■ Billing increases riding 22-month streak

Radio industry revenues shot up 11% for the first half of 1994, according to RAB. June completed the six-month period with a gain of 9%.

At the year's halfway point, local radio revenues were up 11% and national spot revenues were up 12%, producing the industry's overall 11% gain. RAB's pool of over 100 markets doesn't include network radio, which was up 2% for the six-month period, according to the Radio Network Association.

Fifteen More Markets To Receive Sample Increase

Eight continuously measured markets and seven spring/fall markets are due for sample target increases beginning with the Fall '94 survey, according to Arbitron.

The Four-book-per-year markets due for increases are Cleveland, Columbus, Harrisburg-Lebanon, New Orleans, Riverside-San Bernardino, San Diego, Tampa-St. Petersburg, and West Palm Beach. These markets — which already received a 15% increase last winter when non-metro diaries were shifted into the metro — are due for another 15% increase with this fall's survey. At that point, these eight markets will be caught up with the other 59 continuous markets that previously signed up for sample increases.

Together, the 67 markets will receive another 20% increase in the Winter '95 survey and another 20% the following winter. All told, sample sizes will eventually be 70% larger than they were prior to the start of the sample increase program.

Arbitron also announced that seven two-book-per-year markets have contracted for 40% sample target increases. They are: Billings, MT; Evansville, IN; Hagerstown, MD; Merced, CA; Oxnard-Ventura, CA; Santa Barbara, CA; and Visalia-Tulare, CA. These markets will receive a 15% increase for the Fall '94 survey, an additional 15% in Spring '95, and a 10% increase in Spring '96.

Hundt Reshuffles FCC Brass

FCC Chairman Reed Hundt has reassigned two Mass Media Bureau officials as part of a restructuring aimed at preparing the Commission for its role as traffic cop on the burgeoning information superhighway.

Hundt Monday (8/1) announced the creation of a Wireless Telecommunications Bureau and an International Bureau at the FCC. Mass Media Bureau Deputy Chief Roderick Porter will join the latter in a similar position, while William Johnson, Mass Media's other Deputy Chief, has been reassigned to the Cable Services Bureau.

Hundt filled one of the two Deputy Chief vacancies with recently appointed acting Deputy Chief Renee Licht. Roy Stewart continues to serve as Chief.

Spectrum Auction A Hit

Commenting on the Commission's evolution, Hundt remarked, "The last place in the world where you'd expect the status quo to prevail would be in an agency governing communications, considering we're in the middle of a communications revolution," he said.

Hundt's announcement came on the heels of the FCC's first-ever spectrum auctions, which raised $866 million in bidding

Broadcasting Employment Down 16.5% Since 1989

Although overall employment in the radio and television broadcasting industry is down 16.5% since 1989, females and minorities are faring better than their male peers, according to new employment figures released by the FCC.

The number of people employed in radio and TV (the FCC does not differentiate between the two in its report) has shrunk from 175,599 in 1989 to 146,629 last year. And although minority employment has fallen by 11%, minorities' presence in the broadcasting workforce has increased 1.2 percentage points to 18.2%. The proportion of women in the industry also grew — up a point to comprise 39.6% of broadcasting workers. Men account for 60.4%, down one point from 1989.

In the upper echelons of broadcasting (officials and managers), women (34%) and minorities (12.6%) saw little movement between 1992 and 1993, increasing their numbers by .2 and .1, respectively. Men still command 66% of the top jobs, but that's down from 68.1% in 1989. Of the 10,000 commercial radio stations broadcasting in 1993, 300 were controlled by minorities, the report stated.

RADIO BUSINESS*SBA Loans: What Radio Owners Need To Know

The recent repeal of the Small Business Administration's Opinion Molder Rule has made an estimated 90% of radio broadcasters eligible for government-guaranteed loans. Here's how to apply, according to a study written by Washington attorney Frank Montero and distributed by NAB.

Permissible Uses

For radio broadcasters to be eligible, average annual sales for the last three years may not exceed $5 million. SBA also restricts how loans may be spent. The following are permissible uses:

- Purchase of land or buildings, including new construction, expansion, and remodeling
- Acquisition of equipment, machinery, supplies, or materials
- Working capital for settlement of accounts payable and/or the purchase of inventory
- Refinancing existing business indebtedness (with some exceptions)
- Short-term seasonal financing, contract financing, and construction financing needs. However, SBA loans may not be used to refinance a loan which would have the government assume a lender's existing loss. They also may not be used to repay delinquent state or federal taxes. And you can't repay funds owed to an owner of the business.

The application procedure is straightforward. Once you have completed a detailed business plan and your bank's loan application, make an appointment with your lender. If your lender is unwilling to make the loan independently, ask him or her to seek an SBA guaranty. The institution may then provide you with an SBA application. The lender will file the SBA application, along with its own application and your business plan. If the lender's request for an SBA guaranty is approved, the lender (not SBA) will make the loan.

$750K Cap

SBA will guarantee loans up to $750,000 or 85% of the loan amount, whichever is less. There are also two "mini-loan" programs that require less documentation, but they are limited to less than $100,000 (the LowDoc program) and $25,000 (MicroLoan).

For more information, contact the nearest SBA district office or the SBA answer desk at (800) 827-5722.

EARNINGS*Infinity, Clear Channel Set Records

Infinity Broadcasting and Clear Channel Communications, two of the radio companies most closely watched on Wall Street, reported record earnings for the second quarter.

"All of the reports on radio have been bullish," noted First Boston analyst Harry DeMott. He also predicted most radio companies would have strong reports for the third quarter, based on current ad sales projections.

DeMott was most impressed by Clear Channel, which reported sales gains of approximately 30% for stations it had owned for a year or more. Infinity, he noted, owns mostly mature stations which already have large cash-flow margins, and thus has less room for growth at its existing outlets.

Infinity (Nasdaq: INFTA) reported second-quarter earnings of $11.4 million (25 cents per share), up 100% from $5.7 million (14 cents) a year ago. Net revenues were $68.7 million, up 30% from $53.0 million. Operating cash flow was $33.9 million, up 32% from $25.7 million.

For his part, Infinity President/CEO Mel Karmazin said, "The second-quarter results reflect the company's ability to increase revenues from both acquisitions as well as [from] increasing market share for the company's existing stations."

Infinity owns 26 radio stations and a major stake in Westwood One (Nasdaq: WONE), which recently reported its first quarterly profit in five years (R&R 7/15).

Clear Channel (AMEX: CCU) reported second-quarter earnings of $6.1 million (35 cents per share), up 182% from $2.2 million (14 cents) a year ago. Gross revenues were $48.1 million, up 52% from $31.5 million. After-tax cash flow was $11.9 million, up 90% from $6.3 million.

Clear Channel is preparing for more growth. President/CEO L. Lowry Mays said the company is negotiating to raise its credit line from $150 million to $350 million. "I believe these additional funds will enable the company to continue to evaluate acquisition opportunities both in radio and television which meet our stringent investment criteria and will increase shareholder value."

Clear Channel owns 23 radio stations and has six acquisitions pending. It also owns nine TV stations.

Broadcasting Partners Inc. (Nasdaq: BPIX) reported a second-quarter net loss attributable to common stock of $368,000 (four cents per share), compared to a loss of $1.1 million (73 cents) a year ago. However, before adjusting for a loss attributable to an early debt payoff, the company had a second-quarter profit of $676,000 (nine cents). Net revenues were a record $11.9 million, up from $7.1 million. Broadcast cash flow was a record $5.0 million, up from $2.3 million.

Broadcasting Partners owns nine radio stations and is buying two more.

Broadcast Alchemy and Booth American Company closed their $160 million merger Monday (8/1) and are now Secret Communications under President/CEO Frank Wood.

Secret now owns WDVE/Pittsburgh; WNDE-AM, WFBQ-FM & WRZX-FM/Indianapolis; WJLB-FM & WMXD-FM/Detroit; KSMJ-AM & KSFM-FM/Sacramento; WWWE-AM & WLTF-FM/Cleveland; and KMJI/Denver. It also has a deal pending to swap Booth's WWNK-FM/Cincinnati for Citicasters' KALC-FM/Denver, which is expected to close next week.

Brokerage honors for the megamerger go to William Steding of Star Media Group.

IDB In $700 Million Takeover

IDB Communications Group (Nasdaq: IDBX) announced a definitive agreement to be acquired by John Kluge's LDDS Communications (Nasdaq: LDDS) in a stock swap valued at more than $700 million.

The exact value of the tax-free exchange will be determined through a formula based on LDDS's stock price. LDDS is primarily a long-distance telephone firm. IDB provides satellite and other transmission links to broadcasters, but much of its recent growth has been in international telecommunications.

IDB also announced it would restate its first-quarter financial results, reducing its pretax income by approximately $6 million.

Heftel Sells $35 Million IPO

Heftel Broadcasting Corp. (Nasdaq: HBCCA) has completed a public stock offering of 3.5 million shares at $10 each, down from its original maximum of $73 million.

Heftel, which had several merger and acquisition deals tied to completion of the IPO, had to settle for 7.7 times its estimated 1994 pro forma cash flow to sell the issue on Wall Street — a far cry from the double-digit multiples radio IPOs commanded in 1992 and early 1993.

"It breaks the equity logjam," said Paul Kagan Associates analyst Bishop Cheen. He noted that Heftel is the first radio company to sell an IPO since Emmis Broadcasting did so in February.

-Joe Libios, Promotions Director

“From a blank sheet of paper, all the way to finished production, the people at Communication Graphics always work closely with us. They understand radio promotions inside and out.”

“Image and visibility are everything. CG knows how to help you keep that visibility in the streets. That’s what counts. We’ve used their artwork and logos, because they were so popular, in other mediums with great success.”

“We get the help we need every step of the way. And every sticker or decal I have ever ordered from CG has been satisfying. That’s why I’ve ‘stuck’ with them for 8 years now.”

“Great Stickers Are An Art Form.”

—Cha Chi, Promotions Director
WBCN, Boston

“Our stickers get pretty high-tech. That’s because WBCN has been the vanguard for the way listeners think about their favorite radio station. They expect our stickers to be exciting, different, and the highest quality.”

“Communication Graphics never compromises image and quality. They break down the technology barriers that others can’t overcome.”

“The artists at CG know radio and how great stickers become an art form with on-air programming. It’s an unbeatable combination.”

a total fresh start. We wanted a quick, smooth transition, and Jamie has worked with Jerry Clifton's system in the past."

Hyatt told R&R, "I'm excited to get the chance to work with Joe Ernest and Waterman Broadcasting. KTFM is a heritage CHR, and we'll focus the music on the hits for the market."

