MusicAction delivers on promise to CRTC

MusicAction Vice President, Rob Braide, who is also Program Director at Montreal's CHOM-FM, has announced the first New Talent Awards and Music Action Loans. "We are very pleased with how quickly this organization, which will parallel Toronto's FACTOR, has come together," says Braide, "and we are looking forward to great things as a result of these activities."

Braide goes on to explain that MusicAction "was formed to try to stimulate the French-language recording industry."

The organization was promised to the CRTC by the CHUM Group when they bought CHOM and CKGM in Montreal. With CRTC regulations holding certain Quebec stations to 65 percent French-language playlists, Braide says, "The program will aid these programmers with this severe supply (of product) problem."

MusicAction, since forming in October of last year, recently handed out $8,000 in awards and loans to musicians. Those receiving New Talent Awards were Chantal Beupre, Jacques Demers, Daniel Jean and Sophie Lapiere. MusicAction loans were presented to Estelle Esse and Paparazzi.

MusicAction parallels FACTOR/CTL, with the various applications being selected by juries comprising "professionals of the recording, broadcasting and specialized media" industries.

The CHUM Group and Standard Broadcasting are the primary sponsors of MusicAction, having made initial contributions of $100,000 and $20,000 respectively.

Rush and Alarm set for MuchMusic's Big Ticket

MuchMusic's Big Ticket Specials have firmed performances by Rush and The Alarm.

Rush will be seen in Grace Under Pressure, which was taped at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. Telecast date is for Mar. 15 at 10:30 pm EST. They will be performing many of their early hits along with their latest material.

Apr. 12 at 6 pm EST, The Alarm will be seen on The Big Ticket in a world exclusive - The Spirit Of '76, live in concert from Los Angeles. The 90 minute concert will be carried live via satellite from the UCLA outdoor arena.

Major recording acts firmed for Montreux

Several major recording acts have been firmed for the 1986 Montreux Golden Rose Rock Festival. These include a-ha, Genesis, Billy Ocean, Joe Jackson, Daryl Hall, Electric Light Orchestra, Elvis Costello, Thompson Twins, Whitney Houston, Queen, Roger Daltrey and Patti Labelle. John Nathan, North American Coordinator for the Festival, reports that other top names will be added over the next few weeks.

A television special of the festival will be co-produced by Swiss Television and Michael Hurl of the BBC, and is expected to be seen by over 125,000,000 viewers. "This concentration of major international pop stars rivals that of any international television show anywhere," reports Guillaume Chenevire, Secretary General of the Golden Rose TV Festival, "and confirms Montreux as an international meeting place for all those involved in music programming."

The Golden Rose Rock Festival will take place during the 26th edition of the Golden Rose of Montreux Television Festival for light-entertainment programming, May 7 through 14. Concurrently, the town of Montreux, which is not too far from Geneva, will also be hosting the 1st International Music & Media Conference which runs from May 7 through 10. This conference is co-sponsored by the Golden Rose and European Music Report.

Fanfare set to receive first CDs from Praxis

Praxis Technologies have announced that Canada's first "domestically produced" compact discs will be released on the Fanfare label. According to Fanfare, 4 titles have been prepared for "this auspicious debut."

Fanfare President, Julian Rice comments, "We've been in there since the beginning - just call it perseverance."

The titles being released, including 3 Fanfare best sellers of last year, are: Kunzel On Broadway with Erich Kunzel and the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra; Ofra Harony and The Orford String Quartet Play The Beatles; The Pachelbel Canon and Other Digital Delights with Andrew Davis and The Toronto Symphony Orchestra; and a new Gershwin anthology entitled The Gershwin Connection.

Rice points out that the first run of 16,000 units has already been pre-sold - with 70 percent of the product earmarked for their U.S. distributor, Intercon. Another shipment is expected in July.

Fanfare will continue to release albums and cassettes throughout 1986. "By the end of the year," says Rice, "we hope to have 32 titles - including 3 new recordings from Erich Kunzel."

Hume upped to President London Broadcasters

Gordon Hume, President of the Central Canada Broadcasters Association and a member of the Board of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB), has been named President of London Broadcasters Ltd.

