INTRODUCTION.

GEOGRAPHICAL ARRANGEMENT.

THE ANNUAL is arranged by States in geographical order for the convenience of advertisers who desire to cover any particular section of the country. The grouping together of neighboring States saves time and labor in making up advertising lists. For those, however, who prefer an alphabetical arrangement, the alphabetical index, running head-lines and title-pages afford ample means for ready reference.

POPULATION.

Unmarked populations in the United States are from the Census of 1880; in Canada, from that of 1881. Those marked with a section mark (§) are from recent estimates of State or local authorities.

THE STATE AND COUNTY HEADINGS, an important feature of the work, subject to constant and careful revision, are of great value to advertisers of specialties, who, by carefully examining them, can readily decide which counties are likely to prove remunerative territory, and thus confine their expenditures within limits which may be expected to yield the greatest return for their outlay.

An effort has been made to place the leading crops first in order, but it may be well to state, that in the case of manufactures, it is not intended to enumerate all the manufacturing interests of each county, but simply to designate those counties which, from the extent of their manufacturing interests, give reasonable promise of fair return to those whose advertisements appeal particularly to the manufacturing classes. Many counties may have varied manufacturing interests scattered through them, or there may indeed be one or more important interests located in them, but these are not deemed of sufficient magnitude to recommend those counties as specially valuable for that species of advertising which appeals largely to the mechanical and laboring classes for its returns.

Still better to enable an advertiser to make a selection, an important and valuable feature has been added to these headings in this edition. Under each county is given the number of manufacturing establishments of all kinds as shown by the U. S. Census of 1880, the amount of capital invested in them, the number of hands employed, and the annual value of products. (In the State headings the amount paid in wages and the value of the materials used is also given.) This, it is believed, will yet more clearly express the value of each county to those who desire to reach the manufacturing classes.

CIRCULATION.

Circulations for which affidavits have been furnished have been set in bold-face type in the Catalogue, and designated by an asterisk (*) in the County and Class Lists. Those not sworn to by publishers are marked with a double dagger (‡) throughout the book; those set in Roman figures and unmarked, represent our own estimates.

The information upon which the revision of the ANNUAL is based is gathered mainly in March of each year and the circulation ratings are in most cases believed to be the average for the three preceding months. Publishers are at liberty to amend their statements, if they desire to do so, as late as the 1st of July, at which time the revision of the book is practically closed. Advertisements on the other hand are received up to the hour of going to press and not unfrequently contain much later information than can possibly be given in the Catalogue. This will explain in many cases what would otherwise appear to be discrepancies between the statements made in the advertisements and the ratings given the papers in the book itself. These differences are especially apparent in the year of a presidential campaign.

Circulation is not given in the following instances—where the paper has been established during the current year; in many cases where it appears for the first time in the ANNUAL; where the information received is unsatisfactory, or the reports are conflicting; where publishers have requested omission, in which case the word "Decline" is printed in the circulation column, and where the publication is devoted exclusively, or nearly so, to advertising the business or interests of individuals, business houses or corporations. Papers of this latter class are designated in the Catalogue as "issued for advertising purposes," and in the County and Class Lists by the letters "Adv." in the circulation column.

Aiming at strict impartiality in this important part of our work, and desiring always to be just to publishers, in our efforts to procure accurate and trustworthy information for advertisers, we shall gladly receive communications from any who may consider themselves unfairly dealt with in the estimate placed upon the circulation of their papers, and will cheerfully correct in future editions any mistakes made in the present one, if furnished with satisfactory evidence of our error.

Papers which are believed to decline general advertising are designated in the Catalogue by the words "No Advs." in the circulation column, and are omitted entirely from the County and Class Lists.

The political majorities and pluralities are those of the Presidential election of 1880, that being chosen as the standard in the belief that a general election affords the best evidence of the actual political proclivities of the people.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS.

In order to make the advertisements of greater value to publishers, in addition to the index (983 to 994), we have printed in the Catalogue against the name of each paper having an advertisement, the number of the page on which that advertisement appears. This will enable an advertiser to refer directly to it, without the aid of an index, and that, too, at the moment when the information it contains would be likely to interest him most. A careful examination of the advertising pages will result in the acquisition of a mass of valuable information which, for the sake of compactness and facility of reference, must necessarily be excluded from the Catalogue itself.

The revision of this book for the edition of 1885 will be commenced immediately, and publishers of newspapers will confer a favor by notifying us of the establishment, suspension, or change of any papers within their knowledge, or by calling our attention to any inaccuracies in the present edition, that may come to their notice.

HOW TO OBTAIN AN ESTIMATE.

In writing to ascertain the cost of advertising, please observe the following suggestions:

1. When possible, always send copy of your advertisement. If you have no printed copy, send it in writing.

2. Mention the space you wish it to occupy in LINES or INCHES. Don't say anything about squares. The size of an advertising square varies from four lines to two and a half inches.

3. Name the papers you wish to use. If undecided on this point, state the cities and towns, or at least the particular section of country you would like to reach.

4. State the length of time you desire it inserted in the different papers.

5. In case your plans are not fully matured, it is always well to state about the amount of money you purpose expending. By so doing you will enable us to make the most suitable selection for your use, including only the best and cheapest papers to cover the ground.

ADVERTISING AGENTS,
Times Building, Philadelphia.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN desires to extend his business just as much as he profitably can. Careful investigation will prove that there is no better or surer way to accomplish this than by Newspaper Advertising, provided it is wisely and honestly done;—that it has not been so done, is the true explanation of a large proportion of unfortunate advertising ventures. Wise newspaper advertising is little understood. It is not a haphazard thing; it is just the difference between loss and gain. Which it shall be, is not infrequently decided at the outset, before a line of advertising appears. There are Two Ways of making advertising contracts—directly with the papers, and through advertising agents. If a man, having thoroughly mastered his own business has, in addition, been able to devote years of careful study to the science of advertising; has learned how to say the most in fewest words, and get the best display in the least space; if he is sufficiently familiar with papers to know what their circulation really is; whether it is among people likely to buy his goods; how the prices asked him compare with what they take from others; and finally, if he believes he can buy advertising space at retail cheaper than at wholesale,—there is no good reason why he should not deal direct. If, however, he does not possess this knowledge, an honest and capable advertising agency is as necessary to him as a lawyer to his client. Of advertising agencies, there are THREE KINDS. 1. Those with large experience and abundant capital, whose position has been attained only by careful study, hard work and sterling honesty; who have no specialties to urge upon a customer, but, making his interests their own, intelligently study how to secure the best results in each individual case. These do conscientious work, and insist on a fair profit on all business handled by them.

2. Those whose judgment of an advertiser's interest is influenced solely by their personal profits; who purchase the space of individual papers, make "lists," and recommend them as "just the thing" for every kind of advertising, and by skillful manipulation apparently show, to an ordinary observer, an enormous circulation for a comparatively small amount of money.

