MORE ABOUT CONTEST

THE greatest prize award contest ever conducted by a radio magazine begins in next week's issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY. And it's just the kind of a contest we think everyone is going to like. Fascinating—chucked full of fun for the whole family—and last, but not least, mighty profitable for more than five hundred of those who participate.

Everyone has an equal opportunity to win one of the many wonderful prizes. BROADCAST WEEKLY'S "Artist Identification Contest" is exactly what the name implies—identification of the radio stars everyone has heard and enjoyed over the air many times. To date, more than five hundred prizes valued at over $5,000 will be given to winning participants. And the contest department has just announced that if entries continue to pour in at the present rate, additional prizes of merchandise and cash will be added to this already generous list.

We won't attempt to tell you here the simple rules or other details of the contest. However, if you will read the following six pages carefully, you will obtain all necessary information, as well as an idea of the marvelous prizes which you have an opportunity to win.

But whether or not you win a prize, we guarantee that when the contest is over you are going to agree that it was a whale of a lot of fun. Everyone from little Jimmy up to grandma may participate. The secret of success in the contest will be ability to remember and compare facial features of the various stars contained in the "Key Book" with those which will be published during the next ten weeks in BROADCAST WEEKLY. It's strictly a contest of skill and a determination to win. Old Lady Luck has been left entirely out of it.

The contest will be conducted under the supervision of a group of judges selected for their prominence in broadcasting and civic circles. Winners will be announced as soon after the close of the contest as possible, with the results being broadcast over Pacific Coast network of stations. Winners and awards will also be contained in detail in BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Get on your marks—get set—! And may the best man win!

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Caroline, Napa.—Edward J. Fitzpatrick insists the mysterious J. which Bennie Walker is wont to stress, stands for John. "A woman convinced against her will, is of the same opinion, still," so I hurriedly sought out Louise Landis. Louise is in the press relations department at NBC and is one of those obliging creatures who never shows signs of annoyance when harassed interviewers burst in upon her for information.

Well, Louise dug into files—bewildering files—and unearthed numberless papers, all of which verified the John story, so I suppose one must lower one's incredulous eyebrows and accept Eddie's statement. He swears also, that he is not married. There is no set rule for obtaining autographed pictures of radio artists. The only suggestion I may make is that you write them personally, requesting the photographs. Lee S. Roberts has two sons. The eldest is twenty-one and the younger boy is fifteen years of age.

Ethel, San Francisco.—Jessica Dragonette lived in Lakewood, N. J., as a little girl. You may reach her by addressing your letter in care of the National Broadcasting Co., New York City. Baron Keyes does not give out information regarding the sound effects in his Air Castle broadcast. You will find your other question answered elsewhere on this page.

* * *

E. R., San Francisco.—Fanny Merrill (Frances Converse, NBC) recently annexed to the Memory Lane cast, was born in Goshen, Indiana. She has golden blonde hair, purple eyes and long, slender fingers, fashioned, it seems, for the specific purpose of expressing her individualistic personality. Her young life has been crowded with exciting adventures. Anything and everything pertaining to the arts is of interest to her. She has had newspaper experience, held executive positions, done cartoons for magazines, written and produced plays, filled theatrical engagements and at the age of twenty-one was appointed deputy sheriff in the community in which she lived. Unbounded sympathy and a surprising patience are outstanding characteristics. She is creative beyond words, intense, baffling, extreme in every respect. Her colors are blue-green and purple, her aversions, spiders, blonde men and tall buildings. She never saves her money, adores puzzles, clay modeling, all flowers from dandelions to orchids and reads more books than a salaried literary reviewer.

* * *

Mrs. N. W. T., Seattle.—Dr. Scholl's Ramblers are as follows: Fred Wilson and Earnest Ehler, tenors; Hubert Hendrie, baritone; and George Gobe, bass. The pianist and arranger is Charles Touchette. In the Cavaliers quartet you hear Henry Shoape, Leo O'Rourke, John Seagle and Elliot Shaw. The Revelers are James Melton, Lewis James, Philip Dewey and Wilford Glen.

