Here's where I start picking the bone! If there is any program on the air that smells it's the Horace Heidt Show! I think Mr. Heidt deliberately pats one contestant on the back to make sure he wins, with such statements as, "I feel he will win!" Nearly everyone who has seen any kind of a radio program at all knows there is someone coaching the audience to applaud. What kind of a set-up is the Heidt program? The "Original Amateur Hour" is twice as good and never has professional talent either!

Floyd Wright, A.N. USN, 910 North Maple, Burbank, Calif.

Inspired by the old teaching "you gotta ask questions to find out a thing," I'm writing in hopes you will be able to tell me about programs of audience participation in the Hollywood area. Would you let me know how participants are chosen?

The contestants are picked from the audience before the broadcast during the "warm-ups." Many of the shows you would like are listed in our highlights.

Diane Marin, 1110 South Fourth Avenue, Arcadia, Calif.

Here's my chance to plug the fan club for Howard Duff that one of your readers was inquiring about.

"Duffatiars,"

8913 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood 26.

Claire Rochelle is the club sponsor. I surely agree with Mazie Anderson of Alhambra that Howard has an interesting voice and is a grand guy.

Ed Bentley, address withheld, Los Angeles, Calif.

I think your article wondering why Mercedes McCambridge does not go over on the stage can be answered simply that she does not go over on radio either. I have known many to turn off programs rather than listen to her insane, hysterical, affected voice. If you ever had a poll on who enjoys her on the radio I am afraid her only backers would be the few who are paying her salary.

Edward A. Olson, Jr., 3621 Castle Reagh Place, Riverside, Calif.

I have discovered "Archie Andrews" on KFSB on Saturday. I enjoy "Proudly We Hail" very much and try to keep track of all the different times the program is on. Many times the show is on for several weeks and then I tune in and there are only records playing. I wish they wouldn't do that.

Did you miss our time change precast which told that "Proudly We Hail" had moved to 11:00 p.m. on Sunday?

Mrs. Greenberg, Hollywood, Calif.

I've been buying Radio Life for years and don't like to criticize but why do you print programs the following week after they are over and through with? I turn the page every day in the magazine to see what is on and half the time it is so different. You must print the daily schedule by the thousands and never look to correct any. The newspapers do better than that. I get the paper for seven cents including the radio listing. You charge nine cents for what? You'll probably destroy this card and not even read it.

It must seem that way to you, Mrs. Greenberg, after you find two or three incorrect listings of your favorite programs. It must seem that we do it on purpose, or just don't care. But we can assure you that we correct our logs to the full extent of our knowledge and information at press time (and some folks claim that we do very well). Our log corrections average nearly five hundred changes a week—and we wouldn't call that "never looking to correct any."

We don't know just what errors you discovered or whether they were in the logs or the precasts, so we can't offer any specific explanations. However, we have found that nearly all cases of incorrect listings arise from failure of the stations to advise us of changes in time for publication. We don't think this is entirely (or even mostly) the fault of the stations, most of which have given us the best possible cooperation. Some errors seem to us to be inevitable, because of the innumerable things which can happen in a radio station to upset the neat schedules of the program department: stars or guests can how out for any one of a thousand reasons; special events are entirely unpredictable but very disruptive; and perhaps the most frequent cause is the sponsor, who may cancel unpredictably, or may buy a program at the eleventh hour without a word of protest from the sales department concerning the effect on program schedules.

This fine print would probably be as good a medium as any for the admission that we also make a few mistakes of our own—but we sincerely hope they never happen on any of your favorite programs. Mrs. Greenberg.

By the way, a newspaper is only seven cents, to be sure, but six newspapers would be forty-two cents. We charge nine cents for "an evening's good reading—a week's good listening."

Irene Bakley, 1800 South Bronson, Hollywood, Calif.

Speaking of good personalities, there's a new quartet coming up called the "Mellomen," formerly the "Java Jivers" on the Edgar Bergen show. This quartet is new, different and considerate of public feelings.

Mrs. Robert Luce, 422 East Chevy Chase Drive, Glendale, Calif.

May I enter a request for a story on "Peter Slack Time," on Long Beach station KGER? Peter's organ artistry is superb and I am sure everyone will welcome the beautiful music that emanates from the program daily.

Your request has been placed on our "waiting list." Mrs. Luce.

About Your Letters

All letters to the Ear Inspires the Pen Department should include name and full address of the sender. Name and/or address will be withheld on writer's request. Opinions expressed in the letters printed are those of the senders and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of Radio Life.

Mrs. N. B. Dempsey, 8411 Mountain View Avenue, South Gate, Calif.

I wonder if you would be so kind as to enlighten me about Paul Barbour of "One Man's Family"? What is his real name, and am also anxious to know if either he or Cliff Barbour is on any other broadcasts?

Michael Raffetto portrays "Paul Barbour" and Barton Yurborough is "Cliff Barbour." The actors used to play "Juck and Doc" on Carlton E. Morse's "I Love a Mystery" and are free-lancing now.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cole, Box 56, Vista, Calif.

Your May 1 issue is the very best ever. Thanks for the grand articles on Herb Shriner, "The Pickards," and Judy Canova, all our favorites.

Mrs. Ernest Foster, address withheld, Los Angeles, Calif.

Why isn't "Anniversary Club" on? I've listened to it ever since it came on the air. Ben Alexander is grand and made the program real lifelike.

"Anniversary Club" was canceled and Ben Alexander now emcees the "Spelling Bee," Monday nights, 7:30 p.m. on KFI.

Here Comes the Bride and Here's The Happy Bridegroom as Radioites Present Their Wedding Day Pictures

DALE EVANS AND ROY ROGERS went far away from Hollywood to say their marriage vows. Here they are, just after the ceremony had been performed New Year's Eve, 1947, at the Flying L Ranch in Oklahoma, home of Bill Likins.

▲ THIN FROM ARMY hospitalization, Sgt. Elliott Lewis married Cathy Lewis April 30, 1943—just two years after actor Jerry Hausner had introduced them when both were cast on the old Woodbury show. Cathy's wedding band belonged to her paternal grandmother, Memgee, who sent the ring she had been given seventy years before in England.

◀ FROM THE SCRAPBOOK of Ralph and Barbara Edwards comes this perennially charming photograph of them as newlyweds, taken August 19, 1939, at Barbara's home in Reading, Connecticut.

