MATTHEW SWEET

Girlfriend
(Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)

From his earliest days in Georgia (in bands like Oh-OK and Buzz Of Delight), through two albums on different labels, Matthew Sweet has always exhibited promise but somehow never quite pulled it off; for those who believed in him all along (like himself, for one), this album represents the Big Payback—Girlfriend is perhaps as close as you can get to a definitive pop masterpiece in 1991. What can we possibly say about an album that condenses and combines the poignant wisdom, aching longing and soaringly wistful melodicism of Big Star, Badfinger, Chris Stamey, the sweet side of the Velvetes plus a lifetime of listening to Beatles records, and crams them all into fifty wonderful minutes? Let's face it—usually even the best records really only have one or three or four drop-dead sing along melodies, the kind of tunes you hum and hum for days even in your sleep, but on Girlfriend, virtually every hook is crafted so it sticks around—listen to it all, and you'll see just what we mean. Helped out by luminous friends like Robert Quine and Richard Lloyd (lead guitars), drummer/producer Fred Maher and a special guest appearance by Lloyd Cole (at his best on rhythm "chink" guitar), this record is as warm and simple as pop music can get, and it's Matthew Sweet's finest hour. Yet. Top Cuts: "Divine Intervention," "I've Been Waiting," "Girlfriend," "Evangeline" and "Does She Talk?"

URBAN DANCE SQUAD

Life 'N Perspectives Of A Genuine Crossover
(Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)

Urban Dance Squad's 1990 debut was a giant step forward in the synthesis of rap and metal. Their follow-up, Life 'N Perspectives Of A Genuine Crossover, could've easily rested on the laurels of the first, but instead aggressively seeks to blaze even newer territory. The five members of the Dutch-based Squad arm themselves with many weapons of mass boundary destruction, keeping things fast, loud and furious behind Rude Boy's hardcore rap style. A musical alchemist's dream, UDS also adds lots of soul, jazz, reggae, funk and punk styles and attitudes together to brew a turbulent, rebellious and explosive collection. The opening "Comeback" explodes with fierce energy, while the following "The Gates Of The Big Fruit" shows Rude Boy making his first attempt at straight soul-influenced singing. DJ DNA gets his shot on the four title segments, while the Gregorian chants and the sitar joining the funky rap of the closing "Bureaucrat Of Flaccostreet" gives the album its most interesting and adventurous track. In between are sometimes humorous and sometimes cynical anecdotes for a truly world stage, songs that scream and shout, are challenging, unwavering and original, and still come across as highly listenable and enjoyable. Also Crossover to: "Grand Black Citizen," "Son Of Tha Culture Clash" and "Harvey Quinnt."

Raise
(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

It's easy to dismiss some of Swervedriver's lead guitar parts as Dinosaur Jr. Jr., but these Oxfordians create fresh sounds by largely ignoring folksy underpinnings, preferring an icy, metallic atmosphere that is almost unparalleled (save selected My Bloody Valentine cuts) and completely sexual. Sexual, too, is Adam Franklin's voice; it's one of those rare holy groans that would illuminate even the plainest of rock cliches, so when he delivers a dazzler about an ex-cop who "blasts flies with his gun/because swatting's no fun," he makes us realize that these guys are going to be here for quite a long ride. Supposedly, it was a long ride with an early Swervedriver demo tape way back in 1989 that started all of this. The traveler was Creation Records' head Alan McGee, and during his journey on America's highways he became convinced that these boys provided perfect driving music, so he signed them. McGee surely knew that Swervedriver's obvious car fixation has everything to do with why they sound so good on the road. Franklin evokes chrome Fords and worn leather seats and the drama of bleak late night voyages, though he has insisted in interviews that their music is all about making love while on drugs. Either way, it's driving music, especially on "Rave Down," "Sci-Flyer," "Pile Up," "Sandblasted" and "Son of Mustang Ford."

DRUNKEN BOAT

(First Warning, 594 Broadway, Suite 1202, New York, NY 10012/212-925-7220)

Drunken Boat's songs reverberate with a dynamic tension that's both alluring and unnerving. The provocative fiber that ripples through the band's debut album builds upon key moments in New York rock history—the rhythmic foreplay of the Velvet Underground, the tension/release and fevered poetry of Patti Smith and the angry noise of Live Skull or Sonic Youth. While these elements play a role in the Boat's sound, it's their spastic reinvention of the wheel that sustains their refreshing naivete. Songs like the brash, almost Anglo-flavored "New Pop" and the cover of Husker Du's "What's Going On" may be a good place to get an initial grip on this eclectic album, although you may prefer to dig right in to the meatier, "artier" cuts. The tense outburst of the opening track, "Tragic," sets the stage for the violent, strange and beautiful things to come. "Home" is built around a suggestive, melancholic drone, while "Uniform Gold" radiates an acoustic simplicity. The tense Velvetes ramblings of "Accidents" and "Spin Around" throb gently, with Todd Colby's almost spoken-word vocals up above and a lulling melody down below. For a more experimental mood, try the psychotic tape loop of "Lisa's Dream," the instrumental "Jubilee" or the angst-ridden beats and moans of "Stacko."

WALKABOUTS Scavenger (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—While the Walkabouts' lilting, ruminating folk cum rock has always set them apart from the vast majority of the Sub Pop roster, Scavenger, album number three, is an even bolder, more brazen step into heretofore uncharted waters. For instance, well-heeled producer Gary Smith (Throwing Muses, Pixies, Chills) has added luster and depth to the mix, there's an orchestral string section on the album's stellar closing opus, "Train To Mercy," and PoMo bon vivants Natalie Merchant and Brian Eno lend their services. Still, Scavenger is decidedly a Walkabouts record, falling somewhere between the Carter Family, Jefferson Airplane and, most obviously, Fairport Convention, a particularly cogent comparison with respect to Carla Torgerson's husky folk delivery, seemingly stepped in rural Appalachia and the high seas. And like Fairport, the uptempo Walkabouts is perfectly well and good, but it's the down/midtempo Walkabouts where the demons are exercised and the beauty pours down like silver: "Where The Deep Water Goes" is a haunting voyage on murky waters; the lone cover, Randy Newman's "Let's Burn Down The Cornfields," menacingly lurches to and fro; "The Night Watch" skulks around dark corners; and, in grand, nine-minute-and-twenty-seven-seconds fashion,

"Train To Mercy" closes the book with Eno and string section in tow, a brilliant, sweeping, panoramic epic that ebbs and flows in majestic proportions.

ROBBIE ROBERTSON Storyville (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069-6197)—For Robbie Robertson, Storyville is a key section of New Orleans, a moonburnt space where life was fast—a place he now wished had talking walls. Instead he speaks for the walls through songs. He's surely a man who has stories to tell when you consider his four-decade career wherein he once played a club owned by Jack Ruby. Storyville is also a key record for Robertson. It is not so much a departure from his last album, but a deeper investigation into atmosphere. Here are songs of desperation turning slowly towards hope, that comprise what is surely the moodiest and most detailed work of his career. Highly-polished, graceful production circles Robertson's sharp and magical lyrics and his gravely, restrained vocals, and adds sensuality galore to up-and-down tempo songs alike. Neil Young, a few Nevilles and Bandmates Garth Hudson and Rick Danko contribute. Best: "Soap Box Preacher," "Day Of Reckoning (Burning For You)," "What About Now" and "Breakin The Rules."

BOOPS SET 73970, SHOWS THEIR JAMAICAN ROOTS WITH ITS COOL REGGAE FLAVOR AND LAID BACK RHYMES. PRINCE AND THE N.P.G. Diamonds And Pearls (Paisley Park, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—Between Lovesexy, Batman and Graffiti Bridge, the mad genius of Minneapolis hasn't exactly been on a creative winning streak these past few years. Diamonds And Pearls is a brash and confident declaration of his next era: with a new band and a slicker, remodelled sound that still manages to cover a wide panorama of styles, the album is unmistakably Prince, but seldom sounds much like anything he's done before, and it's the "blackest" record he's done since Controversy, containing everything from early-'70s soul-grooves to jazz to a serious dose of rap and house. Part of that is probably due to his new band, the New Power Generation, which shares writing and production credits and is sometimes too prominently featured in the songs. Member-for-member, it's the most talented backing band he's ever worked with, but the band's secret weapon is vocalist/keyboardist Rosie Gaines, whose soaring, gospel-ish voice adds a degree of genuine soul that Prince albums have seldom featured before. That said, it's also the finest Prince album since Sign O' The Times: his wildly esoteric songwriting is as strong as ever, and his astounding arrangements veer between jazzy adventurism, orchestral lushness and spare, solid grooves, preventing any two songs from sounding alike. All 65 minutes are strong, but we'll single out "Gett Off," the percolating "Daddy Pop" and the irresistible second single, "Cream."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Glass Arcade (Sarah, P.O. Box 691, Bristol, BS99 1FG England)—Though each and every one of these (mostly) British delicacies has previously adorned the import singles bins, Anglopop fixes are both cheaper and sweeter by the dozen. What's most noticeable is how gracefully and homogeneously the tracks dreamily wisp into one another, how unflappably the trademark-Sarah pleasantries swanningly proceed—if it weren't for the vocals, we'd be deceived into thinking one vaguely moody five-piece had recorded all these tracks in one bright, airy little studio. The 10 bands featured are all either perched on clouds or submerged beyond despair, and with the biorhythmic highs are Heavenly's chipper "I Fell In Love Last Night," the Springfields' lone American contribution, "Wonder," more subdued than alter ego Velvet Crush, and the hazily joyful and optimistic "Salvation" of St. Christopher. The most resonant, heartbreaking cuts are the overcast, baleful paens to love lost or unattainable: the Sea Urchins' teary-eyed "A Morning Odyssey";

"Farewell, Dear Bonnie," the Orchids' quivery lovelorn plea; the oceanic arrangements of The Sweetest Ache's wide-eyed and whispery "If I Could Shine"; the wandering regret of the Field Mice's "So Said Kay" and the grey, misty ephemera of their instrumental "Holland Street."

MANDALA OCTET La Spada Di San Galgano (Accurate, 117 Columbia St., Cambridge, MA 02139/617-354-4309)—On this release, bassist, composer and arranger John Leaman, with his two-horn, three-reeds and a rhythm section, the Mandala Octet, were inspired by the story of 12th century nobleman-peacenik Galgano Guidotti. La Spada di San Galgano covers the spectrum from sweet harmonic textures to fierce discord and agitated rhythms. The structural shift from maddeningly catchy melodies to more offkilter sections is extremely inspired, and makes this a continually arresting listen. Leaman masterfully arranges this mini big band, continually breaking up the sound, folding back on itself and constantly challenging the listener to follow the form and content of its compositions. No theme-solos theme here, Leaman realizes the importance of tradition, but takes this ensemble onto another level altogether, making La Spada di San Galgana stand out from the armful of new jazz releases.

RUDOLPH GREY Mask Of Light (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-6838)—When you live in New York City, you hear a lot of weird things, and one of those things is composer/guitarist Rudolph Grey. First emerging on the New York scene with his group Red Transistor in the late '70s, he's been a quiet but strongly subversive force in the music world ever since, appearing most recently on the New York Eye And Ear Central compilation on Matador. Along with John Coltrane alumnus Rasheed Ali on drums, Jim Sauter of Borbetomagus (the infamous squawking, honking two-sax avant-garde duo) helps out by spewing red-faced jags of torn sound over Rudolph's rude, crazed riffs, giving Mask Of Light a biting edge (and in fact, nearly obliterating Grey's guitar playing in some places). With its three lengthy and highly challenging compositions, the closest thing we can compare Mask to is the duet between jazz saxophonist Peter Brotzmann and his guitarist-son Caspar on their Last Home CD, the kind of brutal avant-jazz duel where sax and guitar grab each other's throats and squeeze, wringing the life out as each tries to overpower the other's fury and tenaciousness.

FRANK ALLISON & THE ODD SOX Hokey Smake! (Collision Time, c/o Relapse, P.O. Box 611, Plymouth, MI 48170/313-451-5604)—Hokey Smake! is like a novel discussing the joys and pains of the working class life—it just happens to be in the form of a compact disc. Each song is a chapter written in a different style, representing one facet of the central theme. Musically, Allison's Midwestern twang is a constant, its weathered tones giving the songs a sincerity and warmth. The guitars, which alternate between jangly and Jim Beam-raunchy, also form a steady backdrop for Allison's tales. His songs relate stories of birth, growing up, the heartaches of love and a lack thereof, the monotony of working and other universal truths. Each song relays a specific story, but seen as a whole (and with the aid of the accompanying illustrated, sing-a-long booklet) the songs take on a larger, more significant meaning. The craft of Frank Allison's songwriting and the Odd Sox' playing really comes across on "Cowgirl's Rash Round-Up," the Neil Young-ish "Remus Road," the beautiful, acoustic "Girl Down The Street," "Bachelor Remains" and "Jay," which is also out on a Collision Time 7" that includes two new songs.

GOD'S LITTLE MONKEYS Lip (Cooking Vinyl, c/o Alias, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107/415-546-1433)—On their second U.S. release England's God's Little Monkeys expand on the sounds found on their folk/punk debut from late-'89. Like a British indie brand of X or Glass Eye, GLM alternate male and female vocals between Jon Townend and Jo Swiss and infuse their political stance into their roots-oriented music (and they do it without sounding just like those bands). They weave their vocal harmonies around energetic rhythms that, while not at all Manchester-like, make you want to bob around just the same. Their cover of the Temptations' "Ball Of Confusion" contours their off-center view of things: they play fiery pop tunes that are too restless to be just pop tunes, always longing for more than settling in where it's comfortable. Lip gives a lot of lip to social and pop injustice, and it is not just meager lip-service. Pucker up to: "You Win Some But Lose More," "Hollywood Or The Humber," "Reynard," "True Colour" and "Defense Of The Wicked."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

CURVE Frozen (EP) (Charisma, 1790 Broadway, 20th Fl., New York, NY 10019)—Curve's domestic debut takes its lead from the mesmerizing grooves of the band's first, import-only EP, Blindfold. "Coast Is Clear" shows Toni Halliday's mysterious, ethereal vocals becoming even more ensnaring, echoing the coos of My Bloody Valentine's Bilinda Butcher, but atop a bouncier beat. Dean Garcia's stormy guitars create a misty haze above an enrapturing bath of churning dance beats. "The Colour Hurts" is a slow, hypnotic lullaby, while the title cut shimmers with a rain of Cocteau-scented jangle.

