PolyGram Buys DJM Multi-Million Deal For 14,000 Songs

by Peter Jones
 PolyGram International has, in a multi-million deal, purchased Dick James Music Ltd (DJM), the independent UK-based record and publishing organisation.

The deal is the first major acquisition to follow the appointment of PolyGram's publishing chief David Hockman, who says: "The move clearly demonstrates PolyGram's commitment to re-establishing itself as a leading music publisher."

 Since the sell-off of the huge Chappell/Intersong catalogue for a reported $300 million, needed to fund PolyGram's ambitious compact disc development plans, PolyGram president ■ continued on page 5

New German Radio Competes With NDR

Private Station Attracts 10% More Listeners

by Wolfgang Spahr
 Kiel-based private radio station Radio Schleswig Holstein is providing stiff competition for public broadcasting rival Norddeutscher Rundfunk in the north of West Germany. Launched July 1st this year, the music-only service has already overtaken NDR's three channels in terms of overall listenership.

A survey for the first two weeks of August shows RSH with a rating of 41% among listeners aged 14-41, compared with 40% for NDR 2, 13% for NDR 1 and only 3% for NDR 3. RSH programme director Hermann Stumpert, formerly with Saarlandischer Rundfunk, claims market research indicates the private station has on average 10% more listeners than NDR 2.

However, NDR chiefs are refusing to panic. Director Hermann Rauker says the results reflect the extensive launch campaign undertaken by RSH's newspaper owners, and the fact that music-only broadcasting is a nov-

Euro-Indie Vid Meeting Pledges Co-Production

Foreign Markets Key To Survival

by Michael Bakker
Rome—At the 1st European Conference of Independent Video Producers held September 12-14, representatives from ten European countries including Britain, West Germany, France, Holland and Spain met to discuss the problems and opportunities of European co-production and distribution.

Separate sessions were held on the relationship between independent video producers and national tv broadcasters, on legal aspects of video and music copyright, and on the current state of Europe's tv and video markets.

Organized by Eurocreation, the French agency for European projects, the conference's main aim was to come up with concrete ideas and proposals for co-operative video production on the European level. As Eurocreation's director of projects Anne-Marie Autissier explained however: "In order to set up fruitful collaboration in this area we must first analyse each market in terms of its creative potential and the copyright and neighbouring rights problems involving audio-visual material. Only then can these meetings become a true platform for a pan-European dialogue."

The conference provides a useful opportunity for independent producers to present their material and put forward their ideas for co-operation with national broadcasters, but concrete suggestions as to how this might be done were less easy to come up with. The desire for European co-production was clear, but there was little agreement on how to go about it.

Most speakers stressed the role of the record companies. Vincent Lamy, the former FR3 producer now head of his own RIFF company, presented a co-production made with the backing of French company Barclay which he said could compete successfully with Anglo-Saxon material, but Jose Luis Lozano of ISIS noted that in Spain: "Most of the record companies don't seem to be used to the idea of the promotional value of the video clip." And he added: "Without their investment we will never really be able to deliver quality programmes that can compete with the rest of Europe."

If there are difficulties with local collaboration, the problems of European collaboration are even greater. Music Box programme director Rob Jones stated: "We would love to play more music from continental Europe, but sometimes it is simply not made available to us. For instance the latest video by French band Gold, a million seller in France, was never cleared for use."

Jones nevertheless emphasized Music Box/Superchannel's commitment to Europe and urged independent producers to come up with material from their local bases. Britain's long dominance of pop music had tended to make it a little chauvinistic, he admitted, adding: "In order to change this we definitely need continental input, and that is where you come in."

This invitation sparked a series of complaints about the level of financing national networks and satellite services like Music Box and Sky Channel were prepared to come up with. Long-term contracts were almost unheard of, and in order to survive most independent video production companies had to undertake industrial and commercial assignments as a sideline. But Gudrun Kromrey of Berlin's Stutenbaumer Video stressed the importance of hanging on to creative independence. "Productions for industry may be essential to survive, but it is vital to have your own ideas and develop your own individual style of production."

