PIPES OF PANIC: MASTER MUSICIANS OF JAJOUKA

In Morocco, musicians are mystics and healers. In the village of Jajouka, in the foothills of the Rif mountains, the sound of the Master Musicians is said to have strange powers—it can heal the sick, it can induce a trance. In another time, the word magic might have been used to describe it.

Bachir Attar is the current leader of the Master Musicians Of Jajouka. He inherited the title in 1981 from his father, who had inherited it from his father, and so on, back through the centuries. "Jajouka music, it goes back for thousands of years, but we know exactly 600 years, to the time of Islam, because the music is a gift for one family, my family, Attar. The village is big, but one family takes care of this music, from father to son, and the gift is special for us."

The Jajoukan musical mystique has captured the attention of Westerners in modern times, ever since Brion Gysin, a comrade of William S. Burroughs and Paul Bowles, first heard the Master Musicians at a festival in the mid-'50s. Since the early '70s, the Master Musicians and/or their leader have appeared on recordings by the Rolling Stones, Ornette Coleman, Nicky Skopelitis and Elliot Sharp, as well as in the recent movie version of Bowles' novel The Sheltering Sky. Recently, Stephen Davis, author of both Hammer Of The Gods and an acclaimed biography of Bob Marley, has taken on the Moroccan mystique in his latest book, Jajouka Rolling Stone. But in retrospect, perhaps the Master Musicians' most important and profoundly influential audience was Brian Jones, the most mystical and musically talented of the Rolling Stones, who came to Jajouka shortly before his death in 1969.

The spectacle of a blond-maned English rock star in an outrageous mink coat traipsing through the remote Jajoukan foothills was not lost on the young Bachir Attar, then the son of the Master Musicians' leader. Later, it would make him want to bring Jajouka and its music to the outside world. "This was in '68, when I was like five years old. And I had an idea, when Brian Jones came. Somebody comes in the village with long, big hair, wild. He was moving, and he was dancing, and he was taping, he was like a wild man. This influenced me, to get the music of Jajouka pushed, to bring it to the Western world. I thought, 'Maybe you can meet people who will understand this music.' Because the music of Jajouka, it can go with jazz, with blues, with rock and roll, with anything."

In 1991, producer Bill Laswell travelled to Morocco to record Apocalypse Across The Sky

(Axiom), with liner notes by William S. Burroughs. Later, in New York, Laswell produced Bachir's first solo album, The Next Dream (CMP). Bachir says, "The Next Dream, I made for communication, to make people feel and understand Third World music, and for what traditional music means. Traditional music can be strong, I think. We are one blood, one human being, only the language and religion differ. We are all the same feeling."

At the Aid El Kabir, the high feast of the Muslim calendar, the music of Jajouka blares into the night, all night. A boy dressed in goat skins leaps, dancing, switching the air with a stick. He is Bou Jeloud, Master Of Skins, Father Of Flocks. Later in the night, entranced by the hypnotic sounds of Jajoukan music, he may dance through hot coals, chasing onlookers madly with his switch. Clearly this is something very, very old, and very special. It's at the heart of what being human is all about, what separates us from the nature around us. Outside Bou Jeloud's cave in Jajouka, Morocco, something older than all of us lives on.

MARK LANEGAN Whiskey For The Holy Ghost (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Mark Lanegan and his whiskey-beaten baritone are better known as the emotive vocal and songwriting components of the Screaming Trees, a band whose hard and swirling rock has always boasted a depth most bands hope to achieve on just one release. Whiskey For The Holy Ghost is the long-awaited follow-up to Lanegan's solo debut, 1990's pensive, heart-wrenching The Winding Sheet. We'll forgive the three-year wait, because this set of damp, Northwestern blues is as potent and fraught with emotion as anything Lanegan's recorded. Liner note readers will find big rock names such as J Mascis, Tad Doyle, Jack Endino and Mudhoney's Dan Peters in the fine print, but really this is Lanegan and collaborator Mike Johnson's vision: Johnson's warm acoustic and electric guitars bathe Lanegan's songs in sympathetic swaddling, merging the punch-in-the-stomach ache of traditional blues with the weepy, blue-eyed soul of the Trees' rock 'n roll. The heavy rhythms and vociferous guitars of "Borracho" make it a natural for Trees fans, while the slow progression of "The River Rise," the tender vocal interplay and percussion of "Riding The Nightingale," the delicacy of "Sunrise" and the cinematic scope of "Beggar's Blues" are subtler but equally powerful.

—Lydia Anderson

MATERIAL Hallucination Engine (Axiom, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003)—With a sound like distant rumbling thunder, the Hallucination Engine appears on the horizon, an amazing futuristic hybrid machine of high technology and potent shamanism. Who's at the helm of this awe-inspiring device? None other than bassist/producer/visionary Bill Laswell, who first formulated Material as an exploratory supergroup some 15 years ago. The Material map of the world connects points in India, America, Africa, Europe and interstellar space, exploring the underlying universal links between trance musics of the globe, from heady dub reggae, '70s space funk and

Indian raga to the tranced-out chillout rooms of underground techno clubs. While most of the pieces are anchored in Laswell's gargantuan basslines and monolithic rhythms, it's guitarist Nicky Skopelitis who's the glue of this music, his shimmering riffs making the other guest instruments—Shankar's electric violin, Jihad Racy's ney flute, Wayne Shorter's sax—stand out like jewels in the firmament. Each musician adds something unique: Sly Dunbar's mesmerizing drum passages, Simon Shaheen's oud and Bernie Worrell's keyboards, with only a monologue from William S. Burroughs breaking the instrumental stream on "Words Of Advice." In a weary world that increasingly seems as if everything's been tried and done, few endeavors in music have the breadth of vision of Bill Laswell's Material, which continues to find and define the new frontier.

—James Lien

UNSAFE Total Destruction (Matador, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—With a surrounding history as volatile as this band's, it takes a lot of powerful noise to live up to the hype. For some time, the band was more renowned for its grotesque artwork and then the death by overdose of its drummer, Charlie Ondras, than its music. Total Destruction, however, makes everything that's ever been said about them inconsequential; the songs are blisteringly hard, a mix of Big Black and The Fall force-fed through a blender. With the addition of ex-Swans/Foetus guy Vinnie Signorelli, each aspect of the music—Signorelli's drums, Pete Shore's bass and Chris Spencer's guitar and vocals—is as forceful as the rest, the four parts staggering separately, just barely in control, combining to a sweltering mass of combustible noise. Rather than write a standard song of rise and fall, Unsane grinds upward to an eventual pinnacle, stopping short of an imploding blast, perhaps to avoid rock pretensions. The sudden stops and starts add a lurching, drunken element integral to the fiery ball, lending it an uncertain quality that is a welcome relief from the overall heaviness. Try "Road Trip," "Wayne" and "S.O.S."

—Megan McLaughlin

ST. JOHNNY Speed Is Dreaming (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Signed by Sonic Youth, mixed by John Agnello (Dinosaur Jr., Screaming Trees), St. Johnny, unsurprisingly, wears its influences with the same sloppy, lackluster reverence as it brandishes for its torn jeans and stained, wrinkled t-shirts. But only the laziest critics could write the band off as the sum of its collective record collection. St. Johnny is too lethargic to be calculated, and even though vocalist/guitarist Bill Whitten communicates the cool, stoned demeanor of Thurston Moore and the apathy of J Mascis, the band meanders at its own indolent pace, aligning itself with other so-called "slacker" bands not by intent, but by circumstance. For St. Johnny, giving up is what it's all about (check out song titles like "Down The Drain," "I Give Up" and "You Can't Win"), and taking the easy way out is far preferable to expending any energy. On the group's major label debut, Speed Is Dreaming, loud, drawling guitars and endless curls of feedback tangle with slurred vocals and stuttering drums, resulting in an occasionally staid, but often staggering menu of tunes that broach the usual agenda of restlessness, frustration and despair. Especially impressive, in an idle, water-treading sort of way, are "Turbine," which layers a thrash beat and descending harmonics over an ascending guitar riff, and "I Give Up," a melancholy cut suffused with melody.

CASUAL Fear Itself (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)

—When Franklin D. Roosevelt stated, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself," little did he know that Fear Itself would surface in 1994 as a trippy hip-hop record from a Bay Area teenager named Casual. Representing the tightly-bonded Hieroglyphics family of artists, Casual (like his East Oakland counterparts) thirsts for and encourages a renewed spirit within the hip-hop community where MC battles of the vocal variety would determine one's level of supremacy and respect. Casual spills a lyrically complex blend of confident, self-validating rhymes over an aggravated swarm of jazz-primed funk beds that pay particular attention to brawny basslines and functional sampling. With titles like "You Flunked," "Get Off It" and "This Is How We Rip Shit" (featuring Souls Of Mischief), Casual is constantly inventing new ways to dis his competitors while reinforcing his own bold claims. Del The Funkyhomosapien flows over the crafty "Who's It On," as Casual saves a little time to speak to his community on "Chained Minds" (speaking out against black-an-black crime) and "Lose In The End," showing that he offers more than tangled street wit and artistically decorated boasts. Have no fear on: "Me-O-Mi-O," "That's How It Is," "I Didn't Mean To" and "We Got It Like That."

AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE In Pursuit Of Shashamane Land (On-U Sound (UK), P.O. Box 1460, London N10 2DQ England/ fax: 081-883-0331)

—Bonjo I A Bingo Noah is the "Spiritualized Leader" of African Head Charge, the Robin Hood of its (Adrian) Sherwood Forest. Noah's name, the Rasta-inflected lyrics and titles on In Pursuit Of Shashamane Land, and the bass-and-percussion groove of the album make it easy to think that it's a reggae record. It's not. Noah and his seven-piece band have extracted the reggae from dub to get a less culturally loaded space on which to build their sonic honeycombs. What's left are only the formal elements of dub: massive low-end bass, wide-panned stereo separations, vocal fragments with echo and delay, multiple layers of sound that fade out and in again, the sense that something that would make each track a "song" is being suppressed, the inversion of values of an ordinary mix. On "No, Don't Follow Fashion," the group comes on like a Jamaican/British Todd Terry Project, twisting a few split-second vowels every potential way, impaling them on a bed of hi-hats, and pushing the whiplash snare roll that propels the track deep into the mix. "Pursuit" is hooked by a wobbly, compressed chant in its background; the development of the piece consists of its fat-as-a-snake bassline being overtaken by a swarm of percussion. Turn "Animal Law," "Fever Pitch" and "Heading To Glory" up loud, close your eyes, and be transported to Shashamane Land.

—Douglas Wolk

COURSE OF EMPIRE Initiation (Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)

—In concert, Dallas' alternative noise-maker Course Of Empire has been known to pass out hand drums to audience members mid-performance in order to facilitate an element of unpredictability. Initiation, the band's first full-length following last year's self-titled debut EP, expounds on this approach, mixing a number of disparate musical elements into an adventurous, cohesive whole. Vocal harmonies, feedback loops, rapping and tribal drums are just a few of the techniques that separate this group from a gaggle of other alternative metal bands. Employing a fiery, go-for-the-throat aesthetic, Course Of Empire lashes out with precise musical blows, attracting curious listeners with its eclecticism and power before ensnaring them in its sharpened talons. Mike Graff's guitar playing ranges from abrasive to mysteriously psychedelic, and Vaughn Stevenson's vocals run the gamut from airy to aggressive. To its credit, Course Of Empire balances might and melody in equal proportions, bringing both alternative pop fans and metal aficionados into the fray. Then there's the aforementioned experimental musical element, which should appeal to an entirely new contingent. By covering all the bases without sucking up to any particular demographic, Course Of Empire has the potential to Initiate the masses. Join in with "Hiss," "Gear" and "Infested."

now, it's that techno compilations are a lot like people you meet—it's not that some are any better than the others, it's just natural that over the course of time there'll be some that you seem to like better than the rest. For us, California Dreaming is one of the latter, successfully pulling together various strains of California-based techno and projecting from a vibrant and varied scene. Techno and its ambient offspring are far more complex than simply gurgling synthesizers and Germanic stomping machine-beats—just listen to the opening strains of "Cantamilla" by Los Angeles-based Tranquility Bass, the "band" which also landed the lead track honors on Caroline's first Excursions In Ambience comp. Here, in an aural equivalent of a surrealist collage, a Satie-like piano sample is melded to a capella Middle Eastern vocal line and a funky drum-beat, creating an esoteric, ethereal sound that soars miles above the average techno fare of beats, blips and beeps. Other high points include tracks like "Transmit Liberation" by Single Cell Orchestra, which melds its ecstatic message to martial beats and slowly-heightening electronic effects, Straight Up Caffeine (actually the same two guys as Tranquility Bass, but on a different wavelength), the pumping disco of Aquatherium, and Young American Primitive's hypnotic "The Reality Of Nature."

—James Lien

EGOMANIACS Fahy-Harley-Kramer (Shimmy Disc, JAF Box 1187, New York, NY 10116/718-768-2424)—Call it great acid pop—and it could only come from former Mabuses/Assassins frontman Kim Fahy and friends. Fahy, along with precision percussionist Jamie Harley and ubiquitous producer/bassist/B-3ist Kramer, mesh an easily fathomable yet experimental, Robyn Hitchcock-styled pop sensibility with an unsettling, early Floydish surrealistic coloration for the Egomaniacs' debut, Fahy-Harley-Kramer. While each track, for the most part, consists of a traditional guitar/bass/drums setup with the occasional organ, it is the Egomaniacs' highly inventive usage of these instruments that crafts Fahy-Harley-Kramer into a diverse, psychedelically-tinged collection of masterpieces. Thin, wobbly guitar leads a la Television shimmer above a blanket of jangly guitar and eerie backup vocals on "Your Lips Are Nuggets." On "Indeed, This Is The Creep," a trippy Beach Boys-like melody, complete with harmonies, swirls around Kramer's swooping and ducking slide basslines. A majority of the songs on the album (mostly written by Fahy) are brief enough to easily entice even at first listen, making for a deliciously palatable package. The dense and often humorous lyrics, however, deserve several plays in order to extract fully the richness of their disturbing beauty. Frolic with the rollicking "Your Sister" and the funky-poppy "Mamma's Collection."

—Aaron Clow

MEDESKI, MARTIN & WOOD It's A Jungle In Here (Gramavision, 33 Katonah Ave., Katonah, NY 10536/914-232-1399)—

Pianist/organist John Medeski, drummer/percussionist Billy Martin and bossist Chris Wood make up this trio, which gives the term "acid-jazz" an entirely new meaning. The three members, schooled in jazz roots and heavily involved with the downtown NYC scene, create groove after dripping groove on their second album together. Rather than relying on programmed rhythms and samples, the trio shines organically with live instruments, leaving room for the members' diverse influences and personalities to beam through with smooth poise and a wealth of possibility. From the jazz base, Medeski, Martin & Wood add elements of funk, gospel, hip-hop and R&B to It's A Jungle In Here with seamless fluidity, exploring new options and ideas in tunes from John Coltrane, juju king King Sunny Ade, Thelonious Monk and Bob Marley—the latter two are linked on "Bemsha Swing-Lively Up Yourself"—along with seven rhythm-intensive originals. A four-piece horn section and the presence of guitarist Marc Ribot on several tracks help the already coherent tunes to swing even more smartly, as highlighted on "Moti Mo," "Shuck It Up," "Where's Sly?," the abovementioned and the title track. —Andy Skibins

EDSEL The Everlasting Belt Co. (Grass c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—Coming from a well-established scene in a heavily-classified area such as D.C.—when one can't readily be classified into one of its dominant genres (hard-core, indie pop)—can make forging onto a national scene a bit difficult. As Edsel releases its second album, The Everlasting Belt Co., the band still struggles with its identity crisis. Possibly hoping to rectify the situation, Edsel has changed labels and abandoned its once one-dimensional rock attitude. In the midst of change the band continues to play forthright rock, but has made an effort to pay more attention to details in a way similar to bands such as Pavement or Codeine. Intriguing samples are interspersed throughout the album, speckling the guitar-pop melodies, which are mostly accompanied by droning, sluggish bass. This second album blushes with a personality that Edsel's previous releases lack. Perhaps this confident show will garner the band more attention and help it find its national niche. Buckle up before you play "Our Drunken Friend," "Bone Tender," "Buckle" or "Pell Confirms."

