A TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX PICTURE

Hollywood's News Picture of the Week
Lana Turner Eats Hot Dog

EXCLUSIVE!

IF THERE'S one American institution as solid as the Constitution, it's the ancient, revered custom of eating "hot dogs." So when Lana Turner and Tony Martin graced his box at the opening of the Hollywood Park racing season, it was not surprising to find these romantically pledged young stars following the enjoyable tradition—mustard and all! Perhaps news of Lana Turner and Tony Martin eating a hot dog isn't outstanding in these perilous times, yet the manner in which Lana consumed the Yankee bun-

Movie-Radio Guide Applauds: Good Neighbor Policy

THROCKMORTON P. GILDERSLEEVE (Hal Peary) and announcer Harlow Wilcox have been neighbors for years in "Fibber McGee and Molly's" imaginary Wistful Vista. Soon they will be real-life neighbors, for the Wilcoxes are building a new home next door to Hal Peary in Encino. Fibber himself lives in Encino, is president of its chamber of commerce. Because they are masters of the traditional American art of living and working together harmoniously, because they are good neighbors, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE applauds Wistful Vista folk.

INSPIRED BY their trip aloft, announcer Wilcox puts his shoulder to the wheel and Hal "Gildersleeve" Peary actually removes his coat to join in making Encino into a real-life Wistful Vista

The Editors' Note:

MOVIE KISSES today are different from those of silent days. They are faster, more varied, but just as effective. Interesting recent love scene is shown on this week's cover—by Eugene Robert Richee—of Charles Boyer and Olivia de Havilland in "Hold Back the Dawn." (More about Boyer-De Havilland love scenes and others, page 4)

THE success of "Citizen Kane," whose cast is composed almost entirely of radio-trained actors and actresses, has proved to Hollywood that radio can, and does, produce artists of stellar quality. Movie-Radio Guide was one of the first to recognize the potentialities of radio artists for the screen. But Hollywood, as you may or may not know, has been inclined to turn up its nose at the ability of the radio-trained artists.

As a matter of fact Hollywood has always tried to treat radio as a sort of stepchild, to be used when advantageous, but not to be recognized as an entertainment medium of marked importance. This, however, in our opinion, is being changed. The movie industry has decided to kiss and make up with radio. Today film companies are known to have talent scouts who do nothing but listen in to programs in the hope of discovering likely film material or personalities with definite motion-picture qualities. Hollywood has even gone so far as to use several well-known radio programs as the basis for film stories. Examples of this trend toward pictures with a radio history are: "I Want a Divorce," "Grand Ole Opry," "Mr. District Attorney," "Pot o' Gold," "The Lone Ranger," and others. And, of course, there are the shorts, "Information, Please" and the "Quiz Kids."

Why this sudden about-face on the part of the movie moguls? We believe that it is because the movies realize that many radio programs have definite picture possibilities. And naturally they do not forget the reputation which these programs have with the listeners who are also movie fans. Instead of taking their stars off the air as was done a year or so ago by 20th Century-Fox, when they prevented Tyrone Power and Alice Faye from broadcasting, most studios are anxious to have them appear as guests or the like.

Those radio comedians, Abbott and Costello, are prime examples of the present-day tendency to raid the broadcasting studios for film talent. These two comedians who got their first start on the Kate Smith program were so successful with their first movie that they were signed immediately to make several more. Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen, Fibber McGee and Molly, Hal Peary (Mr. Gildersleeve), Whitey Ford (The Duke of Paducah), Arthur Q. Bryan, the Moylan Sisters and Don Wilson are just a few of radio's own who will soon be seen on the screen in new roles.

To us this tendency to assign more and more radio stars for film parts is a good thing for both the movies and radio. The movies are able to capitalize upon the reputation of stars who already have a tremendous following. On the other hand radio, which can only be heard, gets a chance to let the listener see the stars who previously he could only visualize by drawing upon his imagination.—The Editors.

Ann Sheridan's Record Hula

ANN SHERIDAN rehearsed nine strenuous days, for hula dance in "Navy Blues." Tenth day, after shooting it, she said: "I'll take the rumba." Above: Clowning with cast

To News Desk:

ANN SHERIDAN has always liked to dance, but now I think she has enough of the hula. It was ninety degrees in the shade the day Ann did the hula sequence in Warner's "Navy Blues." It was the tenth day she had been dancing it, the first nine were rehearsals.

Ann started working at 9:30 a.m. For an hour previous she had been making up. Stopping only long enough to drink a glass of milk, Ann hula danced straight through to 6:30 p.m. It was then that they put ice on her to cool her brow.

Her stretch of hula dancing—nine hours—is a new world's record for Hawaiian girls to shoot at.

Seymour Felix, dance director, said Ann hula danced twelve miles, counting rehearsals. She had to hula on a series of raised, sand-covered platforms. Felix suffered a strained back and injured ankles just rehearsing. Ann received black-and-blue thighs, having hit herself with gourds. What made the "take" doubly tough was that she had to sing while dancing and remember a lot of off-stage business to be added to the scene later by Jack Oakie, Martha Raye, Jack Haley.

I asked Ann, who was cheerful at the end of the day, how she'd like to do the hula. She came back with:

"I'll take the rumba!" —J. A.

AFTER NINE HOURS of hula dancing—a new world's record—and after losing eleven pounds of weight, Oomph Girl Ann Sheridan (above) is thankful for the property man who cools her perspiring brow with a lump of ice. Right: Ann begins her song, "In Waikiki," which accompanies the hula ordeal in "Navy Blues." Below: Actual speed candid pictures show Miss Sheridan's hula dancing technique—which is all right

GREER GARSON

SCOTCH-IRISH Greer Garson at the age of four recited in the village town hall, County Down, in Ireland, and became an actress. Of course, that wasn't all there was to it. Greer, whom you will see as the foster mother in M-G-M's Technicolor "Blossoms in the Dust," had training as a schoolmarm, was employed at a London advertising agency before heading toward the stage again.

This happened when she met a fellow employee whose sister was on the stage. Armed with a letter of introduction to the producer of Birmingham's Repertory Theater, she won a part in "Street Scene" as Shirley Kaplan, with dialect and black wig. Critics recognized her as a promising actress.

Two seasons at Birmingham and a tour with Shaw's "Too Good to Be True" were followed by the actresses' curse—a layoff. It ended with her starring with Laurence Olivier in "Golden Arrow," a flop, although it paved her way to success. It was in "Old Music" in London that Louis B. Mayer, M-G-M headman, saw her and brought her to Hollywood. A week before her contract expired she got the role as Mrs. Chips in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips" and was a smashing success!

Greer lives quietly in a modest Beverly Hills home with her mother. She is so serious about her career that she will not go out when working. She's shy, hates big affairs, doesn't like jewelry or sports, but dawdles at the piano and loves her garden. She's five feet six inches tall, weighs 112 pounds, and doesn't mind if you call her "Red."

Movie-Radio Guide REVEALS:

Exclusive Stars' Stories Behind Great Love-Scenes

The Ten MOST FAMOUS LOVE-SCENES OF THE PAST

To Feature Desk:

KISSES and love-scenes in current pictures are getting to be all right, but they can't compare with the oldies when Valentino and John Gilbert were in stride, unhobbled by Hays office rulings. Today a kiss more than thirty seconds is given careful scrutiny by Hays inspectors before it is passed. Twenty years ago it wasn't a kiss unless it lasted thirty seconds or more.

Greta Garbo and Gilbert had their lips together forty-seven seconds in "Flesh and the Devil." John Barrymore and Dolores Costello in "The Sea Beast" recorded a forty-nine-second silent smacker. Valentino and Agnes Ayres' caresses lasted thirty-five to forty seconds in "The Sheik."

De Havilland Gets Serious

Today screen love is different and speedier, but just as effective. Most recent love-scene witnessed by your reporter was that of Charles Boyer and Olivia de Havilland in "Hold Back the Dawn." Step by step it's shown on these pages, but back of that kiss is an interesting story.

Olivia kept blowing her lines because the cameraman was wearing a white shirt which distracted her. She was able to concentrate on her work only after the shirt was draped in black to conceal it from her eyes. After rehearsals, takes and retakes, 'tis said Olivia really was captivated by Boyer's charm. However, Boyer didn't react accordingly. He just went back to his ever-present book!

Husband-Wife Combination

The rare combination of husband and wife playing a love-scene occurred in "I Want a Divorce" with Joan Blondell and Dick Powell. Making up after a quarrel, Dick jumped from his bed and started for Joan's. On the screen the scene ended there, but Dick really finished it. Said Joan: "Why don't you do it like that at home?"

