De-Reg World, Wk. Two: Jacor Pays $774 Million For Citicasters

While SFX Acquires Prism For $105 Million

The ink of President Clinton's signature on the new telecom bill had hardly dried, yet the anticipated corporate buying frenzy shifted straight into overdrive with Jacor's purchase of Citicasters, Inc. for $774 million.

It's the second major purchase by Jacor in two weeks. Last week, it increased its group from 22 to 35 stations with the purchase of Noble. Now, with Citicasters' 19 stations, Jacor's new kingdom is 54 outlets. The approximate cost of the shopping spree: $926 million.

"This acquisition delivers strong management, comparable culture and incomparable synergies," Jacor President Randy Michaels states. "No other purchase could deliver the immediate operational symmetry to Jacor that Citicasters provides. This deal significantly enhances existing Jacor operations in Tampa, Cincinnati and Atlanta, while delivering formidable pre-assemblies in Columbus, Portland and Sacramento, in addition to WKRC-TV Cincinnati and WTSP-TV Tampa.

"This deal delivers on every level, from natural market alignment to superior management depth, while providing a wonderful foundation for creative swaps and marketplace re-engineering."

Translation: Expect Jacor to be more selective in the future, acquiring outlets in specific markets where it isn't a major player, either through acquisition or by swapping one station for another.

As it is, Jacor is a veritable 800-lb. gorilla in several markets. In Tampa, it now controls six stations that generate almost 29% of the market's billing. Its five stations in Columbus attract 37% of the billing. It pulls in over 20% of the market's revenue in Atlanta, Portland, Jacksonville and Toledo. Its greatest presence, by far, is in Cincinnati, where its four FMs and two AMs comprise almost 62% of the market's total billing.

Michaels is reported to have brought Citicasters' Dave Crowl and Nick Miller to the enlarged company. Those same reports also note that certain consolidation cutbacks are inevitable. Some tab the cost savings to be in the millions.

But Jacor wasn't the only radio group to join the once-unattainable 50-station club. SFX Broadcasting has acquired Prism Radio's 16-station, five-market group for $105.25 million. Prism had three stations in Louisville and Wichita, four each in Jacksonville and Tucson and two in Raleigh.

All told, SFX now controls 51 stations in 16 markets. "This is an excellent group of stations and is totally complementary to our operating strategy," states SFX President/CEO R. Steven Hicks. "By adding the two Raleigh stations to our other two pending Raleigh station acquisitions, we will have almost a quarter audience share in this growing market. Additionally, we'll be adding duopolies in Jacksonville and Tucson and three stations each in Louisville and Wichita."

"This is a wonderful time to be in the radio business, and with the passage of the Telecommunications Act, we see only expanding opportunities ahead," declares SFX Exec. Chairman Robert F.X. Sillerman. "Our prudent, but aggressive acquisition plans have positioned our company in the forefront of radio station owners. With this broad and diverse market ownership, we will be able to achieve even greater efficiencies, creating strong bottom-line results."

Tom Zutaut Starts New Enclave With EMI-Capitol

Leyla Turkkan Appointed To Sr. A&R Post At New Label

Tom Zutaut, renowned A&R exec, debuted his own full-service record company called The Enclave. The President/CEO of the EMI-Capitol-distributed label also announced the hiring of Leyla Turkkan to a senior A&R position.

Zutaut chose the label's unique name to reflect its philosophy and purpose as a safe haven for artists where they will be supported in a nurturing and congenial environment. The label will be based in New York.

Zutaut earned his stripes as an A&R executive at Elektra Records (where he signed Motley Crue and Dokken) and Geffen Records (where he signed Guns 'N' Roses, Enya, Veruca Salt, Elastica and Edie Brickell And The New Bohemians). Turkkan was most recently Exec. VP/GM for TAG Recordings, an Atlantic Group label. Prior to that, she accrued considerable publicity experience at Columbia Records and the independent Set To Run P.R.

"Leyla's extensive experience, aggressive work ethic and broad knowledge of music make her the perfect person to launch our A&R department. Leyla has excelled in both A&R and public relations—succeeded both inside the corporate structure and independently—so she knows how all the pieces fit together."

Sony Music And Boyz II Men Form New Label

Stonecreek Recordings To Be Based Out Of Philadelphia

Sony Music Entertainment President/COO Thomas D. Mottola and members of multi-Platinum Pop/R&B act Boyz II Men—Nathan Morris, Michael McCary, Shawn Stockman and Wanya Morris—have formed a label venture called Stonecreek Recordings.

Based in Philadelphia, where Boyz II Men have a recording studio of the same name, Stonecreek Recordings will be funded and distributed by Sony Music and marketed and promoted through the Columbia Music Group, Epic Records Group and associated labels, depending on the direction and sensibilities of each artist.

“Boyz II Men, over the course of just two studio albums, have established new standards of excellence for vocal groups from all walks of music,” states Thomas D. Mottola. “Any company would welcome the opportunity to work professionally and personally with Nate, Mike Shawn and Wanya as writers, producers and developers of new talent. For me, this is one of the most exciting artist development projects that I’ve been privileged to be involved with.”

The group will continue to record for Motown. Now they’ll also act as producers for other new and established Sony Music recording artists, as well as oversee A&R, production and marketing activities for Stonecreek.

“We’re extremely excited about the opportunity to work with Tommy Mottola and all of the labels at Sony Music,” states Nathan Morris. “From the beginning of our talks, they have shared and supported our vision. The success we’ve enjoyed as performers has been tremendous, but we’ve always been focused on both working with great artists and developing new talent. This new label, with Sony Music’s marketing and distribution teams, is the perfect vehicle for us to bring our creative talents to the forefront, while also providing a home for gifted artists.”

“When artists have shown the kind of depth, versatility and creative instincts that Boyz II Men have demonstrated over the past five years, it’s a natural evolution to expand their pursuits into other musical projects,” notes Columbia Records Group Chairman Don Ienner. “They are proven winners and it’s going to be tremendously exciting to be associated with this new venture.”

