Margaret Gordon, 4451 Edgewood Place, Riverside, Calif.

Sirs: I have been a subscriber to your magazine for the past three years and have also presented each of my six grandchildren with a year's subscription on their respective birthdays and I guess that entitles me to a vote or voice, how about that? Thanks.

In the first place I am fearfully tired of hearing "LSMFT" over and over again on an otherwise very fine piece of radio entertainment and I mean Rochester and the others with the exception of Jack Benny. Sorry, but I do not care for his style of showmanship.

Tobacco program No. 2—"NOW MEDICAL SCIENCE OFFERS YOU PROOF POSITIVE," another very, very monotonous and tiresome form of product selling, very nearly spoils the balance of the program.

Believe it or not, but I do enjoy most of the programs on the radio and am indeed grateful to the many sponsors—"Waltz Time" is superb, James Melton is marvelous on the Texaco program, Waring's Pennsylvanians tremendously good listening. "Dr. I. Q." and "Noah Webster Says," another pair of winners. "Liberal Catholic Hour" is inspiring. My favorite is Alec Templeton, who should be placed permanently on the air lanes.

Virginia Bond, 4225 East 9th Street, Long Beach 4, Calif.

Sirs: Your issue of July 14th, in a write-up of "Romance of the Ranchos," I feel that the writer's names were so unjustly left out.

Who are the writers? I think everyone would love to know writers that do such wonderful stories and they should not be kept secret.

Writer, not writers—and it's clever Les Farber who deserves the credit. Thank you for seeing that he gets it.

Evelyn S. Rose, 5675 West Washington Blvd., Los Angeles 16, Calif.

Sirs: Please let us know where Elsa Maxwell is now on the radio. Miss her program very much!!

Elsa Maxwell is not on the air at present. We miss her, too!

Jack Walton, 600 Mound Avenue, South Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: What has become of the programs "Hop Harrigan" and "Jack Armstrong"? I can't find them. Will you please tell me the time and station?

Jack Armstrong is scheduled to return some time in September. Hop Harrigan has switched to Mutual, and is heard from KGB at 4:45 p. m. Monday through Friday.

W. J. Finn, 1920 Kent Street, Los Angeles 26, Calif.

Sirs: I am retired and seventy-four. I don't get around much, so I listen to the radio eight to ten hours a day. Sometimes I get a little disgusted with some of the corny jokes, or some of the historical programs usually called soap operas. But at that I return and listen to them just the same. You know, I just love the jingle commercials. I was wondering if you started a contest for the listener who sent in the best jingle. I don't think I've heard all of them as I have my favorite programs, too. I like "Rinso White," "Duz, Duz, Duz," "Dr. Penland Vitamin B1 Bread," "Super Suds" and a lot of others. Would it be too much to ask you to print a page or so of them?

Well, now, this is a touchy subject with a lot of listeners. What do the rest of our readers think?

Beverly Daugherty, 2453 East Villa Street, Pasadena 8, Calif.

Sirs: Why wasn't "Topper" on the air this summer? I am thirteen years old and always looked forward to Wednesday nights to listen to him.

"Topper" is no longer on the air.

Mrs. J. T. Renfrac, 9261 1/2 Burton Way, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Sirs: ... I enjoy the splendid articles about the radio personalities. What has happened to the "Canary Chorus" sponsored by Hartz Mountain products? I used to enjoy it so much and now have a canary I know would like to hear the chorus.

Sept. 29, 10:30 a. m. on KHJ, the "Chorus" will return.

Patricia Goodman, 1650 West 25th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: I would like to read an article on Betsy Gay, singer and yodeler. She is heard twice weekly on Texas Jim Lewis' program over KXLA. I am a member of the "Betsy Gay Fan Club."

Mrs. Lee Merchant, 1644 Morton Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: We liked the "Men Behind the Mike" pictures and sketches, but we haven't seen KFAC's yet. It's our favorite station because of the good musical programs. How about a picture and news about Thomas Cas-

EASY WAY TO SEPARATE EGGS

Quick as a wink every time you can separate whites from yolks of eggs with an amazing new kitchen appliance. No muss, no fuss. Built of sturdy aluminum, this handy egg separator will last a lifetime. Just send 10c and top from a package of Dina-Mite Cereal to Dina-Mite, 750 Kohler Street, Dept. R, Los Angeles 21.

sidy who announces the "Evening Concert"? He has such a pleasant voice and style. We've listened to it for years. Also Floretta? She's tops of the women on the air.

Requests noted. Floresta graced the issue of August 4.

Mrs. R. L. L., 716 North Mariposa Street, Burbank, Calif.

Sirs: May I draw your readers' attention to a wonderful "Garden Talk" on KGER, Monday through Friday, 12:45 p.m.? This is indeed a worthwhile fifteen minutes and coincides with our President's appeal for home gardens.

I do enjoy the program, "Ladies' Day." Bob Mitchell is an accomplished musician.

Mrs. Marjorie Laxerini, 834 West 7th St., San Bernardino, Calif.

