SEAWEED Spanaway

Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521 Two full-length records and countless 7"s and EPs into its career. Seaweed finally emerges with a major-label debut, and we're pleased to report that Spanaway holds fast to all of the elements that made the band a college radio favorite in the first place. From the opening chords of "Free Drug Zone," Aaron Stauffer's vocals take the reins for the remainder of the album's 13 songs. Though his singing can easily be compared to the furious delivery of lan MacKaye, Stauffer's got a knack for concealing his influences in the finer points of his own technique, thereby making a name for himself with his powerful, ever-present pipes. Vocals aside, Seaweed's extensive touring pays off in the band's prescient sense of the beat; no matter what the circumstance, guitar, bass and drums are melded into one hulking mass of sound that's undeniably perfected but far from polished, like on the climactic, thrashing closing moments of songs like "Saturday Nitro," Spanaway doesn't let up for a minute-with the exception of a couple of short bits on the second side, it's all tightfisted punk rock-but especially rip-roaring and recommended are "Undeniable Hate," "A Common Mistake," "Defender" and "Start With." CHERYL BOTCHICK

YOUNG GODS Only Heaven Play It Again Sam, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024

The Young Gods' definition of "industrial" is wholly unlike that of most other bands corralled into the arena of heavy electronic music. They're not into crafting dance music per se, and their songs are far from the angsty-pop walled in by guitar and sequencers that has more recently found its way into this heretofore aggressively developmental milieu. The Swiss-French trio-a vocalist, a drummer and a samplerprogrammer-fills the cracks between the various polar points of the genre, and then some. Only Heaven, the band's fifth album, is a massive collection of sounds; sampled, reconfigured and carefully re-routed through amplifiers with all the startling impact of a laser-guided atom bomb. The resultant din is more suggestive of a particular mood or environment than a pure physical experience, forming howling winds, eerie electronic globules of sound and leaving scorched expanses of earth in its wake. But for all its alien power, Only Heaven has its moments of cool, whispery near-silence, characterized by the thick edges of Franz Reise's vocals, a sparse drum groove and odd, sucking pulses of synth tones. The Young Gods are one of a dying breed, a band that reinvents and morphs new and old ideas from within its own supernatural parameters. Here they have prepared their Only Heaven: "Strangel," "Moon Revolutions," "Kissing The Sun" and "Donnez Les Espirits." COLIN HELMS

OUR GDAIS

Lava c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019 The collective resumes of the Civ's members would be > involved in some of New York City's most influential hardcore bands, including Youth of Today, Judge, Token Entry, Shelter and Gorilla Biscuits. Civ is named for its lead singer, who also sang lead for GB, one of New York's pre-eminent hardcore bands, and GB's influence definitely can be heard on Civ's debut. The four members have been making music together for nearly ten years, and their intense comradery provides the ammunition for an extremely about 30 minutes, the album is a study in expert hardcore craftmanship., Set Your Goals sounds like exactly > what you'd expect from four old school NYHC guys, combining fast-paced guitar lines with melodic vocals. The band began playing out late last summer, and even though vocalist Civ hadn't sung for over two years, his voice is in top form here. The band's years of experience are matched by that of its album's producers, legendary NYHC producer Don Fury and Quicksand's Walter Schreifels (also formerly of GB). On your mark, get set, punk: "Set Your Goals," "Can't Wait One Minute More" and "United Kids." JENNY ELISCU

D'ANGELO Brown Sugar

EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104

If there's anything proven by the recent consciousness of '70s funk and the renewed interest in the fly sounds and styles of yore, it's that people remember, but it's still the present that matters. So if D'Angelo's debut album blows up and becomes instantly huge, it won't surprise us one bit. The story goes something like this: those kids whose parents were grooving to the sounds of Marvin Gaye, Barry White, Isaac Haves and the Chi-lites have grown up, and are now producing their own renaissance in modern R&B. music drenched in the essence of soul but

Virginian D'Angelo has delivered more than just a stunning R&B debut, it's a State Of Soul Address for 1995. A preacher's son and three-time Showtime At The Apollo winner, D'Angelo infuses his music with elements of classic soul music updated for the nine-five; he incorporates a hint of Curtis Mayfield guitar, a trace of a funk bass line and a Marvin Gaye-like emotive vocal turn within a modernized context (slinky hip-hop beats and slick, lush production) that's contemporary and brilliantly constructed. It'd be really tempting to sum it up by saying that he's heir to a legacy that stretches back to "the day," but for D'Angelo, it's clear that that day is now. JAMES LIEN

CMJ TOP 150

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

WHALE We Care Virgin

Radio Chart Position: #37 Whale's last foray into radio-land smelled like a one-hit wonder, but the band's full-length release on Virgin has hit the Top 150 chart at full speed, winding up this week's Radio Breakthrough. The sly combination of male and female vocalists and catchy melodies, as well as the sluggish rhythms make it a distinctive choice for college and commercial radio. Call me Ishmael: WJSC (#1), WMTU, WUSM, WXAV and WXCI.

ON THE CHART Elektra-EEG's Bjork remains at #1 yet again, fighting off Roswell-Capitol's Foo Fighters, who also hold their position (#2), as does Interscope's Primus at #3. Touch And Go's Searn moves one position 5-Color indicates a significant 4, and EastWest-EEG's Buffalo Torn breaks into the top 10 (11-8). DGC's Teenage Fanclub jumps 34-12, Maverick-Reprise's Alanis Morissette halves her numbers (30-15), and 4AD's Liquorice increase in airplay. A: greatest bounds 93-20. Also leaping up impressively is Elektra-EEG's Luna, which glides up 65-21. Last week's Radio Breakthrough, Ren Beat's Versus, continues to move up (39-23). Torn & Frayed-Touch And Go's Dirty upward chart movement. Three dirties itself up 76-24. The highest debut this week (and this week's Radio Breakthrough) is Sub Pop's Six Finger Satellite, which enters the chart at #27. Virgin's Geraldine Fibbers also make a 🖤: most requested substantial leap 102-30 and their labelmate WThale debuts at #37. Safe House's Malf Japanese gets Hot 115-41, EastWest-EEG's Dambuilders debut at #43, and DGC's That Dog enters at #47.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

GURU Jazzmatazz Vol. II: The New Reality Chrysalis-EMI

Retail Chart Position: #11 The first album from Guru's lazzmatazz project forged new ground for hip-hop/jazz fusion. The collective's second album is not as novel, but is no less extraordinary. The New Reality. which features Guru's collaborations with Chaka Kahn, Me'Shell NdegéOcello, Ramsey Lewis, Jamiroquai, Ronny Jordon and Patra (just to name a few), is making a strong showing.

AXIOM FUNK Funkcronomicon

Axiom, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019 For all his adventures into everything from free noise to ambient techno, Bill Laswell's work has always hinted that he really just wants to be George Clinton-up in front of a cast of a million spacy funkateers and guitar gods-and with Funkcronomicon, for all practical purposes, he is. It's essentially an encyclopedia of the state of the P-Funk, with old-school members of the troupe (including Bootsy Collins, Maceo Parker, the late Eddie Hazel and Clinton himself, not to mention the sleeve by crudemeister cartoonist Pedro Bell), their likeminded contemporaries (Herbie Hancock, the Meters' Ziggy Modeliste and a couple of Last Poets), and latter-day acolytes like Henry Threadgill, Buckethead and Laswell bumping heads, beats and uglies all over the funky territory. There are Parliament-style anthems ("Under The Influence," the giddy "Hideous Mutant Freekz"); there are "Maggot Brain"-ish guitar freak outs ("Orbitron Attack" and "Pray My Soul," as well as the latter's vocal reworking "Sacred To The Pain"); there are who-says-a-funk-bandcan't-play-rock grooves like Blackbyrd McKnight's "Blackout." Of course, Clinton has sung the praises of filler in funk, and the set is drawn out to two discs with a handful of remixes of the Laswell label's P-funkiest moments. But there are also tracks that draw the legacy of Clinton's '70s work into the '90s, including the album's highlights: "Jungle Free-Bass," a chaotic stab at jungle with an impossibly deep low end, and a trip-hop cover of Jimi Hendrix's "If 6 Was 9," featuring Bootsy's watery, rubbery bass and voice, DOUGLAS WOLK

BEN HARPER Fight For Your Mind

Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 Ben Harper's debut showed an earnest soul revealing his simple ideas of the world through his music; sometimes, the music behind the ideas was more intriguing than his somewhat didactic sentiments. With Fight For Your Mind, his second release, his didacticism is still there-evidenced by songs such as "Oppression," "Ground On Down" and "One Road To Freedom"-but his songwriting has improved, a natural result of maturity and constant touring. Harper's voice has depth and power, and both his vocals and his strong, acoustically-tempered music carry the weight of his lyrics, sometimes surpassing them by their passion. Harper seems to have grown even more confident in his guitar-playing; not only does he make his own guitars, he wields impressive control over how they sound. The songs which work best are those which have as strong a sentiment as music and vocals, as on "Gold To Me," where Harper tackles a personal issue-love-and "Power Of The Gospel," whose six minutes are split between a pretty instrumental piece and a heart-felt tribute to his religious beliefs. The 11-minute plus "God Fearing Man" is a complex weaving of guitar, vocal and bongo drum which rises and falls in step with his lyrics. Fight For Your Mind is a shining example of what a prodigy can do the second time around. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

LUNA Penthouse

Elektra, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019 You might look at Penthouse as a collection of song postcards-"Chinatown," "Kalamazoo," "Sideshow By The

Seashore" (an infamous spot in Coney Island), "23

Minutes In Brussels"-observing places and people, roaming and exploring at a casual, unhurried Luna pace. Straightforward and unpretentious, Dean Wareham's songs communicate like short notes from a friend. His singing is fragile and relaxed, reassuring and likable, and right upfront in the mix, allowing the group to get away with a slightly more polished production than most indie-rock without sacrificing any of the intimacy. The group's slow-rock sound is also distinguished by Luna's chiming guitars, continuing the musical journeys of the Velvet Underground and Television. The instantly recognizable guitar of Tom Verlaine himself pops up on the terrific "23 Minutes In Brussels." Also recommended are the tense guitar rave "Freakin' And Peakin'," the strum and twang of the catchy "Moon Palace," and the quiet haziness of "Lost In Space." And be sure to check out the bonus track (#11), a cover of the delightfully kitschy "Bonnie And Clyde," Wareham playing Serge Gainsbourg to Laetitia Sadier's (Stereolab) Jane Birkin. DAVID NEWGARDEN

DUB NARCOTIC SOUND SYSTEM

Industrial Breakdown (EP) and Rhythm Record Volume One K. P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507 360,786.1594

Dub Narcotic Sound System is a musical project spearheaded by Calvin Johnson, best known for his work with

Beat Happening and for co-running K Records. The loose, art-as-it-happens spirit of his previous musical projects jibes easily with his newest aural passion: dub-inspired rhythms. Picking up where the collective's previous 7" singles left off, the Industrial Breakdown EP smears an array of playful, sometimes echo-

y sounds over propulsive, rubbery bass lines and live drum tracks, while Calvin waxes poetic about disco. A super-catchy, James Brown-ish guitar line and a happily thumping bass line drive the title song (which appears in two versions, although the second is called "(Industrial) Revolution Inclusion"), as Calvin announces his appropriation of these powerful tools of the past and their recreation into something new. In between are two mixes of another song ("The Beat From 20000 Fathoms" is an instrumental version of "Run Silent Run Deep"), which lopes along at a lazier pace, snaking behind a jaunty melodica melody, and "Typecast Sanction," a ruffer-'n'tuffer, sparser cut. The instrumental, vinyl-only Rhythm Record Volume One reprises some of the same musical themes as the EP (for example, "Run Silent Run Deep" is recast as "Echo Control," with lots of added echo) and uses most of the same tools. The 10 cuts here allow more room for inspired organ playing (check "Foxy Hardcore"), hand claps ("Bite Attack") and extreme sparseness ("Dub Narcotic Renew"). To quote Calvin, "Dub Narcotic Sound System testing, echo mic loud and messy, bass drum overall runs silent." LYDIA ANDERSON

THAT DOG Totally Crushed Out!

DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069 Drawing on their own painful personal experiences during the past year, That Dog's Anna Waronker and her band mates churn out 13 songs about love and loss on their sophomore release. Though these are familiar subjects, few handle them as well as That Dog. The band's slow, somber songs are enough to make your eyes tear, and its fast, angry ones are sure to have you grinding your teeth. "Lip Gloss" shows the band's punkier influences with its growling vocals and racing bass line (think Veruca Salt). On "Michael Jordan," the calm repetition of the line "Why does he give up so easily?" is opposed by a driving instrumental lead by Petra's wailing violin (à la Picasso Trigger). The quieter tunes "Anymore" and "Holidays" showcase the amazing vocal harmonies by Waronker and band mates Petra and Rachel Haden. In addition to the group's siren-like vocals, That Dog's use of violin, piano and acoustic guitars adds a quirkiness to its songs that has led some to label it "chamber punk." The band's ability to fuse these disparate elements makes Totally Crushed Out! a delightful sophomore effort. Crush-city: "Ms. Wrong," "He's Kissing Christian," "Anymore" and "Michael Jordan." IENNY ELISCU

EBN Telecommunication Breakdown

TVT. 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003 212,979,6410 Next time you hear somebody bandying about platitudes about how technology is going to revolutionize everything, strap them in with EBN and let them experience

Telecommunication Breakdown, a high-speed hell-ride down the infotainment superhighway, EBN became famous when it produced the dazzling, larger-than-life video footage blasted on those gigantic screens on U2's Zoo TV and Zooropa tours, and for its hilarious/frightening video "We Will Rock You," which blurred the lines between video and music, inextricably linking the two media, as actual video footage was used as the basis for creating the song itself. Now, EBN is pushing the envelope technologically, too: Telecommunication Breakdown is a CD-ROM, with graphic images to support the music. Musically, the 53-minute CD is an at-times brilliant melange of wicked beats, samples and sound bites, a manifesto of information and music that's a wake-up call for the Orwellian aspects of the "information era." Unlike other PC media-manipulation groups (Negativland, Consolidated), whose agenda occasionally overshadows the music, EBN keeps the music as its focus; the subliminal messages are implied rather than overt, disseminated rather than shouted. If anything, tracks like "Electronic Behavior Control System," "Get Down (Version 2.2)," "Shoot The Mac-10" and "State Extension" are brilliant because they mostly leave the listeners to come to their own conclusions about what they've heard. If, after one listen through this disc, you don't find yourself questioning everything about the media, technology, and the control they wield over the world in which we live, you're already sleepwalking. But if you find yourself scared to death, then EBN has done its duty. JAMES LIEN

ELLIOTT SMITH Elliott Smith

Kill Rock Stars, 120 NE State #418, Olympia, WA 98501 360.357.6852 Roman Candle, Elliott Smith's first solo record, was largely ignored when it was released last year. The frontman for Portland, Oregon's Heatmiser has gained a bit of attention since then, however, changing labels and touring with Mary Lou Lord. Smith's solo work is a far cry from that of the noisy Heatmiser. His eponymous second album is mostly him and his acoustic guitar, but is more full-bodied and produced with a slicker edge than

Roman Candle. Smith's songs are riddled with dark lyrics of drugs, drinking and relationships, but that's counterbalanced by his soft, soothing vocals and smooth guitar strums. Thankfully, the folk-ish songs that Smith pens are more like artists of an earlier era (Nick Drake, for example) and never fall into the leftover scrap tune/out-of-tune lo-fi rut that traps many contemporary solo artists. In mapping his distinctive style, Smith has discovered many buried treasures, including: "Coming Up Roses," "Southern Belle" and "Needle In The Hay." DAWN SUTTER

DAMBUILDERS Ruby Red

EastWest, c/o EEG, address above Few "rock" bands have such a command of orchestration and instrumental manipulation as Boston's Dambuilders. One listen to the slide guitar and bagpipe-ish intro to

"Lazy Eye," from the band's most recent work, Ruby Red, makes this perfectly clear. Not only that, but the wild violin displays found on the quirkily dynamic, angst-ridden "Teenage Loser Anthem" will bring back the specter of the Charlie Daniels Band. While these instrumental experimentations are interesting in their own right, there's also no denying that the band's songwriting skills have been improving since the release of 1994's Encendedor. "Cosmonaut" is a tightly performed, exquisitely penned pop-punk track with gentle, lofty breaks. The more conventional "Drive By Kiss" is a laid-back, radiofriendly nugget with a particularly compelling violin counter-melody. "Down" is just as memorable with its string backdrop and wandering vocals, coming off like a cross between U2 and the Beatles. Other gems: "I Forget Myself" and "Smooth Control." AARON CLOW

RAMONES iAdios Amigos!

Radioactive, 8570 Hedges PI., Los Angeles, CA 90069 310.659.6598 1-2-3-4...It's the Ramones! After 20 years, the Ramones are still producing classic trashy pop. On their latest, they give it the old I, IV, V guitar chord punch, coming up with 13 songs exemplifying their primal approach. iAdios Amigos! opens with a terrific rendition of Tom Waits' "I Don't Want To Grow Up," also the first single and video. A couple of real toetappers, such as "Life's A Gas" and "Scattergun," could have easily been cut from the same cloth as 1977's Rocket To Russia. Most of the songs hover around the two-and-onehalf-minute mark, starting and stopping so abruptly you'll think you were back at your 10th birthday party playing musical chairs. Singer Joey Ramone still leads the band in perfect monotone through most of the album, only trading lead with bassist C.J. Ramone for a couple of songs. Ex-bassist Dee Dee Ramone puts his two-cents in by cowriting half of the songs. The production is tidy, the songwriting is clever and the band harkens back to their archaic minimalism, which is great for long-time Ramones fans. "Born To Die In Berlin" is the last song listed, but after this "last" song has ended there's a pregnant pause and out jumps the theme to Spiderman done up in perky pop fashion. The Ramones haven't sounded this fresh in a long time; let's hope they don't mean what the album title suggests. Gabba gabba hey! DONNA RODGER D

PHIL KRAUTH Cold Morning

Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203 703.358.9382 Phil Krauth's name may be familiar to only the most ardent indie-rock fans: the drummer was Unrest's only consistent member, outside of leader Mark Robinson, from the band's inception in 1983 until its disbanding last year. On Cold Morning, he steps out from behind the kit (as he had previously on some solo cassette releases under the name Clarence and on one Unrest tune) to write, sing and play almost all of the instruments on these 14 songs.