Hyatt, who most recently was an in-house consultant for KMXZ/Monterey, has also programmed KOY-FM/Phoenix, KIKI/Honolulu, and KDON/Monterey.

KTSA-AM & KTFM VP/GM Joe Ernest explained that the change in programmers coincided with the station's change in consultants. "We felt it was best to have for personal communication service and interactive video data service licenses. The cash infusion for the U.S. Treasury prompted Hundt to dub the new Wireless Bureau the "Midas" bureau.

The Wireless Bureau will be headed up by Regina Keeney, minority counsel for the Senate Commerce Committee. The International Bureau Chief will be Scott Blake Harris, chief of the FCC's Office of International Communications.

The structural changes, which require congressional approval, also include the creation of an Office of Workplace Diversity and a Competition Division in the Office of General Counsel, as well as moving the Office of Small Business Activities out of the Office of Managing Director and having it report directly to the Commission.

Commissioner James Quello sharply criticized some of Hundt's moves, saying it didn't make sense to shuffle longtime senior officials into new or different bureaus, warning that the moves might deplete morale at the agency.

User Fees Criticized

Meanwhile, approval for the FCC's 1995 budget is inching its way through Congress. Chairman Hundt testified before a Senate subcommittee Friday (7/29) and was on the receiving end of some harsh criticism by Sen. Larry Pressler (R-SD) for fees that "unfairly burden broadcasters in small markets." Hundt said he would look into it.

The Senate subcommittee, chaired by Sen. Daniel Inouye (D-HI), will meet again soon to draft the bill reauthorizing the FCC's 1995 budget. The Senate has OK'd $198 million, an amount Inouye said wasn't enough for the agency — although it is $10 million more than the House approved.

Lyons

"Barry understands what it takes to develop artists' careers," said newly appointed GM Steve Backer. "The Giant mentality is to 'grind it out.' Barry is the meat 'n' potatoes promotion person we wanted here."

Lyons told R&R, "As a meat 'n' potatoes promotion guy, I am honored to be at a prime company with so many choice cuts. Joining one of the best promotion staffs in the business will make everything else gravy."

Lyons was most recently VP/Promotion at Chameleon Records. His 1987-92 tenure as VP/Promotion for IRS Records was preceded by a nine-year stint as an Elektra promo rep and three years as National Sales Director at Amherst Records.

Midwestern Exposure

When actor John Corbett (r) — who portrays Alaskan DJ Chris Stevens on CBS-TV's "Northern Exposure" — vacationed in Chicago, he took time to visit real-life WLUP-FM middayer Garry Meier.

Everett New WCTK/ Providence PD

WWRX-FM/Providence PD Rick Everett has left the Classic Rocker after two years to join crosstown Country WCTK-FM as PD. Everett fills the vacancy created when Mike McCoy left the post in January.

WCTK GM Tom Devoe told R&R, "Rick doesn't have a country music background, but he has an incredible sense of formatics and he's really familiar with the Providence market. I think he's going to fit right in."

Before his stint at WWRX, Everett programmed AC WWLI/Providence and served as Group OM/PD for H&D Broadcast Group, based at WQGN/Groton, CT.

EEO

FCC Chairman Reed Hundt assailed the figures in a speech he made last week to the National Urban League at its annual meeting in Indianapolis.

"These results reflect insufficient movement toward our goal of insuring that the broadcasting and cable workplaces look more like the American workforce as a whole," Hundt said. "We want to promote equal employment opportunity, we want to have the ownership and management ranks in this sector look more like the people they serve, and we want to improve education opportunities for urban and disadvantaged schools."

The FCC chief said he plans to continue strict policing of the Commission's EEO rules.

According to the report, compiled from the annual employment reports filed by broadcasters:

- There are 13,509 blacks employed in broadcasting — approximately 9% of the industry. By comparison, the total U.S. workforce is 11% black.

- Minorities in broadcasting are most likely to be found in the service category, of which they make up 61.1%. They were least likely to be salespeople (12.1%).

- The 58,135 women in the broadcasting workforce scored well in sales, comprising 52% of that category. However, many females are still relegated to office/clerical duties, filling 89% of those jobs.

"John has a real passion for this format, and I know he'll do a superb job," commented JSN VP/Programming & Operations Phil Barry. "Jim brings a wealth of country programming experience to JSN. He's regarded as one of the industry's best."

Before joining JSN last year, Hendricks had programmed Denver outlets KYGO, KZDG, and KWMX. His resume also includes stints at Seattle's KJR and KUBE.

'ZINE SCENE

WCBS/NY: We Cover The World!

The New Yorker tunes in a story on WCBS's incredible signal, which reaches as far away as California, England, Sweden, and even Japan, thanks to a location in the Long Island Sound that allows the 549-foot-tall stick to use the coasts of Long Island and Connecticut "as if they were the walls of a giant megaphone."

Employee Carol Daughtry, the station's "unofficial department of state," receives a card or letter almost every day from people overseas describing what they've heard about NYC on WCBS. "And then when people hear us in Maryland they think it's a big deal! I mean, come on. Give me a break."

Babe Watch

Sports Illustrated devotes a page to the "Fabulous Sports Babe" (aka Nanci Donnellan), who left KJR/Seattle a month ago for ESPN Radio and now reaches 34 markets. "You don't hire someone and ask her to be someone else," says ESPN Radio GM Mark Mason. "The Babe is everything that is politically incorrect. She breaks any mold we've ever had before."

Stones On Speed

Is that oil and vinegar on the cover of Q? No, just Mick 'n' Keef, out flogging another record. Here's Mick on tempo: "Play it faster, Keith, for Christ's sake, we can't play it this slow, everyone is falling fucking asleep! ... If it doesn't get me up on my feet then I get bored. But Keith just likes things too slow, and sometimes I have to give in and let him have his ... slow things."

Here's Keith: "Mick likes things too fast. He's always been like that. He wants it all to be like it is live. If he had his way, our albums would be over in seconds. Zzzzzp!"

Over-The-Counterculture

Life tips its hat to Woodstock by interviewing the usual suspects — the Band, Joe Cocker, Roger Daltrey, Richie Havens, Country Joe McDonald, Joni Mitchell, Carlos Santana, and Graham Nash, who says the fest was "the end of pure rock & roll and the beginning of business's encroachment — the adding of several zeros. Hundreds of thousands of people. Hundreds of thousands of dollars."

In a Time cover story entitled "Everybody's Hip (And That's Not Cool)," Henry Rollins sneers, "Hip has become a lot of asses to kiss, a lot of places to be, a lot of parties to go to."

Geffen's Playboy Parley

David Geffen

In his Playboy interview, David Geffen opines, "The people who are telling us what the future is going to be are completely full of shit. I don't think anyone can see the future better than you or I."

He also talks about his sexuality (natch), his tortured romance with Cher (revelations the Star and Globe regurgitated this week), Guns N' Roses, Kurt Cobain, and more. He calls the record biz comparatively "progressive, because it costs less money to make a record ... If we put out a record and it doesn't do well, no one gets fired. But if you make a movie for $40 million or more and it fails, people lose their jobs."

And ... he's fed up with concerts. How fed up? "If you told me Elvis Presley, Buddy Holly, and the Beatles were all going to get together one more time, I'd say, 'Let me hear the album.'"

Talking Heads

"What scares people is that Suge [Knight] and [Dr.] Dre are opening the nation's consciousness to a revolutionary new art form. What you're up against here is two young black guys from Compton who are turning the entire music industry on its ear" — Interscope cofounder Jimmy Iovine, quoted in Spin's story on the controversy-dogged founders of Death Row Records, which Interscope distributes.

"Vanessa [Williams] was like the nail in the floorboard that kept coming up," says Mercury President Ed Eckstine in Essence's cover story on Williams. "She had a sense of purpose to her agenda that wasn't malicious but at the same time didn't let anything stand in its way."

Family Affairs

Now that Lisa Marie Presley-Jackson's publicist has admitted her client married the King of Pop last May, this week's National Enquirer stories ("You're Stupid And Irresponsible; Priscilla Rages At Lisa Marie" and "Elvis's Daughter Got Divorced Before She Married Michael — And Here's The Proof!") don't seem so farfetched.

Travis Tritt tells TV Guide he watches CNN, "Martin," "60 Minutes," and especially "Cops" — "just to see if any of my relatives or band members are on it."

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridiculous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports

STREET TALK®

‘S.I.N.’ Casts The First Stone

Dance tipsheet S.I.N. says it's filed suit in NY State Supreme Court against Emmis Broadcasting over a letter to labels from two Emmis execs.

The letter — sent by Emmis Exec. VP/ Programming Rick Cummings and Hot 97/ NY PD Steve Smith (ST 6/24) — was perceived by S.I.N. as a warning to labels that doing business with S.I.N.'s startup dance programming on crosstown WNWK would place their relationships with Hot 97 at risk.

Cummings and Smith subsequently sent a second letter (ST 7/22), assuring labels there was no intention to sever any record relationships over the issue. However, S.I.N. and WNWK terminated their programming plan.

S.I.N. publisher Vince Pellegrino stated, "The action is for unfair competition and tortious interference with pre-contractual relations arising from the June 15, 1994 fax which [Emmis's] executives sent to music industry executives attacking S.I.N.'s radio programming venture with WNWK. Emmis's fax was the death blow to the deal."

Neither Smith nor Cummings offered comment.

▶ Shamrock Collars Big Dog ◀

Shamrock — owner of Gold KXKL/ Denver — bought crosstown KZDG (Big Dog Country) from Premiere for $5.5 million. Reportedly, no format change is planned.

The FCC granted license renewals to Philly FMs WYSP, WJJZ, and WHYY, denying appeals by the Philadelphia Lesbian & Gay Task Force, the Philly chapter of the National Organization for Women, and ASPIRA Inc. (a Hispanic civil rights group). However, WYSP and WJJZ will have to file special reports on EEO efforts.

Gold KFRC/SF VP/GM David Bramnick exits. Alliance Media Pres. John Hayes is running the station for now. KFRC also lacks a PD.

Rumors

- Is former Z100/NY morning man Ross Brittain auditioning on-air for the morning slot at B96/Chicago?
- Will former Progressive KTHX (The X)/Reno resurface on a new frequency in the market by mid-month?
- Is a Top 35 station courtin' KC101/New Haven night stalker Mojo for wakeups?
- Is Hot AC KTHT/Fresno headin' to Rhythmic CHR with a newly adjusted 18-34 target?
- Will WKDY/Utica hire former WRCK PD Wally McCarthy to take the station CHR within the next four weeks?

