WB Staffer Eric Mansfield Found Murdered

Our most heartfelt condolences are extended to the family, friends and colleagues of Warner Bros. Director/Creative Services Eric Mansfield, who was murdered Friday. He was 33. Mansfield was returning to his East Nashville home around 6:35pm when, police say, he may have been targeted for robbery. At around 7:25pm, Mansfield's housemate found him locked in his car, unresponsive, with a gunshot wound to the chest. A reward of $26,000, including $25,000 from Warner Bros., has been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the perpetrator or perpetrators.

A statement from Warner Bros./Nashville Exec. VP Bill Bennett reads, "We mourn the tragic passing of our colleague and friend Eric Mansfield and offer our deepest condolences to his family and loved ones. They are in our thoughts and prayers. Eric was a great talent who made his mark in Nashville and throughout the creative community. He brought the highest vision, spirit and creativity to countless artist releases on Warner Bros. Nashville and all that he touched in the music industry for so many years. We will help to commemorate Eric's lifetime and achievements in an appropriate manner, with the guidance of his family."

Visitation is scheduled for today at Roesch,

Patton Funeral Home (615-244-6480) from 11am to 1pm. Services are at 1pm, with a reception following at Warner Bros. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Scholarship Fund at the Alexander Future Foundation, 6091 Ayers Road, Albany, OH 45710.

Live From New York...

No, it's not Saturday night — it's Nashville Bureau Chief Lon Helton's CMA Week travelogue. Read on...

"We landed about 7:30pm Friday, dropped our bags at the hotel and bee-lined to B.B. King's in Times Square. That's where Tracy Lawrence and Montgomery Gentry kicked off the weekend's activities to a packed house. In fact, every event I've been to has been packed or sold-out. At B.B.'s, Tracy sounded better than ever, and Eddie and Troy absolutely rocked the joint. New York Jets quarterback Chad Pennington and radio and TV personality Sean Hannity were among those spotted in the crowd.

Saturday evening's activities got underway at Joe's Pub, with the second of three CMA Songwriters Series events that brought the tradition of the guitar pull to the Big Apple. Songwriter and CMA board member Bob DiPiero hosted the sessions, which he organized, as Nashville's finest tunesmiths once again proved to be incredible showmen. Saturday night's group was Brett James; Jessi Alexander; Matraca Berg; and Aimee Mayo, accompanied on guitar by hubby Chris Lindsey, who also performed the couple's huge hit "Amazed."

They were joined by walk-ons Jeff Hanna, Berg's hubby, who sang his "Bless The Broken Road," and Jon Randall, who provided guitar backing and background vocals, in addition to a chilling version of "Whiskey Lullaby." At one point Randall asked the crowd how it felt to have "2,000 hillbillies invade New York City." Inquiring whether anyone had seen Deliverance, he got real close to the mike and in a low voice said, "That shit is true, you know" while pickin' the opening of "Dueling Banjos."

From there it was back to B.B. King's for Neal McCoy and Craig Morgan. It was wall-to-wall fans singing the words to every hit, an amazing sight in a city without a Country station.

Next up, an 11pm start for Broadway Meets Country, where Broadway stars sang Country tunes and Nashville's finest belted out show tunes. It has to be one of the most incredible concerts I've ever attended. Broadway star Brian Stokes Mitchell, co-hosting the show with Lee Ann Womack, told the crowd he "fell in love with country music 20 years ago because country singers can really sing."

And Nashville's best proved his point, deftly handling songs not normally in their repertoire. Neal McCoy did a beautiful job with "Almost Like Being in Love," from Brigadoon. Trace Adkins slowly walked to center stage, sat on a stool and sang "My Funny Valentine" from Babes in Arms with a ton of warmth and soul. And Glen Campbell got a standing ovation with a soaring rendition of the very difficult-to-sing "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The Broadway stars really nailed their tunes, with standouts including Andrea McArdle — the original Annie — belting out "Fancy" and Adriane Lenox's

This Week At Callout America

Our weekly analysis of Country callout research is brought to you by Bullseye President John Hart. Here's a look at some of the biggest stories Hart looks at in next week's issue.

