Take advantage of this unique opportunity to develop the valuable market research you need to:

- Market new products and services
- Pinpoint media acquisitions
- Monitor your competition
- Or conduct numerous other types of research & analysis.

How can you use Factbook Research, Inc.?

Call us for reports from the Factbook data bases that select only those elements that are important to you, then have the reports sort the data into state, county or regional breakdowns, rank it by size, age or any other variable and screen out systems/stations that do not meet specified criteria.

Here are just a few examples of vital studies Factbook Research, Inc. has recently provided to its clients:

- Cable system channel capacity studies used in drafting the Must-Carry Compromise
- Cable system ownership studies used in preparing proposals for acquisition of Group W Cable, Inc.
- Broadcast ownership studies used to identify likely acquisitions
- Miniature data bases installed at clients' sites for maintaining important sales and marketing information
- Lists of cable systems carrying programming competitive with proposed new services

- Lists of cable systems using equipment competitive with new products being introduced
- Mailing labels for marketing campaigns targeted to broadcast stations and cable systems with specified characteristics

Television Digest, Inc. has been collecting broadcast TV data since 1945 and was the first organization to gather cable TV data. The Factbook data bases are unmatched by anything else in the field and are totally responsive to your individual requirements. They offer you unheard of speed and flexibility using the most complete source of television data available.

Best of all, Factbook Research, Inc. reports are available to you in a variety of formats sure to meet your needs. You may opt to receive data...

- On 9-track magnetic tape
- On 5¼" floppy diskettes ready to load onto your PC
- Via telecommunications
- In a printed format or