Sirs: I am hoping you can help me. What has happened to Harry Cool's orchestra? He used to play from the Black Hawk restaurant in Chicago. Would appreciate it if you could tell me where he's playing and if he's on the air or not.

According to Charite Emge of Downbeat magazine, Harry Cool and his orchestra are currently at the Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, New York. He is heard over KNX, Saturdays at 12:15 p. m.

Margaret Siggins, 3239 Sherbourne Drive, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: Could you tell me who plays the part of "Jim Rourke" on "Masquerade"? He has a very pleasing voice and really makes this program tops. Is he on any other program besides this? Also, if possible, how about some small pictures of the cast of "Masquerade?"

August 4 issue of Radio Life carried an article and pictures of the formerly Chicago (now Hollywood) soap opera. "Jim Rourke" is Bill Martel.

Janie Bolin, 338 North Benton Way, Los Angeles 26, Calif.

Sirs: I want to express my sincere gratitude to Radio Life for printing my letter asking for picture postcards for Vet's albums and to its many readers who responded so liberally. The wide area covered by the addresses of the answers and the number of them proves the popularity of Radio Life.

I have more than enough cards to fill the Navy Hospital album, but I hope also to fill more for the other Veteran's Hospitals, if your readers will send more cards. Thanks, again, both to you and the lovely friends who have answered my request.

Edna P. Hann, 1538 Hillcrest Avenue, Glendale 2, Calif.

Sirs: Thank you for printing the early morning programs. I am glad enough people wrote in to make it worth while for you to do so.

Miss Harmony Loving, 314 Ballentine Pl., Baldwin Park, Calif.

Sirs: What did you mean by "the late Glenn Miller" in the July 14th issue of Radio Life?

Also would you please print a picture of "Ma Perkins" and pictures of "Pepper Young's Family."

Requests noted.

We thought everyone knew that Glenn Miller was lost in a plane flying the English Channel about the middle of the war. The Glenn Miller band, under the direction of Tex Beneke, is still going, however.

Mrs. Art Pellant, 821 El Rancho Drive, Whittier, Calif.

Sirs: I wonder if it is at all possible for you to let us know what denomination Don McNeill is, as well as some more pictures and write-ups about Don McNeill's "Breakfast Club" and gang?

One more request, we'd love pictures, etc., about Dashiell Hammett's "Fat Man."

We've no way of answering the first part of your question, but lucky for us, Jack Owens of Don McNeill's gang recently vacationed in Hollywood and we cornered him for a forthcoming interview. Requests noted.

Mrs. Cole M. Dacey and family, 845 Fellowship Avenue, Puente, Calif.

Sirs: You published a picture of Al Pearce some time ago. Recently you had a picture of the Todds on the cover. How about pictures and a story on the rest of the "Gang"? Especially Eddie McKean, Al's right-hand man? He did a wonderful job emceeing while Al was on the sick list. Give us a story and pictures soon.

Request noted.

John Porter Houston, 2556 Carlos Street, Alhambra, Calif.

Sirs: I enjoy your magazine very much. Is "Vera Vague" on the radio now? I enjoy "Easy Aces" very much.

Barbara Jo "Vera Vague" Allen will be back on the air with Bob Hope in his fall series.

IM THINKING of buying a surplus P-38 so I can cut the time down ten more minutes," laughed Kenny Baker in reference to his early morning jaunt to the American Broadcasting Company for the "Glamour Manor" show. So don't be surprised this week when Kenny takes over as star of the show if it's heard at a much later time.

"I'm afraid if it were left up to me, I'd never get up at all," the handsome singer continued. "But there are my alarm clocks." He nodded toward the three little Bakers, Kenny Jr., Susan, and Johnny. "I don't stand a chance—they get me up every morning."

The Bakers live in a lovely red and white house that makes you think of a Vermont farm. Only its surroundings are typically Californian—it looks down from a high hill to a lovely view of the San Fernando Valley. "Yes," smiled Kenny, "on a clear day you can see the mortgage." We didn't see the mortgage, but we did make out the Burbank airport in the distance.

Know Thy Neighbor -

By Betty Mills

“WELL WHADAYAKNOW?” queries emcee Battersea as he pulls a friend from the coat of producer Tracy.

CBS Quiz Show Proves It Pays to Be Smart in Sizing Up the Other Fellow

Monday, 8:00 p.m. CBS-KNX

UPON meeting Sterling Tracy and Wes Battersea of KNX's “Jack in All Trades,” we blankly wanted to know if Tracy was emcee and Battersea, writer? But that was B. R. entered our life . . . i.e. Before Radio.

We'll never commit that faux pas again—for we learned “the hard way” that capable Sterling was producer and amiable Wes, emcee. Ah, yes, we made our momentous ether debut as a guest Jill on “Jack in All Trades.”

Looking back upon the occasion, we wonder if it's fair to all CBS hands to have an ex-guest, who was so obviously suffering from mike fright, attempt to report her experiences to Radio Life's readers. Yet, in spite of the fact that we shook like the well-known leaf, we must admit that it was a mint of fun, and next time—

In an office atop Columbia Square, producer Tracy and writers Bob Hall and Frank Capka weekly sort the reams of fan mail in search of occupations and trades which they feel would make interesting listening and guessing to the audience. They've invited guest “Jacks” who have unusual, unique and familiar types of jobs to baffle the gang out front.

