Modern/Top 40 Truce Makes Yuletide Concert Wars A Little Easier For Labels

by Kevin Carter and Marc Schiffman

When we visited the volatile subject of Christmas concerts last year, label reps were huddled behind sandbags, fielding high-pressure phone calls from top 40 and modern rock PDs wrestling for the same acts for shows.

This year, modern and top 40 are no longer engaged in a steel-cage death match for the same acts. And some stations have opted out of the holiday headaches altogether. which should, theoretically, eliminate some of the conflicts.

Despite this, while a few PDs and label reps say those factors have made the Christmas concert issue a little easier, others say the situation hasn't improved at all. And some labels are still sending their roster abroad until January to avoid a nowin situation.

While modern's influence has hardly evaporated at top 40, last week's Airplay Monitor look at the formats that charted records first showed about half the number of mainstream top 40 records starting at modern as started there six months ago. And with modern and top 40 both looking for records they can own, many of the shared acts are likely to be those that broke some time ago and are now well bevond the station-concert level.

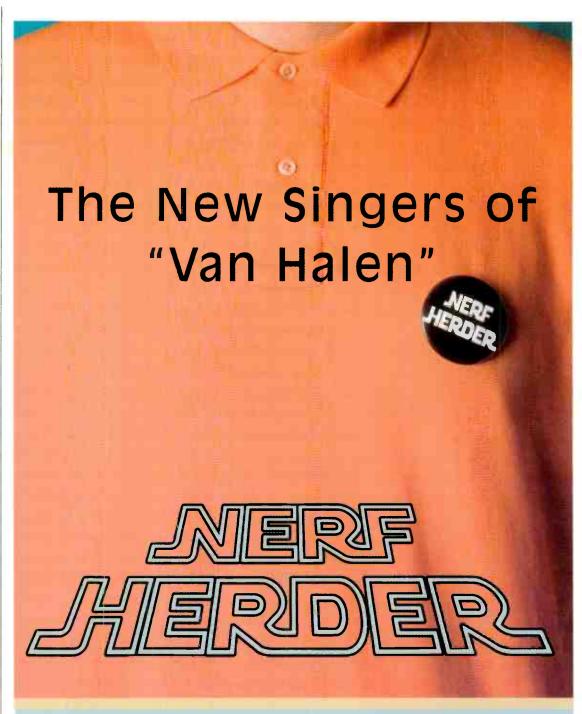

Elektra senior VP Greg Thompson and Island Records senior VP of promotion Joe Riccitelli say the top 40 modern gap has given them more room to maneuver. Riccitelli has such artists as Susanna Hoffs touring at top 40 outlets and Tracy Bonham for some modern Christmas dates. Each is an artist who might have had support from both formats a year ago.

'Tracy has already sold over 350,000 records, and these holiday shows are a great vehicle to help break her third single." Riccitelli says. He's planning on "micromar-keting" his artists in the cities where they're doing Christmas shows. "We want to make sure that the singles are on sale in those markets, and we might come in behind the shows and do some time buys," he says.

Atlantic Records executive VP of promotion Andrea Ganis also recognizes the evolving nature of artists' images. "Last year. Jewel was rooted more in alternative, and she paid her dues by doing a lot of shows in that format, but this year, she's expanded her base into pop.' This year, while Atlantic has Jewel playing top 40 stations such as WXKS (Kiss 108) Boston, it is just as careful to place her in high-profile modern Christmas gigs at KROQ Los Angeles and WHFS Washington, D.C.

"I still want modern rock to want her," Ganis stresses "I don't want to close that door to her, because her roots are firmly entrenched in modern rock and college radio.

Airplay Monitor publisher Michael Ellis has resigned to join newly formed Sony joint ven-ture Crave Records as VP of A&R. He will continue as publisher through Dec. 31; a search is under way for his replacement.

"He guided Billboard through the dual conversion to BDS and SoundScan information and was one of the founding fathers of the Airplay Monitor. He will be missed greatly."