SONIC YOUTH/GUMBALL/LAUGHING HYENAS/THESE IMMORTAL SOULS (7" EP) (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—In this exclusive Singles Club double-pack, Alice Cooper, one of the spottiest and most prolific Detroit-esque icons (somewhere between Kiss and the Nuge in terms of quality, schlockiness and lasting popularity) proves to be one of the most compositionally flexible candidates for the hoary old concept of a covers comp. Either the bands take the cheese and run with it, as in Sonic Youth's hysterically soft-porn-horror-tease thump through "Is It My Body," or in Gumball's case, they actually present themselves as a viable heir to the legacy, sneering and sleazing through "Under My Wheels." These Immortal Souls play up the absurdly melodramatic "Luney Tune," and Laughing Hyenas undergo an astonishing sonic transformation, John Brannon improbably harmonizing with his own screams, and including a real guitar solo on the jaw-dropping "Public Animal #9." We can only protest the lack of any versions of "I Never Cry" or "Clones."

AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB "Rise" (5") (Alias, 374 Brannan St., San Francisco, CA 94107)—In the wake of a truly tremendous LP effort, Alias presents a CD-single spotlighting one of the more powerful tracks from American Music Club's Everclear. "Rise" captures AMC at their most anthemic and far-reaching; though the musical backdrop may sound huge and sprawling, Mark Eitzel's lyrics are as pointed and personal as they can get. The bonus tracks shed further light on the AMC experience, giving us three more reasons to live in these extra tracks not available on Everclear. Standouts: the laconic "Chanel #5" and "Crabwalk," presented here in a sparse acoustic setting.

JONESTOWN You Can't Swim With Handcuffs On . . . (7" EP) (C/Z, 1407 E. Madison, #41, Seattle, WA 98122/206-441-0875)—Live, this 5-member band continuously hovers on the edge of utter confusion, addled with tempo changes, extra instruments and complex frills, yet always manages to stay within the confines of each song, like a mug of beer that never really overflows, but only threatens a mess. Lead singer Dan Gannon tends to sound like a synthesis of Jon Langford (Mekons) and Mark E. Smith (The Fall) on the A-side, "Recall," which moves around one cute riff, Gannon's whistle adding to the excitement, and the band providing enough energy and fuzz to keep this catchy tune far from the "pop" genre. Their first LP, All Day Sucker, will be out in one month on their own Project A Bomb Records.

PELL MELL "Bring On The China" (7") (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-7286)—The music of the current Pell Mell extends the breadth and density of the terse rhythmic jams of their first two instrumental LPs. There's parts of "Bring On The China" that recall the jagged Velvetisms of the Flying Nun school of wistful pop (minus, of course, the vocals), while at times Greg Freeman's throbbing basslines are reminiscent of Sugartime or a more rhythmically-centered Love Tractor. There's some nice modernist 4AD-ish artwork as well, making the single well worth having even though both tracks are culled from the forthcoming and much-awaited Pell Mell album Flow.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Tom's Album (A&M, 1416 LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Little did Suzanne Vega know that her a capella cup-of-coffee-and-newspaper narrative would become the dut-dut-dut heard 'round the world; on this release she's collected several unsolicited versions from locales such as Italy, Germany, Jamaica and Sweden, as well as the original from Solitude Standing and the DNA-remixed hit. In her liner notes Vega recommends skipping around from track to track instead of listening all the way through, and the best Tom's to go are the reggae interpretation by Michigan And Smiley, her atmospheric, Kurt Weill-ish instrumental arrangement ("Tom's Diner Reprise") and "Tom's ?" by Billy Bragg, Peter Holsapple and Michael Stipe under the name Bingo Hand Job, who try winging the song live (with chuckleworthy results) during a secret gig in London.

JACKPOT!

WAG Multiple Cartoon Dogs (Happy Tails, c/o Joshua Wiener, 808 Clark St., Apt. #2, Evanston, IL 60201/708-869-8514)—After catching our eye with tasteful renditions of James Thurber hounds on their J-card, the subtle pleasures of Wag's slow-jangled, intricately tensile pop entered our ears with originality and freshness anew. Understated and un-

F.Y.I.

Look out, the world is about to experience Sheer Terror, if only by writing to Kraze Records (29 Willet Ave., Port Chester, NY prepossessing without actually bringing a bumper upon the scene Wag float up carefree memories of those Great Midwest compilations, like Big Hits Of Mid-America and when the region teemed with smart, sensitive and guilelessly simple shoulda-been-hits that have all sunk without a trace. Wag have obviously learned all the finer points of pop-crafting success, with carefree, soulful melodies, and a couple of guitars frisking ahead just barely keeping their leads from tangling. Hopefully they've also sussed enough about the filthy dirty reality aspects to avoid their elders' disappearing acts. All members take turns singing and writing, and the two guitarists switch around on leads, which means we are treated to mild and equal variations of softly-rung charm. After a truly hectic pre-convention day, our nervous systems were refreshed by the gamboling punk sprint of "Life In Two Minutes," the oddly Monochrome Set-like dapperness of "Think Of You," "Sing To The Sun" and the buttercup smoothness of "GC" and "Get A Life," all taking a couple of listens to fully appreciate, and all undeniable mini-classics of the genre.

10573/914-934-1313) and listening to what comes back. This band has sprung from the ashes of the NYC hardcore scene—you can tell because their bio includes a lengthy definition of what "punk" means, what it was like in the glory days, as well as a lengthy tirade about the "scene" and all the racist skinhead idiots who give said "scene" a bad name. But these guys aren't just your typical sad punks; they're one of the few proud bands who have managed successfully to grow up and out with their music. The years of evolution have placed their sound somewhere in the vicinity of some of the harder postpunks (Murphy's Law, Brutal Truth) with tinges of—dare we say it—a metallic edge to the production and vocals. Check this tape to see one possible direction that a mohawk can grow out into . . . From Vancouver, The Sweaters bristle with energy and intensity in their debut demo offering (103-990 Bute St., Vancouver, BC, VGE-147) fuelled by a slightly manic guitar attack, and a skewed sense of lyrical reality in the vein of TMB Giants or the Young Fresh Fellows. Per-vading everything is a sardonic and singular sense of humor that sets them apart immediately from other guitar-ilk bands, sort of like what Buffalo Tom or Soul Asylum might be if they sat around and watched TV more often. Be forewarned, however, that these are only 4-track warm-ups prior to booking time in a real studio with legendary Egg records producer (!?) Conrad Uno, he of Fastbacks and Young Fresh Fellows producing fame. Stay tuned.

JACKPOT!

ROBERT WYATT Dondestan (Stone Immaculate, Studio 2, 8 Nursery Road, London NW9 8BP/071-274-8921)—"Dondestan" is Spanish for "where are they?," which ironically fits a man prone to (at least) five-year silences between recordings. Such an underexposed but illustrious history as Robert Wyatt's demands reprising. A founding member of psych/pop-art luminaries Soft Machine, through to their jazz-fusion noodling, the drummer and occasional singer jumped ship to front the more emotive Matching Mole before an accident broke his back, leaving him wheelbound. The trauma only intensified his already aching, avant-rock dream-scaping, making 1973's Rock Bottom one of the all-time addictions, an English-blues counterpart to Van Morrison's Astral Weeks. 1975's Ruth Is Stranger Than Richard signposted Wyatt's jazz obsessions before 1980-81's exceptional series of cover version singles built semiotic bridges between "Strange Fruit," Chic's "At Last I Am Free" and the trad Communist anthem "The Red Flag," among others, collated for 1982's Nothing Can Stop Us, the most succinct and humane of politicized records. 1986's Old Rotten Hat was a self-penned purge of similar veins, and now Dondestan, Wyatt's most realized exposition since Rock Bottom.

Inspired by a prolonged early-'80s sojourn in Spain, long-time partner Alfreda Bange supplies evocative lyrical accounts of the disorientation experienced in an out-of-season holiday resort, to which Wyatt's four taut, haiku-style tracts, whose anti-colonialist fervor laments the earth's "dispossessedness" (the title track name-checks Palestine and Kurdistan), providing a political coda. To match these visions of rootlessness (a strange free world indeed), Wyatt continues to drift over jazz, folk, pop and ambient boundaries, building up sparse, swelling, somnambulating keyboard weaves, doodles and drones, part-scored by fleeting, windswept percussion and embossed with that unique voice—an extraordinary, drifting husk of an instrument, the quintessence of melancholy perhaps, but a plaintive burr capable of transmitting perplexion, anger and humor. Breathtaking in its simplicity, ingenuity and acute beauty, striking the same harmolodic, paradoxically mesmeric and restless chord as a Miles Davis or Coltrane exploration (no idle comparison), Dondestan reappraises Rock Bottom's floating, aquamarine introspection ("Catholic Architecture," "The Sight Of The Wind," "CP Jeebies") and Old Rotten Hat's starker, more defined "pop"/song moodistry ("Worship," "Lisp Service," "Left On Man"), while "Shrink-wrap"'s muttered, rap-driven boogie-woogie flight and "Dondestan"'s quasi-mantra pick up their rhythmic skirts in the be-bop fashion of Ruth.

A remote figure in rock/pop-marketing terminology, Wyatt's consummate brilliance is perhaps the ideal example of music falling into place in its own time, without careerist pressures, and of music that manages to jettison self-consciousness in its experimental foraging. Essential listening, needless to say.

TECHNO ANIMAL Ghosts (Pathological, 11 Brondesbury Park Mansions, Salusbury Road, Queens Park, London NW6/071-372-1769)—

Magnified images of fleas and flies, distorted hall-of-mirrors and Mansonesque portraits and a story of Joey's attempt at self-trepanation (boring a head in the skull to attain third-eye enlightenment) decorate the sleeve, which says all you need to know about Techno Animal's concerns, given that no vocals illuminate this venture—well, maybe a primal scream or seven. Techno Animal is Justin Broderick from Godflesh and Kevin Martin from God, UK grindcore maestros, lovers of disorientation, brutality, the ghost in the machine, the beast inside. Plumbing fathoms, scaling heights, Ghosts is man-machine, techno-animal heaven/hell, a post-Einsturzende/Young Gods transposition on samplers and programming, a cornucopia of seismic dervishes, or rhythms feeding off themselves in the style of serial composition. Ghosts' quaking, impacted brushstrokes tower across a cinematic spectrum: "White Dog" is a frazzling techno-funk that dissolves into a Terminator symphony; "Freak Fucker" loops a Nuremberg (or thereabouts) rally to fearsome, numbing ends; "The Dream Forger" layers aching saxes until drifts of smoke begin to resemble a choking post-nuclear wilderness; "God vs Flesh" is the 21-minute soundtrack to a dying civilization, in the year of the Diamond Dogs; while "Walk, Then Crawl," "Tough Cop—Soft Cop" and "Spineless" are the least possible word in alienated tech-torment (Al Jourgensen and Trent Reznor, take note). The sound of nine-foot nails.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Martin (Factory, c/o Capersville, 83 Clerkenwell Road, London EC1/071-430-9060)—

In Martin Hannett, the punk era found the one man to steer production away from its '60s pop and '70s rock moorings and toward the future. By the time he lost a fight against illness earlier this year, at 41, Hannett's revolutionary spirit, primarily exploring dub-style ideas of echo, space, drums and digital delays, had radicalized even mainstream techniques. After Buzzcocks' and Jilted John's fractious punk energy was neatly preserved, punk-laureate John Cooper Clarke was the first to undergo Hannett's luminous, ghost-town acoustics and drug-fed hands-on experiments. But Joy Division benefitted the most; New Order readily admit they fought against his industrial-radiation sound-glow because it didn't duplicate what they heard in their heads. But what a radiant sound, as "She's Lost Control" testifies. On through OMD, A Certain Ratio (a more monochrome dance anthem than "Do The Du" you won't find), U2's debut single "11 O'Clock Tick Tock" (the sole non-Man-cunians here), New Order's "Everything's Gone Green" and, years after Hannett had put business wrangles and personal excesses behind him, the Happy Mondays and World Of Twist, who got a warmer, less distinctively Hannett sound. Basically, technology caught up and disappeared over the hill. To hear this extra-sensory imagination, one almost wishes that technology had stood still instead of racing into the kitchen-sink hands of Trevor Horn & Co. The sharpest reminder yet of Manchester's glittering prizes.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