▼ MUSICAL composer-conductor (and comedian) Frank DeVol and Grayce Engle, Cleveland dancer, were married in May, 1936. Frank, though maestroing the Jack Carson, Jack Smith (CBS) and "Pantomime Quiz" (KTTY) shows, is still a devoted family man to Grayce and daughters, Linda and Donna.

▼ HORACE AND Adelaide Heidt at time of their marriage. Mrs. Heidt cleverly manages to run a home, rear a family, and travel on the road with her husband. An ex-school teacher, she conducts classes for youngsters in the troupe who still need to pore over books.

 MR. AND MRS. AT HOME and on the air are Alice Faye and Phil Harris, NBC stars. A big hug and bigger grins marked their wedding day, May 12, 1941.

 MR. AND MRS. HANLEY STAFFORD (Veola Yonn) just after they had repeated their vows. Veola has made a name for herself in radio acting and flower hats. Hanley is famous as "Baby Snooks's" "Daddy" and "Blondie's" "Mr. Dithers."

 MEREDITH WILLSON has played many a Lohengrin march in his time, but on March 12, 1948, he heard someone else do it—and he loved it. His missus is the former Ralina (Rini) Zarova, concert singer.

 SINGER KEN CARSON as he looked October 7, 1939, when he was wed to Coy Wade in Chicago, Illinois. The Carsons now have a daughter, Coy Brooke, four, and a son, Paul Scott, six.

 MR. AND MRS. OZZIE NELSON (Harriet Hilliard) thirteen years ago when the band leader and his singer exchanged vows. They've developed into one of radio's smartest comedy teams. (De Mirjian photo.)

 MR. AND MRS. DONALD NELSON (he's Ozzie's brother) were married only last year, September 17, 1948. She is the former Barbara Eiler, popular radio actress heard on "Life of Riley" as "Babs."

▲ A YOUNG IMPRESARIO of outdoor extravaganzas picked his first "Queen for a Day" on July 4, 1941, when Carolyn and Jack Bailey were married in Los Angeles. The week after the wedding, Bailey decided to try a radio career and got his first job at KGB in San Diego. One year later, he was in Hollywood and "big time."

▼ RICHARD DENNING, who plays opposite Lucille Ball on CBS's "My Favorite Husband," and movie actress Evelyn Ankers had no time for a honeymoon after they were wed September 6, 1942. He had to get back to the Navy and she to a film she was making.

▼ CONGRATULATED BY THEIR OFFICIATING CLERGYMAN are well-known musician Buddy Coie and another well-known musician, Yvonne King, one of the famous King Sisters. They said their marriage vows on August 17, 1940.

answering to the title of "Editor." The visitor can see that Editor Alice Box is young and attractive, and he soon finds out that she knows the score when it comes to ideas for radio and television shows. He can leave happily confident that his script is in good hands, and that it will be given careful and expert consideration.

Early Musical Ambition

Alice Box never dreamed of holding such a position when she first came to Hollywood four years ago. And therein lies a story, one which proves that sometimes getting sidetracked in one's ambition can be a pretty satisfying experience.

Alice had yearned for a career in radio as a pianist-organist. In pursuit of that dream, she resigned the position she had held for more than a year as fingerprint clerk in the Bureau of Identification of the Oakland, California, Police Department. She packed her belongings and headed for Hollywood.

Now, of course, one doesn't just walk into a job playing piano for radio—especially in Hollywood

IF YOU have ever submitted a radio script to the American Broadcasting Company in Hollywood, then you know all about a "Literary Rights" department. ABC is the only network west of New York which has this operation.

And it is a good bet that anyone directed to the office of Literary Rights will be surprised to find a pretty, blondish young lady there where there are already so many talented musicians. Alice realized this, and so jumped at the chance of breaking into radio in any capacity when she learned there was an opening in ABC's mimeograph department, hoping this would prove an opening wedge for exploitation of her talent.

Alice's promotion was rapid—but it wasn't in the music department. In

For Love o' Mike (General Comment)

Rumors Are Flying

"I Love a Star" and "Other Women's Children" are both soap operas which may be added to the CBS daytime line-up. . . . Kate Smith may do a two-hour-long program on ABC once a week. It would be in addition to her Mutual program. . . . Jack Paar may be back on the air next season. . . . Joseph Schildkraut, heard with several excellent performances on "NBC University Theater," is auditioning at NBC in "Tales of Mystery and Imagination," presented by the same director, Andrew C. Love. . . . NBC is auditioning a science-fiction-type show, "Destination Space." . . . Ben Gage may do a fifteen-minute musical for summer radio. . . . "By-line London," drama about foreign correspondents, scheduled for fall. . . . The Mickey Rooney audition, "The Boy Next Door," is still auditioning. Barbara Eiler is the girl next door. . . . Cathy and Elliott Lewis are preparing an audition of their Mr. and Mrs. type show.

Looks Like

Sheilah Graham will return to the air with her Hollywood chatter in July when she takes over Jimmy Fidler's present spot on Mutual. Fidler will continue on ABC. . . . Joan Davis stars in "Leave It to Joan," replacing Lux on CBS, starting July 4. . . . Ralph Edwards's "This Is Your Life" renewed for another year, in spite of trade reports to the contrary. . . . Newscasters Sam Hayes, Lou Marcelle and Joe Hernandez will be seen in the next "Maggie and Jiggs" movie. . . . Bing Crosby and his scripter Bill Morrow are huddling over the format of the Bing show come next fall on CBS. . . . Walter Winchell will be visiting Hollywood in August. . . . NBC will have the "Four-Star Playhouse" replacing Fred Allen for the summer. Rosalind Russell has already signed as one of the stars; Charles Boyer and Fred MacMurray may be two of the others. . . . And "Sam Spade" moves to NBC in the fall, retaining his day and time, though. . . . New Allan Jones-Irene Hervey program will be called "What's New with the Joneses?" Original title, "Keeping Up with the Joneses," was already claimed by the comic strip of that name. . . . Stacy Harris, leading man on "This Is Your FBI," will be seen in a new movie, "Postal Inspector." Jack "Pat Novak" Webb will also be featured. . . . Back in Hollywood for four weeks is Jo Gilbert, ac-

NEXT WEEK

Summer listening accented in an article about hot-weather radio. There'll be "music in the air" this season, plus a sprinkling of whodunits and other replacement programs. If you are already missing some of your pet stars and shows that have vacated the kilocycles for the next few weeks, why not be adventuresome and discover new places on your dial? We think our story next week will make you want to do this!