Purple. Shrew'd, released in time to celebrate the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage in NZ (the first nation to allow women an electoral voice), is a remarkable collection of mostly new material recorded by some of the nation's most interesting female artists. All five of Look Blue Go Purple's members contribute to this eclectic collection: drummer Lesley Paris organized the compilation and drums on two tracks; Kathy Bull (recently of Cyclops) recorded the sultry "Antarctic"; Norma O'Malley, now of Chug, offers the bristling "Cruella," softly colored with her vocals; Kath Webster's "Easily Pleased" is wistfully tuneful; and Denise Roughan, now of the 3Ds, closes the disc with "To Sleep, To Dream," an off-beat lullaby. "Seas Of The Moon" is the work of poet Sandra Bell, who has a solo album on Xpressway, and whose work recalls the spacey, emotive tones of Lida Husik. Sooty And Sweep's "Inch Deep" is bristling, quirky pop, and Christine Voice, formerly of Snapper, concocts "Beat The Bullet," a strangely hummable twisting of drum-machine rhythms and noodly guitar. —Lydia Anderson

M-3 Roger Miller Ben Miller Larry Miller (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/310-430-7286)—Through several projects, Ben, Larry and Roger (No Man) Miller have been making music and noise for more than 20 years. The experimental recording approach taken by the brothers Miller under the M-3 moniker encourages chaos, improvisation, discovery and total freedom. The first three tracks begin with an idea supplied by one brother, and is then refracted by the total group, each member drastically influencing the direction of the pieces by using contrasting guitars and a variety of sampled sounds. In fact, all three brothers are credited as using samples, "found sounds" and guitars, and while such technology may be of an advanced digital nature, the mindset and delivery is more evocative and purely primitive, recalling some of Elliot Sharp's recent work. Helter-skelter rhythms (when they appear at all), fits of percussion and batches of shrieks, squaks and plinks are the norm, resulting in pieces that are unpredictable even upon repeated listens. The fourth piece, "The Basement," is an equally misleading musical group improvisation, while the remaining four tracks are solo pieces by the brothers, delivered with the same vision and enjoyable lack of restraint. —Steve Ciabattani

LIQUOR BIKE Lowborne (Merkin, 310 E. Biddle St., Baltimore, MD 21202/410-234-0048)—After releasing a few 7" singles and popping up on the occasional regional compilation, these Baltimore boys release an album that may finally put their hometown on the proverbial rock 'n roll map. Taking the lead from the wound-out guitar slashings of '70s rock in much the same way as Mudhoney, Liquor Bike pounds out angry, garage "rawk" with the effective plow of a tornado through a mid-western town. The sound is nothing particularly new, but a band with so much manic enthusiasm and such a rousing, violent spirit can't go wrong in our book. The working-class growl of vocalist/guitarist David Koslowski adds additional grit and darkness to the songs' underlying pop layers, while the band's low-cutting buzzchords and rhythms hammer these layers into anthemic brawls. Songs like "Backbone," "Martini" and "Creature" are snarling punk workouts chock full of melodic ripples and the occasional blast of disgruntled fury. "Train Wreck" would sound more like a Chicago noise-fest with its staccato chord slammin' and rising clamor if it weren't for the song's aching chorus.

Clocking in at just over one half-hour, Lowborne punches quickly, jabbing in all the right places and throwing in hooks for good measure. And don't forget to check out the raucous cover of PJ Harvey's "Sheela-Na-Gig" hidden at the end of the disc. —Colin Helms

BHEKI MSELEKU Celebration (World Circuit, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—As copies of South African-born pianist and composer Bheki Mseleku's album cross borders and waters to arrive in the United States, his artistic vision is also crossing borders in a musical sense as well. Fans of Randy Weston and Abdullah Ibrahim take note: like those two, Mseleku is another in a long line of musicians who mingle the deep sounds of Africa with the elegance and poise of modern jazz. The African influence goes further than just the song titles—names like "Celebration," "Angola" and "Blues For Africa" may hint at what Mseleku's doing, but in the music itself, the strong rhythmic pulse, Mseleku's sense of melodic structure and the added interplay of Thebe Lipere's percussion portray a sophisticated vision of the musical links between continents and cultures. The Africa/jazz connection is perhaps underscored most boldly on "The Age Of Inner Knowing" and "Closer To The Source," two tunes featuring guest saxophone appearances by none other than Courtney Pine, a musician best known for his own fusings of jazz and world music sounds. This album is also among the first domestic issues on the World Circuit label, a long-standing jazz and world music label now distributed in the U.S. by Rounder, making Celebration not just an important release in musical terms, but a landmark event for jazz entering into the marketplace of the global village. —James Lien

KILLER SHREWS Killer Shrews (Enemy, 11-36 31st Ave., Long Island City, NY 11106/718-956-4530)—The product of an extraordinarily wild week in the studio, Killer Shrews is a collaboration between Mekons mainstay Jon Langford, guitarist-about-town Gary Lucas and Pere Ubu's Tony Maimone. Langford is indisputably the main voice (both vocal and creative) on the record. Although it doesn't have the hard-drinking seriousness and aesthetic unity of your typical Mekons album, he's more playful here than he's been in years, and his silliness rubs off on his bandmates. Lucas' guitar solo in "We Know Your Secrets," an anthem for paranoids, quotes Suzuki exercises; "Hank Williams Must Die" is the straight-faced execution of a delightful conceit—Stalin's answer to Luke The Drifter's "No, No, Joe." As might be expected on a Langford-penned record, there's plenty of verbose lyrics ("Bring Me The Fat In California" and "Big Eye" are both mouthfuls, but they slide easily into the ears thanks to Barbara Manning's backing vocals) and well-reasoned politics ("It's Happening Again," a nervous rant about German reunification). And kudos to the Shrews (named after a ridiculous movie from the '50s) for the song title "Handfull Of Gimme (And A Mouth Fulla Much Obliged)"—we always knew they were closet Elvis Costello fans. —Douglas Wolk

Announcing the scorching debut release from Soul Plane Recordings artist Candy Planet. Featuring the songs "Tender Trap", "Stranger to Love" and "Jezebel".

PAUL RISHELL Swear To Tell The Truth (Tone-Cool, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Paul Rishell has been slinging the blues in the Boston area since the early '70s, and Swear To

Tell The Truth marks his first nationwide release, letting the rest of the country hear his emotive country blues style that has accompanied artists ranging from Howlin' Wolf to Bonnie Raitt. Drawing from the Delta style of Robert Johnson, Rishell covers material by Johnson, Blind Boy Fuller, Jerry Lee Lewis, Fats Domino and Jelly Roll Morton, along with several Delta standards and his own compositions and arrangements. Featured mostly in a solo setting, his National Steel guitar accompanying his rustic vocals, Rishell digs at the roots of his country blues, uncovering a dusty soul found at the proverbial crossroads that rings with an authentic, road-worn nature. The crossroads lead to more urban blues scenes on several electric tracks, featuring Ronnie Earl (of the Broadcasters) on lead guitar and harmonica slinger Little Annie Raines, songs that represent the merging of the country and urban blues styles in raging fashion (especially on Earl Hooker's "Do You Swear To Tell The Truth"). Also listen to the subtleties of "Somebody In My Home," "Every Night About This Time," "It'll Be Me" and "Canned Heat Blues." —Andy Skibins

BUTTERFLY CHILD Onomatopoeia (Rough Trade (UK), 66 Galborne Road, London

W10 5PS England/081-960-9888)—As its title would suggest, the music on Butterfly Child's debut album is a colorful, nearly weightless collection of sounds, sewn fluidly together by project mastermind Joe Cassidy's lulling vocals and his beautifully textured electronic patternings. The 12 songs here are sprawling dreamscapes, some reaching eight or nine minutes; many gel into a refined songframe, while others explore the space and textures they're given, lacking nothing for it.

Onomatopoeia suggests the same soft sound-spaces as Seefeel but more accurately recalls the underrated A.R. Kane, whose playful use of progressive rhythms, exploration of sound and its borders, and curious ear for a tune were not lost on Cassidy. The bouncy "Our Lady Mississipp," the chiming melody and vaguely New Order-ish charm of "Triumphant," the sing-songy "Young Virgins Call For Mutiny" and the gently paced but seductive "Queen Glass" are among the more immediate cuts, while the darker-hued "Stars Light Up Orleans" and the hushed tones of "Eva" evoke a disturbing, Pram-like sensibility, like a daydream merging with a nightmare. "X:celcius," the album's longest song, is worth a wade out into the deep end, with its Felt-like guitar strumming and Durutti Column-like rainfall of sounds. —Lydia Anderson

JACKPOT!

PANDA Panda (763 Capp St., San Francisco, CA 94110/415-824-2378)—

Although the J-card trumpets that there's a whole LP where these three songs come from, Panda is waiting for bankrolling by the right label with money to burn, making this demo ripe for Futures infamy. The band is composed of two male and two female San Francisco residents who are prone to a poppy, droning and treble-happy modern rock sound. You can say the band sounds like lots of things, since it's obvious from these songs that the members are plenty versed in things cool and indie—Vaseline, Poo Sticks when they were still spoofing indie-rock preciousness, the poppier side of the Teen Beat roster—but Panda's punk-rock mistrust of idols keeps it from sounding sappy and Anglophilic. Both "Ninny Cake Bake"'s tart lyrics and sugar-rush momentum, and the warped guitar leads running through "Parasol" that're half Ultra Vivid Scene, half '60s love rock, indicate that Panda has enough cheek and charm to sustain it through its juvenile phase. With Creation-type idyllic, distorted guitar chimes and giddy melodies, but also with the cynicism that comes from growing up in a town cluttered with '60s burnouts making nuisances of themselves, the guile inherent in these three little Panda songs carries them above and beyond comparison. —Deborah Orr lege students and frustrated, smart-alec Roger Manning wannabes. A remarkable exception turned up on a homemade tape from New Yorker TODD KRAY (60 W. 76th St. #7G, New York, NY 10023/212-873-1607). Kray first garnered attention as Lori Carson's guitar player, prior to her joining the Golden Palominos. Since then, he's turned up at various New York singer-songwriter haunts such as Sin-e, the Bitter End and the Ludlow St. Cafe, appearing both solo and with a backing band in tow. Kray's songs, especially "Emptyland" and "Clear," survey a bluesy, introspective, almost melancholic landscape, without jerking tears or bartering in old weary cliches. Imagine a clear-headed Mark Eitzel without the booze, or Walter Salas-Humara of the Silos without his neighborhood flavor, and you're close to getting a handle on Kray's budding vision. Not the most ambitious or lofty of demos, but solid songwriting and playing make it work, transcending the humble four-track demo quality and the occasional warbly spots in Kray's vocal register. And here's two ideas for Kray to contemplate: fleshing out the songs with suitably homespun instrumental arrangements (fiddle, pedal steel, mandolin), and, possibly, looking for the right collaborator or co-writer to bounce ideas off of, which might yield even stronger songs and results from this up-and-coming talent. —D.I.Y.

JACKPOT EXTRA!

UI The Two Sided EP (EP) (Hemiola (UK), 35 Barnbrough St., Burley, Leeds LS4 2QY England/212-431-7483)—Who-ey? It's Ui (pronounced "oo-ee," really quickly, as opposed to the longer hog-calling form "oooh-wee"), a futurist funk power trio driven by the force of bass frequencies. The lineup: two basses, a drummer, minimal guitar on one or two tracks. The sound: Ui espouses a philosophy of eclectic art-funk built from the ground up, drawing on strands of bottom-heavy body music from around the world. It's the blood pulse of reggae dub, the throb of Can and early Public Image, the tricky, symmetrical polyrhythmic funk play of the Meters and MGs, the quirky art-funk of Talking Heads, the Minutemen and E.S.G., all deftly reassembled into something startlingly original. Intense players such as these deserve their names in lights: duelling bassists Sasha Frere-Jones and Wilbo Wright play telepathically off each others' syncopated bass riffs, interlocking with the rippling, rimshotting percussion of Clem Waldmann as he propels them along. (Between the three of them, they've previously logged time playing with such New York names as Dustdevils, Marc Ribot, Chris Harford and Miracle Room.) Painstakingly conceived and stunningly executed, The Two Sided EP is hands down one of the greatest new finds in recent memory.

—James Lien

JESUS LIZARD "(Fly) On (The Wall)" (7") (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-4446)—The somewhat evil-spirited Jesus Lizard dangles small pieces of work in front of us, a few songs on Lash and now this 7", taunting fans with the possibilities of a new album. "(Fly) On (The Wall)" is a languid tune compared to the regular raucous rhythms the band produces—a tune of ramblings, both musically and lyrically, as David Yow complains incessantly of never getting any (sleep), the guitars returning to the groove but never reaching any sort of climax. The B-side, "White Hole," continues the torture—the instrumental contains a repeating pitch that has the same effect as scraping fingernails down a chalkboard. With enticing bits like this, we can't wait to hear an entire album of new songs, which could be nothing but just plain mean.

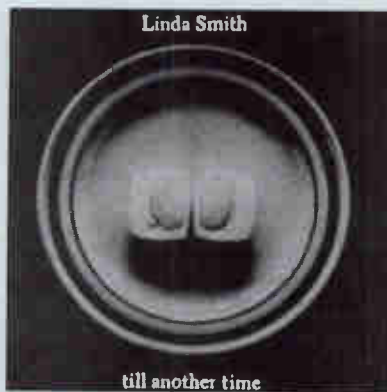

—Dawn Sutter

PALACE "Come In" (7") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-666-4790)—Matewan actor Will Oldham's band reappears, without the "Brothers."

"Come In" is a bleak dirge, spare and lonely, climaxing with some arrhythmic banjo and piano. The B-side, though, is a masterpiece: "Trudy Dies" is a complete tour de force for Oldham. A beautifully written, shattered song about bereavement ("jewels in the ground/where the worms used to be"), it recalls Appalachian folk ballads, Gram Parsons and Jesus' Blood Never Failed Me Yet all at once. Its instrumentation includes a disturbingly crackly, compressed string section, evidently sampled from an old record, endlessly repeating a lengthy cadence. A sad, frightening and marvelous record.

—Douglas Wolk

LINDA SMITH "Till Another Time" (7") (Slumberland, P.O. Box 14731, Berkeley, CA 94701-4731/510-654-6124)—Baltimorean

Linda Smith is a one-woman show who records music in the privacy of her own home. Her second single has a candy-coated air of experimentalism about it—all three songs recall the warm, yet synthetic tones of the Magnetic Fields' pop, though hers is smeared with darker clouds, recalling Lida Husik in a visceral rather than specifically musical way. "Till Another Time" spins around choppy drum machine rhythms with a spindly melody and cooing vocals, the whispered "I Just Had To" has a lulling melody, and Smith's quavery vocals and chiming guitars drift through "In This."

—Lydia Anderson

DAMBUILDERS "New Jersey" (7") (Rockville, 150 W. 28th St., Room 501, New York, NY 10001/212-675-0922)—

"New Jersey" is supposedly the first Dambuilders single in a series that will cover every state in America in song (although Louisiana and Idaho were taken care of on their Tough Guy Problem EP released last year on SpinArt). But these Bostonians-by-way-of-Hawaii are not your typical pop band for reasons other than their lofty release plans. For starters, they incorporate a whining violin lead alongside guitar, most apparent on the B-side "Oregon," adding tension and guts to their vibrant pop hooks. "New Jersey" rocks heartily with fast, punchy riffs and urgent vocals. "Wyoming" jogs along with similar sensibilities, although what the lyrics have to do with the state is unknown to us since it is sung entirely in Japanese. Look forward to more states in song in the near future.

