanics of how record labels work. Yes, you can spend half a million on a video, but it's your money. A band like Marilyn Manson has a commercial success factor where they may come underground and never break out with a great record like they've made or catch on and compete in a higher sales figure marketplace. Marilyn Manson will be our first release in June with Pop Will Eat Itself soon after. We're licensing their art in America. Pop Will Eat Itself is just an example of a good band on a bad label. What Marilyn Manson is putting out is on the edge of several fronts and it's confrontational. They're tongue-in-cheek and could be considered offensive. I think they're doing something unique and they have a cool spirit that I'd hate to see get smoothed over for MTV or radio.

WHAT HE OFFERS BANDS: "I'm in a fortunate situation. I know how bad it can be and I can provide a shell. I don't want to hold people's hands or become a record company guy. I like the idea of keeping it broad based."

Hard Rock Releases

SKATENIGS What A Mangled Web We Leave (Red Light)

By now you should be familiar with the Skatenigs' scolding industrial metallic sound because their single, Regret, was shipped to rock radio a few weeks back. Now it's time to journey farther down the spiraling spuzz-rock trail with the release of What A Mangled Web We Leave. The embodiment of unrestraint, the Skatenigs combine a mangled web of sampling and synthesizers with quick tempoed metallic guitar grooves, bashing drums and domineering bass thumps that have all the qualities for a good mosh. The first track, "Passion For Destruction," starts with mechanical sound effects and sampling that explodes into fast metallic chords unleashing ferocious grooves that seem to retreat only to rise back into full throated waves of rhythmic recklessness. "Texas Tattoo" contains the same metallic traits but with more emphasis placed on the radical guitar riffs. "Sign The Dotted Line," "Ranch Apocalypse" and "Rip Off" are other tracks that seethe with aggressiveness and political incorrect attitudes. Breaking the laws of traditional metal and industrial music with their unique sound, these cyberpunk cowboys are the desperadoes of rock.

and trumpeter Randy Brecker, plus a masterful arrangement of Lennon & McCartney's
"Dear Prudence".

Basia Moore

The smooth vocals of one of Europe's leading Jazz vocalists joins with violin virtuoso Michal Urbaniak to create an exciting new release.

"Basia Moore is unique electrifying and original."
W. Royal Stokes / Jazz Times

"Basia Moore is truly a jazz singer."

BOBBY WATSON MIDWEST SHUFFLE (COLUMBIA)

Bobby Watson's Horizon jazz-matazses his listeners through an actual concert situation, complete with small talk and flashy solos that bear a bit more bravado than traditional recording dates. We suggest you skip the small talk and jump straight to Horizon's most cracking performance, "Complex Dialogue." Watson has taken great pains to make this a high quality live recording. Drummer Victor Lewis, Watson's longtime Horizon partner, sets the high drama over an especially tasteful, percussive bass riff by Essiet Essiet. Watson explodes with confidence as he and Lewis finish each other's musical sentences while Terell Stafford fends for himself admirably on trumpet, never surrendering to Watson's powerful reedy presence. What makes this a more powerful live package is that Horizon rolled tape on six different gigs from four different venues, echoing the high standards of live recording generally only afforded to rock acts. The result is a noticeably more energetic, roof-blowing sound spectrum emanating from the bandstand.

JIM HALL DEDICATIONS AND INSPIRATIONS (TELARC)

To Sonny Rollins he's "the greatest guitarist in jazz" while Itzhak Perlman calls him a "virtuoso." To jazz fans he's an ever-clever, tastefully lyrical, tirelessly self-challenging and self-deprecating guitarist. On Dedications And Inspirations, his first-ever solo excursion, Jim Hall paints 13 portraits derived from the "paintings, events, poetry, friends, scenery, encounters, music—experiences" that have shaped one of the jazz guitar's most prominent voices. As the liner notes attest, it's easy to hear his influence on the Methenys, Frisells, Petruccianis and Harrells; and if you've never heard any of his more than 30 recordings, DEI is a great springboard. Some favorites from this session include the happily bouncy "Whistle Stop," dedicated to Far Side cartoonist Gary Larson; the haunting, fragile "Canto Nostalgico"; the Friday-afternoon-margarita calypso, "Street Dance"; the wave-like ebb and flow of "Monet"; and the gut-bucket Leadbelly twang of "Bluesography" (be sure to note that this 13-minute tune is broken into five tasty pieces). It's important to take note of each tune's dedicatee or inspirer—perhaps the listener can catch a brief glimpse of Hall's internal creative psyche.—JASON OLAINE