The mood starts off jauntily enough, with the toe-tapping melodies of "Rainy Days," similar in spirit to Unrest's last album, Perfect Teeth, but the dreamily suggestive "Heat Of The Night," highlighted by smooth organ and backing harmony vocals from Jenny Friel, is a more apt foreshadowing of the less-than-predictable things to come. The backwardstracked guitars on "Taste Of Beauty" (a somewhat obvious plea for the muse's touch) recall Byrdsian, Love-inspired '60s psychedelia, while the peppy "Spanish Rule" is peppered with trombone and a Hammond organ break. On the title song, Krauth's vocals are lifted by his crisp acoustic guitar playing and delicate piano lines; the song is later reprised as "Cold Morning Blues," with his vocals given an echoey treatment so that it sounds like he's singing this lament from the bottom of a well. Krauth's straightforward singing style (it's almost like he's talking in time to the music) and even plainer lyrics sometime pop out from the varied musical backdrops he creates, but Cold Morning winds up a pleasant, reflective solo debut. LYDIA ANDERSON

HUGH You Are Here

Mafia Money, P.O. Box 8562, Madison, WI 53708-8562 Since appearing as a CMJ Futures pick a year ago, Hugh has undoubtedly grown by measurable leaps and bounds. While the influence of bands like Slint or Codeine is heard sporadically on You Are Here, Hugh takes cues from the understated melancholy and dynamic power of the two abovementioned bands but crafts its own distinct rock sound. Gently stroked guitar chords stroll around taut bass lines and vocals waver between mellow introspection and rising outbursts, while the band's trapsman reigns everything in with masterful control. It's not an entirely new collection of sonic elements, but on tracks like "Sleepy Time" or "Chutes & Ladders," the band toys with its guitar interplay, melodic lines and playback processes to change any direction it may have appeared to be stuck in on a previous song. You Are Here is the band's first full-length release, and while revealing a few holes in its overall schema, it indicates that the band is capable of impressive things. Try spinning "Seeds," "Me And Anna In A Box" or "Soma Lovesong." COLIN HELMS

TWINZ Conversation

G-Funk/RAL, c/o Island, address above

Warren G has a lot to answer for; on his debut record, he and Dr. Dre defined the ne plus ultra of G-Funk: smooth, laid-back and with no rough edges. It seemed unlikely that any other group would be able to do it one better. With the Twinz's debut release, Trip Locc and Wayniac still haven't one-upped their producer (yes, Warren G is the man behind the controls), but they have followed G's dogma to a T. The so-smooth-they're-slippery grooves are rich and full, the bass anchoring the melody as the duo (and the occasional guest) raps about life in the slow lane. Unlike G, the Twinz graft a few more superfluous hooks and noises onto their bassheavy sound, making it a little less stylized, and their vocals are less slick as well. With the addition of the more traditional hip-hop touches and the immediately recognizable G sound, the Twinz's Conversation is sure to be a summer staple in cars and radios. Lay on back and converse with: "Round & Round," "Hollywood" and "First Round Draft Pick." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

SEYMORES Piedmont

Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st. Fl., New York, NY 10019 Another J.D. Salinger-inspired moniker? Hardly. Richmond, Virginia's Seymores took their name from a decidedly less highbrow source—a line of Safeway tennis shoes the guys were forced to wear in grade school. The un-hip trademark fits the band's sound perfectly: serviceable jangle-pop that is all too likely to be overlooked. Piedmont is remarkable not for its risks or innovations, but rather for its warm, inviting quality, sustained

sixteen 8.7.95

over 11 perfectly enjoyable tunes. Chalk it up, in part, to acoustics: after releasing their first 7", the group headed for Butch Vig's legendary Smart Studios, in Madison, Wisconsin, where the four musicians laid out their sunny melodies under the guidance of a producer known only as "Mr. Colson." The hooks are gentle, the guitar leads ringing and the vocals sweet-a perfect recipe for the kind of music mocked by guys in Pumas, but savored by unattitudinal folks who have worked through their childhood inferiority complexes. Ignore the sneers, pull on a Hanes pocket-tee, and hum along with "Red Snapper," "Sidewinder," and "Drywall," SAMUEL JEFFRIES

LOS FABULOSOS CADILLACS Rey Azucor

Sony Discos, 2190 NW 89th PL, Miami, FL 33172

Los Fabulosos Cadillacs are not your typical Latino rock group. Hailing from Argentina, the band breaks barriers with groovy tunes, eccentric melodies, and wide-ranging appeal, achieving a multi-multi-cultural style by mixing together rock, reggae, and salsa ingredients on its latest album, Rey Azucar. Los Fabulosos Cadillacs go beyond their borders, and should appeal to American ears who found Los Lobos' Latin rock so appealing. With a little help from

Mick Jones (The Clash, Big Audio Dynamite), the moving cut "Mal Bicho" blends hypnotic melodies and smooth, powerful vocals. The band's uplifting rendition of the Beatles' "Strawberry Fields Forever" begins with a reggae beat and a well-crafted series of Latin rhythms that transform the creepy, psychedelic original into a joyful ride. The album's infusion of well-balanced instrumentation and soft, moody song structures will make your body fall captive to its intriguing aura. Muy bueno! MENACHEM HARARI

OVERWHELMING COLORFAST Sourdough (EP)

Goldenrod, 3770 Tansy St., San Diego, CA 92121 619.558.7985 San Diego's Overwhelming Colorfast returns from its wellover-a-year hiatus with this tightly-packed EP, a perfect specimen of the crackling energy that the band unfailingly yanks out of its sleeve for all of its records and live performances. "Coming Around" is the finest of these songs, with compressed, buzzing guitars lying under a bed of lilting, lightly harmonized melody that's deceptively catchy and hummable. The word "anthemic" could be used to describe the album's title track, with its quiet verses and cathartic, pleading chorus, and the EP's opener. "How Should It Be," masters that same sense of self-effacing emotion with an even higher quotient of fury. The band even sets aside its pop punk leanings long enough to try its hand at the Rolling Stones tune "Sway" with a decent amount of success, simplifying it somewhat, but making the song its own by giving it less grit and more punch. Watch for Overwhelming Colorfast to put its next album out on San Diego's Cargo Records. CHERYL BOTCHICK

HOLIDAY Holiday

March, P.O. Box 578396, Chicago, IL 60657-8396 312.296.4321 The four members of Holiday met in the loose group of indie-pop fans that centers on the Yale's entertainment newspaper, Nadine (their label Tasty Bits, named after a column in the paper, released their first three singles). On their self-titled debut, they wears their influences on their sleeves-it's not a coincidence that they share a name with a Magnetic Fields album and have a song called "Sarah." What they bring to the sweet, rippling pop they love is an aesthetic where the arranger is king and unprettiness is treason. Everything has an absolutely straightforward melody, and instrumental embellishments as subtle as a master chef's spices-French horns, softly whirring synthesizers, bird sound effects. tootling Casios, you name it. Even in the rare moments when the guitars take on a less-than-tasteful tone, the target they hit is not abrasiveness but a more intense kind of loveliness. Whatever emotion Holiday lets itself express is careful, witty, measured: Josh Gennet maintains the same wistful tones whether he's maintaining that "I don't like you, you don't like me/so we're in love, obviously" or celebrating "gay bars and Latin discos." Try former singles "Fifteen Dollars" and "Soft Batch," plus "Golden Anniversary" and the sassy, head-tossing "You've Got Nothing." DOUGLAS WOLK

SHADES APART Save It.

Revelation, P.O. Box 5232, Huntington Beach, CA 92615-5232 714.375.4264 In a world of maddening subtleties, hardcore rage is brutally direct. Shades Apart, a short-haired, high-octane trio from New Jersey, make no concessions to phoniness or mediocrity. "You're just wasting away/ And you don't know why," the vocalist howls on one track. "Nothing's real...And you like it that way." In this world, escape is difficult, if not impossible; desperate attempts to forge a new beginning are smothered by the weight of the past, yet the band's raw, pounding energy is not purely negative. "Way Out," boasting the album's strongest chorus and an atypically melodic bridge, offers the hope of "not going down" into self-pitying despair. "Is it so cool to whine?" asks the singer, cutting through generational angst with a choppy hardcore assault. Sove It. surges ahead with uncompromising fury, as though Shades Apart can't spit out each ranting indictment fast enough. The album's old-school roar is kept engaging with unexpected touches like the rhythmic complexity of "Weight of Years" and a respectful cover of "Tainted Love," most recently done by Soft Cell in the early '80s. Save It. even ends with two unlisted bonus tracks-Shades Apart runs out of titles long before it runs out of steam, SAMUEL IEFFRIES

RICHARD H. KIRK The Number Of Mogic Wax Trax!, c/o TVT, address above

We'll spare you the usual rehash about how enormously influential and important Cabaret Voltaire was; the group made some great music and also some pretty forgettable crap. So we're not expecting anybody to get excited about the umpteenth Richard H. Kirk album based on his reputation alone. But Kirk continually evolves, and even if he's not influencing trends as much as he once did, he's doing a hell of a job of keeping up with them. It's not enough to say that The Number Of Magic succeeds as both dance music and as an electronic album for sedentary listening because there are so many dimensions to it. It's packed with an abundant variety of warm textures, strange samples and disjointed voices, and an equally large variety of beats, spiced with false intros and endings that segue into new grooves which dissipate as quickly as they appear. From dub on "Lost Souls On Funk" to spastic techno on "Love Is Deep" and "Poets Saints Revolutionaries" to acid-jazzy grooves on "Monochrome Dream" (with flamenco guitar samples) to exotic flavors on "East Of India" (sampled Indian vocal and flute), "Indole Ring" (modal guitar) and "Atomic" (with Moroccan ghaita), there are lots of reasons to get excited, DAVID NEWGARDEN

TONINHO HORTA Durongo Kid

Big World, P.O. Box 128, 315 Empire Blvd., Brooklyn, NY 11225 718.531.1730 If you have ever walked through the Amazon rainforest and listened to the variety of sounds it emits, you will surely understand the sensuality and feelings brought out by the music of Brazilian guitarist/singer Tonihno Horta, Armed with just a quiet acoustic guitar and his heart, he plays warm, melodic music, a stylistic blend of Heitor Villalobos and Baden Powell, two of the virtuosos of melancholy Brazilian guitar. Horta's sound will elevate you from one extreme to the other. "Meu Canario Vicinho Azul/My Neighbor Blue Canary," a sadly nostalgic tune with a refreshing sound, shows his great mastery as both a composer and performer, while "Saudade Da Bahia/Missing Bahia," a beautifully carefree, spiritual song, will make you feel as if you are the main character in a Jean Luc Godard film. Durango Kid draws the listener in, making it impossible to play just once. This is Toninho Horta at his best. MEN-ACHEM HARARI

BOYS LIFE Boys Life

Crank!, 1223 Wilshire Blvd. #173, Santa Monica, CA 90403 310.917.9162 The punk rock that began on the Coasts has slowly spread into the middle of the country, spawning a second wave of punk rock bands from the Midwest (Sideshow, Giants Chair). Hailing from Kansas City, Missouri, Boys Life is a part of this second wave. The band's self-titled debut, recorded with Mark Trombino (drummer/producer of Drive Like lehu), is chock full of crisp hooks and raging riffs. Boys Life's overwhelming intensity sets the group apart from most bands in its field, bringing to mind a loosely packaged, more emo Jawbox. Boys Life incorporates all of the trademarks of the genre; indelible guitar hooks, pregnant pauses and whispering vocals followed by waves of overwhelming noise, but the group has added a bit of its own flavor with its meaty guitar hooks. Crank: "Breaker, Breaker," "Without A Doubt" and "A Quarters Worth", DAWN SUTTER

STRANGER THAN PRETTY Flat World

Abducted Ear, 321 W. 90th St., Ste. 2C, New York, NY 10024 212.362.3209 The debut album by Boston's Stranger Than Pretty explodes like a powder keg, releasing a dozen songs built around and by lead singer and guitarist, Claire Harding. The band is raw and powerful, yet intricate and calculated at the same time. Harding strains and swells her voice to match the music's intensity level. and her songs evoke as much passion and melody as they do brute force. "Cash"'s romantic and catchy melody leads into a feverish, string-breaking chorus where Harding screams, "I'd rather have the cash than a kiss!," battling with the unsettled rhythms that are at the forefront of every powerful explosion on the album. More than just emotionally-charged muscle, these songs are strong enough to stand on their own without the aid of a wailing guitar or busy drum work; under every sonic assault is a melody that will be remembered long after the dust has settled. If you don't believe us, check out "Smalltown Boy," "Something Missing" and the haunting "Love Song." Some of Flat World's best moments come on cuts like "It Never Gets Better (Than This)," on which the band shows its sensitive, acoustic side, making the album that much more memorable. GLEN SANSONE

THOMAS JEFFERSON SLAVE APARTMENTS "Punk Rock Secret" (7")

Bag Of Hammers, P.O. Box 928, Seattle, WA 98111 If Bait & Switch on Onion-American isn't already fulfilling your Slave Apartments quota, this pair of songs certainly will round out the portion. Although it's a B-side, "Talkin' 'But Miscegenation/Miami Rap" steals the show, with its reworking of The Who's "My Generation" into a song barely hanging onto the theme of interracial marriage, if only to justify the somewhat elaborate pun. The A-side is a more traditional, lowest-of-lo-fi Slave Apartments rocker, Ron House's vocals following a menacing melody traced out by Bob Petric lead guitar line. CHERYL BOTCHICK

NUMBER ONE CUP "The Monkey Song" (7")

Sweet Pea, P.O. Box 408967, Chicago, IL 60640 312.275.4464 It's a commonplace that the Mountain Goats' voice-andacoustic-guitar songs could pass for demos of terrific rock songs, and now bands are starting to give them full rock treatment. The latest is Number One Cup's tough, playful version of "The Monkey Song," which amplifies the original into a pause-and-pounce rocker with a shout-along chorus and a guitar solo that snakes along the verses until it comes into its own at the end. The other side's "Unprepared" is a silly but very funny faux-Pavement live recording, improvised, with about one and a half chords, to cover the time it takes to change a broken string. DOUGLAS WOLK

VARIOUS ARTISTS Green (7" EP)

Magic Eye Singles, 21 W. 27th St., Baltimore, MD 21218 The idea behind this new singles label is to release songs by established bands or individuals breaking the status quo—side projects, and the like. The first installation includes a beautifully soft, acoustic version of Sleepyhead's "I'm Melting" by band members Rachael McNally and Chris O'Rourke, as well as a super lo-fi, mono song by Sean Meadows and Jeff Mueller of June Of 44. The B-side steps to the poppier side with a jaunty song from Half Cow, before turning around 180 degrees with the feedback-laden song from Crain's Jon Cook. DAWN SUTTER

SOUL JUNK 1946 (7")

Sub Pop, P.O. Box 206645, Seattle, WA 98102 206.441.8441 Soul Junk, previously the solo project of Glen Galloway (ex-Trumans Water), is now an actual band, which gives its chaotic, Christian-inspired rock songs more oomph, though the strange free-jazz-blat interludes between them (like "(Blame It On The) Mothership") are largely unaffected. "Salvo!"—about "the day of salvation"—chugs along between sharp little wah-wah freak-outs; "Anointed My Mouth" is pretty straightforward, except for its freerange synthesizer weirdness. The five-track EP's highlight is "Go Away," a slithery, meandering jangle with words that seem to concern religious uncertainty. DOUGLAS WOLK

WAYDOWNS The Waydowns (7")

Punk In My Vitamins?, P.O. Box 2283, Otympia, WA 98507, 360,705.1315 The Waydowns, comprised of two guitarists and a drummer, make jarring, yet completely amazing music, and the songs on this 7" are maddening splices of noise. The band's three members wrench agonized squeals out of their instruments: shouted vocals are accompanied by furious guitar dueling. The entire single clocks in at under four minutes, but these songs are unforgettable. The tortured vocals and tight kick drums on the A-side pack quite a punch, while the more drawn out noise and garbled lyrics on the B-side leave you wanting more. JENNY ELISCU

SKULPEY Liz

Proart, c/o Skulpy, 303 Division, Northfield, MN 55057

This cassette purportedly from Slovakia looks formidable at first: the lyric sheet is printed entirely in Czech (we think), with only one English phrase ("Deep Woods Off®") popping out from the cascade of vowels and accent-marks. Yet Skulpey's sound is hardly foreign. The band's three members (two guys and a gal) play catchy, slightly skewed pop melodies with lilting female vocals—right in synch with current American tastes. Heather Mount's pipes are sweet and high, with a limited but effective range; you've heard this kind of thing done before, but rarely done with so much skill and savvy. On Liz, the music's the thing: this is an album of great, rhythmically varied songs, many of which shift tone and tempo ingeniously. "Leo," the tape's opener, guides a tight, choppy guitar line into a lilting chorus-the vocals are eminently catchy, but not overbearing, leaving plenty of room for the band's top-flight musicianship. The stuttering, slippery beat of "Stairmaster" suggests the Sundays, but with a near-hardcore guitar break, and has a Veruca Salt-y chorus woven in for texture. The brief, terrific "Sycamore," a standout on an album of standouts, weds girly-girl vocals (à la Bunnygrunt) with a splintery guitar hook-"How much do you want to fuck me like you fight?" asks Mount with a just-so glint of irony. One of the guys sings on several of the tracks, sounding like Luna's Dean Wareham after being locked in a basement with Pavement-check out the ominous fuzz of "Halifax" and the churning, dissonant "Horseneck." Throughout, Skulpey brings energy and style to an album of pop precision: even if the songs were sung in Czech, they would need no translation. SAMUEL JEFFRIES

