RADIO LICENSE FEES PROPOSED

PROPOSALS to tax transmitting stations for licenses issued by the Federal Radio Commission, with a view to making that body self-supporting in the interests of Government economy, are being formulated in the Senate and will shortly be brought out for consideration.

The radio commission has prepared two schedules of license fees, one designed to raise $500,000 and the other to produce $1,000,000 annually. The former is understood to have been taken as the basis for a license-fee bill which will raise a fund of approximately $600,000.

The question of license fees for broadcasters has been before the radio commission and Congress frequently in the past, and several years ago, in conformity with a Senate resolution, the commission worked out a classification, based upon power, time and use (exclusive or otherwise) of channels, and drafted a schedule from which a revenue ranging from about $250,000 to nearly $2,500,000 a year could be secured, depending upon the basic rate adopted.

With the widespread opposition which has been expressed from many quarters, efforts in the past to provide for license fees have not been seriously pressed. With the Treasury facing a tremendous deficit, however, the situation has changed, and objections will be given less consideration if investigation of the question shows that the radio commission can be made self-sustaining.

It is pointed out in support of the proposal that the pending revenue bill imposes taxes upon many lines of business in the entertainment and luxury fields. Motion picture and other theaters are to be subjected to an admission tax. With this as a precedent, it is declared, there is no reason why the purveyors of radio entertainment as well as those of motion pictures should not contribute to the Government's needs.

The imposition of license fees on a moderate scale, it is declared would be preferable from the standpoint of the stations, to the proposal of Representative LaGuardia of New York, made during consideration of the tax bill by the House, that broadcasters be subjected to a tax of 25 per cent of all sums earned through the handling of commercial programs. That tax, it was asserted, would have raised a revenue of from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000, or many times the amount now planned to be secured through the medium of license charges.

There are, all told, some 22,000 transmitting stations licensed by the Government, slightly more than 600 of which are broadcasters, over 16,000 amateurs, and the rest devoted to aviation, police, commercial communication and miscellaneous services. Under the license plan, the broadcasters and operators of communication services, who, on the whole, derive a profit from their stations, would pay the heaviest rates, while nominal taxes could be imposed upon the amateurs and the police, aviation, and miscellaneous services which are not primarily commercial, and upon the ship installations which are required by law, excepting, however, installations on large passenger vessels which are operated for the benefit of the public.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Mrs. H. A., Victoria.—Paul Carson (NBC) received his first payment for professional services rendered when he was about six or seven years of age. He gave an amusing account of his experience on Personal Close-ups several months ago, but since you missed the broadcast I'll give you a synopsis. To appreciate it you must know that Paul's father was a clergyman of the community in which the Carsons lived. Paul's mother led the Sunday hymns and had carefully guided her son's childish fingers over the keys of the little reed organ until he had mastered one hymn. The circus was in town and Paul, with his youthful friends, was at the starting point to watch the parade take off. At the last moment it was discovered that the calliope player was "indisposed." A shout went up for a volunteer; Paul's friendly proudly let it be known that he was a musician and without further delay the manager of the outfit picked up the blond curly-haired youngster, seated him atop the wagon and away they went to the strains of "Nearer, My God to Thee," the only melody Paul knew; he played it over and over, this street and that, having the time of his life to the wild cheering of his chums and the consternation of his parents.

E. J., Watsonville.—Only the program manager of the station with which your favorite is identified can give you the correct answer to your question.

Josephine, Pittsburg.—Tommy Lee is the son of Mr. Don Lee. He is in his early twenties, is an energetic member of KIIJ's executive staff, appeared as vocalist with Gus Arnheim's orchestra at the Coconut Grove some time ago and is heard during the Hallelujah programs. His principal hobby is "Caprice," a swanky yacht with which he hopes to make a good showing in the Olympic Games races, to augment the forty-odd trophies already in his collection. He claims no pet aversions, drives a Cadillac V-16 roadster, and attended Hitchcock Military Academy near San Rafael and Northwestern Military Academy and Naval Academy at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, in pre-radio days. Tommy Harris (KFRC) is of Jewish parentage and was born in San Francisco. Your other question was answered in the March 27 to April 2 issue of Broadcast Weekly.

Luella, San Francisco.—George Nyklicek (NBC-KPO) is of Bohemian parents, a native of San Francisco, twenty-nine years of age and unattached. His radio experience dates back five or six years to broadcasts over Northwestern stations and his study of music began when he was five and a half years old. At one time he toured as accompanist for Mme. Donald-Ayer, and before coming to radio he played in various prominent theatres on the Coast. His favorite sport is soccer, his composer, Brahms, his hobby, dogs, and his dreams have to do with long ocean voyages. He harbors no superstitions, likes to hike, is fond of unearthing obscure musical scores and resembles Franz Schubert without the glasses.

