January Spot Sales Up 38%

By Jack Messmer
R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU CHIEF

National spot sales for radio this January soared 38% above January 1994 figures, according to RAB. Combined with an 11% gain in local sales, overall radio revenues were up 15%.

"January's 15% jump is all the more significant when you consider that we're using January 1994 as the basis for comparison — a month when radio revenue grew 12%," noted RAB President Gary Fries. Reps agreed that January was a great month.

"It was an absolutely incredible month," said Interep President Les Goldberg. "Part of the reason for the rise is due to firm rates," he said, predicting that national spot sales will continue to enjoy strong revenue gains as long as there's inventory pressure from local advertising.

20% First-Quarter Growth

Goldberg said it appears now that the first-quarter gain for the entire rep industry will be in excess of 20%. Interep had initially projected national spot growth of 6%-8% in 1995.

Kragen To CRS: Don't Let Petty Radio Wars Ruin Station-Artist Relationships

By Lon Helton
R&R NASHVILLE BUREAU CHIEF

Another Country Radio Seminar has come and gone... and from all accounts, things went smoothly. At least most of the participants were in an upright position by late Saturday night.

The Country Radio Broadcasters' 26th annual CRS attracted more than 2120 exhibitors, sponsors, press staff, and volunteers to this year's gathering at Nashville's Opryland Hotel.

Over 60 sessions, roundtables/rap rooms, and more than 30 performances took place during the five-day meet.

Wakeup Call

In a prelude to his "Power To Win" keynote presentation, Ken Kragen used a giant alarm clock to sound a "wake up call to Country radio." His message: Don't let petty radio wars that put artists in the middle ruin Country's most important asset, the station-artist relationship. He implored the crowds not to "kill the golden goose that got us here."

panel, which offered a glimpse into the future and a meeting of the "bottom line" and the "heart," Karmazin only half-jokingly suggested that small- and medium-market broadcasters should add up their deficits at the end of the year and submit a bill for the difference to record labels.

NAB Radio Board Endorses Lifting Of Ownership Ceiling

■ But some members won't predict total dereg

By Mary Ann Barton
R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU

Citing competition for listeners and advertising dollars, the NAB Radio Board Thursday (3/2) endorsed total elimination of ownership limits, a measure pushed by Senate Commerce Committee Chairman Larry Pressler (R-SD) in telecom legislation his committee is drafting.

The only "no" vote from the NAB Radio Board came from KSNM-FM/Las Cruces, NM GM Jeff Lyon, who said, "As far as being a small broadcaster, I'm opposed to it."

Overall, "the support was clearly overwhelming," said board member David Benjamin, President/CEO of Community Pacific Broadcasting. "In this age of multimedia [telecommunications], there is no significant rationale" for capping ownership limits.

Deregulation Unlikely

But KHQY Inc. President Howard Anderson expressed doubts that broadcasters will see total deregulation. "There will probably be pressures from the industry — many legislators come from small markets," he said.

"Pressler's ideas are at one end of the spectrum," and current rules are at the other end, said NAB Joint Board Chairman and Tribune Broadcasting VP/Radio Wayne Vriesman. In the end, he speculated, ownership rules will fall short of Pressler's total elimination due to "Democrats [on the committee] having a different perspective."

Group W Chicago Purchase Signals Expansion Drive

■ Mason to 'pay price for top-notch properties'

Heritage Chicago Progressive WXRT-FM and AM Sports sister WSCR have been sold to Group W Radio in a $60 million duopoly deal. Group W President Dan Mason said to expect no changes in format or management at the combo, but he did signal his intention to expand further in the major markets.

WSCR & WXRT GM Harvey Wells will remain in control of his stations, which will be run as a completely separate operation from Group W's all-News WMAQ-AM, headed by GM Weezie Kramer.

Although the deal's price was described as 12 times cash flow — a multiple even higher than the 11+ territory staked out by Infinity Broadcasting's pending $51 million KLUV-FM/Dallas deal — Mason indicated that his company is ready and willing to pay the price for top-notch properties.

Boston Buy Brewing?

"In Top 10 markets, especially in the top three markets, there is a lot of demand, and a limited supply [of available stations], especially strong franchise-type properties," he noted.

To that end, Boston is reportedly Mason's next target for expansion.

MCA couldn't be hotter, and I leave behind an incredibly strong staff of talented promotion people — led by [VP/Promo] Mark Gorlick — who will not miss a beat.

Senate Seeking Changes In Minority Tax Certificates

By Jack Messmer
R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU CHIEF

During a Tuesday (3/7) hearing, Republican and Democratic senators alike expressed reluctance about going along with House-passed legislation that would completely repeal the FCC's Minority Tax Certificate program.

But with the April 15 tax filing deadline fast approaching for self-employed taxpayers to use a health insurance tax break included in the same bill, it's unclear what changes could be agreed upon in such a short time frame.

Senate Majority Leader and presidential hopeful Bob Dole (R-KS) asked FCC General Counsel Bill Kennard and Assistant Treasury Secretary Leslie Samuels to submit specific recommendations to revise the tax certificate program. Dole indicated that he wanted to retain some inducements for minority ownership but limit the size of tax deferrals.

Dole noted that he'd been hearing from minority broadcasters who want to retain the program, including a call from recording artist/producer/TV station owner Quincy Jones. "I sympathize with the goals, but I can't sympathize with someone walking off with a half-billion dollars," Dole said. This was an apparent reference to the pending Viacom sale of cable TV properties to African-American entrepreneur Frank Washington. The sale would allow Viacom to defer an estimated $450-$600 million in capital gains taxes.

Possible Reforms

Kennard suggested three possible reforms:

- Extending the required one-year holding period for properties acquired under a tax certificate. Three- and five-year periods were mentioned as alternatives during the Senate Finance Committee hearing.

- Maximizing benefits to start-up companies — either by limiting the number of times a single company can use tax certificates or by making minority companies "graduate" from the program after reaching a certain size.

- Capping the total tax deferral for a single transaction, perhaps by using a graduated scale that would reduce the percentage of deferral allowed for larger deals.

"The [Clinton] administration opposes the outright repeal of [tax certificates]," Samuels told the hearing. He said the administration is making an overall review of affirmative action programs.

Faced with a tight time schedule, Finance Committee Chairman Sen. Bob Packwood (R-OR) said the committee should finish work on the bill next week and send it to the full Senate for action.

EARNINGS

Citicasters Posts Gains For Radio

Citicasters Inc. (Nasdaq: CITI) reported net earnings of $63.1 million ($5.73 per share) for 1994, down from $341.3 million in 1993. (Per-share earnings for 1993 were not provided, owing to a corporate reorganization.) Total revenues were $197 million, down from $205.2 million. Radio revenues were $66.6 million, up from $65.6 million.

On a pro forma basis, factoring out the reorganization and sale of four TV stations, Citicasters said total revenues were $128.4 million, up from $119.6 million, and operating cash flow was $43.6 million, up from $34.4 million. Pro forma earnings were $11.6 million ($1.05 per share) for 1994, up from $4.2 million (37 cents) for 1993.

Citicasters owns 14 radio stations and two TV stations.

Banta Building Mercury Into Major-Market Radio Group

Charles Banta is out to build Mercury Broadcasting into a major-market group following last week's $12.45 million deal to acquire WGRF-FM & WUFX-FM/Buffalo as his flagship stations.

"The game plan is basically to target Top 50 markets," Banta said, although he noted it's hard to find sellers willing to part with good properties in the largest markets. "If the transactions are there, we'll certainly have access to the capital."

Banta, who headed Greater Media's radio group from 1990 to June 1994, has financial backing from Greenwich Street Capital

ing cable TV — but Mercury is its only radio venture.

Establishing his headquarters in Buffalo is a homecoming for Banta, who grew up there and managed WGR-AM & WGRF-FM before joining Greater Media. "It's a market I know extremely well," he noted. Banta plans to manage WGRF & WUFX himself (Jim Meltzer will remain with Rich Communications as GM of WGR-AM & WWWS-AM). But Banta may hire a GM in Buffalo once Mercury expands into other markets.

Clear Channel In Down Under Partnership

Clear Channel Communications (NYSE: CCU) is paying $75 million for 50% of Australian Radio Network Ltd., with the remaining 50% being retained by Australian Provincial Newspapers Holdings Ltd.

Clear Channel Chairman Lowry Mays noted that Australia only recently changed its law to allow a single owner to have two radio stations in a market. "We believe that the Australian broadcast industry will benefit from the improved industry dynamics afforded by duopoly, just as the U.S. radio industry has benefited from similar relaxation of ownership regulations," he said.

Australian Provincial is actually buying ARN from Australian Broadcasting Company, merging its existing stations, divesting six stations to comply with Australian ownership limits, and taking on Clear Channel as its partner. In the end, the Aussie net will have seven FMs and two AMs, including two FMs each in Sydney and Melbourne. ARN also owns a rep firm, an in-store radio service, and a satellite uplink and distribution facility.

Tribune Buys Trucker Net

Tribune Radic Networks has purchased the Interstate Radio Network, which claims 50 affiliates for its syndicated overnight Country programming targeted to long-haul truckers. Terms weren't disclosed.

Although not carried on WGN-AM/Chicago, IRN has originated its programming from the Tribune flagship station's studios since 1989. "[Acquiring IRN] is a logical outgrowth of our ongoing investment of time and resources," said TRN GM Kenton Morris.

Founder Fred Sanders will continue to be "the voice" of IRN. He's already planning an expanded schedule of remote broadcasts this year from truck stops throughout the U.S.

FCC, Clinton Administration Split on Foreign Ownership Issue

Two government officials appointed by President Clinton offered opposing views Friday (3/3) on the elimination of foreign ownership limits on broadcast stations.

In a hearing before a House subcommittee, FCC Chairman Reed Hundt said he would like to see Congress pass legislation eliminating the limits, with the FCC policing foreign ownership by requiring that public interest standards be met.

But NTIA Administrator Larry Irving, who is in charge of communications policy at the Commerce Department, said the Clinton administration opposes elimination of the limits due to national security concerns.

Rep. Gene Taylor (D-MS) argued against the bill, citing concerns that Colombian drug lords or Iraq's Saddam Hussein might obtain a hold of U.S. airwaves.

"These are reconcilable views. I don't think there's anything that's in direct conflict," Hundt later told reporters.

Subcommittee Chairman Mike Oxley (R-OH) is chief sponsor of the bill to completely eliminate limits on foreign ownership, currently capped at 20% for voting control or 25% equity.

ZINE SCENE

Waging More Of The Roses!

