ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

SCATTER-BRAIN STUFF: Well, I'll be a black-eyed Gila monster—here it is press time already and I haven't pounded out a syllable for my weekly gab column yet. 'Nuff stuff there in the desk, scribbled on the back of my old gas bill and in every pocket of my suit to choke a horse . . . don't see how the devil I'm going to get it all in this week's column. . . . It'd take a novel-length book to tell all I know. . . . Day by day my sources for news are becoming greater, it seems . . . let's see where I put that yarn about "Threads of Tradition" . . . oh here it is . . . can't get over how well Howard Milholland looked today . . . maybe because I haven't seen him for so long . . . nice to see old friends . . . used to see a lot of him when he was program director of the NBC . . . says he's glad to be back in dear old San Francisco again after directing the destinies of KGA up in Spokane . . . and to think that that KGO has been on the map ten years already . . . seems like only yesterday . . . humpf . . . how times flies. . . . Howard was one of the foundation pillars of KGO . . . first announcer, program director and artist . . . great guy . . . he's running a school now together with his charming wife, Eva Garcia, the pianist. . . . I don't know of anyone better qualified to teach the technique of radio than he . . . he should do well with it along with the other courses in piano and dramatic art. . . . Ah, here are the notes that I was looking for . . . there's that blankety-blank phone again . . . why does it insist on chirping up when I'm not in the mood for being disturbed. . . . Hello—yes, Margaret—tell the skipper he'll have my stuff in an hour sure—I'm punching the old mill now so fast she's smoking . . . should be a water-cooling system on this crate . . . she can't take it any more. . . . Oh yeah, I started to jot down a couple of words about KYA putting on that "Threads of Tradition" act . . . great stuff . . . heard some previews of it a couple of months ago at the Titan recording lab. . . . Think United Milk is smart in buying it, too . . . it has a future, and that's no mild guess. . . . The theme of the act is a dramatization of the origin of superstition and catch phrases . . . for instance, I didn't know how such common phrases as "I gave him the cold shoulder," "Get your goat," "People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones," got started until I heard some of those "Threads of Traditions" skits . . . well written, directed and played . . . sorry I can't find the names of the two San Francisco lads who penned them. . . . Milt Samuel is sure a good confederate . . . can usually depend on him in dishing up something meaty for this atrocity each week . . . Henry Maas, too, and Marie Elbs and Louise Landis . . . if it wasn't for these guys and gals I'd have to work twice as hard. . . . Lloyd Yoder and Harold Bock do their share of shooting news hot shots my way, too . . . you gotta hand it to the NBC, it has one swell news bureau. . . . Charlie Gilman, who does a swell job of making public the happenings around KFRC and CBS here is another important contact man . . . knows more about those artists than their own mothers . . . the old smoothie. . . . Eddie Murphy never fails me either . . . of course he's still in the hospital, but Dave Glickman, who is dishing out the dope for KJBS and KTAB has grasped the idea and tips me off to the printable and non-printable stuff. . . . Miss Hoover at KYA is a good source, too, and I can't forget Jack Hasty at MacGregor and Sollic's laboratories. . . .