It was Dutch company ID Productions, one of the few with extensive experience of pan-European tv programming, that came up with the most viable suggestions for collaboration. Last year the company set up the pan-European rock marathon 'Europe A Go-Go' as part of the EBU initiative for the International Youth Year, and at the conference ID Productions' Marijke Klasema was able to present detailed plans for a new project, the 'Pan-European Rock Show.' She asked continental producers to submit videos, live footage or interviews with local bands and said that in return they would get a fully-edited, transmission-ready programme needing only the insertion of a commentary in the local language. Europe TV would be the first outlet, but sales to national broadcast channels were also possible, she said.

el experience for audiences in the area. Once the novelty wears off, NDR programmers believe, the situation will improve.

Changes to NDR's programme mix have been implemented through chief editor Jürgen Kellermann announcing revamped music schedules designed to better meet the needs of the station's target groups. NDR 2 appeals to younger listeners, and NDR 1 to older age groups, while NDR 3 is largely given over to classical music.

RSH will itself face increased competition from the beginning of next year, when three more private stations start broadcasting. One, based in Hamburg, will be operated by major publishing companies Springer, Bauer and Gruner and Jahr, while recording artist One and music publishers Rolf Baierer of ROBA and Alfred Schacht of SMV are applying for the license to run the second, also

German Saturn Store Celebrates 25th

Cologne—The German record store Saturn celebrated its 25th anniversary last week (September 27th). With 10,000 different titles, it is the biggest compact disc store in the world and there are 100,000 analogue records and cassettes on the shelf. The video department takes up 3,000 square metres and with its yearly turn-over of $ 100 million it is the biggest store for entertainment electronics and sound carriers in the world.

Founded in 1961 by Wilhelm and Anny Waffenschmidt on a 120 square metres, the record store quickly developed into one of the trendsetting stores in Europe and in 1984 the store was sold to the Tertia Management Company in Cologne, which in turn is part of the Kaufhof Department Store chain which opened its other two stores in Germany, one in Hannover and one in Munich.

The anniversary will be celebrated with special customer activities in Cologne until October 11th. Wilhelm Waffenschmidt, the founder says: "Saturn now, 25 years after we started, presents itself as a technical store full of superlatives, unparalleled anywhere in the world."

MOVING

Recording Industry: Peter Koepfle will join, as of October 5, Doug Morris, president of Atlantic, in New York. Koepfle will still be responsible for the European operations of Atlantic, based in London. Peter Price, ex-Director International for 10 Records, will become general manager Atlantic Europe. Michael Wolff has left Dutch CNR to join Arcade. Michael Levy is appointed vice-chairman of the UK industry body BPI. Simon Prodsham, ex-WEA UK, has started his own video production company Front Row Films. Peter Headford has left the RCA/Ariola European Regional office. His plans are as of yet unknown. Media-Maurice Levy will become vice-president of the French Publicis group; he used to be 'president-directeur generale' of Publicis since 1984 as well as president of TV6.

Swiss Local Radio Discuss Advertising

The second European Local Radio Congress will be held in Basel, Switzerland on October 28-29. It is to be under the patronage of Bundes Schweizer Werbeagenturen (Swiss Advertising Agencies associates) and organized by the Associated Swiss local radio VSFL, together with MEDAG, the Media work organisation of Basel.

Advertisers, advertising agencies, producers and radio programmers based in Hamburg, with a decision expected within weeks. The third private station will operate from Hannover.

will be informed about the possibilities and limits of radio advertisements at this two day event. Marketing managers from the US, UK and France will present and exchange their most successful ideas and experiences over the past years. Besides that, one of the congress' main highlights will be to achieve a clearer outlook on the Swiss local radio advertising scene, as well as discussing the various new technical possibilities of radio advertising. The congress will end with the voting and awarding of the Best Advertising spot of the Year, voted by all participants.