Commercial Stations Crack The 10,000 Mark

As one sign of radio's relative good health, the number of operating commercial stations in America cracked 10,000 for the first time ever in November, according to the Airplay Monitor/M Street Format Monitor. Individually, it was classic rock and triple-A that continued to grow, while country and AC continued to lose stations. Top 40's building boom ended after several months; R&B was also off.

Country had a net loss of two stations, less than the eight it lost last month and less than the three top 40 lost. Top 40, in recent months, had been adding enough large-market outlets to keep growing, despite the ongoing loss of some smaller-market stations. Last month, it didn't. Neither did AC, which was down sharply again,

Adult standards keeps adding stations, cracking the 500 mark for the first time. Classic rock outlets, which were flat last month, added H stations. Modern rock added a few Triple-A was up by five stations for the second month in a row, thanks to the new adult modern outlets.

A Look At First-Quarter '97 Music

What's ahead in the first quarter of 1997? How about the returns of Aerosmith, Offspring, and U2; third sets by Live and Collective Soul; and the sophomore effort by Silverchair.

U2 is finishing its first album in 3½ years, with Howie B. and Flood producing. Release dates for the as-yet-untitled set keep changing, but the single "Discotheque" should be released Jan. 15. Aerosmith reunites next year with its original label for its first Columbia set since '82. Recording for the set, also untitled, began in Miami this year with producer Glen Ballard but shifted to New York with Kevin Shirley, who produced Silverchair's debut and the latest Journey album. The 14-song album is slated for mid-March release. Live returns Feb. 18 with "Secret Samadhi," which is a yoga term for spiritual realization. Recording was helmed by Live and Jay Healy, who produced the demos that got the band signed in '91. The set contains 12 songs; the first single, "Lakini's Juice," is an intense slow-burner named after the Hindu goddess of destruction, dropping Jan. 13.

Collective Soul releases "Disciplined Breakdown" March 4. Band leader Ed Roland teamed once again with Matt Sereletic to co-produce the set, which was recorded at Roland's home in Atlanta. Look for a possible national satellite broadcast of the album. Meanwhile, Silverchair is set to release "Freak Show" in February. Produced by Nick Launay (Posies, Killing Joke, Midnight Oil), the album contains 13 songs recorded over a three-week stint in Sydney. Cover art is a famous painting of an abnormal-looking "lobster boy." The title and artwork stem from the teenaged band members' world-tour experiences and the similarities they noted between the spectacle of rock bands coming to town and traveling carnival attractions. The first single, "Abuse Me," ships Jan. 14. Here's part one of Monitor's "new for '97" survey, organized by distributor. All dates are tentative:

WEA

American: Brooklyn, N.Y.-based Crown Heights' debut "More Pricks Than Kicks" drops March 11, with the first single, "Foxy Loser," scheduled for release in February. The most recent edition of the Jayhawks, minus Mark Olsen, have recorded an album; members are deliberating the use

Atlantic: Seven Mary Three's "Rock Crown" drops Jan. 18. The 17-track set is produced by band members Jason Ross and Jason Pollock with Tom Morris. Also up are sets by Juliana Hatfield, new Florida-based band Muse, and Tori Amos-signed Pet.

Elektra: Remixer/techno guru Moby releases his third set Feb. 11. "Animal Rights" is said to be a departure; first single, a cover of Mission Of Burma's "That's When I Reach For My Revolver," is due Jan. 27. Other releases include Odds' "Nest" Jan. 28, Bjork's "Telegram" (mostly remixes of songs from "Post") Jan. 14, and Freedy Johnston's "Never Home" Feb. 25. New signings include Thrush Hermit, with "Sweet Home Wrecker" in February, and San Francisco's Third Eve Blind.

Maverick: New California signings, Orange County's Rule 62 and Santa Barbara's Summercamp, should be out in the second quarter, along with a Love Spit Love album.