"Did You Ever See a Dream Walking" . . . nice tune, but for gosh sakes wish they'd lay low on it for a while . . . that's the trouble with radio . . . they get a good tune and then pick on it so much it dies in infancy. . . . Say, what'd be the matter with having all these pals of mine write this here column some week? . . . hotcha . . . bright idea . . . think I'll put it up to the skipper . . . no, on second thought don't think I will . . . he's always yelping about the little work I do now. . . . I'll just have 'em do it some time and put it on his desk and run. . . . Frank Galvin deserves credit for that KTAB Capers show he's staging on Thursday nights . . . a lot of good talent there and possibilities of building it big . . . glad to see Jean Wakefield back in the radio picture . . . heard her on the Capers on KTAB . . . one of the most thorough and original radio showmen I know . . . still a very young girl, and a vet in the game . . . by George, this goes on the cuff right now . . . "Don't forget to see Gilmore Circus in person at San Francisco Auto Show" . . . rarely miss one of their broadcasts. . . . Lee S. Roberts is a dependable guy . . . you can always bank on him for a nice program . . . not sensational . . . but restful . . . glad Folger's saw fit to put him back on NBC Monday and Friday nights . . . and then there's Rush Hughes, whose good looks are only exceeded by his personality. . . . Langendorf wouldn't take a chance of another sponsor grabbing him, so put him back on NBC daily at 3 o'clock. . . . Cap'n Dobbsie, radio's hardy perennial, is coast to coasting it now via the NBC, too . . . well I'm glad . . . he deserves it . . . Cal Pack are for him in a large way, which I can readily understand. . . . Wilbur Hall is certainly going to first base with his radio writing. . . . "Winning the West" is his, and now he's penned one called "John and Molly Farmer," concerning life on a dairy farm, which KGO puts out Mondays at 12:15. . . . Wonder why Philip Morris ciggie company cancelled its broadcasts scheduled to start on NBC the first of the year? . . . glad I heard that first "Hall of Fame" broadcast . . . Katherine Hepburn was tremendous . . . great guns—I'm rattlin' right along here like an old freight train. . . . Tizzie Lish is my idea of something funny . . . if she is instrumental in selling as much coffee for M J B as she does laughs to the listeners, everybody will be "heppy." . . . I should think Shell could do better by their KFRC show than Benny Fields for an mc. . . . Ronald Graham, in my mind a classy vocalist, is doing double duty now that he's signed up to appear nightly at Will King's Night Club. . . . KYA still denies the rumors that William Randolph Hearst is going to buy it. . . . Ed McCallum, the boss there, tells me that a description of the birthday ball for President Roosevelt in Washington will be broadcast on January 30 by KYA. . . . Fairmont Hotel is back on the air again transmitting dance chunes by Jess Norman's band nightly from 9:30 to 10. . . . I remember ten or twelve years ago when Art Weidner held sway there in the ballroom and wafted his moosic over the ether. . . . S'funny Acme hasn't renewed its "Stars of the West" . . . a classy show. . . . Nice to hear Aunt Sammy back at the mike again on KQW . . . been ill for some weeks . . . Eva P. Hart is the real name. . . . Oh yeah, I promised to remind you that Luther Putnam is conducting a new feature on KGGC which he calls "Miladies Date Book" . . . maybe we can borrow it some time . . . oh but wait a minute . . . not that kind of book . . . it's a calendar of women's events and things of interest to the powder-puff legion which hits the ether at 11 a. m. . . . How the sam hill can a fellow get down to things practical when Grace Sanderson Michie, who writes continuities, calls up and tells you good-bye . . . that she is going on a long leisurely trip throughout Mexico . . . that she was invited by the Mexican Government and the Peck-Judah people to make the tour for her travelogue material . . . that she will stay on top of one of Mexico's ancient pyramids all night . . . will loiter around the tropics picking up color and atmosphere. . . . Consul General Allesandro Lubbert of Mexico heard her give one of her travelogues three years ago. . . . So taken by her ability that when the opportunity finally came he didn't forget her . . . such is life . . . and your humble servant bruising his fingers pounding this word mill to earn his cakes and coffee . . . there ain't no justice. . . . And now another dopester tips us off that Sperry Flour, one of the most ambitious users of radio time, has renewed its contract with KTAB . . . sponsors Uncle Rod's Smile Club, a kid's program. . . . I'll salute Rod, too, 'cause he has a membership in his club now of more than 13,000. . . . Besides myself I think one of the hardest working guys in radio is Meredith Willson. . . . Goo—bye.

SILHOUETTES

THE Granada Theater in San Francisco was filled with a jovial, noisy throng. The occasion was an amateur singing contest, and the audience joyfully razzed the contestants who stood grouped in anxious attitudes of nervousness, anxiety or bravado at the rear of the stage. One after another the entrants faltered to the footlights and did their stuff, while the hearers groaned, laughed, stamped, whistled and otherwise showed their appreciation.

Then a new entrant appeared. He was so small that when he ran down the aisle and paused at the steps leading to the stage, Paul Ash, leading the orchestra, didn't see him for a moment. When he did look down, it was into the face of a lad of ten, who said: "Can I sing, too Mr. Ash?"

"Sure you can," said Ash, and pulled Tommy Harris up onto the stage, into the glare of the spotlight. He's been living there ever since, figuratively speaking. With characteristic luck he reached the stage at just the right moment. The audience was beginning to tire of razzing—and it awarded the ten-year-old the prize.

"Was my family proud? Say—I can feel that hairbrush yet!" declares the twenty-one-year-old singing star of NBC's San Francisco studios. "You see, I had played hookey that day in order to get in on the contest—and my father didn't think much of the idea."