* * *

L. S., San Francisco.—Arnold Maguire (KFRC) is your "Adhesive Pontoon." Remember Lem and Lufe at KPO? Well, Arnold used to play Lufe, Anne Holden and Tommy Monroe (NBC) are both married, but not to each other.

* * *

Mrs. W., Oakland.—Carmelita of KPO and Fifi of KFRC are two different persons and personalities. William Wright and Al Pearce are to resume the Eb and Zeb sketches over KFRC early in May.

A. M., Redwood City.—Walter Bunker (KFRC) is a bachelor from Scranton, Pa., attended Oakland Tech, and the University of Oregon, played in stock in Honolulu and joined the KFRC family about three years ago. He is 5 feet 8½ inches tall, weighs 165 pounds, has blue eyes, sunburned blond hair and looks as though he could hold his own in an argument. Walter Kelsey is married, thirty-four or thirty-five years of age, weighs 165 pounds, has light brown hair, is about 6 feet tall and has blue-gray eyes.

Mrs. A. C. N., Seattle.—Gladys Weimar left Station KFIO some time ago to write continuity and participate in the dramatic sketches at KGA. You may hear her on Thursday night at 10:30 during the "Around the Network" broadcast. Gladys is one of those rare individuals endowed with a real sense of humor. No matter what the occasion, she is equal to it and her original wit carries the worst possible situation into safe channels. Her vitality is inexhaustible, though she is scarcely bigger than a doll. Her tiny hands are as practical and artistic as they are small; she paints her breakfast nook in one breath and plays an impressive prelude on a mighty organ the next, takes command of her father's business one morning and dashes off reams of romantic episodes the following day, and with all the praise that has been showered upon her since infancy, she has not lost her be-curl'd golden head. She adores cats and canaries, prefers sitting on the floor and straight back chairs to "sink-in" divans, loves to hike and ride horseback and requires only six hours of nightly slumber to keep herself looking pert and alluring.

F. B., Sacramento.—The "Original Radio Girl" is said to be Vaughn de Leath, but Dr. Charles D. Herrold, the scientist and broadcast pioneer, insists the honor belongs to Juanita Tennyson at KFRC. He says Miss de Leath did not appear before the microphone until some time in 1919, while Juanita sang over his station in 1918.

* * *

Marian Cavanaugh Fans.—Little Marian is home from the hospital now, but while she is much improved, her complete recovery may take years. In the accident which befell her last October, she received an injury which resulted in partial paralysis and the fingers that rippled so flawlessly over the keyboard have become useless. Day after day she sits in her garden just waiting and praying for the time when she may again make lovely music. Perhaps the waiting will not seem so long if you drop her an occasional cheery note. It would, I know, please her. She may be reached through Jean Kent, for whom she used to play, at Station KILX, Oakland, California.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Mildred Lenore Epsteen, well-known radio singer, whose delightful soprano voice has charmed the audiences of KPO, KFWI and other stations, will be presented in a new rôle by Reginald Travers at the Travers Theater in the Fairmont Hotel, Tuesday evening, May 10, when she appears in adaptations from Edgar Lee Masters' "Spoon River Anthology." The dramatizations of the various characters she will portray call for histrionic ability, the characterizations demanding emotional acting. Mrs. Epsteen will be accompanied by William Frederick Lavy, concert pianist.

• • • Walter Winchell, whose voice has been heard over NBC networks on the Lucky Strike Dance Hour since November 3, 1931, has been ordered by his physician to take a protracted rest. The newspaper and radio columnist has suffered a collapse due to overwork, and must stay away from writing and broadcasting for an indefinite period. Winchell's place on the Lucky Strike Dance Hour is being taken by Louis Sobol, Broadway columnist.

• • • A grand old trooper stood before the microphone calmly reading the quaint lines of Mr. Silo, in NBC's "Little Orphan Annie" serial the other night. In the pocket of Seldy Roach, veteran actor, lay a telegram telling him that his son was near death in Salt Lake City. It had arrived just before the broadcast, but true to the tradition of "the profession" Seldy didn't fail. His erect head bent a little however, as he finished the last line, and he was just a father, grieving for his son, as he hastened to the train which would carry him to his boy. Fred Thomas is substituting for Seldy during his absence.

• • • Art Jarrett, Columbia's "song stylist," began his musical career as a member of the orchestra in the Coliseum Theatre in New York. Phil Fabello, the conductor, encouraged Jarrett to give up his instrumental activities and take up singing. This week Arthur opens a vaudeville engagement at the Coliseum and the supporting ensemble will be directed by Fabello.

• • • A new "big-time" production, recently inaugurated over KNX, is the comedy skit, "Bringing Up Vivian," starring Vivian Duncan of the famous Duncan sisters, and Lew Cody, prominent stage and screen actor. This skit is broadcast every night except Sunday from 6:45 to 7 o'clock.

