Spanish-language 'Country' station astounds market in Fall '92 Arbitrons; KFI surpasses KABC; NY CHR rivalry tightens up

It should probably come as no surprise that a Spanish-language station has finally reached No. 1 in Los Angeles. The area ranks third in the world in the number of Spanish-speaking residents, and there are relatively few stations serving those 3.5 million listeners.

But market broadcasters were no doubt astounded when they opened their Fall '92 Arbitron books and discovered that KLAX, a five-month-old "Ranchero" station, had skyrocketed from 21st to first.

Perhaps no one was more surprised at the station's meteoric rise than KLAX GM Alfredo Rodriguez, who came aboard after a dozen years at crosstown Spanish rival

KWKW. "When I arrived last July, I knew we had to get rid of our old easy listening, international image and go for a younger sound. We let go of our old call letters [KSKQ], hired new announcers, and focused on Ranchero — our brand of Country music. We only switched to this format on August 1. It's the first time this type of music has been available on FM."

Retailers Report Record Sales On Strong Rebound

Christmas product, box sets offer holiday cheer; MTV still major TV influence

Prerecorded music sales rebounded strongly in late 1992, contributing to as much as an 11% sales increase over last year, according to an informal survey of retail outlets, one-stops, and racks by the marketing firm Macey Lipman Marketing.

The strong Christmas season was fueled by the release of several superstar box sets; new Christmas albums by Garth Brooks, Amy Grant, and Neil Diamond, among other key artists; and the apparent feeling among consumers that the economy is on the rebound, retailers commented.

Among the key findings: • MTV continues as the TV source with the most influence on sales (merchants gave it an average 7.4 score on a 1-10 scale, with 10 being best). Among others (with scores): VH-1 (4.3), "Arsenio Hall" (4.2), "Saturday Night Live" (4.1), "Tonight Show" (3.6), "David Letterman" (3.4), BET (3.0), CMT (3.0), and TNN (2.7).

• Top three box sets during Christmas: Bob Marley, Journey, and Led Zeppelin. Merchants said they could have moved more of the fourth-

Interep Urges Caution In Duopoly/LMA Strategies

Managers say combined operations don't meet expectations; time buyers express concerns

Stations considering a duopoly or LMA operation should not expect too much success too soon, according to a memo from the Interep Radio Store.

In a research series conducted with time buyers and station owners and managers, the study concluded that "without exception, station owners and managers interviewed have experienced less-than-expected results from their LMAs," and that "synergy has not been easy to come by."

Interep Chairman Ralph Guild said the memo was not meant to sway stations from engaging in an LMA. "While it's important for stations and buyers to approach an LMA with caution, stations can be extremely successful under consolidation. And I have no doubt that's the way the trend is going to be in the '90s."

Among the perceptions tallied from focus groups with time buyers:

- LMA salespeople will force buyers to purchase combos, which means they will have less flexibility to target specific groups or customers.
- An increased number of LMAs will result in salespeople and reps who will know less about their stations, making radio more difficult to buy.
- A combo will dominate a particular demo or format, giving buyers a loss of bargaining power — with higher rates as a

November Radio Revenues Up 3% In RAB Stats

Year to finish with 2% gain; RAB's Fries sees post-Christmas rush; West still lags

Radio revenues were up 3% in November, according to the RAB. With one month yet to be tallied, 1992 was 2% ahead of the first 11 months of 1991.

RAB President Gary Fries said he doesn't expect the '92 picture to change much when December is added in, although he noted that after-Christmas advertising appeared to be heavier than normal. He's still predicting that 1992 will finish 2% to 3% ahead of 1991.

"I think '93 looks very positive," Fries told R&R. He said the industry is "in a slow, steady, but strong recovery right now." Fries also said the recovery is sustainable because it is being driven by consumer confidence, "not advertiser optimism."

For November, local radio revenues were up 4% nationwide. The Southwest led with a 9% gain, followed by increases in the Southeast (8%), Midwest (7%), and East (6%). The only region to post a decline in local revenues was the West, down 2%.

National Spot Drops

After two straight months of gains, national spot revenues fell 4% in November. "I still think national is recovering,"

Horowitz told R&R, "I've competed against Bonneville in this market for a number of years and have always respected them. I'm happy to be part of the family."

Downplaying talk of a possible format change, Horowitz explained, "We evaluated a number of [other] format possibilities, but the bottom line is we've built a good base with AC. We'll do some re-vamping, but have no intentions of changing format."

Prior to joining WTMX, Horowitz was President of Lakeshore Communications. His Chicago radio background includes VP/GM stints at WUSN and WFYR (now WWBZ).

The station features newscasts at the top and bottom of the hour, frequent traffic, weather, and sports reports, and numerous "life-style" features. The format is anchored by personalities who take phone calls, do comedy bits, and play an occasional gold tune.

Despite the emphasis on news and information, WOWF management wants to avoid the News/Talk label, which it believes evokes the

Talkin' It To The Street

Sixteen years ago, Street Talk (as the industry knows it) made its debut. It had actually premiered two months earlier in some leftover space on a parallel page, but quickly demonstrated the power of rumor, gossip, and innuendo and was promoted to its own page in January 1977. Far from its present-day four-page glory, it occupied 60% of one page. Credited to its first author, then-Top 40 Editor J.J. Jordan, that inaugural ST included such smokin' items as:

- WDAF/KC going Country in February under Randy Michaels
- Rick Dees's "Disco Duck" hitting platinum
- Bill Medley being seen arm-in-arm with Connie Stevens
- J.J.'s exclusive report on the Bee Gees holiday concert he saw.

The first item was on the money. As for the rest of ST . . . well, we'd get better once we got rolling.

Clinton FCC Choices A Mystery

With Inauguration Day looming, Washington is still wondering who President-elect Bill Clinton will choose to fill the FCC Chairman post about to be vacated by Al Sikes.

Most speculation continues to focus on Antoinette "Toni" Cook, a senior communications policy advisor to Senators Ernest Hollings (D-SC) and Daniel Inouye (D-HI), who oversee the FCC.

An experienced communications lawyer who knows her way around Capitol Hill, Cook offers the added advantage of helping Clinton fulfill his promise to appoint more women and minorities to key government posts. In addition, she's the stepdaughter of Clinton transition chief Vernon Jordan.

'It's Not Me'

"It's hard for me to imagine that she doesn't want the job," said one congressional source. "And if she wants the job, it's even harder to imagine she won't get it."

Some observers have speculated that Cook might not be offered — or accept — the job because she's pregnant. But one Cook supporter dismissed such talk as an attempt to derail her candidacy in favor of other contenders.

Referring to Sikes's recent prostate surgery, the supporter said, "So what if she's pregnant? My guess is that it takes less time to recover from having a baby than from prostate cancer."

Cook told R&R on Tuesday (1/5) that she had not talked to the Clinton team about the chairmanship and does not know if she is under consideration. "If they've made a decision," she said, "it's not me."

More Whispers

Others rumored to be in the running for the position include Arkansas Public Service Commission member Julius Kearney, Tennessee Public Service Commission member Steve Hewlett (who shares Vice President-elect Al Gore's passion for telecommunications infrastructure issues), and communications lawyer and former FCC staffer Lew Paper.

Kearney, a Clinton appointee, told R&R he has no interest in coming to Washington. An aide to Hewlett said he didn't think his boss had been contacted about the FCC job, but added, "If [Clinton] feels he's the best person for the job, he'll certainly return the call."

Observers are split on how soon a new chairman will be named. One source predicted that the current glut of pending telecommunications issues will prompt quick action by the incoming administration. But a Capitol Hill staffer expressed doubt that the Commission is high on Clinton's agenda.

"I don't even think the FCC is on their radar screen yet," said the source. "They're focused on getting the Cabinet appointees confirmed."

Seymour Battling KAT Station Sales

Former owner Ellek Seymour has made a last-ditch effort to block the court-ordered sales of two KAT Broadcasting Corp. combos. However, his FCC filing may have come too late to derail or delay the deals.

In the lengthy filing, Seymour insisted he's the lawful licensee of KAT's nine stations, declaring, "I am President of KAT Broadcasting Corporation." At the heart of Seymour's argument is his claim that a Delaware court's receivership order is invalid because the KAT licenses were held by a North Carolina corporation. The FCC rejected this claim in 1991 when it approved license transfers to co-receivers Roger Akin and Banking Services Corp.

Seymour may have a difficult time getting the Commission to look at his current filing. His petition to deny the sales was received in the FCC mailroom December 29, long after the cutoff date for comments and petitions related to the proposed sales.

The FCC has already given preliminary consent for the $3 million sale of WSVS-AM & FM/Crewe (Richmond), VA to ABS Communications; the $480,000 sale of WHCC & WQNS/Waynesville, NC to Media Mart Inc. is still pending.

Ready To Close

"If the Commission issues a final order, we'll close," said ABS President Ken Brown, who told R&R that Seymour's petition may not even delay the scheduled closing in early February. "We'll see whether the Commission takes this seriously or not."

Seymour didn't return R&R's calls. The telephone number listed on his petition was answered by a Richmond, VA print shop, where an employee said Seymour might be in later on Tuesday (1/5).

KAT, formed in 1989 from the remains of Seymour's bankrupt Resorts Broadcasting, went into receivership in 1991 owing $10.5 million to National Bank of Maryland. But Seymour's petition insists the bank itself was to blame for KAT's losses because it didn't let Seymour use $1 million from the sale of Resort's WVAB & WKSJ/Virginia Beach as operating capital.

WJMO Buyer Charges 'Deliberate Deception'

Zebra Broadcasting Corp. has urged the FCC to approve its $4.45 million purchase of WJMO-AM & FM/Cleveland. The company also asked the Commission to reject claims by the Cleveland chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and six individuals that Zebra is a sham front for WZAK/Cleveland owner Zapis Communications.

In a dispute marked by unusually harsh FCC filings, Zebra also urged action against the civil rights group's attorney and one of the petitioners.

"Young Ones shareholders and the Zapis family have created a living, working model of biracial business cooperation in the radio industry," Zebra told the Commission. Zebra's voting stock is owned 51% by Young Ones, a company owned by WZAK PD Lynn Tolliver and MD Bobby Rush, both of whom are African-American. The remaining 49% is held by Xenophon Zapis and members of his family, all of whom are white; WZAK GSM Mike Hilber (also white) holds a stock option which, if exercised, entitles him to a share of the Zapis family's ownership stake.

'Outright Fraud'

Rather than its being "an outright fraud" to qualify for a tax certificate, as the SCLC alleges, the Zebra structure is said to be designed to do exactly what the FCC intended: encourage station sales to minority-controlled companies.

Zebra said it was an insult for the SCLC to treat Tolliver and Rush "as if they are simply lackeys for Mr.

Zapis." The company also stated that the SCLC had provided nothing to justify its request for early renewal hearings that could strip Zapis Communications of its three station licenses.

In its filing, Zebra urged the FCC to open a separate proceeding to "investigate the conduct and behavior of petitioners and their counsel." The company charged that petitioner Leodis Harris failed to disclose that he is 51% owner of WZAK competitor WCER/Canton, OH, noting that Harris "should be admonished and dismissed from this proceeding."