For the next few years Tommy's energies were chiefly spent in attempts to persuade his family that he was meant for a showman's career and none other. Ash and other orchestra leaders around town abetted him and by the time he was seventeen his parents finally acquiesced. Tommy joyfully departed on his first real tour—over a vaudeville circuit that took him all the way to Canada. In Port Arthur a sudden attack of appendicitis laid him low. Tommy didn't want to frighten his family and didn't give his home address at the hospital. The family name happens to be a different one than Harris—Tommy chose Harris because it's easier to spell. So the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce telegraphed the San Francisco Chamber, and for several weeks these two bodies continued an official correspondence about Tommy's temperature, reaction from the operation and final convalescence.

Once recovered, Tommy thanked the Port Arthur Chamber for its paternal interest and continued singing on his way. Before the year was over he had organized a dance orchestra and was leading it and singing with it on the President Wilson. He and the orchestra made a complete world tour in this manner, visiting Italy, India, China and Egypt. He was in his nineteenth year when he came back home and joined the staff of a local radio station and he has stayed with the microphone ever since, doing everything from comedy rôles to ballads.

In the studio or on the stage, Tommy behaves exactly the same. He can no more resist a bit of impromptu stage business before the microphone than he can in the theater; he has the gift of transforming his fellow entertainers into an audience. Ed Wynn, Eddie Cantor, Al Jolson, do this, and to some observers Tommy's youthful feet are not going astray when they attempt to follow the path of the great comedians. Tommy has something—call it showmanship—that makes it possible for him to sing the same songs and tell the same jokes as a dozen other singing comedians—and still seem to be offering something startling new and different.

He is one of the few western stars who are heard regularly by a nation-wide audience. He is featured as a soloist with Meredith Willson's orchestra in its transcontinental broadcast from San Francisco, and he is one of the most popular figures on the Carefree Carnival, over KPO, Saturday nights.

Tommy and his wife—he married a San Francisco girl about three years ago—keep open house in a big establishment where Tommy mows the lawn and raises prize flowers.

HAL TOTTEN, veteran NBC sports announcer, has covered more major league baseball games than any other announcer . . . estimates total at more than 1700, dating back to 1924 . . . in his tenth year of football broadcasting and has completed his tenth in baseball . . . born July 28, 1901, in Newark . . . family moved to Chicago when Hal (Harold O.) was 12 . . . attended Northwestern U., where he played baseball, was college press correspondent and an SAE . . . went to work on old Chicago Journal in 1922, where he was reporter and rewrite man . . . work on Loeb-Leopold case earned him new job . . . started broadcasting football games in 1924 as excuse to get out of office on Saturday afternoons.

The OPEN CIRCUIT

This department is open to all. Send in your letters. Anonymous letters will not be published. Give full name and address.

I COULDN'T keep house without your valuable booklet for reference. Three of my neighbors subscribed for the BROADCAST WEEKLY after viewing it for the first time. We consider it a household necessity. Do you know the theme name of Tom Gerun's orchestra? I mean the name of that beautiful tune they play as they come on the air and as they sign off. It is a beautiful waltz, and a host of his admirers, including myself, want to learn the name of that beautiful waltz. I hope that this is not asking too much in the way of favors.

Mrs. W. G. L., Vacaville.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—Tom Gerun's theme song is "Duchess of Bal Tabarin," an old, old number published by the Italian Book Company of New York.

MY first letter to the BROADCAST WEEKLY, as I have read a few remarks about the change of One Man's Family. I will say I am one of the disappointed ones on the change, as I listen to Myrt and Marge every night that they are on, so now I shall have to miss them on that night also. Tim and Irene, I like them so much. I never hear anyone praise the little French princess, and I like that program; I try to listen to it all the time. I am afraid that I will not hear it when Richard Collins finds out his beautiful wife is a princess. But my favorite is One Man's Family at night and by day Al Pearce's Gang. There are a great many that I do not miss.

Mrs. J. H., San Francisco.

WELL, here goes my second attempt to write in the "Open Circuit."

A letter written in the "Open Circuit" a few weeks ago greatly enraged me. It was the unfair criticism of a certain "Star of the West." I think this so-called "Lesser Star" is a grand singer and a grand personality.

I heartily agree with Lois H. in the compliments toward this singer, and certainly say that he is "San Francisco's gift to popular song." Here's another handful of compliments, Tommy Harris! Lots of success to you!

Also wish to complain about "One Man's Family" being changed to Friday nights. It interferes with "Myrt and Marge." Can't something be done about it?