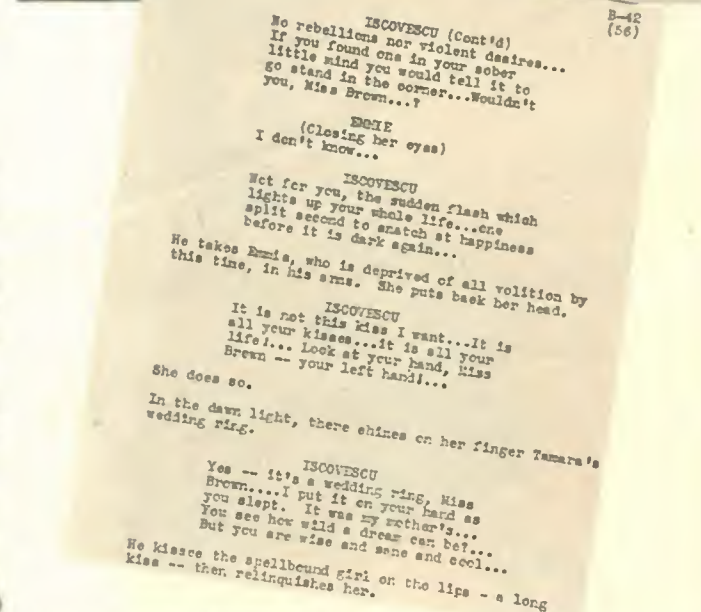

Clark Gable to most women would be hypnotic. Not so to Rosalind Russell, whom he kisses in "They Met in Bombay." Before shooting, Roz called to her maid: "Bring me my sex appeal!"—perfume atomizer, gum.

Pulls Out Ty Power's Hair

In "Blood and Sand," 20th Century-Fox had to remake the scene in which Rita Hayworth pulls Tyrone Power up by the hair to her lips. First time she did, Ty's hair came out.

John Garfield for a gag kissed Ida Lupino for three minutes in "Out of the Fog." Ida struggled free and was ready to slap John, but didn't when she heard the entire cast laughing.

Generally speaking, modern love-scenes have been cooled off, not only by Hays office, but by sharper-seeing cameras, color photography and more exacting make-up standards.—E. P.

LOVE THEN

LOVE NOW

TEN FAMOUS MOVIE LOVE-SCENES OF YESTERYEAR. (1) Vilma Banky, Rudolph Valentino in "Son of the Sheik." (2) John Gilbert, Greta Garbo in "Flesh and the Devil." (3) Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell in "Seventh Heaven." (4) Bette Davis, Henry Fonda in "Jezebel." (5) Clark Gable, Claudette Colbert in "It Happened One Night." (6) Nita Naldi, Rudolph Valentino in "Blood and Sand." (7) Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr in "Algiers." (8) Merle Oberon, Laurence Olivier in "Wuthering Heights." (9) John Boles, Irene Dunne in "Back Street." (10) Robert Taylor, Greta Garbo in "Camille."

HERE IS A LOVE-SCENE OF TODAY (above) for comparison with those of yesteryear shown on opposite page. Olivia de Havilland as the love-innocent schoolteacher (Emmie Brown) in Paramount's $1,000,000 picture, "Hold Back the Dawn," is unable to tell that this kiss from Charles Boyer (Iscovescu) is a phony. Iscovescu is making love to her only to use her American citizenship as a convenience to get into the United States. However, the young schoolmarm, as his bride, wins his love and brings about his regeneration. Story is of tender romance, some prize villainy and has a melodramatic end.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

WALTER PIDGEON

WHEN Walter Pidgeon as a big-game hunter stalks Hitler with a high-powered rifle in "Man Hunt," he is paralleling an actual happening of his youth—he killed a charging moose to save his own life. He hasn't hunted since. In "Man Hunt" he stalks game for a thrill. His telescopic sight brings Hitler into bead, but he doesn't shoot.

In his theatrical career of years, Walter just missed the target, but 1941 is bringing him two bull's-eyes—starring roles in "Blossoms in the Dust" and "How Green Was My Valley," besides "Man Hunt." His days as "Nick Carter" are gone. It's been a long pull for Pidgeon. He left the brokerage business in Boston to play parts in a stock company, toured here and abroad with Elsie Janis. In 1925 he was signed by Hollywood for his singing rather than his acting ability.

Leaving Hollywood because producers only wanted him for musicals, he went back to Broadway. In four plays he proved he could get along without singing. Returning to the screen in 1936, he had a clause written into his contract forbidding singing roles. Said Pidgeon: "When a singer gets old, he's out; when a dramatic actor ages, he simply turns to character—I hope."

Walter served in the World War with the Sixty-Fifth Canadian Field Artillery. A big, powerful fellow with a deep, resonant voice, he stands six feet three inches, weighs 190 pounds, is a good tennis player, horseman, likes to travel, collects travel, biographical books, is happily married.

GENERAL

Garbo's New One, Old

You have to count back in terms of years, two, to be exact, since Garbo's last picture, the excellent "Ninotchka." Finally they have her set for another picture and it's that old German play, "Fulda." This will mark the third time this play has been adapted for the screen. Constance Talmadge did it and it was called "Sister From Paris"; then Constance Bennett, and now La Garbo.

Paramount to Start New Series

The human-interest stories which can be woven around the medical man have great box-office appeal. At least so think Paramount people, who are starting a series of pictures with this theme. Title is "Dr. Broadway," by author Borden Chase. Paramount declares that the treatment will vary altogether from the "Dr. Kildare" type, as "Dr. Broadway" is attached to no hospital but meets and treats the varied personalities who are part of metropolitan New York.

Tent Picket Success

If Hollywood studios are deluged with a lot of pickets it will no doubt be due to the success story of Collin Blair. Blair is the one-man picket who set himself up in a tent on the Paramount parking lot, demanding a part in Cecil B. DeMille's "Reap the Wild Wind." The cops moved in on Blair, telling him that he had to take down his tent and his campaign signs and vamoose, but when DeMille heard of this he gave Blair a part and a contract. Brawny, tanned Blair will be second mate in this salty sea saga.

Soldiers Okay Test Shows

An entourage of Hollywood's leading film and radio stars recently entertained nearly seventy thousand soldiers at Fort Ord and Camp Hunter Liggett as their way of helping the national defense program. The entertainment, a "morale builder," was highly acclaimed by soldiers and Army officials alike and the promise is for "more of the same." These test shows were conducted by the Motion Picture Production Defense Committee, and had Jack Benny and George Jessel as masters of ceremonies, and included such other name personalities as Claudette Colbert, Marlene Dietrich, Joan Blondell, Carole Landis, the Ritz Brothers, Rochester, Burns and Allen and many more.

Stirling Hayden's Obligation

From the Bahamas comes the item that Stirling Hayden, who is making a picture there called "Bahama Passage," with eye-appealing Madeleine Carroll, has bought himself a sixty-two-foot, two-masted schooner. This seems to be worrying Paramount Studios, who are more than concerned about the life and welfare of Mr. Hayden just now. However, it seems to us that Hayden is the gent who

THE WAR

Kanin in Khaki
Garson Kanin, excellent director and boy friend of Katharine Hepburn, is the latest Hollywood offering to Uncle Sam's armed forces. Kanin was inducted last June 25 after several date-filled weeks with Katy, who came out here from New York to spend some time with him before he left—confabbing with Howard Hughes ahead another picture, notwithstanding. Kanin's latest directorial effort is "Tom, Dick and Harry."

Justin Recuperating
Fans of John Justin, star in "Thief of Bagdad," will be glad to hear that reports of his being killed in action are in error. He is recuperating in a hospital in Yatesbury, England.

Army Hays Office
Army higher-ups were a bit upset by some of the entertainment presented at various camp shows, they are making up their own "Purity Code," to which all artists must adhere.

LIFE STATISTICS

Mature Weds Kemp Widow
Victor Mature, screen actor and the past season's matinee rave of Broadway, was married June 17 in New York to Martha Stephenson Kemp, widow of Hal Kemp, the orchestra-leader who was killed last year in an auto accident. The civil ceremony was performed at the bride's apartment by Justice Ferdinand Pecora while Helen Kemp, eleven-month-old daughter, slept. Following a church ceremony in Louisville, the groom's home, the Matures will return to Hollywood.

Luise Rainer Secret Out
Twice-Academy Award winner Luise Rainer admitted last week that she had been secretly wed to P. H. Lanz while motoring through Nevada. The actress was formerly married to playwright Clifford Odets.

Canova Marries Soldier
Judy Canova, comedienne currently seen in Republic's "Sis Hopkins" and "Scatterbrain," took time out from her Honolulu vacation last fortnight to go A. W. O. L. with and marry Corporal James H. Ripley, U. S. Army engineers auditor and nephew of Bob "Believe-It-or-Not" Ripley. Wed once before to William Burns, insurance man, Miss Canova first denied the Hawaiian matrimonial venture, then admitted it with "Sure I married the guy. I got hit on the head with a soft moon!" Judy's marriage left Los Angeles attorney Warren McKinney waiting at the church; brought a guardhouse term to her groom, who was absent without leave from the Army!

Two Couples Announce Betrothal
Brenda Marshall, Warner Bros. star, whose divorce from actor Richard Gaines became final June 20, immediately announced her engagement to young star William Holden and displayed a large, square-cut diamond solitaire. Their wedding will wait, she said, until both have time off together from their respective pictures. At the Universal Studios last week, Maria Montez, Cuban actress, who recently received her final divorce decree, admitted that the R. A. F. wings she has been wearing indicate her betrothal. The British flyer's name is Claude Strickland; the couple met in London two years ago.

Questions Korda Divorce
Legality of film producer Alexander Korda's divorce was questioned June 17 in an action filed by his former wife, Maria Antonia Korda. Nine years after an interlocutory decree of divorce was entered in the Los Angeles court, Korda married Merle Oberon June 3, 1939, at Antibes, France. The ex-Mrs. Korda charges irregularities in the decree.

Richard Carlsons Storking
Richard Carlson has announced that his wife is expecting a baby sometime in July, and the Ronald Reagans, only recently parents of their first baby, a girl, are building a second nursery addition to their home.

