Singles Guide

Jean-Jacques Goldman, the French superstar on CBS, is new this week in our Euro-Crossover list. His song Marche Seul is best played single in France (both FM and AM) and already picking up some responses out of France and together with Rita Mitsouko French most commercial export product this moment. Very worth checking into!

French teenybop band Cookie Dingler made a German version of their summerhit of last year Femme Liberee. The new lift is called Unheimlich Stark Die Frau (Ariola) and with its hummable melody very suited for the German speaking markets. In the meantime an English version has also been made. Watch out for Cosa Rosa! This German lady is with her new single Millionenmal (CBS) already a favourite on many German stations. But it definitely needs your consideration as well; a fine sophisticated instrumental setting on which Cosa Rosa's voice is able to make full rocking impact.

BLACK KISSES
After Mai Tai another Dutch girl group is making waves in the US charts. Curtie & The Boombox (RCA) is currently at number 95 with the song Black Kisses Never Make You Blue, written and co-produced by one of our correspondents, Peter Koelwijn (one of Holland's oldest rockers). Another Euro-act A-Ha from Norway are this week at 48 (from 57). This band was signed through Warner Brothers in the US and were no. 1 in their country last year.

The Eurythmics have this week's best played single in Europe although the difference with Tina Turner is very small. The Madonna craze is exploding over Europe with Into The Groove as third best played single in Europe and the two years old Holiday as new addition on many European playlists (see also Highlights). Three singles jump in the Top 10 of the European Airplay, Springsteen (Glory), Baltimore and Kool & The Gang. Hot adds for Ivan (re-entry), Huey Lewis and ofcourse Madonna. Watch out for the duet of Bowie &

Jagger on EMI America out next week!

IN GOOD SHAPE
Another of our records of the week for the band Colourbox; The Moon Is Blue is a very 6T's sounding production with stirring female vocals. Also worthwhile checking into: Mainframe with 5 Minutes, a funky piece with a very good chorus. Warren Mills is the new discovery from Jive, his single Sunshine is written by Full Force (Lisa Lisa) and the kid can really sing! Very much New Edition or even Five Star like but with lots of appeal. Sheila E. is in good shape too, Sister Fate features her voice-hotter than ever in a very percussion-based, hot and jazzy track (from the forthcoming album Romance 1600).

A new no. 1 in Europe! After Opus, Baltimore is the second European production hitting the European Top 100 Singles. The Eurythmics move into the top 10 (5-12) and Cherish is very nearby (11-15). Kate Bush is the highest new entry this week at 30 and charted sofar in UK and Holland.

- Highlights -

UNITED KINGDOM

The most notable event in the UK is undoubtedly the explosion on retail level of nearly the whole Madonna catalogue. Groove is still no 1 and the rereleased Holiday is at 2!. Groove entered last week at 4 which was the highest debuting single for any female artist in the history of the English charts, so reports Gallup. It is also WEA's fastest selling single the last five years. All in all, together with Live Aid and the Springsteen tour (and consequently the rerun on all his albums) the Madonna craze marks the year 1985 as the most prominent musical event (at least in terms of statistics). The domination of dance product is complete with Princess (11-31), Lisa Lisa (26-39) and D Train (27-40) as the fast movers in the English charts this week. The Cars single Drive makes a surprise jump from 32 to 8. Released early in '84 it failed to make much impact but after being shown on the Live Aid telecast the single immediately entered the charts. All the proceeds are for the Ethiopian cause so it deserves your utmost attention. Talking about rereleases (and dance product!), again picking up airplay on UK stations: Dan Hartman (I Can Dream About You), D-Train's You're The One For Me and Maria Vidal's Body Rock. Highest new entries for Kate Bush (9) and the new King single (Alone Without You at 39).

