RADIO GUIDE

The season of hot record releases has not started yet and therefore a closer look at our European Airplay Top 50 will disclose a lot of re-entries. Especially Germany and France had special programs on the records of '84 and this combined with the lack of new releases makes up for a lot of German and French re-entries. Biggest movers in the European Airplay this week are Frankie Goes, Paul Young, Pat Benatar's We Belong (just released in the UK, but already out for weeks in the rest of Europe), Sade's Smooth Operator (mainly due to France and Austria) and France is also reacting very strongly to Hall & Oates' Out Of Touch (their new one Method Of Modern Dance has just been released in other countries).

Some new releases worth your attention are in the first place the latest Phil Collins smash Sussudio, a dazzling piece of funky action; English band The Colourfield, based around ex-Fun Boy 3 Terry Hall, have their 3rd single out Thinking Of You. Their two earlier releases flopped and this one deserves to get your airplay. For those who thought that And That's No Lie was the strongest track on the last Heaven 17 album, it will be a pleasure to know that this track has just been released on 7" and 12". Further new upcoming products from Rockwell (He's A Cobra), The Commodores (Nightshift), another tribute to Marvin Gaye after Missing You by Diana Ross; Steve Wonder is making a new year's plea not to drive drunk; and Malcolm McLaren's Carmen is starting to get tips from our correspondents. The song is from his new 6 track album Fans and features another striking sound mix of opera (Bizet) and funk.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Our European correspondents are picking up on 2 Sheena Easton singles at the moment. The first one is Strut charted in Germany and the second one, Sugar Walls, is now picking up airplay in Italy. This funky track was written and co-produced by a certain Mr. Alexander Nevermind. Well, never mind the name, but rumour has it that it is Prince who wrote and co-produced this dance track...

Some more news for your dance corner: after the unique cooperation with James Brown, the godfather of Hip Hop, Afrika Bambaataa lined up with the notorious Johnny Lydon for the rap duet World Destruction. Check it out! EuroCrossOver Record of the Week is definitely Say Yeah from the Dutch disco band The Limit. The record is breaking in the English chart at the moment and is also charted in Billboard's Hot Dance/Disco chart and after two weeks at no 62 in the European Top 100 Singles.

After some modest success in Holland, Spanish artist Ivan is now breaking the French and Belgian charts with his Gazebo influenced Fotonovela (this week new at 98 in the Top 100 Singles).

Further strong contenders for crossover include Boney M.'s cooperation with Bobby Farrell, together they deliver a very simple but effective sing-a-long in Happy Song; and Raf(f)'s new single Change Your Mind already charted in Germany and Italy.

PRIME MOVERS

Prime movers on the Singles front are Madonna, moving into the Top 10 this week; Tears For Fears; Sade (Smooth Operator); Thompson Twins; Grandmaster Melle Mel; The Dazz Band and Queen. Highest new entry this week for French singer Douschka, she is charted with two singles in the Top 100. Other new entries: the rockers from Texas with Sharp Dressed Man, Strawberry Switchblade breaking in the UK and picking up radio response in Holland and Belgium at the moment. Linda de Suza and the second successful single from the musical Chess I Know Him So Well.

With regards to the Albums Foreigner move up very high this week from 26 to 6 and due to the release of the movie, the Ghostbuster Soundtrack is picking up a lot of sales around Europe. Further moves for Ultravox, Shakin' Stevens and the Stranglers.

The Italian ensemble Rondo Veneziano are making some chart impact lately, two albums are charted in the European Top 100 and one other is charted in the UK. Further attention should go out to the Scorpions, they have two albums charted in Europe and their latest one Gold Ballads is this week highest entry on the Album front.
