Half a Song Sufficient for Jones Boys

The Jones Boys, new NBC darky quintet whose distinctive style of singing foretells a new vogue in harmony, open a week's engagement at the Warfield Theatre May 10. The theatre management asked them for a try-out to make certain they sounded as good on the stage as on the air; the boys obliged, but got just half-way through their first song when they were halted, to sign the contract without further trial.

Food and Nutrition Subject of University of California Series

"Food and Nutrition" is the general title of a new series of radio programs inaugurated by the University of California, to be given each Monday morning for twenty weeks. Jack Benny never was more enthused than he was last Sunday night immediately after his broadcast.

Greta Garbo, who seldom listens to radio, called him personally to tell him how much she enjoyed his work.

Listeners will recall that Garbo's name was used on the program when Jack introduced, as a famed Hollywood celebrity, the boy who delivers Garbo's groceries.

"I am going to listen to your program next week, too," said Garbo.

Dramatic Shows Renewed for 1936

First Nighter and Grand Hotel, popular dramatic programs presenting original radio plays, will be brought to radio listeners over National Broadcasting Company networks for another full year under new contracts recently signed by the Campana Sales Company, sponsor of both programs.

First Nighter, starring June Meredith and Don Ameche is broadcast over an NBC nation-wide network Friday at 6 p. m., P.S.T. Grand Hotel, featuring Anne Seymour and Ameche is heard each Sunday at 2:30 p. m., P.S.T.

Completion of the new First Nighter contract will mark a dramatic run of almost five and one-half years over NBC networks. The program, with Miss Meredith playing the feminine lead, made its debut on November 28, 1930. Grand Hotel made its bow October 1, 1933.

KPO heads the network of stations in the West broadcasting these programs.

FOR the Pacific Coast short-wave listener, the Australian stations have probably been more reliable than those in any country of the world, so far as strength and regularity of reception are concerned.

3LR, on 9.58 meg., located in Melbourne, may be heard nightly wafting a variety of programs from the National Network to listeners in remote areas of the commonwealth and to the world in general. The official schedule calls for operation daily, except Sunday, from 12:15 to 4:30 a. m., with an extra period on Friday evening from 9:30 to 11:15 p. m., when a running commentary on the horse races is broadcast direct from the Melbourne race track. On Saturday morning, an excellent short-wave chat is given between 12:15 and 12:30 a. m.

Despite the fact that a power of only 600 watts is being used, 3LR always sends a powerful signal roaring into this country that carries with it an echo of the Antipodes. This echo is a peculiar characteristic of the carrier wave and often mars what would otherwise be well-nigh perfect reception.

VK2ME on 9.59 meg., located in Sydney, is the oldest broadcast station in Australia, and shakes the antenna masts every Saturday night from 10 p. m. to midnight, and Sunday morning from 2 to 6 and 6:30 to 8:30 a. m., with a power of 20,000 watts. The call of the Kookaburra bird, the national bird of Australia, has become famous as an identification signal over this station.

The programs from 2ME consists mostly of recordings, with the announcer's taste seeming to lean toward the heavier type of music for the most part.

VK3ME on 9.51 meg., is the only other short-wave broadcasting station in Australasia at the present time. Broadcasts are carried out on Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday from 2 to 4 a. m., and the antenna power of three kilowatts sends an excellent signal across the ocean.

In addition to these broadcasting stations, there are a number of Australian phone stations which may be heard on many frequencies and at varying times. VLK on 10.52 meg. usually phones England near midnight; VLJ on 9.76 meg. phones ZLT of Wellington, New Zealand, at 11 p. m.; and VIZ3, the latest addition to the transoceanic phone service, may often be picked up on 11.49 meg. at irregular times between 4 and 8 a. m.

Latest Short Wave News Flashes

Another star, this time in the East, has arisen in the short-wave firmament. The newcomer is located at Hongkong and the call sign is ZBW. The transmitter is being heard from 3 to 6 a. m. every morning on a frequency of about 9.09 meg. All announcements are in English and all entertainment is English in character, many well-known records being played during the early part of the program. At 4 a. m. the following announcement easily identifies the station: "This is the Hongkong broadcasting station calling. Please stand by for the 8 o'clock time signals."