FRANCE

As stated last week, summer in France means static playlists and consequently steady and predictable sales over lengthy periods without any real sales excesses (like e.g. Madonna in the UK; see above). The Top 3 remains unchanged with Opus on top and Rita Mitsouko and Gold as close followers. Hardly any movers apart from Lune De Miel with the sweet MOR song Paradise Mi Amor and Baltimora. Best sold album still is Dire Straits, followed by Springsteen, Johnny Halliday, Supertramp, Sade and Sting. Jean-Jaques Goldman (frontpage tip this week) is still best played single both on FM and AM and Sting now finally explodes also on AM level. Other adds on AM include Baltimora, Lune De Miel and Patrick Bruel (Comment Ca Va Pour Vous?). Al Corley (Dresses) gets heavy coverage on FM as does Thierry Pastor, Rah Band and new this week Kid Creole and Howard Jones (Mama).

GERMANY

A new no. 1 in Germany for Tina and Falco back to 2. Sandra is at 3 (from 8) and Madonna is new in the top 10 (7-12). The biggest mover however (and Germany is the first Euro-country to really break it) is Denise LaSalle with her cover of My Toot Toot (11-64!). Another remake of this song also enters the charts, although in the lower regions (44), from Leinemann and is aptly titled Mein Tuut Tuut (see also Switzerland). Further moves for Eurythmics (12-58) and Kool & The Gang (19-28). Highest new entry for Blind Date, the German group on Ariola whose single Your Heart Keeps Burning was one of our favourite crossovers a few months ago. Other entries: Corey Hart (Surrender) and Max-Him (Lady Fantasy, on Zyx). Polydor will be very happy with the new album of the symphonic rock formation Saga; Behaviour went straight into the Album charts at 9 (!). U2's Fire reenters at 24, followed by the soundtrack Mad Max at 25. The German airwaves keep on playing the Tina single (95 plays! according to Mediacontrol) but Kool & The Gang and Two Of Us are prime contenders for best played single next week. Radio adds for Chris Rea, Bruce and The Cure. Bubbling under the Airplay charts are Kate Bush, DeBarge, John Parr and The Untouchables.

SWITZERLAND

Due to its geographical position, both Italian and German productions are obviously heavily featured in the Swiss charts (covering the German speaking areas in Switzerland). The German formation Bad Boys Blue is currently up to no. 2 (from 5) and is on its way to dethrone Tina from the no. 1 spot. Other German productions faring well include Round One (with their tribute to Sylvester Stallone's creation Rocky: Theme From Rocky), Falco (another tribute!), the big European across the board hit Tarzan Boy (new in Europe at 1!), Opus (with two songs; Live and the live version of Flyin' High), Modern Talking and Moti Special. Italian product is represented by Valerie Dore with It's So Easy (the Germans are very charmed by her somewhat childish vocals; The Night was a big hit last year), Eros Ramazzotti and Silver Pozzoli. Interesting to see that the (original) version of My Toot Toot (by Rockin' Sidney) is in the Top 10, as the version by Denise LaSalle gets better responses in the rest of Europe.

AUSTRIA

Nearly half of the Austrian Top 30 is claimed by German artists with Frank Duval on top (Austria is the only country where Give Me Your Love is charted) and Modern Talking, Bad Boys Blue (new at 5), Peter Cornelius and Falco taking other important positions. New entries for Baltimora (7), Round One (18), Tina (19) and Phil Carmen (29). Album entries for Nina Hagen (13), Nena (21), Style Council (23), Sting (24) and Alice (26).