Hollywood Merry-Go-Round
Mickey Rooney, while love-vacationing from Linda Darnell, has quit Sheila Ryan for U. S. C. coed Lorraine Day (not Laraine, the actress) . . . And Sheila Ryan has since been dating Henry Willson, Bill Orr and Eddie Norris . . . who has been out with Ann Miller and Ginger Rogers . . . who was last seen with Jean Gabin . . . who last week also met the train bringing Marlene Dietrich home! . . . A branch of the love-cycle has Bill Orr veering to Marguerite Chapman . . . who was going with Bill Lundigan . . . who is now holding hands with Alexis Smith . . . Carmen Miranda and George Sanders aren't acting . . . John Howard, Hedy Lamarr's ex-beau, has discovered pretty Florence Rice . . . Now it's Ruth Hussey and Frank Moss . . . June Preisser has her second engagement ring from Gar Wood, Jr. . . . Phyllis Ruth is forgetting Bert Wheeler with Ken Murray, and Bert is ditto P. R. with Patsy Orr . . . New twosomes: Phyllis Brooks and Teddy Lawford; Ann Rutherford and Skitch Henderson; Cobina Wright, Jr., and Phil Kellogg.

HOSPITALIZED
Holden's Busy Day
On the same day that his engagement to Brenda Marshall was announced, Bill Holden had to be taken to the studio hospital with severe powder burns on his hands, received during the screening of a gun battle with Glenn Ford in "Texas."

EN ROUTE
Vacation in a Rowboat
Guy Kibbee has just returned to Hollywood full of vim and vigor after a 120-mile rowboat trip through the rapids of the Rogue River in Oregon. He didn't speak of the fishing, but he certainly was singing the praises of his ciderdown sleeping-bag with an air mattress.

Pan-American Relations Booming
Mona Maris has caught the spirit of the need of constantly improved Pan-American relations. She is returning to her native Argentina as soon as she finishes "Law of the Tropics" at Warners to make two pictures and a personal-appearance tour in a one-woman campaign in the interest of better relations between the United States and her southerly neighbors.

Vacation-Minded
The Fred MacMurrays have gone to Vancouver to visit a close friend who is with the Canadian Air Force; Joan Bennett is off for a vacation in New York, and Bette Davis is about ready to train east for a two-month rest on her New Hampshire farm.

HONORS
33rd Anniversary for Carey
Harry Carey just recently celebrated his thirty-third anniversary at his ranch near Saugus, California, when 400 actors, actresses and press representatives feted Harry, who has probably had the longest acting career of anyone in motion pictures. Carey was presented with a watch and a scroll bearing the names of over five hundred film notables. Coincident with this tribute was his selection for a featured role in Walter Wanger's new production, "Sundown."

Goddard—"Vacation Mate"
Students at the University of Baltimore just conducted a poll for the "ideal vacation mate." Paulette Goddard, who has been trying to get a vacation for a year and a half, won the title role.
"300 Girl"
The American Bowling Congress, with a membership of over ten million avid bowlers, has just selected Carole Landis, blond and beautiful, as their "300 Girl." In bowling, three hundred is perfect, and that's what they think of Carole.

Reviews

"Shepherd of the Hills"

Cast: John Wayne, Betty Field, Harry Carey, Beulah Bondi, James Barton, Samuel Hinds, Marjorie Main, Ward Bond, Marc Lawrence, John Qualen, et al. Paramount film; produced by Jack Moss; directed by Henry Hathaway. Screen play by Grover Jones, Stuart Anthony.

Type of Picture: Technicolor version of Harold Bell Wright's classic story of regeneration.

Story: Under any other name, no producer in his right mind would buy this ancient plot for a picture. Yet Americans all love this story of the convict who, after serving sentence for killing a man, goes home to his hills to lead a good life. Veteran actor Harry Carey plays the leading role, with John Wayne as the embittered son who has sworn to "get" his father.

Verdict: This one may prove to Hollywood that a little less "utter" sophistication may cure public apathy toward movies.—C. S.

"Kiss the Boys Goodbye"

Cast: Mary Martin, Don Ameche, Oscar Levant, Virginia Dale, Barbara Jo Allen, Raymond Walburn, Elizabeth Patterson, Jerome Cowan, Connie Boswell, Rochester, John Scott Trotter, et al. Paramount film; produced by William LeBaron; directed by Victor Schertzinger. Screen play by Harry Tugend, Dwight Taylor.

Type of Picture: Musical comedy, with emphasis on music.

Story: Mary Martin plays the Broadway chorine who goes southern to the hilt and tries to win a lead in a New York show which has Don Ameche as director and Oscar Levant as its song-writer. The spark plug of the whole plot is Mary Martin, who is lovely and in her most beautiful voice. She even does her old strip-tease, but so cutely that no one can object.

Verdict: Everything in this, from photography to costuming to the casting, is excellent. —L. R.

"Underground"

Cast: Jeffrey Lynn, Philip Dorn, Kaaren Verne, Mona Maris, Peter Whitney, Martin Kosleck, Erwin Kaiser, Ilka Gruning, et al. Produced by Warners, directed by Vincent Sherman. Screen play by Charles Grayson and others.

Type of Picture: Melodrama depicting cruelties of Nazi regime.

Story: Those who may wish to shout "propaganda" can make the most of this one but cannot deny its truth: That good will always fight evil. Jeffrey Lynn plays the Nazi soldier who loses an arm in the war, returns to innocently cause the arrest of his father and brother. Philip Dorn is extremely vivid in the role of the brother engaged in secretly working to wreck the Hitler regime.

Verdict: As small-town entertainment or a family show, "Underground" may not have wide appeal. But like it or not, it is a forceful, significant movie.—E. P.

"Hit the Road"

Cast: Gladys George, Barton MacLane, Billy Halop, Hantz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsly, Bobs Watson, et al. Produced by Universal; directed by Joe May. Screen play by R. L. Johnson, Brenda Weisberg.

Type of Picture: Dead End Kids in an unusual melodrama.

Story: A convict, whose clever wife has made a stock farm pay while he's up the river, comes home to make good and he does. With him he brings five boys from a reform school, all sons of his old buddies in crime. What makes the whole thing hang together is a fine performance by a finer actor, Barton MacLane. Gladys George is believable as the good wife. Bobs Watson steals the thunder of the Dead Enders.

Verdict: Too bad this has to be rated as double-bill entertainment. Some folks will think it almost worth standing alone.—C. S.

STAR OF THE WEEK

MARY MARTIN — Her "Hamming" Is Wonderful

JUMPING from one hilarious episode to another in "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," Mary Martin takes advantage of the finest comedy role of her screen career, running the gamut from (1) baby talk to (2) rough love-making with Don Ameche to (3) high comedy-drama

BRIEF Picture Guide

Outstanding "A" Pictures

A WOMAN'S FACE: Joan Crawford crime drama. (Adults.)

BILLY THE KID: Thrilling, beautiful Technicolor western starring Robert Taylor. (Family.)

BLOOD AND SAND: Beautiful screen classic in color. Tyrone Power in Valentino's shoes. (Adults will appreciate most.)

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope ducks being an Army selectee by enlisting by mistake. Laughs galore. (Family.)

MAJOR BARBARA: Semi-war play by George Bernard Shaw. (Adults.)

MOON OVER MIAMI: Betty Grable musically sings and dances to get rich husband. Don Ameche. (Family.)

Recommended "B" Pictures

MAN HUNT: Walter Pidgeon as the man who sets out to kill Hitler. (Adults.)

MILLION DOLLAR BABY: Cute story of girl who inherits million. Priscilla Lane, May Robson. Travelog features. (Adults appreciate most.)

PAPER BULLETS: Don't miss this "quicker" picture about horse owners and gamblers, featuring Jack La Rue and Joan Woodhury. It's tops. (Adults.)

THE BIG STORE: Marx Brothers going completely crazy. If you like the Marx-type comedy, see it. (Adults.)

THE GETAWAY: Cops and robbers with Bob Sterling and lovable Charles Winninger. (Family.)

Aviation

I WANTED WINGS: Above any air film produced in recent years. Should be seen by all to inspire Americans with the high traditions of U. S. Army Air Corps. (Family.)

Western

GANGS OF SONORA: The Three Mesquiteers in exciting gun-shooter break up gang reign in Wyoming. (Family.)

NEVADA CITY: Warfare between stage-coach and railroad line with Roy Rogers. (Family.)

SINGING HILL: Gene Autry rides again. (Family.)

Other Offerings

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles unique drama. Brand-new technique. (Limited adult appeal.)

CITY LIMITS: Millionaire railroad president plays hobo in familiar story. Frank Albertson, Jed Prouty. (Adults.)

I WAS A PRISONER ON DEVIL'S ISLAND: Sally Eilers in story just like title. So-so. (Adults.)

NO GREATER SIN: Deals with social diseases. (Very limited adult appeal.)

SAN ANTONIO ROSE: Nine songs in one picture with Merry Macs glorifying the Hut Sut song. (Popular-music lovers only.)

SUNNY: Anna Neagle, Ray Bolger, singing-dancing. (Family.)

Foreign

THREE COCKEYED SAILORS: Strange British-made comedy. Strange that in movies they take war less seriously than American picture-makers. Worth seeing. (Adults.)