KAY, 14.98 meg., of Manila, has become very active during the past few days and has been busily engaged in sending test programs to Hongkong and San Francisco for observation. The programs originate in the studios of KZRM in Manila, and the feminine announcer handles most of the work at the microphone. Native music usually predominates until 9:30 p. m., following which the latest news bulletins are read.

JVN on 10.66 meg., is still broadcasting irregularly between 4 and 10 p. m., and is the only other station in Japan which is broadcasting on short waves at the present time. However, a number of phone stations operate at irregular times, the best being JVF on 15.61 meg., which is heard daily between 12:30 and 1 p. m., and JIC on 5.89 meg., which phones JVV (5.79 meg.) at about 11 p. m.

During the past month, a number of interesting baseball broadcasts have been relayed over JVM between 9:30 p. m. and 1 a. m.

JVM, 10.74 meg., the phantom Nipponese station at Nazaki, has again replaced JVT on the regular 10:50 to 11:20 p. m., and 1 to 4:40 a. m. relays of JOAK. The Japanese stations change frequencies so often that experienced dialers have almost given up trying to predict the future for these Oriental transmissions.

From Suva in the Fiji Islands comes the voice of VPJA on 13.07 meg on a daily schedule, except Saturday, which calls for transmission between the hours of 9:30 and 10:30 p. m. The station can easily be identified by the announcement, "This is Suva radio calling," and by the closing strains of "God Save the King." Reception is usually not particularly reliable, but under favorable conditions, a fairly good signal is forthcoming.

The Week's Special Short Wave Features

The week of May 5 to 11 is English Jubilee Week and many special programs are scheduled from the Daventry transmitters.

At 9:30 a. m. Monday morning, stations GSB on 9.51 meg. and GSD on 11.75 meg. will carry a program entitled "Twenty-five Years." The theme will entail a review of the reign of King George V, with the events and personalities of the reign being presented in terms of narrators, impersonators, sound, and music. A sequence of congratulatory messages will be delivered by the acting prime ministers and governors of the various dominions and colonies, followed by a speech from King George which will be relayed directly from Buckingham Palace. The entire program will be reproduced by means of electrical transcription at 3:50 p. m. over GSB and GSC; at 9:15 p. m. over GSB and GSD; and at 6:40 a. m., Tuesday morning over GSE on 11.86 meg. and GSG on 17.79 meg.

On Monday at 6 a. m., GSE and GSG will relay a thanksgiving service for the protection afforded to the King's Majesty during the twenty-five years of his reign. The broadcast will come directly from the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in London, and the

We thought we'd been around until we got a tuneless earful of the places that Silva Cortesi and her violin, now featured on KFRC, have included in concert tours. Miss Cortesi speaks of Paris, London and Dublin in the manner of an East Bay commuter discussing Oakland. We mean that casually. Just the same, she's very modest about all those European triumphs. Even about such things as having been guest star with Switzerland's National Symphony Orchestra.

* * *

The four-star ideas of Manager McGill continue to build up the program features of KGGC. Recently, he signed the former KFRC playboy, Mort Werner. Now "Mac" McMahon, dynamic young sports announcer, is telling his swift-paced gossip of things athletic to a KGGC "mike." And Mr. McGill can take another bow for signing the much-sought-after Philco program, "Short Wave Tips."

* * *

If a question and answer department could be included in this column, we'd put Dr. Seth Maker in charge of it. Dr. Maker, in case you didn't know, is NBC's Philistine. For the sake of advertising a certain molar mender, the genial Dr. Maker answers questions. And what questions people do ask. We dropped in for a visit with this wise gentlemen the other afternoon, and he brought out the morning's mail. It included such queries as: "How can I stop snoring?" "Why do wives 'go through' their husband's pockets?" "What's your best fish story?" But the Philistine knows all the answers, so we should worry.