* * *

Jack Keough Fans.—Jack has been under the care of a physician for many months, but is again up and about. He is impatiently awaiting permission to resume his work so cheer up, it won't be long now.

* * *

Jane, Sacramento.—Tom Wallace (KNX) is famous for having countless irons in the fire at one time. Jennings Pierce (NBC) habitually wears a flower plucked from his own garden. Scotty (KPO) saunters into the studio the last gasp as leisurely as though the world had declared a holiday and "ad libs" his entire broadcast. Mac (KFRC) invariably wears colorful shirts and a Windsor tie. Thomas Kelly (NBC) has a phenomenal memory. George Davis (KFRC) received a check from a listener he had never seen with instructions for the purchase of a piano for her daughter. Eileen Piggett (NBC) does most of her reading on the ferry en route to the studio. Jean Kent (KLX) keeps her fingers crossed when she broadcasts. More another time.

* * *

Connie, Pittsburg.—George Taylor (KYA) enjoys Italian dishes, is a football enthusiast, has won any number of trophies playing handball and devoted his time to the automobile industry before taking up radio. He is a descendant of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was born in San Francisco, February 12, 1901, graduated from Polytechnic high and began broadcasting five years ago. His height is 5 feet 10½ inches; his weight, 180 pounds; his eyes are a greenish gray; and his hair is brown, unruly and wavy. He has regular features, a mustache, smiles without effort, is singularly sympathetic and intensely human. On cupid's bulletin he is listed as an unyielding prospect, and in passing himself off as Tony Ravelli he gets his quota of weekly fun, for the Ravelli fans cannot endure George Taylor and the Taylor fans regard Ravelli as an impostor.

* * *

Eunice, Berkeley.—Tom Ballinger and Galen Harvey ("Sharp and Flat") have gone over to station KROW.

* * *

E. M. K., Seattle.—George Nelson (NBC) is 6 feet 2 inches tall, weighs 185 pounds, has navy-blue eyes, dark hair, and is about twenty-seven years of age. His boyhood was spent on a wheat ranch in Idaho, and as a youngster he rode his pet pony into town once a week for violin instruction. His sister was studying piano at the same time and habitually accompanied George. The distance was ten miles, and the races they had on the way home oftentimes brought farm folk to their windows with horrified adult exclamations. In due time George finished high school, entered State Normal and prepared for a university course, but through a scholarship given him, he was admitted to the Cornish School in Seattle. For a while he taught dramatic art, wrote and produced innumerable operettas—"The Old Music Master" was one—you may recall it if you have lived in Seattle several years—and in 1926 radio claimed him. He is married to Anna Mae Vorge, a dramatist and painter.

You ought to see the Difference In Your Favor

through Parker's large scale production

You ought to go and compare, for example, the Parker Guaranteed for Life Duofold at $5 with guaranteed pens of other makes at $7.50, and even $8.25. Some are not within 22% of Parker's ink capacity, some not within 69%.

If Parker at only $5 surpasses pens priced 50% higher, isn't it mighty good proof that in pens at $10 the Parker Duofold De Luxe is a much finer instrument than others can afford to offer?

You won't find another at any price with Parker's Miracle Duofold Point that writes with Pressureless Touch—as easily as you breathe.

There isn't another with Parker's Adjustable Clip that lets the pen rest low and unexposed. Not another pen or pencil with Parker's Streamlined style—"America's shapeliest"—non-bulging and balanced. Not another with Parker's Invisible Filler—or Parker's range of jewel-like color effects.

Go and compare at the nearest pen counter. See how Parker gives your dollars their old-time buying power.

Luckies are Roasted!

Please publish this in your Broadcast Weekly:

How long must the radio audience listeners be tortured by such music as the Lucky Strike. It surely gets on one's nerves and to have to listen to it three times a week is more than enough. There are other stations to listen-in on, but it seems that at the hour from 6 to 7, there is nothing worthwhile listening to. Would advise Lucky Strike to go on a lengthy vacation, as I think they need it.

