TEDDY FOSCO AND HIS ORCHESTRA FORSAKES POWERHOUSE ORCHESTRA to Re-form As New-Style Outfit

TEDDY FOSCO, AT PRESENT FLOWING ONE OF THE LARGEST "ORCHESTRA" OUTLETS THIS SIDE OF THE ATLANTIC, WILL SOON BE REFORMING HIS OWN ORCHESTRA. THIS TIME HE WILL BE REFORMING HIS OWN ORCHESTRA IN A MORE MODERN, REFINED AND UP-TO-DATE MANNER.

Following up for some time his well-known, exciting reputation of eight years, five years and four years, Teddy proposes to re-concept, after intensive rehearsals, with a new and somewhat novel outfit comprising four trumpets, five saxes and three rhythm.

Some explanation is obviously necessary for this drastic change. Mr. FOSCO simply has changed his mind, and he has decided to make his own orchestra. He has decided to make his own orchestra. He has decided to make his own orchestra.

"I was the conductor of the large band," says FOSCO, "but I found that I was not getting the most out of it. I was not getting the most out of it. I was not getting the most out of it."

He is now going to be a much more complete unit of three main instruments. He is now going to be a much more complete unit of three main instruments. He is now going to be a much more complete unit of three main instruments.

"I have given this whole band," says FOSCO, "a new look. I have given this whole band, a new look. I have given this whole band, a new look."

"The band of the new band," says FOSCO, "is now going to be a much more complete unit of three main instruments. He is now going to be a much more complete unit of three main instruments."

"Franklin Reed will remain with me," says FOSCO, "and he will be a part of the new band. He will be a part of the new band. He will be a part of the new band."

"I have many varied plans," says FOSCO, "and I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them."

NAT ALLEN INTO CIRO'S WHILE WNNICK HOLIDAYS

ONCE AGAIN FOR THE THIRD YEAR IN SUCCESSION, NAT ALLEN AND HIS ORCHESTRA HAVE SECURED THE MUCH-DESIRED WEST END DATE OF WICKIE'S NAT WILL BEGINS FOR TWO WEEKS COMMENCING JULY 26, DURING THE PERIOD WHEN MAURICE KING AND HIS ORCHESTRA WILL BE ON VACATION.

Not only is the securing of the "Stage Show" show-window a big feather in Nat's cap, but this year's engagement should be a particularly interesting one for Nat, since his period of touring at Giro's will coincide with the staging of the Olympic Games.

MAURICE BORMAN IS NEW "M.M." RADIO REVIEWER

THE NEWS (extensively reported in the "M.M." Music last week) that George Trade had resigned Giro's as vocalist and arranger. Trade, who had unfortunately had to sever his connections with the popular radio critic. The last contribution will be found on page 3 of this issue. In publishing the first contribution from Maurice Borman, who is widely known, greatly respected and a well-known radio critic. Through the long illness and recovery of the "M.M." we have not only his songs and observations but also his fertile and well-contrived intellect in every kind of dance music written with a light and amusing style (his criticism in the "M.M." attracts nationwide attention). He is also a composer and arranger and has always been in the forefront of modernizing and reconstructing the music of the past. We are sure that his constructive "M.M." will be a most interesting and useful one to our readers. It will be found on page 3 of this issue.

PHIL HARRIS DUE HERE AS U.S. THEATRE "INVASION" GROWS

WEST Sophie Tucker packing them into the London Casino at the Palladium, the American "invasion" of our West End theatre continues with unrelenting speed and, as several many of the leading American artists to come to the West End.

THESE PROMINENT AMERICAN BANDLEADERS ARE DUE TO VISIT LONDON DURING THE SUMMER. THE FIRST OF THESE TO BE HERE WILL BE THE GROUP WHO WILL APPEAR AT A BOLE ATTRACTION AT THE LONDON PALLADIUM ON JUNE 21. MICHAEL BROTHERS, ETC. Also at the Palladium, starting on July 10, will be another band- leader, whose name is a thrice-repeated name. It is the name of millions of fans on this side of the Atlantic through the medium of his recorded and live broadcasts. He is the one and only Phil "Rock" and Alf Brodsky.

He will be performing one of America's grandest comedians in Bill Will, who is also a popular radio star. He is also a popular radio star. He is also a popular radio star.

PHIL HARRIS, with his band, is due to appear at the London Palladium on June 21. He will be performing one of America's grandest comedians in Bill Will, who is also a popular radio star.

IVY BENSON OFF TO SKEGNESS THEN ITALY

JUST back from her phenomenally successful night week at Giro's, Ivy Benson, who has just returned from her tour of Germany, will be leaving for Skegness, this Saturday (5th) for the season with her Leslie Band. Her band was taken ill with influenza during her tour, and had to be replaced by her German tour, and had to be replaced by her German tour, and had to be replaced by her German tour.