Saturday, July 5

GLORIA SWANSON, now on the movie-comeback trail with the new picture "Father Takes a Wife," also takes a fresh taste of radio dramatics as guest of "Lincoln Highway," NBC.

EDT-11:00 a.m. CDT-10:00 a.m. MST-10:00 a.m.
 EST-10:00 a.m. CST-9:00 a.m. PST-9:00 a.m.

"FRONT PAGE FARRELL," a swiftly paced story of the adventures of a young reporter, is the newest six-a-week serial heard on MBS.

EDT-1:30 p.m. CDT-12:30 p.m. MST-10:30 a.m.
 EST-12:30 p.m. CST-11:30 a.m. PST-9:30 a.m.

LORIN MAAZEL, eleven-year-old French musical prodigy, will handle the baton as this week's conductor of the NBC Summer Symphony. NBC.

EDT-9:30 p.m. CDT-8:30 p.m. MST-6:30 p.m.
 EST-8:30 p.m. CST-7:30 p.m. PST-5:30 p.m.

GEORGE M. COHAN, who was born on July 4 sixty-three years ago and who, coincidentally, wrote some of America's most stirring patriotic music, will be saluted with the playing of his music on "Chicagoland Concert" this Saturday. Cohan's music, though ASCAP, can be presented on this program because of Mutual's agreement with ASCAP. MBS.

EDT-10:00 p.m. CDT-9:00 p.m. MST-7:00 p.m.
 EST-9:00 p.m. CST-8:00 p.m. PST-6:00 p.m.

Sunday, July 6

GENE AUTRY will sing songs from his "Wonder Valley" film on this Sunday's "Melody Ranch" broadcast. CBS.

EDT-8:30 p.m. CDT-5:30 p.m. MST-3:30 p.m.
 EST-5:30 p.m. CST-4:30 p.m. PST-3:30 p.m.

"SUMMER BANDWAGON" takes off on its summer relay lap for the regular "Fitch Bandwagon" this Sunday. During the summer season the program turns the spotlight on up-and-coming new dance bands rather than the well-established outfits. Jack Coffey's orchestra, popular in Ohio, will offer their lilting music on the first program. NBC.

EDT-7:30 p.m. CDT-6:30 p.m. MST-4:30 p.m.
 EST-6:30 p.m. CST-5:30 p.m. PST-3:30 p.m.

HENRY HULL, distinguished film and stage actor, will be guest star on "Star Spangled Theater" this Sunday. NBC.

EDT-8:00 p.m. CDT-7:00 p.m. MST-5:00 p.m.
 EST-7:00 p.m. CST-6:00 p.m. PST-4:00 p.m.

"WHAT'S MY NAME?" takes the air this Sunday to carry on during the summer for the sponsor of Charlie McCarthy and his fellow performers. Arlene Francis, charming radio actress and mistress of ceremonies, will act as quiz-mistress of the show as she did, with Budd Hulick's cooperation, when the same quiz show had a successful run some months ago. NBC.

EDT-8:00 p.m. CDT-7:00 p.m. MST-5:00 p.m.
 EST-7:00 p.m. CST-6:00 p.m. PST-4:00 p.m.

GLADYS SWARTHOUT will be guest soloist on "The Pause That Refreshes on the Air." CBS.

EDT-8:00 p.m. CDT-7:00 p.m. MST-5:00 p.m.
 EST-7:00 p.m. CST-6:00 p.m. PST-4:00 p.m.

JOAN EDWARDS, who usually specializes in torch songs, will step into another musical bracket this Sunday when she appears as guest soloist of "Ford Summer Hour." CBS.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
 EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

"LIPPY" LEO DUROCHER, pep-pery manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who are these days making the other baseball teams of the National League forget that the "Daffy Dodgers" were once considered the laughing-stock of the league, will be guest of Bill Stern on his "Sports Highlights" program. NBC.

EDT-9:45 p.m. CDT-8:45 p.m. MST-6:45 p.m.
 EST-8:45 p.m. CST-7:45 p.m. PST-5:45 p.m.

Monday, July 7

FRED WARING and his huge musical troupe will devote their presentations this week, beginning Monday and continuing through Friday, to songs requested by men of the U. S. Navy. He is inviting sailors to mail their requests to him at P. O. Box 21, New York City. Next week will be "Army Week" on Waring's "Pleasure Time" program. NBC.

EDT-7:00 p.m. CDT-10:00 p.m. MST-8:00 p.m.
 EST-6:00 p.m. CST-9:00 p.m. PST-7:00 p.m.

TOM, DICK AND HARRY have been tickling the funnybones and pleasing the musical ears of radio listeners for a good many years. Now they're being heard, since last Monday night, in a half-hour night-time

ARLENE FRANCIS will again be heard in "What's My Name?," replacing McCarthy this Sunday program all their own called "The Affairs of Tom, Dick and Harry," based on the unpredictable antics and timeless tunes of the irrepressible trio. The three jesters are in real life brothers Bud and Gordon Vandover and Marlin Hurt (who is Beulah on "College Humor"). They are actually three of the most uninhibited cut-ups and talented harmony singers you could imagine, so this new feature promises genuine enjoyment. MBS.

EDT-10:30 p.m. CDT-9:30 p.m. MST-7:30 p.m.
 EST-9:30 p.m. CST-8:30 p.m. PST-6:30 p.m.

Tuesday, July 8

THE ANNUAL All-Star Game between the outstanding players of the two major baseball leagues will be broadcast this Tuesday from Briggs Stadium in Detroit. The veteran world's series mike team of Red Barber and Bob Elson will handle the job for Mutual. Other reporters have not been set yet. MBS, CBS, possibly NBC.

EDT-2:15 p.m. CDT-1:15 p.m. MST-11:15 a.m.
 EST-1:15 p.m. CST-12:15 p.m. PST-10:15 a.m.
 EDT-2:30 p.m. CDT-1:30 p.m. MST-11:30 a.m.
 EST-1:30 p.m. CST-12:30 p.m. PST-10:30 a.m.

"WE, THE PEOPLE" will present as one of its guests Harvy Puckett, a blind man who earns his living selling magazines over the phone and supplements his business ability with the hobby of making music with post-cards held between his teeth. CBS.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
 EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

Wednesday, July 9

DOROTHY LAMOUR, Bob Hope and Bing Crosby, the threesome who have pleased the fancy of thousands of movie-goers in their fun-and-music films, will appear on the new patriotic show, "Millions for Defense," Wednesday. CBS.

BUDD HULICK, formerly quiz partner of Miss Francis, is now head of "Quizzer Baseball," Wed.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
 EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

Thursday, July 10

BING CROSBY and Bob Burns sing and talk their swan song for this season's "Kraft Music Hall" with this week's broadcast, to be succeeded for the summer by Don Ameche, supported by Connie Boswell and a comedian, Jerry Lester, who subbed for Bob Hope last summer, will be the guest comedian on this Thursday's program. NBC.

EDT-9:00 p.m. CDT-8:00 p.m. MST-6:00 p.m.
 EST-8:00 p.m. CST-7:00 p.m. PST-5:00 p.m.

BENNY GOODMAN, the classical musician who made the nation swing-conscious, will return to the arms of the musical Muse with a guest appearance on the Robin Hood Dell Concert, conducted by Jose Iturbi. Goodman will play two classical solos on his clarinet. MBS.

EDT-9:15 p.m. CDT-8:15 p.m. MST-6:15 p.m.
 EST-8:15 p.m. CST-7:15 p.m. PST-5:15 p.m.

MARTHA RAYE will have trouble with hems, "hims" and hams—all of which she will handle satisfactorily—when she appears in "Martha, the Sewing Machine Girl" on Rudy Vallee's show this Thursday. Martha will be a poor but honest working girl of the gaslight era, while Vallee will play the hemstitched hero and John Barrymore the seamy villain. NBC.

EDT-10:00 p.m. CDT-9:00 p.m. MST-7:00 p.m.
 EST-9:00 p.m. CST-8:00 p.m. PST-6:00 p.m.

BOYS! GIRLS!

Here is the greatest bicycle accessory you ever saw—and it can be yours absolutely FREE!

Imagine having electricity for your bike lights without having to worry about batteries wearing out—your lights failing when you may need them the most.

This amazing BICYCLE GENERATOR UNIT makes the electricity for your lights as you ride—just like the generator on an automobile. In fact this unit is made by a manufacturer of auto parts—which is your guarantee that it is NOT A TOY, but a real piece of machinery built to give you years of service.

The MAKE-A-LIFE GENERATOR UNIT includes a powerful, four-inch headlight, large tail lamp with prismatic lens, and a 6-volt A. C. generator. A patented governor keeps your lights burning with the same brilliance at 7 or 25 miles per hour and prevents excess voltage from burning out bulbs. A feather-weight rubber drive wheel eliminates wear on the tire wall—will not drag. Mounted in beautiful chrome and black—tail light in addition. Attaches to your bike in a jiffy—no one can put it on.

Write to me today, giving your full name, address and age, and I will show you how YOU can win this sensational prize without any cost to you—how you can win many other valuable prizes and earn your own money.

Ugly Fat Now Lost

without strict diet lists, exercising or taking drugs

If you want to take off ugly fat—look better and gain energy at the same time—without following strict diet lists or taking strenuous exercises or drugs, do this: First, mix  $\frac{1}{4}$  glass of Welch's Grape Juice with  $\frac{1}{2}$  glass of water and drink before meals and at bedtime. Second, eat sensibly, which means you avoid overeating; thus reducing caloric intake considerably.