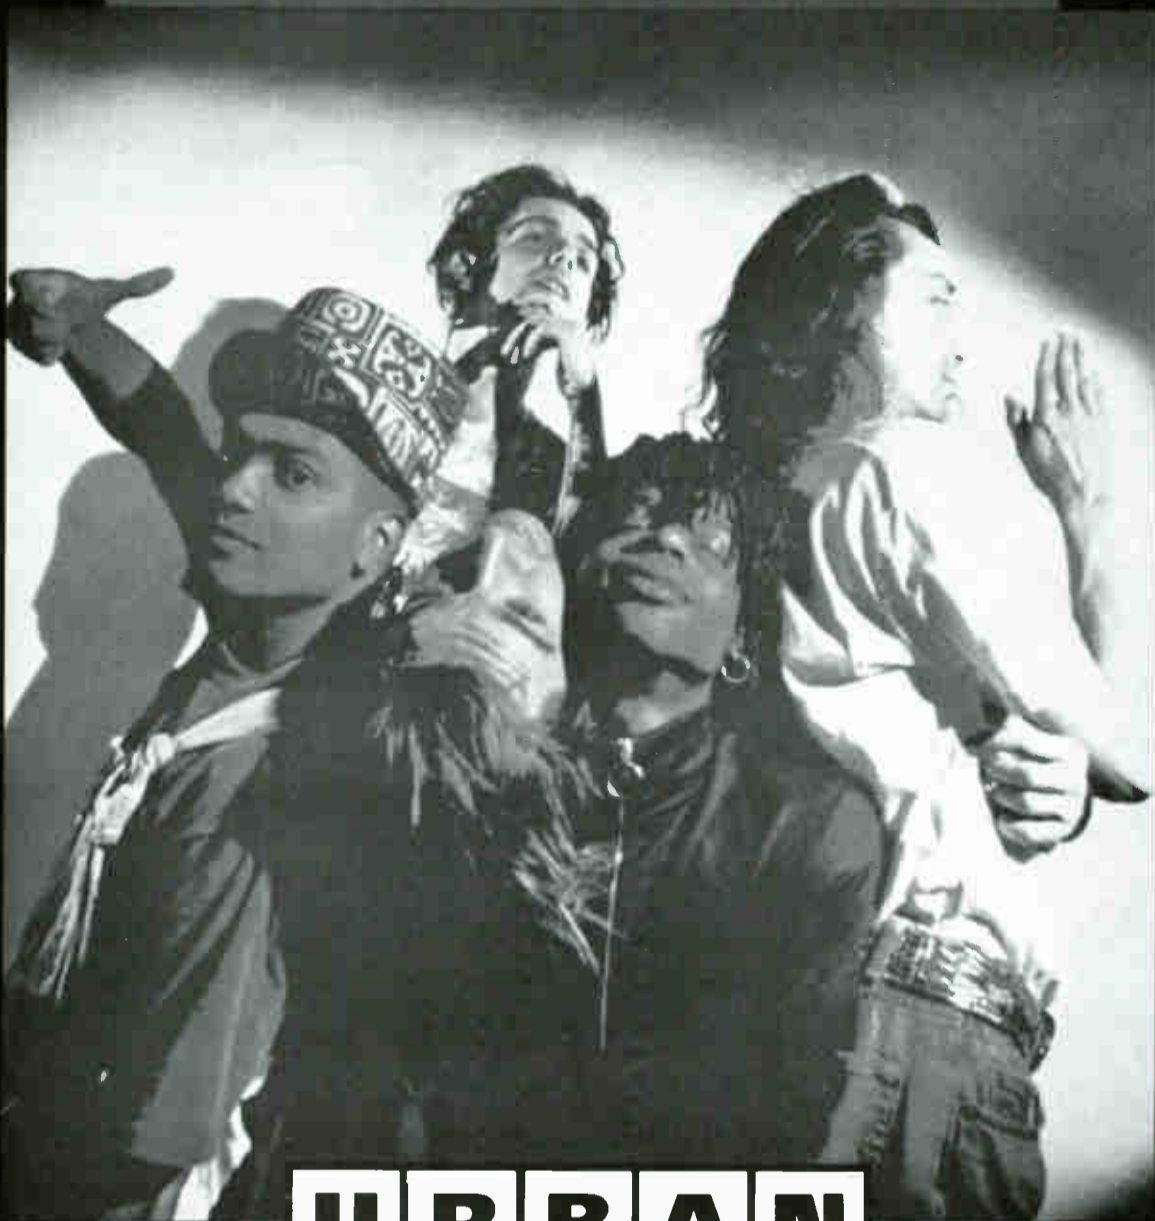

Great albums, too many adjectives, but little in the way of news, having just returned from California foraging. Overwhelmed by endless desert vistas—circling the Joshua Tree Monument, the Mohave Desert and Death Valley—before paralleling the Sierra Nevadas on the way to Yosemite, it occurred to me how much groups (especially in the UK) approximate that blissed-out, transcending feeling because their inner-urban, nocturnal lives rarely experience it in the flesh. Ride calls their album Nowhere, but Death Valley's enveloping, beautiful emptiness is a real, inspirational nowhere. OK, that's born-again glib, but they do say, when you're going to San Francisco, wear a flower in your hair. As for coming home, I'm in no mood to consider the onset of greying temperature/plummeting autumn, but you can have an In My Room: ROBERT WYATT's Dondestan, naturally; DEAD CAN DANCE's forthcoming compilation A Passage Of Time; THIN WHITE ROPE's The Ruby Sea; CRANES' Wings Of Joy; and DAVID BOWIE's reissued Low/Heroes/Lodger tryptych.

SINGLES

45-of-the-column: the BOO-RADLEYS' Boo Up EP sounds like the best streamlined mating yet of My Bloody Valentine and Dinosaur Jr. sonic-pop stylings. "Dreams Burn Down" aside, Ride has yet to capture guitars bleeding so beautifully or climbing in support of those childhood-ending, Byrdsian-yearning melodies. "Song For Up" is a close but irresistible cousin of "Freak Scene," with an ignited, Goo-ish guitar climax (Rough Trade, c/o Stone Immaculate, address above)... While the Triffids remain on sabbatical, core member DAVID McCOMB has hung out in London, in the company of ex-Morrissey songpartner/producer-at-large Stephen Street. Given the lanky one's usual standards, "The Message"'s slender Motown-pop lilt, programmed percussive punch and rainswept arrangement lacks emotional resonance. OK, without a band, a humongous advance and a change of musical scenery for 10 years, you can expect McComb to branch out, but going by the still gorgeous "Song Of No Return" and "I Heard Things Turn Out This Way," the machine method fails to magnify McComb's integral romantic schisms (Foundation, 79B Moore Park Road, London SW6 2HH/071-371-5946)... Strange how SPIRITUALIZED's new double A-side "Run"—another clearly Velvets-derived, Suicide-vibed pop drone, off the back of, yes, the VU's classic "Run Run Run"—and "I Want You"—melodic, mushrooming fuzz chords, feathery strings, clocking keyboard chimes—is outshone by its B-sides. "Luminescence (Stay With Me)" and "Effervescent (Chimes)" are two typically extended, Spacemenesque minimal drone/pulse instrumentals just in time for the magic mushroom season (Dedicated, c/o Best In Press, Unit 2C, Bouman House, 7 Greenland St., London NW1/071-284-1922).

CHART TALK

Column by Craig Marks and Andy Skibins

Pixies: Under le fontaine

Carpenters: A&M Releasing le box sete

Same as it ever was: Week number three for Nirvana at #1 shows the boys from Seattle becoming further entrenched and even more comfortable with their blessed chart positions: #1 Audience Response, #1 in all four regionals and Top Cut, and there's lots of leg room to keep them stretched out. Keeping pace are closet tennis players Red Hot Chili Peppers (3-2, #2 Audience Response, #2 in all four regionals and #2 Top Cut) and closet soccer star Billy Bragg (4-3, #4 Audience Response, #3 in all regions but the West where he's hurt by a #7 showing and #3 Top Cut).

Ready, aim, fire: Leading the new entries to the Top 10 is the eagerly awaited fourth album from Public Enemy (#5 debut, #1 Radio Breakthrough, #4 Adventure Pick, #3 Audience Response and "Can't Truss It" #4 Top Cut), which could possibly be the first-ever rap album to top the CMJ Radio Top 150 chart. With the PE album out, the Pixies single becomes the highest charting 5", cruising into the Top 10 (23-8). Look for their album to debut in the Top 10 next week. Also new to the Top 10 are the Smithereens (12-9), hoping to be "Top Of The [College] Pops." Look for Dischord's Fugazi (27-14), A&M's Soundgarden (#17 debut, #2 Radio Breakthrough, #2 Adventure Pick) and SBK's Blur (41-18) to beat on the Top 10 door next week.

It's a virtual melting pot: The scope and wide range of sounds finding success on the chart shows that programmers are opening up to a variety of styles, and that these styles can room together in harmony. The guitar driven Swerve-driver (#21 debut, #1 Adventure Pick), the psycho hip-hop of Nettwerk-I.R.S.' MC 900ft Jesus (#31 debut), the diverse indie-rock stylings of Homestead's Sebadoh (50-37) and King Kong (#85 debut) and Reckless' Bevis Frond (129-87), Pointblank-Charisma's blues legend John Lee Hooker (62-44), hip-hop's P.M. Dawn (74-59), A Tribe Called Quest (#69 debut) and Urban Dance Squad (trailer single debut at #96), techno's Die Warzau (#71 debut) and Shamen (trailer single debut at #78) and the loudness of Dischord's Nation Of Ulysses (#88 debut) and Epic's Prong (#103 debut) all put the pieces of college radio's musical jigsaw together.

From Dinosaur's 1985 debut LP on Homestead, through Sebadoh's triumphant third LP, III, also on Homestead, Lou Barlow has quietly asserted himself as a major minor-talent, inhabiting a similar fringe of genius as fellow fried eggs Eugene Chadbourne, R. Stevie Moore and even Jandek. Granted, Lou and Sebadoh's recent conventional indie rock band approach presents their ideas in a much more trad way, but there's still an impenetrable sense of inner logic connecting Sebadoh to pop deconstructionists everywhere. III is by far their most accessible and commercially successful outing to date, and CTR, KFJC, KSPC, WBAU, WCCS, WCWM, WFMU (#1), WHUS, WMUA, WOBC, WRSU and WYBC couldn't agree more.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

It's rare, but it's been known to happen... The top two albums on the Progressive Retail chart mirror exactly the top two albums on the Radio Top 150 chart. DGC's Nirvana (2-1) surpasses WB's Red Hot Chili Peppers (1-2) by a small margin and now sits pretty at the top of both the sales and In-store play chart. Def Jam-Columbia's Public Enemy rises 27-3, as well as garnering the #2 In-store spot. Paisley Park-WB's Prince And The N.P.G. (or was that the other way around?) jumps up 42-6 and debuts at #4 on In-store, while Elektra's Billy Bragg hogs the #10 spot at both sales and In-store.

Below the top ten, modern rock heavies Robbie Robertson and Motley Crue debut at #16 and #19 respectively. A little further down is the latest from Atlantic's Everything But The Girl, entering at #30, and Helmet's new 7" on Amphetamine Reptile, in at #37. While we're on the subject of debuts, here's the rest: the domestic version of Primal Scream's Screemadelica is in at #49, Fiction-Atlantic's Die Warzau enters at #50, the import version of Nitzer Ebb's new LP debuts at #60, MCA's James Taylor debuts at #64, and Touch And Go's Scratch Acid collection enters at #69.

A few quick chart notes: The Pixies newest, Trompe Le Monde, is up 60-32 on import, but we're waiting for the gigantic domestic debut next week. Gee Street-Island's P.M. Dawn is becoming an instant favorite, moving up 63-38 and entering In-store at #8. Also, Sire-Reprise's The Farm has re-entered the chart at #46, probably boosted by extensive MTV play.

Get a pen and paper ready because we've added two new stores this week. Mark Pickerel has opened up Rodeo Records in Ellensburg, Washington, and he can be reached at (509) 962-4320. Montclair, New Jersey's Cafe Soundz has its list printed this week in the Retail Reports section. The store's Bob Lisi can be reached at (201) 509-2233. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

MC 900FT JESUS Welcome To My Dream (Nettwerk, c/o I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim, Universal City, CA 91604)—Fall to your knees mere mortals! MC 900 Ft Jesus has touched down on earth once again with another out-of-this-world endowment in the form of Welcome To My Dream. Challenging the artistic ingenuity of most conventional rap, MC 900 Ft (a.k.a. Mark Griffin) fearlessly creates a shadowy and surreal world where his distorted rapping and spoken word is accepted as the truth. His style precludes any attempt at categorization—"Falling Elevators" combines free-form jazz with a speedy bassline while the first single "Killer Inside Me" contains lyrics inspired by the Jim Thompson novel of the same name and a raw and funky groove with touches of scratching and sampling. Among the eight cuts, Welcome travels a wide spectrum of imagination, sarcastic wit and rigid, penetrating beats that establish MC 900 Ft Jesus as one of the most divine and extraordinary MC's on the planet. The first commandment: Thou shall not sleep on MC 900 Ft Jesus! Dive into these: The slow and dreamy, "The City Sleeps," the steamy funk on "Hearing Voices In One's Head" and the sample-heavy "Dancing Barefoot."

H.E.A.L. Civilization Vs. Technology (Edutainer, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It's not about black and white, KRS-ONE's H.E.A.L. (Human Education Against Lies) organization is a pro-humanity posse whose main objective is to educate and offer alternatives to the suppressive lies being forced to people—there will be a book published of the same name soon. He brings together many dancehall and reggae artists like Shabba Ranks, Ziggy Marley ("One Bright Day"), and Sister Carol to contribute with fat, heavy dancehall tracks (check the star-studded "Know Your Culture"). Awareness of family and culture are evident on "Family Got To Get Busy" and "O' Freedom" while KRS and wife Ms. Melodie drop deep science on "Anti-Ho." R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe joins KRS and Harmony with some vocal rants on the title track and political folk artist Billy Bragg appears on "Tighten Up Your Wig." Like Stop The Violence, KRS's proves once again, that positive action promotes awareness and progress.

FUNKYTOWN PROS Reachin A Level Of Assassination (Peace Posse/4th & Broadway, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—Whether you're a fan of East coast or West coast rap, among the purists it's safe to say that the rappers of the left coast need to break out of their one-dimensional reputation. Other than a select few, it's long been assumed that West coast rappers carry a "gangsta" image that had them smokin' cops, beatin' ho's, and bragging about their toughness. The duo of Boiwundah and Devastatin (The Rhythm Fluctuator), who make up Funkytown Pros, break the mold with hard East coast beats and samples that provide texture and atmosphere to hard-line anti-commercial and corporate lyrics that are bluntly delivered with a sense of cold disregard for any form of authority ("White Green," "False Prophet"). You'll be scared straight on: "Satisfaction," "Assassination," "Just Another Toss Up" and "Here Me Now, Believe Me Later."