Dora de S., Petaluma, Calif.

We'll Try to Oblige

I am greatly interested in every copy of Broadcast Weekly—and like others—wish to express myself. Hope to see more photographs of our favorite artists. Would like very much to see a real photograph of Monroe Upton—as Mr. Upton—not as any character. he portrays. Would like, too, to see a photograph of Cal. Pearce. We have had several of Albert Pearce. Think one of Mr. Nielson, this week, is splendid. We enjoyed the one of Billy Page—really enjoy all, but of course have a few we very much would like. Also, "Captain Dobbsy" as the real man. Thanks.

Ruth Hurst P., San Jose, Sept. 6

You're Right

I notice, since I wrote you many weeks ago, that you have had many suggestions for rearranging the order of the printing of the programs, and it has not been practical for you to make any substantial change in this matter. I presume you will work out something shortly. I hope you may be able to do so before the fall and winter programs come to be published. I suppose one difficulty is that you find it necessary to go to press a full week or more ahead of the date of publication. This must lead to failure to get the latest changes and to many omissions. I also assume that you have some difficulty in securing full cooperation with the program makers. If they knew the value of your publication to them, they would exercise greater promptness.

In any event, you have my best wishes.

James J. S., Portland, Ore., August 25

More Opera and Less Mason

Is it possible to have more of the Opera Box and less of Redfern Mason? The last program, timed by myself and three guests, gave thirty minutes on the air, and our friend Redfern used seventeen minutes of the time in his usual tiresome and unnecessary explanations. Folks who listen to the Opera Box already know something about the history of opera.

O. E. H., Sacramento, Cal., September 6

Critics Criticized

A few remarks from a mere woman.

"Live and let live" is an old, hackneyed phrase that should be the motto of your Open Circuit. Well-bred people do not go about publicly criticising others for their faults, etc. I would suggest that they (the critics) write personally to the artists and stations, thus help them to overcome faults and improve future broadcasts. After having had the extreme good fortune of meeting personally some of my favorites, I am certain they appreciate every bit of encouragement and constructive criticism. Always remember never to put down in black and white one word that you would not tell them personally "to their face."

There are bound to be discrepancies when programs can not be arranged before your dead line time is up. You might, in fairness to the stations, tell them when that falls.

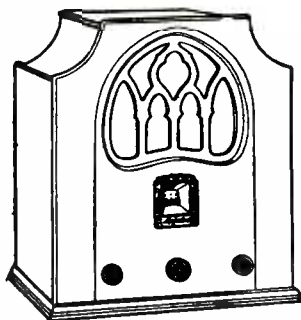

I don't always agree with Dyal Turner, either, but I do like to read his critiques.

I would suggest that you print your full page pictures on the back of listings so that they can be used in scrap books.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Jerry Wilford, KFRC's midnight Vagabond of the Air (Lil ol' phonograph record folks) has been honored with an honorary membership in the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce for his work on the air in boosting San Francisco.

• • • Mrs. Freeman F. Gosden, wife of the famous Amos of the Amos 'n' Andy series heard over NBC, announced to reporters in Denver, her girlhood home, that she does not care when her celebrated husband marries her rival for his affections.

The rival, she hastened to explain, is Ruby Taylor, one of the mythical characters in the Amos 'n' Andy nightly episodes.

Mrs. Gosden, who is in Denver for a short visit, was discovered by reporters to be the ideal wife. While she would not say it in the hearing of Mr. Gosden, she boasted to her friends that he's still the same unspoiled prince she married before his phenomenal success.

• • • Freeman H. Talbot, manager of the National Broadcasting Company's Denver station, KOA, has announced the appointment of Walter N. Campbell as his assistant program director. Campbell resigned as director of WAPI, Birmingham, to accept his position with the NBC. Football fans of the South know him best for his colorful and accurate descriptions of the games played by Alabama's famous "Crimson Tide." Campbell was born and reared in Nashville, Tenn. He was graduated from David Lipscomb College, and after a short interim as an insurance salesman became an announcer for station WLAC in his home city in 1927. Later he was made director of the station. Attracted by his work, the owners of WAPI engaged him a year later as their station director.

