JOSEPH LEVINE, Director of Television Programs and Operations for WHDH-TV, has been named by Governor John A. Volpe to a special commission to study the problem of pre-trial reporting. The commission was created last year by the Legislature. Its mission will be to investigate the "feasibility of prohibiting the making — or publishing — of certain public statements concerning pending criminal proceedings."

' QUESTION OF
ON WHDH-AM
TUESDAYS IN MAY

The first of four programs entitled "A Question of Sales Taxes" will be presented on WHDH-AM, Tuesday, May 3 from 7:00-7:30 PM.

The program will follow the format of the successful "A Question of Taxes," on WHDH-AM from February 25 - April 12 this year. Listeners will be invited to call in to 288-5018 and 288-5019 with their sales tax questions.

Mr. Howard F. Greene, CPA, and a principal in the J. K. Lasser Company, Boston, will serve as moderator just as he has for "A Question of Taxes." Other participants on "A Question of Sales Taxes" will be Guy Rizzotto, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation for Massachusetts and Nicholas Metaxas, Assistant Chief, Legal Bureau, Massachusetts Department of Corporation and Taxation.

Listeners will also be offered a new question-and-answer booklet regarding operation of the sales tax law, as prepared by the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation. The booklet may be obtained by writing to: Sales Tax, WHDH, Boston, Mass. 02125.

Bill Harrington and Andy MacMillan report on "The Demonstrators" May 2 (7:00-8:00 PM) on WHDH-AM. This special "Affairs of State" investigative documentary will seek to probe and assess the origins, motivation, leadership and objectives of the current wave of protest demonstrations against government policies. It will be viewed by both active participants in the demonstration movement and experts in the fields of foreign relations, extremist movements, law enforcement and others. "The Demonstrators" is written and produced by John Connelly.

ON WHDH-TV
SUN., MAY 1 (10 PM)

All America remembers the voices of the three performers shown on the front cover of this week's "On The Air." Do you? If you don't . . . they are Lucille Ball, Bing Crosby and Arthur Godfrey.

They and other stars will be featured on "The Magic of Broadcasting," Sunday, May 1 (10:00-11:00 PM), on WHDH-TV, Channel 5, via the CBS Television Network. This color special will be an entertainment documentary on the history of radio and television from the twenties to the present. Host of the program will be Arthur Godfrey and it will star, besides Bing and Lucille, Gale Gordon, Sheldon Leonard, Rod Serling, John Scott Trotter, the We Five singers plus the sounds and sights of the past.

All of us who go back a few years can well remember the "old days" of radio. Such sounds as Billy Jones and Ernie Hare ("The Happiness Boys"); Major Bowes and the Original Amateur Hour; the squeaking door of "Inner Sanctum;" the bass voice reminding us that "The Shadow Knows;" Cecil B. deMille's voice announcing "Lux Presents Hollywood" and Henry Aldrich's "Coming, Mother!" Everyone in those days waited for the familiar theme of "Suspense," "Gang-busters," "Dr. Christian," "The First Night-er," "Jack Armstrong" and "Little Orphan Annie." All the women held back tears as "Portia Faced Life," and "Mary Noble, Backstage Wife" fought to hold her man and "Stella Dallas" brought up her daughter against wordly odds. All these and more will be remembered on the program.

Reminders of television's greater moments from the past with Kukla, Fran and Ollie; Milton Berle; Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca; Alistair Cooke; Jerry Lester and Dagmar, and "Howdy Doody."

From news and special events, the faces and voices of Edward R. Murrow, H. V. Kaltenborn, Raymond Gram Swing, Gabriel Heatter and others.

Bing Crosby reminisces about the old days with his long-time musical director, John Scott Trotter, recalling some of the songs Bing made famous. He sings portions of them between chats about some of the stars from yesteryear. The big band era is recalled by Bing and John Scott in a delightful "what-ever-happened-to?" sequence.

Other highlights of "The Magic of Broadcasting" are a behind-the-scenes visit with Lucille Ball and Gale Gordon on the set of "The Lucy Show;" a tour with Sheldon Leonard as he visits the sets and edits three of his popular shows, "The Dick Van Dyke Show," "Andy Griffith Show" and "Gomer Pyle;" and Rod Serling commenting on the demise of the live television dramas, and the We Five, new musical group, sings "Beyond The Sea."