BDS Moves Even Farther From Reality

The calls are coming in to ST every week from radio and record executives questioning the BDS version of "reality" in a variety of formats. Serious BDS errors have been discovered all along, but now, instead of silently accepting them, people are openly complaining or challenging the validity of the system.

In Country, two Dallas stations celebrated the July 21 National Working Woman's holiday by intensively playing Sammy Kershaw's hit of the same name. KPLX played it nine times between 9-10am. KYNG played it 10 times an hour from 10-noon.

Well, BDS recorded just three plays of the song on KPLX and two plays each hour on KYNG. While they were at it, six TNN plays of Tim McGraw's "Down On The Farm" video were missed. And if that's not enough, here are some more "misses" from the BDS Monitor in other formats:

- Rock: BDS missed airplay of "Love Colours" by the Pretenders on KLOS/L.A., which has been averaging 15 plays a week on the track for five weeks. Across town, 35 plays on Smashing Pumpkins' "Quiet" on KNAC went undetected.

- Urban: 34 plays of R. Kelly's "Your Body's Callin'" on WGCI/Chicago.

- CHR: R. Kelly was a victim again, with 22 plays on "Seems Like You're Ready" on WQHT (Hot 97)/NY slipping by the Monitor. And missing from WBBM (B96)/Chicago, 37 plays of Aly-U's "Follow Me" and 60 plays of 20 Fingers' "Short, Short Man" — the station's most-played song!

For these records — and quite conceivably others we weren't notified about — the accuracy of BDS "reality" (especially on charts based solely on plays) could literally be the difference between a hit ... and a "miss."

▶ Caine Scrutiny Over In Seattle ◀

Former KMPS/Seattle morning star Ichabod Caine made his debut on crosstown Country competitor KRPM Monday (8/1). Ichabod & The Caine Gang replaced R.P. McMurphy & Mark Pierce; Hal Knight copped McMurphy's MD slot. Caine signed with KRPM last February but has been sitting out a six-month noncompete clause.

There's been a flurry of AC MD changes in OKC ever since Hot AC KYIS PD Jon Zellner split to become PD at KTHT/Fresno. He was succeeded by KMGL MD Brenda Bennett. Shortly thereafter, KYIS MD Mike Alexander joined Zellner at KTHT. Meanwhile, KMGL hired KYIS's Kathi Yeager as MD to replace Bennett. KYIS is still running sans MD.

force at Katz. His name has been associated most consistently with the success of our radio group. Certainly Stu's promotion is no surprise to anyone familiar with our company or, for that matter, our industry."

Olson added that as GM, Olds had given KRG "a sense of vision" to go with its "reputation for aggressiveness." "With [Olds] now at the helm, we have a leader who will dynamically lead KRG into the next century."

"I'm the luckiest person in the world," said Olds. "We're absolutely rich in people resources at Katz, we have without a doubt the most respectable client list, and [soon-to-be majority owner] Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette is a great financial partner. My job will be to marshal all these people and to grow our company bigger and better."

Olds joined Katz Radio in 1977 and four years later was named VP. He was appointed President of that firm in 1987 and in 1992 became VP of KRG, overseeing all of the radio rep companies.

Hastings was President of Katz TV Group from 1972-1986. After leaving to purchase some small-market radio stations, he was invited back as President of the radio rep group in 1992.

As for his future plans, Hastings told R&R, "I love the radio business. I have a passion for it, and I want to stay in it. I need a few minutes to catch my breath, and then we'll see what the next best move for the Hastings family will be."

CONTEMPORARY HIT RADIO

Baka Boyz Fuel Power 106

■ Duo rewrites rules, helps station rise 4.7-5.1 to hit No. 2 12+

Rhythmic CHR KPWR (Power 106)/L.A. isn't your typical CHR, by any stretch of the imagination. On top of the Emmis station's emphasis on hip-hop music, there's the outrageously unradio-like morning show put on by the Baka Boyz — aka brothers Eric and Nick Vidal.

In fact, it's the untraditional radio delivery of these self-described "two fat Mexicanz" that's behind much of the station's 4.7-5.1 increase in the Spring '94 Arbitron. The Vidals waddled by R&R's offices recently to talk about radio, music, their show, and their goals.

Secrets Of Success

R&R: How do you guys pull it off every day?

EV: The secret is that we do no preparation whatsoever. I just grab my records and put it all together. We do a lot of interviews, and the show is loaded with artist-driven pieces, and that's about it — besides the phone interaction with the roll calls. We have almost total control over the mix, but the only time we get called out is if [Exec. VP/Programming] Rick Cummings and [PD] Michelle Mercer think the music is getting too unfamiliar. But the real reason what we do works is that it's stuff you don't ever hear on the radio. The rest of the station is more research-driven, but our success is all in the presentation. Compared to others in radio, you'd call what we do sloppy, but we run it as if we were experiencing our show as others really do. And we want it to be fun and happy.

R&R: How do you split up the duties?

NV: I'm running the controls during most of the show, except when

Eric Vidal

Nick Vidal

Eric's in the mix. He isn't as comfortable with his voice as I am, but he's really participating a lot more now. Sometimes I cut him off and he gets mad at me. No one can do it like we can do it, so we have to be at the controls in the studio.

No Rules

R&R: Your unstructured style completely breaks the rules of radio. Was it tough for management to put you on in mornings?

NV: [Emmis President/GM] Doyle Rose was scared at first, but he, Rick, and Michelle all saw the potential. Yeah, we're constantly breaking the rules of what everyone thinks good radio is all about. For example, it was on the log to play 'Rapper's Delight' from an old school compilation CD, but we played 'My Adidas' by Run D.M.C. because we thought it would sound better. We got on the air and apologized for playing the wrong cut — we made fun of our mistake.

EV: But we're not into talking a lot. We're into playing a lot of music, saying what we have to say, and getting out.

NV: Everyone's so tired of all the talk in the morning. They want some entertainment, and this the most music-intensive morning show of its kind in L.A. When people want to have fun in the morning, this is where they tune in. I like the fact that we have listeners of all ages who are white, black, and Asian. There are no limits here.

EV: L.A.'s been waiting for this for a long time. It's what the public wants to wake up to, because they're tired of the canned bits. We're in the demo ourselves, so who'd know more than us? We understand the street side, and we're learning the radio side as we go to make it work.

—Eric Vidal

NV: We have lot of respect for [KIIS morning star] Rick Dees. He's been successful for so many years. We'd love to take him out to lunch or breakfast just to say hi to him. But he won't call us back. Rick, call us! We want to meet you. The rest of the morning shows are boring.

Lots Of Music Input

R&R: You're not officially in the Power 106 music department, so how does your contact with the artists help the station?

EV: Many PDs and MDs can't hear music, and we hear hit music faster than most people. We've helped blow up tons of records at Power 106. Rick and Michelle, who have strong ears, listen to us. They take our word, since we're out there. Our listeners don't have to wait if it's dope — or catch it first on MTV or the Box. We've got it goin' on here first.

NV: We've had a positive effect on the hip-hop scene, since we've helped blow up Warren G., Coolio, and Snoop Dogg, who like us because we make them feel loved and comfortable. We want to be able to give the audience good interviews with these artists. We know them and the details of their lives and careers, so it all comes off the top of our heads when we're talking to them. We don't need to read a bio.

Banned In L.A.

POWER 106 FM
MORNINGZ

2 FAT MEXICANZ

POWER 106 FM

2 FAT MEXICANZ

The Baka Boyz' attempt at "potty humor" (top) was short-lived (see below), and this billboard gag went down the drain. The pizza coverup and the surfboard visual (see Page 1) are still flyin' high all over the market.

Entertainment Factor

R&R: How'd you come up with the phrase "two fat Mexicanz"?

NV: It's the truth. We're just two fat Mexicans trying to play some good music and entertain everyone.

EV: And when we yell 'Wake up, jackasses' it's us really getting over with our listeners. People fax us saying, 'Wake up, jackasses,' and we love it.

NV: It's like our billboards. Some people call and bitch that they're degrading, disgusting, and appalling — and it's all true. We did it for attention — and we're getting it.

EV: The Northridge Chamber of Commerce wants all the billboards pulled down. The only bad calls we're getting are from people who don't listen to us already. Hey, controversy sells.

NV: People tuned in for Wolfman Jack because he was entertaining and original. There's no originality in radio anymore. I hear our ideas being used elsewhere besides our sister station in New York. Imitation is flattery, but be original and start your own thing. It's the Baka Boyz format with roll calls, and now at Wild 107 [KSOL/San Francisco] they're calling themselves 'Two Fat Latinos.' Before our cement even hardens they're trying to write on the wet concrete.

EV: Most jocks today don't have the creative freedom they need to become breakthrough acts. The 'old school' jock is out — we're part of a new breed. It's just entertainment, and that's what holds the audience. Maybe we'll help shape the future of this type of radio. To go Top 5 in four months is wild, so it's not out of our reach to take it all the way.

NV: Without the foresight of [former KKXX/Bakersfield PD] Steve Wall and Rick Cummings we couldn't have blown up like we did. They threw the ball at us, and we hit it. We're just trying to be humble, give our love to the listeners, and make them feel appreciated. Without them, we ain't shit. It's the beginning for us. We may not want to do this for too long. We may want to blow this shit up and then leave. You know, be No. 1 and then maybe move on.

Flush With Success & Controversy

The Baka Boyz' controversial outdoor campaign is up in more than 50 locations, but complaints have led the station to tone down some of the boards.

Power 106 PD Michelle Mercer notes, "The one with them on the toilet raised the most stink. We had to make a few changes, but the others are still up.

"We're also getting reaction from the phrase 'Two Fat Mexicanz' — mainly from white callers who are out of the demo. We've turned those calls over to the Baka Boyz, who calm them down by explaining they're proud of being both Mexican and fat.

"These guys break all standards for creativity: They have the ability to take ideas and promotions and look at things from different angles."

'Untraditional Circles'

Emmis Exec. VP/Programming Rick Cummings comments, "If we're not pissing them off, we're not getting their attention. It's amazing what being a morning player will do for the station's overall numbers. At one time, playing the right records was the answer, but in 1994 that's only going to take you so far — what makes you special now is between the records.

"Nick and Eric prove talent comes from untraditional circles. I can also point to the success of [crosstown Alternative] KROQ, which is staffed with many non-traditional jocks. It's easier to teach radio skills to fundamentally entertaining people than it is to teach entertainment skills to jocks."

