Plunging Market Took Radio Stocks Lower

Wall Street's nervous stock sell-off last week, which sent the Dow Jones Industrial Average plunging 138.77 points to 3635.96, brought down radio stocks as well — and may delay a couple of pending stock offerings. However, there was a hopeful sign Tuesday (4/5) as the stock market — and most radio issues — closed higher. STOCKS/See Page 21

Despite Competition, Radio Listening Continues To Rise

25-54s at decade-high levels; M-F 6am-7pm up slightly; other demos, dayparts steady

Despite an ever-increasing selection of entertainment and information options available to consumers, radio listening is on the rise, according to a Katz Research Group study on persons using radio.

According to the report, radio's stability amidst major shifts in other media — such as the decline of network TV, the fraction-alization of cable audiences, and the CD music boom — makes it a solid and reliable resource for listeners.

Among the highlights:

• Radio reaches just as many listeners today (96%) as it did a decade ago (95.3%).

• The average person tunes in to radio just as long now as 10 years ago.

• Radio listening by daypart has been amazingly steady over the past years and up slightly in the Monday-Friday 6am-7pm daypart.

days. • Men and women 35-44 and men 45-54 are tuning in at alltime record levels, showing a steady growth pattern over the past six years.

• Teen listening, which had been showing minor erosion over the past few years because fewer

KSRI/Santa Cruz to simulcast Churban KSOL/SF; Berger set as KSRY/SF PD

Crescent Communications scored a duopoly in San Francisco and extended coverage for KSOL/San Francisco with a $16 million deal to buy Viacom's KSRY/San Francisco and KSRI/Santa Cruz (San Jose).

KSRI immediately flipped to an LMA simulcast of KSOL when the deal was announced Thursday (3/31). The Churban station's coverage now blankets a 120-mile stretch of the rocky Northern California coast and puts a city-grade signal into three Top 100 markets.

R&R Adds 'Play Rank'

As part of our philosophy of providing the most comprehensive and useful music information to the industry, R&R this week adds the "Play Rank" feature to our Country and Alternative charts. Play Rank simply ranks songs on the chart by their total number of reported plays, without the application of audience weighting.

As suggested by KNDD/Seattle PD Rick Lambert, this feature allows readers to gauge the subtle differences between songs receiving the most plays (via the Play Rank) and songs with the most audience impact (via the audience-weighted total points on the chart).

Play rank will be adopted across all R&R formats as they convert to our plays-per-week reporting system.

Infinity Challenges Latest Stern Fines

Infinity Broadcasting is challenging the FCC's basis and process for imposing a $400,000 Howard Stern-related indecency fine against four of its stations - WXRK/New York, WYSP/Philadelphia, WJFK-FM/Washington, and WJFK (AM)/Baltimore.

In a filing that echoes arguments the company has made in the past, Infinity contends the cited material is not indecent, there are no unsupervised children in Stern's audience. Stern's show is not harmful to kids, and the FCC has improperly singled out Infinity for selective enforcement of the indecency rules.

The group also maintains that the size of the fine — and the agency's dark threats of future enforcement actions - are unjustified and violate Infinity's right to due process and equal protection under the law. Infinity notes, for example, that while several Cox Enterprises stations were cited for FCC rule violations over a recent five-month period, the agency has not questioned that company's basic fitness to be a licensee.

The filing states: "Why Infinity should be treated in a completely different fashion, as if it were a

KFMH, KNON Fined For Indecency

FMH/Muscatine, IA and KNON/Dallas-Ft. Worth have been fined $12,500 each by the FCC for allegedly broadcasting indecent material.

The first complaint alleged that KFMH had broadcast sexually explicit jokes as part of a live contest in which callers told their best jokes to win $100. Although callers' jokes were prescreened, one caller managed to get on the air with an explicit joke about oral sex

Call Disconnected?

The station claims the call was cut off after the words "blow job" were broadcast. Because the complainant presented the FCC with a transcript of the joke in its entirety, KFMH believes the complainant and jokester are the same person.

Moments after that offense, a caller sounding suspiciously similar to the first offender passed through the screening with a clean joke. Once on the air, the caller told a joke about performing oral sex on a young girl.

Neither John Flambo, former head of Flambo Broadcasting (which owned the station at the time of the broadcast), nor former KFMH GM Steve Bridges could be reached for comment.

Offending DJ Gone

KNON's offense included the mid-afternoon airing of a song called "I Want To Be A Homosexual" that included homophobic lyrics.

"This song aired during 'Lambda Weekly, a gay- and lesbian-oriented program," commented KNON GM Bobbie Elliott. "The broadcaster involved has been gone since soon after the incident, and DJs - mostly volunteers - now must sign agreements before they are allowed on the air [in order] to avoid future problems.

"We will respond to the FCC and present our side then and now. We have total board and managerial support. The show is not a detriment to the community and will remain on the air. The complainant has made an attack on the community, and we will not be held hostage by a lunatic fringe with opinions not held by the larger community. Our diversity speaks for itself."

or just tell us why radio is great.

The Great Radio Promotion III is ready to accept your entry. All you need to do is create an audio spot (60 seconds or less) that tells us why radio is so powerful and effective for advertisers.

The Great Radio Promotion III is a special category of the Mercury Awards, the awards that celebrate radio's creativity. The winner will be announced and the spot played at the third annual Mercury Awards dinner in New York City. Your place in radio history is already reserved as the winning spot will be included in the CD commemorating all the Mercury Award winners.

Best of all, the winning station will receive free airfare, hotel and tickets for two people to the Mercury Awards. In addition to the well-deserved adulation of your professional peers, when the big moment comes you will receive a custom-designed trophy to commemorate your achievements and show off to the folks back home.

That ought to be enough to make you sing, shout, rock, rap, twang and croon about radio.

Entries will be judged by the Arbitron Radio Advisory Council. All entries must be postmarked no later than April 29, 1994. Send 2 reels (7.5 or 15 ips with 5 seconds of plastic leader tape, heads out) of your entry to: The Great Radio Promotion III, The Arbitron Company, 142 West 57th Street, New York, NY 10019.

WKBQ PD Takes Issue With St. Louis Suicide Story Slant

Dear R&R,

LETTER

I was greatly disappointed to see that R&R took its cues from my station's competitors when reporting the story of St. Louis TV weatherman Bob Richards and his apparent suicide March 24 (R&R 4/1). While it is certainly true that WKBQ and our morning team of Steve (Shannon) & D.C. (Chymes) were involved in the cov erage of the man's apparent scandal in the days preceding his death, your leadline, "St. Louis Duo Embroiled In Suicide Scandal," and the slanted tone of both the article and the R&R HOTFAX report several days earlier seem to point them out as being somehow singularly responsible for the despondency Mr. Richards must have felt before he apparently took his own life.

When Donna Henry called Steve & D.C. on-air the morning of March 23, she told them she wanted to tell her side of the story about her restraining order against Richards - a story which had been broken by local TV news and the Post-Dispatch four days earlier, not by Steve & DC. They allowed her to do so, and she played answering machine tapes which she claimed substantiated her story that Richards had indeed harassed her, and was not innocent, as he had claimed in the out-of-court settlement. The Post-Dispatch later described Steve & DC's interview with Henry as "straightforward, without satire or mockery." Every other legitimate outlet in town that was covering the story will admit they would have done it as well

It makes me absolutely sick that competing morning shows are now trying to use this man's tragic and untimely death for their own competitive gain. Your article says Richards was "reportedly despondent" following the WKBQ interview. Who was it that reported he was despondent? A competitor — KYKY morning personality Guy Phillips! I find it interesting that Mr. Phillips chose only to say Richards was despondent about Steve & DC's coverage and not about the scandal itself or even the coverage of it by the newspapers and television stations (including Richards's own station, KSDK).

Your article then goes on to quote competing morning personalities Frank O. Pinion and JC. Corcoran, who blast Steve & DC. and try to fix the blame on them for a man's suicide — and then you further that ridiculous notion by the slant of the story and the inflammatory headline.

Why are Steve & D.C. singled out for their coverage of this story? Why doesn't the headline read, "St. Louis Duo, TV Stations, And Newspaper Embroiled In Suicide Scandal?" Because my station's competitors don't have anything to gain from painting a bad picture of the Post-Dispatch or the TV stations, and you have allowed them to write your headline for you.

None of this, of course, will change the tragic outcome of the Bob Richards scandal. But I do think one thing needs to be plainly stated to anyone who read the coverage of this story. No matter who broke the story, who reported it, or who pointed fingers at whom, there was only one person responsible for Bob Richards's death, and that was Bob Richards.

Wright Becomes WWRC & WGAY/DC GSM

Talk/AC combo WWRC & WGAY/Washington has recruited crosstown WXTR GSM Warren Wright for its newly created GSM post.

The move reunites Wright with WWRC & WGAY GM Bob Longwell, who left WXTR as GM nearly two months ago. Wright told R&R, "Bob's the No. 1 reason I came here. He's an excellent broadcaster and a great guy.