It works like this. On a blackboard situated on the stage are ten categories. Opposite the blackboard are guests of the evening. There is a WES EXPLAINS THE BLACKBOARD to traveling-mikeman Jack Moon, who in turn offers contestants a chance to try their luck at guessing which category belongs to which guest.

TRACY DISPLAYS A LOVELY SILVER service set to be awarded either guest or contestant, as the case may be. Many such valuable gifts are offered.

category for each guest. Emcee Battersea asks each guest two leading questions about his or her occupation. A contestant from the audience is chosen to answer what he thinks the guest does.

Pays Off

Up on the stage comes the contestant to take his place beside the guest, who now must answer five questions (to the happy tune of fifteen dollars) about the trade in which the contestant has placed him. If the guest's questions pertain to a trade in which he is not engaged, and yet he is still able to answer Wes' quiz, he is rewarded with a cash prize for each correct answer. The lucky contestant, who stands by for moral support, also cashes in on the guest's good fortune by simultaneously receiving an equal sum.

Depending on the answers the guest gives, the contestant now has to decide whether to stick by his decision or choose another category from the board. To tempt him (and the guest, too) are handsome grand prizes awaiting his correct answer. If he chooses the right "trade," the grand prizes, including many hard-to-get articles, are his. If he guesses wrong, the prizes automatically go to the guest. In any event, each wins something, and most of the big prizes go to the guest. Approximately seventy percent of the time the contestant fails to name correctly the guest's trade.

They're clever, those "Jack in All Traders," in picking guests. Among "our" quintette was a charming young lady named Merle Kenzie. Now Miss Kenzie was a tall, svelte blonde and what was her trade? She was an auto mechanic. You could have fooled us, too.

Must Be Bona Fide

"Our biggest problem," confided Tracy, "is making sure that the people writing in are actually employ-

KITTY KALLEN AT EASE BEFORE THE MIKE, of which she sees plenty, both as vocalist for Dave Rose's "Holiday for Music" program and as recording artist.

Women of Music --

No. 9 of a Series

Kitty Kallen

Wednesday, 6:30 p.m.
CBS-KNX

PRETTY Kitty Kallen is like the little girl who wanted to have her cake and eat it. But, unlike the damsel of the dilemma, Kitty takes the cake at singing, so she can have her radio shows and recordings, too!

There's no question of platters vs. programs, wax or wireless for the pretty, pint-sized Kitty Kallen. She does them both, broadcasting each Wednesday over CBS on Dave Rose's "Holiday for Music," and recording frequently for Musicraft Records.

"I like recording work," Kitty says, "because I can feel so relaxed. If the song I'm doing isn't just right, a new master record is cut. In radio, it has to be right the first time and consequently there's a tension never present in recording.

"But in radio, I feel closer to the audience, both the people in the studio and in their homes. It provides a personal touch that I feel the people want. It's purely mental, I know, but in making a recording I know it's going on wax, then to the presses, then to the shops throughout the country and finally to buyers. That's all so involved that it's hard to get, in recording, the personal feeling radio inspires.

"From the standpoint of my home life, though, recordings fit in better than broadcasts. If I don't feel like making a record on some particular day, I simply call and postpone it to another day. That would be impossible in radio, of course, and then, too, my Wednesday network program almost demands that I do best-selling songs of the moment while in recording.

Winchell and the Market

One of the "laws which should be passed," we think, would prohibit commentators such as Walter Winchell from making prognostications over the air about movements in the stock market.

The very large following which Winchell enjoys, and the confidence of his listeners, stem from the belief that he has inside sources of information and that from these sources he is able to score scoops, which, he of course, later boasts about when his predictions are confirmed.

But as regards movements of the stock market Winchell cannot possibly have any information as to its immediate or long-term future movements—other than insofar as he himself influences those movements.

It is an axiom of the stock market that "security prices reflect the varying hopes and fears of individual investors." What the result of the interplay of these two factors will be can be foretold only by someone whose influence on them is so great as to throw off an avalanche of either hope or fear because of the confidence his listeners have in him.

When such a leading financial publication as "Barron's" is willing to acknowledge that a market break has been influenced by a radio commentator's soothsaying, it is high time that this leading radio publication lift its lowly head to decry Winchell's sins against his own listeners in particular, and against radio in general.

With present restrictions practically eliminating "short sales," this magazine would be the last to suggest that Winchell could financially gain by influencing downward movements of the market. This, added to the fact that, after predicting downward trends in his previous Sunday broadcasts, he switched to champion the upside in his broadcast of September 15, would lead to a conclusion that his objective can be only to add to his stature of influence, even though it cost the investors of the country ten times as much on the downside as on the upturn.

