INDEPENDENT BROADCASTING AUTHORITY —70 Brompton Road, London, SW3 1EY. Telephone: 01-584-7011. Telex: 24345. The Authority was created by Parliament in 1954 as Independent Television Authority to provide a comprehensive television service additional to that of BBC. In 1972, it was renamed the Independent Broadcasting Authority and its functions were extended to provide an Independent Local Radio service.

The Authority selects and appoints the program companies; supervises programs provided by the contractors and their scheduling; controls the advertising; builds, owns & operates the transmitting stations. Fifteen companies provide programs in fourteen independent television regions of the United Kingdom (2 companies share the contract for London). As part of its review of the ITV system, the Authority, in Dec. 1980, offered a contract to broadcast a new national breakfast-time television service, which started in May 1983, to TV-AM. In addition, changes were made to some ITV companies. Currently, 34 Independent Local Radio stations provide program service in 33 areas (2 operate in London). Further stations are planned over the next few years. Both services are financed mainly by the sale of advertising time.

Members of the Authority: Lord Thomson of Monifieth, chairman; Sir John Riddell, deputy chairman; Mrs. Y. Conolly; Mrs. J. D. M. Jowitt; Professor A. Cullen; Mrs. P. Ridley; Sir Denis Hamilton; Rev. Dr. W. J. Morris; Mrs. J. McIvor; A. M. G. Christopher; G. Russell.

From the publishers of Communications Daily, Common Carrier Week and Satellite Week . . .

the eagerly-awaited new 1986 edition of the . . . TELECOM FACTBOOK!

About the 1985 edition . . .

"It's terrific, been very useful. Nice layout, good information. It's a very good value for the money. I'll buy it again next year. Probably one of the best directories out there. Most readable."

*Kate Hampford, Director
Data Base and Research Services
The First Communications Group*

What is the Telecom Factbook?

A master directory of common carriers, long-distance resellers, major independent telcos, satellites, data communications organizations, regulators, international telecommunications entities, along with a telecommunications glossary and a Buyer's Guide of major equipment manufacturers and suppliers, and more. All at your fingertips!

What's the purpose of the Telecom Factbook?

To serve as your personal reference/phone directory for the telecommunications industry.

To function as your guidebook through the confusing organizational changes that have taken place in telecommunications in such an unbelievably short time.

What's NEW about the 1986 edition?

- Revised company charts and personnel lists
- Glossary of telecommunications terminology
- BUYER'S GUIDE to manufacturers and distributors
- Everything updated and expanded where appropriate
- Organizational charts for additional important companies

- Graphs and charts showing industry trends, numbers of access lines and company operating revenues
- And more . . .

What kinds of information would you use the Telecom Factbook to find?

Whether you need to find out who's doing what at AT&T . . . or an individual responsible for buying equipment at Ameritech . . . or a contact at the German PTT . . . or what satellite is scheduled to go up next . . . or the name of the Chairman of the Florida PSC . . . or names of specific executives at America's independent telephone groups . . . or simply the names of board members of MCI . . . you'll have answers in just one easy-to-use volume with the new 1986 Telecom Factbook.

It's Easy to Order

All you have to do is fill out, clip and mail the order certificate below. And please remember to include your check or credit card instructions. If you would like to buy ten or more copies, you may deduct 10% from the list price. But hurry, copies of the new 1986 Telecom Factbook are going quickly.

Buyer's Guide

helps you find products faster!

BUYER'S GUIDE EXPLANATORY NOTES

The Television & Cable Factbook BUYER'S GUIDE is divided into nine primary product categories based on product/service type. Each Primary Category begins a new section in the Buyer's Guide. Secondary product categories (listed within primary categories) are indicated without any symbol and have the first letter capitalized. First level sub-categories are indicated with a solid black dot and second level sub-categories are indicated with a solid black box.

Companies are listed alphabetically under each category. Those appearing in bold type are paid BOLD-FACE BUYER'S GUIDE advertisers. All remaining entries are provided free as a service to non-advertising companies listed in the Factbook.

Instructions

1. Turn to C-99, the Buyer's Guide Product Index, for an alphabetical listing of every product in the Buyer's Guide including its page reference number in the yellow pages section.
2. Turn to the appropriate page in the yellow pages to find a list of companies that manufacture (m), distribute (d), repair (r), or service (s) that product. Following each company listed is a page reference number in the white pages of the Factbook where full company information can be found.

Key to Abbreviations

(m)—manufacturer

(r)—repair

(d)—distributor

(s)—service

* If your company is interested in placing a BOLD TYPE listing in the BUYER'S GUIDE, contact Glenn Brown, Advertising Director for the Factbook at 202-872-9200.

The only information source you need to catch up with and keep up with the booming, dynamic, risk-filled home video/VCR/videocassette industry...

VIDEO WEEK

Each weekly issue of Video Week is filled with the kind of practical, level-headed information that is invaluable to anyone involved in the home video industry.

Video Week serves as an early warning system for the entire industry. Face it, information is crucial to your business success—markets... merchandising... mergers... finance... competition... litigation... programming... and more. And Video Week covers it all!

Managing Editor Seth Goldstein and his international network of correspondents cover every significant industry event, as well as the courts, the Congress and the FCC. They ask the questions you would like to ask and get the answers you need to know.

Each week's informative, succinct issue of Video Week offers you the key advance intelligence that will allow you to spot trends, anticipate changes in the marketplace and track regulatory issues.

Video Week gives you a business advantage!

The concise, easy-to-digest, well-organized information service that allows you . . . in just minutes each week . . . to keep up with the latest, most accurate, relevant, indispensable information covering the entire telecommunications industry.

COMMON CARRIER WEEK

Common Carrier Week is the authoritative weekly news service for the telecommunications industry.

Each issue uncovers proposed regulation changes, looks at successful (and unsuccessful) business strategies, comments on new equipment and services, reports on what the decision-makers in the industry are up to, and provides the key intelligence that busy telecommunications executives need.

Common Carrier Week is presented in a way that makes the information you're looking for easy to find. There's a logic to each issue—you can scan the spot you're looking for and find your relevant information instantly.

Common Carrier Week will give you the advance intelligence to move quickly to make the management decisions that will help your business move ahead. Each week you'll receive hard-nosed business advice from the award-winning team of journalists who also keep the top leaders of the communications industry informed every day with Communications Daily.