Mr. Hume has been the General Manager of CKSL Radio in London for the past 5 years and was appointed Vice President in 1982. The above announcement was made by Mr. F. Vincent Regan, Chairman of the Board of London Broadcasters.

The London, Ont.-based broadcasting entity was recently licensed by the CRTC for CIQM-FM, a new radio station for which Mr. Regan credits Mr. Hume with being the "architect of the successful CRTC presentation for CIQM-FM Radio."

Greg Hambleton named President CMPA for '86

Greg Hambleton has been elected to serve as President of the Canadian Music Publishers' Association (CMPA) for 1986. Mr. Hambleton is Managing Director of the Peer-Southern Organization in Canada.

The announcement followed the CMPA's general meeting where the elections took place.

Also elected were Frank Davies, who will serve as Vice President, and George Ullman, elected to the position of Treasurer.

Mr. Hambleton succeeds Brian Chater, who has been President of the CMPA for the past 3 years.

The CMPA represents most of the major and independent music publishers with offices in Canada.

As reported in RPM earlier Lee Aaron signs to Virgin/10 (l to r) Al Mair (Pres. Attic), Steve Propas (Aaron's Mgr), Lee Aaron, John Albani (guitarist for Aaron), and Richard Griffiths (Pres. Virgin/10 Records).

Davis keynote speaker at Music Business meet

Clive Davis, President of Arista Records, has been firmed as the keynote speaker for the second annual Music Business Symposium. The meet, which will take place at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles from May 2 through the 4th, is again organized by William Gladstone and Arnold Lipsman. Organizers are expecting to attract over 2,000 participants to the event.

Events scheduled include an all-day session on The Convergence of Music and Film. This workshop, being organized by Stan Milander, President of Bart/Milander, a prominent agency representing composers of film scores, will feature 4 comprehensive panels focusing on "how the interrelationship of music and film actually works."

Also featured will be special workshops on state-of-the-art recording as well as a day-long discussion on How To Break Into The Music Business. As well, there will be a panel discussing Women In Music, and a workshop based on The Impact Of Videos On The Music Industry.

Panels on subjects such as The Challenge of Independent Labels And Distribution, Corporate Sponsorship, and A&R Decision-Making have also been scheduled.

Further information can be obtained by contacting Toby Mamis, Music Business Symposium, 8961 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, Ca. 90069, phone 213-273-1951.

Skywalk to MCA through U.S. Zebra label

MCA Records Canada has scheduled Mar. 11 as the release date for Bohemians, the new album from Skywalk. The instrumental jazz band will have their album launched at a record release party at The Landmark, a jazz club in their hometown of Vancouver.

MCA picked up the 6-piece band through the recent acquisition of the Los Angeles-based Zebra label, to which Skywalk had been signed and had released Silent Witness, their first album. Zebra is headed by Ricky Schultz, who recently became Vice President of Jazz for MCA Records.

The Silent Witness album had been released by the group on their Skywalk label, which was distributed in Canada by A&M. MCA has just reissued this album, originally released in 1983.

The new album was produced by Graeme Coleman, co-founder of the band, with bassist Rene Worst. The session was produced at Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound.

Susanne Nielsen Worst, of Skywalk Management tags the new album as being "more geared for airplay than Silent Witness, which featured lengthier tracks."

Roger Whittaker seen above with producer Bruce Welch at the famed Abbey Road Studios where finishing touches were made to Roger's new album, The Genius Of Love.

Terry David Mulligan on loan to Toronto

Terry David Mulligan, described by MuchMusic's promotion manager, as "MuchMusic's West Coast Specialist", will leave his hometown of Vancouver for a temporary stay in Toronto. He will be taking over Christopher Ward's duties as well as that of Michael Williams. The former goes on holidays, while the latter hits the road for MuchMusic's 1986 VJ promotional tour across Canada.

Mulligan will be on board from Mar. 17 through the 20th.

New Seger & Bowie LPs on way from Capitol

Expected within a couple of weeks is the latest album from Bob Seger, titled Like A Rock. American Storm has been taken as the first single and is currently making impressive gains up the RPM 100 singles chart after entering at No. 81 (Mar. 8/86).