3. Those who are always eager for business at cost, or less if necessary, and then, having contracted for thirteen consecutive insertions, give six or seven, every other week; or for fifteen lines and give thirteen; or under cover of furnishing electrotypes without charge, reset the advertisement in a smaller sized type, and thus save space; or, having contracted for a list of papers, place the advertisement in those yielding a profit, and then kindly offer to substitute better (?) papers for those on which there would be a loss; or, through the leniency of the advertiser, are allowed to discount those not placed, and thus turn a losing order into a profitable one.

These three kinds of advertising agencies actually exist. The two last named largely outnumber the first, and though they frequently claim to do business "at cost," or even less, they, as a rule, make a larger profit than the first, and give the advertiser less value.

TWO WAYS OF ADVERTISING! Which is better?

THREE KINDS OF ADVERTISING AGENTS! Which is best?

Every advertiser must make his own decision. For ourselves, we only say, look us up and investigate our methods. Our record speaks for itself,—we cannot change it.

The total of our first year's (1869) business was $15,000; clerks were unnecessary accessories, and a room 18x20 then answered all our requirements.

To-day we occupy for business purposes, more than 9,000 square feet of floor room; our pay roll for July included the names of ninety-three employees, and the aggregate of the charges on our books for the six months ending June 30th last, was $506,706.09; this amount including no advance orders or business which had not been actually placed within the six months.

We believe it is universally conceded that we do very much the largest business in our line in the world, and it has not come to us by accident.

Is it not fair to assume that the largest amount of business secures the lowest prices? The experience of our customers seems to justify this assumption, and many of them have come to us after extended dealing with other advertising houses.

Of the following points all who are interested can rest confidently assured: We never do business at a loss, never at cost, always at a fair profit, always the best we know how.

An investigation of the details of such a business as ours should certainly interest those who advertise, or any about to commence in that line. It is a pleasure to us to explain our system and its workings. We therefore extend the invitation to all who spend any money in newspaper advertising to call and see us, or drop us a line.

AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS

GIVING THE PLACES IN WHICH THEY ARE PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES, TERRITORIES, AND DOMINION OF CANADA, ARRANGED ALPHABETICALLY IN STATES BY GEOGRAPHICAL SECTIONS; THE COUNTIES IN WHICH THE PLACES ARE SITUATED, AND THE POPULATION OF EACH; AND IN CONNECTION WITH THE PAPERS THE FREQUENCY OF ISSUE, POLITICS, DENOMINATION OR GENERAL CHARACTER, YEAR OF ESTABLISHMENT, SIZE, CIRCULATION, AND PUBLISHER'S PRICE FOR TEN LINES ONE MONTH.

Populations in the United States, if unmarked, are from the Census of 1880. Canadian populations are from the Census of 1881.

Those marked with a section mark (§) are from recent estimates of State or local authorities.

Circulations for which affidavits have been furnished, are printed in bold-face figures; those furnished by publishers, but not sworn to, are designated by a double-dagger (§); those unmarked are estimated.

When statement of circulation is omitted, we have been unable to obtain any satisfactory information, or the paper was established during the current year, or else is issued for advertising purposes. The word "decline" indicates that the publishers have declined or objected to furnish any statement for publication.

County-seats are indicated by a dagger (†).

KIND WORDS FOR THE ANNUAL.

From The Journal, Syracuse, N. Y. Oct. 29, 1883.

The publication of Newspaper Directories or Annuals is one of the remarkable features of modern times. This enterprise has grown with a rapidity that almost surpasses belief. At first a small paper-covered pamphlet appeared with a list of the prominent papers in older cities and states with no classification, no extended or special information, and affording no special aid to the man who sought to extend his business by judicious and extensive advertising. Now N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia, issue a large volume of over nine hundred pages, containing the most complete and definite information of every newspaper published in the United States, Territories and Canada. The circulation of each and the rates of advertising charges are also given with great accuracy, together with an immense amount of statistical information concerning all parts of the country. The book is an impressive illustration of the rapid, progressive movement of the age.

From The Times, Troy, New York. Oct. 3, 1883.

Each succeeding issue of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER ANNUAL suggests wonder as to what possible improvement can be made. Yet in each number some new feature is added to increase the value and completeness of the book as a manual for advertisers. The volume for 1883 distances all earlier issues, great as have been their merits. Making due allowance for the corrections to be constantly made in a work of this character, because of the changes going on in the journalistic world, the publication is marvelously accurate and therefore a specially reliable guide to the field for which it is intended. * * * There are many other features of the greatest practical use, but the above enumeration will serve to indicate that the character of this sterling publication is kept up to its high standard and is in line with advertisers' needs.

From The Commercial Gazette, Pittsburgh, Oct. 22, 1883.

A very useful volume for live business men. The advertiser can turn to this ANNUAL for information to enable him to reach the localities most likely to respond to his announcements. In a word, the work is a complete guide to that intelligent advertising in which not a penny is wasted or a line misplaced.

From The Times, Kansas City, Mo. Oct. 12, 1883.

This is without doubt the most complete Newspaper Directory ever published. Every effort has been made to make the work complete and reliable. The book presents a vast mass of statistics in facts that cannot fail to be interesting to every one and particularly to advertisers. The publishers have great facilities for acquiring statistical information, and they have clearly made the most of their opportunities.

A COMPLETE CATALOGUE OF ALL PAPERS, IN WHATEVER LANGUAGE, PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES, TERRITORIES, AND DOMINION OF CANADA, WHICH INSERT ADVERTISEMENTS, ARRANGED ALPHABETICALLY BY COUNTIES, AND GEOGRAPHICALLY IN STATES BY SECTIONS, GIVING THE LOCATION, AREA, NATURAL FEATURES, CHIEF PRODUCTS AND MANUFACTURES, COUNTY-SEAT, POPULATION, AND POLITICAL MAJORITY OF EACH STATE, TERRITORY, AND COUNTY IN THE UNITED STATES, AND THE GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS AND CIRCULATION OF EACH PAPER ACCORDING TO THE LATEST AND BEST OBTAINABLE INFORMATION.