—Colin Helms

JON SPENCER BLUES EXPLOSION "Train #3" (7") (In The Red, 2627 E. Strong Pl., Anaheim, CA 92806/fax: 714-441-2356)—For those who've heard the innumerable accolades of the Blues Explosion live but have never seen it themselves, here is finally a recording which captures the band's energetic live aura. "Train #3," which could be considered two songs in one, begins as a rocket of rhythm and screams but is then interrupted by a solo stint of cowbell drumming from Russell Simmins. That's followed by Spencer's shout of "Explosion!" and suddenly the band goes wild, repeatedly screaming "Explosion!" and playing guitars and drums at breakneck speed. The train continues on its warped journey with "Train #1" which simply shouts the praises of Hoboken, NJ, ending abruptly in a theremin screech. Be prepared for the ride of your life.

—Dawn Sutter

A-BONES "Bad Boy" (7") (Demolition Derby, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—Like bell bottoms, garage rock is becoming all the rage again, and long-time NYC scenesters the A-Bones are masters. Recorded live in 10 minutes on a two-track, the songs on this 7" recall the basement-tap brilliance of early Flat Duo Jets, music with more soul than production. Complete with a rockin' saxophone solo and screaming female backing vocals, "Bad Boy" is a garage anthem that would make even the Sonics proud. "Come Back," meanwhile, is fairly straightforward, but no less rocking.

—Bryan McNamara

DEARDARKHEAD Ultraviolet (EP) (Fertile Crescent, P.O. Box 87, Somers Point, NJ 08244/609-653-9527)—With a name as wimpy as Deardarkhead, we're happy to report that this band's faults lie solely in its moniker, and you know what they say about "a rose by any other name." For lovers of anglo-dreampop, Ultraviolet, Deardarkhead's debut, self-issued EP, smells sweet indeed, imparting a deliciously winsome tone through ethereal vocals and drone guitars. From track to track the band makes nods to the Cocteau Twins, the Pale Saints and the House Of Love, with melodies that range from being delicate as a frozen rose pedal to as gloriously tumultuous as a steep waterfall. The dearest: "Just For You," "Invisible" and "Strobelight."

CHART FOCUS

US 3

It took a couple of weeks for people to really discover what they had when Blue Note-Capitol sent out the debut by US 3, the acid-jazz brainchild of England's Geoff Wilkinson and Mel Simpson. As the story goes, the duo had used samples from the jazz label Blue Note without permission on an underground club hit, and instead of Blue Note suing the group, the label offered US 3 a contract that included unrestricted use of the heralded Blue Note vaults. The first results are found on Hand On The Torch, a blend of sultry and funky jazz lines drawn from classic performances, including Lou Donaldson, Herbie Hancock and Art Blakey, subdued rapping, and an aura that reflects the musical history that helped create this work. In its seventh week on the chart, Hand On The Torch climbs 61-33 (#13 in the West), continues to make inroads on the Beat Box, Jazz and Progressive Retail charts, and grabs top 10 reports from KCMU, KGNU, KSDT, KSTO, KUOM, KWLC, WEAX, WELR, WGDR, WICB, WLHD, WNYK, WXDU (#1) and WXYC.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

ON THE CHART

The top three releases are engaged in an ongoing battle for the #1 spot, and this week the winner is 4AD-Elektra's Breeders (3-1), as Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins (1-2) and Epic Associated's Pearl Jam (2-3) follow close behind. Island-PLG's cranberries also hold tight to their top-10 position, moving up 5-4. Blue Note-Capitol's US 3 jumps 10-7, as Reprise's tribute to Jimi Hendrix, Stone Free, inches up 9-8. Radioactive hits the charts with its debut from rock veterans the Ramones at #9. Multiple nominations for artist-of-the-year keep Matador's Liz Phair (12-10) moving up after she reentered the chart at #12 last week.

The retail world is still mostly dominated by old records, as Columbia's Kate Bush dances her way up 20-13 and Island-PLG's Tom Waits rides up 18-14. Other holdovers from last year still making progress include RCA's Cowboy Junkies (19-15), DGC's Counting Crows (25-17), 4AD-WB's Dead Can Dance (21-19), Elektra's Afghan Whigs (31-20), Rykodisc's Morphine (43-31), Virgin's Cracker (55-40) and Scat's Guided By Voices (#47 re-entry). In addition, releases from last spring such as Radioactive's Dig (#52) and American-Reprise's Danzig (#58) are now making their chart debuts.

New releases showing their bright faces this week include TeenBeat-Matador's Unrest reissue (#26; see Retail Focus), Epic's Philadelphia soundtrack (#32), Drag City's Palace (Brothers) (#42) and DGC's Raincoats reissue (#62). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

UNREST

It seems that Matador waited just long enough to reissue Unrest's early material, originally put out on bandleader Mark E. Robinson's own Teen Beat label. This collection, Fuck Pussy Galore (& All Her Friends), debuts at #26, and includes the band's first 7", its debut album, a track from the 1989 EP Catch Pellet, three tracks from Robinson's solo effort Sammy Supreme My Man, two tracks from the Lisa Carol Fremont cassette, and a bonus never-before-released track called "Egg Smoocher." The group, which has made a few line-up changes since the early days, currently has a new release, Perfect Teeth on 4AD-Reprise, with more of a pop focus than these earlier recordings. However, both records seem to be popular in the stores, as Perfect Teeth was #56 on the chart last week.

WINTER/SPRING PREVIEW

Happy New Year, Jazzheads. The period roughly between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day is traditionally a fallow time for new releases. As '94 gets rolling and the labels, large and small, click into gear, let's take an advance peek at some noteworthy new titles on the horizon. Under Richard Seidel, PolyGram Jazz has emerged as the preeminent major on the jazz front—a fact confirmed by Verve's nearly perennial choice by the critics as No. 1 label—and '94 augurs well with releases slated by bassist Charlie Haden's wonderful Quartet West and three world-class pianists—Kenny Barron, McCoy Tyner and Hank Jones. Haden, whose improvisatory bent hasn't lost one scintilla of sharpness since his groundbreaking work in the Ornette Coleman Quartet of the early '60s (check out Rhino's superb Ornette-on-Atlantic box), is coming out with Always Say Goodbye, a sequel of sorts to 1992's Haunted Heart. As on Heart, Goodbye (due Feb. 22) finds Haden and his workmates (Ernie Watts, tenor; Alan Broadbent, piano; Larence Marable, drums) donning gumshoe garb, as it were, as they reinvestigate '40s-style noir-ish themes of sickly sweet decadence and deadly lyricism à la Raymond Chandler and Humphrey Bogart. One year from now, guaranteed, Goodbye will grace many critics' year-end best-of lists. (Incidentally, the billowy-toned Watts will be heard on his first completely unadulterated straight-ahead album as a leader, Reaching Up for JVC, on Jan. 18. A hard-blower of undeniable potency but often-questionable taste—as witnessed by his dubious crossover outings in the past—Watts bows to the late tenor titan John Coltrane on three of the 10 selections; Watts' unassailable cast includes Charles Fambrough, Mulgrew Miller, Arturo Sandoval and Jack DeJohnette. Reaching Up, a worthy contender for major airplay later this month, is the tenorist's best effort to date. Let's hope he continues to play it straight in the future.) Verve pianist Barron, Mr. Ubiquity on the Gotham scene and the most sought-after accompanist, travels to Other Places (due Feb. 22) in the company of tenorist Ralph Moore (when is he going to get another shot as a leader?), vibist Bobby Hutcherson, bassist Rufus Reid, drummer Victor Lewis and percussionist Mino Cinelu. That dynamic helmsman of the keyboard, McCoy Tyner, envisions his big band as one gigantic grand piano, an approach that served him admirably on his Grammy-winning The Turning Point in 1992 and will do likewise on Jan. 25 when Verve issues the exceptional follow-up from his 15-piece aggregation, Journey. Several of this listener's favorite players (trombonists Steve Turre and Frank Lacy, tenormen John Stubblefield and Billy Harper as well as trumpeter Eddie Henderson) are on board. Singer Dianne Reeves makes a cameo on "You Taught My Heart To Sing." The venerable Hank Jones, whose pianistry keeps getting better as he gets older (he's 75), duets magnificently with vocalist and Poly labelmate Abbey Lincoln on When There Is Love (Feb. 22). Jones' own Upon Reflection, an homage to his late brother, trumpeter/composer Thad, hits the streets Jan. 25; brother Elvin, grand poo-bah of polyrhythms, and bassist George Mraz round out Hank's trio... Columbia kicks off the new year with a scintillating five-piano summit called The Key Players (DIW) on Jan. 18. James Williams (producer), Harold Mabern, Mulgrew Miller, Donald Brown and Geoff Keezer (backed by a rhythm section of bassist Christian McBride and drummer Tony Reedus), performing under the rubric of the Contemporary Keyboard Ensemble, attack their instruments simultaneously, or close to it, on a marvelous piano-choir project dedicated to the late Memphis piano master Phineas Newborn Jr. Like Newborn, all of the pianists (save Keezer) are nominally Memphians, either raised in or associated with

ON THE CHART

As we get into the swing of 1994, we have our first chart battle of the new year. After jumping from 14-3 last week, Blue Note-Capitol's Cassandra Wilson makes another jump to the top of the chart (3-1), just barely edging out Warner Bros.' Joshua Redman (6-2), who looks to regain the #1 spot he held a few weeks ago. Blue Note-Capitol's US 3 lands top debut honors as Hand On The Torch bows in at #9, as Muse's Wallace Roney is the only other mover of note in the top 10 (22-10).

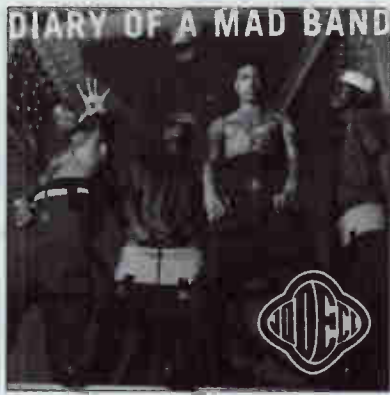

Epic's Stanley Clarke leads the group of new entries in the lower half of the chart (#15), which also features World Circuit-Rounder's Bheki Mseleku (#20), SST's Hotel X (#23), GRP's Dave Grusin (#23) and Continuum's Charlie Watts (#24). Releases just missing the chart include Black Saint's Muhl Richard Abrams and Charles Gayle, Verve-PG's Ahmad Jamal and Justice's Stellan Karlsson. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Tennessee's musical hotbed. Mabern's own, second DIW offering, The Leading Man (the successor to his acclaimed Straight Street), is coming in late April. The ferocious guitarist James Blood Ulmer will be represented on Blues Preacher for DIW on Jan. 18. From Columbia proper will come recordings by Marsalis paterfamilias Ellis (Whistle Stop, Mar. 22), backed by sons Branford, Jason and producer Delfeayo, and alto saxist Bobby Watson (Live Midwest Shuffle, Mar. 15). Altoist Watson, this columnist's pick for 1993 Jazz Artist of the Year, will be heard live with the working quintet he co-leads with drummer Victor Lewis...Atlantic Records, which in recent years has toyed with jazz without establishing a solid label identity, appears to be back on the right, swingful path with the appointment of Michelle Taylor to the newly created post of senior director of Atlantic jazz (a new division). Taylor (previously at PolyGram and RCA), a clear-thinker and a fast-mover once a decision is made, is supervising forthcoming straight-ahead releases from pianist Cyrus Chestnut, drummer Carl Allen and the venerable Modern Jazz Quartet, perhaps the most long-lived group in the history of the art form. Chestnut, former pianist for modern master Betty Carter, blends blues, gospel and bop seamlessly, without hurry or contradiction, on Revelation (due Jan. 18). The 30-year-old Chestnut's ex-partners in vocalist Carter's threesome, bassist Christopher Thomas and drummer Clarence Penn, accompany him to splendid effect. Allen, an adroit power-drummer favored by such extroverted leaders as Freddie Hubbard and George Coleman, makes his label debut on Mar. 8 with The Pursuer. Details remain rather sketchy, but Allen's sidekicks include tenorist Coleman and altoman Vincent Herring (with whom the drummer heads the repertory recording unit Manhattan Projects, which has cut a handful of superb, albeit hard-to-find, CDs for the Japanese Alfa label). During its productive 40-year career, the MJQ has occasionally invited guests into the recording studio—among them Sonny Rollins, Paul Desmond and Laurindo Almeida. The group's Feb. 22 release boasts the most guest stars to date: Wynton and Branford Marsalis, Illinois Jacquet, Harry "Sweets" Edison, Bobby McFerrin and Take 6 (the latter two together on the CD-opening "Bags' Groove"). Atlantic is also preparing to introduce its Acoustic Master Series, the first title being a Charles Lloyd project with pianist Cedar Walton's trio. (A new album from vibist Hutcherson will follow by summer.) Lenny White, best known for his drumming in the fusion and funk worlds (especially in Return To Forever), would appear to be a curious choice as producer for this straight-ahead series, but from the look of things, he's going about it the right way. Part two next time.

DOPE!

JODECI Diary Of A Mad Band (Uptown, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—1993 was arguably one of the biggest years in recent memory for R&B. As vocal groups have smeared the line between hip-hop and R&B (something urban radio has been consistently reluctant to do) and groups like Zhane, Boys II Men, Mary J. Blige, H-Town and Silk reached gold and platinum levels, hip-hop crews have even scored big with smooth infusions of their own (case in point: 2Pac's "Keep Your Head Up"). In 1991 the Charlotte, North Carolina, natives known as Jodeci released the multi-platinum Forever My Girl, heralding the group as one of the most gifted around. Not to be lumped into the enormous quagmire of Timberland-clad groups, Jodeci returns with Diary Of A Mad Band, reinstating the band at the top of its class, and providing the vocal energy and acrobatics to whip any Apollo crowd into an impassioned frenzy. Mr. Dalvin, DeVante, Jo-Jo and K-Ci (two pairs of brothers) incorporate their church-choir upbringing and effortless harmonizing with slow grinding rhythms and occasional hardcore hip-hop workouts. "Feenin'" is styled with a sultry tempo and Zapp-influenced vocal work (a la "I Wanna Be Your Man"), while "You Got It" offers street-wise rapping from Redman, establishing the street integrity lacking with many R&B acts. Jodeci is far from a soft, ultra-sensitive vocal group; sure they may say, "I wanna taste your love tonight," but with a foundation mixing the best of style, attitude and vocal talent, Jodeci helps define the future direction of soul and R&B with uncanny brilliance. Work it on "My Heart Belongs To You," "Ride & Slide" and "Success."

IMARA Flashlight Therapy (EP) (New African Movement, c/o Raze-Up, 315 Lafayette Park Pl., Ste. 213, Los Angeles, CA 90057/213-388-1841)—There's recently been a backlash of negative press and organized attacks aimed at hardcore/gangster rap. Many don't realize that if you surpress the views and

With radio reports inching up this week to 54 (most reporters are home watching Beavis & Butt-Head), Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-1) keeps a decisive grip on the top position. Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (10-2) reaches his highest position to date, while Tommy Boy's De La Soul (4-3) and EastWest America's Das EFX (7-4) creep their way closer to past peaks. With the new single "Classic Material" getting the big push at radio, Elektra's Leaders Of The New School (9-6) find themselves back on course as Queen Latifah's Black Reign on Motown (11-8) reaches the top 10 after eight weeks on the chart. Records to watch in the coming weeks include: Outburst/RAL-Chaos' Domino (38-16), Next Plateau/London-PLG's Salt-N-Pepa (35-19) (powered by "Shoop" and "Whatta Man"), Columbia's Nas (32-22) and the Wild Pitch-ERG's UMC's who debut "Time To Set It Straight" at #29. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Wu-Tang Clan; 2) A Tribe Called Quest; 3) Snoop Doggy Dogg; 4) Ice Cube; 5) Das EFX; 6) Domino; 7) Too Short; 8) Queen Latifah; 9) KRS-One; 10) US 3. opinions of one group or artist, it may eventually have a negative effect on artists like Watts, California's Imara. On Flashlight Therapy, Imara—who has spent many years in prison—delivers impassioned and brutally honest bulletins of the social climate in South Central Los Angeles (and other urban areas), presented to raise awareness and encourage change rather than to generate a quick buck. The title track (and first single), which samples Ice Cube, Richard Pryor and Parliament's "Flashlight," is a sophisticated look at police brutality, while on the reserved "South Central" Imara gazes through desperate eyes at the area's streets and attempts to pick up the pieces. On nearly all seven tracks, Imara offers the conviction and street-wisdom of someone who has been there. Get schooled on "Hard Way," "Down With The Game" and the all-vocal "Make Me Wanna Holler/Politically Correct."