Zebra also called for the FCC to investigate whether attorney David Honig should be subjected to sanctions for representing a fictitious client. Zebra provided affidavits from the Ohio secretary of state showing that the SCLC Cleveland chapter has never registered with the state.

Sillerman Ponders Public Stock Offering In '93

Robert F.X. Sillerman is planning a series of public stock offerings to finance future expansion of his radio empire. His announcement followed positive Wall Street response to last month's successful $22 million IPO by Saga Communications.

At the top of his deal list are public offerings for Multi-Market Radio, recently formed with legendary New York talent Bruce "Cousin Bruce" Morrow, and CF Media — now renamed SFX Broadcasting — which aims to merge several Capstar and Command Communications properties.

"I don't think the banks are going to come back in a big way, only in special situations. But the institutional market — the mutual fund market — is very aggressive. What [Saga CEO] Ed Christian did was brilliant. He demonstrated that there was an appetite for small and medium market radio stations in a small IPO. In many ways, his deal was the most important one completed in 1992," Sillerman told R&R.

Multi-Market Radio is bundling together WPKX/Enfield, CT; WHMP-AM & FM/Northampton, MA; and WYAK-AM & FM/Surfside Beach (Myrtle Beach), SC. While Sillerman wouldn't specify terms or a timetable for an IPO, the FCC transfer application states that Multi-Market plans to sell one million shares of Class A "one-vote-per-share" stock to public investors, while Morrow will retain corporate control with 10-votes-per-share Class B stock. The public would get 48% of the voting power, with Morrow holding 52%.

Sillerman expects to close his long-delayed Capstar-Command merger under the SFX banner "sometime between February 1 and February 15," with financing coming from a $125 million private placement now being shopped to institutional investors by Bear Stearns and Kidder Peabody. "I feel like I've been working on it since I had hair. It's been immensely complicated," he said. Under the reshuffling, SFX properties will include KRLD/Dallas, KODA/Houston, KJQY/San Diego, WSIX/Nashville, WJDS & WMSI/Jackson, MS, and WSSL-AM & FM/Greenville, SC.

A major obstacle to the SFX deal was removed last week: Former KRLD GM Michael Ewing dropped his FCC challenge after Command Communications agreed to settle a wrongful termination suit for $165,000. He had accused Sillerman of secretly controlling Command and damaging the public interest through a series of highly leveraged station trades. Ewing will get $25,000 up front and the balance in 18 biweekly checks of $7777.77 each.

Tak Bankruptcy Settlement Imminent

Tak Communications CEO Sharad Tak has agreed to drop his opposition to a bankruptcy restructuring plan that would strip him of control. But under the agreement with creditors, he'll be paid $300,000 annually for consulting and serving as chairman of the board.

In addition, Tak would receive up to $1.5 million worth of other compensation, including a free office and secretary. Federal bankruptcy judge Robert Martin was scheduled to review the proposed settlement at a January 6 hearing in Madison, WI. Secured creditors seeking approval include Chemical Bank, Bank of Nova Scotia, Cargill Financial Services Corp., and TCW Special Credits.

Under the plan, the company would continue to operate its radio and TV stations, but under new management. Clear Channel Communications attempted to acquire the stations several months ago, but the proposed settlement doesn't name a new manager. Tak personally would lose most of his company ownership, with banks receiving about 20% of the new Tak Communications stock, creditors with subordinated claims receiving 77%, and unsecured creditors getting most of the rest.

Other market action this week:

- The Los Angeles Daily News reports that Noble Broadcast Group has offered up to $50 million for KMPC/Los Angeles, but owner Gene Autry reportedly has declined.

- Insiders predict the imminent sale of United Broadcasting's WJZE/Washington to the Rales Brothers for $19 million. Almic Broadcasting's Cathy Hughes is said to have the inside track at $9 million for WERQ-AM & FM/Baltimore.

- SEC filings show Mel Karmazin cashed out 74,974 shares of Infinity Broadcasting stock through Shearson Lehman just before Christmas, joining the horde of executives seeking to harvest fortunes before the Clinton administration raises taxes. The value of his stocking stuffer: about $1.8 million.

Durney VP/GM At WIBC & WKLR

Inter-Active Marketing President Tom Durney has been appointed VP/GM of WIBC & WKLR/Indianapolis. He replaces Roy Cooper, who leaves the Sconix Full-Service AC/Gold combo after more than 15 years of service.

Durney

Durney told R&R, "WIBC is a heritage station doing double-digit shares. We'll try to lower the demos a bit and make the transition to Talk as soon as we can."

"The only change at WKLR will be a change in the marketing philosophy, and we'll add to the advertising budget."

Durney's management experience includes VP/GM posts at WASH/Washington, KHOW/Denver, WGSO & WQUE/New Orleans, and WKSS/Hartford.

Kraig Moves To Arista/Nashville

KPLX/Dallas PD Bobby Kraig has joined Arista/Nashville in the newly created position of Director/National Promotion. He will report to label VP/Promotion & Artist Development Allen Butler.

Kraig

Kraig told R&R, "Leaving KPLX after 12 years was not an easy decision. Arista offered me a position with a lot of growth potential. It gives me a chance to get closer to the music, which is something I've wanted to do for a long time." Prior to KPLX, Kraig spent two and a half years as WTHI/Terre Haute, IN PD and two years on-air at WONE/Dayton.

Traffic Report

While renewing its contract with News/Talk outlet WBBM (AM)/Chicago, Metro Traffic Control also signed CHR WBBM-FM. Finalizing the deal are (l-r) WBBM (AM) VP/GM Wayne Jefferson, Metro Traffic President David Saperstein, and WBBM-FM GM Tom Matheson.

EZ Flips WMXP To Country WTKB Macky PD, Pareigis To OM In Sacramento

EZ Communications, owner of CHR WBZZ (B94)/Pittsburgh, flipped newly LMA'd CHR WMXP to Country on Wednesday (1/6), following five days of continuous Garth Brooks music. The new calls will be WTKB; the station moniker is "The Bear."

Bill Macky transfers in as PD from a similar post at EZ sister KQBR/Davis-Sacramento. Concurrently, Larry Pareigis, PD of EZ's KRAK-FM/Sacramento, becomes OM for KRAK-FM and KQBR.

Explaining the reasons behind the format switch, EZ Regional VP/Programming and KMPS-AM & FM/Seattle PD Tim Murphy told R&R, "Pairing a station with B94 was a real opportunity for us. There aren't a lot of holes in this market, and there's only one Country station (WDSY-AM & FM). So we decided to go after them." The move also leaves EZ with the only CHR in town.

Regarding the personnel shifts, Murphy added, "In his last two situations, Bill has been able to do a lot — without many resources. We wanted to give him a station with a lot of tools so he could make it happen in a real big way. And in the few months he's been with us, Larry's proven himself to be a hard fighter who knows how to get things done. This move takes advantage of all his talents."

Pareigis joined KRAK-FM as PD last September after only eight months as PD at KRZY & KRST/Albuquerque. Prior to that he

Stairs Climbs To KFMB (AM) PD

KIOI/San Francisco PD Bill Stairs has been named Program & Operations Manager of Full-Service KFMB (AM)/San Diego. He takes the reins from Mark Larson, who continues with the station as afternoon drive host.

"Bill is incredibly bright and talented — and he knows how to win," remarked KFMB-AM & FM VP/GM Paul Palmer.

Commented Stairs: "[KFMB] has been on the leading edge of Full-Service AM since the early '70s."

Stairs has also served as Corporate PD for Olympic Broadcasting and PD of KYUU/San Francisco.

EXECUTIVE ACTION

Horton Joins Rusty Walker Consultancy

WGNA-AM & FM/Albany OM/morning personality Fred Horton is leaving the Country combo to join Rusty Walker & Associates.

Horton commented, "Joining Rusty's company is a tremendous career opportunity. It's an honor for me to be a part of [their] operation. I would've never left [WGNA] for another station, but this opportunity fulfills a lifelong dream."

Horton has worked in various formats in Grand Rapids, Little Rock, Syracuse, and Hartford, among other cities, during his 24-year radio career.

Horton

KDIA/San Francisco Ups Kei To PD

Kevin Kei has been promoted to PD at KDIA/San Francisco, replacing Jeff Harrison, who exited the UC outlet.

"We'd like to bring the station into the twos and threes," Kei told R&R. "We want to compete with the News/Talk and Full-Service stations. We're going to provide a tremendous amount of music and information to the Oakland-San Francisco-San Jose area."

Kei, who will also do middays, has industry experience at KFXD/Boise and Sacramento stations KQPT and KSFM.

Durkin To KWJJ/Portland As GSM

KUFO/Portland GSM Mark Durkin has accepted a similar post at Crosstown Country combo KWJJ-AM & FM.

GM Dan Volz commented, "Mark's credentials in sales management and his recent tour at KUFO — where he set new sales records — were keys in this appointment. He's a great team leader and will add his experience to our growing sales staff."

Durkin's background also includes sales management positions at San Jose outlets KSJO and KWSS.

KLTR/Houston Names Hufnagel GSM

KTXQ/Dallas LSM John Hufnagel has transferred to sister CBS AC KLTR/Houston as GSM. He succeeds Lynda Johnson, who has left the station.

Hufnagel told R&R, "Timing is everything, and the Houston economy is now starting [to rebound]. There's lots of tradition and consistency at KLTR. We have big days ahead of us and it's great to be part of it."

Before joining KTXQ, Hufnagel was an AE for CBS Radio Reps/Dallas. He's also been an AE for Dallas stations KEGG and WBAP.

WHBQ & WGKX/Memphis PD Bill Jones has been appointed VP/Programming for KIX Broadcasting, a subsidiary of Barnstable Broadcasting. In addition to his duties at the Sports/Country combo, he will also have programming responsibilities for recently acquired crosstown Gold WPYR.

Jones

WHBQ & WGKX President/GM John Bibbs said, "The promotion was due to the five years of top ratings that Bill has brought to WGKX."

Jones remarked, "I'm very proud of WGKX's success. The challenge to build [WHBQ] and WPYR is one I accept with enthusiasm."

Prior to joining WGKX in 1988, Jones was PD at WCRJ/Jacksonville and WKSJ/Mobile.

Neill Nails Rhino Promotion Post

Jim Neill has been named National Director/Promotion at Rhino Records. He had served in a similar post at Rykodisc.

Neill

Neill will be responsible for generating radio airplay on Rhino releases, and directing the label's promotion staff.

"Jim has vast musical knowledge and vast radio experience," commented Rhino VP/Product Management Garson Fooos. "He has the expertise in promoting the kind of archival material [we] specialize in."

Before joining Rykodisc, Neill worked at WRSI/Greenfield, MA and Amherst, MA stations WMUA and WTTT.

New York's Finest

James commented, "This is the most emotional and the toughest decision I've ever made. I never imagined leaving KFKF — the people here and at Scornix have been so great to me. But KSCS has a great staff, so I'm psyched about what Dallas — with five Country stations — has in store."

James joined KFKF as PD in October 1990, following two years as an air personality in Miami at WJQY and WAXY. Before that he spent five years at WBOS/Boston.

KHYL/Sacramento Ends PD Chase

KWFM/Tucson PD Brian Chase has accepted a similar assignment at KHYL/Sacramento. He succeeds Mark Lennartz, who remains with the Gold outlet in an on-air capacity.