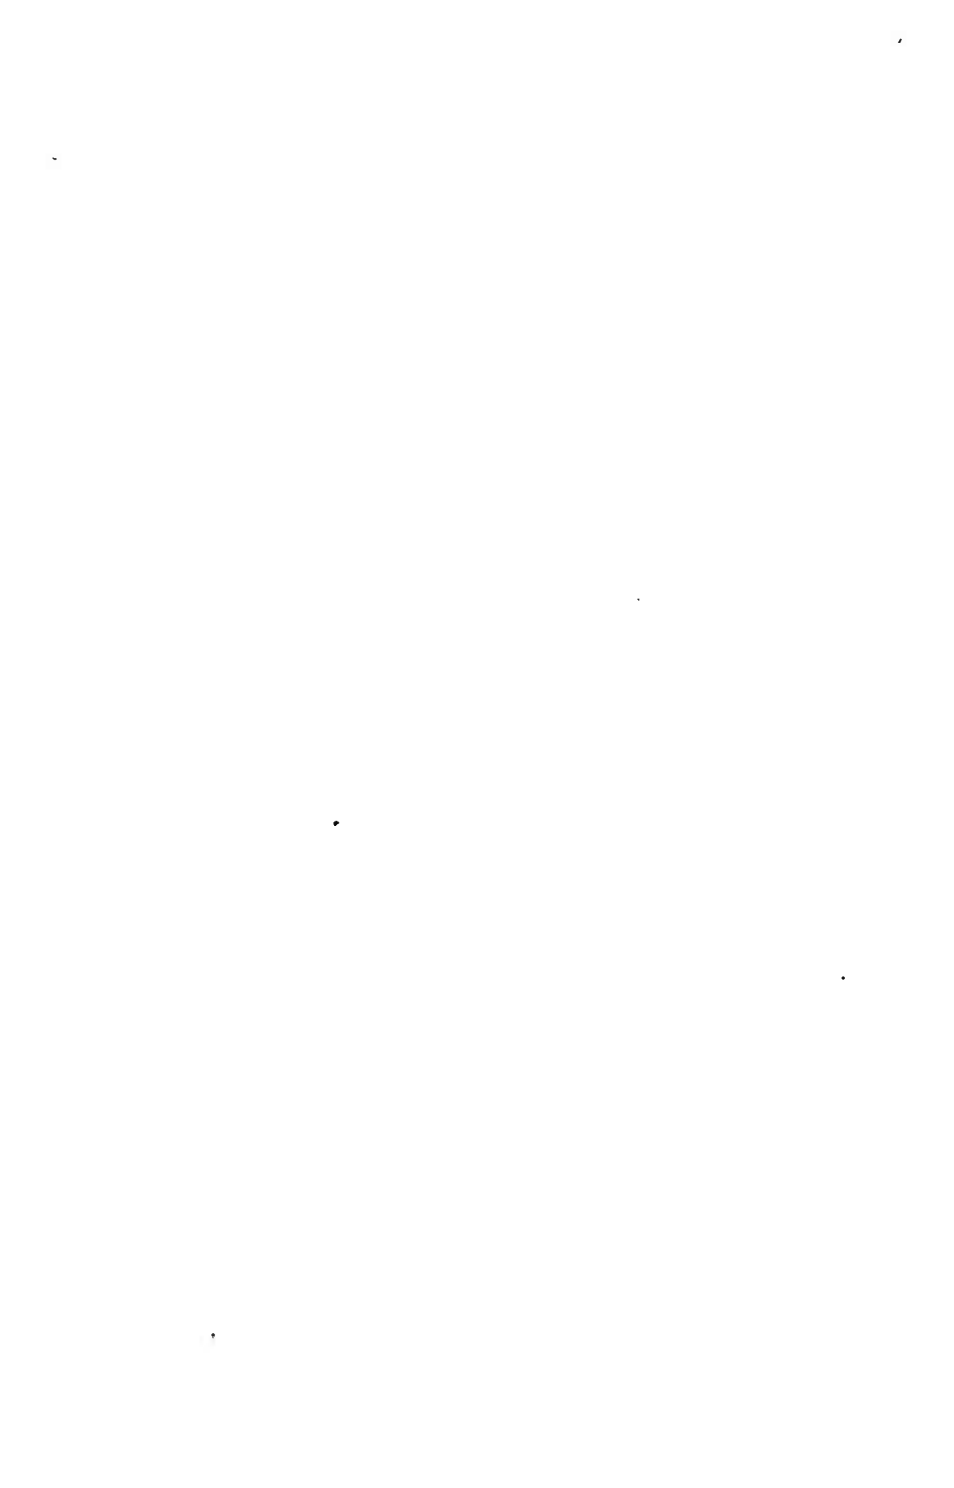

Populations in the United States, if unmarked, are from the Census of 1880. Canadian populations are from the Census of 1881.

Those marked with a section mark (§) are from recent estimates of State or local authorities.

Circulations for which affidavits have been furnished, are designated by an asterisk (*); those furnished by publishers, but not sworn to, are designated by a double-dagger (‡); those unmarked are estimated.

When statement of circulation is omitted, we have been unable to obtain any satisfactory information, or the paper was established during the current year, or else is issued for advertising purposes, in which latter case "adv." is placed in the circulation column. The word "decline" indicates that the publishers have declined or objected to furnish any statement for publication.

County-seats are indicated by a dagger (†). Unless otherwise specified the papers are issued weekly.

MAINE.

Population 648,936.....Rep. Plur. 8,868

Gbk. vote, 4,408.

STATE CAPITAL, AUGUSTA.

MAINE is the most northeasterly State in the Union, bounded on the north by Quebec and New Brunswick, east by New Brunswick, south by the Atlantic Ocean, and west by New Hampshire and Quebec; land area, 29,895 square miles. The northern part is mainly a wilderness of forest-land with rugged surface and groups of detached mountains; thinly peopled, except in the fertile tracts of Aroostook County in the northeast inhabited by French Canadians. The southern part is varied, seldom much broken, and has tracts of great fertility, while others are only moderately fertile, especially in the southeast. The hay and potato crop is large and excellent; corn thrives in the south, and winter wheat in the northeast; oats are very fine and prolific, and barley next. Dairy products are of great value. Large numbers of horses and cattle are exported. Wool is abundant and of good quality. The principal fruits are the cherry, plum, pear, and apple. The State holds a prominent position in the lumber trade; fisheries are important, and the canning of fish, lobsters, green-corn, fruits, and vegetables is extensively carried on. The seaboard towns enjoy a large coasting and West India trade. Cotton manufacture is one of the leading industries. Large quantities of lime are exported from Camden, Rockland, and Thomaston. Granite is extensively quarried at Bath, Dix Island, Hallowell, Rockland, West Sullivan, etc. Ice is an important and profitable article of export. The chief seats of the lumber trade are, Bangor, Biddeford, Calais, Eastport, Fairfield, and Machias; of cotton manufacture, Augusta, Biddeford, Lewiston, and Saco; of ship building, Bath, Bangor, Belfast, Calais, Damariscotta, Machias, Rockland, Thomaston and Waldoboro. Woolens are made at Bridgton, Dexter, Lewiston, Sanford, and Warren; hoots and shoes at Auburn, Fairfield, Farmington and Richmond. Bangor has foundry and machine shops, furniture factories, and steam planing mills. Apart from these special branches of trade, Belfast, Ellsworth, Gardiner, Hallowell, Portland, Rockland, Skowhegan, and Waterville are seats of varied and extensive manufactures. The number of manufacturing establishments of all kinds in the State in 1880 was 4,481; the amount of capital invested in them, $49,988,171; total number of hands employed, 10,204; amount paid in wages, $18,623,818; value of materials used, $51,120,708; value of products, $79,829,793.

There are 16 Counties in Maine. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 54, of which the 14 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 116 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 13 are daily, 1 tri-weekly, 86 weekly, 1 hi-weekly, 2 semi-monthly, 11 monthly, and 2 quarterly.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Population 346,991.....Rep. Plur. 4,058

Gbk. vote, 523.

STATE CAPITAL, CONCORD.