“Boyz II Men will be an incredible talent source and will help shape the direction of music into the ’90s,” adds Epic Records Group Chairman David Glew. “Epic is extremely excited to have the opportunity to share in the talent they will discover and develop.”

Danny Ostrow Joins Trauma

Named Promotion Head Of SoCal Label

Promotion veteran Danny Ostrow has joined the Sherman Oaks, CA-based Trauma Records as head of radio promotion.

The two-year-old Alternative label is headed up by Paul Palmer and Rob Kahane. Ostrow previously served as VP Pop Promotion at American Recordings for a year-and-a-half and was Director of Promotion for three years at PLG.

“Paul [Palmer] and I are extremely excited about Danny joining our team,” states Rob Kahane. “His experience and energy are hard to find.”

“Trauma is the kind of company we all want to be with,” Ostrow says. “It’s not often that a promo guy gets the opportunity to work with a company with co-Presidents as well-rounded as Paul Palmer and Rob Kahane. I’m very excited about what they built at Trauma and look forward to being a bright part of their future.”

Currently linked with Interscope Records, Trauma boasts a small but successful roster that includes the multi-Platinum British band Bush, the just-breaking Orange County, CA group No Doubt, the Phoenix Punk/Hip-Hop troupe Phunk Junkiez and Latin Pop balladeer Louis Cordero.

Evergreen Renews Dance WKTU

Evergreen officially flipped Country WYNY to “Pop Rhythm” WKTU on Saturday, Feb. 10. Although no names of the programming team have been officially named, the likely PD of the new station is former Z100 and The BOX programmer Frankie Blue.

“The New WKTU” debuted at noon on Saturday, with a format that recalled the Disco heritage WKTU of the ’70s. Although Blue resigned from his post at The BOX last week, Evergreen has yet to announce his hiring as PD. They did name KIOI San Francisco GSM John Bassenelli Director of Sales and ex-WFAN/WINS Sales Manager Scott Elberg as GSM. The first air staff hiring has also been announced: long-time Z100 personality Jo Jo Morales.

Still to be announced: WKTU’s GM and MD. For a crosstown perspective on WKTU’s arrival, please see Emmis VP Programming Rick Cummings’ interview in Around The Dial on page 12.

Start Spreading The News...

The Big Apple is jumping. Try some of these on for size:

WYNY officially made the switch at noon Saturday (2/10) after teasing New Yorkers for days. The new format is called "Pop Rhythm." The new call letters are WKTU. For those of you who don't remember, those belonged to the Big Apple's #1 station in the '70s...Disco 92. Frankie Blue leaves The BOX to take over as PD. Names in the hat for the future air staff: Bill Lee, Jo Jo Morales and Hollywood Hamilton.

The plot thickens around Z100 PD Steve Kingston. Will the new owners of Z100 (Chancellor Broadcasting) make Steve an offer he can't refuse? Will he cross the street and man the helm at Infinity's K-Rock? Will he leave radio and take that record job that's being dangled? Stay tuned.

WPLJ's Scott Shannon was busy in Atlanta interviewing PD candidates for two of the stations he consults. Has he added WAKX Grand Rapids?

In a shocking development...WPLJ's Mike Preston will not be rumored on this page for a job outside New York.

Hotlanta

The Gavin convention in Atlanta brought out the best of our business. Check the Picture Pages for an up-close look at your favorite geeks. And speaking of geeks, all you need to do is look at this week's Page 6 picture.

Ahmet Ertegun was one of the convention highlights. If you missed his rap, get the vibe from this week's Editorial.

What were KWIN Stockton MD Mark Medina and KHTN Modesto PD Pete Jones talking about?

What consultant made a fool of himself at the A/C dinner?

Will any of the conversations Profile's Cary Vance had result in a move?

Did Columbia's Jerry Blair really dislocate his shoulder playing basketball...or was a programmer twisting his arm for a promotion? Also placed on injured reserve: Lee Leipsner with a broken toe.

Did anyone miss the great Elektra buffet before the Tracy Chapman concert?

The Oscar for the best performance by a group singing for their dinner goes to The Corrs at the fabulous Atlantic party at the City Grill.

Best performance by a group singing a cappella to programmers goes to Universal Records' Intrigue.

The Oscar for biggest fool went to Hollywood's John Fagot, who edged new WQSM Fayetteville PD Dave Stone and WRHT Greenville PD J.T. Bosch.

And Say Goodbye?

What's up with KIIS Los Angeles PD Steve Perun? R&R last week printed that Perun had resigned. Not true. Steve is still sitting in the PD chair. Will he opt to leave soon? Possibly. Did R&R print the story because Tony Novia wants the gig if Steve leaves and becomes KIIS' consultant? What about KHKS Dallas PD John Cook?

Rick Dees signed a multi-year deal that will keep him waking up Los Angeles through the year 2000. The Chrome Lizard hears that the deal is worth between four and five million dollars a year.

Penguin Pays

Darren Eggleston (former Network 40 Penguin and L.A. Epic local) moves to Maverick as Head of Rock Promotion.

MCA

MCA Records President Jay Boberg has begun reshaping the label. GM Randy Miller was released last week. Word has it that Abbey Konowitch will be moving into that office. Meanwhile, RCA VP Promotion Skip Bishop resigned to become Sr. VP Promotions at MCA. Even though Skip's

RCA contract is said to run through August, is his replacement being sought "within the building" to prepare for an earlier departure?

Where does this leave Mark Gorlick? Even though MCA is seeking to keep Mark in place, are there two other record companies with firm offers should those negotiations fail.

Ins And Outs

The new PD at KMXV Kansas City is Jon Zellner from KTHH Fresno.

Despite word otherwise, KGGI Riverside PD Bob Lewis has not hired Michael Steele as MD.

Forget about that PD opening in Dubuque. Look for KLYV interim PD Jeff Andrews to remain in charge.

Lori Rischer Backus is the new Island Boston local rep.

WQSM Fayetteville MD Dave Stone has been upped to PD.