ON BEING A "YOUNG LION": "It's certainly had a positive effect on my career; they overdo it a bit sometimes, and some of the older cats get a bad taste in their mouth, and I can see why. So on most of my recordings I try to have a veteran on the scene."

LESSONS LEARNED: "I've learned more about chords and sound; having a good, fat sound; more about pacing and having variety throughout a set."

LESSONS FOR YOUNGSTERS: "Deal with your influences—but paraphrase it like Miles. He took all the cats he listened to, put them in a funnel and came out with something new. It's also important to be well-rounded, especially today."

FUTURE PLANS: "I plan to be very productive on the recording side, and I'd like to get into movies—definitely do some movie scores and projects with vocals. Also, I'd really like to play with a drum choir from Senegal or somewhere—just the drums and me."

having his music relegated to background ambiance. In fact, he encourages it in much the same way most A<sup>2</sup> stations encourage their weekday office listeners to keep them on in the background. SMCII is a mixture of full band pieces interspersed with quaint solo vehicles, like those of acoustic guitarist Doug Smith, who strums along like a protégé of Leo Kottke. Between Richard Burmer's scenic synth landscapes like "Downstream" and "Meadow Drive" are some classical violin or piano vignettes by Vivaldi and Liszt. We prefer the fuller ensemble pieces by Burmer, John Archer and Davis himself.

VAN MORRISON A Night In San Francisco (Polydor)

Late last year Van Morrison played a series of Christmas concerts at the lovely Masonic Auditorium in San Francisco. The concerts, which caused a stir, featured Van with an old-fashioned soul revue that included John Lee Hooker, Jimmy Witherspoon, Junior Wells and newcomer Brian Kennedy. Mixing a stream-of-consciousness selection of Van-songs with a number of well-known R&B and blues classics, the band had no trouble jamming two CDs with marathon medleys. Van maintains total control throughout.

STEVIE NICKS "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind" (Modern Records/Atlantic)

Excellent mainstream stuff from Stevie Nicks. This one could have easily been plucked from the best of Fleetwood Mac. The easy tempo and slight mandolin makes this an ideal A<sup>3</sup> candidate for those of you who fancy a familiar, friendly voice.

BILL LLOYD Set To Pop (East Side Digital)

Some old, new, borrowed and blue from Bill Lloyd. Some of you may remember him from his Elephant Part's alternative album. Some may remember him from Foster &

Lloyd's, Bill's Country alter ego. Set To Pop worships in the house of Big Star, Badfinger, Dwight Twilley Band and the Byrds. In fact, Big Star drummer Jody Stephens appears as does Marshall Crenshaw and Al Kooper. As we speak, Bill's involved in building another superstar Country band, but this is really where his heart is: playing precious guitar pop. The witty "I Went Electric" features Crenshaw on the bridge.