NEW HAMPSHIRE is bounded on the north by Quebec, east by Maine and the Atlantic Ocean, south by Massachusetts, and west by Vermont. Its length is 180 miles from north to south; its extreme breadth 93 miles; average breadth 50 miles; land area, 9,005 square miles. Most of the State, except the southeastern part, has a rough and hilly surface. In the northern part are the White Mountains. The State is generally well wooded, and the yield of timber is very large. The Valley of the Connecticut is famed for the beauty of its farms and villages. In productions, the hay-crop is by far the most valuable, and while this is steadily increasing the agricultural interests have for some years been gradually declining. While there are some very fertile tracts among the valley lands, the greater part of the surface is rugged and stony, and much more valuable as woodland or pasture than as tilled land. Oats, barley, rye, buckwheat, and corn are very generally cultivated. Dairy farming and wool-growing are followed to some extent. Tobacco is grown in Cheshire County, in the southwestern part of the State. Fruit-raising is generally profitable. In some localities southward the peach is successfully cultivated. Fine building granite is extensively quarried at Concord, Milford, Pelbam, Plymouth, and other points, and a fine soapstone at Franconstown. Iron-ore is mined principally at Franconia, but abounds in several other localities. There is a thin vein of tin at Jackson. Lead, silver, and zinc are developed in Madison and Warren. Manufactures constitute by far the largest industry. There is scarcely a town of any considerable size without its important manufacture. It is especially noted for its textile interests. The other main industries are boots and shoes, carriages, flouring-mills, saddlery, clothing, starch, etc. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 3,181; amount of capital invested in them, $51,112,263; total number of hands employed, 48,831; amount paid in wages, $14,814,793; value of materials used, $43,552,462; value of products, $73,978,928.

There are 100 Counties in New Hampshire. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 54, of which the 11 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 104 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 11 are daily, 83 weekly, 1 bi-weekly, 2 semi-monthly, and 7 monthly.

VERMONT.

Population 332,286.....Rep. Plur. 27,251

Gbk. vote, 1,215.

STATE CAPITAL, MONTPELIER.

VERMONT is the most northwesterly of the New England States, bounded north by Quebec, east by New Hampshire, south by Massachusetts, and west by New York. It is 130 miles long by from 35 to 85 miles wide, with a land area of 9,135 square miles. The Green Mountains traverse it from north to south, mainly in two ranges, generally covered with dense forests, but affording excellent pasturage. Western Vermont and a large tract of the eastern part comprise beautiful pastoral regions, but the central part is rugged and mountainous. The best soil is found on the western slope of the mountains near the border of Lake Champlain, and in the valley lands of the Connecticut River. The State occupies a prominent position in agriculture. When its area, population, amount of forest-land, and long severe winters are considered, there is perhaps no other State that yields so large a return. All the ordinary agricultural staples are abundantly produced; wool and dairy products are large and excellent; cattle, sheep, and horses are raised in large numbers, and the yield of maple-sugar is unequalled. Manufactures occupy a prominent position in its industries, and cover a wide range of goods. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 2,874; amount of capital invested in them, $23,265,224; total number of hands employed, 17,540; amount paid in wages, $5,164,479; value of materials used, $18,330,677; value of products, $31,354,366. Large quantities of lumber are exported, and marble and slate extensively quarried. The principal marble quarries are at Brandon, Dorset, Isle La Motte, Manchester, Middlebury, New Haven, Pittsford, Proctorsville (serpentine), Rosebury (verd-antique), Rutland, Sbelbourne Sutherland Falls, Swanton; and West Rutland; slate quarries at Castleton, Fair Haven, Guilford, Northfield, Pawlet and Poultney. Potters' clay comes from Bennington and Rutland; steatite from Castleton and Grafton. Manganese, brown hematite, kaolin and ochre from Brandon; copper-ore from Vershire and Corinth.

There are 14 Counties in Vermont. Newspapers are published in 13.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 37, of which 9 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 66 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 4 are daily, 54 weekly, 1 every three weeks, and 7 monthly.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Population 1,783,085.....Rep. Plur. 53,245

Gbk. vote, 4,548.

STATE CAPITAL, BOSTON.

MASSACHUSETTS is bounded north by Vermont and New Hampshire, east by the Atlantic Ocean, south by the Atlantic Ocean and by Rhode Island and Connecticut, and west by Rhode Island and New York. Its extreme length is 160 miles, and breadth from 47 to about 90 miles; land area, 8,040 square miles. The surface is greatly diversified; mountainous in the extreme west; hilly and broken in the east and northeast, and in the southeast mainly low and sandy. Toward the east is the fertile Valley of the Connecticut River. The mountains are the Green, the Taconic, and the Hoosac, with detached members of the White Mountains. The soil is generally somewhat sterile, but energy and intelligence have succeeded in making it very productive. The Connecticut Valley, however, can hardly be excelled for fertility. Dairy products are very extensive, as is also the yield of wool, hay, maple-sugar, and honey. Corn and potatoes are very largely produced. Of grain, the crop of oats, rye, and barley is large, buckwheat moderate, and wheat (winter), small. The tobacco crop is very great; live-stock abundant (cattle largely in excess). More than half the fishing vessels owned in the United States belong to Massachusetts. Manufactures, however, constitute by far the largest of its industries. Not only is it the center of the American boot, shoe, leather, wool, and cotton trades, but all the large towns are busy seats of more or less numerous branches of manufacture. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 14,352; amount of capital invested in them, $303,806,185; total number of hands employed, 352,255; amount paid in wages, $128,815,302; value of materials used, $386,972,655; value of products, $631,133,281. The chief seats of the ship-building interests are Boston, Newburyport, and Salem. The State is rich in building-stone, principally granite, which is largely quarried at Rockport, Granitville, Fall River, and Quincy; a handsome brown sandstone in the Connecticut Valley, and marble and limestone in Berkshire County; Berkshire County has also deposits of excellent iron-ore, which is extensively mined and smelted. The State has some coal, but it has not been worked to any extent, its excessive hardness rendering its use unprofitable, except in special cases.

There are 14 Counties in Massachusetts. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 164, of which the 19 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 479 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 46 are daily, 1 tri-weekly, 9 semi-weekly, 321 weekly, 7 bi-weekly, 3 semi-monthly, 83 monthly, 3 bi-monthly, and 6 quarterly.

RHODE ISLAND.

Population 276,531.....Rep. Plur. 7,416

Gbk. vote, 236.

STATE CAPITALS, NEWPORT AND PROVIDENCE.

RHODE ISLAND is bounded on the north and east by Massachusetts, south by the Atlantic Ocean, and west by Connecticut. Its extreme length from north to south is 47½ miles; extreme breadth, 40 miles; average breadth, 35 miles; land area, 1,085 square miles. The surface is for the most part rough, hilly, and stony. There are no mountains, and few hills of any prominence. Nearly one fourth is woodland. Soil generally fertile, especially that of the smaller islands; but parts are level and marshy. Rhode Island is not an agricultural State. The wheat and buckwheat crop is merely nominal; other cereals small; dairy and market-garden produce and live-stock very moderate. In 1880 nearly one fourth of the population was engaged in manufacturing. The most prominent industries are cotton, woolen and worsted goods, machinery, jewelry, silver and plated ware, clothing, iron and ironware, rubber and elastic goods, leather, refined sugar and molasses, and flouring-mill products. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 2,205; amount of capital invested in them, $75,575,943; total number of hands employed, 62,873; amount paid in wages, $21,355,619; value of materials used, $8,163,443; value of products, $104,163,621. Coal is mined at Cumberland, Portsmouth, and Valley Falls, but is hard and difficult to burn. There are extensive granite quarries at Westerly.