• • • Debonair Harold Curtis, organist at KMTR requisitioned the business office for an increase in pay or else a gasoline allowance. KMTR staff got hot on his trail. An investigation showed that since Curtis started driving his car with a new French top, he has found it necessary to take all the girls for a ride. Curtis finds consolation in the fact that the day of bicycles has passed because he finds enough work pumping the pedals of the organ, to say nothing of what might happen if he had to pump the pedal of a "Bicycle Built For Two."

• • • Popular demand has dictated the return engagement of Harold Grayson and his famous orchestra for the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. Among the personnel of Mr. Grayson's orchestra are many local Southern California college graduates including Jay Gould and Phil Hanna. It will be remembered that Harold Grayson played a sensational engagement at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel during the month of July this year.

• • • The "Trio Moderne" heard regularly over KPO as a feature of the California Memories programs, might well be named "Three Little Girls From Paris," as Dorothy Dunyon, violinist; Doretha Ulsh, cellist, and Evelyn Phelan, piano, who comprise the trio all studied in Paris.

• • • Those three harmonizers, the Boswell Sisters (CBS) have packed up their unusual arrangements and taken to a road tour to last until mid-October. During the trip they will appear on the stages of RKO theatres in Cincinnati, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and New Orleans. The last named is their home town, and it will be their first visit there since they skyrocketed to radio fame. The trip does not spell bad news for radio auditors, for the sisters will continue their regular broadcasts, to originate in the Columbia studios of the various cities to be visited.

• • • Add to the list of things girls leave home for the KFRC Happy-Go-Lucky Hour. Margaret Cantrell and Minnie Robertson, with only a working capital of $2.60 between them, walked all the way from Tulsa, Oklahoma to San Francisco, according to a San Francisco paper. They stated they wanted to see the Happy-Go-Lucky gang at KFRC.

• • • Ted Dahl has found a novel way to increase his income. The genial musical director for KMTR has assumed the duties of golf instructor for his band. But, contrary to the usual proceedings, Dahl tees off and the boys play next, each trying to do the exact opposite of what Dahl does and thereby eliminate every possible bad play. The boys think Ted Dahl is one of the best musical directors, but they all agree he is the world's worst golfer.

• • • Tom Smith of the team of "Tom and Dudd" whose harmony entertains the KPO dialers has turned actor.

Tom appears with the KPO Drama Guild, playing the role of a hick boy who goes to college and makes good in a big way as "First Down Slack," in Wilbur Hall's new radio serial, "The Self Made Half-Back."

His Friday night appearances do not find him in a role that is strange to him, for Tom in his school days was a notable football player.

The fact that Tom can visualize and remember his own driving charges over the line, lend the embryo actor a realistic touch that is putting his work over with a bang.

• • • Consternation reigned on KFRC's Feminine Fancies one day recently when a mystery play was scheduled to go on the air and Dick Rickard, who was cast for one of the parts, suddenly disappeared. The show went on as scheduled, however. Dick was discovered in an orchestra chair holding a trumpet—and grinning broadly. He said the idea of disguising himself as a trumpet player was just to get into the spirit of the play.

• • • The Sunday Football Games at Kezar Stadium, heard over KTAB, are being announced by Bart Macomber—and he knows the game—his hobbies are football and golf—he claims to be a civil war golfer—out in sixty-one and back in sixty-four!

• • • The silken tones of Drury Lane, "the tenor with the heart throb in his voice," have a witchery all their own! That is, the girls think so. Heard over KNX, Hollywood, every Wednesday night at 9:15 o'clock, Drury's popularity is growing by leaps and bounds. Indeed the searchlight of police investigation into Los Angeles matrimonial bureaus has been turned onto KNX. The recent appointment of several new judges for local divorce courts, the rapidly increasing number of marital rifts, and the similarly increasing amount of mail which Drury is receiving from his devoted feminine audience combine to form but one logical conclusion. Drury has taken the play away from the Democrats!