The Seger album, like his previous release was produced by himself and Punch Andrews. Included are Tightrope, The Aftermath, Sometimes, It's You, Somewhere Tonight, Miami, and The Ring.

Capitol is also readying the release of Absolute Beginners, a soundtrack featuring David Bowie. The title track has been released as the first single. Bowie composed and co-produced this track plus 2 others, with Clive Langer and Alan Winstanley.

Also included on the soundtrack are tracks by Sade, Keith Richards, Paul Weller, Elvis Costello, and Nick Lowe. Bowie, Sade and The Kinks' Ray Davies take starring roles in the movie, which portrays London of 1958 and focusses on that prosperous time. There is no information as to when the film will open in Canada.

Platinum Blonde cracks several U.S. markets

Having already surpassed the 4-times platinum mark in Canada (400,000 units sold), Platinum Blonde's domestic success is finally beginning to filter down into some U.S. markets.

Bruce Barrow, manager of the band, reports that "The Blonde's new single (Somebody, Somewhere), has picked up a lot of interest in the U.S., and is charting at Buffalo and Seattle radio stations."

In order to generate even more interest in the U.S., the band will be playing an industry-only showcase in Buffalo (Mar. 17), and it's hoped they will achieve the same results as when they played Toronto's Nathan Philips Square. The rest is "history."

Barrow says the band will be performing only once in Canada this year - at Expo in Vancouver.

Alien Shores has recently been released in Europe and Japan and Barrow is making plans for the band to play dates in those countries as well.

WHAT SAYS

Newman's back home raising hell!!

The York County Hospital can return to normal once more - they've tossed out one of the worse cases of hell-raising they've ever had. Ron Newman got the gate. The nurses can't count how many times he dropped the bottom of his jammies - even in the hall - during visiting hours. . . . and the language . . . ?? Anyway, Ron is back home at the Marina and "Honey" better watch out - she can't run as fast as she used to. Cards . . . and funny things like dildos, chocolate covered or plain, should be addressed to Ron Newman - The Cooks Bay Marina, 686 Robert St., Keswick, Ont. L4P 1K6.

Big Country gets the shift!!!

Well . . . are we nice people or what? We are shifting the prestigious Big Country Awards Banquet from Sunday Apr. 27 to Sunday May 5th, which is exactly one week later. Some of you may know the reason (EC: We read it already in last week's Country column!!) but I'll give you a hint! It has to do with an event in Nashville on Apr. 26, which has a Canadian bearing and we just couldn't compete with this event. It wouldn't be fair . . . to them! (EC: Now I have to ask how come you didn't KNOW about this event before you announced the date? You've put a lot of us out!!!) Well . . . there you are!!

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

The bible of showbusiness!!!

I've read Variety for as many years as I've been in the business because it gives me a good overview of showbusiness. I was really annoyed, to say the least, at a headline in the Feb. 12th issue that read "Masse Initiates Canadian Policy To Eliminate U.S. Stranglehold." It looked to me as if the headline was written to imply an anti-American attitude on the part of our government against U.S. interest in our cultural industries. I doubt if our Canadian cultural policies are attempting to "eliminate" anything, and I don't believe there is a "stranglehold" to be eliminated. Many have worked for years to create an atmosphere of cooperation while preserving a competitive spirit internationally. Such headlines might just spoil that - and lead to stronger policies that would eliminate this cooperation. The headline was somewhat irresponsible! (EC: I notice you shied away from the term "cub reporter")

Free . . . eer trade anyone??

Contrary to what has been said about Free Trade, there's one Canadian company that's making money on cross-the-border dealings already. Bob Stone, who heads up World Records, way out in the boondocks (Bomanville, Ont.), has been using his "low profile" to good use. He has cultured a large clientele in the U.S. and is realizing so much volume that guess what . . . ?? He's cutting Canadian prices by as much as 20 percent - mostly on singles. What a break that is for the small independent!

Just another little bit!!