Inside A<sup>3</sup>

Hey! It's been a while since we talked. What ya drinking? Bartender! Another one over here for our friend...With all the radio commotion going down in Boulder, don't forget the bottom line: jobs, not gossip. KBCO is certainly looking for a new PD, sales folk, maybe more. And if 96.5 (the new Evergreen signal) is to be up and cranking by June or July, they're going to need awesome talent. Anybody looking to relocate to one of the prime growth spots of the United States should be polishing up that resume and bugging SBR and Dennis Constantine about opportunities. Quality stations and healthy competition is only going to help this format...Speaking of jobs, Steve Zind at WNCS in beautiful Montpelier is stepping down as PD to continue his air shift and basically get a life. He's looking for the right successor. Call (802)-223-2396...It Never Stops Department: With SFO1 slowly fading into the background (GAVIN's SFO1 presented over 200 bands in 25 clubs!), it's now time to look ahead to the Second Annual Gavin A<sup>3</sup> Invitational Strategy Summit. Starting this week, we plan to start booking talent. Lots and lots of you have already called with your suggestions, which we appreciate. Due to popular demand, we'll be studying various ways of exposing talents not only at the Fox Theatre (three nights this year!), but at surprise day appearances (a la Melissa and Hiatt), under the Talent Tent performances (registration barbeque on Thursday evening and Friday Night Cocktail Party), inside-the-hotel-bar beer busts and especially that post-gig lounge with the living room and pool table. What a hang that was! Call with your ideas. Wouldn't it be nice to have all the bands booked by the end of June?...We hear Kid Leo is organizing a Boulder A<sup>3</sup> Summit Golf Tourney. Leo? Golf? Naawww...One of the things we'll cover in Boulder will be Growing Pains. Having been through this whole new format thing on the A<sup>2</sup> side, there's a lot of information to be dispensed. Don't let a down book get you down. Remember when the industry (after a brief honeymoon period) blew A<sup>2</sup> dead? Last I checked, it was still a thriving adult-driven major market force. The next trend in A<sup>3</sup> will be research...Heard the new Stevie Nicks single yet? Admit it. It's great...Anybody watching Dennis Miller's HBO Show every Friday Night at Midnight? It's a cross between Lenny Bruce and That Was The Week That Was. The writing is superb, especially his poetic rewrite of Casey At The Bat lambasting Daryl Strawberry. Never has a half hour flown so fast. Fuck it, who wants pie?...This week the GAVIN Alternative people down the hall based their first chart on Plays Per Weeks or Spins. Got an opinion regarding A<sup>3</sup>? Personally, we can go either way. Right now we're studying things from the sidelines, maybe looking to mix things up for our special June Anniversary Issue. If you're already tabulating PPW, you can call/FAX the identical report to Gavin. Just insert lines separating Heavy, Mediums & Lights. Your input is always appreciated...Our fave of the week is John Gorka's Out Of The Valley. The first four songs are quite simply masterpieces, especially "That's Why," possibly the most poignant song ever written about Elvis Presley. When the aliens come knockin', asking about America, we'll play them that song...And finally, glad to hear David Broza is doing fine after falling ill after a gig in Dallas. Apparently the Hardest Working Israeli In Show Biz had to actually cancel gigs, a Broza first. Given the nature of this guy's work ethic, that hurt him more than the setback. Naturally when I called he was already north of New York City recording a new album. You just can't keep that guy down.

were touring the U.S. in a bus, when rock n roll was in need of a shot of soul and he's there now that adults now have an "in" on rock radio. Revered and relocated in France, Willy DeVille's new record contains the same flavors found on classic Mink DeVille albums as well as on his solo efforts. While "All In The Name Of Love" will cater to Mink fans, I think the norteno cover of "Hey Joe" takes the cake.

Inside Alternative

Phase two of our expansion and overhaul of the Alternative section was completed this week, which is why the chart looks a bit different. As you can see, we are now generating a Spins Per Week chart. After endless rounds of computer tweaking, we've finally come up with a comprehensive and concise means giving you our information. Since this week marks the chart's debut, there's no last week/this week information to pass along, but in the future this information will be reflected in the Spins and Trend columns.

And while I've got your attention, please note the following reporting times: College radio-Mondays, 8:30 - 4:00 PST. Faxes accepted on Tuesdays before noon. Commercial radio-Mondays, 8:30 - 4:00 PST. Faxes and phones accepted on Tuesdays before 3:00 PST.