In Entertainment Weekly's story on the Stone Roses, Geffen President Eddie Rosenblatt is philosophical about the 347 days of studio time that went into the band's sophomore outing, the archly titled "Second Coming." "If you believe in people, what's the difference whether you get the record this year or next year? It's not like making Chevrolets, where four guys in an assembly line are not putting the hubcaps on properly, so you've got to get rid of them. It's the creative process, which doesn't always work according to a businessman's timetable."

Both Sides Now

"Eddie [Vedder] felt MTV turned him into a completely different kind of entity than he wanted to be. But they [Pearl Jam] had the power to step back. It wasn't going to change his career if he never did another video." That's KNDD/San Diego MD Marco Collins on Pearl Jam's reluctant stardom. He's known Vedder since the singer's San Diego days, according to a long Us story that offers no new quotes from the publicity-shy singer.

"We're the greatest band in England," says Oasis guitarist/songwriter Noel Gallagher, who adds, "I can't stand sniveling rock stars who complain about being famous. Why not just work at a car wash or a McDonald's? There's no point in starting a band unless you wanna be famous" (Entertainment Weekly).

World Domination

In the New Yorker's look at Stevie Wonder on the verge of a new LP, Motown President Jheryl Busby says, "This may be, on a global basis, one of the best-set-up albums we have ever done. It's textbook. I personally closed the year out at the Pacific Rim, getting people excited about it there. We've had the American tour, with kids walking out afterward saying, 'Wow! Now I know why I like Stevie Wonder.' Stevie visits Japan soon; he leaves, he makes a promotional stop in Europe — the world has been set up."

Rolling Stone went down to Australia to cover the beginning of R.E.M.'s world tour. Michael Stipe was blunt: "Expectations are high, and that sucks." Drummer Bill Berry says that halfway through making "Automatic For The People," he said, "Look, guys, if the next record doesn't rock, I'm just gonna quit the band."

The Darkest Side

Dave Stewart, who's not only releasing a record, scoring a film, and preparing for a London photo exhibit of his own work, is launching a new art magazine called MA-FIA: Music Art Fashion Interactive Alliance. But he tells People, "I spent six weeks in a psychiatric hospital about a year and a half ago as part of a quest to look inside myself. You realize that to move forward you have to confront the darkest side of yourself."

Now the National Enquirer, which recently brought you a tale of Elton John and pals out on the town in L.A. dressed as nuns, offers its "deepest apologies," because ... "we discovered that this incident had not taken place."

Beats Working!

"When they called, we laughed all week," says singer Wayne Coyne of the Flaming Lips' "Beverly Hills 90210" guest spot. "There's no downside. If people see this as us losing credibility, then they're trying too hard to be cool. If this is selling out, let's do it, 'cause it's funny" (Entertainment Weekly).

Coyne

Lisa Loeb, the only musician among eight Us "Breakthroughs," says, "It's just nice to know I can think about creative things and not worry about which temp job I'm gonna get on which day. I've worked so long toward becoming a professional musician, and it's finally happening. Now I can really get on with my work."

Tender Moments

Duran Duran singer Simon Le Bon tells Rolling Stone he met his wife, model Yasmin, with the line "I saw your photograph in a portfolio and thought we might get on rather well." He also says he preferred Madonna when she was "a bit fatter. I liked that puffy fat that was on her. I found that very attractive."

According to a People source, Prince was "definitely" kissing actress Morgan Fairchild's neck at L.A.'s House Of Blues last week.

Sassy asked actress Liv Tyler if she and "Heavy" co-star Evan Dando are pals now. "They chained us to a bridge together on our first day of shooting, so how could we not become friends?"

Marketing 101

Why hire a man in drag to sell makeup to women? asks Entertainment Weekly. "Why not," says M.A.C. founder Frank Toskan, who signed RuPaul as the cosmetics firm's new spokesmodel. "Who better than RuPaul to show what makeup can really do?"

GM Bryan Switzer was elected to the CRB Board of Directors, and Tribune Radio Network's Beverly Padratzick was elected Agenda Chairperson, which means she's also on the board. Re-elected as President for his third term was Westwood One Radio Networks President/Programming Ed Salamon. Elected as officers were Decca Sr. VP/GM Shelia Shipley-Biddy, VP; KRMD/Shreveport VP/GM Gene Dickerson, Secretary; and Aristo Media & Marco Promotions President Jeff Walker, Treasurer.

Also, Charlie Douglas was inducted into the DJ Hall of Fame, while KCAT/Abilene personality Slim Willett was entered posthumously.

Ownership

Observers say a bipartisan bill from the Senate Commerce Committee could be ready as early as today (3/10), but probably won't be ready until Wednesday (3/15), with a hearing and committee vote completed by March 21.

TV Board Split

The Radio Board's stance is at odds with the NAB TV Board, which is split on the issue. It's unclear whether Pressler's draft will address radio and TV separately.

"There's an awareness of an internal debate," said a Senate Commerce Committee aide. "We have discussed the fact that there is a split. We need to go back and talk to the industry."

Meanwhile, members of the Network Affiliated Stations Alliance, who represent TV network affiliates, are bending the ears of key legislators, telling them they oppose elimination of ownership limits.

On the House side, Commerce Committee member Rep. Cliff Stearns (R-FL) is reportedly in charge of gathering information on the radio ownership issue for a House telecommunications bill. A House draft may be ready next week.

last decade has been phenomenal," said Clear Channel Sr. VP Mark Mays. "Initial research indicates the format will be warmly received in Houston."

SW Exec. Producer Paul Goldstein, who oversees Smooth FM, acknowledged Clear Channel's vote of confidence by clearing the format in its first Top 10 market as "further evidence that our revolutionary approach is redefining 24-hour formats." He noted that the format's localization will let "listeners in Houston hear local weather, time, and mentions of local events."

Spot Sales

has already spent as much on national radio this year as it did throughout all of 1994, and that other phone companies among radio's top 20 advertisers — MCI, AT&T, USWest, and Sprint — have also increased spending.

Other hot categories included network, cable, and syndicated TV, where new networks and affiliate realignments have sparked intense competition. "There's an awful lot of TV promotion going on," said Butrum. He also noted strong spending by auto companies and "traditional" spot advertisers, such as Pennzoil and 7-Eleven. "It's very broad-based, actually."

Butrum said sales tracking for the entire Katz Radio Group is 21% ahead of this time last year for the first half of 1995, and even at this early point, second-half sales appear strong.

create a nurturing, artist-oriented environment at Hollywood, and we are pleased with the progress they are making in their search for promising young musical artists."

Pfeifer spoke with R&R about Hollywood's domestic and worldwide distribution deals with PGD: "I go back with [PGD head] Jim Caparo to Epic, when he was head of sales and I was an A&R guy. A lot of that crowd [at PGD] is the same crowd I grew up with at Sony, so I feel very comfortable with them."

Although it hasn't been officially announced, Pfeifer confirmed that former Capitol Sr. VP/Promotion John Fagot starts this week with the same title at Hollywood.

From The Ground Up

Pfeifer also addressed how he's rebuilding a roster. "When I got here a year ago, we cleaned the slate, streamlined the company, and started signing bands. We didn't want to get into the philosophy of just throwing records against the wall. We're not rushing our artists. Fortunately, I have a company that's extremely patient. It's all going to start in late May with Gwen Mars's 'Magnosheen.'"

"Every artist on the label calls me at least once a week. I would like to have maybe 40-50 artists in five years. I would love to be like Elektra 1989." Hollywood's roster currently features Into Another, Gwen Mars, Val McCallum, Plum, Seaweed, and Van Gogh's Daughter. The artists remaining from the previous regime are Eleven, Organized Konfusion, and Queen.

Pfeifer joined the label as VP/A&R in August 1993, leaving a similar title at Epic. He rose to Exec. VP and Hollywood head honcho one year ago. He first entered the music business as a member of IRS group Human Switchboard. He later released a solo set on Passport.

Leher practiced law for more than 20 years before joining Hollywood. He was head of the music department and a senior partner at Los Angeles-based Mitchell, Silberberg and Knupp, where his clients included the Rolling Stones, Pearl Jam, Rondor Music, and A&M.

Jazz Marketing & Sales, and Dana Watson has become A&R Manager.

Pierson commented, "Chris and Randall have contributed much to the recent success story of Warner Bros. Jazz, with such artists as Joshua Redman, Wallace Roney, and Joe Sample. The respect they command in the field, not to mention their extraordinary grasp of the jazz marketplace, makes these promotions especially well-deserved."

Jones has been with WB since 1989, when he joined as National Director/Jazz. He commenced his career at Motown in the mid-'70s and went on to function as VP/GM of Scepter's Wand Records. He was Stevie Wonder's business and personal manager for four years before starting his own promotion and marketing firm, the Christopher Company.

Kennedy joined WB in 1991, leaving a Marketing Director/Jazz & Classical post at A&M. He began at ABC Records in the late '70s as a merchandising and sales rep and later went to MCA, where he rose from Regional Sales Manager to National Marketing Director/Jazz & New Age Music.

Watson, a professional trumpet player, has been A&R coordinator in the department for seven months. He was previously a tour manager for Redman, Pat Metheny, Herbie Hancock, and others.

KFKF and KBEQ-AM & FM become a Country combo today (3/10), when EZ Communications closes on its purchase of KBEQ and enters into an LMA with (and one-year option to buy) KFKF. Heritage's takeover of present KFKF LMA partner KK CJ happens today as well; KFKF and KK CJ are expected to simulcast for a week to 10 days, after which Heritage will flip KK CJ to an as-yet-unnamed format.

sion. "The company has no FM presence there," Mason pointed out, but he wouldn't indicate how close he might be to signing a deal to buy a partner for WBZ-AM.

According to Duncan's Radio Market Guide, WSCR & WXRT billed $13.2 million in 1994, $9.9 million of that coming from the FM. The announced sale multiple would place cash flow at $5 million, indicating the combo is operating with a cash flow margin above 35%.

Diamond Broadcasting's decision to sell WSCR & WXRT surprised observers, since President Daniel Lee had previously resisted bids for the FM his father put on the air three and a half decades ago. Diamond will continue to own WSBC-AM/Chicago, a block-programmed foreign language station that shares time on 1240 kHz with WEDC-AM/Chicago. Diamond also owns KOMA-AM & KRXO-FM/Oklahoma City.

STREET TALK®

Talkin' WABC/NY PD Blues

ST's all-seeing eyes in the WABC/NY hallways have noticed several candidates interviewing for the Talk station's open PD position, including WJR/Detroit PD Phil Boyce, ex-WPRO-AM/Providence GM Ron St. Pierre, and WLS-AM & FM/Chicago OM Drew Hayes.

You might've noted that all those stations are — like WABC — owned by Capital Cities/ABC. (Small wonder pavement palaver votes this the gig most likely to go to a company insider.) And maybe that's why former WFAN/NY PD/current ESPN Radio staffer Mark Mason is considered the dark horse in the race.