DEF 12

JAZZ NOT JAZZ MASSIVE "Makin' Love, Makin' Music"/"New Type Of Jazz" [112/100 BPM] (Peace, 460 W. 24th St., Ste. 11C, New York, NY 10011/212-229-9416)—Featured on several volumes of New Breed's Fat Jazzy Grooves series, Jazz Not Jazz Massive get ready to leave the nest, prefacing its upcoming Bridge Music with this superb 12" single. Street-jazz pioneer DJ Smash layers a scenic mixture of live jazz sampling and dance-floor-friendly swing rhythms. Jazz singer Li'sha and scat/singer Lamont O'Neil are featured on "Makin' Love, Makin' Music," while rapper Brown Surround flips Del-ish freestyle lyrics on "New Type Of Jazz," highlighted by muted trumpet work and a fat stand-up bass.

WHAT YOU NEED

Vinyl is alive and kicking on my wheel of steel. Top spins this week include the return of MAIN SOURCE with "What You Need" [92 BPM] (Wild Pitch, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104) from the forthcoming F—k What You Think! album. With newest member Mikey D (Large Professor's replacement) dropping rugged rhymes, the crew doesn't skip a beat, garnishing its thick jeep-worthy sounds with jazzy horns and a saturating bassline. The B-side comes off representing "Merrick Blvd."...The latest single from KRS-ONE's Return Of The Boom Bap is entitled "Sound Of Da Police" [100 BPM] (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016) and its unreleased B-side, "Hip Hop VS Rap," drops "a nice beat to flow to" as KRS strings together catch phrases such as "Hey, you, get off my cloud" and "If my train goes off the track, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up," from dozens of hip-hop and pop jams...With Public Enemy still on hiatus, DJ Terminator X embarks on his second solo effort, calling his project TERMINATOR X AND THE GODFATHERS OF THREAT. The first single from the album Super Bad is called "It All Comes Down To The Money" [100 BPM] (P.R.O.Division/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., 30th Fl., New York, NY 10022-3211), and it features a new cast of rappers talkin' about their divine inspiration: cash money. Terminator takes charge of a thick bottom-heavy groove laced with wandering sax sample work. Phat Happy New Year shouts to: Marcus (ERG), Jeff "42-40" Sledge (Jive), Darryl Williams (N.A.M.), Howie (Island), Karen Harris (Wild Pitch) and Erica McDaniels (Elektra). Word out.

WORD IS...

In March, the original old-school trailblazers TREACHEROUS 3 (Kool Moe Dee, L.A. Sunshine, Special K and DJ EasyLee) will be releasing Old School Flava (Ichiban). Included on the project are appearances by GRAND-MASTER FLASH, DOUG E. FRESH, BIG DADDY KANE, CHUCK D., KRS-ONE, RAKIM, MELLE MEL, HEAVY D., RAHEEM (of the FURIOUS FIVE) and TITO of the FEARLESS FOUR...As we await the release of SLICK RICK's album Behind Bars, he was recently denied parole at a December hearing. His next parole hearing is not until January, 1996...Ex-Ruffhouse-Columbia promotions guru David J. has become partial owner of Black Wiz Records based in New York. While the label currently shops for a major distribution deal, it will be releasing a 12" single by III MAN RIOT entitled "Products Of The Gone Mad." DJ's can call David at (609) 486-7150 or (212) 941-6043 for a test pressing. In other Ruffhouse news, political hip-hop band the GOATS are currently working on their follow-up to Tricks Of The Shade minus the services of OATIE who has left the group and headed for the greener pastures of San Francisco to produce new groups...AMG will soon have to face charges of possession of a concealed (and loaded) weapon in the front seat of his Lexus. Pursuers of the heralded number one position still can't find a flaw in the amour of Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1), although Priority's Ice Cube (2-2) is still looking for a soft spot to give Snoop Dogg his Lethal Injection. EastWest America's Das EFX (3-3) remains one spot higher than on the radio chart and Next Plateau/London-PLG's Salt-N-Pepa (10-5) make a dash for the top with their new single "Whatta Man" (featuring En Vogue) providing the fuel. ## BLOWIN' UP

QUEEN LATIFAH Black Reign (Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028/213-468-3500) Radio Chart Position: #8—One can only wonder why Tommy Boy let this rare queen slip from their crossover-loaded (Naughty By Nature, K7) roster of artists.

Not long after Nature Of A Sista' died its untimely death, many thought Latifah was out for the count—or at least not the artist she was on All Hail The Queen. Well, she's proved 'em wrong once again as her move to Motown earns big dividends, with Black Reign reaching audiences untapped by past releases. With the chorus of "U.N.I.T.Y." booming from nearly every urban/Top 40 radio station, Latifah also proves that she still has a loyal college radio following as her third album reaches the top 10 after moving 11-8. Also the #8 Adventure Pick, Black Reign continues to hang around the retail top 10, currently perched at #8. Stations hailing the Queen in their top 5 include: CFRC, CHUO, KCCR, KQAL, KWVA, KZUM and WSGR.

69 Sound On Sound

69 Sound On Sound (EP) (Planet E, P.O. Box 27218, Detroit, MI 48227/313-567-0916)—Carl Craig's last 69 project was a prescient jazz-house effort which unfortunately went largely unnoticed. This time 'round, the Detroit techno bricoleur has cooked up a seven-track journey through the mind that sounds like nothing else released in the last year. Finding comparisons for Craig's cerebral and funky techno tracks is next to impossible. The endless elasticity of "Poi Et Pas" is perhaps the EP's standout, with its shuddering synth chords and exploding snare hits falling into a canyon of carefully managed reverb. The long, strange "Rushed" seems to burrow into the psyche, unearthing bits of the sub-conscious as it progresses. This is a collection of tracks that has certainly invigorated the moribund January dance calendar.

LATE '93—EARLY '94

While the paucity of good dance records from the period of mid-December through mid-January makes one yearn for the busy autumn, there are nevertheless some corkers to keep you going through the doldrums. Over at the increasingly influential 8-ball label in Manhattan, things have been looking up with the arrival of the mammoth Lectroluv Remix Project. This double 12" extravaganza is doing serious damage on progressive dancefloors, particularly the reworking of "Dream Drums" by Sound Factory staple Junior Vasquez. "Dream Drums" is tribal house taken to the nth degree, stretched out over a blistering 10 minutes and 54 seconds, complete with a breakbeat breakdown reminiscent of Vasquez's earlier productions as Ellis Dee. The rest of this expansive double pack highlights the who's who of the New York house underground in formidable style (Eightball, 105 E. 9th St., 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10003)...When the now venerable Azuli label introduces a track imprint to release heavy garage instrumentals, there'll be a line around the block at your import store. Thus, the two thumping volumes of "Jump Cutz" by SENSORY ELEMENTS are mandatory acquisitions. Volume One has enough heart-stopping keyboard breaks to fill a hospital, while Volume Two is a touch softer with some Hammond playing that is phenomenal (Luxury Service, c/o Azuli, 25 D'arblay St., London W1 U.K.)...The three Burden brothers from Detroit have been making exceptionally inventive dance music for over four years, and their early work with the now lauded Terence Parker resulted in pioneering Detroit house. Finally back in the fray, as RANDOM NOISE GENERATION, their

ON THE CHART

This week's number-one position is held by Trance Europe Express, the mammoth four-LP/CD set released by the Volume folks in the UK, and considering the set's impressive number of previously unreleased tracks by such RPM chart staples as Orbital and The Aphex Twin, it's no wonder. Richie Hawtin's newest and spiciest project by Plastikman, now released with better thorough distribution by NovaMute, leaps 20 places (22-2). XL's recently inked deal with Rick Rubin's American label has resulted in the XL Recordings compilation, which moves up eight places this week (12-4), while techno pioneer Juan Atkins' collection of tracks for Pow Wow, entitled Magic Tracks, debuts at #19. Compilations still dominate, representing 11 out of the 25 spots, and will probably continue to do so for quite some time. RPM reporters this week: ACRN, Athens, OH/CFRC, Kingston, ON/CHUD, Ottawa, OH/KOU, Halifax, NS/KBVR, Corvallis, OR/KCCR, Tacoma, WA/KCMA, Tuk, W/KEOL, La Grande, OR/KGRR, Auburn, WA/KMSA, Grand Junction, CO/DAL, Winona, MN/KRNL, Mt. Vernon, IA/KSCU, Santa Clara, CA/KTEO, Rapid City, SD/WLCC, Decorah, IA/KWVA, Eugene, OR/KZSU, Stanford, CA/WBCB, Brooklyn, NY/WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI/WDJM, Framingham, MA/WVEI, Memphis, TN/WGDR, Plainfield, VT/AVGHR, Manetta, GA/WHUS, Stars, CT/WJPL, Syracuse, NY/WMBR, Cambridge, MA/WDRT, Madison, WI/WRVU, Nashville, TN/WSDP, Canton, MI/WSGR, Port Huron, MI/WVFS, Tallahassee, FL/WLR, Valparaiso, IN/WXAV, Chicago, IL

Random Beats and Tracks Vol. 1 throws more sparks than a morning train on cold tracks. The pulse-stopping "I Can't Help Myself" opens with the sort of matte-finish, drop-dead piano refrain New York hasn't even imagined yet. If you're growing tired of the piles of derivative domestic house around right now, this one'll administer a shock right where it's needed.

NO SLEEP 'TIL HELSINKI

The Finnish city of Helsinki seems to be an increasingly imaginative techno outpost in Scandinavia. The fifth release from the Sahko label is PHILIUS' wonderfully voluminous PH EP, by Philus, four tracks of glacial beauty and relentless rhythm. Since none of the tracks has a title and the artwork is minimal in the extreme, suffice it to say that someone expended a good deal of imagination in the analog lab to create this hum-dinger. Just what we all need in the middle of the winter (Sahko, Rehbinderintie 300150 Helsinki, Finland/0-638848)...Finnish producer Kim Rapatti just completed the roaring Mono Junk EP for Thomas Heckmann's Trope label in Frankfurt. Trope is a label devoted to highly experimental acid, and this EP is no exception. The brilliant "Psycho Kick" is constructed around a howling kick drum, with some gravelly acid patterns weaving their way in and out of the mix. "Beyond The Darkness" is a spaced out, ethereal effort with enough off-kilter synth sounds to keep the most die-hard tech heads happy (Trope, Frankfurt, Germany, Fax: 6131-364121)...A few hours south by train is Utrecht, Holland, home to the U-trax label and producer Peter Aarsman, whose latest Salicylic Acid EP shows a fondness for the acid chicanery of such masters as Robert Armani and Armando. With five tracks, of which the standout is the pressing "Theme," this is an unevenly distributed treat (U-Trax, P.O. Box 10152, 3505 AC, Utrecht, The Netherlands/Fax:30-315024).

Tim Haslett, 65 Leighton Road, Wellesley, MA 02181/Voice Mail: 617-764-6741/Fax: 617-237-4730 (8 a.m.-10 p.m. EST only).

superb 12" single. Street-jazz pioneer DJ Smash layers a scenic mixture of live jazz sampling and dance-floor-friendly swing rhythms. Jazz singer Li'sha and scat/singer Lamont O'Neil are featured on "Makin' Love, Makin' Music," while rapper Brown Surround flips Del-ish freestyle lyrics on "New Type Of Jazz," highlighted by muted trumpet work and a fat stand-up bass.

WHAT YOU NEED

Vinyl is alive and kicking on my wheel of steel. Top spins this week include the return of MAIN SOURCE with "What You Need" [92 BPM] (Wild Pitch, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104) from the forthcoming F—k What You Think! album. With newest member Mikey D (Large Professor's replacement) dropping rugged rhymes, the crew doesn't skip a beat, garnishing its thick jeep-worthy sounds with jazzy horns and a saturating bassline. The B-side comes off representing "Merrick Blvd."...The latest single from KRS-ONE's Return Of The Boom Bap is entitled "Sound Of Da Police" [100 BPM] (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016) and its unreleased B-side, "Hip Hop VS Rap," drops "a nice beat to flow to" as KRS strings together catch phrases such as "Hey, you, get off my cloud" and "If my train goes off the track, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up," from dozens of hip-hop and pop jams...With Public Enemy still on hiatus, DJ Terminator X embarks on his second solo effort, calling his project TERMINATOR X AND THE GODFATHERS OF THREATT. The first single from the album Super Bad is called "It All Comes Down To The Money" [100 BPM] (P.R.O.Division/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., 30th Fl., New York, NY 10022-3211), and it features a new cast of rappers talkin' about their divine inspiration: cash money. Terminator takes charge of a thick bottom-heavy groove laced with wandering sax sample work. Phat Happy New Year shouts to: Marcus (ERG), Jeff "42-40" Sledge (Jive), Darryl Williams (N.A.M.), Howie (Island), Karen Harris (Wild Pitch) and Erica McDaniels (Elektra). Word out.

Send hip-hop, funk, soul, R&B and cash to Glen "Funkenberry" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301.

FRESH, BIG DADDY KANE, CHUCK D., KRS-ONE, RAKIM, MELLE MEL, HEAVY D., RAHEEM (of the FURIOUS FIVE) and TITO of the FEARLESS FOUR...As we await the release of SLICK RICK'S album Behind Bars, he was recently denied parole at a December hearing. His next parole hearing is not until January, 1996...Ex-Ruffhouse-Columbia promotions guru David J. has become partial owner of Black Wiz Records based in New York. While the label currently shops for a major distribution deal, it will be releasing a 12" single by III MAN RIOT entitled "Products Of The Gone Mad." DJ's can call David at (609) 486-7150 or (212) 941-6043 for a test pressing. In other Ruffhouse news, political hip-hop band the GOATS are currently working on their follow-up to Tricks Of The Shade minus the services of OATIE who has left the group and headed for the greener pastures of San Francisco to produce new groups...AMG will soon have to face charges of possession of a concealed (and loaded) weapon in the front seat of his Lexus. # JACKPOT

TARIKA SAMMY Balance (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury, CT 06810/203-730-0333)—With its second album Tarika Sammy proves that the Malagasy music boom is not just a fad, but an indispensable and growing part of the world's musical heritage. This brilliant quartet's first album of traditional songs, Fana-fody, left no doubt about this. The group's roots music has grown new branches, and a parcel of original songs make it clear that Tarika Sammy is now a global musical force. This is not to say they have opted for the synths and machines of some other African musicians looking for a big score. Quite the opposite is true. The group uses a score of the ancient instruments of Madagascar's many communities, including valiha and marovany harps, percussion, fiddles and flutes, to build its ideas. Instead of the Mustaphas' beat, Tarika Sammy has invited a Malagasy rhythm section, which adds punch without ever breaking the delicate balance of the music. Balance is just about the most exhilarating new recording I have listened to in months. It can be full of energy, driving and scraping along at warp speed on "Roba," or it can be slow and sinuous, like the mysterious and bluesy "Anjara," with its plucked harp melodies underscored by a languorous slide guitar and slow, humid vocals. "Bekily" brings the group's singing into full focus, four harmonies strong over heavy percussion and the scrape of the fiddle. Tarika Sammy has also staked out the higher ground of lyrical message, using its songs not only as an invitation to the outside world, but as a broadside for Madagascar. "Jiyy" mixes local rhythms with a spoken word, nearly rap-like, missive on the wonders of Madagascar and the need to preserve and improve what is great and beautiful about the island. This is what Tarika Sammy's music is all about. This group is searching for a way to take the music of its home and make it vital again, not for the purpose of an international hit, but to remind its brothers and sisters in the Indian Ocean just how important its own corner of the world is. The group does it with a rare sense of mission, a commitment to great acoustic music with a local flavor and a determination to have the world see its country as something other than an interesting crossroads waiting to be hip. Tarika Sammy's Madagascar is alive, growing and demanding respect. As is the band.