Every little bit helps! So, if you want your Cancan aired in Europe, send your releases to Richard Astbury, Radio Riviera 104 S.R.L. Sede: Piazza d'Ami 12, 18030 Camporosso Mare, Imperia, Italy. By the way, he is a real nice guy, who likes Canadians and tells me there are a great many in the Cote d'Azur area. Drop him a line. Mention my name. (EC: Jetsetter!!!)

It's hype time . . . !!!

I can't tell you how pleased I am to get a photo of a gold record presentation with 17, 22, 34 . . . and someday 52 smiling faces . . . to beat the current gold record for staff in a photo presenting a gold record. There is strength in numbers. (EC: There are companies whose staff is smaller!!)

What an impressive panel . . . !!

There I was . . . sitting on a panel with a very distinguished group of (EC: Be careful now!!) adversaries . . . at last week's CIRPA meeting. There were 7 of us . . . and all in the writing game . . . and all after the same advertising buck. Quite frankly having these guys talk about The Do's and Don'ts of Successfully working With The Print Media, was quite interesting. As Metallion's Lenny Stoute kept saying ". . . later . . . honey!! It was like old times. MCA's Leslie Soldat, who was quite impressed with my age, was the moderator and she did a pretty good job of keeping things going - and that was tough, handling such outspoken members of the press like Wilder Penfield, Jim Norris, David

Speaking of age . . . !!

Do you know when I began writing Walt Says? I was browsing through some old (EC: Very old!!) RPM's the other day and there I was . . . something like 22 years ago. I wonder how old Leslie was then!!!

Stalone vs Springsteen . . . ??

I never thought it would come to this - Sylvester Stallone and Bruce Springsteen - both as American as apple pie and motherhood, being at opposite ends of the "Stars and bars" hysteria? Well, this all makes very interesting reading in the April issue of Playboy. The mag's Bill Paige, suggests that author Jack Newfield, "offers a running commentary on the differences between these muscular messiahs of mass culture." Nice to read about a couple of guys, but the real interest begins on page 108, with Miss April!!!

Waltzsmooze!!