"Both WWRC and WGAY are poised for growth. There are more male-dominated stations here than ever before. It leaves more opportunity for female-oriented stations like WGAY. WWRC will take a while to take off, but we're looking at making it a top-notch Talk station."

"WBIG has been coming after us and is doing a good job. I congratulate them for kicking us in the pants and forcing us to become better. We won't, however, roll over and play dead."

Prior to joining WXTR five years ago, Whittington spent five years as an AE at WGMS/Washington.

MANAGEMENT Do You Ask The Right Questions?

nowing how to ask effective questions is the ultimate empowerment tool Doug Krug and Ed Oakley. authors of "Enlightened Leadership," offer the following six tips to help you hone your questioning skills:

Avoid "yes" or "no" questions. Ask "What aspects of your job do you like?" not "Do you like your job?

Focus on the solution, not the problem. "What do we need to do to get where we want to be?" not

"What's wrong with where we are and who's to blame?"

Ask "what" or "how" questions. Don't ask people "why" questions, it only makes them want to justify their actions. Ask "What was the process you went through to make that decision?" not "Why did you do that?"

Pose non-threatening questions. That way, people won't feel you're out to get them. "I'm trying to get an update of where we stand with

While the figures reflect total billings as reported by America's leading national rep organizations, they are not typical of any specific market. ZINESCENE

'Forbes' Focuses On National Radio!

he cover of Forbes teases, "Rush Limbaugh revives a dying business." Inside, a two-page-plus story on national radio notes the industry is up from $565 million eight years ago to $1.2 billion last year, thanks largely to its ad value against comparable TV exposure. Forbes estimates Limbaugh's pretax net was $15 million last year

The quoted: EFM Media chairman Ed McLaughlin, WOR Radio Network head Rich Wood, and ABC Radio Networks head Darryl Brown. The spotlighted: Limbaugh, Tom Joyner, and Howard Stem. The mentioned: Unistar and G. Gordon Liddy; Westwood One and Pat Buchanan, Jim Bohannon, and Larry King; Moby, Gene Burns, Joy Brown, Warren Eckstein, and the Dolans.

Squashing Squashes

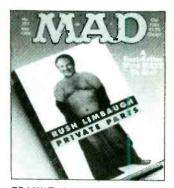

Smashing Pumpkins tell all in their Rolling Stone cover story. Says leader Billy Corgan: "As long as I can remember, since I was a little kid, I wanted to be famous. It was the mythological means of escape. My myth was rock-goddom. I saw that as a means to become one who has no pain." Dr. Joyce Brothers makes several observations about the band, including "What looks really dysfunctional is a meshing of dysfunctions to make it functional."

Fun facts about New Age star Yanni: His first instrument was an accordion, his first concert was Deep Purple, he plays "a mean 'Stairway To Heaven,'" he broke the Greek national record for freestyle swimming at 14, he never uses his CD player, he and wife Linda Evans never call the "Psychic Friends Hotline," and . he thinks "critics are always right" (Entertainment Weekly)

Classic Rockers

"Their skin had gone purple and blue. They looked like a couple of very unattractive old men, which is basically what they are' art director Shem Law explains why Seventeen magazine decided not to use a photo of bare-chested Aerosmith guitarist Joe Perry (43) and clothed singer Steven Tyler (46) (Newsweek).

David Lee Roth tells People that two tours ago, "I said, 'My feet shall not touch civilian ground for three days and three nights' would leap from the stairway to the dressing trailer. Roadies and security guys carried me from the tour bus, even into a truck stop. It's not something I'm proud of, but it makes a damn fine drinking story."

FRANKENSTEIN'S TALKER -The same Mad magazine that fea-tures this frightening crosspollination also includes new lyr-ics to Billy Joel's songs and another in a series of custom warning labels for recent albums.

Men Of Letters

Both Pete Townshend and Billboard Editor In Chief Timothy White have letters in this month's Playboy. White somehow found the time to write in to say "assumptions" he'd made about Townshend in an old interview were misrepresented in the Who man's recent interview. Townshend adds comments.

Audience Anxieties

What would you pay to travel on Bruce Springsteen's private plane, have a front-row seat at his show, sing a chorus onstage, and go backstage afterwards? That opportunity fetched $22,000 recently at a benefit auction for the L.A. school the Boss's son attends (People).

"A lot of musicians are frightened of audiences," says Tim Booth, singer of James, a band known for its live shows. "But the amount of terror you go onstage with is the amount of adrenalin you have at your disposal To be secure in your vulnerability, that's the point" (Rolling Stone):

The Younger Generation

Spotlighted in Rolling Stone's fashion insert, Cranberries singer Dolores O'Riordan says, "I always wanted a pair of leather trousers. But where I come from [Ireland], if you bought them, people would tell you that you look like a rock star. So I told myself that if I ever sell a gold record in America, I'd buy a pair ... So now, if people say, 'What, do you think you're a rock star?' I just say: Yeah. I am. I have a gold record in America.' "When I do 'Loser' now," says

Beck, "I should go, I'm a schmoozer, baby, so why don't you rock me?" He also tells Rolling

Stone he's no king of the slackers:

"I never had any slack. I was working a $4-an-hour job trying to stay alive. I mean, that slacker kind of stuff is for people who have the time to be depressed about everything."

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridiculous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports.

Who's Left With The MusicScan Rights?

apscan apparently has lost the exclusive marketing rights to the MusicScan music scheduling software, according to MusicScan's manufacturer, A-Ware Software.

A-Ware President Joe Knapp says he decided to pull the exclusive rights because Tapscan did not meet its sales goals and underperformed on customer service. He says he'll begin to market the software under the name MusicMaster.

Tapscan's Lisa Forman disputed Knapp's contentions and reaffirmed Tapscan's right to exclusive distribution of MusicScan. Forman also said the company has plans for the MusicScan name when its right to distribute the A-Ware software runs out at the end of this year. Stay tuned ...

B100 Lineup On The Loose

Hot AC B100/SD is minus the bulk of its on-air lineup following this week's exits by morning cohost Jools Brandt, wakeup producer Frank Anthony, former PD and current middayer Gene Knight, afternooner Gary Kelly, and night slammer Danny Romero. Look for a change in formatic direction within a month. ST hears a powerful morning show will spearhead the shift.

Former KFAN/ Minneapolis PD Lorna Gladstone is joining WWWW (AM)/Detroit as Station Mgr., reporting to WWWW combo VP/GM Phil Lamka. ST hears the Detroit Free Press's speculation of a format switch on the AM from Country WYNY/NY's music and on-air presentation are in the throes of change. The current playlist has been trimmed from 45 to 25 records, and the current/gold ratio will shift from 70/30 to 50/50, with many library songs from the last 10 years brought back. 'YNY's CHR-styled uptempo personality approach is being replaced by a lower-profile mainstream-AC style.

Rumors

 Once EZ acquires Country WQKB/Pittsburgh from Oppenheimer, is it planning to sell it to Frank Wood's Secret Communications? Secret owns AOR WDVE in the Steel City; EZ owns CHR WBZZ and operates WOKB under an LMA with Oppenheimer, pending the sale. Will WHK & WMMS/Cleveland's new owner,

 Will WHK & WMMS/Cleveland's new owner, OmniAmerica, retain the stations' staff when it takes over April 15? Outgoing owner Shamrock notified all employees that they'd be terminated by that date and would have to reapply for their gigs. Is ex-Geffen promo exec Peter Napoliello thisclose to joining a NY-based label? • Is CHR WAKS (Kiss 105)/Columbus explored

ing the "Arrow" format? No response from GM Bill Cusack.

Radio Achieves Fool's Goals

S T was by no means alone in observing April Fool's Day last week. Radio stations across the nation pulled off stunts (taking care not to stunt their growth). A partial rundown:

• KROQ/L.A. re-created now-defunct Rock/ CHR Pirate Radio for most of the day. Former Pirate PD/morning man Scott Shannon and ex-OM/ afternooner Shadow Stevens (now B97/New Orleans PD Scott Wright) cut voice tracks for their respective shifts, while ex-Pirate Creative Dir. M.J. Kelli supplied original Pirate sweepers 'n' promos. The original hard-rockin' Pirate music mix was also revived, marking the debut of the Pyrite Radio/Fool's Gold format.

• WBAP/Ft. Worth morning man Hal Jay gulled thousands of Texas Rangers fans by concocting an elaborate on-air fiction about Nolan Ryan returning to the team ... complete with interviews from teammates, manager Kevin Kennedy, and Ryan himself!

 In other Metroplex sporting news, KATT/OKC's Bladerunner convinced countless citizens that former Oklahoma coach Barry Switzer was not joining the Dallas Cowboys — but was merely participating in a massive media confusion plot. Local TV stations had to douse the rumor.

• In other Dallas doin's, KHKS agitated feline fanciers with spoof spots for the "Bulgarian Cat Circus — Real cats just like yours performing death-defying feats of bravery" — among them catjuggling over boiling oil and cat-parachuting.