Extra-special feature! A Glendale woman won $26,000 on "Hit the Jackpot" and we hustled right over to her house to obtain a first-hand story on how it feels to land the loot. In this exclusive feature we also have pictures of the whole family indicating their various reactions. Furthermore, we plan to follow up this report with another in ninety days telling you interested onlookers how Mrs. Spangler came out with all her prizes.

"Myrt" of "Myrt and Marge" is telewise and has an important part in bringing the beloved series to the eye, as next week's story relates. A writer who lives to fish, a mikeman named Purcell and summer fashions fill out this bulging issue. You just can't afford to miss it! Otherwise you'll miss an evening's good reading and a week's good listening and looking.

dress formerly heard on "Aunt Mary" and other local dramatic shows. During past season she's been heard on many New York shows, including the Helen Hayes program and "Mr. D.A."

Your Cue (Shows You May Like)

"Dragnet"

Much as we love most of our favorite crime programs, the last claim that we would make for them is that they bear any relation at all to real life. That's why we think the new Jack Webb program, "Dragnet," KFI, 9:00 p.m. Friday, is pretty exciting news. To these ears, it sounded absolutely believable.

Mention is made on each broadcast that the dramatized stories are based on the actual files of cases handled by the Los Angeles Police Department, and for once the claim to reality is valid. The acting sounds as authentic as the stories. Jack Webb as "Sergeant Joe Friday" and Barton Yarborough as "Ben Romero" are to be credited for this.

Listeners yearning for spooks and haunted houses, poetic detectives on the prowl for lovely blondes, and mysterious strangers who warn their victims with picturesque messages won't cotton to "Dragnet." Its criminals are portrayed as the dull-headed, poverty-stricken members of the submerged tenth that they usually are. Their cruelty is the dangerous sort that springs from sordid breeding places of crime, not the vicar's garden of Agatha Christie nor the millionaire's drawing room of S. S. Van Dine.

"Music for You"

A good baritone voice and some pleasant piano classics add up to fine late-afternoon listening on KWKW, 4:30 p.m. Monday and Friday. The voice is that of Gene Hart, young Chicago concert and night-club singer, while the piano belongs to Lorraine Langdon.

Music and song are varied, ranging from current ballads to semi-classical, musical-comedy and classical piano selections. The program is made up of requests sent in by listeners, so if you have a favorite tune that no one ever seems to do right, try Gene Hart.

"Your Hit Parade on Parade"

Like seeing an old friend or reminiscing over a yellowed picture album, songs, too, bring back many dear-to-the-heart recollections of days gone by. Remember "It's a Sin to Tell a Lie," "Music Goes Round and Round" and even "Here Comes Cookie"? These tunes made the "Hit Parade" years back and like many other things were forgotten with the times.

If you like bridging the years and returning to the days when you were perhaps dancing, whistling or just listening to these tunes, then "Your Hit Parade on Parade" (Sunday, KNX, 4:00 p.m.), will be a sentimental treat.

With music by Russ Case and orchestra, each program highlights the favorite songs that jumped to top rank since the origination of the "Hit Parade" fourteen years back. Vocals are supplied by different guests, and those who have already stood before the mike include John Lorenz, Monica Lewis and Margery Hughes, daughter Music to fit every mood . . . nostalgic, romantic, for dancing. . . Music for young and old. . . That's the Lawrence Welk Show heard on ABC-KECA, every Wednesday night at 8:30. . . . The accordion-playing maestro calls it "champagne music" because of the effervescent, bubbling flow of his musical style . . . and significantly, his sponsor, the Miller Brewing Company, calls its product the "Champagne of Bottle Beer." . . . Lend an ear Wednesday night. . . . We know you'll enjoy the Welk brand of melody.

ABC's exciting "Lone Ranger" series has added thrills these days. . . . The big "Mystery Deputy" contest is currently giving listeners an opportunity to get in on prizes totaling $21,000 in the coin of the realm. There's a separate contest each week. . . . So be sure to dial KECA and learn details. . . . That's Mondays and Wednesdays at 7 p.m., and on Saturday nights at 8. . . . Speaking of contests . . . that longtime morning favorite, ABC's "Breakfast Club," is now offering a lovely charm bracelet in connection with that program's sixteenth anniversary celebration. . . . Listen any week-day morning between 8 and 9 for details.

Harrison Wood's Sunday afternoon (KECA at 2) news commentary series, "This Changing World," has just been renewed for another 52 weeks by its sponsor, the Fruehauf Trailer Company. . . . Another popular Sunday afternoon program, "California Caravan," starts its third year on ABC-KECA in mid-July, for the California Medical Association. This entertaining and educational program, based on stories of California's early days, has won high praise from the PTA of Greater Los Angeles area and other similar groups during its two years on the air. . . . Dr. Charles E. Fuller, who heads the Sunday morning Old Fashioned Revival Hour on ABC-KECA, is not only a native Californian, but he was born in a little house at Third and Hill Streets in downtown Los Angeles, back in 1887. His parents were pioneer settlers of the then tiny western village. . . . We particularly like the singing of the King's Heralds Quartet, heard every Sunday morning during "The Voice of Prophecy" on KECA at 9:30. . . . Responsible for those beautiful arrangements is Wayne Hooper, who is also heard as the four-some's baritone. Other members of the group include Jerry Dill, bass, Bob Edwards, first tenor, and Robert Seamount, second tenor. Advertisement of pianist Frankie Carle. Before each number is played emcee Andre Baruch notes how long the song was a hit and during what era it became a favorite. Announcing chores are aptly handled by Jay Simms.

The series is set for fourteen weeks, and with three listenings already past, we invite you to share in our enjoyment of melodic memories before the cycle is over.

Playbacks (Critical Comment)

We Point With Pride

. . . To Binnie Barnes for her usual forthright appearance as visiting panel member on "This Is Broadway." Her opinions were full of conviction and she pulled no punches.

. . . To "The American Almanac," KECA, 10:00 a.m. Sunday, fifteen charming minutes of typical almanac news, predictions and facts. Writer George H. Faulkner and narrator John Macdonell have brought up to date a piece of Americana, added a tongue-in-cheek viewpoint and presented an unusual piece of entertainment.

. . . To Larry Thor for his nice job of substituting for vacationing Tom Hanlon on KNX's "Merry-Go-Round."

. . . To the very small boy we watched in Martindale's book store in Beverly Hills last week. He carefully looked over all the comic books—and then bought a Radio and TV Life.

