Dear Mr. Clark:

As our emotions wind down from the beautiful celebrations of the First National Martin Luther King Holiday, we must now return to the real world where prejudice persists. Harsh realities demand that we as blacks must continue on in our struggle for respect.

I have specific reference to events surrounding your upcoming 13th Annual American Music Awards, originating from the Shrine Auditorium here in Los Angeles and airing on national television this Monday.

Neither I nor any member of the staff of Black Radio Exclusive will be present. Why? Simply because it is obviously necessary for me to introduce you to BRE, although your public relations firm of record, The Shefrin Company, has some idea - although an obviously distorted one - of who we are.

In its decision to exclude BRE from even the distribution of publicity materials regarding the Awards show, let alone press credentials, Shefrin chose to ignore - or did not bother to pursue - the following facts about this publication.

BLACK RADIO EXCLUSIVE is the only full-service black radio music trade magazine in the world. It is distributed nationally and has subscribers in nine countries outside the continental U.S.A. We research over 200 black/urban radio stations and record retailers weekly by telephone.

BLACK RADIO EXCLUSIVE is celebrating its tenth year in publishing this year. During this time, we have not missed a single scheduled issue and continue to provide specialized industry coverage. We are not and have never been a tip sheet or a giveaway. Our subscribers - who include a targeted audience of radio and music industry professionals - pay $125 per year and our newsstand price is $2.75.

You see, Mr. Clark, we have indeed graduated from the ranks of those ubiquitous entertainment industry publications - born of glitter, but devoid of substance and longevity.

In closing, I'm sure that you will agree that whatever your criteria for awarding AMA press credentials, we certainly must exceed them tenfold. Unless there is an unwritten one.

Regards,

Sidney Miller

VANDROSS VICTIMIZED BY SENSATIONALISM

LUTHER VANDROSS

It is most unfortunate that the news media's profit motivation feeds on the public's need for sensationalism. One recent victim of such exploitation by the press was singer Luther Vandross, who has been a frequent media target.

In the wake of the tragic automobile accident which occurred here in Los Angeles and took the life of his friend, Luther had to further endure biased, gossipy coverage. It all but ignored the fact that the tragic collision was, from all indications, an unavoidable accident precipitated by dangerous road conditions.

Having lived on Laurel Canyon Boulevard, I am keenly aware of what that stretch of road is like. But the media chose not to publicize the fact that in recent weeks, there have been at least eight accidents in that same spot.

Imagine trying to negotiate a section with steep, downhill curves and overhanging olive trees which create yet another problem: olive oil which renders the pavement dangerously slick. Under those treacherous conditions, even Mario Andretti - or our own Willy T. Ribbs - would be in trouble.

So when we allow ourselves to be blinded by the glare of sensational headlines, we cater to our own worst instincts at the expense of a public figure's private tragedies. Get well soon, Luther. We miss you!

GOLDEN VOICE
AWARDS SALUTE
BLACK RADIO

ED CASTLEBERRY

BRE takes special pride in saluting the six distinguished black radio professionals slated for induction into the Black Broadcasters Hall of Fame by the Atlanta-based Academy of Professional Broadcasters, Inc.

The inductees are veteran anchor for the National Black Network News Ed Castleberry; black radio pioneer and publisher Jack "The Rapper" Gibson; and Ed Cook, a Chicago resident and radio trailblazer. Slated for posthumous induction are Ken Knight, Ray McIver and Larry Dean Faulkner.

They will be honored April 19th in Atlanta during the ceremonies of the 1986 Golden Voice Awards, a program designed to honor America's black radio stations and personalities.

According to Marie Bostic, executive director of the Academy, the Golden Voice Awards will feature "20 categories of competition ranging from 'Station of the Year' to 'Best Male and Female Announcer.'"

All 400 black radio stations and their personnel are eligible to compete and have been invited to participate. Thus far, at least 75 stations, representing 25 states, have agreed to compete for recognition.

Paul E. X. Brown, the organization's Advisory Board Chairman, said that Castleberry and Gibson were chosen for the Hall of Fame because "they were not only pioneers, but they have managed to survive over the years and help develop the careers of many others along the way."

We heartily concur and congratulate the inductees, as well as the Academy of Professional Broadcasters. See you in April!