ON THE CHART

Well, I guess it's no surprise to anybody that Public Enemy debuted Apocalypse 91...The Enemy Strikes Black at the top of the chart this week (ho-hum). How long will it last? Probably not as long as LPs past, but it will leave an indelible mark. It captured #1's at 37 of the 143 reporting stations, dethroning Naughty By Nature (1-2), who captured 13 #1s. A Tribe Called Quest (4-3) leapfrogs over Queen Latifah (3-4) while Cypress Hill (6-5), Nice & Smooth (8-6), MC Lyte (12-9) and P.M. Dawn (13-10) keep a slow, steady pace upwards. More debuts to talk about: Super-producer Marley Marl debuts the second of his In Control series at #18; Tommy Boy's Digital Underground debut their new single, "Kiss You Back" (reminds me of "Me, Myself And I"), at #26; LFO finds chart success at #31; and Nettwerk-I.R.S.'s MC 900ft Jesus debuts his second LP at #32. This week's Adventure Picks as chosen by the reporters are: 1) Public Enemy; 2) P.M. Dawn; 3) Digital Underground; 4) A Tribe Called Quest; 5) Jibri; 6) H.E.A.L.; 7) Black Sheep; 8) Ed O.G And Da Bulldogs; 9) Marley Marl; 10) Def Jef. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

FU-SCHNICKENS "Ring The Alarm" [100 BPM] (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)—From the culturally-rich hotbed of Flatbush, Brooklyn comes the trio of Chip Fu, Poc Fu and Moc Fu (FU=For Unity) who (believe it or not) are big fans of kung-fu movies! Their debut single, "Ring The Alarm" carries a distinct ragamuffin flavor while it also chatters away with a high-pitched, and extremely catchy chorus. Highlighting this new direction are the flawless vocal acrobatics of Chip Fu who rhymes with speed, character and clarity. There's also a Steely & Cleve mix that boasts a heavier dancehall beat. Just what is a Schnicken? You'll have to wait until next year when FU-Schnickens drop their debut LP that's being co-produced by A Tribe Called Quest and Black Sheep.

THE NEXT BIG THING

Ya wanna know what the next big single is going to be? KID PANIC & THE ADVENTURES OF DEAN DEAN's "We Can Do This" [120 BPM] (S.O.U.L., c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608). All the fundamentals are in place: a heavy-funk groove that forces you to move, frenetic breaks, scratching and samples to keep the energy level on 10, samples of the Jungle Brothers and the S.O.S. Band's "Take Your Time (Do It Right)" which give it instant appeal, and simple yet forceful rhyming from Kid Panic. Other singles that have "hit" potential include: the sunny dancehall rhythms of PAPA SAN's "Strange" (Pow Wow, 225 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019 (212) 245-3010) and from the Time's Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis' new Perspective label is LO-KEY's "Attention: The Shawanda Story" (Perspective, c/o A&M, 1416 N. La Brea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028). Keep your eyes and ears peeled for The Digital Dope: Beat Box CD Vol. 2 coming at this year's CMJ Music Marathon. There will be a limited amount given away in the registration bags, so be there to get yours! OOPS! In last week's Def Jef review, the cut "Cali's All That" was said to contain samples of "Rappers Delight"—not so. The correct sample was the Sugar Hill Gang's "8th Wonder." Fat peace shouts to Miles Davis, Jamison Grillo, Haiti, Branford Marsalis and WIUP! Word Out.

Send me your soul: Mail it to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 245 Great Neck Rd., 3rd Fl., Great Neck, NY 11021.

SHEILA CHANDRA Silk (Shanachie, 37 East Clinton Street, Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)—She has been a progressive rocker, a dance hall Indo-disco queen, a wild experimentalist on par with Laurie Anderson or Meredith Monk. Through her career with Monsoon and then into the '80's with co-conspirator/musician Steve Coe, Sheila Chandra has been a musical and social revolutionary, not only bringing the music of India to a modern audience, but breaking ground for Indian women with her public appearances. With this collection of pieces from her numerous solo albums from 1983 to 1990, America gets its first real opportunity to share in her vision, and hear her stunning voice. From her first solo outing to her latest, a richly dark vocal experiment, Chandra has created a completely original sound that has imitators but few equals. She combines a pristine, unaffected vocal style with elements drawn from London's club scene, the streets of New Delhi and the depths of modern technology. Some of the cuts seem rather mundane eight years later, especially the four tracks from her first album, Out On My Own, but that's probably more a result of the world having finally caught up with her. In their time, these cuts pushed the outside limit. Her real strength is in her use of unusual voice techniques and strange settings. "Quiet 2" was an early use of a percussive, wordless vocal. Two from her 1990 album Roots And Wings are her most enduring. "Lament Of McCrimmon/The Banshee" takes all of her diverse elements, and fuses them to a Scottish melody and theme. "Mecca" is a endless cyclical chant against a droning string part, a subliminal message both sensory and spiritual. Special mention also has to go to Steve Coe, who produced these recordings, and wrote many of the songs, and to Coe and Martin Smith, who performed much of the instrumental parts. The collaboration between them and Chandra makes for beautiful, sometimes powerful music. Shanachie has plans to release some of her other records, including the brilliant Roots and Wings. Tomorrow wouldn't be soon enough!

AZAGAS AND ARCHIBOGS The Sixties Sounds of Lagos Highlife/THE KAMPALA SOUND 1960s Ugandan Dance Music (Original Music, 418 Lasher Road, Tivoli, NY 12583/914-756-2767)—Two new CDs from Original Music come your way this month. The Kampala Sound is a reissue of an earlier LP, while Lagos Highlife presents a new collection of early sixties big bands from Nigeria. What both have in common is an interesting view of the African social and political scene in the sixties, and how it affected the music. In Uganda, it was dominated by two fronts, the music of Kenya and, as in most of central Africa, Congo/Zaire. But unlike other neighboring nations, the local influences barely had time to develop. There were no recording studios in Uganda; most singers travelled to Nairobi and worked with Kenyan bands, singing in their own unique style, but to the groove of the local band. What wasn't influenced by

Hil for those of you who are seeing this page for the first time, welcome to CMJ's New World Music section and chart, where Burning Spear currently reigns at #1. Below the spear it's the Itals and Israel Vibration as well as a currently dethroned Majek Fashek And The Prisoners. Our big movers this week are the Wailers Band (13-7), Material (11-9, entering the top ten), Black Uhuru, Sister

Carol and Macka B. New entries to note include the two latest Earthworks releases, Kenya Dance Mania and Jit—The Movie, plus Lucky Dube, Culture and Mickey Hart's Planet Drum LP. the Kenyan sound was certainly colored by the almighty rumba of the Congo. What the economics of recording didn't finish was certainly snuffed out by the rise of Idi Amin's terror regime. Lagos Highlife is a new set of the highlife dance bands from Nigeria. This was the jazz age of Africa, and the horn bands were at their pinnacle; Their blend of Cuban rhythm with local drum beats is one of the classic sounds of Africa. Since the bands were usually led by Ibo musicians, the Lagos sound came crashing down when the Ibo declared their independence and left for the new nation of Biafra. With their brand of highlife suddenly lacking in political correctness, the dominant Yoruba population turned to the guitars of juju (and like the rest of the world, rock 'n roll) for their inspiration. But in the short span they flourished, both styles on these recordings were creative and innovative, introducing the world to a rich musical civilization. The local flavor of these bands identified them in a way that later music never did and each band is distinctly regional in spite of their absorption of other African and European instruments and harmonies. The heavy drum beats and horns of Lagos, and the strumming guitars and smooth vocals of Kampala are the antithesis of "world music." They are defiantly Nigerian and Ugandan. These old 45s are a priceless look at some of the sweetest music ever made on the continent.

SALAMAT AND NAZAKAT ALI (Rykodisc, 58 Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem MA 01970/508-744-7678)—I am a fan of most things vocal. Meredith Monk, Shelly Hirsch, Salif Keita and Ella Fitzgerald all hold equal sway in my library. The Ali brothers have taken up a place of honor there as well. They are said to be legendary in North India, and these two rag are excellent proof of their right to the title. Hindustani singing is among the world's most complex styles, demanding years of concentrated devotion and sweat. Together they also embody what is great in music, skill and passion, their very different voices creating a graceful symmetry. A careful balance of structure and improvisation is at the root of khyal (literally: fantasy), and that carries through the performance. Salamat Ali is by far the embodiment of skill, his rapid-fire delivery of intricate lines counterpointing the tabla drums, swirling from octave to octave easily yet flawlessly. Nazakat Ali provides a melodic beauty, a lower pitched gentleness to his brother's hurricane force delivery. As you listen, though, what is most striking is how each disappears into the whole piece. You hear the rag, not the singers. The drone of the sarangi, the pulse of the tabla, the notes of the voices become whole and inseparable. Music this long and subtle may be challenging for a radio audience but the rewards will be obvious and rich.

READING "BETWEEN THE LINES."

I don't produce the show, and I don't get paid by the station: Nonetheless, I am proud to be affiliated with WPKN Radio in Bridgeport CT. During the first phase of the current Middle East war, WPKN instituted a special public affairs program called "Between The Lines" to try to cover the untold stories and little-covered alternative news and opinions concerning U.S. policy. It has expanded into a full blown weekly program covering all kinds of questions that the national and local mainstream press wouldn't dream of dealing with, from AIDS and abortion to environmental and political issues. WPKN is preparing to make this program available to other radio stations around the world on a weekly basis, for a minimal cost. If you want to become part of a small news network that really cares about REAL news rather than ratings and sales, get in touch with Scott Harris, c/o WPKN, 244 University Avenue, Bridgeport, CT 06601 or call and leave a message for him at 203-576-4895. . . . As we enter our fund raising period at WPKN, I find myself once again marvelling at our listeners. In an age of homogenized, categorized, carefully constructed "alternative" radio, these folks have chosen to pull out their wallets and support anarchy. They thrive on the unexpected and the weird. They don't always agree with what they hear, and more than one has called to pledge, adding that they can't listen to a lot of the programs, but they are sure glad there's a station out there to broadcast them! Join the handful of truly alternative radio stations in America by ignoring the accepted wisdom, rules and the hype. Challenge your listeners instead of coddling them!

I am off for a few weeks of much-needed vacation. In the meantime, the column will be a mixture of information from CMJ World Music person James Lien and I. Rock The Boat!

Reggae Route

Reviews by James Lien/Chat by the Night Nurse, Amy Wachtel

CRUCIAL!

CULTURE Three Sides To My Story (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860)—Culture, the renowned vocal trio, have returned with another new album, and it's hard not to rave for pages and pages about something this earnestly conceived and exceptionally executed. Due to column space limitations, it's taken me a few weeks to get around to covering this record, but believe me, I was saving it because I wanted to focus on it in as great a depth and detail as possible in spite of the last few weeks' busy crush of new fall releases. And interestingly enough, over the two or three weeks of listening to this record, my favorites have changed and shifted two or three times—at first "Life" and "Be Honest" were my favorites, but now they're "Still Rest My Heart" and "Selector"—and I'm still finding new things I like in every song on this record. Joseph Hill is the possessor of one of those amazing voices that may not have a stunning range or impressive techniques, but still seems to glow with a warmth and a powerful charge that other singers can't imitate. The sounds of Hill, Albert Walker and Kenneth Daye make Culture an incredible vocal triumvirate that's among the best reggae has to offer.

of invaluable experience working crowds and winning over audiences and it shows on the stage.

BIGGA Riding The Wave (Vision, 13385 W. Dixie Hwy., No. Miami FL 33161)—I figured I'd close out with a word or two about something new, the Florida-based reggae artist Bigga. It's good reggae, if slightly commercial, not to mention slightly innocuous when compared with some of the other artists in these pages recently, but for what it sets out to do, Bigga manage to pull it off pretty well, mixing blistering guitar with heavy keyboards and, er, large, anthemic sing-along choruses. I could see these guys going over well in concert, winning people over with the heavy dance and synthesizer inclination in their music, and that's alright. Points of interest: the ubiquitous reggae rhythm section of Sly and Robbie (with Robbie Shakespeare also helping out with the arranging), and the reggae-fied version of Steve Miller's "Fly Like An Eagle": once you hear it, you'll slap your skull and realize that it'd been sitting there waiting for years under everybody's noses, and nobody'd done it until now.

Got something red, green, and yellow you want to get heard? Send all reggae consumables to Reggae Route/James Lien, c/o CMJ, 245 Great Neck Rd., 3rd Floor, Great Neck NY 11021.

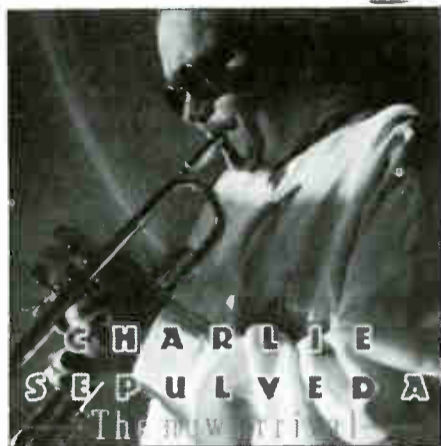

WAILERS BAND Majestic Warriors (Tabu-A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Well, just in case you didn't know, the Wailers were key players in some of reggae music's most spirited moments, providing the pulse and power behind Bob Marley, Peter Tosh, and Bunny Wailer in some of their finest hours on the stage and in the studio. But ever since then, as the years have gone by, they've struggled to establish themselves as something more than fringe players or a footnote in history—one friend of mine likened their situation to that of the other musicians in George Clinton's legendary '70s bands Parliament and Funkadelic, all of whom were excellent, top-notch players of above-average talent who just couldn't quite get it together for themselves once their mentor had moved on. Well, that's unfortunately still a bit of the case on Majestic Warriors, although having said that, anything I say has to be tempered by the memory of the surprisingly excellent live show I saw them put on about a year ago. Musically, it's good modern-sounding reggae that's better than much of what will back up many other artists this year, and you can still hear quite a bit of what made them great pioneers of reggae—the trademark pumping Hammond organ, the solid rhythmic base and dense percussive fills—but overall, it lacks a direction and cohesiveness, to the point where I almost prefer to enjoy the music through their various other recent sessions backing up other Jamaican singers and musicians. See them live if you can—they have years

JACKPOT!