Well, the San Jose Sharks may have let fans in the Bay Area down, but KROQ-Los Angeles' Kevin Weatherly made things less painful with the debut of the new KOME 98.5—a rock station with an acute alternative angle. The station flipped on Friday, May 13 of all days, and ushered in a Rock Of The '90s station for the South Bay to the sounds of Nirvana's "Smells Like Teen Spirit." Although it was tough for him to listen objectively over the weekend, Kevin says, "This is going to be a lot of fun." The new KOME is more rock than Live 105 and more contemporary than KSJO, but both stations are clearly direct competition for the newcomer. Surprisingly, Howard Stern's morning drive show, which has been sluggish in the ratings, is going to stay, with the hopes that he can connect with the new, younger listeners. As for the staff, PD Ron Nenni is staying put, while former Edge-er Jay Taylor assumes APD/MD duties. No word yet on air talent. For more information on this story, check out the News section at the front of the magazine.

Faith Henscel is rumored to be leaving Elektra in the wake of the company's recent marketing shake up, and heading back to Capitol Records.

WCHZ-Augusta has a new voice mail system that's been in effect since last week. In case you're getting frustrated with the new technology (get used to it), it might help you to know that Julie Hoyt's mailbox number is 22, and Rob Nicholson's is 12.

With the recent departure of Mark Keefe, WVXU-Cincinnati is in the process of appointing a new music director. Until one can be found, any music inquiries can be addressed to operations manager, George Zahn.

WDST-Woodstock is seeing great success with their Plugged-In series, which so far has featured The Lemonheads, The Connells, Urge Overkill, Swinging Steaks, 700 Miles, James and many others. In fact, Arista Records liked The Crash Test Dummies live version of "Mmm Mmm Mmm" so much they're going to release it. WDST is currently shopping for a syndication deal that would make Plugged-In available to Alternative and A<sup>3</sup> stations. For more information, give Freddie Blue Fox a buzz at (914) 679-7266.

Live 105-San Francisco announces the addition of Beck to their BFD concert, set for Friday June 10. The loser himself will be joining The Pretenders, The Charlatans, James, The Rollins Band, Toad The Wet Sprocket, Green Day, among others, playing the event.

The following day, June 11, is KROQ's Weenie Roast. In its second year out, Weenie Roast is already on the way to becoming a major event in Los Angeles. This year's concert features many of the same bands as Live 105's BFD, with the addition of Pavement, The Afghan Whigs and Frente.

On Sunday, June 12, 91-X-San Diego presents their Sun Fest. In addition to many of the above bands, Sun Fest features The Church and The Smithereens. Sounds like a road trip is in order.

Speaking of great shows, Primal Scream played a word-of-mouth show last Monday night at Slim's in San Francisco. The sold-out show was the hot ticket in town, and with the price tag of $1.05 (it was Live 105's show), you couldn't lose. The band rocked through selections from Screamadelica and Give Out But Don't Give Up—and came back for three encores. Guess I have a snowball's chance in hell of hearing anything from Sonic Flower Groove or Primal Scream these days.

GAVIN'S newest event, SFO 1, takes place this weekend. We've modelled this event after SXSW, with a heavy emphasis on spotlighting our local artists. Even though it's only our first event of this kind, we have over 200 bands playing! We have a diverse music scene in the Bay Area that includes known acts like Counting Crows, Green Day, 4 Non Blondes, Faith No More, Swell, Red House Painters, American Music Club, The Meices, Overwhelming Colorfast, Metallica and Jellyfish. There is no one "sound" that defines the Bay,

ARTIST PROFILE

LABEL: Wax Trax!/TVT Records

PRODUCER: KMFDM, Inc./Sascha Konietzko

WHAT DOES KMFDM STAND FOR (SOMETIMES): Kein Mehrheit Fuer Die Mitleid or No Pity for the Majority.

MOST POPULAR

INTERPRETATION: Kill Mother Ficking Depeche Mode

VOCALIST/GUITARIST EN ESCH ON HIS CURRENT NEW ORLEANS RESIDENCE: There are these deep and intense, yet, on the other hand, reduced and minimalistic vibes. Here, you can hear the screaming souls of thousands of slaves.

EN ESCH LISTENS TO: Liszt, Mozart, Dead Can Dance and the Cocteau Twins.