GRAMMY NOMINATIONS
SPOTLIGHT
BLACK ARTISTS

WHITNEY HOUSTON

Los Angeles: Black recording artists made an impressive showing in the 28th Annual Grammy Awards derby. Tina Turner received five nominations in various pop categories and newcomer Whitney Houston's debut LP will compete for Album of the Year.

Song of the Year finalists include "We Are The World" by Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie. Stevie Wonder will vie for a Best Pop Vocal Performance, Male award on the strength of his top-selling "Part-Time Lover"; Philip Bailey (and Phil Collins) earned a nomination for Best Pop Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocals. Bailey also competes with Al Jarreau, Stevie Wonder, Luther Vandross and Freddie Jackson for Best R&B Vocal Solo Performance, Male.

Nominees for Best R&B Vocal Performance were Sly Dunbar and Robbie Shakespeare, Five Star and Ernie Watts. Best R&B Song nominations include "Freeway of Love" written by Narada Michael Walden, "Nightshift" co-written by Walter Orange and "You Give Good Love" by LaLa.

Top jazz nominees included Wayne Shorter, Stanley Jordan Group and Miles Davis for Best Jazz Fusion Performance; Cleo Laine for Best Jazz Vocal Performance by a Female; and for Best Jazz Vocal Performance, Male, the nominees included Jon Hendricks, Bobbie McFerrin and George Benson. Nominated for Best Vocal Performance, Duo or Group were Sarah Vaughn (with Barry Manilow) and Jon Hendricks (with the Manhattan Transfer).

Instrumental soloist nominees include Wynton Marsalis, Miles Davis, Stanley Jordan, James Moody and Dizzy Gillespie. Nominated in the Best Jazz Instrumental Performance, Group category were Wynton Marsalis Group, Blue Note All-Stars and the Keith Jarrett Group. Lionel Hampton earned a nod in the big band category.

In the aftermath of the nominations, Arista Records president Clive Davis vigorously protested singer Whitney Houston's disqualification as a nominee for Best New Artist (a category that included Sade and Freddie Jackson). Houston is out due to duets she recorded with Jermaine Jackson and Teddy Pendergrass last year which, according to National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS) officials, established her as "an identifiable artist in her own right" prior to the release of her debut album.

Though missing out in that category, Houston received, in addition to her inclusion in the Album of the Year category, a nomination for Best Pop Vocal Performance, Female in which she competes with Madonna, Tina Turner and Pat Benatar. She also vies with labelmate Aretha Franklin, Chaka Khan, Teena Marie and Patti LaBelle for Best R&B Vocal Solo Performance, Female. Nominees for Best Reggae Recording, a category added last year through efforts initiated by BRE publisher Sidney Miller, include the LPs Cliff Hanger by Jimmy Cliff, Resistance by Burning Spear and Play the Game Right, the debut recording by the Melody Makers, Bob Marley's heirs.

An analysis of label representation in the Grammy nominations reveals that RCA and A&M, and Associated Labels, including Arista, led the field of record distribution organizations. Its total of 69 nominations included 34 for RCA, 12 for Arista, and two for RCA/Columbia Home Video. These 48 were augmented by 17 for A&M and four for the Erato label, both of which are RCA-distributed.

MELBA MOORE TO SHOW HER ACTING TALENTS IN NEW CBS-TV SITCOM NAMED 'MELBA'

by Michael Martinez

Television audiences will finally get a steady dose of Melba Moore's acting talent, when the versatile performer and recent Grammy Award nominee's sitcom, "Melba," debuts on CBS-TV Jan. 28 at 8 p.m.

Produced by Columbia Pictures Television in conjunction with Saul Ilson

Prods., "Melba" is the story of recently-divorced Melba Patterson, now a single parent with a nine-year-old daughter (played by Jamila Perry), living with Melba's mother, Rose (Barbara Meek), in a New York City apartment.

Into the wholesome situation comes Susan Slater (played by Gracie Harrison), who Mother Rose, having worked for Susan's father as a domestic, raised from the time Susan's mother had died at three.

Melba, black, and Susan, white, were raised as sisters and consider themselves kin. This makes for some laughable situations in this half-hour show.

