

Transmitter Power tubes circa 1925, the improved-design second largest glass RF power tubes with large anode(plate) contact outside for water cooling system which can dissipate more power