Support For Survey Promos Unstable In Some Markets

Houston owner says on-air test is Arbitron ploy to raise rates; stations vote today

Arbitron's experiment with spring on-air survey promos received the unanimous support of Atlanta broadcasters, but the company's attempts to spread the trial to four other cities is being met with a measure of skepticism.

The ratings company announced last week that its 17 subscribers in Atlanta will be airing on-air promos encouraging listeners to take part in the survey process if asked and promptly return the diaries. The 30-second prerecorded spots will air once per daypart in phases two and three of the Spring '93 survey.

Rate Increase Feared

Gold/Nostalgia KNUZ & KQUE/Houston owner Dave Morris said he told Arbitron officials in a meeting last week that he senses a hidden agenda in the company's desire to implement on-air tests. "Arbitron seems to be doing some further research at our expense," Morris said. "We're putting everything up — they're not putting anything up. And if they're successful, they'll come back with a big rate increase. Instead, it should be a two-way street."

Morris said his station would not commit to the experiment until he's satisfied that Arbitron will not tie rate increases to the tests. He's also concerned about airing the spots once per daypart on a station such as his that has an unusually long time spent listening.

Arbitron officials previously stated that they probably won't implement the test in any market where there isn't unanimous consent among its subscribers.

Lost Inventory

Before his meeting with Arbitron, KLOL/Houston VP/GM Patrick Fant told R&R that he was an early supporter of on-air

Boston Radio Marriage Annulled

Atlantic-Pyramid merger collapses over financing and operational concerns; Atlantic to seek more stations; KRG in driver's seat

Boston-based Atlantic Radio and Pyramid Broadcasting have scrapped their merger plans after disputes over financial and operational matters began to surface between the principals of the two companies.

Under terms of the deal announced last September, Atlantic CEO Steve Dodge was to serve as Chairman/CEO of the proposed new Boston Radio Group, focusing on finance and strategic planning. Pyramid CEO Richie Balsbaugh agreed to function as President/COO in charge of operations, station management, and promotions. The two executives insisted they're "parting on terms of mutual respect" despite differing perspectives on why the deal collapsed.

"It just didn't come together," Balsbaugh told R&R. "The money hasn't come to the table and we didn't have an end in sight. The market didn't perceive us as we perceived us. Instead of pissin' in the wind, we just decided to unplug it. If it comes together in the future, fine."

Funding Not Forthcoming

Balsbaugh — who pointedly noted that Dodge was in charge of financing — said a half-dozen institutional investors were approached, but funding was not forthcoming. "The deal didn't get put together with the equity money the way we hoped. The deal was largely dependent on [the Boston radio market's fortunes]. Broadcasting here has had a couple of bad years; people are reluctant to throw their money in."

Balsbaugh said he moved to

EFM Seeks Cash For Limbaugh

Hot talker Rush Limbaugh is goin' for cold cash.

According to numerous sources, Limbaugh syndicator EFM Media has begun charging some middle and large market affiliates a significant cash fee for the successful show. Those charges are in addition to the four minutes per hour EFM currently receives from affiliates.

Limbaugh

While it's not clear how much stations are being asked to pay, the annual fees are apparently based on market size — and negotiable. "If you look at the top 25 markets, my guess is that you'll find 22 or 23 different deals," speculated one GM who recently came to terms with EFM. Based on his own experience, the exec guessed EFM may be asking those affiliates for "$25,000-$75,000 or more."

Sources said that stations balking at the payments are gently reminded that the affiliation agreement gives EFM a quick out.

EFM President John Axten declined to comment on the fees. "We don't do business through the newspapers," he said.

Affiliates Not Amused

EFM apparently began negotiating fee arrangements with middle and large market affiliates early this year. Interestingly, some Limbaugh outlets in

Another CRS Attendance Record

A record crowd of 1994 gathered to celebrate the theme "We've Got What's Hot" at the 24th annual Country Radio Seminar, held at Nashville's Opryland Hotel March 3-7. Attendance surpassed the previous record of 1705 set last year.

The festivities opened in startling fashion when the artist-attendee cocktail party was suddenly plunged into darkness by a motorist who crashed into an electric substation. The blackout lasted two hours.

This year's confab was characterized by the quality programming and sales panels. There was more music than ever, with upward of 100 performances by more than 60 artists, including Dolly Parton, Vince Gill, George Jones,

WXRK VP/GM Tom Chiusano commented, "Everything about Tim stands out. His incredible energy, enthusiasm, and experience in Classic Rock radio made him the right choice. He's a terrific guy and he'll do a great job for us."

Kenyon Appointed VP/GM At WLTJ

WLLZ/Detroit GSM George Kenyon has crossed the street to become VP/GM of WLTJ. Kenyon replaces Terry Wood, who exited the Viacom Soft AC outlet two months ago.

Viacom Radio Division Sr. VP/Operations George Wolfson noted, "George is an aggressive talent who brings a wealth of experience and market knowledge to WLTJ. We're excited to have him join our team and are confident in his abilities."

Kenyon told R&R, "I'm very pleased to be here. Viacom believes in putting the right resources behind its stations; they want to be winners. WLTJ is well-positioned in a very competitive market."

Prior to joining AOR WLLZ in 1985, Kenyon previously was an AE at WLNS-TV/Lansing.

WSB/Atlanta Taps Mocerri As New PD

WTIC (AM)/Hartford PD Greg Mocerri has been named PD of Cox News/Talk WSB/Atlanta, effective March 29. He replaces Jim Ashbery, who resigned last fall to become PD at WCCO/Minneapolis.

WSB GM Marc Morgan commented, "Greg's qualities are numerous, but key among them are a passion for News/Talk and the ability and personal style to fit in with our existing on- and off-air staff."

Said Mocerri: "WSB is a great station with great people in a great city. It's a station that's looking for some leadership. My job will be to fine-tune it and let people know what WSB is all about."

Mocerri joined WTIC as ND in late 1990 and was named PD in January 1992. His career also includes a stint as ND of WOOD (AM)/Grand Rapids and two years as assignment editor/anchor at WZZM-TV/Grand Rapids.

Allen Becomes Colfax Group PD

Steve Allen has been named to the newly created post of Corporate PD at Minneapolis-based Colfax Communications, effective March 22. Allen is currently PD of CBS Gold outlet WODS/Boston.

Allen will oversee programming at all Colfax properties, including Sports/Classical combo WTEM & WGMS/Washington, Gold KQQL/Minneapolis, and WCTS/Minneapolis, which is currently dark. The company has also agreed to acquire WJZE (Jazzy 100)/Washington.

"Steve's skills and experience are uniquely matched to this organization's needs," said Colfax President Steve Goldstein. "Not only has he been successful programming Oldies and Jazz, he's a tremendous sports fan as well."

Prior to joining WODS in 1991, Allen served tours as PD of WGRR/Cincinnati and WBMW (now WJFK)/Washington.

Ratings Flashbacks

Sixteen years ago R&R published its first large-scale ratings breakout, covering the Fall 1976 Arbitron book. Following are the leaders in today's Top 10 markets then and now:

Market	F'76	F'92
New York	WABC (CHR) 7.8	WRKS (UC) 6.5
Los Angeles	KABC (T) 6.7	KLAX (Spm) 5.3
Chicago	WGN (AC) 13.0	WGN (Mjsc.) 8.5
San Francisco	KGO (N), KCBS (N) 8.4	KGO (N/T) 9.6
Philadelphia	KYW (N) 10.6	WYSP (CR) 7.7
Detroit	WJR (AC) 14.4	WWWW (Ctry) 8.7
Washington	WMAL (AC) 12.0	WPGC-FM (CHR) 9.3
Dallas	WBAP (Ctry) 10.0	KSCS (Ctry) 9.8
Boston	WHDH (AC) 9.9	WBZ (N/T) 7.4
Houston	KYND (BM) 8.4	KILT-FM (Ctry) 8.8

Fast facts: Nine out of 10 leaders were AMs in '76; only three are now. In all but two cases the leading share in '76 was higher than '92's (close in Dallas, though). Leading format: AC in '76, Country in '92. And although only two stations led in both years (KGO and WGN), two others (KYW and WJR) were '76 champs and still led their markets in the book previous to Fall '92.

Summit: $130 Mil. Bond Sale

Privately owned Summit Communications Group has gone public with its finances for the first time in order to sell a $130 million bond offering on Wall Street. The company says it will use the proceeds to refinance existing debt, but it is also looking for additional acquisitions.

According to its SEC filing, Summit reported net earnings of $16.8 million in 1992. However, that followed net losses in each of the four previous years: $13.1 million in 1988, $23.5 million in 1989, $8 million in 1990, and $17.4 million in 1991. Summit said the losses came "principally as a result of significant depreciation and amortization charges relating to radio stations acquired by the company in connection with the acquisition of DKM [radio group] in 1988 and the completion in 1990 of a series of rebuilds of the cable systems, as well as interest charges on the debt incurred to finance the DKM acquisition."

In 1992, Summit's radio group accounted for 45% ($48.2 million) of its net revenues of $107.8 million, but only 34% ($18.2 million) of the company's operating cash flow of $54 million. The rest was attributed to its cable TV systems in Georgia and North Carolina. Summit's radio properties are WRKS/New York, KHVN & KJMZ/Dallas, WAOK & WVEE/Atlanta, WCAO & WXYV/Baltimore, and KAZY/Denver. It has a deal pending to sell KAZY to Jacor Communications owner Zell/Chilmark for $5.5 million. Summit said it is investigating radio acquisitions under the FCC's new duopoly rules, but would also consider underperforming stations in other major markets.

Reducing Debt

Virtually all of Summit's stock is held by the Gordon Gray Trust, whose trustees are the late founder's sons, Gordon Jr., Bernard, and C. Boyden Gray (who was a top aide to Presidents Ronald Reagan and George Bush). None are active in day-to-day operations, but each is paid $100,000 per year — $90,000 more than other company directors.