ST hears that exiting MCA Sr. VP/Promo Bruce Tenenbaum is already considering three serious offers, some of which include part-ownership.

And ... with Capitol Sr. VP/Nat'l. Promo John Fagot now Hollywood-bound, what's up with Capitol Sr. Dir./Nat'l. Promo Jeffrey Blalock?

Iran-Contra figure and unsuccessful U.S. Senate candidate Ollie North's radio deal has been sealed, with Greater Media's WWRC-AM/Washington set to be the flagship station. The show will be syndicated by Salem Radio Networks and will air live from 3-6pm EST, starting March 13.

Rumors

- Is current KSOL/SF (and former WPLJ/NY) PD Larry Berger up for the soon-to-be vacant PD slot at crosstown WMXV/NY? Could a '70s format be in the mix?
- Is KDWB/Minneapolis APD/MD Rob Morris the front-runner for Mark Bolke's soon-to-open PD slot?
- Are Richie Balsbaugh, Steve Rivers, and Pyramid Broadcasting contemplating moving AC WBUF/Buffalo back to Rhythmic CHR? Could this go down next week?
- Will the new Zoo Nat'l Alternative promo dude be Doug Ingold, Thomas Westfall, or Gary Splvack?
- Despite what you might've read on a cocktail napkin, WSSX/Charleston has NOT gone CHR. It'll remain Hot AC under PD Rich Bailey.
- Is WMXQ/Birmingham APD/MD John Newsom the prime candidate to replace exiting PD Mark St. John? Will the station continue its evolution to Adult CHR?
- Will AC WMXN/Norfolk segue to NAC real soon? Will there be new calls and WQCD/NY APD/MD Steve Williams consulting, too?
- Will KEDG/Las Vegas PD John Griffin return to KZHT/Salt Lake City — this time as PD? Meanwhile, (KZHT duopoly sister) KUTQ afternoon driver Brian Fox is doing interim PD duties for both stations.
- Why was Elektra VP/Pop Promo Val DeLong recently spotted in the Village buying a lava lamp?
- What major East Coast CHR personality has been approached about becoming the West Coast's king of morning drive?
- Is the deal for Ken Stevens to sell KIOC/Beaumont, TX to Bill Sherrod completely kaput?
- Is former WJMN/Boston afternoon driver Eric Anderson up for another major-market gig, this time involving programming?

11th R&R Grammy Contest Winners

First Prize: AC WHUD-FM/Peekskill, NY AMD/midday maven Tom Furci, who guessed right in 10 out of 12 categories and won the Denon five-disc CD changer w/remote.

Second Prize: Banner Radio's Robert Kilgore. The radio rep firm's NYC-based executive assistant took home the Sharp CD boom box/dual cassette deck.

Third Prize: Cable radio service Digital Music Xpress MD Dave Sloan walked off with the Vivitar 35mm camera w/auto-focus, auto-zoom, and carrying case.

Congratulations to all our winners — and to all who played the game. See ya next year.

WXTR/Washington's 14-year history of playing '60s Gold ended Thursday (3/2) as the Liberty Broadcasting station segued to a '70s Gold presentation. WXTR PD Roy Laurence gives way on an interim basis to Liberty PD Cary Pall and WMXB-FM/Richmond PD Steve Davis.

Down the road apiece, WDCK/Richmond shifts from '60s to '70s Gold as well.

Programming Changes

There's been an "amicable" split between Viacom Lite AC WLT/Detroit and PD Jeff Silvers.

Meanwhile, CHR KDWB/Minneapolis PD Mark Bolke resigns, telling ST "it was time to move on and explore other opportunities both in and outside of the business."

Furthermore, NAC KACD/L.A. PD Monica Logan-Thomas has left the building. Manon Hennesey becomes acting PD. ST also hears a segue to AC may be in the works.

And ... KUFY/San Jose PD Larry Sharp is o-u-t, now that the station's been duopolized by KSJO, whose PD (Dana Jang) adds the 'UFX PD duties.

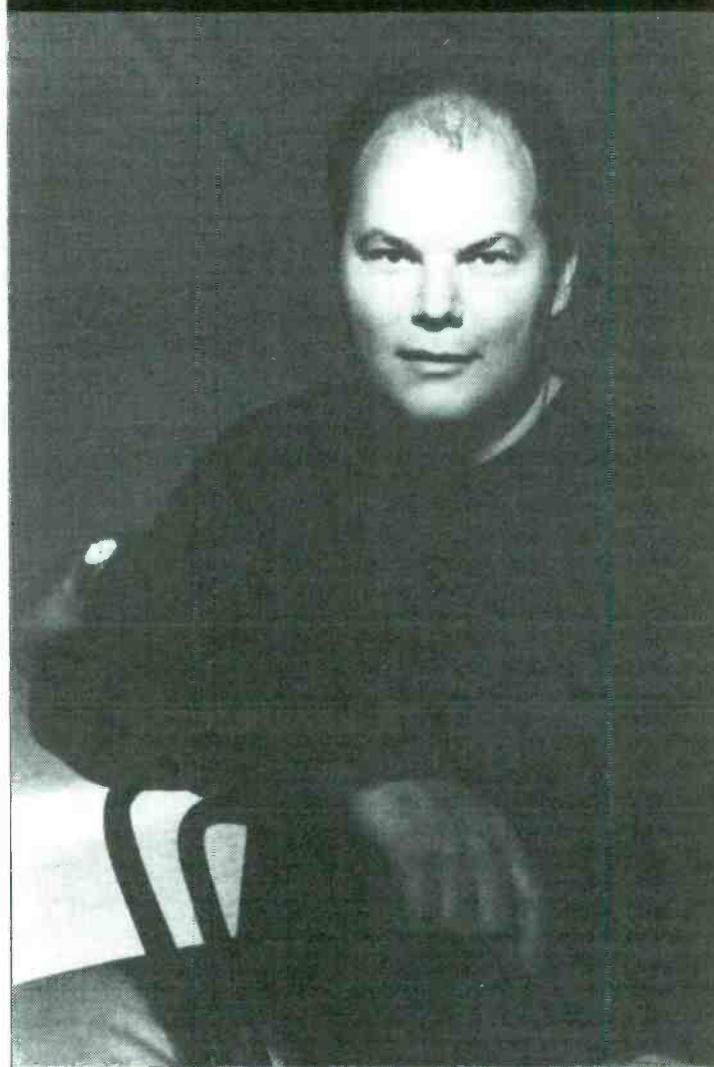

Douglas Broadcasting flips its L.A. triplecast from Asian to Sports/Talk "Sportsmax 107.1 FM." The three Class A FMs (KMAX-FM/Arcadia, KBAX-FM/Fallbrook, and KAXX-FM/Ventura) share the same frequency and claim their coverage stretches from Santa Barbara to La Jolla.

New PD is Reginald Utley, most recently MD/Production Mgr. for the trio. He replaced Bernice Ramirez.

WWKZ/Tupelo, MS PD/morning dude Joe Bob Canada is the subject of a federal grand jury investigation into child pornography. According to AP accounts, a New Orleans TV reporter pretending to be a 13-year-old boy trolled America Online until he found an

Rumbles

- KZRX-FM/Phoenix flips from Rock to Hot Talk, switching calls to KHOT in the process. Other than PD Carla Foxx doing middays, the programming will be mostly syndicated — including Howard Stern in mornings.

- WEDJ/Charlotte MD Michael Steele joins new Alternative convert KYNN/Omaha as PD. Look for PD Brian Bridgman to slip slide ex-WWKX/Providence MD/afternoon slammer Jammer right into the WEDJ MD position.

- Two more stations join the Alternative ranks: Longtime Country outlet WOWW-FM/Pensacola, FL became "New Rock 107" last Friday (3/3). Morning man Steve Williams rises to OM; middayer Joel Sampson becomes PD/MD. Erstwhile PD Gary Coleman segues to a station AE position.

Elsewhere, WFAL-FM & WFXR-FM/Cape Cod, MA ch-ch-changed from "Cape Country" to Alternative "U.N. 93.5 & 103.1" last week. Chris Boles, PD at AC duopoly WOCF-FM, adds PD/middays for the combo, which will simulcast WDRE's Underground Network at night and on the weekends. Crosstown WKPE-FM morning man Steve Binder joins as MD/mornings. The combo has applied for new calls WUNX & WUNZ.

- WJJS/Roanoke ups APD/MD David Lee Michaels to PD/MD.

- WKZW/Peoria, IL PD/mornings Andy Mazer, APD/MD Keith Berry, and morning co-host Kate Chapman are o-u-t. Night jammer Jessie James segues to mornings, partimer Jack Shell shifts to middays, and afternoon driver Kevin Ross adds MD duties. And ... WBAB/Long Island late-nighter T-Bone joins WKZW for nights.

- KRUU/Des Moines loses PD/morning driver Max Schaeffer to crosstown KIOA.

- Oops. Phil Davis becomes interim PD at WIZF/Cincy — not PD — as you read here last week.

- Erstwhile 10-year WICC/Bridgeport, CT PD Gary Peters will now program crosstown WEZN. He succeeds Bill White, who left the Lite AC to program WTVN/Columbus.

- WKXC/Augusta, GA MD Tony Cooper has been promoted to PD in the wake of Bob Raleigh's exiting the Country outlet.

- Rob Carpenter is the new PD at Country KIKN/Sioux Falls, SD. He'd been in sales at WRNS/New Bern-Greenville, NC.

- WVIC-FM/Lansing boots CHR for "Wild Country 94.9, The Cat." The interim PD is John Vance, PD of duopoly partner Classic Rock WMMQ. Ex-WVIC PD Mark Maloney remains at the station doing afternoon drive and has a shot at becoming MD. Former MD J.J. Wright segues to afternoons.

- WPLJ/NY's "Saturday Night At The '70s" host Al Bandiero expands the show to six nights a week, replacing A.J. Hammer, who exits to pursue a TV career.

- Classic Rock KRQR/SF taps KLOS/LA's syndicated "Mark & Brian Show" for mornings. Current morning host Steven Seaweed returns to his long-time midday slot.

- KGMO-FM/Cape Girardeau, MO segues from '60s Gold to '70s Gold.

- Classic Rock KZEP/San Antonio's AM sister station, KHBL, will flip from Talk to Hard Rock on May 1. KZEP PD Kris Winston adds those duties at the AM; Bobby "Slam" Duncan will be MD. The station's new calls will be KZDC.

- Look for WEZX/Wilkes Barre-Scranton PD Jim Rising to exit at month's end. Rising will open the Huntsville Sound Recording Studio.

- KEDJ-FM/Phoenix MD/morning man Willabee resigns to join Q Management Group. AMD Christopher The Minister is upped to MD; mornings TBA.