FABIO MORGERA QUINTET The Pursuit (Ken Music, 301 W. 57th St. #26A, New York, NY 10019)/ CHARLIE SEPULVEDA The New Arrival (Antilles, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—In the wake of Miles Davis' death and the critical hosannas heaped on Wynton Marsalis' new Columbia trilogy Soul Gestures In Southern Blue, public attention once again is directed to the trumpet's status as the preeminent soloistic instrument in jazz. The two 28-year-old trumpeters represented here, both getting their first major exposure as recording leaders, have several things in common: Residents of New York City, Fabio Morgera and Charlie Sepulveda are both extroverted brassmen who have sharpened their chops and refined their managerial skills by leading bands around the Big Apple, notably at Visiones, an important forum for emerging and established bopsters. Morgera's debut for Ken Music—a strong straight-ahead label that has issued some 20 titles in its first year of operation, including ex-messenger trumpeter Brian Lynch's outstanding In Process (Jackpot, Aug. 16)—finds the Berklee-trained native of Naples, Italy, blowing often inspired, occasionally insouciant, hard bop a la Lee Morgan on six of his own pieces. Joining him on the front line is the robust young altoist Jesse Davis (whose Concord debut, Horn Of Passion, is highly recommended) while pianist Geoff Keezer, bassist Peter Washington and drummer Billy Hart bring up the rhythmic rear on this winning 53-minute DDD project. As has become his wont, pianist Keezer (whose Blue Note debut, Here And Now, is making major waves) damn near steals the show, sweeping far and wide across the keyboard without interfering with the liner designs of the soloists. Whereas Morgera mines the neoclassical vein, Sepulveda and his five-man band, the Turnaround (saxophone/keyboards/bass guitar/ drums/percussion), perform an irresistible blend of modern jazz with Afro-Cuban and salsa rhythms, projecting with the impact and color-coordinated horn voicings of a big band when an extra tenorman (Ralph Moore) and percussionist are added to the proceedings. Sepulveda, onetime lead trumpeter in Eddie Palmieri's band, hits the High-C's effortlessly on up-tempo cuts and exudes a lovely, lazily breezy lyricism on ballads, though "Briancito" is marred by the utterly unnecessary string-like synth sounds that enervate the leader's trumpet. Choice cuts include the title track (penned by the abovenamed Lynch) and "Un Poco Mas" (a Sepulveda original inspired by the late trumpeter Kenny Dorham, whose Blue Note albums Una Mas and Afro-Cuban offer compatible programming juxtapositions). You might also spin a track from The New Arrival in a Latin set comprising tunes from the new Concord releases by Pablo Sanchez (A Night At Kimball's East) and Ray Barretto (Handprints).

ON THE CHART

It was a great run, but the summer domination of David Sanborn (1-3) has finally come to an end after ten weeks. Sonny Sharrock takes charge this time out with his Axiom release, one of three recent efforts bearing his name (6-1, and #1 on KBLZ, KCMU, KMNR, WEVL and WFMU). A few heavyweight releases on the way should make another ten-week run pretty tough (from Branford Marsalis especially). Also leapfrogging up is the Bluesiana II collection (7-2), which has been hanging around the Top 10 for five straight weeks. This week's highest debut is another challenger for the top, the brilliant new effort from Harry Connick, Jr., which bows in at #10. Christopher Hollyday leads the re-entry charge at #9. In keeping with the additions of last few weeks, we are joined by new reporters WNDY and CHRW. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS.)

SHARROCK SHINES ON

Underground legend SONNY SHARROCK has surfaced with three strong efforts that display, variously, his ferocious string-bending, interactive/interpretive capabilities and kinetic melodicism. The onetime sideman with Miles Davis stands to break out of his downtown New York cult stronghold and emerge as a major national attraction. Ask The Ages (Axiom, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012) is an all-out sonic assault, grungy, bottom-heavy and improvisational to the max. Sharrock, an avowed John Coltrane disciple—what to Trane were "sheets of sound" are to the guitarist shards of 16th and 32nd notes—locks axes with two illustrious Trane-men, tenor and soprano saxist Pharoah Sanders (his ex-boss) and drummer Elvin Jones; blowing the bass, so to speak, with abundant energy and timing is Charnett Moffett (whose new Blue Note offering, Network, features pianist Kenny Kirkland). Ask The Ages is to New Jazz what the Chicago Bears are to smash-mouth football, and, while not for the squeamish, this co-production of Sharrock and Bill Laswell boasts strong presence and visceral impact. The ballad-like "Who Does She Hope To Be?" will segue smartly into one of the numbers on Sanders' new Welcome To Love (Timeless, c/o Rick Ballard Imports, P.O. Box 5063, Berkeley, CA 94705), a CD of caressing standards, including several (try "Nancy") closely associated with Coltrane. College-rock jocks (are any of you reading this?) who play whatever the hell they like (keep reading) will hear several things of interest on Ask The Ages. Why not bring multiculturalism to the campus airwaves... Sharrock's Faith Moves for CMP (155 W. 72nd St., New York, NY 10023), a co-led duet date with fellow plectrist (electric and acoustic) Nicky Skopelitis, another downtown doyen and a member of Laswell's Material/Pil/Golden Palominos axis, is a brilliant collaboration sans accompaniment. When they're not harmonizing deftly behind each other, one or the other is providing nongratuitous harmonics. The duo's shared timbral/textural/idiomatic palette (including sitar, Middle Eastern drone-tones and occasional noise as a sonic-enhancer) makes Faith Moves a wet dream for any aspiring guitarist of the progressive-rock/New Jazz persuasion... Of the three Sharrock titles, the most euphonious—I won't say accessible, for that connotes concessions to commerce—is Highlife (Enemy, 11-36 31st Ave., Long Island City, NY 11106), new from the guitarist's working band, a quintet with two drummers. Snappy, buoyant, bright melodicism (as in African highlife music, which is suggested here) abounds throughout. The Coltrane/Sanders connection is also reaffirmed on Highlife as Sharrock & Co. interpret the former's classic "Giant Steps" and fuse two of the latter's numbers on "Venus/Upper Egypt." Elsewhere, the guitarist mind-travels to the spooky British heath for "Kate," variations on rocker Kate Bush's "Wuthering Heights" theme. As the company bio states, "radio programmers may approach this material [more so than the other CDs] without fear," but that doesn't mean Highlife is mersh. No siree. This may sound weird, but the strikingly bright, ascending and descending runs by Sharrock on the opening track, "No More Tears," will serve as a nifty prelude to the tune "Kind Of Bird" on the new album by the blues-rocking Allman Brothers Band, Shades Of Two Worlds (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450).

Brett Green, Director, Alternative Music/Matt Fisher, National College Promotion, Radioactive Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 659-6598 (Brett), New York, NY/(212) 489-4820 (Matt)

Hello—We are just touching base to let everyone out there know that Radioactive now has a promotion department and just in time. With the FATIMA MANSIONS full CD out and the band going on tour in the U.S. in October, things are getting busy. Also, new EP from GOODBYE MR. MACKENZIE and an EP from a brand new band called LIVE, who are supporting Fatima on both coasts... If you want to set up an interview or find out more about the tour, let us know... Keep Music Evil.

RonSSTer, SST Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 430-7687

The new LEAVING TRAINS colored vinyl seven-inch, "Rock 'n' Roll Murder," will kill the Pope if he hears it. Falling James and the Trains will start their "Murder" tour in early November... NO MAN (with new drummer Terry Donahue on board) will also hit the road in a few weeks to show you varmints How The West Was Won... TROTSKY ICEPICK's "God Under The Couch" tour has just covered the states. The guys plan to do a West Coast Ultraviolet Catastrophe swing in November... The new PELL MELL seven inch, "Bring On The China," brings on brand new material from this quartet of arresting instrumentalists... Peace, Love & I Refuse To Worship You.

Mark Levin/John McFadden, Catapult Productions (March Records), Chicago, IL (312) 868-0848

ARSON GARDEN, BIG HAT, CROSSED WIRE, TUESDAY'S CHILD, WALT MINK, KUSTOM KAR KOMMANDOS, BUSKER SOUNDCHECK, PRIVATE SECTOR, LIME CREDO, JUDGEMENT OF PARIS, MONSTER, BURNING GIRAFFES, the GLORYHOUNDS, MAYBE/DEFINITELY, the HANNIBALS. 3 secret surprises. 18 bands. One CD. All midwestern. All cool. Coming. October 31. UNCHARTED! Bye!

Margaret Parker, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

Now I feel guilty about ragging on audition night at CBs because Monday nights have gotten better. There was a slew of bad bands but I guess that's just the luck of the draw. Last Monday there was a good turnout and some interesting bands; I think my favorite was Ripped, who drove from Ohio in a Baptist Church Bus to come play speed death metal. Backstage there was a pile of empty iced cappuccino bottles which somehow accounted for things... Another good show I saw was TERRY GARLAND at the Delta 88—good foot stawpin' blues... If any blues show out there doesn't have a copy of Terry Garland's acoustic blues extravaganza, Trouble In Mind, make sure to give me a call... We're getting closer to the release of our various artist Christmas record, Lump Of Coal—you have to hear HENRY ROLLINS doing "The Night Before Christmas." Let's put it this way—it isn't the kind of Christmas record you'll be sitting around the fire with your grandmother listening to. Then again, I've never met your grandmother. Other appearances on this Christmas record will be made by HOODOO GURUS, WEDDING PRESENT, the PRIMITIVES, YOUNG FRESH FELLOWS, CRASH TEST DUMMIES, CARNIVAL ART, the ODDS, DIVINE WEEKS, DRUNKEN BOAT and CLOCKHAMMER. Whew. Had to get that out of my system. I hope everyone is loving the Divine Weeks full length CD, Never Get Used To It. It's got some butt-kickers on it and some more mellow cuts also; my favorite cut is actually

"Preachin'," which is one of the singles. AND don't forget about Drunken Boat's full CD—it should be in your CD player now. My favorite angst-ridden cuts are "Tragic Hands" and "Skull Crusher." Beware—3Ds are coming... from New Zealand... Fish Tales/Swarthy Songs... coming your way at the end of October!!! I can't wait. See ya!!!

Robert Vodicka, New Alliance Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 430-6838

Let's see, civil war in Yugoslavia, mounting evidence that the last two U.S. administrations had their genesis in treason, California's governor vetoing a bill to protect gays and lesbians from job discrimination... and oh yes, new releases from New Alliance. WANDA COLEMAN integrates more music with her powerful writing than ever before on her third solo release, Berserk on Hollywood Blvd. Pay attention and you might learn something from this African-American woman who has been winning awards for her writing for the last 20 years. On guitarist RUDOLPH GREY's second release, Mask Of Light, Coltrane drummer Rashied Ali and Jim Sauter of Borbetomagus join him in improvised freedom. Thurston Moore produced half of it and Love Child's Alan Licht also plays on one track. NORTE/word is the solo debut for MARISELA NORTE who appeared on the Black And Tan compilation. She's a first generation American with Mexican parents writing about life caught between two cultures in Los Angeles. Finally, consider this a fall wrap-up for some of the things I have enjoyed recently: singles from Big Red Sun, Nothing Painted Blue, Occatracker and Dan Sugisaki, the Kill Rock Stars comp, Bobby Bradford and his group playing his suite, Death Of A Sideman, and Zeni Geva and Shoeface at the Shoeface rehearsal room for three dollars. Love.

Rob Sacher, Mission Recording Company, New York, NY (212) 677-0463

I'm writing this in behalf of my friends in the ANCIENTS who I think are a great fucking band!!! You will be getting their album soon. Please give it a good listen. They are putting it out on an "indie" label—the way a lot of great bands first get started. They need your support. When you get the Ancients album, check out the songs "Guilt Machine," "House of Pain" and "Release Me." The singer has an amazing voice. Thanks a lot: Joey Ramone.

Rachel Cohn, Promotions Director, RAS Records, Washington DC, (301) 588-9641

This is my first Dialogue, so in the absence of something terribly witty or hipper-than-thou to spout, let me jump into some serious business. RAS's back-to-school blowout of new releases includes some killers: Forever from ISRAEL VIBRATION (currently tearing across the US of A with the always crucial Roots Radics), Veteran DJ Jamboree featuring new tracks from the pioneers of the Jamaican dancehall, as well as new Ariwa releases from the MAD PROFESSOR, U-ROY, MACKA B and my personal fave, RANKING ANN. Don't call her no English just call her by her name—Ranking Ann—give this fresh and groovy chick a listen! Look for new stuff later this fall from INNER CIRCLE and GREGORY ISAACS. And did you hear that Cher works out to Inner Circle's "Bad Boys"? I've never been much of a Cher fan, but this new revelation and the fact that I'm a recent tattooee makes me want to reconsider. I mean hey, "I've Got You Babe" was a pretty cool song, and ditching Sonny was a pretty cool move, and while we're at it, I'd take Richie Sambora (without the music) as my Bad Boy any day. GO CHER! For further extrapolation of the Cher issue, or any other issue which comes to mind, please give me a call, even if you don't have a tattoo.