If the bond offering by Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette and Lazard Freres & Co. is successful, Summit expects to receive approximately $126.1 million after offering costs. The new, lower interest rate (to be set at offering) bond debt (due in 2005) will be used to pay off $88 million in notes at interest rates of 11.9% to 12.75%, with the rest to reduce the company's senior debt to Toronto Dominion Bank. The recapitalization won't do much to change Summit's total debt of over $230 million, but should reduce its annual interest expenses.

NAB, EIA Reach DAB Testing Agreement

NAB and the Electronic Industries Association struck a deal Tuesday (3/9), settling their dispute over how to proceed on tests to establish a U.S. standard for DAB. The two organizations will cooperate on testing of in-band, on-channel (IBOC) DAB systems, but EIA will go it alone on testing other DAB systems proposed for either terrestrial or satellite use.

It appears NAB got everything it was asking for in the showdown with EIA. IBOC system testing will be supervised by the National Radio Systems Committee (NRSC), which is jointly administered by NAB and EIA. The cost of IBOC testing will be covered 50% by system proponents, 25% by NAB, and 25% by EIA.

But NAB won't be funding any other DAB testing, and the agreement states that it "will not consider systems other than IBOC unless IBOC systems are demonstrated to not substantially meet the requirements for terrestrial [DAB]."

Testing Goal: June '94

NAB also appears to have succeeded in slowing EIA's timetable for DAB testing. EIA had originally proposed to pick a standard by the end of this year, although that goal was recently postponed to early 1994. The agreement now states "the intent of the parties is to complete IBOC testing and evaluation no later than June 30, 1994." EIA's DAB subcommittee is to implement the testing of all DAB systems submitted, including any IBOC systems to be submitted to the NRSC.

Five designers have said they would submit DAB systems to EIA for testing. But leading IBOC designer USA Digital Radio (owned by Gannett, CBS, and Group W) had withheld any commitment because of the EIA-NAB dispute. The settlement was reached shortly before R&R's Tuesday deadline, and no USA Digital officials could be reached for comment on whether their system would now be added to the testing list.

Two other proposed systems also appear to fit NAB's definition of IBOC: Amati Communications, which is on the EIA list, and Kintel Technologies, which is not.

EARNINGS

Multimedia, Saga Issue Fourth Quarter Reports

Multimedia Inc. (NASDAQ: MMEDC) reported fourth-quarter net earnings of $19.2 million (51 cents per share), compared to $14.5 million (39 cents per share) for the same period in 1991. Total revenues were $167.4 million, up from $143.2 million.

Broadcast revenues (radio and TV combined) climbed to $44.9 million, up from $40.3 million. Total cash flow was $61.8 million, up 14% from $54.1 million. Broadcast cash flow was $14.9 million, up 9% from a year ago.

For all of 1992, Multimedia posted earnings of $60.5 million ($161 per share), up from $48.4 million ($1.30 per share) in 1991. Total revenues were $576.8 million, up 10% from $524.3 million. Broadcast revenues rose from $150.6 million to $160.5 million. Total cash flow was up 11% to $219.5 million. Broadcast cash flow increased 7% to $48.1 million.

Multimedia owns eight radio stations (including WEZW/Milwaukee and WFBC-AM & FM/Greenville, SC) and numerous other media holdings.

Saga Communications Inc. (AMEX: SGA), in its first report since a December IPO, reported a fourth-quarter net loss of $288,000 (16 cents per share), compared to a net loss of $1.1 million (49 cents per share) in the final quarter of 1991. However, the most recent quarter included a non-recurring charge of $196,000, owed primarily to refinancing of its bank debt. Without that charge, the company's fourth-quarter loss would have been $92,000.

Broadcast cash flow for the fourth quarter was $2.8 million, up 72% from $1.7 million a year earlier. Revenues were $8.2 million, up 16% from $7.1 million.

For all of 1992, Saga reported a net loss of $697,000 (48 cents per share), compared to a net loss of $2.6 million ($1.31 per share) in 1991. Without the fourth-quarter charge, however, the '92 loss was $501,000 (41 cents per share).

Full-year cash flow was $10.6 million, up 18% from $9 million in 1991. The company said that $1.2 million of that $1.6 million gain was attributable to the inclusion of a full year's operations for its New England stations, acquired in April 1991. Revenues for 1992 were $31 million, up 14% from $27.3 million in 1991.

Saga owns 16 radio stations in nine markets, including WKLH/Milwaukee, WYKO & WSNY/Columbus, and WNOR-AM & FM/Norfolk.

Lawmakers Warn Ad Industry On Deductibility Reduction

Members of Congress warned the ad industry this week to be on guard against the very real threat of a reduction in the tax deductibility of some — or all — advertising expenditures.

"When you're in that [budget meeting] and you come up a billion short," said Senate Minority Leader Robert Dole (R-KS), "beer, wine, hard liquor, and advertising are the first suspects."

And indeed, Office of Management & Budget Director Leon Panetta has included a reduction in tobacco ad deductibility on his list of revenue-raising options. Rep. Jim Moran (D-VA) is mulling legislation to limit the deductibility of both alcohol and tobacco ads.

Dole said that while booze and cigarette deductions are most frequently mentioned on Capitol Hill, he wouldn't rule out the possibility that the Clinton Administration and its congressional allies might seek an across-the-board reduction in ad deductibility. Dole made his remarks at the American Advertising Federation's Government Affairs Conference in Washington.

Rep. Fred Grandy (R-IA) urged the attendees to fight any plan to limit tobacco ad deductibility, saying such an effort could lead to limits on advertising of other legal but potentially harmful products, including red meat or even candy.

Rep. Mike Kopetski (D-OR) echoed that sentiment, saying a reduction in tobacco ad deductibility would be "the Joe Camel's nose under the tent."

Cook Regains Lead In FCC Rumor Race

After weeks of speculation focused on other candidates, Senate staffer Antoinette "Toni" Cook is again being portrayed by Washington kibitzers as President Clinton's likely choice for FCC Chairman.

Last Friday (3/5) Washington's communications rumor mill was positively aflame with word that Cook would be tapped before day's end. When that didn't happen, the buzz adjusted accordingly. At R&R's deadline the gossips were looking for a Wednesday (3/10) announcement of the nomination.

Cook's boss, Sen. Ernest Hollings (D-SC), told R&R on Tuesday (3/9) that he hasn't "heard anything in weeks" about her possible nomination. Another source close to Cook said the prospective nominee herself has heard nothing official from the White House.

Cook seems to be a dream come true for the diversity-conscious Clinton Administration. She's a highly regarded communications lawyer with Capitol Hill experience who also happens to be a black woman. And yes, she is the stepdaughter of Clinton transition honcho Vernon Jordan.

American Network Group Seeks Acquisition Funds

Nashville-based American Network Group is offering $100 million in limited partnership interests so it can go shopping for radio, television, and cable properties.

President/COO Robert Williamson pointed to success in the company's first such partnership fund (a mere $2 million), which was used to purchase WPTN & WGSQ/Cookeville, TN. "Operating cash flows have increased by 114%, and net profits rose to 23% of revenues," he said.

In addition to the radio combo, the company currently operates a number of state radio networks and sports networks.

In other news:

- Former KLBJ Stations President Dick Hull has signed a letter of intent to buy KRY5-AM & FM/Corpus Christi and plans to acquire more stations as Turnaround Management Services Co. Hull's associates in the new venture include former NAB President Wendell Mayes, Austin radio/TV personality Cactus Pryor, and radio broker Dick Chapin.

- Is one of Fairmont Communications' creditors jumping the gun on trying to find buyers for the group's stations? Asked about rumors that the stations were being shopped, Osborn Communications President Frank Osborn told R&R that bankruptcy court approval would be required before the stations are put on the block and noted that it's only one of the options being considered.

Osborn manages Fairmont, which is in Chapter 11 reorganization. A bankruptcy court hearing is scheduled for later this month.

- Outspoken broadcaster Emilio Milian remains in control of WWFE/Miami after his son and other backers rescued "Radio Fe" (Spanish for Faith Radio) at a bankruptcy auction (3/4).

Milian's backers were the only bidders to meet a minimum bid of $2.7 million set by a federal bankruptcy judge. The court had previously rejected a $1.9 million bid by a group of Cuban-American businessmen that Milian had identified as political opponents.

- GHB Broadcasting has closed its duopoly buy of WCNA/Augusta, GA for $750,000. Brokerage honors go to Bergner & Co.

UPDATE

Labrozzi Joins KEYI/Austin As PD

Former KONO/San Antonio PD Dave Labrozzi has been named PD/afternoon driver at AC KEYI/Austin. He succeeds Bob Belt, who recently exited the station. Interim PD Ben Garcia remains as APD.

Labrozzi told R&R, "KEYI has great potential and great people — that's what attracted me. We're much more bright, upbeat, personality-driven, and fun than [crosstown AC] KKMJ. Our on-air approach is similar to CHR. We play the hits of the '80s and '90s, while KKMJ covers just about everything."

Prior to joining KONO, Labrozzi was APD at KLUV/Dallas and OM at WNRJ/Pittsburgh.

AP Sets Duopoly Pricing Guidelines

The Associated Press announced revisions in its assessment formula to account for new duopoly combinations. The new rules entitle owners to have new duopoly acquisitions or LMA'd stations assessed at 50% of their stand-alone rates.

"The new pricing makes it easier for our members to take advantage of market consolidation opportunities," said AP VP/Broadcast Division Director Jim Williams.

Under the new plan, the lead station in a duopoly (the one with the highest assessment) will be assessed its full single-station rate. Other co-owned stations in the market are then charged 50% of the stand-alone rate. The new rules also apply to any station operating under an LMA.

AP's assessment formula, which was adopted in 1987, is based on market size and class of station.

Crawley Cops KFKF/KC PD Spot

terrific asset to KFKF with his country music knowledge and local contacts."

Crawley said, "I look forward to maintaining a tradition of working with Kansas City's country music leader. It feels great to be with a winner."