There are 5 Counties in Rhode Island. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 15, of which the 4 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 50 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 7 are daily, 2 semi-weekly, 33 weekly, 1 bi-weekly, and 7 monthly.

CONNECTICUT.

Population 622,700.....Rep. Plur. 2,656

Gbk. vote, 668.

STATE CAPITAL, HARTFORD.

CONNECTICUT is bounded north by Massachusetts, east by Rhode Island, south by Long Island Sound, and west by New York. Its average length from east to west is 86 miles; its average breadth, 55 miles; land area, 4,845 square miles. The eastern part is principally composed of rounded hills, which, though stony, afford rich pasturage; and the valleys support a thrifty agricultural and manufacturing population. The Connecticut Valley, near the river, and at a distance from the Sound, is very fertile. In the south the land is broken and the soil sandy and gravelly, but when well manured yields good crops of potatoes, rye, oats, and corn. In the west the surface is rough and the hills are abrupt. Agriculture is not a leading industry. Dairy products and hay are the principal staples of the east and west. Tobacco is largely grown in the Connecticut Valley. Corn, rye, oats, and potatoes are grown in nearly all sections. The land near the large cities and towns is chiefly devoted to market-gardening. Connecticut is mainly a manufacturing State, and its industries are very extensive and varied. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 4,448; amount of capital invested in them, $120,480,275; total number of hands employed, $112,915; amount paid in wages, $13,501,518; value of materials used, $102,183,311; value of products, $185,607,911. Excellent iron is made from Connecticut ores, and very large quantities of brown stone are taken from the celebrated Portland sandstone quarries.

There are 8 Counties in Connecticut. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 52, of which the 8 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 150 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 27 are daily, 100 weekly, 1 every ten days, 2 bi-weekly, 1 every third week, 15 monthly, 1 bi-monthly, and 3 quarterly.

NEW YORK.

Population 5,082,871.....Rep. Plur. 21,033

Gbk. vote, 12,373.

STATE CAPITAL, ALBANY.

NEW YORK is bounded on the north and northwest by Lake Ontario and the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, east by Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and the Atlantic Ocean, south by the Atlantic Ocean, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, and west and northwest by Pennsylvania and Lake Erie. Its greatest length from north to south is 312 miles; its greatest breadth 412 miles; land area, 47,620 square miles. The surface is exceedingly diversified. It has numerous ranges of mountains, chains of hills, many beautiful valleys, much undulating land, some broad plains, and numerous beautiful lakes. The greater portion of the soil is arable, much of it exceedingly fertile. The mountainous districts are mainly good grazing land, and the dairy products are enormous, notably in St. Lawrence County. Immense crops of cereals are grown in the valley lands; tobacco is raised in several counties, and corn generally throughout the State. In the neighborhood of the large cities, market-gardening is extensively carried on. The State is well wooded, and the timber varied and excellent. It abounds in building-stone, consisting of granite, white and colored marbles, of which those of Westchester County are the most important; Potsdam and Medina sandstones and gray and blue limestones; also in fine brick-clay. It has large quarries of slate and stone for flagging. A vast amount of salt is made, chiefly from the springs of Onondaga County. There are also illuminating gas springs in several counties. New York has no coal. The State ranks first in the value of its manufactures. The industries cover almost the whole range of business, and are well distributed over the State. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 42,739; amount of capital invested in them, $54,246,575; total number of hands employed, 531,533; amount paid in wages, $198,634,029; value of materials used, $679,612,545; value of products, $1,080,696,596. In 1874 it had in vessels of all classes a tonnage of over 1,700,000 tons, more than a third of the tonnage of the country. The fishing industry is relatively large and valuable.

There are 60 Counties in New York. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 392, of which the 62 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 1,435 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 140 are daily, 3 tri-weekly, 22 semi-weekly, 898 weekly, 15 bi-weekly, 29 semi-monthly, 297 monthly, 4 bi-monthly, 26 quarterly, and 1 semi-annual.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Population 4,282,892.....Rep. Plur. 37,276

Gbk. vote, 20,688.

STATE CAPITAL, HARRISBURG.

PENNSYLVANIA is bounded north by New York and Lake Erie, east by New York and New Jersey, south by Delaware, Maryland, and West Virginia, and west by West Virginia and Ohio. Its greatest length from east to west is about 302 miles; its greatest breadth about 175 miles; mean length 280 miles; mean breadth 156 miles; land area, 44,985 square miles. The surface is exceedingly varied, chiefly level or slightly undulating in the southeast, hilly and mountainous in the interior, and generally rolling or broken in the west. A series of parallel ridges, members of the Appalachian system, each with a distinct name, traverse the State from northeast to southwest. The easternmost of these is the South Mountain, an extension of the Blue Ridge, and the westernmost and highest the Allegheny, from which the surface slopes generally toward Ohio. Nearly one fourth of the State is wooded, and a very large amount of lumber is manufactured, Williamsport and Lock Haven being the chief centres of this industry. The soil of the valleys and plains is generally fertile, and some of it exceedingly so. Lancaster County, and some of the counties bordering on the Ohio River, are the most productive. The State excels in dairy and market-garden produce and all the agricultural staples of the Northern States. The tobacco crop is exceeded only by that of Kentucky and Virginia, reaching in 1880 nearly 37,000,000 lbs., of which amount Lancaster County alone produced two-thirds, and York nearly 6,000,000 lbs. Its beds of anthracite and bituminous coal and iron-ore, and the great oil basin, are sources of immense wealth. Anthracite coal is found mainly in the counties of Carbon, Dauphin, Luzerne, and Schuylkill, to some extent in Columbia and Northumberland, and semi-anthracite in limited areas in Sullivan and Wyoming. Bedford, Bradford, Centre, Clearfield, Fulton, Lycoming, and Tioga counties contain fields of semi-bituminous coal, while the bituminous coal beds are located beyond the main Allegheny Ridge, every county west of it, with the exception of Erie, yielding more or less of this coal. Mercer supplies a good block coal for furnace use. The petroleum region is situated mainly in the counties of Venango, Butler, McKean, and Clarion. Salt springs abound in the same region, also natural gas wells, the gas from which is used for heating and lighting purposes. It is rich in minerals, slate, and building-stone of many kinds. There are many medicinal springs, the principal of which are at Bedford, Doubling Gap, Ephrata, Yellow Springs, and York. The southeastern corner of the State (bounded by a line running from Trenton, N. J., to Norristown, thence nearly to Lebanon, thence across the Susquehanna in a southwesterly direction to the Maryland line, east of Gettysburg), is rich in limestone and marble, of which great quantities are quarried for use in Philadelphia. This region also produces combined iron and chromium ores, hematite, magnetic iron, and corundum. Nickel is found at Lancaster, galena at Pencilville, zinc at Friedensville and Bethelem. A handsome black limestone is quarried at Williamsport, roofing-slates in the Lehigh and Delaware Valleys, Silurian limestone in the Cumberland Valley and at other points. In manufactures, Pennsylvania is second only to New York, and Philadelphia is one of the principal seats of foreign and coast-wise trade. The leading exports are grain, provisions, petroleum, tobacco, oil-cake, lumber, tallow, hides, leather, shoes, cotton goods, machinery, and coal. Erie and Pittsburgh are also great commercial centres. Kensington and Chester are the chief ship building stations. Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Harrisburg, Reading, and Scranton are the chief seats of the iron manufactures. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 31,232. amount of capital invested in them, $474,510,993; total number of hands employed, 387,072; amount paid in wages, $134,055,904; value of materials used, $465,020,563; value of products, $744,818,445.