. . . To Frances Robinson for her portrayal of the Myrna Loy role on the Lux adaptation of "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer." Seemed to us that Frances's role was every bit as big as Cary Grant's and Shirley Temple's.

. . . To Jean Ramsey Hill for her portrayal of "Antoine," the little French boy inadvertently adopted by "Remley" on the Harris-Faye show.

. . . To Nick Lucas for a nice interview with our Andy Mansfield on KFVD's "Star Theater."

. . . To Irene Bordoni for her guest appearance on "Theater U.S.A." and her singing of "There's Something About Paree." She sounded as pert and young as the first time we ever heard her (and no one is going to torture that date out of us!)

We View With Alarm

. . . The recent outcropping of split infinitives on radio news and commentaries. Last week we heard "to seriously show," "to joyfully laugh," "to badly waste."

. . . The engineer (or whoever the pixie is) on "This Is Broadway" who seems to turn the gain 'way down on the panel mikes so that the first parts of ad libs by Abe Burrows, George S. Kaufman and their equally quick-witted guests are lost.

. . . The contestants and guests on audience-participation shows who are getting so long-winded. This is primarily the fault of the emcees, who should know when to stop too much of a good thing.

. . . The mystery and detective shows which feel they must have that "twist," "snapper" or "switcheroo" ending on the last few seconds of air, at any cost. After ten years of listening to these programs, the only way we're surprised by a "switcheroo" is if the author introduces a whole new set of characters in the last two minutes. We just know that if a man plans to murder his wife, it'll be she who knocks him off at the end of the show. We've got a swell idea for a "switcheroo" murder—why don't they have the butler do it?

On Mike (About Studio Happenings)

Quiz-Winner Gift

Mrs. Arthur Olson of Los Angeles won the $1,000 prize on CBS's "Mother Knows Best" telephone quiz recently—and she isn't going to keep a penny of it!

She told announcer Jerry Lawrence when he phoned her that her husband was employed by the Children's Hospital, and that she knew of the organization's need for funds to complete their pool for polio patients. This is such an important addition to the hospital facilities, Mrs. Olson said, that she wanted "Mother Knows Best" to make out her $1,000 check to the Hospital.

Off Mike (Personalities)

Patient Fans

How patient can ya get? More than a thousand hopeful fans, without a ticket in the bunch, lined up outside the Vine Street Theater last week trying to get in to see Cary Grant and Shirley Temple in "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer" on Lux. Ticket holders filled the theater and not one of the non-ticket holders got in.

LOCAL VIDEO SHOWCASED

First Hollywood television programs offered to Eastern sponsors and stations have been transcribed by KTLA. Reversing the usual east-to-west path, the station is filming programs to meet the demand for Hollywood products. First to be sold was "Armchair Detective," thriller featured for several seasons on the station. The Spade Cooley shows, "Time for Beany" and "Hollywood Opportunity" are others destined for the East.

In & Out of Focus (General Comment)

Rumors Are Flying

Boris Karloff, veteran of many TV guest appearances, may have his own show. . . . Jim Hawthorne may return on KTTV soon. This is going to please a great many people. . . . ABC-TV and KTTV both negotiating for video rights to the USC-UCLA football games. . . . "Screen Directors Guild" interested in telecasting. . . . "Corliss Archer" is another show headed video-wards. . . . Richard Webb has scripted and will star on his own show on KTSN this fall. . . . Starting in September Bill "Hopalong" Boyd will present a series of twenty-six educational films for children. . . . "Bride and Groom" to be telecast one night a week on ABC-TV starting in the fall. . . . Steve Allen's "Country Store" on KNBH said to be highest-budget video entertainment on the Coast. . . . Clark Dennis preparing his own TV entry, "Along Music Row with Clark Dennis." . . . Benay Venuta is another with her own TV program ready. . . . "Dick Tracy," filmed by the Rudy Vallee TV film company, may be seen on NBC.

Looks Like

Jack Benny off to New York to discuss his fall TV show for CBS. . . . Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers have joined the cast of the Spade Cooley frolic on KTLA. . . . KECA-TV has set September 15 as the date it starts local beaming. . . . Alan Mowbray replaces Mal Boyd on "Hollywood in Three Dimensions," while Boyd attends to other important duties. . . . Elgin Watch Company has dropped its big two-hour-long Christmas and Thanksgiving shows on NBC in order to devote money to its video interests. . . . "Life with Luigi" to be kinescoped from CBS this fall with J. Carrol Naish, Alan Reed, Hans Conried and Alan Reed Jr. in the cast. . . . Kraft has canceled its night-time show on NBC, giving as reason the television pressure. It'll go into daytime radio in October. . . . Only Warner Brothers star with television rights is Doris Day. . . . Phil Gordon, KNBH's "Advance Man," to make a musical short for Universal pix. . . . "Take It or Leave It," Dennis Day and Jack Carson will cut kinescoped auditions for Eastern sponsors. . . . Milton Berle to do a Hollywood repeat of his famous marathon TV show for the cancer fund. . . . Another sponsor saving its money for television is Sealtest, which has dropped the Dorothy Lamour show and prepped no summer replacement.

New Cooley Show

Spade Cooley, who was listed in our Page Twelve story as being televised on two shows twice weekly, has come up this week with an hour-long video show which will be seen Saturday nights at 8:30 over Channel 5, Station KTLA. The "king of Western swing" corralled the new screening from his former Monday night stint. In keeping with the hour-long variety, KTLA built a complete television stage at the Santa Monica Ballroom which is reported to be quite a big thing.

New York Idiom

Latest word from the Big Town has it that some of the citizens refer to television as "electric pictures." We rather like that. It has a nice, old-fashioned ring to it.

Stop, Listen, Look (Shows You May Like)

"The Truth About Dixie"

The cockles of all New Orleans-lovers' hearts will beat faster when they hear and see the Harry Hickox "Truth About Dixie" show, which is being televised Sunday afternoons at 4:00 p.m. on KFI-TV.

As the title indicates, the thirty-minute stint is completely about Dixieland music, and we can't think of another thing that any two-beat addict could ask for. Sending us straight into a musical heaven was the piano-playing of Marvin Ash, who has a style reminiscent of Peck Kelly and Bob Zurke, but knocked us out with his own very special brand of Dixieland in the theme, which, naturally, was "Is It True What They Say About Dixie?" During the program he rendered such choice numbers as "Muskrat Ramble" and "Lonesome and Lovesick."

