U. S. CONSUL AT VENEZUELA ENJOYS CONCERTS FROM KDKA

La Guaira, Venezuela,
March 4, 1922.

Radio Division,
Department of Publicity,
Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company,
East Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Gentlemen:
It is with the greatest of pleasure that I accede to your spoken request of a few minutes ago to advise you of the reception of your delightful aerial concert and entertainment.

My great regret is that I was unable to reply vocally when asked, "Is that satisfactory?" If you had received a vocal reply to your question from all your auditors, I am sure the well-known welkin would have rung with "YES!"

Introducing myself I wish to say that I am a servant of Uncle Sam, being employed in the American Vice Consulate of this city. Having had the foresight and good fortune to become well acquainted with the wireless operator in charge of the Venezuelan Government station "AGU" situated at Matucatis, a suburb of La Guaira, I was invited to listen in on something good; and I am sure neither of us will be found very far away from the station whenever there is any thing doing in the concert line.

The station is equipped with a vacuum tube receiver, and an amplifier of two steps. At least that is what my friend Mr. Juliano, the operator says and I'll certainly take his word for it, since he is an honest man and wireless jargon is worse than Greek to me. However it sounds reasonable.

When static is not interfering the sound of the instruments or voices is clearly audible to anyone in the room, and tomorrow night we are going to give a "seance" for the benefit of a number of friends, who are all very eager to hear it, of course.

As near as I can figure it, La Guaira is about 1850 miles from Pittsburgh. We are very anxious to learn more about your plant, your methods, artists, experts in charge, and so forth, and will greatly appreciate any advice which you may care to send us. In return any information which we may be able to send you will be sent very gladly, as a partial return for the great pleasure your entertainments afford us. If a suggestion might be in order may I not say that all extra-important announcements be repeated, since static may at times blur the first transmission? We are too keen on this to wish any point to escape us.

Wishing you the best of success, and sincerely thanking both yourselves and your artists for the pleasure your aerial "Aerial" is broadcasting,

I am,
Gentlemen,
Very truly yours,

Arthur R. Williams
U. S. American Consulate,
La Guaira, Venezuela.