DREAM BAND TO TOUR WITH: Front 242

VOCALIST SASCHA KONIETZKE ON THEIR AUDIENCE RELATIONSHIP:

We don't really want to get a message out. We as artists are not supposed to be teachers. People can make their own conclusions, but we're not leaving them with a mass of anger and protest and destruction.

New Releases

VELOCITY GIRL

"Sorry Again" (Sub Pop)

You'll love the way Velocity Girl's heady pop commands you to move, and move you will from the minute you hear "Sorry Again's" spikey guitar intro to the very end, some two and a half minutes later. Grunge? No way! D.C.'s Velocity Girl—named after one of Primal Scream's pop classics—make it okay to like guitar-driven power pop again. In fact, you might say, they put the 'pop' in Sub Pop. Produced by John Porter, "Sorry Again" has a tougher, less Anglo sound that scores a direct hit in reflecting the band's awesome live sound. And did I mention that Sarah's pin-up/star potential rivals Belly's Tonya Donnelly and Juliana Hatfield's? Shame on me. "Sorry Again" is already being adored by the listeners of KROQ, WIIZ, 99X, KACV, WHFS and WOXY. Look no further. Next week's add is right here.

THE CHURCH

"Two Places At Once" (Arista)

After fourteen years and many enjoyable albums, The Church have stripped down to Steve Kilby and Marty Willson-Piper—the main songwriters of the band. Not being there during the recording process, I couldn't say for sure that the change made the two work harder, but it certainly sounds as though, at the very least, they enjoyed their new freedom immensely. After jamming in the studio and getting the music for "Two Places At Once" on tape, both Kilby and Willson-Piper went their separate ways and wrote lyrics. Each had a unique insight as to what what the song was about, and the differences are used to telling effect on this sweeping duet that hits lush, epic peaks and stark, stripped-down valleys in one fluid motion. Pink Floyd is master of that technique, and The Church could well be their disciples. Beautiful.

Inside College

I know it's early in the existence of this college chart, but a few changes are already in the works or under consideration, and your response (be you a radio or a record type) is encouraged. First, this is the last week that requests information will be provided in the chart sidebar. Only a small percentage of college stations track and report requests, so I'm not sure the information is worthwhile.

Also, please ponder this question: Would "the industry" be more interested in a college chart compiled by spins-per-week? PROS: (1) The information would be more exact. (2) The chart would no longer be affected by trends. As it now stands, when a record moves up in rotation at a station, it is awarded bonus points. That would no longer be the case were the chart based on spins-per-week. CONS: (1) Without the stabilizing influence of those bonus points for rotation changes, the chart could become a much more erratic entity. (2) Since college stations' programming policies differ widely, taking spins-per-week info would equal weighting the stations. A WXYC's #1 records may receive as many as 30 plays, while KDVS's #1 record may only get eight. (3) College radio will never be BDS-able, so there's no guarantee the spins-per-week information would be entirely accurate.

Thoughtful, short, written responses are eligible for inclusion in this column.

Here's a promo ploy for you: The Want Adds' Dave Sanford, in a bid for a return phone call from KFJC's Alan Lowe, left a message saying, "Hi Alan, this is Chris Knox. I'm staying at a friend's house in Southern California right now, but I'd like to drive up north and maybe play a few songs at the station. Call me at (213) 938-2736." More graduating MDs are pouring into the overflowing employment pool. A couple of our favorites are Andy Uhrich from WUSC, who is currently moving to Chicago, and spunky Errol Kolosine from WVFS. Andy's an Earth sign (Taurus), which means he'd fit in nicely at Matador (maybe they could open a Chicago branch), and Errol's a Cancer which means that he, like me, is completely unemployable.

Those of you attuned to the always amusing WRUV answering machine will notice that this week's message features a particularly amelodic Jeff Brown covering Frente covering New Order. Like Jacqueline Suzanne says, Once Is Not Enough.