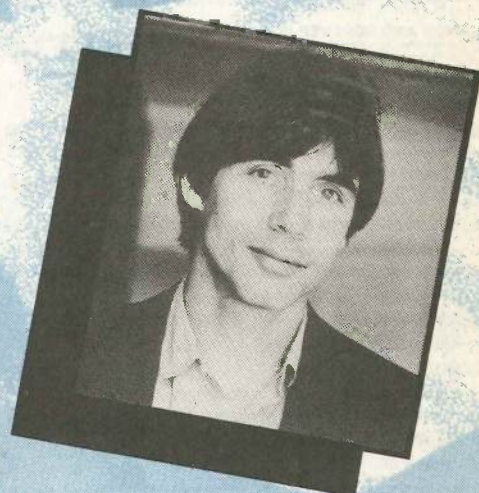

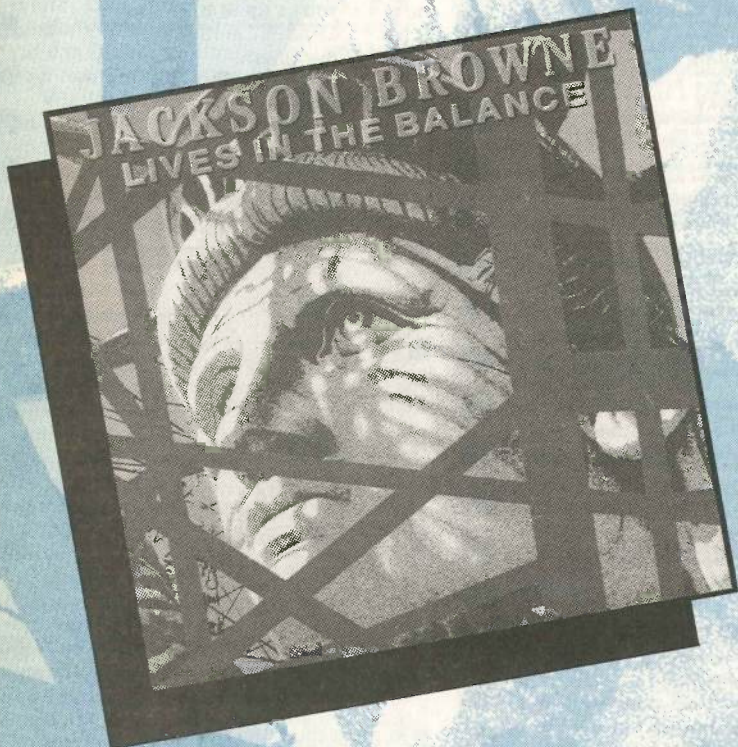

Big celebration at RPM this week - a historic occasion!! (EC: Inside joke!) No one is talking about the big news south of the you-know-what!!! (EC: What would they say?) Many record dealers are waiting for the time when videos are for sale - and really don't want to get into rentals. Forget videos - until further notice!! (EC: Not even a Top 10 chart?)

COVER STORY

Glass Tiger: brass and shuffle brings LP home

The Thin Red Line is the cumulative effort of several of Canada's brightest and most creative talents. The Newmarket, Ont. band employed such notables as Rob Quarty and Champagne Pictures; Deborah Samuel and Heather Brown; as well as producer Jim Vallance. The latter took them on a recording venture that spanned the country from Vallance's own studios in Vancouver, to Le Studio in Quebec's Morin Heights, with additional recording at 5 Toronto studios.

Vocalist Frew explains how their association with Vallance came about: "Capitol Records had wanted to see a bit more development in our arrangement capacity and Jim, being the proverbial songwriter and arranger he is, was initially approached to work with us in that capacity. But on hearing the music, he liked it so much he approached Capitol and asked if he could produce us."

Drummer Hanson stresses the importance of Vallance as well, "He gave us that commercial viability, as well as arranging. He gave us a lot of confidence in the studio to come up with the bits and pieces we needed to complete songs properly. He was also great when it came to providing all the little 'frills' that songs need - all the empty spaces that don't sound right because there's something missing. Jim, somehow always knew what it was."

To which Frew adds: "But he never changed the sound of the band - he just enhanced it."

The first single taken from the LP, Don't Forget Me, was co-written by Vallance and features Bryan Adams on background vocals. "Of all the songs," suggests Frew, "Don't Forget Me was the one that would reach a mass audience immediately."

Hanson points out, "The single has everything, a brilliant melody, lyrics that everybody can understand - it's got brass, the shuffle, and it's very tempting."

Interestingly enough, when discussing the video for the single, which was completed by Champagne, Hanson says the track "broke away from the norm, as far as songwriting goes. It's more of a pop tune - so, when we did the video we were stuck in between being too 'poppy' and, of course, the song makes no statement what-so-ever - so, we couldn't make a real deep substance video for the song. It doesn't completely go with the continuity that runs throughout the album, but it does stand out as a definite

Honeymoon Suite firm Western dates

Currently in Europe, WEA's Honeymoon Suite are readying their return to Canada to play 7 dates through the West. The tour begins in Brandon (Mar. 23) followed by Winnipeg (24), Regina (25), Saskatoon (27), Lethbridge (28), and Calgary (29).

No eastern tour plans have been announced at press time, but it's expected they will begin an American tour, swinging through Ontario and Quebec. Opening their dates will be Capitol's Glass Tiger.

The album cover was designed by Heather Brown, with Deborah Samuel and Dale Heslip credited with providing the concept. "We just wanted a cover that wasn't too North American," explains Frew. Hanson elaborates, "We wanted to come up with something really international looking."

Hanson maintains "The 'glass' in Glass Tiger represents the more love-song side of the band, and the 'tiger' the more aggressive and creative side. What's really interesting," he continues, "is the thin red line which cuts the two - the glass and the tiger portion of the band (on the album cover) is also the song that is in between. It has a commercial melody and at the same time it is a very creative piece."