We can't think of anyone more appropriate to emcee a Dixieland show than Harry Hickox, who himself had a two-beat band back in the thirties. Add his easy style of talking and singing to any show and it would come out great. Even the commercials for the Rigid Manufacturing Company were easy to take.

The guests spots are nothing short of sensational, for they include revered names like Red Nichols, Matty Matlock and Charlie La Vere. When Red was on the show he told a story about hot-lick trumpet player Bix Beiderbecke and finished up the tale by playing Bix's famed chorus on "Singing the Blues."

Course, the show just wouldn't be complete without Harry giving out with a song. We liked best his recent pick of "The Blues," and he used as lyrics some phrases he had heard long ago from a strawberry vendor down in Houston, Texas. Fill-ins were supplied that time by Nichols and Ash.

If anyone doubts the intoxicating beat of Dixieland music, we suggest that he, along with two-beat addicts, run quickly to the nearest television set next Sunday afternoon and learn "The Truth About Dixie."

On Lens (About Studio Happenings)

"Kukla's" New Contract

When "Kukla, Fran and Ollie," together with creator Burr Tillstrom, return to television on August 28, they'll be the possessors of one of the most extensive contracts in video. It guarantees Tillstrom's exclusive services for five years in AM and FM as well as TV on NBC. Film and recording rights are retained by Tillstrom.

This marks ten years for the puppet aggregation in television; the gang made its first TV appearance in 1939 with a traveling RCA video unit in a Chicago department store.

Long-Distance Signal

KTLA has received reports of signal reception in Minden, Louisiana, and in Brenham, Texas, during the past weeks. Probably carried by freak atmospheric conditions, the reception of both the audio and video transmission was reported strong for thirty minutes in both instances. Minden is located 1,400 miles from KTLA's Mount Wilson transmitter and Brenham is 1,200 miles from Los Angeles.

"Blackouts" for Video

Ken Murray, veteran vaudevillian and radio star who has won national acclaim for his long-running "Blackouts," has been signed for television by CBS. Murray will produce for the Columbia Television Network a version of "Blackouts," starting in the fall, from New York.

The original show at Hollywood's El Capitan is in its 365th week with more than 3,700 performances to its credit. It closes on August 30 after seven years.

TV for Every Room!

Scheduled to be demonstrated this week is the Sampson Tele-Robot, a device that will enable one to have television in every room of a hotel, apartment, or house, all working off one regular TV set. Developed by the Sampson Electric Company of Los Angeles, the principle is in projection, regardless of the size of the master set. The company is now engaged in developing a miniature television set to act as the master to the large robot screen-mirror.

F. F. Gibson, Spring Valley, Calif.

When you sell something why not check to see that it is right? Programs that change are still listed at the old time. You list "Can You Top This?" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday when "True or False" comes on. If this is a sample of what to look for, I guess I've had enough of your magazine.

Well, sir, it sometimes seems to us that people just aren't considerate enough or they would stop to think that often changes in programs pop up after the magazine has gone to press. It is our endeavor to run the correct listings when they are given to us.

C. W. Gray, 3819 West Fifty-eighth Place, Los Angeles 43, Calif.

Would it be too much to publish the coast baseball stations?

If you will check our weekly Precasts you will find that we list the baseball games according to their time and day. The same with the televised games.

Alice Rafferty, 1366 West Twenty-seventh Street, Los Angeles 7, Calif.

Please may we have "Favorite Story" back on the air? It was one of the best.

Mrs. Joan Moshkwa, 2826 Third Street, Ocean Park, Calif.

Would you please advise me as to the best procedure for requesting radio tickets?

With the summer now in full swing radio tickets are at a premium, and for that reason we suggest that you contact the studios several weeks in advance for your requests, enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope. It helps to send your requests in care of the ticket department of each respective studio. You may also like our article scheduled soon on "Do's and Don'ts About Tickets."

Name and address withheld, Laguna Beach, Calif.

Must have missed some announcement that that personable commentator Charles Collingwood was no longer heard. He had humor and pep, both badly needed. As for more recording programs, words fail me. Today's hit tunes are boring enough so why dig up the old ones? A final lament for the deplored absence of Meredith Will-

Richard Crane and Judy Sochor in "An Only Son."

Film

SUNDAY, JUNE 26—French Comedy, KTSL, Channel 2, 8:30 p.m. (to concl.). Noel-Noel, comic artist, stars in "A Cage of Nightingales" with "The Little Singers of the Wooden Cross," boys chorus. Directed by Jean Dreville.

MONDAY, JUNE 27—Western, KNBH, Channel 4, 10:00 p.m. (1 hr.). Bob Steele in fast-moving saga of "Alias John Law."

WHO'S GUESTING

Variety

SUNDAY, JUNE 26—"Who Said That?" KNBH, Channel 4, 8:00 p.m. (30 min.). Guests tonight include George Allen, Quentin Reynolds, "Red" Smith and John Cameron Swayze.

son, who gave us real music served with intelligence and garnished with humor. The I. Q. of sponsors makes one weep!

It will probably be pleasant for you to learn that Charles Collingwood, who has not been heard locally for some time, is now back on the air, Sunday at 10:30 a.m. As for digging up the old tunes, guess that you don't have as sentimental a heart as some.

R. Littrell, 1621 Hilts Avenue, Los Angeles 24, Calif.

My family is eager for some news about the emcee on "Hollywood in Three Dimensions." Mr. Mal Boyd has one of the best speaking voices we have ever heard. We would certainly like to know something about this interesting newcomer as his screen personality is fascinating.

Twenty-six-year-old Mal Boyd was born in New York and formerly produced NBC's "Homemaker's Hour." He has handled radio and television exploitation for motion-picture producers and is now president of Television Producers Association as well as co-producer of KTTV's "Hollywood in Three Dimensions."

Celia Block, 1554 West Forty-seventh Street, Los Angeles 37, Calif.

Will you please tell me where I can find listings of some good television programs instead of so many kiddie shows?

Radio-TV Life carries a complete listing of programs on the Los Angeles television channels. We also suggest that you check our Television Precasts.

Mrs. M. O'Hara, 18 North Hillhurst, Los Angeles 27, Calif.