• • • Amateur movie photography is taking up all of Tommy Harris' spare moments away from the KFRC studios, where he is one of the most popular of the station's songster staff. Tommy's chief delight is photographing other members of the Don Lee station's artist roster.

• • • From the brilliance of the footlights to the intimacy of the microphone. That's a dozen-word history of attractive Theodora Warfield, KGB's "Ideal" Hostess, who appears Thursdays and Fridays. After charming San Diego and Pacific Coast audiences for several seasons in stock, Miss Warfield decided to turn her talents to broadcasting, and now, although she used to delight hundreds in the theatres, she feels a keener enjoyment in her work, for hundreds have become unlimited thousands of listeners.

• • • Ann Leaf, well known Columbia organist who is co-featured weekly with Ben Alley in the Charis Musical Revue, has recently completed her second musical composition, "Blue Hours." Her theme song, "Song of the Midnight," was her initial effort.

• • • Lloyd Adams, for the past two years studio manager and chief announcer at KGMB, Honolulu, has been appointed program and musical director of the San Francisco studios of KROW in the Manx Hotel. Adams received his musical education at the college of the Pacific and at Northwestern University.

• • • Ben Bernie, now on a vaudeville and personal appearance tour, reports this sign in the window of a furniture store in a small Indiana town: "Business Is Getting Better," but the firm's signature, underneath this thought, reads—"Lyon & Howe."

Shell Signs Another Radio Hit

"EB and ZEB"

RECOGNIZED as the sponsors of top-notch radio entertainment Shell will bring another outstanding radio show to millions of western radio fans beginning Tuesday, May 10, when "Eb and Zeb" an evening program, will be heard four evenings a week over a network of 17 stations, reaching all western states and Hawaii.

Shell's radio leadership, built on the outstanding success of Captain Dobbie's Shell Hap-pytime program and such outstanding radio exploits as last year's "Shell Ship of Joy" cruise to Hawaii when the program was broadcast daily from the deck of the Malolo en-route from San Francisco to Honolulu, is evidenced again with the presentation of this evening feature.

"Eb and Zeb" are the names of two quaint business men residents of the rural community of Corn Center. They are to be part owners and operators of a service station located on the state highway along which their small home town is built. The fifteen-minute programs will present the humorous, human experiences of Eb and Zeb and will introduce their friends and neighbors from time to time.

"Eb and Zeb" are portrayed by two of the Pacific Coast's most popular radio artists. The act was introduced about a year ago as a unit of the famous "Blue Monday Jam-boree" put on by KFRC, San Francisco, and has gained widespread popularity. John E. Hasty, one of the most talented continuity writers on the Pacific Coast, author of "Em-peror of the World," "Ro-mantic Forty-Niners," and other successful programs, is writing the "Eb and Zeb" continuities. Harrison Holliway, Manager of KFRC, will do the announcing.

"Eb and Zeb" will be broadcast from 9:15 to 9:30 on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings from KFRC, San Francisco; KHJ, Los Angeles; KMJ, Fresno; KGB, San Diego; KDB, Santa Barbara; KWG, Stockton; KERN, Bakersfield; KOIN, Portland; KMED, Medford; KIDO, Boise; KGIR, Butte; KSL, Salt Lake City. It will be heard from other stations as follows: KGU, Honolulu, 8:45-9 p. m., every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; KFBK, Sacramento, 10-10:15 p. m., every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday; KOMO, Seattle, 8:45-9 p. m., every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday; KHQ, Spokane, 9:15-9:30, every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday; KTAR, Phoenix, 8:15-8:30 p. m., every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Artists Like Wooden Indians

IT IS inexcusable to be so slow in thanking you for the prize check, but time never seemed to permit. I do truly appreciate the honor of being among the winners. I know the vast number of ballots you must have received, so to be among the elect is a very high honor.

I've been a reader of BROADCAST WEEKLY about a year, and a subscriber since last fall. I couldn't do without it. It is kept always beside the radio as a ready reference. And do we use it! It's pretty badly thumbed before the week is up. I also keep a small note book and pencil beside the radio to jot down—at the time—anything I want to remember, recipes, special offers and reminders of the time and composition to send letters of commendation to artists or stations, an inclination I don't often follow out, however. It's too much like tossing letters over a stone wall. There isn't even an echo to show they've landed. No one likes to play a game of any kind all alone. So many letters to stations kind of trail off into that land-of-good-intentions. I enjoy the radio and the artists who make it entertaining, and I can't help but want to tell them so. Why are most of them like wooden Indians when it comes to some response?

I always listen for your Gypsy. I was a "Gypsy-and-Marta" fan when they were together on radio and I'd like nothing better than have them return. Why have they quit? The interviews are delightfully human, the finest little quarter-hour spot on the air. I love to hear Gypsy laugh. So few people really laugh beautifully. Did you ever think of that?