When replying to the question of whether they considered themselves a pop band, Hanson says, "no we're definitely not in that category. There are some parts of some songs that sound 'pop' but they were intended to sound that way." Also, he emphasizes, "We're just a little more creative than a 'pop' band. There is a lot of substance to our music. Songs like Vanishing Tribe and

RECORDS TO RADIO

Cats Can Fly and so can CBS

CBS Records, Canada

Phones and cash registers haven't stopped ringing for the last 6 weeks. Radio station DJ's speculate on whether some feline creatures really do have wings. And four brilliant musicians from Toronto, wing to the top of CHR and AOR charts across the country. It's a phenomenon called Cats Can Fly, the name of a group and of an incredible debut album, and it all started with a single called Flippin' to the A Side. What better way for CBS to begin 1986, than with its feet off the ground?

Joining the Cats in making Canada (and CBS) proud, is Bruce Cockburn, charting heavily with World Of Wonders, and its first hard-hitting single, People See Through You. Bruce's nationwide tour has already begun, to crowded houses and leaping record sales everywhere. Down south, another tour is in progress, as Loverboy shows the flag on the American circuit. The band hints they would like to tour Canada in the late spring or early summer.

By this time, it's no secret that the Rolling Stones have gathered no moss on their long and exciting career - and Harlem Shuffle, immediately closed across the board at radio, offers a tantalizing glimpse of their Ancient Evenings are proof that we're not a 'pop' band."

The songwriting responsibilities are handled by the various band members. Hanson explains, "We combine the creative influences of all 5 members - and if we're not satisfied totally with a song - then we'll throw it out, which probably accounts for the fact that we only had about 15 or 16 songs going into the studio. We're more interested in quality of the product than quantity."

Fully aware of the task ahead, Frew points out that the band "has to get very disciplined. It's a matter of being able to write under pressure and under situations that aren't really normal. Obviously, we'll be touring and we'll have to do a major part of our writing on the road for the next album, but we're prepared for that." He concludes with "The pressure will get a little more intense, but we're a pressure band - we enjoy it and we're looking forward to it."

A strong indication of Glass Tiger's potential is that fact that ex-Styx manager, Derek Sutton came out of retirement in Los Angeles to handle the band's international management affairs.

Late press news has The Thin Red Line being released on the Manhattan label in the U.S. (Apr. 13). Glass Tiger have been slated to open Honeymoon Suite's western tour, beginning Mar. 23.

first LP for CBS, Dirty Work, due for release in late March. Elvis Costello opens his heart to old and new fans alike with Please Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood, while offering one of his finest albums in recent years, King Of America. Both LP and single have been well-received at radio.

Not only has the Rocky IV soundtrack been a treasure trove of hit singles, it has also been the inspiration for two new CBS signings: James Brown, godfather of soul, blasted back to the charts with the funky Living In America, and plans to continue his comeback with a solo LP for CBS later in the year. And Robert Tepper's soulful No Easy Way Out, gaining ground at CHR and AOR, will be the title track of a new solo LP, due for release in late March.

Those Aussies are at it again, too! This month they give the land Up Over a Mental As Anything knockout LP, Fundamental; and a new Eurogliders album Absolutely.

ALSO THIS MONTH

Ozzy Osbourne's Ultimate Sin takes an atomic launch up trade charts both here and in the States...the classiest lady in England, Sade, celebrates a very successful European tour and a Canadian platinum Promise LP...European powerhouse Jennifer Rush gains a new Canadian following with her self-titled debut LP...ELO (Calling America), The Bangles (Manic Monday) and Miami Sound Machine (Conga) conquer CHR the moment they're released...

And this is only the beginning. Watch for new releases this spring from Bonnie Tyler, Journey and Philip Bailey, as well as the great Aerosmith compilation - Classic Live.

C-FAX on the busses

C-FAX morning man, Barry Bowman, accompanied by a Dixieland band and a lady in a tuxedo, took his show on-board a Victoria bus as a major part of an annual seat sale by the transit system. During the 3-day promotion, ridership was up some 30 percent from the normal traffic volume. It was the third annual Bowman Bus promotion, a cooperative venture of C-FAX Radio and B.C. Transit.

Brockville's CFJR celebrates 60th birthday

On April 1, 1986, CFJR of Brockville, Ont., will celebrate 60 years of broadcasting. Although the call letters were changed to CFJR in 1950, the station is actually one of the oldest continuously operated broadcasting stations in Canada.