The new PD at WPLY Philadelphia is John Knapp from WMRQ Hartford.

WKCI New Haven PD Steve Wilson is out. No replacement has been named.

WFLY Albany MD Shawn Scott has left the building.

Heritage Media assumed ownership of WWST/WMYU Knoxville from Jacor Broadcasting and immediately relieved OM Jim Richards and PD Todd Shannon of their duties. WWST named Ron Geronimo interim PD. Ditto WMYU with Hollywood Hendrix.

WAKX Grand Rapids ups Marc Hunter to MD.

WNTQ Syracuse PD Dave Edwards has been promoted to OM. Sister station WMME Augusta PD Tom Mitchell assumes Edwards' duties at WNTQ. WMME MD Jay Kramer is bumped to PD.

Have You Heard...

Is WFZB New Orleans contemplating a flip to Country?

Is KKSS Albuquerque PD Roy Jaynes moving to Baltimore?

Is an upstate New York PD about to make a move to a record label? And is the MD at the same station looking for a place to live in Dallas?

Is Epic's Dale Connone contemplating a move to "The Chamber" in Atlanta as chief whipping boy?

AMEN, AHMET

Commentary by Gerry Cagle

He was sitting in a chair, leaning forward slightly, elbows on his knees. The spotlights illuminated the stage, casting the hundreds of people in the audience in the large convention room into darkness. If he was bothered by the attention, you certainly couldn't tell. Politically incorrect, but turning it into the opposite by the mere fact that he did it, he lit a cigarette, took a sip of water and turned the big hall of strangers into a living room full of close friends.

"I was about 13 or 14 years old when I first went to New York." His gravelly voice cut through the microphone, causing the audience to move toward the edge of their seats...ears straining to pick up every word...eyes watching for the slightest nuance. "They dropped me off at a movie theater by myself and promised to return in a couple of hours to pick me up. I waited until they turned the corner, then hailed a cab and told the driver to take me to Harlem."

The blonde sitting beside me nudged me hard in the ribs. "Ain't Ahmen cool?" she whispered in a hiss loud enough to be heard three rows back.

I acknowledged her with a nod. I didn't have the heart or desire to tell her his name wasn't Ahmen. It would have taken too long and she probably wouldn't have cared one way or the other. I had no idea who she was or why she was sitting in the first row, listening to Ahmet Ertegun, Co-Chairman and founder of Atlantic Records, as he was addressing an assembled multitude who had come to hear a sermon on the mount.

She was stunningly attractive in a bubblegum sort of way...short blonde hair teased as only women in the South can manage...rouge...bright red lipstick...long eyelashes and fake fingernails that matched the lips. She was dressed in vogue (whatever that is), in a see-through white top that tucked into a black dress with white polka-dots. One dark nylon-encased leg crossed the other at the knee, rocking back and forth in time with the gum she kept popping in her teeth.

I felt the need to tell her to pay attention...to cherish the moment...that she was in the presence of a true legend...but she was too young to know or care. But evidently not as naive as I initially thought. I would see her at the bar at two o'clock the next morning, having drinks with the man who was speaking.

The legend lives on.

"I wound up in a place similar to the Cotton Club sitting by one of the show girls. I introduced myself to the band leader and they thought I was something. Here I was, a young white boy, who knew as much about the music as those who were playing. Hell, I had all their records."

A quick time out for a puff, a sip of water and he continued with his story. "After the show, they invited me back to a rent party at one of member's apartments. Someone was playing the piano, another singing, others joining in on assorted instruments and the next thing you know, I had a drink in my hand."

*"He told me
drinking was bad for me, took the
handed me a reefer!"*

He cleared his throat...not that it made any difference. The rasp that is his voice was unaffected. "I was getting hammered when one of the guys who knew my uncle came up and said, 'What's that in your hand?' I informed him that it was scotch. He told me drinking was bad for me, took the glass away and handed me a reefer."

The crowd roared, giving him time to light another smoke.

In an industry quick to hang the mantle of "legend" on almost anyone who has a couple of good ratings books or signs a hit act, Ahmet Ertegun redefines the term.

To put it in perspective, when compared against his accomplishments, the rest pale in comparison. Forget pale...become invisible.

So you've signed a couple of acts who've sold a few million records...and think you're happening? Get over it.

Ahmet found acts who became so famous they're known universally by their first names. Like Otis and Aretha.

While others mined the caves of New York (the ones he had already stripped), he discovered Muscle Shoals and made it legendary with recordings by Wilson Pickett and Percy Sledge.

Is there another person who could make this statement: "The only two people who could be described by the term 'genius' in the 20th century are Louie Armstrong and Pablo Picasso. Everything anyone has done since in music or art they got, in part, from the influence of these two." Louie and Pablo...only Ahmet could pull that off.

Ahmet is truly one of a kind. He's done it all...with a passion and style unmatched in our business. And, he had fun doing it.

You know what else? He still does.

Here's a guy who almost lived with Mick Jagger for a year-and-a-half to get The Rolling Stones on Atlantic Records, then once the deal was done, he laughingly told Mick not to call him anymore...he had his name on the contract.

Here's a guy whose diverse musical tastes allowed him to sign Ray Charles and Led Zepplin. Talk about a reach!

It's all well and good to memorialize his accomplishments, but as Ahmet is quick to point out, he ain't done yet. Ask him how old he is and he'll tell you time is immaterial. It's not where you've been, but where you're going.

Young at heart? You bet. And in the flesh. A lot of people decades younger than Ahmet were left bruised and battered in his wake in Atlanta. You think he needs that cane to walk? Not a chance. It's to shove aside the fallen bodies as he makes his way to another mystical place that is changed from the ordinary by his mere presence.

Ahmet Ertegun is epitomized by the company he founded...a company that defines diversity in Alternative, Rhythm & Blues, Rock, Rap, Jazz, Classical, Pop and everything in between. It's all music to Ahmet.

It is impossible to describe Ahmet Ertegun in ordinary terms because he isn't an ordinary person. His accomplishments are certainly extraordinary. Yet, the very thing that makes Ahmet special is that he is ordinary in the most exquisite sense of the word. He loves music. From a listener's perspective, not as an icon. He's a fan.