* * *

Edward Fitzpatrick, who used to make music for NBC, is beaming proudly these days. And he has every right to beam. For Eddie, Jr., has started his ambitious climb up San Francisco's musical ladder. Young Fitzpatrick was singled out for the important job of directing the orchestra at the Bay City's lavish new cocktail temple, The Deauville. He and his boys entertain radio listeners via KFRC.

* * *

"Amateur Hour" Director, Station KYA,
San Francisco.

Dear Wrongdoer:—We aren't compelled to listen to your program. Some persons don't. But you'd have a much larger audience if you'd feature the amateur talent instead of the master of ceremonies and the man with that funny voice who reads the endless commercials. Major Bowes averages five amateurs per quarter-hour. Your quota is two, sometimes three.

About those lengthy commercials again. If that's what being sponsored means, we prefer to continue on our sustaining basis.

Yours truly,

J. L. M.

Short Waves and Remote Rumors: They say that Captain Dobbsie figures prominently in plans that concern a stage-radio show and the Orpheum Theatre. . . Sponsors may take vacations, but politicians don't, so the radio stations can still go on playing their bills. . . Variety seems to think that "Fats" Waller has made too many records of his African ecstasies, but we're lonesome because he "ain't misbehavin'" via KFRC anymore. . .

This enterprising San Francisco station is presenting many programs that enjoy a wide following. Miss Schneider is frequently heard over the station. Miss St. John, an accomplished violinist, appears on the Yar Gypsies, one of KGGC's most popular musicals. Elizabeth Baird, coloratura of exceptional vocal ability—and charm, is heard every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. McGill announces that KGGC staff has more than doubled in number, in the last few years, as have regular studios features.

KYA Throws Rice

KYA blossomed out with pink ribbon and wedding bells as Ethel Dance, veteran member of the station staff, said "yes" to W. W. Cartee at the altar on Easter Sunday.

Not to be outdone, Bill Packer gave Eileen Palmer the matrimonial rush the following Monday.

Miss Dance will be remembered for the elusive quality of her squeak as one of the "Three Little Pigs" on Uncle Harry's Christmas programs.

The Packer-Palmer combine culminates a torrid romance with a studio locale.

The Radio Tattler

• • • Friends of the Dinner Concert on KYA every evening at 6 o'clock have come to welcome the soft smooth voice of Rodrick Mays as an indispensable part of the program.

One of the first appointments by Dean Maddox, KYA's new program chief, was Rod's elevation to the position of producer of dramatic presentations.

• • • Officials of KOMO in Seattle are quite proud of the fact that their stations ranked ninth in the mail count by NBC division offices and associated stations during the year 1934.

• • • Frances Farmer, KOMO-KJR dramatic artist and student of drama at the University of Washington, has attracted nation-wide attention and comment by the trip which she is taking to Russia. Frances recently won a subscription contest which gave her a six-week trip to Moscow, where the talented young actress hopes to find inspiration and guidance in her work.

Miss Farmer, a lovely young blond, has been heard over KJR in dramatic rôles in "The Builders," "The Purple Ray," and other local productions.

• • • Agatha Turley, once a KJR artist, is slated for a part in Bing Crosby's next picture. Miss Turley will sing two lilting Irish ballads, "I Wish I Were on Yonder Hill" and "Spring Awakening." The scenes in which she will appear will be "shot" in San Francisco.

• • • Bee Lillie, NBC's titled comedienne, has been flooded with letters from listeners requesting that she send them, if possible, a complete list of the expressions that have become identified with her on the air. They mention "coo," "you old bachelor, you," as being examples of the repertoire they mean.

• • • Believe it or not, this actually happened to Tony Wons, host in the House By the Side of the Road. Back in the days when he was somewhat less of a radio personality, he kept body and soul reconciled by selling books. One day Katharine Cornell came to town and Tony took time off to see her show. When he got back to the office, his boss was raging and ranting. "Where ya been," he yelled, hurling invectives to the right and left of hapless Tony.