Reprise: "The Beauty Process: Triple Platinum" is the new Rob Cavallo-produced set from L7, due in late February, featuring new bass player Gail from Belly. The single "Off The Wagon" is due in January. Depeche Mode's first album (working title: "Ultra") in three years is set for April. Also due: the first solo album by Belly's Tanya Donelly and a Dinosaur Jr set. New signings include Australia's Regurgitator and L.A.-based Kara's Flowers. Second-quarter sets: Faith No More and Primal Scream.

Warner Bros.: It's believed that Howard Stern will do a rap song for the "Private Parts" soundtrack. Rob Zombie will contribute a track; ex-Jane's Addiction members Perry Farrell, Steven Perkins, and Dave Navarro with Flea may be represented as well. New signings include Boise, Idaho-based Built To Spill, following two indie sets; its "Perfect From Now On" hits Jan. 14. Seattle's Sky Cries Mary, who have released three indie records, will have "Moon Bathing On Sleeping Leaves" out Feb. 25. British techno/ravers Rockers Hifi debuts its "Mish Mash" set March 11. Cool For August, a new rock band from Atlanta, streets April 8.

EMD

Capitol: The Beastie Boys have been cutting tracks in New York with Mario Caldato, Foo Fighters are recording in Seattle, Radiohead is producing itself, and Everclear will be produced again by band leader Art Alexakis. New signings include New York's Skeleton Key, described as a percussive band with XTC-type singing, with "Fantastic Spikes Through Balloons." Follow-ups by Supergrass, Spearhead ("Chocolate Supa Highway"), Sparklehorse, and Smoking Popes are on the schedule. Matador will provide new albums from Pavement, Bettie Serveert, and Liz Phair.

EMI: New York's Morrissey Playground's self-titled debut is set for Feb. 25. Same for L.A.'s Five For Fighting, whose "Message For Albert" is the first album produced by label prez Davitt Sigerson since Tori Amos' debut. Coming Jan. 14, the "Beverly Hills Ninja" soundtrack, with covers by the Hazies ("Turning Japanese") and Patti Rothberg ("Kung Fu Fighting").
Virgin: David Bowie's "Earthling" is due Feb. 11. The set was produced by Bowie and Mark Plati and was recorded with Bowie's most recent touring lineup, including Reeves Gabrels on guitar. Single "Little Wonder" drops Jan. 20. New trios Silverjet, from Santa Barbara, and England's Sneaker Pimps plan debuts. Sneaker Pimps' single "Six Underground," remixed by Nellee Hooper, drops Feb. 4.

Columbia: Offspring's "Ixnay On The Hombre" drops Feb. 4; the single "All I Want" is due Jan. 7. New signings include Sacramento's Sweet Vine.

Epic: Debuts: Mundy, a four-piece band from Ireland; St. Louis' the Urge; five-piece L.A. band Incubus; and New York's Handsome (ex-members of Helmet, Murphy's Law, Quicksand). Brendan O'Brien produced Michael Penn's set, due in January. Shudder To Think's "50,000 B.C." (producer: Ted Nicely), featuring drummer Kevin March (Dambuilders), is due in February.

550: Ben Folds Five's major-label debut, recorded at Ben Folds' North Carolina home, is set for March. Australia's Automatic self-titled debut is due Feb. 25. A second set from For Squirrels is due in March.

Work: New releases include Protein, a power-punk trio from San Francisco; former Sub Pop band Pond, from Alaska by way of Portland, Ore.; and Clean Slate-signing Maypole, which is currently on the road with the Wallflowers. San Francisco's Dan Bern, who travels by car with a guitar and dog, has a self-titled debut. Look for Chris Whitley's third album, "Terra Incognita," in early February, while Jamiroquai releases a third set, "Travelling Without Moving," Jan. 21.

This year, Poe was more aligned with modern rock, but next year at this time, who knows?

