

THE HOT BOX

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF NOTABLE CHART ACHIEVEMENTS

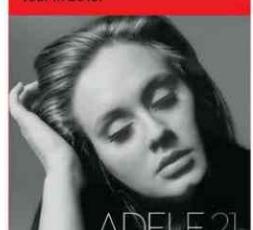

TAMELA'S TOPS

>> Tamela Mann scores her first No. 1 on Gospel Albums as Best Days tops the tally with 21,000 sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Mann has charted three times earlier, reaching No. 2 with 2009's The Master Plan.

MAC ATTACK

>> Just Tell Me That You Want Me: A Tribute to Fleetwood Mac debuts at No. 2 on Compilation Albums and No. 45 on the Billboard 200, arriving on the heels of news that the band will tour in 2013.

'21' TURNS 78

>> With a 78th week in the Billboard 200's top 10, Adele's 21 ties Def Leppard's Hysteria and Michael Jackson's Thriller for the third-longest run in the top 10 since 1963. Only Bruce Springsteen's Born in the U.S.A. (84 weeks) and the "Sound of Music" (109) soundtrack logged longer top 10 runs.

CHART BEAT

>> With her 46th Billboard Hot 100 entry, "We Are Never Getting Back Together," Taylor Swift celebrates her first Hot 100 chart-topper, as the track blasts 72-1 (see story, page 38). Upon the coronation, Swift relinquishes the mantle as the female artist with the most charted titles without a No. 1. (Nicki Minaj, who has 41 Hot 100 hits and no No. 1s—so far, anyway—now owns that distinction among women.) Among all artists, the act with the most Hot 100 visits has yet to top the tally: The "Glee" cast has made 203 appearances, rising as high as No. 4. James Brown (91), Jackie Wilson (53) and Brook Benton (48) follow with the most Hot 100 entries but no leaders.

2 Chainz' Arrival Leads To Debut Discussion

Rapper 2 Chainz' debut studio album, Based on a T.R.U. Story, bows at No. 1 on the Billboard 200, selling 147,000 copies, according to Nielsen SoundScan. That's a slightly more robust figure than had initially been projected last week. Some industry sources were thinking the set would sell between 130,000 and 140,000.

2 Chainz is the third act this year to start at No. 1 with a debut studio effort, following One Direction's Up All Night (on the March 31 chart) and Jack White's solo bow Blunderbuss (May 12). The last hip-hop act to start at No. 1 with such a set was on Nov. 26, 2011, when Mac Miller's Blue Slide Park opened in the penthouse (144,000).

Though Based on a T.R.U. Story is 2 Chainz' debut studio album, he's already notched 10 hit singles on the Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart since first arriving in 2011. He initially debuted the tally in early 2011 as Tity Boi, before switching to 2 Chainz later that year.

WHEN A DEBUT ISN'T A DEBUT: Though 2 Chainz' Based on a T.R.U. Story is his debut studio album, one could argue that with all of his mixtapes, he's not actually a debut. And we can't forget how he was half of the Playaz Circle duo, which charted a pair of albums on the Billboard 200, one of which reached No. 3 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums in 2007 (Supply & Demand). So, in away, 2 Chainz is more like Jack White, in that he's been a presence on the chart in some form, and has been active in the industry, but didn't release a proper solo studio debut until this year. While White's Blunderbuss was his first solo set, it followed his chart success as part of groups the White Stripes, the Raconteurs and the Dead Weather.

So, what was the last true debut act to start at No. 1 with his or her first album?

Well, One Direction counts—to a degree. Yes, Up All Night was the U.K. "X Factor" group's first album (no mixtapes for those boys). But, much like U.S. "American Idol" contestants, One Direction had months of exposure and incubation on TV before its debut arrived. The five-piece came together on the 2010 edition of "The X Factor," competed on the series until it finished in third place, then continued to build momentum until the bow of its first U.K. album in late 2011. By the time of the act's stateside arrival in early 2012, its core fan base was already energized thanks to social media. So, while Up All Night was indeed a debut, the group itself wasn't a complete unknown.

