Arbitron's Spring Report Cards On The Way

The ratings season is once again upon us, with Arbitron yesterday releasing Spring 2005 ratings results for seven markets. Only another 286 markets to go!

Just a reminder that you can get the latest Arbitron releases at www.radioandrecords.com each afternoon. Just click on the "Ratings" tab at the top of the page. Each Tuesday's R&R Country Hot Fax Update will feature Country ratings from around the U.S.A.

Two of the seven markets released yesterday, New York (1) and Middlesex-Somerset-Union show no Country shares. Here are the Country results for the other five markets:

Allentown: WCTO moves 11.2-11.1 12+ but shifts from first to second as Classic Hits WODE vaults into first place with a 10.1-11.4 leap. This is the only book in the last five that WCTO hasn't been No. 1.

Hamptons-Riverhead, NY: There are no Country stations indigenous to this market, which ranks No. 259. However, WWYZ/Hartford moves 2.4-3.6 12+, good for a tie for eighth place. That's up from a tie for 10th place.

Nassau-Suffolk: Here again is a market with no Country outlet. WWYZ, however, posts a 0.6 share 12+ in the spring and winter 2005 Arbitrends.

Riverside-San Bernardino: Infinity's KFRG was up 5.3-5.4 12+ and ranks third 12+ for the second consecutive book.

Wilkes Barre: Simulcast WGGI & WGGY is back on top of the market, moving 8.9-8.7 12+. That's up from No. 2 in the winter '05 sweep to No. 1 this spring, and it's the third time in the last five books WGGI & WGGY have ranked No. 1 12+.

Dollar Does Montgomery

Southern Broadcasting/Rome, GA OM and WTSH (South 107) PD Bill Dollar has been named PD/afternoon personality at WLWI/Montgomery, AL. He succeeds Bill Jones as PD and JR "Your Big Bubba" in PM drive. Jones was recently promoted to Cumulus' co-Format Director/Country (along with WSM-FM/Nashville PD John Sebastian). Jones continues as OM of Cumulus' Montgomery, AL/Albany, GA cluster. JR left for PM drive at Clear Channel's WPAP/Panama City, FL a couple weeks ago.

Dollar, who starts at WLWI July 25, spent seven years with Southern Broadcasting in Rome and was Production Director when elevated to OM and WTSH PD two years ago. Southern's Rome cluster includes Country WTSH, AC WQTU and News/Talk combo WRGA-AM & WSRM-FM.

Kevin Daniels, PD of Southern's AC WQTU/Rome, GA and MD for WQTU and WTSH, is the acting OM for the cluster and interim PD of WTSH.

Troy Gentry Update

Updating a July 14 R&R Country Daily report that Montgomery Gentry's Troy Gentry broke his ankle and tore knee ligaments in a riding accident: T-Roy had surgery last Friday night. He spent the night in the hospital and was released on Saturday morning. MG manager Johnny Dorris told R&R, "Dr. Burton Elrod described Troy's knee injury as the one of the worst he had seen in seven years as the Tennessee Titans' team doctor."

Incredibly, Dorris also said that Gentry plans on performing this coming weekend, beginning Friday at Country Thunder USA, Twin Lakes, WI. Saturday sees Gentry at Country Jam USA in Eau Claire, WI and on Sunday he'll be at the North Dakota State Fair in Minot, ND.

Gentry was horseback riding with friends after a show in Ft. Loramie, OH when his horse spooked and fell on its side, pinning Gentry's left leg. The cancelled shows include July 15 in Agawam, MA; July 16 in Bushkill, PA; and July 17 in Morristown, OH.

This Week At Callout America

Our weekly analysis of Country callout research is brought to you by Bullseye President John Hart. Here's a look at some of the biggest stories Hart looks at in the July 22 issue of R&R:

Toby Keith's "As Good As I Once Was" is still the No. 1 song overall for the week and the No. 1 passion song too. Sugarland's "Something More" stays at No. 2 overall and as the No. 2 passion song. The song is also No. 1 with females.

Faith Hill's "Mississippi Girl" is on the fast track, moving to No. 3 for the week and becoming the No. 3 passion song. Only nine weeks old on this data — it's still early.

George Strait is new to the top five with "You'll Be There" ranking as the No. 5 song, up from No. 6. Strait has the No. 5 song with males and the No. 7 song with females; his strength is with younger 25-34 listeners, who rank this song at No. 5.

Leann Rimes roars into the top 10 with "Probably Wouldn't Be This Way," moving up from No. 17 to No. 8. It's also the No. 6 passion song. The song's strength is with females, who rank the song at No. 5 and also as the No. 4 passion song. Listeners 25-44 rank this song at No. 6 and as the No. 4 passion song.

The youngest song in this week's top 20 is Trace Adkins' "Arlington," at seven weeks on this data. It already ranks as the No. 18 song, up from No. 23, and the No. 16 passion song, up from No. 24. All indicators are strong.

Trisha Yearwood's "Georgia Rain" is on the move with the No. 24 song, up from No. 29. It's also the No. 18 song with females. Watch this song.

121 Country reporters. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of 7/10-7/16. Bullets appear on songs gaining points and/or plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points, the song with the larger increase in points is placed first. Songs below No. 1 and down in points and plays for three consecutive weeks are moved to recurrent. Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Points lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total points. Station Weight = AQH Persons + (Market rank X 10) divided by 4180. Total Audience equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Each daypart on each station is assigned an AQH number. MOLLYE REES

"Anybody can record and sound great, but the real test is when they sing acoustically and it sounds better than the original." WDEN/Vance Shepherd

"What impressed me most about Mollye is her commitment to the substance of her songs and not just the sound. She sings about what she believes and that comes through in her music." WGOL/John Pilati