"We're very excited to have Brian on board," noted KHYL VP/GM John Buckley. "KWFM's one of the country's highest-rated Gold stations, and we're hoping that kind of dominance will transfer to our market."

Chase previously programmed WQMX/Akron, KLDE/Houston, and KRAV/Tulsa. He's also been APD/on-air personality for WTIH/New Orleans, KEEL/Shreveport, and KAAV/Little Rock.

Monitored Reality

One of the predictions for '93 that I submitted to Harvey Kojan's AOR column (1/1) was omitted. I feel it was an important point, so I'm resubmitting it. The prediction: An AOR chart based entirely on virtual reality, using elements of actual airplay and sales, will compete for radio's attention. 1993 is the year of monitored reality!

Before coming to Elektra, Darst had worked at Principle Management, Henke had been on the editorial staff of Rolling Stone, and Jones was VP/Marketing for PolyGram.

Remme Named GM At WCKZ/Charlotte

Compass Media, receiver for former Beasley CHR WCKZ/Charlotte, has announced the hirings of Christine Remme as GM and Bill Becker as Sales Manager.

Remme had been WCKZ's NSM, but left when the station was LMA'd with EZ Hot AC WMXC. Becker had been WCKZ's GM prior to the LMA, but had also exited when the LMA went into effect. Both positions were vacant following the recent termination of the partnership.

Compass Chairman Bob Hughes told R&R, "The opportunity to buy WCKZ at a bargain basement rate has just ended. The offers we received [were] much less than what the station is realistically worth. [We are] going to operate the station and rebuild its value with improved ratings and revenues."

Perez Sets New HBO Music Series

Actress/choreographer Rosie Perez has pacted with HBO to create "Society's Ride," a rap and R&B-oriented music series for the cable channel. Perez — noted for her performances in "White Men Can't Jump" and "Do The Right Thing" — will appear onscreen, but she'll leave the emcee duties to someone else.

Three to four music acts will appear on each episode of the show, which is expected to air after Friday night's "Def Comedy Jam," with which it shares a target audience. "Society's Ride" will originate at the City, a NYC nightclub. As executive producer, Perez will begin taping the initial four half-hours in February. HBO retains the right to pick up "Ride" after its trial run.

'ZINE SCENE

Elvis Makes DJ's Fortune!

In 1955, a crew filming a short subject on Cleveland concert promoter Bill Randle shot some footage of Pat Boone's opening act, an relative unknown named Elvis Presley. The film never aired, but Randle, now an air personality at WRMR/Cleveland, kept the reels and secured the rights. He recently sold the footage — some of the earliest ever shot of the King — to a UK firm, which turned it over to its parent, PolyGram, for $2.2 million!

Whatever amount of money he netted on the deal should provide some solace for Randle, who declined to become Presley's manager way back when. Now he says he wants to take on that "loudmouth kid" ... Rush Limbaugh (People).

U2: Solid Cold

U2 grace the cover of UK music 'zine Q, whose readers voted them "Best Act In The World Today." Regarding the dour image the "Joshua Tree" cover gave them, drummer Larry Mullen notes: "We were frozen standing there. Now I'd just like to know, if it had been sunny, what would have happened? There'd have been a completely different album cover, and it would have brought everyone to a different conclusion."

Meet The Rutles

Rolling Stone cover guy Neil Young says, "When people start asking you to do the same thing over and over again, that's when you're way too close to something that you don't want to be near."

"Frankly, I've made a lot of money over the years. If I want to make music outside of the mainstream, I can't expect massive sales, so there's no self-pitying to go on" — David Bowie, who's wrapping up his first solo LP since starting Tin Machine in 1988 (Rolling Stone).

Trendicators

Looking for the next Seattle, Entertainment Weekly's "Trends" page turns a hopeful eye on Chapel Hill, NC, a college town where a local pop scene flourishes — fueled by WXYC and Mammoth, an indie label which recently pacted with Atlantic for distribution.

The Globe says ex-Who bassist John Entwistle will join the Rolling Stones following Bill Wyman's exit.

"Elton Wasting Away On New Chew And Spit Diet" warns the Globe headline.

Michael Jackson is using cases of his new cologne to reduce odors around his ranch's animal pens (Globe).

EXPRESS YOURSELF — "People say to just be yourself. But if you really do that, it's the most threatening, subversive thing you can do" — Living Colour axeman Vernon Reid (Rolling Stone).

Players Click

Travis Tritt, recently famed for getting pelted onstage with quarters while singing his tune "Here's a Quarter (Call Someone Who Cares)," tells People, "At about three years old, I could snap my fingers and sing Roger Miller's 'King Of The Road.' People would give me quarters for doing it, so I immediately associated singing with getting things I wanted."

Neneh Cherry recalls "My brother and I used to play these really cool games. When you're a kid you observe grownups' mannerisms and how they do things ... We used to play house, and my brother would be like, 'I'm the dad and you're the mom. You're going to clean. And I'm going to go roll a joint now'" (Us).

Silas Records President/CEO Louil Silas makes a brief appearance in NPR comic "Spinal Tap" member Harry Shearer's GQ story about Magic Johnson's basketball camp for grownups.

Parton Me!

Dolly Parton called Whitney Houston to ask if she'd like to duet on "I Will Always Love You" at a NYC benefit. Houston said "Your song? I believe it's my song." Parton stammered, "Well, I did write it, and I've sung it in a motion picture." Houston replied, "But it wasn't a success until I sang it," then said she didn't want to sing it with anybody (National Enquirer).

Hot Divas & Oral Hygiene

Madonna, Vanessa Williams, and Barbra Streisand are among Penthouse's "10 Hottest Women in America."

Among the "divas" chosen by Interview's semi-popular poll are Sonic Youth bassist Kim Gordon, Deee-Lite singer Lady Kier Kirby, Tommy Boy act/drag queen RuPaul, and Sinead O'Connor.

Streisand and "Robocop" Peter Weller "now keep 'his' and 'hers' toothbrushes at each other's homes" (National Enquirer).

L.A., NY Mornings Become Eclectic

Howard Stern maintained his morning reigns in NYC and L.A., according to the Fall '92 Arbitrons. But there was turbulence in the Top 10 lists below him, particularly in the City of the Angels.

Stern was off a share in NYC, but his leading competition, the WINS news team, fell almost as far. WRKS's Fox & Webb vaulted to third, while WFAN's Don Imus registered the biggest jump in the Top 10. WHTZ's Zookeepers were the only CHR morning team to make the Top 10.

In L.A., Stern and runners-up Mark & Brian (KLOS) were off slightly, with KABC's Ken & Barkley and KIIS's Rick Dees up a bit. Concurrent with Rancho KLAX's phenomenal rise to No. 1 overall, its morning team shot from 1.2 to 4.4, tying still-rising Hispanic competitor Pepe Barretto (KLVE) for fifth. The remainder of the Top 10 personalities were all up as well.

King Displaces Downey

Roughly 160 stations have committed to carry Larry King's afternoon show, Westwood One VP/Affiliate Relations George Barber tells ST. King's move to daytime is set for February 1.

The largest market locked up so far is DC, where WWRC will carry the program. Westwood also has deals with WIBV/St. Louis, WNDE/N.O., and KNHN/KC. Barber admits he's had trouble landing a NY affiliate, but expressed confidence the Suspended One will ultimately find a place in Gotham.

To make room for King, WWRC will shift afternoon driver Mark Davis to the 9am-noon slot currently occupied by Morton Downey Jr. GM Dick Rakovan said he hasn't decided where to put Downey's show — or how long 'WRC will continue to air it.

Those decisions will likely be affected by Downey's plans to leave 'WRC later this month to join KGBS/Dallas, which will pay him a salary and take over as flagship of his network.

In other WWRC news, veteran afternoon talker Joel A. Spivak has been told his contract will not be renewed "in its current form." Rakovan says Spivak's future is "being discussed" and depends on a variety of factors.

"IF I WERE YOU"

"IF I WERE YOU"
I'd Read This:

WEGX - Brian Philips - Philadelphia: "The Wailing Souls' hypnotic hook and message cuts a wide swath across format boundaries. The Luongo Radio Mix sounds great on Eagle 106."

KMEL - Hosh Gureli - San Francisco: "The Wailing Souls have quickly developed a broad audience in the Bay Area; crossing into the pop, urban, reggae, and alternative scenes - keep a close eye on this one."

Q106 - Tracy Johnson, Tom Gjerdrum - San Diego: "After playing the record for three weeks, every female in the radio station overwhelmingly said 'play it more!' - so we're going to." (Added at #32!!!)

HOT97.7 - Victor Zaragosa - San Jose: "A smooth and funky way to start the new year - we're already starting to see phones - keep your ear open for this one."

SAFETY FIRST! — In a true sign o' the times, Bloomington AOR WKLQ/Grand Rapids rang in the New Year with a billboard showing traditional year-end party favors nestled on a nightstand alongside an opened box of ribbed condoms.

Rumbles

- Consultant (and former WYNY/NY PD) Michael O'Malley is joining Pollack Mullins/Nashville as a consultant/researcher, and will serve as GM of the company's new Accu-Track research arm. He'll remain in NY.
- Jesse Johnson is the new PD at financially troubled CHR KKBE/SLC. He replaces Tom Sherman, who returned to Ithaca, NY.
- KZFM/Corpus Christi Sales Mgr. Lillian Katz is upped to GM, replacing the exiting Bryce Taylor.
- KPSI/Palm Springs PD Bob Clark becomes GM in the wake of Don Nelson's sudden resignation. APD Michael Keane cops the PD nod.
- KHAK-AM & FM/Cedar Rapids up MD Jeff Winfield to PD and mldday personality Dawn Johnson to MD.
- After just three days on the j-o-b, J.L. Fisk leaves the KFRQ/McAllen-Brownsville PD post to take the programming reins at WCHK/Canton-Atlanta, replacing the exiting Bob Grayson.
- Former KXKT/Omaha PD Brian DeGeus cops the PD slot at CHR KRBL (Laser 98.5)/Albuquerque.
- WHO & KLYF/Des Moines up Ops Supervisor Tim Gardner to PD of the Full-Service/AC combo.
- KJYK & KKLD/Tucson OD/PD Alan McLaughlin exits to form AC consultancy McLaughlin Broadcast Services.
- WMEE/Ft. Wayne PD Jeff Davis becomes OM.
- N/T KTMS/Santa Barbara names 3-5pm talk host Gerry DeWitt PD. DeWitt — a three-term Santa Barbara councilman — replaces Rick Bailey, who resigned to pursue non-radio interests.
- Former WERZ/Exeter, NH MD Steve McVie becomes PD at Gold WRZE/Nantucket-Cape Cod, MA, which will soon flip to CHR. WBOS/Boston APD Stella Mars fills McVie's MD slot, but will continue to do weekends at 'BOS nevertheless.
- In other 'BOS radio news, noted Beantown blues authority Holly Harris has been named host of the station's "Blues On Sunday" program.

Berkowitz has installed former 106KHQ/Charlevoix, MI PD Chris Davis as acting PD, and speculation is Davis'll get the post on a fulltime basis. (More important, his 193-24 market move earns him ST's coveted "Leap O' The Week" honors.)

ST hears Cantrell is one of the key candidates for the PD post at crosstown AC KRXY. Word is Burkhardt/Douglas consultant Don Benson is quarterbacking the PD search. Will the Mile High City host another head-to-head CHR battle in the near future?