I have many "likes" on the radio, but few favorites. Gypsy on the feminine side and Monroe Upton on the other. I'm getting a growing resentment against the NBC because they don't seem to realize the possibilities of that splendid young artist. One little spot weekly on the spotlight! Why can't we have him in a book chat? There's just one small quarter-hour weekly for book lovers, and some of us don't care very much for that reviewer's voice in spite of the fact that his work is scholarly and fine. But Mr. Upton has the voice and the necessary depth and perception for interesting reviewing. What's the matter with NBC to pass up a good bet like that? Do stations really want to please listeners? There is no afternoon book chat anywhere on the whole network. There is a big afternoon audience of stay-at-homes and shut-ins who would welcome it.

I know what you're thinking: why don't I write to NBC? I have. It's tucked away in some little pigeonhole somewhere, perhaps. Anyway, they ignored it. Did you, by any chance, hear his interview with Gin Chow, the Chinese seer, on the Matinee last week? That was a delightful thing.

I'm reaching the bottom of another page, so it must be time to sign off. Thanking you again most sincerely for your prize check, I am, yours very truly,

Jessie P., Lodi, Calif., April 20, 1932

Dollo Gets a Big Hand

“UND comes it now!” Like other bugs, with awakening spring the radio bug feels the itch to be up and doing. The opportunity offered by your indispensable journal for free expression of the program listener's reactions offers me an “out”; so here you have it, from the ridiculous to the sublime.

Walter Winchell, cocky, self-assured Walter; would that some friend of yours might supply you with emery paper and chamois to aid in reducing those rasping nasal tones to some semblance of modulation—those fierce O. K.'s; assaulting the air and making night hideous from San Francisco to Tipperary, from Rio to Montreal.

Dyal T., old buddy, this critical outburst is not intended as usurpation. There's much for you to do—of course. I can't rate you 100 per cent, for you sometimes soak my favorites, or laud my aversions; but, whisper it, I still figure you about 95 per cent. My hand, old boy, and a generous bit of that good luck so freely broadcast by our mutual friend, Scotty.

Wesson Oil's "Team Mates," Betty Kelly and Irving Kennedy; there's a safe "best bet" at practically every start. "The Golden Flame" proved to be one of those better serials for which we've been waiting. Just watch Raffetto and Bernice Berwin step out and go places, every time the vehicle gives them half a chance.

Ivanhoe, to date, has been highly creditable, but not the outstanding thing we hoped for. Raffetto, Bernice Berwin, and one or two other NBC artists, would have added luster, here; but of course there's a limit to the parts artists may play at one time. The musical setting, it seemed to me, fell much short of the striking characterizations, the powerful movement, the gripping episodes, and the mighty climaxes with which Scott endowed this thrilling tale.

In "Myrt and Marge," and "Isle of Golden Dreams," KFRC has two programs which will scintillate in any galaxy. Where was ever a trouper more true and convincing than Myrt? Who could not lose himself in romantic fancies on this dream isle?

John D. Barry's convincing review of World Events should become a nightly feature over one of the big chains. And Gypsy's intriguing Close-Ups; show me the interviewee who could fail wholly to unburden his soul under the siren lure of this rare voice. Oh, yes; Anthony and Emily Linden; surely no need for any husband or wife inferiority complex is indicated in the splendid artistic teamwork of this accomplished couple.

We, too, have frequently enjoyed the late hour organ programs of Dollo Sargent, recently commended by one of your correspondents. And once, during those wee and woozy hours of the compelling human interest Lindbergh baby broadcasts which kept us up waiting for the hoped-for flash, Miss Sargent provided us with another of those evidences, we so often have had of the versatility of NBC's artists, by surprising with a sparkling and distinctive piano soliloquy. Though the hour was so utterly impossible, her music sparkled, nevertheless, as do the stars of lonely desert nights. There was that same distinctive coloring and style in her piano interpretations that we have marked in her lovely midnight organ melodies. Boy; Wouldn't she go great on an earlier evening spot, in either organ or piano soliloquy! Anyway, her programs, where they are, prove that NBC knows the value of closing its day with a broadcast that leaves the listener longing for more.

Have I missed anyone? Well, there are other days a-coming. So, cheerio, adios, and auf Wiedersehen.

WHY KTAB?

For the organization demanding coverage from the Oregon line to San Luis Obispo and into Reno, no better outlet can be found than Station KTAB.

With one thousand watts of power, "At the top of the dial," KTAB forcefully carries your message into every large city, town and hamlet in the semi-circle extending from the top of the State into Nevada and as far south as San Luis Obispo.

KTAB's dial location makes possible undistorted reception on hot valley days.

A rate card and complete information will be sent to prospective advertisers or their agencies upon request.