CHAUNCEY GARDINER Swimming In Gene's Pool

Chauncey Gardiner, 422-A East Howard Ave., Atlanta, GA 30030 This self-released album by Atlanta guartet Chauncey Gardiner accomplishes what many bands never manage: making a decadent, atmospheric-sounding rock record without falling into the trap of becoming unnecessarily histrionic or overblown. The album's closer, "Me & Mary," proves that point perfectly, the band's liberal use of effects pedals and echo single-handedly shaping the song's gloomy, ethereal sound; but it succeeds because it thrives on its vibe (a pulsing rhythm and a floating vocal melody) rather than drowning the mood in overindulgent excess. The quietest moments on this record are some of the best for that very reason. The sleepy "Home Again," for instance, only breaks its quiet, slowly building harmonizing for a plaintive solo that lightly colors the tune's backdrop of reverberating guitar. Though the band never kicks out the jams, per se, "Fill My Resolve" shows that Chauncey Gardiner can flex where appropriate, letting a background guitar line jump forward to take the reigns halfway through, flaunting the band's impressive chops and ability to interlock a song's disparate parts with a prominent riff. #### MOUNTAIN Over The Top

Legacy, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211 Over the top is right: when it came to hard-driving, histrionic blues-based rock played by sweaty, hairy men, few bands were greater than Mountain. Following in the wake of Led Zeppelin, Mountain found the perfect formula for getting through to massive festival audiences wasted on Quaaludes and Pabst in the early '70s: play longwinded, abrasive, aggressive blues-based rock, include as many lowest-common denominator blues clichés and gratuitous solos as you can, and, whenever possible, play at such impossibly high volumes that nobody can really even tell whether you're any good or not. Fueled by the rumbling bass lines of Bronx-born Felix Pappalardi (fun fact: produced second Dead Boys LP) and the blues guitar girth of man-mountain Leslie West, Mountain was a blue-collar fave all the way. Lacking the alluring dark mysticism of Zep, the superstud frontman of the Stones, the double-babe sister act of Heart, or even the humorous cow-punk shtick of Z.Z. Top, Mountain was just brutal, big and dumb, and brilliant at it. The band's Mountain Climbing and Nantucket Sleigh Ride LPs (a goodly chunk of both are here) are two of the all-time great heavy rock LPs, while its epic '72 live album The Road Goes Ever On could well have been renamed The Drum Solo Goes Ever On. This crunchy two-CD set will no doubt help many relive memories, once thought lost to cheap pot and tequila, of seeing the band rumble through its set opening for Grand Funk in some godforsaken stadium in Flushing. Awesome. (Important note for record producers: as you listen to Over The Top, check out the incredibly flat drum sounds and the drymiked guitars, and how cool they all sound together. Nobody's making records that sound like this anymore, nobody. Somebody ought to be.) JAMES LIEN

MALO Molo

Warner Archives, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

What to make of Malo and its one eponymous album on Warner Brothers from 1972? Was the band a poor man's Santana? Was it a more Latino-oriented version of War? Even further, should Malo be taken as a funky art-rock band or an arty, rock-influenced Latin band? Featuring Jorge Santana (yes, Carlos' brother), Luis Gasca leading the horn section, and vocalist Arcelio Garcia, Jr. fronting the band, Malo was one of those anomalous '70s groups that, given the various directions Latin music took during that decade (the dominance of the Salsoul and Fania labels, the rise of disco), could be pretty hard to pin down. While the band might have had a narrower demographic in its original heyday, this album sounds great in a context of today's open-ended, anything-goes fusionary mind set. "Just Say Goodbye" is a winding, multi-section mini-epic of Latinesque prog-funk, while "Cafe" and "Pana" are nothing short of brilliant, Santana-esque mid-'70s festival-rock, making Malo the perfect record for a Saturday night block party, for blasting out of open windows on a hot evening, or for playing on the tape deck while you wax your car in the afternoon. #### VARIOUS ARTISTS Danceland Years Point Blank, c/o Virgin, 388 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 By all indications, Morry Kaplan, founder and proprietor of the short-lived Danceland label, was about as ill-suited as a person could be to run a blues record label, and that is exactly what makes the music on Danceland Years so immortal. His first record sold some 60.000 copies (in 1949 no less!) and yet he somehow managed to fold the label within four years. Chances are, if Kaplan had known what he was doing, if he'd have known more about business and less about the music and what moved him, it all wouldn't have turned out so wonderfully. For one thing, sonically, these recordings (often made in Kaplan's basement rec room) often sound like he was taping in secret, with the microphone hidden in a suitcase or under a coat. As for career moves, recording his most famous discovery, John Lee Hooker, under the pseudonym "Little Pork Chops" probably didn't help sustain the label's chances any. Pork Chop's sessions document an incredible early moment in Hooker's career: the first few tunes are standard blues, with an unusually youthful-sounding Hook singing fairly ho-hum lyrics. Then-BOOM-on the fourth track, the churning, stomping boogie roars in like a brakeless steam locomotive: it literally sounds like all of a sudden, in the middle of a session, lightning struck and John Lee Hooker finally discovered what he was put here on earth for. Suddenly, there's shouting in the background, what sounds like somebody dropping the microphone in shock, and Hooker splaying his crazed boogie guitar all over like a ray gun beam. It all feels more like a brawl or a riot than a recording session, and the percussive effects often sound like people punching holes in the wall. Next up is a bluesman who, unlike Hooker, went absolutely nowhere, becoming lost to the enshrouding mists of time. Completely anachronistic. Tony "Blues' Lewis couldn't have been much more commercially outof-step: he recorded somewhere around 1949, but it might as well have been 1929, based both upon the sound of the recordings and the topics he's singing about. He stomps his foot, strums his guitar and wails like a man possessed, moaning primordial deep blues, mean stuff about shotguns, bulldogs and the like. If he'd left behind more than four and a half songs, we might just be talking about him in the lofty terms of a Robert Johnson, Son House or Skip James. But the real score here is the Unknown Artist performing a doo-wop-ish ballad, "What's The Matter With The World?," taken from an unmarked, unidentified acetate found stuffed somewhere in Kaplan's home, where it gathered dust over the years until Morry couldn't remember anything about it anymore. So it goes. It's somehow a fitting fate for such a melancholy, bizarre and brilliant record. The singer's voice possesses the most amazing blend of sarcasm and sadness-listen to how he enunciates lines like "Cu-bid brings nothing but sorrows" and "There's no place to be roman-tic" like he's mocking small children. Also, if you really listen to which lines they sing and how they sing them, it sounds like the doo-wop-ish backup singers are oblivious to the song's sarcasm and bitterness-they seem gullible and entrenched in that moon-'n'-lune '50s thing, while the unknown leader has this weary, savvy, sadly knowing quality about him. It gives a chill to hear something so bitter sung so sweetly, that ultimate sadness of knowing things really never will be the same again. If, like us, you live for the indescribable beauty of little records like this, you will be moved.

SUPERETTE Rosepig (EP)

Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland I, New Zealand 649.377.4607 or 555 Kings Road, London SW6 U.K. 0171.371.7383 After playing a significant role in JPS Experience, David Mulcahy left the band in late 1993, before joining drummer Greta Anderson and bassist Ben Howe in Superette. Musical sea-changes clearly weren't the cause of Mulcahy's departure, as Rosepig resonates with the same disarming steely-sweet suavely broody mix of guitar-rock styles as the JPS, starting with the languid haze and taut tension of "Killer Clown" (also Superette's debut 7" single). The closing "Beetle" follows the same ambiguous swoonsorne feel while in between "The Horse" and "Slide" adopt more hypno-rocking grooves with dense swirling centres. Then there's a reworked JPS track even though "Disappear" still sounds like prime JPS...maybe Mulcahy simply wanted total control and a change of sleeping arrangements. Whatever the case, Rosepig is a brief but telling episode of delicious, lean pop twists and turns.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

STEPHEN DUFFY's 1993 album Music In

Colour was a sadly underrated jewel, as lavish and textural a pop rock thrill as you could hear that or any other year. Now supported by Indolent (home of Sleeper), Duffy returns with a more pronounced guitar-pop agenda, a new album produced by Mitch Easter and starring Velvet Crush's rhythm section, starting with "London Girls," a bouncy, beat-pop nugget that both patronizes and celebrates the pop-star wannabes of the North London-based Brit-pop spearhead in Camden Town. "Tuesday lunchtime, get the papers, maybe this time, indicators indicate as trend your way...all the pop stars in your pub/think they're London girls, in mummy's pearls" ... well, that's the likes of Menswear seen off, though Duffy says the lyric was finished before the new fop-popsters appeared. "The Girl Of The Year" mines the same sparkling vault, while "You & Me & God" and "The Waitress Story" tap back into Music In Colours' autumnal, string-laden atmosphere (Indolent, Bedford House, 69-79 Fulham High St., London SW6 U.K 0171.973.0011)...It might seem obvious to hire Stephen Hague to produce a track with clear Pet Shop Boys/New Order overtones, but the dream-pop drift of Dubstar's "Stars" glistens in all the right places. Like Saint Etienne's "Avenue," "Stars" is a gorgeous update of archetypal girlgroup romance with added New Romantic synth-pop bliss. The four extra remixes over-milk the proceedings-the "Sky" mix is fast, cheesy house, the "Mother Dub" does a trip-hop makeover, et cetera, but the original will be the only one to haunt you (Food, 172 Arlington Rd., London NWI U.K. 0171.284.2560) ... HEAVY STEREO comes heavily doused in glam trademarks-stomp-beats decorated with handclaps buzzing 'glitter' guitar and scarf-waving chorus, with added '90s brat-snottiness. "Sleep Freak" bizarrely echoes naff '50stinged glam 'legend' Alvin Stardust (he took the best of T.Rex and trivialised it), but there is as much of Jesus & Mary Chain-style pure-pop/arch-rock thrills here-no wonder Creation snapped up the group. "Magic Sponge" is hard-rockin' freeway pop, a Cheap Trick indeed, with "Pleasure Dip" falling exactly half way between the two '70s bookends, a little like a tougher Pooh Sticks. Rife with retro-fever, Heavy Stereo is pleasantly young and (knowingly?) dumb all the same (Creation, 109 Regents Park Road, London NWI 8UR 0171.722.8866).

FURTHER OUT

Column by David Newgorden

The cello may have a pretty stodgy reputation from 400 years in the concert hall, played sitting down by old guys in suits, but Tom Cora can pull some of the wildest shit imaginable out of the damn thing. Along with his '80s New York City cohorts John Zorn, Fred Frith and Zeena Parkins, he invented his own odd techniques to build a personal language for his instrument. His work of the past few years has been particularly enjoyable: while still going far out in his improvising and conjuring up a full palette of unusual sounds, Cora has shown a surprising love for melody. In Curlew and the Dutch punk band The Ex (he has recently left both groups), he worked within song structures which gave him room for both adventurous and lyrical cello-ing. THIRD PERSON is Cora's improvisational trio with drummer Samm Bennett (Chunk/Bosho/Semantics) and a revolving door of guest "third persons." Lucky Water (Knitting Factory Works, 74 Leonard St., New York, NY 10013 212.219.3006) is their second full album with Japanese saxophonist Kazutoki Umezu. These three telepathic musicians put together spontaneous rhythmic grooves and melodic developments that you'll sometimes swear were pre-planned, but they're also constantly switching direction, surprising not just the listener, but each other with overlapping bits and pieces of jazz, blues, country, Asian and European folk traditions, and some zany surprises from Bennett's sampler...Drummer GERRY HEMINGWAY, best known as the long-time improvising partner of Marilyn Crispell and a member of Anthony Braxton's quartet, has been putting out his own excellent albums for just as long. The Marmalade King (Hat Art (Switzerland), c/o Challenge4hatART, 1917 24th St. #3, Sacramento, CA 95816-7245 916.455.4239), inspired by the storybooks of Hemingway's three-year-old son, is a suite for quintet (sax/trombone/cello/bass/drums) which is both daring and swinging. Playful themes with elaborate development are tied into inspired improvisation; compositional shifts often take place in sub-groups within the guintet, providing exciting counterpoints and contrasts to the solos...The PINO MINAFRA SUD ENSEMBLE is an Italian sextet (trumpet/trombone/sax/rhythm) with wideranging tastes, impressive talents and a ridiculous sense of humor. One minute the musicians are jumping into the fiery flames of fierce Coltrane-inspired free-blowing, the next minute they're dipping their toes into cool bossa nova. With a mix of jazz, European traditions, Nino Rota, etc., these guys are on par with Willem Breuker Kollektief in their virtuosity, adventurousness and clowning. Sudori (Victo, C.P. 460, Victoriaville, Quebec, G6P 6T3 Canada) is an entertaining and eclectic circus of wailing, growling, moaning, vamping, tangoing, pennywhistling, didgeridooing and loads more...ELLERY ESKELIN's Jazz Trash (Songlines, Box 421, 810 W. Broadway, Vancouver, BC V5Z 4C9, Canada 604.737.1632) came out way back in early Spring, but I keep going back to it so often that I feel guilty for not having mentioned it back then. On several previous albums, saxophonist Eskelin has been attracted to some pretty trashy standards like "Besame Mucho" and "Jitterbug Waltz," and he does in fact trash them, turning iazz clichés inside out. But this time it's all original compositions. So, what is "jazz trash?" Is it the honks and whines of Eskelin's raunchy tenor? The strange and cheezy wheeze of Andrea Parkins' accordion? Jim Black's frantic banging on a pile of drums and percussion? Well maybe, like Duke Ellington said, "if you have to ask...you'll never know." But to paraphrase another great aesthete, Oscar the Grouch, I love trash; Eshelin's new album is a keeper.

RACHELLE FERRELL First Instrument Blue Note, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

In the decade and a half since Cassandra Wilson burst onto the scene, no emerging African-American jazz singer has provoked greater extremes in criticism than Rachelle Ferrell. Reaction to her 61/2-octave range, deft arabesques and daring interval-leaps, as heard on her 1990 recording First Instrument (released first in Japan and only recently in the U.S.), is usually immediate and intense: Either you like her or you don't; you're turned on or turned off, rather Physically quickly. and idiomatically ("I live comfortably in the worlds of pop, R&B, jazz, gospel and even classical music," she says in her bio), Ferrell has all the tools-and, yes, I like her work. As a jazz singer, that is. Ferrell, however, is far better known for her R&B work: Her eponymous 1992 debut (Capitol) turned gold, made her an overnight star and stayed on the R&B charts nearly three years. The R&B/pop-styled Rachelle Ferrell was recorded after First Instrument but, wisely, released before it. Had First Instrument been released first in the U.S., thus establishing her jazz bona fides with the jazz critics, those scribes would have pilloried her with fervent shouts of sell-out upon the later issue of the slickly crafted Rachelle Ferrell. Because Rochelle Ferrell came out first, the cognoscenti had no expectations, nothing to hold against the singer, when First Instrument hit the streets. Purely on merit, as a jazz project, the Lenny Whiteproduced First Instrument is a success. Taking bites big and small out of a jazz program drawn largely from the standard songbook ("You Don't Know What Love Is," "Bye Bye Blackbird," "Inchworm," "What Is This Thing Called Love," "My Funny Valentine"), Ferrell treats the words and melodies in her palate like so much taffy. As she sings, she does swing, to be sure, and her juxtapositions of light and dark tones, combined with her dizzying melismatics and rhythmic displacements (as on "You Don't Know What Love ls)," in particular), are frequently

ON THE CHART Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. Abbey Lincoln (2-1) regains the top spot form Yerve labelmate Jimmy Smith (1-2). Blue Note's Charlie Hunter Trio is moving steadily upward (7-3), perhaps poised to unseat the Yerve dynasty (the label has been dominating the top spot for most of the year). Making an impressive rise is the wonderful tribute to Herbie Nichols by the Buell Neidlinger Quintet on the independent K2B2 label (10-6). Top chart entries: Homestead's William Hooker (#7), Columbia's sampler of newly released tracks from Miles Davis' Live At The Plugged Nickel (#10), Anthony Coleman Trio (#15) on John Zorn's new Tradik label, and Dave Douglas' (#17) tribute to Booker Little on New World. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) captivating. On most of the CD Ferrell is backed by a rather spare trio comprising pianist Eddie Green, drummer Doug Nally and stick bassist Tyrone Brown. These ears would have preferred a conventional bass fiddle to the buzzy stick bass, which lacks its acoustic counterpart's roundedness and textural variations, but this is a minor caveat. My only other cavil is the employment of two unnecessary, sterile-sounding synth parts on the CD-concluding "Autumn Leaves." Ferrell, to her credit, acquits herself well on two of her compositions: "Don't Waste Your Time" (5:13), on which she's accompanied by the trio cited above, and "Extensions" (4:58), wherein her own piano is the sole instrumental voice complementing her vocals. In addition, Ferrell does credit to Sam Cooke's well-traveled "You Send Me," breezing along on a jazzy mid-tempo romp behind Green's discreetly jaunty piano. In substance and in timing, Ferrell has been well-served by First Instrument. Now that her catalogue is represented by disparate R&B and jazz recordings, it will be interesting to chart the trajectory of her career.

STOKIN' THE FIRES

With the summer heat at its most blazing, now's the perfect time to stoke the fires with some organ-jazz barbecue-boogaloo. The turban'd Dr. Lonnie Smith (I still haven't figured out what he's a doctor of) caresses the B3 keys and pumps the bass pedals in lively fashion on several cuts from tenor saxist RON HOLLOWAY's new Struttin' CD for Milestone (c/o Fantasy, 10th & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710). In tandem with Smith's organ and John Scofield's ripsaw guitar, Holloway blows hot 'n' heavy on "I Found A New Baby," "Soultrane" and "Jungle Strut," the latter a clavé & chitlin concoction spiced with Steve Berrios' engaging percussion. Elsewhere on this album pianists Larry Willis and Kenny Barron make their majestic acoustic presence palpable. Overall, Struttin' is an hourlong mixed bag whose tunes should appeal to various jazz tastes... TONY Z makes his bid for B3 acceptance on his largely appetizing debut outing, Get Down With The Blues (Tone-Cool, 129 Parker St., Newton, MA 02159). A double-threat organist/vocalist (try "I've Got A New Love"), Z (real name: Tony Zamagni) smartly aligns himself with such organ-friendly stalwarts as Houston Person on tenor, Duke Robillard on guitar and Bernard "Pretty" Purdie on drums. Well-versed in the blues, as any self-respecting B3 player has to be, Z wails convincingly throughout, not least on the short-butswinging "Roger Pace," which also features guest harmonicat Sugar Blue. Having penned nine of the 10 selections here, Z is actually a triple-threat on this tasty entree.