I think the Carefree Carnival is great and that Tommy Harris is great on it.

To take a turn to the better, BROADCAST WEEKLY simply cannot be beat, and here's wishing you more success in the new year.

M. E. P., Berkeley.

WE all want to start the New Year right. So let us commend and thank you for the change in the date of One Man's Family. We, as well as everyone we have ever spoken to of that program, think it the best on the air today.

But as two of the lodges we belong to meet on Wednesday, we can never hear it unless we miss lodge, which we very often did. Now we can attend lodge, also hear our favorite program.

We have taken BROADCAST WEEKLY ever since we had our radio six years ago, and like it so much we don't know how we could get along without it.

Wishing you a very happy and successful 1934, we are sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. L., Windsor, Calif.

P. S.—Again, many thanks for the change in the program.

THIS time I write in regard to a quartet which we have been hearing from KHJ, named the Georgian Quartet. We have enjoyed them so much and would like to see their pictures in BROADCAST WEEKLY.

I do so enjoy reading the Open Circuit and finding out the viewpoint of other people in regard to our favorites.

I think the new time for One Man's Family is fine, but of course this will inconvenience many other fans. So we must all be tolerant with the other fellow's viewpoint.

I have read with interest the letters from K. M. McK. and Lois H. about two "Stars of the West." I think both of these singers are good in their respective types of singing.

Thank you for many pleasant moments with your WEEKLY, and I really know I would be lost without your helpful guide for radio programs. Almost like a motorist without a map.

E. M. J., San Francisco.

Here are the greatest writings by Coleman Cox. Almost two thousand of his inspiring thoughts by which people all over the world in all walks of life have been helped to Happiness and Success.

Rome Stevenson, past president of the American Bankers Association, writes: "There should be one of these books on the desk of every executive in the land." A mother in Idaho writes: "The Coleman Cox books have been worth their weight in gold to my four boys and girls." The Warden of San Quentin Penitentiary wrote: "There would be far less than 5,000 men in this prison had they read your thoughts on right living and right business methods."

"Smile Awhile"

A book that should be in every home. No matter who you are, and how "blue" you may feel, there's a certain remedy somewhere in its 135 priceless pages. A help for business men, for wives and mothers; and even children will benefit by its cheerful common sense.

"Telling of Selling"

The thoughts, experiences, and observations from forty active years as salesman, sales manager, employer. Not a text-book; yet worth ten times more than any sales text book, because it makes YOU do the thinking, and its THE RIGHT KIND OF THINKING FOR SUCCESS.

Amazing Offer of Guaranteed Help

You want these two books. And you need them. So sure of that are we, that we will GUARANTEE you'll be stimulated by them. If any time during the first 7 days you have these books, the reading of several pages fails to cheer you up, mail them back to us and your money will be refunded.

Not Sold at Bookstores

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Because of its dominating popularity the Gilmore Circus sponsored by the Gilmore Oil Company released over the Pacific Coast NBC network has been selected by the Pacific Automobile Show of San Francisco as a drawing card to attract visitors during the week of January 20 to 27. This radio program is regularly produced in full costume and scenery as a stage show and will perform each afternoon and evening during the Auto Show.

• • • The ovation which greeted the President during the opening session of Congress January 3, nearly blasted the NBC microphones, and engineers were forced to switch down the current to protect the instruments for what was to follow. Special speakers were: Postmaster General Farley, Speaker Rainey, Marjority Leader Byrns, Minority Leader Snell, Senator Jos. Robinson, Senator Pat Harrison, Senator Arthur Capper, Senator Royal S. Copeland, Senator Shipstead. This broadcast was carried over approximately 80 NBC stations and shortwaved abroad by W8XK, Pittsburgh, W3XAL, Bound Brook, and W2XAD, Schenectady.

• • • Here's a vignette of Katharine Hepburn, famous screen star, who was the first guest star of the new Hinds' Hall of Fame radio program, Sunday, January 7.; Auburn hair, green eyes. Beautiful slender figure. Abounding vitality. Always does the unusual. Fired from more jobs than many actresses have had. Plans to retire in a few years and raise a family. Never goes to night clubs. Dodges all large parties, if possible. Retires at 8, if possible. Likes tennis, swimming and golf.

Doesn't object to being called a "spitfire." Has husky appealing voice. Wanted to be a great star from childhood, and now is. Not conceited but refuses to be bored. Regards herself as an actress, and a working one. Looks forward to retiring and family life. Called the greatest actress of the age, she merely smiles.