Philosophy 102

Also departing over philosophical differences is Jay Taylor, PD at Clear Channel Adult CHR Q105/Tampa, who'll exit amicably at the end of January. Taylor will aid VP/GM Tim Menowsky in the search for a new PD.

Meanwhile, over at Clear Channel's WRVQ/Richmond, GSM Linda Forem has been upped to Station Mgr., sparking rumors that veteran GM Phil Goldman may soon depart. ('RVQ PD Steve Davis abruptly exited last week.)

Will Mike McCoy, PD at sister KJ103/OKC, transfer to 'RVQ? Are Charlie West and Don Benson the lead candidates to consult the station?

Still more Clear Channel news: the company has purchased CHR KHFI/Austin. Tongues are waggin' trying to guess what that'll mean for 'HFI, but it's way too early to predict.

Mercury/Nashville VP/Promo Bobby Young resigns, effective January 29. Look for him to become part of indie promoter Jeff McCluskey's soon-to-be-announced Country operation. Rumors are Young will be named VP/Promo and report to Eddie Mascolo, who's slated to become Sr. VP/Promo.

Meanwhile, look for McCluskey to open an Atlanta office headed up by Cristal Radio honcho Kim McFadden, who'll get VP stripes. McFadden's primary focus will be interfacing with CHR GMs and GSMs to help direct revenue into stations via turnkey marketing promotions, consumer products, and advertising schedules.

Several changes at WMMS/Cleveland: Middayer Matt “The Cat” Lapczynski and station voice/fill-in personality Len Goldberg — both 'MMS staffers since the mid-'70s — have exited. Afternoon Lisa Dillon moves to middays, and Ric “Rock Dog” Bennett slides into afternoons. PD Michael Luczak is now handling the station's voice work.

Also at the Malrite AOR: Traffic reporter Laura Farrell joins morning drivers Jeff Kinzbach & Ed “Flash” Ferenc as a fulltime morning personality. Farrell is replaced by Patty Harken. And . . . Doug Kubinski moves from promotion to programming. He'll assist Luczak and do some weekend/fill-in work as well.

Classic Rock WKFM/Syracuse, which was seriously eyeing a move to Country, apparently has had a change of heart. The station received FCC authorization to change calls to WEQL on December 28, but the new year arrived with the 'KFM calls and format intact.

Philosophy 103

KKMG & KKFM/Colorado Springs Dir./Prog. Chris Baker exits over some more of those philosophical differences. His post has been eliminated. KKMG PD Scooter B. Stevens and KKFM PD Mark Stevens now will be calling their own shots.

Here's some good financial news for a change. KISR/Ft. Smith owner Fred Baker Jr. has managed to pull his station out of Chapter 11.

Elsewhere in L.A., champagne glasses were certainly clinking at Talk-formatted KFI, which became the first direct format challenger to beat Cap Cities/ABC's venerable KABC. Following the dismissal of popular host Tom Leykis, Cox's KFI featured the much-publicized services of former L.A. Police Chief Daryl Gates in afternoons during much of the rating period.

New York Moves

WRKS/New York retained its comfortable hold on the market, but the CHR derby tightened even more: WHTZ and WQHT tied, while third-place WPLJ finished just two-tenths of a point behind the pair. Classic Rock WXRK continued to outpace rival WNEW-FM, which suffered its lowest book in nine years.

Fries said. He said some of the weakness in national spot sales for 1992 may be the changing marketplace for spot buys, with national advertisers placing more advertising at the local level, particularly for promotion-oriented campaigns.

The Midwest was the only region to post a November gain in national revenues, up 2%. The East was off 8%, the West dropped 5%, the Southeast lost 3%, and the South-west slipped 1%.

For the first 11 months of the year, local revenues were up 5%, with gains in all regions. But national revenues were off 7%, with all regions posting declines.

RAB's figures are based on data provided by the accounting firms of Miller, Kaplan, Arase & Co. and Hungerford, Aldrin, Nichols & Carter.

other KRG rep firm. Chires spent virtually all of his Katz career in the Detroit office, where he had most recently been VP/Stations, Midwest Division.

Hastings said Colombo's decision to retire came quickly, after the two discussed the idea for the first time last month. "Charlie has made a lot of contributions to the company and everyone wishes him well," Hastings said. He also said that Colombo will keep a desk at KRG "as long as he wants it."

Colombo hasn't announced his future plans and didn't return R&R's calls. He had been Banner's only President, serving since the former Blair Radio was purchased by KRG in 1987.

result. A New York buyer noted, "If someone were to dictate the market, I'd go to my client and say, 'Take the market out of radio. Put it in outdoor, put it in cable. They're monkeying around with the rate and they're gouging you. Take it out of radio.'"

One station group owner understood the concern: "You have to show both stations separately. There is a lot of negative reaction to any perceived cram-down."

- The report pointed out that some buyers saw advantages with LMAs, including "one-stop shopping" and the possibility of putting the same promotions on two stations.

The survey's participants offered these suggestions to stations considering a duopoly/LMA:

- "Choose stations in a similar demo or format, or ones that complement each other."

- Have a merger of equals. "The third and the seventh station in the market, OK. But not the third and 30th."

- "Take the time to sell each station on its own merits. Separate research, qualitative, everything, and then tell me about the combo ..."

- "Locally, I'm afraid that owners will say, 'Hey, we could do the same volume with half the salespeople.' That's a fallacy. It will take more salespeople — not less — and better salespeople."

and is a proven leader. There was never a question in my mind as to who I'd appoint as GSM."

Before joining the combo four years ago, Weller worked in New Orleans as LSM at WDSU-TV, GSM at WWIW (now WBYU), and AE at WGNO-TV.

Juris previously was NSM at WSHE/Miami and LSM for KLUV/Dallas.

thrilled to have Frank and Brian lead that effort."

Cody and Owen Leach formed the company five years ago. Concurrent with the new appointments, Leach has left Broadcast Architecture to pursue other opportunities.

Cody's industry career spans 30 years, including executive posts with NBC Radio and ABC Radio. He has also programmed KLOS/Los Angeles and KBPI/Denver.

Stone had been COO/general partner of Pyramid Broadcasting, where he provided consultation to operators and lending institutions experiencing difficulty in loan performance.

worked concurrently as WSM-AM & FM/Nashville MD and TNN Coordinator/Video Music.

Macky joined KQBR as PD three months ago following two years as KRTY/San Jose PD. He previously programmed KMIX/Modesto and spent nearly nine years at KSON/San Diego as an air personality.

Depeche Mode Show New 'Faith'

Depeche Mode's "Songs Of Faith And Devotion" — the band's first new LP since 1990's "Violator" — will mark a departure for the band. Recorded in Hamburg and Madrid, the 10-track disc has been described as harder and less slick than previous efforts, with more guitars and feedback. Once again, Flood produced and Anton Corbijn did the visuals (including video and jacket art).

Rounding out the U2 similarities (Flood and Corbijn worked on U2's "Achtung Baby" LP), Brian Eno did two remixes of "I Feel You." That song will go to radio in mid-February. Among the album's other original cuts: "Walking In My Shoes," "Condemnation," the epic "In Your Room," and "One Caress," the last of which features Martin Gore's voice backed only by strings. The Sire/Warner Bros. disc should hit the streets March 29.

Drivin N Smokin

Drivin N Cryin's forthcoming "Smoke" LP is likewise said to be a harder-rockin' effort than their last album. Once again, Geoff Workman (Elvis Costello, Paul McCartney) produced, and Ron St. Germain mixed. Prime cuts include "Back Against The Wall," the title track, and the eight-minute epic, "Patron Lady Beautiful." "Turn It Up (Or Turn It Off)" goes to radio January 27. Island/PLG will be driving the full disc into stores February 23.

Mac Reunites For Inaugural

Following the Clinton campaign's use of Fleetwood Mac's 1977 hit "Don't Stop (Thinking About Tomorrow)," the band has agreed to play at the Inaugural Gala in Washington, DC on January 19. The event will mark Mick Fleetwood, John McVie, Christine McVie, Lindsey Buckingham, and Stevie Nicks's first performance together since 1980. Warner Bros. plans to rerelease the track — featured on the recent Mac box set "The Chain" — to radio on January 15.

Brian May Solo Set

It's been five years in the making, but former Queen guitarist Brian May soon will see the Stateside release of his first solo LP, "Back To The Light." May, who co-produced with Justin Shirley-Smith, sings and plays guitars and keyboards. His band includes Whitesnake bassist Neil Murray, drummer Cozy Powell, and, among the three backing vocalists, former Manfred Mann's Earthband singer Chris Thompson.

The UK hits so far have been the title track, "Too Much Love Will Kill You," and the first U.S. track ("Driven By You"), which goes to radio here January 25. The Hollywood LP is due February 2. May will kick off a two-month U.S. tour as Guns N' Roses' opening act on February 23.

Buddy Guy & Buds

A galaxy of stars joins blues guitarist/vocalist Buddy Guy on his new "Feels Like Rain" LP, which John Porter (Smiths, School Of Fish) produced. Paul Rodgers is heard on the first radio track, a version of the Soul Brothers Six/Grand Funk Railroad's "Some Kind Of Wonderful." Bonnie Raitt is heard on John Hiatt's "Feels Like Rain"; Travis Tritt sings on John Fogerty's "Change In The Weather"; and John Mayall guests on "I Could Cry."

Ex-Faces keyboardist Ian McLagan and Little Feat's Bill Payne and Richie Hayward also appear on several tracks. Guy wrote two tracks ("She's A Superstar" and "Country Man") and covers James Brown's "I Go Crazy," as well. The 11-song Silverstone LP arrives March 9. "Some Kind Of Wonderful" comes to radio the first week of April.

Flipper's Major Debut

Influential grunge rockers Flipper will make their major label debut with "American Grafishy," their first album since 1984. The San Francisco band produced this 10-song Def American/WB set, with label owner and longtime fan Rick Rubin executive-producing. Cuts include "We're Not Crazy," "Fucked Up Once Again," "Exist Or Else," and "Flipper Twist." The disc hits the streets next week.

Concert Ticket Sales Hit $1 Billion In 1992

U2 mount third-most successful tour on record

Overall concert ticket sales hit $1 billion in 1992 — a 21% increase over 1991 figures — according to Fresno, CA-based Pollstar. However, last year's totals failed to surpass 1990's record $1.1 billion mark. Island/PLG act U2's 73-show "Zoo TV" tour led the way, grossing $67 million in the U.S. As a result, the tour became the third most successful on record — only tours by the Rolling Stones (1991, $98 million) and the New Kids On The Block (1990, $74 million) have generated more money.

For a look at the Top 20 biggest tours of '92, check out the adjacent chart:

HOLIDAY PROMO REVIEW

Q102/Philly Helps The Homeless

When winter turns the streets cold and the holiday spirit warms hearts, the ever-growing problem of homelessness looms large. Many stations focused their promotional/charitable efforts on this social ill this winter. EZ's WIOQ (Q102)/Philadelphia stands out for its commitment.

The promotion itself - which was months in the making - culminated with a pair of 12-hour on-air appeals for food, clothing, and other necessities. The remotes originated from the Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless in North Philly, and from the St. Barnabas Mission for the Homeless the next day.