Noelle Giuffrida, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-8316

Out now is the brand new DIE KREUZEN 7" called "Big Bad Days." The A-side of this red vinyl tidbit comes from the upcoming Die Kreuzen LP Cement which will be out October 18. Also out (probably by the time you read this) is PEGBOY's new LP Strong Reaction and BRICK LAYER CAKE's EP Call It A Day. . . URGE OVERKILL introduce a new line of clothing for their "Lords Of Rock" tour with Mud-honey and Nirvana this fall. The line has the men of U.R.G.E. appearing in sleek black suits with shimmering white lapels along with priestly collars. Urge and The Supersonic Storybook have also been nominated for band of the year and album of the year respectively for CMJ's New Music Awards, so vote for Urge and don't miss the live experience. . . The DIDJITS are extending their tour to head south in late October. Be sure and catch Mr. Rick Didget along with his feather boa in your town soon. FLOUR's tour is happening in the Midwest and on the East Coast. Arcwelder from Minneapolis are opening and they're pretty good too. And, as if that weren't enough VOLCANO SUNS will also be doing some shows in October. Call me for more info on any of these tours and anyone interested in doing interviews with any of the bands on tour, please give me a call. And, I am currently revamping the mailing list here so if you don't get service and would like to, send me a letter describing your station and your programming philosophy along with a copy of your current playlist and program guide.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

Thanks to Rob at WCUR for jumping on the BERSERK bandwagon and charting "Giant Robots" before anyone else. I know: 7"s are hard to file, 7"s get lost, DJs only want to play CDs, blah blah blah. But, I have faith! The rest of you can be as cool as WCUR. It just takes a little bit of extra work. Make those DJs do your bidding. . . Also, check your mail and fax machines for a special Berserk contest—win your own giant robot. Just think, you'll be able to turn your home or office into the set of Lost in Space. . . Also, for everyone who drank themselves senseless at the Human Barbeque this past summer and are looking for a chance to do it again, and for those unfortunate souls who missed the experience—never fear! This year's CMJ seminar will be jam-packed with Merkin parties and activities, including a Halloween blow-out at Beowulf, a super-cool drinking-fest the night before (but I can't say where yet) and our booth, which will be a perpetual party all by itself. . . Oh, last but not least, thanks to everyone who added CHEM LAB Ten Ton Pressure right away. It is, as we speak, annihilating all the weak willed corporate industrial rock on the charts and clawing its way to #1.

Deejay Delorenzo, Chameleon Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 973-8282

A very big thanks goes to Jonathon L and the crew at KUKQ for another unbelievable Q-Fest. . . For those of you who were not there. . . Got thrown out or were too??? DRAMARAMA's performance, with Clem Burke on drums, was incredible! KYUSS's (That's K-Eye-Us) album debut entitled Wretch hits radio on Oct. 15. Look for this young band to cause a stir at metal and college radio. Speaking of KYUSS (that's K-EYE-US) you can meet them up close and personal at the Concrete Marketing Booth at 1 PM on Thursday, Oct. 3, during the Concrete Foundation Forum. Well, I'm running late so until the next time, "Haven't Got A Clue."

Chris "Chrispy" Bergen, Continuum Records, Cranford, NJ (908) 709-0011

Hey major cousins! I'm a happy camper now I get to do my own Dialogue that I've bounced from BNM to Continuum. Here we go! By now everyone should have had there Zotz candy. Ummm, Ummmm, Ummm. Just gotta love it. Along with the candy, you should have your STRAWBERRY ZOTS CD Love Operation. If you're playing it, coolness! If you're not—check out the songs "Reach Out Of The Darkness" and "So I Did" groovy tunes at best. If you need any copies and stuff, give me a buzz. The Zots are getting incredible response from both radio and retail. And yes, the guy on the cover is a real person! Also, be on the look out for a most-hip psychedelia band called SUN DIAL. Set your Sun Dial for the middle of October. Another release on Continuum is the EXPLOITED ON Stage—Live 1981. It's the coolest release ever re-released! For those of you who might remember me from WTSR and my answering machine, I'm back with trivia!! Question: What flavors of Zotz did they make? Note: They never made Strawberry (it was the one they forgot). Until later, remember, it's all for fun and fun for all!!!

Jeff Chartrand, Director Of Direction, Silverdish Records, Brockport, NY (716) 328-3848

It's good to be back with y'all again. THANKS to Woody for the Skynyrd update from the NYC show. It's good to know they have finally mended from that there plane crash. VISIONSTAIN is now in the studio beginning recording the long-awaited "Campsite" 7". This goody will be on your desks in late October and is the precursor to their first full release in the spring of '92. Thanks to all the folks who came and saw V-Stain in Canada and at CB's in NYC. Phone the kids, wake the neighbors and get Day Past Ripe now. (716) 328-3848. TO WOODY GET WELL SOON AND WATCH WHERE YOU'RE GOING! Ya hear.

Cindy Levine, Smash Records, Chicago, IL (312) 751-0020

Many thanks to all of you who actually read Dialogues. It seems that my weekly Dialogue is the most effective way to reach the majority of you college kids with crazy schedules and the only other obstacle for you was the long distance calls. Well, cool beans for the latest Smash advancement, the 1-800 number. The number is 1-800-6-SMASH-5 that's 1-800-676-2745. Please give me a buzz and let me know what's a happening. By now you have received the MILLIONS 7", "Sometimes." If you haven't received this 7", please call and I'll mail you another copy. We will also be servicing on CD, you should have that by the end of next week. The Millions full-length album, M Is For Millions, will be shipped in mid-October so keep your eyes peeled for that. Again, I really appreciate your efforts to keep me updated and if you need any of the records, CALL!!!

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077

BIG DRILL CAR will be back from Europe soon and hit the national tour trail again in November with a big Batch of dates in the South, East, Canada and the Midwest. . . SKIN YARD have landed in Europe to deliver 1000 Smiling Knuckles across the land. This psychopowered quartet will hypnotize every last mof they play for. ALL is still fishin' in Brookfield Lake and fryin' up some new songs for their next record. Play the new TONYALL LP while you wait on them. . . Dave Naz from the CHEMICAL PEOPLE has been sportin' a Dodgers cap lately. He's got this delusion that those bums are gonna win the penant. . . CRUZ til ya drop.

Stacey Sperling, Heyday Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 550-7814

Hello to everyone out there in Dialogue land. Happiness is. . . the long awaited new BARBARA MANNING release!! One Perfect Green Blanket will come your way sometime in November. Barbara's 1988 vinyl release, Scissors, was out of print for a long time. The upcoming CD and cassette formats of Blanket will include all the Scissors tracks, as well as lots of new stuff. Yeah. Locally, Ron and Jill have been running around town facilitating "Virtual Audio Theater" at record stores, radio station and night clubs, demonstrating for innocent victims the outer limits of 3D audio and blowing everybody's minds in the process. Speaking of Virtual Audio we're busy in SF working CONNIE CHAMPAGNE's 3D-recorded new release LA STRADA as well as local diva SONYA HUNTER's new Favorite Short Stories—thanks to all MDs, DJs, retailers and press folks who have shown their support and thanks in advance to those who are juuuuuust about to!! I also want to mention that Les Scurry of KFJC is definitely right on when it comes to censorship and the issue of choice in general. Thanks for reminding me that there is sanity—somewhere.

Joe Viglione, Mentor/Var Recordings, Woburn, MA (617) 932-6520 Boston R & R #14, our first CD, doing great on WBRS (BILLIONEERS, MACEY'S PARADE), WBIV, WERS, WMFO. Opening track is "Boom Shake" by GREG KROLL, co-written by Ritchie Cordell. Ritchie, who produced Tommy James, will be producing Greg's new tape. Charlie Farren's first song since his Warner Bros. LP is the BLACK'S "We're Still Standing Still" on our CD... BACKSEAT DRIVER hail from New Jersey. Their LP Blackout is a great, hard-rock ode to sex. "Stuff The Beaver" has Top 40 melodies that won't hit commercial radio thanks to the lyrics. But YOU can play it, so call if you don't have a copy. Macey's Parade and GEOFF PANGO will be performing at the party for Harvey Wharfield's October 13 debut of a 4 hour local music show on WCGY, first major station local show at a decent hour in many a Boston moon! For copies of aforementioned and J.D. BRENNAN, TOMMY GUNN & THE HIT SQUAD, and past anthologies, just call...

Joni Solomon, Rhythm Safari Records, Van Nuys, CA (800) 424-4863
So, are you dancing yet? Huh? What?? You're not?! Well, that means you haven't played the new album on Rhythm Safari Dance Around The World!!! It's a concept album featuring tracks by various artists from around the world. Each track is different, and keeps its ethnicity. Each track is similar, and keeps the beat! Initially, we sent out 12" vinyl on the track "Jerusalem" by MAN AND MACHINE to all Beat Box reporters... it has Arabic chants, a hot rap and a killer beat... sort of a goulash for the ears! If you didn't receive one, but would like to, please call me at the above number, and I'll be glad to send you out a copy. Other artists on this hot MoFo album include JAI UTTAL, CECILIA NOEL and CHEB MAMI. In other news... the ITALS have finally gotten a tour together and will be playing in your town soon! Dates beginning in mid-Oct. are confirmed in the following cities so far: Chicago, Minneapolis, Washington D.C., New York, Boston, Ithaca... with more to come. If you would like to arrange interviews or giveaways, please call me ASAP! Sorry to rattle on, but there's just so much going on! Please plan to be at the CMJ Music Marathon, and plan to attend the panel called "Alternative To What?" on Sat., Nov. 2, at 2:00 PM. It promises to be most interesting...

Jim McNeil, RCA Records, New York, NY (212) 930-4305 BULLET LAVOLTA's new album Swan-dive has finally hit the street! Compared to their first album, The Gift, on Taang!, the production by Dave Jerden (Jane's Addiction, Social Distortion) has widened the range, brought out the low end and kept the energy and intensity this group's live show is known for. They will be on tour soon. Remember this is Boston, not Seattle... Dedicated Records newest release is THIS PICTURE. Their album A Violent Impression weaves poetic/transcendental lyrics with honesty and passion (old Echo meets Waterboys?). Stand out tracks include "Breathe Deeply Now," "5:30 am," and "The Great White Tree." If you're not getting alternative servicing, report regularly and give me a call. In my heavy rotation: Chris Knox, AMC, Swervedriver, Sebadoh and A TRIBE CALLED QUEST.

Thank the god of your choice for so much to talk about. Yes, peering through the phonewash with the Doctor Dream periscope. Prepare yourself for what is one of our most exciting releases this year. DON'T MEAN MAYBE has its second LP, Real Good Life, awaiting on your listening pad. The BLACK WATCH and DRANCE are currently in transit, burning your postman's pouch. Also, the Black Watch and Don't Mean Maybe are seconds away from Music Marathon confirmation, so call for more illustration.

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736 LONNIE BROOKS tour dates: 10/15 Washington DC; 10/16 Ithaca, NY; 10/17-18 NYC; 10/20 Piermont, NY; 10/21 Harrisburg, PA; 10/23 Portland, ME; 10/24 Hartford, CT; 10/25 Providence, RI; 10/26 Boston. Call for tickets, giveaway cassettes and interviews. If you have yet to experience Mr. Brooks live then do it, you'll be satisfied. His latest Satisfaction Guaranteed has no big name guests, no six figure promo push, no MTV video and no reason why you shouldn't be rotating this baby in those alternative rotations. For the most part, commercial radio's refusal to support and play this type of real blues means it's up to college radio to keep the blues alive. Keeping it alive means more than playing the old reissues, it means putting new blues artists in those rotations and letting your listeners know the legacy of the blues didn't end in Chicago in the '50s or the Mississippi Delta in the '30s. Give your listeners credit for wanting to hear all types and genres of music played together and then do it. JOHNNY HEARTSMAN lays down the type of jazzy, swing-influenced blues that I like so much and I'm hoping you do too. Here's an idea that a bunch of jazz only, non-commercial stations put to use. Why not spice up your jazz programming with some blues? Blues and jazz, to put it as cornily as possible, are "kissin' cousins" and blues adds a nice spice to jazz. Try it, you'll like it. "Smoldering," "passionate," "burnin'," "tender," what am I talking about? The latest scent from Calvin Klein? No. The latest Mazda? No. The latest blues harp-a-thon from CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE? Yes! Signature the new one from the Musselmeister is due to you by October 15 so be ready. Until next time, Da Bears.

Sue Marcus, Emergo Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Just returned from another great Chicago excursion. Besides enjoying some great thrift shopping, I got to see one of my favorite bands, Urge Overkill, play a tremendous show at the Lounge Ax under the pseudonym "Barclords." Urge were in prime form, wearing new outfits which were (as always) the height of rock fashion as they played one of the best shows I've seen in a while. Another great show I saw recently was the Mudhoney/Superchunk/Gas Huffer show at the Marquee, NYC. The bands were great, but the crowd left a little to be desired. One really big guy jumped off the balcony during the Mudhoney set. It was a miracle no one got hurt. That kind of stupidity always amazes. Anyway, moving right along, there is big news on the Emergo front and lots of releases coming your way. As a result of a new partnership between Roadrunner Records and Third Mind Records, due out October 19 are four Third Mind releases: SOLAR ENEMY (formerly Portion Control) Dirty Vs. Universe, WILL Pearl Of Great Price and DELERIUM Euphoric (EP) (both Front Line Assembly offshoots) and EDWARD KA-SPEL (Legendary Pink Dots frontman) Tanith & The Lion Tree. Also out October 29 is a new LP on Emergo from SENATOR FLUX entitled Story-knife. This self-produced record is a departure from previous efforts, with less emphasis on pop and greater attention to solid rock composition. On October 22, RC is releasing Wound, a debut LP from SKIN CHAMBER, an extremely heavy industrial band which was spawned from Controlled Bleeding, and Emergo is releasing Black Aspirin, a mini-LP from the VENUS BEADS. Any questions about Third Mind or any of the other releases, please call me!