NEWSY BITS

One of the more entertaining women in this business has finally escaped from it. Christina Roden has left Stern's (598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-925-1648), talking with her sarcasm, wit and purple prose. I'm going to miss those weird conversations and press releases. Taking her place will be Ken Braun, who for many years has written about African music for The Beat and The New York Times...An interesting radio series has been produced by the Australian production company The Big Backyard. Corroboree is a 10-part series of half-hour programs that looks

ON THE CHART

Well, it's not Geoffrey Oryema who's really making news (he's still at #1), but the Gipsy Kings, who are making headway with Love & Liberte on Musician-Elektra, which bounds 5-3 in an otherwise very tight top five. Meanwhile, the Wailers move 15-4, and Dumou Sangare leaps 17-5, impressive jumps for both. Lots of records make resurgences this week, but there's only one new-entry in the entire chart: the venerable Yellowman, whose A Man You Want on Shanachie comes in at #25. This is quite a contrast to last week's free-for-all, which included seven new debuts on the chart. Of course, the coming weeks should bring a full-fledged return from most of our reporting stations (we're still only at about 75% of our anticipated springtime high), and who knows, an overhaul of the contents of the New World charts might be just around the bend when all those programmers return to play all the new releases of the new year. Stay tuned. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Some of the more interesting tracks show how the music has been influenced by "the outside," with jazz, European folk and music from the other islands of the South Pacific filtering in. Corroboree is available on five CDs and has been broadcast by many stations all over the world, but if you haven't heard it yet, get in touch with The Big Backyard, c/o OIB-Canberra, The Australian Embassy, 1601 Massachusetts Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20036. ## MARIA SPEAKS

Last summer I got the chance to interview Finnish accordion master MARIA KALANIEMI for Dirty Linen magazine. My thanks to Dirty Linen for permission to reprint this piece. Here is some of what Kalaniemi had to say:

"My grandmother loved accordion music, but she never played it. She bought me an accordion, but in the beginning I wasn't interested. I wanted to play the piano, because everyone played piano. But little by little I started to play and learned to love the instrument.

"I started with folk and folk dance music, and then I played classical accordion music...I studied in Helsinki, at the Sibelius Academy, a kind of high school, where I went for six or seven years.

"I was very young when I started to play, maybe eight years old. Quite soon after I had learned to play two melodies, my grandmother wanted everyone to hear, so she had me playing for everyone. Then, when I went to Academy, I helped start a group called Neikku, around 1983, and we played together in many different countries...Following that, I wanted to make my own compositions, so I started to play more solo...I am also teaching now, and some of my students are playing this style, this playing melody on the bass...But I think I started this kind of playing of the accordion here. I think it's new and different. Now there are some very good players trying to use this style.

"I play the melodies on the bass, instead of just that oom-pah pah, oom-pah pah that you always hear. My style, the rhythm, is taken from folk music, but the melodies I have taken from classical, maybe a little from rock music, but the style is still from folk. In these old melodies I try to make beautiful sounds with the accordion. I try to play quietly, to use the bellows and the sound of the bellows... Many folk traditions are all forte, all push, and that is something I think that makes people hate the sound of the accordion. In Finland, as in many countries, there are many accordion players and they play their own styles, but it is only like this [she pushes in and out] and it's all forte and maybe I hate it.

Maybe this is why many people don't like the sound of the accordion... But I think the accordion is so dynamite... No, what's the word... dynamic! Yes, there is so much dynamics and dynamite! That's good!"

CRUCIAL!

I ROY Soundsystem Anthology (King's Music, P.O. Box 4813, Wilmington, NC 28406)—Today's fans can say whatever they want, the crowds can cheer for today's dancehall heroes, but there will never be another set of entertainers like the first wave of original toasters—especially I Roy. I Roy is a towering titan of that scene, one of the first to take up the mic and talk over instrumental tracks, a pretty amazing innovation when considered in these hip-hop-heavy, rap-ready times. The photo on the back cover of I Roy standing in front of a massive speaker stack says it all: to do this music justice, you need woofers big enough to stick your head inside, treble cones that could double as municipal air raid sirens, speaker cabinets as roomy as a walk-in closet. Even after all these years, it's still great to hear I Roy's hoarse, gravelly, carefree voice—"yeahhh," he says practically every other line, and you know it could only be him. Soundsystem Anthology is loaded with winners, from the sly humor of "Night On The Town" and the boastful "A De Best," to the throbbing pulse of "Chant Down Babylon" and "Reggae Psalms."

AH-SO-ME-CHAT

It's a new year, and I hope this finds each and every one of you giving thanks for another day of life and counting his or her blessings... NARAS has announced the nominees for this year's Grammy Awards, which will be held in New York at Radio City Music Hall on March 1, 1994. Nominees for the Best Reggae Recording are: BLACK UHURU Mystical Truth (Mesa-Mesa/Bluemoon), BURNING SPEAR The World Should Know (Heartbeat), INNER CIRCLE Bad Boys (Big Beat Atlantic), ZIGGY MARLEY AND THE MELODY MAKERS Joy And Blues (Virgin) and MAXI

PRIEST Fe Real (Charisma)... On January 19, at a formal ceremony to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria in NYC, BOB MARLEY will be inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame, alongside the Grateful Dead, Elton John, John Lennon, Rod Stewart, The Band, the Animals and Duane Eddy. Although it is called a Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame, it caters to all forms of music, including jazz and R&B. In order to be eligible, nominees must have released a record at least 25 years prior to their induction. An international voting group, including over 600 music industry professionals, producers, broadcasters, journalists and performers, casts its votes for nominee selections. The Hall Of Fame had its first induction in 1986. Bob is expected to be represented by family members including his wife RITA MARLEY, his mother MRS. CEDELLA MARLEY BOOKER, and many of his children... As we all know, death is a part of life, with life being stronger than death. Still, it is with great sadness that Reggae Route reports the passing of one of reggae's top rhythm guitarists of all time, ERIC "BINGY BUNNY" LAMONT, on December 31, 1993. While he's probably best known as a member of the ROOTS RADICS, one of Jamaica's top session and backing groups, along with his bretheren FLABBA HOLT, DWIGHT PICKNEY and STYLE SCOTT, Bingy Bunny first started singing in the early '70s with groups like the MORWELLS and BONGO HERMAN. Early on, he was dubbed "Bingy Bunny" by the great singer Derrick Harriot. The "skeng" guitar sound is a defining feature of reggae music, and most musicians, industry people and fans will agree that Bingy Bunny was the best at creating that sound. It's almost easier to name the reggae records the Roots Radics and Bingy haven't played on than the ones they have. From the '70s forward they have provided the rhythm and backing for literally hundreds of Jamaica's top singers, including GREGORY ISAACS and BUNNY WAILER. Before the drum machine changed the face of studio sessions forever, the members of the Roots Radics were among the most sought-after musicians. In the early days, the Radics worked with most of the producers around at that time—Gussie, Joe Gibbs, Harry J and later on, Junjo Lawes and Linval Thompson. In 1979, Bingy released a solo album, called Me And Jane, on the Cha Cha label. When Nighthawk Records first started touring the ITALS in America in the early '80s, they carried the Roots Radics as their backing band. The Radics would traditionally open the show themselves, and Bingy Bunny would serve as lead vocalist. In 1985, the Radics released their own album called Freelance on Kingdom Records in the U.K., and later on released Hot We Hot on RAS Records, and a dub version on ROIR. Heartbeat Records released two albums by the Radics, Forward Ever, Backwards Never and World Peace III. In the '90s, the Radics toured with Israel Vibration, performing in the U.S., Europe, Israel and Japan. Most recently, Bingy was working with Dwight Pickney as songwriter and producer, with a DELROY WILSON album as one of their projects. For those of us who knew him personally, the words kind, sweet, gentle and nice come to mind. Bingy Bunny was born in Trenchtown, Jamaica, on September 23, 1955. He leaves behind a wife, Jen, and six children. He passed away at age 38 after a painful battle with cancer. He will be buried in Spanishtown, Jamaica, West Indies. When I spoke to Bingy Bunny from his hospital bed in Baltimore last November, he faithfully and bravely declared that "where there's life, there's hope." Rastafari.

JACKPOT!

69 Sound On Sound

69 Sound On Sound (EP) (Planet E, P.O. Box 27218, Detroit, MI 48227/313-567-0916)—Carl Craig's last 69 project was a prescient jazz-house effort which unfortunately went largely unnoticed. This time 'round, the Detroit techno bricoleur has cooked up a seven-track journey through the mind that sounds like nothing else released in the last year. Finding comparisons for Craig's cerebral and funky techno tracks is next to impossible. The endless elasticity of "Poi Et Pas" is perhaps the EP's standout, with its shuddering synth chords and exploding snare hits falling into a canyon of carefully managed reverb. The long, strange "Rushed" seems to burrow into the psyche, unearthing bits of the sub-conscious as it progresses. This is a collection of tracks that has certainly invigorated the moribund January dance calendar.

LATE '93—EARLY '94

While the paucity of good dance records from the period of mid-December through mid-January makes one yearn for the busy autumn, there are nevertheless some corkers to keep you going through the doldrums. Over at the increasingly influential 8-ball label in Manhattan, things have been looking up with the arrival of the mammoth Lectroluv Remix Project. This double 12" extravaganza is doing serious damage on progressive dancefloors, particularly the reworking of "Dream Drums" by Sound Factory staple Junior Vasquez. "Dream Drums" is tribal house taken to the nth degree, stretched out over a blistering 10 minutes and 54 seconds, complete with a breakbeat breakdown reminiscent of Vasquez's earlier productions as Ellis Dee. The rest of this expansive double pack highlights the who's who of the New York house underground in formidable style (Eightball, 105 E. 9th St., 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10003)...When the now venerable Azuli label introduces a track imprint to release heavy garage instrumentals, there'll be a line around the block at your import store. Thus, the two thumping volumes of "Jump Cutz" by SENSORY ELEMENTS are mandatory acquisitions. Volume One has enough heart-stopping keyboard breaks to fill a hospital, while Volume Two is a touch softer with some Hammond playing that is phenomenal (Luxury Service, c/o Azuli, 25 D'arblay St., London W1 U.K.)...The three Burden brothers from Detroit have been making exceptionally inventive dance music for over four years, and their early work with the now lauded Terence Parker resulted in pioneering Detroit house. Finally back in the fray, as RANDOM NOISE GENERATION, their

ON THE CHART

This week's number-one position is held by Trance Europe Express, the mammoth four-LP/CD set released by the Volume folks in the UK, and considering the set's impressive number of previously unreleased tracks by such RPM chart staples as Orbital and The Aphex Twin, it's no wonder. Richie Hawtin's newest and spiciest project by Plastikman, now released with better thorough distribution by NovaMute, leaps 20 places (22-2). XL's recently linked deal with Rick Rubin's American label has resulted in the XL Recordings compilation, which moves up eight places this week (12-4), while techno pioneer Juan Atkins' collection of tracks for Pow Wow, entitled Magic Tracks, debuts at #19. Compilations still dominate, representing 11 out of the 25 spots, and will probably continue to do so for quite some time. RPM reporters this week: ACRN, Athens, OH/CFRC, Kingston, ON/CHUD, Ottawa, ON/CKDU, Halifax, NS/KBVR, Cornwallis, OR/KCCR, Tacoma, WA/KCMA, Tulsa, OK/KEDL, La Grande, OR/KGRG, Auburn, WA/KMSA, Grand Junction, CO/KQAL, Winona, MN/KRNL, Mt. Vernon, IA/KSCU, Santa Clara, CA/KTEQ, Rapid City, SD/KWLC, Decorah, IA/KWVA, Eugene, OR/KZSU, Stanford, CA/WBCR, Brooklyn, NY/WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI/WDJM, Framingham, MA/WEVL, Memphis, TN/WGDR, Plainfield, VT/VGHR, Marietta, GA/WHUS, Storrs, CT/WJJPZ, Syracuse, NY/WMBR, Cambridge, MA/WDRT, Madison, WI/WRVU, Nashville, TN/WSDP, Canton, MI/WSGR, Port Huron, MI/WVFS, Tallahassee, FL/WVUR, Valparaiso, IN/WXAV, Chicago, IL

Random Beats and Tracks Vol. 1 throws more sparks than a morning train on cold tracks. The pulse-stopping "I Can't Help Myself" opens with the sort of matte-finish, drop-dead piano refrain New York hasn't even imagined yet. If you're growing tired of the piles of derivative domestic house around right now, this one'll administer a shock right where it's needed.

NO SLEEP 'TIL HELSINKI

The Finnish city of Helsinki seems to be an increasingly imaginative techno outpost in Scandinavia. The fifth release from the Sahko label is PHILIUS' wonderfully voluminous pH EP, by Philus, four tracks of glacial beauty and relentless rhythm. Since none of the tracks has a title and the artwork is minimal in the extreme, suffice it to say that someone expended a good deal of imagination in the analog lab to create this hum-dinger. Just what we all need in the middle of the winter (Sahko, Rehbinderintie 300150 Helsinki, Finland/0-638848)...Finnish producer Kim Rapatti just completed the roaring Mono Junk EP for Thomas Heckmann's Trope label in Frankfurt. Trope is a label devoted to highly experimental acid, and this EP is no exception. The brilliant "Psycho Kick" is constructed around a howling kick drum, with some gravely acid patterns weaving their way in and out of the mix. "Beyond The Darkness" is a spaced out, ethereal effort with enough off-kilter synth sounds to keep the most die-hard tech heads happy (Trope, Frankfurt, Germany, Fax: 6131-364121)...A few hours south by train is Utrecht, Holland, home to the U-trax label and producer Peter Aarsman, whose latest Salicylic Acid EP shows a fondness for the acid chicanery of such masters as Robert Armani and Armando. With five tracks, of which the standout is the pressing "Theme," this is an unevenly distributed treat (U-Trax, P.O. Box 10152, 3505 AC, Utrecht, The Netherlands/Fax:30-315024).

HIP YOUNG THINGS Roots'n Varies (Glitterhouse, Gruner Weg 25, 37688 Beveningen, Germany/0521-23308)—This six-track CD arrived with no press information attached—just the silvery goods. It's just after Xmas, with nobody to call. We know they're German, and a trio, and we find out that Roots'n Varies is a tiny, genuine pearl. It sounds like a debut: self-assured but naïve, aware of its Hip Young Thing-ness but mature and studious all the same. It's a totally acoustic outing with brushes and 'found' percussion (deep-fat fryer included), with a fluid, toughened strum, rough-cut, honeyed vocals 'n' harmonies and a frayed, hurrying tension reminiscent of the Go-Betweens ("Cattle And Cane") and Violent Femmes ("Blister In The Sun")—voices from backwater lands more than urban centers, but still worldly-wise. All six tracks come recommended, but standouts include "H.Y.T.," jubilant gospel-folk; "Summy," a languid haze; the swinging "Credits," and a super-fine rendition of the Velvet Underground's "New Age," played straight and true but given a gorgeous piano/12-string coda that sends us home hysterically happy.

MOMUS Timelord (Creation, 8 Westgate St., London E8 England/081-986-7190)—Nick Currie, quite possibly the only man in rock/pop society to take his nom de plume from a Kafka novel, will always attract the same epithets—wicked raconteur, gregarious wit, literary folk minstrel reinvented as post-modern disco intellectual and all-round agent provocateur with such classics as "Murderers, The Hope Of Women" and "Hairdresser Of The Devil." Although he's pursued a mostly dance-driven direction for the last few years—imagine an existential, low-budget, book-worm version of Pet Shop Boys for want of a better description—Timelord is a mellower dreamscape altogether, replacing abrasive angst, po-mo irony and provocative sleaze with a kind of late-night reflectiveness. Here, dance rhythms are gently probing, glowing pulses behind sparse sequencer-squiggle patterns, luxurious synth carpets and feathery, cooing Momus vocals. The eight-song result is a '90s, moon-age take on Currie's folk-ballad origins, and totally captivating. Sex, relationships and the love/ego wars in between are given poetic dissection in tracks like "Enlightenment," "Rhetoric," "You've Changed" and "Christmas On Earth," four great reasons why Momus is one of our finest, most literate of contemporary bards.