Melba's works as Deputy Commissioner of the Manhattan Visitors Center, and her dealings with her employees, Jack, played by veteran TV comedian Lou Jacobi, and Gil, played by Gil Mirand, can keep you in stitches.

In the first two episodes, it is apparent that, at least for now, Moore is playing straight woman to the daffy humour of Harrison, Jacobi and Mirand.

As Susan, Harrison has already developed the character into a daft man-chaser who plays a foil to Melba's inhibitions.

In the season's second episode, when Susan and Melba go to spy on Melba's ex-husband's new girlfriend at the travel agency where she works, Susan tells her that she's looking for a singles getaway with "fun, sun, writhing and romping."

The show has been given a six week commitment by the CBS-TV network, a commitment which will slightly detract - time-wise - from Moore's other endeavors. Her late-night show "Melba Moore's Collection of Love Songs," the recording of her new LP and plans for a tour have been put on hold so that she may plunge into the rigor of taping a weekly series.

The New York-native is not new to TV or acting. She has stage credits such as "Hair," "Timbuktu?" and "Purlie," for which she won a Tony.

She has also been seen on TV in the film "Ellis Island" and on a segment of "Hotel."

Riding a crest of popularity, Moore was recently nominated for best rock performance/female for her seventh LP, the Capitol Records release, Read My Lips.

VID NOTES: Bill Parker

Prods. never rests as Parker returned from New York City, where he shot the video to Stevie Wonder's "Part Time Lover," to shoot the footage for the clip to RCA recording artist Evelyn "Champagne" King's "Personal Touch."

Parker's piece centers on King's stage performance which was filmed at the Ebony Showcase Theatre.

Parker directed and Karolyn Ali produced.

The Parker gang is also working on the latest Wonder single, "Go Home," a clip which employs intrigue and byzantine maneuvering.

It was indeed a tricky shoot, as Wonder's management requested that the clip be shot without his presence.

He did show up in the third day of shooting and portrayed a streetwise narrator.

Art Evans, who was an Oscar-nominated actor in "A Soldier's Story," played a detective in the clip; Priscilla Harris and Charles Hayward acted the parts of separated lovers; and Herbie Hancock, on the set just for a visit, was put to work in a cameo.

Parker directed and Ali produced with Peter Allen.

Station Break

HORATIO HANDY, STATION MANAGER, KUCB/LAFAYETTE, LA: MAKING BIG NOISE IN A MEDIUM MARKET

by Michael Martinez

KUCB is the little station that could. It is the number two station in the two-city market of Lafayette (where the station is located) and St. Martinville, LA, containing 16 other stations, many of them FMers.

But the three-year-old radio station has posted a 16.1 market share in the most recent ARBitron rating and has built an identity in the brief period of existence that epitomizes the crossover capabilities of urban radio.

Horatio Handy, station manager at KUCB since it went on the air on a new frequency in 1982, is not shy when telling a reporter that he has indeed played a key role in the station's success.

Handy has never wanted for confidence, even though he had never held such a lofty administrative position at a radio station prior to his current position.

"I had confidence in myself," he told BRE recently, adding, "I knew I wanted to get to an administrative level."

"It's been my desire since I first walked into that studio as a high schooler to do a student show," he added.

Handy has gone from a background as on-air personality and as a versatile technician to his current post, where he says the station has been successful mixing audiences, music and promotions.

"We call ourselves an urban contemporary station so that the advertising agencies will have an idea that we attract a cross-over audience," Handy explained.

He added that despite the effort to exude a more mainstream format, "there is heavy emphasis on personalities here and we also do quite a few promotions."

Handy is quick to explain, however, that the promotions are not of the "album and ticket giveaway" variety.

"We do a great deal of community oriented promotions," he said. "We hid 500 colored Easter eggs in a park and had kids come to the park to find them."

Handy said that the station often runs promotions in "neutral" areas of the city "so our white listeners will not be afraid to come out and support the station."

He said KUCB gave away more than 100 turkeys to more than 100 families so that they might enjoy a traditional Christmas dinner. In addition, the station had parents bring their children to the station, located in downtown Lafayette, to receive toys for the Yule holiday.

He said that the station's substantial commitment to the community is a major reason for its success, along with KUCB's music mix.

Although he explained that the station is currently in the market for a program/music director, he said that his philosophy of mixing music from the national scene with music exhibiting the local heritage is continued in the absence of a PD.