BENELUX

Looking at the combined charts of Belgium and Holland it is striking to see the similarity of both hitparades. Nearly all records that chart in Holland have equally good positions in Belgium with some exceptions on local product (it is more common for Dutch product to cross the border than vice versa) and French records (only charting in Belgium). No less than 21 records are charted in both markets with the best movers for Baltimora, Faltermeyer, Madonna and the Dutch singer Benny Nyman with his summer hit Waarom Fluister Ik Je Naam Nog (Who do I still whisper your name). Compared to his homecountry Chris Rea is very popular in the Benelux. This week strong moves in HOLLAND for Baltimora, Madonna, Eurythmics, UB40 and Kool & The Gang. Strong new entry for Dutch most popular singer Andre Hazes with a medley of some classic songs. Best played singles at the moment for Eurythmics, local artists Georgie Davis (with the Stevie Wonder sounding Black Star) and Roberto Jaccetti. New additions to the playlist for Mainframe, Albert West (Dutch), Andre Hazes and the socca music from Arrow (So Long). New entries expected for next week: Propaganda (Machinery), Anita Meyer, The Cure and Rick James (Glow). BELGIUM is unique for having 2 James Bond themes charted; the Duran version is even beaten this week by a Belgian group called Zinno with their hip hop tribute What's Your Name (B-b-b-b-Bond). It moves this week from 41 to 11 and is together with Madonna and Faltermeyer Belgian's prime movers.

MADONNA MANIA

The Madonna rage is very clearly reflected in the European Top 100 Albums; her 2nd lp moves into the Top 10 (from 18) after following quite an erratic path the last few months. In its 12th week it hit Top 10 and after staying there for 3 consecutive weeks, it wandered 4 1/2 months in the Top 30, only to enter again this week. Meanwhile her debut album moves up from 64 to 57.

The Top 10 remains very fixed with the exception of Bryan Ferry moving up to no. 2. Apart from the hunger victims in Africa U2 profited the most from the Live Aid event, the Fire album moves up again in its 43th week to no. 18 (from 35). Talking about long charting albums, the German artist Herbert Groenemeyer has the longest charted up-to-date; his 4630 Bochum album is already for 63 weeks in the charts. Other long charting albums for ladies Tina Turner (60 weeks), Sade (54 weeks) and Jennifer Rush (44 weeks); now finally also making chart impact in the UK!).

The highest entry this week solely due to Germany, comes from the symphonic rock formation Saga; other important entries for Laura Branigan (charted in Germany, France and Denmark) and the Mad Max soundtrack (54; and so far only charted in Germany).

An album very worthwhile programming is the new Manhattan Transfer, entitled Vocalese. The oldest of all instruments, the human voice, is set against a brilliant instrumental concept. Jon Hendricks wrote the lyrics on existing jazz melodies and with the help of a lot of well known jazz musicians (e.g. the Count Basie Orchestra) the group shines best in tracks like Another Night In Tunisia (the famous Gillespie track), Meet Benny Bailey and Ray's Rockhouse.

While the 1100 Bel Air Place album is still charted in France Julio Iglesias releases another album entitled Libra which will undoubtedly make a big hole in the Album charts next week.

WILL EUROPE ACCEPT SYNDICATION?

Although syndication is already a very established part of radio business in the US and various other world markets, it still remains to be seen whether this form of programming can reach similar levels of penetration in the European countries. Started many years ago, syndication really became an important factor in the US approximately 5 years ago and not only did it help many local stations to increase their program quality (and so their audience ratings) but it certainly contributed to the development of new technology. Not in the least syndication gave a major boost to the need of satellite programming as the fast movement in the pop- and rockworld asked for a fast transmission and simultaneous broadcast around the nation.

The major difference between the US and Europe of course is the very commercial status of media in the US. In America it is simply a matter of "buy and sell", of "ratings and survival". In Europe however most major radio stations are still either fully or partly government owned. Also there is much less competition in some of the Central European countries, as whole countries or cities just have one major station. With the political role these stations are playing, music is not always on top of the daily priority lists for the decision makers and managers. But most of all the difference is that these stations are not working on a profit and loss responsibility in which managers need to show improving audience ratings as well as good profits. It unfortunately also causes a lack of professional managements and program directors in some areas.