The 'Power Of Urban Radio'

■ NYC event helps educate agencies & clients on format's revenue potential

One of the major challenges in Urban radio today is turning ratings shares into revenue gains. The Interrep Radio Store is working hard to help Urban radio's revenue shares increase by educating advertising agency personnel and their clients on the "Power Of Urban Radio."

Interrep Director/Urban Radio Format Network Brian Knox offers the inside story on the recent "Power Of Urban Radio" event in NYC. "The idea for the half-day seminar was to expose decision-makers to the sights and sounds of Urban radio; we felt they never really had been exposed to what the format is all about. We wanted them to hear from the on-air personalities and discover just how much Black radio has an impact on blacks in America.

The idea for the seminar was to expose decision-makers to the sights and sounds of Urban radio; we felt they never really had been exposed to what the format is all about.

"The majority of the attendees came from the New York area, and I feel very safe in saying that many of them don't listen to WRKS, WBLS, or WLIB. They hear a lot of things about these stations, but this was our opportunity to really show them and let them hear what Urban radio is all about."

Keynote Speakers

Several speakers offered insight into various issues of concern to Ur-

UC DATA BANK

Black Women, Gray Flannel

According to the Wall Street Journal, black professional women are the fastest-growing group in business. Their numbers increased by 125% from 1982-92, an average gain of 8.4% per year. White women came next, with an annual growth of 6.4%, followed by black men, with 4.2%. White males came in last, rising just 2% per year in that period.

ban radio. "We kicked our morning off with attorney Janet Hill from Washington, DC-based law firm Alexander & Associates. She basically set the tone of the day for us when she talked about why advertisers need to get rid of stereotypes before they can begin to successfully market to African-Americans. As a black consumer, she said, "This is who you might think I am. And you're wrong. Let me tell you who I really am, what I do for a living, how I spend my money, and why I buy what I buy. And I notice who advertises and who doesn't on the radio stations I listen to."

"Then, WTLC/Indianapolis Station Manager Amos Brown, who recently moved to crosstown WHHH as Promotions Director, defined the market by using a lot of 1990 U.S. Census data. He validated the strength of the black consumer market's spending power — he's very good at taking [numerical] information and putting it into practical terms and real-life situations.

"Our third speaker was longtime broadcaster Jerry Boulding, who talked about Urban music and what it means to its listeners. There have been many advertisers who have shied away from using Urban radio because of the music, and Jerry laid to rest many of those concerns."

Road Trip?

Incidentally, Interrep and the Country Music Association recently did a six-city road tour promoting

"We won't change the way people think with one seminar in New York. But we can begin to chip away at how people view the black consumer market and Urban radio."

the "Power Of Country Radio" version of this same event. Both organizations have recognized the importance of educating advertising agencies and their clients about the effectiveness of Country radio to reach a specific audience. Now it's Urban radio's turn to do the same.

But when will the "Power Of Urban Radio" hit the road? "It's too early for me to tell you exactly when," admits Knox, "but I hope to go to other cities and do the same type of presentation in 1995. We won't change the way people think with one seminar in New York. But we can begin to chip away at how people view the black consumer market and Urban radio by repeating this event here in New York and certainly in other major advertising centers throughout the country."

Editor's Note

Educating advertising agency personnel and their clients is of the utmost importance to all of us in the format, especially in such buying centers as Los Angeles, Chicago, San Francisco, Dallas, Atlanta, and Washington, DC. If you'd like to see the "Power Of Urban Radio" event continue, contact Brian Knox at (212) 916-0700 and lend your support.

Interrep Study Dispels 'Myths'

The Interrep Radio Store's Research Division — in conjunction with "The Power Of Urban Radio" — produced "Exploding Myths About Household Incomes Of Black Americans," a report that hopes to open the eyes of agencies and their clients.

According to the study, African-Americans comprise a nearly $300 billion consumer market, with close to $42 billion in annual discretionary income. That translates to just more than $8500 per black household (or slightly more than $3000 per household member).

Other findings:

- Black households' average annual income is $25,000; the top fifth average more than $61,000 per year.
- Black married couples have median household incomes of nearly $34,000; black married couples 35-44 have median household incomes of more than $42,000.
- By the end of the decade, the black population will increase by 13%; black householders age 25-54 will grow by 21.9%, representing 69% of all black households.
- Blacks prefer the Urban format.
- Black persons 12+ spend more than one full day — approximately 26.5 hours — per week listening to radio.
- Most black women 18+ (96%) and black men 18+ (94.5%) listen to the radio every week.

'Greatest Potential'

"There's no question that African-Americans offer advertisers the greatest potential of any ethnic group in this country," notes Interrep Sr. VP/Research Director Elaine Pappas. "Perhaps the most important point in this report is that the black market is growing very rapidly in terms of size, education levels, and household income. This will make an already-influential market even more so by the year 2000, indicating that now is the time for marketers to step up their efforts among this group."

WSIX Humming A Happy Tune

■ Music City powerhouse draws its highest numbers ever

WSIX/Nashville's Spring '94 Arbitron rating of 18.6 — up from 14.7 — is not only the highest 12+ figure in the station's history, it's also the highest 12+ share a Nashville station has garnered in more than 20 years.

Even more impressive is WSIX's total dominance of the marketplace. Consider:

- The No. 2 12+ station — format competitor WSM-FM — trails WSIX by eight full shares (14.0-10.6).

- WSIX remained No. 1 25-54 with an increase of 5.4 shares, giving it just over a 20. It's 9.9 points ahead of the No. 2 25-54 ranker, also WSM-FM.

- WSIX ranked No. 1 18-34 with a share that pushed the 21 mark. Amazingly enough, its 18-34 number was higher than its 25-54 figure by .6. WSIX outdid the No. 2 18-34 finisher, Urban WQQK, by 8.8 shares.

- WSIX won almost every daypart in almost every demo. Each of the daytime slots — 6-10am, 10am-3pm, and 3-7pm — scored ratings in the 20s in nearly every demo. WSIX walloped its closest morning drive competitor by more than 10 shares and its nearest afternoon drive challenger by almost 11 shares.

The spring victory was especially sweet following a Fall '93-Winter '94 drop of 18.4-14.7, during which time WSM-FM rose 11.3-14.0. Possibly affecting the ratings was some of the most severe weather in Nashville's history, including the worst ice storm in 100 years, which left much of the city without power for as long as eight days.

Doug Baker

In the aftermath of winter's chill, WSIX VP/GM John King and PD Doug Baker are ecstatic over the incredible ratings, though Baker humbly offers that WSIX was "kissed by a kind mailman who dropped the diaries in all the right places." Any programmer who's ever struggled to eke out tenths of shares knows diary placement can be a factor — but we also know numbers like these coming book after book are no fluke.

Personalities Without Peers

As a Music City resident, and as one who hears a lot of Country radio, I can say that WSIX is quite possibly the most personality-driven Country station in America today. Calling his jocks the "greatest air-staff any PD could ever want," Baker gives them the credit for WSIX's dominance. "It's a dream staff. Their execution is flawless: they each sell the station in their own unique way. You just tell them where you want to go and they take it on themselves to go above and beyond.

"I think the ratings have climbed the way they have because listeners who are big fans of one personality have evolved into fans of the others and are staying with the station longer. For instance, when Carl P. Mayfield came over here from [crosstown Rock] WKDF, he brought a lot of new listeners with him. They came for him, but ended up really liking the other jocks as well. The same thing has happened across all of our dayparts."

Baker's "dream staff" includes Gerry House, Paul Randall, Devon O'Day, Duncan Stewart, and Al Voeks in the morning; Hoss Burns in middays; Mayfield, Dean Warfield, and producer David Crane in afternoons; Hollywood Hendricks in the evening; and Jamie Mayberry overnight.

Baker admits he's a real fan of House's "House Foundation" and the afternoon "P Team." "I find myself laughing out loud at the stuff they come up with. Gerry and Carl are incredibly driven to be the very best at what they do. Their preparation is unbelievable. Couple that with wild imagination and quick wit, and you have a pair that's tough to beat."

Baker is also pleased that the strong morning numbers come at a time when House's show is being syndicated. He admitted there was some early concern as to the effect of national syndication on the local ratings. "It was an unknown at the time. We weren't sure how it would affect what we do, but we knew we couldn't sacrifice WSIX. The numbers he's pulling here while also being on in a lot of markets around the nation is a tribute to how great Gerry really is."

'Everybody's Best Friend'

Although middays aren't quite as personality-driven, Burns just might be one of the best midday talents in America. Says Baker, "Hoss has a unique way of becoming everybody's best friend. He doesn't do bits or characters; he's a more informative and motivational personality. He's always up and positive and very active in community events and charities, as are all our jocks. He's a good-hearted guy, and that comes across on the air."

Carl P. Mayfield's recent MDA Bike Run attracted more than 700 motorcyclists. The annual charity run ended with a concert featuring a number of artists, including Billy Ray Cyrus (l) and Eddie Money (r), pictured onstage with Mayfield's alter ego Bubba Skynyrd.

To increase at-work listening, Burns hosts the "New Country Cafe" every day at noon. He provides some news updates, new music, and a few older songs not normally heard in 'SIX's regular gold rotation.

'SIX made a change in its airstaff last year when it brought Hendricks over from CHR WYHY. Says Baker, "We felt we had a chance to expand the nighttime audience. Historically, the audience available for Country at night was slim because the older demos are heavy TV users. With the music attracting so many younger demos, we figured we would attract even more of them by putting on a personality who they were familiar and comfortable with."

It was also a major change for 'SIX in that nights had been female-

“On the air, we want to project the excitement of what's happening in this town musically.”

More than $150,000 was offered during the promotion, which ran seven days a week. There were two phases: Big cash giveaways were confined to the first half of the spring sweep, while second-half winners won small cash prizes and were registered to win a Saturn automobile. 'SIX ran a medium TV campaign in support of the Birthday Bucks contest only during the first half of the book.

Shift To More Currents

'SIX was one of the first Country stations to move to a current-based music mix; it has been one of Country radio's most musically aggressive stations for the last seven years. It has become even more current-intensive in the last year, bumping its current-to-gold ratio from 60-40 to 75-25. The majority of the songs in its library are from 1989-present, with a few '87-'88 tunes thrown in.

Describing WSIX's music philosophy, Baker says, "On the air, we want to project the excitement of what's happening in this town musically. And not just because we're here, but because of the great music coming from Nashville. Nobody knows what new song or singer's going to be hot, so we listen to everything. If it fits the criteria for what we want the station to sound like, it goes on the air."

"We want 'SIX to demonstrate everything that's positive about the format. There's an incredible musical diversity coming out of this town that we want to support. As long as that diversity exists, people with a wide range of listening tastes will find things they like on our station — and if that continues, there's no way [Country] will ever fall off the map."