JON HENDRICKS & THE ALL-STARS Boppin' At The Blue Note

Telarc, 23307 Commerce Park Rd., Cleveland, OH 44122-5804 216.464.2313 As Bobbin' At The Blue Note makes abundantly clear. Ion Hendricks at 73 has lost none of the sharpness and vitality he demonstrated in 1958 when his best-known group, Lambert Hendricks and Ross, unleashed Sing A Song Of Basic on the jazz world, Reunited on-stage in December of 1993 at the Blue Note jazz club in Manhattan, where he has lived for many years, with his family (wife Judith and daughters Michele and Aria) and a crack band featuring four world-class horn soloists, pere Hendricks presides over an hour long celebration proving that the human voice, in actuality and inspiration, is the most expressive instrumental voice there is. Hendricks purveys, in combination, unsurpassed erudition and enthusiasm, technique and taste. Using his family singing group, Jon Hendricks & Co. (with the aforesaid family members plus Kevin Burke), at the core, Daddy-O Jon fashions a cohesive ensemble into which guest soloists Wynton Marsalis (trumpet), Al Grey (trombone), Red Holloway (alto sax) and Benny Golson (tenor sax) groove effortlessly. A people-person at his best in front of attentive listenters, leader Hendricks keeps the sounds happening and hilarious, not least on "Everybody's Boppin'," wherein he, Michele and Marsalis (for the first time on record) engage in a tour-de-force scat-athon. The acknowledged king of vocalese --- the art of grafting words to approximate instrumental passages --- Hendricks is a hearty singer and wily wordsmith (eight of the 11 selections here bear his lyrics). "Shiny Stockings" and "One O'Clock Jump," Hendricks staples from the Count Basie library, conclude the CD, as one might expect, but to these ears the most play-worthy tracks are "Everybody's Boppin;" and "It's Sand, Man," both featuring Sterling vocal interplay.

ON THE CHART Color indicates a significant increase in airplay. All hail the new #1, as reggae veteran Burning Spear once again rises to the top of the New World charts with his Rosto Business CD, which moves 3-1. Elsewhere, Ziggy Marley moves 8-5 with his ElektrateEG album, while Ferni Kuti moves 15-9 with his Tabu-Motown CD. Our highest debut is the Into The Mystic compilation from Worldly-Triloka, coming on board at #10. Elsewhere, Original Music's compilation of Kerestina guitar songs from the lifties comes on at #17, while the bottom of our chart is riddled with new debuts: Music Of The World's Jalal Zolfonun at #23, Mesa-Mesa/Bluemoon's Aswad at #24, and and indifferent, pouring through the mail slot than any other summer in memory. Hence, I would be remiss if I didn't make room for a number of good records that might otherwise pass you by.

BOILED IN LEAD has always had a split personality, part Mustaphas worshippers, part heavy metal band, part Celt folk rockers. The group's much-awaited new album (actually an album/novel/CD-ROM) is no less confused, and no less wonderful for the confusion. Hard Balkan rock gives way to American blues, Irish jigs and then back into the fuzz box zone. Songs From The Gypsy (Omnium, PO. Box 7367, Minneapolis, MN SS407) is based on the novel by Steven Brust, a songwriter in his own right, and the mix here is unique. Now if they can only explain to me how to get the CD-ROM part to work!

No summer is complete without some serious rock 'n' roll, and the BLAZERS' brand of East Side Soul (Rounder, I Camp Street, Cambridge MA 02140 617.354.0700) is the perfect antidote to 101 in the shade. East L.A. Latino sounds, pure-bred R&B, and a mean version of Jesse Hill's "Ooh-Poo-Pah-Doo" are all it takes to cool it down.

Ivory Coast native ABOU SMITH is a new name to me. His debut American album, Mafola (Sahara, 10807 Sugar Maple Terrace, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772 301.499.3044), has a smooth mix of reggae, African roots and American soul. Some excellent songs are mildly marred by the ubiquitous drum and bass machines.

MADDY PRIOR, lead singer for the Brit folk-rock band Steeleye Span, has always had a pop heart, and she has produced a number of solo albums exploring where her voice belongs in the contemporary music world. Some of her best attempts are documented on The Best Of.../Memento (Park Records US, 67 Massachusetts Ave., Box 291887, Cambridge, MA 02139-0008). It includes some of her wonderful Silly Sisters recordings with June Tabor, and a fine new tune, as well.

As an ardent fan of rowdy Brit folk-rock, I want to point you to the latest from the PRESS GANG, Burning Boats (D.D.R., Germany, c/o Vox Pop, P.O. 2018, Reading RG I 7EW U.K.). With accordions, whistles, drums and electric guitars, this gang rocks in the grand tradition of the Pogues, the Oysters and the Levellers.

Of course, the godfathers (grandfathers?) of the genre are FAIRPORT CONVENTION, and after a couple of weak albums the last few years, the group seems to have found new energy on Jewel In The Crown (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury, CT 06810 203.730.0333). There are the usual instrumentals here, but none of them stand out. Their choice of songwriters has always been impeccable, and it is no less here, with contributions from Steve Tilston, Ralph McTell, Leonard Cohen (a weird one, this version of "Closing Time"), Clive Gregson and a marvelous title song from Julie Matthews. Fairport has found the old spark; now all the band needs is a real lead singer again!

Two new compilations for the lazy radio programmer hit the street this summer. Global Divas (Rounder, address above) features women from around the world, including Oumou Sangare, Cedilla Marley Booker, Spain's marvelous Carmen Linares, Javanese pop star Nasida Ria, and Patsy Cline, who brings it all back home. Music For A Changing World (Xenophile, c/o Green Linnet, address above) is a premature celebration of the label's few of years of world music publishing with Tarika, Ad Vielle Que Pourra, the Ukrainians, Lazaros Ros and a number of other artists from the growing Xenophile roster.

A compilation well worth seeking out is the collection of Italian folk roots, Atlante Di Musica Tradizionale (Robi Droli, Strada Roncaglia 16, 15040 San Germano, Italy WWW pages: www.inrete.it/musica/robidroli.html). From the incredible Ritmia's fusion of roots and jazz to the thunderous throb of the Sicilian choir Tenores Di Bitti, this is an album of wonderful sonic discoveries from the Mediterranean.

Also keep your eyes on the mailbox for new music from ZAIKO LANGA LANGA (Stern's), NANA VASCONCELOS (Hemisphere), the KLEZMATICS (Xenophile-Green Linnet), ISSAC DELGADO (Qbadisc) and KIP HANRAHAN (American Clavé-Rounder).

Joy and jubilation! The next generation of divas from Africa are beginning to spread their wings and bring us their voices. Here is one that will surely bring you into the mesmerizing music of the Wassoulou. Adama Diabate has that voice, that voice that is both earthy and heavenly, alluring and foreboding. Her phrasing is indebted to the women who went before her. Oumou Sangare in particular, but she also seems to have found her own path, with a delivery slightly more aggressive than expected, more like a blues singer than the balladeer of Mali. Equally impressive is the ensemble gathered to back her up on this album. Toumani Diabate (once a wonder kid himself) does the kora duties, Kelitigui Diabate the balafon, Chiek Tidiane Seck provides the clever and tasteful keyboards he is becoming famous for. Throughout there is electronic programming, acoustic and electric guitars and some fat, fat bass lines, but they are all part of a more acoustic-roots whole that is unique and gives rise to a new star. It just doesn't get better than this on a hot summer's night.

ON THE CHART There's quite a logiam going on among the top five records on this week's chart: Polydor-A&M's Van Morrison kaps into the lead (3-1) with Elektra-EEG's Natalie Merchant (2-2), Reprise's Chris Isaak (3-1), High Street's Patty Larkin (6-4) and Reprise's Neil Young (5-4) right behind. Elsewhere, Yanguard's Peter Case (11-6), Oh Boy's John Prine (17-7), A&H's Innocence Mission (16-11), Rykodisc's increase in airplay. Roches (18-15) and 22T-W8's Shane MacGowan And The Popes (22-16) make strong moves inside the top 20. Top debuts this week are Bolemia Beat's Abra Moore at #32, Backyard-Scotti Bros, Young Dubliners at #35 and Rounder's Blazers at #37. Top Adds: 1) Ben Folds Five; 2) Ben Harper; 3) Willy Porter; 4) Ani Difranco; 5) Jane Kelly Williams.

BEN HARPER Fight For Your Mind

Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210

There's no sophomore slump for Ben Harper as Fight For Your Mind takes up where his brilliant debut of last year, Welcome To The Cruel World, left off. It's agreeably packed with his singular style of folk-soul with a message, yet traces of Harper's artistic growth make it all the more worthwhile. The album's salient feature is Harper's use of acoustic instruments in very electric settings. Tunes like "Ground On Down," "Gold To Me" and the title track possess a remarkable amount of energy. His quieter moments are equally impressive, with the stark elegance of

"Another Lonely Day" and the hypnotic "Give A Man A Home" standing out. Few contemporary artists in Harper's age group (he's only 2S) express joy with this much verve or communicate pain with such anguished vocals, and Fight For Your Mind is only the second chapter in what is sure to be a long and affecting career.

TONI PRICE Hey

Antone's, c/o Discovery, 2034 Broadway, Santa Monica, CA 90404 310.828.1033 Toni Price is nothing short of a phenomenon in her hometown of Austin. Texas. She draws overflow crowds wherever she performs, her first record is still tops among local artists in terms of sales, and she's been named Best Female Vocalist the past two years at the Austin Music Awards, Hey continues in a similar vein as Price's previous work, exhibiting her raw yet sultry vocals on a wide-ranging set of blues and boogie. Once again the majority of her material is from the pen of one of Nashville's skilled yet under-appreciated writers, Gwil Owens; with some of best players in Texas (Derek O'Brien, David Grissom, Scrappy Jud Newcomb, Champ Hood, Rich Brotherton, Frosty and more) at her side, Price easily glides from sly and sexy to gruff and raunchy. Stand out tracks include "Something," "Boozy Blues," "New York City 23rd Of July" and "Dean And Brandy," but Hey is impressive throughout, achieving a rare combination-understatement, elegance and charm.

Porter is on the verge of breaking through in a big way as singer/songwriter in the same mold as John Hiatt and John Gorka. If you missed this record the first time, don't let it pass you by again...LUNA's live shows can be a bit static, but the band's records have always been impressively moody. Luna's third, Penthouse (Elektra, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019), is chockfull of shimmering guitar pop. Tom Verlaine stops by for a couple of six-string excursions on "Moon Palace" and "23 Minutes In Brussels," while Stereolab's Laetitia Sadier joins Luna's vocalist/guitarist Dean Wareham on Serge Gainsbourg's "Bonnie & Clyde," an oddly attractive duet, and the unlisted track at the end of the disk.

BABY BUDDAH HEADS Who Killed Acid lazz? C&S, 166 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10010 212.675.4038

A 15-year veteran of DJing and producing, DJ Jazzy Nice is a leading figure in the New York acid jazz scene, as well as a member of the group Brooklyn Funk Essentials. In tandem with well-known producer, songwriter and remixer Mitch Moses, the album Who Killed Acid Jazz? was conceived to demonstrate how powerful and expressive production can be. While having all of the musical sensibilities of acid jazz, this album forges its identity through the use of production techniques, live instrumentation, and various changes of pace. Going deeper, the eight cuts here have distinct hip-hop characteristics ("Circles") that you'll find confident and supremely funky. While an MC's incessant verbal barrage can either pull listeners in or scatter them like tear gas, the lack of rhyming on this album doesn't make it any less enjoyable. The Guru-sampled "Eenie, Meanie, Minie, Moe (I Chant)" is an exercise in East Coast hip-hop. while the tour guide-like voice on "Baby Buddah Bounce" introduces the listener to old swing samples that keep the cut busy and colorful. "Big Mama Is Gone" gives a front-porch blues feel to the rock guitar riffs and jeep beat, while "Morning Dub" mixes a dubby low end with moody trombone work by Josh Roseman

ON THE CHART (HECK OUT THE VIEW: After a short cup of coffee at the #1 position, Elektra's Grand Puba (1-4) gives up the top spot to Pendulum-EHI's AZ The Visualiza, who moves "Sugar Hill" from #2 to #1. Loud-RCA's Mobb Deep still has a lock on the #3 spot, while Big Beat's Mad Skillz (27-8) come racing into this week's top 10 with "The Nod Factor" and Profile's Special Ed (11-9) gets back into the top 10. increase in airplay. Further down, we see movement from Capitol's Aceyalone (16-11) (ex-freestyle Fellowship), Big Beat-Atlantic's Junior M.A.F.I.A. (24-12) and Penalty's Shabaz & The Disciple (28-15). Making this week's highest debut is the second volume of Guru's Jazzmatazz II: The New Reality (see Blowin' Up), which makes an impressive debut at #16. Also making their premier appearances this week are Mercury's Jernini The Gifted One (#36) and jive's KRS-One (#38). (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HIP HOP ESSENTIALS Hip Hop Essentials (EP) Max'n, c/o Maxi, 36 W. 22nd St., 2nd Fl., New York: NY 10010 212, 366,0950

This five-song, er, five-groove slab of funk is the work of producers Danny Krivit and David Raimer. For the DJ, this EP invites manipulation, additions and whatever else comes to mind-some freestyle would help, too. What sounds more like instrumental mixes of pedestrian, bass-heavy hiphop tracks, the entire first side of the vinyl is taken up by "Boomer From The Future" and "Future Beat" (the cuts are essentially the same), nearly eight-minutes of a rhythm that creeps like a low-lying fog, and is marinated in a lazy, hypnotic mix of percussion, bits of sampled voice and a feeling of impending doom. The flipside opens with "Forgettin'," which samples either Michael McDonald's "I Keep Forgettin'" or Warren G.'s "Regulate"-we're leaning towards the latter. The cut rolls unobtrusively along like a remix that Warren G, never knew about, "Should I just Let It Go" is a spacy R&B jam which creates its own dialogue by countering a transistor radio-quality sample of a piece of music with a echoed voice.

DOUG E. FRESH "It's On!" (12")

Gee Street, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th St., New York, NY 10019 Way back in late 1993, hip-hop original Doug E. Fresh popularized the expression "I-Ight" on a single (and NBA remix) that was one of the biggest hits of his career. The single was popular enough to keep fans checking for a follow up. Well, about two years later, Doug E. has come back with "It's On" from the long-anticipated album, Play. Produced by Easy Moe Bee, Fresh mixes up his human beat box skill with fiery party narration that includes guest vocals from

Vicious and Singing Melody. The B-side includes the album cut, "Where's The Party At?."

Excuse me? Did somebody say Wu-Tang? KICK IT As a matter of fact, there is more music from the Wu-Tang empire, which spans solo albums and production for new jacks. The latest reality check comes from KGB and his 4th Disciple-produced single, "Bless Ya Life" (Mascot, 166 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10010 212.675.4038). Part tribute to lost friends, part grim reality, the original mix fits perfectly into the Wu-Tang mold: a titanic hip-hop groove brushed with haunting samples that add a deep, dramatic flair to the mix. For some real ingenuity, flip the tape over and check the "Grim" mix, which substitutes the Wu-Tang production with a reworking of Al Green's "Strong As Death" that not only retains all of the drama, but it adds a soulful, enveloping hook...While its name may be a little peculiar, there's nothing peculiar about the swingin' funk of PEOPLE WITHOUT SHOES' new single/EP, "Assassin" (Rage, 309 Ave. C, Ste. 3C, New York, NY 10009 212.260.1779). "Nappyhead Assassin" lets the murderous rhymes rip over an abstract rhythm, while "Evil For Eternity" makes the sonic comparisons-mostly by the duo's high-pitched deliveries-to the Pharcyde with a more perceptible Masta Ace mentality. The B-side features the group's most chaotic and rambling cut, "If." All cuts feature at least three mixes...Now that RAPPIN' 4-TAY has found commercial success with "I'll Be Around" (thanks to a hefty Spinners sample), he takes it to the West Coast streets with a remix by Mike Dean (Scarface, Geto Boys), who replaces most of the Spinners track with searing strings and a cooledout G-Funk groove (Rag Top/Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104). For the dancefloors, Geoffrey C provides a remix that sounds bright and energetic compared to Dean's mix...KEITH MURRAY takes a bit of the old and mixes it with the new on his new split 12" single for "This That Hit"/"Dip Dip Di" (Jive, 137-

Column by Glen Sansone

139 W. 2Sth St., New York, NY 10001 212.727.0016). His new jam, "This That Hit," is taken from the upcoming Erick Sermon compilation album, Insomnia, (soon-to-be-released on Interscope) and is powered by the line, "This that hit goes out to my peoples who are locked down, and all my peoples on the street." Taken from his solo album, "Dip Dip Di" is given a radio-friendly remix and still settles into a bicostal design, which features West Coast coolness with manic, East Coast rhyming ... While it seems women in hiphop are increasingly few in numbers, they are still the object of admiration to some of their homeboy counterparts. With what could become one of the more memorable singles of the summer of '95, 80FF debuts his Queens, New York, MC style on "Ghetto Girl" (Elektra, c/o EEG, 7S Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019). While the cut is generally harmless, it's interesting to observe how 80ff expresses his admiration for his around-the-way girl: by talking about himself and his sexual exploits. The self-produced track does feature a fantastic, soulful chorus and bass line, while the mob-chants keep the energy level high...The latest single by THUG LIFE, entitled "How Long Will They Mourn Me?" (Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024), examines the aftermath of a dead homey with emotional anger, and features background vocals by honorary Thug Life member, Nate Dogg...DJ QUIK enters his bid for summer anthem with "Summer Breeze" (Profile, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003 212.529.2600), a wellchilled cut that pays more attention to his exceptional production acumen instead of his questionable lyrics...The LOST BOYZ have released the Easy Moe Bee-produced "Jeeps, Lex, Coups, Bimaz & Benz" (Uptown, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608), fit for instant radio playablility. Although the group's album, Legal Drug Money, isn't receiving the attention it deserves, those who give this single some air time will find the Lost Boyz to be one of the most exciting and skilled new crews to come from MCA in a long time. Word out.