• • • Jerry Stewartson, NBC musical arranger, is the proud possessor of a flopped dog whose appearance inevitably rouses the question—"But what kind of a dog is it?"

"He's a Heinz," asserts Jerry stoutly, and if pressed for an explanation—"57 varieties!"

• • • The Happy-Go-Lucky Gang's conquest of Seattle, under the direction of Al Pearce, was a huge success. The gang, including 16 KFRC artists, left San Francisco on Thursday night, September 10th, arriving in Seattle the following night at ten o'clock. They appeared before the KOL microphone that evening for a broadcast over the Northwest stations and the following day played in the Seattle Civic Auditorium to enthusiastic audiences. Fans were turned away at the evening performance.

At Tacoma, thousands of people stormed the depot to see their favorites. The train was held an extra five minutes to give Al Pearce a chance to introduce each artist from the train platform.

• • • Miss Alma LaMarr does a lot of different things and a lot of things different! She is not only an expert in home economics, presiding over the daily household hour, but she has thespian talent and has made an impression playing the part of "Margo" in the mystery thriller, "The Cross-Eyed Parrot," heard over KTAB.

• • • KHJ's Hallelujah Hour returns to the air Monday, September 28th. It will be broadcast over the entire Don Lee Columbia network every morning thereafter, 8 to 9 o'clock (except Sundays). Ken Niles, the buoyant boy with the bounding enthusiasm, will be master of ceremonies as of yore or since the Hallelujah Hour began. Ken is one of those rare sunbursts of youthful energy who is glad he's alive even at eight in the morning.

SILHOUETTES

EILEEN ELMAN, contralto of KPO, whose real name is Eileen Eddleman, was born in Butte, Montana, but at a very tender age was brought to California and here grew to young womanhood. One listening to her sing during the Tuesday morning Shell Happytime, conducted by "Dobb-sie," 8 to 9 o'clock, would, following a natural surmise, picture her as being a big, robust type of woman—her voice is big, vibrant, flexible, rich, and warm—but Eileen herself is just a slender slip of a girl, just past her teens, weighing only 115 pounds—a little girl with a great big voice.

From her Irish mother she inherited a pair of roguish, smiling blue eyes; from her Pennsylvania Dutch father, a quiet, reserved, serious nature and tenacity of purpose. While still in grammar school Eileen was taken by her parents to hear a concert given by a famous singer. From that time on, Miss Elman has aspired to become as great, and in this she has succeeded, making wonderful progress against discouraging handicaps. She has "hitched her wagon to a star" and doing so has traveled far.

Possessing all of the attributes of the normal, healthy American girl, Miss Elman loves outdoor sports—excels in swimming, hiking, and with a "ho hum" (her favorite expression of resignation), she states, "I certainly regret, in a measure of course, that I am not a boy, because if I were I could play football—and don't think I didn't when I was younger. It was great fun to get out in the sand lot, but (and her blue eyes took on a far-away look) now I am too grown up, ladies cannot do that. That is the penalty of being a woman."

Her radio début was made after a year in the talkies with First National and Warner Brothers at Hollywood, where the young KPO star doubled for Loretta Young in "Kismet," and appeared in many pictures. Yet the fact that she has appeared in pictures and hobnobbed with celebrities of the film world has not changed her sweetness of character; she is still without pretense or affectation.

Returning to her home in Oakland several months ago, Miss Elman sought an audition with "Dobbsie," and that discoverer of radio stars recognized in her voice latent qualities of tremendous range and lower register that he knew would make her popularity endure with the radio audience. Thus Miss Elman became a regular featured artist of the Tuesday morning Happytime broadcast.

Aside from her singing and sports, Miss Elman is a voracious reader; reads diligently such authors as Dickens, Victor Hugo, Balzac. Among her favorite modern authors she delights in the writings of O. O. McIntyre, Irving Cobb, and never misses a word of that Hollywood humorist, Will Rogers.