You don't suffer a hungry moment. Yet! This method which Dr. Damrau of New York demonstrated in tests among a group of intelligent and cooperative people who followed directions implicitly was responsible for an average loss in weight of 7 pounds per month. This remarkable method is just as beneficial and effective for overweight men as it is for overweight women. There's only one thing to watch. Eat sensibly, which means you avoid overeating, and be sure to use Welch's Grape Juice, selected by Dr. Damrau in his convincing test. It's always full strength. Can be diluted and still taste delicious—making it economical to use.

Irene Rich, lovely star of the screen and radio, now past 40, weighs the same as she did at 16. She recommends the easy Welch way to reduce.

Try Delicious Welch's Grapelade
 New jelly-like jam with tangy deliciousness. Made from juicy parts of finest concord grapes. Ideal spread for crackers or bread. Rich in food energy. And children love it.

Classical Music

A guide for listeners who love great music

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Lorin Maazel, young musical prodigy, conducts the NBC Symphony this Saturday

MUSIC NOTES: When eleven-year-old Lorin Maazel conducts the NBC Summer Symphony this coming Saturday evening, one of the compositions which he will direct the orchestra in playing will be that written by Dika Newlin, a sixteen-year-old composer. Dika wrote the "Cradle Song" when she was nine—the same age at which Maazel made his debut as conductor... Benny Goodman, King of Clarinetists, turns away from jazz Thursday night long enough to play Mozart's "Clarinet Concerto," and Stravinsky's "Tango." He is appearing as guest with the Philadelphia Symphony at Robin Hood Dell... CBS' Symphony Concert on Sunday will feature Richard Strauss' "Ein Heldenleben," a piece which stirred a storm of criticism over the composer's self-glorification and exhibition of bad taste in extolling himself as a hero... Elisabeth Rethberg, famous Metropolitan Opera star, will devote the major part of her recital program Friday over MBS to the singing of the great lieder of master composers. This art form, which was originated by Franz Schubert, is today an almost forgotten one... The soloist on this week's "Pause That Refreshes" is Gladys Swarthout, noted mezzo-soprano.

THE REMAINDER OF THIS WEEK'S PROGRAMS FOLLOWS ON PAGE 22

SLATED AS SUMMER TEAM are Don Ameche and Connie Boswell. Bing Crosby and Bob Burns will take a vacation from "Kraft Music Hall" after this Thursday's broadcast. Picking up where they leave off for the time being will be Ameche as singing-acting master of ceremonies, backed up by Connie's vocalizing and a comedian to be chosen

Today in Radio

Bull-headed bull calf helps Kay celebrate; Major Bowes operated on; Bergen almost fails Charlie balked and wouldn't leave the studio stage and had to be thrown and subdued!

Bowes Hospitalized

NEW YORK.—Listeners to "Major Bowes' Amateur Hour" failed to hear the program June 19 for the first time in 327 broadcasts. The reason was that the Major underwent an operation for an incarcerated ventral hernia. A substitute show with Morton Gould's light symphonic orchestra and two "Amateur Hour" grads, Frank Sinatra and Carla Thompson, was inserted to fill in until the Major's return.

Bergen's Close Squeak

HOLLYWOOD.—Edgar Bergen almost didn't get to broadcast Sunday, June 15. The westbound plane he was supposed to catch at 9 p.m. Saturday night couldn't get through from the East. At midnight he caught a San Francisco-bound airliner, but this plane was grounded at Salt Lake City eight hours before his Sunday program. An hour later the weather cleared and the ventriloquist caught a Los Angeles plane which delivered him three hours before the broadcast—and another ship flew him then to March Field, scene of the airing!

Rudy Vallee III

HOLLYWOOD.—Rudy Vallee missed his first show in years June 18 when he could not appear at his preview (not broadcast) because of an attack of ptomaine poisoning. Vallee recovered quickly, however, and was able to go on the air next night.

HONORS

Shirer's Book Chosen

NEW YORK.—The first book by a radio correspondent ever to be chosen by the Book-of-the-Month Club is "Berlin Diary," by CBS' William L. Shirer. The book is an uncensored picture of Germany during the second World War, as viewed by a newsman with sixteen years' European experience.

Dinah Scores Again

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—Recently chosen queen of the National Air Carnival in Birmingham, Ala., Dinah Shore was honored again this week when she was selected Queen of the Ball at Harvard's freshman dance.

EVENTS

Stars Broadcast for U. S. O.

HOLLYWOOD.—A million-dollar galaxy of stars from radio and the screen reached the point of hysteria. It is all right to try and convey an air of excitement, but several times the writer had to get up and adjust his radio volume dial. Another thing, Dunphy is far from being an accurate reporter. From the very first round the announcer stated that Conn was badly hurt. This was true in the thirteenth round, but surely not as early as the first. While the champ did make the challenger wince, he certainly did not hurt him "badly." There were other expressions which were out of place and sounded ridiculous. One was the statement that Conn's eye, which had been cut a little in an early round, was "now healed." It probably is healed by now, but it certainly wasn't then.

I might add that at the beginning of the seventh round the announcer completely forgot to announce the round number, a fatal broadcasting error. Another complaint which your correspondent has is that Dunphy on several occasions made observations which he precluded with the words "in my opinion." This, despite the pre-fight announcement that he "wouldn't editorialize." Lastly, but not leastly, the announcer called a great many blows "the best blow of the fight." There is only one "best" blow in any fight. It is usually the knockout.

Regarding Bill Corum, Dunphy's partner, the less said the better. Suffice to say that he sounded as if he had sprayed his throat with gravel. Toward the end of the fight one could hardly understand him.

Listening to this new fight-announcing team made the writer appreciate more than ever the work of Sam Taub and Bill Stern. They certainly could have been used that night!

GENERAL

Kyser's Eventful Day

HOLLYWOOD.—Kay Kyser celebrated his thirty-fifth birthday June 19, was presented with a 195-pound Texas maverick by former San Antonio mayor Maury Maverick, and members of Kay's band were affected by two tragedies and an emergency operation—all on the same day. Kyser saxophonist Heinie Gunkler was rushed from rehearsal to the Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital for urgent abdominal surgery, vocalist Harry Babbitt received word that his brother William had died suddenly following an appendectomy in Chicago, and Ginny Simms was shocked by news that the man who had taught her and Harry Babbitt to sing, Frank Kells of Aurora, Ill., had passed away also in Chicago. Kyser wanted to call off his birthday party, but was prevented by the affected co-workers. Whereupon the bull calf, after the broadcast,

RADIO VIEWS

by Martin Lewis

WHILE the Joe Louis-Billy Conn bout was undoubtedly as exciting a bit of fisticuffs as radio listeners have heard in recent years, its ether coverage, in the opinion of the writer and many other loudspeaker listeners, was marred to a certain extent by the erratic, somewhat amateurish manner in which Messrs. Bill Corum and Don Dunphy handled their first announcing chores on fight broadcasts over the Mutual network.

There's no getting around it. In fight broadcasts the announcer has got to be tops, or else the fight description suffers as a consequence. This is primarily because the announcer must perform the double duty of reporting a blow-by-blow account of the fight as well as maintaining the proper ring color. It is the combination of those two things which make the broadcasting of a heavyweight title match just about the toughest job in radio. Here are some reasons why the announcing team of Corum-Dunphy is too light for the task.

First of all, Dunphy has a bad habit of shouting and at times almost here broadcast an hour from a three-hour stage show Sunday, June 29, at the Hollywood Bowl for the purpose of raising a ten-million-dollar fund for the United Service Organization.

Boyschoir Has Commencement

HOLLYWOOD.—The Robert Mitchell Boyschoir, famed singing group of underprivileged lads now heard regularly on the MBS "Nobody's Children" programs, had special commencement exercises Thursday, June 19, at the Town House, Wilshire Center, with Walter White, Jr., Meredith Willson, and Mary Lou Cook, of the Merry Macs, making addresses and academic awards.

PERSONAL

Hope Sees Fight

NEW YORK.—Among the 54,487 fight fans who saw Billy Conn almost win the world's heavyweight championship from Joe Louis was Bob Hope, who planned in from Hollywood following the close of his program for the summer. The comedian came east to make a series of personal appearances in Philadelphia in connection with the premiere of his latest picture, "Caught in the Draft." Then he'll take a vacation—he hopes.

Hedda Hopper (?) Moves

HOLLYWOOD.—Between broadcasts, June 19, Hedda Hopper decided to move to her new home—but when she started, she was surprised by Cary Grant, Rosalind Russell, Anna May Wong, Charlotte Greenwood, Bob Stack and Lili Damita, who turned up as helpers. Grant carried Miss Hopper's fancy hat-boxes, while Roz Russell toted the garbage cans, mops, brooms, etc. Lili brought over flowers and exhibited Sean Flynn, her new baby. Miss Wong fired off Chinese firecrackers which, according to Confucius, scare the evil spirits from new premises. It was all very moving!

SIDELIGHTS

Worked on "Robin Moor"

CHICAGO.—The sinking of the American freighter Robin Moor by a German submarine was a little more than an international incident to NBC engineer Thomas Gootee. Now control-board handler for "Vic and Sade," Gootee a few years ago was assistant radio operator of the ill-fated boat, then known as the Exmoor.