Stockholders in this country's corporate enterprises, like Radio Life's readers, are, for the most part, little people, whose small fortunes should not, in our opinion, be toyed with to feed the ego of an already too-egotistical air character, and this magazine, for one, wishes only that it enjoyed the same national audience that Winchell enjoys, to whom it could shout that commentators who decry "rabble-rousing" in the political and international scene should desist from engaging in it where it affects their listeners' pocketbooks.

P.S.: We don't own any stock!

Changes Made

Next week when you go to your market to buy your favorite radio magazine, Radio Life, you'll see two changes. First, the price will be eight instead of five cents. Yes, folks, we hate to do it, but our production costs and the costs of doing business in general have increased so in the past few months that we were faced with the alternatives of raising the price a few pennies or lowering the quality and size of the magazine. Like practically every other periodical faced with the same problem, we have chosen to raise the price of Radio Life, but at the same time we'll increase the size of the magazine.

Beginning next week, we'll issue FORTY PAGES. The added space will be devoted to even more complete radio coverage than we've been able to offer in the past. There'll be reviews on shows, timely tips on listening, and some much-asked-for columns. Pre-Casts will also be enlarged, affording fans a better chance to catch guest stars and new shows.

We'll see to it that you always get your money's worth AND THEN SOME!

Sablon, Je Vous Aime!

One of those voices we said we'd like to hear recently returned to the air and gave us the most delightful fifteen minutes of listening that we've had since the last time we heard him. Yes, it's Jean Sablon, the French singer, who can be heard on KNX at 2:30 p.m. Sundays. The only voice on the program is Jean's—he announces each number, sings and indulges in a bit of French pleasantry, affecting to teach the listeners a French phrase each week. On the program we heard he even announced at the conclusion, "Thees ees the Columbea Br-road-casteeng Seestem"!

We like this idea of a personality doing a "one-man show." It gives the program an individuality and a very

NEXT WEEK

The face smiling from our cover next week is a reminder of thirty happy years in show business. Whose? Jimmy Durante's, of course. In commemoration of Jimmy's recent anniversary celebration, Radio Life called upon the lovable comedian and gathered first-hand information on high spots of his action-packed career... Number one of a new series makes its debut, enabling you to meet and know those very important (and sometimes unsung) heroes of radio—Writers and Producers... Pictorial proof that summer has gone is offered by a galaxy of your ether favorites who show what they did in those carefree vacation days... And to herald the return of new fall shows, we've compiled a complete log for your benefit... personal appeal that lengthy introductions and a covey of announcers would utterly destroy. And, oh—that accent! Jean, vous etes un wow!

Congratulations in Order

Pasadena Station KWKW had a wing-ding of a birthday anniversary party September 12 and present were old friends including your Radio Life reporter. As it was our first visit in some time to KWKW, we were duly impressed by the change four years had brought.

To celebrate, KWKW had planned an hour-long show, which was so packed-full of surprises that it ran twenty minutes over its allotted schedule—but nobody minded. Aside from a straight-from-the-heart, but oh, so timid speech from us (we still haven't gotten used to those "old debbil mikes") well-wishes were offered by guests Rube Samuelson, bandman Billy Butterworth, songwriter Matt Dennis, actor George Reeves, actress Marlene Dietrich, starlets Joan Winfield and Arleen Dahl, civic leaders of Pasadena, well-known figures from the sports world, and talented young singers of stage and ether.

The festivities were conducted by General Manager Bill Beaton and Chief Announcer-Program Director Ken Barton, who did a grand job. Many happy returns, KWKW!

Guedel Again

That radio production dynamo, John Guedel, whose organization currently handles seven coast-to-coast "live" shows per week, is now making a bid for "canned" business with the announcement of a new division of the Guedel Radio Productions, called "Vest Pocket Transcriptions." Irvin Atkins

KECA mike memos

By VIRGINIA WEST

A brand new crew, all tip-top favorites with the fans, moves into ABC's "Glamour Manor," on September 30th! Heard over KECA at 9 o'clock every Monday through Friday morning, the roster reads like a "Who's Who of Radio."

There'll be Kenny Baker, in the role of hotel owner, whose songs and whimsical brand of humor would alone be reason enough to make the new Glamour Manor a smash hit... And in addition... There'll be that ace announcer-comedian, Don Wilson, as guardian of the hostelry... and Kenny's interests... with Sam Hearn as the one and only "Schlepperman," Barbara Eiler, as bookkeeper and erstwhile girl friend of the hapless Kenny. Harry Lubin's Orchestra will furnish the music.

In fact... a sure cure for your morning blues, every morning (Monday thru Friday) is that ABC lineup... Breakfast Club with Don McNeill at 8... the new Glamour Manor at 9... and Tom Breneman's Breakfast in Hollywood at 9:30!

... A BEST BET ANY TIME ... 790 ...