Using the call letters CFLC, which stood for Canada's Finest Little Community, the station first commenced operating in Prescott, Ont. on April 1, 1926. At that time, radio had only been invented 6 years prior. The new station began transmitting on 50 watts of power.

It wasn't until 1942 when the station increased its power to 100 watts with a move to Brockville and 6 months after this move the station changed its call letters to CFBR.

In February of 1945 CFBR moved into the Revere Hotel and in October the following year the power was increased to 250 watts. The station was bought by Jack Murray in December of that year and the call letters were changed to CJFM.

The station celebrated its 21st anniversary in 1947 and Jack R. Radford, who left the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to return to private broadcasting, assumed ownership. He gave up active control of the station in 1963 and his son, John A. Radford, became owner and Managing Director. It was during Jack Radford's tenure as owner when the station, marking its 33rd anniversary in 1959, increased its power to 1,000 watts which allowed it to serve a wider area of Leeds and Grenville counties.

CFJR moved to its present location on June 15, 1968, and in 1972 began broadcasting 24 hours a day.

Douglas Radford, the third generation Radford, joined the station in August of 1980 where he holds the position of General Manager.

It was in December of 1984 when CFJR increased its power to 5,000 watts, but in order to do so, had to move to 830 on the AM dial. The move was made on Sept. 19 of last year.

Southside release for Australia's Wickety Wak

Billed as "Australia's zaniest performers", Wickety Wak, a 5-piece band that ventures into rock, pop, and any other music form that might hit them during their performances, are now on release in Canada. The release was negotiated through a deal with Paul Ewart of Hot Wax, their Australian company and Paul Clinch of the Toronto-based Southside Records.

Initial release in Canada is Moonlight Marvels which has been taken from their New Horizons album, to be released this summer. The band's Second Helpings album, became a hit in Australia last year.

Clinch expects the band to tour North America this year, but confides that negotiations are "still underway" for a release in the U.S., after which a tour would be likely.

Celebrating their tenth year in the business, Wickety Wak comprises Greg Doolan (lead guitar and vocals), Tony Jeffrey (lead vocals and sax), Pani Gilbert (bass and vocals), Robbie Rosenlund (keyboards and vocals), and Peter Mackay (drums, school fife and vocals). The band is described as "The biggest permanent production of any group in Australia. They tour with $65,000 worth of costumes, 5 permanent road crew, $100,000 worth of sound and lighting equipment, and they have their own management, offices and rehearsal complex.

Wayne King - The Sunshine Boy

Besides posing for the Toronto Sun as their Sunshine Boy, Wayne King has been busy with club dates. He has teamed with Jamie Snider of the Wonderful Grand Band fame and is now playing the Red Cloud Lounge at the Black Hawk Motor Inn in Richmond Hill, Ont. This is for an indefinite run and it will give him a chance to prepare a band for recording and touring. Wayne was seen on CBC-TV's Country West (Mar. 1) performing his last single, Round Up Time.

Eastman caps Western tour

Eddie Eastman has just returned to Ontario after a successful tour of Western Canada. He is presently being booked by the Mercey Brothers Talent Agency of Elmira, Ont. Eddie's latest single, The Winning Side, which he co-produced with Gilles Godard, has been receiving heavy airplay, particularly in the west. The single was taken from his Winning Side album.

Ferriman to manage Anita & Tim

Brian Ferriman has taken on the management chores for Anita Perras and Tim Taylor. The husband and wife team are currently on release with their Tailspin single, Something Good (Is Gonna Come Of This), a Taylor original, produced at Toronto's Inception Sound by Mike Francis. Both Anita and Tim also release as solo artists.

Whiskey Jack signs with In-Tune

Whiskey Jack, who release on the Master Disc label, have signed a management agreement with the Guelph, Ont.-based In Tune Management & Consulting firm. In Tune also has Nashville offices. Whiskey Jack scored well on country charts the latter part of last year with Fiddlin' Man which peaked at No. 16 on the RPM Country 60 (Feb 1/86) after a run of 10 weeks.