To know him is to love him. To know him is to learn from him.

We should all be so lucky.

Ahmet Ertegun. He's so cool. ▾ to get all the "F words" out, and they just went nuts. They were convinced we got the record first, which wasn't true.

AROUND THE DIAL

That's not an issue with us because we don't listen to The Beat. We don't listen to KIIS. We don't pay attention to that B.S.; we do pay attention to our audience. That's a fundamental reason why we do well. We could care less what the others do. I just want to be at the top of my game, and I want our stations to be at the top of their game. The people around me feel the same way, and that's why we do well.

Over the past few weeks, Hot 97 and Kiss have seen the transformation of WXRK to Alternative K-Rock and, more recently, WYNY flip to Adult Dance WKTU. How are Emmis' stations responding to them?

I can only speculate about this, because Steve Smith is in charge of the New York stations. But I have it on good authority that you won't hear any pissing-match liners on the air about WKTU, Z100 or anyone else, for that matter. It's not that we don't have egos. Our egos are probably as big as anyone else's. We just don't think our audience gives a damn about that stuff. If we focus on what our audience wants from our stations, we'll pretty much be unassailable. When we aren't focusing on that, that's when we get beat.

I'm not going to say we haven't listened to WKTU and are going to ignore their presence in the marketplace, but if we thought that was a compelling format for 1996, we would've been doing it. We don't think it is; we think it's a second-tier performing format.

Again, we're not going to run liners about anyone else; we just don't play that game. It's more important for us to tell our huge cume audience, "Here's why you ought to keep coming back, here's why we're relevant to you." We're not just saying why we're important, but we're showing them. You've got to deliver the goods. That's what we're particularly good at...and that's what Steve's the best at.

It goes to this extent: I heard Steve won an industry award last weekend. I probably talked to him seven times over that weekend about his stations—and the award never came up. I'm not sure he even found out about it. That's his focus, and that's why he'll continue to win in New York.

We've already decided how to respond to all these changes—not just WKTU, but the corresponding reaction at Z100. (I heard they started playing La Bouche and other Dance records again.) How do we respond to all that stuff? We don't. All we care about is squeezing another quarter-hour from our core audience and raising our talent level, performance-wise, to our core audience.

After quickly rocketing to the top, Kiss' initial buzz has faded in the ratings. What can Steve and you do to rekindle the initial excitement?

We all knew that both stations would come back to earth. Hot 97 also experienced a settling-in process. However, we feel we haven't scratched the surface in a number of areas yet.

"If you put out a really entertaining product every day, when the guys down the street do knock-offs of it, you still keep your core audience because you've earned their loyalty by doing things for their community and you've touched them emotionally."

We don't think we totally own our musical position yet. It hasn't been fully explained and capitalized upon.

We haven't penetrated the personality spectrum as well as we can. We identified that about six months ago; our personalities still have to grow some more and be marketed more effectively.

The third piece is the community. We haven't built the community loyalty yet. Kiss may not be a brand new station, but the product is fairly new. There's a natural progression for the community stuff. That can't all be done on day one; it's accomplished over time. I know Steve has plans set for the next 18 months that will make inroads in all those areas.

That's how we want to be everywhere—at our Oldies station in Indianapolis, at Power in L.A. and at both stations in New York. Ultimately, if you put out a really entertaining product every day, when the guys down the street do knock-offs of it, you still keep your core audience because you've earned their loyalty by doing things for their community and you've touched them emotionally. We're still in the process of accomplishing that at Kiss. So while we expected our numbers to drop, we're confident that those numbers will come back.

Finally, with de-regulation now the law of the land and Jacor kicking off what promises to be a corporate buying frenzy with a billion-dollar spending spree, what's the braintrust at Emmis contemplating?

(Laughs) Well, sometimes we look at each other and wonder, "Do we still have a braintrust at Emmis?" To be honest, it has been a little frustrating. We've taken runs at some things, but it just hasn't happened for us. We're not under any kind of illusion. De-regulation does some great things for companies that want to grow, but it also drives the price up. There's not going to be any bargain basement deals out there that we want. We're going to have to pay retail-plus, and we're prepared to do that. For whatever reason, the deals have yet to be made.

Now I'm not the deal-maker; Jeff Smulyan is. I do talk with him daily and I know he has been chasing a number of deals. I still think you'll hear us do something. I don't know what scale it will be, whether it's a single station or a group of stations. I do know that the feeling within the company is that we need to grow in the next six months to a year. That is a goal, to grow smartly and in the right direction.

Not only will doing that raise the price of our stock, but we have a bottleneck of great people ready to move up. They've been stifled; we've seen the quality of their work drop a bit because they're ready to do bigger and better things. Unless we can grow, they'll have to stay in place.

Even today, I don't know where Mr. Smulyan is, although I do know he's not in Indianapolis. He's out, trying to cut a deal. And when he does, you'll hear about it.

WGRD PD Allan Fee is a motivator. His extensive radio background runs from programming KISM Bellingham, KFBQ Cheyenne and KLYV Dubuque to being the Executive Producer of Mancow's morning show at WRCX Chicago. His aggressive and positive approach brings out the best in everyone he comes in contact with—which was quickly borne out in the Fall book.

"WGRD is a mass-appeal, hit-based '90s station that best reflects the lifestyle and attitude of West Michigan. Our target demo is 18-34 adults, but we reach well beyond both sides of the demo. WGRD is in touch with the audience and, by far, the most visibly active station in the market.