Crawley had been with WDAF for more than 13 years, the last seven as PD. During that time, WDAF was No. 11+ in 22 of 29 Arbitron sweeps. He's also worked at KLMS & KECK/Lincoln, NE; KDEN/Denver; and KFRU & KTGR/Columbia, MO.

Sir Charles Dubbed 'Baldacious'

"Baldacious" was the winning answer when KPSN/Phoenix asked its listeners, "What one word best describes Charles Barkley of the Phoenix Suns?" The winners of that contest and a station drawing were invited to dine with Barkley at the Suns' annual Courtside Classic charity event. Seen on the scene were (l-r) KPSN's Barb Gilles, guest Steve Rizzo, Barkley, contest winner Suzanne Dawson, drawing winner Peggy Etling, PD Joel Grey, and Promotions Director Doug Brannan.

Bender

GM Dana Harmon commented, "After a nationwide search with more than 50 serious candidates, we settled on Steve because of his experience, determination to win, and great people skills."

Bender told R&R, "Our main concern is to be very focused. We have a great consultant [McVay Media's Chris Elliott]. We just need some new energy to make the station fun again."

San Antonio Combo In Format Frenzy KSAQ now Urban KSJL-FM; KSJL (AM) to N/T

San Antonio's radio landscape is undergoing major renovations. Late last week, Inner City AOR KSAQ became Urban KSJL-FM. Meanwhile, co-owned KSJL (AM) entered into an LMA with Clear Channel Communications and will change to News/Talk within two weeks.

KSJL PD Michael Andrews told R&R, "There weren't enough advertising dollars to support three AORs. We won't be going after [Churban] KTFM. They have the teens and will keep them. We're targeting 25-54 to fill the void in the market." KSAQ's entire airstaff, with the exception of MD Rikko Ollervidez, was let go.

Clear Channel, which has an option to buy KSJL (AM), already owns three San Antonio stations: News/Talk WOAI, AC KQXT, and Country KAJA. Sr. VP Mark Mays commented, "We're excited about making another investment in San Antonio. Adding another strong AM enables us to better serve our advertisers and listeners." WOAI VP/GM Bill Hill will oversee KSJL (AM).

Cutting Costs Without Gutting Morale

Cutting costs is always tough. Keeping employee morale high while making the necessary belt-tightening moves is even tougher.

When faced with such a situation, the Waterford, CT-based Management Letter suggests you take the following eight steps:

Explain your actions. Tell your employees why — and what — specific cuts are needed.

Don't blame anyone. Looking for scapegoats at any level is no help.

Explain the effects. If the prime benefit comes down to keeping a job vs. not having one, make sure you emphasize that.

Stress the benefits. Sometimes cost-cutting can help individual employees as well as the company.

Share the pain. Cutting your own nonessential perks will help rally support for the total effort.

Encourage suggestions. Your employees may have a good deal of insight into how you can cut costs even further or creatively avoid them altogether. They'll feel more involved with the plan if you let them share in drafting it.

Don't make promises. Don't be afraid to admit that you don't know when things will get better, but stress that things surely won't improve unless these cuts are made.

Keep employees informed. Make sure they see actual dollars-and-cents results as soon as you do.

Sales & Mktg. Hiring Heats Up

More than a third (36.5%) of sales and marketing executives plan to increase their staffs in the first half of 1993 — a 7.9% increase over 1992 figures.

According to a survey of 1100 sales and marketing professionals by Cleveland-based Sales Consultants International, 50% of sales and marketing execs will maintain current staff sizes (up .6%) and only 13.1% foresee a reduction (down 1.5%).

Training Isn't Everything

To improve business performance, your workers require more than just training. According to Raleigh, NC-based consultant Michael Gast, they need to believe in what you're teaching them.

Training exposes workers to your ideas and techniques, but provides little incentive to accept and utilize them.

Gast suggests giving employees training that includes a reason to believe in the procedures, a chance to practice them, and rewards for successfully applying them.

After training, see if your workers change the way they're doing their jobs. If they do — and quality as well as productivity don't improve markedly — either the training was irrelevant, or old rules, procedures, and attitudes are blocking the adoption of new ideas.

"Come down from there, Ms. Mumaw. The old catatonic/levitation trick won't work this time. That report is due today."

FROM NMJs TO SRMs

Nine Worst Attitudes In The Workplace

There are nine basic attitudes that have no place in the workplace. According to the Menlo Park, CA-based Robert Half International consulting firm, they are:

NMJ (Not My Job): Your job is to cooperate whenever possible. Being a team player only gains you respect.

NMM (Need More Money): Who doesn't? Can you show what you did to help the company?

WCT (Wastes Company Time): Try doing what you're paid to do first, then do a little more.

PPP (Promises, Promises, Promises): If you agree to do a special project, make sure you not only complete it, but also finish on time or — better yet — early.

NMH (Need More Help): Are you constantly asking for assistance when — with a little more effort — you could do it yourself? Do you offer to help others?

ACD (Always Complaining & Disagreeable): People who are never happy and seem to constantly vocalize their discontent are unwelcome in any office. A genuine upbeat attitude is always appreciated.

CWS (Clock-Watcher's Syndrome): Those who are always the last to work and the first to leave should find a more involving line of work.

DTM (Double Trouble Maker): These people are always causing friction in the organization and — what's worse — causing others' productivity to decrease.

SRM (Supports Rumor Mill): Listening to the grapevine is one thing — studies show it's 80% accurate — but contributing to it can be dangerous to your own welfare.

SALES & MARKETING

25 More Super-Shrewd Sales Tips

To help you weather — and flourish in — today's stormy radio sales climate, last week's column contained 25 of my 50 strategies to boost new sales. Here's the second half:

1 Always thank prospects for the opportunity to have made the presentation: Say, "All of us at WXXX thank you for the opportunity to present. We're confident of our ability to increase your store traffic, move more product, and make your register ring more often. The only question remaining is, 'When can we begin?'"

2 If you can't find the home office, try dialing 1-800-555-1212 (toll-free number information). Most large companies have some sort of 800 number, and you don't need to know an address to get it.

3 Show the sales department how to "reshape" newspaper ads by reducing their size to 85% on a copy machine. The ad will look relatively the same. But, since most newspapers charge by the column inch (or line rate), the cost of the ad will go down 15%. Find a way to devise an efficient radio schedule for that small percentage of newspaper budget.

4 To stay on your bosses' good side, figure out what book they're reading. Determine what chapter they're on, and force yourself to stay one chapter ahead. You'll be perceived as being on the cutting edge of today's hottest techniques.

5 International Events Group publishes a monthly report advising subscribers which national, regional, and local companies are willing to spend money to sponsor different events. Subscriptions are $390. Call (312) 944-1727.

6 When a business has been open only a few days, call and innocently ask, "Are you open yet?" Most will answer affirmatively and realize it's time to advertise. Even better: Walk in five minutes later on a cold call.

7 Whenever you receive phone calls from buyers needing favors for a potential buy in the market, put them on hold for 30-45 seconds while you "check with traffic." You'll paint the picture of a station with heavy demand on its inventory. That builds value and increases your chances of being able to raise the rate. Important: If — for example — prospects want five mornings, six middays, three afternoons, and five nights, tell them you've got good and bad news: You can't accommodate their exact schedule, but you can get them four mornings, eight middays, two afternoons, and five nights.

8 Conduct three separate interviews on three separate days: one in the morning, one at midday, and another in the evening. Determine who has energy (and how much) as well as how to tap into it.

9 If you're going to be eating lunch at the station or bringing lunch to your client, call the secretary to find out what beverage and food the person likes. Doing your homework will make a difference in the long run.

10 Remember: There are two different kinds of clients:

emotional and logical. In a sales meeting, brainstorm to find the different ways each needs to be handled. For example, emotional prospects need spec spots, while logical types need written presentations.

11 To avoid last-minute cancellations, have salespeople highlight your two-week cancellation clause. This will prevent a loss in revenue owing to your being sold out. It also will keep you from having to turn away business — only to experience last-minute cancellations you can't sell on short notice.

12 When screeners prevent you from speaking with decision-makers, call between 7:30-8:30am, at lunchtime, or between 5:30-6:30pm. Often, you'll find employees have gone home, but decision-makers stay late to get more work done. Also: Whoever replaces the receptionist at lunchtime usually won't be as well-trained as the permanent person and, consequently, may give out additional information.

13 Force yourself to write one proposal and one spec spot a day. It will make radio more tangible, get the prospect personally involved in the product, and increase your closing ratio.

14 When making recommendations in your sales proposal, create an atmosphere wherein you're the marketing expert, have experience, and want their business. Example: "During our last meeting, we discussed [client's company name] and your primary marketing objectives. Based on our experience with other businesses with similar objectives, I propose the following . . ."

15 Use bright, eye-catching, and fluorescent-colored paper for past-due statements, proposals, and notes to advertisers. These will stand out in a crowd of correspondence and make smart clients appreciate your aggressiveness.

16 To improve client relationships (and really make a difference on calls), get into the habit

Leadership 101

You can't let the inmates run the asylum. They look to you for leadership. Remember: "Accounts belong to the station. Distribution will be made with the best interest of all parties in mind."

of having three solid, money-making ideas for each of your clients upon entering their businesses. This not only forces you to do more than just "stop in," it also makes you focus on one thing: closing business.

17 Master the concept of up-selling clients. Always ask for an extra 8-12% on each call. Important: Give them a reason to invest the extra money. Early Drive, Late Drive, Church Drive, and Night Club Drive are all fine examples.

18 This April 15, set up an appearance or remote from your metro's main post office. As last-minute taxpayers mail their returns, conduct product giveaways and charge non-traditional radio clients for product sampling opportunities.

19 Start a welcome program for new station customers. Have your Sales Manager, morning team, and/or GM call or write to each new advertiser. The purpose of this is to welcome new advertisers to the station, thank them for their business, and offer your assistance in creating results. Calls should be timed just before or just after the new advertisers' schedules start.

20 To increase the number of hours your salespeople spend on the street, post a six-foot banner underneath the clock in the sales room that reads, "Now is not a good time to be in the office."