ADD NEW FARE FOR FALL: Already underway is the new Sunday morning song session with the smooth voice of Baritone Johnny Thompson in the spotlight. Heard at 10 o'clock over KECA-ABC, Thompson entertains with popular ballads and show tunes. Incidentally, Johnny comes from that state of crooners... New Jersey!... Next Sunday (Oct. 6) your old favorite and mine... John Nesbitt inaugurates a thumbnail show made up of incredible historical facts... KECA, 10:55 a.m.... AND on October 12, the new adventures of "Sherlock Holmes" begins a fall run for Kreml... on ABC-KECA at 8 p.m.... More details on the doings of that master detective later... In the renewal column are those Pine Ridge storekeepers, "Lum and Abner," with Miles Laboratories as their sponsor for another year. "Lum and Abner" are carried by 135 stations of the ABC chain... Then there's that new drama, "Strange Wills," which replaced "Mystery House" over KECA on Thursday nights at 9:30. "Strange Wills" stars Warren William, with Lurene Tuttle and Lloyd Del Castillo in leading roles. The stories, written by Ken Krippene, deal with strange and oft-times mysterious wills... and the reasons which lead to their making.

... A BEST BET ANY TIME ... 790 ...

The dark-haired beauty pictured here is Janice Gilbert... the gal who is "paying teller" on "Break the Bank" program which gives away such quantities of "green stuff." By the way, "Break the Bank" came on the network as a summer replacement, and has been such a hit that it will continue on through the fall. That's KECA at 9 o'clock Friday nights.

Janice Gilbert

Speaking of dark-haired beauties reminds me... When lovely blonde Frances Scully, co-emcee on ABC's "Hollywood and Vine" show, kissed guest star Leo Carrillo the other day, the rapturous Leo sighed: "You know, I love all blondes... I don't care how they get that way!"... Pretty Jane Adams, assistant to the master-of-ceremonies on "Darts for Dough" (KECA, Sundays at 2:00) returns from her vacation to find Orval Anderson, originator of the show, back at his old job keeping the questions flying on the lively quiz game.

FOOTBALL NOTES: On your ABC station KECA, you'll hear two of the nation's top grid battles on October 5th... At 10:45 a.m. Cornell at West Point, and at 2 o'clock, the Washington-U.C.L.A. game from Seattle.

KNX Autographs

may not sound like a prize scholar to the millions who follow her zany antics on the air, but she was valedictorian of her class when she graduated from high school. Joan's radio show is heard over KNX each Monday evening at 8:30.

is without doubt radio's most versatile actor. He plays featured parts on as many as 14 programs a week, and, to keep really busy, he supplies the voice for those cartoon comics, Porky Pig and Bugs Bunny. Now you can hear wonder man Blanc on his own program over KNX each Tuesday evening at 8:30.

Jean Hersholt

has painted 63 pictures illustrating the tales of Hans Christian Anderson. They hang on the walls of the Danish playroom in his home. Jean Hersholt stars as Dr. Christian on KNX each Wednesday night at 8.30.

Penny Singleton

radio's famous Blondie, has gained stardom under two different names. As Dorothy McNulty she starred in several of Broadway's greatest musical comedies. Then Hollywood beckoned, changed her name to Penny Singleton, and made her a movie star. Now she is starred in Blondie over KNX, Sunday night at 8:30.

BAILEY SAYS:

Believe it or not, but "Queen for a Day" emcee Jack Bailey interviewed a contestant with the name of C. Iva Short Furrer who had a son named Harry Furrer and a father-in-law named D. Furrer!

An aviation enthusiast who has just made his first solo flight is Gene Norman, emcee of KHJ's program of popular records and interviews, "Mellow."

GOOD ADVICE

Burritt Wheeler, KNX radio philosopher of the "Housewives Protective League", advises: "When keeping to a budget causes dissension in the family, throw the budget away!"

PASTIME FOR ROSS

Announcer David Ross, voice of the inspirational poems read on Mutual's "Coke Club with Morton Downey", spends his spare time browsing around New York book shops and edited the famous volume of verse, "Poet's Gold".

and Owen James are in charge. Serval Markets of San Diego started September 9th over KGB with "Five Minute Marketing," a market report show which airs six times a week.

Which reminds us—do you, the listener, care whether your radio shows are being broadcast "live" or via transcriptions? It has, of course, become a lively issue around radio since consummation of Bing Crosby's ABC-Philco platter deal—and the chief question is, how much is the listener concerned with whether his ether fare is aired on the spot or waxed for later airing?

Aw, Now, Henry

Tuned in Henry Morgan Tuesday night, September 17. Were YOU disappointed, too? We'll bet you were if you used to listen to the madman back when he had an unpretentious show in the middle of the day.

His first two broadcasts as a nighttime comic were swell, but the other night it was a case of too much everything—production, cast, audience. We wished Morgan was again broadcasting all alone from a little studio and making fun of radio to beat the band.

Swap Talk

Talking shop on a vacation will be Elliott Lewis and wife, Cathy, when they visit San Francisco this week. Elliott plays the title role in Mutual's "Casebook of Gregory Hood" and Cathy is secretary-associate to "Michael Shayne."

Both detective dramas have their locale in San Francisco, so the couple have planned to visit some of the places featured in their respective mystery scripts.

Real Christmas Early

Who says the comic strips don't live and breathe? KLAC wants readers as well as listeners to know that one well-known character from the Dick Tracy strip is about to make her radio debut as a disc jockey. We are referring to that incorrigible little lady of the Chester Gould creation—Christmas Early.

