TOP 40 TOPICS

by Sean Ross

ONE OF THE MOST gratifying aspects of KIIS Los Angeles' recent resurgence—No. 3 in the market, No. 4 in 25-54, and No. 2 in mornings—is that it shows what is still possible for a top 40 station in the '90s.

It is possible for a top 40 station to have adult numbers without apologizing for being top 40. Two years ago, KIIS went through a disastrous hot AC period that didn't solidify 25-plus but did chase away everybody else. Now PD Steve Perun plays Adina Howard in middays. He plays his powers 85 times a week, more than most churbans. And he plays "Lick It" by Roula, hardly an AC record.

It is possible to play dance and modern rock records together, provided that they're both hits. KIIS pounds "When I Come Around" and "This Is How We Do It." But KIIS is not a "Channel X" station—it veered close to that 15 months ago, after the hot AC period, when it played both extreme rock and extreme R&B records, again with disastrous results. Instead, Perun looks early for the rhythmic titles that define KIIS. And he adds everything else, whether it's Green Day or Bryan Adams, when he has to.

It is possible for top 40 to attract adults with its morning show—without changing the music—if both parties aren't at cross-purposes. During KIIS' "Channel X" period, it tried the MTV-flavored presentation that works well for WHTZ New York, but less well for the home of "Rick Dees In The Morning." KIIS has a "friendly" morning show. Now it's a friendly radio station again.

One misconception about top 40 stations that have only teen numbers is that somebody chose to ignore the adults. Top 40 is littered with the bones of stations that added too much gold, stations that became "the best hits of the '80s and '90s with no rap," stations that all but became hot ACs. Good top 40s get adults because they galvanize their markets. Bad top 40s, regardless of their music mix, have teens only because no other demo has so few choices that they'll accept anything. All of which shows that there are still stations struggling for direction where the formula is no more complicated than it ever was.

NEW THIS WEEK: KLRZ (Z100) New Orleans becomes a top 40/rhythm reporter this week, bringing that panel to 34 stations. WVTY (Variety 96) Pittsburgh becomes the 58th top 40/adult reporter.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 1500 detections (mainstream) or 600 detections (rhythm) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the charts after 26 weeks.

"Huge reaction from all demos,
#6 requests, crossing all racial lines.
Fun summer party anthem."