21 Sell to former clients. Federal Express monitors customers whose shipping activities decrease. Salespeople often regain accounts that were cancelled owing to misunderstandings about the company's price structure or available services or because of delivery problems that were not the company's fault (such as delays at customs or bad weather). Past customers have a proven need for the company's service, so targeting them is potentially far more profitable than making cold calls.

22 Tie in multiple high-traffic, small-ticket retailers. For example, have listeners register for a chance to win $1000 toward paying off a credit card or a back-to-school scholarship. During the first 15 seconds of each client's commercial, air "shared promos" that direct listeners to area businesses.

23 When approaching decision-makers with your business card, act as though you're giving one to them, but pull it back before they take it. Explain why your card — and you — will be different than most. Stress relationship and good service.

24 Mail follow-up questionnaires to your present and former clients at least twice a year. Have them rate you on items such as follow-through, customer service, and knowledge of their needs. Pay close attention to the results when they come back. Thank those who participated.

25 Implement a "Platinum Club" program: Invite any paying advertiser to air 100 commercials between 11pm and 5:30am during the month an existing schedule is running — for just another $495. This is perfect for commodity buyers and those who want tonnage.

'ZINE SCENE

Quello: Great Balls Of Fire!

"Maybe [Howard] Stern will have to report to a higher authority. I wouldn't be a bit surprised if someday a lightning bolt comes out of the sky and hits him right in the crotch" — acting FCC Chairman James Quello (People).

I Want You

"People who play for applause, that's all they hear. Music has a deeply spiritual component, and it doesn't reveal itself to you unless you prove that you really want to have that level of dialogue with it. Miss that opportunity, you have to pay some dues before it comes around again" — Wynton Marsalis (People).

Seen on the cover of Musician this month, Mick Jagger says, "Performers are people that like to hear people applaud them. Their ego needs the gratification. If I don't do it at all I will get, without realizing it, a bit crotchety. Friends and family will say, 'Pack your suitcase.'" "

B-Attitudes

Recalling the attitude "real" punks used to give him back in the late '70s, Q cover boy Sting says, "I always used to think, when these fucking guys are driving taxis, I will still be a musician. And some of them are driving taxis and they sometimes pick me up and I fucking laugh."

'Is Dead God?'

Jerry Garcia's mug is on the cover of Entertainment Weekly with the headline "Is Dead God?" The 10-page profile includes a timeline, discography, roundup of all the band's commercial tie-ins, pix 'n' personal data on all members, and quotable quotes from each. Drummer Bill Kreutzmann says, "The Grateful Dead have proven that you can get there from here. It's just that there are no tickets available."

Celluloid Heroes

Movieline interviewed 27 musicians on their favorite films. The cinephiles include R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe ("Wings Of Desire"), Pearl Jam's Jeff Ament (films by Peter Greenaway), K.D. Lang ("The Sound Of Music" was her first inspiration), members of Megadeth ("The Deer Hunter," "Mishima"), Mary-Chapin Carpenter ("To Kill A Mockingbird"), and Morrissey (his list is "endless," but he won't watch anything post-1971 "because every story had been told by then"). ## Arbitron promos, but remained concerned about the financial implications of the lost inventory.

The issue is on today's (3/12) agenda of the Houston Area Radio Broadcasters. One Houston GM who asked not to be identified said, "If Arbitron needs unanimous approval, I don't think it's going to happen in Houston."

Former Arbitron Advisory Council Chairman and WHYT/Detroit President/GM John Cravens said the stations in his market gave preliminary unanimous approval to the promos at a Detroit Radio Ad Group meeting last December.

"This past week's meeting with Arbitron wasn't quite as unanimous, but there's still a likelihood that Detroit's going to do it," Cravens said. "But a few things have to get worked out in terms of convincing people that it won't have a devastating effect on the research."

Worried About Inventory

Cravens said that he was worried about the inventory problem but that he and WHYT OM/PD Rick Gillette agreed that the measure would be worth the cost. "As a limited-inventory station, I'm as concerned about this [issue] as any. But I also feel that it's worth giving the inventory up or adding to it to hopefully gain some reliable information. Response rates are not improving. We can all sit there and say it's Arbitron's problem, but we've got to do what we can to help make them more reliable."

"If we increase the returns from Detroit by a couple hundred usable diaries, that can boost the reliability factor immensely. And we can be more secure in our jobs knowing that the information will be reasonably believable."

Arbitron VP/Communications Thomas Mocarsky said the ratings firm hasn't received word of any decisions from area broadcasters, but expressed hope that "they'll all be on board soon." In addition to Atlanta, Detroit, and Houston, Las Vegas and Greenville (which was incorrectly identified as Greensboro in last week's [3/5] R&R) are also being considered for on-air tests.

Limbaugh

Top 10 markets, including WWDB/Philadelphia, have not been approached.

According to one source, an EFM official told him the syndicator was inspired to impose the fees after several major market Talk stations offered to pay cash to "buy" Limbaugh away from crosstown rivals.

Affiliates contacted for this story expressed irritation with both the cash payments and EFM's decision to impose them just after most stations had begun their fiscal years. EFM, they griped, is already receiving hundreds of thousands of dollars of spot time from each major market Limbaugh affiliate.

However, most seemed resigned to paying some cash for what they acknowledge to be a top-flight show.

"They've got us by the gonads," one GM said. "Are we going to pay? Of course we are."

One PD whose station has agreed to pay for Limbaugh said the cash consideration means the show will be under much closer ratings scrutiny. "I'm going to be looking closely for any sign of [ratings] deterioration."

Burke

come PD at KSOL (Wild 107)/San Francisco last month.

Burke told R&R, "For many years, I didn't want this responsibility. But now that I have it, I look at Z90 as a child that you teach and nurture. When you eat, sleep, and breathe radio, it's a natural thing."

"Becoming this incredible airstaff's coach, cheerleader, and main motivator gives me the opportunity to expand my career and put into practice everything I've learned working with great programmers like Buzz Bennett, Randy Kabrich, Z90 consultant Jerry Clifton, and Rick Thomas."

Prior to joining Z90, Burke was an air personality at KHYI/Dallas, WQHT (Hot 97)/New York, and WCAU-FM/Philadelphia. He had previously served as MD at San Antonio outlets KTSA & KTFM and KITY.

Atlantic

terminate the merger because "you can't keep people in limbo" and his assignment of Pyramid managers to Atlantic's offices was beginning to adversely affect Pyramid's operations.

Dodge disputed Balsbaugh's claims that money was unavailable: "There were a number of business issues that had to be resolved and weren't." Dodge stated that two institutional investors, based in New York and Austin, offered equity financing commitments, but the deal became snagged because "the terms were unacceptable to certain individuals," noting that voting control was an issue. He added that Pyramid's failure to sell WNUA/Chicago was "a negative factor" in completing the merger.

Atlantic, which is building a new facility to house four Boston stations, is now looking at "five or six" potential candidates for its second Boston FM, Dodge said. However, he noted, "We'll make some outside acquisitions before we acquire another Boston FM. Our strategy is to become a multi-market company first."

The merger plans attracted widespread industry attention because of BRG's potential to acquire enormous market shares in Boston. Atlantic owns two powerhouse AM Talk stations there, WHDH &

WRKO, along with the Boston Red Sox Radio Network. Atlantic planned to pair hybrid AC WBMX with Pyramid CHR WXKS-FM. Pyramid was to spin off WXKS (AM).

Balsbaugh had predicted that the Atlantic-Pyramid merger would put a hammerlock on about 35% of Boston's total market revenue, with combined billing of nearly $70 million.

Similar large shares were predicted for Rochester, NY, where both companies owned stations. Initial plans, which called for Atlantic's WRMM-AM & FM to merge with Pyramid's WPXY-AM & FM, would have given BRG approximately 25% of Rochester's revenues. Atlantic later announced plans to sell its Rochester combo.

Pyramid also owns WYXR/Philadelphia, WRFX/Charlotte, WHTT-AM & FM/Buffalo, and Broadcast Architecture, a broadcast research company in Princeton, NJ.

One group that appears to have emerged unscathed in the collapse is Katz Radio Group. Noting that KRG has individual contracts with both companies, Katz President Gordon Hastings declared, "Nothing changes."

KRG began repping Pyramid's stations last November (it already had Atlantic) after beating out Interep in a competition for the merged group's business.

As D&R opened its doors, two more executive positions had been set: Durpetti Exec. VP/Eastern Division Manager John Fabian takes the Exec. VP/Client Development post and HNWH Exec. VP Kirk Combs becomes Exec. VP/Client Services. Both will report to Rossinsky.

According to Guild, Interep is preparing to open offices in three more cities, bringing the firm's total to 21. Six sites under consideration are Ohio (Cleveland or Cincinnati), Miami, upstate New York, Memphis, Pittsburgh, and southern New England. "There's a lot of regional business out there," he noted.

Stern: KOME Enchanted Evening

Infinity AOR KOME/San Jose became Howard Stern's 15th affiliate on Monday (3/8). KOME becomes the second station in a week to air Stern tape-delayed at 7pm, following the lead of WBCN/Boston. KOME evening personality Scott Lewis shifts to production/on-air duties during Stern's show.

KOME GM Jim Hardy told ST, "We had the opportunity to bring on America's No. 1 radio personality, and it'll make our evening daypart even better. Maybe we'll take some people away from television."

Echoing those sentiments was 'BCN PD Oedipus: "Nights are the most difficult daypart in AOR. There's really a choice for people now — do you want to channel-surf, watch 'Roseanne' reruns, or listen to Howard Stern? I think we've got a real viable alternative."

Meanwhile, Stern is rumored to be close to enlisting WHCN/Hartford, and Phoenix reportedly will soon be waking up to Stern.

And from the DC HQ of the Stern Fan Club... acting FCC Chairman Jim Quello says he's not concerned about Infinity holding the reins at Unistar. "I'm not worried about how big they [Infinity] get — they have a lot of stations where they do a good job without Stern," Quello told ST.

However, the actin' FCC honcho added ominously, "I think they ought to talk to one or two [of their personalities] who might give them trouble."