This Couple Doesn't Loaf

CHICAGO.—"First Nighter" star Les Tremayne and his actress-wife (Eileen

HAVING GOOD TIME at Hollywood's Coconut Grove when Freddy Martin's band opened there was this foursome: L. to r.—Crooner-bandleader Skinnay Ennis, Mrs. Ennis, Mrs. Jerry Colonna, comedian Colonna. The two men have just closed season with Bob Hope

FREEMAN GOSDEN might well be proud of his long-time renown as Amos of "Amos 'n' Andy" fame. But you can see in this picture that it's his good-looking children, Virginia and Freeman, Jr., that he's proud of as he shares dessert with them at Brown Derby Palmer), both known for their many and diverse activities, took a vacation—but it wasn't exactly a vacation! Just finishing a television series for Zenith's W9XZV here, the couple journeyed to Marshalltown, Iowa, where Les played in that town's famous religious dramatic pageant, "A Broken Idol." Then they motored to the Black Hills, where Les tried his sculpturing hand assisting his friend, Lincoln Borglum, on the great stone faces still being carved on Mt. Rushmore. Finally, the pair came back to Charlevoix, Mich., to participate with the Chicago Mummies' group in summer stock.

PROGRAM

Burns and Allen Sponsor

HOLLYWOOD.—In the late summer or early fall, George Burns and Gracie Allen will return to the air as stars of a new comedy broadcast series to be sponsored by a soap firm. Music will be by Paul Whiteman, and the show will originate here.

SHORTS

It was Hedy Lamarr's former boy friend, John Howard, who played the part of Dr. Leslie Foster in the last two episodes of "Those We Love" when Donald Woods left the cast early . . . With the return of "Lone Journey" to Chicago, lead roles have gone to Mary Marren and Henry Hunter, with Cliff Soubier continuing in his part . . . The oldest regular radio performer, Mrs. Emma Van Alstyne Lanning, died in Chicago June 16 after she fell and broke her hip. "Aunt Em" was heard on WLS' "Everybody's Hour." Egbert Van Alstyne, composer of "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and many other songs, is her son . . . A selection of Norman Corwin's best radio dramas will be published in the fall . . . Father's Day gift to DeWitt McBride (Mark Matthews in "Ma Perkins") was a daughter named Judy from Mrs. McBride. She's their third child.

EDGAR BERGEN (r.) is presented honorary degree of master of arts by Prof. Clarence Simon for Northwestern University. Bergen was cited as "a former Northwestern student . . . who, through combination of mind, imagination and skill, has given moments of forgetfulness of pain and trouble, hours of delight, and remained a humble man"

Next Week's Cover

Refreshing and easy on the eyes in the July heat is the girl on next week's cover—lovely Betty Rhodes, triple-threat singing star of radio, films and television. Listeners have heard Betty on Mutual-Don Lee's "Adventures in Rhythm" (Wednesdays). Just recently she was given a contract with Paramount Studios. Exclusive features inside next week's issue include a pictorial visit with Gene Autry at home, first photos of Clark Gable's new movie, "Honky Tonk." Get your copy today!

SEE SHORT-WAVE PROGRAM LISTINGS OPPOSITE PAGE

or gives chats on German folklore, culture and literature.

On the "College Hour" period of Thursday, May 22, Dr. Koischwitz began new tactics, taking up the whole program to personally address via the ether waves the famous American playwright, Eugene O'Neill. Since that date he has personally addressed, in turn, the dancer, Martha Graham, and the author, Upton Sinclair.

To put his audience at ease and to waylay any suspicions that this was just another pretext for putting over Nazi propaganda, his first talk addressed to Eugene O'Neill was very mild and eulogistic in nature. One might easily be led to believe that Dr. Koischwitz had no other motive than to discuss and comment on the famous plays of this playwright. New and novel in form, the new program was seemingly on the level and no doubt many listeners waited with some anticipation to see to whom Dr. Koischwitz would devote his next program.

The next program opened with "Dr. Koischwitz now addressing the famous American dancer, Martha Graham. Now, I don't wish to embarrass you, Miss Graham, by this personal call from the German short-wave station. I rather wish to take this opportunity to express my great admiration for your art." He continued at some great length to give an elaborate dossier on the dancer, interspersing it with several more or less personal anecdotes, also attempting to point out in what way the dancing of Miss Graham was unique and entirely original. Then he asked, "Is it really true, Miss Graham, that you like so much Nietzsche's 'Birth of Tragedy'?" He then launched into a long harangue about Nietzsche and threw in several totally irrelevant remarks about Roosevelt having moved our frontiers to the Rhine and the Danube, but that long after Roosevelt's frontiers were forgotten the famous "Frontier" dance of Miss Graham would live on and on as a work of art.

The next week it was "Good evening, Upton Sinclair. Don't be offended at being eulogized by the German short-wave station." Then followed some general remarks commenting upon Mr. Sinclair and his works. As the broadcast wore on Doc Koischwitz began to really hit his propaganda stride and ripped our good Mr. Sinclair up one side and down the other, the main peeve apparently being a book having to do with the German scholastic system which the author had written several years ago. Koischwitz continued, "If you find goose-step methods anywhere you will find them in American universities. Here we have no class cuts, no exams and no roll call." He ended by saying, "You are a pioneer, all right, Upton Sinclair, a pioneer in the field of American propaganda."

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE would like to know how YOU felt about these personal calls from the German short-wave station: Eugene O'Neill, Martha Graham and Upton Sinclair. Address us your reactions in brief to Short Waves, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE, 731 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill., and we will print as many as possible as a direct answer to the "kultur" of Dr. Koischwitz.

For facts concerning Dr. Koischwitz I am indebted to George H. Shuster, president of Hunter College, the BBC Press Service, CBS, Newsweek and Current History & Forum.

General Notes

An elaborate Broadcasting House for All-India Radio is to be built at Delhi, India. The expansion program also includes the construction of a new 100,000-watt short-wave transmitter for overseas transmissions . . . The Geneva, Switzerland, broadcast for North America is now being heard on Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m. EDT over HBL (9.345) and HBO (11.405) . . . The mystery station on 9.71 megs has been identified as "Radio Denmark." It broadcasts daily from 1:30 to 1:45 a.m. EDT.

artistic and slightly mystical character that he really is.

Otto Koischwitz was born in Germany in 1902. After graduating from secondary school, he studied modern philology and philosophy at the universities of Halle and Berlin and received from the latter institution in 1924 the Ph. D. degree, his field of specialization having been German literature. Dr. Koischwitz came to the United States in 1925. He taught in the extension division of Columbia University in the fall term of 1925-26, and at New York University in the spring term of 1926. In 1928 he was appointed assistant professor in the German department at Hunter College in New York City and he remained in this rank until his resignation in January, 1940.

It is believed that Dr. Koischwitz fell under the influence of national socialist philosophy during his one-year stay in Germany in 1935-36. During his subsequent years of teaching at Hunter College he often stated that he was violently opposed to the anti-Semitic and racial program of the Nazis. In the summer of 1939 Dr. Koischwitz took his vacation in Germany. The beginning of the war found him in Denmark. A few months later he returned to Germany and in mid-winter he became attached to the staff of the German short-wave station, where he called himself Dr. Anders (Dr. Otherwise) up until June, 1940, when he revealed his true identity as Dr. Koischwitz.

In the "College Hour" Dr. Koischwitz has endeavored to put the Nazi doctrine over in a highbrow method. In the language of the classroom he often speaks on philosophical themes

The Story of "Stepmother"

Porter. Second row: Announcer Carlton KaDell, John Fairchild, Pat Rority, Peg Fairchild, Jamie O'Connor, director-producer Les Mitchel, Bud Fairchild

THIS serial story has all that its title implies in the way of interesting plot, but it has no truck with the traditionally wicked stepmother. Heard over CBS, Mondays through Fridays, "Stepmother" has as its central character Kay Fairchild, brilliant newspaper woman who has given up her career and married John Fairchild, a prominent citizen of the little town of Walnut Grove. John is twenty years Kay's senior. Besides the problem of adjusting herself as a stepmother to John's children—Peg, twenty, and Bud, fifteen—Kay is now involved in a bitter fight against the crooked political machine of Walnut Grove. The machine, headed by boss Pat Rority, has succeeded in ousting John from his office of mayor, and Kay is determined to break Rority's machine. She hopes to reinstate John—not for any personal gain but to restore happiness to her husband, whose spirit has been broken by the incident. In this first of three instalments, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE introduces "Stepmother" and the actors and actresses who present it over CBS.

THE CAST

The Character:	Played by:
Kay Fairchild.....	Janet Logan
John Fairchild.....	Charles Penman
Peg Fairchild.....	Barbara Fuller
Bud Fairchild.....	Cornelius Peeples
Bert Weston.....	Bob Guilbert
Ginnie Sawyers.....	Dorothy Gregory
Jamie O'Connor.....	Dick Ahearn
Mother Fairchild.....	Bess McCammon
Edith Wood.....	June Meredith
Pat Rority.....	Stan Gordon
Gen Porter.....	Donelda Currie
Matty.....	Guila Adams

"STEPMOTHER'S" PRODUCER, Les Mitchel, offers suggestions to Janet Logan in her role as Kay Fairchild, young newspaper woman who gives up journalism to become a small-town housewife and mother

SUBSTANTIAL CITIZEN of Walnut Grove is John Fairchild, Kay's husband. Here he talks with 20-year-old daughter Peg, now Mrs. Bert Weston. The Westons live in a bleak mining town where Bert works

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD Bud Fairchild is suffering first pangs of puppy-love. Object of his affections is fourteen-year-old Ginnie Sawyers

MOTHER FAIRCHILD (l.), who once disliked Kay, is now on her side, leaving Edith Wood as her daughter-in-law's one enemy

POLITICAL BOSS Pat Rority ousted John from the mayorship, is evil genius of Walnut Grove. With him: Kay's pal, Gen Porter

The Story for This Week

Monday, July 7. Kay discovers that Harold Sawyer, who has been helping in her fight against Rority, has fallen into the political boss' hands.