And there are some reported instances of cooperation on acts that the formats do share. WXKS PD John Ivey is sharing concert custody of the Wallflowers with modern rival WBCŃ. "No one had any problem with sharing," he says. "WBCN has about 20 artists performing, almost none of which we share. It's the same with [crossover duopoly partner] WJMN . . . We have fairly good format separations in this market, with the exception of us and [AC] WBMX, but they're not doing a Christmas show, so there's no problem.

Oedipus, WBCN VP of programming, concurs. "In terms of what we do, it was easier this year than last year . . . [WXKS] plays some of our music, [but] I've never really dealt with much of that [political] problem here . . . There are bands that are played on top 40 that I definitely want and I have, like the Wallflowers, for instance.

WORSE THAN EVER

Atlantic VP of promotion Danny Buch hasn't noticed much difference in holiday hysteria this year. No less than seven Atlantic acts are crossing the country to appear in about 50 holiday shows in December, says Buch, adding, "I think it's worse than ever. It's completely out of hand.'

A lot of label VP commentary about Christmas shows doesn't sound much different from their take a year ago. Buch feels holiday acts have "become expected. There are certain stations who ask for an act and don't even want to support them by playing their new record. They feel they should just have the act based on what they've done for the While admitting that Christmas shows are now part of "the cost of doing business," Buch points out that no label expenses have gone away to make room for them. "You have the cost of standard promotion," he says, as well as "the increased costs of videos," such expensive new technologies as multimedia and creating artist Web sites, and "the costs of doing more and more Christmas shows. In any other business, if you start new marketing things, you eliminate old marketing things. You can't keep adding to your expenses. But [our] problem is nothing has dropped out.

Buch says that while stations see Christmas shows as a fantastic marketing tool, "in most cases, they have little or no budgets, so they expect us to pick these things up . . . You're talking over six figures in terms of expenses to handle this."

"Most stations only want established acts for their holiday shows," says Elektra's Thompson. "But they don't realize how much it actually costs a label to bring in an artist. Contrary to popular opinion, our pockets are not as deep as some programmers would like to believe."

Island's Riccitelli says, "Labels almost always get caught between a rock and a hard place at the holidays. Many stations are almost expecting a show from us, and when you expect it, you can't get the most benefit from it. It's supposed to be a give-and-take relationship, not give and give.

WHEN IN DOUBT, PACK YOUR TRUNK

Last year, many acts sent postcards from Paris rather than Peoria, Ill., for Christmas, and that pattern is being repeated this year

Riccitelli admits that when a major act like the Cranberries is in danger of becoming a political football, it's time to help them pack. 'As far back as March, when their album was released, we said, 'Let's send them to Europe in December,' " he says.

Alanis Morissette, who played a few Christmas shows last year but did primarily paid shows at smaller venues last fall, was in Korea at press time.

Then there's Universal's Merril Bainbridge, who had already done her promotional tour of the States and returned home to Australia. Because she lives in Australia, says Universal VP of promotion Monte Lipman, the label has a two-week window with her in December, thus allowing her to perform only six shows. Those shows are going to stations that planned early. WXKS 1vey added a then unknown Bainbridge in August. "John said if Merril happened to pan out, could she play his Christmas show," says Lipman. "When she did, he called in his chit. No problem." KFMB-FM San Diego and KHMX Houston will also get "limited-edition" shows.

Z100 GETS LUCKY, OTHERS GET OUT

WHTZ (Z100) New York's Dec. 6 Girls Rule the Yule show at Madison Square Garden features Bainbridge, Hoffs, Leah Andreone, Tracy Chapman, Shawn Colvin, Sheryl Crow, Jewel, Sarah McLachlan, No Doubt, and Patti Rothberg. Even though Z100 PD Tom Poleman programmed KRBE Houston last year, he's finding it easier to secure acts at Z100, a testament, he says, to the power and proximity of the station. Island's Riccitelli says, "It's great when you can tell your artist they're playing in a venue like Madison Square Garden with artists like Sheryl Crow and No Doubt. That helps create a bond with the artist.