"Our morning show joined WGRD a few months back after leading the market for nine years at the competition, and we are already enjoying tremendous results. Rick, Darla & Scott have already helped us take top honors in morning-drive. They know the market well and are very in-tune with their audience. As Music Director, LeeAnn Curtis has a great feel for the market and the attitude of West Michigan. She has great ears, is a major-market personality and has been a major player in the station's continued growth. I hit the gas pedal for the afternoon rush hour. I try to bring excitement and energy at the end of the day, with concert reports, ski information and 'GRD news. That means listeners head home, knowing what's going on in West Michigan. At night, Tim Bronson does 'The Night Thing,' a massive musical feast with the newest of New Rock, featuring songs by local bands and a deep involvement in the area concert scene. Tim also lives the lifestyle of the audience and is very focused on winning. The insomnia's best friend is in residence at WGRD. Beau is phone-intensive and is very in-touch with his audience. He is a solid talent and has a tremendous knowledge of the format. Locally, Mark Sandstedt has wired the station into the music scene and has helped our image and the street presence.

"Promotionally, WGRD is tops in the market. APD Sue Farmer has been with us for more than seven years and has built relationships that empower the station to make things happen. We put out a local music CD called Radio Active that tied into our local music show. It sold out in under three weeks and raised thousands for Toys For Tots. We've also put together an annual event called 'Rave Against AIDS.' By teaming up with the local FOX affiliate, we gained tons of exposure. We are in our fifth year of our 'Live Free For A Year' promotion. The winner gets cash, a vehicle, food and all entertainment expenses. It's a great lifestyle tie-in promotion that equally benefits sales and programming. The 'GRD 'Road Warriors' are out every day, helping to make us the most visible station in the market. Our Web Site is one the best in the country; check it out at <http://www.iserv.net/wgrd>."

FORWARD MOTION

• PARTYING NOTES: The '96 Gavin Convention in Atlanta last week featured several superb performances by great artists such as Spacehog, 7 Mary 3, Stabbing Westward, The Corrs and Silverchair. All are up-and-coming stars who are producing phenomenal tracks.

• Check out the fastest-selling international single in over three decades with Babylon Zoo's hit, "Spaceman" (EMI Records). Over one million copies have been sold worldwide, with #1 status in England, Sweden, Germany, Austria and more. Now this spectacular tune is set to cross into the Mainstream.

BABYLON ZOO

• The new tune from Immature, called "We Got It" (MCA), is laying a solid foundation at Crossover radio as it warms up for the move into the Mainstream ring. The sales are zooming; it's a top-15 SoundScan single, as well as top 20 on Network 40's Street Chart, collecting nearly 700 PPW with rotations at Hot 97, KBXX, KS103, KUBE, WJZM and many more. This trio strikes a strong smash here.

• A tremendously powerful call-out song, "Don't Cry" (ZTT/WB) from Seal, is scoring nationwide. Rocketing into the top 10 on Network 40's Plays Per Week Chart, this emotional release has collected over 5,000 weekly spins. The album, Seal, is triple-Platinum, as nearly all the majors have come to the party.

• Get ready for a stellar song from Tears For Fears titled "Secrets" (Epic). It's one of several tracks from Raoul And The Kings Of Spain that will generate tons of spins.

• Enya's new release, "Anywhere Is" (Reprise), is exploding in every region. Sales have never been larger for this smooth masterpiece as more Top 40 stations begin to spin this song. Couple the top-10 sales on Network 40's Sales Chart with solid airplay, including Q102, KWMX, WKSS and more with the current VH1 special and you've got an upper-demo smash.

• Everclear's "Santa Monica" (Capitol) is a can't-miss hit that has already placed in the top 10 on Network 40's Commercial Alternative chart and is poised to take off at Mainstream radio. Z100, Q99, G105, WKBQ and more have responded quite well in early research. MTV continues to rotate the track in Buzz Bin and phones are huge at WPST. "Santa Monica" can also be found on Network 40's CD Sampler #88.

• 2 Pac has scored a big hit with "California Love" (featuring Dr. Dre) (Death Row/Interscope) as the video is MTV's and The BOX's most-played track and BET reports Heavy Rotation. On over 75 stations and top 5 on Network 40's Street Chart, this number is a perfect balance song for your playlist.

MARY J. BLIGE

• Already making a huge impact at Top 40 and Crossover radio is the Mary J. Blige tune, "Not Gon' Cry" (Arista). MTV, BET and The BOX wasted no time in rotating this video and Mainstream radio is warming a slot for this multi-format hit.

• Lenny Kravitz adds spice with his track, "Can't Get You Off My Mind" (Virgin). KROQ, Q99, XHRM, WGTZ and many more early believers are on this cutting edge tune. Expect Alternative and Top 40 to easily embrace this release.

• Sa Deuce cranks out a superb song with "Don't Waste My Time" (Mecca Don/Eastwest/EEG). WERQ, KBXX, Z90, KZHT and WNVZ have also committed to this song as the video continues to pile up at VH1, The BOX and BET.

• Sophie B. Hawkins is back in the forefront with "Only Love (The Theme Of Sleeping Beauty)" (Columbia). After a tremendous run at Mainstream radio with "As I Lay Me Down," the table is set for a strong follow-up for Sophie B.

• PHONES: Make sure your night jock checks in with his/her Countdown results and we'll make sure you are featured in the weekly Most Requested.

MOSH PIT

HOTLANTA will be a melting pot of athletics come the '96 Olympics, but the music biz beat 'em to the punch last weekend. A melting pot of radio formats coalesced at the Gavin to talk about radio, promotions and records. The socializing brought together everyone from Alternative and Top 40 to Crossover and A/C. Despite the danger of inadvertently excluding someone, let the name-dropping begin!

WHO'S WHO: Among the radio aces who graced the premises were WHYZ's "How 'bout my satin jacket" Andy Shane, KROQ's Gene Sandbloom and Lisa Worden, WNNX's Brian Phillips, KRBE's Tom Poleman and Paul "Cubby" Bryant, WNRQ's "I need to meet you" Booker Madison, KDGJ's Alex Valentine, WHYT's "How bout a Jager" Alex Tear, WGRD's Allen Fee and LeeAnn Curtis, WDST's Dave Leonard, WXSJ's Orlando, PRO-FM's Tony Mascaro, WMXZ's Michael Stuart, WLAN's Jordan Walsh, KLYV's Jeff Andrews and Kevin T. Kelly, WPXY's Clarke Ingram, WBMX's "Give me that hat back" Tim Richards, WDCG's Brian Burns, KWMX's John Peake, KISX's Michael Storm, WWNK's Bobbi Maxwell, WCIL's Andrew Zepeda, KMXR's Jesse DeLeon and congrats to Jon Zellner, who picked up the PD gig at KMXV Kansas City this week.