There are 67 Counties in Pennsylvania. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 311 of which 67 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 1019 Papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 123 are daily, 3 tri-weekly, 8 semi-weekly, 704 weekly, 3 bi-weekly, 18 semi-monthly, 155 monthly, 2 bi-monthly, and 8 quarterly.

MARYLAND.

Population 934,943.....Dem. Maj. 15,191
(210,230 col'd.)

STATE CAPITAL, ANNAPOLIS.

MARYLAND is bounded north by Pennsylvania, east and southeast by Delaware and the Atlantic Ocean, west by West Virginia, and south and southwest by Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia. The Chesapeake Bay divides the greater part of it into two unequal parts, known as the Eastern and Western Shores. Its extreme length from east to west on its northern border is 193 miles, and its width, following the course of the Potomac, varies from 3 or 4 miles to about 120 miles; land area, 9,860 square miles. The surface of the Eastern Shore is mostly level, and in parts low and swampy, but towards the north rocky and broken. The Western Shore, between the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay, presents mainly the same general features. The northwest is very mountainous; five or six ridges of the Alleghenies, principally the Blue and Laurel, traverse that section. In the extreme west are the beautiful elevated valleys named Glades. The soil of the Eastern Shore and the lower part of the Western is generally light and sandy, well adapted for peaches and market-gardening; that of the central and northern parts very rich, yielding immense crops of tobacco, wheat, and corn. The mountain slopes are thickly wooded. The oyster fisheries are more extensive than in any other State. The manufactures are very numerous—canned goods (fruits, meats, and oysters) being one of the most important. Boots and shoes, bricks, cement, chemicals, clothing, cotton and woolen goods, cooperage, tobacco, flour, leather, lumber, machinery, and metallic wares are leading industries. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 6,787; amount of capital invested in them, $58,742,884; total number of hands employed, 74,945; amount paid in wages, $18,904,965; value of materials used, $66,937,846; value of products, $106,780,563. Its commerce is confined principally to Baltimore, whose foreign trade is very important. Maryland coal is used extensively in all the Atlantic States. Fire clays are abundant; those of Mt. Savage have a wide reputation. Brown hematite is found in the Trenton limestone, and bog-ore on the Eastern Shore. There are numerous quarries of marble, granite, serpentine, and other building stone, limestone for burning, and roofing-slate. Kaolin is found in Anne Arundel County; magnesite near Baltimore, from which large quantities of magnesia, carbonate, and Epsom salts are manufactured. There are many other minerals, including alum, amber, barytes, breccia, cements, chromium, hone-stone, mill-stone, iron pyrites, ochres, etc., some of which are very plentiful. Especial attention is given to tobacco-growing in the lower counties of the Western Shore.

There are 23 Counties in Maryland. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 69, of which 23 designated by a dagger (†) are city-seats. Of the 160 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 14 are daily, 124 weekly, 1 bi-weekly, 4 semi-monthly, 14 monthly, 1 bi-monthly, and 2 quarterly.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Population 618,457.....Dem. Plur. 11,148

Colored, 25,886.

Gbk. vote, 9,079.

STATE CAPITAL, CHARLESTON.

WEST VIRGINIA is bounded north and east by Pennsylvania and Maryland, east and south by Virginia, and west by Kentucky and Ohio. Its greatest length from north to south is about 240 miles; greatest breadth, 160 miles; land area, 24,645 square miles. A large part of the surface is mountainous and hilly; about two-thirds is covered with forest. The soil of the ridges is fertile to the tops, and the summits of many mountains are flat, natural meadows or glades. The valley of the Great Kanawha is the finest grazing region of the State. Blue grass is indigenous; the lumber trade is important. Nearly the whole of the State lies within the Allegheny coal system, and large quantities of coal are exported, although comparatively few mines have been opened. It is generally bituminous. The Kanawha Valley is one of the great salt-producing regions of the United States. Petroleum is extensively produced, chiefly in Ritchie, Pleasants, Wood, and Wirt Counties. Limestone, sandstone, and grinding stone abound generally through the State. The minerals and mineral springs are inexhaustible. West Virginia is especially famous for wool. Other great staples are corn, wheat, oats, and tobacco. Manufactures are comparatively undeveloped, except in the towns along the Ohio River. The leading industries are iron in various forms, flour, salt, liquor, lumber, leather, and machinery. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 2,375; amount of capital invested in them, $13,883,390; total number of hands employed, 14,311; amount paid in wages, $4,313,965; value of materials used, $14,027,388; value of products, $22,807,126.

There are 54 Counties in West Virginia. Newspapers are published in 52.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 67, of which 51 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 121 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 5 are daily, 1 semi-weekly, 108 weekly, 1 bi-weekly, 1 semi-monthly, and 5 monthly.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Population 1,399,750.....Dem. Maj. 8,326

Colored, 531,277.

STATE CAPITAL, RALEIGH.

NORTH CAROLINA is bounded north by Virginia, east and southeast by the Atlantic Ocean, south by South Carolina and Georgia, and west by Tennessee. Its extreme length from east to west is 490 miles; extreme breadth, 185 miles; land area, 48,580 square miles. The surface is very varied. For nearly 100 miles inland from the coast the country is level, marshy, and swampy; soil sandy but very fertile. It is estimated that there are nearly 3,000,000 acres of swamps in this region. Next is the middle section, with varied surface and fine soil. The surface then rises into small hills, increasing in altitude until they reach the mountainous region in the west. Some of the peaks in the Black Mountains and the Blue Ridge attain an elevation of from 5,000 to 6,000 feet. This region contains good grazing land, much hard timber; and stock-raising is largely carried on. In the coast region the river bottoms and reclaimed swamp lands are very fertile, and here rice, cotton, corn, horey, beeswax, apples, peaches, and pears abound. The Scuppernong and Catawba grapes are native here; cranberries are extensively produced. The pine region is mainly uncultivated, but a large trade is done in timber, tar, and turpentine. Cotton is raised chiefly in the southern counties. The middle section is adapted to the growth of cereals, tobacco, and cotton; sweet potatoes are a leading staple. The principal manufactures are flur, lumber, tar, turpentine, rosin, cotton and woolen goods, tobacco, zinc (smelted and rolled), carriages, boots and shoes. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 3,802; amount of capital invested in them, $13,045,639; total number of hands employed, 18,109; amount paid in wages, $2,740,768; value of materials used, $13,090,937; value of products, $20,095,037. It exports coastwise and to foreign ports large amounts of lumber, cotton, tobacco, flour, and fish. The fisheries are very large and valuable. The State is very rich in minerals. Gold is mined to a considerable extent in Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Lincoln, and Rowan Counties, and there is a branch of the United States Mint at Charlotte. Silver, lead, and zinc are found in association, particularly in Davidson County; silver ores mixed with lead or copper, principally in the interior counties; copper ores cover a wide field, and there is a very valuable mine in Ashe County; mica is found among the granites of Cleveland, Mitchell, and Yancey Counties; there is an abundance of corundum and many other metals, and even precious stones are found. Coal and iron are very abundant; the coal is mostly bituminous, and is contained in two fields, one in Stokes and Rockingham Counties, known as Dan River Field, the other in Chatham and Moore Counties, known as Deep River Field. The whole of the region from the navigable waters of the Roanoke and Cape Fear Rivers westward to Cherokee County contains rich beds of magnetic and hematite ores; the "Cranberry" mine, in Mitchell County, yields the purest magnetic ore yet found in the United States, producing a remarkably strong and tenacious iron.