WORD IS ... JIVE'S NO FOOL!: After having

collectively sold over 800,000 copies of his previous albums (released on his Sick Wid It label) before signing with Jive, Vallejo, California's E-40 has achieved gold status with his latest album, In A Major Way. E-40 is currently finishing up production on the upcoming album by The Click...The first two products of Warren G's G-Funk label, the Twinz and Dove Shack, have released their debut singles. The Twinz kick it slow and cool on "Round And Round," while Dove Shack is debuting "Summertime In The LBC" as part of the soundtrack for The Show.

GURU Jazzmatazz II: The New Reality

Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036 Radio Chart Position: #16

He has been called everything from a visionary to one of the smartest and most forward-thinking artists in hip-hop.

BLOWIN' UP He's even been praised for his listener and youth-friendly raps, which carry insightful and positive messages. Of course we're talking about Gang Starr frontman Guru. He follows up one of the most applauded records/experiments of his career, Jazzmatazz, with a new, updated installment that boldly builds upon an already firm foundation. More than just a slapped together bunch of songs from artists of different musical positions, Jazzmatazz II: The New Reality carries a strong message and reaches across musical boundaries to include R&B, soul and even a bit of reggae. Reporters are already singing its praises as it debuts on the Radio chart at #16 and scores top five reports at the following stations: KFJC, KUNV, KWVA, WBAU, WGMU (#1), WMVB, WNUR and WRCT.

GET YA GROOVE ON

Just as Brazilian music had a profound impact on jazz music in the late 'S0s and early '60s, it has been an exciting and beautiful addition to the acid jazz set. It has, however, turned up to be a key ingredient in the music of bands from some of the most improbable places like Japan, Germany and England. Two new releases offer intoxicating amalgamations of Latin music, jazz and funk, revealing interesting mixes of the grooved-based music found in acid jazz. Instinct has already released the compilation Jazz Com Bossa, and they come back strong with Bossa Brava! (Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., #S02, New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360), which is full of explosive Latin jazz tunes from a multi-cultural host of players. From Oakland-bred Rad, whose rich, soulbased vocals are spiced up for "So Complete," to the Japanese outfit Mondo Grosso, which teams up with vocalist Monday Miter to form the group Bahia Sunsets, these tracks capture the vibrant energy and endless rhythms of the Latin-funk movement. If Brazilian-laced funk is your drug, also check out the collection Brazilian Thoroughfare (Luv N' Haight, c/o Ubiquity, Box 192104, San Francisco, CA 94119-2104 415.979.0887) for some reissued Brazilian-spiced funk from some fine German groups of the 1970s...Set the mind to "chill" and ease into New Breed and DJ Smash's latest hip-hop/jazz compilation entitled Loungin' (New Breed, 134 W. 26th St., #770, New York, NY 10001 212.642.8028). The mix offers 11 tracks, many by groups which are veterans of New Breed's Fat Jazzy Grooves series, but the results of each track remain consistent with mix's cool, mellow jazz-funk design. Check out Khromozomes' Miles Davis-sampled "Cab Driver" and the Beat Demons' "Nighttime Funk" and you'll get the idea...Now that BOYZ II MEN have conquered the pop and R&B charts, the Motown/Philly quartet sets its sights on the hip-hop kingdom on the new single "Vibin'" (Motown, 62SS Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028). No, the vocal crew hasn't taken up rapping, it has simply taken a back seat to three elite MCs on two separate, yet distinct mixes. While Boyz II Men still provide smooth harmonizing, MC duties are handled by Treach, Busta Rhymes and Method Man, who seems to appear on every rap remix being produced this year. An alternate remix is also included featuring Eric Sermon, Keith Murray and Redman & 2 To Da Head. There doesn't seem to be a genre unfitting for the Boyz.

XSCAPE Off The Hook

So So Def, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

When the formulaic female foursome known as Xscape debuted last year with Hummin' Comin' At Cho, there was one thing these girls possessed besides the confidenceboth sexual and vocal-and attitude it takes to survive in such a competitive arena: producer Jermaine Dupri (Da Brat, Kris Kross). The group's second album, Off The Hook (again produced by Dupri) makes only slight alterations to the formula of the group's successful debut. Where the first album funked and bumped, this one grooves and grinds—very sweetly, too. As evidenced in the group's cover of the Jones Sisters' "Who Can I Run To." this album is far more listenable and endurable that the first, as its subject matter, although limited, doesn't lean to heavily on catch phrases and comes off more sincere and serious. "Can't Hang" features vocals from MC Lyte, and the harmonically-sound "Do You Want To" is a lavishly layered ballad that could be a late-summer bomb. Also included is "Work Me Slow" from the Bad Boys soundtrack.

Re-entries this week include: the Orb at #12, Intermix at #14, and Prototype 909 at #25. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

ELECTRO-STATIC

electronic dance right now is the arena

The other site for progressive of electro, a point which I have perhaps belabored here a little too often. Nevertheless, the return of electro-funk is important because it marks the end of the privileging of the 4/4 kick drum which dominates the field. Two records released this week testify to the strength of the new school of electro. The New Electro Sound Of London EP gathers four tracks from new producers who evidently had their ear to the speaker in the mid-'80s. Sure, these tracks contain more samples than a carpet store, but they're so damn enjoyable, you won't care, "Bass is Da Place" by Thursday Club mimics the lonzun Crew's elephantine 808 anthem. "Space Is The Place," while "Westway" by Westway samples snippets from Keymatic's "Breakin' In Space" and "We Come To Rock" by the Imperial Brothers to toxic effect. But if you think this collection is mere blueprint revivalism, you'll be surprised to hear piercing acid sequences and deft, minor-key keyboard play (TCR, 6A Portland Mews, London WIV 3FL U.K. 0171.734.0683)...More 808 pyrotechnics are to be found on the Kilohertz EP by ELECKTROIDS on the reliably innovative Warp label. The wavering title track recalls Kraftwerk, Afrika Bambaataa, and Cabaret Voltaire circa "Nag Nag Nag" in one breath, with its deep, yet tiny, bass line and synth arrangements. The remaining three tracks are set adrift in a landscape that is at once unfamiliar and enchanting. "Magnetic Field" is a quirky, flanging affair, while the restless "Remote Control Hornet" is suffused with tense, filtered acid punctuation (Warp, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield S1 3BW U.K. 0742.757.5860).

JUNGLIST MASSIVE

You've seen the name JO in these pages before, because she is one of Britain's most inventive jungle producers. Her latest single, "Raw," combines lengthy samples from Big Daddy Kane's '88 single of the same name with trance-inflected choir chords over a hammering, compressed breakbeat loop. No one but Jo would think of creating a jungle trance rendition of a mid-'80s hip-hop classic, but here it is. The flip's "Overload" is a heavily bass-ed track with a barrelling break loop that trips over itself constantly. Outstanding (Awesome, c/o Jumpstart, Unit 6-8, Millmead Business Centre, Millmead Road, London N17 9QU U.K. 0181.865.0303)...Another consistently productive jungle imprint is Greensleeves lungle which updates roots and dancehall classics for the jungle generation. The label's latest, "Two Sounds Jungle" (12") by BARRINGTON LEVY & BEENIE MAN, sees the return of the duo which recorded the massive "Under Mi Sensi (Jungle Spliff)" last year. Levy's distinctive vocals, familiar to dancehall fans for years, are complemented by the frenetic percussive work by junglists Tom & Jerry, who throw some trance work into the mix. Jamaican-influenced music has always been as much about the past as the future, and jungle is no exception (Greensleeves, Unit 14, Metro Centre, St. John's Road, Isleworth, Middlesex TW7 6NJ 081.758.0564).

ON THE FLIPSIDE

One of the most sorely missed dance labels is Nu Groove, a New York indie which released some of the most challenging house music in the mid-tolate '80s. One of the producers responsible for the Nu Groove sound was the accomplished Rheji Burrell, whose multiple pseudonyms populate the Nu Groove catalog. One of his most endearing (and enduring) records is "How Do You Love A Black Woman?" by HOUZ NEEGROZ, one of the deepest house records of the 1980s. NY indie Downtown 161 has reissued this gem on its Tu Chicks imprint, and included two new versions by that man-of-the-moment, DJ Sneak. Sneak adds his minimalist aesthetic to the proceedings, particularly on the tense, percolating "Sneak Attack Mix." The original is thankfully included here, and one can only hope that this is the first in a long series of Nu Groove reissues (Tu Chicks, c/o Downtown, 161 20 Greene St., New York, NY 10012 212 925 0065).

RAVE REVIEW

4TH WAVE "Touched" (12")

Planet E. 500 River PL. #5110. Detroit, MI 48207 313,567,0916 Carl Craig's quietly pioneering Planet E label has delivered an elaborately textured EP introducing the considerable talents of Steve Paton and Ion Litchfield. The title track is a mellifluous, corner-turning affair with an expertly muted 909 drum pattern and undulating synth waves set to minor-key chord changes. 4th Wave exercises such restraint here. and that is the beauty of this record: its understated vet powerful rhythmic undertow. The flipside's first track, "Ethereal," is a down-tempo piece tinged with melancholy, while "Electroluy" is a bleepy, mid-'80s Detroit number with pulsing synth sequences. Labels such as Planet E are accorded reverence overseas, but so often ignored in the U.S. Planet E is an imprint which will hopefully gain more attention in North America.

10 Claire/Libre (EP) Excursions/Mo' Wax, c/o London, 825 Eighth Ave. 24th FL New York, NY 10019

Those of you familiar with the boundary-pushing Austrian electronic dance label Cheap will no doubt recognize the iO monicker as belonging to label owner Patrick Pulsinger. With such records as the Dogmatic Sequences EPs and other tortured forays into the underground, Pulsinger, along with his Viennese cohorts, has earned high praise from the techno cognoscenti in the past two years. His penchant for spacey, jazzy headwork has resulted in the release of this excellent set of tracks for the Excursions label, a new Mo' Wax imprint devoted to experimental. jazz-inflected electronic dance music. "Claire," appearing here with a remix by renowned U.K. technician Mark Broom, is a brooding, dense melange of offcenter, wayward keyboards, trickling drums, and hesitant, thick bass lines. The flip's "Libre" is a spikier affair, with juddering keys and a perilously taut bass line. The most interesting "techno" being produced right now is happening at the lower end of the BPM scale, and the iO

LOUD ROCK REYJEWS

SHEER TERROR Love Songs For The Unloved

Blackout!, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608 Lewd, rude, crude and rotten to the core, Sheer Terror has been banging out abrasive, old-school NYHC (New York the word for over a decade now, while staying atop the underground hardcore heap through loads of intense hard work, determined aggression, numerous LP, EP and 7" releases and tons of sweaty, mosh-filled live shows. Defining pure, balls-y hardcore/punk rock spirit, Sheer Terror demands attention from start to finish on this latest lesson in menacing, brute force entitled Love Songs For The Unloved, the band's major-label debut. Sounding as if he just gargled with a mixture of sand, glass and razor blades, lead vocalist Reverend Paul Bearer's rough-'n'-raunchy shouts careen wildly over a tidal wave of vicious grooves, relentless grinds, brazen attitude and pure, white-knuckled aggression on this gritty, Tommy Victor-produced (Prong) masterpiece. Ripping out of the gate with the pissed-off, fist-pumping explosion of the title track, Love Songs... keeps the momentum high with a slew of full-throttling, rowdy, angry tracks, including the first single "Not Waving, Drowning" (already making waves at metal radio), "Rock Bottom On The Kitchen Floor," "Skinhead Girl," "Drunk, Divorced And Downhill Fast," "College Boy" and "Be Still My Heart (You're Killing Me)."

Hardcore) in the truest sense of

WARRIOR SOUL The Space Age Playboys Mayhem, c/o Futurist, 6 Greene St., 2nd Fl., New York, NY 10013 212.226.7272

Although The Space Age Playboys is a far cry from Warrior Soul's former politically-charged, powerful, hard-edged rock sound, it doesn't mean that it isn't worthy of your attention.

Those of you who may remember Warrior Soul's Drugs God And The New Republic (1991) days—before lead vocalist Kory Clarke cut his hip-length mane of hair and traded in his jeans and sneaks for a pair of tight, gold glitter pants and platform shoes—will undoubtedly be shocked, but most likely not disappointed, by the band's latest musical direction, which falls somewhere between a glam-influenced, guitar-driven rock fest and a spirited punk rock rumble. Although the band has traded in its previous "fuck you" attitude for a much lighter, fun-loving posture, Warrior Soul is by no means a bunch of wishy-washy poseurs, as The Space Age Playboys soars with tight, riff-laden jams, high-energy rhythms, instantly catchy melodies and rowdy, propulsive grooves that will leave you wanting to pogo with your partner one minute and body slam him or her the next. Check out the atomic percussion blast of "Rocket Engines," the insolent party-grind of "Let's Get Wasted," the distorted reception of "Television," the bass-driven thump of "I Wanna Get Some" and the hard-hitting slap of "Generation Graveyard."

OTIS Otis

CherryDisc, P.O. Box 990424, Boston, MA 02199 617.262.5547 Although most of you are probably unfamiliar with this relatively new, Boston-based guitar/power rock band, you won't be for long. In a mere year's time, Otis not only built up a strong local following, but has also shared the stage with heavyhitters like the Ramones, amassed a hefty share of radio support and recorded this selftitled debut album. Poised on the edge of a full-scale, nationwide takeover, Otis—comprised of lead vocalist Kev O. Matic, guitarist "Endless" Mike Hill, bassist Joshua "Horton" Scott and drummer Brian Strawn combines just the right amount of clamorous noise with infectious rhythms, forceful vocal punches and massive guitar grinds throughout these nine vigorously rockin' tunes. Grungy overtones and deep-rooted churns infiltrate the core of "Release 13," while a fast and furious bass thwack drives the aggro-crashing "Sick." Also check out the distorted grind of "Jimbo," the aggressive, less-than-rosy stomp of "Little Pink," the twisted groove of "Dementia Praecox" and the volatile shudder of "Murder King."

All reviews by Jenni Glenn unless otherwise noted.

NENS

In response to the slew of recent rumors regarding the status of Rockworld Records, the label released this statement: "Contrary to what you may have read (or heard). Rockworld Records is alive and well. Not only is our distribution deal with Sony still intact, but it is business as usual here in sunny New York City! If you have any questions, please call Mike Wilson at 212.996.2727." 'Nuff said...Seaweed's Hollywood debut, Spanaway, will ship to metal radio the end of July, with adds on August 8. The first single will be "Free Drug Zone."...Ozzy Osbourne has confirmed his first-ever tour of South America and Mexico. Joining Ozzy on tour will be former Black Sabbath bassist Geezer Butler, drummer Deen Castronovo and new guitarist Joe Holmes. "I've waited a long time to tour South America and Mexico," Ozzy said. "I know there are thousands of crazy fans there who have been waiting just as long as I have, and I'm sorry to have kept them waiting. I'm definitely planning to spend a lot more time in South America and Mexico in the future!" A highlight of the tour will be headlining a few select dates on the "Monsters Of Rock" tour, September 2, 8 and 10 in Brazil, Argentina and Chile, respectively, with Alice Cooper, Faith No More, Megadeth, Therapy?, Paradise Lost and various local acts supporting. Ozzy will return to South America on September 25 to play La Rinconada Stadium in Caracas, Venezuela. The performance will be broadcast live via satellite to over 300 record stores in Canada, Japan and the United States. Among those receiving the broadcast will be the famed Sony Jumbo Tron screen located outdoors in NYC's Times Square. Ozzy's latest album, Ozmosis (Epic), will be released internationally on September 26. Recorded in Paris and New York City, Ozmosis features Geezer Butler, Deen Castronovo and Zakk Wylde and was produced by Michael Beinhorn (Soul Asylum, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Soundgarden)...Did you ever dream of owning a '68 Cadillac Coupe De Ville? If so, have we got a contest for you! Atlantic Records recently announced its Sugar Ray "Streaker" Contest (in support of the band's hit single "Mean Machine" from the band's debut album Lemonade And Brownies), offering a chance to win the band's real life "mean machine" that inspired the song (and is featured in the video). To enter, submit a videotape of yourself "streaking" while holding Sugar Ray's Lemonade And Brownies release. All entries must include your name, age, address and daytime phone and must be received by September 30, 1995. Send videos to: Sugar Ray "Streaker" Contest, c/o Atlantic Records, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, 3rd Fl., New York, NY 10019, Entries will be judged by the band and a panel of industry experts (oh yeah, right ... exactly what type of credentials does one need in order to judge a bunch of naked people running around like idiots?!) on "most outrageous streak." Judges' decisions are final. The grand prize is Sugar Ray's Mean Machine: a 1968 Cadillac Coupe De Ville. Runners-up will have dinner with the members of Sugar Ray when the tour comes to their market. All entries will receive an autographed four-track CD with unreleased songs (just for having the...um, balls...to do something like this in the first place). Winners will be notified by phone. Don't forget, you must be at least 18 years of age to enter. Call Jon Nardachone for more info at 212,275,2135...Attention instrumental guitar rock freaks! If you love commercially-oriented, intricate finger-pickin' with hard-rock sounds, make sure you check out Ground Zero (Firenze Duomo) by San Francisco-based trio, Doppler Effect, led by guitarist Doug Doppler, a former student of Joe Satriani. Apparently very impressed by Doppler's playing, Satriani asked him to take over his teaching duties at the infamous Second Hand Guitar Company in Berkeley, California, after he resigned in order to pursue his professional playing career full-time. That's a pretty hefty endorsement. Give it a listen and judge for yourself

LIQUORICE "Cheap Cuts"

4AD Director: Matthew Amata

Liquorice-a supergroup of sorts comprised of Tsunami's Jenny Toomey, Ida's Dan Littleton and His Name Is Alive's

Trey Many—debuts its first alburn, Listening Cop, with this leadoff single and video. While we can't help reminiscing about the truly beautiful clips that Trey's other group has done with the Quay brothers, "Cheap Cuts" is as cute, stylish and vibrant as you'd expect from musicians of this caliber (and a director who cut his teeth on the Red House Painters' elegant "Summer Dress" clip). Here Toomey plays the local Mary Kay girl, complete with coordinating light blue dress and hat, while Trey and Many fulfill their roles in drag as the housewives she calls upon. Lots of rich colors, a few admirably silly acting performances and some requisite shots of the trio playing round out this fun piece.