- KHMX/Houston morning personality Shelby Sweeny joins Larry Moon for wakeups at KECR/San Jose.

magazines and videos containing graphic material related to child porn. Although Canada has not been charged with any crime, he and the station have parted ways pending the investigation.

Big Dog Bites The Dust

When Shamrock's purchase of KZDG/Denver was finalized last week, the station's "Big Dog" name tag was buried like an old bone and replaced by "Z-92.5, The Home Of Denver's Most Country." Yesterday, KZDG launched its "$100,000 most Country guarantee" contest, promising to play "more minutes of music in the month of March" than crosstown Country competitor KYGO-FM. PD Bob Young is acting PD.

Caught In Baseball's Squeeze Play

Format execs discuss the ongoing strike's effects on sales and programming

So you think you miss baseball? Be glad you don't run one of the numerous News/Talk stations that carry major league play-by-play. As the players' strike continues and opening day looms, execs at those stations are gobbling aspirin and Maalox like it was Easter candy.

Don Bouloukos

The most frustrating aspect of the situation, according to GMs and PDs, is the sense of helplessness. Sales efforts and programming plans must forge ahead without knowing whether the 1995 season will be played by the original cast or by replacement scrubs.

"You really can't do much different than you would in a normal pre-season period," sighs Yankees flagship WABC/New York President/GM Don Bouloukos. "It's really a wait-and-see situation. I hope they settle this thing [soon]."

Contract Negotiations

Uncertainty is having a particularly irksome effect on the sales side. At several stations, some advertisers are reluctant to commit to baseball. Others are insisting their contracts be contingent on an end to the walkout.

"The strike certainly has had an impact on our ability to sell baseball," says WBAL/Baltimore Station Manager Jeff Beauchamp, whose station carries the Orioles. "We're not at the level we had achieved at the same point in previous years. We've got a lot of interested parties, but they're loading up on contingency contracts, saying, 'If the strike ends, we're interested.'"

Bouloukos is seeing the same thing. WABC has booked a significant amount of business that depends on an end to the strike. Including those contingency contracts, he reports, WABC is running ahead of last year. Excluding them, the station lags behind.

At least one station has avoided this sales angst. KDKA/Pittsburgh has a brokered time deal with the Pirates in which the team buys airtime to broadcast its games and is responsible for selling its own ads.

KOA/Denver VP/GM Lee Larson reports his station has been fairly well insulated from sales trouble by that city's continued obsession with the Rockies expansion team. Denver's also excited over the opening of the team's new stadium this year. Says Larson, "There's still an awful lot of demand [to be associated with the Rockies]."

Field Of Screams

PDs across America are also squirming at the prospect of a season played by the Not-Ready-For-Big-League Players. Their biggest concern is that they'll be stuck with a summer of deadly programming. Every station contacted for this story said their baseball contract requires them to broadcast every game sanctioned by the league.

So, they wonder, will the audience stick around for an entire season played by unknown second-rate athletes? "I wish I had the insight to tell you what the impact [of replacement players] will be," says KDKS VP/GM Ted Jordan. "But I really don't know."

KABC-AM & KMPC-AM/Los Angeles OM Al Brady Law, whose respective stations have the Dodgers and Angels, points out that stations are being asked to broadcast programming of unknown quality and appeal. "I'm concerned because we're just now getting a sense of what these games are going to be like," he says. "We're broadcasting our first pre-season game as I speak. It's like learning the rules all over again every day when you come into work."

Law says the success of KABC's afternoon drive "Dodger

Talk" show has given him hope that fans will muster some enthusiasm for the replacement team. "I thought it would be very hard to generate any excitement or calls on that show. But it actually did very well. We had [Dodger manager] Tommy Lasorda talking about who's in camp and how the team's shaping up. I was surprised at the number of calls and the level of interest."

Replacing Replacements

WBAL, meanwhile, faces the possibility of a baseball-free summer. Because the Orioles have refused to play with or against replacement players, the other American League teams have dropped the O's from their pre-season schedules. As a result, the Orioles have already missed some pre-season games that 'BAL was supposed to carry. The station aired a baseball talk show hosted by play-by-play man Jon Miller in place of the first missed game.

Beauchamp has mixed emotions on the situation. While baseball is an important part of WBAL's lineup and image, he doesn't believe there will be sustained enthusiasm for games featuring fill-in players. He predicts, "I think there will be some initial interest, but then it will wane."

According to Beauchamp, 'BAL is working on programming to fill the void if the O's don't have anyone to play with this year. "We'll come up with something creative," he says. But, he adds, it's difficult to conceive of programming that might generate the same kind of come and younger audience as baseball. 'BAL routinely does 18-20 shares in 12+ during Orioles broadcasts.

"You can kid yourself and say you'll put on something that's as good as baseball," he says. "But you can't. If you could, everybody would have successfully counterprogrammed baseball a long time ago."

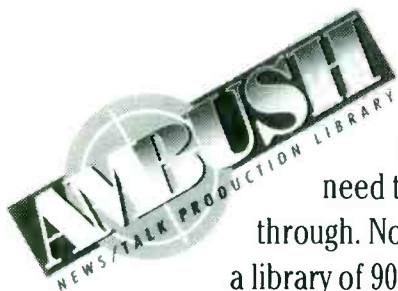

We're just now getting a sense of what these games are going to be like ... It's like learning the rules all over again every day when you come into work.

Creating The Ultimate TV Spot

■ Film House, IQ Television Group, and Broadcast Marketing Group offer television tips

Creating a TV campaign is like going to Las Vegas — it's so easy to throw away tens or hundreds of thousands of dollars. Even if your radio station can't afford to buy TV, you need to know how to use the medium effectively to win in the future. This week, three experts offer valuable guidelines for building your TV campaign.

Where Should I Start?

Former Film House Exec. VP Tony Quin now heads IQ Television Group, which specializes in producing TV commercials for radio. Quin points to the reality that precious advertising dollars come straight from your station's bottom line. He's seen many radio stations blow ad dollars away like smoke and others turn them into profits. Is it luck? A magic formula? Does anyone really know what they're doing? Quin sees the answer as a little of all three. He says producing winning TV commercials is "a combination of art and science. Where does the art end and the science begin?"

Tony Quin

"Science is about media buying and marketing. Media buying is usually glossed over, even though that's where most of the money goes, and marketing has become the refuge for the creatively challenged. TV campaigns must be based on solid marketing, but the engine that drives the train is the commercial, and if nobody pays attention, who cares! So when you go hunting for that magic TV campaign that's going to grab an extra share point for you, put your Reiss & Trout books in your pocket and go hunting for creativity.

"Creativity is the art of developing a winning TV campaign for your radio station. Great creative ideas make every dollar work like 10, while run-of-the-mill stuff makes your precious dollars fade away. So how do you pick the right company? Base your decision on a company's radio experience and savvy, but also make each company pitch creative concepts before giving them the job. "Just because you're in radio doesn't mean you shouldn't command the same respect as the big boys of Madison Ave. When major advertising agencies fight for accounts, they fight using creativity, because their clients know that's what makes the difference. A line like 'When it absolutely positively has to be there overnight' is worth millions of dollars in increased awareness and profits. "Production companies should be prepared to write scripts that let you see exactly how they'd tackle your campaign, and you should be prepared to give them the information they need to do this. If you're worried about confidentiality, have them sign a non-disclosure agreement. With scripts in hand from several candidates, you can make an informed choice, or decide to do more research."

Many TV commercials grab your attention, but are they effective? Do they inspire new listeners to sample your station? Will viewers remember your call letters or morning show?

Quin sees a delicate balance between the need for great creativity and your need for the right creativity:

"That's where people who know radio can save you from the disasters that often come out of ad agencies. On the other hand, don't get trapped into the safe, old, cookie-cutter solutions either, because it's tough to stand out on TV — especially with spots people have seen a zillion times before. Budgets are tight, there are more radio stations and fragmentation, and you can't afford mistakes."

Placing Spots

Chip Osborn of the Broadcast Marketing Group, a media-buying service, is one of America's premier strategists when it comes to placing radio TV commercials. He and his partner, Aubrey Potter Jr., specialize in TV placement for radio, and it's part of their job to ensure that your station gets the most out of its ad dollars.

Chip Osborn Aubrey Potter Jr.

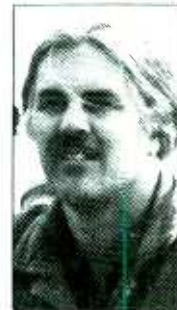

Osborn says, "In addition to finding out what your listeners watch, you should also find out what your competitor's audience is watching before you spend a lot of money on a TV campaign. Think of the marketing advantage you would have if you knew what your competitor's audience was watching, but they were left guessing about yours. Think of the mistakes they'd make.

"Broadcast Marketing Group is capable of identifying the TV viewing habits of a competitor's audience before you make a buy, and we have developed a very successful program called Power Points. Power Points are like rating points, except they represent a target audience. Points could be as specific as your competitor's core morning drive audience, or as broad as their more casual, passive audience.

"Through strategic meetings with the radio station, BMG identifies which of the competitor's target groups to attack. The station may develop the competitor's 'target audi-

Film House's 10 Tips For Successful TV

Film House has become almost synonymous with radio TV advertising. For more than a decade, it has been a leader in broadcast marketing for radio stations all over America. President Curt Hahn shares his Top 10 tips for creating successful TV campaigns.

Curt Hahn

"CHR has gone through more gut-wrenching changes in the '90s than any other format," says Hahn. "Musical and format fragmentation have niched some stations to death. And even those still standing are facing ever-tougher marketing challenges with ever-shrinking budgets. "All of this makes it critical to get the most out of your TV campaign. Besides these 10 tips, it's more important than ever to work with people who understand what you're up against — from both a marketing and a financial perspective."

- Identify the goal — Is your goal to build cume, increase quarter-hour, introduce new talent, or focus on some other aspect of your programming?
- Find out what the listeners want — Marketing that does not answer a real consumer desire is wasted effort.
- Let the marketing drive the creative — A glitzy campaign that loses sight of the objectives or obscures the message can be an expensive mistake.
- Keep it simple — One theme per spot is always easier to communicate. Adding more copy points carries the potential risk of confusing the audience.
- Coordinate your efforts — Make sure your campaign is consistent across all the different media you use, including your own air.
- Use music videos carefully — Videos can be effective, but it's important to "brand" the videos you use effectively, so viewers won't confuse you with another radio station or a cable video channel.
- Use Optimum Efficient Scheduling — All too often, radio stations use the concept of O.E.S. when selling their own airtime, yet forget this important concept when buying other media. The effective placement of your media budget at levels sufficient to do the job is at least as important as the creative.
- Don't blink — When you see your spot on TV, time stops. It's just not the same for the typical viewer. Far too many campaigns have been pulled just at the moment they were starting to break through with listeners, simply because the people at the station were tired of seeing them.
- Take it to the streets — Arm your sales staff with VHS cassettes of your TV campaign so they can show advertisers what you're doing to showcase the radio station and make it a more valuable advertising vehicle.
- Know when not to market — The role of marketing is to invite trial — it's the role of programming to get people to stick around. Make sure your product is as good as it can be before you launch your campaign.

ence to attack' plans through information gleaned from a series of diary reviews, station research, or other methods. Then, just prior to making the TV buy, BMG sets up 25-minute interviews with listeners from the target group and scores their TV viewing habits. This is cheap and effective research that uses about twice as big a sample base as Nielsen does to develop TV ratings.

