RADIO GUIDE

Just back from sunny Midem we find a lot of exciting new products to listen to. First of all, Junie Morrison comes up with a very irresistible and jumpy sound evoking the same reactions as Rockwell's Somebody's Watching You. Could be big with the right type of promotion. Rock veterans Jimmy Page and Paul Rodgers combine their forces in a band called The Firm and their debut Radioactive proves that the stars of the Sixties still deserve to be heard. Rodgers' strong vocals together with a prominent acoustic guitar give a very pleasant effect and the single should do well on all radio levels. After the duet with Jermaine Jackson, Pia Zadora will have good chances to have a hit on her own with her latest Let's Dance Tonight, another Jack White production. We wonder if the UK will react on this one, but for Continental Europe it is the perfect disco/MOR track. Already in the English charts and one of our sure hits of last week is The Big Sound Authority with their impressive soul anthem This House, operating in much the same way as Dexy's Midnight Runners did some years ago. London Records just released Here I Come, a great vocal performance by reggae singer Barrington Levy. And although reggae in a pure form is still not making a lot of chart impact outside of the UK, this single deserves to be heard by all of you! And if that's not enough, Shinehead (Virgin) gives a crazy and weird interpretation of Jackson's Billy Jean and Junior's Mama Used To Say. Lovers Rock at its best.

It's now or never; John Hiatt's single She Said The Same Things To Me is absolutely great and you should all feel obliged to add this single to your playlist and give him the success he deserves. With the remix of Breakin' Down (done by John Morales and Sergio Munzibal) on the B-side Julia & Co. come up with a rather hollow and unmemorable track called I'm So Happy, not a very solid follow-up for their last years club hit.

A FAITHFUL HOMAGE

Nile Rodgers continues to be world's hottest producer. This time he lines up with Kim Carnes resulting in the smart pop/dance song Invitation To Dance. There is one album that should not remain unnoticed amongst all the major releases of the last few weeks. The Bangles, four girls from the US, have their European debut with All Over The Place on CBS. More about this remarkable album next week. Watch out for Van Halen's leadsinger David Lee Roth with his album Crazy From The Heat, a 4-track EP and a very cheerful and faithful homage to the 60's. Some more albums we like are: Flesh and The Pan (Early Morning Wake Up Call) another infectious collection of dancesongs with a strong positive beat. Our favourite tracks are Midnight Man, Barking At The Moon, the titletrack and Communication Breakdown. Ex-Ph.D. singer Jim Diamond comes up with his own album called Double Crossed, his powerful vocals and the outstanding musicianship makes it very worthwhile to program. In no less than two weeks Mick Jagger made it to no. 3 of the Airplay charts with his Bill Laswell co-produced Just Another Night. And although the reactions on the single differ from correspondent to correspondent, from the extreme negative to the extreme positive, we absolutely love it here!

OPTIMISTIC SINGLE

Newcomers in the European Airplay Top 50 are Hall & Oates Second Big Bam Boom single Method Of Modern Love, the Euro Crossover hit Modern Talking (You're My Heart, You're My Soul), Mader, Julien Clerc and Howard Jones' next optimistic single Things Can Only Get Better. Strong moves this week for Bowie's This Is Not America, Billy Ocean's Loverboy and Commodores' tribute To Marvin Gaye Nightshift, in two weeks at no. 9. The Top 10 of the European Top 100 remains basically the same, but new in the Top 10 is Billy Ocean while Phil Collins is running up, as Sussudio jumps from 24 to no. 11 this week. Other fast movers include The Honeydrippers (in two weeks time up to no. 28), Jermaine Jackson (Do What You Do, this weeks' fastest mover, from 91 to 50) and a big move for Modern Talking. As expected Bowie is this weeks' highest new entry at 43 while Howard Jones is new at 54. Another high entry is for Videokids, an original Dutch production, this week highest entry in the German charts and finding itself safely at a no. 60 spot in the European Top 100 singles.