• WWKL (Kool 94.9)/Harrisburg morning star R.J. Harris convinced listeners he was reuniting the Beatles, making creative use of airport and limo "sightings" and a soundbite from George Harrison's Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame acceptance speech. The crowd thronging 'round the limo at the local Hilton realized it'd been duped when a station employee emerged from the car.

• KTAR/Phoenix announced it would begin broadcasting Suns basketball play-by-play on a "pay-per-listen" basis, and drew a number of calls to a "hotline" to sign up.

• KIXY/San Angelo, TX invited listeners to the sneak preview of Toons Entertainment Park, advising, "Just look for it right off the Ballinger Freeway" and airing faked actualities 'n' news reports. Neither the park nor the freeway exists. Similarly, WHOT/Youngstown announced the reopening of longtime landmark Idora Park, involving the mayor by airing comments about how he'd enjoyed the old park's roller coasters in context with faked sound effects from the "new" one.

• CHR WMEE and Country WQHK (K105)/Ft. Wayne pulled the old frequency switch gag, resulting in the usual mass confusion.

Consultant Rusty Walker arrived inhouse Tuesday (4/5) and will spend a few days at 'YNY until a PD is hired. Word is it's down to three finalists.

Fallout from KSOL (Wild 107)/SF owner Crescent Communications' LMA — with intent to purchase — of Viacom's KSRY & KSRI/SF-San Jose (See Page 1): Trombo GM Scott Fey says they'll be "taking the wraps off of a new KSRY format in a few weeks." ST also hears that rumored Spanish format on KSRY ain't gonna fly.

Associated Press has called a news conference in Washington for next Tuesday (4/12) to announce a new service — the all-Continued on Page 18

ERG L.A. promo rep Monte Lipman will take up the Sr. Dir./Nat'l Top 40 reins, based out of New York, on April 15. No word on whether current VP/GM Kevin Knee will absorb Lipman's duties or not.

Hayes Answers Bequest Line

KKRZ/Portland morning man Humble Billy Hayes reportedly told the station he's inherited big bucks and "wants to live the easy life." KKRZ accordingly released him from his contract, but not from the accompanying noncompete. Former KKRZ afternooner Scott Drake is filling in temporarily and, of course, may even get the gig.

KWBW/Hutchinson, KS has drawn criticism for airing the names, ages, and home addresses of jurors in a quadruple murder trial. The station aired the list three times last Thursday (3/31), a day after the jury convicted the defendant on two counts of second-degree murder and two of voluntary manslaughter.

Prosecutors had charged the man with four counts of first-degree murder, and relatives of the victims were upset with the convictions on lesser charges. Despite criticism from police and some of the jurors, GM Dan Deming was quoted in an AP story as saying the station broadcast the information because "people just basically have a right to know."

The full FCC has upheld a license renewal grant for WYUU/Safety Harbor, FL (soon to be flagship station for the Commission's indecency plan?).

The Commission rejected John Tyrone's claims that the station's transmitter blanketed his home with excessive RF radiation. To refute Tyrone's contention, WYUU hired the chief engineer of WUSA/Tampa to conduct independent RF measurements at Tyrone's home in 1988. FCC staff engineers reviewed the data and agreed that there was no evidence to support Tyrone's claims, but the station still had to wait nearly six years for final vindication

Stocks

Both Keymarket Communications and US Radio Inc. recently filed initial public stock offerings with the SEC and had been expected to price the offerings in early May. The stock market may settle down by then, but both may have to delay their IPOs if Wall Street traders remain nervous.

At this point, though, Paul Kagan Associates VP Bishop Cheen says it's unlikely they'll suffer the same fate as EZ Communications, which had to abandon an IPO after the 508-point crash of 1987. Cheen said the situation is different this time a drawn-out correction rather than a one-day crash. "This doesn't derail [Keymarket and US Radio], but it makes them wait longer," suggested Cheen, who noted that EZ came back to Wall Street last year with a successful IPO.

How long will the current downturn last? Cheen said no one can yet be sure. "We may see a correction all through the summer, or we may see the catharsis in the next week or two and it's over."

The Slides Of March

The market's correction appeared to begin March 18, when the Dow Industrials began a string of daily declines. By the end of March, the Dow had dropped 6.65%. For the same period, Kagan's radio stock index declined 7.25%. However, Cheen said the correction for radio stocks appeared to begin earlier than the overall market. At closing March 31, radio stocks were off 11.5% from the last trading day in February.

Declines were widespread again Monday (4/4) as the market began what some predicted would be "a roller coaster week." Notable among Monday's losses was a $2.25 drop by Infinity to $23.00. Emmis fell $1.25 to $11.50, and SFX was off $1.00 to $11.75. But most other radio stocks held steady or declined only slightly.

The Dow Industrials fell 42.61 Monday, but rebounded 82.06 Tuesday - and radio stocks appeared to rebound as well. Preliminary figures at R&R's Tuesday deadline showed most radio stocks posting modest gains. Of those stocks listed in the Page 1 box, only Saga, EZ, and Heritage Meda had small losses Tuesday, and Partech was unchanged.

one-third stake in the Lifetime cable TV network to its partners, Capital Cities/ABC and Hearst Corp., for $317 million. That move fueled speculation that Viacom is selling off assets to raise cash to sweeten its $8 billion takeover bid for Blockbuster Entertainment Corp.

"We have no plans to sell off the [radio] group." Viacom Radio Division President Bill Figenshu told R&R. And he noted that Chairman Sumner Redstone has publicly stated that the radio group is not on the block.

Figenshu noted the decision to sell the San Francisco-Santa Cruz stations was made before Viacom began its successful takeover battle for Paramount Communications, which led to the friendly merger/ buyout of Blockbuster. As with Houston, where Viacom swapped its stations for a duopoly in Washington, Figenshu said San Francisco was a market where Viacom had determined that it would not double up — and "the right offer came along." He indicated Viacom will continue to reconfigure its radio group to take advantage of the FCC's duopoly rules.

In San Francisco, KSOL tied for fourth place with archrival KMEL in the 12+ Arbitron derby last fall. The station's signal in the San Jose market was strong enough to pull an 11th-ranked 3.1 share. Its new signal will fill in holes in the southern end of the market, giving it needed strength to pose a strong challenge to fourth-ranked KHQT (Hot 97.7).

Carlson started with Susquehanna in 1958 as GM of WARM/ Scranton-Wilkes Barre. He was promoted to VP of the radio group in 1961, became Sr. VP in the late '70s, and was named President in 1985

During his tenure with Susquehanna, Carlson oversaw its growth into a Northeast regional powerhouse and then into a major nationwide group.

Kennedy began with the company in 1972 as a parttime announcer at WLQR/Toledo. He remained with the company through his graduate studies, was named to head its research efforts in the late '70s, and took on his current duties in 1983.

Pop/Alternative Crossovers: Fad Or Not?

What's popular today could - and most likely will be different tomorrow. Case in point: the increase of pop/alternative crossovers into CHR.

Fueled by huge CD sales from Pearl Jam, Stone Temple Pilots, Soul Asylum, Blind Melon, Counting Crows, and others, a number of stations have changed their music's texture to a pop/alternative sound.

"Our in-house research has found that playing pop/alternative cross-- with selected rhythmic hits overs - has renewed the pattern where moms and their kids like the same music, like in the early '80s. CHR is a constant wave, and you're the surfer. You have to be on the edge at all times to win.

Scott Wright WEZB/New Orleans

In a market that's 33% black, PD Wright felt B97 needed to be different to win. "The pop/rhythmic stuff wasn't testing, and the library was burned. The topselling current music - in addition to the Urban titles - was pop/alternative without any radio airplay. So we gradually took Cruze credits crosstown Alternative KPNT. "They helped familiarize some songs, but they've overassessed the market's alternative core. The mass-appeal audience is the driving force behind our music, which is why we don't play a lot of album cuts or throw records on because they're from alternative bands. It's easy for a station like ours to get too hip for the room. If you're Alternative, you serve a small vocal core. We're not, so our focus is broader."

'A Trend With Two Parts'

rguably the "godfather" of pop/alternative CHR, former KRBE/Houston PD Steve Wyrostok now a consultant for Zapoleon/Richards Media Strategies --- watches the influence of alternative music on CHR with mixed feelings.

"It's a trend with two parts: The music produced by alternative artists is more mass-appeal than ever. and CHR is opening its arms to this music style as a component of the format.

"I worry about stations moving too far too fast. A turning point will come when PDs will be forced to learn which alternative records are hits by ratings success or failure. There are only 'X' number of hits. When you go beyond them, you get into dangerous territory."

We're at a slight disadvantage, and we're concerned, but a few strong mass-appeal records - among the tons of alternatives we get every week will ride us through the storm. We don't have much of a library to work with anymore, so our mission is to

On The 'X' Tip

On Keith Clark's alternative/hiphop "Channel X' experiment (now testing at WHJX/Jacksonville), Wyrostok says, "In any market, winning CHR mixes several types of music in different proportions for unique situations. The idea of combining rap and alternative may be smarter than it sounds. I've seen research showing a sales connection to people who buy Ice Cube and Pearl Jam.