But a lot of the stations that aren't Z100 or WBCN are out of the fray this year. WBCN's reputation for nailing down its lineup early was one of the things that kept PD Bill Glasser from doing a show at modern rival WFNX this year. "I know, since I heard that Oedipus was booking people in the summer, that it would have been difficult to try and do some thing," he says Modern WDGE Providence, R.I., PD Brent Petersen was put off by the prospect of fighting for headline talent. "There are fewer name bands to go around," he says. "So unless you're in a major market, you'll end up with a bill loaded with B- and C-level acts. If you're in a medium or small market, you can't pull the names you need to make it worthwhile . . . It's a lot of effort, a lot of time, a lot of money, a lot of people hours to spend for potentially a limited return to the station's WDGE chose to avoid the Christmas concert scene altogether in favor of a station-produced CD that features some of the new acts it has exposed on the air. It has linked the CD with a local food bank and expanded the promotion's life span beyond a one-night concert by giving away copies of the CD at promotional appearances in the market.

[.]. Quest, PD at modern WBZU Richmond, Va., agreed with the assertion by Elektra's Thompson that station concerts "usually serve to distract a radio station from its prime directive: playing the hits," when Quest decided to cancel WBZU's Christmas show. After already doing the station's annual Buzzfest and Birthday Bash, "we found ourselves jumping right back into the concert promotion business and taking our eye off the ball in the fall book," says Quest. "[We] just said, 'Why are we doing this?' The fall book is too important to be doing all the politics that it takes to put together a Christmas show.

Jim McGuinn, PD of modern WDRE Philadelphia, fears many stations overreach, trying to fill a large hall and risking everything should a headliner pull out at the last minute. McGuinn is sticking to a 3,000-seat venue. "I can still have a good little Christmas show and get enough bang promotionally on the air," he says. "With a cume of 400,000, if I have 3,000 or 12,000 at my show, what's the difference? [Winning or losing] depends on how you present it to the 390,000 people who aren't going.

ROCK GODZ

Lopez Seeks Synergy Between Rock Sisters In Eastern North Carolina

ay Lopez had more than a decade's worth of rock programming under his belt when he joined album WSFL New Bern, N.C., in March '93.

At his arrival, WSFL was "seventh or eighth in the market," Lopez says. "I realized there were a lot of problems, the morning show being a glaring issue. The music was a problem. Pretty much every element on the station needed attention . . . I had my work cut out for me, but I consider this fun. I like turnarounds, and it took a couple of years to turn it around. Fortunately, we made enough progress at the time that our owners were satisfied. In this day and age, you generally don't get very much time."

Competition at that time was sparse and clearly divided. Lopez said that while WRDU Raleigh, N.C., got into the market, "they were so different from us at the time that we knew, psychographically, that there was a profile of an want synergy between the two stations'

'We obviously

Jay Lopez Program Director WSFL/WXNR New Bern, N.C.

'RDU listener in Greenville, N.C., which was a little bit hipper. And then [for WSFL] there was the 'Three Rs': rock, racin', and rednecks. We positioned ourself to be in line with the core life group in eastern North Carolina. And we have no illusion about what that is.

Lopez saw the burgeoning John Boy and Billy network as the logical way to tap into the "Three Rs" and cure his morning-show problem at once. "That went a long way toward solidifying our position in the marketplace. they, themselves, are rednecks, and proud of it."

But Lopez's strategy isn't just to flick the syndication switch and then walk away from that daypart. "You have to work it," he says. "We fax them information. We're constantly getting them to do things for us and record things for us and talk about what's going on in eastern North Carolina . . . We want people to feel like, 'Hey, they're not really somewhere else; they're really into what's going on here."

Once he completed the ride to the market's

No. 1 rock signal, the competitive landscape started to change. Now, aside from heritage rocker WRDU, WSFL faces classic rock from WXQR, WERO, and simulcast partners WNBR/WZBR and modern from WXNR.