"Pat Novak for Hire" is what they call it. Then, somehow or other, Novak is given a tidy sum to do a job, a little dilly-dallying goes on and in no time "Patsy" gets hit on the head and the next thing is "Inspector Hellman" creeping up on "Patsy." Insults fly but soon the "hero" escapes the arm of the law to look up the "only honest guy he knows . . . Jocko Madigan." Now, "Jocko" I don't mind. After he finishes his speech, "Patsy" invariably asks "Are you finished?" Then "Patsy" (Please Turn to Page 29) goes up to see the girl and he always thinks about "the way she said hello." Can't she just give a simple greeting? From then on I lose track. All I know is that at least one person gets killed. In other words I hate "Pat Novak." No objection to Jack Webb, he's marvelous, but the character he portrays is a square. Please, couldn't we have a story change? Have "Novak" act like a person for a change and get somebody else to answer the door. As far as I'm concerned the only things worth listening to are Jack Webb's voice and Dick Aurandt's music.

And many a gal would give a day's pay to have "Patsy" remark about the way she said hello! Apparently Dick has built such a reputation for mystery music that you're willing to give him credit even if he doesn't do the show. Currently he's mastering "Gregory Hood," "Green Luma," "Rocky Jordan," and "Phillip Marlowe," but not "Pat Novak." Buzz Adlam does that.

Behind the Scenes: Alice Box

December of 1945, just four months after she joined the network, she was advanced to the Continuity Acceptance Department as assistant to Editor Dorothy Brown. One year later, the Literary Rights Department was created as a sub-department of Continuity Acceptance, and smart young Alice Box was picked to head this important work. ABC sent her to New York for intensive briefing in her duties by the Literary Rights head there, and she has since been on her own, working closely, of course, with John (Bud) Edwards, ABC's Western Division Program Director, and members of the network's production staff. She also continues to actively assist Miss Brown in editing scripts and passing on program gimmicks, handling this function for such shows as "Kyser's College of Fun and Knowledge," "Surprise Package," "Jay Stewart's Fun Fair," and the "Skippy Hollywood Theater," scripts for broadcast on ABC's Detroit station.

As Literary Rights Editor, Alice clears titles and formats for all local (KECA) and ABC network shows originating in Hollywood. She clears all published quotations and excerpts and all impersonations of such. She reads and registers all scripts submitted for both television and radio—between seventy and 100 scripts cross her desk each month—and then she makes her recommendations to the program director. Also, she handles requests for scripts from schools and various organizations when they are wanted for non-profit production.

Every Script Read

The actual reading of scripts is the most interesting aspect of her work, according to Miss Box. No matter how bad they might be, she reads each one through thoroughly, looking for the merest germ of an idea. They are submitted by people ranging from seven-year-olds up to octogenarians, and she is stimulated by the various thought processes they reflect.

As for her personal history, Alice Box was born in Nome, Alaska, but was raised in Oakland, California, where she attended the public schools and then went to Mills College in the Bay City for a year. She followed her Mills studies with two years at the University of Chicago.

All through her school years Alice studied piano, organ and arranging, with the singleness of purpose of making music her life's work. Now, however, she is so happy that she has given up all idea of a career in music, and plays the piano only for her own and friends' entertainment, and occasionally for church services.

Two years ago Alice Box married Kenneth G. Ramsay, an interior

RECORD NOTES TO YOU

BY ANDY MANSFIELD

"Remember That Music."
KFI, 9:30 p.m. Friday

ALBUM OF THE WEEK: Pure unadulterated jazz gets the nod this week in the six-sided Mercury album featuring the Coleman Hawkins Quintet with Teddy Wilson at the ivories. To my knowledge, it's the first time Teddy and The Hawk have combined talents on wax, and the results are marvelous. Theirs is a style free and easy, but beneath it tremendous rhythmic power and exciting phrases minus the false notes and unsavory effects that many mistake for jazz. . . . RECORD OF THE WEEK. To a mighty rhythmic backing by Jerry Gray's band, the Modernaires have turned in about as top a vocal as you'd ever want to hear on Columbia's "Señora"—replete with some interesting South-of-the-Border chatter by the señora herself, Paula Kelly. . . . Reverse side "Beautiful Blonde From Bashful Bend" is nearly as good with the special lyrics added by the Mods to clinch the deal. . . . JACK FINA ORCH. (MGM) has two contrasty sides in the bouncy tune with its nostalgic touch, "Lora-Belle Lee," Jack's piano having paper-clipped strings for that old-timey effect. . . . Flip is a beautiful melody called "Twilight," Borodin-borrowed theme and a top-flight vocal by Bob Darnell. BETTY HUTTON (Capitol) is back with a pair of Frank Loesser tunes from her new picture, "Red, Hot and Blue." . . . While not as wild and erratic as we like our Bouncing Betty, "I Wake Up in the Morning Feeling Fine" is a catchy rhythm number with a light novelty twist that fits snugly with the Hutton style. . . . Reverse has Betty in very subdued mood for the ballad "Where Are You Now That I Need You?" . . . RUSS MORGAN & ANDREWS SISTERS (Decca) combine talents for a pair of novelties with that old feeling—"Now Is the Time," a let's-sing-with-it waltz and "Oh, You Sweet One"—the modern tune with the Schnitzelbank twist that calls for foam and pretzels. . . . PERRY COMO (RCA-Victor) has just what it takes for easy listenin' in a pair of smooth-as-silk ballads, "Every Time I Meet You" and the modern lullaby, "Two Little New Little Blue Little Eyes." You'd have to look far to find anyone who sings with Como's easy relaxed style on this pair; they're not sensational, but simple things that can't help but please. . . . VIC DAMONE (Mercury) has a sleeper backing up his fine rendition of "Four Winds" in the flip-over "You're Breaking My Heart." . . . It's based on an old Italian air, and Vic handles the second chorus in his native tongue with warmth and feeling that come from the heart.

decorator, and the couple live in Pasadena. Friend hubby both approves of and enjoys his wife's work, for, liking to dabble in writing as a hobby himself, Mr. Ramsay is in the enviable position of going no farther than his own home for frank criticism and helpful advice.

MENUETTE

by

KHJ's Norma Young

Leah's Date Nut Bread

(Once tried—always had)

- 1 c. dates, cut in quarters
- 1 t. soda
- 1 c. boiling water
- 1 T. margarine or butter
- ¾ c. brown sugar
- ½ c. broken pecan nut meats
- 1 egg, well beaten
- ½ c. sifted flour
- ¼ t. salt

Method:

Sprinkle soda over dates, then add boiling water to which has been added the shortening.

Mix well and add brown sugar, nut meats, well-beaten egg, flour sifted with salt.

Pour into well-greased bread pan and bake at 325 degrees for about 1¼ to 1½ hours.

Note: If Radio and Television Life readers have any cooking or household problems, telephone Norma Young, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. HU. 2-2133.