Four-year WQCD/NY GM Ray Gardella exits. The Tribune Broadcasting NAC outlet is expected to name a successor shortly.

Giant Pres. Charlie Minor officially resigns to set up his own marketing 'n' promotion firm. (Giant is his first client.) He'll remain at Giant for the next few weeks, and will announce more details, including his company's name, soon. As ST went to press, Minor and Jeff McClusky were working on finalizing a deal.

WOKI Targets WIVK

WIVK-FM/Knoxville — the nation's No. 1 AQH outlet — finally faces a direct format

Rumors

- Is KPLZ/Seattle up for sale? Fisher Broadcasting, owner of crosstown KOMO, has been cast as a possible suitor, but Golden West Pres. Bill Ward denies the sale scuttlebutt.
- Will Unistar's Alan Furst become the new PD at NewCity's recent acquisition, Country WKFM/Syracuse?
- Will a New Rock station sign on in Minneapolis next month?
- Is Tucson on the brink of acquiring its third Country signal?
- Will soon-to-be-owner Paxson take its B/EZ WEZY/Lakeland, FL Country? Will the station's new 100kw signal enable it to cover Orlando and Tampa?
- Is Hot 102/Milwaukee VP/GM Steve Sinicropi about to dive into a brand new pile of PD resumes?
- Is former KUGN/Eugene, OR morning driver Jay Scott one of the finalists for the morning slot at AC KRLV/Las Vegas?
- Are KROQ/L.A. and "Loveline" co-host Jim "Poorman" Trenton closing on an amicable solution to their four-week-old standoff?

Rolling Stone

STONED IMMACULATE — Infinity's heritage New Rocker KROQ/L.A. was voted "favorite large market radio station" in the 1992 Rolling Stone reader's poll. Although multiple poll-winner/U2 frontman Bono adorned the cover of the newsstand copies, the 'zine created a special edition for KROQ staffers that turned the radio stars into cover girls (and guys)!

competitor: 19-year Radioak CHR WOKI became the city's "New Country Hitkicker" last Friday (3/5). Rusty Walker's consulting.

Concurrently, WOKI's LSA — that's sales-only — partner WWZZ (Z93) switched from "Young Country" to CHR. The two outlets swapped a number of staffers, including WOKI OM/PD/afternoon Clay Gish — who became OM/PD/morning man at Z93. WOKI APD/morning driver Ray Edwards was upped to PD.

By the way, WOKI and WWZZ work under an LSA instead of the standard LMA because Radioak is filing for ownership of another, currently dark, local FM, WKNF.

Longtime KMET/L.A. GM Howard Bloom has been named VP/Sales for Shadow Broadcast Services Big Orange office.

Tulsa's Fifth Country Outlet

KSTM/Tulsa became the market's fifth Country station last Friday (3/5), joining KTFX, KVOO-AM & FM, and KWEN. Now known as "Kick 99," the former Unistar "Adult Rock & Roll" outlet will be mainstream Country, retaining its formal calls for now.

The new GM is Jeff Sattler, coming from KGBY/Sacramento. APD/morning man Steve Hunter shifts to afternoon drive, taking over for John Landers, who segues to middays. KSTM hasn't had a PD since Jan Dean wiped out last August.

KMEL/SF PD Keith Naftaly replaces APD/MD Hosh Gureli — who's headed to an Arista A&R post — with two staffers. Overnighter Efren Sifuentes becomes Music Coordinator and program asst. Joey Arbagey is upped to Program Coordinator. The APD/MD post will remain vacant, with Sifuentes and Arbagey splitting those duties.

On-air changes have commenced at CHR WEGX/Philly. The station began playing the "Best Of The '80s" last weekend, segued into the "Best Of 1989" on Monday, and evolved to the "Best Of 1990" by Tuesday. Logically, by week's end a new format should be unveiled — along with a new PD.

Meanwhile, WEGX afternooner Eric "Cadillac Jack" Larson splits to surface at crosstown WIOQ, and eight-year 'EGX MD Chuck Tisa will depart by next Friday (3/19).

Syndication Indications

WSIX/Nashville morning personality Gerry House has inked a six-year deal with Premiere Radio Network to syndicate his morning show nationally. It's set to debut in May.

And . . . look for WJFK/DC afternoon lunatics Don Geronimo & Mike O'Meara to pen a pact with Infinity to do a syndicated weekend show — at least for starters — most likely through Unistar.

WRVQ/Richmond ups veteran MD/afternooner Lisa McKay to PD. MD duties go to night rocker Billy Surf.

Rumbles

- KXRX/Seattle PD Brew Michaels and morning man Gary Crow exit.

- WBBO/Greenville, SC PD Dallas Kincaid returns to WZOU/Boston — for the third time — as APD/afternooner, but will still consult WBBO. 'BBO GM Leigh Trapp also moves to Boston and will explore management opportunities.

- Meanwhile, back at 'BBO, GSM Jody Freytag becomes GM, middayer Mike Murphy becomes OM/MD, and night rocker Hollywood Joe moves to afternoons and picks up MD duties. APD/MD/afternooner Jim Larsin exits.

- WWRC/DC ND/news anchor Mary Ann Jennings exits. PD Peter Laufer assumes the ND duties.

- WOWW/Pensacola afternoon driver Jay Christopher becomes PD/morning man. WKAK/Albany, GA PD/MD Sherri Garrett joins as APD/MD.

- Longtime Buffalo air personality Sandy Beach joins Gold WZTR/Milwaukee for morning drive.

- Former KSND/Eugene, OR PD Chris Ruh becomes PD at KEWB (B94.7)/Redding, CA. He replaces James Baker, who remains at the station.

- WXCL/Peoria morning man Don Dermody becomes PD in the wake of Art Opperman's exit.

- WWKX/Providence drafts WABB/Mobile APD Geronimo for APD/wakeup duty.

- Bill Colonna becomes PD at Country KRPT/Anadarko-Lawton, OK. He replaces Steve Holderby, who becomes Sports Dir./Chief Engineer.

- WESC/Greenville, SC evening talent Jeff Roper joins new Country outlet WNCK/Hilton Head, SC (formerly CHR WHTK) as PD.

- KNOE/Monroe, LA pulls the plug on CHR in favor of AC.

- CHR Q99/Cape Girardeau, MO PD Craig Michaels becomes OM/VP Programming, morning man Terry LaMar adds PD duties, and MD/afternooner Kevin Collins picks up the APD title.

- Danny Merrill becomes PD at KEEE & KJCS-KUEZ/Lufkin, TX.

- KROQ/L.A. sets Darcy Sanders as Asst. MD.

- Veteran Music City personality David Hall exits his afternoon drive post at Classic Rock WGFY/Nashville.

- WRXR/Augusta, GA elevates MD Bobbi Jones to APD/MD.

- Z90/San Diego night jammer MC Scappy becomes MD and APD Gnarly Charley slides into a permanent afternoon slot. Incidentally, former Z90 morning man Joe Nasty takes mornings at Hot 101.5/Jacksonville.

Frank Incense & Mirth

In attempting to burn Depeche Mode's forthcoming "Songs Of Faith And Devotion" album into the nation's collective consciousness, the sufis 'n' satori at Sire/Reprise enlightened selected programmers with 3 1/2-inch hanging brass incense holders — emblazoned with the names/logos of the band, album, and labels — and were blessed with the good karma to be awarded Promo Item O' The Week honors for their zen-like efforts. Holy smoke!

Morgan Creek's new restructuring sees SF regional rep Bob Osborne; his Cleveland counterpart, Harry Silverstein; and Atlanta regional rep Brad Moss exit. NY-based promo rep Fred Traub, L.A.-based Nat'l Alternative Dir. Michelle St. Clair, and VP/Promo Walter Lee remain.

N/T WHDH/Boston debuted a revamped "Information Station" format, featuring a news-intensive morning show anchored by Eileen Prose and a business-oriented afternoon drive program, this week. Drivetime was previously filled with issue-oriented talk. Middays remain devoted to a financial advice show and Rush Limbaugh.

Former Power 96/Miami VP/Programming Bill Tanner already is consulting three Miami outlets — Gold WAXY, AC Y100, and Hispanic WXDJ. Now ST hears Tanner has some programming input with Power 96 PD Frank Walsh.

CHR WVBS/Wilmington, NC will change to a young-skewing Country format under a duopoly with soon-to-be new owners Sea-Comm, which operates crosstown Classic Rocker WSFM.

By the time you read this, M.M. Group’s WWHT (Hot 105)/Marysville-Columbus, OH will have begun synchrocasting its CHR programming with FM Contemporary Christian sister WTLT/Circleville-Columbus. WTLT now will be called Hot 107. The combination will cover the entire metro.

In addition, WWHT VP/GM and M.M. Group VP Tom Gilligan has renegotiated a deal to stay with the company.

Former indie promo honcho Fred DiSipio’s quiet return to the biz as a consultant to Capitol-EMI’s promotion operations became a prominent L.A. Times story last week (3/3). The same article also declared that federal payola charges against former indie promoter Joe Isgro will be repursued by the Justice Dept., with a trial date to be set this week. Prosecutors are mum about their intentions, but some legal eagles question the value of going after a case now more than seven years old.

National Public Radio President Doug Bennet will exit in mid-April to become Asst. Secretary of State for International Organizations. Elsewhere in the nation’s capital, WWRC midday talker Joe Madison is being considered to succeed Ben Hooks as Exec. Dir. of the NAACP.

According to insiders, longtime CHR KYYA/Billings, MT won’t change format when new owner Sunbrook Communications takes over, but the sound will be less rap-oriented. Look for morning man Charlie Fox to assume the long-vacant PD post and pick up the MD duties as well. MD/afternoon Steve Jackson heads to middays at KOFI/Kalispell, MT.

'Arrested Development Unplugged' LP Set

Look for one new song on "Arrested Development Unplugged," an hourlong aural document of the band's forthcoming MTV appearance. An augmented 17-piece version of the band performs the new track ("The Gettin'") on the LP, as well as eight tunes from the band's debut long-player ("3 Years, 5 Months And 2 Days In The Life Of...").

