Merle Kilgore Passes

It is with an especially heavy heart that I report the death of performer, songwriter and manager Merle Kilgore. He died Feb. 6 at age 70 of congestive heart failure related to complications from ongoing cancer treatment. He is survived by his wife, Judy; sons Steve and Duane Kilgore; daughters Pam Compton, Kim Pomeroy and Shane McBee; eight grandchildren; and one great granddaughter. Visitation is set for Monday, Feb. 14 from 4-8pm at the Hendersonville Funeral Home, 353 Johnny Cash Parkway, Hendersonville, TN 37075.

The funeral will be Feb. 15, with visitation at the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville at 11am and a memorial service to follow at noon. A procession to the gravesite service will follow. Flowers may be sent to the Hendersonville Funeral Home.

A member of the NSAI Songwriter's Hall of Fame, Kilgore composed songs including Webb Pierce's No. 1 "More and More"; Claude King's "Wolverton Mountain"; and the classic "Ring of Fire," written with June Carter Cash and recorded by Johnny Cash. It's indeed ironic that the "Ring of Fire" co-writer would pass away just a few days after the song's producer, Frank Jones.

With Kilgore's death, Music Row has lost one of its greatest personalities. Merle was impossible to describe. Even to say he was bigger than life doesn't describe him adequately. His booming voice and even bigger smile lit up every room he entered.

My favorite Merle memory was when my wife and I toured Ireland with the Kilgores and Bill and June Denny. The six of us in a van for a week — and Merle regaled us with countless stories of Nashville's early days.

Also on that trip he fulfilled his lifelong dream of kissing the Blarney Stone. I was manning the video camera at the time, and Merle was very concerned about what got on tape. You see, you have to hang upside down to kiss the stone. And he was very worried about being caught on tape with his toupee hanging in a less than gentlemanly manner.

Rest in peace, Merle. You will be missed.

Mr. Smith Goes To Tulsa

As forecast in the Jan. 25 R&R Country Hotfax, WIXY/Champaign, IL's RW Smith has indeed been named PD of Journal/Tulsa's Country-Classic Country combo KVOO & KXBL. He starts Feb. 14 and succeeds Moon Mullins, who left the stations at the end of last year. Smith spent seven and a half years at WIXY, which was named the CMA Small Market Station of the Year in 2002.

Tracy Gets WOOZie

WOOZ (Z100)/Marion-Carbondale, IL Asst. PD/middayer Tracy McSherry-McKown has been promoted to PD. She takes over for OM Rusty James, who has been programming WOOZ since last June. McSherry joined WOOZ five years ago after spending 15 years with crosstown Country WDDD, which she programmed in the late 1990s. She also previously

Roberts Resigns

Universal South Dir./National Promotion Denise Roberts has resigned, effective immediately. She can be reached at DeniseRMusic@aol.com or 818-281-1420.

The four-time winner of R&R's Industry Achievement award for Country Regional Promotion said she's going to take a little time off and "hopes people remember me when I come back." You'll certainly see her at the CRS, since she's a CRB Board member who is also chairing the CRS-Las Vegas event.

Dunaway To Baton Rouge

Dave Dunaway has been named Dir./Programming for Classic Country WTGE and Country WYPY/Baton Rouge. Dunaway was previously OM for Mississippi Radio Group in Tupelo. He replaces Randy Chase, who left Baton Rouge in November for OM/PD duties in Columbia, SC.

A Walk On The Lazy Side

Mercury and MCA promoter E.J. Bernas' charity walk-a-thon, Starts With 1, is a 100-yard walk, all of which he guarantees is downhill, that will benefit St. Jude Children's Hospital and takes place on Feb. 11. Registration is at 4:45pm at McGuiness Pub on Demonbreun. The walk begins at 5:15pm and ends at the Tin Roof. Walkers will then turn to revelers to the tunes of Wynn Varbel. There's a $100 fine if you walk too fast.

And heal-in-a-hurry wishes go out to Bernas, who broke his left hand in a hockey game a couple weeks ago. It was only the second time his Nashville Hit Men teammates let their goalie skate out of the net, and E.J. promptly got a close-up view of the boards.

This Week At Callout America

Our weekly analysis of Country callout research is brought to you by Bullseye President John Hart. Here's a look at some of the biggest stories Hart looks at in the Feb. 11 issue.

"Alan Jackson's 'Monday Morning Church' repeats as the No. 1 song overall in this week's Callout America, and it's the No. 1 passion song too. Craig Morgan is on fire with 'That's What I Like About Sunday,' moving from No. 5 overall to No. 2 this week. Keith Urban's 'You're My Better Half' is new to the top 10 total positive titles as the No. 7 song this week, up strong from last week's No. 11. Andy Griggs' 'If Heaven,' also new to Callout America's top 10 titles, is the No. 9 song, up strong from No. 13 last week."

Star Power

Nashville Star has selected 10 finalists for its third season, a nine-week run that will culminate in the grand prize winner signing a recording contract with Universal South Records. The season premiers March 1 on the USA Network.

The finalists are: Justin David, 30, from Marshfield, MO; Jody Evans, 28, from Donaldson, AR; Jenny Farrell, 35, from Albuquerque; Erika Jo Heriges, 18, from Angleton, TX; Christy McDonald, 29, from Tabor City, NC; Jason Meadows, 33, from Calera, OK; Josh Owen, 19, from Brownsboro, TX; Casey Simpson, 19, from Cerritos, CA; Tamika Tyler, 33, from Coffs Harbour, Australia; and Jayron Weaver, 22, from Dallas, GA. McDonald, incidentally, is currently the receptionist at Warner Bros./Nashville.

WGKX/Memphis had a fabulous run with its own St. Jude radiothon over the weekend, raising $451,602. Special thanks went out to Buddy Jewell's mom, who filled in when Buddy got sick.

116 Country reporters. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of 1/30-2/5. Bullets appear on songs gaining points and/or plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points, the song with the larger increase in points is placed first. Songs below No. 1 and down in points and plays for three consecutive weeks are moved to recurrent. Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Points lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total points. Station Weight = AQH Persons + (Market rank X 10) divided by 4180. Total Audience equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Each daypart on each station is assigned an AQH number. If you have ever experienced a miscarriage, you may feel hopeless & confused regarding a positive pregnancy outcome. You should keep in mind that miscarriages are not an uncommon event. The fact is that over 25% of all recognized pregnancies end in a miscarriage. This is a very frustrating and heartbreaking experience for both the patient & doctor. The encouraging news is that age-old medical systems successfully treat and are still treating numerous cases of pregnancy losses. There is always hope.