• • • Mabel Todd, Al Pearce comedienne, recently took a few day's vacation at Palm Springs, after playing nearly 1000 stage shows with the Al Pearce Gang.

• • • Between stage appearances at the New York Paramount Theatre recently Muriel Wilson, NBC soprano, decided to kill time by viewing "I'm No Angel," starring Mae West, at a nearby theatre. She went in her stage makeup and costume, just throwing a cape over her shoulders. As Miss Wilson left the theatre some one cried, "There goes Mae West herself," and the radio soprano was besieged at once by autograph hunters.

• • • Kay Kyser and his orchestra starts a return engagement at the Bal Tabarin, San Francisco, January 24, and will be heard again on the NBC network. Kay Kyser's family of musicians now total fifteen.

• • • The United States Navy Band which brings everything from swinging military rhythms to standard compositions, to NBC listeners has been in existence for almost fifteen years.

It was organized in 1918 under the direction of Lieut. Charles Benter, its first and only director, who still wields the baton for the seventy-six men who comprise its personnel.

These seventy-six musicians carefully selected and trained for their seats in the big organization, are not limited as are so many members of their profession, in their ambition to play fine instruments. The band uses only the finest instruments and all of them are bought and paid for by the government.

A library of five thousand standard classical selections makes the band's repertoire, probably, one of the largest in the world, as virtually everything ever written is available to it.

The band has an orchestra which plays at official Washington receptions and dances. This orchestra has a separate library of fifteen hundred numbers and the library force includes a librarian, and five arrangers and copyists.

Between the years of 1918, when it was organized, and 1925, the band was continued as a temporary organization, but in 1925 a special Act of Congress made it permanent. Its headquarters is in the sale loft of the Navy Yard in Washington.

• • • A signal honor has come to Rubinfoff, NBC maestro. In the Literary Digest Poll both he and President Roosevelt received votes of 26 "dislikes" each. This makes Rubinfoff just as unpopular as the president—a fact of which Rubinfoff is very, very proud.

• • • Harry McNaughton, who is Phil Baker's butler, Bottle, in the NBC Armour program, comes of an all-theatrical family. His father was a theatre manager in London. Three uncles, Tom, Fred and Charles McNaughton, have been prominent on the stage in England and America. Harry is the youngest of the McNaughton tribe.

• • • When Virginia Payne, May Perkins of the NBC sketch, "Oxydol's Own Ma Perkins," started her radio career eight years ago, the actors received no pay but were allowed to sign taxicab checks. So the entire cast went joyriding to make sure they were well paid.

• • • Ralph Kirbery, NBC's "Dream Singer," was the recipient of many honors when he appeared recently in his home town, Paterson, N. J. Included in these honors were a presentation of the key to the city by Mayor John V. Hinchliffe; a life membership in the Consolidated Sportsman League, presented by Dr. Philip Gootenberg, president of the State League, and the presentation of a gold button by Commander John W. Orr of Raymond Pellington Post No. 77, American Legion, of which Kirbery is a member.

• • • Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians have an added member of the gang in Evelyn Nair, a pretty dancer. She has been appearing on the stage with them for several years, but this time she won't be doing any dancing. She's Mrs. Fred Waring now and the popular orchestra leader has decreed: "No more work for the Mrs." The Waring's marriage was a real coast-to-coast hook-up. The ceremony was performed in Chicago after the band leader had flown from New York and his fiancée had arrived by air from Los Angeles.

• • • Bobbe Deane, petite wife of Ted Maxwell, NBC actress, and a character star in her own right, is driving a handsome new brown and tan coupe, the Christmas gift of her husband.

• • • Nathaniel Shilkret, conductor of "An Evening in Paris," is known in the musical world as a man who has waved his baton in places ranging from college dances to diplomatic functions at Washington—and now he reveals that he used to conduct an orchestra in an insane asylum. "At college dances," he reminisces, "some of the boys used to want to play the drums or conduct, while in the insane asylum the inmates only wished to play the drums."

• • • Morey Amsterdam, Al Pearce comic, gave his fiancée Mabel Todd, an Irish Terrier puppy for Christmas. Mable calls him "Ezra," and carries him with her wherever she goes.

• • • Ma Pearce and Sister Edna have moved down to Los Angeles from San Francisco to keep house for Cal Pearce. They have an apartment where Ma Pearce turns out those famous lemon pies.