“Gerry is great with people, so we put him in a mall with a camera crew and no script and let him go.”

hosted for the previous 10 years. The results: 'SIX was No. 1 12+ and 18-34 and No. 2 25-54 (a share behind WSM-FM) at night.

Old Game, New Twist

'SIX's primary spring promotion over the last six years has been Film House's "Birthday Bucks" promotion. But this year, a twist was added to the customary accompanying TV campaign. Explains Baker, "Instead of the standard studio set with Gerry talking about all the money being given away, we developed our own creative."

"Gerry is great with people, so we put him in a mall with a camera crew and no script and let him go. He covered all the basics while just chatting with average folks about winning thousands of dollars in cash. The spots were hilarious." (Different ads each week corresponded to that week's cash award of either $5000, $10,000, or $15,000.)

Fall Brings Flood Of Country Albums

A Keith Whitley tribute, several songwriter projects, and a slew of albums from country artists will flood record stores this fall as Nashville's music machine continues to crank out the hits.

Patty Loveless's forthcoming Epic/Nashville album, "When Fallen Angels Fly" — which contains the current single, "I Try To Think About Elvis" — is among the onslaught of albums hitting stores in the coming weeks. Due August 23, the CD contains two Tony Arata tunes, "A Handful Of Dust" and "Here I Am"; a song written by Jim Lauderdale, "Halfway Down"; and the Billy Joe Shaver-penned title track.

Also due this month is Dan Seals's new CD, "Fired Up." The album includes a track written by Orrall & Wright's Robert Ellis Orrall and Gilles Goddard ("When") as well as a Jesse Winchester tune, "Gentleman Of Leisure." Sophomore efforts from Joy Lynn White ("Wild Love") and Cleve Francis ("You've Got Me Now") are also slated for August releases, as well as Chely Wright's debuts, "Woman In The Moon."

Sizzlin' September

September appears to be the month of choice for album releases among Nashville labels — at least 16 are on tap, including a special tribute project and a live acoustic LP. Doug Supernaw leads the procession September 13 with "Deep Thoughts From A Shallow Mind," a follow-up to his gold-selling BNA debut. Supernaw co-wrote several songs on the new project, which also contains a Dennis Linde tune ("What'll You Do About Me") and covers of the David Allan Coe hit "You Never Even Call Me By My Name" and Jimmy Buffett's "He Went To Paris."

Mark Chesnutt's "What A Way To Live" is also set for release Sep-

Speaking of Jennings, he'll release his own new project, "Waymore's Blues (Part II)," on RCA/Nashville in September. The collection features mostly Jennings's own tunes and one Tony Joe White/Jennings collaboration, "Endangered Species."

Several other legendary country acts will introduce new material this fall as well. Dolly Parton's debut on her Blue I label, "Heartstrings," also hits stores next month. The live acoustic project, recorded at Dollywood, includes a remake of her popular "Coat Of Many Colors." And Tammy Wynette's latest CD, "Without Walls," is due September 20. The duet project pairs Wynette with Elton John, Sting, Smokey Robinson, Aaron Neville, Lyle Lovett, and Joe Diffie, among others.

Duets 'N' Tributes

Tracy Lawrence co-produced several cuts on his latest Atlantic/Nashville effort, "I See It Now," set for release September 20. The CD includes a duet with John Anderson ("Hillbilly With A Heartache"), which is also on Anderson's new album, "Country 'Til I Die." Anderson revives his '80s smash "Swingin'" for his project, along with a rockin' rendition of the Georgia Satellites tune "Keep Your Hands To Yourself." Anderson's album will hit stores in October.

Lawrence also has a cut on BNA's tribute album to Keith Whitley, due out in late September. He contributes the Turner/Nichols-penned song "I'm Over You" to the album, which also includes songs by Diamond Rio ("Ten Feet Away"), Alan Jackson ("Don't Close Your Eyes"), Alison Krauss & Union Station ("When You Say Nothing At All"), and Joe Diffie ("I'm No Stranger To The Rain").

Liberty's songwriters series also will be released next month. Well-known writers Kostas ("XS In Moderation"), Jill Colucci ("No Regrets"), Jon Vezner ("Who's Gonna Know"), and Pat Alger ("Notes And Grace Notes") will step out from behind the pen to perform their own songs on these projects, which will hit stores September 6.

Little Texas and Boy Howdy will both release third albums in September. Boy Howdy's "Bigger Fish To Fry" is due out September 6; Little Texas decided to "Kick A Little" on their latest effort, slated to hit stores September 27. Look for Toby Keith's sophomore effort "Boomtown" the same day.

In With The New

Newcomers will be crowding the racks this fall with new product as well. Warner Bros. artist Greg Holland's self-titled debut, due out in September, features two songs written by labelmates. Shawn Camp co-penned the fun-loving "Up To Feelin' Down," while Victoria Shaw co-wrote "Teach Me To Dance" with Candy Parton. Shaw's WB debut, "In Full View," is also out next month.

Other new artists making their way onto the country scene include Liberty's George Ducas and Atlantic/Nashville duo Archer/Park (in September) and BNA's Marc Beeson, Polydor's Amie Comeaux, and new Asylum artists Bryan White and Bob Gibson (October).

Also look for Chris LeDoux's "Haywire," Mary Chapin Carpenter's "Stones In The Road," and the sophomore project from Clay Walker, "If I Could Make A Living" (Alan Jackson penned the title track with Keith Stegall and Roger Murrah), in September.

Three familiar faces return to the fold with new projects this October. Former Restless Heart frontman Larry Stewart's "Heart Like A Hurricane" hits stores mid-month, while James House, who co-penned Dwight Yoakam's Grammy-winning smash "Ain't That Lonely Yet," debuts his Epic/Nashville album, "Days Gone By," October 18. House's title track was co-written with his wife, Holly, and Roger Miller's son Dean Miller. And

Davis Daniel also returns to the country scene with his self-titled Polydor debut in October.

Finally, Chet Atkins and Suzu Bogguss prove things are "Simpatico" in October when their duet project lands in stores. Among the featured tracks is a cover of Elton John's "Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word."

Country People

People magazine has been all over the country in the last few weeks catching country artists at work and play. Among the shots you'll see in the mag's special country issue are Tracy Lawrence clowning around with some old baseball friends, John & Audrey Wiggins at home in North Carolina, and Tracy Byrd and his expectant wife at the hospital getting an ultrasound. The issue is due out around the time of this year's CMA Awards in October.

Weight Of The World

Anyone driving by Sony/Nashville may have already seen the 12-foot, 1500-pound globe on the lawn. The huge planet — used in Joe Diffie's video for "Third Rock From The Sun" — has the inscription, "It's Joe Diffie's planet, we just live here." Diffie's album hit stores last week. A toll-free "Welcome To Planet Earth Hotline" has been implemented to coincide with the release of the LP. Callers to (800) 899-3390 can hear messages from Diffie and characters in the song, preview cuts from the new CD, and receive tour information.

Bits & Pieces

The newest addition to the Sun Records roster, Mac Rogers, is the son of an actor who played one of the Darryls on the popular "Newhart" show on CBS-TV some years back . . . Vince Gill once again has been tapped to host this year's CMA Awards, but this year he'll be solo. Final nominees will be announced August 16 by George Jones and Pam Tillis . . . Speaking of hosts, Brooks & Dunn have been tapped to host the 12th Annual Academy of Country Music Celebrity Golf Classic October 10 in Burbank.

—Lorie Hollabaugh

FOREGROUND CHECK

WBMX: 'Partisan Listening Is Everything'

Several foreground ACs trying to win audience loyalty and unafraid to take chances are being rewarded in the ratings games.

"Stations communicating to listeners between the songs are proving to be something special in people's lives," notes WBMX/Boston PD Greg Strassell. "Upbeat and foreground stations like WBMX, WKQI/Detroit, WPLJ/New York, and WRQX/Washington won big this spring. Winning 'moving target' stations like these are always looking for ways to improve."

Greg Strassell

While defining "foreground" may be difficult, Strassell says such stations are likely to "cut through and be different. They don't care if there are a few negatives — like talk and on-air giveaways — in their product. Tempo also has something to do with being foreground. [The aforementioned stations] are unique — they're willing to go beyond playing '10 in a row' and risk making some mistakes. They're not cookie-cutter stations."

Rhythmic Evolution

The unique flair Boston's Mix possessed when it bowed three years ago was its rhythmic AC approach. "The station has evolved. Over time, we've won the hearts of many listeners. They find us much more interesting to listen to than Soft AC. Stations must find things that massage the core or they'll become dormant. You can't use the same clock that worked in another market and leave it unattended for three years."

Stations must find things that massage the core or they'll become dormant.

In this spring's Arbitron, only all-News WBZ tops Mix in AM drive among 25-54s. WBMX's 15-year morning fixture, Joe Martelle, recently signed on the dotted line for several more years. "He's terrific, and the market loves him," Strassell comments. "Over time, we've surrounded him with several other players, including [MD] Amy Doyle and [former WVBF morning partner] Jody Winchester. It sounds like more of a party."

According to Strassell, his station's special texture can be attributed to several elements: "Dirt Of The Day" (a daily morning gossip feature), "Five O'Clock Funnies," the "Saturday Night Dance Classic," "Barry Scott's Lost 45s," noon's "You Pick The Mix," and different themes each weekend. Says Strassell, "They all help shape the station's personality."

Strassell believes WBMX has a strong loyal partisan following, but he doesn't share that feeling for the format as a whole. "Over the last few years, we've seen the industry go through a revolution, where partisan listening is everything because it drives the ship. Stations without many partisans benefit from background listening and could be in trouble."

New Artists Needed

Strassell reflects on a Phoenix roundtable discussion he had with several other programmers last May.

Stations communicating to listeners between the songs are proving to be something special in people's lives.

"AC isn't as defined as many other formats. We need to find some new artists — Hot AC is helping the cause. Thank God there are some active ACs breaking new acts. It's also good that ACs are playing Huey Lewis, Melissa Etheridge, and John Mellencamp.

"In two years, I can't imagine we'll promote ourselves as being the station for Billy Joel, Whitney Houston, Elton John, and Phil Collins. They're all very important, but we need some freshness and must grow some major new core artists."

KKCW Balances Consistency With Spontaneity

"Consistency is one of the most important things in media," remarks KKCW/Portland PD Bill Minckler. "People have to know what to expect from us."

A station's personality is sometimes developed by taking chances. "You don't always repeatedly play what we called in the late '70s 'America's 300 favorite AC songs,'" Minckler comments. "A programmer must determine his particular market's dynamic and give listeners what they expect. But I also like to surprise them."