BING CROSBY, baritone, whose recordings have become best sellers throughout the country, has been signed by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Back of the signing of Crosby is an unusual story which should begin with the sailing last June of William S. Paley, president of Columbia, for Europe. It is ironic that Mr. Paley should have planned a trip abroad in part to seek out new foreign talent and should have had that voyage lead to his discovery of the radio possibilities of a native-born American.

The third day out of port found Mr. Paley occupying a comfortable deck chair on the U. S. S. Europa. A fellow passenger in a nearly stateroom turned on a phonograph playing the record, "I Surrender, Dear." At once Mr. Paley ceased to be the "man-in-search-of-rest-and-relaxation" and became the "man-in-search-of-outstanding-radio-entertainment."

An inquiry or two, and Mr. Paley found that the singer was Bing Crosby. Radiograms were dispatched to New York and information concerning the baritone sent to Mr. Paley in Europe.

Meanwhile, Crosby was working busily in California. He and his orchestra were in demand at clubs, recording studios, and the movie lots, where "shorts" are made. His popularity, local at first, spread in a number of ways, and soon the magazine and syndicate writers in Los Angeles were informing other parts of the continent that here was a singer with an unusual quality of voice and unusual manner of delivery. Reports were current that radio and theatrical impresarios were vying in submission of contracts to the young baritone.

Back from Europe and in his offices at Columbia, Mr. Paley arranged with a motion picture company to preview a series of reels just completed by Crosby. A few minutes later a Columbia representative in California received certain definite instructions, and the next day Crosby started East. The "P. S. He got the job" sequel was quickly arranged.

Crosby gained his first fame as a member of Paul Whiteman's Rhythm Boys. He has made numerous records and tasted his first radio success while broadcasting over Pacific Coast stations.

EDNA O'KEEFE came to KFRC by way of a wager. Two of her girl friends at the San Francisco Girls' High School bet her a dinner she was afraid to try out. Edna already had considerable of a reputation around the school as a singer. Well, the girls bought the dinner after Edna had braved the microphone with "The Desert Song." (At that time KFRC was in the habit of broadcasting the auditions.) She felt that the African desert had nothing on that studio; she was afraid the microphone was going to reach over and bite a huge chunk out of her shoulder any minute.

Although "The Desert Song" wasn't the type of song for Edna's voice, it was felt she had possibilities, and she was given her chance. Her first song, over the Golden State Blue Monday Jamboree, was "That's My Weakness Now."

And speaking of the Jamboree, KFRC's big weekly two-hour show, it is on that program that Edna has built up an enviable reputation as a character actress and comedienne. She is at home in all dialects, Irish, French, Spanish, and German. And she is famous as the original "Oh Woe Is Me" girl in the Deep Dramatic Stock Company's weekly productions on the program.

EDNA O'KEEFE

Edna was born in San Francisco in 1912 and attended Jefferson Grammar and Girls' High Schools in the city. As far back as she can remember she has taken dancing lessons and sung popular songs, though she didn't take vocal lessons until recently.

She is brown-eyed, black-haired, and five feet two inches tall. Her weight is 115 pounds.

CRITIQUE OF THE WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

WHATEVER it cost Pearl King Tanner of NBC to gain the dramatic power she weilds, she got her money's worth. It's uncanny what she does to a role. I haven't the effrontery to offer mere adjectives in expressing my sincere appreciation of her work.

Chester Market's organ music always starts me wanderin' along celestial thoroughfares. He has a style all his own, this chap. Kinda swoopy an' sough-y . . . like an ancient weeping willow. I can puff leisurely when he plays. Let myself drift an' picture trees. Trees're wonderful, huh? Wonder what they think about? In case you haven't heard Market, he's on KNX.

I like the Doric quartet on NBC. The boys have a good system. First they coax you into a receptive mood an' then they give you the works. Lullabys an' love songs. Rollicking tunes. Impressive things. The four voices sing as one man. Sweep along with the sureness of a master artist who makes no unnecessary strokes with his brush. Their harmony is modern without being freakish an' their name on a program attracts me as a magnet attracts steel.