"I have many varied plans," says Benson, "and I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them."

"I have many varied plans," says Benson, "and I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them. I am sure that I will be able to do them."

ALLEN DOUBLES

NAT, personified, is not otherwise completely fixed, but it is already going to be a most interesting one for Nat, since his period of touring at Giro's will coincide with the staging of the Olympic Games.

At the conclusion of the week at Giro's, the orchestra will undertake a number of one-night stands, including engagements at the Seafront, Grosvenor House, Watford, Wembley, and other venues.

Hot from the star-studded sidewalks of New York's Tin Pan Alley come Hits and Pieces

CHETINOR, Quaverite, and here's another gem from my New York. They're two of the best of my Tin Pan Alley friends and such a lovely melody. It's a real gem, including Edie Kelly, Wally Moody, Dorothy Clayton, and Joe and Eddie who are slowly but surely breaking down the barrier of Tin Pan Alley. This book is 'strictly from 'Americondon'

Jazz, jazzmen, jive joints and jostling make up the story of famous impresario Eddie Condon by MAX JONES

Eddie Condon, at forty-three one of the busiest men in jazz, is a slick dresser, smart talker and general live-wire.

Condon is a notorious wisecracker and very much a professional personality, amusing in his own derisive fashion.

Attest and one of the most successful and profitable of the greatest London exploits of the past few years.

Condon's record is not a long one. He himself is a man who has written down his life and is so far as I can tell the only one.

Condon is the subject of Messrow's book, but his story is a long one. It is a story of a man who has written down his life and is so far as I can tell the only one.

Geraldo Writes

WE have received the following interesting letter from band-leader Geraldo, in which he puts forward a suggestion that will be greeted with general approval.

What I should like to see in this country is really keen competition among band-leaders to raise our standards of musicianship and appreciation of music generally.

MU-BBC Dispute

THE dispute between the Musicians' Union and the BBC has taken its most serious turn with the ban on all Casual Studio Engagements as from July 1st.

The Union has a difficult and thankless task in pressing its demands for the general public—never exactly sympathetic to the so-called "infected" ways of the certain business.

What does the man in the street know of "casual studio engagements" outside broadcasts, "relays," and the like? All he knows is that musicians are "always grouting."

Another suggestion is that the BCO is making plans to try programmes from abroad, which brings up the question of whether the BCO should be active as a touring organization...

That the BCO is preparing to make a full-scale tour of the United Kingdom is suggested by the fact that the BCO is planning to visit the United States...

Decisions were made from which it is clear that the Committee for the BCO is behind the MU in the dispute.

It is expected that the Musicians' Union will be able to secure a background and cause of the dispute in its members and to the BCO very shortly.

What can be done about Archer St.?

A Plea to Sir Stafford

SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS has given notice that he proposes to move amendments, during the Report on the Finance Bill, to reduce, and in some cases to abolish, the Purchase Tax on goods taxed in his recent Budget.

Those Amateur Songs!

NEVER a week passes without letters arriving from aspiring song-writers beseeching their inability to "get a hearing" from music publishers.

Frequently these letters are accompanied by the writers' latest efforts—and the reasons for their failure are immediately apparent.

EVERY weekday afternoon, it is my job to visit Archer Street searching for stories from the musicians who congregate there.

They've never seemed very concerned about it, apparently. But quite a large body of opinion has pointed out the cultural value of music to the country.

Mr. Orrell refuses any such prodigious amounting, but that is among the dance-band musicians who play for the Squadron.

ANOTHER HONOUR FOR HUMPHREY LYTELLO

To Represent Britain at Belgian Jazz Festival

A FRENCH decision to come the way of the promising Humphrey Lyttelton Band is the invitation they have received from the Hot Club of Belgium to represent England in the European Jazz Festival.

The Festival, which will be conducted along somewhat similar lines to those of the White Nights in London, will feature jazz bands and orchestras.

PURCHASE TAX by Henry R. WEILL and the Trade

VERY musician is aware of the unfair disadvantage to which he is subjected by having to pay 6 1/2% purchase tax on the tools of his trade...

Whitney Straight buys himself a new clarinet today. He pays no purchase tax as would Charlie Robbery, regardless of the fact that the former is a millionaire and the latter may be earning less than his last-five income limit.

As an example let us examine the various stages in the manufacture and distribution of a record...