"Focus on the market and the people you can expect to reach demographically and psychographically with the mix. Be careful, or you'll reshape your image so much you'll be perceived as a fad. When musical tastes change, you'll be out with that fad" find great pop/alternative hits that will become the foundation of a new recurrent and gold library."

Rick Stacy KKFR/Phoenix

Perhaps the most radically changed CHR, KKFR abandoned its successful Churban direction in January (4.5-6.7 in the Fall '93 Arbitron) to explore the brave new world of pop/ alternative under Rick Stacv new PD Stacy.

"Management wanted to grow KKFR's demos and overall appeal in the tradition of KZZP [a former dominant CHR, now AC KVRY]. There was a lot of yelling at first because we abandoned music that was dear to many people. But we were losing money. Now we've got teens and are seeing growth 18-34 and 25-34 with our new direction, and billing is up.'

Prior to KKFR, Stacy programmed CHR WAPW (Power 99)/Atlanta and flipped it to Alternative WNNX (99X). "We went too far at 99X; it's too eclectic now in my opinion. In Atlanta, I didn't know which songs fit. But now I know how to make Madonna and other nonalternative titles work with Pearl Jam, Gin Blossoms, and Stone Temple Pilots. If you're going to explore this music, don't let the alternative elitists hammer you. In Atlanta, I listened to the wrong people instead of the masses. There's a fine line between Top 40 and Alternative. and this is not Alternative.

AOR

ON THE ERR

The Biggest Mistakes AORs Make

OK, so nobody's perfect. But what are the biggest mistakes made by stations in our format? That's the question I put forth to a quintet of programmers. Their answers provide a provocative, introspective look at the state of the format.

KEGL/Dallas PD Duane Doherty identifies two problems: One is not playing enough current music — "thereby not producing any classic rock of the future. AOR is shooting itself in the foot by trying to be really classic. You want to be familiar and play listeners' favorite listen to the radio not only for music, but for entertainment value, companionship at work, etc. Many of the PDs I worked with in the past had 'Shut up and let the music do the talking' as their motto. That's not always the best policy. You have to hit a happy medium.

What Format Is This?

According to WXKE/Ft. Wayne PD Rick West, "The biggest mistake is playing records that are intended to be CHR hits but are tested at AOR by record companies. When record companies promote us by saying, 'You'd better get on it before the CHR does,' I listen extremely closely to find out if I'm being used to launch a record for CHR. We must superserve the AOR audience and not waste time on these other records.

"AOR responding to CHR is the next-biggest problem. It would be funny to review a bunch of old charts and look at the records we never should have played. It's embarrassing. CHR seems to be much more careful. If a record makes it into the CHR Top 15, it usually deserves it. But once in a while, AOR records get up there, and there's no way we should have taken them that far.

"More Than Words' by Extreme should never have started out on AOR. Going back further, AOR should never have played the Knack's 'My Sharona' or Michael Jackson's 'Thriller' or 'Beat It.' We responded to CHR. But 'Mr. Jones' by Counting Crows is a case of CHR playing an AOR track. I don't have a problem with that.

"Another AOR mistake is the Power Gold category. Playing the same tracks every day and threequarters has hurt the format a lot. That's the listeners' biggest complaint."

Balancing Act

WRKI/Danbury PD Tim Sheehan agrees with West on one issue: "Playing 'Beat It' was AOR's greatest mistake. We played it because Eddie Van Halen was on it. That's Tim Sheehan when we discovered the line we couldn't cross.

"In general, the biggest problem is getting on any musical bandwagon and skewing the balance of the station over to a specific side. Even with all the great grunge tunes out there, if we add a couple of grunge records, we try to add a Big Head Todd And The Monsters to balance > KRZR/Fresno PD E. Curtis Johnson believes trying to be all things to all people is the greatest mis-take. "I've read a lot of military strategy books, and one of the laws of defense says you pick the smallest possible point to defend. If you're attacking, you pick the smallest possible point to attack. You've got to decide whether you're a rock station or a classic rock station. Pick one side of the demo or the other and serve it. AOR stations that can dominate 18-30 and 30-44 are becoming fewer as the differences between the demos widens.

'The second-biggest mistake is forgetting the psychographic of the audience. Is the music really rock? Are the promotions really rock? Or are they not part of a listener lifestyle that's predominately male? Stations that try to court females too much are making a mistake. Rock listeners are passionate about their music, and if a station is playing something or doing something that doesn't fit the psychographic, they're dead. It's a format people get passionate about. I've done AC radio

. and I don't know anybody who's passionate about it."

Squeeze Play

WSTZ/Jackson PD Pam Rivers says, "One mistake a lot of AOR programmers make - myself included - is not embracing new music and breaking artists. AOR is being squeezed on all sides by Alternative, Metal, Classic Rock, and even Rock

KROQ Sticks With Tower

Bumper sticker campaign exposes new music, builds store traffic

KROQ/Los Angeles is wrapping up an eight-week cross-promotion campaign (February 21-April 15) with Tower Records and various record labels. KROQ Marketing/Promotion Director Stacie Seifrit shared the details on the station's successful promotion surrounding its bumper sticker.

Getting Started

This is KROQ's first organized sticker campaign. Seifrit explains, "We wanted to tie in with a promotional partner who had convenient locations and at the same time continue to align KROQ with the best new nusic. Although Tower Records has only 17 locations [in the L.A. area], it covers so many areas. We didn't want to go to a Wherehouse our first time out, because there are 300 locations and it would have been too hard to monitor.

When the band finished playing, people started buying the album. The store moved product. That's what it's all about.

"We sold Tower on the fact that the promotion on KROQ would increase store traffic and provide an opportunity to continue to build relationships with the labels. It's good for Tower, because it helps them continue to build relationships with the retail people at the labels. We have a set price with Tower and they charge the labels a certain amount of money. Tower solicited the labels to see who was interested in buying into the package; that's how they recoup their cost. "We have KROQ stickers in all Tower locations. The labels bought the back of the stickers; we have coupons for Lucy's Fur Coat, Enigma, Grays, Green Day, Chaka Demus & Pliers, and Cracker. There's a big end-aisle display with these CDs and a huge sign: 'Get your KROQ stickers here.'

"The idea is for a KROQ listener to hear about it on the air then go to Tower and pick up, for example, the new Lucy's Fur Coat CD and a KROQ sticker. They'll peel off the coupon and instantly get the CD really cheap, and then stick the KROQ sticker on their car."

Seifrit organized a KROQ pointof-purchase display contest with all the Tower locations. She explains, "It's completely off-air, but it's an incentive for each store to be excited about the promotion for the full six weeks. The most elaborate display easily identifying KROQ stickers, promoting the new music, etc. wins a special dinner party for all the Tower location employees.

"Each week we send our van drivers out to distribute more stickers, take photos of the displays, and talk to the managers. We have to constantly be in touch with the stores so when they run out of stickers we're there to supplement them. We give each store a little prize a KROQ T-shirt or tickets to a concert — just to say thanks."

In-Store Tie-In

In conjunction with the promotion, KROQ has lined up in-store performances every week during the campaign. "We set up in-stores with the labels," says Seifrit. "They work directly with the individual Tower store: KROQ promotes [the show]

Bumper Sticker Benefits

ROQ/Los Angeles Marketing/Promotion Director Stacie Seifrit explains why your station's bumper sticker has the potential to be the "ultimate promotion":

- You can tie in bumper sticker coupons with record labels and instore performances.
- The promotion creates a marketing effort for the station. You get signage in each record store — when customers walk in they see your logo plastered everywhere.
- It helps provide value-added to a sales promotion. The record chain, for all intents and purposes, is a client of the station.
- On a programming level, it's a great way to market your station because you align yourself with record labels to support new music.

than just going in and hearing the band and getting an autograph. The band played for an hour due to the crowd's encouragement. The crowd started a mosh pit — the kids were slam dancing in the middle of Tower Records!

"When the band finished playing, people started buying the album. The store moved product. That's what it's all about. The labels win; they are getting new music really pumped. We don't normally get that much promotion around some of these smaller bands.

"Our first choice is to go with the labels that have groups on the back of the sticker. Although Sheryl Crow is not on the back of the sticker, she played at an in-store. We don't have a problem supporting her, because it's new music we're playing on KROQ and that's what we want to continue to support."

NEW MUSIC

- Artist: Frente!
 Tracks: "Bizarre
- Love Triangle"/
- "Labour Of Love"
- EP: "Labour Of Love"
- Label: Mammoth

• Essentials: "Labour Of Love" is the debut U.S. release from the Australian quartet Frente!, consisting of Angie Hart (vocals), Simon Austin (vocals/guitar/programming), Tim O'Connor (bass), and Alastair Barden (drums). Austin formed the band in 1991; he decided on the name Frente! after seeing it on banners on a trip to South America. Original drummer Mark Picton played on the current release, but was replaced last summer by Barden. The EP features five original songs and two cover tunes -- "Bizarre Love Triangle" (New Order) and "Not Given Lightly" (New Zealand singersongwriter Chris Knox, former member of Tall Dwarfs and Toy Love).