MARIE IS FROM THAT FAVORITE TOWN of radio comedians, Anaheim. . . . She has brown eyes . . . light golden hair . . . is five feet four and slender. She's married to Allan Nixon, an actor . . . drives a yellow convertible. She came to Hollywood as a teen-ager with the movies as her goal. . . . A legacy from her father was spent on a mink coat, a big car, evening gowns and a year's supply of canned goods. . . . Her eyelashes are the real McCoy. . . . A disbeliever once tried to pull them off—Marie came with 'em! (CBS-Ben Polin color cover.)

CBS-KNX, KCHQ

THERE are many stories told about Marie Wilson which point out pretty strongly that Marie is a real-life "Irma." Like the time producer Cy Howard waved her a cue and she waved back. (She thought he was being friendly.) And the way she seems to be driving down the street carrying on a conversation with herself. (Passers-by can't see her dog on the seat beside her.)

In truth, Marie seems like "Irma" at first meeting. She has the same touching sincerity, the same steady and wide-eyed gaze. She can keep an admirable poker face throughout the most idiotic conversations. If producer Cy Howard says suddenly, "Marie, 'Irma's' going off next week," Marie will give him a look of sincerest belief and then laugh fondly as she realizes that he's kidding her again. Part of her charm is that she's so believing she'll fall for the same gag over again. Either that, or she's

Ah, Sweet Marie

Marie Wilson Is as Precious an Off-Stage Character as She Is in The Role of "My Friend Irma"

By Joan Buchanan

so eager to please that she pretends to!

No Forty Winks

Marie's career skyrocketed so fast this year that it left a pretty tired girl in its wake. Not tired in the sense of being bored—she could never be that—but in the sense of being just plain sleepy. Eight performances of "Blackouts" a week, her radio rehearsals and show and the title role in her new movie, "My Friend Irma," left Marie with very little time to herself. When "Blackouts" goes on tour, Marie will be missing from the cast for the first time in seven years. She'll stay here for commitments and "sleep, sleep, sleep."

Producer Howard has plans for television, but Marie merely looks blank when the topic comes up, then laughs and says, "But everybody looks so funny!"

"She didn't want to do the radio show and she didn't want to make the movie," says the producer philosophically. Marie nods amiably.

"I had enough money," she says simply, "and I thought they'd make me a stooge."

Like a character in a William Saroyan play, Marie loves everything and everybody. Passing through the photo gallery at CBS, she'll have a word for each of the stars represented by a photo. "Oh, look, isn't Eve Arden darling? . . . and the Andrews Sisters—they're the niciest girls, don't you think so? And here's my darling Lucille Ball—isn't she wonderful!"

The Honey Girl

Further conversation with Marie will reveal that "Diana Lynn is marvelous as 'Jane' . . . John Lund is a wonderful 'Al' . . . Jerry Lewis is so-o funny! . . . John's wife, Marie Lund, is the most beautiful girl . . . Cy Howard's Airdale is the cleverest and the darlingest dog. . . ." And there isn't a person in the world that Marie doesn't call "honey" with sincerest regard.

How does she stay so completely amiable? She'll just laugh and remonstrate, "Oh, honey!" if you ask her. But producer Howard has a theory about her. "This one," he indicates Marie, who tries to look solemn, "has found out that she can win without fighting. She'll say, 'Yes honey,' and then do what she wanted to in the first place." Howard cites the case of the hat as an example. "Irma," he insisted when Marie showed up in a chapeau, "wouldn't

Commentator-Author-Explorer Carveth Wells Is Surrounded by Souvenirs of His Past Globe-Trotting Experiences

▲ RAFFLES II, a mynah bird from Malay Peninsula, is Wells's constant at-home companion. The playful bird joins the commentator for breakfast; after only two weeks of domestication had learned to say, "Hello, darling."

▼ UNDER THE MAGNIFYING GLASS is a tiny carved ivory elephant. Comparison with the match-stick reveals the minuteness of the object. Wells knows of only two others in this country, one of which belongs to him.

▲ WELLS DEMONSTRATES a Malayan rain pipe, an eerie-sounding instrument that accompanies all expeditions. The native who plays it is considered indispensable to the party, as it is he who starts and stops the rain. "Either way," smiles Wells, "he is able to take credit for it."

ONLY a few of the many treasures collected throughout his world travels by Carveth Wells are represented on this page. Wells, friendly, whimsical, regards his possessions with the true affection of a collector. His fascinating home in Brentwood is a dream come true for the traveler. He is surrounded by the objects that represent the experiences he's had and the countries he has visited.

From the primitive pottery of the hairy Ainus, the Japanese bear-worshipping aborigines, to the delicate craftsmanship of the Chinese and Indian artisans in wood and metals, the house abounds in interesting objects.

Prized Possession

"If there was ever a fire here, that's the first thing I'd try to save," he says, indicating a large, beautifully carved Chinese chest. Its contents are almost fairy-tale treasures of rare silks and satins, embroidery of bright silken, gold and silver thread. Many of the materials are ceremonial and bridal garments.

▼ WELLS'S COMBINATION film library, lab and projection room is complete in every detail. The film cans contain sixteen- and thirty-five-millimeter movies of thirty years of traveling, and most are irreplaceable.

▼ THIS SARI, draped by Indian women over their heads and shoulders, is one of Wells's favorite possessions. It was made of silver dollars which were beaten into narrow strips and then laced over net. (Rothschild photos.)

▲ AN ARCHER CAN HIT just what he is aiming at if he can keep the bow from wagging around as he draws the arrow, Harry claims. Here he demonstrates correct stance. (NBC-Zeigler photo.)

▲ AFTER RELEASING the arrow Harry allows his hand to rest on his face for a moment, for removing the hand immediately would spoil the shot. Notice the arm guard which prevents burns.

▲ FOUR BULLS-EYES! Not bad for a fellow who took up archery because he was bored with golf. Target shooting now lies in the past and Harry has advanced to the more daring skill of "spot shooting."

HARK the hunter who approaches with the quiver and bow! It's Harry von Zell, otherwise familiar as announcer and comedian on NBC's "Eddie Cantor Show," who has now stepped to the front as an archer.

No longer do comedians heckle him as they watch him trudging across the greens of Lakeside Country Club, setting up flags for targets. For he has proved his adept aim . . . even though it still amazes him.