Do Your Homework

As Q102 PD Jefferson Ward explains, if you're going to do any community project, you'd better do your homework. "Morning man Rick-Baby and I were talking when he first joined up [last October from KHTK/St. Louis], and he told me he'd been homeless for a period in his life. It was really shocking to hear about it firsthand. He talked about how sad it is that the only time people think about those on the streets is at the holidays. Our conversation made a powerful impact on me, and I decided to do something to help out.

"Since last May, Q102 has been involved with a massive movement called 'Peace On The Streets,' which we've used to bring listener awareness to issues that will help improve the quality of life in the city - such as gang violence, AIDS, voter registration, and now the homeless.

"The first thing we did was identify how we could help the most people with our efforts. We discovered the Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless and St. Barnabas Mission for the Homeless. We had countless meetings with the people who ran these centers to identify their specific needs and decide how to maximize our efforts.

"From start to finish, the whole promotion took several months. Hey, we could have thrown together a couple of remotes in 10 minutes, but this required working with our staff on their sensitivities. We had to make sure every staffer and we had excellent client involvement. We gathered enough clothing to fill three tractor trailers, while someone donated a computer to help keep track of the homeless. Somebody donated a van to St. Barnabas. "Since the broadcasts, we've received letters, calls, and additional donations from all sectors of the community. This was some very powerful radio, and it brought out the good in people." Ward concludes, "Radio in the '90s must become community-involved. At Q102 we've got an ethnically diverse audience, and we've made it our mission to be involved with all sectors of the Philadelphia area, regardless of race. We're trying to do more than just win ratings."

Having A Cool Yule

As usual, CHR stations were out in force this holiday season. Here's a collection of the season's charitable promotions.

• KPWR (Power 106)/Los Angeles was a little too successful with its second annual "Power of Giving Food Drive" at a Lucky's supermarket in suburban Montebello (12/19). According to PD Rick Cummings, the broadcast and live show, which featured A Lighter Shade Of Brown, Shai, 2nd II None, Mellow Man Ace, Brotherhood Creed, MC Serch, and the Power 106 "Hip-Hop Army," were scheduled to run from 9am-6pm.

The event was cut short at 2:30pm, however, when police declared the area "totally gridlocked with traffic." Even so, more than three tons of food were collected for the Union Rescue Mission before the plug was pulled.

Meanwhile, Power 106, XHTZ (Jammin' Z90)/San Diego, and the Knott's Berry Farm theme park came together for an all-night New Year's Eve event called "K-Rave '93." The show featured Black Sheep, Movement, N2Deep, and Djimbe, as well as dozens of deejays spinning techno, hip-hop, acid jazz, and house music for more than 15,000 revelers.

• WPGC/Washington collected more than 25,000 coats, blankets, and other cold weather items with its second annual "Coat Drive 95" (11/27-12/11). The donations were distributed to the homeless through various shelters and relief agencies.

• WNCI/Columbus kept busy with a massive 12-day giveaway.

For each of the 12 days of Christmas, the morning zoo handed out such prizes as a room's worth of furniture, a cruise to the Bahamas, cash, an entertainment center, $2000 worth of groceries, and a car phone with a year of free calling. Winners qualified to snag the grand prize - a new Pontiac Firebird.

• KSOL (Wild 107)/San Francisco morning crazy Mancow Muller led a drive to cover the city's seven-foot-high "Guardians Of The Gate" statue with coats. All donations went to the Central City Hospitality House for distribution to the needy.

• WZYQ/Frederick, MD continued its successful "Christmas Cash For Kids" campaign. For three days, WZYQ and sister WQSI suspended regular programming to mount a radiothon soliciting pledges and donations from listeners. All cash and goods were distributed to needy local children. Area merchants did their part by reducing prices on items earmarked for donations. The campaign set a new record this year by collecting better than $50,000 in donations.

• Finally, countless stations from coast to coast did their annual Christmas Wish promotions, asking less fortunate families to send in their Christmas wishes. Every day during the holiday season, lucky listeners saw their wishes come true thanks to the stations involved.

Radio in the '90s must become community-involved. We've made it our mission to be involved with all sectors of the Philadelphia area.

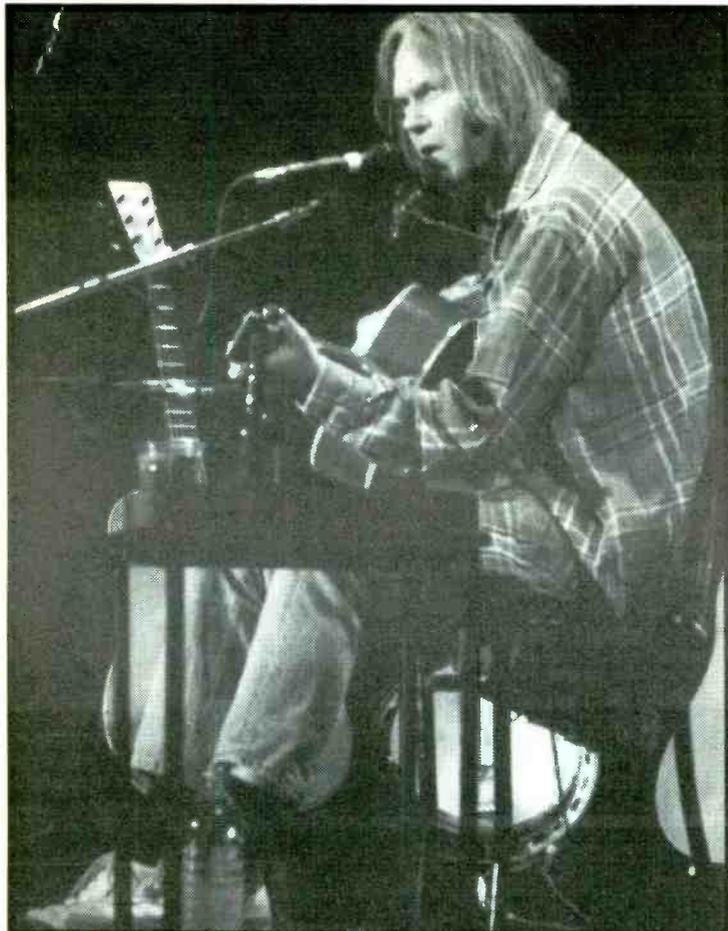

was prepared to deal with this issue, because we were going to be spending a lot of time with the homeless. To ensure they could talk about the promotion intelligently on-air, we had to make the jocks understand that the homeless were just people and that their problems were exclusive of race, sex, or upbringing."

Community Commitment

In the weeks leading up to the broadcasts, Q102 aired touching promos in which homeless people talked about their lives on the streets. Ultimately, the "response was incredible," says Ward. "Every jock came to the broadcast, BABY IT'S COLD UP HERE - KKXL/Grand Forks, ND morning show member Matt Montgomery (l) had 93 hours to test out his warmest coats while living on a rooftop in a fold-down ice fishing house. During his marathon, the station made children happy by collecting donations to Toys For Tots.

TURKEY BINGO - WDCG (G105)/Durham-Raleigh morning masters Bob & Mike found an interesting way to dispose of holiday leftovers. The duo dropped a frozen turkey from helicopter onto a game grid and awarded $1000 to the listener with the winning number. Picking Personalities: What Management Wants

A guide for those doing the hiring . . . and those hoping to get hired

It's a problem most broadcasters face on a regular basis: finding winning air talent. And it's a problem many personalities face: finding their next job.

The hiring process is difficult for parties on both sides of the issue, and they often share many of the same questions and concerns. I've talked to many managers who see a dire need for those seeking employment to know how to present themselves better. And plenty of personalities would like to improve their chances of getting hired.

With that in mind, I spoke to two PDs and a VP/GM to find out what they look for in prospective air talent and what makes an impressive tape and resume package.

Talent Flexibility

WXYV & WCAO (Heaven 600)/Baltimore OM Roy Sampson looks for "a number of different things, depending on the shift I'm filling — whether it's mornings, middays, afternoons, or evenings. The main thing is someone who can do the job. You need to know this person has the experience. I also look for a person — regardless of experience — flexible enough to learn new aspects of the job. The person has to understand that growth is a graph addressing why the person would like the position. After that, I'm looking for relatable material about that person's past that would lead to acquiring the position.

"I like a person with good communicative skills, whether through writing or good follow-up phone calls. That's important."

Impressive Image

WZAK/Cleveland PD Lynn Tolliver appreciates it when applicants take the initiative to go a little further. "The first thing I look at is the resume and tape. Some are clever enough to include a picture of themselves. That way, I see how they'd look in public representing my station. Some people don't think that's important, but I do. If your personalities do a lot of personal appearances on behalf of your station, looks come into play. They're like movie stars — radio personalities have appeal. And if they're attractive, well-groomed, and have taken the time to put together a maximum package, I'm going to look a bit further. If a person is clever enough to compete, he has to have a decent presentation.

"If the person isn't in your city, it's important that you have several lengthy telephone conversations to see how he conducts himself and articulates. At this point, you still may not be able to make a decision."

As an example, Tolliver mentions the process he went through when hiring afternoon personality Lankford Stephens. "I asked Lankford a lot of questions. The questions I asked didn't all pertain to the business, and I noticed it kind of threw him off guard. But it gave me an idea of what kind of a person he was. You have to be more concerned than just looking at the paperwork. You have to dig in and find out what kind of person he or she is."

Sometimes, little things make a real difference in the way your presentation is received. Tolliver notes, "You can add that personal touch so your package will stand out. Some use an overnight delivery service. The aircheck may feature your on-air work but also showcase other vocal skills, like production work. It should contain something done in a conversational tone so the prospective employer gets to hear another side of you. Anything you think will enhance your chances of getting the job should be on your aircheck."

Tolliver also says the potential employer should be honest when

Roy Sampson

An aircheck should represent the person. I don't mind hearing a flub or two because I'm listening for a natural-sounding person.
—Roy Sampson

positive for him and the radio station." And what should be on the tape and resume? Sampson says, "An aircheck should represent the person. I don't mind hearing a flub or two because I'm listening for a natural-sounding person. Within that aircheck, I'll be able to tell if the person has the qualities I'm looking for.

"Many people think an aircheck has to be absolutely perfect in terms of execution and segues; that's not necessarily true. Airchecks should be scoped; they don't have to be long. I'm looking for an aircheck that gives me a good feel for how a person handles himself on the air with key format elements, personality, and interaction with listeners. I also look for strong production skills — that's a must."

Sampson believes resumes should be short, sweet, and to the point. "I run across resumes that are a tad too long, with too much information that isn't pertinent to the position we're trying to fill. I also look for a cover letter with a par-

Don Rosette

I look for personality. Because radio is a team effort, you want someone who can mesh with your team.
—Don Rosette

responding to applicants. For example, he says there's no such thing as being "overqualified" for a position. "It's better to have it and not need it than not to have it and need it. That's why I don't believe in someone telling someone they're overqualified. Who has the right to tell somebody that? There are plenty of people working in the sanitation department with college degrees, but that's the job they want and that makes them happy. 'You're overqualified' is just another way of saying they don't want you."