Jim Strain of KLAC called to inform us that the station has made a deal with Cartoonist Gould to bring a flesh-and-blood counterpart of his comic strip gal, Christmas, to the air-lanes as soon as possible. Auditions are now being held to find a young lady who can match the physical qualifications of Miss Early as well as handle the chores of a female disc jockey. The Ansons, Jarvises, Normans, et al, had better look to their laurels when Christmas joins the ranks.

cording I'm permitted to sing the songs I really want to do."

Youthful Debut

Radio is her first and her real love, however. Kitty was only eight when she made her broadcast on WCAU in Philadelphia and she's been before the microphone almost constantly since, either on a children's program, her own sponsored show, with the bands of Jimmy Dorsey, Jack Teagarden and Harry James, or as star on NBC and CBS revues.

Kitty was one of the first stars to be "born" on WCAU's "Children's Hour," which since has produced Ezra (Henry Aldrich) Stone and Elliott Lawrence, now rising to fame with his own band. Local commercials followed and, at sixteen, she was hired by Jack Teagarden as his featured vocalist and headed toward national fame.

Her greatest "kick" came just last spring when Kitty returned to her native Philadelphia for a personal appearance on the stage of the Earle Theater. The Earle is just around the corner from her uncle's five-and-ten-cent store where, as a fourteen-year-old, she helped out by running the Photomat.

"My job was to talk the ugly ducklings into buying enlargements and tinted portraits after being photographed in the Photomat," Kitty recalls. "But each day I went home with my feet aching and found comfort only by looking at the canopy of the Earle and imagining my name up there in the lights.

"When I went back last spring, my name was in lights and the dream was realized, but I went back to the dime store just for fun. Honestly, the minute I walked in, my feet started hurting again!"

Now, back in Hollywood, her life is all microphones again, but she has an astonishing reply for those who ask her what she thinks about as she broadcasts or records. "I just sing my song," she says, "and try to count the little holes in the mike!"

Shore, Frank Sinatra, George Burns, Gracie Allen and others will be heard in addition to guest of honor Jolson.

Sports

Play Ball

Is Fred Haney's Cue to Give Diamond Fans Colorful Comment

BASEBALL broadcasting and KLAC's Fred Haney are synonymous to the Los Angeles baseball public. Mention baseball and the fan thinks of Fred Haney because Fred has been broadcasting both the Angels and the Hollywood games for four full years, and his commentaries are as colorful as a Brooklyn Dodgers fan's vocabulary.

When we talked to Fred regarding the broadcasting of baseball we learned that the regular season will end September 22, but thereafter there will be play-offs by the four leading teams in the Coast League. All of these series will run about a week, so baseball broadcasting will go right on until the middle of October with Fred at the mike.

We asked him about the possibility of the Los Angeles team or the Hollywood team becoming a Major League team and Fred explained in detail that the whole suggestion was a very touch-and-go affair. There is every possibility that the Coast League will eventually become a third Major League. However, the big problem at present is, due to the fact the Coast League is in the Minor League classification, that any player who has ever signed a Major League contract, or has been in baseball three full years, is liable to baseball's "draft" rule. Under this rule the Major Leagues have a right to draft any player from the Minors.

When we asked Fred whether he thought there was any possibility of this draft rule being rescinded, he was as cagey as an old-time "slow" ball. He said something to the effect that the answer was anybody's guess, so we went on to ask about Fred's own career in baseball and how he came to turn to radio.

28 Years Background

It seems that he started originally

BEFORE GAME TIME, Fred chats with three of the players on the Hollywood stars team.

HANEY AT HOLLYWOOD PARK WITH Jack Sherman (left) at his side. Sports-caster Fred has been broadcasting both the Angels and the Hollywood games for four years.

back in 1918. It was up in Portland with the old Northwest League. When that League folded, Fred Haney came down the coast to Los Angeles and the Angels. From there he went East and to the Majors by way of Omaha. Next, Haney went to the big Leagues as an infielder! Detroit, Boston, Chicago—all followed in that period between 1922 and 1929. Then there was a period when Fred went to Indianapolis at the beginning of the season and wound up the year with the St. Louis Cards. By 1930 Haney was back on the Coast playing baseball with the Angels. He played for both the Angels and Hollywood Stars in the period between then and 1934, so he learned to know both teams as a doting mother knows her own twins.

In 1934, the East—and the Major Leagues—again beckoned Fred and he left—to manage the Toledo team for about four years. Then back to St. Louis as manager of the Browns. In 1942 Fred deserted active participation for the mike—much to the glee of the Fred Haney radio fans!

Just to prove how loyal those Fred Haney fans are—it seems that Fred had received about 100 baseball rule books from the East. One Sunday, he decided on the spur of the moment that it might be a good giveaway for the youngsters, so in his casual way in the brief lull between innings of a baseball broadcast, Fred announced to any and all that anyone who sent in a self-addressed, stamped envelope would receive a copy of the rule book. He expected a few casual replies—mostly from youngsters and high school baseballers, but he certainly never anticipated what actually happened. On Monday morning the mail desk at KLAC was literally swamped with requests and the station's publicity manager could only stand around and tear his hair for want of photographers.