• Artist POV: "We're not big on solos, and as for lyrics, I'm not big on dicking around with them," says Hart. "Once you've said something, you've said it. Things start to lose impact if you elaborate too much."

• Label POV: Mammoth National Radio Promotions Director Sean Maxson notes. "Embracing the New Order cover is a great way to introduce the band to radio, as well as their listeners. But there's much more to the band that will hopefully be recognized and equally appreciated."

Progressive Format Debuts

New version of a pioneer philosophy

It's with great pleasure that we reintroduce the Progressive format. Years ago, when AOR shifted to a "tracks" mentality, a handful of believers stuck to their progressive roots. But in the last year a considerable number of stations have returned to a Progressive stance.

Programming to an older audience still interested in new music, these stations vary by market. Some are very acoustic-oriented and soft; others do well with electric guitars and an uptempo mix. Their primary commonality is a 30-40-year-old demo with a taste for more adventurous radio, not to mention an extensive music library.

Stressing Diversity

The chart at right lists the stations that are starting the R&R Progressive panel. As more stations enter this territory, you can expect to see the panel grow.

It's our goal to reflect the diversity of this format by highlighting the various stations in this column, which will run periodically, written either by me or co-editor Shawn Alexander. Look for interviews with some of the most creative minds in radio.

Our reporters have told us they want an Album chart as opposed to a tracks chart; therefore, we're providing a 30-position Album chart with Back Page exposure along with major-market playlists. See Pages 70-73 in this issue for a complete look at the Progressive offerings.

Singer/Songwriter Roots

This first column features some veterans of Progressive radio and their thoughts on both the past and future of the format. KINK/Portland, OR PD and 18-year station vet Carl Widing recalls the station's early days.

Carl Widing

We started on the FM band as the bastard child of a huge AM. As the audience began to appreciate the music, FM gained momentum and we really started to grow. Our roots go back to the San Francisco sound and the singer-songwriter music. While the Haight-Ashbury era has gone away, the singer-songwriters Joni Mitchell, James Taylor, Jackson Browne, Linda Ronstadt, Karla Bonoff, and Neil Young - have stuck around. Our heritage is built around those core artists.

Widing cautions against cookiecutter logic: "The mistake a lot of people make is approaching this format like any other - with a rigid structure and research mentality. You have to guard against that, because every market is unique with different exposure levels to musical genres and different demographics. It takes a lot of participation and understanding from management/ownership in allowing creativity. This is an art form with some science; you're trying to tap into people's musical psyche and touch them there. So the music has always driven our station.

Older New Music Lovers

"We're dealing with 30-40-yearolds. From studying American music. I believe this is the first generation which has refused to be content with what they were listening to in high school. A survey done years ago stated that people's musical tastes were formed by age 19, and that's what they stuck with. But because this population is so mediaaware, with cable and all the access to technology, they're much more interested in hearing new music instead of the old hits.

"These are listeners who have cut their teeth on Progressive rock - a whole population who grew up on the Stones and Led Zeppelin. So where are they today musically?

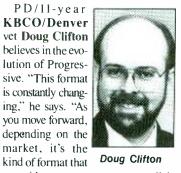

By Cyndee Maxwell

That's how this format fits in, by tapping into those early rock groups where the audience mindset is today. Progressive can provide a link to the past for those who collectively shared experiences as a generation in the late '60s and early '70s."

PD/11-year KBCO/Denver vet Doug Clifton believes in the evolution of Progressive. "This format is constantly changing," he says. "As you move forward, depending on the market, it's the can either grow or you can pull it back in if you need to. That's helped KBCO over the years. We've been able to expand or tighten up on titles, depending on what feels right

"Rock has many different niches now, but Progressive is moving into a position to become a very strong format around the country. The demos it goes after are the money demos, and that'll turn some heads of radio operators when they see the success of the format. It'll take time to develop, but once it does it'll see some growth. But I don't see this like the old days of Progressive radio; it's a different version. Times have changed; today's Progressives aren't the typical Progressive station we all listened to in 1971. Its progressiveness is that you play a lot of music, you get in-depth on core artists, and you introduce a lot of new music to your audience. I see it as more music-intensive than progressive.

"This format is here to stay. People who were into Progressive radio back in college or high school are now lawyers, doctors, and professionals. Some are trying to relive their youth somewhat, but you can only go back so far. The format can only go back so far, too. It still has to represent the '90s. You can do that with many different approaches: You can lean alternative on the younger side, alternative on the older side playing more folk and acoustic, or you can be more centered and try to cover a real central core of artists from the '80s and '90s with a researched base.'

Adult AOR

Consultant Dennis Constantine says, "Progressive is really the adult version of AOR. It's for people over 30 who can't relate to today's AOR radio. They find themselves punching around from Dennis Classic Rock to Constantine AOR to AC to CHR to Classical to the public station trying to find music for their day. Progressive is a station that talks to their sensibilities. "In the '70s a popular term was

'modality,' referring to a certain rock edge. As music was being fragmented, stations became more specific in the types of songs they'd choose. If vou looked back at an R&R AOR chart from 1976 you'd see Linda Ronstadt there. As the '70s went on, some stations said, 'Ronstadt's not cool. We want to rock, not play wimpy stuff.' That was the beginning of the fragmentation that became AOR, then Z-Rock, then Alternative, and so on. Everybody started finding a modality with upper and lower limits for the types of acceptable music.

Modal Model

"That's what today's Progressive radio is. We're very modal in the way we choose the music. We have our certain limits with a vision of what the sound should be. We know if there's a guitar break that's too loud on a Pearl Jam record it's not right for us. If it's too AC - like Anita Baker — it's not right. If it's too jazzy it's probably not right. The Progressive radio of the '60s and 70s would play anything, even classical music."

"As for the longevity of the format, it's tough to know what will happen in the future. Whatever it is now, it'll constantly be redefining and reinventing itself throughout the years. So a station that establishes itself now as being different and adventurous will still be adventurous, but it'll continue to redefine what that means throughout its history.

Constantine notes that Progressives share cume with another musical genre from the past. "Classic Rock is traditionally the No. 1 sharing station with the Progressives and public stations are usually No. 2. My feeling is that nobody listens to just one station. Most people have a favorite station but they still punch around. A lot of people who listen to this type of radio like to get a shot of Lynyrd Skynyrd or Led Zeppelin every once in a while. It's the nostalgia factor."

Serious Progression

Radio Active's Harry Levy says, 'R&R's acknowledgment of the Progressive format is one key to its growth, along with VH-1 skewing a little more in that area. With bands like Counting

Harry Levy Crows and Crash

Test Dummies crossing over and becoming big, people are starting to take Progressive more seriously. A couple of years ago this format was treated as a dumping ground, but now it's legitimate and establishing its own identity.

"I've noticed that stations are now a little more careful in what they're adding. They don't want that 'dumping ground' perception. A lot of these programmers have been doing radio for years, so they're not naive about how promotion works. This is really an exciting time for the format. It's already taken off; labels are hiring people to operate this arena, which is their way of saying it means something to them.

"The only thing missing right now is that; we need stations in New York and Los Angeles. Once that happens, the format will be completely established."

Intense Strategies At WLQR/Toledo

While many ACs opt for consistency throughout the day, WLQR/Toledo does extensive dayparting.

66

"We consider how listeners feel about each song in a particular daypart," remarks WLQR PD Steve Kendall. "I'm sure almost all ACs do some form of dayparting to see if a song is right for the market. Some songs have too much intensity for office settings, but may be appropriate at night when people let their hair down. The same is true on weekends — people have different mindsets and uses for the station."

In addition to intensity, Kendall dayparts songs by era. "Nights and weekends, we go deeper into the '60s. We play familiar songs by the Beatles, Beach Boys, and Supremes. [The Beatles'] 'Good Day Sunshine' tests very well but wasn't a big hit. It's a song people like hearing once or twice a month — not every week."

Wake-Up Call

WLQR plays no "morning drive only" songs, but flags songs out of that daypart. "There may be a perfectly good song that's just too 'down' and won't get people enthused about the day. On the other hand, we don't want to knock listeners out of bed by sounding too intense. We evening or to weekends. It's important to imagine what people are doing at a certain time and if a song will detract from work.

"People in an office environment don't mind hearing Meat Loaf's 'I'd Do Anything For Love (But I Won't Do That)' once or twice a week. Be-want to ease them out of bed, not put them back to sleep."

Section and

Since the bulk of WLQR's midday audience is involved in workrelated settings, Kendall notes, "We want to give people a familiar yet fresh product. We don't want to jolt them out of their socks, so we bump some hotter songs to later in the cause of the song's intensity, though, we wouldn't put it into a daily 9am-5pm rotation."

Tempo Tune-Up

A music mix aimed at in-office listening continues until 5pm. "After that, we shift into a drivetime setting and provide a brighter musical package between 5-6:30pm — but The format's having difficulty defining exactly what it is. I'd like to see ACs expose more new music, but that might not be where we'd be most successful. —Steve Kendall

Note that the second s

we still try to keep intensity under control. After being at work all day, people want to be put in an uplifting mood."