Eric Froyd, Promotions Director, Kaleioscope Records, El Cerrito, CA (415) 845-9200

Excuse my summer silence. It's just that the months have gone other than their plans here at Kaleioscope. We didn't know how right we would be, personally, when sitting at the NALID convention (watching Rough Trade and the House go broke) and saying whoooooah things are reeeeally changing, this is just the beginning, man, next year at this time the world will have a different shape. A few weeks later, Beth Weil, our graphic artist, wife of Kaleioscope creative director Tom Diamant and well-known acoustic bassist and harmony vocalist had a severe cerebral hemorrhage while on tour with her bluegrass band, the Good Ol' Persons. The load this has placed on all of us has been demanding, and will continue to be for Tom and Beth. After three months of hospitalization, Beth is home now, beginning a long and uncertain process of recovery. She has no movement on her right side, difficulty remembering the language, and so forth. But her mind is intact, and continued improvement is hoped for. There has been a tremendous outpouring of support from the acoustic music community—as Tom said, this is a horrible way to find out how good people are. A trust fund has been set up, to help offset the immense financial disaster that this has created for Tom and Beth (and their two small kids). Contributions can be sent to: The Elizabeth Weil Trust Fund, P.O. Box O, El Cerrito, CA 94530. We'd like to thank everyone who's supported us in crisis, financially, emotionally, musically. It would require a full page to do so by name, but benefit concerts have been or will be staged for Beth by the DAVID GRISMAN QUINTET, Laurie Lewis & Grant Street, the BOBS, TURTLE ISLAND STRING QUARTET, the GOOD OL' PERSONS, MARY McCASLIN, SARAH ELIZABETH CAMPBELL, CAROL McCOMB, the BLUE FLAME STRING BAND, the THUNDER MOUNTAIN BOYS, the RHYTHM BROTHERS, BLACKTHORN, SHELASKY-WEIDENKELER BAND, SIDESADDLE, CALIFORNIA KLEZMER and others. Thanks to writers such as Deborah Russell at Billboard, Alexandra Haslam at BAM, Derk Richardson at the Bay Guardian, and a host of others for helping us to get the word out about the trust fund. Thank you thank you thank you one and all. Kaleioscope as a company seems to have come through it just fiiiiine. We can talk about the music next time. It seems the main crisis is over.

Jim Neill, Rykodisc/Hannibal Records, Boston, MA (508) 744-7678

New college radio phone pals are David "Gwiz" Gwiazdowski of WERS, Boston on Mondays and Fridays and Kate Biggar of WHUS, Storrs, CT on Thursdays. Stuff they'll be forcing on you in our usual heavy-hitting, go for the jugular tradition: DEAD CAN DANCE A Passage In Time (4AD/Rykodisc). Their first domestic album compiles some of their best material and two new songs. You'll find "Spirit" on Certain Damage #38. Neo-medievalism? Whatever. I bow to this shit. . . Planet Drum by MICKEY HART and the best drummers in the world. Listen to the record. Read the book. Watch for the tour. Breathe diaphragmatically. . . The BLACK ROCK COALITION's History Of Our Future. Something for everyone except maybe Linda Ronstadt fans. Live dates in your neighborhood. I'll call you at home tonight just as you're drifting off to sleep and tell you what they are. . . ROY HARPER's performance at the Mariposa Folk Festival in Toronto was devastating. Roy's uncompromising music has been criminally ignored in the USA; as recently as the non-event I.R.S. made of the release of the latest album Once this year. I swear if no one gets him over here for a tour I'll do it myself. He's got a record in the can too. . . Jane Siberry's new songs, performed at Mariposa, are avante-emotional masterpieces. (Her oft-overlooked debut has just been re-issued on East Side Digital, FYI.) Another Mariposa highlight was our own JOHN AND MARY's performance. They're on the road now. Ask John Lombardo for a good tip on a clairvoyant Volvo mechanic in Buffalo and check out Mary Ramsey's swell viola on the brilliant Billy Bragg slab. . . Good: Chris Smither's new Flying Fish album and the new John Prine on Oh Boy. Looking forward to another "Mark Eitzel moment" as AMC returns to headline in Boston this month. At night, the car alarm concerto commences. R.I.P. Miles Davis. Farewell Deli King in Allston. We hardly knew ye.

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Donna Marcus, Retail Promo Person, Beggars Banquet Records/Thirsty Ear Communications, New York, NY (212) 889-9110/9595

Saw Chapterhouse do two incredibly explosive gigs this weekend. An absolutely amazing live band!! You've got to catch 'em next time they come around. Talk about a wall of guitars—comin' right at 'cha!! And so on we go to the push. . . As I wrote last week, Thirsty Ear will be working the upcoming MATTHEW SWEET project on Zoo Entertainment. A wonderful album, I must say. Once you put this little gem in your walkman you'll never be able to get it out!!! In keeping with his previous playings, the upcoming Girlfriend is a veritable who's who. Sweet brought back producer Fred Maher and guitarists Robert Quine (both worked with Lou Reed) and Richard Lloyd (the Television guru himself) to work on the new record. Also on Girlfriend you'll find Ric Menck (from Velvet Crush), Lloyd Cole on acoustic guitar and Greg Leisz (from k.d. lang's Reclines). By the time this is in print, Sweet and his band will have played an outstanding and packed showcase at CBGB. (Although I am not blessed with the powers of E.S.P., I have faith in the project—the more detailed scoop next week!) . . . On the Beggars front—DYLAN! DYLAN! DYLAN! All I have to say is wait til you hear the luscious fruit filled melodies of the full length. Groovy. Also, expect a tour from CARNIVAL ART this fall in support of their BB debut Thrumdrone. . . Well, we've got a third party for the reel. Yes, that's right The Reel is back!! This time around it will be BB and Mute, and our newest member, Nettwerk!! Expect in-store play videos by the beginning of October. Give me a call for peace, love, happiness or posters!! See ya!!

Chris MacDermott (Woody), Retail Promo, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929 (ext. 3013)

The big news around here is that SMASHING PUMPKINS are hitting the road with Red Hot Chili Peppers starting Oct. 16. Check the listings or call for more details. Also, Smashing Pumpkins' Lull mini-album will be released on Nov. 1 and features some unreleased tracks. Other upcoming releases to look out for include SPRINGHOUSE's The Eskimo EP, KING CRIMSON 4 CD box, Phila Phobia from BORIS MIKULIC, plus new 12" and long players by A SPLIT SECOND and LORDS OF ACID (Antler Subway releases). For all you Devo/Kraftwerk freaks, check out the OVERLORDS Organic? which is also on Antler. MONSTER MAGNET's Spine Of God (on Primo Scree) is going over real well with stoners and headbangers alike. The most recent Primo Scree release, the ACTION SWINGERS debut LP, is kicking ass and taking names. If you're into Pagans/Angry Samoans hi-energy rock, the Swingers are for you. HOLE are hitting the road again to support their Pretty On The Inside album in Oct./Nov.—stay tuned for details. KINGHORSE are on the road again in the deep South, causing mayhem as usual wherever they go. By the time this gets printed, we will have our Hole posters and new Smashing Pumpkins display materials, so give me a ring.

Steve Dixon, Retail Promo, Sky Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 263-7888

Now that INSANE JANE's A Green Little Pill (Sky 7-5040) is approaching the CMJ Radio Top 10, it's time for retailers to give this brand new band the attention they deserve—check them out, play their record in your store—with all the radio they're getting, the response will follow. Other new stuff coming from Sky: the SWANS' White Light From The Mouth Of Infinity, Filth, and WORLD OF SKIN's 10 Songs From Another World—all out within a month and available for the first time since Rough Trade's untimely demise; FLAT DUO JETS' Dolphin Sessions EP entitled In Stereo. LAVA LOVE's new album will be done soon, so all you Lava Lovers keep the faith—it will be out soon. Questions, comments and angry retorts welcome at the above # or outside of GA, 1-800-442-3142. P.S. If Buddy Guy plays in your town and you don't go to see him, you're crazier than I am. Miles: R.I.P. We loved you madly.

Dan Machold, Music Director,
WZMB, Greenville, NC (919) 757-4751

We keep finding letters to our campus paper from slugs who seem to think that we should play Top 40, classic rock and country. There are people with closed minds when it comes to music, but these people have no mind they can honestly call their own! Anyway, by the time this is printed, there will be a program guide, playlist and general re-introduction going out to all the labels that used to service us, but no longer do. Our last music director was extremely unfair to independent labels, and I definitely plan to change that (no, I am not one of those people who programs stuff cuz it's independent). Some real good new stuff: ACTION SWINGERS, BILLY BRAGG (see?), RATCAT, the JIGSAW SEEN, SNAPDRAGONS, DRUNKEN BOAT, TRIBE, THIS PICTURE, and yes, we cannot deny the fact that NIRVANA kicks ass! See Ya 'Round!

Melissa White, Music/Program
Director, WKGC, Panama City, FL

Greetings to all from deserted beaches. These joyous Dialogue pages have become the place for a great put down contest. Who's winning? Well let me get my few words in. Attention Gerard Cosloy: You need to calm down (CMJ #253). I don't know what you prob is with A&M, you should resolve it. A&M does have good bands (Feelies, Kitchens Of Distinction). And the Venus Beads are really great. If you have a conflict with Vinny, call Steve, he's a good upstanding citizen and an all around cool guy. Anyway, business-wise: I saw DASH RIP ROCK last week. If you haven't had the pleasure, it's a must, even if you don't like "southern rock" (whatever that means). Happy birthday to WVFS. Good luck on your wattage increase, I gave my $1. Thanks WMNF for finally shattering the image of death metal in Florida. It's just not true!!! Station faves: AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB, MASSIVE ATTACK, 808 STATE, CIRCLE C and THIN WHITE ROPE. One last word: Does anyone know where Buffalo Tom is? I'm on a quest. I love ya Andy Goldstone, thanks for your guidance, you and Steve are the best! Remember to tie your shoes Buffalo Tom, Bill, Tommy.

Randy Bullock, Music Director,
WXYC, Chapel Hill, NC (919) 962-7768

WXYC and the bands which we are exceptionally proud to call local are staging a two-day joint Madonnathon/North Carolina showcase at the Chapel Hill club Cat's Cradle. We are calling it the Madonna Showdown because we can't think of anything better to call it. Confirmed (and playing mainly original music save for the Madonna cover thrown in for theme's sake) are POLVO, METAL FLAKE MOTHER, FINGER, VANILLA TRAINWRECK, ZEN FRISBEE, ERECTUS MONOTONE and BICYCLE FACE. Other astonishing guest musicians and artists are expected. You have had the chance, through the miracle of promotional vinyl, to check out the above bands, and you ought to know what kind of entertainment is in store. If you don't, you've probably only your own dead ass to blame. This all happens Oct. 19 & 20 and if yr on the continent, it will be worth yr trip... Since we're all more or less in this together, it is worthy to note also that the DC Pop Loser Invitational (a joint project between Simple Machines, Slumberland and TeenBeat) happens the very next weekend 275 miles to our north with an incredible lineup eighteen bands strong. LOVE CHILD, UNREST, VELOCITY GIRL and SLEEPYHEAD are only part of the reason I'm making the trip. Call (703) 276-0680 for more information. Wonder also why you could name yr porn film The Empire Strikes Black but not yr rap album.

Don Duncan, Music Director, KBCU,
N. Newton, KS (316) 284-5228

Well a mighty fine welcome to the world of college radio this is. Here I am, the new music director of a new station, and I'm faced with the undeniable fact: I DON'T KNOW WHAT THE HELL IS GOING ON!!!! So all you other seasoned and presumably insightful MDs out there, I need any kind of advice/warning that you could pass my way, so I don't have to reinvent the wheel. One of the most pressing is: How do I get new music in this cultural vacuum (folks @ KJHK can verify) without running the station into bankruptcy in phone bills? Second, once I get all this great stuff, how do I get my DJs who've been raised on REO and Foreigner to play it without being a Nazi and making out playlists? Any advice would help... Record company folks, check out our playlist in this issue and feel sorry for us. We desperately need new material. Those of you that have sent us stuff already will note that we are playing it. The other half is my album collection. My Smashing Pumpkins vinyl is about to croak. Thanks, see you next week.

John Stewart, General Management
Stuff, KDUP, Portland, OR (503)
283-7121

KDUP is back for another year. Music we hate (paradigm switch): 2 Live Crew's new 12" (prime smashorama fodder) and R.E.M. "Shiny Happy People" dance remixes... PLEASE! What a waste! Thanks to Graham at Arista—Whitney Houston should be banned. Period... New people you need to know: John Bauccio, MD, in 4-6 Monday-Friday; D.J. Norman, PD, Tuesday/Thursday 3-5 p.m.; and Colby, eager promo person, Monday and Wednesday 2-4 p.m. Please call any of us at the number above to give us fixx, tunes, whatever strikes your fancy... Senioritis has set in big time. Skipped class to welcome George to Beirut on the 19th; it was rich yuppie Republicans vs. the world, but they're winning. Good rally, tho. Call me Tuesday 3-4 or Thursday 12-1 with senioritis cures or to talk tunes—J.B., D.J. and I share everything but the toothbrush around here. And PLEASE call if any of your bands are coming to Portland—we can't promote 'em if we don't know about 'em!