"The information is then entered into a program called Viper (BMG's media placement software), which is specifically designed to handle radio clients. Viper finds the cheapest and most powerful way to attack the target. The secret to our success is our ability to identify the target, convert the target to Power Points, and manage a powerful campaign using Viper.

"Let's say your competitor is rolling out a big TV campaign this spring, and it hires the best media buyer in the world. The buyer has just completed a dozen other buys for car dealers, dress shops, and fast-food outlets. What does that buyer know about radio, its cume, TSL, and active or passive listeners? They're buying TV blind and are going to make mistakes. Using a firm that really understands radio is your chance to get a powerful marketing edge."

Callout America. HotScores

By TONY NOVIA

Green Day's "WHEN I COME AROUND" (Reprise) retains the Callout America crown for a fifth consecutive week. "When" posts strong favorability in all regions and demos — including women 25-34 with whom the song ranks third out of the 30 songs in total favorability.

While holding steady with a 3.54 total average favorability result this week, "I KNOW" by Dionne Farris (Columbia) posts a powerful 3.82 favorability score (good for second overall) among women 25-34.

"HOLD ON" by Jamie Walters (Atlantic) of "Beverly Hills, 90210" fame continues to show strong favorability scores with a healthy 3.56 to 3.68 surge this week — helped by a strong Midwest performance where the song captured a 3.90 favorability score. "HOLD" is nearing the 60% familiarity threshold as well.

Brownstone's "IF YOU LOVE ME" (MJJ/Epic), a chart-topper on the Urban and Rhythmic/CHR airplay charts, begins its trek over to Pop/CHR by debuting with a solid 3.59 favorability score on Callout America and a 51.5% familiarity score out of the box.

Other Callout America newcomers this week are "RUN AWAY" by Real McCoy (Arista) and "I BELIEVE" from Blessid Union Of Souls (EMI), both debuting with 3.39 favorability scores. "RUN" also appears on the survey for the first time with a 57% familiarity score.

The following two titles are newer additions to Callout America and still have low familiarity scores so it is too early to make any kind of judgment: "I LIVE MY LIFE FOR YOU" by Firehouse (Epic) checks in with a 3.23 favorability score in its first week. Londonbeat's "COME BACK" (Radioactive) rises from 2.59 to 2.73 total average favorability this week, with an upswing in women 25-34 and significant regional gains in the West and Midwest.

EXPOSE YOURSELF WITH A MINIMUM OF RISK.

Today's level of fierce competition demands that you prominently display your name every chance you get (location broadcasts, concerts, station sponsored autograph sessions, etc.). With theft, vandalism and loss, it becomes a costly proposition to continuously replace expensive signs and banners costing hundreds of dollars.

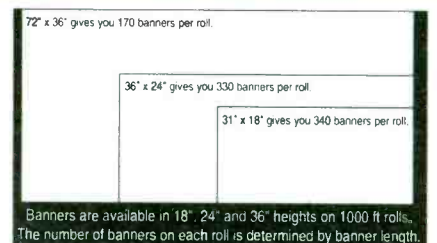

Roll-A-Sign™ offers a better way. You get up to four vibrant colors printed on durable, high quality 4 or 6 mil plastic film to display your logo and message brilliantly for an economical price. Now you can afford to display a bright new sign at every public event. They even make great cost-effective promotional give-aways. Just roll off what you need and cut.

Banners are available in 18", 24" and 36" heights on 1000 ft. rolls. The number of banners on each roll is determined by banner length.

- ✂ Durable banners for a throw-away price.
- ✂ UV stabilized plastic won't fade indoors or outdoors.

NBPC '95: Making Its Move In Mobile

The National Black Programmers Coalition (NBPC) kicked off the new year in Mobile with its 1995 Inaugural Weekend, which received overwhelming support and participation from radio and record industry personnel.

Saturday's activities began with the general meeting, where the various chapters from around the nation reported their past accomplishments and future plans. Most notably, the Carolina Chapter — one of the organization's fastest-growing chapters — announced its scholarship fund for young people who want to attend college and study communications.

That meeting was followed by an informative and colorful radio programming seminar headed by WEDR/Miami PD James Thomas. Those in attendance then were NBPC's new officers and board members.

Thanks to the efforts of local host radio stations WBLX and treated to an evening concert featuring the Bar-Kays.

Most NBPC national meetings end on a spiritual note, and this one was no exception — a Sunday morning service at Mt. Olive Baptist Church provided the forum for the installation of the WGOK, each event was attended by an ecstatic local audience that was receptive and supportive in capping off a weekend of fun-filled activities and networking. Note: This year's NBPC Convention will be held in New Orleans between November 8-12.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF — After NBPC President Irene Ware (second woman standing from right) was re-elected for a second term, she posed with the organization's new officers and board members. Mixed in the crowd are the famous Bar-Kays and a number of Urban radio PDs.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE — WEDR/Miami PD James Thomas takes the podium while WBLX/Mobile PD J.B. Louis (l) and WACR/Tupelo, MS PD Jerold Jackson take notes. Jackson also serves as the NBPC's Exec. Secretary.

'Earth Jam' Helps Radio, Records, Environment

Radio PDs and record company execs always want to know about new and innovative ways to reach young radio listeners and record buyers. And if there's a way to stretch that reach into the school systems, you'll really get their attention.

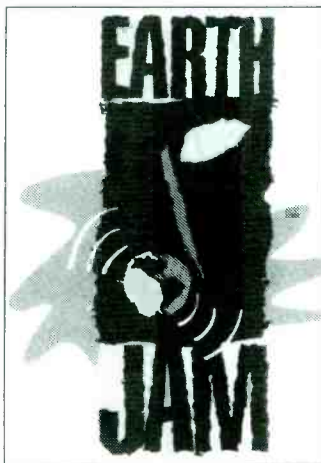

Sherman Oaks, CA-based Earth Jam has found a way to market, publicize, and promote music and products while incorporating environmental awareness and education in schools throughout the U.S. In so doing, the organization invites local radio stations to host the events.

The hourlong assembly consists of a 30-minute artist performance, 20 minutes of environmental programming, and a 10-minute meet-and-greet, followed by an after-school in-store promotion. Incidentally, each artist appearance guarantees an audience of approximately 600-1500 students, ranging from ages 11-25.

Earth Jam staffers also will work with schools staging fundraising and recycling programs. Here's a pictorial detailing Earth

Jam's work with several Urban stations in the Southwest and the South, where Atlantic artist Brandy lent her talents.

Jammin' home the twin messages of education, environmental awareness.

EARTH 'JAMZ' — Following the Roosevelt High School show, Brandy signed autographs with KJMZ (100.3 Jamz)/Dallas air personality Alfred at a local Blockbuster Music store.

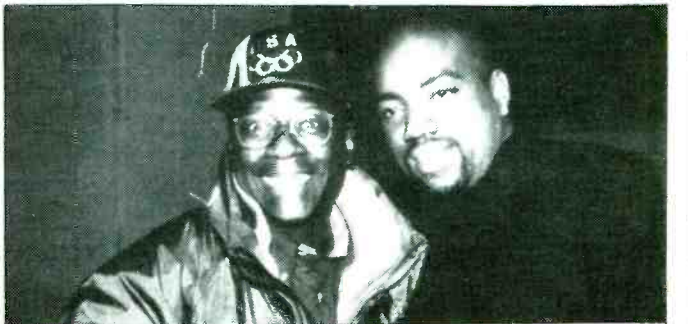

SMOKEY & THE BANDIT — KMJQ (Majic 102) morning team Smokey & The Bandit — Smokin' Tony Richards (l) and T.C. Bandit — spoke on-stage at Houston's Reagan High School.

CRACK THAT COMBINATION — WQMG (Power 97)/Greensboro recently concluded its "Crack The Combination for $10,000" promotion by awarding grand-prize winner Darrick Martin a $10,000 check while on location with the Hollywood & Co. morning show. Pictured at the live remote are (l-r) PD Brian Wallace, Martin, and morning team members Tammi McCall and Eric "Hollywood" Davis.

A 'FACE' FOR RADIO — On a recent promotional tour, recording artist Babyface (c) posed with WWDM/Columbia, SC morning personality Curtis Wilson and Wilson's wife, Kisha.

DETROIT UNDERCOVER — WJLB-FM/Detroit morning man John Mason (l) posed with actor Malik Yoba at a recent taping of Fox-TV's "New York Undercover." The network invited various air personalities to play bit parts or serve as extras on the program.

The 26th Country Radio Seminar lived up to its reputation — with more panels, roundtable discussions, and rap rooms than ever before.

There was also more music than ever before. The Thursday and Friday night artist showcases were complemented by a host of suites spotlighting acts in an acoustic setting. However, as a service for those of you who found it impossible to make it past the Pickin' Parlor without getting sucked in, here are a few of the other activities that occurred during the week.

CAREER KICKOFF — Career used the CRS to kick off its launch and showcase flagship act Lee Roy Parnell at Nashville's 12th & Porter. A drawing was held among radio attendees, with the winner getting Parnell for a morning — as a wakeup show co-host, that is. Planning the trip after the festivities were (l-r) Arista-Career VP/Promotion & Artist Development Jack Weston, contest winner Lou Stewart of WDEZ/Wausau, WI, Parnell, Career's Dir./Nat. Promo Denise Nichols, and Parnell manager Mike Robertson.

WESTWOOD WONDERFUL — Westwood One continued its suite tradition: showcasing a mix of Country's hottest acts and newly signed stars of tomorrow performing acoustically in an intimate setting. Getting ready for one such evening are (l-r) RCA's Ty England, Decca's Helen Darling, Westwood One Networks President/Programming Ed Salamon, Reprise's Victoria Shaw, BNA's Doug Supernaw, Westwood One's Pam Greene, and Polydor's Mark Luna.

BNA BOOGIE — BNA artists and label execs gathered prior to Kenny Chesney's performance on the RLG boat excursion. Preparing to launch into the sea of radio PDs and MDs are (l-r) KTEX/McAllen-Brownsville PD/MD Sonny Laguna, Mgr./Southwest Reg. Promo Danny Sommers, Dir./Nat'l Promo Tom Sgro, Chesney, Dir./West Coast Promotion Scot Michaels, artist John Anderson, Promo Coor. Tony Benken, and BNA artists Doug Supernaw and Jesse Hunter.