See by the papers, Columbia's got a sponsor for Kate Smith. Said sponsor's puttin' out something like three thousand bucks a week for the lil' gal. Gosh a' mighty! Here I've been laborin' under the impression she was merely passable.

I'm kinda peeved at Amelia. She called me a poor adult fish. It was like this: We were listenin' to Musical Echoes last Friday night at 10:30. They had some swell continuity 'bout a crazy quilt an' a girl who sang a lotta ol' timers. She was sweet. Had just the right kind of voice for the songs. I got so enthusiastic I sorta began hummin' along with her. Most of the ditties were familiar to me. The words appeared before me . . . you know how you can recall a sheet o' music . . . cover an' all. Well, maybe now, I did get louder an' louder. I wasn't aware of it. Ennyhow, Amelia, in her most angora way inquired, "Must you do that?" I'm not dumb. I got it. Wouldn't 've minded if she'd let it go at that. I can laugh at a joke on myself but I guess she'd been brewin' all evenin' 'ca

The high notes are all slighted. Now, Harry Stanton's different. He never bams. Hits high tones, low tones, middle tones with honesty and the expertness of an experienced carpenter. The notes stay put, reverberate and send thrills along a guy's spine. Hang it all—I like 'im.

A bozo'd hafta be made o' cement or somethin' to ignore the beauty of KHJ's "I'll See You In My Dreams." It's an ingenious program. Clever groupings of dream numbers. My thatch may be thin an' my figger not what it used to be, but I get as sentimental as a callow youth listenin' to this broadcast. Gives me an emotional jagg. Feel hopelessly lonely when it signs off. Funny how we enjoy feelin' lonely.

Japan Radio Head Here

Kenjiro Yabe, managing director of the Program Department of the Tokyo Central Radio Office, arrived in San Francisco recently from Japan. Kabe, who holds the reins for the radio broadcasting programs of the Island Empire, and is the dictator of all that shall be sent out over the mikes to the 900,000 listeners of Japan, is here to inspect American broadcast methods, and also plans to perfect arrangements for the broadcasting of the Olympic Games for 1932 at Los Angeles to Japan. Plans for this are being discussed with the National Broadcasting Company of America.

New Features in Majestic

METAL-SPRAYED TUBES, an invention from Germany, twin-power detection from England and a modulated circuit, an improvement developed in American laboratories, are features of the newest Majestic radios now being shown throughout the Pacific Coast. Announcement of the new models was made by Cal Sharrah, vice-president and general manager of Thompson & Holms, Ltd., San Francisco distributors.

While Pacific Coast fans are getting their first view of the new Majestic line that numbers eight new models, 12,000 Majestic dealers throughout the nation are making simultaneous displays of the new merchandise. Including Motor Majestic, the automobile receiver, Majestic now has 12 different models to offer.

"The first of the three new Majestic features is the spray-shield tube, the method of applying the metal being developed in Germany and brought to this country by Majestic," stated Sharrah. "The metal is sprayed directly on the glass in a heavy coating, giving the tube two important advantages. First, the need for the round perforated metal shielding cans or square metal compartments in receivers is eliminated, as this metal acts as an even better shield than did either of these older methods. Second, this metal directly on the glass aids the screen-grid effect within the tube.

"The second important new feature is Twin Power Detection. Majestic found that two leading British radio engineers had built a marvelously perfect receiver which had been placed in the Science Museum in England.

"The outstanding development was the use of two detectors in push-pull using what is called grid rectification. These engineers had found out how to make grid rectification handle power, so Majestic developed this to practical application in a mass production receiver and introduced it to America.

"Majestic's modulated circuit enables the set to combine the functions of the first detector and the oscillator, thus eliminating one tube and, by using a pentode in place of two type 45's the public has a set which is claimed to be even sharper in pulling through distant stations, yet does not spoil reproduction," declared Sharrah.

Changes in Allocations

The following changes in the assignments of broadcasting stations have been ordered by the Federal Radio Commission:

KDAB—Santa Barbara, Calif., license assigned to Santa Barbara Broadcasters, Inc.
KGFL—Raton, N. M., license assigned to KGEL, Inc.