Bill Minckler

Rocket Man

Minckler's musical diversity on his Mainstream AC ranges from Jim Brickman to Reba McEntire. "If I were in a more competitive situation starting out brand new, I'd probably be very conservative and rely more on marketing. Hopefully, Brickman's 'Rocket To The Moon' is a pleasant surprise to my audience. That melody blends in very well with our library."

When "Rocket To The Moon" first arrived at the station, Minckler was far from enthusiastic. "I told Windham Hill I was surprised they even sent it to me and that I would pass it on to my mother. But the song's actually very beautiful. There's no rule that says we shouldn't play something like this. "Not many stations are on Boz Scaggs ['I'll Be The One'] yet. Some other PDs and consultants may think it's risky; we think it's a good surprise. I don't add certain records for the sake of being avant garde."

Certainly a Country mainstay, McEntire would have to be considered an AC newcomer. "She has a legitimate hit on her new CD," Minckler predicts. "There's an even better song — not a single — that's a wonderful piece of music."

Changing Personality

K103's typical morning drive hour yields six songs per hour. By

After people use an AC at work all day, they tend to turn us off at 5pm. We don't get radical — we still play hits.

Demo Honors For WJLK-FM &amp; Co.

Several factors contributed to Mainstream AC WJLK-FM/Monmouth-Ocean's No. 1 25-54 and 35-64 spring Arbitron performance.

"We dropped lots of questionable songs and rearranged our stopsets," recalls PD Gary Guida.

"One problem we've had is we're constantly starting and stopping. We now have a much cleaner and smoother sound, which we believe increased our TSL" power category and 150 in the secondary category," Guida notes. "That music made us sound outdated — people think our contemporary sound is much better"

Gary Guida

Powerful Partner

Since last March, simulcast FM partner WQNJ has been helping WJLK-FM cover Monmouth-Ocean's vast geographical metro. "Without it, we hadn't been able to penetrate parts of Ocean County," explains Guida. "It's been a big plus for us. The music is a 100% simulcast, but some commercial breaks are different, giving us a chance to bring in added revenue. There are opportunities to do QNJ-only promotions. In some ways, it's like running a separate station."

Monmouth-Ocean At A Glance

Here's how Monmouth-Ocean ACs WJLK-FM and WOBM-FM performed in this spring's Arbitron. Market No. 47 boasts 41 rated signals — 32 of them below-the-line from New York City, Philadelphia, and Atlantic City.

	18-34	25-54	35-64
WJLK-FM	No. 7	No. 1	No. 1
WOBM-FM	No. 13	No. 6	No. 2

It's very difficult for programmers to listen to new artists fairly. I put things in my briefcase and listen to them while I'm relaxed with no phone to interrupt me.

8:30am, the station evolves into its at-work listening mode. "Based on listener needs, we go from foreground to background. We switch back at about 4pm. Evening personality Allan Lawson can literally do anything he wants. After people use an AC at work all day, they tend to turn us off at 5pm. We don't get radical — we still play hits."

While a nighttime staple in other markets, Love Songs hasn't been popular in Portland. "It's never worked well here, and I'd rather be more foreground at night. The main core of what we play at night is the same as during the day, but Lawson will step out and play a Boz Scaggs cut that may be a little left of center."

Accent On Music

Minckler continues, "Regardless how much or little we play, music is still the essence of what we do. It's very difficult for programmers to listen to new artists fairly. I put things in my briefcase and listen to them while I'm relaxed with no phone to interrupt me."

Carefully combining his musical ingredients as perfectly as possible, Minckler comments, "An occasional accent or spice to improve the recipe may be exactly what I need. I make some mistakes, but I correct them as quickly as possible."

Riding The Spring Rollercoaster

■ Limbaugh and baseball assist format to multiple victories

Here's a look at how some major Talk outlets fared in the Spring Arbitron wars. If there's a common thread, it's how stations were affected by two radio fixtures — baseball and Rush Limbaugh.

Among the biggest spring winners was WTMJ/Milwaukee, which soared 8.0-10.7 to take the 12+ crown from Country WMIL. TMJ also moved from ninth to fifth in the 25-54 rankings.

PD Steve Wexler credits Brewers baseball with bringing folks to his station, but says programming refinements kept them listening. Those changes included making the news coverage more aggressive and keeping the station's talk shows focused on current news stories and hot lifestyle issues.

"We saw growth in every daypart," says Wexler. "It's a great example of programming content and substance leading the way to station success."

WTMJ also benefited from the addition of weekend sports talk shows that are wrapped around Brewers games. "There seems to have been a real payoff there," Wexler says. "We were up in all weekend dayparts, not just during game hours."

Sex Survey Sells

Baseball also played a major role in WRKO/Boston's spring surge. The station moved 4.7-5.8 in 12+, good enough for fourth place. "I like to think it was a lot of things, including a strong direct mail campaign and the Red Sox, who always do well for us," says WRKO GM John Gehron.

Gehron adds that PM driver Jerry Williams turned in a strong performance, powered in part by his annual sex survey — a week of on-air discussions of listeners' sexual preferences, appetites, and concerns.

Interestingly, Gehron says the station also benefited from the continuing midday vacancy created by the departure of Tom Leykis, who is now doing a syndicated show from Los Angeles for Westwood One. "We brought back [former WRKO talker and WOR Network host] Gene Burns in that slot for a week, and he did extremely well," reports Gehron.

Jacor's Jumps

The Colorado Rockies, in their second season, helped boost KOA/Denver 7.3-8.8 in 12+. The Jacor station also got a lift from Limbaugh, whose 25-54 number rested in the mid-11s, a full three points above its Spring '93 showing.

The Jacor folks who are hard at work revamping WCKY/Cincinnati also received some pleasant news in the spring book. The station, which was formerly located at 1530 kHz and is now at 550 kHz (the former WLWA), rocketed 2.7-5.2 in 12+. Among 25-54s, the station went from the low twos to the high threes.

Eric Seidel, who's overseeing the makeover, thanks Limbaugh and Unistar's G. Gordon Liddy for most of that growth: "To say the market was confused by all the [dial position and call letter] changes is an understatement. This just goes to show you that Rush's folks will find him wherever he goes." In droves, it seems. WCKY's midday 25-54 number moved from the mid-ones to the high fours.

Liddy's audience is apparently just as loyal. In PM drive, which is mostly Liddy, the station's 25-54 number increased from the low twos to the mid-fours.

Falling Into First

Of course, not everybody can be a winner, and even the mighty stumble. Powerhouse KMOX/St. Louis slipped 16.5-14.7 in 12+. But don't waste any tears on the CBS station. KMOX retained its 12+ title and actually moved from second to first among 25-54s.

PD Tom Langmyer says recent addition Limbaugh is responsible for both the gain and the loss. "We've been working on building the lower end of 25-54, and Rush has helped by bringing in some younger cume that then has a chance to hear some of our hosts who have a younger appeal, like Barbara Whitesides."

Langmyer believes the decision to clock such service elements as traffic and weather has also helped attract younger listeners. However, he adds, Limbaugh's arrival has created some temporary turbulence among the total audience as people decide whether and how long they'll tune in to the conservative superstar's show. As a result, he says, "We're a little down in the glamor demo, but we expect that to come back."

KFI/Los Angeles was also down, sliding 4.5-3.8 in 12+. GM Howard Neal blames the tumble on — of all things — the public's obsession with the O.J. Simpson pre-trial hearings. "We took a hit in [June], and the only thing I can surmise is that a lot of listeners went to either television, or [all-News] KNX/Los Angeles, which broadcast the hearings live," says Neal. "That's my real strong feeling, and it's based on how I used radio [during the hearings]. I went to TV or KNX."

Upstate, KFBK/Sacramento is also reeling from a conk on the ratings head. The station slipped 13.3-11.8 in 12+. According to Asst. PD Alex Dittmar, KFBK lost a considerable number of 25-54 women to a pair of new stations: KXOA (The Arrow) and KQPT (The Point).

Dittmar says no programming changes are planned — yet. "We'll wait and see what the fall book brings," he says.

WRZX's Evolution To Alternative

Format enables Broadcast Alchemy to cover Indy's rock spectrum

After approximately nine months as a Rock/Alternative hybrid, WRZX (X103)/Indianapolis made its final evolution to Alternative about two months ago. PD Scott Jameson takes us through the transformation.

In March '93, Broadcast Alchemy President Frank Wood announced his intent to purchase WRZX. Seven months later the deal was done, forming a duopoly with Rock WFBQ and marking the beginning of WRZX's evolution from Rock to Alternative.

"We changed logos shortly after the intent of purchase was made," says Jameson. "Our old logo screamed hard rock — the colors and the look. It said 'Solid Rock,' which was our handle. We wanted to modernize it and bring it up to date. Our new logo has an off-center 'X' and looks a little left of center, which is what our station is all about in both programming and attitude. We changed positioners to 'The X,' 'X103,' and 'Indy's New Rock Alternative.'"

Scott Jameson

Protecting Sister Station

Jameson explains the Rock/Alternative music mix: "We took our best hard rock songs — Van Halen, Def Leppard, Queensryche — and integrated them with guitar-based alternative songs [by] Smashing Pumpkins, Tool, Soul Asylum, Gin Blossoms, Stone Temple Pilots, etc.

"We wanted to protect our sister station by using WRZX as a defensive mechanism in the event another operator came in and tried to mess with the big brother. We wanted to expand our cume with more women in the mix and lose our dingy, dirty, hard rock feel. [WRZX] was difficult to sell and had a small core — albeit loyal — that we didn't see growing. We moved some of them over to WFBQ.

"We wanted to take listeners from the CHRs, Progressives, and ACs. It's a very high-maintenance format to try to draw listeners from other formats and not from 'FBQ. We want 'FBQ to be big as possible."

A Gradual Process

Jameson admits the station's transformation to Alternative had been a gradual process since last October. "We slowly changed it without the listeners knowing. We didn't want to shock our cume. We wanted to make smart and calculated risks, not change the whole complexion of the station overnight.

"We slowly and very methodically — knowing this was a long-term project — added alternative titles and took out AOR titles. We added five alternative titles and took out five AOR titles each week for months. But there wasn't always as much that went in; songs mostly came out. We bumped up the rotation of our currents and recurrents to replace the AOR product that went away.

"By June we lost the small minority of songs left from the AOR regime, except for a few new Aerosmith, Metallica, and Guns N' Roses titles. We still play these in a very small dosage because of the MTV exposure. Aerosmith is still a contemporary band, even though they have roots in the '70s. And Guns N' Roses are hard-edge, but they still have a very modern, current, and contemporary image. We're still a Rock station — we're the hardest thing on the dial. We are 85% Alternative and 15% Rock.