"Been watching Cornell," he replied dreamily, "playing in 'The Green Hat.'"

"I don't care if it was Notre Dame playing in purple pants," his boss shouted, "your job is selling books, not going to football games!"

• • • The Prosperian is a cheerful, human counselor heard daily at 10:15 a. m. on KYA. This sage of good sound sense is gaining a wide audience in Northern California because of his helpful talks on an attitude of mind that works in daily experience.

• • • Mary Livingstone has only one major problem while she and Jack Benny are in Hollywood. It's a matter of diet. As long as Jack is only broadcasting on the NBC air waves he can eat anything he wants. But now that he is going to face the camera again, Mary will see to it that he practices girth-control.

• • • Don Ameche plays a mean game of golf, is an excellent swimmer and is among the best handball players around the Chicago studios. The handsome star of Grand Hotel and First Nighter programs also is an authority on baseball statistics and batting records, and can, if asked, give you the lineup of All-American football teams for the last half dozen years.

Cupid "Darting" Around NBC Studios

Miss Edith Lippmann of the traffic department of NBC, San Francisco, went into the Civic Center Book Shop not long ago to find a book and came out with a husband.

At least he will be her husband on May 7, when Miss Lippmann becomes Mrs. Ted Fillipi. The bridegroom is the handsome young salesman who waited on her; the transaction led to a discussion of favorite books and mutual literary tastes, and these, in turn, to romance.

Miss Lippmann will be the third NBC bride within a few weeks. Miss Mary Oman, formerly of the program traffic department, was married last Monday night in New York to Harold Wilmshurst, brother of Ernest Wilmshurst, technician at Radio City. Miss Dorothy Diggles, also of the program traffic department, is planning a May Day ceremony for her marriage to Robert T. Whitten of the United States Department of Commerce.

His name is Joseph Rogato, and he drives a garbage truck. He was on the Major Bowes Amateur Hour recently and his baritone voice won many, many telephone and mailed ballots of appreciation. But Rogato is not thinking about giving up his regular work—he'll tell you he is a mighty good truck driver and hasn't got much confidence in his singing ability.

Regular tickets are issued and a studio audience allowed for the Paul Whiteman Music Hall dress rehearsals. This audience doesn't know it, but it is used as a "test" and the reactions, especially to Lou Holtz's comedy routine, are valuable in shaping the program that goes on the air each Thursday night. This device is the same as that used by Broadway shows which generally are opened out of town to test reactions and smooth out the rough sections.

Floyd Gibbons, back on the air with a new program for his old sponsors, has a lot of new ideas for his broadcasts. Listen to his dramatic sequences—it's a new turn for news commentators.

Lou Holtz is a favorite story teller along Broadway and most any theatrical or radio entertainer will tell you so. That's why his title of "Clown Prince of Broadway" sticks.

New wrinkle in Rudy Vallee's Variety Hour recently was a vocal chorus by the whole orchestra. Bandmen enjoyed the chance to demonstrate their singing ability as much as listeners did the novelty chorus they sang.

Pendarvis at Palace

The Palace Hotel, from all appearances, has "picked another winner" in Paul Pendarvis, who follows the popular Tom Coakley for a summer engagement. Paul Pendarvis and his youthful associates from the University of California at Los Angeles have enjoyed a phenomenal success in the mid-west and east during their short career. They broke all records at the Muehlbach in Kansas City, playing three return engagements, and were hits at the Congress in Chicago, the William Penn in Pittsburgh, and the Commodore in New York. Featured are Patricia Norman, vocalist (formerly with Joe Penner in the road show Follow Thru), and Eddie Scope, vest pocket edition of Dick Powell, who won the Paul Whiteman audition in 1933. An idea new to the Pacific Coast is being introduced in the Rose Room Bowl by Pendarvis in continuous dancing, the intermissions being filled with music by a miniature "waltz band," otherwise, the Jones Brothers, Eenie, Meenie, Minie and Mo. The brand of music is the sweet and rhythmic so popular at this time, with occasionally a "hot" number or novelty hit for the sake of variety.