EEC Proposals At Brussels TV Conference

Club De Brussels Meeting Mid October

The future of the European television industry will be discussed in a two day conference in Brussels on October 15-16, organised by the "Club De Bruxelles". Top representatives from industry and television networks will discuss EEC proposals concerning the audio-visual sector in the EEC. The communications, advertising and audio-visual industries and government bodies will be represented and the debate will be covered by a large gathering of international press.

The first day of the conference will concentrate on the industry and the role of the EEC. In a debate entitled "What is at stake for a European industry?", the strong and weak points of the consumer electronics industry in Europe will be explored, together with the relationship between new products and new services, and future prospects for European companies in the various sectors of the audio-visual industry. The European-Japanese conflict over High Definition Television in the aftermath of the Dubrovnik conference will be tackled, and further debates include ones on copyright and on research programmes connected to the promotion and financing of European telecommunications and electronics industries. A debate entitled "Is EEC legislation an essential prerequisite for television without frontiers?" will kick off the second day. Questions will be raised and answered concerning deregulation, the controversial problem of copyright, television advertising in Europe and promoting an actual cultural identity for Europe. The future of multi-lingual channels and the relationship between state television bodies and private international groups will also be high on the agenda.

Speakers will be coming from as far afield as the States and Japan, but will mainly be Europeans. These include: a Lord Cockfield, vice-president EEC Commission, Michele Costa, president Haute Autorite de l'Audiovisuel/France, Patrick Cox, md Sky Channel, Hans van der Werf, president Europe TV, Hilvermann Massimo Fichera, md RAI in Italy, Silvio Berlusconi, president of Fininvest, as well as representatives from Philips, RTL, and ABC.

Major UK Video Campaign Aiming At Rental Market

The UK video industry's biggest ever promotional campaign gets under way later this autumn, when the CBS/FOX, Embassy and Medusa labels start giving away holiday discount vouchers with every cassette rented.

Running from November to January 1987, the campaign is valued at up to 90 million dollars. Robert Maxwell's Mirror Group Newspapers is also involved, and besides offering its own vouchers and saturation press coverage will preside over a multi-million dollar advertising blitz.

The DIM cataloguing is building 4,000 titles, including pop classics like 'Billy Don't Be A Hero, 'Tid Like To Teach The World To Sing' and 'Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying', plus the Lennon/McCartney songs 'Please Please Me' and 'Ask Me Why', and the Elton John material which includes 150 John/Bernie Tapes.

Polygram is also acquiring DIM Records Ltd., which holds 14 Elton John albums made during the late 1960s and early 1970s. When the inventory of selling titles has been completed, Dick James (the founder, who died early this year) and his son Stephen started the Dejanus group of music companies and all new writers and acquisitions have been signed to the UK or US operations under that logo.

In 1963, Dick James set up Lennon & McCartney songs - the firm was later bought by Associated Television, and last year the Beatles' duo material was bought by Michael Jackson. James built his second pop fortune when he signed the John/Dupin team in 1967.

In a major acquisition in London, the Chrysalis Group has bought Ensign, with its track record of more than 30 hit singles and albums. The label, founded by Nigel Grainge a decade ago, achieved an average of one top 30 single to every two-four releases. It had nine hit singles and three major albums from Bob Geldof's Boomtown Rats.

Video News

The new video of Aretha Franklin's 'Jumpin' Jack Flash' of the Stones classic, 'rousing' Jack Flash, was produced by Howard Wolfenden and features appearances by Whoopi Goldberg (who suddenly ends up as one of the backing vocalists in the video), Keith Richard (the producer of the record), and singer Steve Lillywhite and session musicians like Ron Wood, Chuck Leavell and Randy Jackson. This single is featured in the Twentieth Century Fox Film, 'Jumpin' Jack Flash'.