There are 96 Counties in North Carolina. Newspapers are published in 64.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 81, of which 57 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 150 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 10 are daily, 2 semi-weekly, 123 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, 11 monthly, and 1 bi-monthly.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Population 995,577.....Dem. Plur. 54,241

Colored, 604,332.

Gbk. vote, 568

STATE CAPITAL, COLUMBIA.

SOUTH CAROLINA is bounded north and northeast by North Carolina, southeast by the Atlantic Ocean west and southwest by Georgia. Its greatest length from east to west is about 275 miles, and its greatest breadth about 210 miles; land area, 30,170 square miles. The surface presents nearly the same features as that of North Carolina. The coast for 100 miles inland is low and level, with sandy soil, numerous swamps, and extensive pine forests; then follows a tract of low sand-hills, the soil of which is moderately productive. The land rises abruptly on the western edge of this belt, and continues to rise until it terminates in the Blue Ridge, the highest peak of which, Table Mountain, is 4,000 feet above the sea. The swamps embrace over 1,000,000 acres, and the pine lands 6,000,000. The sea islands are mainly devoted to sea-island cotton and rice, and the palmetto grows on them; the tidal swamps to rice; inland swamps, when drained, to rice, cotton, corn and pease; the salt marshes to long cotton; the oak and pine and oak and hickory lands to corn and cotton; and the pine-harrens to fruits and vegetables. Rice, cotton, and corn thrive best in the central and southern counties. The northwestern region produces corn, wheat, barley, oats, tohacco, and many fruits. Stock-raising and wool-growing are carried on with profit. Figs and pomegranates grow in the lower counties, and the peach and grape thrive over the State generally; strawberries abundant. The manufactures are principally cotton goods, flour, lumber, machinery, tar, turpentine, carriages, and fertilizers. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 2,078; amount of capital invested in them, $11,205,894; total number of hands employed, 22,128; amount paid in wages, $2,836,289; value of materials used, $9,885,838; value of products, $16,733,068. Commerce is mainly confined to Charleston, Georgetown, and Beaufort. Exports are chiefly rice, cotton, lumber, phosphate, naval stores, cotton-seed and its oil, oil-cake, fish, and spring vegetables. Considerable shad and oyster fishing. The mineral wealth, though large, has not been much developed. Considerable gold is found in the northwestern counties; there are large deposits of excellent iron-ore in Greenville, Pickens, Spartanburg, and Union Counties; manganese, copper, lead, and bismuth are also found, mainly in the northwest; white and colored marbles and limestones, granites and cyanites, soapstones, flagging-stone, and burr-stone abundant. Aiken County contains immense beds of the finest porcelain clay. A little coal is found in Chesterfield County. The most valuable mineral at the present day is, however, a home phosphate marl, a fossil of very remote origin and one of the best of fertilizers, found in the lowlands and river heds near Charleston; on the Stono, Ashepoo and Edisto Rivers, and also near St. Helena Sound.

There are 34 Counties in South Carolina. Newspapers are published in all.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 48, of which 32 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 91 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 5 are daily, 2 tri-weekly, 1 semi-weekly, 76 weekly, 2 semi-monthly, 4 monthly, and 1 quarterly.

GEORGIA.

Population 1,542,180.....Dem. Plur. 48,321

Colored, 726,138.

Gbk. vote, 481.

STATE CAPITAL, ATLANTA.

GEORGIA is bounded north by Tennessee and North Carolina, northeast by South Carolina, southeast by the Atlantic Ocean, south by Florida, and west by Alabama. Its extreme length from north to south is 320 miles, extreme breadth 254 miles; land area, 58,980 square miles. The surface is varied; along the coast and Florida line it is low and swampy; the great Okeefnokee Swamp is in the southeast. Back from the coast is a stretch of sandy land, mostly pine barrens, and yielding large amounts of timber and naval stores. A series of terraces bring the land in the middle of the State to about 575 feet above tidewater, from which elevation it rises toward the north more rapidly, until it becomes mountainous, being there crossed by spurs of the Appalachians. The soil of the islands is sandy, producing sea-island cotton; that of the mainland, rich alluvial, producing corn, cotton, and rice; the middle region is red loam, yielding good cotton, corn, tobacco, etc. In the north there is much fertile soil: grain, tobacco, fruits, and vegetables are largely grown, but not much cotton, which is mainly raised in the central, west-central, and southwestern regions. Sugar-cane is grown in the south, and considerable pork fattened, mainly for home consumption; sweet potatoes are largely produced; wool is prominent, but corn and cotton are the leading staples. Among the leading industries are lumber, flour, boots and shoes, carriages, cotton and woolen goods, wool-carding and cloth-dressing, leather, saddlery, metallic wares, furniture, castings, machinery, farm implements, etc. The number of cotton factories in the State in 1880 was 40, with 198,656 spindles and 4,493 looms. The most important are at Augusta and Columbus, the other chief seats of the cotton manufacture are Athens, Atlanta, Decatur, Macon, and West Point. Atlanta has large iron works. Albany, Dalton, Marietta, Rome, Thomasville are manufacturing towns. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 3,593; amount of capital invested in them, $20,672,410; total number of hands employed, 24,875; amount paid in wages, $5,266,152; value of materials used, $24,143,939; value of products, $36,440,948. Darien, Brunswick, and St. Marys manufacture and export lumber. Minerals: bituminous coal in the northwestern portion; immense deposits of iron-ore in Bartow and Cherokee Counties; abundant fossiliferous iron-ore on the east side of Taylor's Ridge; copper-ore in Gilmer County; gold is most plentiful in Cherokee, Carroll, Cobb, and Lumpkin Counties; silver, lead, and many other minerals, granite, marble, gypsum, slate, and petroleum; excellent statuary marble in Cherokee County; hydraulic limestone in Bartow County. There are numerous mineral springs of which the Indian Springs of Forsyth County are the best known.