The musical stage of the game took its most drastic step a little more than a year ago. With WSFL comfortably ahead of the rock set in market No. 80, Beasley decided it was time to go shopping there. "They decided that it would be a very important time to conduct some research and get the lay of the land and take a good look at what's going on," says Lopez.

Lopez called the research shocking. "Some of the things that we held as truisms when we were just using our gut, we were turned around on," he says. "We looked at some artists we thought were important and said, 'Wait a minute here. We need to rethink this strategy.' We went with developing more of a rock music image, as opposed to trying to be real broad-based.

Lopez says that some of the newer artists the station played did not fit. "One of the most glaring was Alanis Morissette," he says. "We popped her on, and we thought, 'Hey, this is great. This is happening.' And it wasn't for our audience.' Same for new music from such classic acts as

The Southern rock it was playing also needed a tune-up. "We had been playing Little Feat like crazy as one of our Southern rock bands,' says Lopez, "and none of that stuff [tested]. So, there is no more Little Feat on the station. But other things like the Charlie Daniels Band tested through the roof . . . Old Bon Jovi stuff tested well. There was some old Def Leppard that tested well. I just threw Pat Benatar in for grins, [and it] tested well."

Here's a recent 5 p.m. hour on WSFL: Eagles, "Already Gone"; Romantics, "What I Like About You"; R.E.M., "Bittersweet Me"; Blue Oyster Cult, "Burning For You"; Pat Benatar, "Hit Me With Your Best Shot"; Aerosmith, "Love In An Elevator"; Dire Straits, "Sultans Of Swing"; Metallica, "Until It Sleeps"; ELO, "Do Ya"; Heart, "Kick It Out"; and Jimi Hendrix, "All Along The Watchtower."

Bringing the "new" station to the masses. Lopez says, meant spending "a lot of money on TV. We did John Boy and Billy. And then we did an imaging spot, and then we decided we were going to just take the plunge and give away cash . . . We realize that due to the competitive nature of the market, no matter what happens, we've got to do billboards, TV, and the kind of promos that will get attention.'

The competitive market also means no more 12-plus numbers in the high 9-share range. Although WSFL continues to be at the head of the rock class and is No. 3 in the market, after monolithic country and R&B outlets, it has slipped in the past year, 9.8-9.9-7.5-6.9-7.1.

Lopez calls it "a big reality check. We've all spoken about this internally . . . We'd like to get back up there, but we realize that the way things are shaping out now, it's going to be a challenge to even get back into the 8-share range. My attitude is, if I get an 8, I'm having a party."

The latest wrinkle has come in the purchase of modern competitor WXNR. That station's history is 0.7-4.4-4.6 over the past six months. Lopez is now WXNR's PD as well. "They've done well with very little resources and promotion, and they haven't put a lot of money into it at this point," he says. "One of my goals going in there is not to screw it up. I want to improve it, but I want to do it carefully, systematically, and in a positive way.

Here's a sample 5 p.m. hour on WXNR: Dave Matthews Band, "So Much To Say"; De-peche Mode, "I Feel You"; Wallflowers, "6th Avenue Heartache"; Stabbing Westward, "What Do I Have To Do?"; Green Day, "Longview"; No Doubt, "Don't Speak"; Smithereens, "A Girl Like You"; Alanis Morissette, "Head Over Feet"; Collective Soul, "The World I Know"; Bush, "Swallowed"; and Pearl Jam, "Elderly Woman Behind The Counter."

While WXNR is not right in WSFL's path, Lopez says, "we obviously want synergy between the two stations. And we know what demo 'XNR can deliver, and we know that there will still be overlap, but it's not going to be huge. We're going to always share artists, but there may be artists on either side that we'll concede. For example, 'XNR isn't playing the new John Mellencamp. And down the road, 'SFL may say, 'Well, that's an 'XNR thing' . . . my goals are to maximize both and build a 'rock wall' here all the way across the board. That's something that's not only going to be fun, but I look forward to that possibility." MARC SCHIFFMAN

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 800 detections (mainstream) or 1,100 (modern) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.