During the last few years syndication has become a known phenomena as the more progressive stations start to get involved. We could also say that in Europe cable radio, (which is definitely on the move... although slowly) and the activities of free- pirate stations have increased the need of quality for the majors. One way to do this could be syndication although it is fair to say that this will never penetrate in such quantities as on the other side of the Atlantic Ocean.

Especially in the UK, Italy and lately France radio leaders are getting interested and involved in syndication and are looking for the established ways but also to manners more suitable for the problems of European radio. One fact is clear: More and more stations are emerging and so is the need for programs. One of the most obvious advantages of syndication is the fact that smaller stations can acquire top quality shows which they would never be able to produce themselves, while it can also cut down on costs for personal. The major US syndicators are definitely looking to Europe with a hope of maximizing their results. They start to understand the problems and, patiently, are trying to put their foot in the just opening door. They obviously hope to be able to deliver finally their shows by satellite.

SATELLITE PRO- & CON.

Reed Bunzel of Radio & Records, the weekly US Radio Trade summed up the positive and negative points of satellite programming in a major article last week. The positive points include: cost effectiveness, consistent quality programming, major market talent, fewer management programming-headaches. However for these positive points there are also negatives: loss of local identity, different tastes differ regionally and cannot be programmed nationally or internationally, on-air talent not "known" to local listeners and last but not least a lack of format flexibility. There is of course a major difference between radio by tape or the pro's and con's of a "live" deejay. Therefore it may make more sense to prepare syndication programming especially for the European market. One of the most successful and long-established US shows "The American Top 40" with radio personality Casey Kasem is already enjoying 15 years of success in the US and is now presented for German major radio station WDR by industrious German producer and deejay Dennis King.

The various UK stations are also strong in developing their own special productions which are of very high quality and it is a pity these are not being sold in a more aggressive way! And also the national radio channels are from time to time coming up with strong contenders, which however are hardly ever sold to other markets due to the fact that these government-owned stations are not structured for these sales (and the necessary promotion). We should keep in mind that syndication is not limited to music but can be adjusted also to sports, news, gymnastics etc. etc.

EUROPEAN TOP 100

Another program very suitable for European syndication is the European Top 100 Show and/or European Airplay Top 50 which are already being translated for specific markets in the various languages. The European Airplay Top 50 is already available in french and negotiations are taking place for a German Euro Top 100.

Eurotipsheet can help you selling your programmes or at least put it under the attention of your colleagues. So make sure you inform us about your productions!!! Don't underestimate syndication. It is existing and will grow from day to day. Obviously one of the highest moments for this sort of programming came with the Live Aid telecast. Although the TV broadcast from the concerts in Philadelphia and London attracted most media attention we should think of the enormous amount of radio stations around the globe that spotlighted this unique happening. In America approximately 180 stations carried the concert broadcast organized by ABC and a similar number for the backstage hourly up-dates and interview reports as organized by Westwood One. Radio contributed strongly to the prime objective of organizer Bob Geldof, namely to bring in as much money as possible and many key radio people organized special campaigns to raise funds and collect moneys for Africa.

NEWS

New programs that are available include Westwood One's new concerts for Animation, Lone Justice, Rick Springfield and Fiona. Obviously they still have great concerts available from Tina Turner, Billy Ocean, Elton John, Brian Adams, Phil Collins, The Cars, George Thorogood and Chaka Khan (For more information contact Suzanne Ollson-Kahane, telex 4996015 WWONE- phone 213-2045000). They also have a unique 2 hour radio interview with Bob Dylan whereby he talks about his career and which features tracks from his 25 albums from 1962's Bob Dylan to 1985's Empire Burlesque. Chrystal Clear productions presents jazz (which is now called jazz syndication) and they have shows available with Thelonious Monk, Charley Parker, Bill Evans and West Montgomery. More on programs produced in Europe in our next radio market in 4 weeks.

parachutist suddenly fell out of the blue, landed safely on the boat and offered the group the desired golden objects. The picture sees the operation in full swing...