RPLA Metal Queen Hijack (EMI, 20 Manchester Sq., London W1 England/071-486-4488)/TONGUEMAN Cop This (Drunken Swan, 65A Bonnington Sq., Vauxhall, London SW8 1TG England/071-582-3663)—As Mott The Hoople once

sang, "it's a long way down rock 'n' roll." James Maker, Morrissey's bosom buddy in pre-stardom days and the Smiths' go-go dancer for all of two shows, later turned up fronting the underachieving Raymonde, an alarmingly close Smiths impressionist which still possessed enough spirited verve of its own. Eons later, Maker's on the make again as the bequipped, camp epicenter of RPLA, the world's first queer-cultural hard rock vision. Metallurgists will appreciate the Cult-alike execution, the anthemic, bluesy, Stonesy swagger given a modern L.A. glam veneer: guitars squeal and kiss skyward, drums implode and the production gleams like chrome as Maker triumphantly reaches tight-jeans heights with exaggerated panache (he even sounds like Ian Astbury). On an 'alternative' tip, however, the idea of RPLA appeals more than the actuality; despite the cocksure momentum of "Last Night A Drag Queen Saved Your Life" and the irresistible pomp of "Unnatural Woman" and the lighter-waving finale "Hold Back The Storm," at no point does RPLA incorporate the Warholian chic, ironic camp flash or punkish shudder of the New York Dolls, another probable RPLA role-model. The lyrics, however, can be pointed and acerbic, aware of subversive cliché...If RPLA is a newly minted version of Queercore, then Spud Jones' TongueMan are old hands, around since 1987, yet even marginalized by the U.K. gay press for uncompromising musical abrasion—camp disco they ain't. Cop This is a compilation (1987-92) from two albums and two EPs, coming on like a bastard, low-budget marriage between Happy Mondays' drunken logic and the sandpaper-rough Bodybeat abandon of Ministry, exploring a Genet/Burroughs-influenced maelstrom of sex-'n'-death obsessiveness, a "gallery of charmin' loins." Most of the production is too thin, the ideas too stretched, the music too monotonous, but the overall package has impact, tension and vision. At heart, both TongueMan and RPLA take risks, preferring provocation in place of comfort.

1993 REVISITED

In my 1993 'Best Of' list, I knew I would miss out on something, primarily LUSCIOUS JACKSON'S In Search Of Manny (Grand Royal-Capitol in the U.S., Big Cat in the U.K.) mini-album—the epitome of sassiness, with consistently slinky melody, lyrical sharpness, unpredictable, mood-swinging tension (from uniquely subtle—as in female—hip-hop to funky flamenco to beat instrumental without sounding like they were changing shirts), and a winning what's-goin'-on mix of subversion and honesty. The post-'feminist' feminists couldn't have found a finer voice in this exploration of sex, dependency, anger and alive-ness. The BOO RADLEYS' Giant Steps (Creation-Columbia) was a near-breathtaking 17-track travelogue through musical inspirations (Beach Boys, Beatles, Byrds, Love) that always found its own voice—no mean feat at all. Lastly, DEAD CAN DANCE'S Into The Labyrinth (4AD-WB) was simply another of this group's enchanting enchantments. On a dance tip, there were outstanding contributions from BLACK DOG PRODUCTIONS (Bytes) (Warp/Wax Trax!-TVT), BIOSPHERE Macrogravity (Apollo), the APHEX TWIN'S CD reissue of Selected Ambient Works 85-92 (R&S (Belgium)), FLUKE Six Wheels On My Wagon (Circa (UK)), VAPOURSPACE Gravitational Arch Of 10 (Internal), TRANSGLOBAL UNDERGROUND'S Dream Of A Thousand Nations (Nation), the SABRES OF PARADISE Sabresonic (Warp), the

Excursions In Ambience—Volume One collection (Caroline), the Manifestation collection (Axiom/Island-PLG), the Rush Hour and Reactivate 8 compilations (React) and the Full On compilation (DeConstruction).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Rough Trade's Singles Club for November is "Modern Pleasure" by DRUGSTORE, which follows the London-based trio's sublime debut "Alive." The track shares its predecessor's air of sensual, vulnerable yet resilient mood, but with a tougher, mood-changing frame. Brazilian singer Isobel Monteiro has the tonsils and graces of a young Marianne Faithfull, passionately driving the song along, a welcome change after all the dreamgazing cooing we've grown accustomed to. "Ascending" on the flip returns to "Alive"'s gilded-ballad form, Monteiro's voice gliding across truzzed guitar and sobre piano chords, choosing tender expressiveness over some easy, opiate mood that the group's name might indicate. A special band, soon to go places (Rough Trade Singles Club, 66 Golborne Road, London W10 5PS U.K./081-960-9888)...So the story goes, every A&R man in the U.K. turned down MY LIFE STORY simply because they couldn't handle the band's individuality. In 1983, the 10 piece is an archaic anomaly. Yet "Girl A, Girl B, Boy C" is wonderfully charged, pure pop of infinite charm, with feet in both New Romantic pop luxury and '60s big-band cabaret, akin to ABC, Soft Cell and David Bowie, with flying trumpets, strings and a Cock-er-nee vocal that matches Suede's Brett Anderson. The audacious arrangement works, the romantically inclined melody and swaggering mood stands up, producing an effective microcosm of post-modernist pop. Three other tracks are included: two versions of "You Don't Sparkle" and "Stars Collide," all worth their weight. The single made both NME and Melody Maker single of the week, but effectively slipped through the net. Shame, shame, shame (Mother Tongue, P.O. Box 3250, London SW8 U.K.)...Eighteen months after the 23-minute "Scum," BARK PSYCHOSIS previews its new album with "A Street Scene." It's probably the band's most contained 'rock' moment, but the effect is still like a progressive Talk Talk, sharing that precious, Garden-of-Eden sensurround, blissful and tense, as if the magic created is a fragile and breakable spell. "Reserve Shot Gunman" is more adrenalized, roping in more jazz-funk and jazz-ambient (of the ECM label variety) dynamic (Circa, 429 Harrow Road, London, SW10 U.K./081-964-6000)...MAMBO TAXI takes one step back and two steps forward with "Do You Always Dress Like That In Front Of Other People's Boyfriends?" a careening popsicle with pumping organ and spindly guitar that plays to the band's known strengths (the subject matter of body image is repeated too) rather than adding anything to Mambo Taxi's new wavy tendencies. "I Want To Marry A Serial Killer," however, adds new dimensions, being a corrosive, scary three minutes that switches between surges of pop fever and passages of sea-shanty mania, with hysterical, witch-coven shrieks (imagine a Flying Nun band on amphet-acid), while "Sea Monster" is a thunder-cloud-gathering instrumental of the same manic material (Clawfist, 231 Portobello Road, London W11 U.K./071-792-3566)...67's second single is "Gadget"/"Collapse," on which Toby Burton's strangled vocal and the collective instruments sound locked in turmoil, churning in on themselves like classic American post-hardcore of the late '80s, but kept sparse rather than overloaded with guitar effects (Southern Studios, 10 Myddleton Road, London N22 U.K./081-888-8949).

UNSANE

Total Destruction
(Matador, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—If you're trying to track down Unsane, just start sniffing for trails of blood. Chances are you'll find the band members with notebooks in hand, gazing at the goriest accident in the city, drawing inspiration from other people's suffering. They'll probably even be taking pictures to use for future artwork. The cover art for the band's first album featured a photo of a decapitated head lying in a pool of blood beside a set of train tracks, and various singles have depicted other graphic atrocities. The artwork on Total Destruction, which displays a blood-spattered car grill, is rather tame by comparison, but the music is just as devastatingly visceral. Piling on low-end rhythms, distorted screams and pounding beats with about as much precision as a multi-car freeway collision, Unsane places the emphasis on sonic overload, casting any vestiges of melody out the shattered window. You can't hum an Unsane tune, not even through a mouthful of broken glass. It's hard enough to tell one cut from the next, but rather than resulting in tedium, the barbaric repetition of songs like "Body Bomb," "Black Book" and "Broke" act like insidious magnets, forcing the listener to wander blindly into the song's dense, highway traffic-like atmospheres. Just a few steps and SPLAT! Sadists and sociopaths rejoice. Finally, there's a soundtrack for the thoughts in your demented heads. —Jon Wiederhorn

KING'S X

Dogman
(Atlantic, address above)—With each previous King's X album, the first listen was always an experience comparable to wolfing down a 10-course meal in an hour—a lot to take in, a lot to digest (not that we didn't enjoy the fixins). But gorging on heavily layered rock is slightly out of vogue in the lean '90s, and King's X has taken this to heart on its new album. That's not to say the band has diluted its sound any—Dogman is by no means a sweet album. A couple of the songs wallow so deeply in thick, dirty metallic mire they sound like they could almost be from the last Raging Slab album. The arrival of new producer Brendan O'Brien (Pearl Jam, Stone Temple Pilots) has brought a new focus to King's X, adding a slightly more accessible structure to the songs. The obscure seven-minute run-on jams are gone, and the harmonized vocals are more effectively placed. Yet there's no lack of lyrical spirituality, and Ty Tabor's relentless, leaden guitar grind and Doug Pinnick's bounding punchy basslines remain intact. There's plenty here for longtime King's X fans. Check out "Fool You" and "Complain" for a perfect example the band's trademark harmonized hook-rock refrains. Additional reduced-calorie morsels: "Go To Hell," "Shoes," and the superb cover of Hendrix's "Manic Depression."

OLD

The Musical Dimensions Of Sleastak
(Earache, 295 Lafayette St. #915, New York, NY 10012/212-343-9090)—Hssssshh, hssssshhss, hhhssshhhhh! The sleastak loom ever closer. Like zombies they stumble, enveloping our minds with their plastic claws and bulging, jeweled eyes. Their diabolic hissing conjures childhood visions of sheer terror, bringing us back to a time when we gasped with anticipation, yearning for the safety of Holly, Will and their dad. If it wasn't the sleastak, it was the giant dinosaurs, their teeth large as trees and sharp as razors. The Marshalls were out of their element, doomed from the very start. Lost. If anyone ever made a movie out of Land Of The Lost, Old would win the film score hands down. The Musical Dimensions Of Sleastak is a whacked-out, scary, bad trip of a record, perfectly suited for pterodactyl attacks, dysfunctional time travel and sudden, climactic shifts. Many of the songs sprawl in an electronic sea of dystopia, launching and branching out like fireworks under ice. Yet they all work. While Old's first album was raw and unfocused, the new disc breathes with hallucinogenic clarity—even the arhythmic jazz beats and tumbling rhythms flow together in a cohesive splash of sound. And thank god Alan Durbin doesn't sing in a grating nasal squeal anymore. Overall, Old is not a purely metal band, although songs like "Happy Tantrum" and "Freak Now" bear elements in common with much of what passes for industrial metal. Be bold, check out Old. Just keep an eye out for the sleastak. —Jon Wiederhorn

COURSE OF EMPIRE

Initiation
(Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Course Of Empire is an eclectic Texas outfit with a dizzying mixed-bag of prominent percussive-heavy rhythms (the band has two drummers) and tweaked, abrasive guitar effects that bring to mind Low Pop Suicide, I Mother Earth and Mind Bomb. But even these are only partially accurate reference points. The quintet's tribal sounding rhythms balance on the precipice of danceability like Killing Joke or Jane's Addiction, yet the band never loses its caustic edge. The lurching tilt of "Infested" even reminds us of old school Van Halen crossed with Bo Diddley (we swear to God). If our description sounds like a disheveled mess, it's only because Initiation is harder to pin down than the typical metal release. Guitarist Mike Graff is the real star here, weaving rock and psychedelic textures with melody ("Apparition"), crunch ("Breed") and experimentation ("Minions" and "Initiation/The Gate"). Also try heavier tracks like "Breed" or "White Vision Blowout." —Paul Sommerstein

INVOCATOR

Weave The Apocalypse
(Black Mark, c/o Cargo, 3058 Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—Right off the bat, Invocator earns points by not beginning Weave The Apocalypse with one of those cheesy gothic keyboard intros. Instead, the band kicks right in with a honed guitar lick that segues right into a chugging metal rhythm. And although the record is full of sudden signature shifts and clever musical twists, Invocator knows that without a song, all the technical tricks in the world fall on deaf ears. Weave The Apocalypse packs together a slew of memorable guitar lines, galloping beats and vocal yowls. Even a brief listen confirms the band's skill and fortitude, yet Invocator rarely overplays, instead hammering its music home with unmitigated determination. Included along with the grinding rhythms and fire-from-the-sky intensity are a repertoire of tricks including samples, duel vocal parts, guitar harmonies, digital effects and dexterous jazz phrases that prevent the record from lapsing into the land of death metal clichés. Whether Invocator's Danish roots affect its sound is something we're still hazy about, but we're sure we heard some of these names on the upcoming Winter Olympics roster. Those Danes sure know how to put together death metal bands and ski teams. Weave these: "Through The Nether To The Sun," "Breed Of Sin" and "From My Skull It Rains."

SHORT PLAYS

PRONG
"Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck" (5") (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—A new Prong release will always be big news in the Argh!! office, and "Snap Your Fingers..." doesn't disappoint. Now a foursome, Prong's long-standing Killing Joke influence is even more prominent with the addition of two former members of that band and a throbbing synth/bass verse. Prong is one of the most innovative and copied metal bands of the past five years and a fave with the press—it's time for the band to get paid.

—Paul Sommerstein

DEMO-LISHED!

STONE DEEP
Stone Deep (2101 Belmont Blvd. #401, Nashville, TN 37212/615-385-5083)—Though we've heard nothing to make us fans of the "rap metal" genre so far (save for the seminal work of Phi Beta Phunk), Stone Deep has come up with a competent demo bound to appeal to anyone who liked the Judgment Night soundtrack. The band features some familiar folks, namely Glen Cummings, the guitar virtuoso behind Scatterbrain (and Ludichrist before that), and members of Hard Corps, a rap/metal outfit that released an LP on Interscope a few years back. While Stone Deep isn't doing anything innovative with the rap metal style, Cummings lays down some tasty riffs that are sure to get all the bi-levels out there a-fluttering with jock-dancing abandon.

Happy New Year! (VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY.) Took the week off, went home to New Jersey, had an awesome Christmas, went to Williamsburg, Virginia, to visit my dad, drove in a horrible snow storm, got more gifts, spent New Year's Eve in NYC just like old times! (POST MORTEM.) Thanks to everyone who sent cards and other goodies. Very cool! My birthday is coming up on Jan. 16, so don't forget! Do you realize there is at least one holiday per month for the next six months? (EL DUCE.) Not to mention the little ones scattered in there that allow us days off with no mail. Can you tell I just put out my '94 calendar? Besides holidays Red Light has some other important events for you to add to your calendar, like COVEN's Boneless Christian, OPPRESSOR's Solstice Of Oppression and GUTTED's Bleed For Us To Live, which will all be on your desk in Feb./March. We're gonna "rock your world." Ha, ha, don't you watch In Living Color? Get a clue, you! More exciting news soon from Red Light. I'm dying to spread the word, but I'm sworn to secrecy. (Are my subliminal messages working?) More from me next time.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 489-7400

In the infamous words of Howard Stern, Happy fuckin' New Year! And that it is, with music from '93 to keep you sane enough to carry your emotional load of the oncoming new century into a new year. Huh? In a nutshell, STICK ended 1993 on a rather high note for us (here's the mushy "thanks" stuff). It was Top 10 at three metal radio charts! Major thanks to all of you that supported this band from day one and went to see the band while it was on the road and performing at NMS, Foundations and CMJ. But don't think it's over already! Certainly not! This is just the beginning! Keep playing the hell out of Heavy Bag. There are eight songs to choose from—"Taught To Lose," "Stoning," "Disposable" and "Fuel" to name but a few. And for those that for unforeseen circumstances (temporary deafness, no stereo, broken equipment) have yet to see the light and realize the amount of talent this band has...NOW'S THE TIME! Enough ranting and raving. The other band to calm your nerves is MUZZA CHUNKA. People really react to this band when it's played on the air. Try it sometime and I guarantee your phones will light up. Thanks again to those that have continually played Fishy Pants. See Muzza Chunka in Phoenix on Jan. 20, Portland on Jan. 28 and Seattle on Jan. 29. Call me for fix and interviews. On the horizon is the Airheads soundtrack which I promise you will all love. Enough said.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

OK folks. Get your New Year's resolution lists out and make sure in between "brush with every meal," "quit smoking" and "lose 10 pounds" is the most important resolution: "Give the ELEVEN record the proper love and attention that it deserves." If it isn't on your list, add it on! I have been informed that over the holidays "Crash Today" was picking up major speed on the request side, so let's see those reports reflecting that action! Look for the next single, "Let Down," coming soon. The Eleven contest-winners will be announced this week, so stay tuned to this Hollywood Channel for the news flash...I'm gone.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

By now you are all back from the holidays. I need a vacation from my vacation if you know what I'm sayin'. But it was great to sit back and relax for a bit. Just think, MOTORHEAD is going out on the road with Black Sabbath and Morbid Angel in February. The new single from Motorhead is "On Your Feet Or On Your Knees." For those who don't play it, you must repent for the new year. FOR LOVE NOT LISA has a new single too. It's "Slipside Melting." The add dates are Feb. 24 and 25.