MEXICO 70
"Wonderful Lie" (Fox/Big Pop)

Some will tell you that finding a decent drummer is the most difficult thing about putting a band together. Others say it's finding the perfect charismatic frontperson. And then there are those who have it all together musically, but can't come up with a decent name. In Mexico 70's case, the band have their chops down and the name, well, that came to singer Mick Bund in a dream. Seems he's quite the soccer enthusiast, and dreamt one night that he scored a goal in the World Cup Final in Mexico, 1970. Strange dreams aside, "Beautiful Lie" is a lazy charmer decorated with a resonating, chiming guitar and a solid pop hook. This one's perfect for the lazy summer months that are just around the corner—like the World Cup.

—LINDA RYAN

OPUS III*"When You Made The Mountain" (eastwest)

With all the rock-oriented music out there, Opus III's latest really stands out from the rest of the crowd. "When You Made The Mountain" is an dub-friendly pop song heavy on rhythm and beats. As with their 1992 hit, "It's A Fine Day," Opus III manage to convincingly toe the line between unabashed pop and club-inspired dance music. Not an easy task to pull off these days, but Opus III's "When You Made The Mountain" comes through with flying colors.

—LINDA RYAN

THE CHARLATANS*"Jesus Hairdo" (B.Banquet/Atlantic)

Now this is the track I originally picked as my choice for a single, so I'm estatic that it's the band's follow-up to "Can't Get Out Of Bed."

"Jesus Hairdo" starts with a solid groove and a wailing guitar and never lets up for a second. It's faster and more contemporary than "Can't Get Out Of Bed," yet still has The Charlatans written all over it. Perfect. Play it and make my day.

—LINDA RYAN

FRANK BLACK
Teenager Of The Year (Elektra)

Frank Black barely waited for the dust to settle on last year's first post-Pixies solo gig, before releasing Teenager Of The Year, which features 22 new songs. Black is constantly being compared to the Breeders, but that's like comparing apples to oranges, and this reviewer is just thankful to hear yawls from both camps. Teenager has surf sounds, pop hooks, reggae dub licks and big guitar aplenty, and it smacks of pure Black without regard for audience expectations. "(I Want To Live On An) Abstract Plain" muses about breaking from established modes, and Black's high, vulnerable vocals wed with an acoustic guitar. A piercing, Hawaiian guitar slurs through "Speedy Marie," and "Freedom Rock" shifts from full-throttle rocking to piano reggae dub terrain. Check out "Fiddle Riddle's" ska-spun bass line and horns, and "Ole' Mulholland's" possessed percussion. "Pure Denizen Of The Citizens Band" combines smooth keyboards with a tortured guitar, and "Bad, Wicked World" rips at mach speed as an unknown oscillating instrument gargles strange sounds. See Black live before he takes off to another planet to explore extraterrestrial noise.

College Albums*GIRLS AGAINST BOYS
Sexy Sam * I'm From France (EP) (TOUCH AND GO, P.O. BOX 25520, CHICAGO, IL 60625)

Girls Against Boys. What an apt name for a band with a history of mining this particular vein of testosterone-fueled, hardcore-informed, bass-driven, gut-churning, granite-flecked rock. And I'd suspect that, should you venture into a club to check out one of GVSB's amazing live shows, you'd find that the boys are winning: that they would, in fact, outnumber the girls in the audience by at least two to one. That ratio may change a bit after the release of this five-song GVSB EP, which includes two new tracks, "Sexy Sam" and "I'm From France," that, for many reasons, bridge a gender gap. With "Sexy Sam" and "I'm From France," GVSB bleed off a little of their angry edge by toning down just a tad. "Sexy," for example, still hits hard with a relentless bassline, controlled vocal and sonic, planing guitar, but it's sans that heretofore present angst that seems a largely male experience. (I know I'm opening up myself up to charges of reverse sexism here, but this is how I perceive it). What I mean is that "Sexy Sam" is somehow less menacing and more approachable than GVSB's earlier material. Ditto, "I'm From France," a ditty that's almost a novelty bit. Suddenly, I'm a fan.