• • • Phil Harris, NBC orchestra conductor and singer, is the latest recruit to the NBC polo club of which Frank Parker is captain. The other members are Will Rogers, Robert Simmons, Henry Shope, D. O. Evans and Julian Oliver. Harris is an expert polo player and played regularly in Hollywood before he came East.

• • • A dream come true! Grace Sanderson Michie, writer of travel programs and miniature biographies for nearly three years on KGO, has had a dream come true. She is going to Mexico. And the wonderful part of it is she is going as a guest of the Peck-Judah Travel Company and the National Railways of Mexico. All she has to do is keep her eyes wide open and her mind receptive. For the past two years Grace Michie has been writing travel programs for MacGregor and SOLLIE. She recently finished a series for the Australian Government; these are now on fifty-five stations in the United States. Her last work was some programs on the beauties of New Zealand; these transcriptions have been sent to the Prime Minister for his approval. So when Mrs. Michie returns from her marvelous tour, not alone Mexico will be waiting to have her write of its beauty and antiquity, but New Zealand as well. Consul General Lubbert of Mexico has sent advance letters to officials in Mexico to see that Mrs. Michie will be honored in every way.

• • • Station WJSV, Columbia's Washington outlet, held auditions for a woman announcer recently. Among the candidates for the job was a young lady by the name of Helene Smith, a secretary in the Department of Justice. She passed the test with the highest average and was given her first trial program to announce. At the conclusion of her broadcast, the station manager said: "You did very nicely, Miss Smith. Now tell me, do you know anything about radio?" "Well, in a way," she replied. "I have a sister who is sort of connected with radio. Her name is Kate." Kate's sister is 26, two years older than Kate, and is a decided blonde of medium height. She is comparatively slender. Not wishing to capitalize on her sister's influence, Helene secured the position entirely unknown to Kate.

• • • Pat Kelley, NBC producer, is familiar with all the things that can happen to a radio program, but the most excruciating moment of his career came not long ago, just before a broadcast by the Thirtieth Infantry Band, which alternates with the Sixth Coast Artillery Band in weekly broadcasts over NBC.

The hour for the broadcast approached and there was no sign of the band. With just eleven minutes to go, Pat began to grow desperate, but suddenly the whole thirty-piece outfit arrived, and before another sixty seconds had passed they were seated with military precision in their chairs, and running over their opening number. At five minutes before the program they were all ready to start.

Then only did Pat discover the reason for their unwonted tardiness—a traffic jam, with which even army resource could not cope.

• • • The career of Don Bestor, band leader: Born, Langford, South Dakota, September 23, 1889 . . . musical director at age of 14 for Lyceum Comedy Company . . . first theatre work as manager of Majestic Theatre, in Madison, Wis., 1908 . . . with Will Rossiter, Chicago, 1910-1911 . . . owned a theatre, Kankakee, Ill., for 7 years . . . joined Benson Orchestra, Chicago and stayed five years . . . organized his own orchestra at Drake Hotel, Chicago, 1924 . . . made his first RCA Victor records, 1924 . . . wrote “Contented” in 1932 with a raging headache . . . his hobby says Don, is his family. . . He married the former Frankie Klassen of Chicago, in 1925 . . . they have a daughter Mary Ann, 6½ years old.

• • • When Josef Koestner laid down his baton following the Hoover Sentinels broadcast over KGO network Sunday, December 31, he completed his 2,000th broadcast. Despite his radio record it is topped by his appearance as leader of theatre orchestras, as he appeared in 3,500 performances.

Koestner entered radio as a substitute conductor, in 1929. During the illness of Jean Goldkette he directed the Studebaker program in a broadcast from the ballroom of the Auditorium Hotel.

Almost immediately he went on the NBC payroll as a staff conductor and his roster of programs includes many of the important shows which have originated in Chicago since that time. Koestner came to America as accompanist for Claire Dux, the famous opera singer, and while traveling through the Middle-west he received an offer from Balaban and Katz theatres. He worked for B. & K. for seven years, traveling between Chicago and New York and then joined Paramount, working with sound recordings, until he went into radio.

• • • Ma Perkins is a shrewd person in the NBC dramatic serial of that name, but Virginia Payne, who takes the “Ma Perkins” rôle, let a clerk short-change her the other day and didn’t discover the loss until she reached home.

• • • Frances White, NBC songstress, harbors a secret ambition to be a novelist. Most of her spare time is spent in short story writing, but she hasn’t submitted any of them for publication.