HANGIN'... on the records side of life were Columbia's Jerry Blair, Charlie Walk, Jerry Lembo, Bruce Reiner, Kevin Fitzgibbons and Ray Mariner...Elektra people on the scene were Greg Thompson, Bill Pfordresher, George Cappellini, Margie Weatherly, Mike Whited, Don Coddington, Erik Olsen, Pam Newman and Mary Dew...Spotted on the Epic side were Craig Lambert, Dale Connone and Jaquiline Saturn...Atlantic people in the house included Andrea Ganis, Danny Buch, Kim Stevens and Tod Emlore...Reprise on site were Marc Ratner, Steve Tipp, Steve Zap, Tom Cunningham and Jann Hendry...WORK's Burt Baumgartner, Justin Fontaine and Geordie Gillespie...Hollywood's John Fagot and Joel Habbeshaw...Lava's Jason Flom and Valerie DeLong were out and about...As were Island's Ed Green and Howie Muria...Always a Priority: Nancy Levin, Liz Pokora, Michelle St. Clair and Danielle Sheeran...550 Music's Desiree Schuon, Neda Leppard and Brian Corona were hangin'...Way Cool Music's Mike Jacobs and Wendy Naylor...Capitol's Chris Lopes, Virgin's Gary Gatzler, Curb's Hal Lieneck, Arista's Paul Brown, Mark Rizzo and Jason Perl...Universal's Steve Leeds, Daniel Glass and Dave Reynolds...Tag's Gary Spivack, Zoo's Thomas Westfall, Silvertone's Jon Butler and, of course, "Think Zen Cowboys" Kerry Marsico from Moonshine.

MUSIC TO MY EARS: Despite the nagging feeling that I must've missed somebody, a couple other memories of Atlanta come to mind: 99X sounds great...The Ammonia, Spacehog and Silverchair show was excellent and double that for the Tracy Chapman show...Jars Of Clay was a short but sweet performance, yet everything in between was killer. I'll bet Hotlanta will have cooled down without us.

A PEACH OF A TIME: The annual Gavin Convention was quite a party! The panels, the dinners, the shows and especially the hotel bar was breeding ground for the ultimate schmooze fest. The record biz was out in full force including: Hollywood's John Fagot, Tim Burris, Tasha Mack and David Perl. A&M's Scott Emerson, Arista's Mark Rizzo and Jason Perl, Columbia's Jerry Blair, Charlie Walk, Jim Burruss, Jerry Lembo, Elaine Locatelli and Ray "Buddy" Mariner. CYBER-CONCERT

WHTZ New York

Melissa Stanislav

Z100 will be rebroadcasting an encore performance of their "Jingle Ball" concert in conjunction with VH1. The concert will also be cybercast on the World Wide Web for all listeners with Internet access. It will include highlights of solos and Natalie Merchant's "hipswaying dance routine."

COST: TRADED OUT.

RETURN: GIVES STATION INTERNATIONAL PROFILE ON "INFORMATION SUPERHIGHWAY" AND ATTRACTS MEDIA ATTENTION.

"ALL-STAR HOOPS"

KKBT Los Angeles

Scott Dallavo/Phil Hernandez

The Beat staffers are playing the Challengers Boys & Girls Club all-star basketball team to help raise money for the club's expansion. Admission to the charity game and auction also enables people to see a Lakers-Clippers game, where Richard Pryor will be honored.

COST: TRADED OUT.

RETURN: A GOOD CAUSE AND A GOOD TIME CAN BE HAD BY ALL. PLENTY OF MEDIA EXPOSURE; MAGIC'S RETURN MAKES THIS AN EVENT TO REMEMBER.

"WORLD TOUR '96"

WPXY Rochester

Tristano Korlou

During the month of February, WPXY is qualifying listeners for a trip around the world. At the sound of a private jet taking off, the eighth caller is qualified. Qualifiers get a WPXY backpack and a special passport with a number on it. On March 4th, the person with the winning passport number is announced on the air. Whoever has that number will have nine minutes and eight seconds to call in and tell WPXY which three countries in Europe they want to visit.

COST: WHOLE TRIP TRADED OUT WITH LOCAL TRAVEL AGENCY.

RETURN: BUILDS CUME AND TSL, AS WELL AS WATER COOLER TALK, UP THE WAZOO.

"HE'S HAVING A BABY"

WPLJ New York

Heidi Dagnese/Albert Reinoso

Afternoon-driver Rocky Allen is offering to get a listener pregnant (not personally!). One lucky (and hopeful) mother-to-be will be flown to the Ripley's Believe It or Not Museum in St. Augustine to bond with fertility sculptures that are rumored to aid in a woman's conception. The contact will be broadcast live on the Rocky Allen Showgram and, if the woman gets "lucky," the pregnancy will be broadcast as well.

COST: TRADED OUT.

RETURN: TOPICAL STUNT GENERATES TONS OF WATER COOLER TALK.

"LIE LIKE A GUY"

KYSR Los Angeles

Rick Stacy and Leah Brandon

Rick and Leah developed a counterpart to their outrageous "Battle of the Sexual Preferences" for their female audiences. Two women are given a sticky situation and compete against each other to come up with the most outrageous—and most believable—lie to explain it (hence the title). Listeners compete for tickets, trips, etc.

COST: OUT OF STATION BUDGET.

RETURN: THEATER-OF-THE-MIND STUNT GENERATES TONS OF WATER COOLER TALK.

WEDDINGS ON ICE

WPLY Philadelphia

Dave Burgess

Y100 hosted its second annual "Barsky on Ice—Valentine's Day Wedding Spectacular" on the special day at a skating rink. Not only did the typical couples renew their vows and get married by the mayor, but this year, gay men and women participated in the ceremony (although their marriages still aren't legal in the state). Certain couples won a wedding dress, trips to Jamaica and Atlantic City and other prizes.