The new set arrives March 23, and the show will premiere at 10pm March 31. The other songs heard on the disc are "Give A Man A Fish," "Natural," "Raining Revolution," "Fishin' 4 Religion," "Mama's Always On Stage," "U," "Mr. Wendal," and "People Everyday." Incidentally, EMI/ERG will service "Natural," the fourth radio track from the band's first LP, the first week of April.

Streisand 'Back To Broadway'

Streisand and Madonna — together? Following her high-profile appearance in Washington, Barbra Streisand is preparing an album of show tunes for a spring release, according to the Hollywood Reporter. "Back To Broadway," Streisand's follow-up to "The Broadway Album," is said to feature duets with Madonna ("Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better"), Michael Crawford ("Music Of The Night"), and Johnny Mathis (a medley of "I Have A Love" and "One Hand, One Heart"). David Foster is producing the Columbia set.

Suede's LP Debut

Hotly tipped UK faves Suede will see their self-titled first album released worldwide on April 6. Ed Buller produced the Nude/Columbia set, which the suburban Londoners recorded after the UK success of their first two indie singles. The LP's 11 original tunes include those songs ("Metal Mickey" and "The Drowners"), as well as the new UK track, "Animal Nitrates." "Metal Mickey" goes to radio March 22.

'Elemental' Fears

Tears For Fears — aka Roland Orzabal — are about to release "Elemental," their first full album of material since co-founder Curt Smith's exit. Orzabal co-produced the effort with Tim Palmer (of Tin Machine fame), who also plays on the set. Alan Griffiths, who previously toured with TFF, and a session bassist are the only other featured players.

Cuts include "Mr. Pessimist," "Fish Out Of Water," "Power," the title tune, and the lead track ("Break It Down Again"), which goes to radio in mid-May. The Mercury/PLG LP hits the streets in early June.

Lanois Solo Again

Noted producer Daniel Lanois (U2, Bob Dylan, Peter Dinklage, Neville Brothers) named his second solo LP "For The Beauty Of Wynona" after his childhood hometown in Canada. Recorded in New Orleans; Dublin; Bath, UK; and Hamilton, Canada, the 13-song set sports a cover of "Indian Red," a Mardi Gras song by George Landry (aka Chief Jolly of the Wild Tchoupitoulas).

Other tunes include "The Messenger," "Rocky World," and a song from the soundtrack to Wim Wenders's film "Until The End Of The World" ("Sleeping In The Devil's Bed"). The WB LP hits the streets March 23, when the tune "Lotta Love To Give" will be emphasized at radio.

AMC's Major 'Mercury'

The American Music Club make their major label bow on Reprise with "Mercury." Mitchell Froom produced the San Francisco-based band's fifth LP, which was written entirely by bandleader Mark Eitzel. A 13-song pro-CD featuring demo versions, two previously unreleased tracks, and interview segments goes to radio this week. The LP features such titles as "Gratitude Walks" and "What Godzilla Said To God When His Name Wasn't Found In The Book Of Life." "Over And Done" is the emphasis track. The full set arrives March 23.

Star Time

Perspective co-founders and noted producers Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis received a star on the Hollywood Walk Of Fame Wednesday (3/10).

R.I.P.

Billy Eckstine — the dashing vocalist/bandleader who balanced pop hits with bebop in the '40s and '50s — died Monday (3/8) of complications from a stroke he'd suffered last year. He was 78.

Known for such songs as "Fools Rush In," "Prisoner Of Love," "I Apologize," "Jelly Jelly," and "Everything I Have Is Yours," Eckstine (aka "Mr. B") helped discover Sarah Vaughan, with whom he scored his last big hit, "Passing Strangers." The Eckstine legacy lives on in his sons, Mercury President Ed Eckstine and jazz producer Guy Eckstine.

SCREEN SCENE

Leary Acts In 'Judgment Night'

Comedian Denis Leary, who rose to fame on MTV and now records for A&M, takes a dramatic turn as a street tough in "Judgment Night," a thriller due this summer. Erik Schrody (aka Everlast from Tommy Boy rap act House Of Pain) plays another of the four toughs in the film.

Emilio Estevez, Cuba Gooding Jr. ("Gladiator"), and Stephen Dorff ("The Power Of One") portray friends who get lost in a bad part of town en route to a boxing match.

After accidentally witnessing a mob-style killing, they have to hide for their lives in the Chicago projects. Stephen Hopkins ("Predator 2," "A Nightmare On Elm Street 5: The Dream Child") is directing the Largo/Universal picture.

'Backbeat' Sets Stars

Speaking of Stephen Dorff, after completing "Judgment Night," he's slated to play original Beatles bassist Stu Sutcliffe in "Backbeat," a film from the UK's Scala Productions (R&R, 9/4/92).

Denis Leary: You're killing me!

Sheryl Lee (Laura Palmer from "Twin Peaks") will essay his girlfriend in the film, which concerns the Fab Four's early days and Sutcliffe's last days. (He died of a brain hemorrhage in Hamburg in 1962). UK actor Ian Hart has the John Lennon role.

Stephen Woolley — who produced "The Crying Game" — will co-executive-produce the film, which marks Ian Softley's directorial debut. Shooting will take place in London, Liverpool, and Hamburg.

Bringing The Mix Into Focus

In recent years, "Mix" has become a popular handle for ACs. This week we'll look at two Mix stations in contrasting competitive situations.

PD Brian White claims that when he arrived at WMXB/Richmond approximately 18 months ago, the market's lone AC was very unfocused. "It played 'Losing My Religion' [R.E.M.] and 'Love Shack' [B-52s] to Doobie Brothers songs. It was all over the road. I made WMXB into what a full-service, mainstream AC should be. We're now a better-focused station, playing almost all the current AC product."

WMXB's primary on-air slogan is "Richmond's Mix, B-103.7" and, as White remarks, "We went on the air and explained what we mean by 'Mix.' On-air promos constantly reinforce what we are — a mix of the '70s, '80s, and today."

Males Delivered

Among 20 rated signals this fall, Arbitron ranked WMXB third among 25-54s behind Country WKHK and UC WCDX (trailing the latter by a scant 0.3). No other market outlets garnered double digits among 25-54s.

WMXB also finished second among 25-54 men. "We hoped we would be Top 5," confides White. "We seem to do well with men in alternating books. We always [perform well] with females, so when the men are there, we'll have a phenomenal book."

Prior to White's music adjustments, crosstown CHR WRVQ had performed well in both the 25-54 demo and 25-34 cell. "We took that position away from them," he comments. "That 25-34 cell now belongs to us. We're surrounded by many ACs in Norfolk and Washington. Within the last 90 days, [Park B/EZ] WTVR has become a bit lighter. They play 'Sacrifice' [Elton John] and 'Careless Whisper' [Wham!], but then they return to instrumentals."

Morning Facelift

In addition to making the station more mainstream, White also revitalized its morning show. He observed that several morning shows, including his station's, contained lots of chatter. "I made our morning show like USA Today. We're playing the musical hits, and we're giving listeners the news and entertainment hits.

"In a given hour, we play up to 10 songs, run three minutes of news twice and traffic four times, and we do bits. If something important is happening in Central Virginia, people will hear about it on this station. The morning show has become an ongoing information source — with lots of music."

'Fuzzy' And Involved

As a big proponent of community involvement, White has recently turned WMXB's attention to the Central Virginia Food Bank. "The homeless situation is totally out of control, so we're collecting food from four area food chains.

Brian White

"January was National Blood Donation month. Every Thursday in January, we asked people to donate blood [to draw attention] to the existing need. Stations in all formats should be doing things like this. Adults look to radio stations to be much more than jukeboxes. They want to feel warm and fuzzy about radio."

Television was WMXB's medium of choice for both the spring and fall sweeps. "WKHK used a ton of TV, with the [syndicated] 'Deborah' spot," recalls White. "We and WTVR were also on TV quite a bit, but 'KHK probably bought the most TV."

Looking to the next book, he says, "We're buying lots of TV. We'll do tactical and strategic spots. The tactical spot will be our morning man promoting the free rent/mortgage song, and the strategic spot will reinforce what we do musically."

WMXB has been scoring high contest marks by making mortgage/rent payments once every Friday. "We play a familiar song in the morning and mention when we'll play it again later in the day," explains White. "When we play the song again, we pay the 13th caller's rent or mortgage. Most rents/mortgages here range between $700 and $1200; you can have a mansion for $1500. It's an image-building situation, not a quarter-hour contest."

White is confident about the upcoming sweep: "Market conditions won't change much through the spring book. Even if there is change, it takes a good four to six months for this market to notice radio changes."

WOMX's 50/50 Music Proposition

Unlike WMXB/Richmond, Nationwide's WOMX/Orlando ("Mix 105") is a Mix facility in the middle of a highly competitive AC battleground. It's been two years since the former "BJ 105" (WBJW) switched from CHR to AC.

"For a long time [after the switch], we were a non-personality AC station," recalls PD Pat Paxton. "We wanted people to know that we were AC — and no longer CHR."

Then There Were Four

Until very recently, Orlando was served by six ACs. That number dwindled to four when WWLV became Country WCFB and WHVE opted to simulcast with News/Talk sister WWNZ.

Format survivors now include WOMX, Rock AC WMMO, Soft AC WMGF ("Magic"), and Mainstream AC WVRI ("Variety"). Despite the heavy fragmentation, WOMX's exceptional fall Arbitron showing placed it second among adults 25-54.

"Some of the competition got weaker," explains Paxton. "WVRI is a very good station today, but they made some major mistakes this fall. Their library must have been 1500 cuts. They were very aggressive on newer titles and played a little bit of everything. The biggest mistake they made was to take the term 'variety' literally."