Team Attitude

When WMVP/Milwaukee VP/GM Don Rosette reviews tapes and resumes, he wants to find the person behind the words he sees and hears. "I look for personality. Because radio is a team effort, you want someone who can mesh with your team. Everyone can write a resume, and people have learned how to interview. You can be fooled by the interview or resume, so I look for prior work experience and how they get along with others."

What impresses Rosette when he's reviewing tapes and resumes? "An aircheck is a bunch of splices. It can make announcers seem much tighter than they really are. So I look for articulation, enunciation, and timing.

"On the resume, I look for creative things they've done during their careers . . . things that took some initiative for them to create. I also look for people who have good ideas and tell me what they brought to the fore, instead of just following orders.

"It's also nice to see what they think they can do to help enhance my station. Did you enhance anything at your last station? Did you have anyone working under you? These types of things help make for an impressive resume."

Rosette also tries to distinguish the difference between people who want to work and people who want to work for him. "Over the years, I've learned that people sometimes take a job just to have the job . . . until they can get the job they really want.

"It's important when you're the manager of an AM station to make sure applicants are interested in that specific job. AM stations have a kind of programming that's different from many of the FM stations. Our station's involved in the community, and that requires talent to have a real personality."

Puttin' On The Bits IV

Here it is, just when you need it most: the annual compendium of contests, features, and silly games AOR listeners are being subjected to every morning. It's your golden opportunity to steal . . . er, borrow some bits and freshen up your station's Breakfast Club, Breakfast Flakes, Dawn Patrol, Dawnbusters, zoo, etc.

Morning shows at all R&R AOR reporters were invited to share up to three of their favorite bits. The descriptions are theirs and should be self-explanatory. Feel free to call if you need help deciphering any of the bits.

Some bits were originated by the stations that submitted them; others are variations on a familiar theme. Some are market-specific bits that can be adapted for your own purposes. Regardless of where a bit was developed, please remember: Just because a particular morning show donated a bit or feature to this column, that doesn't mean they're taking credit for creating it.

KLBJ/Austin (Dale Dudley & Bob Fonseca):

• Why Should We Give You Something? – Rapid-fire phones; listeners call and give us reasons – from the sad to the sublime – why we should give them something; a great opportunity to use your delay.

• Celebrity Collect-Call Game – First listener who can get a celebrity to call us collect wins.

• My Husband/Wife Would Kill Me If . . . – Using aliases, listeners confess things they can't tell their spouses.

WZBH/Georgetown, DE (Matt Harris & Cory "The Kid" Gallant):

• Dick, No Dick – Takeoff on "Cop, No Cop." We call [various businesses such as] Dick's Restaurant, Dick's Bar, etc., all over the country. Contestant has to guess whether Dick is actually there.

• Drive-Thru Follies – Contestant on car phone goes to fast-food place and attempts to [persuade] drive-thru girl/guy to perform bizarre acts.

WXLP/Davenport, IA (Greg Dwyer & Bill Michaels):

• Rex McGuire & The Ralph Sterling Orchestra – Rex is a character who was the "King Of Swing" in the '30s. Now, today's rock stars are stealing his music without compensation. As proof, Rex submits the "original" version of the song. Basically, Rex sings the lyrics of a rock song over a big band music bed. (We "borrowed" this from Scott Robbins at WBNQ/Bloomington, IL.)

• Speak The Word – We get a contestant on the line and tell him "the word," then conference a friend of the contestant. Contestant has to use normal conversation to make his friend speak "the word" in less than 60 seconds.

KOMP/Las Vegas (Lark & The Byrd):

• Cunning Linguists – We pick two ridiculous words from the dictionary you've never heard and get two listeners on the phone. Each has to use the word in a sentence. The more creative/closest [usage] to actual meaning wins.

• Whatcha Wackin'? – Listener bangs phone receiver on part of his/her body; we have 30 seconds to identify body part, or we have to cough up a prize.

• Stump The Chumps – Listeners try to stump us with a rock 'n' roll trivia question.

KPOI/Honolulu (Chris Rowe & Charly Espina):

• Hooter Tuesday – Female listeners call in from work and rub phone receiver on their chests. Chris guesses their bra sizes.

• Air Biscuit Morse Code – On TGIF (Thank God I'm Flatulent Friday), listeners try to decipher a Morse code message from fart noises. Also works as a "Name That Tune" contest.

WDHA/Dover, NJ (Vic Porcelli & Maria Lake):

• Rock & Roll Homonyms – Listeners suggest two different songs with the same title; i.e., "Rock & Roll" by Led Zeppelin and the Velvet Underground.

• Morning Musical Topic – We take a sound bite from the morning's network news and play it between two appropriate songs. For example, for a story on impotence we used "Lift Me Up" and "Help Me Up."

KMFZ/Columbia, MO (Sean Michaels & Sally Chase):

• Bruce Asbury Fashion Update – Last year there was a new weatherman at a local TV station, and he turned out to have the "wardrobe from hell." We keep track of everything he wears and, using a lispy-voiced character named Mr. Rusty, run down the list.

KLCX/Eugene (Eric Worden & Mark Goodman):

• Looney Lyrics – Jocks recite one or two wacky lines from a well-known tune. Listeners must identify artist and title to win.

• Letter Of The Day – We select a letter each day and use it to "disarm" words not allowed on air; e.g., "Ruck you, you rastard . . . suck my renis." If used sparingly, it's a source of some good, harmless fun.

WNOR/Norfolk (Tommy Griffiths & Henry "The Bull" Del Toro):

• Dirty Joke Of The Week – Every Thursday we find a dirty joke with an extremely rude punchline. We give the setup on the air; listeners call in to hear punchline. Calls are taped; punchline is edited out and run backwards, followed by listeners' laughter.

HOLY COW! — Two crazed WRKR/Kalamazoo listeners answer the musical question, "What would you do for a rock 'n' football weekend in Philadelphia?" by wrestling in a trailer full of warm cow manure.

• The Capitol Hill-Billies – An overly produced sitcom parody about the trials and tribulations of the Clinton/Gore clans. Lots o' bad puns and canned laughter.

WMFX/Columbia, SC (Benji Norton):

• Concert Dude – Always calls station when show comes to town and screws up all the info. Called up during Christmas and wanted to know if he should wear extra protection to the "Nutcracker."

WKDF/Nashville (Ian Case & The Duke):

• The Coyote Birthday Countdown – Starting 100 days out, we counted down the days till cross-town Y107 "zookeeper" Coyote McCloud turned 50. It became an

"over/under" contest in which listeners won prizes by guessing whether celebrities were older or younger than Coyote. The bit climaxed with a birthday party for Coyote on the lawn of a nursing home.

• Office Brown News – Listeners rat out the biggest brown-nosers in their office by giving initials of the butt-kisser. Offenders also have right to turn themselves in. Others might do this, but I swear I invented it.

KFMX/Lubbock (Jackie & Wes):

• Shakin' For Seats – We shake a common office or household item in front of the mike and take calls until its identity is exposed. Winner gets concert tickets.

• Dangerphone – A blanket name for many of the cheap phone gags DJs do. We come on the air with the "Dangerphone" theme, offer a prize, and warn listeners they must do our bidding. In the past people have dropped pumpkins on their phones, a man blew bubbles into his dog's dish (during a snowstorm), etc. We can pop this in whenever we want and not devote an entire hour or morning to a single gag. And we occasionally have "Dueling Dangerphone" when we pit two people head-to-head.

WJXQ/Lansing (Tim Barron & Debra Hart):

• Mr. Obvious – Using very cheesy character voice, welcome caller and ask him to identify an excerpt from a song by title and artist. Before playing the excerpt, Mr. Obvious tells caller the artist's name. The excerpt itself contains the song title. Especially funny when listener still can't figure it out, and a great way to get rid of sales-generated prize crap.

• For White Guys Only – Tongue-in-cheek response to Black Entertainment Television's "For Black Men Only." We get three or four white male callers on-air for a group discussion of "issues" such as gun rack placement in pickup trucks, hockey etiquette, bowling techniques, and more. If you do a little prescreening and find intel-lignant smart-asses who will play along without racist comments, it's a scream.

WRKT/Erie, PA (Mojo McKay & Deb Ireland):

• Threaten Me Like A Wrestler — Listeners call in and threaten jocks "like a wrestler." Twist: have two listeners on-line and do a "threaten-off"; prize goes to best and loudest threat. Really cool twist: have guy at work call up his wife and threaten her until she hangs up.

• Thighmaster Olympics — Our guy Weasel hits the streets and creates obstacle courses that use the Thighmaster (makes a great gift). Sample course: drink a glass of Kool Aid, run 50 yards, do 15 reps with the Thighmaster while chanting "no wimps allowed," and cross the finish line.

PROMOTION REVIEW

Honing In On Holiday Happenings

Stations helped their communities cope with the tough economy during the holiday season by staging the following activities.

• WLIF/Baltimore raised more than $20,000 for Santa Claus Anonymous by selling "1993 Spotlight On Maryland Calendars." The calendars - which sold for $1 apiece - contained 14 listener-submitted photos and were available at several local stores.

• Attentive WMJX/Boston listeners won $50 Filene's Basement gift certificates when they correctly identified songs played on the station. Four finalists then selected four-member teams (two adults and two children) to participate in a 30-minute Filene's shopping spree. The team assembling the most outfits within the time allotted won a $200 gift certificate. All clothing selected during the spree was distributed to needy individuals in the Boston area.

• "The Christmas Guest," "There's No Such Thing As A Chanukah Bush," "Polar Express," "Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus," and "The Night Before Christmas" were among the stories read by various celebrities in "Let's Read," a WLIT/Chicago read-along show. The program promotes literacy and the use of libraries. Audio signals informed listeners when to flip to the next page of the book being read.

• WPNT/Chicago morning talent Kelli D'Angelo hosted the Jingle Bell Run to aid the Arthritis Foundation.

• WQAL/Cleveland helped 4000 local children by granting holiday wishes. The station launched its campaign with a morning drive remote broadcast from Dillard's/Public Square. "Sharing Trees" - displayed in each of Dillard's 14 Cleveland and Akron locations - listed the names of local kids suffering from physical or emotional hardships. Shoppers visiting the trees were told a child's name, age, and desired gift. Those purchasing gifts for specific children were rewarded with heart ornaments as keepsakes.

• Nine hundred area families benefited from KLYF/Des Moines's "Holiday Food Project." Several sponsor locations were equipped with receptacles for the collection of nonperishable food items. Cash donations also were encouraged.

• Thanks to KLTH/Kansas City, $50 donations to the Don Bosco Center helped buy local families Christmas dinner, a week's worth of food, and a gift for each family member.

• On New Year's Eve, KLIT/Los Angeles morning personalities Jim Carson & Carolyn Gracie hosted what was billed as "one of the largest street parties on the West Coast." Welcoming '93 were two live bands and a laser/pyrotechnic midnight countdown.

• Kenny Rogers offered his new cassette to all those who participated in WALK/Nassau-Suffolk's Toys For Tots campaign.

• For the seventh consecutive year, WSNE/Providence opened its Christmas Wish line and distributed toys, food, and cash to Southern New England's needy.

• As part of its "Ultimate Christmas Wish," WRAL/Raleigh gave away $16,000 to 12 different winners. Furthermore, 10 days prior to Christmas, a sweepstakes number was read on the air - that number's holder had 10 minutes to call 'RAL and claim the $25,000 payoff.