"Part of the music is programmed from national sources," Handy said, continuing, "and there is also music from the local heritage - zydeco music."

The zydeco proponent, Clifton Chenier, was feted by the station upon receiving a Grammy Award.

"We presented Chenier's wife and family with a special plaque at a ceremony downtown and also presented plaques to other musicians who are visible in zydeco music," Handy recalled.

Handy is steeped in that heritage, having his upbringing in Crowley, LA to thank for it.

He has worked in various technical broadcasting jobs, including simultaneous stints at KALO-FM and KFDM-TV where he served as a production director and a sound engineer, respectively.

Handy said that after he retires ("maybe in 10 years"), he would like to start his own TV commercial production company and to learn the intricacies of computer graphics.

A&M UPS GARBER TO NEW R&B MARKETING POST

Hollywood: Gil Friesen, President of A&M Records, announces the appointment of Jesus Garber to the newly created position of Director of Black Music Marketing.

In his new capacity, Garber will coordinate the marketing plans for A&M's Urban and Dance formatted artists. He will be responsible for the advertising, merchandising and overall artist development of the label's black roster, while working under the auspices of A&M's VP of Marketing Services, Bob Reitman.

Garber will also continue to carry out his duties as R&B West Coast Promotion Director and to report to Step Johnson, VP of Promotion at A&M. New albums from Janet Jackson, Vesta Williams, Michael Jonzun and Jeffrey Osborne will be Garber's initial priorities.

Before joining A&M last May, Garber had been the Western Regional Promotion Manager at Motown Records for five years.

"HANDS ACROSS AMERICA" PLANS ANNOUNCED

Los Angeles: Ken Krage, Project Organizer of the "Hands Across America" project, announced plans during a press conference at Le Bel Age Hotel to raise a projected $50-100 million to combat domestic hunger and homelessness. Before a packed room of celebrities and the news media, Krage acknowledged the millions raised by his USA for Africa project to aid Ethiopia's famine victims, but added, "this project represents America for Americans."

The conference focused on promotional activities and the logistical framework for the 4,000 mile coast-to-coast line in which an estimated 10 million people will join hands on Sunday, May 25 (for 20 minutes at noon, Pacific time.)

The Hands Across America route will stretch across 16 states and the District of Columbia, with participants contributing a minimum of $10 to join the line.

Krage publicly thanked Prince for acting as a sponsor of the project in donating $13,200 to cover the first mile; the money will ensure that people who are financially unable to make a contribution will be able to participate.

Speaking on Prince's behalf, Wendy Melvoin of the Revolution simply announced that Prince's contribution stemmed from his belief that "hunger affects us all."

During the two-hour conference, Krage said, "The media is our partner in making this a success. When all of radio played 'We Are the World' simultaneously, it became a movement." He also cited Sidney Miller, Jack "The Rapper" Gibson, and Bob Johnson (BET) as having conceived a similar program - "Feed the Hungry/USA" - to fight hunger and homelessness in America.

After the conference, several of the celebrities present commented on their involvement with "Hands Across America." Actress Sheryl Lee Ralph told BRE: "It's wonderful to do what we can to help people abroad, but it's also important that we lend a hand here. For my own conscience, I had to get involved."

CUE NOTES

The Atlanta airwaves are really heating up with the newest addition to the urban radio scene, WEKS AM & FM a/k/a "the new KISS 104 and 1080 AM." The new stations made no secret of their desire to take on market leader WVEE-FM (V-103).

Debuting his stations with a "polished urban contemporary format," General Manager LEE ZAPIS made his presence known to V-103 by sending a gift of crushed party hats and one-half of a cake with a card which read, "The party's over!" On the second day, the other half of the cake arrived bearing the inscription "...From Your Friends at WEKS." Set to program the aggressive new outlet is MITCH FAULKNER, formerly with V-103, who commented that he was having "big fun" going after the nine-year institution and added that he would be doing some things musically, particularly in the area of research, that may be considered "unorthodox." Air talent includes MARI SOMMERS, middays; KEITH EUBANKS, afternoons; TONY SCOTT, evenings; RAY HARRIS and LAVERNE KELSEY overnights. FAULKNER will double as morning man.