CLIP FIX

makes full use of a standard split-screen effect and the dichotomy of color and black-and-white film with its video debut, "Mouthful Of Pennies" (Mute). The screen is split in thirds, with vocalist Katie Walters appropriately separated from the frenetic performance of the rest of the five-piece band. See 'em live and you'll understand how well the clip has captured the band's energetic presence as well Walters' equally vivacious vocal performance...The CIRCLE JERKS, one of yesteryear's more infamous punk outfits, have been resurrected for the '90s punk revival and turn in one of the year's flat-out goofiest clips with a cover of the Soft Boys' "I Wanna Destroy You" (Mercury). Riding around L.A. on the back of a flatbed truck, the group first appears in hip, baby blue suits before donning a series of ridiculous theater-prop-room costumes. The clip ends with the group running around a pen full of farm animals. Hmmm...He may be an oldster (he's got a few years on the veteran Circle Jerks), but NEIL YOUNG can still rock with the best of 'em. "Downtown" (Reprise), the first vid from his collaborative album with Pearl Jam doesn't feature Eddie and the boys at all, and includes very little of Neil himself. Instead, its premise is one long dance party peopled by a motley bunch of hippies and punks-ya know, your average Neil Young fans...From the people who brought you the trailer park punk-pop sounds of Bracket (Caroline) comes the Bay Area's ENGINE 88, whose debut clip "Mangos" works all the flashy angles possible with a primarily performance-fueled video. The song is a riff-sharp, caffeine-charged number and the video is the cut in the same mold-i.e. split-second edits, racing camera movement, over-before-ya-knowit, out-of-breath exuberance...Like the abovementioned video, JENNIFER TRYNIN's latest clip, "Better Than Nothing" (Squint-WB), is a simple performance accompaniment to a song that speaks for itself. Expect to hear this one all over the radio very soon...Last but not least, Matador-WB's PAVEMENT has a new clip for "Father To A Sister Of Thought" from Wowee Zowee. It seems like the indie-rock champs have gone granola, donning cowboy hats and other Western wear for this slightly atypical track and clip. But never fear, there's still some trademark smirking going on here.

LOUD ROCK DEALOGUE

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 The NJ Queensryche show was absolutely brilliant! This is a band who will blow through all trends and fashions and continue to do their own thing successfully. "10 Seconds Down" is the chunky new track from Sugar Ray. Yes, the song is about Mark's sexual prowess! Ask him about it when you check out Sugar Ray on the road with Toadies. Ask ME about details on Sugar Ray's "Streaker Contest"!!! Someone's gonna win a 1968 Cadillac! Talk about happening! Check your local dates for the Warped Tour, featuring the likes of Quicksand, Orange 9mm, CIV, L7 and more! CIV is theee shit! Set Your Goals is 17 songs, 31 minutes of SERIOUS AGGRESSION! Lastly, Smile is on the move. "Staring At The Sun" is now on many hard rock, AOR and alternative outlets. Smile will tour with Everclear in August! Beat the surf!

Matt Clark 314.595.4478

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA 213.856.2713 Here's the story...straight outta Lawrence is a raging new Paw EP for your chest pounding pleasure. "Hope I Die Tonight" is the single and latest slap of honesty and realism from the men who brought you "Jessie." On the B-side is a tight-fisted version of Nirvana's "School." Mark your calendar for adds on July 24! Monster Magnet/C.O.C./S.T.R. "Crash Worship" tour has endured near riots, fires and splitting 20s! I can be abused in person at the Northeast leg tourdates in early August. Stay committed to "Look To Your Orb For A Warning" and drop "Ego" and "Dopes..." around your tour announcements! If you're good, a tour box will come your way. np-Post, Back In The USA, ...And The Circus Leaves Town. Find me at klaatu13@aol.com.

Will Knapp, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA

800.603.3043 Here's the deal! Play "Free Drug Zone" from Seaweed's new album, Spanaway. Soon, listeners will begin to call you. They will beg to hear "Free Drug Zone" again! So, you play it again and suddenly new listeners call in begging for more! Try it, you'll see! Add Spanaway on August 8. Those who know the power of Gwen Mars already know that "Stick B." is the shit! Add this single A.S.A.F.P.! Those who are sick and tired of the same old genera-alterna-rock are playing the hell out of Eleven! Not since Primus has there been a band that sheds new light on the possibilities of rock music. Into Another touring through August. Go see these guys before they explode. Into Another's Seemless is coming in September! Call me, I can help you!

Mistress Of The Blade, Metal Blade Records, New York, NY 212.529.6198 Okay, my obedient ones, listen up! Grip Inc. and King Diamond are what you must spin for me. "Innate Affliction" and "From The Other Side" are the tracks. Over 40,000 King Diamond records sold in a few short weeks and like the Duracell Bunny, it's still going. Support this or I WILL break your legs. Thanks to JJ at KEYJ for having King in the studio this weekend. Broken Hope is getting ready for another tour. West Coast with Suffocation and East Coast with Six Feet Under. Xtra thanks to KCPR. KUNM and WBAU for the relentless support. Have you heard Decoryah yet? Goo Goo Dolls on the road again. Killers touring the U.S. in September. X-Cops are winding up their tour and Gwar is gearing up for Rag Na Rok. It's right around the corner. Beats The Hell Out Of Me opened for X-Cops in Cali and are playing with Tad and Clutch in August. They'll be coming your way soon, so PLAY 'EM now. Hint. Coming: Six Feet Under, Masquerade, Channel Zero, Gwar, Mental Hippie Blood. Next year: Sacred Reich, Galactic Cowboys, Cannibal Corpse, Crisis, Fates Warning. On the road: Grip Inc., Goo Goo Dolls, X-Cops, Beats The Hell...and more soon, Dismissed.

Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 So, do ya think there are enough shows coming at us? Three every week for the next month. You know I love that. Well, check it out: Belladonna's full-length CD shipped and is on your desk this week. It's got the classic Anthrax sound to it. Black Sabbath has edits coming your way. Earth Crisis and Integrity are two of the best hardcore records out. Kyuss is on the move up the charts. This album has more than just great songs, it has personality. Morbid Angel's tour is near sell-out at every venue. Motorhead will be continuing their tour after the Sabbath skid. SNFU is in your face once again this week. Gel with this band for a bit. Sugar Ray's live EP...need I say more? How can you not love this band. Universal Stomp's full album, Full Swing, is in full swing. They're back! Adds this week on Bad Biscut; a great punk band? Talking about tours, Orange 9mm and Sick Of It All are at it again. The live EPs go for adds this week. We have tickets for the shows. For Love Not Lisa's three-song is on your desk. Add that as well, 'Til next week, cva

Sean McKnight, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America,

Millersville, PA 717.397.9221 I saw Katakiysm last night at the Wetlands in NYC and I must say that it was a religious experience. They're one of the best live bands in the world. If you get the chance to check them out, GO! Just ask Tom from WKNC, Matt from WBAU or The Tink (WVUD), they were there (hi, guys), they know! Kataklysm will be playing the CMJ convention, along with Deceased and a host of other monster bands, so go check these bands out! Death ... Is Just The Beginning III is crushing all those who experience it. Don't believe me? Well, it's #1 at WKNC, WXUT and WCSB, so ask them if you don't believe me. You've got 38 tracks to work with, use them all! Keep spinning Gorefest, Kataklysm and Deceased; all of these bands still deserve plenty of support, keep 'em going! Meshuggah and Mindrot should both be in rotation by now, spin both of these...often. Destroy Erase Improve should be on the lips of everyone by the time you all read this. Giveaways are available. just call...aww hell, you know that.

Jill Castellano, Victory Records, Chicago, IL 312.666.8662 CMJsters! Thanks so much for coming through with the adds! KALA with Earth Crisis at #1; WCCH Earth Crisis #1, Integrity #4; WEFT Earth Crisis #1, Integrity #4; WHAR Earth Crisis #4; WRUV Earth Crisis #4; WRFW Integrity #1, Earth Crisis #2. A special thanks also to KZAK, KTEQ, KWSB, KUNM, KWCW, WCKS, WDPS, WMFO and WUSM for reporting us in your top 15. Hugs and kisses to all of you. Saw Snapcase and Doughnuts last night at the Fireside Bowl...yes, it really is a bowling alley with a stage in the corner. Everybody stands around the lanes on the ball returns. Real cool. They're both amazing bands. When you guys are sent their releases in Sept., you'll shit! Both bands crashed here in our office last night, so as I'm writing this, there are bodies sprawled out all over the floor and we're listening to Johnny Cash! I love this job, I love this label and I love you for supporting Victory!

Eddie Williamson, Century Media Records, Santa Monica, CA 310.399.6900 Penned spew for you: Boston moshcore 454 Big Block best be on your playlist or that singer guy Elgin will wrap your head in with a ratchet! Loud, abrasive, confrontational-it's a no-brainer. Get with the program! Moonspell's Wolfheart and the Gathering's Mandylion will ship at the end of August. Two positively phenomenal albums of European atmosphere and ambience. As always, we continue to scour the globe for thee. Be looking for the new and improved Century Media mail-order catalog, which will be sent out with a promo-only, 17-song Identity ... sampler of our roster (featuring a riveting new Only Living Witness number). Send us your dough! Keep spinning Strapping Young Lad, Stuck Mojo, Iced Earth and Release. Metal PSA: Search the import bins for the latest from Paradise Lost. So long!

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce Records and Crazed Mgmt., Manalapan, NJ 908.591.1117 Thanks to all for adding Testament's Live At The Fillmore. The band is psyched and will be out on the road beginning August 11. Please look for dates and let me know if you can make any of the shows. Please also call if you are interested in doing interviews with them. The guys are available and looking forward to talking with you. TAD are on the road with Clutch...check out the show if you can!

Louis DeCarolis, Retail & Tour Promotions, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 This is what you need to make me happy. Misery Loves Co.; a strange mix of industrial, metal and alternative. Bring this in before I get upset and call.

Scorn takes you into the dark ambience of Mick Harris' world. He gets a little help from his friends Meat Beat Manifesto, Bill Laswell, Coil, P.C.M. and Germ, to name a few. Have this so your techno fans and ambient fans know "what's up." Put it in your techno and ambient sections. Extreme Noise Terror. This is real punk. This is the real thing, not the candyass crap that these whiners led you to believe. Have it. Fudge Tunnel; more punk from the guy in Nailbomb. Have this because it sells. Godflesh. What can I say? Have this 'cause you like it. Pitch Shifter. Industrial metal that rips. Show your crowd this stuff. Terrorizer. It's not new, it's a classic. Coalesce is new school hardcore that grabs you by the balls in its ferocity. Silencer is post-hardcore with an emo flavor and a splash of noise. Both are the first two parts of the Earache New Chapter. Look, have it for the collectors and the fans. Cathedral is incredible. One of the first doom-oriented Black Sabbath-inspired bands. Look for it September 26. At The Gates is just a great band. Napalm Death NEW ALBUM!! Write me EaracheRec@aol.com or call 212.343.9090

Marc Meltzer, Mausoleum Records, New York, NY 800.957.6256 All rise to congratulate Beth "Nomo Bobo" Krakower on her rise to AOR stardom! Stay in contact with Beth to help her keep sane! Marc comes shuffling on in to handle all metal duties. For those of you not lucky enough to have met me, spoken to me or seen me passed out in a corner...you will. My funky assistant, Dawn Marie, will keep the beats flowin'. Now for the good stuff: Belladonna is not just the name of the band and album, but it is the surname of a metal icon, Joey Belladonna. We've all grown up listening to Belladonna's voice and so did most of your listeners. Keep supporting the lead single, "Rob You Blind." In a short time you will receive a special interview disc sequenced for your pleasure. It also includes the songs "Perfection" and "Mixed Emotions." One last reminder: Belladonna's self-titled album is in stores now. Look for the album, Toilet Songs, coming soon. Get Marc at x233 and Dawn at x236.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 Well, the Crowbar "Time Heals Nothing" Contest is in full swing. We have already received cards from KDVS, WRBC, WELH, WXUT and WKNH. Not enough to qualify yet and by the time you read this many more should arrive. So, get started now! If you need more info, just let me know that you want to get started. Crowbar is a top 10 band, so now is the time to bulk up those spins for the upcoming tour. Remember Crowbar and Suffocation hit the road in two weeks. Malevolent Creation kick off their tour with a show in Detroit with Life Of Agony and Souls At Zero, then it's off to Metalfest. Other Pavement bands expected to show include Crawl and Internal Bleeding. I'll see you there.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, Ltd., New York, NY 800.666.6382 x1700 Went to see Kyuss, Babes, the Reverend and Zombie last week...holy fucking killer bill. Of course, the mighty Kyuss left all speechless (or was it the pot ??). Thanks for all the support on White Zombie! Don't fret-new single coming with remixes! Babes In Toyland and Filter just finishing their tours, Ugly Kid Joe (thanks to all those who did interviews) on the road with Souls At Zero. Lunachicks will be touring again come August. Doing interviews with Blitz from Overkill...call me if interested! By now, you all should have Black Sabbath. Check out the track with Ice-T on it! Motorhead is crushing on the charts. Lemmy is god! CIV is on that really cool Warped Tour with Quicksand and Orange 9mm amongst many others. Call for tix! Check out track #4 on Super Junky Monkey. Give these wild ladies a chance! Testament will be on the road doing the live thing. Earth 18 is just finishing up touring with Nitzer Ebb. You should be spinning track #2. Klover is real cool...old members of Gang Green. Young Gods-imagine KMFDM meets Monster Voodoo Machine Hoorah for the new Paw! Check out "I Hope I Die Tonight" and the B-side is a Nirvana cover of "School." Supersuckers are going for adds as you are reading this. Get it out of your alternative people's hands and throw it some spins on metal!

Heather Boswell, Trumpeter Records, Promo/Publicity Goddess, Norfolk, VA 804.455.8454 Wow! I am truly amazed and impressed! I'm incapable of the sort of insulting techniques present on these pages. Don't attack me...I mean it! I'm the biggest wimp as these things go...I don't mind insulting people, mind you, I just cry like a baby when someone retaliates. Just call me queen wussy. I mean, who else sleeps their way to the top, and is still one of the lowest-paid employees in the joint? Clearly I'm doing something wrong. (Snicker...snort.) Damn! Andrea, my college radio 'ho is vacationing in Europe for a month at the end of July. I mention this because I'll be in phone hell unless I find a temp and you'll have to deal with my boring conversation 'til then. You can avoid listening to my inane chatter and idle gossip by adding all of my bands. As a matter of fact, just spin the Sea Of Souls disc all the time. I mean, it's the greatest CD ever, right?! Egypt is on vacation in August, then they hit the Southeast for two months. The Mundahs are sticking close to home (Hilton Head Island, SC) over the summer...You can imagine why! Beaucoup bucks in a rich resort town during tourist season. They're also in Atlanta, Mississippi and Charleston, etc. You can e-mail me at trumprec@aol.com. Call me so I can amaze you with my endless soliloquy of silliness. Au revoir!

DIALOGUE

Ray and Cybele, Wallbreakers, Rainforest Records,

Portland, OR 503.682.3944 A strange thing happened when I (Ray) went back to New York in July. I was at this studio in Poughkeepsie (Ed Wood's hometown) called The Space. I was visiting my friend Jacques Cohen, who has engineered for Mercury Rev, among others. He had some band working on a new demo. Anyway, the band (who I never met or heard of before and am sorry I can't remember their name now) said they'd heard of Rainforest Records. In fact, one musician said he loved the first Affirmative Action album which happens to be our first release ever: RR001 1991. Yipee! Maybe we are not so damn obscure after all! Hey, at a label as small and underfinanced as us, you gotta take what you can get. Actually, our credibility may be rising all the time. Recent releases by Land Of The Blind (One Eye), Doris Daze (Uncle), and the Cheralee Dillon 7" have been set with great enthusiasm. Thanks to KALX, KBOO, KCAT, KCCR, KDUP, KEOL, KGHP, KLC, KNRK, KPSU,

THE BEST STATIONS NATIONWIDE HAVE RECEIVED THESE THREE BRAND NEW HOMESTEAD RECORDS.

MILKTRAIN TO PAYDIRT HMS221 CDAP

ALL BRAND NEW ALBUM! First aural evidence of their move to the lush forests of the Pacific Northwest from the avocado groves of San Diego. First time in a new studio! First time where pleasure is the only principle, as per Homestead's grotto of mottos.

WILLIAM HOOKER

ARMAGEDDON HMS223 CD

This is the brand new STUDIO recording from trap set terminator HOOKER. An all-encompassing vision elucidated with a revolving lineup of accomplices this time. Drums, turntables, saxophones, guitars, trumpet, 'electronics', drums, compositional skill.

BLUNDERBUJF - CONSPIRARY

BLUNDERBUSS

Compiracy HMS219 CD/LP

Debut full-length from Pittsburgh rock trio in a classic Homestead style. Blun-der-buss (blun'dar bus'). a a short musket of wide bore with expanded muzzle to scatter shot, bullets or slugs at close range. I< D donderbus (donder thunder + bus gun) with MLUNDER r. donder 1 KUOI, KWVA, WOPB, WCBN, WHRW and WMEB in particular. Meanwhile, many well-plugged-in people have complimented us on other adventurous releases in the past. Pleasure Center, Naked Violence, H.E.A.D., Roger Nusic, New Bad Things, Medicine Sunday and Wammo appeal to a certain audience and are still going strong. The point is, we may not have much money, but collectively, we sure as hell have talent!

Margot Edwards, Engine/Blackout Records, Somerville, MA 617.629.0766 Have you promo people heard the latest message from Jen and Kim at KBVR? It goes something like this:"We have no time or resources to take tracking calls...We are not interested in label promotions or kickbacks...We are only interested in programing independent music we find worthwhile, something we are quite capable of deciding without the help of label reps..." Hmmm. I understand college stations may not have the budget to make callbacks and I am not interested in "kickbacks" either, but if I'm going to send you free CDs, it's really not asking too much for you to let me know whether you received the music and whether you intend to play it. I won't take issue with your claim to only program independent music (leave that to the majors), but really girls, play the game or get off the field. And while I'm at it, what's with all these stations that are off-theair for the entire summer, yet still report a Top 35 every week? What exactly are they reporting? The most spins on their stereo at home? So riled up I almost forgot to mention: Shows of the week go to Barry White (the man is smooth!) and the Boredoms. Not together, silly.