YCA have completed post-production on Dead Or Alive's 'Brand New Lover' and The Big Supreme's 'Don't Walk'. Also as M.D.P. Jeff Barnes has been the clip to 'Was The Sun by The Stranglers'. Paul Dartbridge produced all three * Enrico Panunzio's 'Ricky Bang Bang Bang' was directed by Bernard Rose of Aldabra and produced by Anya Camilleri * Steve Graham has wrapped up the video to Sinitta's 'Feels Like The First Time' for Fantasy Records. It was shot at the Albert Wharf Studios in London and produced by Peter Weller. Fellow producers from the same company, namely Techniques Of Persuasion, the Molotov Brothers have directed the clip to Paul Hardcastle's latest single 'The Wizard'; Peter Spencer producing a

David Mallet of MGM has been very prolific lately. He wrapped up the video to Billy Idol's 'To Be A Lover' and will be directing Queen's 'Who Wants To Live For Ever' for EMI Records and Tina Turner's 'Two People for Caprio'. In the States, Nick Morris is to direct videos for Toto and The Commodores * At Bavaria Atelier in Germany, the DoRo Twins, Hannes Rosbacher and Rudolf Dotalach have directed Muenchener Freiheit's 'Every Time' as well as Sandra's 'Hi, Hi, Hi' and Clive Richardson, known for his works for Depeche Mode, Siouxsie & The Banshees and Blancmange, has directed the video to Craft's 'You're The Best Thing In My Life'. Three clips were produced by Andreas Thiesmeyer and shot in the Bavaria Studios at Munich. Thiesmeyer has also produced the clip to Chris Norman's 'Some Hearts Are Diamonds'. Shot at Castle Pech in Bavaria it was directed by Michael Benete * At Libman Movie Productions, Leslie Libman is in post-production on 'Don't Stewart's' 'Another Heartache', shot on location in Berlin and is to direct Little Richard's 'Operator' and Heaven 17's 'Contender'. All three will be produced by Francie Moore *

CBS Campaigns Shoot Top Gun To Top OST In Europe

by Cathy Inglis

CBS's OST to the feature film "Top Gun" is taking Europe by storm. Both movie and soundtrack have exploded, with more than a quarter of a million albums sold in the last four weeks. Two singles have so far been released from the soundtrack. Kenny Loggins' "Danger Zone" and the love theme from Top Gun, "Take My Breath Away" performed by Berlin. Both were produced by Giorgio Moroder and both are breaking throughout Europe. Other groups featured on the soundtrack are Loverboy (Heaven In My Eyes), Cheap Trick (Mighty Wings) and Miami Sound Machine (Hot Summer Nights).

The success of the OST is largely due to concerted marketing strategies which were coordinated by CBS at a very early stage with each UIP local office using the cinema as the point of promotion. Paul Berger, director marketing and sales Europe, comments: "It is an absolute explosion especially in view of the fact that the album has only effectively been marketed for one month. This is a prime example of how the cooperation of music in movies can do when it comes to cross-merchandising."

The whole of Europe is actively involved in the campaign. In Finland for example 25,000 discount notes for the album were printed for movie ticket buyers; in the Netherlands the video to Berlin's song is currently showing in 20 theatres; in France Kenny Loggins' video was broadcast in 150 cinemas four weeks prior to the movie opening and similar publicity took place in Germany. A vast nationwide marketing campaign was set up in Germany where 10,000 colour handflyers with consumer competitions advertising both the movie and the lp were printed up front and distributed in cinemas and record stores. Following this, the OST last week hit No. 1 of the German charts.

It looks more than likely that the association between the film and the record company will be as profitable as it was in the States, where the Paramount movie netted $91 million dollars at the box office. The OST reached no. 1 of the American Album Chart, became platinum record, and produced two number 1 hits on the Hot 100 Singles Chart, both Kenny Loggins' "Danger Zone" and Berlin's "Take My Breath Away".

Rocky was an immensely successful CBS soundtrack. Top Gun is following suit, and Berger says the company is looking forward to their next promising OST, "Ruthless People" which will be out early December and will feature songs from a.o. Mike Jagger and Billy Joel.

Howard Jones' Third Introduces New Style

WEA Strongly Pushing Funky LP

WEA UK are putting the final touches to Howard Jones' new album entitled "One To One" which will be released on October 13th. The album, Jones' third, is his first album to be produced by Arif Mardin and engineered by Kevin Killen. Recorded by Mardinmill Studios in Dublin and mixed at Atlantic Studios in New York, the album features ten new songs.