WEAI—Ithaca, N. Y., power, 1,000 watts.
KGMP—Elk City, Okla., license revoked.
KFIU—Juneau, Alaska, license surrendered.

Radio Exports Maintained

Foreign sales of American radio apparatus are continuing on the upward path despite the depressed condition of world markets and the adverse effects of declining prices, according to officials of the Department of Commerce.

During the first seven months of the current year, exports of receiving sets in particular, it is said, have shown a most gratifying gain, totaling approximately $7,100,000 in comparison with $4,680,000 in the corresponding period of last year. Receiving tube shipments have amounted to $1,092,000 against $1,355,000 in 1930, and receiving set parts to $1,727,000 against $1,783,000.

Canada, Argentina, Mexico and Australia are the leading markets for American radio equipment at the present time.

GET ASSOCIATED WITH FOOTBALL

Go to the Games

TODAY is football day! Trains are loaded—highways jammed—ferry boats weighted down with human cargo and the entrance gates to the stadium are seething with raving fans.

One would think that everyone and his brother had turned out to see the game. But, have they all turned out? Not by a jug full—just think of the thousands and thousands—and maybe even more thousands, away out in the country on farms, ex-soldiers and other invalids in hospitals, folks who cannot afford the price of the game and the countless others who for one reason or another have to stay at home.

For this countless horde and to still another group the Associated football broadcasts are presented. This other group consists of those "lukewarm" football fans who have not been completely sold on the thrill that one gets from seeing battles of brain and brawn. They are the ones that Associated wants to entuse and arouse to actual attendance at the games. And, believe it or not, that is just what these Associated football broadcasts are doing. The fans admit that the broadcasts are the lever that has pried them off the soft seats in the parlor and put them in the sunshine and fresh air at the playing field.

But that isn't all. While Associated is accomplishing this feat of increasing gate receipts, they are also putting added thousands of motorists on the highway and ringing the cash register at the red, green and cream Associated gasoline pumps.

Associated has found out by experience that the radio public are good sports and show their appreciation by patronizing their stations. Proof of this belief lies in the fact that in 1931 Associated is broadcasting many more games than last year. The total schedule for this season has reached a peak of 110 station broadcasts and more to be added later.

"Get Associated with Football—and go to the games."

SERVEL HERMETIC ELECTRIC

GONE is that old bugaboo about electric refrigeration being expensive. The simplified SERVEL HERMETIC has changed all that. Right NOW, this very day, you can put in SERVEL HERMETIC at an actual money saving. Service so perfect, operating cost so ridiculously small it is almost unbelievable until you have seen an actual demonstration. Years from now there may be other refrigerators built along these advanced engineering principles. But today there is only one—the simplified SERVEL HERMETIC. There is a SERVEL Dealer near you who will gladly demonstrate.

Dealing with a scientific invention that is being used for evil purposes instead of good, the serial has for its locale the home of George and Grace Haskell, at Alexandria Bay, New York, and the old Holt castle on one of the Thousand Islands. Nina Kelsey, an eye-witness of the mysterious death of her sister by the violet ray, is staying with the Haskells.

Tonight's story picks up the thread of the plot which now deals with the sudden disappearance of Grace Haskell, who is still in the dark as to the real identity of her parents.

9:30—Associated Spotlight Revue: Hunting theme; dramatic, vocal and instrumental artists; Cecil Underwood, master of ceremonies: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KFI

Given over to a hunting theme, the revue is chock full of such appropriate musical numbers as "A-Hunting We Will Go." The list of artists participating in the tuneless portion of the show is headed by the Coquettes, the Cyclot Four, Bennie Walker, Harold Dana, Gwynn Jones, Armand Girard, and Charles Ford. Dr. Pettifog, the new school teacher, will be heard first during the "School Days" skit, ringing the school bell and checking on the attendance of the pupils. "The Red Scarf," a melodrama dating back to 1869, has received burlesque treatment at the hands of Walter Beban and is the farce to be offered at this time. Bennie Walker and Bobbe Deane will be featured in the leading roles.