Orlando AC At A Glance

	18-34	25-54	35-64
WMGF	#9	#6	#4
WMMO	#7	#6	#6
WOMX-FM	#6	#2	#5
WVRI	#8	#11	#11

Though Paxton doesn't see WMGF as a direct foe, he notes, "It's a very good upper-end AC. The majority of its numbers are 55+. It's respectable among 25-54s, but it's not one of our major competitors."

Turning to WMMO, he calls it "one of those anomalies, because research says a station like this shouldn't work. They play unfamiliar music and rock-based album cuts. It seems to be a huge marketing success. They keep reminding people that they're the station to go to for no hype and less talk."

Mixing More Fall Numbers

Stations called "Mix" don't necessarily follow a standard formula, but I thought it would be interesting to track these outlets' fall performances. Arbitron market ranks in three key demos are noted below.

NewCity's Country WWKA ("K92") leads Orlando's 25-54 pack. "We've just accepted the fact that it's a great station," Paxton confesses. "Unfortunately for us, the market's Country share has increased [with K92's gains and WCFB's emergence]. We don't look at each other as competitors, and our sales staffs on the street respect each other."

The Promised Land

Paxton attributes some of WOMX's fall gains to a weakness WVRI had with one of its on-air promotions. "They were doing a 'No-Repeat Workday' but not promoting it very well. We felt they didn't own the position anymore, and even if they did, it would be easy for us to steal it from them.

"We went on with a very heavy campaign that promised a no-repeat workday. It was exactly the same thing as theirs, but we promised not to repeat the same song [between 9am-5pm]. We said if we broke the promise, we'd give away $10,000. It wasn't meant to be a contest — we wanted to back up our word. We stepped in and took ownership of WVRI's promotion. We've always been a big come station, but this increased our TSL."

In addition to Disney World and a plurality of ACs, another factor that makes Orlando unique is that it's home to both a Mix and a Variety AC. "If you call yourself Mix or Variety, you'd better tell the listener what that means," advises Paxton. "Our mix is the best music from yesterday combined with the best music from today — it's a 50/50 mixture. We've done a very good job of defining what mix means. In our latest research, we've found that people think 'Mix' has more variety than 'Variety' [WVRI]."

WMMO's Plight

Even so, Paxton expects WVRI to rebound this spring. "They might be artificially low right now, so they could go up, but we'll also continue to grow." He goes on to assess the rest of the competition: "One reason WMMO has declined is because it's losing women. There are better female choices like us, WMGF, and WVRI. WMMO needs to watch [former crosstown AOR] WHTQ, which is now Classic Rock. They may be able to pull some of 'MMO's men.

"If I were at 'MMO, I'd be concerned, because they've been living off men the past two or three books. On the other hand, they don't have to get many diaries, because their listeners stay with them day and night."

A classic song meets a class act.

Going For Gold In Greensboro

Rookie PD guides Power 97 to solid ratings gain in first book

Even for seasoned radio pros, the initial foray into the world of programming can be a daunting task — especially when entering a heated battle in a Top 50 market. That's what Terry Foxx faced when he left middays at KKDA-FM (K104)/Dallas for the OM/PD/afternoon post at WQMG-FM (Power 97)/Greensboro.

Foxx has proved himself worthy of the challenge, piloting the station to a 4.4-5.0 ratings jump in the Fall '92 Arbitron. The increase propelled the station to fifth place, up from seventh in the summer book. While Country WTQR's 19.4 share makes market domination seemingly unattainable, another goal appears more reasonable: beating rival Churban WJMH (8.0-8.2) for the first time since Fall '91.

Results in key demos and day-parts show that Power 97 is gaining some ground on WJMH. In women 18-34, its morning and afternoon numbers are within a share of WJMH's, while QMG pulls ahead during middays. And in women 25-49, Power's overall numbers surpass WJMH's by more than half a share.

York and KSFM/Sacramento. So what were his primary objectives at Power 97? Foxx says, "First, I repositioned the station — for a while, it had lost its focus. Second, I've committed the station to serving the black community. We're there to help with anything positive that needs to be done. We're on the streets, proving by our actions that we're their radio station."

"It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure it out. It's about relating to the black community as a people and emphasizing the needs of those people. A lot of Urban stations talk a good game, but they're never really in the streets. Our people go places other stations won't go. My entire airstaff is African-American, and we're out there all the time. When people hear you say something, then see you doing it, that's how you win the community's loyalty. Make them feel that you're a part of them — and they're a part of you."

Cause & Effect

This fall, that community commitment included major promotions of a philanthropic nature. Foxx explains, "Our biggest station promotion over the holidays involved feeding the homeless on Thanksgiving. We also delivered meals to elderly citizens in need of help. On the air, we referred to it as 'Power 97 Giving Back To The Community.'"

Primary Objectives

Foxx brings a fresh perspective to the position, having spent much of his 10-year radio career at CHR stations, including WPLJ/New

"At Christmas, we did something called 'Adopt A Family.' We set up a Christmas tree in our office using numbers as ornaments. People who wanted to donate food baskets, toys, or other gifts would call us up, and we'd give them the name of a family that coincided with a number on our tree. We told them the number of people in the family they were going to help, and they would donate enough food to feed them and also purchase some toys for the children."

"The station got some Toys 'R' Us gift certificates and made up over 60 gift packages. It was wonderful because we had a heartfelt purpose to help those who were less fortunate. I'm proud to say that our WQMG family delivered each and every toy to each family's home so the children would have a nice holiday. And the social services agency in town was very helpful in identifying families for us."

Sales Synergy

At WQMG, sales and programming work together — literally — to ensure they generate maximum advertising revenue. Foxx notes, "We have a sales and management meeting every week, mapping out ways to bring in additional revenue. We look at the promotions we're considering and match potential clients with promotions. Because we know what our clients are trying to accomplish, we can think about ways that we could do the job for them. When clients become part of a promotion, everyone's working together for each other's common good. That's what we did with the Toys 'R' Us promotion.

"Now more than ever, it's important to realize that most promotions can also become avenues for revenue through your sales department. In the past, there's never been proper communication between some programming and sales departments — that's why there's always been this division. That can't be tolerated today. These departments are part of the same team, and we must maximize our efforts for the sake of the product and revenues."

Since Foxx views his station as a means of entertaining and educating Greensboro's black community, he saw the release of "Malcolm X" as a perfect vehicle for both. "Two or three months ahead of the movie, we started dealing with it so that people knew what it meant to be African-American. We didn't do this as exploitation, but for the redeeming social value. We knew Spike Lee's movie would be of educational value — especially to our youth, because we knew they didn't know about Malcolm's life. We ran short vignettes on the air leading up to the movie's premiere and gave away tickets.

"It became an event for all of the positive reasons. People can say they're down with black people and say 'Stop the violence' or other phrases. Those things are wonderful. But it's not what you say, it's what you do. Actions speak louder than words. Educating your audience is a big key to overall success."

Recipe For Mainstream Success

Don't choose between upper and lower demos — serve both ends

A few weeks back, Joel Denver's column discussed what CHR needs to succeed in 1993 (R&R 2/12). He and several PDs advised returning to basics and playing the biggest-selling, broadest range of songs that appeal to the CHR audience. Much the same can be said for AOR.

Basically, two key elements have been common to virtually every successful AOR since the mid-'70s:

Keep both ends burning. Play a gold-leaning — but current-imagined — mix of harder and softer, traditional and cutting-edge, and album cuts and crossover hits. The balance may change from market to market and from year to year, but the concept has always been true.

Relate to the audience lifestyle. In the '70s, that was as simple as going to clubs and concerts, but the stations that have gone beyond the music and into the lives of the listeners have always done that best.

'Mass Appeal Niche'

In the early '90s, many stations abandoned these basic concepts. "Niche" was in, mass appeal was out. The truth is that very few hard-rockin', New Rock, or Classic Rock stations have been able to beat the well-programmed heritage AORs. The "niche" stations that have succeeded have done so by breaking out of their niches.

For example, New Rock XTRA-FM (91X)/San Diego is imaged as a fairly mass appeal station, and its music is relatively broad-based. In Philadelphia, WYSP became No. 1 by combining Classic Rock with Howard Stern and the Philadelphia Eagles. These exceptions have used mass appeal concepts that other niche stations haven't.

The 'niche' stations that have succeeded have done so by breaking out of their niches.

Stations like WBCN/Boston, WIYY/Baltimore, and WBAB/Long Island have remained strong by staying true to the above-mentioned basic concepts that have made the format successful. In so doing, they've been able to maintain broad-based, mass appeal support. Too many other stations have decided they had to choose between the Beatles and Pearl Jam, between 18-24s and 25-34s.

AOR has always appealed primarily to white males between their mid-teens and late 30s who don't like dance or Country. This simplistic view of AOR's psychographic composition is still true. It may still be possible to unify this diverse audience, although two developments have made such a union more difficult:

For the first time since the 1950s, a true musical generation gap has opened. Twenty-year-olds care about artists that mean little to 30-year-olds, and vice-versa. Nevertheless, many common threads still exist.

The older members of the audience no longer have the passion or concern for music they once had. But thanks in part to Howard Stern, they've found radio can serve needs other than providing music.

Sitting On The Fence

In any case, a heritage AOR with a consistent music image and strong community ties stands its best chance for continued dominance if it adheres to the basics and offers a broad-based, mass appeal mainstream sound. Once you commit too strongly to either side of the fence, you may have narrowed your potential audience too much ever to dominate. You may still beat the other AOR-type stations, but you'll probably lose the ability to own the market.

No truly niched station has ever been No. 1 in a market, and few even rule their key demos for very long. (This is particularly true for AOR niche stations.) The stations that offer enough varied elements to attract the largest mass of listeners on a consistent basis will remain the market leaders (be they WGN/Chicago, WBCN, or WYSP).

The Four Ps

While a wide format does pose risks, you can reduce your vulnerability with some essential elements — what I call the "Four Ps":

- Personality — You need intelligent people who understand your goals and can create pictures with their words. As Howard Stern, Rush Limbaugh, and all-Sports stations prove, adults are looking to radio for more than music. This isn't true only in the morning. If you have a midday jock who keeps the audience entertained and can develop a "friendship" with the listeners, your station becomes less vulnerable to button-pushing or the competition's tactics.