Oksana, CFRC, Kingston, Ontario,
Canada (613) 546-2121

Well, it sure was nice to come back to a huge pile of CDs, vinyl and tapes to sift through my first day back from summer (vacation??). Like most students, I got a job for the summer working with people who say things like "My name is Lucifer but here on earth they call me William." Unfortunately these people are completely serious! Or, how about the woman who told me that "she had been kidnapped by a group of Presbyterians and was being held hostage in a church hall. There was no one around so she asked the cat who was in the hall with her where she was but the stupid cat wouldn't answer her." But enough telephone operator stories. I'm back and I have new office hours for the fall term. You can call me every Thursday and Friday from 10:30 to 12:30 p.m. NOTE: This is Ontario time guys!... We forgot how important CMJ was to our livelihood until we began running jazz charts once again. Our programmers haven't been this happy in years. It's just like the holidays! Just to remind you, we program everything from classics to metal, blues to industrial and so on... Something you might not know is that we have a number of shows which deal solely with soundtracks since there is a rather large Film department at Queens. Any additions to our soundtrack library would be appreciated greatly... But back to business... A few things that we feel that are going to do real well: NEGATIVLAND, ALISON MOYET, the GATHERING, and the ever popular BILLY BRAGG. On the BUD front, Jerome's looking at PROFESSOR GRIFF, BIZ MARKIE and ALMIGHTY AND KD RANKS. Paul, our metal master, sees the new GN'R doing well along with BOLT THROWER and ANTHRAX. Jazz-wise, we have OSCAR PETERSON taking the lead with BLUESIANA II at his tail. The list goes on and on... I hope you had fun with Andrew—he's gonna help out for the rest of the term too (slave labor!). Just phone me up!!! If you're lucky I'll be in my goddess gear (you'll know when I answer).

Joshua Hughes, Music Director,
WRPI, Troy, NY (518) 276-6248

A few questions: Does CMJ boldface those important band names and song names for us or are we obligated to do it ourselves? I just boldfaced FUGAZI but not Guns N' Roses. I didn't capitalize either band name. Does anyone care what every other music director's favorite bands are? Does anyone care what the last concert every other music director saw? Does anyone else have their mom (or dad, I suppose) sew their boxer short flies closed? Does anyone have their program director leaning over their shoulder reading this and telling them to change "leaning" to "peering"? I was really only interested in the boldface question so I suppose I should have just inferred that it is done for me and not written this at all. Boy is this dumb.

Rod Barnett, Music Director/Mark
Vaughn, Program Director, WTTU,
Cookeville, TN (615) 372-3169

BUNNE: I can't believe it. Another CD just came in a cardboard cover.
POPE: So?
BUNNE: So, they wear out, and then you can't replace them.
POPE: Now Bunne, you're looking at this all wrong. We should go to cardboard covers for environmental reasons.
BUNNE: What environmental reasons?
POPE: Well for one, there are all these trees polluting the environment. What better way to get rid of them than to cut them down and make cardboard out of them!
BUNNE: Yeah! Plus you can stack jewel cases only so high and they fall over.
POPE: That brings me to another good reason to start using cardboard. A lot of people don't know it, but the jewel box is actually a deep sea creature which has been harvested to near extinction by the CD industry.
BUNNE: That's terrible. I never realized I had so many dead animals in my living room. I guess I have been looking at it all wrong. WEA isn't trying to screw us with CD covers that have the shelf life of warm milk because they're cheaper to produce. They're trying to be environmentally kind. Thanks, Warner Bros.
POPE: Yeah, thanks a lot!

Will Bryan, P.D., KBUT, Crested Butte, CO (303) 345-5225

Cocaine?! That explains a lot Mike! Last month I was put on probation for playing ICE-T's "Body Count"... Now I'm getting railed by the small percentage of extremely white, ultra conservative types up here for playing songs like "Startin' Up A Posse" by ANTHRAX. I'm even getting shit for playing JOHN WESLEY HARDING's "Parental Advisory". Seems as though the "Christians" won't be content until KBUT (public radio) is a kinder, gentler station. Sorry... As long as the majority of folks in this ski resort keep an open mind, we'll keep exploring the boundaries of radio music! My only question is which one of you daring labels is going to rescue me from this eventual Animal Farm behavior? In the future if you haven't seen a report or dialogue from me for any length of time, come and rescue me (With a good paying promotions job). DAVE ALVIN should not be ignored! MERLE SAUNDERS is a living legend... Blues From The Rain Forest is a masterpiece with a mission! Call Summertone Records if you don't have it... It's a Must! Talk hard!!!

WARNER BROS. GOES DEF

Def American Recordings has entered into a joint venture with Warner Bros. Records, whereby Warners will distribute all Def American product via the WEA Corp. In addition, Warners will be responsible for the promotion, advertising, marketing and sales of the releases, with Warner Bros. or Reprise field staff also working the releases.

NEW ARTIST IMMIGRATION BILL INTRODUCED

The Senate Immigration Subcommittee introduced a new bill that would modify the controversial Immigration Act of 1990 that was scheduled to be implemented on October 1, but has been delayed for at least six months. The new bill seeks to repeal many of the 1990 bill's restrictions on U.S. entry and visa acquirement for performers, artists and athletes from abroad, which would have cut the flow of artists entering the country. If passed, it would repeal the cap of 25,000 of the above who could enter the country yearly, set up a study to see how many people actually use arts visas, determine whether other countries have barriers against American artists, and clarify what kinds of union consultations are required before performers can enter the country.

AMERICA GETS EARACHE

Infamous U.K. grindcore indie Earache Records has opened up a stateside office with former Relativity product manager Jim Welch at the helm. The office will handle the domestic marketing and product managing of all Earache releases, which go through Important distribution. The office can be reached by mail at 70-A Greenwich Ave. #457, New York, NY 10011, by phone at (212) 366-5367 or by fax at (212) 255-5367.

VINTAGE R&B FROM VIRGIN

Virgin Records has started an offshoot label called Flair Records, which will be issuing classic R&B titles that were previously unavailable. The first three releases are Etta James' R&B Dymomite, B.B. King's The Best Of B.B. King, Volume 1 and Johnny Guitar Watson's Three Hours Past Midnight, which are all drawn from the vaults of Modern Records and the Kent and Crown subsidiaries. All press and promotion for the releases will be handled through Virgin's Los Angeles and New York offices.

SEPTEMBER RIAA CERTIFICATIONS

Both R.E.M.'s "Losing My Religion" and Metallica's

"Enter Sandman" singles went Gold this past month. Albums certified Platinum include Elvis Costello's My Aim Is True, Jane's Addiction's Ritual De Lo Habitual and EMF's Schubert Dip. Dwight Yoakam's If There Was A Way, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers' Into The Great Wide Open, Alice In Chains' Facelift and Oingo Boingo's Dead Man's Party were all certified Gold.

JAPANESE CENSORS CUT SHONEN KNIFE

Shonen Knife's new eponymously titled album has been delayed for release in Japan due to censorship problems. A song on the album called "Dali's Sunflower" uses the word kuruu, which means "to be crazy," so the song is now being deleted from the Japanese version of the album. Songwriter Michie Nakatani commented, "I am against censorship, but we have to obey the Japanese laws. I guess fans who want to hear "Dali's Sunflower" will just have to buy the American version on Rockville."

SIGN ON THE DOTTED LINE

After rumors flying in all directions, Soul Asylum has signed with Columbia. . . Jules Shear has been inked by Polydor.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

G.W. McLennan and Robert Forster of the Go-Betweens will be touring together as support for Lloyd Cole's upcoming tour. Although the two will be billed under their individual names, the set list is likely to include several Go-Betweens songs. . . Nirvana will be touring the U.K. with Shonen Knife as support.

RECORD NEWS

At the end of September, Relativity will be releasing a T-Rex box set. T-Rex, The Essential Collection, is a three-CD set with 40 songs, eight of which are previously unreleased acoustic versions of some classics. A 19-song home video will also be released in conjunction. . . Caroline is releasing a four-track EP by the Smashing Pumpkins called Lull. . . Rockville Records will be releasing a Christmas single by Shonen Knife called "Space Christmas" on December 1. . . House Of Love has a new import single out called "The Girl With The Lonliest Eyes." One of the B-sides is a cover of the Chills' "Pink Frost." . . ABCO Records will be releasing a Phil Spector boxed set on November 5. The 4-disc set, called Phil Spector Bock To Mono (1958-1969), includes 73 songs and a 96-page booklet detailing song lyrics, recording history and archival photos.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Sherri Trahan has been selected to fill the vacant alternative promotions slot at MCA. Trahan had previously fulfilled similar duties at Morgan Creek, Elektra and Restless. . . At Epic Records, David Massey has been named VP for A&R and Marc Reiter has been upped to director of marketing. Massey had previously been a personal manager in London, while Reiter had been a product manager for Epic. . . Joe Hecht has been appointed director of promotion/A&R at Relativity Records. Previously Hecht had been with RCA Records. . . DGC has named Bill Bennett as director of promotion for DGC Records. Bennett had served posts at Uni Records and MCA. . . A&M Records has upped Bryon Huttenhower to VP of A&R. Huttenhower has signed Soundgarden, Gin Blossoms, Toro Tora and Extreme to the label.

MIND OVER MATTERS

We Close Minds For A Living

By Carl D. Orr, WFNM

In the last week of summer, I spent quite some time listening to the entirety of Jello Biafra's I Blow Minds For A Living spoken-word album. Needless to say, I was blown away. "People have to find out about this stuff," I thought. "How the hell can word get out?" Pause; revelation: "Say, I'm sitting in a radio station. . ." The propaganda factory went to work; a four-minute excerpt from Biafra's "Fear Of A Free Planet" went over the WFNM airwaves. Response was tremendous. I proceeded to fire up other spoken-word pieces from Sound Bites From The Counter Culture, with more to follow. I made it clear to DJs to listen to the material first, and play it only if they liked it. I also decided to follow such pieces with a disclaimer, the usual bullshit that something "was not necessarily the opinion of WFNM."

Trouble soon struck in the form of our general manager. He removed all such tapes from the FM studio and even erased some of them. He informed me that "People will turn off the radio when they hear this kind of stuff. We're not a political station." We also had to avoid everyone with an opinion trying to get on the air (I failed to see the problem in that). He was going to let me play such things on my show, but providing any such left-wing propaganda to other DJs, who otherwise would never find out about it, well that was right out. I suggested that we torch a copy of the Bill of Rights while we were at it.

"When a GM or PD's greatest concern is maximum listenership through sounding as much like the local classic rock station as possible, something is very wrong."

I have only recently become aware of the war against alternative press in this country, and as such I have only recently become afraid for college radio. When a GM or PD's greatest concern is maximum listenership through sounding as much like the local classic rock station as possible, something is very wrong. When an independent media source decides not to use its power (before it's taken away permanently) for fear of offending people, someone is very confused. I only have the experience at my station to draw from, but I'm sure we're not the only ones. At the moment, I'm not sure what to do. The GM will not budge. I've considered taking it to the administration of the college, but at a small private school primarily attended by rich white kids, I doubt that they will be sympathetic. I certainly don't have the funds to take it to court (though I am contacting the Censorship Defense Fund). What I would like to see is those of us who still give a shit learning to network and combat problems like this before Public Enemy is banned from the airwaves. I ask anyone who agrees that the situation at WFNM is terribly wrong to call up and tell our GM so. If you agree with him, call and say that, too. But I hope for everyone's sake that the response is one against censorship.

Carl D. Orr is the Music Director for WFNM in Lancaster, PA. If you'd like to address this or any other subject matter that has been lurking in your mind, please call Carlos Tabakof at 516-466-6000 for further information on submitting a Mind Over Matters column.

NIRVANA Marquee, New York City, September 28

If pot plus sweat plus more sweat equals the odor of the soul of today's youth, then okay, yes, the Nirvana show at the sold-out Marquee did indeed smell like teen spirit. Opening with a Vaselines cover and then barreling into a smattering of tunes from Bleach and Nevermind, there was plenty to be struck by that night. We were most literally struck by the airborne bodies of a ridiculous number of stage divers of both sexes, though the skins of semi-new drummer David Grohl took a far greater beating, and for that he deserves credit for helping to elevate these guys to their current Next Big Thing status. Also striking was gangly bassist Chris Novoselic, laughing dismissively at the proceedings, reminding everyone that Nirvana is much more punk rock than heavy metal, as much as heavy metal programmers might disagree. But we were most struck by the reluctant hero, Kurt Cobain. Timid little guy was Cobain, standing frightened in the corner, delivering his mighty hooks and mightier moan perfectly, yet refusing to act the rock god. Cobain steadied himself near the end and launched out of his shell in time to trash his guitar before they stomped off. The encore brought the treasure that the worshipful were waiting for: Novoselic and Grohl dirged away, and Cobain threw his tiny frame into the crowd, outstretched like Superman. About ten of the throng kept him aloft in this cartoon pose as he growled the entire tune. Yes, everyone is right, they're gonna be stars.

CROWDED HOUSE/ RICHARD THOMPSON/ CANDY SKINS Palladium, New York City September 30

Local commercial alternative giant WDRE's Modern Rock Fest '91 concluded with a show that had surprise guests and lots of great music (as was the case with the previous five nights). We walked in to the beginnings of a 20 minute acoustic set by Big Audio Dynamite II's Mick Jones. He had a little trouble getting the right beat from the beat box, but it was a pleasure hearing his ruffled croon anyway. B-52 Fred Schneider emceed the rest of the proceedings, beginning with Oxford, England's Candy Skins who took to their craft of sculpting blissful and catchy pop songs. Richard Thompson's twenty minute set was a feast for acoustic music lovers, and the fact that he can be so commanding despite such a minimal folk/rock arsenal and succeed in capturing the attention of those seeking something louder is the greatest testament to his legendary genius. Headliners Crowded House put on an impressive set to cap the festivities. With songs mostly from their latest Woodface, the Finn brothers gave us Beatlesque harmonies and acoustic rhythms that were as on as humanly possible. Just when we thought it was all over, APB came out for their final performance (They metamorphose into Loveless as we speak) Their set was limited to five songs, all APB cult hits and stage diving mayhem, which looked like a Palladium scene from days long passed.