Kathy "With A 'K" Harr, Homestead Records, New York, NY 212.675.0922 OK, I promised everybody satirical comments about "going for adds," but I can't seem to be witty without being much too scathing, so I'll just say this: Adds don't mean shit. There are some stations out there that don't play that game, maybe you should join. In other news, I went to Coney Island for the first time, to see Antietam and Sleepyhead rock Sideshows By The Seashore. The Cyclone is really expensive but pretty much worth it; and you can ride over and over again without getting out, if you keep paying. I'm sure it's more fun than going to panels; keep it in mind. Speaking of, everyone seems so excited about Trumans Water that some stations have overlooked Blunderbuss. Those boys are planning an East/Midwest tour to help enlighten everyone. Finally, I'd like to remind everyone that William Hooker is intended for all formats. In a world where "alternative" means less and less as the minutes pass, Armogeddon is a direction that should be explored.

ext. 219 I suppose it is curious, my habit of not spending those stupid bicentennial quarters. And as it is that I'm fairly poor, I really can't afford to not use money just because of the crazy nostalgia-oriented way I've fashioned my life. Instead, I tape the quarters up around my computer screen—right next to the British 10 pence piece I got by mistake from someone who had mistakenly given it to me thinking it was a quarter. But does it really matter? After all, I've got better things to do...Like let you all know that you'll have Mantra, the latest album from Shelter in time for adds on August 7 and 8. This is such a fuckin' great record, that I won't take "no" from any of you as far as airplay goes. Also out there for the summer is the Karma To Burn 10" EP that should be keeping up with the Lazy and Wormhole vinyl you've got. And finally, there are the sweet sounds of Blue Mountain to get you through the last of the Dog Days.

Kevin Forsythe & Kacey Baby, Radio Promotion,

A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Co., Pittsburgh, PA 412.241.0704 "Chop Shop"! "Chop Shop"! "Chop Shop"! "Chop Shop"! That's the name of the new A.T.S. song featured on the upcoming CMJ Certain Damage! disc. You should be getting it in this issue, give or take a week. "Chop Shop" is one of the smash hit singles off the brand new A.T.S., 20-song album, Axe Of Free Will (And Other Victimless Crimes), our second album on Shimmy Disc. Axe Of Free Will will arrive at your station by September 1. In the meantime, quiver to the bone-crushing sounds of "Chop Shop"!!

College Day is an intensive, day-long symposium U designed to encourage dialogue about the trials and tribulations of running a successful college radio station. Panelists from radio stations and record companies across the country will take part in candid group discussions tackling a wide variety of hot topics. This year we've done away with worn and familiar programming arguments and staff training issues to approach some of today's newer and more pertinent issues. Topics to be addressed this year include: the role of college radio in breaking records and the ever-changing cause and effect relationship that commercial, alternative and college radio have on oneanother; the benefits of technology and the advantages of being on-line; and a case study of how a radio station functions within its community. There will also be a keynote speech and several intimate, acoustic performances. It's going to be more informative and fun than ever. See you there.

AGENDA:

10:00-10:30 AM Performance

10:30-11:15 AM Panel: This Is Your Life: A College Radio Market Case Study

11:15-11:45 PM Performance

11:45-12:45 PM Who's Listening?: A Lively Discussion Of The Problems Of Low-Wattage Stations.

12:45-1:15 PM Performance

1:30-2:00 PM Performance

2:00-2:45 PM Panel: The Blind Leading The Blind: Commercial Alternative and College Radio--Who's Guiding The Way?

2:45-3:15 PM Performance

3:15-4:00 PM Panel: Are You Caught In The Web?: The Importance Of Technology At College Radio Stations

4:00-4:30 PM Performance (Subject to change)

Rosie Estrada, World Domination, Los Angeles, CA

213.850,0254 Lizard Music is very cool...Fashionably Lame (their first full-length) should be heard by all. Don't wait any longer and call our headquarters for interviews, money and free stuff. Everett, Craig, Kevin and myself are waiting to hear from you!! And for all you Stanford Prison Experiment fans, their second full length CD, The Gato Hunch will be in your hands in August. (YES...it's the s—!!) Until next time, keep spinning lp title by Latimer, because it's the tasteful thing to do.

Harvey, Capricorn Records, New York, NY 800,865.4939 A big thank you to all who aren't playing the new 311 record...We're experimenting with reverse psychology. Next week's lesson is attention deficit disorder and its effect on college radio programmers.

Mike, Lisa & Ko, Asylum Marketing, Los Angeles, CA

213.933.8133 Black holes, vortexes, flat tires-it's been busy within the rubber walls of Asylum, but that's no excuse for being incommunicado. Bjork, that Icelandic beauty, is back with her new LP, Post. Get your best concert rags on, she'll be bringing her rambunctiousness to you very soon. Charge up your Love Battery and watch where you Green Apple Quick Step, 'cause both bands are on tour! Charlie Sexton and his Sextet are shakin', remember "Beat So Lonely, I Bet It's Lonely At The Top"? Hopefully, Charlie will find out this time...We are still recouping from the week-long sleepover with Rusty-an excellent band from Toronto. Singer Ken had us wetting our pajamas. Just in case you've been lethargic, Bracket's 4-Wheel Vibe is rolling hard and fast, so bust out your old Tony Hawk board and drop in! Cold Water Flat cancelled due to illness and it looked like Juliana H. was on her own 'til Love Battery packed up and replaced the Flats. More bands we're drooling over: Enormous, a far-out, up 'n' coming band on the very cool, new indie label E Pluribus Unum: Prediction -they will be h-u-g-e. Chris

Whitley's back with even a more aggressive guitar virtuoso style, so take notice of this singer/songwriter; B.A.D.—these PUNX keep the cool sounds comin'—listen up! Before we go, we'll let you in on a secret, start "Tripping Daisy." [CM] New Music Report suggests that if you must pull out a skateboard, try a Ken Park model instead. He may have only been ranked 5th in the world, but he's our Director of Marketing, and Tony Hawk isn't. —ed.]

Billy Mills, Mammoth Records, Carrboro, NC

919.932.1882 Hi, I have swimmer's ear. How are you? Millions of adults and children in the United States and around the world know that Banco De Gaia is the most powerful force in the universe! I stole that from a Hulk Hogan promotion thing, like it? There's no doubt that Hogan's pretty tough, huh? Anyway, you should have a record from Banco now. It's the second release from the Mammoth/Planet Dog partnership. Real cool ambient stuff with a ton of organic influences. Toby Marks (Banco's one and only member) spends most of his time traveling the globe to come up with these worldly loops. Sit back and let him take you on a ride...No excuses, everybody should have the Up & Down Club Sessions by now. You know, it's the two-CD set documenting what's happening at the San Francisco jazz club. In the fall, look out for these and other exciting Mammoth releases, the second Rare On Air compilation, and Machines of Loving Grace...Bye-bye.

Patrick Skvoretz, Thermometer Sound Surface,

Chicago, IL 800.326.3472 After four days of suffering in 100degree heat, no air flow, and heavy humidity, it feels nice to be back in our luxurious air conditioning. Thermometer is turning up the heat with two brand-new recordings, our final releases of the summer. The Gandharvas and the Morganfields are a part of the "new London underground" of London, Ontario, Canada. Bands north of our border have been making quite a splash as of late, and these two factions stand to continue that momentum (they are on MCA up north). The Gandharvas are indescribable, with a sound that ranges from shoegazer to jazz to pop rock to ethnic, and features the tune "First Day Of Spring," which received heavy airplay throughout Canada. The Morganfields bring to mind perhaps a harder and faster Minneapolis sound; maximum capacity of guitar-driven rock. Fax us at 708.545.9598. Let me hear ya!

John Bauccio, Radio Promotions Director, Tim Kerr Records, Portland, OR 503.236.1077 Hey, notice the new number...use it! OK, here's the scoop: Tim Kerr Records is having an unbelievable summer. (I'll try to do this as chronologically as possible.) The Dandy Warhols are still hot and getting hotter by the minute. They have a video that was chosen for MTV's 120 Minutes. If you saw it on July 9, you rule (if you didn't, I guess you're OK, too), and they are actually getting spins on some commercial alternative stations. The first official add is at KTOZ in Missouri-Thanks a million! Next hit band: Super Deluxewait till you hear it, they party. Next is Torcher, then Caveman Hughscore (with the famous Hugh Hopper as a guest star), and we will be topping it all off with the new one from Pere Ubuyes, that's right, Pere Ubu. Most people either know they're supposed to know who the band is, but don't; or the band changes their life. This is one of those records that Pere Ubu fans have been waiting to hear for years. If you are new to the band, this will give you a chance to experience them at their best. If you haven't seen it yet, call me. With the Dialogue lag time, it should be on your desk. Call me with your news.

Eric Wong, College Rep, EMI Records, New York, NY 212.492.5059 Hey!! Is everyone having a hot and sticky summer? Hope everyone is chillin' at Lollapalooza catching Sinead O'Connor doin' her time. Check out her current video and single, "Thank You For Hearing Me." So, is everyone jammin' the new Guru Jazzmatazz II release which features Chaka Khan on "Watch What You Say"? If you haven't heard it, get with it! Also, you should all be checkin' out the Dwellers' debut release, What Ever Makes Yau Happy, and what would really make me happy is if you all give their first single, "Rocket Ride," some spins. In addition, watch out for Dream Warriors to start touring in support of their Subliminal Simulation release. Also, check out the new Tea Party release, The Edges of Twilight. Lastly, let's not forget that Queensryche is still kicking ass on their tour. Thanks to all at retail and radio for stocking and playing our releases, and hey! You can call me anytime on my hello happy line. C-ya!!

Lori O'Brien, Island Records, New York, NY

212.603.3917 Don't miss the opportunity to see Kids, the movie controversy of your lifetime. If it isn't playing in your town, then plan a roadtrip, followed by four or five hours of booze therapy. Also plan on spending a lot of time with the London Records soundtrack. It features new stuff from Lou Barlow and Daniel Johnston, as well as Beastie Boys and John Coltrane cuts. Other stuff you should lend an ear to...the domestic Tindersticks release (should tour this fall), the new Gavin Friday (à la midnight cabaret), Jude Cole (a Triple AAA fave), Grotus (eccentric stuff from the Bay area) and the latest Axiom release Funkcronomicon (Bill Laswell = God, does he not?). PJ Harvey hits the road this August with Live and will follow up with another club tour. Those bastard children from Dallas-Tripping Daisy and Hagfish-will also be on the road throughout the summer. Be sure to catch the Drugstore headlining dates and Die Cheerleader opening for Filter!...Looking forward to Cop Shoot Cop with Barkmarket in NYC. (I changed my mind, Tod A.=God.)

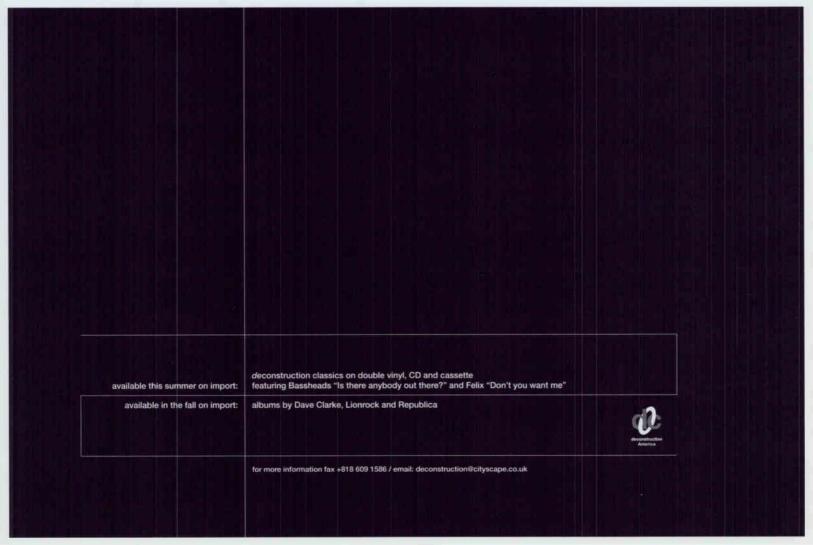

Kevin Brelsford, SubZero Promotions, Austin, TX 512.444.2202 We've moved!! We've moved!! Attention all Earth people: SubZero has crashed landed in "The Live Music Capital of the World"—Austin, TX. Yes, we've made the long journey from the tobacco fields of North Carolina to the rolling hills of Austin. Whip out the white-out and update all those there rolodex/databases with new SubZero info: P.O. Box 684586, Austin, TX 78768. Phone/fax 512.444.2202. And reach us through wonderful cyberspace at subZerokev@aol.com. Thanks to the NC scene for all the great records that kept me sane: Archers of Loaf, Spatula, PLB, Family Dollar Pharaohs, Superchunk, Portastatic, Sticky, Tinsel, Jennyanykind, Picasso Trigger, Capsize 7, Squirrel Nut Zippers, Pipe, Southern Culture On The Skids to name only a very few. Drop us a line in Austin and if you haven't heard it already, check out the new one from Pandora's Lunchbox—it's incredibly diverse, moody, intelligent and intense....If you think of a band that you'd compare them to, let me know. I'm at a loss.

Mike "Sparky" Mullarkey, Music Director, WUTZ, Tampa, FL 813.253.3333 ext. 3750 Maybe it's because of the St. Petersburg court's decision to ignore that handy-dandy document known as the Constitution and charge underground cartoonist Mike Dana with obscenity, or Hillsborough County on the Tampa side of the Bay's repeal of the so-called "special" human rights ordinance that simply made discrimination against homosexuals a no-no. But bands don't refuse to go to Atlanta even though that spawn of Satan Newt Gingrich is from those parts, so I really don't think anti-fascism is the motive behind so many bands ignoring Florida. You'd think bands would want to come here in the winter to escape the cold, and even in the summer Florida is no hotter than anywhere else in the South. We're not all old folks and good old boys in the Fallic State. Just ask the Queers or NOFX, they've seen the mighty crowds that good bands can draw in Tampa. And we're chock full of swell home-grown kids. Home, Slap of Reality and Pee Shy are all major label graduates, and Chester, Scrog, Stitch, Pink Lincolns, Pohgoh, Clairmel, Psychles, Tomorrow, Edison Shine, Assück, Baskervilles, American Underworld, Slinky and oh-so-many more are ready to take over the world. There's no Tampa sound; pop, hardcore, and everything in-between and out beyond are lapped up. So get your lame asses down here. Anyway, thanks to all the swell labels who've added us to their mailing lists over the past year. I ain't no name dropper, you know who you is.

Chris Studebaker, Music Director, WKDI, Dekalb, IL 815.753.1278 WKDI is on-the-air for the summer, so all of you crazy record people who haven't called me yet, I'm here every Tuesday and Sunday! Thank you to Kim X at Cop (See you in New York), Jason at Van Richter for his patience, Ric at RAS DVA for the interview of a lifetime, Everett (Head Slug?), and, most of all, the crazy kids at Lookout!, Dischord, Taang! and Flipside. For all you fellow industrial nuts out there, check out the new Cop Chaos compilation. It is one of the best out there. A special 'hey there' goes out to Jeremy at KTEQ in Rapid City! What happened to that list?

Andy "D-Man" DiGiovanni, Music Director, KNOM, Nome, AK 907.442.5221 A couple of things I need to inform you folks of...I'm out of town August 15 till September 6...And also, KNOM is pleased as punch (had to use that expression due to the enjoyment I have had lately with the Dialogue section) to welcome back Rick Schmidt to the staff. Rick worked here in the early '80s and is returning from Portland, OR, to be KNOM's new program director. Music-wise, Mae Monroe, David Lewis and Kurt Elling, just to name a small bunch, are all favorites here. This is the least summer-like summer I've ever had, but those 100-degree temps back in the Lower 48 do not seem as appealing as they should! Please hold your calls till September I I. Thanks and peace!

LOUD ROCK DFALOGUE

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 The NJ Queensryche show was absolutely brilliant! This is a band who will blow through all trends and fashions and continue to do their own thing successfully. "10 Seconds Down" is the chunky new track from Sugar Ray. Yes, the song is about Mark's sexual prowess! Ask him about it when you check out Sugar Ray on the road with Toadies. Ask ME about details on Sugar Ray is "Streaker Contest"!!! Someone's gonna win a 1968 Cadillac! Talk about happening! Check your local dates for the Warped Tour, featuring the likes of Quicksand, Orange 9mm, CIV, L7 and more! CIV is theee shit! Set Your Goals is 17 songs, 31 minutes of SERIOUS AGGRESSION! Lastly, Smile is on the move. "Staring At The Sun" is now on many hard rock, AOR and alternative outlets. Smile will tour with Everclear in August! Beat the surf!

Joy Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA 213.856.2713 Here's the story...straight outta Lawrence is a raging new Paw EP

Here's the story...straight outta Lawrence is a raging new Paw EP for your chest pounding pleasure. "Hope I Die Tonight" is the single and latest slap of honesty and realism from the men who brought you "Jessie." On the B-side is a tight-fisted version of Nirvana's "School." Mark your calendar for adds on July 24! Monster Magnet/C.O.C./S.T.R. "Crash Worship" tour has endured near riots, fires and splitting 20s! I can be abused in person at the Northeast leg tourdates in early August. Stay committed to "Look To Your Orb For A Warning" and drop "Ego" and "Dopes..." around your tour announcements! If you're good, a tour box will come your way. np-Post, Back In The USA, ...And The Circus Leaves Town. Find me at klaatu13@aol.com.

Will Knapp, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA

800.603.3043 Here's the deal! Play "Free Drug Zone" from Seaweed's new album, Spanaway. Soon, listeners will begin to call you. They will beg to hear "Free Drug Zone" again! So, you play it again and suddenly new listeners call in begging for more! Try it, you'll see! Add Spanaway on August 8. Those who know the power of Gwen Mars already know that "Stick B." is the shit! Add this single A.S.A.F.P.! Those who are sick and tired of the same old genera-alterna-rock are playing the hell out of Eleven! Not since Primus has there been a band that sheds new light on the possibilities of rock music. Into Another touring through August. Go see these guys before they explode. Into Another's Seemless is coming in September! Call me, I can help you!