COST: EVERYTHING TRADED OUT.

RETURN: NICE TWEAK TO A CLASSIC WARM-AND-FUZZY PROMOTION.

"CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING"

WKRQ Cincinnati

Von Freeman

Q102 felt sorry for all the people who were paranoid about "downsizing," so they scheduled special summer concerts. Every other Wednesday starting in May, listeners can stop by the pavilion stage after work to hear the best in local bands and drink their troubles away.

COST: UNDERWRITTEN BY SPONSORS; STATION MAKES MONEY OFF BEER SALES.

RETURN: AN ENTERTAINING WAY TO GET INVOLVED IN THE LOCAL COMMUNITY AND BE ON PEOPLE'S MINDS.

Thumbtack Alert!

Clear up some space on your office wall, buckos, because Network 40's exclusive April Fool's promotions will be coming your way in the next issue!

"WISHING STAR"

KZZU Spokane

Ken Hopkins

Breakfast Boys Dave and Ken stayed on air from 6 am to 6 pm to help raise money for the Wishing Star Foundation. Approximately $36,000 was raised to help grant wishes to children with life-threatening diseases.

COST: NADA.

RETURN: IMPROVES STATION IMAGE.

"THE KING LIVES"

WMGI Terre Haute

Beau Richards

At WMGI's not-so-annual after-work Leap Year party, listeners will be treated to an appearance by Elvis Presley's stepbrother, David Stanley. Elvis impersonator Bruce "The Mayor Of Rock 'N' Roll" Borders will also entertain.

COST: REFRESHMENTS TRADED WITH SPONSORS.

RETURN: CAN'T GO WRONG PLAYING OFF THE KING.

"MELTDOWN WEEKEND"

WAEB Allentown

Laura St. James

During the "Blizzard of the Century," B104 decided to host a "Meltdown Weekend," where they gave away rock salt, hot chocolate and (the grand prize) massages for all the people who hurt their backs shoveling snow.

COST: SOME OF IT WAS TRADED FOR MENTIONS.

RETURN: NICE TIMING FOR TOPICAL STUNT BUILT CUME AND GENERATED PLENTY OF ICICLE TALK.

TOPICAL PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

"MANLY, YES, BUT I LIKE 'EM, TOO!"

With St. Patrick's Day right around the corner, here are a few more promo ideas that go beyond the green beer and corned beef and cabbage:

- "Find The Four-Leaf Clover." At client stores, "plant" real or fake four-leaf clovers amidst the merchandise. Whoever finds it wins prizes or big discounts.
- "Find The Blarney Stone." Spray paint a bunch of small rocks green.

Underneath a select few, paint a picture of "Blarney Rubble." Whoever picks those rocks, wins.

- "When Irish Upon A Star." At high-traffic locations, people wearing call lettered four-leaf clovers pick a number to get an Irish gift, be it Irish coffee, stew, soap, etc.
- "Erin Go Bra!" A few women wear green sweaters. Whoever picks the one wearing a green bra, wins.

TRIVIA

by Mel St. Velour, Jr.

Word Of The Week: "farrier." The definition's below.

Did'ja know...the White House was originally grey? It was burned during the War of 1812 and was painted white to cover the smoke stains. It was the first, but hardly the last, political whitewash.

Brainteaser: What's the plural of "graffiti?"

The message keyed on the first telegraph line in the U.S. was, "What has God wrought?" Ironically, it was also the first reaction of the person who received the first phone bill.

A cow spends approximately 18 out of every 24 hours chewing on something. The same could be said for board ops.

Brainteaser II: What do Brooke Shields and Creole keyboardist Dr. John have in common?

The President of the United States receives about 20,000 letters a day. Actually, it's 35,000 letters a day; the remainder gets lost or arrives late.

No, a "farrier" is not someone who is more than fair.

Did'ja also know...that an ant's sense of smell is just as good as a dog's? Unfortunately, it's hard to get the drug-sniffing ones on leashes.

Gorillas can't swim. Or no one dared ask them to.

Playwright T.S. Eliot's favorite gift to theatre critics was exploding cigars. He was the first Uni-author.

Believe it or not, 75% of optometrists wear eyeglasses. What's the big deal? Would you go to a dentist who wears dentures?

Trick question: "Graffiti" is plural! The singular is "graffito."

Henry VII had Sir Nicholas Carew beheaded because he bested him in a bowling match. Which gave new meaning to the phrase, "making a split."

Two-On-A-Box: Both Brooke Shields and Dr. John were Ivory Soap babies.

"Farrier"—noun: a veterinarian.

According to Men's Health Magazine, the "average guy" has sex seven times a month.

Analysis: The average guy is single. For the average married guy, replace "month" with "year."

Joe Average will have sex with five to 10 partners during his life.

Analysis: Joe Average has way too much time on his (ahem) hands.

He makes love for 10 minutes at a time.

Analysis: That includes undressing, finding and utilizing "protection," shoving his dirty laundry off the bed, turning on the "mood" lighting and removing the TV remote that's embedded in her back. If he has to remove his mate's bra, add 15 minutes.

He has consumed 11 beers over the past seven days.

Analysis: Tabulated only from the empties he has stepped on in his residence over the past seven days.

The average guy buys frozen pizza four times a month.

Analysis: Of which he actually cooks two.

Joe Average saves less than $3,000 on retirement each year.

Analysis: Joe wonders why he should save that much—after all, he doesn't need to change his radials that often.

Joe Average watches 28 hours of TV a week—four hours a day.

Analysis: Not including pirated Playboy Channel and satellite sports hook-up.

He can bench press 88% of his body weight.

Analysis: Only if the remote weighs 88% of his body weight.

The average guy sleeps 7.5 hours a night.

Analysis: The average guy is dead.

Among other things, Paramount Pictures' new alliance with Marvel Comics will result in different Star Trek comic books, each one based on the various TV series and a Mission: Impossible comic book based on the movie starring Tom Cruise.