"We want to make sure we play the right rock songs for our demo.

We're not so format-conscious that it blurs what we do. We don't want to pigeonhole and get ourselves too niche-oriented. We want to be broad and mass-appeal within the guidelines of Alternative in the Midwest, which is probably a little broader and mainstream than on both coasts."

Educating The Audience

The slow evolution to Alternative helped WRZX educate its audience. "We have a strong sister station and had the luxury of taking our time," Jameson says. "We needed to educate the audience — alternative had never been played in this market. We wanted people to warm up to it; [we didn't want to] force-feed them.

"A lot of stations make the mistake of changing formats [too quickly], because desperate people do desperate things. They put up a lot of boards and buy a lot of TV; it's the new, shiny, better, faster, stronger station, but it doesn't really hit.

"The reason we decided to take a more Alternative posture was to grow the station into the future. We wanted to be a solid duopoly partner with WFBQ, because together we can capitalize on the rock franchise by serving both tastes of the rock audience. We figured by losing the old AOR and hard rock titles we would reach our goals."

Developing Gold

WRZX plays 25 currents which rotate between three and six times per day. "Our highest rotated song is usually between 40-45 plays," notes Jameson. "We are predominantly a '90s station — we're very

12+ RATINGS

Top 10 Rankers In Top 20 Markets

The Spring '94 Arbitron books are trickling in, and many Alternative stations are reaching new levels of success. Here's a look at the Top 20 market stations ranking in the Top 10 12+:

	Rank	W'94-Sp'94
KROQ/Los Angeles	#3	3.8-4.7
WNNX/Atlanta	#6	4.3-5.6
XTRA-FM/San Diego	#6	3.5-3.8
WKQX/Chicago	#7	3.5-3.8
KEGE/Minneapolis	#8	4.2-5.3
KNDD/Seattle	#9	3.6-4.1
WHFS/Baltimore	#10	3.6-3.9
KDGE/Dallas	#10	3.1-3.7

Remarkably, the lowest share is a 3.7. One year ago, 3.9 (KROQ) was the highest 12+ share in the Top 20 markets. Congratulations to all Alternative stations achieving a great book; this should help sway several owners still questioning the format's viability. Watch for a complete Spring '94 recap in a few weeks.

current- and recurrent-driven. Our recurren- are just as important as our currents; they play three to four times a day.

"There is no modern rock heritage in Indianapolis; we're creating our own with our currents. We don't have a lot to lean back on except for the generic types, like the Police, Pretenders, the Jam, and the Talking Heads.

"We're developing our own gold library based on the success of our currents and recurren- that's happening now. The station will probably sound different in another 10-18 months. Our recurren- will eventually mature into our gold depth and be much fatter. We're very tight right now by design. We're growing every day."

Steady Ratings Growth

WRZX has gone up four straight books since implementing alternative into the mix without utilizing outdoor or TV advertising. Its Arbitron Summer '93-Spring '94 12+ ratings were 3.2-3.8-4.1-4.5.

Jameson notes, "There are three big stations in Indianapolis: WFBQ, [Country] WFMS, and [News/Talk] WIBC. These stations have huge shares, maturity, and heritage. WRZX is on a second stratum of stations with [CHR] WZPL, [Urban] WHHH, [18-34 Country] WGRL, [Urban] WTLC, and [Progressive] WTTS. We have now reached the top of the second level — we're beating these stations 18-34. [Overall] we're No. 3 18-34."

NEW MUSIC SCENE

- Artist: Dambuilders
- Track: "Shrine"
- LP: "Encendedor"
- Label: EastWest/WAG

• Essentials: Founding members Dave Derby (bass/lead vocals) and Eric Masunaga (guitar/vocals) formed a band dubbed the Exactones while in high school in Honolulu. In 1989, they changed their name to the Dambuilders, which was derived from a friend's movie, and moved to Boston. After getting reviews from a demo sent to Soundchoice and Option, they signed with Germany's Cuacha label in '89, releasing three albums and touring in the following years.

In '91 the Dambuilders underwent a lineup change. They recruited Joan Wasser (violin/vocals) and Kevin March (drums) and released a single on their own label, Puppethead Records. They released three additional singles and an EP, "Tough Guy Problem" on spinArt, before making their major-label debut on EastWest ("Encendedor" is Latino slang for pyromaniac). The tracks "Delaware" and "Idaho" are two new installments in the Dambuilders' ongoing "50 Songs For 50 States" project. The band has released 12 songs to date.

• Artist POV: Derby notes, "This record is kind of a mixed bag of our work up to this point — six of the 10 songs are new and the others are up to two years old. In a lot of ways this record is meant as an introduction for people not familiar with the band."

• Label POV: "The success of 'Shrine' only scratches the surface of a brilliant album," notes East-West Manager/National Alternative Promotion Joel Klaiman. "Look for the off-the-wall video on MTV and see them play live for a full interpretation of their artistry."

Plays Per Week: How They've Changed The Industry

■ Radio, record execs reflect on the information transformation

The advent of plays per week has affected radio and record industry music reporting more than any other event in recent history. Several industry vets share their views on this "new way of doing business," a phrase that has been ringing in corporate halls throughout the country.

Radio Reaction

"The biggest change I've noticed is that plays per week has improved the record industry's attention to personal selling details," says WAAF/Boston PD Ron Valeri. "The simple add is just not good enough any more. The second change: Once a label finds out it's getting the add, the next and almost and that was the end of it. I was surprised we didn't get a bigger backlash.

"We no longer get the calls every week to move records into a higher rotation. Actually, I've [been asked] about getting more plays on a record very few times. [Promotion] people understand that new records get X amount of spins going in, and when

The life of a record is a lot longer than the industry had been conditioned to believe.

robotic question is, 'How many plays per week will I receive?' Labels are staying after records a lot more; they don't just get the add and forget about the project. With the new system, you can see when the emperor is wearing no clothes. If we report a record with only three spins a week, the label really hasn't done its job and everybody is aware of it."

KUPD/Phoenix PD Curtiss Johnson says, "The new system has removed much of the politics. The concentration on plays and getting more exposure for an artist or track transfers to sales.

"As for radio, you can't play the political game with the paper adds and other maneuvers because plays per week has cleaned it up. You can no longer hide what you're not doing. Plus, bowing to the pressure jeopardizes the sound of the station — which affects radio's bottom line. There's more integrity all the way around under this system, and I really welcome it."

Reality Check

Completing a popular feature for WFBQ/Indianapolis's listeners, the A-Z Week — in which multiple titles by every artist in the library are played — resulted in the station playing each of its currents only once that week. MD Ace Cosby says, "I got a couple of calls from national people when they saw our report. All of our locals knew what was going on, but apparently some of the nationals didn't. When we explained what it was, the next question was, 'Are we OK for next week?'

ord's success under the new system. "It's now possible for us to see the reality of what's breaking out there. With plays per week, the smaller stations really have to be committed to a project. I think the time is coming when labels will measure true success by the criteria we've always used inside the station — and that's results."

Record Response

Warner Bros. National Promotion Director Dave Lombardi says, "The new system gives me something tangible to deal with, as opposed to nebulous rotations. Plays per week helps us maintain our records, get more airplay, and find out how many plays may lead to sales in a given market. Conversely, it may also tell us that in some markets a lot of spins may not lead to sales. Previously, we could have had heavy reports across the board but not actual airplay, which could have made us ignorantly judge our performance or the record's performance.

"Under the new system, Candlebox's 'Far Behind' has been on the chart for 22 weeks so far. In the old days we'd have seen a decay even though the plays per week would have still been there."

A&M Sr. VP/Album Promotion J.B. Brenner agrees. "Plays per week has extended the life of hit records. [The week of 7/29] Soundgarden's 'Spoonman' picked up a bullet after it had been going south. The same thing happened with Meat Puppets. A lot of big records were missed in the past, but with the plays data radio can see how well records are really working.

"Most of the lunar rotations have bottomed out, too. The high plays

Plays Require Honesty

The overwhelming number of reactions to plays-per-week have been positive, but a few qualms have been expressed. Reprise VP/Promotion Michael Linehan brings up some concerns that have yet to be ironed out. "First on the list are the isolated instances of people who fudge their reports. Obviously, if someone reports a record with two or three plays and you never see it in a monitor, something is wrong. We have a system everybody can use — unless people start falsifying their reports. Then nobody will know what to believe any more.

"A more widespread problem is when a station drops a record but fails to report the previous week's spins. The record goes from 10 to zero plays, but then a monitor uncovers that the station played it six times in the last seven days. Also, if a station says a record has intense bum, then continues to play it two-thirds as much as before, the justification for dropping the record is out the window. It can't be that burned, or the station isn't following its own research.

"Since most people add records with few or no spins, a record that gets a bunch of adds one week no longer debuts in the Top Five. By the same token, people must realize there's a one-week delay from the time a record picks up an add to the time you see the impact.

"Generally speaking, these are isolated instances which I hope

We have a system everybody can use — unless people start falsifying their reports. Then nobody will know what to believe any more.

are due to the transitional period as everybody gets used to the new system. By and large, cross-referencing between monitors and reported plays has proven that the reported plays are quite accurate."

per week on Alternative and current-based Rock stations is the reason for the attention they get. If we believe in a record together, they enable us to find out quicker if it's there for the consumer. They play it enough for the average listener to hear it in three to four weeks. With the two-play-a-day business, the average listener could listen to a station three hours a day for two months and not hear the song.

"We're doing business with stations instead of trading for air or paper. We get a report card every would have probably stayed in heavy. Plays per week is the finishing touch on the reality check.

"The only thing that's changed for us is the basic semantics of promotion. Instead of asking for a heavy rotation on the Stones, I'm looking for the station's highest rotation. However, it was easier to get a heavy report than trying to get a station to keep a consistent number of plays per week.

"The sad thing is seeing stations whose heaviest rotation amounts to nine or 10 plays per week. We ques-week and we can see that when there's airplay and sales in several markets, we have a hit."

It's Gotta Be The Shoes

Virgin VP/Promotion Jeffrey Naumann uses this analogy about converting to the new system: "It was like buying a new pair of shoes; for a few weeks they took some getting used to. With plays per week I get a better perspective of what's going on in the marketplace, like when WFBQ does its A-Z Week. I saw the Rolling Stones going from 25 plays to one play; under the old way it tion how much time we'll spend on those stations. Conversely, seeing a station banging a record 50 times a week makes you feel good. Plus, it's easier to see the correlation between plays per week and sales — why records react quickly or slowly.