TUNGSTEN and STRESSBALL are in your face, so do it hard and heavy. Coming soon is "Leafy Incline" by the one and only TAD. My congrats to the Philadelphia Eagles for an outstanding game with the 49ers. Just remember that the N.Y. Giants will go to the big game and destroy all in the way. Till next week, indylove peace.

Mark Schmidt, Megaforce Records & Crazy Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456

1993 has been absolutely amazing! I've been here at Megaforce since July and it's been a blast ever since! I want to thank everyone for making my time here so far so much fun! I'd especially like to thank Jonny and Marsha Z., Missi, Alicia, Juli, Gary, Dave, Mazur, Victoria, Murray, Eileen, Nance, Michelle, Lynne, Maria, Petty, Warden, Pete, Art and Joel. Thanks to everyone in radio and at the other labels.

Alex Parker, Head Of Promotion & Mover Of Large Objects, R.E.X. Records, Nashville, TN (615) 370-8813

For those of you keeping score, R.E.X. had a CD

reviewed in the ARGH!!! section of CMJ earlier this year. The band was CIRCLE OF DUST a.k.a. BRAINCHILD. "If pounding industrial metal loaded with samples and soundbytes is your bag, Brainchild's electronic savagery will have you bowing with clenched fists at the altar of Nintendo," said Jon Wiederhorn (aw, shucks—ed). He concluded by saying, "due to continuing label negotiations" no servicing of product was possible. Well we've finally finished the negotiations. We are now distributed by R.E.D. Be looking for the Circle Of Dust/Brainchild release in late January. Currently we have a Circle of Dust/Brainchild 7" out to whet your appetite. Look for it in your station's music library. Play it at least eight times during your shift. Make sure that the MD charts it at number one for three months in a row. When the full-length CD arrives in January, just set the CD player on shuffle mode and go for a smoke. C.O.D. is easily one of the best darn industrial bands ever to use an unauthorized sample. MTV Sports and Fox's Music Scope have already used C.O.D. music several times, so why not get in on the ground level before this thing gets bigger than the national debt. If your station doesn't have a copy, give me a call, I have plenty. I almost forgot! Booger!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Records, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

Ah yes, another brand new year. I hope everybody had a great holiday. You know, as I sit and ponder over all of my New Year's resolutions, I wonder if you're thinking the same, and if you're not, well, then here are a few of mine you can use. I will report my new office hours. CROWBAR has to be in my top five this year. Oh, by the way, Crowbar will be on tour with Paradise Lost on a six-week overseas tour. And just wait until they get back on American turf in March. Or how about this one: I will stuff my listeners full of STRESSBALL and TUNGSTEN. These are two kick-butt records that are making their move. We will be starting phoners with both bands this week, so give me a buzz if you want an interview. Our first release for the new year is the one and only DEMENTED TED. That's right, Chicago's very own. We are going to have a huge release party, so if you're in the Chicago area around the end of February, stop by. Just wait till you see what we've got lined up for '94.

In an effort to keep more in touch with the underworld of metal, Argh!!! would like to encourage unsigned bands to send in their demos or self-financed albums for possible review. Please send all materials including group bio to:

CROWDED HOUSE

"Locked Out"
(Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Together Alone, the fourth album from Crowded House, has a few surprises for those who dismiss the band as clean-cut, post-Beatles pop for the VH-1 demographic. "Locked Out," the first US single and video, not only adds a groovy Manchester beat to the mix, but also cranks up the volume more than we're used to from this band which has also added an additional guitarist/keyboardist to expand upon the quaint trio sound that first brought them notoriety. The fast-paced video does its best to keep up with the intensity of the track, as band members race down desolate roads, seemingly chasing the speeding camera. The quick cuts, scrambling band members and glimpses of femme fatales gives "Locked Out" both an air of desperation and humor. The song itself is the epitome of the three minute pop song (make that 3:18 to be exact), reaffirming the band's status as masters of the game. This bright song and its energetic companion video will hopefully ignite interest in the dozen other tracks on Together Alone which deftly cover more territory than just upbeat rockers.
 —Steve Ciabattini

ELTON JOHN & RuPAUL

"Don't Go Breakin' My Heart"
(MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—This is almost beyond camp. This is so far camp it's heading out to Lake Little Deer in a big yellow school bus right now. But as discoized cover versions go, this sticks close to the original, RuPaul's vocals filling in for Kiki Dee's pretty well. But the video is a whole 'nother story...it starts with a short skit revolving around Valentine's Day, and Elton hasn't brought the right kind of gift. The two break into song, mocking the images of a torch singer on the piano, Grant Wood's American Gothic and Sonny and Cher, among other traditional icons. The two do not take any of it seriously at all, which is what saves it from being too much. The colors are the hot pink and white you'd expect from something this outrageous, roses strewn about the screen as plentifully as the fake eyelashes. Obviously dance clubs will hop on this right away, but it's just so much fun to watch that everyone should give it a try. Plus, it was a great excuse for Elton to dress funny again.

"Watch The Girl Destroy Me"

(Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—There's a quality about Possum Dixon's latest video "Watch The Girl Destroy Me" that reminds us of the best early '80s pop spawned from punk and new wave. We'll have you know that we were fond of PD's last video "Nerves" as well. "Watch The Girl Destroy Me" stands out as a feisty guitar rocker, recalling everything from the fire of The Clash to the goofiness of Violent Femmes. With the medium so saturated with bands relying on video to create their image and character, Possum Dixon takes command of this video on the strength of the band's own awkward charm. It's refreshing to see band members cracking smiles for a change rather than brooding or basking their "alternative" souls in mood lighting. Perhaps it's because this band has little to hide and a lot of talent to show that this video literally zips by. Fun, entertaining, and so catchy you don't mind knowing that it's really just a commercial for the record.

"Animal"

(Epic, 550 Madison Ave, New York, NY 10022-3211)—It's amazing what you can do with a Quadra 660AV these days. Whatever the instrument, there's certainly some kind of mighty impressive digital editing going on in the "Animal" video. The song itself is high-grade paranoid minor-key industrial fare ("you put me in a cage," goes the hook), enlivened by a tremendously charismatic and undistorted female vocal. The hyper-stylized video, though, is off in some other direction. It's always got at least two or three images going on at once, and it seems to be a comment on cultural standardization of "femininity." The singer (or somebody lip-synching the vocals) appears in a series of outfits that are formally inappropriate to industrial music: pigtails and little-girl dresses, businesslike skirts and blouses. Is the "cage" the culture at large that makes women wear makeup and designer clothes, or the industrial subculture that makes them wear leather

COWBOY JUNKIES

"Floorboard Blues"

(RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—Over the span of their five albums the Cowboy Junkies have used a beautiful and delicate blend of country, blues and folk to relate their tales of loneliness and heartache. Led by the sure voice of Margo Timmins, the Junkies music works best when it is creating a mood, whether through their captivating and wistful musical textures or Timmins' thoughtfully poetic lyrics. "Floorboard Blues" uses these elements to paint a dark picture steeped in danger and haunting images. This is the portrait of a young girl and the strange man who offers her a ride home. She warns "Check under his floorboards, Mama" and as her suspicions and fears grow we are exposed to the disturbing thoughts that appear in her mind. The video is a series of subtle images pieced together slowly, lethargic pans and dramatic lighting adding to the creepiness of the piece. Reflections of the girl's thoughts are captured in the silhouettes that drift across her face and appear in the car's windows with startling effectiveness, a possible foreboding of things to come. We won't reveal everything that happens in this video, but let's just say that although "Floorboard Blues" lasts only two minutes, the unsettling tale that it relates lingers much longer in the mind's eye.

—Colin Helms ▼

TYPE O NEGATIVE
"Christian Woman"

(Roadrunner, 225 Lafayette St., Ste. 407, New York, NY 10012)—There's certainly never been a shortage of religious imagery in metal (honestly, if we see one more angel with an arrow through its chest we're gonna go crazy). Thankfully, the latest video from Type O Negative is one with a brain that goes a little deeper than most videos into the roots that make crucifixes and the like such powerful visual symbols. It deals rather interestingly with religious obsession and oppression in the mind of an adolescent girl. The clip does well not to bombard the viewer with images and icons, and while a main focus of "Christian Woman" reveals the woman's sexual/religious fantasies it's not done merely to have a sex scene in a video. The woman looks more tortured than turned on. The band delivers the song like a band dressed in black leather should: the vocals are low and ominous, as are the guitars, while the keyboards and dreamy harmonies add a strange pop texture to "Christian Woman." Like the Cowboy Junkies video reviewed in this issue, there's subtlety galore in this one.

—Steve Ciabattini ▼

LEADERS OF THE NEW SCHOOL
"Classic Material"

(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—A new video from The Leaders Of The New School offering "Classic Material" may at first seem like a contradiction in terms, but you'll see that the Leaders are versed in the old as well as the new. The track allows all four Leaders time on the mike, with standout raps from unsung heroes Milo and Dinko, whose rhymes are as twisted as taffy. While the song touches on some old school styles, the video is what Arsenio would still call "on a new tip." The clip recalls the A Tribe Called Quest (truly) classic "Scenario" video. The video reprises the computer approach, but ditches the "windows" format, turning into the inner workings of the machine. The Leaders are morphed down to microchip size, rapping alongside circuit boards and other mechanical minutiae. These, however, are but some of the tricks this clip has in store. The video, and this has been a continual strong point with the Leaders, simply does not look like a hip-hop video. The usual rap clip tenets—bitches in da pool, the posse filled with everyone they're ever met, the hoisted 40s—are nowhere in sight. It may be "Classic Material" but it's another cutting-edge clip from the Leaders Of The New School.

DIALOGUE

GUEST DIALOGUE

Copernicus, Nevermore Recording Artist

The dark cradle of the night prays by the bedside where the dog stares and holds the silent powerful vigil of Truth. It seems only the dogs care and can see the Truth. It seems only the dogs do not create gods and convenient illusions and then worship them. It seems only the dogs hear everything and bark at what is not right. It seems our eternal destiny is being safeguarded by the ears and mind of dogs as planet Earth hurtles through space and editors of music journals fart twice in fear of the new Copernicus CD, No Borderline. The silent dogs, the never sleeping dogs always carrying the lava heat of Truth in their being wondering when the human plague, the gold worshippers, the drug takers and the drug sellers, the thieves in the mainstream radio stations and mainstream press who rob the people of their true artists wondering when will their hated iron grip end.

RECORD COMPANY

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

In the infamous words of Howard Stern, Happy Fuckin' New Year! And welcome back to the joyous place you all love, known as school. Another semester of the hell you just went through with papers, tests and pure, unadulterated stress. Fun fun fun! Here it is 1994 and yours truly won't bore you with the holiday stories. Instead, I'll enlighten you with some of the new releases in store for the year ahead, in addition to the "carry-overs" from '93. First up is a brilliant piece of art under the title Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, from the exquisitely talented SARAH McLACHLAN. Sarah's time has come and you will be in Heaven when your ears experience the aural pleasure of this record. (Right, Andy?) Look for it late January/early February. THE CHURCH return in March with Sometime Anywhere. Their name alone should speak for itself as to what to expect. The ...Shittin' Me comp that was out at CMJ had a track on it, so you got an early taste of The Church. As springtime rolls around, we'll have some new Dedicated releases from THIS PICTURE, CRANES (an EP) and the FAMILY CAT. New SPIRITUALIZED will be late spring towards the summer. Also on the agenda is the soundtrack for the movie Airheads. In the meantime, you've got the CHAPTERHOUSE album, Blood Music, and most recently, an ambient, trippy, mood music version of the album interpreted by Global Communication. STICK and MUZZA CHUNKA are kicking around with scattered live dates that you better check out. And play my records! Seeyalaterbye.

Sivan, College Radio, TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

"Seana and Eric sitting in a..." Thai restaurant in Soma? We dined, we laughed, oiy, I'm verklemt...talk amongst yourselves...Yes, I spent New Years in San Fran, lolling in the live follies of Sandra Bernhardt, instead of toasting Korbel to Sexpod and Luscious Jackson at Maxwell's back home (boo hoo)...Oh-so tender in '94: SISTER MACHINE GUN "Wired" CD5 and The Torture Technique full-length (early February); AUTECHRE Incunabula CD (an aural acid trip for the straight edge and my personal favorite)—the sixth Artificial Intelligence Series installment and on tour in February (also featuring FUSE); APHEX TWIN Analogue Bubblebath EP (domestic, finally!); ETHNO-TECHNO Sonic Anthropology Volume 1, voluminous, anthropological trance (dig it?); and, "Light," the third KMFDM CD5 from Angst. Later, a GIL SCOTT-HERON Spirits CD (hurrah!) in March, a CORDS CD5, and introducing Chicago's JESTER, a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup of intense rock/hip-hop. Still stronger than ever before: KMFDM Angst (you must see the video for "Drug Against War," call if you don't have a copy), RISE ROBOTS RISE Spawn and the CONNELLS Ring. Love and peace in '94! Fare well...

Dominic Hollman, Milan Entertainment, New York, NY (212) 782-1279

Allow me to introduce myself, I'm Dom and I'm the new promotions guy at Milan. Since promotions is my job, how about if I begin...We have the soundtrack to Blink, featuring music by the DROVERS, who are kind of like a Celtic folk-rock-punk amalgamation featured in the movie, which stars Madeleine Stowe. This group may be Chicago's answer to Black 47. And we all know how blazing-hot Chicago is right now (and I don't mean in basketball)...Also hot is the new release of PINO DONAGGIO scores from the films of Brian De Palma. Classics such as Carrie, Dressed To Kill and Body Double are represented here...For a romantic Valentine's Day, look for the compilation Love In The Cinema, due later this month. It features tracks from Ghost, Benny & Joon, Dr. Zhivago, Body Of Evidence and others. It will be released in a limited edition, heart-shaped, die-cut slipcase, so check it out...In the new year, Milan will continue to release jazz, new age, world music and alternative in addition to all of our soundtracks (something for everybody). Milan is in the process of expanding our mailing lists, so if you need service, fax me a playlist at (212) 782-1078 or give me a call. Have a great semester

Todd Heinz, Nettwerk Records, New York, NY (212) 979-0745

Hi. I now have a new address and stuff: 215 East 4th Street #23, New York, NY 10009. My new phone number is not too hard to find if you are reading this, my new fax # is (212) 979-2917. You can also contact me via Internet—nettwerk@phantom.com (please note that this is a different address than the one we put on our records, this one is just for me). My new office address is by sheer coincidence the same as my home, so I guess I no longer have to be bothered by things like bathing or getting dressed in the morning. I am hoping that this will open all kinds of doors of opportunity for me. You should get Shiver, the debut LP from the ROSE CHRONICLES any second now followed shortly by a new one from SARAH McLACHLAN, Fumbling Towards Ecstasy. But I'll bet Sharon already told you about the Sarah record. We recently set up a BBS in Vancouver, the # is (604) 731-7007, there are bios, artwork and other related things available for downloading. Calling Canada from the U.S. is not really a cheap thing to do, we should have a telnet link up soon, so those of you with the Internet access will be able to get on-line for free. Or at least those of you who have the slightest idea of what I am talking about.