Yes, baseball broadcasting and Fred Haney are synonymous!

▲ ALL VAN DEVENTERS, BUT ON "TWENTY QUESTIONS" program they go under different handles: Fred, left, uses real name; his musician wife is called Florence Rinard (her maiden name); while fourteen-year-old Bobby takes the surname McGuire from his maternal grandmother. We think it would be lots more fun if they broadcast as a family.

"TWENTY QUESTIONS"

Old Parlor Game, "Animal, Vegetable Or Mineral?" Furnished Van Deventers With Idea for Family Quiz Broadcast

▼ FRED, FLORENCE, MISS KEEN, BOBBY, AND HERB POLESIE, well-known radio producer, line up at the quiz table to face emcee Bill Slater on the "animal, vegetable, mineral" quiz. Raya Keen was guest. Others have been Lucille Ball, Francis Lederer, and Jan Struther.

ONE day the family of Frank Van Deventer (WOR, New York, newscaster) was sitting around the Sunday dinner table with an announcer friend, and, as they usually did, they began to discuss quizzes. The Van Deventers always spent dinner time playing quiz games—it was a fetish with them.

Someone said, "What about this?" and suggested an idea. Another added, "What about that?" It all astonished Mrs. Van Deventer, who said, "Is a radio quiz as simple as that?" She was assured that simplicity was the very keynote of a successful radio quiz program; she also got the impression that thinking up a simple quiz program that would prove a popular one wasn't the easiest thing in the world.

Then Nancy Van Deventer, sixteen, and home for the week-end from the rather exclusive Hewliett School for Girls on Long Island, suggested the

I WISH people wouldn't take the words, "National Broadcasting Company," so literally! So often they call up and ask me about such-and-such a program and I'll say, "That program is on another network, madam," and the reply will be, "No, it isn't, I have the paper right here in front of me and it says 'National Hook-up.'" It's the Word National that fools them—they think it means anything broadcast anywhere in the United States! I usually try to help them, though, no matter where the program is and I know that the switchboard girls on the other networks do the same for us.

Then, of course, people call up who are just chatty and want someone to talk to. I've made so many friends over this phone. One of my closest friendships came about this way. My hobby is music and I got to talking with a woman one day whose mother had been Schumann-Heinck's accompanist. We've been friends ever since.

Then there's the person who'll call up and say, "I was busy yesterday and missed my favorite program. Tell me, what happened on 'Ma Perkins?'"

Personally Responsible

And, oh my, when "Irene" was killed on "One Man's Family" everyone who called up about it was so mad at me! You would have thought I'd stabbed "Irene" in the back with a knife personally!

Right now the public seems to be Roy Rogering us to death! We do try to give people a satisfactory answer, though, no matter what the question is. The emphasis here is on personal service.

One of the most amazing things about this place is the speed with which people can get on the phone and call us up. The minute something of national importance happens — boom — the board lights up like a Christmas tree. You wouldn't think people would have had enough time even to dial us.

It was thrilling during the war. I was on this board during every major happening right from the beginning. That is, I was until the end. Can you imagine, I missed the end of the war! I was away on my vacation and I was so excited I called in and begged to be allowed to come back for the occasion. But I was too far away to get back in time.

Single-Handed

I'll tell you when it's most exciting — election night! I wouldn't miss that for the world. Last time one of the girls asked if she could work the board during the final returns. Well, she fainted from excitement at the beginning of the evening and I had to handle both boards myself. Was I busy—but I loved it!

In some instances, it's sentimentality; in others, good business—but whatever has prompted the interest of these radioites in the extra-curricular pursuits at which they're pictured in the accompanying photos, their all-out enthusiasm is obvious.

As you can see, the attention of your microphone favorites, when they're away from their air assignments, is attracted in a variety of directions—but we think you'll agree, all of them are interesting.

"Twenty Questions"

"Wait a minute," her father said. "Why not?"

Immediately the group fooled around with Nancy's idea and whipped up a format, which was presented soon after and is now sponsored by Ronson Lighter. Now, the proof that Nancy knows her vegetables, minerals, AND animals is demonstrated each Sunday night when millions glue their ears to the radio and vie with the Van Deventers in this popular parlor game. Between 12,000 and 13,000 letters a week are indicative of the "draw" "Twenty Questions" has.

Audience In "Know"

As title of the program indicates, the experts try to nail their object by asking questions — twenty of which are the limit. The studio audience sees the correct answer, posted at the front of the stage where the contestants cannot see. The listening audience is let in on the answer via a microphone which isn't connected to the studio.

Appearing on the program under names other than Van Deventer (to add interest) are Mrs. Van Deventer, who takes the name of Florence Rindard (her maiden name); fourteen-year-old Bobby, known as Bobby McGuire (his maternal grandmother's maiden name); Herb Polesie, New York and Hollywood producer; and Bill Slater, famous sportscaster, once headmaster at Adelphi College, who emcees the broadcast.