"Previously a record like 'Low' by Cracker would have been long gone even though it was getting tons of airplay. Records are sticking around a lot longer now. I get a better idea of my trouble spots and hot spots. The numbers give a much clearer picture, and people are being pretty honest about their plays."

Lee Hansen defines format's compelling, adventurous approach

When Pyramid Broadcasting completes its acquisition of WJZZ/Philadelphia, it will be the first major broadcast group to own two major-market NAC stations.

To facilitate the transition, Pyramid has chosen veteran programmer Lee Hansen, PD at WNUA/Chicago, to take on programming consultation responsibilities at the new facility — along with a promotion to OM/PD in Chicago. Continuing our "Format Pioneers" series, Hansen shares his techniques of finding the appropriate music blend and marketing plan, along with a capsule history of the format.

"As with many of my peers, my journey into NAC began in AOR. I was with KSJO/San Jose for 10 years, serving as PD for the last five. John Sebastian was consulting the station, and after we eclipsed our crosstown competition with a 2.8-4.9 ratings surge, he suggested I pursue the PD position at EOR (Eclectic Oriented Rock)-formatted KESI/San Antonio.

"In early 1986, John called one day to tell me the name he had coined for his new adult format: New Adult Contemporary. We debated whether this moniker had enough sizzle and decided it presented an accurate description. In any case, I was fascinated by the concept of a fresh and significantly different format based primarily on instrumental music that had never received airplay before. Until that time, the only instrumental formats were Classical and Beautiful Music, both of which featured familiar songs."

Sense Of Discovery

"Sebastian's early version of NAC derived a great deal of its appeal from the sense of discovery inherent in the unfamiliar music which made up most of the library. Although most of the songs were not known to the listener, each possessed a compelling, elegant melody that was sophisticated and sensual, calming [yet still] invigorating, both mentally and physically. The word 'unique' described it best. At that time, however, most managers or operators of large market stations simply didn't get it or considered the format too radical.

"Those attitudes began to change in February 1987 when KTWV (The Wave)/Los Angeles was conceived by Frank Cody, Paul Goldstein, Owen Leach, and Chris Brodie, among others. This next version of the format was created with a more produced sound, but again the emphasis was clearly on those special, uplifting melodies. One didn't just listen to the Wave — you discovered fascinating new artists and sounds that relaxed you.

"At about the same time, KIFM/San Diego was completing its evolu-

Our predominant marketing thrust has always been direct, based on the premise that our unique sound would attract a unique audience. The best way to reach this audience is with one-on-one communication.

tion from AC to NAC under the guidance of PD Bob O'Connor and music consultant Michael Fischer. The fact that both of these stations, with their non-traditional format, were located in Southern California led early critics to discount the immediate listener and client buzz and reduce it to a fad, or a weird 'California thing.'

Defining The Sound

"By mid-1987, Steve Feinstein was putting KKSF/San Francisco on the air, which did nothing to dispel the [notion that NAC was a] California thing. Then Pyramid Broadcasting bought a station that would become WNUA. At the same time, the Tribune Company converted WPIX/New York to WQCD (CD101.9). At long last the format had a major market toehold outside of California. But would it fly?

"As the format's sound was being defined, the question of what to call it came out of listener research. I understand that the term 'smooth jazz' was identified by Owen Leach after being used repeatedly by listeners to describe the music's sound. Personally, I feel that it is the ideal name for this format because it subliminally states the format's primary benefits. 'Smooth' means relaxing and 'jazz' connotes adventure.

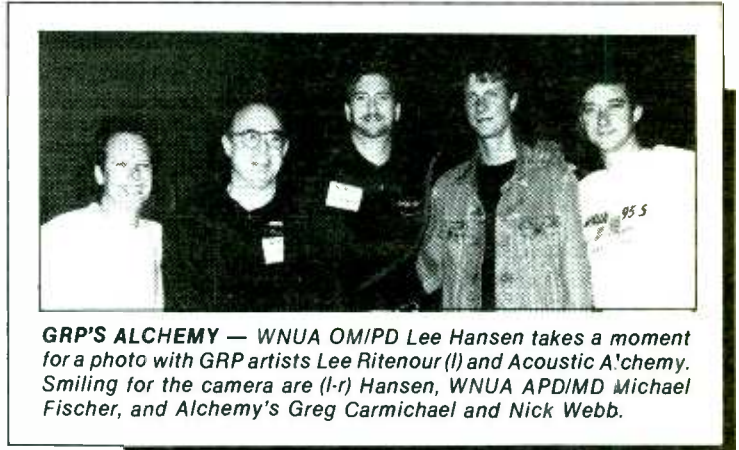

"It became obvious early on that it wasn't possible to just clone one of the California stations [and expect success without some growing pains]. As they began to move the format into new markets, the earliest NAC programmers from California began expanding their strategies for success by taking each market's unique characteristics into account. But it would take several years of experimentation and research to find the appropriate music blend and marketing plan.

"I joined WNUA as PD in Fall 1989 and the station's sound continued to evolve. Then-GM John Gehron joined the station about the time I did and dropped the 'smooth rock' half of the slogan 'NUA had used until then, 'Smooth Jazz, Smooth Rock.' APD/MD Michael Fischer and I continue the fine-tuning process to this day, but it's safe to say we found our sound by Spring 1990.

"Originally, we replaced some of the more delicate pieces with more rhythmic songs. Acoustic-based singers/songwriters gave way to more soulful vocalists. Introspective, moody instrumentals made way for those that were more vibrant and exhilarating."

Direct Marketing Essential

"Our predominant marketing thrust has always been direct, based on the premise that our unique sound would attract a unique audience. And we feel the best way to reach this audience is with one-on-one communication. [Our belief in the station's uniqueness is reflected by] one of our basic, timeless image lines, 'Unique music for unique people. Smooth Jazz, WNUA 95.5.'

"Telemarketing and a quarterly newsletter to a database of 150,000+ listeners have been our most consistently used direct marketing vehicles. We balance the direct with some transit boards, billboards, and event marketing such as concerts, theater, and neighborhood fests. Telemarketing has proved especially important because it helps get us into the offices where the big TSL lives; the newsletter gets us into the homes of core listeners where diaries are kept and phone surveys answered.

"WNUA is fortunate to have some of the best talent in the format, and they are certainly integral to our success. We recognize that listeners don't want to hear smarmy small talk; rather, they prefer hosts who serve as guides to the music. On-air, our personalities' primary mission is to enhance the mood of the music by being friendly, informative, natural, and enthusiastic.

"We like to reward our listeners with 'Smooth Jazz Vacations' where we give away airfare, hotel accommodations, and concert tickets to see, for example, David Sanborn in San Juan, Al Jarreau in Jerusalem, or Basia in Bakersfield. Virtually everything given away is acquired on a trade-for-mention basis."

Research + Networking = Focus

"In order to keep our music focused, we use Broadcast Architecture's Mix-Master technology to test several hundred titles three or four times a year. We feel this gives us reference points to evaluate more objectively what our audience likes and dislikes.

"And because so many other NAC stations are using this form of music research, we find it especially invaluable to network regularly with other PDs and MDs. In doing this, we find some songs we've overlooked, but also identify songs that work very well in Chicago that test so poorly in other markets that it's laughable, and vice-versa. For example, George Benson's 'Give Me The Night' always does very well for WNUA, but when Steve Feinstein tested it in San Francisco, his respondents gave it a terrible score.

"On the other hand, Kenny G seems to do very well everywhere.

His music even brings together the two segments of WNUA's audience: city and suburb. We've also identified a good number of songs that do well downtown but aren't really cared for in [suburban] DuPage County. More importantly, we have found a large quantity that do very well in both areas. They have a melody that is compelling and elegant: the common thread running through the history and growth of the NAC format."

Into The Future

"There are many possible futures for our format. In the large markets where it is already producing healthy cash flows, I predict it will continue to thrive deep into the next century. Versions of the format that lean more toward progressive electronic music, such as the space music of [syndicated] 'Musical Starstreams,' or that lean further into melodic contemporary jazz, will evolve from today's version as market conditions change and the audiences come to expect the next step.

"There will even be a more conservative version of NAC that will combine more familiar vocal artists with instrumental covers. Who knows, there may even be a version that focuses on 'Smooth Jazz of the '70s or 'Alternative Smooth Jazz' (Pearl Jazz?) in the future

"I'm amazed there are still Top 20 markets without an NAC but with three OACs (Old ACs) and a few Rock stations, each barely surviving or yielding minimal cash flow. Apparently, many owners would rather lose money [with other formats] but know all the songs than make a lot of money with less familiar music. But that's between them and their bankers.

"However, one thing is clear. As long as compelling melody and a sense of discovery are maintained as essential attributes of any version of NAC, it will continue to perform well."

Sebastian: The Last Word

The following is a response by KSLX/Phoenix PD John Sebastian to Sony Warner Radio Network Exec. Producer Paul Goldstein's letter (R&R 7/22):

I was hired as PD KTWV (The Wave) Los Angeles August 8, 1988, halfway through the Summer '88 L.A. Arbitron. This gave me time to put live announcers on the Wave for the first time and make massive changes in the musical direction of the station.

I know it's hard to understand how it's possible to turn around a station so fast, but this is what I've done throughout my career. At WCOZ/Boston, we went from a 4 share 12+ to a 12.6 in less than a year. KRCK/Portland went from worst to first in only one "book." Here at KSLX, we've risen from 14th to tie for third in 25-54 adults in just one rating period.

Half a "book" was enough time for me to contribute greatly to the success of the Wave in [that] summer, and then the subsequent historic ratings that followed.

Why would you hire a pretty face from Hollywood for your Radio Station Promos, Liners, and IDs? "Because She's Got Great Pipes!"

RANDY KABRICH, CONSULTANT

"Morning Zoos, 'Me Generation,' Junk Bonds, Testosterone Voices--they all had their place in the '80s, but the '80s are over. Randy Thomas exemplifies the fresh sound of '90s announcers who communicate with listeners instead of growling at them."

JIM HARPER, PD & MORNING HOST, WNIC 100.3/DETROIT

"I've always looked at voiceover talent as another fulltime jock on WNIC. They've got to be as warm and believable--and must establish the same kind of relationship with core listeners--as anyone on the morning show. Randy Thomas instantly passes the audition and becomes an important part of the station's talent equity."

The producers of the 65th Annual Academy Awards think so.

Randy's the first female announcer ever to do the show.

"Hooked On Phonics" thinks so. "Call 1-800-ABC-DEFG."

Wonder how many of those she sold?