Each night between 7pm-midnight, WLQR focuses on a new current song. "It's a chance for us to highlight music we may be experimenting with or to expose a good new song by Billy Joel or Madonna. At night, we try to be more interactive with listeners. We want them to call, comment on the music, and be more involved with the station."

While WLQR doesn't air a nightly "Love Songs"-type show, Kendall believes certain songs are more appropriate for night play only. "Some songs are too relaxing — even in the middle of the day. They're good songs that people want to hear, and we can position them in dedications and requests. The songs get exposure but aren't rotated 24 hours a day."

Melody Is Instrumental

Cautious with such instrumentals as Warren Hill's "Our First Dance," Kendall explains, "They're nice to hear periodically but can be a bit much in full rotation. Instrumentals should have good melodies, and we'd like them to be by fairly familiar artists. Kenny G is an AC staple, but there are newer instrumental artists we also can expose. [I consider] the number of instrumentals in rotation and the similarity in sound among rotated instrumentals."

Fifteen hours of Kendall's week usually are spent working on music scheduling. "The hardest thing is determining how quickly we want to play new music. It gives us something that sets us apart from the market's other AC [WWWM] and makes us more than an AC that plays lots of oldies.

Grow Your Own

"We want to grow artists who get their start in AC. They may cross over somewhere else, but they belong to us. The format's having difficulty defining exactly what it is. I'd like to see ACs expose more new music, but that might not be where we'd be most successful."

WZMX's Proven Love Songs

ayparting isn't that important," remarks WZMX/Hartford PD Herb Crowe, who slots a nightly 'Love Songs' show. "That's a specialty show, but when we add songs, we usually play them all the time."

Crosstown AC WRCH also airs a 'Love Songs'type program. Crowe says, "They're even faster to add songs than we are. They'll occasionally mix in some jazz instrumentals. We've in our music tests as well as Kenny G did."

Some older 'ZMX Love Songs are played because of their textures. "I wouldn't play Debble Gibson's 'Lost In Your Eyes' during the day, but it feels right at night. Certain songs that don't sound contemporary or can't pass a 'hipness' test are okay at night because the lyric is right."

'Attitude & Lyric'

About 80% of WZMX's dayparted Love Songs eventually are added to its regular rotations. "A song has to prove itself. We watch to see if we're getting requests for it in other dayparts. It feels like we've been playing Joshua Kadison's 'Jessie' for a Certain songs that don't sound contemporary or can't pass a 'hipness' test are okay at night because the lyric is right. --Herb Crowe year. When it came out, we put it in Love Songs because of the song's attitude and lyric; it's a love story that works within the show. We were the first station in town to play it, then everybody picked up on it."

With the exception of Love Songs and taking an occasional down-tempo song out of moming drive, Crowe maintains he doesn't daypart. "Dayparting isn't nearly as prevalent in AC as in CHR. A CHR desperately attempts to be two different stations: It wants to be an in-office station during the day and appeal to 18-24s and teens at night. As much as possible, stations need to be what they are."

At WOMX/Orlando, 'We Don't Take Chances'

Unlike programmer Steve Kendall (see "Intense Strategies At WLQR/Toledo"), WOMX/Orlando PD Nick Sanders does virtually no dayparting.

"If a record tests well, it can be

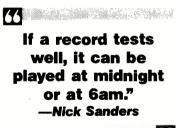

If a record tests well, it can be played at midnight or at 6am," Sanders comments. "We know what songs to test in the first place. The 350 songs we're playing are popular and test well with our 25-34 females."

Love & Roses

The B-52's "Love Shack" perhaps is the only truly dayparted song on the '80s- and '90s-based AC. "It made the cut, but it doesn't feel right to me at 10am on a Monday. If it were a top-10%-testing song, it wouldn't be dayparted. We were going fairly deep in a secondary gold category; the song sounds fine on weekends."

Bette Midler's "The Rose" pops up in very light rotations. "It's usually a midday song. We stress that WOMX 'picks you up and makes you feel good.' Sometimes it's hard to believe that 'The Rose' — one of the slowest songs out there — can pick people up."

Some stations daypart uptempo music because they don't want to alienate core demo listeners. "Stations seem to forget that 35-year-old listeners aren't sitting at home in rocking chairs. Some PDs are afraid of putting people to sleep. I'd advise programmers to get hold of some good music research. Good-testing songs are good-testing songs."

Competitive Climate

WOMX's crosstown format rivals are Rock AC WMMO and Soft AC WMGF. "WMMO definitely dayparts. More than ever, it's leaning to a male-oriented rock style. Much of WMMO's dayparting is by era. I hear much more '70s product at night. WMGF's dayparts in its nightly 'Love Songs' show. You'll hear something at night they wouldn't play during the day. It's done to create a mood — what you'd expect on a Soft AC."

According to Sanders, CHR WXXL attempts to be AC during the day. "It's doing some heavy dayparting and plays lots of our A's and B's. At night, it's a totally different station."

Dayparting Dangers

Sanders warns, "Dayparting can be dangerous when you're striving to project one solid image. We want people to turn us on at 10am or 10pm and hear familiar music they can sing along with. I'd be scared to hear my station sound one way at 10am and another at 10pm. People are creatures of habit and expect one thing from a station. The last thing I'd want to do is not live up to listener expectations just because the sun goes down."

Even if Orlando's competitive situation was to change, Sanders claims he'd still refrain from dayparting. "The currents we play are adult smashes. It depends on how aggressive a station is — we don't take chances."

A Top Manager's Top Issues

As the business climate evolves, important issues continually rise up to confront us. GMs and GSMs in particular face a growing number of serious concerns. John Wilson, VP/GM at the nation's second-highest rated UC, discusses the issues he considers primary to success.

Profit First

KMJJ/Shreveport scored a 19.6 12+ share in the Fall '93 Arbitron survey. What issues does that stellar station's GM consider most significant for today's general and sales managers? "Pro-John Wilson fit," says Wilson.

"Radio groups and corporations are looking for positive cash flow and profit out of their stations. So the first issue a GM faces is seeing to it that the station generates the numbers higher management is expecting.

66 Part of making a profit is fighting the perception that businesses don't need to make a buy on a UC.

"The next important issue is people - getting the right people and chemistry so you can put together a winning team. That brings you into the issue of programming. Good programming helps you stay competitive to do the things you need to do to win and make the profit. It takes a good game plan and sales strategy to maximize your inventory.

"You just have to put everything together so you get those advertising dollars, because part of making a profit at a UC station is fighting the perception that businesses don't need to make a buy on a UC station. That's an ongoing battle.'

People Power

"It's important to find careerminded people as department heads," continues Wilson. "A lot of people have a desire to get into radio, and after a while they get into a comfort zone. I've noticed that you don't find people anymore who are really hungry to excel at the job and do it for the love of radio By that I mean people who want to learn about the entire business and want to be in management and/or ownership, and therefore will do things they don't have to do. They do them just because they want to be the best and they want to get results.

"Finding competent people is sometimes a problem, but we can help that process through good management and overall industry education.

"I started out on the air. I moved into sales and then sales management and then general management, and even ownership. You begin to know and understand the different problems your employees face. When I was starting out, I appreciated working for people who would take a minute to tell you how to do things, who could tell, based on the good job you'd done, that you had the desire to learn and to move up. I try to practice that same approach here now."

Unequal Revenue Share

Wilson turns to one dark spot in the format's financial picture. "In markets of all sizes, Urban stations share the problem of revenue ranking. You may dominate the ratings in your market and be No. 1, but your billing is not as high as for comparable stations. Our format has a real problem with this, but it is getting better. I recently read an article that said you can just about discount 30% of the advertising dollars in the market right off the top because they [buyers] probably aren't going to buy an Urban station.

though we may have better ratings than all the other stations in the marketplace. The sales department has to be very creative. You can't just sell spots. Remember, creative ideas never go out of style. We do some very creative things here to help our sales efforts, but we don't hurt our on-air product. We're always looking for ways to fill up our inventory and make something happen.'

Selling Tools

"In addition to that, your sales department has to have more than goals, planning, and deadlines," ad-monishes Wilson. "Your salespeople have to have a strong desire to go out in the community and sell the Wilson concludes, "I'd just like to leave you with this thought. There are a lot of statistics out there, but when you have an audience like we have here at KMJJ, an audience that spends nearly 26 hours per week with the station, that's an awful lot of time.

Working Harder, Smarter

"Our numbers in all demos are outstanding. We're ranked No. 2 stay current on issues in the radio sales trade. Wilson notes, "The RAB [Radio Advertising Bureau] has a program of classes and tests that leads to becoming a CRMC [Certified Radio Marketing Consultant], which I did many years ago. This can be a continuing process, and the RAB puts out an awful lot of good information, in addition to their many meetings and seminars each year.

"Here's the point: We do get results for our clients, and our listeners are very loyal people. It's just a matter of educating our advertisers, and in return we'll see those advertising dollars that we need."