Tuesday, July 8. Kay and Jamie O'Connor find Sawyer in a country lodge suffering a beating at the hands of the hoodlums. Capturing one of them, they feel sure that at last they have something on Rority's gang.

Wednesday, July 9. Kay and John go together to the hearing for the thug who took Sawyer for a ride. The magistrate, obviously a Rority man, dismisses the case against the hoodlum.

Thursday, July 10. Kay has trouble with Mother Fairchild, who insists on giving the baby, Billy, too much candy. (Billy is Kay's own baby by her marriage with John.)

Friday, July 11. John Fairchild returns home, pale, shaken. As he was coming up Third Avenue somebody took a shot at him!

THEATRE of the AIR

Presents

IN "REDBOOK," where Rose Franken's "Claudia" first appeared, she is drawn like this by illustrator Arthur William Brown

"Claudia"

Perhaps the best comedy serial to reach the networks since "The Aldrich Family" is "Claudia," heard Fridays over CBS. Like Ezra Stone's show, "Claudia" comes to radio from Broadway where it has been a comedy hit this season. Before that, since 1938, "Claudia" was a favorite character in Redbook stories. Rose Franken, the writer of both the magazine and Broadway versions, is now adapting her character for broadcasting. Her story is of a whimsical girl given to flights of fancy and a practical young architect, now married, whose opposite temperaments throw them into many perplexing and comic predicaments. To play the girl, Claudia, radio actress Patricia Ryan takes place of Broadway's Dorothy McGuire and in the role of David Naughton, Claudia's new husband, Richard Kollmar takes up where Donald Cook left off. Good omen for radio's "Claudia" was its introduction by Kate Smith, who launched Henry Aldrich, and whose show "Claudia" replaces for the summer months.

LEFT: Few sons-in-law would patiently help Mother (Jane Seymour) with her knitting, but architect David Naughton is wise. Still sweethearts in the play, David and Claudia (Patricia Ryan) are newlyweds in the later radio show

RIGHT: First presented on the air by Kate Smith's show, this Friday will mark "Claudia's" second broadcast as a half-hour program. Author Rose Franken is planning new—but just as funny—adventures for Claudia this summer

"One Man's Family" at Home

Like a real family are the men, women, boys and girls who portray the Barbours!

The Family

1. BACKBONE OF AMERICA are families like the Barbours, pictured above in family-album style on the lawn of author Carlton Morse's home. Standing (left to right): Cliff (portrayed by Barton Yarborough), Hazel (Bernice Berwin), Jack (Page Gilman), Jack's wife, Betty (Jean Rouverol), is on the arm of Father Barbour's (J. Anthony Smythe) chair, and Paul (Michael Raffetto) sits next to Mother Barbour (Minetta Ellen). Teddy (Winifred Wolfe), Paul's adopted daughter, and Claudia's daughter, Joan (Mary Lou Harrington), are seated on the lawn

2. PATRIARCH AND NATURE-LOVER, Father Barbour has two passionate interests: His family and his garden. Now that he has retired from active business he spends most of his time among plants and flowers. Here Teddy (left) and Joan get a lesson in botany when they pay Grandpa Barbour a visit among his beloved roses. Hazel's son, Hank (who is portrayed by young Conrad Binyon), pretends boredom

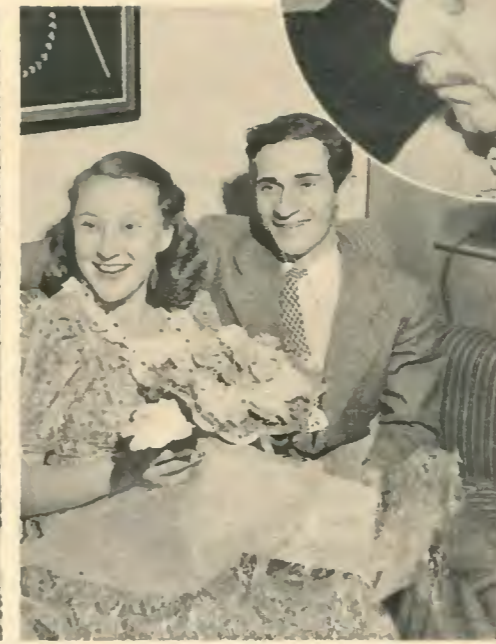

3. CLAUDIA, whose first husband died some time ago, is happily married now to Nick Lacey. Nick is a favorite with the family, a grand father to Claudia's Joan

4. BLITZED WITH KISSES from her grandchildren, Mother Barbour surrenders happily, as Hazel, her eldest daughter and mother of twins Hank and Pinky, looks on

5. HAZEL, a widow, courageously cares for her children by taking in boarders. In Daniel Murray (Wally Maher), a new boarder, she has found a new romance, and the family favors their marriage

6. LIVING ON STRICT BUDGET, the young Jack Barbours, who eloped when Jack was still dependent on his dad, feel now they have proved their ability to manage a home—and maybe a family

7. TEDDY is at the age now when most of her thoughts are centered romantically about boy friends, and Paul's heart-to-heart talks with his adopted daughter cover every problem of that certain age

8. WHERE THEY ONCE talked of beaux, sisters Claudia (left) and Hazel now discuss their children when they get together for an old-fashioned visit. Claudia has two of Nick's children, besides Joan

THE unique thing about these Barbours of "One Man's Family" (heard Sundays over NBC) is that the troupe of actors who portray them have become for listeners an actual, living family. This is no accident. Back in 1932 author Carlton E. Morse (above) set out to select men and women for his "One Man's Family" cast on the basis of their real-life similarities to the characters they were to portray. Thus, J. Anthony Smythe and Minetta Ellen, having the maturity and mellowness of middle age, became Father and Mother Barbour. Likewise with Paul, Hazel and Claudia. Mr. Morse also has deliberately retained the nucleus of his cast through the years. While other serials have brought new personalities into the old roles, "One Man's Family" has kept the same group of people together so long that they and their characters have become one in the minds of listeners. "One Man's Family" has never reached into the realm of tears and torture which has lent unreality to other serial dramas. Rather, it has stuck to the reality of problems close to the hearts of parents and young people, of the normal frictions and fellowships of the typical American family. These are some of the reasons why listeners—whose letters show that they look to this serial for suggestions about their own family problems—almost believe that the Barbours are real. Understandably, these also are reasons why the "One Man's Family" cast have the feeling that they really are the Barbours. If you have any doubts, consult these photographs, taken by MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's cameraman on author Carlton Morse's estate.—J. C.

Next Week:
MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE TIME

9. ABOVE: When Joan visits cousins Pinky (center) and Hank, Hazel takes for granted there'll be a mess to clean up. The boys are sometimes very, very male, won't associate with "dames"

10. LEFT: Celebrating Cliff's return from a trip on which he turned "bum" to see how the other half lives, family gives a dinner in his honor. Such moments are Father Barbour's happiest

MOST dance bands have a fair sprinkling of musicians who went to college before becoming horn-tooters and the like. However, the Will Bradley band boasts that not one of its members ever attended college. Yet, despite this lack of a campus background, the Will Bradley crew is one of the most popular in colleges throughout the country. Last season the band played over forty prom dates. One reason for the band's popularity with the collegians lies in the stress which the Bradley band made upon boogie-woogie music. The collegians, it seems, are boogie-woogie's most fervent disciples.

Bandata

We announced some time ago that plans were being made to bring Benny Goodman back to the airwaves. If the plans go through, you will hear him in the spot which will be vacated for the summer by Frank Morgan and Fanny Brice. I understand the firm which is trying to get Benny's hot music on the air is an air-conditioning firm! . . . Blue Barron's sweet band on a recent tour broke a lot of attendance records which were set by swing bands . . . Charlie Spivak's new theme melody is called "Moon Dreams." It was written by Sonny Burke . . . The boys at Fort Knox, Ky., have voted Donna Wood and Mimi Cabanne as the "Sweethearts of Fort Knox" . . . Lina Romaine, the shapely new vocalist heard on Xavier Cugat's radio program, has been screen-tested by 20th Century-Fox . . . Raymond Scott has only one superstition, according to the boys in the band. He never carries a suitcase when traveling.

Purely Personal

Jack Leonard, the singer, is carrying love-beats for Marian Oates of Park Avenue . . . Band-leader Gray Gordon was married the other day to Noel Carter, a dancer. It was Noel's first venture into matrimony but not for Gray. He was divorced from his first wife in Detroit in 1937.