Harry, who several years ago grew tired of the game of golf, was asked by his friend Howard Hill, one of the world's greatest archers (he has shot nearly every species of prey on the North American continent), "Why don't we play a game that I can beat you at?" Harry consented, and the sport turned out to be archery.

Big Laugh

At first friends were greatly amused as they saw him laden with archery equipment, but the laughter subsided when he accepted a sudden bet made by Bob Hope. Said Hope, who had just returned from a game of golf, "Look, I'll bounce this golf ball on the ground and we'll see if you can hit it." Said von Zell. "Okay." Hope threw the ball down, von Zell drew the bow (praying to himself that he could at least raise some dust fairly close to the ball), released the arrow and tore off the cover on the tiny ball! Said Hope. "Well, I'll be . . . !" To which von Zell replied, "Yes." The rest of the spectators gasped mildly, "Gee!" No longer do they laugh.

Von Zell uses mostly a bow with a ninety-five-pound pull. He is a "spot shooter" and has been instructed by Hill to shoot from all positions, lying down flat, on the side, stomach, and crouched on his knees. He insists there is no trick in hitting the target, but the main idea is that if you can pull the bow correctly, you're bound to hit what you're aiming at.

Word of Warning

He stresses good equipment and the ability to keep the bow from wiggling as it is pulled back. The steadiness is achieved by constant practice and getting the muscles accustomed to the exertion. He gives the warning that pipe smokers should leave their pipes at home when they go out to shoot. Harry knows from a painful experience that is the best thing to do.

Learned Lesson

"Howard Hill had constantly told me to take my pipe out of my mouth when I was shooting," he recalled, wincing, "but I didn't listen, thinking surely that nothing could happen." But it did . . . the string hit

RADIO creates wonderful illusions. Take the case of Mutual-Don Lee's Tuesday night "Count of Monte Cristo" adventures. The desired atmosphere is mid-eighteenth-century France when the Dumas-created nobleman carved a path of truth and justice with his flashing sword. It becomes obvious that producer-director Jaime del Valle and writer Anthony Ellis must do a great deal of research to come up with an authentic script each week. Their exhaustive studies into this period of French history have given them the ability to give a faithful characterization to the "Count of Monte Cristo" and his compatriots. Presented here pictorially is the way that del Valle and Ellis hope the "Count" principals sound to listeners; then they take you behind the scenes to show you how the cast actually looks.

Most of them are no longer available anywhere.

Wells started collecting more than thirty years ago, before war and poverty had taken their toll of native crafts.

His collection of miniature elephant pieces started because he considered the animal good luck for him. As an engineer in Malay, he had used them as work animals. The mantelpiece of his fireplace in Brentwood is covered with elephants in precious stones, metals and glass. Most of them have their trunks lowered. The popular superstition that it's bad luck to own an elephant figurine with a lowered trunk doesn't hold as far as Wells is concerned. "An elephant lifts his trunk only when he's getting ready to charge," he smiles, "and that's bad luck for anyone who happens to get in his path."

A huge library including many travel books and copies of the volumes that he has authored would be the next choice for survival in Wells's mythical "fire." He's particularly sentimental about a book he won as a school prize when he was a small boy.

Wells Books

Wells was born in Surrey, England, studied at London University to be a mechanical and civil engineer. Six years in Malay, surveying the route of the east coast railway, resulted in his first books, a field engineer's handbook and a volume about the country. Other Wells books include "Raffles, the Bird Who Thinks He's a Person," an entertaining tale of the famous talking mynah bird that Wells and his wife Zetta had for many years; "Panamexico" (Mexican and Central American travels); "Around the World with Bobby and Betty," a children's book; "North of Singapore" (Malay, Japan and China). "Kapoot," perhaps his best-known work, contains the fascinating sub-head, "the narrative of a journey from Leningrad to Mount Ararat in search of Noah's Ark!"

No word about the Wells menage would be complete without mention of Raffles II, successor to the late Raffles, perhaps the most famous bird ever known. The new mynah, secured from Malay by Wells's son-in-law, an airline pilot, had lived with Wells for only two weeks before he was able to chirp "Hello, darling" with complete appropriateness. He is good-tempered and playful and is learning quickly.

Just outside the front porch of Wells's home is a small but compact room full of the film that the explorer-commentator has shot during his travels throughout the past thirty years. Some of it is that old, and most of it is irreplaceable. He believes that his film on Czarist and Soviet Russia is unique, in that so little footage of that country has been available for many years. He owns two projectors, and at present is editing his entire film library, looking toward the time he can present it on television. As a pioneer member of early New York television days, Carveth Wells added that new world of exploration to his experiences many years ago!

the pipe and Harry consequently said he felt as if all the teeth in his head were being yanked out. He leaves his pipe at home now.

A pleasant sport that occupies much of his leisure time is rabbit hunting at night. Armed with bow and arrow, Harry and companions ride the hills in pursuit of game. "The first time I shot a rabbit I nearly died myself," he remembered. "But I felt so much better when Howard explained that every animal shot is used and not just killed for the sport."

He has yet to try knocking things out of human hands or off of people's heads. Claims he gets just too nervous even when he thinks about it. But the day will probably come when he will fortify his strength and neatly pluck the feather from some lady's chapeau!

LETTERS TO SHUT-INS

Jovial Jack McElroy, emcee of ABC's "Breakfast in Hollywood," launched a one-man campaign to have more letters written to shut-ins, invalids, and hospitalized persons throughout the country. McElroy states that he will match each letter his listeners write to individuals with a personal note of his own.

wear a hat." Marie agreed. Next day she left the hat home. "Then for two weeks she wore it every day," he says, indicting her sternly. "Oh, honey," says Marie.

Eventually, everyone winds up on Marie's side. She got her first big break in the memorable "Boy Meets Girl!" in spite of the fact that a very powerful actress was gunning for the same role. Every worker on the movie lot had been pulling for Marie. Her newest movie, "My Friend Irma," followed the same pattern. An extremely popular movie queen was announced for the part—Marie's friends and fans flooded the studio with protests.

In the matter of money, Marie's rumored to be unbelievably open-handed. A recent issue of a national magazine carried a story on how she has handed out cash to every hard-luck tale in Hollywood. She got begging letters from all over the country when the article appeared. She forwarded them to the author of the story.

WHO IS WHO?

The confusion between the names of brothers Wendell and Ken Niles reached a recent climax when producer Hal Wallis got mixed up and chose Ken as the announcer for the movie version of CBS's "My Friend Irma." Wendell, the announcer on the radio show, was left out in the cold by the agent, who didn't know the difference.