COUNTRY

Stunts, Stickers & Stealable Bits

Following are some contests, bits, and promotions from around the world of Country radio. Feel free to adapt, adopt, or steal outright.

Birmingham's Brooks Brouhaha

WZZK/Birmingham threw the city into a tizzy when it aired contest teasers promising to send a pair of listeners to the Garth Brooks concert in Birmingham. Phone lines to the station, local concert ticket sellers, and the town's major venue were jammed with people seeking details — the most important of which is the one WZZK left out. The April 10 concert, you see, is in Birmingham. England — not Alabama.

Saying Goodbye, Saying Hello

KPLX/Dallas wasted no time in throwing a farewell party for departing Dallas Cowboys head coach Jimmy Johnson. A local club was the site; the first 100 through the door were awarded a can of hairspray.

In a 180-degree twist. WYCD/Detroit asked listeners to bring cans of hairspray to a remote site. The plan was to ship them to Johnson to show how much they wanted him to move to the Motor City and take over their football team. No word on what present Detroit Lions head coach Wayne Fonts thought of the promotion.

Ice Ages

WGNA/Albany, NY figured its listeners had reached the end of their collective rope with all the winter snow, so it designed a three-pronged promotion to help ease the pain. Prizes included trips to Disney World, an entire season of free heating oil, and cheap lift tickets for nearby ski resorts.

WFMS/Indianapolis staged an "I Hate Winter" stunt, squashing utensils of the season — snow shovels, ice scrapers, hats, gloves, etc. — with a steam roller.

Nugent Hunts For WTCR

WTCR/Huntington, WV's "Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids" radiothon got an unexpected boost

- WQCB/Bangor, ME PD Bob Duchesne was one of three station personalities who snowmobiled through the Maine woods with 108 raw eggs stuffed in their shirts. They solicited pledges for a local charity, promising to carry one egg for each $50 raised. The intrepid trio collected $5419 — and are probably still cleaning egg yolk out of their navels.

Country Cares Update

ountry stations airing "Country Cares For St. Jude's Kids" radiothons during the first quarter once again raised enormous amounts of money, with most posting gains over last year's pledges.

Here's a station-by-station tally, with 1993's donations in parentheses. These outlets collected $4.25 million in 1994, vs. $3.48 million in '93 — a difference of nearly $770,000. Great job!

Nugent's donation was put up for auction with other celebrity items, including a pair of Billy Ray Cyrus's blue jeans and a guitar autographed by over 40 country stars. In all, WTCR raised $77,777 (last year, it collected over $53,000).

WGAR's Flight Fling

WGAR/Cleveland gave listeners a chance to get out of town (must've drawn a big crowd — just kidding) with free flights on Continental Airlines. All folks showing up at a local mall had to do was pitch a pair of peanut bags into a container marked with a destination city. It took two accurate shots in the "Fling For Flights" contest for participants to wing their way to warmth — or wherever.

KRMD/Shreveport has been named Radio Station Of The Year by the Louisiana Association Of Broadcasters in the Metro Market category. It was the second time in the last three years KRMD has won the honor.

Hang On, Rock 'N' Roll Geniuses

KWS/Wadena, MN PD/morning personality Mike Danvers has some choice comments about recent columns featuring former CHR personalities and programmers who've found their way to Country of late (R&R 1/21 & 2/4).

"I wanted to comment about the 'rock 'n' roll genuises' you've featured in recent columns. I know the world changes and variety is the spice of life. But give me a break. If these guys were so good at what they do, why did they leave their format? It must be to teach the rest of us to play 12 in a row, read liner cards, and play liner carts. Then they complain about the lack of creativity among today's announcers!

"Yes, today's music is excellent. But since when was Country a kids' format, where you rotate 300 or 400 songs over and over? And this night slammer thing — just what I want from my radio station, a 25-year-old guy talking to giggly high school girls over a music bed. I really take to heart what these guys said about longtime Country jocks.

"I work on my show an hour and a half to two hours a day and I've been playing country music for the last 15 years. I like the music and I know the audience. Yes, there are beer-drinking rednecks out there. But there's many others who make up the audience. Are these guys too good for audience members who don't meet their high standards?

Thanks for letting me get this off my chest. I like to think I have a perspective for both ends of the audience. I'm 39 and I have a 19-year-old son who likes country music. The thing that bothers me about these ex-CHR guys is that they think they can walk in and tell us everything that's wrong with what we've been doing for 20 years. Input is fine, but they give us no respect. Me and a lot of other guys in this format can't be that bad, can we?

NASHVILLE THIS WEEK

Gill's Great Bluegrass Adventure

When legendary vocalist George Jones recruited fellow artists Vince Gill, Ricky Skaggs, Marty Stuart, and Alison Krauss to play on his new "unplugged" album, he didn't know he was actually giving birth to a new bluegrass quartet.

Gill, Skaggs, Stuart, and Krauss had so much fun laying down tracks for Jones's new MCA/Nashville project that they decided to take their act on the road. Gill suggested they form an actual bluegrass group and perform a set on the Opry, which they did last weekend (4/2).

Earl Scruggs also sat in with the group during its Opry appearance; no word on whether the four have booked any more dates as of yet. (Skaggs, Scruggs, and Gill also teamed recently on a cut for the forthcoming "Red Hot + Country" AIDS benefit project due out later this year.)

"XXX's & OOO's"

Lari White has landed a recurring role in Brandon Tartikoff's new CBS-TV series, "XXX's & OOO's," which is being filmed in Nashville this month. White will portray a flirtatious photographer in the show: the pilot for the series is scheduled to air next month. Pam Tillis will also make a guest appearance in one episode.

Country Legends

In other TV news, Tammy Wynette and Willie Nelson will host a new series on TNN, "The Legends Of Country Music," this fall. The shows will feature the two artists performing with other artists they've influenced and will originate from Nashville and Austin. Nelson's guests will include John Hiatt, Asleep At The Wheel, Billy Joe Shaver, Travis Tritt, Marty Stuart, Freddy Fender, Flaco Jimenez, and Kinky Friedman; Wynette will perform with Doug Stone, Loretta Lynn, Trisha Yearwood, Pam Tillis. Aaron Neville, and Randy Travis, among others.

Carnegie Collaboration

Incidentally, Wynette will take the stage with Neville, Elton John, James Taylor, and others at a benefit for Sting's Rainforest Foundation at Carnegie Hall April 9. Wynette and Sting collaborated on "Every Breath You Take" for her next album, due out in June; John and Neville also appear on the project.

Bits & Pieces

Dwight Yoakam will be the musical guest on NBC-TV's "Saturday Night Live" this week (4/9). Garth Brooks and Willie Nelson have also appeared on previous episodes . . . John Michael Montgomery will be part of a forthcoming CNN special, "The Cutting Edge," which highlights people on the cutting edge of success in their respective fields. The show airs April 17 . . . Hal Ketchum is the honorary chairperson for the Eckenfelder Walk for Multiple Sclerosis April 10 in Nashville.

NEW ARTIST FACT FILE

Label: MCA/Nashville

Single/Album: "Just Once"/"Out With A Bang" Influences: Waylon Jennings, Merle Haggard, Willie Nelson, Lynyrd Skynyrd, the Beatles

Background

David Lee Murphy knew he wanted to be a musician "from the time he got that Sears guitar from Santa Claus." Growing up in Southern Illinois, he listened to traditional Country on his hometown AM station while picking out tunes on that old guitar.

• After high school, Murphy played area clubs with a local country band for two years while honing his writing skills. He made numerous trips to Nashville ("I knocked on every door in the city trying to pitch my songs") before deciding to move there in 1983. Concentrating solely on his writing, he got a publishing deal soon after he arrived in town, and gamered his first cut, "Red Roses Won't Work Now," from Reba Mc-Entire two years later.

• Though he was experiencing success as a writer, Murphy's heart was in performing, so he put together a four-piece band called the Blue Tick Hounds and played clubs outside Nashville. But in the back of his mind, he was still yearning for a solo deal.

Signing

When Murphy and his manager met with an MCA/Nashville A&R rep, she informed them that the label wasn't signing any new acts for a while. Murphy left her a tape anyway. After listening to it, she took it to Tony Brown, who set up a meeting with Murphy the following day. A few months later he performed a showcase for the label and walked away with a deal.

Songs

Murphy started writing songs because he didn't know how to play the ones in his guitar instruction books. He penned all the songs on his debut LP. "Writing songs is a hobby for me — it's just what I do. It's one of those things that comes so easy for me; it just seems like everybody should be able to do it."

• One of the songs on his original demo tape, "Just Once," was chosen for the soundtrack of the film "8 Seconds," about the life of rodeo hero Lane Frost. It is also Murphy's debut single.

• Another song on his debut alburn was inspired by Minnie Pearl. Murphy got the idea for "Why Can't People Just Get Along" from a story about Hank Williams Sr. that Pearl shared with him when they met. It is reportedly the only song Miss Minnie has ever gotten co-writing credits for.