Two days later, morning personalities Bill Jordan and Sheri Logan participated in the station's second annual Salvation Army Celebrity Bell Ring. While increasing awareness of the charity's efforts, the event also raised about $25,000.

• WMTX/Tampa put a different spin on the "Home For The Holidays" promotion by actually awarding a $125,000 home. The station claimed it was the "biggest prize package offered to a single listener in Tampa Bay radio history." In addition to the four-bedroom/three-bathroom house, the contest winner scored a $5000 furniture shopping spree and a new BMW with $1000 in the glove compartment.

Prospective participants were asked to write down when they listened to the station. When responses were read on the air, those who called the station within the specified frequency-related time limit qualified. WMTX gathered approximately 200 qualifiers at the home site and conducted a random drawing of 96 names. Each qualifier was handed a key; the person holding the key that unlocked the front door was the winner.

• For the fourth consecutive year, WLQR/Toledo reminded listeners that "Christmas Is For Children." As a result of the four-week promotion, the station brightened the day for about 700 needy children. Gift requests - ranging from books to clothing - were read on-air, and listeners were encouraged to purchase those presents. A local agency distributed the items in time for Christmas.

ALONE AGAIN - WASH/Washington midday personality Tim Byrd (l) congratulates "Home Alone 2" contest winner Ziggy Lehnert.

WAITING FOR AN INTERVIEW - WJLK/Monmouth PD Gary Guida and PM driver Lou Russo (top, l-r) greet Foreigner's Mick Jones and Lou Gramm for an on-air interview.

Recording Alternative Thoughts

PDs of three radically different stations explain their definitions of New Rock music

Since this format embraces so many different musical genres, it's always been difficult to describe. What music qualifies as New Rock (modern rock, alternative, etc.)? What makes an artist or song appropriate or inappropriate for a particular station?

Rick Lambert

KNDD (The End)/Seattle

"[New Rock is] a break from the mainstream. It's finding the best music that's not getting a lot of exposure.

"Musically, it's gotten harder over the past couple of years, with Seattle grunge, the Rollins Band, Helmet, etc. It used to be a lot more pop — New Order, Ramones, B-52's, and Oingo Boingo. The format is fragmenting; there are now both pop and harder-edge New Rock stations. Seattle's setting a trend toward more rock. This will continue through '93 because more major Seattle rock bands are get-the opposite end of the spectrum. Lambert notes, "We can't get too light. The syrupy, almost AC-type of melodic alternative songs just don't work.

"We can't actively go after females by playing Tori Amos or Annie Lennox, because we risk blowing away the lower-demo male who's our bread and butter. I still want to get some of these artists in the music mix, but we have to seriously watch the balance. We get negative calls when we play these artists: The males say these songs are for [AC] KLSY."

Lambert usually takes a second look at records based on what his peers are doing. "I watch 91X [XTRA-FM/San Diego], Live 105 [KITS/San Francisco], KROQ [Los Angeles], and Mike Summers in Salt Lake City [KXRR (X-96)]. I may consider a song more seriously if these stations are playing it, because of their track records."

Jim McGuinn

WEQX/Manchester, VT

McGuinn believes there are no boundaries to what New Rock stations can play. "When you can play Lyle Lovett and Sonic Youth on the same station, it's difficult to define alternative.

"We can play just about any genre we want. Just because we play Lyle Lovett and Shawn Colvin doesn't mean we're a granola station. On the other hand, just because we play Sonic Youth, we're not going to play every grungy punk band. We're looking for the best songs. We want to play the hits.

"We're far more concerned with musical quality than genre. We've had great success with records that never even made the New Rock chart. For example, we played the Spin Doctors, which was never worked to New Rock."

Two major exceptions to 'EQX's multigenre policy: dance and rap. "I'd love to play Arrested Development, Basehead, or Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy, but they wouldn't fit our library."

Reflecting on the changes within the format, McGuinn notes, "A lot of early '80s pop bands aren't as relevant today. For example, Human League, A Flock Of Seagulls, Modern English, and Blondie were core artists of the early '80s. Now they're fringe novelty bands. I remember when Duran Duran and Missing Persons were supposed to be the future of the format.

"Back then, the music trend was synth-pop. Now it's guitars galore. It'll continue moving back and forth as it has over the last few years. Right now, we seem to be in a grungy post-punk metal stage. Who knows — we could be dancing next year."

Mike Morrison

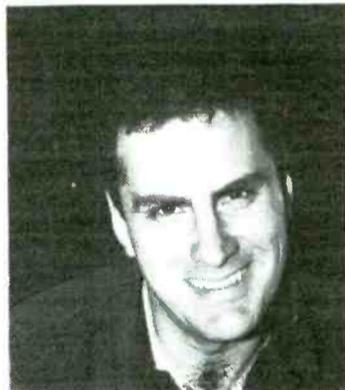

WXPN/Philadelphia

"I don't like to use the term alternative, because it creates expectations you don't necessarily want to have to fulfill. We're talking about a philosophy that values certain qualities in an artist. Perhaps it's an artistic drive that might not exist with someone more mainstream.

"The difference between what is and isn't mainstream New Rock has become blurred. This is good. Years ago, when the format was referred to as New Wave, it was thought of as a ghetto format appealing to a small audience. When you see bands like Nirvana and the Red Hot Chili Peppers break through on a massive level, it encourages a more open-minded attitude toward alternative records.

"Some people think Shawn Colvin is a New Rock artist. But Colvin doesn't have a whole lot to do with the Sex Pistols, Ramones, or the history of the format. She's accepted because there's something real, passionate, and valid about what she's doing.

"I listen with an open mind to anything — from folk to things that might be conceived as too loud for us. You have to be conscientious and distinguish yourself from other stations in the market. If it's a hit, I'll find a way to play it.

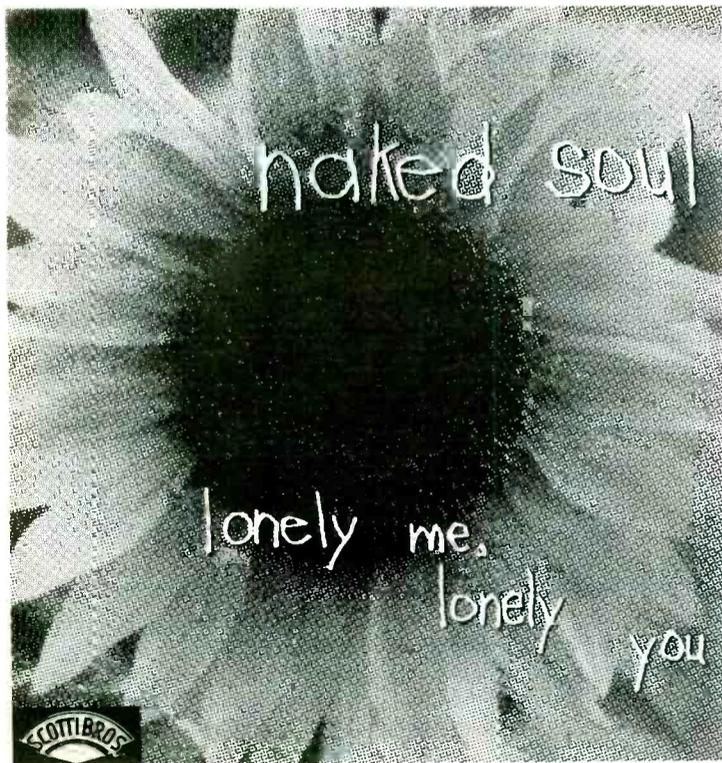

"For instance, we added Messiah's 'Temple Of Dreams.' A lot of people around here thought it was inappropriate to play a techno band. It's dangerous to say we can't play certain records. You need to be open to trying things and evaluating them as you go along."

Rick Lambert

ting signed by major record labels."

As a station on the forefront of the Seattle rock scene, The End has to carefully evaluate records at

- Track: "Love U More"
- LP: "O₃"
- Label: Columbia

• Essentials: Sunscreen, who take their name from an explosive, harmonic preset sound on the Yamaha DX7, are Lucia Holm (vocals and keyboard), Paul Carbell (keyboard), Darren Woodford (guitar), Rob Fricker (bass), and Sean Wright (drums). After working together previously in another band, Holm and Carbell formed Sunscreen in 1990 in Essex, England. The band has its own studio, Retreat, where it does its own remixes and producing. The album "O₃" (the compound for ozone) is due in February.

• Artist POV: "It was always our intention to take live music to the rave scene. Now a number of acts are doing the same," says Carbell.

RockFile highlights breaking artists charting for the first time.

"We play as a live band because we play best that way. Otherwise it wouldn't be much different from a DJ playing a record."

• Label POV: Columbia Nat'l Dir./Alternative Promotion Todd Bisson says, "'Love U More' was discovered as an import by KDGE (The Edge)/Dallas. They turned on KNNC/Austin, then KROQ/Los Angeles, KITS/San Francisco ... and the rest is history.

Cover Stories

Though songs are about as plentiful in Nashville as snowflakes in a blizzard, occasionally artists — and labels — look backward for inspiration, instead of forward. Reaching into the vaults for time-tested classics, they sometimes find that success will march to the same tune twice.

• RCA/Nashville has once again released Dolly Parton's "I Will Always Love You" to Country radio. Recorded earlier this year by Whitney Houston, the tune recently reached the top of R&R's CHR, Urban, and AC charts. Parton first released the song nearly 19 years ago, and it was released again in 1982, when it appeared on the soundtrack of her movie, "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas."

• The Kentucky Headhunters pay homage to their bluegrass roots by covering another Bill Monroe tune, "Blue Moon Of Kentucky," on their forthcoming Mercury/Nashville album, "Rave On." The new LP, the first to feature new members Anthony Kenney and Mark Orr, is set for a February 23 release. The Heads wrote the first single, "Honky Tonk Walkin'," which will cross your desks January 11.

• New Liberty Records group Palomino Road has released a cover of the 1955 George Jones tune, "Why Baby Why," which Jones wrote with Darrell Edwards. The song has also been cut by Red Sovine and Webb Pierce (1956), Hank Locklin (1956), Warren Smith and Shirley Collie (1961), Jerry Inman (1978), and Charley Pride (1983). Incidentally, Palomino Road's lead singer, Ronnie Guilbeau, is the son of former Burrito Brother Gib Guilbeau. He also penned the Poco tune "Call It Love."

• Kathy Mattea's latest single, "Standing Knee Deep In A River (Dying Of Thirst)," was also recorded by Don Williams, who included it on his RCA/Nashville LP, "Currents." The tune was written by Bob McDill, Bucky Jones, and Dickey Lee.

Showdown In Branson

Kenny Rogers has been tapped to headline the national finals of the True Value/GMC Truck Country Showdown talent competition January 9 at the Grand Palace Theatre in Branson, MO. Doug Stone and Louise Mandrell are among the celebrities who'll judge the efforts of six acts competing for the grand prize — $50,000, a recording contract, and a new Yukon GMC truck. be edited into a one-hour Country radio special which will air on over 400 stations at the end of this month. The competition will also be taped and syndicated to 140 television stations for airing this spring.