They oughta make a mint in just repeat business on the Mission: Impossible comics. Each issue self-destructs in five minutes.

New York is spending $50,000 to make the Fresh Kills landfill, the world's largest garbage heap, a tourist attraction. They're training sanitation workers to be tour guides, read from a 30-page script and hand out color maps.

Hey, it worked for Times Square....

SA-DEUCE

"DON'T WASTE MY TIME"

ALICE IN CHAINS (COLUMBIA/CRG)

• Raised in Kirkland, Washington in a middle-class family, lead singer Layne Staley began his musical career at age 12, playing the drums.

• During high school, he switched from drums to vocals and sang with various garage groups.

• A few years later, Staley moved into the Music Bank, a local rehearsal studio, where he met Jerry Cantrell, a Tacoma native.

• Seattle-based Alice in Chains have been together for almost nine years, except for the six-month separation brought on by Staley's substance abuse problem.

• During their time apart, Staley formed the band Mad Season with Pearl Jam's Mike McCready and Screaming Trees' Barrett Martin.

• Kinney recorded a track with Nirvana bassist Krist Novoselic, Sonic Youth's Kim Thayil and Country legend Johnny Cash for Twisted Willie, the Willie Nelson tribute album.

• Inez worked with Guns 'N' Roses' Slash on his album, and Cantrell wrote music for his intended solo album.

• By May of 1995, they were back in the studio recording their latest album, Alice In Chains.

• Their current single is "Heaven Beside You."

MARRY ME JANE (550 MUSIC)

• Amanda Kravat, lead vocals/guitar. • Brad Albetta, bass/vocals. • Dan Petty, lead guitar/vocals. • Richard Pagano, drums/vocals. • Tim Beattie, lap steel guitar/harmonical/vocals.

• Manhattan-raised Amanda Kravat met Rich Pagano in 1993 after several years of musical experimentation.

• Petty and Albetta came to Marry Me Jane from other NYC bands; last to join was Illinois native Beattie.

• Beattie came from a family of musicians and moved to New York about five years ago to work with the Rock band The Four Horsemen before joining Marry Me Jane full-time.

• The band's name was inspired by a marriage proposal someone had posted all over Manhattan: "Marry me, Jane. Love, Keith."

• Their self-titled debut album also serves as a soundtrack. They recorded 10 of the 13 songs on the album for the upcoming movie If Lucy Fell, starring Sarah Jessica Parker, Ben Stiller and Elle McPherson.

• Their debut single is "TwentyOne."

D'ANGELO (EMI RECORDS)

• Twenty-one-year-old Michael D'Angelo Archer is a self-taught musician who was born and raised in Richmond, Virginia.

• The son of a preacher, D'Angelo began playing the piano at about the same time he learned to walk, but was 12 before he took formal lessons.

• The first two songs he learned to play were Donna Summer's "Hot Stuff" and Earth, Wind And Fire's "Boogie Wonderland."

• Influenced by Prince and Marvin Gaye, the teenage D'Angelo formed a local group, Michael Archer and Precise.

• At a school talent show, he was spotted by a local talent scout who got him an appearance on Showtime At The Apollo. He sang Peabo Bryson's "Feel The Fire" and went on to win three times in a row.

• He returned home to Richmond and began working on the songs that would become his first album, Brown Sugar.

• D'Angelo still found time for other projects; he wrote and produced "Overjoyed" for the Boys Choir of Harlem. The anthem, "U Will Know," was featured on the soundtrack for Jason's Lyric.

• He co-wrote the latest release, "Lady," with Rafael Saadiq of Tony! Toni! Toni!, who also plays bass on the track.

SILVERCHAIR (MURMUR/EPIC)

• Daniel Johns, vocals/guitar. • Chris Joannou, bass. • Ben Gillies, drums.

• The 16-year-old members of Silverchair have been friends since they were five, growing up in Newcastle, Australia.

• In 1994, calling themselves the Innocent Criminals, the guys entered a demo-tape contest called "Pick Me" on Nomad, a Pop music TV show.

• Their song, "Tomorrow," was chosen from over 800 entries and the prize was a day in the recording studio of Australia's national Alternative radio station.

• The name "Silverchair" is a combination of the song titles "Sliver," by Nirvana (accidentally misspelled by Joannou) and "Berlin Chair," by Australian band You Am I.

• Their second stage performance in 1995 for Big Day Out, Australia's version of Lollapalooza, was a big hit.

• Their moms are their managers and their dads serve as chaperones and roadies.

• Silverchair recorded their debut album, Frogstomp, in only nine days. Their current release is "Israel's Son."

Oasis' hit single, "Wonderwall," showed up on the British charts twice in the same week. Lounge act Mike Flowers Pops' Vegas-styled rendition of the song hit #2 while the original hung in at #7. The members of Oasis are said to be flattered and not too disappointed about the money they will make from the publishing rights.

...

Ann and Nancy Wilson of Heart have contributed a song called "Momma Why" for the album, Home Alive: The Art Of Self-Defense, to benefit Home Alive, a Seattle Rape center that educates men and women about rape by offering affordable classes in self-defense and rape prevention.

Bullet Bites

Aerosmith are currently working on a new album that's being produced by Glen Ballard, who worked on Alanis Morissette's recent multi-Platinum album.

During an interview in a Swedish magazine, Sting caused controversy by calling for legalization of the drug Ecstasy and praised the drug laws of Holland, where Ecstasy is tested for purity. Some public officials have expressed their disapproval regarding Sting's "alleged negligence."

Listen for Sheryl Crow on Salt-N-Pepa's latest album; she contributed a couple of vocal tracks.

Courtney Love has been cast in The People vs. Larry Flynt, the film dealing with the life of Hustler publisher Larry Flynt. Woody Harrelson will portray Flynt; Love has been cast as his wife, Althea, who battled substance abuse problems before dying of AIDS. Meanwhile, Love is also up for Cameron Crowe's new movie, Jerry Maguire.