Mistress Of The Blade, Metal Blade Records, New York, NY 212.529.6198 Okay, my obedient ones, listen up! Grip Inc. and King Diamond are what you must spin for me. "Innate Affliction" and "From The Other Side" are the tracks. Over 40,000 King Diamond records sold in a few short weeks and like the Duracell Bunny, it's still going. Support this or I WILL break your legs. Thanks to j] at KEY] for having King in the studio this weekend. Broken Hope is getting ready for another tour. West Coast with Suffocation and East Coast with Six Feet Under. Xtra thanks to KCPR, KUNM and WBAU for the relentless support. Have you heard Decoryah yet? Goo Goo Dolls on the road again. Killers touring the U.S. in September. X-Cops are winding up their tour and Gwar is gearing up for Rog Na Rok. It's right around the corner. Beats The Hell Out Of Me opened for X-Cops in Cali and are playing with Tad and Clutch in August. They'll be coming your way soon, so PLAY 'EM now. Hint. Coming: Six Feet Under, Masquerade, Channel Zero, Gwar, Mental Hippie Blood. Next year: Sacred Reich, Galactic Cowboys, Cannibal Corpse, Crisis, Fates Warning. On the road: Grip Inc., Goo Goo Dolls, X-Cops, Beats The Hell...and more soon, Dismissed, Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 So, do ya think there are enough shows coming at us? Three every week for the next month. You know I love that. Well, check it out: Belladonna's full-length CD shipped and is on your desk this week. It's got the classic Anthrax sound to it. Black Sabbath has edits coming your way. Earth Crisis and Integrity are two of the best hardcore records out. Kyuss is on the move up the charts. This album has more than just great songs, it has personality. Morbid Angel's tour is near sell-out at every venue. Motorhead will be continuing their tour after the Sabbath skid. SNFU is in your face once again this week. Gel with this band for a bit. Sugar Ray's live EP...need I say more? How can you not love this band. Universal Stomp's full album, Full Swing, is in full swing. They're back! Adds this week on Bad Biscut; a great punk band? Talking about tours, Orange 9mm and Sick Of It All are at it again. The live EPs go for adds this week. We have tickets for the shows. For Love Not Lisa's three-song is on your desk. Add that as well. 'Til next week, cya.

Sean McKnight, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America,

Millersville, PA 717.397.9221 I saw Kataklysm last night at the Wetlands in NYC and I must say that it was a religious experience. They're one of the best live bands in the world. If you get the chance to check them out, GO! Just ask Tom from WKNC, Matt from WBAU or The Tink (WVUD), they were there (hi, guys), they know! Kataklysm will be playing the CMJ convention, along with Deceased and a host of other monster bands, so go check these bands out! Death ... Is Just The Beginning III is crushing all those who experience it. Don't believe me? Well, it's #1 at WKNC, WXUT and WCSB, so ask them if you don't believe me. You've got 38 tracks to work with, use them all! Keep spinning Gorefest, Kataklysm and Deceased; all of these bands still deserve plenty of support, keep 'em going! Meshuggah and Mindrot should both be in rotation by now, spin both of these...often. Destroy Erase Improve should be on the lips of everyone by the time you all read this. Giveaways are available, just call...aww hell, you know that.

Jill Castellano, Victory Records, Chicago, IL

312.666.8662 CMJsters! Thanks so much for coming through with the adds! KALA with Earth Crisis at #1; WCCH Earth Crisis #1, Integrity #4; WEFT Earth Crisis #1, Integrity #4; WHAR Earth Crisis #4; WRUV Earth Crisis #4; WRFW Integrity #1, Earth Crisis #2. A special thanks also to KZAK, KTEQ, KWSB, KUNM, KWCW, WCKS, WDPS, WMFO and WUSM for reporting us in your top 15. Hugs and kisses to all of you. Saw Snapcase and Doughnuts last night at the Fireside Bowl...yes, it really is a bowling alley with a stage in the corner. Everybody stands around the lanes on the ball returns. Real cool. They're both amazing bands. When you guys are sent their releases in Sept., you'll shit! Both bands crashed here in our office last night, so as I'm writing this, there are bodies sprawled out all over the floor and we're listening to Johnny Cash! I love this job, I love this label and I love you for supporting Victory!

Eddie Williamson, Century Media Records, Santa Monica, CA 310.399.6900 Penned spew for you: Boston moshcore 454 Big Block best be on your playlist or that singer guy Elgin will wrap your head in with a ratchet! Loud, abrasive, confrontational—it's a no-brainer. Get with the program! Moonspell's Wolfheart and the Gathering's Mandylion will ship at the end of August. Two positively phenomenal albums of European atmosphere and ambience. As always, we continue to scour the globe for thee. Be looking for the new and improved Century Media mail-order catalog, which will be sent out with a promo-only, 17-song Identity... sampler of our roster (featuring a riveting new Only Living Witness number). Send us your dough! Keep spinning Strapping Young Lad, Stuck Mojo, Iced Earth and Release. Metal PSA: Search the import bins for the latest from Paradise Lost, So long!

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce Records and Crazed Mgmt., Manalapan, NJ 908.591.1117 Thanks to all for adding

Testament's Live At The Fillmore. The band is psyched and will be out on the road beginning August 11. Please look for dates and let me know if you can make any of the shows. Please also call if you are interested in doing interviews with them. The guys are available and looking forward to talking with you. TAD are on the road with Clutch...check out the show if you can!

Louis DeCarolis, Retail & Tour Promotions, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 This is what you need to make me happy. Misery Loves Co.; a strange mix of industrial, metal and alternative. Bring this in before I get upset and call. Scorn takes you into the dark ambience of Mick Harris' world. He gets a little help from his friends Meat Beat Manifesto, Bill Laswell, Coil, P.C.M. and Germ, to name a few. Have this so your techno fans and ambient fans know "what's up." Put it in your techno and ambient sections. Extreme Noise Terror. This is real punk. This is the real thing, not the candyass crap that these whiners led you to believe. Have it. Fudge Tunnel; more punk from the guy in Nailbomb. Have this because it sells. Godflesh. What can I say? Have this 'cause you like it. Pitch Shifter. Industrial metal that rips. Show your crowd this stuff. Terrorizer. It's not new, it's a classic. Coalesce is new school hardcore that grabs you by the balls in its ferocity. Silencer is post-hardcore with an emo flavor and a splash of noise. Both are the first two parts of the Earache New Chapter, Look, have it for the collectors and the fans. Cathedral is incredible. One of the first doom-oriented Black Sabbath-inspired bands. Look for it September 26. At The Gates is just a great band. Napalm Death NEW ALBUM!! Write me EaracheRec@aol.com or call 212.343.9090.

Marc Meltzer, Mausoleum Records, New York, NY 800.957.6256 All rise to congratulate Beth "Nomo Bobo" Krakower on her rise to AOR stardom! Stay in contact with Beth to help her keep sane! Marc comes shuffling on in to handle all metal duties. For those of you not lucky enough to have met me, spoken to me or seen me passed out in a corner...you will. My funky assistant, Dawn Marie, will keep the beats flowin'. Now for the good stuff: Belladonna is not just the name of the band and album, but it is the surname of a metal icon, Joey Belladonna. We've all grown up listening to Belladonna's voice and so did most of your listeners. Keep supporting the lead single, "Rob You Blind," In a short time you will receive a special interview disc sequenced for your pleasure. It also includes the songs "Perfection" and "Mixed Emotions," One last reminder: Belladonna's self-titled album is in stores now. Look for the album, Toilet Songs, coming soon. Get Marc at x233 and Dawn at x236.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 Well, the Crowbar "Time Heals Nothing" Contest is in full swing. We have already received cards from KDVS, WRBC, WELH, WXUT and WKNH. Not enough to qualify yet and by the time you read this many more should arrive. So, get started now! If you need more info, just let me know that you want to get started. Crowbar is a top 10 band, so now is the time to bulk up those spins for the upcoming tour. Remember Crowbar and Suffocation hit the road in two weeks. Malevolent Creation kick off their tour with a show in Detroit with Life Of Agony and Souls At Zero, then it's off to Metalfest. Other Pavement bands expected to show include Crawl and Internal Bleeding, I'll see you there.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, Ltd., New York, NY 800.666.6382 x1700 Went to see Kyuss, Babes, the Reverend and Zombie last week...holy fucking killer bill. Of course, the mighty Kyuss left all speechless (or was it the pot ?). Thanks for all the support on White Zombie! Don't fret-new single coming with remixes! Babes In Toyland and Filter just finishing their tours, Ugly Kid Joe (thanks to all those who did interviews) on the road with Souls At Zero, Lunachicks will be touring again come August. Doing interviews with Blitz from Overkill...call me if interested! By now, you all should have Black Sabbath. Check out the track with Ice-T on it! Motorhead is crushing on the charts. Lemmy is god! CIV is on that really cool Warped Tour with Quicksand and Orange 9mm amongst many others. Call for tix! Check out track #4 on Super Junky Monkey. Give these wild ladies a chance! Testament will be on the road doing the live thing. Earth 18 is just finishing up touring with Nitzer Ebb. You should be spinning track #2. Klover is real cool...old members of Gang Green. Young Gods-imagine KMFDM meets Monster Voodoo Machine. Hoorah for the new Paw! Check out "I Hope I Die Tonight" and the B-side is a Nirvana cover of "School." Supersuckers are going for adds as you are reading this. Get it out of your alternative people's hands and throw it some spins on metal!

DAVID YOW ARRESTED IN CINCINNATI

After a long career of dropping his pants during the Jesus Lizard's live sets, David Yow was arrested for indecent exposure for the first time after the band's set on the Cincinnati date of Lollapalooza. The Hamilton County Sheriff arrested Yow on order of a member of the DA's office who was in attendance, detaining him for six hours before releasing him on bond with a pre-trial hearing set at the end of August. The penalty for Yow's offense, a fourth degree misdemeanor, is higher for frontal nudity, and could be as much as 30 days in jail. Touch And Go publicist Scott Giampino was quoted as saying, "We here at Touch And Go feel that perhaps David Yow should get a belt." The Jesus Lizard recently signed to Capitol.

BAND MEMBER INJURY FORCES VERUCA SALT OFF THE ROAD

Veruca Salt guitarist/vocalist Louise Post has sustained a neck injury, forcing the band to pull out of the first few weeks of its upcoming tour with Live and to cancel a recent appearance on The Late Show With David Letterman. Post is suffering from a ruptured disc between her sixth and seventh vertebrae, and is currently considering her options (surgery, physical therapy, etc.). Taking the band's place in the opening slot on the tour are Catherine Wheel and Big Audio Dynamite, who will be on the bill until at least August 5. Also on the tour is Buffalo Tom, through August 8, and PJ Harvey, from August 9 on.

RECORD NEWS

In one of the strangest artist pairings of this or any other year, Epic has released a split single by Pearl Jam and the Frogs. "Immortality" is from Pearl lam's Vitalogy (though, as with the other singles from the same record, the label lists the album's title as Life). Its B-side is the Frogs' perfectly straightforward cover of Vedder & Co.'s "Rearviewmirror." The single is available on cassette, CD and 7" vinyl...On September 12, Virgin Records will release Means To An End, a tribute record to Joy Division, featuring covers of the band's songs by Girls Against Boys, Honeymoon Stitch, Moby, Low, Codeine, Further, Stanton Miranda, Starchildren, Kendra Smith, Versus, Desert Storm, GodheadSilo, Face To Face and Tortoise ... Merge Records has released Downed, a CD collection of Butterglory's singles for Merge and Little Brother Records...The soundtrack to the movie Angus features a dozen previously unreleased tracks by alternative artists, most notably Green Day, contributing the song "J.A.R.," the band's first new release since Dookie. Also featured on the soundtrack are the Muffs, Ash, the Goo Goo Dolls, Love Spit Love, Tilt, the Smoking Popes, Dance Hall Crashers, the Riverdales, Weezer and Pansy Division ... Also in soundtrack news is the soundtrack to Virtuosity on Radioactive Records, featuring tracks from Live, the Worldbeaters & Peter Gabriel, Tricky, Dig, Black Grape, Lords

Of Acid, Traci Lords, the Londonbeat, the Heads feat. Debbie Harry, Fatima Mansions and others...The Halo Benders will have a new album out on K on September 12. The band also has an import single on Fire (UK) for the song "Don't Touch My Bikini," which features the band covering the Smiths' "Please, Please, Please Let Me Get What I Want."...August 14 will see the first album in almost three years from Cleveland's Pere Ubu. Ray Gun Suitcase will be released by Tim/Kerr...24 Hr. Service Station will be releasing a series of two-CD tribute records, the first paying homage to the Smiths, with later discs honoring The Cure, Depeche Mode, R.E.M., U2, Bauhaus, Duran Duran, The Clash and Pixies. Artists interested in contributing to any of these future discs should contact Marshall Dickson at 813.978.1089...Rhino is releasing the final installments in its Didn't It Blow Your Mind !: Soul Hits Of The '70s series, with Volumes 16-20 slated for release on August 15.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Interscope is looking for students to fill college rep positions in cities across the country. Applicants must be able to work for college credit, and should fax their resume and any other relevant info to 310.208.2427, attn: Interscope Field Marketing... Los Angeles-based Motormouthmedia is looking for interns. If interested, please contact Suzanne Greenstein at 213.856.9021 or motrmouth2@aol.com... Relapse/Nuclear Blast America is looking to fill two positions: a production manager/tour coordinator who would be responsible for manufacturing and tour promotions, and a mail-order person. The label would also like to fill intern positions come August. Call Sean McKnight at 717.397.9221 for more details.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

CMJ Futures grad the Upper Crust has signed to Upstart Records. Expect the band's album, Let Them Eat Rock, to be released in September...The video for Primus' "Wynona's Big Brown Beaver," featuring the band as cartoon caricatures of themselves courtesy of the same special effects team responsible for the characters in Duracell ads, will be shown in theaters in 16 markets across the country before the recently released movie Clueless.

The Last Word: Edwyn Collins

Edward Collins, ex-lead singer and Tomin songwriter for the late '70s early '80s Scottish band Orange Juice, has been quietly plugging away at his solo career ever since the band disbanded in 1985. Although he released his first solo record in 1989. it's not been until his third, Gorgeous George (Bur/None), that he's achieved more than nominal success. The single from that

Girl Like

You." has gone top five in several countries on the basis of that success he's been touring nonstop. traveling to Australia and much of Europe, and plans on m a k i n g another trip to the U.S. in the fall. Gorgeous George is chock full of Collins pop melodies and bis distinctive actave dropping voice. As with his work with Orange Juice, his beautiful melodies are pitted against rough instrumentation. Like a lot of early new wave artists. Collins eschews musical perfection and harbors a somewhat jaded view on love and rock 'n' roll, two topies which are covered thoroughly on his latest record. "A Girl Like You" takes a selfmocking view of himself in lave You've made me acknowledge the devil in me/Hope to God I'm talkin' metaphorically." The song itself has a deceptively simple eatchy hook. making it clear that he's not just making hun of himself.

Thi quite surprised, but delighted," he says of his recent success." To be honest. I've been realistic in the past about my potential]. Orange Juice was fairly isolationist—our drummer never even had a U.K. passport, he was actually from Zimbabwe when it was Rhodesia. It wasn't until '89 when 1 started working on my solo career that I started thinking internationally I moved from Demon Records to Setanta, a very small leish label. It was really our intention to achieve international licenses throughout the world really but this record, which for the first time in my career- even when I was with a major record company - this record will have an international release in every single country by July, and that's really important to me, and it's been an international phenomenon. particularly with the success of the single 'A Girl Like You.' So it's really gratilying.

Prior to Gorgeous George's release, most finds knew Collins primarily through hix work with Orange Juice: most will be pleased to hear that when he tours in America, he will be performing some OJ tunes, as he did when he played two US, dates acoustically earlier this year. "The versions we do of Orange Juice tunes are as good, if not better, and they're also fairly authentic. We don't try and fuch with the arrangements that much."

Collins started playing in bands in high school, but it wasn't until Orange Juice came along that he got serious about his music: "I was very, very serious about it, but on the other hand. I thought it would only last a couple of years at most. We were inspired by the punk movement here 'round about '77, we'd been in schoolboy punk roch groups and we were aware that we couldn't just do some sort of Identikit Sex Fistols or Ramones type thinking. By the time we were serious about Orange Juice. [in] '79, '80, we already had the kind of Identikit Sid Vicious stereotype, and we were aware that to be taken seriously. particularly coming from Scotland, we had to do something else and have a shift in emphasis, and I suppose we concentrated more on includies...we opted for a more melodie '60s-influenced sound, and we were also influenced by Nile Rodgers and disco. I didn't actually enjoy being in Orange Juice too much. there was a lot of conflict really, and it was very elaastrophobie at times. particularly when we were touring. So I vowed that when I went solo that I would really only work with musicians that I regarded who were my friends, first and foremost.

As with his earlier work. Collins still writes some "unrequited love songs." but Gorgeous George gave him an opportunity to try to change his songwriting image: "Well, as you prohably know, a lot of people think all the Orange Juice albums and my solo albums are filled up with unrequited love songs, and 1 kind of wanted to move away from that area, lyrically. Maybe a third of the songs on the Supple a third of the songs on the Gorgeous George LP are maybe love songs, and I suppose the other songs, particularly the title track, and the opening track ["The Compaign For Real Roch"], are kinda broad, almost satirical maybe." CONSTA:

The songs on Gorgeous George. particularly the two he eites are filled with the same sly wit that touches his love songs. He's gratified that people are recognizing his sense of humor eather than thinking he's just a cynical old bustard: "A lot of people think it's very cynical or even bleak, but I think there's a lot of black humor in the record." Collins notes that it's getting easier for him to write songs the more he does it. He recalls, "With Orange Jujee L.Ps. I wrote almost exclusively on guitars, but I can play some crude keyboards, and I played keyboards on Gorgeous George. And oceasionally to give myself a kick up the bottom. I'll write on keyboards, but I don't have any set way of writing really...l often find myself coming up with ideas while I'm walking along the street. and I think once you get into the chythm of your stride that can often inspire you about certain types of songs...l soppose I'm a singer/ songwriter, but not in the Jackson Browne sense," MEGAN MeLAUGHLIN