CRUISIN' THE CUMBERLAND — The good ship RLG once again paddled its way around Music City during the CRS, providing food, beverages, and entertainment for a few hundred radio folks. Taking part in the family portrait were (kneeling in front, l-r) RCA's Aaron Tippin, RLG Dir./Field Product Development Greg DeLaurentis, RCA VP Tommy Daniel, BNA VP Dale Turner, and RLG VP/Sales Ron Howie; (middle, l-r) RLG Sr. VP/GM Randy Goodman, RCA artists Jeff Cook (Alabama) and Clint Black, BNA's Kenny Chesney, Alabama's Randy Owen, and BNA's John Anderson; (back, l-r) RCA artists Ty England and Eddy Arnold, RCA's Dir./Nat'l Promo Patti Olsen and VP/Promo Mike Wilson, BNA's Jesse Hunter, RCA's Jon Randall, Alabama's Teddy Gentry, and BNA's Doug Supernaw. BNA's Lorrie Morgan is in the group, but had the misfortune of standing behind a guy with a hat. The first five people who tell BNA where she is will win ...

HITTIN' THE ROAD — Asylum's Brother Phelps left the CRS and the Opryland Hotel in roaring style — mounting their Harleys for a radio tour that will take them through Chattanooga, Atlanta, Macon, Savannah, and Jacksonville. Ultimately, they'll wind up in Daytona, FL for the annual "Bike Week" festivities. Then it's on to Orlando, Tampa, Tallahassee, Pensacola, and Mobile. Seeing off Ricky Lee (l) and Doug are label President Kyle Lehning (in hat) and VP/Promotion Denny Mosesman.

TILLIS TIME — Arista's Pam Tillis was just one of the artists who spent time in the label's suite chatting with radio magnates, including WKHX-FM & WYAY-FM/Atlanta MD Johnny Gray (l). Overseeing the conversation were Dir./Southeast Reg. Promo Mike Owens and VP/Promotion & Artist Development Jack Weston.

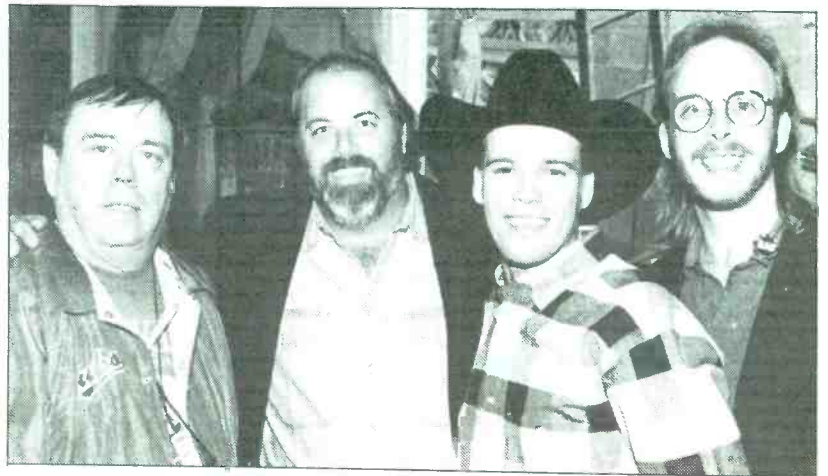

HI, I'M ... — A record 480 stations participated in the annual Artist Radio Tape Sessions, while 28 radio/video tie-in shows set up shop. Garth Brooks (l), shown here recording liners for KWJJ/Portland, OR MD Kelly McRae, was among those laying down tracks.

CLOWNING AROUND — MCA figured that as long as the suites were three-ring circuses, it might as well bring in the clowns. So the label did just that to catapult David Lee Murphy's new single "Party Crowd" into radio's consciousness, taking DLM and this motley crew on a journey around the Opryland Hotel.

AT THE BUNNY HOP — For the fourth consecutive year, WB-Reprise kicked off CRS week with a superstar show at the Grand Ole Opry. Among the performers pictured after the show were (l-r) Little Texas's Duane Propes, Del Gray and Tim Rushlow, Russ Taff, Travis Tritt, Victoria Shaw, LT's Dwayne O'Brien, Jeff Huskins, and Porter Howell. David Ball also sang, but didn't make the photo shoot.

GIANT SALES — The Giant suite was the site of a gold album presentation to Clay Walker for "If I Could Make A Living." On hand were (l-r) promotion head Nick Hunter, President James Stroud, Walker, and WIRK/West Palm Beach PD Ron Brooks.

MIKE KINOSHIAN

One Of Hot AC's Rising Stars

For all practical purposes, Top 50 market Hot AC performances this fall were steady from a year ago.

However, KPLZ (Star 101.5)/Seattle was among those enjoying ratings increases as it leapfrogged KLSY to become Seattle's top 25-54 AC. It also shares the 35-64 lead among the market's three ACs with KRWM and trails KLSY by a mere 0.1 among 18-34s.

John Dimick

No Time

KPLZ made its CHR-HotAC evolution approximately 14 months ago and welcomed PD John Dimick last August. His primary concern was making Star more listener-focused, especially among its female 25-34 core. "By looking at research, we know many of them go to McDonald's five times a week and rent a ton of videos. The picture I have of our typical female listener is someone who was once pretty hip, but is now too busy to be hip. She has a hectic lifestyle and doesn't have time to go to movies. We have to do whatever we can to reach out and make her life easier and make sure she doesn't feel life is passing by her."

Like Seattle's Star 101.5, many other Hot ACs also have CHR roots. This new format, however, forces them to take different marketing approaches. "There's a difficulty in reaching Hot AC's

One big station doing '70s has a good book and everybody thinks it's the next format — that thing's going to die.

audience," explains Dimick. "In CHR, we drove to the park in our van, gave away T-shirts, $10 bills, and made many friends. This doesn't happen in Hot AC. We have to reach people in different ways. "Our audience isn't as accessible as CHR listeners and we must get into their houses, cars, and lifestyles."

Alternative Programming

Hot AC's programming talent pool might be at a premium. "I'd like to see more come from Alternative," opines Dimick. "They tend to be the most creative stations, but most Alternative PDs won't swing over to this style of music. Hot AC PDs [tend to be] CHR [programmers who've become] tired of high-pressure, eight-hour record company meetings. I can now apply some tools I learned in CHR and still have fun in Hot AC."

There's a difficulty in reaching Hot AC's audience. In CHR, we drove to the park, gave away T-shirts, $10 bills, and made many friends.

Dimick previously called Hot AC KISN-FM/Salt Lake City's programming shots. Consequently, he's one of a relatively few PDs with multistation Hot AC programming experience. "I'd been doing this format for quite some time — nobody had attached a name to it. With 48 signals and just over a million people, Salt Lake City is very competitive. Coming from that battle gave me great insight into this format."

The stakes in Seattle are much larger than those Dimick faced at KISN-FM. Regarding the learning curve, he remarks, "I feel like I'm in high school and still have to go to college and graduate school."

Plugging Patience

Dimick advises operators wanting a quick fix to look elsewhere. "They should do the Arrow or [another '70s-oriented] format. One big station doing '70s has a good book and everybody thinks it's the next format — that thing's going to die."

"Hot AC is a format of the future, but it takes time and dedication. The 'worst to first' stories aren't going to happen — you must be in it for the long haul."

He is confident that Hot AC isn't a fad. "We have fresh music from Huey Lewis, Bonnie Raitt, Melissa Etheridge, Phil Collins, Gloria Estefan, and Jon Secada, and are developing new artists like Martin Page.

"Some people say Hot AC's in trouble, but I wonder where they're getting their information. The format is still new and stations doing it make a ton of money. Dan Vallie, Jim Richards, Scott Shannon, Guy Zapoleon, Don Benson, and Alan Burns helped crank up this puppy. It's up to some new talent to suck the knowledge from their heads and take Hot AC to the next level."

grammer who] does anything like this."

By doing so, John was able to keep about 20 songs with high burn scores among office workers off the air between 9am-5pm. "The general audience may love the song. [One would think] we'd bang it in a power rotation 24 hours a day. The truth, however, was that some songs were killing us [9am-5pm]. We pulled them from that time frame and put them in power rotation in the other dayparts."

Now There Are Two

Soft AC KYMX is Y 92's format competitor. Not long ago, "Mix 96" and Y 92 knocked heads with a third AC player — Hot AC KXOA-FM. However, it flipped to '70s. According to John, "We always beat them, but there were more AC partisans when they were in the format. Quite frankly, at first, their departure took some AC partisans with them. But we won back those we may have lost — plus some."

John suggests fellow Hot AC PDs give their stations a personality-driven spin. "Hot ACs don't work quite as well as music-only stations," he remarks. "A successful Hot AC is highly researched, fun to listen to, and has solid personalities who aren't afraid to make people laugh."

KGBY's New Test Methods Propel It To Top 18-34

After visiting KPLZ/Seattle (see above), jump on I-5, follow it due south to Sacramento, and you'll hear how KGBY (Y 92) PD Robert John posted such glowing fall numbers.

In addition to being Hot AC's lone No. 1 18-34 (Top 50 markets), Y 92 notched that demo's largest share.

Research At-Work Listeners

Prior to the start of the fall sweep, Y 92 conducted an auditorium music test and John incorporated a new way of analyzing the results. "We were receiving [contradictory] suggestions and complaints from our audience," he explains. "It seemed to depend on whether or not they were office workers. I wanted to quantify the information and devised a way to research office workers. We cross-tabbed their results with the general audience and programmed accordingly. I don't know any [other pro-

Information Revolution Just A Keystroke Away

Radio must follow consumers into cyberspace, and on-line services can help

Prodigy, America Online, CompuServe ... The "big three" on-line services have been embedded in our culture so thoroughly, you'd be hard-pressed to find someone who doesn't know their meaning, regardless of whether or not they use the services.

It's time for radio to get in on the act — or risk losing a vital way to reach listeners. WZTA/Miami PD

Neal Mirsky says, "I've been playing around with the on-line services for just over a year. The music BBs [see sidebar, right] are great for measuring fan reaction to a favorite band's new CD or tour. The radio BBs are great for keeping in touch with industry cyberbuddies, as well as checking out listener reaction to format adjustments and morning shows. "I've just started to surf the Internet through Prodigy's World Wide Web and found lots of labels and bands with their own sites. This provides an outstanding source of information, like bios, discographies, and tour dates. That info goes right into the control room. In the coming months, I plan to set up an on-line address for the station so we can get more interactive with listeners."