Of course, with Atlanta's other urban-formatted newcomer, WBUS-FM and the "old guard" stations WIGO and WVEE, it would seem that the party's just begun!

Another more conventional celebration is slated by WPDQ in Jacksonville, FL when it marks its 13th anniversary with a Testimonial Roast for longtime WPDQ General Manager and 27-year broadcaster WILLIE MARTIN on Friday, January 31st. For more info, Contact Lynn Hampton at 904/642-1055. The legendary E. RODNEY JONES, now at WTKL/Baton Rouge, will also handle Asst. PD chores in addition to his popular midday blues-oriented set.

Condolences to MAX ROBERTSON, PD at WIZZ-FM, whose mother passed recently.

PROMOTIONS

KRE 1400 AM/Berkeley recently held a promotion in which the grand prize was $1400 in cash. After hearing their names called on the air, listeners with the station's bumper stickers on their cars had 1400 seconds (approx. 22 mins.) to call up to claim $140 in cash. This qualified them for the grand prize of $1400.

YARBROUGH & PEOPLES

"GUILTY" OF ANOTHER HIT

By Connie Johnson

The music business rarely comes any closer than this to an "overnight success" story: Calvin Yarbrough and Alisa Peoples, young ex-gospel singers from Dallas, TX, had been eking out a living playing small, local nightclubs. Yarbrough's friend for several years, R&B/Pop singer Goodie, had already nabbed himself a contract with fledgling L.A.-based Total Experience Records. It was through him (and his labelmates, The Gap Band, who "discovered" the duo at a Dallas nitery) that Yarbrough & Peoples were brought to the attention of Lonnie Simmons.

"After that," said Yarbrough, modestly, "things started to happen fast."

The year was 1979 when Simmons brought them to Los Angeles. Two years later, the pair's debut LP, The Two Of Us, went gold, thanks to the appeal of one cut, "Don't Stop the Music," a catchy bit of techno-funk that highlighted Yarbrough's spacy, Stevie Wonder-ish vocals.

"It's a challenge to try to live up to that record," said Peoples. "We were blessed to have had a debut hit so strong. We're just striving to do that well again."

They're again confident that they've succeeded with a fourth LP, Guilty, a polished, nine-song package that runs the gamut from urban-Texas funk ("Who Is She") to stylish, sophistipop ("Wrapped Around Your Finger," "Everything," and the title cut.)

"Calvin really loves 'I'll Give Anything To Have You Back,'" Peoples added. "At home, he plays it every morning."

Prior to signing with Total Experience, they had sent demo tapes to "a few record companies on the East Coast," Yarbrough recalled. "But they all wanted to break up the team. They weren't interested in a boy/girl act. We're thankful that we met Lonnie Simmons. He's the only one who appreciated us as a duo."

What are Yarbrough & Peoples capable of as a team that they couldn't accomplish as solo artists?

"Objectivity," Yarbrough said. "We bring out the best in each other."

"We understand each other," Peoples explained. "We know how far we can go without stretching beyond our limitations."

That understanding stems from a friendship that goes all the way back to the pair's pre-school days. As children, they even went to the same piano teacher: "We used to perform for our families at home," said Peoples. "Everybody would gather around the piano and we'd sing gospel, praise the Lord and just have a good time."

As they grew up, the two sang together in the church choir. Upon graduating from high school, they briefly went their separate ways when Yarbrough attended Dallas' North Lake College while Peoples enrolled at Bishop College.

Ask her what she enjoys most about their professional/personal relationship and Peoples sums it up simply: "The unity."

Go on to ask them why they haven't done more live performing in their seven-year history as a recording act, and you'll get a lengthier reply from Yarbrough: "That's something we've been asking, too! We have had successful European tours, and we plan to do more touring in the U.S. on this album. But agencies have looked at our past albums and they could never figure out who to book us with. Jeffrey Osborne? Atlantic Starr?"

"It shouldn't have been a problem, but live performances... that's an untapped area for us," he said.

"We haven't had the visi-

CITY HALL RECORD BOOSTS HOT PRODUCT FOR 1986

by Michael Martinez

San Rafael, CA-based City Hall Records, the distributor of several small indie labels, is getting busy in 1986 with several new releases.

Most of the product is of the street rap variety and features names largely unknown on the national scene. But you just can't resist talking about some of these artists and the titles of their music.