Our bands reap praises in the 'land of corn'
An account of their recent visit to the States by
OSCAR RABIN & HARRY DAVIS

Apprehension

WE who are getting old and grey in this business cannot help having mixed feelings about the visit of Duke Ellington to this country. It is not that we do not welcome him; far from it we are honoured to have in our midst once again, after all his long absence, a man who stands, and has stood throughout the years for everything that is best and most progressive in the world of jazz.

On the other hand we can well remember his triumphant season in 1933 when he came over with his orchestra and brought to this country new-sounding things that were entirely his own. It was this country that was his first, and it was this country that he left to go to a more remote one, where he spent a long time of his life. It is not that we do not welcome him; far from it we are honoured to have in our midst once again, after all his long absence, a man who stands, and has stood throughout the years for everything that is best and most progressive in the world of jazz.

WE have just arrived back after a five week holiday in the United States and, mutually speaking, we feel that the best description of our return is that we have come back from the "corn belt". The reason is in the grip of corn, and from what we heard of the orcharders over there in Britain and America, we feel that the best description of our return is that we have come back from the "corn belt".

However, a political move will certainly be under way soon to arrange for musicians to continue to receive a royalty through the "union" for every copy of their recordings sold. This is a very important move and one which will be of great benefit to musicians in both countries. It is a move which will be of great benefit to musicians in both countries.

Looking back, we can now see how right these men were. They retained their place at the top of the jazz scene by their sincerity and the passing of time has proved their point, for they have brought to this country new-sounding things that were entirely their own. It is not that we do not welcome him; far from it we are honoured to have in our midst once again, after all his long absence, a man who stands, and has stood throughout the years for everything that is best and most progressive in the world of jazz.

... Franking out to be in coming to London for a holiday round about the end of July. A happy old Oscar, Elnora and Harry taken at the RGA Studios.

It is an oft-mentioned in ornament and it made us feel very small to think that our profession was not something like that. We are not something like that. We are not something like that. We are not something like that.

WE stayed in New York for a few days and then we flew to Hollywood. Oh, what a time it was. We stayed in New York for a few days and then we flew to Hollywood. Oh, what a time it was.

Over the Grand Canyon we were so frightened that we honestly thought our feet had come, and by the time we reached Hollywood, we could hardly stand up.

It was very welcome that Beryl Davis gave us at the airport when we arrived five hours late in an eight-hour flight. We were very tired and had to go to bed very early again, and we all went to Beryl's apartment.

... we met everybody under Beryl's auspices. ... we met everybody under Beryl's auspices. ... we met everybody under Beryl's auspices.

U.S. RECORDING BAN IS NOT ENDING!
Latest American News Rushed from New York
by LEONARD FEATHER

THE RECORDING BAN WILL CONTINUE! CONTRARY TO THE MANY ALLEGATIONS THAT THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS, AT A CONVENTION LAST WEEK, ISSUED A STATEMENT EMPHASIZING AGAIN THAT IT HAD NO INTENTION OF SIGNING ANY AGREEMENT WITH THE RECORDING COMPANIES, THIR, THEORETICALLY AT LEAST, THE SITUATION IS THE SAME AS IT WAS AT THE END OF 1947, WHEN PRESIDENT JAMES C. PATTERSON SAID: "NO RECORDING EVER AGAIN!"

Meanwhile, a mystery surrounds the classic recordings of the Mercury records with instrumental music. These records, which were recorded in England, were dubbed in here after the war. The records, which were recorded in England, were dubbed in here after the war.

Leader of the Band

RAMSGATE NAME BANDS

IMPRESARIO Phillip Mowbray has certainly put the Cornishham Ballroom, Ramsgate, right back on the dancing map this season.

He is presenting an unbroken British leading band of his own, consisting of 12 musicians, including two horn players and two drummers, to their respective instruments.

Already, Chief Mowbray, the band leader, has been to the Channel Islands and has recently returned to Ramsgate after a week at the "The Coronation" and has been trading in the Channel Islands.

The remaining band for 1948 is composed of the following:

Mr. Mowbray, Chief Mowbray (saxophone), Mr. Mowbray (clarinet), Mr. Mowbray (trumpet), Mr. Mowbray (trombone), Mr. Mowbray (drums), Mr. Mowbray (percussion).

PROVINCIAL PARS

ELECTRIC guitarist Harry Park, who has recently returned from his tour of the provinces, has been secured by the club.

Mr. Park is a member of the "The Electric Guitar Club" and has been playing in the club since his return from his tour of the provinces.

He is a very talented player and has been playing in the club since his return from his tour of the provinces.

UNION PICKETS AT GLASGOW HALLS

THE dispute over local rates which started last year was again revived on Monday when union pickets blocked access to Glasgow City Hall and other public buildings.

The pickets were demanding a 10% increase in local rates and a reduction in the number of council housing units.