Coming Attractions: Talk News You Can Use

In recent weeks, as you may have noticed, R&R's music coverage has undergone a dramatic overhaul aimed at providing programmers with the best possible decision-making tools. Over the next few months, I hope to unveil several features designed to do the same thing for Talk executives — and I'd like your input.

MORE THAN A MOUTHFUL - Who says Talk promotions can't be stimulating? WFLA/Tampa recently held an autograph signing party starring some of the Hooters girls featured in the April issue of Playboy.

Sandwiching 'FLA talker Carrol Suddler are Clearwater Hooters gal Sun day Steward (I) and cover girl Heidi Mark

The centerpiece of this effort is a quarterly News/Talk ratings review similar to those compiled by other R&R format editors. What I need to know as I go about allocating precious time and space resources is: What sort of information would be of the most use and interest to you and your staff? Should the chart feature year-to-year or book-to-book comparisons? Which demos should be highlighted? The 25-54 cell seems obvious. But how about 35+? Or 18+?

If I decide to create an index of the format's ratings performance, what book should serve as the baseline survey? Given space considerations, how many markets should be included in the survey? Is it necessary to chart every Arbitron market to get an accurate picture of how the format is doing? Katz Research's ratings analyses are, for example, based on data from the Top 75 markets.

NEWS/TALK

With syndicated programming continuing to play an important role in the format, I also plan to track the ratings performance of the leading syndicated and network shows.

Again, I need to know what sort of information you'd like to see in such a chart. Do we need to compile this data on a quarterly basis, or are spring and fall sufficient? Is it important to track the number of affiliates? And again, what demos should be included — and how many markets should be surveyed?

Your Input Wanted

Please let me know what you think about these questions as soon as possible. My goal is to debut the ratings review with the Winter '94 Arbitron data. The first syndication report will be based on the spring numbers.

While you're at it, I'd also like to hear your thoughts on topics that should be addressed in upcoming columns. Remember, these needn't be programming-oriented. If there's a Talk-related sales or management issue that should be explored, please share it with me.

And, as always, I welcome your breaking news — new hires, programming changes, etc. — and photos for use either on this page or in the news section. My phone number is (202) 783-3822; my address is Radio & Records, 529 14th Street, NW, Suite 975, Washington, DC 20045

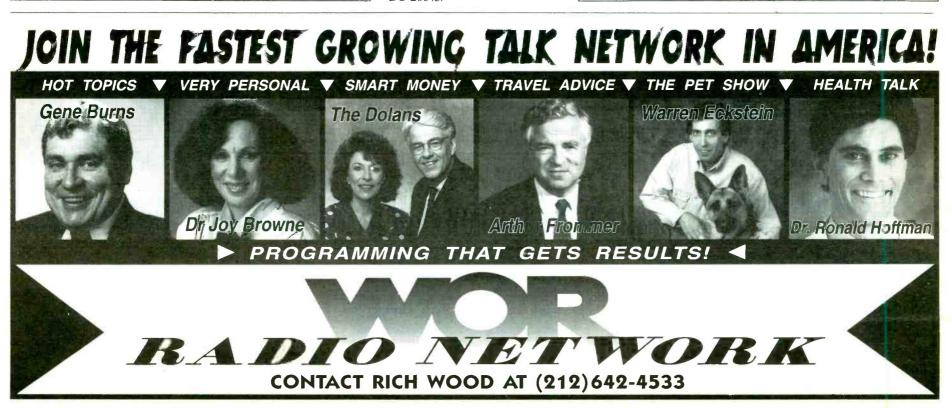

30 FOR LEBLANC — 30 years, that is. WTSN/Dover, NH's Paul LeBlanc takes the cake celebrating the completion of three decades worth of hosting the station's morning show.

WHITEWATER WAVES — WLS-AM & FM/Chicago continues to ride the promotional waves generated by President Clinton's Whitewater woes. At last count, the station had sold 12,000 of these "Gore In '94" campaign buttons at $1 apiece; OM Drew Hayes said he had to add extra staff to handle the orders. Half of the proceeds from the promotion will be donated to the U.S. Treasury to defray the cost of the Whitewater special prosecutor.

RADIOTHON RECEIVABLES — WMAL/Washington's 22nd annual Leukemia Radiothon raised more than $1.5 million to battle the disease. The 13-hour, commercial-free broadcast garnered $250,000 in listener pledges and a $1.3 million contribution from the United Food and Commercial Workers. Gloating over the toteboard are (I-r) WMAL afternoon drive co-host Chris Core, Leukemia Society Sr. Director David Timko, and Core's partner Bill Trumbull.

POWERFUL INFORMATION!

Coming April 22... CHR, Churban & Adult CHR/Hot AC

R&R's new music system has been designed to meet today's radio needs. The most timely, detailed and easy-to-use airplay information. All formats in one publication!

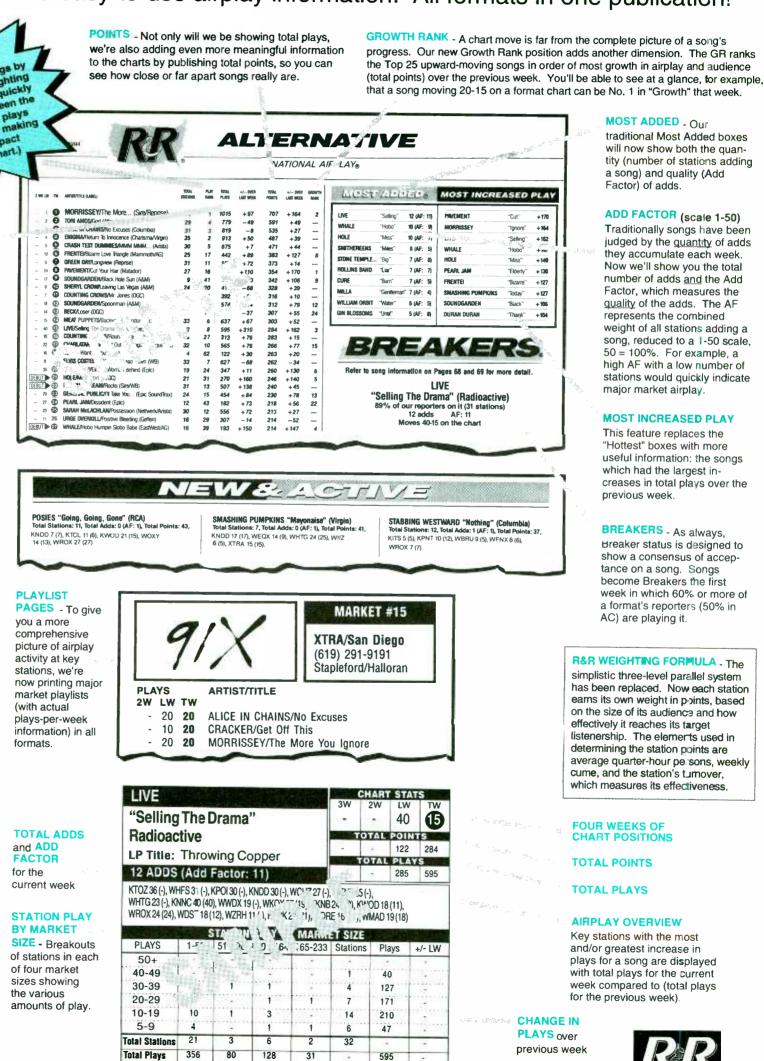

PLAY BANK w feature that ranks songs by total plays, with no weighting in quickly te subite afferences between songs receiving the most play Play Rank) and the songs mak the most audience impact (audience weighted chart.) st plays SY

PLAYS - The total number of plays for a song will be listed on the charts and in New & Active sections, along with total plays for the previous week in parentheses

> New Charts and Data based on actual playsperweek

New Playlist Pages--in all formats

Detailed song information in all formats

MOST ADDED - Our

traditional Most Added boxes will now show both the quantity (number of stations adding a song) and quality (Add Factor) of adds

ADD FACTOR (scale 1-50) Traditionally songs have been judged by the quantity of adds they accumulate each week. Now we'll show you the total number of adds and the Add Factor, which measures the guality of the adds. The AF represents the combined weight of all stations adding a song, reduced to a 1-50 scale, 50 = 100%. For example, a high AF with a low number of stations would quickly indicate major market airplay.

MOST INCREASED PLAY

This feature replaces the "Hottest" boxes with more useful information: the songs which had the largest increases in total plays over the previous week.

BREAKERS - As always, Breaker status is designed to show a consensus of acceptance on a song. Songs become Breakers the first week in which 60% or more of a format's reporters (50% in AC) are playing it.

R&R WEIGHTING FORMULA - The simplistic three-level parallel system has been replaced. Now each station earns its own weight in points, based on the size of its audience and how effectively it reaches its target listenership. The elements used in determining the station points are average quarter-hour pe sons, weekly cume, and the station's tumover, which measures its effectiveness

PERFORMING WHERE PLAYED is a weekly listing of records in New & Active and Significant Action with:

- 25 or more reports
- Chart positions at 50% or more of stations reporting them.
- No more than five fewer total reports than the previous week's.