—SEANA BARUTH

THE BILDERS VOL. 2
Beatin Hearts (FLYING NUN RECORDS, P.O. BOX 677, AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND)

The liner notes call the Bilders (formerly the Urbs) the closest thing to the Velvets coming out of live people. Fans of guitar dissonance who appreciate minimalist sounds a la Dream Syndicate and Swell Maps will feel right at home with these 19 tracks. The Bilders' music inhabits a brooding, in-between world of bats, blood and doubt. "1,000,000 Hearts" kicks things off in lax mode with a twitching guitar melody and a passive/aggressive bass line. The tickling guitar of "Moderation" combines with vocals that span from dark rantings to troubled pleas. Unfortunately, because this was recorded on four track with a lot of splicing, some songs inexplicably cut off at the very end. Things get real gone on "Bedrock Bay," on which a thumping bass drum melds with crunching guitars, and "Blue Sand Lonely" slithers on the skin of otherworldly keyboards and an ominous bass line.

"Accident" mines a "Munster's Theme" groove before guitar noise crashes the party and obliterates everything with flashes of strobe noise, and "Inquest" steps from the shadows with an appealing guitar melody and hypnotic organ. "Kicks" jives with thrashing drums and "Red Sky's" bass line lurches as the guitar issues a gravelly gargle. This is the kind of record that makes me thankful that New Zealand is behind the times, and bands create in an environment that stresses experimentation without putting a premium on production.

—DAVID BERAN

BIG SANDY AND HIS FLY-RITE BOYS
Jumping From 6 To 6 (HIGHTONE, 220 4TH STREET, OAKLAND, CA 94607)

It must have happened to you at some time—the day when you seem to lose all faith in recorded music. If you know that lonely feeling, I have two words of advice: Big Sandy. This record could make even the most crusty and jaded shout for joy. Big Sandy and the Fly-Rite Boys are a Los Angeles-based outfit that have been tearing up the L.A. roots scene for years. Though lumped with the rockabilly bands, they have more in common with the hillbilly boogie of, say, George and Earl or Frankie Miller than the straight rockabilly cats. But please, let's not quibble.

Big Sandy released a self-titled import album in 1989 (of course the Brits have always been more hip to American roots music than we are; Big Sandy sell out 3,000-seat halls overseas), but this time around producer and ex-Blaster Dave Alvin managed to really capture the pure, joyous, jumpin' sounds that are Big Sandy. Unless you're familiar with the obscure gems from the golden age of hillbilly boogie (the late '40s-'50s) you be hard pressed to tell the covers from the originals, a testament to how deeply drenched these boys are in this style of music. Get it and get gone.

THE PUPPIES

Funky Y-2-C (Chaos)

After months of talking this track up it's finally arrived. These Miami youngsters bust it with a sound just right for summer and a hook, "Hey little mamma why you dance so funky?" that's bound to catch on fast. Supported by a totally hot video that's picking up major requests on THE BOX.

BOSTON

I Need Your Love (MCA)

Superstars in the '70s, they returned to make a noteworthy comeback in the '80s. Now Tom Scholz creates his first masterpiece of the '90s. It seems their fan base has endured over the years, as they've remained true to that one-of-a-kind Boston sound.

SEAL

Prayer For The Dying (Ztt/Sire/Warner Bros.)

Think Seal and the first word that comes to mind is "originality." His compelling way of telling a story through song is made even more dramatic by his vocal delivery and Trevor Horn's production expertise.

By Dave Sholin

ETERNAL Just A Step From Heaven (EMI/ERG)

There was little doubt this foursome would experience anything less than the tremendous success they've had in the U.K. Eternal has that unique quality which makes it possible for them to bridge crossover and mainstream Top 40 with ease. It's difficult to resist the groove.

JAMES Say Something (Fontana/Mercury)

Always inventive, every James release seems to be laced with pop accessibility but with enough of an edge to satisfy alternative audiences. Haunting instrumental and vocal work drives this Brian Eno production.

QUEEN LATIFAH Weekend Love (Motown)

A major force at Crossover and Rap radio, Dana Owens, a/k/a Queen Latifah, could be well on the road to scoring her first mainstream Top 40 hit. Whatever you do, don't judge this entry without a careful listen. Perfect right now!

BABYFACE When Can I See You (Epic)

Definitely the coolest! One of music's most accomplished writers/singers/producers seductively slow jams with an attitude. Love the acoustic approach.

