The Authority selects and appoints the program companies; supervises programs provided by the contractors and their scheduling; controls the advertising; builds, owns & operates the transmitting stations. Fifteen companies provide programs in fourteen independent television regions of the United Kingdom (2 companies share the contract for London). As part of its review of the ITV system, the Authority, in Dec. 1980, offered a contract to broadcast a new national breakfast-time television service, which started in May 1983, to TV-AM. In addition, changes were made to some ITV companies. Currently, 44 Independent Local Radio con-