All the music and lyrics were written by the artist and the album reveals a shift in style, a move away from his former sensibility towards a more funky and state-of-the-art approach. Phil Connry, marketing director WEA UK, says of the LP: "It is Howard's most adult album to date. Like every artist we need a single to break an album, but I think that this one stands on its own. People will be very surprised by this record; it is an exciting new project and those who may have previously dismissed Howard may have to think again."

A number of interesting guests appear on the album including Mike Nock, Greg, Afrodisiak, Mo Foster, Marcus Miller, Phil Palmer and boys from the choir of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin. The first single to be released from the LP, 'All I Want' (out in Europe now), was produced by Phil Collins and Hugh Padgham. A new team of video producers were commissioned for 'All I Want' and the result says Connry: "is a very unusual and exciting video, with lots of graphics."

In only three years, Howard Jones has succeeded in making an enviable name for himself. Since his debutting single, "New Song '83, which rose to no. 3 in the UK, the artist has scored nine consecutive British Top 20 hits and two Top 5 hits in the USA. After completing the first two albums, "Human's Lip" and "Dream Into Action", Howard Jones then embarked on a marathon world-tour which included 126 dates and covered Europe, Australia, Japan and the States, where he is very popular.

A marketing campaign has already been underway for some time from WEA who are issuing posters, window stickers and point of sale material. In addition to the UK and Germany and with the likelihood of other European countries to follow, the initial run of Howard Jones' singles will be printed as a limited edition containing gatefold sleeves with pictures of the artist.

Robert Palmer has re-released Discipline Of Love off Riptide to make the most of his British success with Addicted To Love and I Didn't Mean To Turn You On. David Sylvian's new single from the Gone To Earth album is Silvermoon. A final gesture from the now no more Madness and the Twins new album is imminent. They are known to be disappointed with its American chart performance and the fact that although Tom and Alannah were asked to supply the theme tune, the film opens with Nothing In Common & is Christopher Cross.

U2's guitarist The Edge (real name Dave Evans) has got together with Irish singer Sinéad O'Connor for the theme song from the film Caprice (an unstraightforward kidnap story starring Oliver Reed) and it's been released as a single called Heroine. The Edge has also co-written the rest of the OST with Michael Brook.

Stevens, Tom Waits' Swordsfrom-bones and Marianne Faithfull's Broken English.

The Commundans, who currently have the bestselling single in Britain with their version of Don't Leave Me This Way, will follow it up in November with Don't Leave The Night behind. They also plan a re-release of one of their previous 45s, 'You Are My World'.

Despite the decidedly lukewarm response to Shanghai Surprise which was filmed in London, the classic Londoners trendy waterside is still the place to make a rock video. Latest man in the dock has been Billy Idol filming for his new single To Be A Loner.

As the very last minute, The Thompson Twins decided not to release Nothing In Common in the UK. Their management are delaying the single until the film arrives in Britain and the Twins new album is imminent. Amnesty Compilation Due For Xmas

by Machiel Bakker

In close cooperation with Amnesty International, Phonogram will release a unique compilation album, tentatively titled 'A Conspiracy Of Hope', named after the Amnesty tour in the US earlier this year. The album sleeve depicts a photographic recreation of the Amnesty logo, the burning candle wrapped in barbed wire. With the artists donating their royalties, the album will have a worldwide release around the second week of November.

The album features 10 tracks of which 2 are never before issued. Londoners the artist Billie Holiday classic

The Police Is Very Close

New Recording Best Of Features One

Very likely to fuel the discussion about a possible Police reunion, A&M releases the first Police compilation album, 'Every Breath You Take - The Singles' on October 27. Eleven old hits singles plus one re-recording, that of the hit single 'Don't Stand So Close To Me', which will be out in Europe September 29. For this re-recording the band has changed the key and dropped the tempo, making it more moody and atmospheric. The cassette and CD, simultaneously released with the album, will contain an extra track, 'So Lonely'.