FEM 2 FEM Waiting In Tangier (Avenue Foch/Critique)

Sensuality tinged with sweetness, one of the most publicized new acts on the scene demonstrate that they're just as capable in taking the soft approach as well as the uptempo dance route.

Albums .....

STAKKA BO Supermarket (Polydor/PLG)

With the recent success of Ace Of Base and Whale, Stockholm, Sweden may well be the next Seattle. The latest export is a man named Stakka Bo, whose "Here We Go" has topped the charts in a multitude of countries, and America's next. Stakka Bo's beat-heavy sound combines hip hop, ultra smooth jazz and enough pop hooks to send him to the top of just about any format—except maybe Country. Favorite tracks include the aforementioned "Here We Go," "Down The Drain," "Everything," "On Your Knees," "Living It Up" and the slow, reggae dub-tinged, "We." The music will really move you.

RODNEY CROWELL

Let The Picture Paint Itself (MCA)

Rodney's MCA Nashville debut reunites him with producer and pal Tony Brown (Diamonds And Dirt) and seems to find him in a better frame of mind than last year's dark, cathartic Life Is Messy, which was written in the midst of his divorce from Rosanne Cash. With Let The Picture Paint Itself, Crowell reaffirms why he is considered one of Nashville's best songwriters; the songs are pure, spare poetry wrapped in beautiful melodies. Highlights are the amazing Guy Clark co-write

"Stuff That Works," "I Don't Fall In Love So Easy," "That Ol' Door," and "Give My Heart A Rest."

—CYNDI HOELZLE

TOMMY EMMANUEL The Journey (550 Music/Epic)

In his native Australia, guitarist Tommy Emmanuel already has a few solo albums out on Columbia and he's racked up hundreds of thousands in sales. Hoping to conquer America, Emmanuel evokes a collaborative spirit with cameo appearances by Chet Atkins, Joe Walsh and Dave Koz. Equally lucid on acoustic and electric, The Journey is as eclectic as you might expect—part breezy ("Hellos & Goodbyes"), part crunchy ("Tailin' The Invisible Man") and part ethereal ("Villa Anita").

—KEITH ZIMMERMAN

BONEY JAMES Backbone (Warner Bros.)

Warner Bros. gave saxophonist Boney James his major label stripes after his previous sweet-sounding collection, Trust, spiked its way up the A+ chart two years ago. On Backbone, James joins a competitive fraternity of hot Southern California sax talent—Dave Koz, Gerald Albright and Tom Scott, to name a few. On tracks like "Love You All My Lifetime" and the title cut, Boney's silky tenor borrows from the soulful phrases of Junior Walker as much as it does the pop smoothness of vintage John Klemmer.—KENT ZIMMERMAN

DAWN PENN No, No, No (Big Beat/Atlantic)

As a schoolgirl in Jamaica, Dawn Penn made her recording debut in the late '60s with the song "You Don't Love Me (No, No, No)." Almost three decades later, Dawn Penn re-recorded that debut single, and included it in a collection that is radio friendly and a surprise to those who might be put off by reggae. Dawn created what she feels are "good songs that are properly backed up, where you can hear hear words that make sense." My favorites include the Smokey Robinson-penned "I Want A Love I Can See," "Night And Day," "I'm Sorry," "Hurt," "Samfi Boy," and "Blue Yes Blue." No, No, No is certainly a yes, yes, yes.

JON SECADA

Heart, Soul & A Voice (SBK/ERG)

Jon Secada's much-anticipated sophomore effort was worth the wait. Heart, Soul & A Voice is rich in songs that will win Secada new fans while pleasing his old ones. Instant favorites are "Mental Picture," "Stay," Diane Warren's "Where Do I Go From You," plus his new Top Ten hit, "If You Go," which also appears in Spanish on the CD. Looking to expand on his R&B/dance appeal, also check out the Marvin Gaye-inspired "Good Feelings," "Take Me," featuring Betty Wright on background vocals, and "Fat Chance." Welcome back, Jon.