But then what about Mac Miller's Blue Slide Park? The Rostrum Records set was his first studio effort, but it followed many mixtapes during the course of at least four years. OK, then maybe Scotty McCreery's Clear As Day on Oct. 22, 2011? Again, there's the "American Idol" factor . . . J. Cole with Cole World: The Sideline Story on Oct. 15, 2011? Again: Mixtapes and a lot of guest turns on others' work preceded Cole World. Scrolling back farther, we could kick out Bad Meets Evil's Hell: The Sequel (No. 1 debut on July 2, 2011) since it's less of a new act and more of a super-duo (Eminem and Royce Da 5'9").

The last true debut artist to see his or her debut album bow at No. 1? Though we could argue this for an entire column or two, perhaps it's Ke$ha, who launched atop the list with Animal on Jan. 23, 2010, after having released only one single under her own name: the album's lead track, "TiK ToK."

20 AT 10 MILLION: Linkin Park's Hybrid Theory becomes the latest release to join the 10 million-sellers club, as it crosses the threshold this week.

The band's debut album, released in 2000, becomes the 20th set to sell 10 million since Nielsen SoundScan began tracking sales in 1991. Earlier this year, Usher's Confessions hit the mark as well. Since 1991, the highest-selling album (according to SoundScan) is Metallica's self-titled 1991 release, which has moved 15.8 million. Shania Twain's Come On Over is second with 15.5 million, and Alanis Morissette's Jagged Little Pill is third with 14.8 million.

Hybrid Theory is also one of only four 10 million-sellers that didn't reach No. 1 on the Billboard 200. It peaked at No. 2 on the tally, after initially bowing at No. 16. Twain's Come On Over halted at No. 2, while Bob Marley & the Wailers' Legend (11.1 million) reaches a new peak of No. 18 this week and Backstreet Boys' self-titled debut (10.1 million) hit No. 4.

Don't cry for Linkin Park's No. 2 plateau, though: Hybrid Theory was the No. 1-selling album of 2001 in the United States with 4.8 million sold. Since then, the band has notched five No. 1 albums, including its most recent effort, this year's Living Things. ***

Drum-and-bass producer Netsky makes strides on Uncharted (43-24) as the release of his second album, Z, continues to rise in popularity. Helping his gain this week is a non-album track, "Cous Cous," which has notched 48,000 views on YouTube in the last three weeks.

Taylor Swift hits No. 1 for the first time (see story, page 38) thanks to her new hit, while Gotye re-enters at No. 2 courtesy of a mash-up. The latter's release of a compilation clip of other acts covering "Somebody That I Used to Know" has racked 2 million views.

SWIFT'S 'NEVER' LANDS AT NO. 1

After arriving on the Billboard charts in 2006, Taylor Swift scores her first Billboard Hot 100 No. 1, as "We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together" blasts 72-1 in its second week. Its jump is fueled by 623,000 downloads sold in its first week at retail, according to Nielsen SoundScan. That marks the highest one-week digital sales total by a female artist (see story, page 38). Following its first full week of radio availability, "Never" rises 25-14 (52 million audience impressions, up 29%, according to Nielsen BDS) on Hot 100 Airplay. —Gary Trust

With four months left, 2012 has already boasted as many Mainstream Top 40 top 10s by new acts as of last year. Cher Lloyd becomes the latest rookie to reach the region, as "Want U Back" lifts 12-10. The British singer follows eight acts that previously rose to the top 10 this year in their first visits to the list (as lead acts): fun., Gotye, Ellie Goulding, Calvin Harris, Carly Rae Jepsen, Karmin, One Direction and the Wanted. This year's trio of female newcomers (Goulding, Jepsen and Lloyd) outpaces last year, when just one of 2011's nine such acts (Adele) was a woman.

At No. 40 on Mainstream Top 40, reigning "American Idol" champion Phillip Phillips debuts with "Home." The track, which holds at No. 17 on Adult Top 40 with the format's third-best gain in plays (up 29%, according to Nielsen BDS), has sold 1.2 million downloads, according to Nielsen SoundScan, aided by its recent exposure in NBC's Summer Olympics coverage.

					Simian.

The debut is the highest by a woman and ties for the second-best bow among all acts in the chart's 22-year Nielsen BDS era. Garth Brooks' "More Than a Memory" launched at No. 1 in 2007, while Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw's "Feel Like a Rock Star" also began at No. 13 in April.