The LP is an interesting cross section of their career with hitingles like Roxanne, Can't Stand Losing You, Message In A Bottle (on which Sting comments: "In 1979 Dm9 was rarely heard in hitrecords. This song put Dm9 back on the map"). Walking On The Moon ("We remembered our motto 'You could swing a housecat in the space between those big chords'"), De Do Do Do Da Da Da, Every Little Thing She Does Is Magic, Invisible Sun, Spirits In The Material World, Every Breath You Take, King Of Pain, Wrapped Around Your Finger ("This is not a song about candles") and the '86 version of Don't Stand So Close To Me.

The video to the new single was produced by the illustrious duo Godley and Creme and features separate rotating shots of the three band members.

Singles Guide

Due to the fast changing nature of radio playlists, it doesn't happen too often that artists remain at the top of the European Airplay Top 50 for a number of weeks. The longest Airplay runtimes so far are A-Ha whose The Sun Always Shines On TV remained three consecutive weeks on the top, Bowie with Absolute Beginners (5 weeks), two records of Madonna: Live To Tell (4 weeks) and Papa Don't Preach (reaching the longest stay of consecutive no. 1's: 6 weeks) and Genesis' Invisible Touch (4 weeks). With Huey Lewis being 'stuck' for the third week at no. 1 in the European Airplay, it marks the second time this year that an American act is able to remain that long on the top.

The difference with Bruce Hornsby's The Way It Is is still considerable and the band keeps on struggling to reach the top and sticks already for the 3rd week at no. 2. Further still competition comes from Tina Turner (who shows up from 5 to 3), as well as from the continued airplay on Holiday Rap.

Two Harris/Jewell produced records show up the European Airplay as both Human League's Human (6-8) as well as Janet Jackson's When I Think Of You (18-21) move up with a bullet this week. Another success and in demand team of producers are Stock, Aitken & Waterman who were responsible for the US no. 1 hit Venus by Bananarama (still no. 2) in the European Airplay) as well as providing successful hit productions for Princess, O'chi Brown, Dead Or Alive (Brand New Lover- 41 in the Airplay Top 50) and Brilliant. They were also at the knobs for a production for Rocket (Elton John's record company), helping to launch the dance club trio Splash with their debut single Qu'est Ce Que C'est?, a commercial and bubbling pop/dance track.

Hugh Padgham has two (co-)produced singles in the European Airplay Top 50 as well, while Genesis are still at 33 with In Too Deep. Paul Young has second highest entry this week with Wonderland. This demure ballad comes from his third album 'Between Two Fires', slated for an October release (for more details see last week's Spotlight page). If Paul McCartney's 'Press To Play' was still in the European Airplay it would have made Padgham the most successful producer in the Airplay Top 50.

Madonna has already her third single from the 'True Blue' album released and the title track is this week's highest entry in the Airplay top 50 at no. 24. It follows releases like 'Live To Tell', entering at 20 earlier this year and 'Papa Don't Preach', at 39. Although 'True Blue' is a very catchy Motown-like ditty, the best track from the LP is, we think, La Isla Bonita, a wonderful Mexican tinged pop tune.

Aretha Franklin comes up with a wonderful version of the 50ies classic Jumpin' Jack Flash, produced by Keith Richards and also to be featured on the forthcoming 20th Century Fox Film Jumpin' Jack Flash, starring Whoopie Goldberg. It is one of Aretha's most raucous tracks ever and with backing musicians like Richards, Ron Wood, Chuck Leavell and Randy Jackson, Aretha's voice is irresistible, a killer track sure to pick up lots of attention.

Stacey Q is slowly getting tips in Europe with her Atlantic single Two Of Hearts, with its innocent poppy vocals over a memorable chorus the single is pretty much in the Madonna-type of style but having its own twists of originality.

Miami Vice star Don Johnson is getting first good reactions in Europe with Heartbeat, a solid American rocker, catchy produced by Chaz Sanford. In the 70's Johnson wrote songs for the Allman Brothers Band including 'Eat A Piece' and 'Melissa'. As his album he gets help from luminaries like Willie Nelson, Ron Wood, Steve Ray Vaughan and Bonnie Raitt.