Wild, Wild West

When Warner Bros./Nashville gave its new Warner Western label a proper Music City christening

Wednesday night (1/6) at Nashville's Station Inn, among those in attendance were Hal Ketchum, Kevin Welch, and numerous others who answered the call of the western beat. Waddie Mitchell, Don Edwards, Red Steagall, Bill Miller, and the Sons Of The San Joaquin are among the artists on the new Warner label's roster.

Shortly after the event, the Sons Of The San Joaquin departed for Saudi Arabia, where they will headline the U.S. Information Agency's Arts America Tour of the Middle East. The group will play 15 cities during the month-and-a-half-long tour.

The Sons Of The San Joaquin and Edwards will also appear on a new soundtrack album for the upcoming Warner Bros./Lorimar TV miniseries, "The Wild West," which also features the talents of Gary Morris, Pam Tillis, Crystal Gayle, Michael Martin Murphey, Marty Stuart, and John McEuen, among others. Ninety-eight musicians participated in the project, which is scheduled to begin airing in various markets March 15.

Garth Brooks was recently named "Oklahoman of the Year" by Oklahoma Today magazine. Brooks, the first recipient of the award, recently made the news by surprising his managers, accountant, and attorney with handpicked Jaguars as Christmas presents. You can catch Brooks in Entertainment Weekly's year-end wrap-up issue, in which he's named one of the Top Entertainers of 1992.

Clipping The Competition

When Ray Stevens opened his own wallet to pay for the production of four new videos for his first longform video, "Comedy Video Classics," he had no idea he'd surpass Billy Ray Cyrus in sales within six months. Stevens's video has sold 1.1 million copies since its June debut (almost twice that of two of Cyrus's videos), yielding $22 million in sales. Currently available only by mail, the video collection will hit stores this spring, where its sales could double the direct marketing totals.

School's In

Vanderbilt University's Blair School Of Music is offering a general survey course on the music business taught by industry veteran Jim Foglesong. The 15-week class, which explores all facets of the music industry (including songwriting, publishing, promotion, engineering, and many others), meets Wednesday evenings beginning January 13. For more information, contact Blair at (615) 322-7651.

The Songwriters Guild of America is offering a Songwriting 101 Workshop beginning February 9 at its Nashville headquarters. Little Big Town Music President Woody Bomar will teach the basics of the songwriting business during the first two sessions, while the remaining three will focus on actual pitch sessions with industry personnel. For registration information, contact Debbie McClure at (615) 329-1782.

HURRAH FOR MURRAH — Murrah Music Corporation was doubly happy during its recent BMI No. 1 party, thanks to scoring back-to-back chart-toppers with "I'm In A Hurry (And Don't Know Why)" and "Two Sparrows In A Hurricane." Enjoying the festivities are (l-r) BMI's Clay Bradley, Alabama's Teddy Gentry, songwriter Roger Murrah, songwriter Mark Alan Springer, and BMI's Jody Williams.

24TH ANNUAL CONFAB

CRS: 'We've Got What's Hot!'

Now that the holidays are behind us, it's time to start planning for the 24th Country Radio Seminar.

This year's theme is "We've Got What's Hot!" As always, the CRS agenda committee — led by KLAC & KZLA/Los Angeles OM Bob Guerra — has crammed tons of stuff into the seminar's March 3-6 timeframe. Among the panel topics:

- Promotion — The Revenue Department Of The '90s. A PD, promotion manager, retail promotion consultant, and client will discuss ways to make money and increase listener loyalty.

- Production Workshop — Toys Of The '90s. This hands-on demonstration will feature all the gadgets available to ease life in radio's sweatshop.

- Programming Nuts & Bolts. The nation's top PDs will offer tips to make your station a winner — whatever your market size.

- Radio Managers Revenue Workshop. Four of the hottest radio sales topics will be examined: new ideas for new dollars, out-of-the-box revenue opportunities, motivating a sales staff, and cross-marketing for the competitive edge. The panel also will discuss practical strategies for today's environment.

- Hotseat: Real Answers To The Questions You Always Wanted To Ask. Those questions you've never been able to get a straight reply to will be answered by several of Country's most influential people.

- Sales — An Open Forum. This free-form discussion will focus on sales and its relationship to promotions.

- Women In Charge. This panel will address the following issues facing women in today's workplace: networking, the importance of communication, turning obstacles into advantages, and sexual harassment.

- Searching For The Hits. By participating in an actual music test, you'll learn how to recruit, execute, and tabulate an auditorium music test using today's most advanced technology.

- Meet & Greet & More. This session will emphasize how to enhance artist, label, and radio station relationships by going beyond routine avenues of artist accessibility (i.e., on-air, backstage visits).

- Duopoly. Since the radio industry as we've known it has been changed by the FCC's new rules, this panel will examine the changes and their impact on programming, sales, and promotion.

- Morning Radio — It's Worth Getting Up For. This one-liner fest will highlight some of the format's hottest air personalities and producers, who'll provide an inside look at how top morning shows "put the magic together."

- Radio Wars — How To Fight And Win. This "must-see" session will showcase debates between competitive PDs and consultants.

- WCRS Live! CRS 24 will conclude with TV and radio personality Charlie Chase hosting a "live" radio show featuring conversations with and performances by Kenny Rogers, Travis Tritt, and other industry stars.

Longform Speakers

Once again, the CRS will provide in-depth, longform discussions by the industry's top motivational speakers. C.W. Metcalf will return with a session called "Humor, Risk, And Change." As a "specialist at humor," he'll provide an updated view of "more ways to be relaxed, productive, and creative in a world that does not necessarily want to cooperate." He also will reveal how a sense of humor can enhance creativity, help with problem-solving, stimulate the imagination, and help in risk-taking.

R&R columnist Dan O'Day also will return with his two-part "Air Talent Tactics." He'll discuss "Power Phones: How To Use Them," "Manipulating The Media: Self-Promotion Tactics For Radio Programmers And Talent," and more.

Kragen & Company President Ken Kragen — who manages Kenny Rogers, Travis Tritt, and Trisha Yearwood — will examine "The Stardom Strategy: How To Be A Superstar In Your Chosen Career." He'll delve into the principles of successful career development and will offer insight on how to establish goals and set your sights on the top.

Roundtables

The one-to-one, interactive nature of the roundtable discussions has proven extremely popular over the years. Among the topics you can discuss with industry experts:

- Hiring/firing
- Database marketing
- Country nightclubs
- Legal standards and practices
- Video and Country radio
- Station critiques (by top PDs, consultants)
- AM programming alternatives
- Station interactions/getting promoted.

TAKING THE BULL BY THE HORNS — KBUL/Reno morning man J.J. Christy found an interesting prop when he visited Highway 101's tour bus. Hanging out 'til the cows come home are Christy and the group's Nikki Nelson.

Talent Galore

Such CRS fixtures as the Artist Radio Taping Session, Video Artist Taping Session, Artist/Attendee Welcome Reception, Exhibit Hall, and luncheon showcases will be back again. Incidentally, the label showcases will be moved to larger rooms, and radio personnel will receive priority access.

Reba McEntire is set for Thursday night's Super Faces Show, sponsored by the Academy Of Country Music. She performed at the New Faces Show in 1980.

As always, the ever-popular New Faces Banquet & Show will conclude the seminar. The artists slated to perform include: Boy Howdy, Tracy Byrd, Confederate Railroad, Radney Foster, Matthews, Wright & King, Martina McBride, Ronna Reeves, the Remingtons, Dennis Robbins, and Michael White.

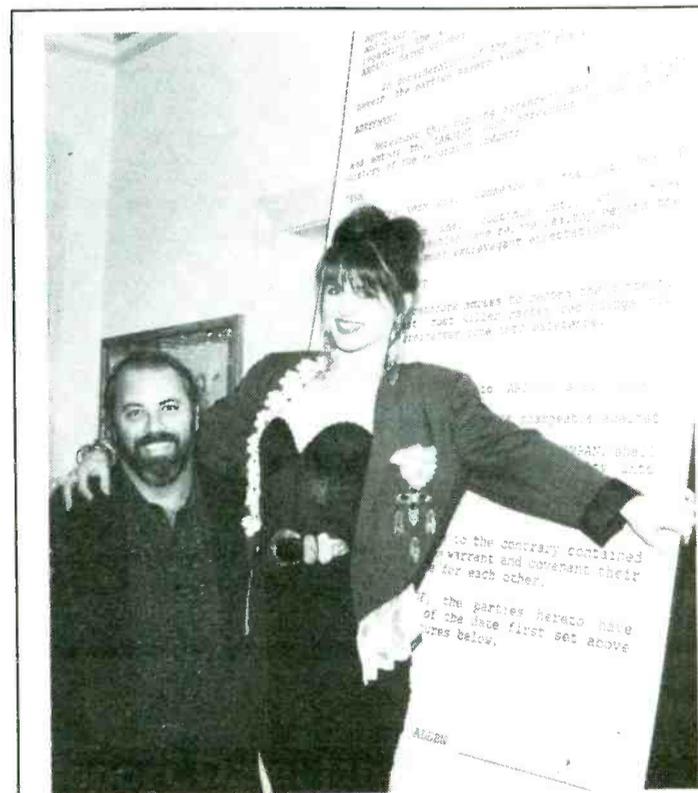

New to this year's seminar will be a silent auction to benefit the Country Radio Broadcasters Scholarship Endowment Fund. Such items as memorabilia, electronics, travel-related packages, radio production time, and autographed objects from entertainers, athletes, and other celebrities will be up for bid.

Registration for CRS 24 is $300 through January 15. Between January 16 and February 12, the cost will jump to $350. The fee is $425 after February 13. Spouses and students receive a $100 discount. For more information, call (615) 327-4487.

If this isn't enough enticement to attend CRS 24, perhaps you're suffering from a higher than normal degree of post-holiday depression. Get over it by planning to come to Nashville in March.

A HARD WAY TO GO — Clint Black's "Hard Way" tour rolled into Greenville recently, with local WSSL giving away concert tickets and two cowboy hats to commemorate the occasion. Smiling for the camera are (l-r) WSSL midday man Ric Lawrence, Black, and Lawrence's wife, Marty.

BIG WORDS — Giant Records/Nashville President James Stroud congratulates new artist Deborah Allen, who recently signed what may be the largest contract in Nashville history.

Mary was married with children
Had the perfect suburban life
'Til her husband came clean with the help of Jim Beam
And confessed all his sins one night
Said he'd fallen in love with a barmaid
Said she made him feel reckless and young
And when he was through, what else could she do
She just let that pony run

PLAYLISTS — Artists are listed once per playlist in the highest rotation that any of their album's tracks is reported. For example, if tracks from the same album are reported in both heavy and medium, the artist will appear in heavy.

For all stations, light rotation is condensed to include only adds to the rotation this week. For P-2 and P-3 stations, medium rotation is condensed in the same manner.

Symbols: 'a' — Album or track is newly reported. (M); (L) — Other tracks from that album are in those rotations (medium or light).

A "frozen" list indicates that a current report was not received, and last week's rotations are included in the data base. Stations which fail to report for two consecutive weeks do not contribute any data to this week's charts.

PARALLELS — Stations arranged by market size, according to Arbitron's MSA population figures.

Parallel One: 1,000,000 +. Parallel Two: 200,000 - 1,000,000. Parallels Three: under 200,000. Stations at a significant ratings disadvantage to an in-format competitor are assigned a lower parallel.