"Keith Urban's 'Better Life' spends another week as the No. 1 song overall at Callout America, and it's the No. 2 Passion song for the week. LeAnn Rimes moves from No. 3 to No. 2 with 'Probably Wouldn't Be This Way.' Alan Jackson has the No. 4 song overall with 'USA Today,' up from No. 6 last week. Billy Currington continues to strongly outperform the radio spin chart, with 'Must Be Doin' Somethin' Right' ranking at No. 5 overall. Martina McBride is still strong, ranking at No. 7, up from last week's No. 10 overall. Big & Rich are big and strong with 'Comin' to Your City,' which is new to the top 10, at No. 8 — a major move from last week's No. 15."

(Doubt) version of "You Say You Will." Huge props to Broadway's Jason Daniele (Full Monty) and James Naughton, who tackled the tricky "Sold" and "I've Been Everywhere," respectively. Both flawlessly pulled off these uptempo tongue twisters.

Other highlights included Ben Vereen in a cowboy hat and duster singing "King of the Road" while adding a little soft shoe — in cowboy boots, no less. In fact, one of the more interesting aspects of the evening was seeing country stars in designer gowns and suits, while most of the folks from the Great White Way sported jeans and boots.

There were also duets, including Trisha Yearwood and Idina Menzel singing "For Good," from Wicked; Jamie O'Neal and McArdle performing "I Know Him So Well," from Chess; and Carrie Underwood joining Patrick Wilson for "Suddenly Seymour," from Little Shop of Horrors.

The wall behind the stage was glass, providing a backdrop of Central Park and 59th street, adding to an already magical night that ended with Mitchell calling to the crowd, "Ya'll come back now, ya hear?" — to which Womack responded, "Fuhgeddabowdit." Not quite getting the expected response from the crowd, which only gave light applause and laughter, Womack looked at the audience and said, "Aw, c'mon. I practiced that all day." You can hear the show for yourself on XM's Broadway channel. Check listings at www.xmradio.com.

Sunday began with a stop by the TJ Martell Foundation's Celebrity Poker Tourney, where Tracy Lawrence, Blue County's Aaron Benward, Chris Cagle, Lorrie Morgan, Cowboy Troy, Craig Morgan and Two Foot Fred fought radio- and record-industry poker players in a battle for Texas Hold 'Em supremacy. Windswept's Cliff Audretch won the grand prize, a week for four in Bermuda, including Continental Airline tickets. Also on hand were WDAF/Kansas City PD Wes McShay, Music City Records' Bob Heatherly, songwriter Chris Lindsey and Curb's Adrian Michaels. It was back to Joe's Pub that night as Jeffrey Steele, Tim Nichols, Craig Wiseman and DiPiero passed more than the guitar — a bottle of single-barrel Jack Daniels also circulated onstage. Nichols and Wiseman ended the evening with a duet of "Live Like You Were Dying" to thunderous ovation. The most-heard comment backstage: "Why isn't Jeffrey Steele a star?"

That's pretty much it from New York, with a reminder to tell your audience about tonight's CMA award show on CBS every chance you get.

Garcia Investigation Ongoing

The death of KUZZ/Bakersfield MD/evening air talent Karen Garcia, thought to be of natural causes, is now being termed "suspicious" by Bakersfield police, according to a recent AP report. Services for Garcia have been set for 10am Thursday at St. Joseph Church in Selma, CA.

120 Country reporters. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of 11/6-11/12. Bullets appear on songs gaining points and/or plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points, the song with the larger increase in points is placed first. Songs below No. 1 and down in points and plays for three consecutive weeks are moved to recurrent. Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Points lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total points. Station Weight = AQH Persons + (Market rank X 10) divided by 4180. Total Audience equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Each daypart on each station is assigned an AQH number.