KING OF BLOOD

Blood And Chocolate is Elvis Costello's follow up to 'King Of America' and as such already his second outing of this year. Costello delivers songs one after the other and it is rather said that his unique individual style never really gets the commercial recognition it deserves. Unwilling to yield to commercial considerations, The Man delivers his songs this time with more bite and aggression than ever, not before witnessed since 'This Year's Model'. With all songs basically in a minimalist and very sparse setting, the LP sports highlights such as Blue Chair, Crimes Of Paris, Home Is Anywhere You Hang Your Hat and the very intimate I Want You.

Helen Terry, once back singer for the Culture Club, comes up with a stunning debut album, the Don Was produced Blue Notes. With a voice that easily matches the range and intensity of singers like Alison Moyet and Sade, her material stretches from mainstream pop and soul to cocktail jazz and r&b. Check out the glossy produced Come On And Find Me as well as Helen's moody rendition of the John Cale classic Cosy Witch. More suggestions for airplay include Right In Front Of You and Feelin' Your Heart.

Definitely the hottest album retail wise of this week is Cyndi Lauper's True Colors. The LP is the follow-up to the '83 worldwide platinum debut She's So Unusual, and Cyndi is now together with Lenny Westlake herself at the knobs. With the help of cracker like Nile Rodgers, The Bangles, Billy Joel, Adrian Belew and Rick Derringer the album boasts several hit singles, once the success of the title track has been faded out. It kicks off poppy with Change Of Heart, a danceable, coffy song featuring Nile Rodgers with his unmistakable

'elastic' guitar chords, followed by the doo-wop Maybe He'll Know and Boy Blue in which Cyndi is in terrific vocal form. Striking is Cyndi's cover of the Marvin Gaye 1970 all-time classic What's Going On with its good built up and atmosphere.

This week's Albums Guide is full of female singing artists; after Helen Terry and Cyndi Lauper, Gianna Nannini and Anna Domino release new LP's as well this week. Those of you who read M&M carefully are probably aware that we are big fans of the Italian singer Gianna Nannini and her latest Polydor album Profumo is another masterpiece. With a voice suited to please both the rock audiences as well as the lovers of the romantic and restrained pop material, Nannini has all the chances to break with tracks like Profumo ('The Smell Of You'), Come Una Schiava ('Like A Slave Girl') and Avventura ('Adventure'). Wait for strong retail reaction in the GA's countries and hopefully Bendulu and the UK to follow suit.

New Yorker Anna Domino has her self titled Polydor album produced by ex-Assolombardo member Alan Rankine and Belgian musician/RTBF producer Marc Moulin. The result is a rich tapestry of hypnotic rhythms and brooding melodies. Recommended tracks include Summer (remix by Arthur Baker), Chosen Ones and Rhythm.

The extensive European 'Revenge' tour of the Eurythmics is certainly paying off as the Revenge album moves to no. 2 this week, the highest position it reached so far. Tina Turner 'breaks' into top 10 (8-12) after her spectacular move of last week from 93 to 12.

This week's most played albums on European Radio.

CHECK THE NEW EURO MEDIA!

The media landscape is changing and shifting at a rapid rate, particularly in Europe. Government control of broadcasting, both radio and television is eroding. Private entrepreneurs are entering the media picture with new and aggressive ventures.

Whether we are talking about the explosion of new European radio stations and networks, satellite services, or new television channels - all feature music as an important programming element, in fact many only program music!

This affects broadcasters, record companies, music publishers, home video companies, producers and distributors of radio and television programming, artist managers, performing right societies, producers of music videos.

At the same time it provides you with

AN EXPLOSION OF NEW OPPORTUNITIES

YOUR SOURCE!

Every week Music & Media presents the latest Pan-European media news. But it also provides the music and videonews from the 18 leading European markets; playlists and hot adds from the 400 leading program directors and deejays; the official European Hot 100 charts; the most aired videoclips; the New Talent and much more.