E-Mail Easy
According to WSTZ/Jackson, MS GM Kirk Sherwood, "Any kind of communication is good because you tend to get stuck in your own market. With the on-line services, a whole new world of ideas is at your fingertips, from programming to sales. I've found old friends on-line that I hadn't talked to in 20 years. I wish the entire broadcast community was on-line — it's a fast, easy way to stay in touch and meet new people. E-mail is great for keeping in touch because you can type out a quick note on your own time, even if it's at 10pm."

WOUR/Utica, NY OM Tom Starr says, "It's another resource for lifestyle info and it's becoming an increasing part of listeners' lifestyle options. We're eagerly anticipating some future avenues for marketing the station, not only on our own, but also through other sources. I hear 'Rockline' is building on-line profiles for their affiliate stations on the Internet."

Promotion Director Jackie MacLaren posts WAPL/Appleton, WI's concert line every week, "giving listeners an additional avenue to access the info. We get a fair amount of e-mail for requests and messages from clients. To maintain your market leadership, it's important to stay on the leading edge of the trends. Our morning show makes the greatest use of it, though we also get a good amount of overnight use. We reply to all of our e-mail messages within 24 hours. That's the beauty of e-mail — it's so easy to respond to your listeners and clients."

WYMG/Springfield, IL PD Jay Philpott says, "When we have contact with people who have written to us via on-line, they have a great appreciation for our accessibility. They're very impressed by our reply because we get back to them within a day. Since they're paying for the service, they're very happy that we've paid attention to them and people tend to be much more candid and expansive on their opinions when they write. They'll write what they really think about the station."

CyberConversation

Here's an example of a conversation found in a Bulletin Board System. This note was posted on Prodigy's Radio BB:

To: ALL
From: KEVIN MOORE

What do you think of programming consultants? As market competition increases, pressure to win in the ratings also increases. A lot of GMs are hedging their bets by hiring programming consultants. More and more, these consultants are actually programming the radio station, while the PD is in reality the APD. Many think this trend makes for "cookie-cutter" stations that sound the same, use the same music research, promotions databases, etc. What do you think?

Here are some of the replies:

To: KEVIN MOORE
From: JEFF TANNER
Consultants can be good and bad — we have a corporate PD type here at Jacor whose job is to stir up sh!# and make us rethink the market! I've been approached by a few consultants for jobs where either they were looking for a PD/puppet or the consultant didn't have enough of a hold on the station to even know which way was up. It never hurts to have another programmer in on any idea — music, programming, or promotions.

From: PETER TAURIELLO
There's nothing like having a consultant to bring you a perspective on the market you may be missing. Sometimes, as a programmer, you can be too close to your own operation to get a fair view of what's hap-

CYBERTALK

Merging On The Info Hwy.

A new monthly has hit the street called .net, the Internet Magazine. The March issue, "Wired For Sound," claims to be users' "complete guide to rock 'n' roll on the Net, including live bands, the death of discs, and more music than is good for you."

The issue also sports a Back To Basics column, .net's new series for absolute beginners. There's also .net's guide to essential Internet sites.

Jargon

Following is a list of some of the terms and common abbreviations spawned by the ever-expanding world of computers and on-line services:

BB — Bulletin Board

BBS — Bulletin Board System. Computer system used as an information source/message system for a particular interest group. Users dial into the BBS, read, and leave messages for others on the system.

CD ROM — Compact Disc Read Only Memory. Compact disc format holds text, graphics, and hi-fi stereo sound. Like a music CD, but uses a different track format for data.

Cyberpunk — Relating to futuristic delinquency: hackers breaking into computer banks, survival based on high-tech wits. Stems from sci-fi novels such as "Neuromancer" and "Shockwave Rider."

Download — To transfer a file from one computer to another. When conducting the session, download means received, upload means transmit.

E-mail — Electronic mail. Transmission of memos and messages over a network. Users can send mail to a single recipient or multiple users.

Flame, -er, -ing — Slang for communicating emotionally and/or excessively via e-mail.

Freeware — Software that is free or public domain.

Lurker — One who reads the notes and replies of others but doesn't post.

Modem — MOdulator-DEModulator. Device that adapts a computer to a telephone line.

On-line services — On-line information service organizations which provide access to various databases such as news, weather, stock market reports, shopping, newspapers, airline reservations, and reference/library materials.

RAM — Random Access Memory. The computer's primary workspace.

Shareware — Software distributed on a trial basis through a BBS, on-line service, mail-order vendor, or user group. If you like it, you register and pay for it, for which you'll receive tech support and perhaps the next upgrade.

Trackball — Input device used in video games/mouse alternative. A stationary unit that contains a movable ball rotated with the fingers or palm that moves the cursor on screen.

Emoticons

Emoticons (EMOTIONAL ICONS) are small symbols used to clarify feelings being expressed. Turn your head sideways to read.

- :) User is happy.
- :(User is unhappy.
- :-C User is really bummed.
- :-D User is laughing.
- :'(User is crying.
- ;-) Winky smile, flirtatious or sarcastic
- o> Who me?
- %-) Confusion or cross-eyed. Or user has been staring at computer screen for 15 hours (this editor included)!

pening. A smart consultant can point out things you may have overlooked. Consultants are there to consult, not run the show. They can bring a wealth of experience to your table. I've only worked with one consultant, Walter Sabo, and it's been an enjoyable and educational experience to get his "take" on things.

To: KEVIN MOORE
From: BJ MCCARTY

Get a clear understanding of your GM's vision regarding the consultant's role. If he's looking for a "better" PD than you, you have a problem. If he chooses to use a consultant the right way, you're in luck.

Your consultant should advise, guide, and suggest. He should act as another set of ears — an outside voice not too close to the action. In that respect alone, they can be invaluable. I don't do a weekly music call with them or use their safe list for gold (we have our own research). I use these rules with consultants:

1. We don't have to agree on everything, but let's come to an understanding before you leave, so I don't bitch about you nor you about me once you're gone.

2. If we truly reach an impasse and can't agree on a plan, I win, period. The consultant won't get fired if the ratings go down, the PD will. Even if the consultant loses the business, that's only one client. You, on the other hand, are on the beach with no income.

3. Get it straight right from the start between you, the consultant, and your GM. Don't be a jerk about your power, and clearly understand with that authority comes a huge responsibility. Be prepared to deal with any consequences. This is not dress rehearsal — it's the Super Bowl, every day. Winning is tough with everyone on the same team — but it's impossible with internal troubles.

KEDG: Cream Of The 12+ Crop

█ Vegas outlet hits jackpot with new music focus, extensive marketing, and promotions

After a solid debut nearly three years ago, Radiovision's KEDG (The Edge)/Las Vegas has had its share of ratings ups and downs. In the Fall '94 Arbitron survey, however, KEDG jumped 4.9-6.6 to become the No. 1 12+ Alternative station in the country.

Atypical Operation

First of all, KEDG is not your typical radio station. Owner George Tobin, a longtime record producer, commands all music decisions at the station. His son, Dax Tobin, is GM and involved in every aspect of the station, from sales to music — despite his lack of previous radio experience.

"When I first bought the station it was losing $40,000-$50,000 per month," George Tobin notes. "Dax turned it around to where it is now, billing seven to eight times what it was billing." (For the balance of the column, Tobin refers to George.)

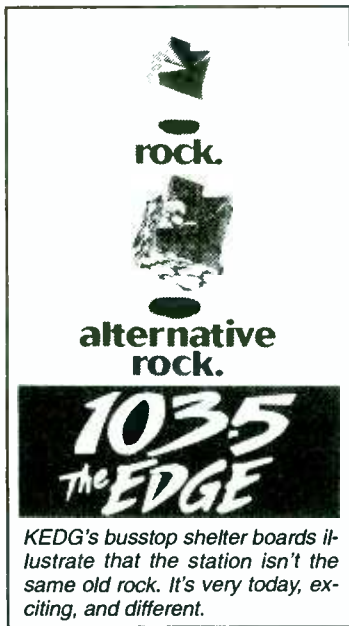

Tobin admits to having trouble finding a PD. "Most programmers want to be responsible for the music. John Griffin is a fabulous guy, but he didn't want to be PD. He was happy being MD and doing his show at night. But I needed someone to run the station. I couldn't be PD, because I'm only at the station seven or eight days a month."

Music Procedure

"I get an information packet every week detailing how many times we spun a record, sales, and requests," says Tobin. "The first thing I need to figure out is what we need to get rid of. What you get rid of kind of determines what you want to add. What do we need for tempo and sound? I look at burnout, requests, and especially sales."

Tobin keeps up to date on the music, thanks to record service directly to his house. "I'm immersed in the music, because it's what I've done all my life. I listen to a lot of music and watch a lot of MTV — not only for the station, but from a record producer standpoint. I want to see what I can use, where the trends are going, and who's making what."

"Dax is involved in the music, too. He grew up in Los Angeles listening to KROQ. There are many times Dax and John will tell me, 'You're nuts, listen to it again.' They will suggest records to drop and move up. Fortunately, there's nobody in the market forcing us on records. There's no CHR playing modern music.

KEDG's busstop shelter boards illustrate that the station isn't the same old rock. It's very today, exciting, and different.

"KLUC is an extremely well-programmed Rhythmic CHR station. I don't look at them as competition. KXTZ has been around the block a hundred times — they've been everything from elevator music to now Rhythmic CHR. Who knows what they'll be next week? KOMP is a good AOR station; we probably share one-third of the same music."

"I can be talked into playing something, even if I don't like the sound of it. For example, I never felt comfortable playing Portishead. [Island VP/Alternative promo] Steve Leeds kept calling me with sales figures and what was going on with the record. He wore me down with facts. I forced myself to go back and listen to it. The record was No. 4 in R&R before I went with it."

More Hits, Less Library

KEDG maintains one of the tightest playlists in the format, with 27-31 currents that rotate between 1.5-6.5 times per day. Tobin says, "We play among the fewest non-hit records of any station in the format. It's not because we're late on a lot of records; it's just that many songs aren't hits. This is a hit-driven format; we're looking for hit records in the lifestyle. The lifestyle is 18-30. I have a sound code in my mind. Hits are generally based on riffs or good lyrics. I've been doing this for over 30 years and have a lifetime of experience to tell a reasonable lyric and melody."

Despite a tight playlist, Griffin indicates the station is 90% current/recurrent. "The early '80s music was the foundation for two-and-a-half years. We had to introduce the audience to what was then called New Wave. [Crosstown] KUNV is a good college station. They do what they are supposed to — play the craziest, weirdest, retarded records. They weren't playing Missing Persons, Adam Ant, etc. We had to educate our audience. We still play the biggest hits of the '80s. Instead of hearing these records every three-and-a-half to four days, they come up once a month as 'oh wow' records for the core."