Hitman Howie and Kangol Kid have produced the debut release for Whistle, titled "Buggin'."

Tuff City/Smokin' Records, "the New York gangster of rap labels," according to City Hall, is coming with a few new releases, including "Mighty Mike C (prez of the Fearless Four) with 'I'm Stupid Fresh.'" Also coming from the company is "Put That Head Out" by Funkmaster Wizard Wiz. "Put That Head Out" is supposed to be Bronx slang for "beat the **** out of him!"

Tuff City is also re-releasing Spoonie Gee's "Get Off My Tip." We'll let you figure that one out.

Also in the works is a scratch compilation LP of unreleased material by Davy DMX, A.J. Scratch, Marley Marl, O.C. & Krazy Eddie and others. It will be titled "Smokin' Beats."

From the Fresh label is "Succe$$ Is The Word" by 12:41 and "All And All" by Joyce Sims.

Now here's one that you've got to hear to believe. MC A.D.E. has come out of the box with "Bass Rock Express" on 4-Sight Records, which is described as a cross between the theme from the defunct sitcom "Green Acres" and German rock group Kraftwerk's "TransEurope Express."

From Pop Art Records and the Glamorous Girls comes "Oh Veronica," a rap in the style of Shante. Roxanne Shante is getting air with her new 12" single "Def Fresh Crew."

With names and song titles like some of those mentioned above, how can a DJ not feel compelled to spin those records out of curiosity?

Much thanks to City Hall's Walt and "Wax To Watch" tip sheet.

Muscle Shoals Sound Studio and label have been acquired by Malaco Music, Inc.

New Los Angeles-based label the Rose Brothers will release a self-titled debut as first Muscle Shoals Sound product to be distributed by Malaco.

The Brothers' single, "I Wanna Do You," has been airing heavily at many stations in secondary markets around the country.

Malaco is also high on the success of Johnny Taylor's cut "Wall To Wall," which is gaining airplay at many major and secondary market stations throughout the country.

Force M.D.'s "Tender Love," a throbbing ballad, has been fueling the promotion of the group's Tommy Boy Records LP, "Chillin'."

The single, produced by former Time members Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis, was also used as the love theme in the Michael Shultz film "Krush Groove."

The 12" version of the tune features additional vocal dubbing and also has been re-edited to extend the vocals.

The remix was done by Robin Halpin and Eric Calvi.

FISHBONE
PARTY AT GROUND ZERO
COLUMBIA 44-05326

One of the hottest groups to emerge from L.A. lately, Fishbone proves beyond all doubt that their brand of inspired soul-ska is infectious enough for formats from Black/Urban to New Music. This special remix from Black Uhuru's "Dub Factor" engineer Francois Kevorkian is the most refreshing dance mix we've heard in some time, combining state of the art edit techniques with Fishbone's wild-style funk. Demos: Dancers, teens, young adults.

DURELL COLEMAN
DO YOU LOVE ME

ISLAND PR-814

Star Search dream child Coleman lays down a mid-tempo groove with a danceable beat and funk oriented bass work. The real stand out, as always, is Durell's smooth vocal style, here asking the eternal question of love. Demos: Young adults, females.

AUDREY WHEELER
YOUR LOVE IS SERIOUS
PRELUDE PRL-D696AS

Here's something that's made to dance to; Audrey comes off with a mature, sultry sound in the tradition of the best disco divas. Edgy drum and percussion programming give it an energetic feel amidst the synth rifting and mid tempo beat. Demos: Dancers, young adults.

ROY AYERS
HOT
COLUMBIA 44-05330

Roy's last release "Slip 'N Slide," while charting high on black formats, didn't get all the attention that it deserved. His association with Mtume, who penned and produced this cut, is resulting in some exciting material, "Hot" being no exception. If you can't move to this one, with it's Clintonesque feel and clean production quality, you can't move at all! Demos: Young adults, dancers.

E.T. (EDDIE TOMMS)
BEST FRIENDS

TOTAL EXPERIENCE TED 1-2631
E.T. himself produced, wrote, arranged, and performed this cut with plenty of percussion and big beat drum programming to hold the rhythm down. The general ambience is one of post-

Minneapolis divergence. Demos: Dancers.