Bob W., Triage International, New York, NY (212) 353-2002

I think my favorite present was the electric shaver my sister gave me. My cat likes her 'cat dancer' and toy mouse—its got real mouse fur. Intern: free labor carried out by naive, ambitious upstarts wishing to bust into the business and willing to do nearly anything for that big break. We would like interns, but all we can offer is some free records, free admission to the occasional show and all the tea you can drink. We have lots of tedious work that needs to get done, and if one shows initiative, some challenging work, too. Hell, you might even learn something of worth. Call us if this sounds like your bag...We will be servicing some of the following real soon: HECTOR ZAZOU's Sahara Blue (on Crammed Discs in Europe, on TriStar here), the HOLY TOLEDOS (from New Zealand), more important 7"s on Sugarfrost (EVA LUNA, NELLORIES, B-FLOWER). Keep an eye out for the new THUMPER 7" in February, and also the debut from a most shakin band from New York called PONY (double 7" on Ah-Um). Thanks for playing the PHILISTINES JR. and MOTHERHEAD BUG. "She may be skinnier than me, but at least I've got bigger boobs."

Steph and Chuck, Promo, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

We're back in '94 with a whole new sassy attitude—especially Chuck who vows to eat three full meals a day in order to maintain a Buddha-like state of mind. I'd like to thank the city of New Orleans for a ruling vacation. Bourbon Street and the Superdome—what a combo. Voodoo happens. Should I talk about records? SHONEN KNIFE dammit! Brown Mushroom EP is loving life in radioland and soon you shall have the full Rock Animals CD to cherish. Naoko, Michie and Atsuko had a blast touring here and will be back for a full tour in spring. New CD from ENIGMA called The Cross Of Changes in the beginning for February. Lots of bizarre samples (Zep too) mixed with beautiful melodies and sounds. I like it even better than the first one, if you care what I think. Hey, I care what you think, as long as you agree with me. Be all that you can be—be that know-it-all MD that you are and program the Plano soundtrack between Royal Trux and Michael Bolton. Your listeners will weep with joy when they hear it. Besides, Harvey Keitel can whip your butts anytime—Bad Lieutenant, Hello? Also coming soon: BEN HARPER's Welcome To The Cruel World in Feb...awesome slide guitar from L.A...also new SAM PHILLIPS first week in March. This record is so good that you'll tell two friends and they'll tell two friends and so on, and so on, and so on...We love our artists, you should too.

Steve Fox, Promotions Director, Three Minute Dog Records, Columbia, MO (314) 449-2839

First of all, best of luck to TMD president Brian Clark on his journey to Orlando, Florida. He will be heading the eastern leg of the dog, while engineering in Orlando. The expansion to the TMD network will be effective in late January; contact info soon. Look for multiple regional Noise Ordinance compilations, including an East Coast comp, late in 1994. Thanks to everyone who helped make ST. MONDAY's '93 singles: "BB Gun" and "Pops" a success. Be sure to make room for the debut release by the Columbia-based band FEARS FOR ART. The singles: "All Or Nothing" and "Let It Go" will land on your door step (or P.O. Box) in January. Heavy touring begins throughout the Midwest late in 1993. The band will be on the East Coast during the summer of '94. For show info contact TMD. Finally...Welcome back KCOU. Best of luck to the new staff as well as the returning members of the old crew. Your spirit is alive with Elvis!

Kate "Valium Is My Friend" Enochs, Promotions/Publicity, Silent Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 957-1370

Hey all you techno haters, just kidding. By now, groovy select stations should have received their copies of the 199303 comp, the Tranquility comp and Deeper Than Space. 199303 is pure tekno and the others are ambient. After Xmas, those stations that play things other than grunge rock (CMJ's top ten makes me want to puke) like ambient, shall receive SOLITAIRE (side proj. of Steve Roach and Elmar Schulte) and Polar Regions by COSMIC TRIGGER (featuring members of the Hafler Trio). Prepare yourselves Hafler Trio fans, this is not what you are expecting...Dear Bob at Triage, I'm not quite sure where I was while you were singing the praises of Ordo Equiem Solis. I was probably at a rave high on ecstasy, doing hits of nitrous or sitting in a graveyard drinking Absinthe. So sorry. Hi to Carolyn and Sivan at TVT, Marc at Triage, Eric at Twin Vision, Tim at CMJ, Charlie at TCI (my future husband), Chris at Elektra, Howie at Arista and Gerard at Matador, I know you don't know me and I don't know you but I like you anyway, probably cause you remind me of Les who I miss so dearly now that he's in L.A. Hello to all the groovy people I met at CMJ. Radio stations, I'll say hi to you next time. Bye Cliff, I'll miss you!

Scott Giampino, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL (312) 463-0848

New year, shmoo year. I'm Scott taking over for Stacy Sargent who moved to Zimbabwe to study the effects of fermenting fruit in wild animals...Ah, the mid '90s are here. Anyway, back to me and the label. January 17 sees five new releases. The JESUS LIZARD has a new seven-inch entitled "Fly On The Wall"/"White Hole." You will flip over it. Those fellas were on tour from Sept. 2 to Dec. 22. That's almost as long as Journey. Did y'all happen to see Mister David Yow on the cover of Melody Maker? What a carpenter that man is. Quarterstick reissues the BAD LIVERS' Dust On The Bible in the original cassette only format. This gospel recording was initially intended for Danny Barnes' parents only, but has grown to cultish proportions. Quite a gift for your aunt, cousin, second cousin, inbred babysitter. Another reissue, Twin

Infinitives by ROYAL TRUX is on Drag City. This is their double LP from 1990, available for the first time ever on cassette and CD. It can be construed as their most bizarre record to date. In February, look up for new full-lengths by the LEE HARVEY OSWALD BAND, PORTASTATIC (with Mac from los SUPERCHUNK) and CRUNT. Crunt is Kat from Babes, Russell from the Blues Explosion and Stu from Lubricated Goat. Man oh man! Thanks for the MEKONS/SEAM sales support and keep them truckin' up los chart. I love you very much.

Adam Kashuba, College and Retail Promotions, Strictly Hype/Underground Construction Records, Chicago, IL (708) 678-1271

What's up?! This is my first Dialogue in CMJ (I'm sure everyone says that it's their "first time") so I have a lot of information for you all out there in college music land. First, Strictly Hype and Underground Construction are new labels in Chi-Town featuring cutting edge house. Soon to be added will be Soul Food Records—featuring hip-hop and rap—and Sonar Records—featuring techno. For now from SHR many of you have received WARREN RIGG's newest cut "Didn't I Love You Right?" which is hitting your turntables with a decidedly house flavor. Once again it will feature remixes from Chicago's best DJs including Georgie Porgie and Ralphie Rosario. On the Underground Construction front, the infamous RALPHI ROSARIO is burning up the club dance floors with "All Right Now!" Expect a new one soon. Also look for FAST EDDIE's "No Vocal Necessary: Welcome 2 The Pleasure Dome." Both of these guys have been featured in Tim Haslett's RPM column and have made Underground Construction "a powerful voice in Midwestern dance." And now for the biggest house news of the year...a double 12" of XAVERIA GOLD's

Ray Woods, G.M., Rainforest Records, Portland, OR (503) 682-7899

Well, here we are at the close of another year. 1993 was a big year for our small company. NEW BAD THINGS, ROGER NUSIC, MEDICINE SUNDAY and the Live At Laurelthirst compilation were our breakthroughs, although of course, we feel everything we put out is cool. Nevertheless, those releases in particular helped put Rainforest Records on the map for good. 1994 will be interesting: PLEASURE CENTER CD; NAKED VIOLENCE/DICKFINGER 7"; and cool new music from W.O.R.M., Medicine Sunday and SAVIOR. I asked my associates what they thought the best records of 1993 were, no holds barred. Ted voted for The Muffs. Krissy liked White Zombie. Chris chose two 7"; the House Of Large Sizes and 30:06 singles. Joe and Matt were blown away by Candlebox. Wamma was hyped on the Butthole Surfers. I had a hard time deciding. I thought Snow, PJ Harvey, the Humpers, the Spinanes and the October Project were inspired breakouts and that Cypress Hill should get honorable mention for their pro-hemp stance. But for me, the masterpiece of 1993 was Frosting On The Beater by the Posies. Live show honors go to Plastic Horn Devil, Hazel, 30:06, Meow, Billy Kennedy, Baby Gramps, Tree Frogs, Pete Miser w/FFF, Shine, W.O.R.M. and V.O.I.D. These were bands we saw in 1993 that you should not miss in 1994. Special thanks from Rainforest Records to KMUN, KBOO, KEOL, KDOX, KGHP, CJSE, WVKR, WMSC, WMUH, WMPI, WPSU, WRSK. Lastly, "How about those Mountaineers!"

Brendan B. Coyne, Choke, Inc., Chicago, IL (312) 226-9477

If you haven't checked out the CRAW CD, then you haven't, but you just might like it. Watch for Craw playing your town. They're out and about these days. Don't forget about the MILKMIKE 7". Milkmine's full-length will be out in the spring. We have another band on the way, MORSEL. These guys and gal from Ann Arbor feature a buzzsaw and sing through a flute, what else do you need? Morsel will be recording a full-length in February with the skinny guy and his cat, it should be interesting.

Nils Bernstein, Caterer, Sub Pop Records, Seattle, WA (206) 441-8441

If you're too busy listening to your Geffen bones and trying to convince yourself that you not only like the Raincoats but have all along, at least read Labrador's bio, which gives a good summary of reference points—F/i, ambient Eno, Spiritualized, Dead C, Thomas Koner, Cluster, etc.—which need only a little fleshing out with the Durutti Column, Zoviet-France and Felt for an idea of the greatness that is Labrador. I'd like to thank Kranky (via Cargo) for developing them for us. Hopefully the amazing new Tara Key album Bourbon County will spur someone to sign the equally amazing Antietam. Also amazing—Shudder To Think demos, Thinking Fellers, Harvey Sid Fischer, Unwound. Jean Smith fell asleep at a Caspar Brotzmann show, which proves she's punkest of all. And from Sub Pop...did anyone listen to the LES THUGS album? If it was their first album and they were from Louisville, they'd be huge. Though I suppose if Hex Induction Hour, Goats Head Soup, Doc At The Radar Station and Ege Bamyasi came out this year, they'd be huge too. Send photos, and yes, you can stay at my house.

Alicia De Sena, Megaforce Records And Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456

On behalf of TRIBE AFTER TRIBE, NUDESWIRL, WARREN HAYNES, MIND-FUNK and ANTHRAX, I would just like to thank everyone at radio for your support this year! Here's hoping 1994 is an even better year for all of us! May your holidays be happy and safe! I'll talk to you next year!

VIDEO

David Weissman, GM/Producer/Host, Underground Railroad, New York, NY (212) 734-3810

1993 produced some of the finest IndieRock around and for that reason we decided to look back at the year with a special year in IndieRock videos. If you remember our top videos of 1992, we showcased then relatively unknown, but now widely-heard greats like URGE OVERKILL, WEEN, AFGHAN WHIGS, FLOP, UNREST, YO LA TENGO and SUPERCHUNK. 1993's list was full of more surprises and we'd like to thank all the labels for their continued support. This year's top IndieRock videos go as follows: 13. BIG CHIEF "One Born Every Minute"; 12. TREEPEOPLE "Nod & Blink"; 11. MERCURY REV "Something For Joey"; 10. JESUS LIZARD "Puss"; 9. Superchunk "Package Thief"; 8. MONSTERLAND "Insulation"; 7. LIZ PHAIR "Never Said"; 6. ARCHERS OF LOAF "Wrong"; 5. FLUF "Peanut Butter"; 4. MADDER ROSE "Swim"; 3. BETTIE SERVEERT "Tom Boy"; 2. Afghan Whigs "Debonair"; 1. the SPINANES "Noel, Jonah & Me."...We'd also like to mention that the UR is still offering our cross promotion with Tower Records that is going extremely well. Call us for more details. And get ready for our two-year anniversary party this March/April in NYC with some surprise guest bands. We hope everyone will attend. Peace.

Skip Garcia, Music Director, KSCR, Los Angeles, CA (213) 740-5727

Hope you all had a happy holiday...and here goes nothin'...Here are my top 5 albums of the year: 1. VERVE A Storm In Heaven; 2. BOO RADLEYS Giant Steps; 3. BLUR Modern Life Is Rubbish; 4. SEEFEL More Like Space E.P.; 5. CHAPTERHOUSE Blood Music. That makes for an excellent holiday shopping list for all your loved ones. Also thanks and love to the following for making this job so damn stimulating. Tom Cornett, we shall miss you but best of luck in Phoenix, punk rock man! Carlos from Sony, Tony from ERG (you're too much), Leslie at Imago, Julie from PolyGram, Chuck at Virgin, the A&M clan, Darrin at BMG, and everyone else who sends us our medication...Also, before I drift off into X-mas oblivion: Song Of The Year goes to the Boo Radleys with "Lazarus" and in '94 the key words are Astral Projection. Up! Up! Up!

Steve Snyder, Music Director, WRCT, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 621-0728

Recently received here at WRCT is the LABRAD-FORD CD entitled Prazision. Listening to this recording I was reminded of the first SPECTRUM LP, and some of F/i's more ambient moments, as well as the density that STRAFE FR generate... Evidence Music has produced five more CDs of SUN RA's recordings. Included among them is the soundtrack to the film Space Is The Place. This impossible-to-describe film pretty much exactly defines Sun Ra and his philosophies of life, music and art. The film is now available on video and is a rather essential key to understanding one of this century's most important artists. We at WRCT thank Mr. Jerry Gordon of Evidence Music, Inc. for making the music of Sun Ra easily available...Here in Pittsburgh we have seen the release of Pawholes #4, our very own fabulous punk-zine brought to you by Keren, Debby and a cast of tens...SWOB have their second 7" out on Project A-Bomb and it rules...Oh yeah, as I have been threatening for some time, we are now at full power—1750 watts. Now the good people of Dunedin, Osaka, Phoenix, Helsinki and Saturn can hear us.

Brendan M. Gillen, Music Director, WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI (313) 763-3501

Welcome to '94. My office hours will remain Monday and Tuesday 3-6 EST. These are the only days I can do call backs, so plan accordingly. My predictions include a neat abbreviation for the college radio format like CLG or FARM league. Yeah, increased cross-industry status. And, like, all those R&B labels will be working those hot CLG mixes to college radio. So y'know, that way they can hook up a crossover into the FARM format, thus building a loyal fanbase. That way, SWV's sophomore slump sales won't be so bad. Crazier things have been worked to me...My only present from Santa was a tip sheet saying the next big thing in the college radio format was going to be "Listening Techno." He said that would include multi-faceted talents like the APHEX TWIN, trippy stuff that still has beats like PLASTIKMAN, and way out ambient music like PETER NAMLOOK. Serious. He's weird. Big ones in my head: the ORNETTE COLEMAN box, the RED RED MEAT advance, PRISONSHAKE's new LP celebrating women, JAZZ HIP JAP—Japanese acid jazz on Mo'Wax, FLYING TESTICLE and the last five minutes of MTV's The Year In Rock. Stop the insanity indeed.

JELLO BIAFRA ... PLAINFIELD

PLAINFIELD HOAX

The album Plainfield With Jello Biafra does not actually have Jello Biafra on the album, instead featuring a rather good impersonator. In addition, the album is not on Biafra's Alternative Tentacles label, so don't call the friendly folks there asking to be serviced. Stay tuned for the label's response...