Songstuff

What does it mean, "The Hut-Sut Song"? Don't try to figure it out for yourself because you'll become more and more puzzled, even though you don't have any idea now. It's probably a mystery to everybody but the writers and the publishers. Yet everybody is singing and playing it. There hasn't been anything like "The Hut-Sut Song" since "The Music Goes Round and Round." Regarding the latter, we at least knew what the lyrics of that song meant. That the music of "The Hut-Sut Song" is catchy and the words are intriguing is certain. "The Hut-Sut Song" is a juke-box money-maker. It is a song-sheet seller. Records for home phonographs are going from manufacturing company to retailer to record collectors by the thousands. And radio—well, it's a BMI tune, and you can well imagine how it is being played. In music circles they're saying, "What's the use? We write songs and we play 'em. Most of the time we think we know what the public wants, and then—well, then the public goes for a thing like 'The Hut-Sut Song!'"

RECORD MENDED

OKEH: Henry King's "Mi Sombrero"; Claude Thornhill's "Snowfall." COLUM-

BIA: Benny Goodman's "Time on My Hands"; Eddy Howard's "I Tried"; Eddie (Rochester) Anderson's "If Money Grew on Trees." DECCA: Bing Crosby's "Paradise Isle"; Guy Lombardo's "On the Boulevard." VICTOR: Album P-67 of rumba music. BLUE-BIRD: Joan Merrill's "Intermezzo"; Waller's "I Understand."

Recordata

Skinney Ennis will be in the East this fall and spend much of his time turning out records for Okeh . . . Tommy Dorsey recently recorded a tune titled "Let's Take a Kyack to Nyack." Nyack is the name of a New Jersey city . . . Woody Herman is turning out disks for Decca for the next two years.

DESPITE all you read and hear about summer being the season for play, there are a good many of us who confine our playing to two weeks of vacation and week-ends. The rest of the time we're at a desk, behind a counter, and on the job.

In talking with Claudia Morgan the other day, this very subject came up. Miss Morgan is something of an authority on etiquette for secretaries, having played the part in many Broadway plays and radio programs. A business school in New York thought so much of her advice to secretaries that an honorary diploma was awarded her. So we got together on this problem of warm weather and the working girl, and I'm passing the results along to you.

Though hard be your labors, remember that a perspiring brow is not pretty or an asset even in an office. Put on a good foundation of Hampden Powder-Base in the morning before applying your make-up. Keep a box of Kleenex handy and daintily mop up those beads of toil when nobody's looking. With such a good foundation your make-up won't suffer and you'll look fresh all the day.

WE DON'T suggest that you use your desk as a dressing-table, but there are several essentials for daintiness which you should keep in your desk-drawer. Start with one of those neat "Beauty in the Making" budget kits by Helena Rubinstein. It will give you the five essentials to beauty—"Pasteurized" face cream cleanser, Town and Country Make-Up Film, Beauty Grains for oily skin or Valaze Skin Lotion for dry skin, Face Powder and Lipstick. Because they're all in one compact kit you can carry them inconspicuously and easily back and forth to the office washroom. Here, for only two dollars is your safeguard against the danger of applying layer upon layer of make-up over your skin. Get in the habit of starting over fresh before every lunch hour and before you start home in the evening.

The kit itself is roomy enough to hold some "extras" which you should add yourself. Most important of these is Murine for your eyes. Use it several times a day to comfort eyes that tire easily from close office work. Next, keep a bar of your own soap in the kit, for office soaps may be too strong for the frequent use you need when working with carbon paper and soft dictation pencils. A mild soap, like Lux or Camay, is best for this and will fit neatly in your beauty kit. A small bottle of Jergen's Lotion also should be your constant companion, to use each time you wash your hands.

Remember, your hands attract a great deal of attention in an office, whether you're filing, typing or taking dictation. Keep them white and smooth and very well manicured. In fact, you should keep a small bottle of Oily Polish Remover, polish and an emery board in your kit as well, to repair your nails during the day if by chance you injure your manicure.

Watch how you sit! Cross your legs at the ankles, not the knees, and keep tabs on your slip. When you're all hot and sticky, take particular care to wear a slip that won't ride up. You'll be a lot cooler and more comfortable without those extra folds around your middle.

Now that we're down to fundamentals, the ever-important subject of "undies" comes up. In addition to the time-honored precautions of keeping them Luxed and fresh every day for absolute daintiness, there are rules for choosing summer lingerie that will stand up under daily laundering and still be cool, comfortable and inconspicuous under soft summer dresses.

These are but a few hints on the essentials for a girl who's on the job this summer. We know a lot more general hints for happy summering and we'd like to tell you about them. The new summer edition of "Guides to Loveliness" has a lot of grand suggestions and valuable news on beauty and fashion. Write and ask us for your copy. Simply enclose a three-cent stamp to cover mailing costs and a copy will be sent to you.

DISCARD YOUR OLD AERIAL

It is Most Likely Corroded and Has Poor or Loose Noisy Connections
No MORE CLICKS and shorts from summer rains and winter snow and sleet when using an F & I Capacity Aerial Eliminator. Anyone can connect it in a moment's time to the radio set—occupies only 1 1/2 inch by 4 inch space behind the set, yet enables your radio to operate without an aerial and tune in stations over the entire broadcast band frequencies and short wave channels.

ELIMINATE THE AERIAL FOR GOOD Attach this unit to your radio—make your set complete in itself—forget aerial wires and troubles—more value for money—no more roof climbing, unsightly lead-in or aerial wires.

VALUE PROVED On the market five years. 150,000 customers in U. S. and foreign countries. In use from the Arctic Region of Norway to the Tropics of Africa. Each factory tested on actual long distance reception. Cannot harm set—Easily connected to any radio, including radios having no ground or radios for double aerial. Note: The Eliminator will also greatly increase the power of radios with Built-in Aerials—usually doubling the distance. Note: It will not operate on battery or automobile radios.

5 DAYS TRIAL
Mail coupon at once. If not satisfied, return within five days and your dollar will be refunded without question.

WHAT USERS SAY
LaPorte, Tex. After using the Capacity Aerial Eliminator over a year on my 7 tube set can say it brings in reception with fine volume and clarity, pulling in both local and distant stations with good clarity. Efficiency proven. I took down my old outside aerial.

"Latitude Zero" Scores

Dear Sirs:

When NBC presented the new serial, "Latitude Zero," it certainly gave us something different and exciting in radio drama. I enjoy a story with such an unusual and fantastic plot. It has everything adventure fans like—originality and a thrill a minute.

S. Moore, Walla Walla, Wash.

● "Latitude Zero" is heard Saturday night on NBC. We were impressed by the fact that we received more letters of approbation than letters of complaint this week, so we decided to devote this entire department this week to the applause-letters. Not a kick in the column!—The Editors.

In Praise of Poetry

Dear Sirs:

At last it seems that they're going to give Franklyn MacCormack a chance to read poetry on the Wayne King show. I've heard him several times, and it's mighty good to hear his fine voice bringing us understanding interpretations of poetry once again. It adds the ultimate touch to a program of real distinction.

Alice Parmenter, Pittsburgh, Pa.

● Other listeners who have often expressed the wish to hear Franklyn MacCormack's poetry reading again will be pleased to learn that he does so now on the Saturday night Wayne King show on CBS.—The Editors.

Dramagic

Dear Sirs:

Magic before your eyes may mean pulling a rabbit from a hat. But magic beside your ears means, for one thing, a Sunday night program called "Deadline Dramas." Irene Wicker and Robertson White, who enact interesting dramas with only two minutes' preparation, are deserving of the cognomen "dramagicians." Here's a program really different, touched with a refreshing spontaneity well worth a sponsor's banner.

Mary E. Lauber, Germantown, Pa.

Movie - Radio Guide Goes To:

Ball Game With "Nine Old Men"

LAST month commentator Lowell Thomas pitted his "Nine Old Men" softball team against the big-leaguers—of politics. The "Nine Old Men," composed of radio and other celebrities, play for fun, and for fun they went to Washington to meet "The Statesmen," a team composed of U. S. Senators, Representatives—and hard-hitting Vice President Henry Agaard Wallace. Novel stunt in connection with the game was engineered by Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth ("Vox Pop"), members of the Thomas nine, who offered $100 to any of the "Old Men" who could catch one of several balls dropped from the Washington Monument's pinnacle by ex-baseballer Walter Johnson. None of the "Old Men" collected, nor did Bernard MacNeil, a sixteen-year-old Michigan schoolboy who broke from ring of spectators to grab one of the balls. The $100 went to charity, as did all gate receipts from the game. Final outcome of the contest was in doubt, with "The Statesmen" claiming a score of seventeen to the "Old Men's" sixteen.

CAMOUFLAGED BY BEARDS which are part of the "Nine Old Men's" uniform, Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth speak—as their team is at bat—over a local Washington station which broadcast a play-by-play account of the game. Boss Lowell Thomas is seen in the foreground

PARKS JOHNSON SWINGS—and misses—with typical "Old Men" finesse. Catcher is Statesman Kefauver (Congressman from Tennessee) and umpire is Toby Miller, Washington official. Another novel departure in uniforms was straw hats instead of caps for Thomas' "Nine Old Men"

WITH THE "STATESMEN" up at bat, Vice President Henry Wallace gets a single. The Vice President is a real athlete but spends more time throwing boomerangs than softballs. Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of Maritime Commission, is umpire here

THIS IS THE REWARD Parks Johnson gets from pretty Maria Squires of Houston, Tex.—Parks' home town—after the game. Parks' team allegedly lost to the "Statesmen," but Maria's kiss is reported to have erased any painful memories the "Vox Popper" had