40

BETWEEN THE BULLETS'OVER' TO THE TOP

Blake Shelton makes it an even dozen as "Over" shoots 4-1 to become the artist's 12th leader on the audience-driven Hot Country Songs and the fourth consecutive No. 1 from his Red River Blue set (No. 27 this week on Top Country Albums). Released last summer, the album also spawned "Honey Bee" (four weeks at No. 1), "God Gave Me You" (three) and "Drink on It" (two). Following a No. 13 peak in July on Country Digital Songs, "Over" ranks at No. 19 (332,000 sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan).

BETWEEN THE BULLETSIT'S T.R.U.: 2 CHAINZ IS NO. 1

2 Chainz, the rapper formerly and unforgettable named Tity Boi, debuts his first studio album, Based on a T.R.U. Story, at No. 1 on Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums. The set sold 147,000, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Earlier this year, Chainz charted with the mixtape T.R.U. Realigion under the Duffle Bag Boyz imprint, which debuted at No. 70. Now under Def Jam's care, the rapper adds a notch to the label's belt as they claim the last four consecutive No. 1s on the chart, giving the label a lock on the top slot for six straight weeks. Chainz' album also arrives with the fourth-largest sales week this year on the tally, with the biggest being Nicki Minaj's Pink Friday: Roman Reloaded, which launched with 253,000. Chainz' fellow Def Jam acts Rick Ross and Nas earned the second- and third-biggest frames of the year, with the debuts of God Forgives, I Don't (bowing with 218,000) and Life Is Good (149,000). —Karinah Santiago

As she reaches the top 20 with her Chris Brown-assisted track, she debuts the tune on the Billboard Hot 100 at No. 95 (see page 46). It's her first track to enter the latter tally since 2008.

The veteran's comeback song earns the chart's Greatest Gainer/ Airplay stamp (up 47% to 9 million impressions) for a second consecutive week. It's her best rank since "I Apologize" reached No. 8 in February 1995.

After a slip off the chart last week, diva returns at a new peak, gaining by 133% to 2 million in audience. WWPR New York led with 751,000 impressions during the tracking week, while SiriusXM's Heat played it the most times (31).

With his fifth studio album, Chapter V, due to storm next week's Billboard 200 and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums charts, the set's fourth entry bows. It follows top 10 "Heart Attack" (No. 6) and "2 Reasons" (No. 10) and "Dive In," which rises 40-29 this issue.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

HOUSTON'S 'CELEBRATE' HITS TOP 10

SPARKS and HOUSTON

Although bittersweet, the late Whitney Houston achieves her first posthumous top 10 on Adult R&B as "Celebrate," her duet with Jordin Sparks, lifts 13-10. With a 14th top 10 title, she ties Toni Braxton and Alicia Keys for the second-most top 10s among women in the chart's history. Only Mary J. Blige has more (16). This milestone is equally important for Sparks: She pegs her first top 10 on the tally. Her only previous hit, "No Air," her duet with Chris Brown, peaked at No. 31 in 2008. WWMG Montgomery, Ala., leads the audience wave with the most plays (290) through Aug. 19, according to Nielsen BDS.

Christian hip-hop act tobyMac nabs his fifth No. 1 on audience-fueled Christian Songs, as "Me Without You" steps 2-1 in its 15th week. His chart history includes a 14-week run at No. 1 in 2009-10 with "City on Our Knees" and nine weeks at the summit in 2006-07 with "Made to Love."

Israel & New Breed log their first No. 1 on Christian Albums with Jesus at the Center: Live, which opens with 12,000 sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan. Fronted by worship leader Israel Houghton, the group's chart history includes three previous top five albums. As a soloist, Houghton logged two straight No. 1s in 2009-10.

Juanes' most recent set, Tr3s Presents: Juanes MTV Unplugged, blasts 31-4 on Top Latin Albums. Due to a $3.99 Amazon promotion (Aug. 16-17), it gains a 900% gain in digital sales. The release has sold 23,000 copies, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

Juan Alvarez y Su Norteno Banda post their first top 10 on Top Latin Albums, as En Vivo starts at No. 9. The Hot Shot Debut winner is the fourth charting album by the group and the fifth for Alvarez, whose first charted set in 2009 was a solo effort.