All the Van Deventers were born in Indiana, but each came from a different place, so they consider their "home" in Princeton, New Jersey, where they have a small stucco house. Van Deventer, formerly a Mid-Western newspaper man, writes all his own copy, styles himself "an outright duffer" at golf, is a Rotarian, heading the club's program committee. He likes fried chicken, hot biscuits, square dances, fast horses, and "everything but the state of the world today."

His wife, (eighteen years married) enjoys both music and art, likes the works of William Cullen Bryant, hates "being a golf widow in the daytime and a radio widow at night."

Holds His Own

Bobby has the distinction of being the only juvenile to compete regularly with adults on a radio quiz show. He reads the World Almanac for recreation, is a Life Scout and hopes to become an Eagle, but is worried about his swimming; broke his arm last season playing football. On the program he is very calm, has a way of tapping his forehead when trying to think (the results are frequently quite amazing). His pet dislike (right now) is girls . . . also jazz, and being photographed.

At the beginning of the series, Bobby and Polesie were supposed to bicker with each other—a kind of trumped-up feud intended to give the broadcast a lift. During a little heckling session, Emcee Slater chimed in to ask something and Bobby, as he was coached to do, replied: "It's none of your business!"

Good Now

So many hundreds of letters were received after that broadcast criticizing Bobby for his "impertinence" that the whole idea was dropped, and Bobby has reverted to his real well-behaved self.

One night, nineteen attempts to classify an answer had been made and the question was on the point of being declared a "miss". The answer, as printed on the large card and broadcast by the mystery voice, was "Beauty and the Beast." Fred and Florence were vying for the right answer at the point, when Slater commented slyly, "You two remind me of them!"

Another night, Van Deventer came up with the answer to a very difficult question and Slater said, commendingly, but facetiously, "I hope your wife is listening in."

"She is, believe me," replied Fred just as gayly before an audience which didn't know Fred and Florence were Mr. and Mrs.

Glamour in His Manor

"And over there," he pointed to a house down the hill to the left, "is where Gregory Peck lives. On a clear day you can see Gregory Peck."

Aficionados of a long New York run as co-star with Gregory Martin in "One Touch of Venus," Kenny returned to Hollywood to star as "Toni" in "Two Hearts in Three-Quarter Time" during the first part of the Greek Theater musical festival, and to resume his radio career as "Glamour Manor" star. He's also been seen on the screen recently in "The Harvey Girls" and his appealing singing voice is heard on Decca records. All in all, it's been quite a year for Baker fans.

Kenny, who has the clean-cut, clear-eyed look of a college senior, reveals that, at last, he's lived down his characterization of the naive and enthusiastic young man he portrayed on the Jack Benny show. "Yes," he smiled, "people have treated me normally for quite a while now. After all, I am an old married man with a family. To tell you the truth, I can't remember the time when I wasn't married."

Kenny and a friendly black cocker spaniel named Linda led us back around the house to see the swimming pool. By this time the Baker children were jumping and splashing in the water and screams of what could have been either great glee or intense pain rent the air. "After a while," said Kenny philosophically, "a parent gets so he can distinguish between the screams that mean joy and the ones that mean business."

It's apparent that Kenny Baker's career as a father certainly doesn't play second fiddle to his career as a singer.

The World in Her Room

Oh, yes—the calls we got about "Mr. Hush." You know — on Ralph Edwards' "Truth or Consequences." My goodness, they came from all over the United States and Canada, and everyone was positive that he alone knew who "Mr. Hush" was! Sometimes they would tell us and sometimes they would be real secretive as if we wanted to pry the information out of them and win the prize ourselves. We took "Mr. Hush's" calls through this board, and we all had our own theory as to who he was. We were all wrong, of course . . . so were the people who called us up and were so positive. That Ralph Edwards is a sweetheart though, we don't care how many calls he lets us in for!

Yes, some day I'm going to write a book. I've been saying that for years. So many funny things happen that I can't keep track of them all. Excuse me just a minute . . . National Broadcasting Company . . . Sorry madam, you have the wrong number!

Know Thy Neighbor

ed in the trade they name. By that I mean that the trade is their livelihood and not an avocation or hobby."

How often, we asked, do the questions about his actual trade baffle a guest? "Not too often," laughed Wes. "But once we had a dog catcher who couldn't answer a single question about dog catchers."

Getting Tracy and Battersea together was a treat because they talked about one another and we received a brief glimpse into their radio background. They like working together as a team and long for more audience participation shows. Wes at one time was studying law, but gave it up for the stage, which in turn landed him in radio.

Sterling went to work for CBS when he was in his teens, went into the Army with Armed Forces Radio Service, returned to CBS and resumed his job as producer. At this writing, he is serving as contact producer on Orson Welles' ailer as well as "JIAT."

We thanked the gentlemen for making our air debut such an auspicious occasion, assured them we weren't the least bit nervous any longer, and promptly dropped our nice gift of hair tonic on the cold hard pavement. But the next time—