There are 137 Counties in Georgia. Newspapers are published in 107.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 117, of which 99 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 200 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 15 are daily, 1 tri-weekly, 2 semi-weekly, 161 weekly, 2 semi-monthly, 15 monthly, and 1 quarterly.

ALABAMA.

Population 1,262,505.....Dem. Plur. 34,509

Colored, 600,103.

Gbk. vote, 4,642.

STATE CAPITAL, MONTGOMERY.

ALABAMA is bounded north by Tennessee, east by Georgia and Florida, south by Florida and the Gulf of Mexico, and west by Mississippi. Its extreme length north to south is 336 miles, breadth varying from about 150 to 200 miles; land area, 51,540 square miles. The Alleghany range enters the State at the northeast, and extends towards the centre, finally losing itself in mere hills; then follows a tract of rolling prairies, interspersed with pine barrens and exceedingly rich alluvial bottoms, including the cane-brake region, one of the richest cotton producing districts in the world. From this to the Florida border and the Gulf the land is generally flat. This part is thinly settled, and is mostly covered with pine forests. North of this is the broad belt of rich black soil, a space of several miles in breadth, constituting the great cotton producing section of the State. The soil then becomes sandy and poor, but abundant water-power renders it capable of becoming a fine manufacturing district. The mineral region occupies the northeast part, while the northwest is a good agricultural and stock-raising country. Cotton is grown throughout the State, but mainly in the central belt alluded to; tobacco chiefly in the north; very fine wheat in the north and northeast; rice in the south; corn largely all over the State. Dairy products, fruits, wool, oats, and sweet potatoes are produced in considerable quantities. Manufactures have been unimportant until lately, when considerable increase has been manifested, but agriculture is by far the leading industry. The chief manufactures are flour, lumber, leather, cotton goods and cotton gins, thread and yarn, iron, and machinery. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 2,070; amount of capital invested in them, $9,668,908; total number of hands employed, 10,019; amount paid in wages, $2,500,504; value of materials used, $8,545,520; value of products, $13,565,504. Commerce centres at Mobile. Cotton and lumber are the chief exports. Extensive beds of brown hematite of an excellent quality are found in Bibb, Cleburne, Jefferson, St. Clair, Shelby, and Talladega Counties. There are other extensive beds of ore. The coal fields contain thick fields of bituminous coal of several kinds; considerable gold has been mined; silver and copper are also found; potter's, porcelain and fire clays, hydraulic limestone, manganese and many other minerals exist in considerable quantities; there are various building-stones. The statuary granite and white marble of Coosa County and the variegated marbles of Talladega and adjacent counties are not surpassed by any in the country.

There are 66 Counties in Alabama. Newspapers are published in 61.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 76, of which 57 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 129 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 8 are daily, 1 semi-weekly, 112 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, and 5 monthly.

MISSISSIPPI.

Population 1,131,597.....Dem. Plur. 40,896

Colored, 650,291.

Ghk. vote, 5,797.

STATE CAPITAL, JACKSON.

MISSISSIPPI is bounded north by Tennessee, east by Alabama, south by the Gulf of Mexico and Louisiana, and west by the Mississippi River, which separates it from Louisiana and Arkansas. Its extreme length from north to south is 332 miles; average breadth, 142 miles; land area, 46,340 square miles. The surface is generally hilly or undulating, except in the Mississippi bottom, from Vicksburg to the Tennessee line, and between the Mississippi and Yazoo rivers, where it is low and swampy, subject to inundation and covered with a dense growth of timber, but with soil which, if reclaimed, would be exceedingly fruitful. Below Vicksburg the surface for some miles inland is hilly, and known as the "cane hills" or "bluffs," and with a generally productive soil. There is a very fertile prairie region in the northeast. The southern part is chiefly a level pine region, and furnishes good pasture and large quantities of timber, tar, turpentine, etc. The soil of this tract is poor and sandy. Cotton and corn are the great staples. Wheat is grown in the north, and rice and sugar-cane in the south. Grazing is an important industry, much pork is fattened, and the clip of wool is large. Dairy products, sorghum, tobacco, and sweet potatoes are produced in considerable quantities. The manufactures are neither varied nor very extensive, lumber and grist-mill products being the most important. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 1,479; amount of capital invested in them, $4,727,600; total number of hands employed, 5,827; amount paid in wages, $1,192,645; value of materials used, $4,667,183; value of products, $7,518,302. Its commerce is carried on principally through New Orleans and Mobile; coasting and river trade large. The State has no coal or iron of practical value. Its mineral deposits are confined mainly to fertilizers, soft limestone and clays. Tishomingo County has large beds of fine pipe and potter's clay; there is also some sandstone suitable for rough masonry.

There are 74 Counties in Mississippi. Newspapers are published in 63.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 81, of which 61 designated by a dagger (†) are county-seats. Of the 128 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 3 are daily, 4 tri-weekly, 115 weekly, 3 semi-monthly, and 3 monthly.

LOUISIANA.

Population 939,916.....Dem. Plur. 33,419

Colored, 483,655.

Gbk. vote, 438.

STATE CAPITAL, BATON ROUGE.

LOUISIANA is bounded north by Arkansas and Mississippi, east by Mississippi and the Gulf of Mexico, south by the Gulf of Mexico, and west by Texas. Its extreme length from east to west is about 300 miles, and breadth 240 miles; land area, 45,420 square miles. Surface generally low and level. There are low hills in the north and northwest, from which the land slopes gradually to the Mississippi and the Gulf. Much of the land along the river is below the surface at the spring freshets, and is protected from overflow by the levees, which are built on both banks below Baton Rouge, and on the west bank throughout the State. Many of the principal rivers and bayous are protected in like manner. It is estimated that one fifth of the surface of the State is liable to more or less frequent inundation. The soil of the river-bottoms is exceedingly fertile, and yields large crops of cotton, sugar-cane, rice, etc. Its prairies are not generally productive, but afford good pasture in places. The hilly section yields good cotton crops, but is largely covered with pine barrens. The great staples are cotton, sugar, rice, and corn. The State produces nearly all the sugar made in the United States. The yield of rice is very large, and the quality excellent. Cattle-raising is an important interest. The manufacturing interests are not large. The leading industries are lumber, naval stores, castings, machinery, tobacco, clothing, flouring-mill products, cotton-seed oil, and ship building. The number of manufacturing establishments in the State in 1880, was 1,553; amount of capital invested in them, $11,462,468; total number of hands employed, 12,167; amount paid in wages, $4,360,371; value of materials used, $14,442,506; value of products, $24,205,183. Its commerce, carried on chiefly through New Orleans, is extensive and important. Iron-ores, ochre, gypsum, and marl are abundant; large deposits of sulphur in the southwest, and an immense amount of solid rock-salt on Petit Anse Island.

There are 58 Parishes in Louisiana. Newspapers are published in 54.—Cities, towns, and villages in which papers are published number 63, of which 50 designated by a dagger (†) are parish capitals. Of the 110 papers which insert advertisements published in the State, 10 are daily, 1 tri-weekly, 1 semi-weekly, 93 weekly, 1 bi-weekly, and 4 monthly.