Promotion — You've got to be where the people are. If you want to attract 32-year-olds, that means concerts and the circus, clubs and restaurants, plus sporting events, elementary schools, civic associations, parades, and fairs. If you can get your staff out of the building to "hang" with the listeners and develop friendships, you further reduce your vulnerability.

Production — It's the age of MTV. Today's society has a high demand for instant entertainment, coupled with a short attention span. You need to image your station creatively and entertain your audience in 20 seconds or less. If you do this successfully, you'll create a signature that helps you stand out. The more top-of-mind you are, the harder it is for a competitor to come in and snap up your listeners.

Presentation — How you present a wide spectrum of music is essential. When you go out on a limb, you must have the right song, the right placement, the right time, and a good reason. Dayparting is essential, of course. And you can never go from James Taylor to Alice In Chains, obviously.

It never hurts to have a good reason to play a song. For instance, you might play a Bob Marley song on his birthday, a K.D. Lang song the day after the Grammys, Cream's "Politician" on Election Day, or the Beach Boys on a hot summer day. Playing songs for thematic reasons shows the audience respect and further reduces vulnerability.

The "Four Ps" can help position a broad-based, mass appeal, mainstream Rock & Roll station for long-term stability. The absolute key lies in developing a relationship with the audience. You need to go where they go, feel what they're feeling, and talk about what they talk about.

WBAB covers all the "hot topics" of the day. On Election Day, we kept our listeners informed. When Bill Clinton was inauguated, we broadcast the 45-second swearing-in live. On Fridays, our jocks talk about "Seinfeld." We do frequent sports scoreboards. The day after the Grammys, we talked up the show and made sure to play "Tears In Heaven" (incidentally, I'm surprised how many AORs downplayed this milestone accomplishment by a core artist just because the song is so "burnt").

Connect And Win!

If you truly connect with the listeners, relate to their concerns and interests, develop a friendship with each of them, and provide a lively, entertaining sound — mass appeal radio can win! When people really feel you're a part of their lives, they'll sit through a song they don't like (as long as they think they'll love the next one).

When that happens, you've enabled your station to break out of a tiny niche, to broaden its base, and to live it up to its full potential. Great stations are the ones that become a vital part of the fabric of the entire community. This is likeliest to happen when you have a mass-oriented station that's in it for the long haul, not jumping on the niche trend of the week.

Your best chance to succeed big-time on a long-term basis with AOR is by coupling broad-based, mass-appeal, mainstream music with an attitude that consistently conveys intelligence, concern, entertainment, and friendship. While a mass appeal AOR may not be right for some markets, such an approach is a strong option for many stations — especially heritage AORs looking to retain their older listeners while growing for the future.

KEDJ, KUKQ Vie For 'Presents' Rights

Some New Rock outlets are experiencing the heightened competition involved when direct format rivals enter their markets. Here's what happened when KEDJ (The Edge)/Phoenix battled crosstown KUKQ for the rights to present a recent School Of Fish show.

Laughlin Entertainment promoter Brad Laughlin originally gave the rights to recent New Rock convert KEDJ. "I gave the [rights] to the Edge because of my past dealings with its sister station, KZRX (Z-Rock)," explains Laughlin. "They've always supported my shows better than KUKQ and sister KUPD have. I had made a decision not to do club shows with KUPD or KUKQ. I've got a limited number of dollars to spend when it comes to club shows; I want my money where it's best served. The spot rate is a little cheaper at KEDJ, and its sister station has always done a bang up job for me."

However, Laughlin's decision was made before PD Jonathan L. Rosen rejoined KUKQ. "I wouldn't have made the same decision if Jonathan was at KUKQ," adds Laughlin. "I've always had a good working relationship with him."

What's more, the Edge was offered the show even though it wasn't — and still isn't — playing the new School Of Fish record. "I was under the impression they [KEDJ] were going to support the new record," Laughlin says. "Although they were playing [previous School Of Fish record] '3 Strange Days,' I wanted them to support the new single. It only makes sense if the station's going to accept the show."

Bickering Begins

Capitol Records Director/National Alternative Promotion Brian MacDonald wasn't informed about the situation until after the promoter's decision was made. "When I found out the Edge was given the rights, I told Laughlin, 'The Edge can't get the rights — they're not even playing the record.'"

KEDJ PD John Clay believes playing the current School Of Fish record is a separate issue. "The presents on a show isn't proper leverage to force an add on a station. It wasn't a strong record; we didn't need to be playing it, despite the band coming to town. The record has to be judged on its own merit. My primary responsibility is the sound of the station and the integrity of the playlist. [The latter's] compromised if we add a record in order to get the [rights to present a show]. I don't deal that way."

Clay wasn't happy when MacDonald told him the rights might be revoked and given to KUKQ. MacDonald recalls the conversation: "He told me, 'You'd better be careful of the consequences of your decision to yank the presents. I'm an FM stick, they're an AM. I'm going to be the one in this market a year from now.' He wasn't threatening me, but he was making it clear that he wasn't going to forget the final decision.

"I mentioned my five-year relationship with KUKQ — they've broken this band in the market, they're playing the new record, and I have a loyalty to the station. Capitol plays straight up — we're loyal to the people who support us."

Rosen adds: "They [KEDJ] can play '3 Strange Days' in recurrent and think they're supporting the band, but we've been playing the band for two years."

Neutral Territory

School Of Fish manager Sandy Tanaka wanted to give the rights to KUKQ. But when Tanaka asked the promoter to make the change, it was too late: Laughlin already had made the show neutral by buying spots on both stations.

Clay didn't have a problem with the new development. "I've learned from my CHR days that, to do good business, the record label can't take sides. As long as you're neutral, everything will be fine. Any show that comes to town should be neutral — let PDs use their creativity to take the supplied materials and make it a good promotion.

"Besides, it's only School Of Fish. It's not Depeche Mode or Crowded House. School Of Fish have had one hit — admittedly a very big hit — but that's all. Really not worth the amount of time I've spent on the phone for a band that's had one hit. That's not meant as an [attack] on School Of Fish — they're a good band."

Rosen comments, "It all boils down to what's right and what's wrong. What is right? If both stations are supporting the artist, it should remain a neutral show. Because one station's supporting the new record and the other isn't, there is no right. It's wrong to keep the show neutral. Stepping on toes is irrelevant if one station isn't playing the record. It's not a case of winning or losing — it's what's right and wrong.

"In the end, it's still a presents for us. We will have the band on the morning show the day of the concert; we'll also have stage presence for announcements. I've made some money for my boss by getting a spot buy. We're happy."

New Approach

In the future, Laughlin says he'll contact both stations before making a decision. "If both stations want the presents, I'm going to turn it over to the band manager and record label for the final decision.

Jonathan L. Rosen

"I end up suffering the most because I don't get a match schedule — buy a spot, get one free. When I do a neutral show, I'm buying hard advertising."

MacDonald says a presents decision falls on more than just the label's shoulders. "There are three participants: the promoter, the band manager, and the label. They must decide among themselves who gets the promotion. Sometimes, a decision is made based on the nature of the market, one of the three parties might have a bigger influence in the final decision. Bottom line, it was a big mistake for the promoter to offer the presents without coming through me or the manager."

Singular Seminar Sensations

The 24th Country Radio Seminar featured the usual dose of fun and frivolity, chronicled here for those who weren't able to attend — as well as for those who did and don't yet have total recollection of the various events.

ASCAP ALL-STARS — Run C&W and Suzy Bogguss were joined by several special guests during Friday's ASCAP luncheon show at the Opryland Hotel. Run C&W's cousin, "Sun Burns" (aka Vince Gill), sat in with the group after Russell Smith was injured in a car accident. And Bogguss (whose band had departed for a Houston gig later that evening) was backed by Sam Bush, Great Plains' Jack Sundrud, and Chet Atkins. Pictured before the show are (back row, l-r) Gill, Run C&W's Bernie Leadon, Vince Melamed, and Jim Photoglo; (front row, l-r) R&R Exec. VP/Sales & Marketing and former CRB President Erica Farber, Bogguss, and ASCAP Southern Exec. Director Connie Bradley.

THE CANADIAN CONNECTION — The CCMA hosted a luncheon showcase on Saturday featuring performances by Joan Kennedy and Ian Tyson. Backstage following the show are (l-r) Erica Farber, CISS/Toronto morning personality Cliff Dumas, Kennedy, CCMA President Chris Hughes, CCMA Exec. Director Sheila Hamilton, and Tyson.

ARISTA ACTION — The wall-to-wall crowd attending Arista/Nashville's "Jam II" at the nearby Springhouse Golf Club was treated to songs not usually associated with the various performers. For instance, Brooks & Dunn sang "Folsom Prison Blues," Pam Tillis performed "Baby, It's You," and Michelle Wright did "When A Man Loves A Woman." The spotlight was on Arista newcomer Dude Mowrey (c), who played a 30-minute set. Offering encouragement to Mowrey are Arista/Nashville VP/Promotion & Artist Development Allen Butler (l) and manager Ben Payne.

DWIGHT TIME — WSM/Nashville and Warner Bros./Nashville teamed up once again for a listener appreciation concert on Tuesday evening before the seminar kickoff. The show featured performances by WB newcomers Faith Hill and Greg Holland, as well as Little Texas and Dwight Yoakam, who previewed tunes from his upcoming album, "This Time." Backstage after the concert are (l-r) CMT Program Manager Tracy Storey, Yoakam, and KSAN/San Francisco MD Richard Ryan and Promotions Director Marlene Augustine.

ON THE BALL — Curb/Nashville continued its tradition of sports-toy giveaways. This year's suite gift was a nerf football — one of which was later used in an early-morning three-on-three football game in the Cascades entrance hallway. On hand to distribute the balls were artists Tim McGraw (l) and Rick Vincent (r), who were put to work by Curb/Nashville VP/National Country Promotion Mike Borchetta. Both McGraw and Vincent performed during the Thursday evening showcases.