Tobin adds, "There's better music available now than when we first signed on. We were forced to play a lot of gold. A 20-year-old male isn't interested in hearing records that were played in 1984. You have to ask yourself, 'Who's listening to my station? Who do I want to listen? What's going to get them to listen?'"

KEDG trimmed its library in half right before the fall book. "We have about 600 songs in rotation, with about 350 actively rotating," notes Griffin. "Our core is U2, Depeche Mode ... There are probably 20 of each, and they're all packeted. That's what brings the active songs down."

Inside The Edge's Numbers

KEDG (The Edge)/Las Vegas leaped from ninth to fifth overall in the market. The station trails only Nostalgia KJUL, CHR KLUC, Country KWNR, and AC KSNE. Here's how the station ranks in Arbitron's Fall '94 survey:

	12+ Trend	12+ Cums	12+ TSL	18-24 Rank	18-34 Rank	25-34 Rank
KEDG	6.6 (#5)	#5	#4	#2	#2	#3

Source: Arbitron — Monday-Sunday, 6am-midnight.

Also, we put some records on hold with a date for when they'll come back in rotation and when others will come out."

'Fall Fantasies' And More

KEDG's big marketing and promotions push in the fall book paid big dividends. It included a four-week TV campaign, a 95% showing of busstop shelter boards, an acoustic Christmas show, and the following promotions.

In "Wheels For Meals," Griffin lived in a motor home until listeners filled a U-Haul truck with food. Nine days of this stunt yielded 17 tons of food for the homeless. "We had local news coverage every night," boasts Griffin. "We were definitely word-of-mouth in the fall."

One of KEDG's four different "Fall Fantasies" made a listener a concert promoter, with the winner's name on the show's ticket and the venue's marquee. The winner also received a laminate and introduced the band at the show.

This station can cause water cooler talk. One thing we do real well is get news coverage. That's part of our ratings success.
- John Griffin

Winding down a busy fall, KEDG's third annual "Jingle Bell Rock" listen-to-win promotion had listeners tumbling through Vegas for three weeks looking for a white rock the size of a football with an Edge logo on it. Listeners had to tune in for daily on-air clues at 7:10am, 12:10pm, and 5:10pm. Clues were posted daily at various station sponsors. The winner received $10,000 in cash.

"This station can cause water cooler talk," Griffin says. "One thing we do real well is get news coverage. That's part of our ratings success."

NEW MUSIC SCENE

- Artist: Sponge
- Track: "Plowed"
- LP: "Rotting Piñata"
- Label: Work

• Essentials: Childhood friends Vinnie (vocals), Mike Cross (guitar), and Mike's brother Tim (bass) spent their formative years in a depressed Detroit neighborhood where lack of prospects pushed the trio toward music as a career path. After playing together in various incarnations, Vinnie (first name only) and the Cross brothers recruited Joey Mazzola (guitar) and Jimmy Paluzzi (drums), and renamed themselves Sponge. Their debut release, "Rotting Piñata," was self-produced with help from Tim Patalan and mixed by Tim Palmer (Mother Love Bone, Pearl Jam, and Tears For Fears). The band cites David Bowie, Alice Cooper, and Lou Reed among its influences. The following songs were on the band's demo tape: "Plowed" (written and recorded in the same day), "Neeenah Menasha," and "Raining In My House." Recently, Motor City native Charlie Grover replaced Paluzzi on drums.

• Artist POV: Vinnie notes, "There's a mystery track, 'Candy Corn,' that pops up after the 10th track. It's my favorite track on the record. When we recorded it we slowed the tape down and I did my vocals on 24-track, slowed down. It kind of has this dreamy vibe, and it opens up the entire reason for the candy corn on the cover."

• Label POV: Work Group National Director/Promotion Geordie Gillespie says, "We knew in our gut that ultimately Sponge was going to connect with the kids on the street. A combination of patience and relentless persistence has been our MO., ignoring all pigeonholing and format constraints."

New Music Scene highlights breaking artists charting for the first time.

WB: Refining, Refocusing Its Commitment To Format

With Matt Pierson's ascension to Sr. VP/Jazz, Warner Bros. Records is refining and refocusing its commitment to NAC.

Randall Kennedy, recently promoted by Pierson to Sr. Director NAC/Jazz Marketing, outlines Warner's attitude toward making the leading NAC company's music even more accessible to consumers.

Informal Approach

"We share a vibe with Hear Music [see story, below] in that the 25-40-year-old is our common stock. Our goal is similar, because we are trying to make the music conversational to retail and the consumer," Kennedy says. "We are presenting our information in a more informal manner than in the past. We're trying to show that music is part of adults' lifestyle again, much as it was when they were in high school and college, when hanging out and talking about music was part of their daily scene.

"As those music consumers grew up, finished school, got jobs, and acquired mortgages — all the things that go with adulthood — their [radio-listening and record-buying] patterns began to change, too. Music may have fallen out of their daily pattern, but they began dialing around and discovering new formats like NAC and good NPR outlets that really speak to them. Our strategy is to continue that kind of dialogue and turn the listener into a buyer.

"We do that by communicating through our marketing, advertising, and media kits that our artists are speaking to audiences' hearts.

And in the same way the artist speaks to the listener's heart, we try to capture that [spirit] in our marketing efforts."

Your On-Line Eyes

WB has made a commitment to on-line marketing, creating its own site on the Internet and the World Wide Web. Kennedy says, "People from all over the world can get information via their browser [program] and then look at a page which might outline album graphics, artist bio and tour data, and small music samples. We'll be expanding to [include] quick-time videos on-line and messages from artists themselves.

"We're also using it to link to radio stations and other jazz/NAC sites of an educational and informational nature: A lot of NAC stations, like KKSF/San Francisco, are coming on-line. We are able to link a customer to another site on-line where they can buy the CD and have it mailed to them."

ARTIST POV

Roberta Riffs On Radio

Roberta Flack burst upon the music scene in 1969 with "First Take," a debut that established her permanent place in the pantheon of contemporary music.

On her latest Atlantic release, "Roberta," she puts her trademark on such classics as "Prelude To A Kiss," "Let's Stay Together," and current single "It Might Be You."

Recently, the New York-based singer shared her thoughts on radio with me. "The primary benefit of listening to radio for me is always the music. If I need news, I prefer to see it [on TV], but radio allows me to use my own creative imagination. Isn't that the way most people feel? Radio can serve whatever purpose you need it to.

"I listen to a lot of Classical radio, but of course I listen to WQCD (CD101.9) too, for smooth jazz. I've known [air personality] Pat Prescott since she was at WBLS, and she's always been a wonderful supporter of mine. Over the years, she's come to my concerts, even when she didn't have to, and has always given me wise professional advice on songs she thinks I should record. I'm a big fan of hers. Not only does she share her point of view, but it really counts, because she's a person who listens to tons of music.

"When I push the CD101.9 button, it serves a very important purpose for me: The station reminds me of what I want to do as a musician in terms of my own musicianship. As a classically trained musician, I want to use all the information I've gathered to create something of my own. The jazz/pop mix at WQCD features talented artists who take something of their own and make something else out of it. Plus, I like to hear anything new that I'm not expecting.

"When I hear one of my own recordings on the radio, it's really thrilling. It's very good for the heart of any musician when that happens. When music stirs the heart, that's a blessing. Music gives me life and energy and purpose."

Reaching The Alienated Adult Music Buyer

□ Hear Music stores 'empower' older consumers, giving them 'direct experience' with music

Boston-based Hear Music has developed a unique retail style based on an innovative relationship with its adult music customers.

President Don MacKinnon, 27, co-founded the company with two partners in June, 1990. He based it on an idea conceived by Kevin Sheehan, whose Harvard Business School project investigated why it was so difficult for adults to buy music outside the boundaries of the Top 40.

"The entire industry had been built around Top 40 radio creating a pattern of behavior in 17-year-old kids of hearing some hit and running down to the record store knowing what they want," MacKinnon observes. "But once they [mature] and want to explore other genres like jazz, blues, folk, world, and classical, [consumers are] at a loss because record stores [traditionally stock] what is played on radio."

Hear Music began as a catalog-only service. The Hear Music staff wrote the book's music comments, because, according to MacKinnon, "We decided to go directly to these adults and try to help them learn about music in a way they would like. My favorite way to learn about music is through an honest, personal recommendation." Still, as he says, "We were asking people to buy without hearing the music first."

The Walls Go Up

The first Hear Music retail store opened in Berkeley in fall 1992. "The store was our opportunity to create a three-dimensional version of the catalog," MacKinnon explains. More outlets followed, opening in Palo Alto, Santa Monica, Michigan, Chicago, and two in Connecticut. Kiosks are also on the Hear Music agenda, scheduled to debut this fall after an experimental run in Boston.

"Our customers are 25-50, with the core in the 30-45 range," explains MacKinnon. We're going after the person who bought their CD player three or four years ago and went out and rebought 15 albums on CD that had been favorites on LP. Over the next few months they rebuy a few more, but then they're stumped. At regular record stores, all the music is just alphabetized. And the material that's being featured isn't geared to adults."

Raw Information

"This person has bought a couple of CDs like 'Sleepless In Seattle' and other adult phenom records that are the only ones that happened

66

What we've done is give the customer a completely direct experience of the music, the way you'd hear it in your house.

-Don MacKinnon

to get through," says MacKinnon. "But they're driving around listening to NPR, hearing [host] Terry Gross interview Dr. John. They write his name on a little piece of paper. They are smart and sophisticated and lifelong music lovers, but they've been completely alienated from the music buying process. That's our customer.

"Our stores really empower people. What we've done is give the customer a completely direct experience of the music, the way you'd hear it in your house. At the touch of a button, you can hear any of 600 titles. And then there's a listening bar that looks like a sushi bar, which allows you to bring up any CD, along with lots of pertinent artist/composer/producer information. People who want to expand their musical boundaries beyond Mariah Carey can walk into our store and in a very non-intimidating way shop with their ears and decide what they like.

"We stock great music that we love, and we write [something descriptive] about every title, right there under the CD. Plus, you can throw on a set of headphones and track all the way through the music. This has taken the whole hype aspect out of music buying. It no longer matters whether anyone has played the music on the radio or appeared on 'Letterman' or in a magazine. Our top sellers are ones that, literally, have no national distribution.

"The music business is a $9 billion industry that's focused around kids on allowance. Everyone says we are a niche company going after adults, but they don't know what they're talking about. Not enough people are buying Pat Metheny, because to the people I'm describing, he's just under 'M' in Tower. We're trying to create a comfortable place where Pat Metheny is contextualized for them. Who is Pat Metheny? Where does he come from, and what is his relationship to rock 'n' roll and to jazz? For that matter, what does 'fusion' mean? These are real questions to which people do not want condescending answers. They want answers that allow them to understand the music."