Mercey Bros move on new single

The latest single from the Mercey Brothers, Take A Little Chance On Love, is beginning to indicate a pattern of success across the country. The single is already in CFGM's

Nashville Network gives nod to Haverland

Richard Sturtridge, who handles management for Kelita Haverland, writes "The Pink Lady is hot. Kelita's ground breaking career continues to be an exciting mix of recording, live performance and television." He concludes with "Obviously Canada's Pink Lady will be too hot to handle in 1986."

Haverland was the subject of a Nashville Network special, Wrap Around Nashville (Mar. 2). Nashville Network goes into 24 million homes in North America. The special featured Haverland's live album showcase at The Old Scotch in Calgary and then paid a nostalgic visit to the ranch where she grew up, in Claresholm, Alberta.

Coming up for Haverland is her guest hosting of Country West (Mar. 22). Guesting on this show will be Joe Aylward, Ruth Ann and Terry Carisse.

Haverland's Too Hot To Handle tour was launched at a sold-out date (Feb. 22) at Calgary's My Place. Included in her 5-piece band are guitarist David Hamilton and guitarist/vocalist Wray Ellis. New material from Haverland's next album, as well as her past releases are being used on the show. She also did a series of shows with Ray Sawyer from Dr. Hook and Hoyt Axton.

The Too Hot To Handle album has been put on hold, in view of the interest shown by several major and independent labels. The first single will be I've Been Alonesome. Her debut video will accompany the single.

Top 10. The station's Music Director, Gary O'Brien, realized the potential of this track and carted it from the album. The Mercey Bros. are currently rehearsing and working in new members John Dymond and Eric Mahar. Penny Perkins, who handles promotion for the MBS label says, "The new Mercey sound is going to be awesome." Her reason for saying this is that Lloyd Mercey has new drums - Roland Electronic. Penny also reports there's a possibility of a couple of one-niters for the band in the Toronto area. Dates will be announced when they are firm-ed.

Chairman releases Van Dyke single
The Chairman label, based in Kitchener, Ont. has released the latest single from Vickie van Dyke & Palamino, entitled One Heart Down. The single, written by van Dyke and Roger Honeywood, was produced by Gord Heins at the Cedartree Studio in Kitchener. The Palamino band is made up of Honeywood on electric guitar; guitarist Michael Given; Brian Arsenault on bass; and drummer David Foltz. Rick Hutt and Lloyd Walker engineered the session. This single is the band's follow-up to I'd Rather Go To Hell With You. Says Vickie, "Don't worry, this one's a lot tamer."

More Cancon from Kansas

Frank Fara who heads up the Comstock label of Shawnee, Kansas, adds to his Cancon country roster with 2 more single releases. Danny Jones, a singer/truck driver from the Maritimes, gets 4-points Cancon (MAPL) with his release, You've Got That Love. This Brown original was produced at Solar and Prime Time Studio in Halifax. Says Frank, "This is traditional country at its best." From the other side of the country, Vancouver native, Marty Gillan, debuts on the Comstock label with his original, I'm Never Gonna Let You Go. This single, which qualifies as 3-parts Cancon (MAL), was produced in Nashville at Chelsea Studio by Patty Parker.

Carroll Baker, backed by the Pauze Family, donated her talent to the 37th annual Lions Club Telethon in Sudbury. Pledges totalling more than $102,000 were made as the show was aired on Mid-Canada's CICI-TV and the MCTV network stations.

Philip Glass is speaking in a new musical language.

For the first time in his multi-faceted career, Glass has chosen to express himself through the most basic musical form; the song. On Songs From Liquid Days, he rethinks it, re-shapes it and creates a completely new idea of what a song can be. The result is an extraordinary new album with six distinctively brilliant works of collaborative artistry.

These songs are the genius of Philip Glass flowing through a superstar ensemble of lyricists: David Byrne, Laurie Anderson, Suzanne Vega and Paul Simon...crafted by vocal stylists: Linda Ronstadt, The Roches, Bernard Fowler, Douglas Perry and Janice Pendarvis.

Songs From Liquid Days is one of the most important new albums of the year; not only for its departure from traditional music-making, but, for its daring new approach.

On CBS Records, chrome Cassettes and Compact Discs.