GLENN JONES
TALK ME INTO IT
RCA JR 14280

Produced by Hawk Walinski, and garnered from the soundtrack to the film "Youngblood," this cut features Glenn's vocals along with a distinct rock and roll influence. The upbeat tempo and strongly danceable direction of the song give it multi-format possibilities. Demos: Expanded young adults, dancers.

TRILOGY
CELLULOID 80808

Celluloid has been a ground breaking force in the blending of diverse musical styles from across the world. Operating from bases in N.Y. and Paris, the label has its finger on the pulse of the hip-hop and break

Chicago radio did its part to honor Dr. King. All of the stations, with the exception of WGCI, ran excerpts from Dr. King's speeches and comments on the life of King by those who knew him. WGCI went ten steps further, purchasing syndicated programs narrated by Lee Bailey and Brock Peters. The two programs, both works of art, followed King's life from Montgomery to Memphis. With popular songs relating to the struggle, and narration by those who participated in the marches and strategies that led to the fall of segregation and the right to vote, the programs were so vivid that it seemed as if the events were taking place as you listened.

(Couldn't these tapes be used as a teaching tool for black history? They should be a must in schools, where students could learn much from the well researched information presented, for example, in Lee Bailey's soul-stirring narration.) While other stations were playing more music and less talk, WGCI was talking to the minds and hearts of Chicago - especially those who were not yet born or too young to remember the strife and struggle. Congratulations to Marv Dyson, GM; Lee Michaels, PD, and Richard Pegue, OM for their commitment to the community they serve.

"BEAR" With Me...

For those who live in Boston and Chicago, WYLD in New Orleans is going to feed Superbowl coverage to radio stations WBMX in Chicago and WILD in Boston. Del Spencer, PD/WYLD, said his station will do all it can to make Boston and Chicago listeners feel as if they are actually there at the Superbowl. WYLD will also give away a VCR, courtesy of Red Label Records.

Graham Armstrong was feted at a gala going-away party last week. After leaving his PD position at WGCI, Graham is moving to sunny California. All of us in Chicago wish him every success out there!

scene, while simultaneously being at the forefront of an exciting new wave of popular music from west Africa. This LP has two samples of international superstar and current political detainee Fela Anikulapo Kuti's exciting genre of Afro-funk, as well as contributions from Manu Dibango and Senegalese stars Toure Kunda. Bridging the gap between the streets of the Bronx and the African continent, the group Dead-line's killer groove "Makossa Rock" has such varied talent as Bernie Worell, Jaco Pastorius, Manu Dibango, and Bill Laswell - all under one roof, the cut is intense! The style is as futuristic as it is accessible. There's much more to this three record set. D.S.T., the innovative New Music band, Golden Palominos, B-Side, with the classic femme-rap "Change The Beat," and the riveting electro-rhythms of Time Zone's "Wildstyle" all do their part in making this a must have compilation. Demos: Dancers, young adults.

bility we'd like," Peoples admitted. "We've done TV appearances, but we've never done enough touring. But that's all changing. We're on a straight path now, and we can see where we're going."

Back in the early years of their recording career, one writer referred to the duo as "lambs in a wolves' world." That description no longer applies, according to Yarbrough.

"We were pretty naive at one time," he said, frankly, "but we're not anymore. We're humble, and that's an image that even comes across in our music."

"As artists, we've matured," Peoples noted. "It's like, we're not into the formula anymore. We're on cereal and solid food."

"Whaaat...?" Yarbrough asked, incredulously.

"She's a woman," said Peoples, referring to their interviewer. "She knows what I'm talking about."

In discussing their peers in the music industry, Yarbrough mentioned several of his favorites. "I'm still into the legends: Stevie Wonder, Gladys Knight, Dionne Warwick. And Aretha drives me crazy! To be in that legends category, hopefully, we'll be there someday."

In the meantime, they have their fingers crossed that Guilty will earn the crossover airplay that they believe it has the potential to receive. "Still, we'll always be grateful to black radio for supporting us," Peoples was quick to add. "And we want to thank them..."

"For loving us, whether we had a hit record or not," Yarbrough said.

ARIES

In your clash with another fire sign, reconsider your position in order to harmonize again. You are capable of some self-criticism, too.

It's #1 on our chart."
